

BBE arranged in first century order

By Gary D. Rose

- 1 At the first God made the heaven and the earth.
- 2 And the earth was waste and without form; and it was dark on the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God was moving on the face of the waters.
- 3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
- 4 And God, looking on the light, saw that it was good: and God made a division between the light and the dark,
- 5 Naming the light, Day, and the dark, Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.
- 6 And God said, Let there be a solid arch stretching over the waters, parting the waters from the waters.
- 7 And God made the arch for a division between the waters which were under the arch and those which were over it: and it was so.
- 8 And God gave the arch the name of Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.
- 9 And God said, Let the waters under the heaven come together in one place, and let the dry land be seen: and it was so.
- 10 And God gave the dry land the name of Earth; and the waters together in their place were named Seas: and God saw that it was good.
- 11 And God said, Let grass come up on the earth, and plants producing seed, and fruit-trees giving fruit, in which is their seed, after their sort: and it was so.
- 12 And grass came up on the earth, and every plant producing seed of its sort, and every tree producing fruit, in which is its seed, of its sort: and God saw that it was good.
- 13 And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.
- 14 And God said, Let there be lights in the arch of heaven, for a division between the day and the night, and let them be for signs, and for marking the changes of the year, and for days and for years:
- 15 And let them be for lights in the arch of heaven to give light on the earth: and it was so.
- 16 And God made the two great lights: the greater light to be the ruler of the day, and the smaller light to be the ruler of the night: and he made the stars.
- 17 And God put them in the arch of heaven, to give light on the earth;
- 18 To have rule over the day and the night, and for a division between the light and the dark: and God saw that it was good.
- 19 And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.
- 20 And God said, Let the waters be full of living things, and let birds be in flight over the earth under the arch of heaven.
- 21 And God made great sea-beasts, and every sort of living and moving thing with which the waters were full, and every sort of winged bird: and God saw that it was good.
- 22 And God gave them his blessing, saying, Be fertile and have increase, making all the waters of the seas full, and let the birds be increased in the earth.
- 23 And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.
- 24 And God said, Let the earth give birth to all sorts of living things, cattle and all things moving on the earth, and beasts of the earth after their sort: and it was so.
- 25 And God made the beast of the earth after its sort, and the cattle after their sort, and everything moving on the face of the earth after its sort: and God saw that it was good.
- 26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, like us: and let him have rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over the cattle and over all the earth and over every living thing which goes flat on the earth.
- 27 And God made man in his image, in the image of God he made him: male and female he made them.
- 28 And God gave them his blessing and said to them, Be fertile and have increase, and make the earth full and be masters of it; be rulers over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing moving on the earth.
- 29 And God said, See, I have given you every plant producing seed, on the face of all the earth, and every tree which has fruit producing seed: they will be for your food:
- 30 And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the air and every living thing moving on the face of the earth I have given every green plant for food: and it was so.

- 31 And God saw everything which he had made and it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.
- 1 And the heaven and the earth and all things in them were complete.
- 2 And on the seventh day God came to the end of all his work; and on the seventh day he took his rest from all the work which he had done.
- 3 And God gave his blessing to the seventh day and made it holy: because on that day he took his rest from all the work which he had made and done.
- 4 These are the generations of the heaven and the earth when they were made.
- 5 In the day when the Lord God made earth and heaven there were no plants of the field on the earth, and no grass had come up: for the Lord God had not sent rain on the earth and there was no man to do work on the land.
- 6 But a mist went up from the earth, watering all the face of the land.
- 7 And the Lord God made man from the dust of the earth, breathing into him the breath of life: and man became a living soul.
- 8 And the Lord God made a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had made.
- 9 And out of the earth the Lord made every tree to come, delighting the eye and good for food; and in the middle of the garden, the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
- 10 And a river went out of Eden giving water to the garden; and from there it was parted and became four streams.
- 11 The name of the first is Pishon, which goes round about all the land of Havilah where there is gold.
- 12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.
- 13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: this river goes round all the land of Cush.
- 14 And the name of the third river is Tigris, which goes to the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.
- 15 And the Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to do work in it and take care of it.
- 16 And the Lord God gave the man orders, saying, You may freely take of the fruit of every tree of the garden:
- 17 But of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you may not take; for on the day when you take of it, death will certainly come to you.
- 18 And the Lord God said, It is not good for the man to be by himself: I will make one like himself as a help to him
- 19 And from the earth the Lord God made every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and took them to the man to see what names he would give them: and whatever name he gave to any living thing, that was its name.
- 20 And the man gave names to all cattle and to the birds of the air and to every beast of the field; but Adam had no one like himself as a help.
- 21 And the Lord God sent a deep sleep on the man, and took one of the bones from his side while he was sleeping, joining up the flesh again in its place:
- 22 And the bone which the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman, and took her to the man.
- 23 And the man said, This is now bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh: let her name be Woman because she was taken out of Man.
- 24 For this cause will a man go away from his father and his mother and be joined to his wife; and they will be one flesh.
- 25 And the man and his wife were without clothing, and they had no sense of shame.
- 1 Now the snake was wiser than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said to the woman, Has God truly said that you may not take of the fruit of any tree in the garden?
- 2 And the woman said, We may take of the fruit of the trees in the garden:
- 3 But of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God has said, If you take of it or put your hands on it, death will come to you.
- 4 And the snake said, Death will not certainly come to you:
- 5 For God sees that on the day when you take of its fruit, your eyes will be open, and you will be as gods, having knowledge of good and evil.
- 6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and a delight to the eyes, and to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit, and gave it to her husband.
- 7 And their eyes were open and they were conscious that they had no clothing and they made themselves coats of leaves stitched together.

- 8 And there came to them the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the evening wind: and the man and his wife went to a secret place among the trees of the garden, away from the eyes of the Lord God.
- 9 And the voice of the Lord God came to the man, saying, Where are you?
- 10 And he said, Hearing your voice in the garden I was full of fear, because I was without clothing: and I kept myself from your eyes.
- 11 And he said, Who gave you the knowledge that you were without clothing? Have you taken of the fruit of the tree which I said you were not to take?
- 12 And the man said, The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me the fruit of the tree and I took it.
- 13 And the Lord God said to the woman, What have you done? And the woman said, I was tricked by the deceit of the snake and I took it.
- 14 And the Lord God said to the snake, Because you have done this you are cursed more than all cattle and every beast of the field; you will go flat on the earth, and dust will be your food all the days of your life:
- 15 And there will be war between you and the woman and between your seed and her seed: by him will your head be crushed and by you his foot will be wounded.
- 16 To the woman he said, Great will be your pain in childbirth; in sorrow will your children come to birth; still your desire will be for your husband, but he will be your master.
- 17 And to Adam he said, Because you gave ear to the voice of your wife and took of the fruit of the tree which I said you were not to take, the earth is cursed on your account; in pain you will get your food from it all your life.
- 18 Thorns and waste plants will come up, and the plants of the field will be your food;
- 19 With the hard work of your hands you will get your bread till you go back to the earth from which you were taken: for dust you are and to the dust you will go back.
- 20 And the man gave his wife the name of Eve because she was the mother of all who have life.
- 21 And the Lord God made for Adam and for his wife coats of skins for their clothing.
- 22 And the Lord God said, Now the man has become like one of us, having knowledge of good and evil; and now if he puts out his hand and takes of the fruit of the tree of life, he will go on living for ever.
- 23 So the Lord God sent him out of the garden of Eden to be a worker on the earth from which he was taken.
- 24 So he sent the man out; and at the east of the garden of Eden he put winged ones and a flaming sword turning every way to keep the way to the tree of life.
- 1 And the man had connection with Eve his wife, and she became with child and gave birth to Cain, and said, I have got a man from the Lord.
- 2 Then again she became with child and gave birth to Abel, his brother. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a farmer.
- 3 And after a time, Cain gave to the Lord an offering of the fruits of the earth.
- 4 And Abel gave an offering of the young lambs of his flock and of their fat. And the Lord was pleased with Abel's offering;
- 5 But in Cain and his offering he had no pleasure. And Cain was angry and his face became sad.
- 6 And the Lord said to Cain, Why are you angry? and why is your face sad?
- 7 If you do well, will you not have honour? and if you do wrong, sin is waiting at the door, desiring to have you, but do not let it be your master.
- 8 And Cain said to his brother, Let us go into the field: and when they were in the field, Cain made an attack on his brother Abel and put him to death.
- 9 And the Lord said to Cain, Where is your brother Abel? And he said, I have no idea: am I my brother's keeper?
- 10 And he said, What have you done? the voice of your brother's blood is crying to me from the earth.
- 11 And now you are cursed from the earth, whose mouth is open to take your brother's blood from your hand;
- 12 No longer will the earth give you her fruit as the reward of your work; you will be a wanderer in flight over the earth.
- 13 And Cain said, My punishment is greater than my strength.
- 14 You have sent me out this day from the face of the earth and from before your face; I will be a wanderer in flight over the earth, and whoever sees me will put me to death.
- 15 And the Lord said, Truly, if Cain is put to death, seven lives will be taken for his. And the Lord put a mark on Cain so that no one might put him to death.

- 16 And Cain went away from before the face of the Lord, and made his living-place in the land of Nod on the east of Eden.
- 17 And Cain had connection with his wife and she became with child and gave birth to Enoch: and he made a town, and gave the town the name of Enoch after his son.
- 18 And Enoch had a son Irad: and Irad became the father of Mehujael: and Mehujael became the father of Methushael: and Methushael became the father of Lamech.
- 19 And Lamech had two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.
- 20 And Adah gave birth to Jabal: he was the father of such as are living in tents and keep cattle.
- 21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all players on instruments of music.
- 22 And Zillah gave birth to Tubal-cain, who is the father of every maker of cutting instruments of brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.
- 23 And Lamech said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, give ear to my voice; you wives of Lamech, give attention to my words, for I would put a man to death for a wound, and a young man for a blow;
- 24 If seven lives are to be taken as punishment for Cain's death, seventy-seven will be taken for Lamech's.
- 25 And Adam had connection with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son to whom she gave the name of Seth: for she said, God has given me another seed in place of Abel, whom Cain put to death.
- 26 And Seth had a son, and he gave him the name of Enosh: at this time men first made use of the name of the Lord in worship.
- 1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day when God made man, he made him in the image of God;
- 2 Male and female he made them, naming them Man, and giving them his blessing on the day when they were made.
- 3 Adam had been living for a hundred and thirty years when he had a son like himself, after his image, and gave him the name of Seth:
- 4 And after the birth of Seth, Adam went on living for eight hundred years, and had sons and daughters:
- 5 And all the years of Adam's life were nine hundred and thirty: and he came to his end.
- 6 And Seth was a hundred and five years old when he became the father of Enosh:
- 7 And he went on living after the birth of Enosh for eight hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters:
- 8 And all the years of Seth's life were nine hundred and twelve: and he came to his end.
- 9 And Enosh was ninety years old when he became the father of Kenan:
- 10 And after the birth of Kenan, Enosh went on living for eight hundred and fifteen years, and had sons and daughters:
- 11 And all the years of Enosh were nine hundred and five: and he came to his end.
- 12 And Kenan was seventy years old when he became the father of Mahalalel:
- 13 And after the birth of Mahalalel, Kenan went on living for eight hundred and forty years, and had sons and daughters:
- 14 And all the years of Kenan's life were nine hundred and ten; and he came to his end.
- 15 And Mahalalel was sixty-five years old when he became the father of Jared:
- 16 And after the birth of Jared, Mahalalel went on living for eight hundred and thirty years, and had sons and daughters:
- 17 And all the years of Mahalalel's life were eight hundred and ninety-five: and he came to his end.
- 18 And Jared was a hundred and sixty-two years old when he became the father of Enoch:
- 19 And Jared went on living after the birth of Enoch for eight hundred years, and had sons and daughters:
- 20 And all the years of Jared's life were nine hundred and sixty-two: and he came to his end.
- 21 And Enoch was sixty-five years old when he became the father of Methuselah:
- 22 And after the birth of Methuselah, Enoch went on in God's ways for three hundred years, and had sons and daughters:
- 23 And all the years of Enoch's life were three hundred and sixty-five:
- 24 And Enoch went on in God's ways: and he was not seen again, for God took him.
- 25 And Methuselah was a hundred and eighty-seven years old when he became the father of Lamech:
- 26 And after the birth of Lamech, Methuselah went on living for seven hundred and eighty-two years, and had sons and daughters:
- 27 And all the years of Methuselah's life were nine hundred and sixty-nine: and he came to his end.
- 28 And Lamech was a hundred and eighty-two years old when he had a son:

- 29 And he gave him the name of Noah, saying, Truly, he will give us rest from our trouble and the hard work of our hands, because of the earth which was cursed by God.
- 30 And after the birth of Noah, Lamech went on living for five hundred and ninety-five years, and had sons and daughters:
- 31 And all the years of Lamech's life were seven hundred and seventy-seven: and he came to his end.
- 32 And when Noah was five hundred years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
- 1 And after a time, when men were increasing on the earth, and had daughters,
- 2 The sons of God saw that the daughters of men were fair; and they took wives for themselves from those who were pleasing to them.
- 3 And the Lord said, My spirit will not be in man for ever, for he is only flesh; so the days of his life will be a hundred and twenty years.
- 4 There were men of great strength and size on the earth in those days; and after that, when the sons of God had connection with the daughters of men, they gave birth to children: these were the great men of old days, the men of great name.
- 5 And the Lord saw that the sin of man was great on the earth, and that all the thoughts of his heart were evil.
- 6 And the Lord had sorrow because he had made man on the earth, and grief was in his heart.
- 7 And the Lord said, I will take away man, whom I have made, from the face of the earth, even man and beast and that which goes on the earth and every bird of the air; for I have sorrow for having made them.
- 8 But Noah had grace in the eyes of God.
- 9 These are the generations of Noah. Noah was an upright man and without sin in his generation: he went in the ways of God.
- 10 And Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
- 11 And the earth was evil in God's eyes and full of violent ways.
- 12 And God, looking on the earth, saw that it was evil: for the way of all flesh had become evil on the earth.
- 13 And God said to Noah, The end of all flesh has come; the earth is full of their violent doings, and now I will put an end to them with the earth.
- 14 Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood with rooms in it, and make it safe from the water inside and out.
- 15 And this is the way you are to make it: it is to be three hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high.
- 16 You are to put a window in the ark, a cubit from the roof, and a door in the side of it, and you are to make it with a lower and second and third floors.
- 17 For truly, I will send a great flow of waters over the earth, for the destruction from under the heaven of all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything on the earth will come to an end.
- 18 But with you I will make an agreement; and you will come into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you.
- 19 And you will take with you into the ark two of every sort of living thing, and keep them safe with you; they will be male and female.
- 20 Two of every sort of bird and cattle and of every sort of living thing which goes on the earth will you take with you to keep them from destruction.
- 21 And make a store of every sort of food for yourself and them.
- 22 And all these things Noah did; as God said, so he did.
- 1 And the Lord said to Noah, Take all your family and go into the ark, for you only in this generation have I seen to be upright.
- 2 Of every clean beast you will take seven males and seven females, and of the beasts which are not clean, two, the male and his female;
- 3 And of the birds of the air, seven males and seven females, so that their seed may still be living on the face of the earth.
- 4 For after seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, for the destruction of every living thing which I have made on the face of the earth.
- 5 And Noah did everything which the Lord said he was to do.
- 6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the waters came flowing over all the earth.
- 7 And Noah, with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives, went into the ark because of the flowing of the waters.

- 8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts which are not clean, and of birds, and of everything which goes on the earth,
- 9 In twos, male and female, they went into the ark with Noah, as God had said.
- 10 And after the seven days, the waters came over all the earth.
- 11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, all the fountains of the great deep came bursting through, and the windows of heaven were open;
- 12 And rain came down on the earth for forty days and forty nights.
- 13 On the same day Noah, with Shem, Ham, and Japheth, his sons, and his wife and his sons' wives, went into the ark;
- 14 And with them, every sort of beast and cattle, and every sort of thing which goes on the earth, and every sort of bird.
- 15 They went with Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh in which is the breath of life.
- 16 Male and female of all flesh went in, as God had said, and the ark was shut by the Lord.
- 17 And for forty days the waters were over all the earth; and the waters were increased so that the ark was lifted up high over the earth.
- 18 And the waters overcame everything and were increased greatly on the earth, and the ark was resting on the face of the waters.
- 19 And the waters overcame everything on the earth; and all the mountains under heaven were covered.
- 20 The waters went fifteen cubits higher, till all the mountains were covered.
- 21 And destruction came on every living thing moving on the earth, birds and cattle and beasts and everything which went on the earth, and every man.
- 22 Everything on the dry land, in which was the breath of life, came to its end.
- 23 Every living thing on the face of all the earth, man and cattle and things moving on the face of the earth, and birds of the air, came to destruction: only Noah and those who were with him in the ark, were kept from death.
- 24 And the waters were over the earth a hundred and fifty days.
 - 1 And God kept Noah in mind, and all the living things and the cattle which were with him in the ark: and God sent a wind over the earth, and the waters went down.
 - 2 And the fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were shut, and the rain from heaven was stopped.
 - 3 And the waters went slowly back from the earth, and at the end of a hundred and fifty days the waters were lower.
 - 4 And on the seventeenth day of the seventh month the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.
 - 5 And still the waters went on falling, till on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains were seen.
 - 6 Then, after forty days, through the open window of the ark which he had made,
 - 7 Noah sent out a raven, which went this way and that till the waters were gone from the earth.
 - 8 And he sent out a dove, to see if the waters had gone from the face of the earth;
 - 9 But the dove saw no resting-place for her foot, and came back to the ark, for the waters were still over all the earth; and he put out his hand, and took her into the ark.
 - 10 And after waiting another seven days, he sent the dove out again;
 - 11 And the dove came back at evening, and in her mouth was an olive-leaf broken off: so Noah was certain that the waters had gone down on the earth.
 - 12 And after seven days more, he sent the dove out again, but she did not come back to him.
 - 13 And in the six hundred and first year, on the first day of the first month, the waters were dry on the earth: and Noah took the cover off the ark and saw that the face of the earth was dry.
 - 14 And on the twenty-seventh day of the second month the earth was dry.
 - 15 And God said to Noah,
 - 16 Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives.
 - 17 Take out with you every living thing which is with you, birds and cattle and everything which goes on the earth, so that they may have offspring and be fertile and be increased on the earth.
 - 18 And Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives;
 - 19 And every beast and bird and every living thing of every sort which goes on the earth, went out of the ark.
 - 20 And Noah made an altar to the Lord, and from every clean beast and bird he made burned offerings on the altar.

- 21 And when the sweet smell came up to the Lord, he said in his heart, I will not again put a curse on the earth because of man, for the thoughts of man's heart are evil from his earliest days; never again will I send destruction on all living things as I ha
- 22 While the earth goes on, seed time and the getting in of the grain, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night, will not come to an end.
- 1 And God gave his blessing to Noah and his sons, and said, Be fertile, and have increase, and make the earth full.
- 2 And the fear of you will be strong in every beast of the earth and every bird of the air; everything which goes on the land, and all the fishes of the sea, are given into your hands.
- 3 Every living and moving thing will be food for you; I give them all to you as before I gave you all green things.
- 4 But flesh with the life-blood in it you may not take for food.
- 5 And for your blood, which is your life, will I take payment; from every beast I will take it, and from every man will I take payment for the blood of his brother-man.
- 6 Whoever takes a man's life, by man will his life be taken; because God made man in his image.
- 7 And now, be fertile and have increase; have offspring on the earth and become great in number.
- 8 And God said to Noah and to his sons,
- 9 Truly, I will make my agreement with you and with your seed after you,
- 10 And with every living thing with you, all birds and cattle and every beast of the earth which comes out of the ark with you.
- 11 And I will make my agreement with you; never again will all flesh be cut off by the waters; never again will the waters come over all the earth for its destruction.
- 12 And God said, This is the sign of the agreement which I make between me and you and every living thing with you, for all future generations:
- 13 I will put my bow in the cloud and it will be for a sign of the agreement between me and the earth.
- 14 And whenever I make a cloud come over the earth, the bow will be seen in the cloud,
- 15 And I will keep in mind the agreement between me and you and every living thing; and never again will there be a great flow of waters causing destruction to all flesh.
- 16 And the bow will be in the cloud, and looking on it, I will keep in mind the eternal agreement between God and every living thing on the earth.
- 17 And God said to Noah, This is the sign of the agreement which I have made between me and all flesh on the earth.
- 18 And the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth; and Ham is the father of Canaan.
- 19 These three were the sons of Noah and from them all the earth was peopled.
- 20 In those days Noah became a farmer, and he made a vine-garden.
- 21 And he took of the wine of it and was overcome by drink; and he was uncovered in his tent.
- 22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father unclothed, and gave news of it to his two brothers outside.
- 23 And Shem and Japheth took a robe, and putting it on their backs went in with their faces turned away, and put it over their father so that they might not see him unclothed.
- 24 And, awaking from his wine, Noah saw what his youngest son had done to him, and he said,
- 25 Cursed be Canaan; let him be a servant of servants to his brothers.
- 26 And he said, Praise to the Lord, the God of Shem; let Canaan be his servant.
- 27 May God make Japheth great, and let his living-place be in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.
- 28 And Noah went on living three hundred and fifty years after the great flow of waters;
- 29 all the years of his life were nine hundred and fifty: and he came to his end.
- 1 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: these are the sons which they had after the great flow of waters
- 2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer and Magog and Madai and Javan and Tubal and Meshech and Tiras.
- 3 And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz and Riphath and Togarmah.
- 4 And the sons of Javan: Elishah and Tarshish, the Kittim and the Dodanim.
- 5 From these came the nations of the sea-lands, with their different families and languages.

- 6 And the sons of Ham: Cush and Mizraim and Put and Canaan.
- 7 And the sons of Cush: Seba and Havilah and Sabtah and Raamah and Sabteca; and the sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.
- 8 And Cush was the father of Nimrod, who was the first of the great men of the earth.
- 9 He was a very great bowman, so that there is a saying, Like Nimrod, a very great bowman.
- 10 And at the first, his kingdom was Babel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.
- 11 From that land he went out into Assyria, building Nineveh with its wide streets and Calah,
- 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah, which is a very great town.
- 13 And Mizraim was the father of the Ludim and Anamim and Lehabim and Naphtuhim;
- 14 And Pathrusim and Casluhim and Caphtorim, from whom came the Philistines.
- 15 And Canaan was the father of Zidon, who was his oldest son, and Heth,
- 16 And the Jebusite and the Amorite and the Girgashite,
- 17 And the Hivite and the Arkite and the Sinite,
- 18 And the Arvadite and the Zemarite and the Hamathite; after that the families of the Canaanites went far and wide in all directions;
- 19 Their country stretching from Zidon to Gaza, in the direction of Gerar; and to Lasha, in the direction of Sodom and Gomorrah and Admah and Zeboiim.
- 20 All these, with their different families, languages, lands, and nations, are the offspring of Ham.
- 21 And Shem, the older brother of Japheth, the father of the children of Eber, had other sons in addition.
- 22 These are the sons of Shem: Elam and Asshur and Arpachshad and Lud and Aram.
- 23 And the sons of Aram: Uz and Hul and Gether and Mash.
- 24 And Arpachshad became the father of Shelah; and Shelah became the father of Eber.
- 25 And Eber had two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, because in his time the peoples of the earth became separate; and his brother's name was Joktan.
- 26 And Joktan was the father of Almodad and Sheleph and Hazarmaveth and Jerah
- 27 And Hadoram and Uzal and Diklah
- 28 And Obal and Abimael and Sheba
- 29 And Ophir and Havilah and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan.
- 30 And their country was from Mesha, in the direction of Sephar, the mountain of the east.
- 31 These, with their families and their languages and their lands and their nations, are the offspring of Shem.
- 32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, in the order of their generations and their nations: from these came all the nations of the earth after the great flow of waters.
 - 1 And all the earth had one language and one tongue.
 - 2 And it came about that in their wandering from the east, they came to a stretch of flat country in the land of Shinar, and there they made their living-place.
 - 3 And they said one to another, Come, let us make bricks, burning them well. And they had bricks for stone, putting them together with sticky earth.
 - 4 And they said, Come, let us make a town, and a tower whose top will go up as high as heaven; and let us make a great name for ourselves, so that we may not be wanderers over the face of the earth.
 - 5 And the Lord came down to see the town and the tower which the children of men were building.
 - 6 And the Lord said, See, they are all one people and have all one language; and this is only the start of what they may do: and now it will not be possible to keep them from any purpose of theirs.
 - 7 Come, let us go down and take away the sense of their language, so that they will not be able to make themselves clear to one another.
 - 8 So the Lord God sent them away into every part of the earth: and they gave up building their town.
 - 9 So it was named Babel, because there the Lord took away the sense of all languages and from there the Lord sent them away over all the face of the earth.

- 10 These are the generations of Shem. Shem was a hundred years old when he became the father of Arpachshad, two years after the great flow of waters;
- 11 And after the birth of Arpachshad, Shem went on living for five hundred years, and had sons and daughters:
- 12 And Arpachshad was thirty-five years old when he became the father of Shelah:
- 13 And after the birth of Shelah, Arpachshad went on living for four hundred and three years, and had sons and daughters:
- 14 And Shelah was thirty years old when he became the father of Eber:
- 15 And after the birth of Eber, Shelah went on living for four hundred and three years, and had sons and daughters:
- 16 And Eber was thirty-four years old when he became the father of Peleg:
- 17 And after the birth of Peleg, Eber went on living for four hundred and thirty years, and had sons and daughters:
- 18 And Peleg was thirty years old when he became the father of Reu:
- 19 And after the birth of Reu, Peleg went on living for two hundred and nine years, and had sons and daughters:
- 20 And Reu was thirty-two years old when he became the father of Serug:
- 21 And after the birth of Serug, Reu went on living for two hundred and seven years, and had sons and daughters:
- 22 And Serug was thirty years old when he became the father of Nahor:
- 23 And after the birth of Nahor, Serug went on living for two hundred years, and had sons and daughters:
- 24 And Nahor was twenty-nine years old when he became the father of Terah:
- 25 And after the birth of Terah, Nahor went on living for a hundred and nineteen years, and had sons and daughters:
- 26 And Terah was seventy years old when he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.
- 27 These are the generations of Terah: Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran was the father of Lot.
- 28 And death came to Haran when he was with his father Terah in the land of his birth, Ur of the Chaldees.
- 29 And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah and Iscah.
- 30 And Sarai had no child.
- 31 And Terah took Abram, his son, and Lot, the son of Haran, and Sarai, his daughter-in-law, the wife of his son Abram and they went out from Ur of the Chaldees, to go to the land of Canaan; and they came to Haran, and were there for some time.
- 32 And all the years of Terah's life were two hundred and five: and Terah came to his end in Haran.
- 1 Now the Lord said to Abram, Go out from your country and from your family and from your father's house, into the land to which I will be your guide:
- 2 And I will make of you a great nation, blessing you and making your name great; and you will be a blessing:
- 3 To them who are good to you will I give blessing, and on him who does you wrong will I put my curse: and you will become a name of blessing to all the families of the earth.
- 4 So Abram went as the Lord had said to him, and Lot went with him: Abram was seventy-five years old when he went away from Haran.
- 5 And Abram took Sarai, his wife, and Lot, his brother's son, and all their goods and the servants which they had got in Haran, and they went out to go to the land of Canaan.
- 6 And Abram went through the land till he came to Shechem, to the holy tree of Moreh. At that time, the Canaanites were still living in the land.
- 7 And the Lord came to Abram, and said, I will give all this land to your seed; then Abram made an altar there to the Lord who had let himself be seen by him.
- 8 And moving on from there to the mountain on the east of Beth-el, he put up his tent, having Beth-el on the west and Ai on the east: and there he made an altar and gave worship to the name of the Lord.
- 9 And he went on, journeying still to the South.
- 10 And because there was little food to be had in that land, he went down into Egypt.
- 11 Now when he came near to Egypt, he said to Sarai, his wife, Truly, you are a fair woman and beautiful to the eye;
- 12 And I am certain that when the men of Egypt see you, they will say, This is his wife: and they will put me to death and keep you.

- 13 Say, then, that you are my sister, and so it will be well with me because of you, and my life will be kept safe on your account.
- 14 And so it was that when Abram came into Egypt, the men of Egypt, looking on the woman, saw that she was fair.
- 15 And Pharaoh's great men, having seen her, said words in praise of her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into Pharaoh's house.
- 16 And because of her, he was good to Abram, and he had sheep and oxen and asses, and men-servants and women-servants, and camels.
- 17 And the Lord sent great troubles on Pharaoh's house because of Sarai, Abram's wife.
- 18 Then Pharaoh sent for Abram, and said, What have you done to me? why did you not say that she was your wife?
- 19 Why did you say that she was your sister? so that I took her for my wife: now, take your wife and go on your way.
- 20 And Pharaoh gave orders to his men, and they sent him on his way, with his wife and all he had.
- 1 And Abram went up out of Egypt with his wife and all he had, and Lot with him, and they came in to the South.
- 2 Now Abram had great wealth of cattle and silver and gold.
- 3 And travelling on from the South, he came to Beth-el, to the place where his tent had been before, between Beth-el and Ai;
- 4 To the place where he had made his first altar, and there Abram gave worship to the name of the Lord.
- 5 And Lot, who went with him, had flocks and herds and tents;
- 6 So that the land was not wide enough for the two of them: their property was so great that there was not room for them together.
- 7 And there was an argument between the keepers of Abram's cattle and the keepers of Lot's cattle: at that time the Canaanites and Perizzites were still living in the land.
- 8 Then Abram said to Lot, Let there be no argument between me and you, and between my herdmen and your herdmen, for we are brothers.
- 9 Is not all the land before you? then let us go our separate ways: if you go to the left, I will go to the right; or if you take the right, I will go to the left.
- 10 And Lot, lifting up his eyes and looking on the valley of Jordan, saw that it was well watered everywhere, before the Lord had sent destruction on Sodom and Gomorrah; it was like the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, on the way to Zoar.
- 11 So Lot took for himself all the valley of Jordan, and went to the east, and they were parted from one another.
- 12 Abram went on living in the land of Canaan, and Lot went to the lowland towns, moving his tent as far as Sodom.
- 13 Now the men of Sodom were evil, and great sinners before the Lord.
- 14 And the Lord had said to Abram, after Lot was parted from him, From this place where you are take a look to the north and to the south, to the east and to the west:
- 15 For all the land which you see I will give to you and to your seed for ever.
- 16 And I will make your children like the dust of the earth, so that if the dust of the earth may be numbered, then will your children be numbered.
- 17 Come, go through all the land from one end to the other for I will give it to you.
- 18 And Abram, moving his tent, came and made his living-place by the holy tree of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and made an altar there to the Lord.
- 1 Now in the days of Amraphel, king of Shinar, Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of Goiim,
- 2 They made war with Bera, king of Sodom, and with Birsha, king of Gomorrah, Shinab, king of Admah, and Shemeber, king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (which is Zoar).
- 3 All these came together in the valley of Siddim (which is the Salt Sea).
- 4 For twelve years they were under the rule of Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they put off his control.
- 5 And in the fourteenth year, Chedorlaomer and the kings who were on his side, overcame the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim,
- 6 And the Horites in their mountain Seir, driving them as far as El-paran, which is near the waste land.

- 7 Then they came back to En-mishpat (which is Kadesh), making waste all the country of the Amalekites and of the Amorites living in Hazazon-tamar.
- 8 And the king of Sodom with the king of Gomorrah and the king of Admah and the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is Zoar), went out, and put their forces in position in the valley of Siddim,
- 9 Against Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of Goiim, and Amraphel, king of Shinar, and Arioch, king of Ellasar: four kings against the five.
- 10 Now the valley of Siddim was full of holes of sticky earth; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah were put to flight and came to their end there, but the rest got away to the mountain.
- 11 And the four kings took all the goods and food from Sodom and Gomorrah and went on their way.
- 12 And in addition they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who was living in Sodom, and all his goods.
- 13 And one who had got away from the fight came and gave word of it to Abram the Hebrew, who was living by the holy tree of Mamre, the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and Aner, who were friends of Abram.
- 14 And Abram, hearing that his brother's son had been made a prisoner, took a band of his trained men, three hundred and eighteen of them, sons of his house, and went after them as far as Dan.
- 15 And separating his forces by night, he overcame them, putting them to flight and going after them as far as Hobah, which is on the north side of Damascus.
- 16 And he got back all the goods, and Lot, his brother's son, with his goods and the women and the people.
- 17 And when he was coming back after putting to flight Chedorlaomer and the other kings, he had a meeting with the king of Sodom in the valley of Shaveh, that is, the King's Valley.
- 18 And Melchizedek, king of Salem, the priest of the Most High God, took bread and wine,
- 19 And blessing him, said, May the blessing of the Most High God, maker of heaven and earth, be on Abram:
- 20 And let the Most High God be praised, who has given into your hands those who were against you. Then Abram gave him a tenth of all the goods he had taken.
- 21 And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the prisoners and take the goods for yourself.
- 22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have taken an oath to the Lord, the Most High God, maker of heaven and earth,
- 23 That I will not take so much as a thread or the cord of a shoe of yours; so that you may not say, I have given wealth to Abram:
- 24 Give me nothing but the food which the fighting-men who went with me have had; but let Aner and Eshcol and Mamre have their part of the goods.
- 1 After these things, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, saying, Have no fear, Abram: I will keep you safe, and great will be your reward.
- 2 And Abram said, What will you give me? for I have no child and this Eliezer of Damascus will have all my wealth after me.
- 3 And Abram said, You have given me no child, and a servant in my house will get the heritage.
- 4 Then said the Lord, This man will not get the heritage, but a son of your body will have your property after you.
- 5 And he took him out into the open air, and said to him, Let your eyes be lifted to heaven, and see if the stars may be numbered; even so will your seed be.
- 6 And he had faith in the Lord, and it was put to his account as righteousness.
- 7 And he said to him, I am the Lord, who took you from Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land for your heritage.
- 8 And he said, O Lord God, how may I be certain that it will be mine?
- 9 And he said, Take a young cow of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a sheep of three years old, and a dove and a young pigeon.
- 10 All these he took, cutting them in two and putting one half opposite the other, but not cutting the birds in two.
- 11 And evil birds came down on the bodies, but Abram sent them away.
- 12 Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep came on Abram, and a dark cloud of fear.
- 13 And he said to Abram, Truly, your seed will be living in a land which is not theirs, as servants to a people who will be cruel to them for four hundred years;
- 14 But I will be the judge of that nation whose servants they are, and they will come out from among them with great wealth.

- 15 As for you, you will go to your fathers in peace; at the end of a long life you will be put in your last resting-place.
- 16 And in the fourth generation they will come back here; for at present the sin of the Amorite is not full.
- 17 Then when the sun went down and it was dark, he saw a smoking fire and a flaming light which went between the parts of the bodies.
- 18 In that day the Lord made an agreement with Abram, and said, To your seed have I given this land from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates:
- 19 The Kenite, the Kenizzite, and the Kadmonite,
- 20 And the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Rephaim,
- 21 And the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Girgashite, and the Jebusite.
- 1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had given him no children; and she had a servant, a woman of Egypt whose name was Hagar.
- 2 And Sarai said to Abram, See, the Lord has not let me have children; go in to my servant, for I may get a family through her. And Abram did as Sarai said.
- 3 So after Abram had been living for ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai took Hagar, her Egyptian servant, and gave her to Abram for his wife.
- 4 And he went in to Hagar and she became with child, and when she saw that she was with child, she no longer had any respect for her master's wife.
- 5 And Sarai said to Abram, May my wrong be on you: I gave you my servant for your wife and when she saw that she was with child, she no longer had any respect for me: may the Lord be judge between you and me.
- 6 And Abram said, The woman is in your power; do with her whatever seems good to you. And Sarai was cruel to her, so that she went running away from her.
- 7 And an angel of the Lord came to her by a fountain of water in the waste land, by the fountain on the way to Shur.
- 8 And he said, Hagar, Sarai's servant, where have you come from and where are you going? And she said, I am running away from Sarai, my master's wife.
- 9 And the angel said to her, Go back, and put yourself under her authority.
- 10 And the angel of the Lord said, Your seed will be greatly increased so that it may not be numbered.
- 11 And the angel of the Lord said, See, you are with child and will give birth to a son, to whom you will give the name Ishmael, because the ears of the Lord were open to your sorrow.
- 12 And he will be like a mountain ass among men; his hand will be against every man and every man's hand against him, and he will keep his place against all his brothers.
- 13 And to the Lord who was talking with her she gave this name, You are a God who is seen; for she said, Have I not even here in the waste land had a vision of God and am still living?
- 14 So that fountain was named, Fountain of Life and Vision: it is between Kadesh and Bered.
- 15 And Hagar gave birth to a child, the son of Abram, to whom Abram gave the name of Ishmael.
- 16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar gave birth to Ishmael.
- 1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord came to him, and said, I am God, Ruler of all; go in my ways and be upright in all things,
- 2 And I will make an agreement between you and me, and your offspring will be greatly increased.
- 3 And Abram went down on his face on the earth, and the Lord God went on talking with him, and said,
- 4 As for me, my agreement is made with you, and you will be the father of nations without end.
- 5 No longer will your name be Abram, but Abraham, for I have made you the father of a number of nations.
- 6 I will make you very fertile, so that nations will come from you and kings will be your offspring.
- 7 And I will make between me and you and your seed after you through all generations, an eternal agreement to be a God to you and to your seed after you.
- 8 And to you and to your seed after you, I will give the land in which you are living, all the land of Canaan for an eternal heritage; and I will be their God.
- 9 And God said to Abraham, On your side, you are to keep the agreement, you and your seed after you through all generations.
- 10 And this is the agreement which you are to keep with me, you and your seed after you: every male among you is to undergo circumcision.

- 11 In the flesh of your private parts you are to undergo it, as a mark of the agreement between me and you.
- 12 Every male among you, from one generation to another, is to undergo circumcision when he is eight days old, with every servant whose birth takes place in your house, or for whom you gave money to someone of another country, and not of your seed.
- 13 He who comes to birth in your house and he who is made yours for a price, all are to undergo circumcision; so that my agreement may be marked in your flesh, an agreement for all time.
- 14 And any male who does not undergo circumcision will be cut off from his people: my agreement has been broken by him.
- 15 And God said, As for Sarai, your wife, from now her name will be not Sarai, but Sarah.
- 16 And I will give her a blessing so that you will have a son by her: truly my blessing will be on her, and she will be the mother of nations: kings of peoples will be her offspring.
- 17 Then Abraham went down on his face, and laughing, said in his heart, May a man a hundred years old have a child? will Sarah, at ninety years old, give birth?
- 18 And Abraham said to God, If only Ishmael's life might be your care!
- 19 And God said, Not so; but Sarah, your wife, will have a son, and you will give him the name Isaac, and I will make my agreement with him for ever and with his seed after him.
- 20 As for Ishmael, I have given ear to your prayer: truly I have given him my blessing and I will make him fertile and give him great increase; he will be the father of twelve chiefs, and I will make him a great nation.
- 21 But my agreement will be with Isaac, to whom Sarah will give birth a year from this time.
- 22 And having said these words, God went up from Abraham.
- 23 And Abraham took Ishmael, his son, and all whose birth had taken place in his house, and all his servants whom he had made his for a price, every male of his house, and on that very day he gave them circumcision in the flesh of their private parts as God
- 24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he underwent circumcision.
- 25 And Ishmael, his son, was thirteen years old when he underwent circumcision.
- 26 Abraham and Ishmael, his son, underwent circumcision on that very day.
- 27 And all the men of his house, those whose birth had taken place in the house and those whom he had got for money from men of other lands, underwent circumcision with him.
 - 1 Now the Lord came to him by the holy tree of Mamre, when he was seated in the doorway of his tent in the middle of the day;
 - 2 And lifting up his eyes, he saw three men before him; and seeing them, he went quickly to them from the door of the tent, and went down on his face to the earth;
 - 3 And said, My Lord, if now I have grace in your eyes, do not go away from your servant:
 - 4 Let me get water for washing your feet, and take your rest under the tree:
 - 5 And let me get a bit of bread to keep up your strength, and after that you may go on your way: for this is why you have come to your servant. And they said, Let it be so.
 - 6 Then Abraham went quickly into the tent, and said to Sarah, Get three measures of meal straight away and make cakes.
 - 7 And running to the herd, he took a young ox, soft and fat, and gave it to the servant and he quickly made it ready;
 - 8 And he took butter and milk and the young ox which he had made ready and put it before them, waiting by them under the tree while they took food.
 - 9 And they said to him, Where is Sarah your wife? And he said, She is in the tent.
 - 10 And he said, I will certainly come back to you in the spring, and Sarah your wife will have a son. And his words came to the ears of Sarah who was at the back of the tent-door.
 - 11 Now Abraham and Sarah were very old, and Sarah was past the time for giving birth.
 - 12 And Sarah, laughing to herself, said, Now that I am used up am I still to have pleasure, my husband himself being old?
 - 13 And the Lord said, Why was Sarah laughing and saying, Is it possible for me, being old, to give birth to a child?
 - 14 Is there any wonder which the Lord is not able to do? At the time I said, in the spring, I will come back to you, and Sarah will have a child.
 - 15 Then Sarah said, I was not laughing; for she was full of fear. And he said, No, but you were laughing.

- 16 And the men went on from there in the direction of Sodom; and Abraham went with them on their way.
- 17 And the Lord said, Am I to keep back from Abraham the knowledge of what I do;
- 18 Seeing that Abraham will certainly become a great and strong nation, and his name will be used by all the nations of the earth as a blessing?
- 19 For I have made him mine so that he may give orders to his children and those of his line after him, to keep the ways of the Lord, to do what is good and right: so that the Lord may do to Abraham as he has said.
- 20 And the Lord said, Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is very great, and their sin is very evil,
- 21 I will go down now, and see if their acts are as bad as they seem from the outcry which has come to me; and if they are not, I will see.
- 22 And the men, turning from that place, went on to Sodom: but Abraham was still waiting before the Lord.
- 23 And Abraham came near, and said, Will you let destruction come on the upright with the sinners?
- 24 If by chance there are fifty upright men in the town, will you give the place to destruction and not have mercy on it because of the fifty upright men?
- 25 Let such a thing be far from you, to put the upright to death with the sinner: will not the judge of all the earth do right?
- 26 And the Lord said, If there are fifty upright men in the town, I will have mercy on it because of them.
- 27 And Abraham answering said, Truly, I who am only dust, have undertaken to put my thoughts before the Lord:
- 28 If by chance there are five less than fifty upright men, will you give up all the town to destruction because of these five? And he said, I will not give it to destruction if there are forty-five.
- 29 And again he said to him, By chance there may be forty there. And he said, I will not do it if there are forty.
- 30 And he said, Let not the Lord be angry with me if I say, What if there are thirty there? And he said, I will not do it if there are thirty.
- 31 And he said, See now, I have undertaken to put my thoughts before the Lord: what if there are twenty there? And he said, I will have mercy because of the twenty.
- 32 And he said, O let not the Lord be angry and I will say only one word more: by chance there may be ten there. And he said, I will have mercy because of the ten.
- 33 And the Lord went on his way when his talk with Abraham was ended, and Abraham went back to his place.
- 1 And at nightfall the two angels came to Sodom; and Lot was seated at the way into the town: and when he saw them he got up and came before them, falling down on his face to the earth.
- 2 And he said, My masters, come now into your servant's house and take your rest there for the night, and let your feet be washed; and early in the morning you may go on your way. And they said, Not so, but we will take our night's rest in the street.
- 3 But he made his request more strongly, so they went with him into his house; and he got food ready for them, and made unleavened bread, of which they took.
- 4 But before they had gone to bed, the men of the town, all the men of Sodom, came round the house, young and old, from every part of the town;
- 5 And crying out to Lot, they said, Where are the men who came to your house this night? Send them out to us, so that we may take our pleasure with them.
- 6 And Lot went out to them in the doorway, shutting the door after him.
- 7 And he said, My brothers, do not this evil.
- 8 See now, I have two unmarried daughters; I will send them out to you so that you may do to them whatever seems good to you: only do nothing to these men, for this is why they have come under the shade of my roof.
- 9 And they said, Give way there. This one man, they said, came here from a strange country, and will he now be our judge? now we will do worse to you than to them; and pushing violently against Lot, they came near to get the door broken in.
- 10 But the men put out their hands and took Lot into the house to them, shutting the door again.
- 11 But the men who were outside the door they made blind, all of them, small and great, so that they were tired out with looking for the door.
- 12 Then the men said to Lot, Are there any others of your family here? sons-in-law or sons or daughters, take them all out of this place;

- 13 For we are about to send destruction on this place, because a great outcry against them has come to the ears of the Lord; and the Lord has sent us to put an end to the town.
- 14 And Lot went out and said to his sons-in-law, who were married to his daughters, Come, let us go out of this place, for the Lord is about to send destruction on the town. But his sons-in-law did not take him seriously.
- 15 And when morning came, the angels did all in their power to make Lot go, saying, Get up quickly and take your wife and your two daughters who are here, and go, for fear that you come to destruction in the punishment of the town.
- 16 But while he was waiting, the men took him and his wife and his daughters by the hand, for the Lord had mercy on them, and put them outside the town.
- 17 And when they had put them out, he said, Go for your life, without looking back or waiting in the lowland; go quickly to the mountain or you will come to destruction.
- 18 And Lot said to them, Not so, O my Lord;
- 19 See now, your servant has had grace in your eyes and great is your mercy in keeping my life from destruction, but I am not able to get as far as the mountain before evil overtakes me and death;
- 20 This town, now, is near, and it is a little one: O, let me go there (is it not a little one?) so that my life may be safe.
- 21 And he said, See, I have given you your request in this one thing more: I will not send destruction on this town.
- 22 Go there quickly, for I am not able to do anything till you have come there. For this reason, the town was named Zoar.
- 23 The sun was up when Lot came to Zoar.
- 24 Then the Lord sent fire and flaming smoke raining down from heaven on Sodom and Gomorrah.
- 25 And he sent destruction on those towns, with all the lowland and all the people of those towns and every green thing in the land.
- 26 But Lot's wife, looking back, became a pillar of salt.
- 27 And Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he had been talking with the Lord:
- 28 And looking in the direction of Sodom and Gomorrah and the lowland, he saw the smoke of the land going up like the smoke of an oven.
- 29 So it came about that when God sent destruction on the towns of the lowland, he kept his word to Abraham, and sent Lot safely away when he put an end to the towns where he was living.
- 30 Then Lot went up out of Zoar to the mountain, and was living there with his two daughters, for fear kept him from living in Zoar: and he and his daughters made their living-place in a hole in the rock.
- 31 And the older daughter said to her sister, Our father is old, and there is no man to be a husband to us in the natural way:
- 32 Come, let us give our father much wine, and we will go into his bed, so that we may have offspring by our father,
- 33 And that night they made their father take much wine; and the older daughter went into his bed; and he had no knowledge of when she went in or when she went away.
- 34 And on the day after, the older daughter said to the younger, Last night I was with my father; let us make him take much wine this night again, and do you go to him, so that we may have offspring by our father.
- 35 And that night again they made their father take much wine; and the younger daughter went into his bed; and he had no knowledge of when she went in or when she went away.
- 36 And so the two daughters of Lot were with child by their father.
- 37 And the older daughter had a son, and she gave him the name Moab: he is the father of the Moabites to this day.
- 38 And the younger had a son and gave him the name Ben-ammi: from him come the children of Ammon to this day.
- 1 And Abraham went on his way from there to the land of the South, and was living between Kadesh and Shur, in Gerar.
- 2 And Abraham said of Sarah, his wife, She is my sister: and Abimelech, king of Gerar, sent and took Sarah.
- 3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream in the night, and said to him, Truly you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken; for she is a man's wife.
- 4 Now Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, Lord, will you put to death an upright nation?
- 5 Did he not say to me himself, She is my sister? and she herself said, He is my brother: with an upright heart and clean hands have I done this.
- 6 And God said to him in the dream, I see that you have done this with an upright heart, and I have kept you from sinning against me: for this reason I did not let you come near her.

- 7 So now, give the man back his wife, for he is a prophet, and let him say a prayer for you, so your life may be safe: but if you do not give her back, be certain that death will come to you and all your house.
- 8 So Abimelech got up early in the morning and sent for all his servants and gave them word of these things, and they were full of fear.
- 9 Then Abimelech sent for Abraham, and said, What have you done to us? what wrong have I done you that you have put on me and on my kingdom so great a sin? You have done to me things which are not to be done.
- 10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, Why did you do this thing?
- 11 And Abraham said, Because it seemed to me that there was no fear of God in this place, and that they might put me to death because of my wife.
- 12 And, in fact, she is my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife:
- 13 And when God sent me wandering from my father's house, I said to her, Let this be the sign of your love for me; wherever we go, say of me, He is my brother.
- 14 Then Abimelech gave to Abraham sheep and oxen and men-servants and women-servants, and gave him back his wife Sarah.
- 15 And Abimelech said, See, all my land is before you; take whatever place seems good to you.
- 16 And he said to Sarah, See, I have given to your brother a thousand bits of silver so that your wrong may be put right; now your honour is clear in the eyes of all.
- 17 Then Abraham made prayer to God, and God made Abimelech well again, and his wife and his women-servants, so that they had children.
- 18 For the Lord had kept all the women of the house of Abimelech from having children, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.
- 1 And the Lord came to Sarah as he had said and did to her as he had undertaken.
- 2 And Sarah became with child, and gave Abraham a son when he was old, at the time named by God.
- 3 And Abraham gave to his son, to whom Sarah had given birth, the name Isaac.
- 4 And when his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham made him undergo circumcision, as God had said to him.
- 5 Now Abraham was a hundred years old when the birth of Isaac took place.
- 6 And Sarah said, God has given me cause for laughing, and everyone who has news of it will be laughing with me.
- 7 And she said, Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would have a child at her breast? for see, I have given him a son now when he is old.
- 8 And when the child was old enough to be taken from the breast, Abraham made a great feast.
- 9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian playing with Isaac.
- 10 So she said to Abraham, Send away that woman and her son: for the son of that woman is not to have a part in the heritage with my son Isaac.
- 11 And this was a great grief to Abraham because of his son.
- 12 But God said, Let it not be a grief to you because of the boy and Hagar his mother; give ear to whatever Sarah says to you, because it is from Isaac that your seed will take its name.
- 13 And I will make a nation of the son of your servant-woman, because he is your seed.
- 14 And early in the morning Abraham got up, and gave Hagar some bread and a water-skin, and put the boy on her back, and sent her away: and she went, wandering in the waste land of Beer-sheba.
- 15 And when all the water in the skin was used up, she put the child down under a tree.
- 16 And she went some distance away, about an arrow flight, and seating herself on the earth, she gave way to bitter weeping, saying, Let me not see the death of my child.
- 17 And the boy's cry came to the ears of God; and the angel of God said to Hagar from heaven, Hagar, why are you weeping? have no fear, for the child's cry has come to the ears of God.
- 18 Come, take your child in your arms, for I will make of him a great nation.
- 19 Then God made her eyes open, and she saw a water-spring, and she got water in the skin and gave the boy a drink.
- 20 And God was with the boy, and he became tall and strong, and he became a bowman, living in the waste land.
- 21 And while he was in the waste land of Paran, his mother got him a wife from the land of Egypt.
- 22 Now at that time, Abimelech and Phicol, the captain of his army, said to Abraham, I see that God is with you in all you do.

- 23 Now, then, give me your oath, in the name of God, that you will not be false to me or to my sons after me, but that as I have been good to you, so you will be to me and to this land where you have been living.
- 24 And Abraham said, I will give you my oath.
- 25 But Abraham made a protest to Abimelech because of a water-hole which Abimelech's servants had taken by force.
- 26 But Abimelech said, I have no idea who has done this thing; you never gave me word of it, and I had no knowledge of it till this day.
- 27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made an agreement together.
- 28 And Abraham put seven young lambs of the flock on one side by themselves.
- 29 Then Abimelech said, What are these seven lambs which you have put on one side?
- 30 And he said, Take these seven lambs from me as a witness that I have made this water-hole.
- 31 So he gave that place the name Beer-sheba, because there the two of them had given their oaths.
- 32 So they made an agreement at Beer-sheba, and Abimelech and Phicol, the captain of his army, went back to the land of the Philistines.
- 33 And Abraham, after planting a holy tree in Beer-sheba, gave worship to the name of the Lord, the Eternal God.
- 34 And Abraham went on living in the land of the Philistines as in a strange country.
- 1 Now after these things, God put Abraham to the test, and said to him, Abraham; and he said, Here am I.
- 2 And he said to him, Take your son, your dearly loved only son Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah and give him as a burned offering on one of the mountains of which I will give you knowledge.
- 3 And Abraham got up early in the morning, and made ready his ass, and took with him two of his young men and Isaac, his son, and after the wood for the burned offering had been cut, he went on his way to the place of which God had given him word.
- 4 And on the third day, Abraham, lifting up his eyes, saw the place a long way off.
- 5 Then he said to his young men, Keep here with the ass; and I and the boy will go on and give worship and come back again to you.
- 6 And Abraham put the wood for the burned offering on his son's back, and he himself took the fire and the knife in his hand, and the two of them went on together.
- 7 Then Isaac said to Abraham, My father; and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, We have wood and fire here, but where is the lamb for the burned offering?
- 8 And Abraham said, God himself will give the lamb for the burned offering: so they went on together.
- 9 And they came to the place of which God had given him knowledge; and there Abraham made the altar and put the wood in place on it, and having made tight the bands round Isaac his son, he put him on the wood on the altar.
- 10 And stretching out his hand, Abraham took the knife to put his son to death.
- 11 But the voice of the angel of the Lord came from heaven, saying, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I.
- 12 And he said, Let not your hand be stretched out against the boy to do anything to him; for now I am certain that the fear of God is in your heart, because you have not kept back your son, your only son, from me.
- 13 And lifting up his eyes, Abraham saw a sheep fixed by its horns in the brushwood: and Abraham took the sheep and made a burned offering of it in place of his son.
- 14 And Abraham gave that place the name Yahweh-yireh: as it is said to this day, In the mountain the Lord is seen.
- 15 And the voice of the angel of the Lord came to Abraham a second time from heaven,
- 16 Saying, I have taken an oath by my name, says the Lord, because you have done this and have not kept back from me your dearly loved only son,
- 17 That I will certainly give you my blessing, and your seed will be increased like the stars of heaven and the sand by the seaside; your seed will take the land of those who are against them;
- 18 And your seed will be a blessing to all the nations of the earth, because you have done what I gave you orders to do.
- 19 Then Abraham went back to his young men and they went together to Beer-sheba, the place where Abraham was living.
- 20 After these things, Abraham had news that Milcah, the wife of his brother Nahor, had given birth to children;
- 21 Uz the oldest, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel, the father of Aram,
- 22 And Chesed and Hazo and Pildash and Jidlaph and Bethuel.
- 23 Bethuel was the father of Rebekah: these eight were the children of Milcah and Nahor, Abraham's brother.

- 24 And his servant Reumah gave birth to Tebah and Gaham and Tahash and Maacah.
- 1 Now the years of Sarah's life were a hundred and twenty-seven.
- 2 And Sarah's death took place in Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan: and Abraham went into his house, weeping and sorrowing for Sarah.
- 3 And Abraham came from his dead and said to the children of Heth,
- 4 I am living among you as one from a strange country: give me some land here as my property, so that I may put my dead to rest.
- 5 And in answer the children of Heth said to Abraham,
- 6 My lord, truly you are a great chief among us; take the best of our resting-places for your dead; not one of us will keep back from you a place where you may put your dead to rest.
- 7 And Abraham got up and gave honour to the children of Heth, the people of that land.
- 8 And he said to them, If you will let me put my dead to rest here, make a request for me to Ephron, the son of Zohar,
- 9 That he will give me the hollow in the rock named Machpelah, which is his property at the end of his field; let him give it to me for its full price as a resting-place for my dead among you.
- 10 Now Ephron was seated among the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite gave Abraham his answer in the hearing of the children of Heth, and of all those who came into his town, saying,
- 11 No, my lord, I will give you the field with the hollow in the rock; before all the children of my people will I give it to you for a resting-place for your dead.
- 12 And Abraham went down on his face before the people of the land.
- 13 And Abraham said to Ephron, in the hearing of the people of the land, If only you will give ear to me, I will give you the price of the field; take it, and let me put my dead to rest there.
- 14 So Ephron said to Abraham,
- 15 My lord, give ear to me: the value of the land is four hundred shekels; what is that between me and you? so put your dead to rest there.
- 16 And Abraham took note of the price fixed by Ephron in the hearing of the children of Heth, and gave him four hundred shekels in current money.
- 17 So Ephron's field at Machpelah near Mamre, with the hollow in the rock and all the trees in the field and round it,
- 18 Became the property of Abraham before the eyes of the children of Heth and of all who came into the town.
- 19 Then Abraham put Sarah his wife to rest in the hollow rock in the field of Machpelah near Mamre, that is, Hebron in the land of Canaan.
- 20 And the field and the hollow rock were handed over to Abraham as his property by the children of Heth.
- 1 Now Abraham was old and far on in years: and the Lord had given him everything in full measure.
- 2 And Abraham said to his chief servant, the manager of all his property, Come now, put your hand under my leg:
- 3 And take an oath by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you will not get a wife for my son Isaac from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I am living;
- 4 But that you will go into my country and to my relations and get a wife there for my son Isaac.
- 5 And the servant said, If by chance the woman will not come with me into this land, am I to take your son back again to the land from which you came?
- 6 And Abraham said, Take care that you do not let my son go back to that land.
- 7 The Lord God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my birth, and made an oath to me, saying, To your seed I will give this land: he will send his angel before you and give you a wife for my son in that land.
- 8 And if the woman will not come with you, then you are free from this oath; only do not take my son back there.
- 9 And the servant put his hand under Abraham's leg, and gave him his oath about this thing.
- 10 And the servant took ten of his master's camels, and all sorts of good things of his master's, and went to Mesopotamia, to the town of Nahor.
- 11 And he made the camels take their rest outside the town by the water-spring in the evening, at the time when the women came to get water.
- 12 And he said, O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, let me do well in what I have undertaken this day, and give your mercy to my master Abraham.

- 13 See, I am waiting here by the water-spring; and the daughters of the town are coming out to get water:
- 14 Now, may the girl to whom I say, Let down your vessel and give me a drink, and who says in answer, Here is a drink for you and let me give water to your camels: may she be the one marked out by you for your servant Isaac: so may I be certain that you have
- 15 And even before his words were ended, Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, who was the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her water-vessel on her arm.
- 16 She was a very beautiful girl, a virgin, who had never been touched by a man: and she went down to the spring to get water in her vessel.
- 17 And the servant came running to her and said, Give me a little water from your vessel.
- 18 And she said, Take a drink, my lord: and quickly letting down her vessel onto her hand, she gave him a drink.
- 19 And having done so, she said, I will get water for your camels till they have had enough.
- 20 And after putting the water from her vessel into the animals' drinking-place, she went quickly back to the spring and got water for all the camels.
- 21 And the man, looking at her, said nothing, waiting to see if the Lord had given his journey a good outcome.
- 22 And when the camels had had enough, the man took a gold nose-ring, half a shekel in weight, and two ornaments for her arms of ten shekels weight of gold;
- 23 And said to her, Whose daughter are you? is there room in your father's house for us?
- 24 And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, Nahor's wife.
- 25 And she said, We have a great store of dry grass and cattle-food, and there is room for you.
- 26 And with bent head the man gave worship to the Lord;
- 27 And said, Praise be to the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who has given a sign that he is good and true to my master, by guiding me straight to the house of my master's family.
- 28 So the girl went running and took the news of these things to her mother's house
- 29 Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and he came out quickly to the man at the water-spring.
- 30 And when he saw the nose-ring and the ornaments on his sister's hands, and when she gave him word of what the man had said to her, then he went out to the man who was waiting with the camels by the water-spring.
- 31 And he said to him, Come in, you on whom is the blessing of the Lord; why are you waiting outside? for I have made the house ready for you, and a place for the camels.
- 32 Then the man came into the house, and Laban took their cords off the camels and gave them dry grass and food, and he gave to him and the men who were with him water for washing their feet.
- 33 And meat was put before him, but he said, I will not take food till I have made my business clear to you. And they said, Do so.
- 34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.
- 35 The Lord has given my master every blessing, and he has become great: he has given him flocks and herds and silver and gold, and men-servants and women-servants and camels and asses.
- 36 And when Sarah, my master's wife, was old, she gave birth to a son, to whom he has given all he has.
- 37 And my master made me take an oath, saying, Do not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I am living;
- 38 But go to my father's house and to my relations for a wife for my son.
- 39 And I said to my master, What if the woman will not come with me?
- 40 And he said, The Lord, whom I have ever kept before me, will send his angel with you, who will make it possible for you to get a wife for my son from my relations and my father's house;
- 41 And you will be free from your oath to me when you come to my people; and if they will not give her to you, you will be free from your oath.
- 42 And I came today to the water-spring, and I said, O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if it is your purpose to give a good outcome to my journey,
- 43 Let it come about that, while I am waiting here by the water-spring, if a girl comes to get water and I say to her, Give me a little water from your vessel, and she says,
- 44 Take a drink, and I will get water for your camels; let her be the woman marked out by the Lord for my master's son.

- 45 And even while I was saying this to myself, Rebekah came out with her vessel on her arm; and she went down to the spring to get water; and I said to her, Give me a drink.
- 46 And straight away she took down her vessel from her arm, and said, Take a drink, and I will get water for your camels.
- 47 And questioning her, I said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nahor, and Milcah his wife. Then I put the ring on her nose and the ornaments on her hands.
- 48 And with bent head I gave worship and praise to the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, by whom I had been guided in the right way, to get the daughter of my master's brother for his son.
- 49 And now, say if you will do what is good and right for my master or not, in order that it may be clear to me what I have to do.
- 50 Then Laban and Bethuel said in answer, This is the Lord's doing: it is not for us to say Yes or No to you.
- 51 See, here is Rebekah: take her and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as the Lord has said.
- 52 And at these words, Abraham's servant went down on his face and gave praise to the Lord.
- 53 Then he took jewels of silver and jewels of gold and fair robes and gave them to Rebekah: and he gave things of value to her mother and her brother.
- 54 Then he and the men who were with him had food and drink, and took their rest there that night; and in the morning he got up, and said, Let me now go back to my master.
- 55 But her brother and her mother said, Let the girl be with us a week or ten days, and then she may go.
- 56 And he said, Do not keep me; the Lord has given a good outcome to my journey; let me now go back to my master.
- 57 And they said, We will send for the girl, and let her make the decision.
- 58 And they sent for Rebekah and said to her, Are you ready to go with this man? And she said, I am ready.
- 59 So they sent their sister Rebekah and her servant with Abraham's servant and his men.
- 60 And they gave Rebekah their blessing, saying, O sister, may you be the mother of thousands and ten thousands; and may your seed overcome all those who make war against them.
- 61 So Rebekah and her servant-women went with the man, seated on the camels; and so the servant took Rebekah and went on his way.
- 62 Now Isaac had come through the waste land to Beer-lahai-roi; for he was living in the South.
- 63 And when the evening was near, he went wandering out into the fields, and lifting up his eyes he saw camels coming.
- 64 And when Rebekah, looking up, saw Isaac, she got down from her camel,
- 65 And said to the servant, Who is that man coming to us through the field? And the servant said, It is my master: then she took her veil, covering her face with it.
- 66 Then the servant gave Isaac the story of all he had done.
- 67 And Isaac took Rebekah into his tent and she became his wife; and in his love for her, Isaac was comforted after his father's death.
- 1 And Abraham took another wife named Keturah.
- 2 She became the mother of Zimran and Jokshan and Medan and Midian and Ishbak and Shuah.
- 3 And Jokshan became the father of Sheba and Dedan. And from Dedan came the Asshurim and Letushim and Leummim.
- 4 And from Midian came Ephah and Epher and Hanoah and Abida and Eldaah. All these were the offspring of Keturah.
- 5 Now Abraham gave all his property to Isaac;
- 6 But to the sons of his other women he gave offerings, and sent them away, while he was still living, into the east country.
- 7 Now the years of Abraham's life were a hundred and seventy-five.
- 8 And Abraham came to his death, an old man, full of years; and he was put to rest with his people.
- 9 And Isaac and Ishmael, his sons, put him to rest in the hollow rock of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hittite, near Mamre;
- 10 The same field which Abraham got from the children of Heth: there Abraham was put to rest with Sarah, his wife.
- 11 Now after the death of Abraham, the blessing of God was with Isaac, his son.
- 12 Now these are the generations of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, whose mother was Hagar the Egyptian, the servant of Sarah:

- 13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael by their generations: Ishmael's first son was Nebaioth; then Kedar and Adbeel and Mibsam
- 14 And Mishma and Dumah and Massa,
- 15 Hadad and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:
- 16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names in their towns and their tent-circles; twelve chiefs with their peoples.
- 17 And the years of Ishmael's life were a hundred and thirty-seven: and he came to his end, and was put to rest with his people.
- 18 And their country was from Havilah to Shur which is east of Egypt: they took their place to the east of all their brothers.
- 19 Now these are the generations of Abraham's son Isaac:
- 20 Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramaean of Paddan-aram, and the sister of Laban the Aramaean, to be his wife.
- 21 Isaac made prayer to the Lord for his wife because she had no children; and the Lord gave ear to his prayer, and Rebekah became with child.
- 22 And the children were fighting together inside her, and she said, If it is to be so, why am I like this? So she went to put her question to the Lord.
- 23 And the Lord said to her, Two nations are in your body, and two peoples will come to birth from you: the one will be stronger than the other, and the older will be the servant of the younger.
- 24 And when the time came for her to give birth, there were two children in her body.
- 25 And the first came out red from head to foot like a robe of hair, and they gave him the name of Esau.
- 26 And after him, his brother came out, gripping Esau's foot; and he was named Jacob: Isaac was sixty years old when she gave birth to them.
- 27 And the boys came to full growth; and Esau became a man of the open country, an expert Bowman; but Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents.
- 28 Now Isaac's love was for Esau, because Esau's meat was greatly to his taste: but Rebekah had more love for Jacob.
- 29 And one day Jacob was cooking some soup when Esau came in from the fields in great need of food;
- 30 And Esau said to Jacob, Give me a full meal of that red soup, for I am overcome with need for food: for this reason he was named Edom.
- 31 And Jacob said, First of all give me your birthright.
- 32 And Esau said, Truly, I am at the point of death: what profit is the birthright to me?
- 33 And Jacob said, First of all give me your oath; and he gave him his oath, handing over his birthright to Jacob.
- 34 Then Jacob gave him bread and soup; and he took food and drink and went away, caring little for his birthright.
- 1 Then came a time of great need in the land, like that which had been before in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, at Gerar.
- 2 And the Lord came to him in a vision and said, Do not go down to Egypt; keep in the land of which I will give you knowledge:
- 3 Keep in this land, and I will be with you and give you my blessing; for to you and to your seed will I give all these lands, giving effect to the oath which I made to your father Abraham;
- 4 I will make your seed like the stars of heaven in number, and will give them all these lands, and your seed will be a blessing to all the nations of the earth;
- 5 Because Abraham gave ear to my voice and kept my words, my rules, my orders, and my laws.
- 6 So Isaac went on living in Gerar;
- 7 And when he was questioned by the men of the place about his wife, he said, She is my sister; fearing to say, She is my wife; for, he said, the men of the place may put me to death on account of Rebekah; because she is very beautiful.
- 8 And when he had been there for some time, Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looking through a window, saw Isaac playing with Rebekah his wife.
- 9 And he said to Isaac, It is clear that she is your wife: why then did you say, She is my sister? And Isaac said, For fear that I might be put to death because of her.
- 10 Then Abimelech said, What have you done to us? one of the people might well have had connection with your wife, and the sin would have been ours.

- 11 And Abimelech gave orders to his people that anyone touching Isaac or his wife was to be put to death.
- 12 Now Isaac, planting seed in that land, got in the same year fruit a hundred times as much, for the blessing of the Lord was on him.
- 13 And his wealth became very great, increasing more and more;
- 14 For he had great wealth of flocks and herds and great numbers of servants; so that the Philistines were full of envy.
- 15 Now all the water-holes, which his father's servants had made in the days of Abraham, had been stopped up with earth by the Philistines.
- 16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go away from us, for you are stronger than we are.
- 17 So Isaac went away from there, and put up his tents in the valley of Gerar, making his living-place there.
- 18 And he made again the water-holes which had been made in the days of Abraham his father, and which had been stopped up by the Philistines; and he gave them the names which his father had given them.
- 19 Now Isaac's servants made holes in the valley, and came to a spring of flowing water.
- 20 But the herdmen of Gerar had a fight with Isaac's herdmen, for they said, The spring is ours: so he gave the spring the name of Esek, because there was a fight about it.
- 21 Then they made another water-hole, and there was a fight about that, so he gave it the name of Sitnah.
- 22 Then he went away from there, and made another water-hole, about which there was no fighting: so he gave it the name of Rehoboth, for he said, Now the Lord has made room for us, and we will have fruit in this land.
- 23 And from there he went on to Beer-sheba.
- 24 That night the Lord came to him in a vision, and said, I am the God of your father Abraham: have no fear for I am with you, blessing you, and your seed will be increased because of my servant Abraham.
- 25 Then he made an altar there, and gave worship to the name of the Lord, and he put up his tents there, and there his servants made a water-hole.
- 26 And Abimelech had come to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his friend and Phicol, the captain of his army.
- 27 And Isaac said to them, Why have you come to me, seeing that in your hate for me you sent me away from you?
- 28 And they said, We saw clearly that the Lord was with you: so we said, Let there be an oath between us and you, and let us make an agreement with you;
- 29 That you will do us no damage, even as we put no hand on you, and did you nothing but good, and sent you away in peace: and now the blessing of the Lord is on you.
- 30 Then he made a feast for them, and they all had food and drink.
- 31 And early in the morning they took an oath one to the other: then Isaac sent them away and they went on their way in peace.
- 32 And that day Isaac's servants came to him and gave him word of the water-hole which they had made, and said to him, We have come to water.
- 33 And he gave it the name of Shibah: so the name of that town is Beer-sheba to this day.
- 34 And when Esau was forty years old, he took as his wives Judith, the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath, the daughter of Elon the Hittite:
- 35 And Isaac and Rebekah had grief of mind because of them.
- 1 Now when Isaac was old and his eyes had become clouded so that he was not able to see, he sent for Esau, his first son, and said to him, My son: and he said, Here am I.
- 2 And he said, See now, I am old, and my death may take place at any time:
- 3 So take your arrows and your bow and go out to the field and get meat for me;
- 4 And make me food, good to the taste, such as is pleasing to me, and put it before me, so that I may have a meal and give you my blessing before death comes to me.
- 5 Now Isaac's words to his son were said in Rebekah's hearing. Then Esau went out to get the meat.
- 6 And Rebekah said to Jacob, her son, Your father said to your brother Esau in my hearing,
- 7 Go and get some roe's meat and make me a good meal, so that I may be full, and give you my blessing before the Lord before my death.
- 8 Now, my son, do what I say.
- 9 Go to the flock and get me two fat young goats; and I will make of them a meal to your father's taste:

- 10 And you will take it to him, so that he may have a good meal and give you his blessing before his death.
- 11 And Jacob said to Rebekah, his mother, But Esau my brother is covered with hair, while I am smooth:
- 12 If by chance my father puts his hand on me, it will seem to him that I am tricking him, and he will put a curse on me in place of a blessing.
- 13 And his mother said, Let the curse be on me, my son: only do as I say, and go and get them for me.
- 14 So he went and got them and took them to his mother: and she made a meal to his father's taste.
- 15 And Rebekah took the fair robes of her oldest son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob, her younger son:
- 16 And she put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck:
- 17 And she gave into the hand of Jacob, her son, the meat and the bread which she had made ready.
- 18 And he came to his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I: who are you, my son?
- 19 And Jacob said, I am Esau, your oldest son; I have done as you said: come now, be seated and take of my meat, so that you may give me a blessing.
- 20 And Isaac said, How is it that you have got it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the Lord your God made it come my way.
- 21 And Isaac said, Come near so that I may put my hand on you, my son, and see if you are truly my son Esau or not.
- 22 And Jacob went near his father Isaac: and he put his hands on him; and he said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.
- 23 And he did not make out who he was, because his hands were covered with hair like his brother Esau's hands: so he gave him a blessing.
- 24 And he said, Are you truly my son Esau? And he said, I am.
- 25 And he said, Put it before me and I will take of my son's meat, so that I may give you a blessing. And he put it before him and he took it; and he gave him wine, and he had a drink.
- 26 And his father Isaac said to him, Come near now, my son, and give me a kiss.
- 27 And he came near and gave him a kiss; and smelling the smell of his clothing, he gave him a blessing, and said, See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field on which the blessing of the Lord has come:
- 28 May God give you the dew of heaven, and the good things of the earth, and grain and wine in full measure:
- 29 Let peoples be your servants, and nations go down before you: be lord over your brothers, and let your mother's sons go down before you: a curse be on everyone by whom you are cursed, and a blessing on those who give you a blessing.
- 30 And when Isaac had come to the end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob had not long gone away from Isaac his father, Esau came in from the field.
- 31 And he made ready a meal, good to the taste, and took it to his father, and said to him, Let my father get up and take of his son's meat, so that you may give me a blessing.
- 32 And Isaac his father said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your oldest son, Esau.
- 33 And in great fear Isaac said, Who then is he who got meat and put it before me, and I took it all before you came, and gave him a blessing, and his it will be?
- 34 And hearing the words of his father, Esau gave a great and bitter cry, and said to his father, Give a blessing to me, even to me, O my father!
- 35 And he said, Your brother came with deceit, and took away your blessing.
- 36 And he said, Is it because he is named Jacob that he has twice taken my place? for he took away my birthright, and now he has taken away my blessing. And he said, Have you not kept a blessing for me?
- 37 And Isaac answering said, But I have made him your master, and have given him all his brothers for servants; I have made him strong with grain and wine: what then am I to do for you, my son?
- 38 And Esau said to his father, Is that the only blessing you have, my father? give a blessing to me, even me! And Esau was overcome with weeping.
- 39 Then Isaac his father made answer and said to him, Far from the fertile places of the earth, and far from the dew of heaven on high will your living-place be:
- 40 By your sword will you get your living and you will be your brother's servant; but when your power is increased his yoke will be broken from off your neck.

- 41 So Esau was full of hate for Jacob because of his father's blessing; and he said in his heart, The days of weeping for my father are near; then I will put my brother Jacob to death.
- 42 Then Rebekah, hearing what Esau had said, sent for Jacob, her younger son, and said to him, It seems that your brother Esau is purposing to put you to death.
- 43 So now, my son, do what I say: go quickly to Haran, to my brother Laban;
- 44 And be there with him for a little time, till your brother's wrath is turned away;
- 45 Till the memory of what you have done to him is past and he is no longer angry: then I will send word for you to come back; are the two of you to be taken from me in one day?
- 46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, My life is a weariness to me because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob takes a wife from among the daughters of Heth, such as these, the women of this land, of what use will my life be to me?
- 1 Then Isaac sent for Jacob, and blessing him, said, Do not take a wife from among the women of Canaan;
- 2 But go to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father, and there get yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.
- 3 And may God, the Ruler of all, give you his blessing, giving you fruit and increase, so that you may become an army of peoples.
- 4 And may God give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed, so that the land of your wanderings, which God gave to Abraham, may be your heritage.
- 5 So Isaac sent Jacob away: and he went to Paddan-aram, to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramaean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.
- 6 So when Esau saw that Isaac had given Jacob his blessing, and sent him away to Paddan-aram to get a wife for himself there, blessing him and saying to him, Do not take a wife from among the women of Canaan;
- 7 And that Jacob had done as his father and mother said and had gone to Paddan-aram;
- 8 It was clear to Esau that his father had no love for the women of Canaan,
- 9 So Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath, the daughter of Abraham's son Ishmael, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.
- 10 So Jacob went out from Beer-sheba to go to Haran.
- 11 And coming to a certain place, he made it his resting-place for the night, for the sun had gone down; and he took one of the stones which were there, and putting it under his head he went to sleep in that place.
- 12 And he had a dream, and in his dream he saw steps stretching from earth to heaven, and the angels of God were going up and down on them.
- 13 And he saw the Lord by his side, saying, I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac: I will give to you and to your seed this land on which you are sleeping.
- 14 Your seed will be like the dust of the earth, covering all the land to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south: you and your seed will be a name of blessing to all the families of the earth.
- 15 And truly, I will be with you, and will keep you wherever you go, guiding you back again to this land; and I will not give you up till I have done what I have said to you.
- 16 And Jacob, awaking from his sleep, said, Truly, the Lord is in this place and I was not conscious of it.
- 17 And fear came on him, and he said, This is a holy place; this is nothing less than the house of God and the doorway of heaven.
- 18 And early in the morning Jacob took the stone which had been under his head, and put it up as a pillar and put oil on it.
- 19 And he gave that place the name of Beth-el, but before that time the town was named Luz.
- 20 Then Jacob took an oath, and said, If God will be with me, and keep me safe on my journey, and give me food and clothing to put on,
- 21 So that I come again to my father's house in peace, then I will take the Lord to be my God,
- 22 And this stone which I have put up for a pillar will be God's house: and of all you give me, I will give a tenth part to you.
- 1 Then Jacob went on his journey till he came to the land of the children of the East.
- 2 And there he saw a water-hole in a field, and by the side of it three flocks of sheep, for there they got water for the sheep: and on the mouth of the water-hole there was a great stone.

- 3 And all the flocks would come together there, and when the stone had been rolled away, they would give the sheep water, and put the stone back again in its place on the mouth of the water-hole.
- 4 Then Jacob said to the herdmen, My brothers, where do you come from? And they said, From Haran.
- 5 And he said to them, Have you any knowledge of Laban, the son of Nahor? And they said, We have.
- 6 And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well, and here is Rachel his daughter coming with the sheep.
- 7 Then Jacob said, The sun is still high and it is not time to get the cattle together: get water for the sheep and go and give them their food.
- 8 And they said, We are not able to do so till all the flocks have come together and the stone has been rolled away from the mouth of the water-hole; then we will get water for the sheep.
- 9 While he was still talking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she took care of them.
- 10 Then when Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, coming with Laban's sheep, he came near, and rolling the stone away from the mouth of the hole, he got water for Laban's flock.
- 11 And weeping for joy, Jacob gave Rachel a kiss.
- 12 And Rachel, hearing from Jacob that he was her father's relation and that he was the son of Rebekah, went running to give her father news of it.
- 13 And Laban, hearing news of Jacob, his sister's son, came running, and took Jacob in his arms, and kissing him, made him come into his house. And Jacob gave him news of everything.
- 14 And Laban said to him, Truly, you are my bone and my flesh. And he kept Jacob with him for the space of a month.
- 15 Then Laban said to Jacob, Because you are my brother are you to be my servant for nothing? say now, what is your payment to be?
- 16 Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.
- 17 And Leah's eyes were clouded, but Rachel was fair in face and form.
- 18 And Jacob was in love with Rachel; and he said, I will be your servant seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter.
- 19 And Laban said, It is better for you to have her than another man: go on living here with me.
- 20 And Jacob did seven years' work for Rachel; and because of his love for her it seemed to him only a very little time.
- 21 Then Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife so that I may have her, for the days are ended.
- 22 And Laban got together all the men of the place and gave a feast.
- 23 And in the evening he took Leah, his daughter, and gave her to him, and he went in to her.
- 24 And Laban gave Zilpah, his servant-girl, to Leah, to be her waiting-woman.
- 25 And in the morning Jacob saw that it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What have you done to me? was I not working for you so that I might have Rachel? why have you been false to me?
- 26 And Laban said, In our country we do not let the younger daughter be married before the older.
- 27 Let the week of the bride-feast come to its end and then we will give you the other in addition, if you will be my servant for another seven years.
- 28 And Jacob did so; and when the week was ended, Laban gave him his daughter Rachel for his wife.
- 29 And Laban gave Rachel his servant-girl Bilhah to be her waiting-woman.
- 30 Then Jacob took Rachel as his wife, and his love for her was greater than his love for Leah; and he went on working for Laban for another seven years.
- 31 Now the Lord, seeing that Leah was not loved, gave her a child; while Rachel had no children.
- 32 And Leah was with child, and gave birth to a son to whom she gave the name Reuben: for she said, The Lord has seen my sorrow; now my husband will have love for me.
- 33 Then she became with child again, and gave birth to a son; and said, Because it has come to the Lord's ears that I am not loved, he has given me this son in addition: and she gave him the name Simeon.
- 34 And she was with child again, and gave birth to a son; and said, Now at last my husband will be united to me, because I have given him three sons: so he was named Levi.
- 35 And she was with child again, and gave birth to a son: and she said, This time I will give praise to the Lord: so he was named Judah; after this she had no more children for a time.
- 1 Now Rachel, because she had no children, was full of envy of her sister; and she said to Jacob, If you do not give me children I will not go on living.

- 2 But Jacob was angry with Rachel, and said, Am I in the place of God, who has kept your body from having fruit?
- 3 Then she said, Here is my servant Bilhah, go in to her, so that she may have a child on my knees, and I may have a family by her.
- 4 So she gave him her servant Bilhah as a wife, and Jacob went in to her.
- 5 And Bilhah became with child, and gave birth to a son.
- 6 Then Rachel said, God has been my judge, and has given ear to my voice, and has given me a son; so he was named Dan.
- 7 And again Bilhah, Rachel's servant, was with child, and gave birth to a second son.
- 8 And Rachel said, I have had a great fight with my sister, and I have overcome her: and she gave the child the name Naphtali.
- 9 When it was clear to Leah that she would have no more children for a time, she gave Zilpah, her servant, to Jacob as a wife.
- 10 And Zilpah, Leah's servant, gave birth to a son.
- 11 And Leah said, It has gone well for me: and she gave him the name Gad.
- 12 And Zilpah, Leah's servant, gave birth to a second son.
- 13 And Leah said, Happy am I! and all women will give witness to my joy: and she gave him the name Asher.
- 14 Now at the time of the grain-cutting, Reuben saw some love-fruits in the field, and took them to his mother Leah. And Rachel said to her, Let me have some of your son's love-fruits.
- 15 But Leah said to her, Is it a small thing that you have taken my husband from me? and now would you take my son's love-fruits? Then Rachel said, You may have him tonight in exchange for your son's love-fruits.
- 16 In the evening, when Jacob came in from the field, Leah went out to him and said, Tonight you are to come to me, for I have given my son's love-fruits as a price for you. And he went in to her that night.
- 17 And God gave ear to her and she became with child, and gave Jacob a fifth son.
- 18 Then Leah said, God has made payment to me for giving my servant-girl to my husband: so she gave her son the name Issachar.
- 19 And again Leah became with child, and she gave Jacob a sixth son.
- 20 And she said, God has given me a good bride-price; now at last will I have my husband living with me, for I have given him six sons: and she gave him the name Zebulun.
- 21 After that she had a daughter, to whom she gave the name Dinah.
- 22 Then God gave thought to Rachel, and hearing her prayer he made her fertile.
- 23 And she was with child, and gave birth to a son: and she said, God has taken away my shame.
- 24 And she gave him the name Joseph, saying, May the Lord give me another son.
- 25 Now after the birth of Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, Let me go away to my place and my country.
- 26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have been your servant, and let me go: for you have knowledge of all the work I have done for you.
- 27 And Laban said, If you will let me say so, do not go away; for I have seen by the signs that the Lord has been good to me because of you.
- 28 Say then what your payment is to be and I will give it.
- 29 Then Jacob said, You have seen what I have done for you, and how your cattle have done well under my care.
- 30 For before I came you had little, and it has been greatly increased; and the Lord has given you a blessing in everything I have done; but when am I to do something for my family?
- 31 And Laban said, What am I to give you? And Jacob said, Do not give me anything; but I will again take up the care of your flock if you will only do this for me:
- 32 Let me go through all your flock today, taking out from among them all the sheep which are marked or coloured or black, and all the marked or coloured goats: these will be my payment.
- 33 And so you will be able to put my honour to the test in time to come; if you see among my flocks any goats which are not marked or coloured, or any sheep which is not black, you may take me for a thief.
- 34 And Laban said, Let it be as you say.

- 35 So that day he took all the he-goats which were banded or coloured, and all the she-goats which were marked or coloured or had white marks, and all the black sheep, and gave them into the care of his sons;
- 36 And sent them three days' journey away: and Jacob took care of the rest of Laban's flock.
- 37 Then Jacob took young branches of trees, cutting off the skin so that the white wood was seen in bands.
- 38 And he put the banded sticks in the drinking-places where the flock came to get water; and they became with young when they came to the water.
- 39 And because of this, the flock gave birth to young which were marked with bands of colour.
- 40 These lambs Jacob kept separate; and he put his flock in a place by themselves and not with Laban's flock.
- 41 And whenever the stronger ones of the flock became with young, Jacob put the sticks in front of them in the drinking-places, so that they might become with young when they saw the sticks.
- 42 But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put the sticks before them; so that the feebler flocks were Laban's and the stronger were Jacob's.
- 43 So Jacob's wealth was greatly increased; he had great flocks and women-servants and men-servants and camels and asses.
- 1 Now it came to the ears of Jacob that Laban's sons were saying, Jacob has taken away all our father's property, and in this way he has got all this wealth.
- 2 And Jacob saw that Laban's feeling for him was no longer what it had been before.
- 3 Then the Lord said to Jacob, Go back to the land of your fathers, and to your relations, and I will be with you.
- 4 And Jacob sent for Rachel and Leah to come to him in the field among his flock.
- 5 And he said to them, It is clear to me that your father's feeling is no longer what it was to me; but the God of my father has been with me
- 6 And you have seen how I have done all in my power for your father,
- 7 But your father has not kept faith with me, and ten times he has made changes in my payment; but God has kept him from doing me damage.
- 8 If he said, All those in the flock which have marks are to be yours, then all the flock gave birth to marked young; and if he said, All the banded ones are to be yours, then all the flock had banded young.
- 9 So God has taken away your father's cattle and has given them to me.
- 10 And at the time when the flock were with young, I saw in a dream that all the he-goats which were joined with the she-goats were banded and marked and coloured.
- 11 And in my dream the angel of the Lord said to me, Jacob: and I said, Here am I.
- 12 And he said, See how all the he-goats are banded and marked and coloured: for I have seen what Laban has done to you.
- 13 I am the God of Beth-el, where you put oil on the pillar and took an oath to me: now then, come out of this land and go back to the country of your birth.
- 14 Then Rachel and Leah said to him in answer, What part or heritage is there for us in our father's house?
- 15 Are we not as people from a strange country to him? for he took a price for us and now it is all used up.
- 16 For the wealth which God has taken from him is ours and our children's; so now, whatever God has said to you, do.
- 17 Then Jacob put his wives and his sons on camels;
- 18 And sending on before him all his cattle and his property which he had got together in Paddan-aram, he made ready to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.
- 19 Now Laban had gone to see to the cutting of the wool of his sheep; so Rachel secretly took the images of the gods of her father's house.
- 20 And Jacob went away secretly, without giving news of his flight to Laban the Aramaean.
- 21 So he went away with all he had, and went across the River in the direction of the hill-country of Gilead.
- 22 And on the third day Laban had news of Jacob's flight.
- 23 And taking the men of his family with him, he went after him for seven days and overtook him in the hill-country of Gilead.
- 24 Then God came to Laban in a dream by night, and said to him, Take care that you say nothing good or bad to Jacob.
- 25 Now when Laban overtook him, Jacob had put up his tent in the hill-country; and Laban and his brothers put up their tents in the hill-country of Gilead.

- 26 And Laban said to Jacob, Why did you go away secretly, taking my daughters away like prisoners of war?
- 27 Why did you make a secret of your flight, not giving me word of it, so that I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with melody and music?
- 28 You did not even let me give a kiss to my sons and my daughters. This was a foolish thing to do.
- 29 It is in my power to do you damage: but the God of your father came to me this night, saying, Take care that you say nothing good or bad to Jacob.
- 30 And now, it seems, you are going because your heart's desire is for your father's house; but why have you taken my gods?
- 31 And Jacob, in answer, said to Laban, My fear was that you might take your daughters from me by force.
- 32 As for your gods, if anyone of us has them, let him be put to death: make search before us all for what is yours, and take it. For Jacob had no knowledge that Rachel had taken them.
- 33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent, and into the tents of the two servant-women, but they were not there; and he came out of Leah's tent and went into Rachel's.
- 34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and had put them in the camels' basket, and was seated on them. And Laban, searching through all the tent, did not come across them.
- 35 And she said to her father, Let not my lord be angry because I do not get up before you, for I am in the common condition of women. And with all his searching, he did not come across the images.
- 36 Then Jacob was angry with Laban, and said, What crime or sin have I done that you have come after me with such passion?
- 37 Now that you have made search through all my goods, what have you seen which is yours? Make it clear now before my people and your people, so that they may be judges between us.
- 38 These twenty years I have been with you; your sheep and your goats have had young without loss, not one of your he-goats have I taken for food.
- 39 Anything which was wounded by beasts I did not take to you, but myself made up for the loss of it; you made me responsible for whatever was taken by thieves, by day or by night.
- 40 This was my condition, wasted by heat in the day and by the bitter cold at night; and sleep went from my eyes.
- 41 These twenty years I have been in your house; I was your servant for fourteen years because of your daughters, and for six years I kept your flock, and ten times was my payment changed.
- 42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would have sent me away with nothing in my hands. But God has seen my troubles and the work of my hands, and this night he kept you back.
- 43 Then Laban, answering, said, These women are my daughters and these children my children, the flocks and all you see are mine: what now may I do for my daughters and for their children?
- 44 Come, let us make an agreement, you and I; and let it be for a witness between us.
- 45 Then Jacob took a stone and put it up as a pillar.
- 46 And Jacob said to his people, Get stones together; and they did so; and they had a meal there by the stones.
- 47 And the name Laban gave it was Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob gave it the name of Galeed.
- 48 And Laban said, These stones are a witness between you and me today. For this reason its name was Galeed,
- 49 And Mizpah, for he said, May the Lord keep watch on us when we are unable to see one another's doings.
- 50 If you are cruel to my daughters, or if you take other wives in addition to my daughters, then though no man is there to see, God will be the witness between us.
- 51 And Laban said, See these stones and this pillar which I have put between you and me;
- 52 They will be witness that I will not go over these stones to you, and you will not go over these stones or this pillar to me, for any evil purpose.
- 53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, be our judge. Then Jacob took an oath by the Fear of his father Isaac.
- 54 And Jacob made an offering on the mountain, and gave orders to his people to take food: so they had a meal and took their rest that night on the mountain.
- 55 And early in the morning Laban, after kissing and blessing his daughters, went on his way back to his country.
- 1 And on his way Jacob came face to face with the angels of God.
- 2 And when he saw them he said, This is the army of God: so he gave that place the name of Mahanaim.

- 3 Now Jacob sent servants before him to Esau, his brother, in the land of Seir, the country of Edom;
- 4 And he gave them orders to say these words to Esau: Your servant Jacob says, Till now I have been living with Laban:
- 5 And I have oxen and asses and flocks and men-servants and women-servants: and I have sent to give my lord news of these things so that I may have grace in his eyes.
- 6 When the servants came back they said, We have seen your brother Esau and he is coming out to you, and four hundred men with him.
- 7 Then Jacob was in great fear and trouble of mind: and he put all the people and the flocks and the herds and the camels into two groups;
- 8 And said, If Esau, meeting one group, makes an attack on them, the others will get away safely.
- 9 Then Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, the God of my father Isaac, the Lord who said to me, Go back to your country and your family and I will be good to you:
- 10 I am less than nothing in comparison with all your mercies and your faith to me your servant; for with only my stick in my hand I went across Jordan, and now I have become two armies.
- 11 Be my saviour from the hand of Esau, my brother: for my fear is that he will make an attack on me, putting to death mother and child.
- 12 And you said, Truly, I will be good to you, and make your seed like the sand of the sea which may not be numbered.
- 13 Then he put up his tent there for the night; and from among his goods he took, as an offering for his brother Esau,
- 14 Two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred females and twenty males from the sheep,
- 15 Thirty camels with their young ones, forty cows, ten oxen, twenty asses, and ten young asses.
- 16 These he gave to his servants, every herd by itself, and he said to his servants, Go on before me, and let there be a space between one herd and another.
- 17 And he gave orders to the first, saying, When my brother Esau comes to you and says, Whose servant are you, and where are you going, and whose are these herds?
- 18 Then say to him, These are your servant Jacob's; they are an offering for my lord, for Esau; and he himself is coming after us.
- 19 And he gave the same orders to the second and the third and to all those who were with the herds, saying, This is what you are to say to Esau when you see him;
- 20 And you are to say further, Jacob, your servant, is coming after us. For he said to himself, I will take away his wrath by the offering which I have sent on, and then I will come before him: it may be that I will have grace in his eyes.
- 21 So the servants with the offerings went on in front, and he himself took his rest that night in the tents with his people.
- 22 And in the night he got up, and taking with him his two wives and the two servant-women and his eleven children, he went over the river Jabbok.
- 23 He took them and sent them over the stream with all he had.
- 24 Then Jacob was by himself; and a man was fighting with him till dawn.
- 25 But when the man saw that he was not able to overcome Jacob, he gave him a blow in the hollow part of his leg, so that his leg was damaged.
- 26 And he said to him, Let me go now, for the dawn is near. But Jacob said, I will not let you go till you have given me your blessing.
- 27 Then he said, What is your name? And he said, Jacob.
- 28 And he said, Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel: for in your fight with God and with men you have overcome.
- 29 Then Jacob said, What is your name? And he said, What is my name to you? Then he gave him a blessing.
- 30 And Jacob gave that place the name of Peniel, saying, I have seen God face to face, and still I am living.
- 31 And while he was going past Peniel, the sun came up. And he went with unequal steps because of his damaged leg.
- 32 For this reason the children of Israel, even today, never take that muscle in the hollow of the leg as food, because the hollow of Jacob's leg was touched.
- 1 Then Jacob, lifting up his eyes, saw Esau coming with his four hundred men. So he made a division of the children between Leah and Rachel and the two women-servants.
- 2 He put the servants and their children in front, Leah and her children after them, and Rachel and Joseph at the back.
- 3 And he himself, going before them, went down on his face to the earth seven times till he came near his brother.

- 4 Then Esau came running up to him, and folding him in his arms, gave him a kiss: and the two of them were overcome with weeping.
- 5 Then Esau, lifting up his eyes, saw the women and the children, and said, Who are these with you? And he said, The children whom God in his mercy has given to your servant.
- 6 Then the servants and their children came near, and went down on their faces.
- 7 And Leah came near with her children, and then Joseph and Rachel, and they did the same.
- 8 And he said, What were all those herds which I saw on the way? And Jacob said, They were an offering so that I might have grace in my lord's eyes.
- 9 But Esau said, I have enough; keep what is yours, my brother, for yourself.
- 10 And Jacob said, Not so; but if I have grace in your eyes, take them as a sign of my love, for I have seen your face as one may see the face of God, and you have been pleased with me.
- 11 Take my offering then, with my blessing; for God has been very good to me and I have enough: so at his strong request, he took it.
- 12 And he said, Let us go on our journey together, and I will go in front.
- 13 But Jacob said, My lord may see that the children are only small, and there are young ones in my flocks and herds: one day's over-driving will be the destruction of all the flock.
- 14 Do you, my lord, go on before your servant; I will come on slowly, at the rate at which the cattle and the children are able to go, till I come to my lord at Seir.
- 15 And Esau said, Then keep some of my men with you. And he said, What need is there for that, if my lord is pleased with me?
- 16 So Esau, turning back that day, went on his way to Seir.
- 17 And Jacob went on to Succoth, where he made a house for himself and put up tents for his cattle: for this reason the place was named Succoth.
- 18 So Jacob came safely from Paddan-aram to the town of Shechem in the land of Canaan, and put up his tents near the town.
- 19 And for a hundred bits of money he got from the children of Hamor, the builder of Shechem, the field in which he had put up his tents.
- 20 And there he put up an altar, naming it El, the God of Israel.
 - 1 Now Dinah, the daughter whom Leah had by Jacob, went out to see the women of that country.
 - 2 And when Shechem, the son of Hamor the Hivite who was the chief of that land, saw her, he took her by force and had connection with her.
 - 3 Then his heart went out in love to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob, and he said comforting words to her.
 - 4 And Shechem said to Hamor, his father, Get me this girl for my wife.
 - 5 Now Jacob had word of what Shechem had done to his daughter; but his sons were in the fields with the cattle, and Jacob said nothing till they came.
 - 6 Then Hamor, the father of Shechem, came out to have a talk with Jacob.
 - 7 Now the sons of Jacob came in from the fields when they had news of it, and they were wounded and very angry because of the shame he had done in Israel by having connection with Jacob's daughter; and they said, Such a thing is not to be done.
 - 8 But Hamor said to them, Shechem, my son, is full of desire for your daughter: will you then give her to him for a wife?
 - 9 And let our two peoples be joined together; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.
 - 10 Go on living with us, and the country will be open to you; do trade and get property there.
 - 11 And Shechem said to her father and her brothers, If you will give ear to my request, whatever you say I will give to you.
 - 12 However great you make the bride-price and payment, I will give it; only let me have the girl for my wife.
 - 13 But the sons of Jacob gave a false answer to Shechem and Hamor his father, because of what had been done to Dinah their sister.
 - 14 And they said, It is not possible for us to give our sister to one who is without circumcision, for that would be a cause of shame to us:
 - 15 But on this condition only will we come to an agreement with you: if every male among you becomes like us and undergoes circumcision;

- 16 Then we will give our daughters to you and take your daughters to us and go on living with you as one people.
- 17 But if you will not undergo circumcision as we say, then we will take our daughter and go.
- 18 And their words were pleasing to Hamor and his son Shechem.
- 19 And without loss of time the young man did as they said, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter, and he was the noblest of his father's house.
- 20 Then Hamor and Shechem, his son, went to the meeting-place of their town, and said to the men of the town,
- 21 It is the desire of these men to be at peace with us; let them then go on living in this country and doing trade here, for the country is wide open before them; let us take their daughters as wives and let us give them our daughters.
- 22 But these men will make an agreement with us to go on living with us and to become one people, only on the condition that every male among us undergoes circumcision as they have done.
- 23 Then will not their cattle and their goods and all their beasts be ours? so let us come to an agreement with them so that they may go on living with us.
- 24 Then all the men of the town gave ear to the words of Hamor and Shechem his son; and every male in the town underwent circumcision.
- 25 But on the third day after, before the wounds were well, two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and came into the town by surprise and put all the males to death.
- 26 And Hamor and his son they put to death with the sword, and they took Dinah from Shechem's house and went away.
- 27 And the sons of Jacob came on them when they were wounded and made waste the town because of what had been done to their sister;
- 28 They took their flocks and their herds and their asses and everything in their town and in their fields,
- 29 And all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives; everything in their houses they took and made them waste.
- 30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, You have made trouble for me and given me a bad name among the people of this country, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and because we are small in number they will come together against me and make war on me; an
- 31 But they said, Were we to let him make use of our sister as a loose woman?
- 1 And God said to Jacob, Go up now to Beth-el and make your living-place there: and put up an altar there to the God who came to you when you were in flight from your brother Esau.
- 2 Then Jacob said to all his people, Put away the strange gods which are among you, and make yourselves clean, and put on a change of clothing:
- 3 And let us go up to Beth-el: and there I will make an altar to God, who gave me an answer in the day of my trouble, and was with me wherever I went.
- 4 Then they gave to Jacob all the strange gods which they had, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob put them away under the holy tree at Shechem.
- 5 So they went on their journey: and the fear of God was on the towns round about, so that they made no attack on the sons of Jacob.
- 6 And Jacob came to Luz in the land of Canaan (which is the same as Beth-el), he and all his people.
- 7 And there he made an altar, naming the place El-beth-el: because it was there he had the vision of God when he was in flight from his brother.
- 8 And Deborah, the servant who had taken care of Rebekah from her birth, came to her end, and was put to rest near Beth-el, under the holy tree: and they gave it the name of Allon-bacuth.
- 9 Now when Jacob was on his way from Paddan-aram, God came to him again and, blessing him, said,
- 10 Jacob is your name, but it will be so no longer; from now your name will be Israel; so he was named Israel.
- 11 And God said to him, I am God, the Ruler of all: be fertile, and have increase; a nation, truly a group of nations, will come from you, and kings will be your offspring;
- 12 And the land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you; and to your seed after you I will give the land.
- 13 Then God went up from him in the place where he had been talking with him.
- 14 And Jacob put up a pillar in the place where he had been talking with God, and put a drink offering on it, and oil.
- 15 And he gave to the place where God had been talking with him, the name of Beth-el.
- 16 So they went on from Beth-el; and while they were still some distance from Ephrath, the pains of birth came on Rachel and she had a hard time.

- 17 And when her pain was very great, the woman who was helping her said, Have no fear; for now you will have another son.
- 18 And in the hour when her life went from her (for death came to her), she gave the child the name Ben-oni: but his father gave him the name of Benjamin.
- 19 So Rachel came to her end and was put to rest on the road to Ephrath (which is Beth-lehem).
- 20 And Jacob put up a pillar on her resting-place; which is named, The Pillar of the resting-place of Rachel, to this day.
- 21 And Israel went journeying on and put up his tents on the other side of the tower of the flock.
- 22 Now while they were living in that country, Reuben had connection with Bilhah, his father's servant-woman: and Israel had news of it.
- 23 Now Jacob had twelve sons: the sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's first son, and Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun;
- 24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin;
- 25 The sons of Bilhah, Rachel's servant: Dan and Naphtali;
- 26 The sons of Zilpah, Leah's servant: Gad and Asher; these are the sons whom Jacob had in Paddan-aram.
- 27 And Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, at Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had been living.
- 28 And Isaac was a hundred and eighty years old.
- 29 Then Isaac came to his end and was put to rest with his father's people, an old man after a long life: and Jacob and Esau, his sons, put him in his last resting-place.
- 1 Now these are the generations of Esau, that is to say, Edom.
- 2 Esau's wives were women of Canaan: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite,
- 3 And Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, the sister of Nebaioth.
- 4 Adah had a son Eliphaz; and Basemath was the mother of Reuel;
- 5 Oholibamah was the mother of Jeush, Jalam, and Korah; these are the sons of Esau, whose birth took place in the land of Canaan.
- 6 Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters, and all the people of his house, and his beasts and his cattle and all his goods which he had got together in the land of Canaan, and went into the land of Seir, away from his brother Jacob.
- 7 For their wealth was so great that the land was not wide enough for the two of them and all their cattle.
- 8 So Esau made his living-place in the hill-country of Seir (Esau is Edom).
- 9 And these are the generations of Esau, the father of the Edomites in the hill-country of Seir:
- 10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.
- 11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.
- 12 And Eliphaz, the son of Esau, had connection with a woman named Timna, who gave birth to Amalek: all these were the children of Esau's wife Adah.
- 13 And these are the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: they were the children of Esau's wife Basemath.
- 14 And these are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon: she was the mother of Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.
- 15 These were the chiefs among the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz, Esau's first son: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz,
- 16 Korah, Gatam, Amalek: all these were chiefs in the land of Edom, the offspring of Eliphaz, the seed of Adah.
- 17 And these are the sons of Esau's son Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, Mizzah: these were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom, the children of Esau's wife Basemath.
- 18 And these are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: Jeush, Jalam, and Korah: these were the chiefs who came from Esau's wife Oholibamah, daughter of Anah.
- 19 These were the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these were their chiefs.
- 20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite who were living in that country; Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,
- 21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan: these are the chiefs of the Horites, offspring of Seir in the land of Edom.
- 22 The children of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; Lotan's sister was Timna.

- 23 And these are the children of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.
- 24 And these are the children of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah; that same Anah who made the discovery of the water-springs in the waste land, when he was looking after the asses of his father Zibeon.
- 25 And these are the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah his daughter.
- 26 These are the children of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.
- 27 These are the children of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.
- 28 These are the children of Dishan: Uz and Aran.
- 29 These were the Horite chiefs: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. Such were the Horite chiefs in their order in the land of Seir.
- 31 And these are the kings who were ruling in the land of Edom before there was any king over the children of Israel.
- 32 Bela, son of Beor, was king in Edom, and the name of his chief town was Dinhabah.
- 33 At his death, Jobab, son of Zerah of Bozrah, became king in his place.
- 34 And at the death of Jobab, Husham, from the country of the Temanites, became king in his place.
- 35 And at the death of Husham, Hadad, son of Bedad, who overcame the Midianites in the field of Moab, became king; his chief town was named Avith.
- 36 And at the death of Hadad, Samlah of Masrekah became king.
- 37 And at the death of Samlah, Shaul of Rehoboth by the River became king in his place.
- 38 And at the death of Shaul, Baal-hanan, son of Achbor, became king.
- 39 And at the death of Baal-hanan, Hadar became king in his place; his chief town was named Pau, and his wife's name was Mehetabel; she was the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-zahab.
- 40 These are the names of the chiefs of Esau in the order of their families and their places: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,
- 41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,
- 42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,
- 43 Magdiel, Iram; these are the Edomite chiefs, in their places in their heritage; this is Esau, the father of the Edomites.
- 1 Now Jacob was living in the land where his father had made a place for himself, in the land of Canaan.
- 2 These are the generations of Jacob: Joseph, a boy seventeen years old, was looking after the flock, together with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph gave their father a bad account of them.
- 3 Now the love which Israel had for Joseph was greater than his love for all his other children, because he got him when he was an old man: and he had a long coat made for him.
- 4 And because his brothers saw that Joseph was dearer to his father than all the others, they were full of hate for him, and would not say a kind word to him.
- 5 Now Joseph had a dream, and he gave his brothers an account of it, which made their hate greater than ever.
- 6 And he said to them, Let me give you the story of my dream.
- 7 We were in the field, getting the grain stems together, and my grain kept upright, and yours came round and went down on the earth before mine.
- 8 And his brothers said to him, Are you to be our king? will you have authority over us? And because of his dream and his words, their hate for him became greater than ever.
- 9 Then he had another dream, and gave his brothers an account of it, saying, I have had another dream: the sun and the moon and eleven stars gave honour to me.
- 10 And he gave word of it to his father and his brothers; but his father protesting said, What sort of a dream is this? am I and your mother and your brothers to go down on our faces to the earth before you?
- 11 And his brothers were full of envy; but his father kept his words in mind.
- 12 Now his brothers went to keep watch over their father's flock in Shechem.
- 13 And Israel said to Joseph, Are not your brothers with the flock in Shechem? come, I will send you to them. And he said to him, Here am I.
- 14 And he said to him, Go now, and see if your brothers are well and how the flock is; then come back and give me word. So he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.
- 15 And a man saw him wandering in the country, and said to him, What are you looking for?

- 16 And he said, I am looking for my brothers; please give me word of where they are keeping their flock.
- 17 And the man said, They have gone away from here, for they said in my hearing, Let us go to Dothan. So Joseph went after them and came up with them at Dothan.
- 18 But they saw him when he was a long way off, and before he came near them they made a secret design against him to put him to death;
- 19 Saying to one another, See, here comes this dreamer.
- 20 Let us now put him to death and put his body into one of these holes, and we will say, An evil beast has put him to death: then we will see what becomes of his dreams.
- 21 But Reuben, hearing these words, got him out of their hands, saying, Let us not take his life.
- 22 Do not put him to a violent death, but let him be placed in one of the holes; this he said to keep him safe from their hands, with the purpose of taking him back to his father again.
- 23 So when Joseph came to his brothers, they took off his long coat which he had on;
- 24 And they took him and put him in the hole: now the hole had no water in it.
- 25 Then seating themselves, they took their meal: and looking up, they saw a travelling band of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead on their way to Egypt, with spices and perfumes on their camels.
- 26 And Judah said to his brothers, What profit is there in putting our brother to death and covering up his blood?
- 27 Let us give him to these Ishmaelites for a price, and let us not put violent hands on him, for he is our brother, our flesh. And his brothers gave ear to him.
- 28 And some traders from Midian went by; so pulling Joseph up out of the hole, they gave him to the Ishmaelites for twenty bits of silver, and they took him to Egypt.
- 29 Now when Reuben came back to the hole, Joseph was not there; and giving signs of grief,
- 30 He went back to his brothers, and said, The child is gone; what am I to do?
- 31 Then they took Joseph's coat, and put on it some of the blood from a young goat which they had put to death,
- 32 And they took the coat to their father, and said, We came across this; is it your son's coat or not?
- 33 And he saw that it was, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast has put him to death; without doubt Joseph has come to a cruel end.
- 34 Then Jacob, giving signs of grief, put on haircloth, and went on weeping for his son day after day.
- 35 And all his sons and all his daughters came to give him comfort, but he would not be comforted, saying with weeping, I will go down to the underworld to my son. So great was his father's sorrow for him.
- 36 And in Egypt the men of Midian gave him for a price to Potiphar, a captain of high position in Pharaoh's house.
- 1 Now at that time, Judah went away from his brothers and became the friend of a man of Adullam named Hirah.
- 2 And there he saw the daughter of a certain man of Canaan named Shua, and took her as his wife.
- 3 And she gave birth to a son, and he gave him the name Er.
- 4 And again she gave birth to a son, and he gave him the name Onan.
- 5 Then she had another son, to whom she gave the name Shelah; she was at Chezib when the birth took place.
- 6 And Judah took a wife for his first son Er, and her name was Tamar.
- 7 Now Er, Judah's first son, did evil in the eyes of the Lord, so that he put him to death.
- 8 Then Judah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's wife and do what it is right for a husband's brother to do; make her your wife and get offspring for your brother.
- 9 But Onan, seeing that the offspring would not be his, went in to his brother's wife, but let his seed go on to the earth, so that he might not get offspring for his brother.
- 10 And what he did was evil in the eyes of the Lord, so that he put him to death, like his brother.
- 11 Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, Go back to your father's house and keep yourself as a widow till my son Shelah becomes a man: for he had in his mind the thought that death might come to him as it had come to his brothers. So Tamar went back
- 12 And after a time, Bath-shua, Judah's wife, came to her end; and after Judah was comforted for her loss, he went to Timnah, where they were cutting the wool of his sheep, and his friend Hirah of Adullam went with him.
- 13 And when Tamar had news that her father-in-law was going up to Timnah to the wool-cutting,

- 14 She took off her widow's clothing, and covering herself with her veil, she took her seat near Enaim on the road to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was now a man, but she had not been made his wife.
- 15 When Judah saw her he took her to be a loose woman of the town, because her face was covered.
- 16 And turning to her by the roadside, he said to her, Let me come in to you; for he had no idea that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, What will you give me as my price?
- 17 And he said, I will give you a young goat from the flock. And she said, What will you give me as a sign till you send it?
- 18 And he said, What would you have? And she said, Your ring and its cord and the stick in your hand. So he gave them to her and went in to her, and she became with child by him.
- 19 Then she got up and went away and took off her veil and put on her widow's clothing.
- 20 Then Judah sent his friend Hirah with the young goat, to get back the things which he had given as a sign to the woman: but she was not there.
- 21 And he put questions to the men of the place, saying, Where is the loose woman who was in Enaim by the wayside? And they said, There was no such woman there.
- 22 So he went back to Judah, and said, I have not seen her, and the men of the place say that there is no such woman there.
- 23 And Judah said, Let her keep the things, so that we may not be shamed; I sent the young goat, but you did not see the woman.
- 24 Now about three months after this, word came to Judah that Tamar, his daughter-in-law, had been acting like a loose woman and was with child. And Judah said, Take her out and let her be burned.
- 25 And while she was being taken out, she sent word to her father-in-law, saying, The man whose property these things are, is the father of my child: say then, whose are this ring and this cord and this stick?
- 26 Then Judah said openly that they were his, and said, She is more upright than I am, for I did not give her to Shelah my son. And he had no more connection with her.
- 27 And when the time came for her to give birth, it was clear that there were two children in her body.
- 28 And while she was in the act of giving birth, one of them put out his hand; and the woman who was with her put a red thread round his hand, saying, This one came out first.
- 29 But then he took his hand back again, and his brother came first to birth: and the woman said, What an opening you have made for yourself! So he was named Perez.
- 30 And then his brother came out, with the red thread round his hand, and he was named Zerah.
- 1 Now Joseph was taken down to Egypt; and Potiphar the Egyptian, a captain of high position in Pharaoh's house, got him for a price from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.
- 2 And the Lord was with Joseph, and he did well; and he was living in the house of his master the Egyptian.
- 3 And his master saw that the Lord was with him, making everything he did go well.
- 4 And having a high opinion of Joseph as his servant, he made him the overseer of his house and gave him control over all he had.
- 5 And from the time when he made him overseer and gave him control of all his property, the blessing of the Lord was with the Egyptian, because of Joseph; the blessing of the Lord was on all he had, in the house and in the field.
- 6 And he gave Joseph control of all his property, keeping no account of anything, but only the food which was put before him. Now Joseph was very beautiful in form and face.
- 7 And after a time, his master's wife, looking on Joseph with desire, said to him, Be my lover.
- 8 But he would not, and said to her, You see that my master keeps no account of what I do in his house, and has put all his property in my control;
- 9 So that no one has more authority in this house than I have; he has kept nothing back from me but you, because you are his wife; how then may I do this great wrong, sinning against God?
- 10 And day after day she went on requesting Joseph to come to her and be her lover, but he would not give ear to her.
- 11 Now one day he went into the house to do his work; and not one of the men of the house was inside.
- 12 And pulling at his coat, she said, Come to my bed; but slipping out of his coat, he went running away.
- 13 And when she saw that he had got away, letting her keep his coat,
- 14 She sent for the men of her house and said to them, See, he has let a Hebrew come here and make sport of us; he came to my bed, and I gave a loud cry;
- 15 And hearing it he went running out without his coat.

- 16 And she kept his coat by her, till his master came back.
- 17 Then she gave him the same story, saying, The Hebrew servant whom you have taken into our house came in to make sport of me;
- 18 And when I gave a loud cry he went running out without his coat.
- 19 And hearing his wife's account of what his servant had done, he became very angry.
- 20 And Joseph's master took him and put him in prison, in the place where the king's prisoners were kept in chains, and he was there in the prison-house.
- 21 But the Lord was with Joseph, and was good to him, and made the keeper of the prison his friend.
- 22 And the keeper of the prison put all the prisoners under Joseph's control, and he was responsible for whatever was done there.
- 23 And the keeper of the prison gave no attention to anything which was under his care, because the Lord was with him; and the Lord made everything he did go well.
- 1 Now after these things the chief servant who had the care of the wine, and the chief bread-maker in Pharaoh's house, did something against Pharaoh's orders;
- 2 And Pharaoh was angry with his two servants, with the chief wine-servant and the chief bread-maker;
- 3 And he put them in prison under the care of the captain of the army, in the same prison where Joseph himself was shut up.
- 4 And the captain put them in Joseph's care, and he did what was needed for them; and they were kept in prison for some time.
- 5 And these two had a dream on the same night; the chief wine-servant and the chief bread-maker of the king of Egypt, who were in prison, the two of them had dreams with a special sense.
- 6 And in the morning when Joseph came to them he saw that they were looking sad.
- 7 And he said to the servants of Pharaoh who were in prison with him, Why are you looking so sad?
- 8 Then they said to him, We have had a dream, and no one is able to give us the sense. And Joseph said, Does not the sense of dreams come from God? what was your dream?
- 9 Then the chief wine-servant gave Joseph an account of his dream, and said, In my dream I saw a vine before me;
- 10 And on the vine were three branches; and it seemed as if it put out buds and flowers, and from them came grapes ready for cutting.
- 11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and crushing them into Pharaoh's cup, gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.
- 12 Then Joseph said, This is the sense of your dream: the three branches are three days;
- 13 After three days Pharaoh will give you honour, and put you back into your place, and you will give him his cup as you did before, when you were his wine-servant.
- 14 But keep me in mind when things go well for you, and be good to me and say a good word for me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison:
- 15 For truly I was taken by force from the land of the Hebrews; and I have done nothing for which I might be put in prison.
- 16 Now when the chief bread-maker saw that the first dream had a good sense, he said to Joseph, I had a dream; and in my dream there were three baskets of white bread on my head;
- 17 And in the top basket were all sorts of cooked meats for Pharaoh; and the birds were taking them out of the baskets on my head.
- 18 Then Joseph said, This is the sense of your dream: the three baskets are three days;
- 19 After three days Pharaoh will take you out of prison, hanging you on a tree, so that your flesh will be food for birds.
- 20 Now the third day was Pharaoh's birthday, and he gave a feast for all his servants; and he gave honour to the chief wine-servant and the chief bread-maker among the others.
- 21 And he put the chief wine-servant back in his old place; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.
- 22 But the chief bread-maker was put to death by hanging, as Joseph had said.
- 23 But the wine-servant did not keep Joseph in mind or give a thought to him.
- 1 Now after two years had gone by, Pharaoh had a dream; and in his dream he was by the side of the Nile;
- 2 And out of the Nile came seven cows, good-looking and fat, and their food was the river-grass.

- 3 And after them seven other cows came out of the Nile, poor-looking and thin; and they were by the side of the other cows.
- 4 And the seven thin cows made a meal of the seven fat cows. Then Pharaoh came out of his sleep.
- 5 But he went to sleep again and had a second dream, in which he saw seven heads of grain, full and good, all on one stem.
- 6 And after them came up seven other heads, thin and wasted by the east wind.
- 7 And the seven thin heads made a meal of the good heads. And when Pharaoh was awake he saw it was a dream.
- 8 And in the morning his spirit was troubled; and he sent for all the wise men of Egypt and all the holy men, and put his dream before them, but no one was able to give him the sense of it.
- 9 Then the chief wine-servant said to Pharaoh, The memory of my sin comes back to me now;
- 10 Pharaoh had been angry with his servants, and had put me in prison in the house of the captain of the army, together with the chief bread-maker;
- 11 And we had a dream on the same night, the two of us, and the dreams had a special sense.
- 12 And there was with us a young Hebrew, the captain's servant, and when we put our dreams before him, he gave us the sense of them.
- 13 And it came about as he said: I was put back in my place, and the bread-maker was put to death by hanging.
- 14 Then Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and they took him quickly out of prison; and when his hair had been cut and his dress changed, he came before Pharaoh.
- 15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have had a dream, and no one is able to give me the sense of it; now it has come to my ears that you are able to give the sense of a dream when it is put before you.
- 16 Then Joseph said, Without God there will be no answer of peace for Pharaoh.
- 17 Then Pharaoh said, In my dream I was by the side of the Nile:
- 18 And out of the Nile came seven cows, fat and good-looking, and their food was the river-grass;
- 19 Then after them came seven other cows, very thin and poor-looking, worse than any I ever saw in the land of Egypt;
- 20 And the thin cows made a meal of the seven fat cows who came up first;
- 21 And even with the fat cows inside them they seemed as bad as before. And so I came out of my sleep.
- 22 And again in a dream I saw seven heads of grain, full and good, coming up on one stem:
- 23 And then I saw seven other heads, dry, thin, and wasted by the east wind, coming up after them:
- 24 And the seven thin heads made a meal of the seven good heads; and I put this dream before the wise men, but not one of them was able to give me the sense of it.
- 25 Then Joseph said, These two dreams have the same sense: God has made clear to Pharaoh what he is about to do.
- 26 The seven fat cows are seven years, and the seven good heads of grain are seven years: the two have the same sense.
- 27 The seven thin and poor-looking cows who came up after them are seven years; and the seven heads of grain, dry and wasted by the east wind, are seven years when there will be no food.
- 28 As I said to Pharaoh before, God has made clear to him what he is about to do.
- 29 Seven years are coming in which there will be great wealth of grain in Egypt;
- 30 And after that will come seven years when there will not be enough food; and the memory of the good years will go from men's minds; and the land will be made waste by the bad years;
- 31 And men will have no memory of the good time because of the need which will come after, for it will be very bitter.
- 32 And this dream came to Pharaoh twice, because this thing is certain, and God will quickly make it come about.
- 33 And now let Pharaoh make search for a man of wisdom and good sense, and put him in authority over the land of Egypt.
- 34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him put overseers over the land of Egypt to put in store a fifth part of the produce of the land in the good years.
- 35 And let them get together all the food in those good years and make a store of grain under Pharaoh's control for the use of the towns, and let them keep it.
- 36 And let that food be kept in store for the land till the seven bad years which are to come in Egypt; so that the land may not come to destruction through need of food.
- 37 And this seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his servants.

- 38 Then Pharaoh said to his servants, Where may we get such a man as this, a man in whom is the spirit of God?
- 39 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Seeing that God has made all this clear to you, there is no other man of such wisdom and good sense as you:
- 40 You, then, are to be over my house, and all my people will be ruled by your word: only as king will I be greater than you.
- 41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, See, I have put you over all the land of Egypt.
- 42 Then Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, and he had him clothed with the best linen, and put a chain of gold round his neck;
- 43 And he made him take his seat in the second of his carriages; and they went before him crying, Make way! So he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.
- 44 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh; and without your order no man may do anything in all the land of Egypt.
- 45 And Pharaoh gave Joseph the name of Zaphnath-paaneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Poti-phera, the priest of On, to be his wife. So Joseph went through all the land of Egypt.
- 46 Now Joseph was thirty years old when he came before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from before the face of Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt.
- 47 Now in the seven good years the earth gave fruit in masses.
- 48 And Joseph got together all the food of those seven years, and made a store of food in the towns: the produce of the fields round every town was stored up in the town.
- 49 So he got together a store of grain like the sand of the sea; so great a store that after a time he gave up measuring it, for it might not be measured.
- 50 And before the time of need, Joseph had two sons, to whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-phera, priest of On, gave birth.
- 51 And to the first he gave the name Manasseh, for he said, God has taken away from me all memory of my hard life and of my father's house.
- 52 And to the second he gave the name Ephraim, for he said, God has given me fruit in the land of my sorrow.
- 53 And so the seven good years in Egypt came to an end.
- 54 Then came the first of the seven years of need as Joseph had said: and in every other land they were short of food; but in the land of Egypt there was bread.
- 55 And when all the land of Egypt was in need of food, the people came crying to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said to the people, Go to Joseph, and whatever he says to you, do it.
- 56 And everywhere on the earth they were short of food; then Joseph, opening all his store-houses, gave the people of Egypt grain for money; so great was the need of food in the land of Egypt.
- 57 And all lands sent to Egypt, to Joseph, to get grain, for the need was great over all the earth.
- 1 Now Jacob, hearing that there was grain in Egypt, said to his sons, Why are you looking at one another?
- 2 And he said, I have had news that there is grain in Egypt: go down there and get grain for us, so that life and not death may be ours.
- 3 So Joseph's ten brothers went down to get grain from Egypt.
- 4 But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with them, for fear, as he said, that some evil might come to him.
- 5 And the sons of Israel came with all the others to get grain: for they were very short of food in the land of Canaan.
- 6 Now Joseph was ruler over all the land, and it was he who gave out the grain to all the people of the land; and Joseph's brothers came before him and went down on their faces to the earth.
- 7 And when Joseph saw his brothers, it was clear to him who they were, but he made himself strange to them, and talking roughly to them, said, Where do you come from? And they said, From the land of Canaan, to get food.
- 8 Now though Joseph saw that these were his brothers, they had no idea who he was.
- 9 Then the memory of his dreams about them came back to Joseph, and he said to them, You have come secretly to see how poor the land is.
- 10 And they said to him, Not so, my lord: your servants have come with money to get food.
- 11 We are all one man's sons, we are true men; we have not come with any secret purpose.
- 12 And he said to them, No, but you have come to see how poor the land is.

- 13 Then they said, We your servants are twelve brothers, sons of one man in the land of Canaan; the youngest of us is now with our father, and one is dead.
- 14 And Joseph said, It is as I said; you have come with some secret purpose;
- 15 But in this way will you be put to the test: by the life of Pharaoh, you will not go away from this place till your youngest brother comes here.
- 16 Send one of your number to get your brother, and the rest of you will be kept in prison, so that your words may be tested to see if you are true; if not, by the life of Pharaoh, your purpose is certainly secret.
- 17 So he put them in prison for three days.
- 18 And on the third day Joseph said to them, Do this, if you would keep your lives: for I am a god-fearing man:
- 19 If you are true men, let one of you be kept in prison, while you go and take grain for the needs of your families;
- 20 And come back to me with your youngest brother, so that your words may be seen to be true, and you will not be put to death. This is what you are to do.
- 21 And they said to one another, Truly, we did wrong to our brother, for we saw his grief of mind, and we did not give ear to his prayers; that is why this trouble has come on us.
- 22 And Reuben said to them, Did I not say to you, Do the child no wrong? but you gave no attention; so now, punishment has come on us for his blood.
- 23 They were not conscious that the sense of their words was clear to Joseph, for he had been talking to them through one who had knowledge of their language.
- 24 And turning away from them, he was overcome with weeping; then he went on talking to them again and took Simeon and put chains on him before their eyes.
- 25 Then Joseph gave orders for their bags to be made full of grain, and for every man's money to be put back into his bag, and for food to be given them for the journey: which was done.
- 26 Then they put the bags of grain on their asses and went away.
- 27 Now at their night's resting-place one of them, opening his bag to give his ass some food, saw his money in the mouth of the bag.
- 28 And he said to his brothers, My money has been given back: it is in my bag; then their hearts became full of fear, and turning to one another they said, What is this which God has done to us?
- 29 So when they came to Jacob their father, in the land of Canaan, they gave him an account of all their experiences, saying,
- 30 The man who is the ruler of the country was rough with us and put us in prison, saying that we had come with a secret evil purpose.
- 31 And we said to him, We are true men, we have no evil designs;
- 32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is dead, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Canaan.
- 33 And the ruler of the land said, In this way I may be certain that you are true men; let one of you be kept here with me, while you go and take grain for the needs of your families;
- 34 And come back to me with your youngest brother: then I will be certain that you are true men, and I will give your brother back to you and let you do trade in the land.
- 35 And when they took the grain out of their bags, it was seen that every man's parcel of money was in his bag; and when they and their father saw the money, they were full of fear.
- 36 And Jacob their father said to them, You have taken my children from me: Joseph is gone and Simeon is gone, and now you would take Benjamin away; all these things have come on me.
- 37 And Reuben said, Put my two sons to death if I do not come back to you with him; let him be in my care and I will give him safely back to you.
- 38 And he said, I will not let my son go down with you; for his brother is dead and he is all I have: if evil overtakes him on the journey, then through you will my grey head go down to the underworld in sorrow.
- 39 ¶43:1\Now the land was in bitter need of food.
- 1 ¶43:2\And when the grain which they had got in Egypt was all used up, their father said to them, Go again and get us a little food.
- 2 ¶43:3\And Judah said to him, The man said to us with an oath, You are not to come before me again without your brother.

- 3 ¶43:4 If you will let our brother go with us, we will go down and get food:
- 4 ¶43:5 But if you will not send him, we will not go down: for the man said to us, You are not to come before me if your brother is not with you.
- 5 ¶43:6 And Israel said, Why were you so cruel to me as to say to him that you had a brother?
- 6 ¶43:7 And they said, The man put a number of questions to us about ourselves and our family, saying, Is your father still living? have you another brother? And we had to give him answers; how were we to have any idea that he would say, Come back with your
- 7 ¶43:8 Then Judah said to Israel, his father, Send the boy with me, and let us be up and going, so that we and you and our little ones may not come to destruction.
- 8 ¶43:9 Put him into my care and make me responsible for him: if I do not give him safely back to you, let mine be the sin for ever.
- 9 ¶43:10 Truly, if we had not let the time go by, we might have come back again by now.
- 10 ¶43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, If it has to be so, then do this: take of the best fruits of the land in your vessels to give the man, perfumes and honey and spices and nuts:
- 11 ¶43:12 And take twice as much money with you; that is to say, take back the money which was put in your bags, for it may have been an error;
- 12 ¶43:13 And take your brother and go back to the man:
- 13 ¶43:14 And may God, the Ruler of all, give you mercy before the man, so that he may give you back your other brother and Benjamin. If my children are to be taken from me; there is no help for it.
- 14 ¶43:15 So they took what their father said for the man, and twice as much money in their hands, and Benjamin, and went on their journey to Egypt, and came before Joseph.
- 15 ¶43:16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin, he said to his chief servant, Take these men into my house, and make ready a meal, for they will take food with me in the middle of the day.
- 16 ¶43:17 And the servant did as Joseph said, and took the men into Joseph's house.
- 17 ¶43:18 Now the men were full of fear because they had been taken into Joseph's house and they said, It is because of the money which was put back in our bags the first time; he is looking for something against us, so that he may come down on us and take u
- 18 ¶43:19 So they went up to Joseph's chief servant at the door of the house,
- 19 ¶43:20 And said, O my lord, we only came down the first time to get food;
- 20 ¶43:21 And when we came to our night's resting-place, on opening our bags we saw that every man's money was in the mouth of his bag, all our money in full weight: and we have it with us to give it back;
- 21 ¶43:22 As well as more money, with which to get food: we have no idea who put our money in our bags.
- 22 ¶43:23 Then the servant said, Peace be with you: have no fear: your God, even the God of your father, has put wealth in your bags for you: I had your money. Then he let Simeon come out to them.
- 23 ¶43:24 And the servant took them into Joseph's house, and gave them water for washing their feet; and he gave their asses food.
- 24 ¶43:25 And they got ready the things for Joseph before he came in the middle of the day: for word was given to them that they were to have a meal there.
- 25 ¶43:26 And when Joseph came in, they gave him the things which they had for him, and went down to the earth before him.
- 26 ¶43:27 And he said, How are you? is your father well, the old man of whom you were talking to me? is he still living?
- 27 ¶43:28 And they said, Your servant, our father, is well, he is still living. And they went down on their faces before him.
- 28 ¶43:29 Then, lifting up his eyes, he saw Benjamin, his brother, his mother's son, and he said, Is this your youngest brother of whom you gave me word? And he said, God be good to you, my son.
- 29 ¶43:30 Then Joseph's heart went out to his brother, and he went quickly into his room, for he was overcome with weeping.
- 30 ¶43:31 Then, after washing his face, he came out, and controlling his feelings said, Put food before us.
- 31 ¶43:32 And they put a meal ready for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians who were with him by themselves; because the Egyptians may not take food with the Hebrews, for that would make them unclean.

- 32 ¶43:33\And they were all given their seats before him in order of birth, from the oldest to the youngest: so that they were looking at one another in wonder.
- 33 ¶43:34\And Joseph sent food to them from his table, but he sent five times as much to Benjamin as to any of the others. And they took wine freely with him.
- 1 Then he gave orders to the servant who was over his house, saying, Put as much food into the men's bags as will go into them, and put every man's money in the mouth of his bag;
- 2 And put my cup, my silver cup, in the youngest one's bag, with his money. So he did as Joseph said.
- 3 And at dawn the men, with their asses, were sent away.
- 4 And when they had gone only a little way out of the town, Joseph said to the servant who was over his house, Go after them; and when you overtake them, say to them, Why have you done evil in reward for good?
- 5 Is not this the cup from which my lord takes wine and by which he gets knowledge of the future? Truly, you have done evil.
- 6 So he overtook them and said these words to them.
- 7 And they said to him, Why does my lord say such words as these? far be it from your servants to do such a thing:
- 8 See, the money which was in the mouth of our bags we gave back to you when we came again from Canaan: how then might we take silver or gold from your lord's house?
- 9 If it comes to light that any of your servants has done this, let him be put to death, and we will be your lord's servants.
- 10 And he said, Let it be as you say: he in whose bag it is seen will become my servant; and you will not be responsible.
- 11 Then every man quickly got his bag down and undid it.
- 12 And he made a search, starting with the oldest and ending with the youngest; and the cup was in Benjamin's bag.
- 13 Then in bitter grief they put the bags on the asses again and went back to the town.
- 14 So Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house; and he was still there: and they went down on their faces before him.
- 15 And Joseph said, What is this thing which you have done? had you no thought that such a man as I would have power to see what is secret?
- 16 And Judah said, What are we to say to my lord? how may we put ourselves right in his eyes? God has made clear the sin of your servants: now we are in your hands, we and the man in whose bag your cup was seen.
- 17 Then he said, Far be it from me to do so: but the man who had my cup will be my servant; and you may go back to your father in peace.
- 18 Then Judah came near him, and said, Let your servant say a word in my lord's ears, and let not your wrath be burning against your servant: for you are in the place of Pharaoh to us.
- 19 My lord said to his servants, Have you a father or a brother?
- 20 And we said to my lord, We have an old father and a young child, whom he had when he was old; his brother is dead and he is the only son of his mother, and is very dear to his father.
- 21 And you said to your servants, Let him come down to me with you, so that I may see him.
- 22 And we said to my lord, His father will not let him go; for if he went away his father would come to his death.
- 23 But you said to your servants, If your youngest brother does not come with you, you will not see my face again.
- 24 And when we went back to your servant, our father, we gave him an account of my lord's words.
- 25 And our father said, Go again and get us a little food.
- 26 And we said, Only if our youngest brother goes with us will we go down; for we may not see the man's face again if our youngest brother is not with us.
- 27 And our father said to us, You have knowledge that my wife gave me two sons;
- 28 The one went away from me, and I said, Truly he has come to a violent death; and from that time I have not seen him,
- 29 If now you take this one from me, and some evil comes to him, you will make my grey head go down in sorrow to the underworld.
- 30 If then I go back to your servant, my father, without the boy, because his life and the boy's life are one,
- 31 When he sees that the boy is not with us, he will come to his death, and our father's grey head will go down in sorrow to the underworld.
- 32 For I made myself responsible for the boy to my father, saying, If I do not give him safely back to you, let mine be the sin for ever.

- 33 So now let me be my lord's servant here in place of the boy, and let him go back with his brothers.
- 34 For how may I go back to my father without the boy, and see the evil which will come on my father?
- 1 Then Joseph, unable to keep back his feelings before those who were with him, gave orders for everyone to be sent away, and no one was present when he made clear to his brothers who he was.
- 2 And so loud was his weeping, that it came to the ears of the Egyptians and all Pharaoh's house.
- 3 And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph: is my father still living? But his brothers were not able to give him an answer for they were troubled before him.
- 4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, Come near to me. And they came near, And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom you sent into Egypt.
- 5 Now do not be troubled or angry with yourselves for sending me away, because God sent me before you to be the saviour of your lives.
- 6 For these two years have been years of need, and there are still five more years to come in which there will be no ploughing or cutting of grain.
- 7 God sent me before you to keep you and yours living on earth so that you might become a great nation.
- 8 So now it was not you who sent me here, but God: and he has made me as a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.
- 9 Now go quickly to my father, and say to him, Your son Joseph says, God has made me ruler over all the land of Egypt: come down to me straight away:
- 10 The land of Goshen will be your living-place, and you will be near me; you and your children and your children's children, and your flocks and herds and all you have:
- 11 And there I will take care of you, so that you and your family may not be in need, for there are still five bad years to come.
- 12 Now truly, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see, that it is my mouth which says these things to you.
- 13 Give my father word of all my glory in Egypt and of all you have seen; and come back quickly with my father.
- 14 Then, weeping, he took Benjamin in his arms, and Benjamin himself was weeping on Joseph's neck.
- 15 Then he gave a kiss to all his brothers, weeping over them; and after that his brothers had no fear of talking to him.
- 16 And news of these things went through Pharaoh's house, and it was said that Joseph's brothers were come; and it seemed good to Pharaoh and his servants.
- 17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to your brothers, Put your goods on your beasts and go back to the land of Canaan;
- 18 And get your father and your families and come back to me: and I will give you all the good things of Egypt, and the fat of the land will be your food.
- 19 And say to them, This you are to do: take carts from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and get your father and come back.
- 20 And take no thought for your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.
- 21 And the children of Israel did as he said; and Joseph gave them carts as had been ordered by Pharaoh, and food for their journey.
- 22 To every one of them he gave three changes of clothing; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred bits of silver and five changes of clothing.
- 23 And to his father he sent ten asses with good things from Egypt on their backs, and ten she-asses with grain and bread and food for his father on the journey.
- 24 And he sent his brothers on their way, and said to them, See that you have no argument on the road.
- 25 So they went up from Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to their father Jacob.
- 26 And they said to him, Joseph is living, and is ruler over all the land of Egypt. And at this word Jacob was quite overcome, for he had no faith in it.
- 27 And they gave him an account of everything Joseph had said to them; and when he saw the carts which Joseph had sent for them, his spirit came back to him:
- 28 And Israel said, It is enough: Joseph my son is still living; I will go and see him before my death.
- 1 And Israel went on his journey with all he had, and came to Beer-sheba, where he made offerings to the God of his father Isaac.
- 2 And God said to Israel in a night-vision, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here am I.

- 3 And he said, I am God, the God of your father: go down to Egypt without fear, for I will make a great nation of you there:
- 4 I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will see that you come back again, and at your death Joseph will put his hands on your eyes.
- 5 Then Jacob went on from Beer-sheba; and the sons of Jacob took their father and their little ones and their wives in the carts which Pharaoh had sent for them.
- 6 And they took their cattle and all the goods which they had got in the land of Canaan, and came to Egypt, even Jacob and all his seed:
- 7 His sons and his sons' sons, his daughters and his daughters' sons and all his family he took with him into Egypt.
- 8 And these are the names of the children of Israel who came into Egypt, even Jacob and all his sons: Reuben, Jacob's oldest son;
- 9 And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch and Pallu and Hezron and Carmi;
- 10 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jachin and Zohar and Shaul, the son of a woman of Canaan;
- 11 And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari;
- 12 And the sons of Judah: Er and Onan and Shelah and Perez and Zerah: but Er and Onan had come to their death in the land of Canaan; and the sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.
- 13 And the sons of Issachar: Tola and Puah and Job and Shimron;
- 14 And the sons of Zebulun: Sered and Elon and Jahleel;
- 15 All these, together with his daughter Dinah, were the children of Leah, whom Jacob had by her in Paddan-aram; they were thirty-three in number.
- 16 And the sons of Gad: Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Ezbon, Eri and Arodi and Areli;
- 17 And the sons of Asher: Jimnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beriah, and Sarah, their sister; and the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.
- 18 These are the children of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah, and Jacob had these sixteen children by her.
- 19 The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.
- 20 And Joseph had Manasseh and Ephraim in the land of Egypt, by Asenath, the daughter of Poti-phaera, priest of On.
- 21 And the sons of Benjamin were Belah and Becher and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, Ehi and Rosh, Muppim and Huppim and Ard.
- 22 All these were the children of Rachel whom Jacob had by her, fourteen persons.
- 23 And the son of Dan was Hushim.
- 24 And the sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel and Guni and Jezer and Shillem.
- 25 These were the children of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel, seven persons.
- 26 All the persons who came with Jacob into Egypt, the offspring of his body, were sixty-six, without taking into account the wives of Jacob's sons.
- 27 And the sons of Joseph whom he had in Egypt were two. Seventy persons of the family of Jacob came into Egypt.
- 28 Now he had sent Judah before him to Goshen, to get word from Joseph; and so they came to the land of Goshen.
- 29 And Joseph got his carriage ready and went to Goshen for the meeting with his father; and when he came before him, he put his arms round his neck, weeping.
- 30 And Israel said to Joseph, Now that I have seen you living again, I am ready for death.
- 31 And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's people, I will go and give the news to Pharaoh, and say to him, My brothers and my father's people, from the land of Canaan, have come to me;
- 32 And these men are keepers of sheep and owners of cattle, and have with them their flocks and their herds and all they have.
- 33 Now when Pharaoh sends for you and says, What is your business?
- 34 You are to say, Your servants have been keepers of cattle from our early days up to now, like our fathers; in this way you will be able to have the land of Goshen for yourselves; because keepers of sheep are unclean in the eyes of the Egyptians.
- 1 Then Joseph went to Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brothers with their flocks and their herds and all they have, are come from Canaan, and are now in the land of Goshen.

- 2 And he took five of his brothers to Pharaoh.
- 3 And Pharaoh said to them, What is your business? And they said, Your servants are keepers of sheep, as our fathers were before us.
- 4 And they said to Pharaoh, We have come to make a living in this land, because we have no grass for our flocks in the land of Canaan; so now let your servants make a place for themselves in the land of Goshen.
- 5 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Let them have the land of Goshen; and if there are any able men among them, put them over my cattle.
- 6 And Jacob and his sons came to Joseph in Egypt, and when word of it came to the ears of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, he said to Joseph, Your father and brothers have come to you; all the land of Egypt is before you; let your father and your brothers have the b
- 7 Then Joseph made his father Jacob come before Pharaoh, and Jacob gave him his blessing.
- 8 And Pharaoh said to him, How old are you?
- 9 And Jacob said, The years of my wanderings have been a hundred and thirty; small in number and full of sorrow have been the years of my life, and less than the years of the wanderings of my fathers.
- 10 And Jacob gave Pharaoh his blessing, and went out from before him.
- 11 And Joseph made a place for his father and his brothers, and gave them a heritage in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had given orders.
- 12 And Joseph took care of his father and his brothers and all his father's people, giving them food for the needs of their families.
- 13 Now there was no food to be had in all the land, so that all Egypt and Canaan were wasted from need of food.
- 14 And all the money in Egypt and in the land of Canaan which had been given for grain, came into the hands of Joseph: and he put it in Pharaoh's house.
- 15 And when all the money in Egypt and Canaan was gone, the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, Give us bread; would you have us come to destruction before your eyes? for we have no more money.
- 16 And Joseph said, Give me your cattle; I will give you grain in exchange for your cattle if your money is all gone.
- 17 So they took their cattle to Joseph and he gave them bread in exchange for their horses and flocks and herds and asses, so all that year he gave them food in exchange for their cattle.
- 18 And when that year was ended, they came to him in the second year, and said, We may not keep it from our lord's knowledge that all our money is gone, and all the herds of cattle are my lord's; there is nothing more to give my lord but our bodies and our l
- 19 Are we to come to destruction before your eyes, we and our land? take us and our land and give us bread; and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh; and give us seed so that we may have life and the land may not become waste.
- 20 So Joseph got all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh; for every Egyptian gave up his land in exchange for food, because of their great need; so all the land became Pharaoh's.
- 21 And as for the people, he made servants of them, town by town, from one end of Egypt to the other.
- 22 Only he did not take the land of the priests, for the priests had their food given them by Pharaoh, and having what Pharaoh gave them, they had no need to give up their land.
- 23 Then Joseph said to the people, I have made you and your land this day the property of Pharaoh; here is seed for you to put in your fields.
- 24 And when the grain is cut, you are to give a fifth part to Pharaoh, and four parts will be yours for seed and food, and for your families and your little ones.
- 25 And they said to him, Truly you have kept us from death; may we have grace in your eyes, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.
- 26 Then Joseph made a law which is in force to this day, that Pharaoh was to have the fifth part; only the land of the priests did not become his.
- 27 And so Israel was living among the Egyptians in the land of Goshen; and they got property there, and became very great in numbers and in wealth.
- 28 And Jacob was living in the land of Goshen for seventeen years; so the years of his life were a hundred and forty-seven.
- 29 And the time of his death came near, and he sent for his son Joseph and said to him, If now I am dear to you, put your hand under my leg and take an oath that you will not put me to rest in Egypt;

- 30 But when I go to my fathers, you are to take me out of Egypt and put me to rest in their last resting-place. And he said, I will do so.
- 31 And he said, Take an oath to me; and he took an oath to him: and Israel gave worship on the bed's head.
- 1 Now after these things, word came to Joseph that his father was ill: and he took with him his sons Manasseh and Ephraim.
- 2 And when they said to Jacob, Your son Joseph is coming to see you: then Israel, getting all his strength together, had himself lifted up in his bed.
- 3 And Jacob said to Joseph, God, the Ruler of all, came to me in a vision at Luz in the land of Canaan, and gave me his blessing,
- 4 And said to me, Truly, I will make you fertile and give you increase and will make of you a great family of nations: and I will give this land to your seed after you to be their heritage for ever.
- 5 And now your two sons who came to birth in Egypt before I came to you here, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, in the same way as Reuben and Simeon are.
- 6 And any other offspring which you have after them, will be yours, and will be named after their brothers in their heritage.
- 7 And as for me, when I came from Paddan, death overtook Rachel on the way, when we were still some distance from Ephrath; and I put her to rest there on the road to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem.
- 8 Then Israel, looking at Joseph's sons, said, Who are these?
- 9 And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God has given me in this land. And he said, Let them come near me, and I will give them a blessing.
- 10 Now because Israel was old, his eyes were no longer clear, and he was not able to see. So he made them come near to him, and he gave them a kiss, folding them in his arms.
- 11 And Israel said to Joseph, I had no hope of seeing your face again, but God in his mercy has let me see you and your children.
- 12 Then Joseph took them from between his knees, and went down on his face to the earth.
- 13 Then taking Ephraim with his right hand, Joseph put him at Israel's left side, and with his left hand he put Manasseh at Israel's right side, placing them near him.
- 14 And Israel, stretching out his right hand, put it on the head of Ephraim, the younger, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands on purpose, for Manasseh was the older.
- 15 And he gave Joseph a blessing, saying, May the God to whom my fathers, Abraham and Isaac, gave worship, the God who has taken care of me all my life till this day,
- 16 The angel who has been my saviour from all evil, send his blessing on these children: and let my name and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac, be given to them; and let them become a great nation in the earth.
- 17 Now when Joseph saw that his father had put his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it did not seem right to him; and lifting his father's hand he would have put it on the head of Manasseh.
- 18 And Joseph said to his father, Not so, my father, for this is the older; put your right hand on his head.
- 19 But his father would not, saying, I am doing it on purpose, my son; he will certainly become a nation and a great one; but his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become a great family of nations.
- 20 So he gave them his blessing that day, saying, You will be the sign of blessing in Israel, for they will say, May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh; and he put Ephraim before Manasseh.
- 21 Then Israel said to Joseph, Now my death is near; but God will be with you, guiding you back to the land of your fathers.
- 22 And I have given you more than your brothers, even Shechem as your heritage, which I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow.
- 1 And Jacob sent for his sons, and said, Come together, all of you, so that I may give you news of your fate in future times.
- 2 Come near, O sons of Jacob, and give ear to the words of Israel your father.
- 3 Reuben, you are my oldest son, the first-fruit of my strength, first in pride and first in power:
- 4 But because you were uncontrolled, the first place will not be yours; for you went up to your father's bed, even his bride-bed, and made it unclean.
- 5 Simeon and Levi are brothers; deceit and force are their secret designs.

- 6 Take no part in their secrets, O my soul; keep far away, O my heart, from their meetings; for in their wrath they put men to death, and for their pleasure even oxen were wounded.
- 7 A curse on their passion for it was bitter; and on their wrath for it was cruel. I will let their heritage in Jacob be broken up, driving them from their places in Israel.
- 8 To you, Judah, will your brothers give praise: your hand will be on the neck of your haters; your father's sons will go down to the earth before you.
- 9 Judah is a young lion; like a lion full of meat you have become great, my son; now he takes his rest like a lion stretched out and like an old lion; by whom will his sleep be broken?
- 10 The rod of authority will not be taken from Judah, and he will not be without a law-giver, till he comes who has the right to it, and the peoples will put themselves under his rule.
- 11 Knotting his ass's cord to the vine, and his young ass to the best vine; washing his robe in wine, and his clothing in the blood of grapes:
- 12 His eyes will be dark with wine, and his teeth white with milk.
- 13 The resting-place of Zebulun will be by the sea, and he will be a harbour for ships; the edge of his land will be by Zidon.
- 14 Issachar is a strong ass stretched out among the flocks:
- 15 And he saw that rest was good and the land was pleasing; so he let them put weights on his back and became a servant.
- 16 Dan will be the judge of his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.
- 17 May Dan be a snake in the way, a horned snake by the road, biting the horse's foot so that the horseman has a fall.
- 18 I have been waiting for your salvation, O Lord.
- 19 Gad, an army will come against him, but he will come down on them in their flight.
- 20 Asher's bread is fat; he gives delicate food for kings.
- 21 Naphtali is a roe let loose, giving fair young ones.
- 22 Joseph is a young ox, whose steps are turned to the fountain;
- 23 He was troubled by the archers; they sent out their arrows against him, cruelly wounding him:
- 24 But their bows were broken by a strong one, and the cords of their arms were cut by the Strength of Jacob, by the name of the Stone of Israel:
- 25 Even by the God of your father, who will be your help, and by the Ruler of all, who will make you full with blessings from heaven on high, blessings of the deep stretched out under the earth, blessings of the breasts and of the fertile body:
- 26 Blessings of sons, old and young, to the father: blessings of the oldest mountains and the fruit of the eternal hills: let them come on the head of Joseph, on the crown of him who was separate from his brothers.
- 27 Benjamin is a wolf, searching for meat: in the morning he takes his food, and in the evening he makes division of what he has taken.
- 28 These are the twelve tribes of Israel: and these are the words their father said to them, blessing them; to every one he gave his blessing.
- 29 And he gave orders to them, saying, Put me to rest with my people and with my fathers, in the hollow of the rock in the field of Ephron the Hittite,
- 30 In the rock in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham got from Ephron the Hittite, to be his resting-place.
- 31 There Abraham and Sarah his wife were put to rest, and there they put Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I put Leah to rest.
- 32 In the rock in the field which was got for a price from the people of Heth.
- 33 And when Jacob had come to the end of these words to his sons, stretching himself on his bed, he gave up his spirit, and went the way of his people.
- 1 And Joseph put his head down on his father's face, weeping and kissing him.
- 2 And Joseph gave orders to his servants who had the necessary knowledge, to make his father's body ready, folding it in linen with spices, and they did so.
- 3 And the forty days needed for making the body ready went by: and there was weeping for him among the Egyptians for seventy days.
- 4 And when the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph said to the servants of Pharaoh, If now you have love for me, say these words to Pharaoh:

- 5 My father made me take an oath, saying, When I am dead, put me to rest in the place I have made ready for myself in the land of Canaan. So now let me go and put my father in his last resting-place, and I will come back again.
- 6 And Pharaoh said, Go up and put your father to rest, as you gave your oath to him.
- 7 So Joseph went up to put his father in his last resting-place; and with him went all the servants of Pharaoh, and the chief men of his house and all the chiefs of the land of Egypt,
- 8 And all the family of Joseph, and his brothers and his father's people: only their little ones and their flocks and herds they did not take with them from the land of Goshen.
- 9 And carriages went up with him and horsemen, a great army.
- 10 And they came to the grain-floor of Atad on the other side of Jordan, and there they gave the last honours to Jacob, with great and bitter sorrow, weeping for their father for seven days.
- 11 And when the people of the land, the people of Canaan, at the grain-floor of Atad, saw their grief, they said, Great is the grief of the Egyptians: so the place was named Abel-mizraim, on the other side of Jordan.
- 12 So his sons did as he had given them orders to do:
- 13 For they took him into the land of Canaan and put him to rest in the hollow rock in the field of Machpelah, which Abraham got with the field, for a resting-place, from Ephron the Hittite at Mamre.
- 14 And when his father had been put to rest, Joseph and his brothers and all who had gone with him, went back to Egypt.
- 15 Now after the death of their father, Joseph's brothers said to themselves, It may be that Joseph's heart will be turned against us, and he will give us punishment for all the evil which we did to him.
- 16 So they sent word to Joseph, saying, Your father, before his death, gave us orders, saying,
- 17 You are to say to Joseph, Let the wrongdoing of your brothers be overlooked, and the evil they did to you: now, if it is your pleasure, let the sin of the servants of your father's God have forgiveness. And at these words, Joseph was overcome with weeping
- 18 Then his brothers went, and falling at his feet, said, Truly, we are your servants.
- 19 And Joseph said, Have no fear: am I in the place of God?
- 20 As for you, it was in your mind to do me evil, but God has given a happy outcome, the salvation of numbers of people, as you see today.
- 21 So now, have no fear: for I will take care of you and your little ones. So he gave them comfort with kind words.
- 22 Now Joseph and all his father's family went on living in Egypt: and the years of Joseph's life were a hundred and ten.
- 23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation: and the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, came to birth on Joseph's knees.
- 24 Then Joseph said to his brothers, The time of my death has come; but God will keep you in mind and take you out of this land into the land which he gave by his oath to Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.
- 25 Then Joseph made the children of Israel take an oath, saying, God will certainly give effect to his word, and you are to take my bones away from here.
- 26 So Joseph came to his death, being a hundred and ten years old: and they made his body ready, and he was put in a chest in Egypt.
- 1 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt; every man and his family came with Jacob.
- 2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;
- 3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;
- 4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.
- 5 All the offspring of Jacob were seventy persons: and Joseph had come to Egypt before them.
- 6 Then Joseph came to his end, and all his brothers, and all that generation.
- 7 And the children of Israel were fertile, increasing very greatly in numbers and in power; and the land was full of them.
- 8 Now a new king came to power in Egypt, who had no knowledge of Joseph.
- 9 And he said to his people, See, the people of Israel are greater in number and in power than we are:
- 10 Let us take care for fear that their numbers may become even greater, and if there is a war, they may be joined with those who are against us, and make an attack on us, and go up out of the land.
- 11 So they put overseers of forced work over them, in order to make their strength less by the weight of their work. And they made store-towns for Pharaoh, Pithom and Raamses.

- 12 But the more cruel they were to them, the more their number increased, till all the land was full of them. And the children of Israel were hated by the Egyptians.
- 13 And they gave the children of Israel even harder work to do:
- 14 And made their lives bitter with hard work, making building-material and bricks, and doing all sorts of work in the fields under the hardest conditions.
- 15 And the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew women who gave help at the time of childbirth (the name of the one was Shiphrah and the name of the other Puah),
- 16 When you are looking after the Hebrew women in childbirth, if it is a son you are to put him to death; but if it is a daughter, she may go on living.
- 17 But the women had the fear of God, and did not do as the king of Egypt said, but let the male children go on living.
- 18 And the king of Egypt sent for the women, and said to them, Why have you done this, and let the male children go on living?
- 19 And they said to Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are strong, and the birth takes place before we come to them.
- 20 And the blessing of God was on these women: and the people were increased in number and became very strong.
- 21 And because the women who took care of the Hebrew mothers had the fear of God, he gave them families.
- 22 And Pharaoh gave orders to all his people, saying, Every son who comes to birth is to be put into the river, but every daughter may go on living.
- 1 Now a man of the house of Levi took as his wife a daughter of Levi.
- 2 And she became with child and gave birth to a Son; and when she saw that he was a beautiful child, she kept him secretly for three months.
- 3 And when she was no longer able to keep him secret, she made him a basket out of the stems of water-plants, pasting sticky earth over it to keep the water out; and placing the baby in it she put it among the plants by the edge of the Nile.
- 4 And his sister took her place at a distance to see what would become of him.
- 5 Now Pharaoh's daughter came down to the Nile to take a bath, while her women were walking by the riverside; and she saw the basket among the river-plants, and sent her servant-girl to get it.
- 6 And opening it, she saw the child, and he was crying. And she had pity on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.
- 7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, May I go and get you one of the Hebrew women to give him the breast?
- 8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the girl went and got the child's mother.
- 9 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Take the child away and give it milk for me, and I will give you payment. And the woman took the child and gave it milk at her breast.
- 10 And when the child was older, she took him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son, and she gave him the name Moses, Because, she said, I took him out of the water.
- 11 Now when Moses had become a man, one day he went out to his people and saw how hard their work was; and he saw an Egyptian giving blows to a Hebrew, one of his people.
- 12 And turning this way and that, and seeing no one, he put the Egyptian to death, covering his body with sand.
- 13 And he went out the day after and saw two of the Hebrews fighting: and he said to him who was in the wrong, Why are you fighting your brother?
- 14 And he said, Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? are you going to put me to death as you did the Egyptian? And Moses was in fear, and said, It is clear that the thing has come to light.
- 15 Now when Pharaoh had news of this, he would have put Moses to death. But Moses went in flight from Pharaoh into the land of Midian: and he took his seat by a water-spring.
- 16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came to get water for their father's flock.
- 17 And the keepers of the sheep came up and were driving them away; but Moses got up and came to their help, watering their flock for them.
- 18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that you have come back so quickly today?
- 19 And they said, An Egyptian came to our help against the keepers of sheep and got water for us and gave it to the flock.
- 20 And he said to his daughters, Where is he? why have you let the man go? make him come in and give him a meal.
- 21 And Moses was happy to go on living with the man; and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses.

- 22 And she gave birth to a son, to whom he gave the name Gershom: for he said, I have been living in a strange land.
- 23 Now after a long time the king of Egypt came to his end: and the children of Israel were crying in their grief under the weight of their work, and their cry for help came to the ears of God.
- 24 And at the sound of their weeping the agreement which God had made with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob came to his mind.
- 25 And God's eyes were turned to the children of Israel and he gave them the knowledge of himself.
- 1 Now Moses was looking after the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian: and he took the flock to the back of the waste land and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.
- 2 And the angel of the Lord was seen by him in a flame of fire coming out of a thorn-tree: and he saw that the tree was on fire, but it was not burned up.
- 3 And Moses said, I will go and see this strange thing, why the tree is not burned up,
- 4 And when the Lord saw him turning to one side to see, God said his name out of the tree, crying, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.
- 5 And he said, Do not come near: take off your shoes from your feet, for the place where you are is holy.
- 6 And he said, I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses kept his face covered for fear of looking on God.
- 7 And God said, Truly, I have seen the grief of my people in Egypt, and their cry because of their cruel masters has come to my ears; for I have knowledge of their sorrows;
- 8 And I have come down to take them out of the hands of the Egyptians, guiding them out of that land into a good land and wide, into a land flowing with milk and honey; into the place of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and th
- 9 For now, truly, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me, and I have seen the cruel behaviour of the Egyptians to them.
- 10 Come, then, and I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may take my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.
- 11 And Moses said to God, Who am I to go to Pharaoh and take the children of Israel out of Egypt?
- 12 And he said, Truly I will be with you; and this will be the sign to you that I have sent you: when you have taken the children of Israel out of Egypt, you will give worship to God on this mountain.
- 13 And Moses said to God, When I come to the children of Israel and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you: and they say to me, What is his name? what am I to say to them?
- 14 And God said to him, I AM WHAT I AM: and he said, Say to the children of Israel, I AM has sent me to you.
- 15 And God went on to say to Moses, Say to the children of Israel, The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has sent me to you: this is my name for ever, and this is my sign to all generations.
- 16 Go and get together the chiefs of the children of Israel, and say to them, The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has been seen by me, and has said, Truly I have taken up your cause, because of what is done to you i
- 17 And I have said, I will take you up out of the sorrows of Egypt into the land of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, into a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 18 And they will give ear to your voice: and you, with the chiefs of Israel, will go to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and say to him, The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, has come to us: let us then go three days' journey into the waste land to make an offering t
- 19 And I am certain that the king of Egypt will not let you go without being forced.
- 20 But I will put out my hand and overcome Egypt with all the wonders which I will do among them: and after that he will let you go.
- 21 And I will give this people grace in the eyes of the Egyptians, so that when you go out you will go out with your hands full.
- 22 For every woman will get from her neighbour and from the woman living in her house, ornaments of silver and gold, and clothing; and you will put them on your sons and your daughters; you will take the best of their goods from the Egyptians.
- 1 And Moses, answering, said, It is certain that they will not have faith in me or give ear to my voice; for they will say, You have not seen the Lord.
- 2 And the Lord said to him, What is that in your hand? And he said, A rod.

- 3 And he said, Put it down on the earth. And he put it down on the earth and it became a snake; and Moses went running from it.
- 4 And the Lord said to Moses, Put out your hand and take it by the tail: (and he put out his hand and took a grip of it and it became a rod in his hand:)
- 5 So that they may be certain that the Lord, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has been seen by you.
- 6 Then the Lord said to him again, Put your hand inside your clothing. And he put his hand inside his robe: and when he took it out it was like the hand of a leper, as white as snow.
- 7 And he said, Put your hand inside your robe again. (And he put his hand into his robe again, and when he took it out he saw that it had become like his other flesh.)
- 8 And if they do not have faith in you or give ear to the voice of the first sign, they will have faith in the second sign.
- 9 And if they have no faith even in these two signs and will not give ear to your voice, then you are to take the water of the Nile and put it on the dry land: and the water you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land.
- 10 And Moses said to the Lord, O Lord, I am not a man of words; I have never been so, and am not now, even after what you have said to your servant: for talking is hard for me, and I am slow of tongue.
- 11 And the Lord said to him, Who has made man's mouth? who takes away a man's voice or hearing, or makes him seeing or blind? Is it not I, the Lord?
- 12 So go now, and I will be with your mouth, teaching you what to say.
- 13 And he said, O Lord, send, if you will, by the hand of anyone whom it seems good to you to send.
- 14 And the Lord was angry with Moses, and said, Is there not Aaron, your brother, the Levite? To my knowledge he is good at talking. And now he is coming out to you: and when he sees you he will be glad in his heart.
- 15 Let him give ear to your voice, and you will put my words in his mouth; and I will be with your mouth and with his, teaching you what you have to do.
- 16 And he will do the talking for you to the people: he will be to you as a mouth and you will be to him as God.
- 17 And take in your hand this rod with which you will do the signs.
- 18 And Moses went back to Jethro, his father-in-law, and said to him, Let me go back now to my relations in Egypt and see if they are still living. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.
- 19 And the Lord said to Moses in Midian, Go back to Egypt, for all the men are dead who were attempting to take your life.
- 20 And Moses took his wife and his sons and put them on an ass and went back to the land of Egypt: and he took the rod of God in his hand.
- 21 And the Lord said to Moses, When you go back to Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have given you power to do: but I will make his heart hard and he will not let the people go.
- 22 And you are to say to Pharaoh, The Lord says, Israel is the first of my sons:
- 23 And I said to you, Let my son go, so that he may give me worship; and you did not let him go: so now I will put the first of your sons to death.
- 24 Now on the journey, at the night's resting-place, the Lord came in his way and would have put him to death.
- 25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cutting off the skin of her son's private parts, and touching his feet with it, she said, Truly you are a husband of blood to me.
- 26 So he let him go. Then she said, You are a husband of blood because of the circumcision.
- 27 And the Lord said to Aaron, Go into the waste land and you will see Moses. So he went and came across Moses at the mountain of God, and gave him a kiss.
- 28 And Moses gave Aaron an account of all the words of the Lord which he had sent him to say, and of all the signs which he had given him orders to do.
- 29 Then Moses and Aaron went and got together all the chiefs of the children of Israel:
- 30 And Aaron said to them all the words the Lord had said to Moses, and did the signs before all the people.
- 31 And the people had faith in them; and hearing that the Lord had taken up the cause of the children of Israel and had seen their troubles, with bent heads they gave him worship.
- 1 And after that, Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh, and said, The Lord, the God of Israel, says, Let my people go so that they may keep a feast to me in the waste land.

- 2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the Lord, to whose voice I am to give ear and let Israel go? I have no knowledge of the Lord and I will not let Israel go.
- 3 And they said, The God of the Hebrews has come to us: let us then go three days' journey into the waste land to make an offering to the Lord our God, so that he may not send death on us by disease or the sword.
- 4 And the king of Egypt said to them, Why do you, Moses and Aaron, take the people away from their work? get back to your work.
- 5 And Pharaoh said, Truly, the people of the land are increasing in number, and you are keeping them back from their work.
- 6 The same day Pharaoh gave orders to the overseers and those who were responsible for the work, saying,
- 7 Give these men no more dry stems for their brick-making as you have been doing; let them go and get the material for themselves.
- 8 But see that they make the same number of bricks as before, and no less: for they have no love for work; and so they are crying out and saying, Let us go and make an offering to our God.
- 9 Give the men harder work, and see that they do it; let them not give attention to false words.
- 10 And the overseers of the people and their responsible men went out and said to the people, Pharaoh says, I will give you no more dry stems.
- 11 Go yourselves and get dry stems wherever you are able; for your work is not to be any less.
- 12 So the people were sent in all directions through the land of Egypt to get dry grass for stems.
- 13 And the overseers went on driving them and saying, Do your full day's work as before when there were dry stems for you.
- 14 And the responsible men of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's overseers had put over them, were given blows, and they said to them, Why have you not done your regular work, in making bricks as before?
- 15 Then the responsible men of the children of Israel came to Pharaoh, protesting and saying, Why are you acting in this way to your servants?
- 16 They give us no dry stems and they say to us, Make bricks: and they give your servants blows; but it is your people who are in the wrong.
- 17 But he said, You have no love for work: that is why you say, Let us go and make an offering to the Lord.
- 18 Go now, get back to your work; no dry stems will be given to you, but you are to make the full number of bricks.
- 19 Then the responsible men of the children of Israel saw that they were purposing evil when they said, The number of bricks which you have to make every day will be no less than before.
- 20 And they came face to face with Moses and Aaron, who were in their way when they came out from Pharaoh:
- 21 And they said to them, May the Lord take note of you and be your judge; for you have given Pharaoh and his servants a bad opinion of us, putting a sword in their hands for our destruction.
- 22 And Moses went back to the Lord and said, Lord, why have you done evil to this people? why have you sent me?
- 23 For from the time when I came to Pharaoh to put your words before him, he has done evil to this people, and you have given them no help.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, Now you will see what I am about to do to Pharaoh; for by a strong hand he will be forced to let them go, driving them out of his land because of my outstretched arm.
- 2 And God said to Moses, I am Yahweh:
- 3 I let myself be seen by Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as God, the Ruler of all; but they had no knowledge of my name Yahweh.
- 4 And I made an agreement with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their wanderings.
- 5 And truly my ears are open to the cry of the children of Israel whom the Egyptians keep under their yoke; and I have kept in mind my agreement.
- 6 Say then to the children of Israel, I am Yahweh, and I will take you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians, and make you safe from their power, and will make you free by the strength of my arm after great punishments.
- 7 And I will take you to be my people and I will be your God; and you will be certain that I am the Lord your God, who takes you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.
- 8 And I will be your guide into the land which I made an oath to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for your heritage: I am Yahweh.

- 9 And Moses said these words to the children of Israel, but they gave no attention to him, because of the grief of their spirit and the cruel weight of their work.
- 10 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 11 Go in and say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, that he is to let the children of Israel go out of his land.
- 12 And Moses, answering the Lord, said, See, the children of Israel will not give ear to me; how then will Pharaoh give ear to me, whose lips are unclean?
- 13 And the word of the Lord came to Moses and Aaron, with orders for the children of Israel and for Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to take the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.
- 14 These are the heads of their fathers' families: the sons of Reuben the oldest son of Israel: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi: these are the families of Reuben.
- 15 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jachin and Zohar and Shaul, the son of a woman of Canaan: these are the families of Simeon.
- 16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi in the order of their generations: Gershon and Kohath and Merari: and the years of Levi's life were a hundred and thirty-seven.
- 17 The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, in the order of their families.
- 18 And the sons of Kohath: Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel: and the years of Kohath's life were a hundred and thirty-three.
- 19 And the sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi: these are the families of the Levites, in the order of their generations.
- 20 And Amram took Jochebed, his father's sister, as wife; and she gave birth to Aaron and Moses: and the years of Amram's life were a hundred and thirty-seven.
- 21 And the sons of Izhar: Korah and Nepheg and Zichri.
- 22 And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael and Elzaphan and Sithri.
- 23 And Aaron took as his wife Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab, the sister of Nahshon; and she gave birth to Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
- 24 And the sons of Korah: Assir and Elkanah and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korahites.
- 25 And Eleazar, Aaron's son, took as his wife one of the daughters of Putiel; and she gave birth to Phinehas. These are the heads of the families of the Levites, in the order of their families.
- 26 These are the same Aaron and Moses to whom the Lord said, Take the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt in their armies.
- 27 These are the men who gave orders to Pharaoh to let the children of Israel go out of Egypt: these are the same Moses and Aaron.
- 28 And on the day when the word of the Lord came to Moses in the land of Egypt,
- 29 The Lord said to Moses, I am the Lord: say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything I am saying to you.
- 30 And Moses said to the Lord, My lips are unclean; how is it possible that Pharaoh will give me a hearing?
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, See I have made you a god to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother will be your prophet.
- 2 Say whatever I give you orders to say: and Aaron your brother will give word to Pharaoh to let the children of Israel go out of his land.
- 3 And I will make Pharaoh's heart hard, and my signs and wonders will be increased in the land of Egypt.
- 4 But Pharaoh will not give ear to you, and I will put my hand on Egypt, and take my armies, my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt, after great punishments.
- 5 And the Egyptians will see that I am the Lord, when my hand is stretched out over Egypt, and I take the children of Israel out from among them.
- 6 And Moses and Aaron did so: as the Lord gave them orders, so they did.
- 7 And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they gave the Lord's word to Pharaoh.
- 8 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 9 If Pharaoh says to you, Let me see a wonder: then say to Aaron, Take your rod and put it down on the earth before Pharaoh so that it may become a snake.
- 10 Then Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and they did as the Lord had said: and Aaron put his rod down on the earth before Pharaoh and his servants, and it became a snake.

- 11 Then Pharaoh sent for the wise men and the wonder-workers, and they, the wonder-workers of Egypt, did the same with their secret arts.
- 12 For every one of them put down his rod on the earth, and they became snakes: but Aaron's rod made a meal of their rods.
- 13 But Pharaoh's heart was made hard, and he did not give ear to them, as the Lord had said.
- 14 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, Pharaoh's heart is unchanged; he will not let the people go.
- 15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning; when he goes out to the water, you will be waiting for him by the edge of the Nile, with the rod which was turned into a snake in your hand;
- 16 And say to him, The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, Let my people go so that they may give me worship in the waste land; but up to now you have not given ear to his words.
- 17 So the Lord says, By this you may be certain that I am the Lord; see, by the touch of this rod in my hand the waters of the Nile will be turned to blood;
- 18 And the fish in the Nile will come to destruction, and the river will send up a bad smell, and the Egyptians will not be able, for disgust, to make use of the water of the Nile for drinking.
- 19 And the Lord said, Say to Aaron, Let the rod in your hand be stretched out over the waters of Egypt, and over the rivers and the streams and the pools, and over every stretch of water, so that they may be turned to blood; and there will be blood through a
- 20 And Moses and Aaron did as the Lord had said; and when his rod had been lifted up and stretched out over the waters of the Nile before the eyes of Pharaoh and his servants, all the water in the Nile was turned to blood;
- 21 And the fish in the Nile came to destruction, and a bad smell went up from the river, and the Egyptians were not able to make use of the water of the Nile for drinking; and there was blood through all the land of Egypt.
- 22 And the wonder-workers of Egypt did the same with their secret arts: but Pharaoh's heart was made hard, and he would not give ear to them, as the Lord had said.
- 23 Then Pharaoh went into his house, and did not take even this to heart.
- 24 And all the Egyptians made holes round about the Nile to get drinking-water, for they were not able to make use of the Nile water.
- 25 And seven days went past, after the Lord had put his hand on the Nile.
- 1 And this is what the Lord said to Moses: Go to Pharaoh and say to him, The Lord says, Let my people go so that they may give me worship.
- 2 And if you will not let them go, see, I will send frogs into every part of your land:
- 3 The Nile will be full of frogs, and they will come up into your house and into your bedrooms and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants and your people, and into your ovens and into your bread-basins.
- 4 The frogs will come up over you and your people and all your servants.
- 5 And the Lord said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Let the rod in your hand be stretched out over the streams and the waterways and the pools, causing frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.
- 6 And when Aaron put out his hand over the waters of Egypt, the frogs came up and all the land of Egypt was covered with them.
- 7 And the wonder-workers did the same with their secret arts, making frogs come up over the land of Egypt.
- 8 Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron and said, Make prayer to the Lord that he will take away these frogs from me and my people; and I will let the people go and make their offering to the Lord.
- 9 And Moses said, I will let you have the honour of saying when I am to make prayer for you and your servants and your people, that the frogs may be sent away from you and your houses, and be only in the Nile.
- 10 And he said, By tomorrow. And he said, Let it be as you say: so that you may see that there is no other like the Lord our God.
- 11 And the frogs will be gone from you and from your houses and from your servants and from your people and will be only in the Nile.
- 12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh; and Moses made prayer to the Lord about the frogs which he had sent on Pharaoh.
- 13 And the Lord did as Moses said; and there was an end of all the frogs in the houses and in the open spaces and in the fields.
- 14 And they put them together in masses, and a bad smell went up from the land.

- 15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was peace for a time, he made his heart hard and did not give ear to them, as the Lord had said.
- 16 And the Lord said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Let your rod be stretched out over the dust of the earth so that it may become insects through all the land of Egypt.
- 17 And they did so; and Aaron, stretching out the rod in his hand, gave a touch to the dust of the earth, and insects came on man and on beast; all the dust of the earth was changed into insects through all the land of Egypt.
- 18 And the wonder-workers with their secret arts, attempting to make insects, were unable to do so: and there were insects on man and on beast.
- 19 Then the wonder-workers said to Pharaoh, This is the finger of God: but Pharaoh's heart was hard, and he did not give ear to them, as the Lord had said.
- 20 And the Lord said to Moses, Get up early in the morning and take your place before Pharaoh when he comes out to the water; and say to him, This is what the Lord says: Let my people go to give me worship.
- 21 For if you do not let my people go, see, I will send clouds of flies on you and on your servants and on your people and into their houses; and the houses of the Egyptians and the land where they are will be full of flies.
- 22 And at that time I will make a division between your land and the land of Goshen where my people are, and no flies will be there; so that you may see that I am the Lord over all the earth.
- 23 And I will put a division between my people and your people; tomorrow this sign will be seen.
- 24 And the Lord did so; and great clouds of flies came into the house of Pharaoh and into his servants' houses, and all the land of Egypt was made waste because of the flies.
- 25 And Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron and said, Go and make your offering to your God here in the land.
- 26 And Moses said, It is not right to do so; for we make our offerings of that to which the Egyptians give worship; and if we do so before their eyes, certainly we will be stoned.
- 27 But we will go three days' journey into the waste land and make an offering to the Lord our God as he may give us orders.
- 28 Then Pharaoh said, I will let you go to make an offering to the Lord your God in the waste land; but do not go very far away, and make prayer for me.
- 29 And Moses said, When I go out from you I will make prayer to the Lord that the cloud of flies may go away from Pharaoh and from his people and from his servants tomorrow: only let Pharaoh no longer by deceit keep back the people from making their offering
- 30 Then Moses went out from Pharaoh and made prayer to the Lord.
- 31 And the Lord did as Moses said, and took away the cloud of flies from Pharaoh and from his servants and from his people; not one was to be seen.
- 32 But again Pharaoh made his heart hard and did not let the people go.
- 1 Then the Lord said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go so that they may give me worship.
- 2 For if you will not let them go, but still keep them in your power,
- 3 Then the hand of the Lord will put on your cattle in the field, on the horses and the asses and the camels, on the herds and the flocks, a very evil disease.
- 4 And the Lord will make a division between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt; there will be no loss of any of the cattle of Israel.
- 5 And the time was fixed by the Lord, and he said, Tomorrow the Lord will do this thing in the land.
- 6 And on the day after, the Lord did as he had said, causing the death of all the cattle of Egypt, but there was no loss of any of the cattle of Israel.
- 7 And Pharaoh sent and got word that there was no loss of any of the cattle of Israel. But the heart of Pharaoh was hard and he did not let the people go.
- 8 And the Lord said to Moses and to Aaron, Take in your hand a little dust from the fire and let Moses send it in a shower up to heaven before the eyes of Pharaoh.
- 9 And it will become small dust over all the land of Egypt, and will be a skin-disease bursting out in wounds on man and beast through all the land of Egypt.
- 10 So they took some dust from the fire, and placing themselves before Pharaoh, Moses sent it out in a shower up to heaven; and it became a skin-disease bursting out on man and on beast.

- 11 And the wonder-workers were not able to take their places before Moses, because of the disease; for the disease was on the wonder-workers and on all the Egyptians.
- 12 And the Lord made Pharaoh's heart hard, and he would not give ear to them, as the Lord had said.
- 13 And the Lord said to Moses, Get up early in the morning and take your place before Pharaoh, and say to him, This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go so that they may give me worship.
- 14 For this time I will send all my punishments on yourself and on your servants and on your people; so that you may see that there is no other like me in all the earth.
- 15 For if I had put the full weight of my hand on you and your people, you would have been cut off from the earth:
- 16 But, for this very reason, I have kept you from destruction, to make clear to you my power, and so that my name may be honoured through all the earth.
- 17 Are you still uplifted in pride against my people so that you will not let them go?
- 18 Truly, tomorrow about this time I will send down an ice-storm, such as never was in Egypt from its earliest days till now.
- 19 Then send quickly and get in your cattle and all you have from the fields; for if any man or beast in the field has not been put under cover, the ice-storm will come down on them with destruction.
- 20 Then everyone among the servants of Pharaoh who had the fear of the Lord, made his servants and his cattle come quickly into the house:
- 21 And he who gave no attention to the word of the Lord, kept his servants and his cattle in the field.
- 22 And the Lord said to Moses, Now let your hand be stretched out to heaven so that there may be an ice-storm on all the land of Egypt, on man and on beast and on every plant of the field through all the land of Egypt.
- 23 And Moses put out his rod to heaven: and the Lord sent thunder, and an ice-storm, and fire running down on the earth; the Lord sent an ice-storm on the land of Egypt.
- 24 So there was an ice-storm with fire running through it, coming down with great force, such as never was in all the land of Egypt from the time when it became a nation.
- 25 And through all the land of Egypt the ice-storm came down on everything which was in the fields, on man and on beast; and every green plant was crushed and every tree of the field broken.
- 26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no ice-storm.
- 27 Then Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, I have done evil this time: the Lord is upright, and I and my people are sinners.
- 28 Make prayer to the Lord; for there has been enough of these thunderings of God and this ice-storm; and I will let you go and will keep you no longer.
- 29 And Moses said, When I am gone outside the town, my hands will be stretched out to the Lord; the thunders and the ice-storm will come to an end, so that you may see that the earth is the Lord's.
- 30 But as for you and your servants, I am certain that even now the fear of the Lord God will not be in your hearts.
- 31 And the flax and the barley were damaged, for the barley was almost ready to be cut and the flax was in flower.
- 32 But the rest of the grain-plants were undamaged, for they had not come up.
- 33 So Moses went out of the town, and stretching out his hands made prayer to God: and the thunders and the ice-storm came to an end; and the fall of rain was stopped.
- 34 But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the ice-storm and the thunders were ended, he went on sinning, and made his heart hard, he and his servants.
- 35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hard, and he did not let the people go, as the Lord had said by the mouth of Moses.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh: for I have made his heart and the hearts of his servants hard, so that I may let my signs be seen among them:
- 2 And so that you may be able to give to your son and to your son's son the story of my wonders in Egypt, and the signs which I have done among them; so that you may see that I am the Lord.
- 3 Then Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, says: How long will you be lifted up in your pride before me? let my people go so that they may give me worship.
- 4 For if you will not let my people go, tomorrow I will send locusts into your land:

- 5 And the face of the earth will be covered with them, so that you will not be able to see the earth: and they will be the destruction of everything which up to now has not been damaged, everything which was not crushed by the ice-storm, and every tree still
- 6 And your houses will be full of them, and the houses of your servants and of all the Egyptians; it will be worse than anything your fathers have seen or their fathers, from the day when they were living on the earth till this day. And so he went out from
- 7 And Pharaoh's servants said to him, How long is this man to be the cause of evil to us? let the men go so that they may give worship to the Lord their God: are you not awake to Egypt's danger?
- 8 Then Moses and Aaron came in again before Pharaoh: and he said to them, Go and give worship to the Lord your God: but which of you are going?
- 9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and our old, with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds; for we are to keep a feast to the Lord.
- 10 And he said to them, May the Lord be with you, if I will let you and your little ones go! take care, for your purpose clearly is evil.
- 11 Not so; but let your males go and give worship to the Lord, as your desire is. This he said, driving them out from before him.
- 12 And the Lord said to Moses, Let your hand be stretched out over the land of Egypt so that the locusts may come up on the land for the destruction of every green plant in the land, even everything untouched by the ice-storm.
- 13 And Moses' rod was stretched out over the land of Egypt, and the Lord sent an east wind over the land all that day and all the night; and in the morning the locusts came up with the east wind.
- 14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, resting on every part of the land, in very great numbers; such an army of locusts had never been seen before, and never will be again.
- 15 For all the face of the earth was covered with them, so that the land was black; and every green plant and all the fruit of the trees which was untouched by the ice-storm they took for food: not one green thing, no plant or tree, was to be seen in all the
- 16 Then Pharaoh quickly sent for Moses and Aaron, and said, I have done evil against the Lord your God and against you.
- 17 Let me now have forgiveness for my sin this time only, and make prayer to the Lord your God that he will take away from me this death only.
- 18 So he went out from Pharaoh and made prayer to the Lord.
- 19 And the Lord sent a very strong west wind, which took up the locusts, driving them into the Red Sea; not one locust was to be seen in any part of Egypt.
- 20 But the Lord made Pharaoh's heart hard, and he did not let the children of Israel go.
- 21 And the Lord said to Moses, Let your hand be stretched out to heaven, and all the land of Egypt will be dark, so that men will be feeling their way about in the dark.
- 22 And when Moses' hand was stretched out, dark night came over all the land of Egypt for three days;
- 23 They were not able to see one another, and no one got up from his place for three days: but where the children of Israel were living it was light.
- 24 Then Pharaoh sent for Moses, and said, Go and give worship to the Lord; only let your flocks and your herds be kept here: your little ones may go with you.
- 25 But Moses said, You will have to let us take burned offerings to put before the Lord our God.
- 26 So our cattle will have to go with us, not one may be kept back; for they are needed for the worship of the Lord our God; we have no knowledge what offering we have to give till we come to the place.
- 27 But the Lord made Pharaoh's heart hard, and he would not let them go.
- 28 And Pharaoh said to him, Go away from me, take care that you come not again before me; for the day when you see my face again will be your last.
- 29 And Moses said, You say truly; I will not see your face again.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, I will send one more punishment on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you go; and when he does let you go, he will not keep one of you back, but will send you out by force.
- 2 So go now and give orders to the people that every man and every woman is to get from his or her neighbour ornaments of silver and of gold.

- 3 And the Lord gave the people grace in the eyes of the Egyptians. For the man Moses was highly honoured in the land of Egypt, by Pharaoh's servants and the people.
- 4 And Moses said, This is what the Lord says: About the middle of the night I will go out through Egypt:
- 5 And death will come to every mother's first male child in all the land of Egypt, from the child of Pharaoh on his seat of power, to the child of the servant-girl crushing the grain; and the first births of all the cattle.
- 6 And there will be a great cry through all the land of Egypt, such as never has been or will be again.
- 7 But against the children of Israel, man or beast, not so much as the tongue of a dog will be moved: so that you may see how the Lord makes a division between Israel and the Egyptians.
- 8 And all these your servants will come to me, going down on their faces before me and saying, Go out, and all your people with you: and after that I will go out. And he went away from Pharaoh burning with wrath.
- 9 And the Lord said to Moses, Pharaoh will not give ear to you, so that my wonders may be increased in the land of Egypt.
- 10 All these wonders Moses and Aaron did before Pharaoh: but the Lord made Pharaoh's heart hard, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt,
- 2 Let this month be to you the first of months, the first month of the year.
- 3 Say to all the children of Israel when they are come together, In the tenth day of this month every man is to take a lamb, by the number of their fathers' families, a lamb for every family:
- 4 And if the lamb is more than enough for the family, let that family and its nearest neighbour have a lamb between them, taking into account the number of persons and how much food is needed for every man.
- 5 Let your lamb be without a mark, a male in its first year: you may take it from among the sheep or the goats:
- 6 Keep it till the fourteenth day of the same month, when everyone who is of the children of Israel is to put it to death between sundown and dark.
- 7 Then take some of the blood and put it on the two sides of the door and over the door of the house where the meal is to be taken.
- 8 And let your food that night be the flesh of the lamb, cooked with fire in the oven, together with unleavened bread and bitter-tasting plants.
- 9 Do not take it uncooked or cooked with boiling water, but let it be cooked in the oven; its head with its legs and its inside parts.
- 10 Do not keep any of it till the morning; anything which is not used is to be burned with fire.
- 11 And take your meal dressed as if for a journey, with your shoes on your feet and your sticks in your hands: take it quickly: it is the Lord's Passover.
- 12 For on that night I will go through the land of Egypt, sending death on every first male child, of man and of beast, and judging all the gods of Egypt: I am the Lord.
- 13 And the blood will be a sign on the houses where you are: when I see the blood I will go over you, and no evil will come on you for your destruction, when my hand is on the land of Egypt.
- 14 And this day is to be kept in your memories: you are to keep it as a feast to the Lord through all your generations, as an order for ever.
- 15 For seven days let your food be unleavened bread; from the first day no leaven is to be seen in your houses: whoever takes bread with leaven in it, from the first till the seventh day, will be cut off from Israel.
- 16 And on the first day there is to be a holy meeting and on the seventh day a holy meeting; no sort of work may be done on those days but only to make ready what is necessary for everyone's food.
- 17 So keep the feast of unleavened bread; for on this very day I have taken your armies out of the land of Egypt: this day, then, is to be kept through all your generations by an order for ever.
- 18 In the first month, from the evening of the fourteenth day, let your food be unleavened bread till the evening of the twenty-first day of the month.
- 19 For seven days no leaven is to be seen in your houses: for whoever takes bread which is leavened will be cut off from the people of Israel, if he is from another country or if he is an Israelite by birth.
- 20 Take nothing which has leaven in it; wherever you are living let your food be unleavened cakes.
- 21 Then Moses sent for the chiefs of Israel, and said to them, See that lambs are marked out for yourselves and your families, and let the Passover lamb be put to death.

- 22 And take some hyssop and put it in the blood in the basin, touching the two sides and the top of the doorway with the blood from the basin; and let not one of you go out of his house till the morning.
- 23 For the Lord will go through the land, sending death on the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the two sides and the top of the door, the Lord will go over your door and will not let death come in for your destruction.
- 24 And you are to keep this as an order to you and to your sons for ever.
- 25 And when you come into the land which the Lord will make yours, as he gave his word, you are to keep this act of worship.
- 26 And when your children say to you, What is the reason of this act of worship?
- 27 Then you will say, This is the offering of the Lord's Passover; for he went over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he sent death on the Egyptians, and kept our families safe. And the people gave worship with bent heads.
- 28 And the children of Israel went and did so; as the Lord had given orders to Moses and Aaron, so they did.
- 29 And in the middle of the night the Lord sent death on every first male child in the land of Egypt, from the child of Pharaoh on his seat of power to the child of the prisoner in the prison; and the first births of all the cattle.
- 30 Then Pharaoh got up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians; and a great cry went up from Egypt; for there was not a house where someone was not dead.
- 31 And he sent for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Get up and go out from among my people, you and the children of Israel; go and give worship to the Lord as you have said.
- 32 And take your flocks and your herds as you have said, and be gone; and give me your blessing.
- 33 And the Egyptians were forcing the people on, to get them out of the land quickly; for they said, We are all dead men.
- 34 And the people took their bread-paste before it was leavened, putting their basins in their clothing on their backs.
- 35 And the children of Israel had done as Moses had said; and they got from the Egyptians ornaments of silver and of gold, and clothing:
- 36 And the Lord had given the people grace in the eyes of the Egyptians so that they gave them whatever was requested. So they took away all their goods from the Egyptians.
- 37 And the children of Israel made the journey from Rameses to Succoth; there were about six hundred thousand men on foot, as well as children.
- 38 And a mixed band of people went with them; and flocks and herds in great numbers.
- 39 And they made unleavened cakes from the paste which they had taken out of Egypt; it was not leavened, for they had been sent out of Egypt so quickly, that they had no time to make any food ready.
- 40 Now the children of Israel had been living in Egypt for four hundred and thirty years.
- 41 And at the end of four hundred and thirty years, to the very day, all the armies of the Lord went out of the land of Egypt.
- 42 It is a watch-night before the Lord who took them out of the land of Egypt: this same night is a watch-night to the Lord for all the children of Israel, through all their generations.
- 43 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, This is the law of the Passover: no man who is not an Israelite is to take of it:
- 44 But every man's servant, whom he has got for money, may take of it, when he has had circumcision.
- 45 A man from a strange country living among you, and a servant working for payment, may not take part in it.
- 46 It is to be taken in one house; not a bit of the flesh is to be taken out of the house, and no bone of it may be broken.
- 47 All Israel is to keep the feast.
- 48 And if a man from another country is living with you, and has a desire to keep the Passover to the Lord, let all the males of his family undergo circumcision, and then let him come near and keep it; for he will then be as one of your people; but no one wi
- 49 The law is the same for him who is an Israelite by birth and for the man from a strange country who is living with you.
- 50 So the children of Israel did as the Lord gave orders to Moses and Aaron.
- 51 And on that very day the Lord took the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Let the first male child of every mother among the children of Israel be kept holy for me, even the first male birth among man or beast; for it is mine.
- 3 And Moses said to the people, Let this day, on which you came out of Egypt, out of your prison-house, be kept for ever in memory; for by the strength of his hand the Lord has taken you out from this place; let no leavened bread be used.

- 4 On this day, in the month Abib, you are going out.
- 5 And it will be that, when the Lord takes you into the land of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, the land which he made an oath to your fathers that he would give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you will
- 6 For seven days let your food be unleavened cakes; and on the seventh day there is to be a feast to the Lord.
- 7 Unleavened cakes are to be your food through all the seven days; let no leavened bread be seen among you, or any leaven, in any part of your land.
- 8 And you will say to your son in that day, It is because of what the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt.
- 9 And this will be for a sign to you on your hand and for a mark on your brow, so that the law of the Lord may be in your mouth: for with a strong hand the Lord took you out of Egypt.
- 10 So let this order be kept, at the right time, from year to year.
- 11 And when the Lord takes you into the land of Canaan, as he made his oath to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you,
- 12 You are to put on one side for the Lord every mother's first male child, the first-fruit of her body, and the first young one of every beast; every male is holy to the Lord.
- 13 And for the young of an ass you may give a lamb in payment, or if you will not make payment for it, its neck is to be broken; but for all the first sons among your children, let payment be made.
- 14 And when your son says to you in time to come, What is the reason for this? say to him, By the strength of his hand the Lord took us out of Egypt, out of the prison-house:
- 15 And when Pharaoh made his heart hard and would not let us go, the Lord sent death on all the first sons in Egypt, of man and of beast: and so every first male who comes to birth is offered to the Lord; but for all the first of my sons I give a price.
- 16 And this will be for a sign on your hand and for a mark on your brow: for by the strength of his hand the Lord took us out of Egypt.
- 17 Now after Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not take them through the land of the Philistines, though that was near: for God said, If the people see war, they may have a change of heart and go back to Egypt.
- 18 But God took the people round by the waste land near the Red Sea: and the children of Israel went up in fighting order out of the land of Egypt.
- 19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for Joseph had made the children of Israel take an oath, saying, God will certainly keep you in mind; and you are to take my bones away with you.
- 20 Then they went on their journey from Succoth, and put up their tents in Etham at the edge of the waste land.
- 21 And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, guiding them on their way; and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light: so that they were able to go on day and night:
- 22 The pillar of cloud went ever before them by day, and the pillar of fire by night.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Give orders to the children of Israel to go back and put up their tents before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baal-zephon, opposite to which you are to put up your tents by the sea.
- 3 And Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are wandering without direction, they are shut in by the waste land.
- 4 And I will make Pharaoh's heart hard, and he will come after them and I will be honoured over Pharaoh and all his army, so that the Egyptians may see that I am the Lord. And they did so.
- 5 And word came to Pharaoh of the flight of the people: and the feeling of Pharaoh and of his servants about the people was changed, and they said, Why have we let Israel go, so that they will do no more work for us?
- 6 So he had his war-carriage made ready and took his people with him:
- 7 And he took six hundred carriages, all the carriages of Egypt, and captains over all of them.
- 8 And the Lord made the heart of Pharaoh hard, and he went after the children of Israel: for the children of Israel had gone out without fear.
- 9 But the Egyptians went after them, all the horses and carriages of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them in their tents by the sea, by Pihahiroth, before Baal-zephon.
- 10 And when Pharaoh came near, the children of Israel, lifting up their eyes, saw the Egyptians coming after them, and were full of fear; and their cry went up to God.

- 11 And they said to Moses, Was there no resting-place for the dead in Egypt, that you have taken us away to come to our death in the waste land? why have you taken us out of Egypt?
- 12 Did we not say to you in Egypt, Let us be as we are, working for the Egyptians? for it is better to be the servants of the Egyptians than to come to our death in the waste land.
- 13 But Moses said, Keep where you are and have no fear; now you will see the salvation of the Lord which he will give you today; for the Egyptians whom you see today you will never see again.
- 14 The Lord will make war for you, you have only to keep quiet.
- 15 And the Lord said to Moses, Why are you crying out to me? give the children of Israel the order to go forward.
- 16 And let your rod be lifted up and your hand stretched out over the sea, and it will be parted in two; and the children of Israel will go through on dry land.
- 17 And I will make the heart of the Egyptians hard, and they will go in after them: and I will be honoured over Pharaoh and over his army, his war-carriages, and his horsemen.
- 18 And the Egyptians will see that I am the Lord, when I get honour over Pharaoh and his war-carriages and his horsemen.
- 19 Then the angel of God, who had been before the tents of Israel, took his place at their back; and the pillar of cloud, moving from before them, came to rest at their back:
- 20 And it came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel; and there was a dark cloud between them, and they went on through the night; but the one army came no nearer to the other all the night.
- 21 And when Moses' hand was stretched out over the sea, the Lord with a strong east wind made the sea go back all night, and the waters were parted in two and the sea became dry land.
- 22 And the children of Israel went through the sea on dry land: and the waters were a wall on their right side and on their left.
- 23 Then the Egyptians went after them into the middle of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses and his war-carriages and his horsemen.
- 24 And in the morning watch, the Lord, looking out on the armies of the Egyptians from the pillar of fire and cloud, sent trouble on the army of the Egyptians;
- 25 And made the wheels of their war-carriages stiff, so that they had hard work driving them: so the Egyptians said, Let us go in flight from before the face of Israel, for the Lord is fighting for them against the Egyptians.
- 26 And the Lord said to Moses, Let your hand be stretched out over the sea, and the waters will come back again on the Egyptians, and on their war-carriages and on their horsemen.
- 27 And when Moses' hand was stretched out over the sea, at dawn the sea came flowing back, meeting the Egyptians in their flight, and the Lord sent destruction on the Egyptians in the middle of the sea.
- 28 And the waters came back, covering the war-carriages and the horsemen and all the army of Pharaoh which went after them into the middle of the sea; not one of them was to be seen.
- 29 But the children of Israel went through the sea walking on dry land, and the waters were a wall on their right side and on their left.
- 30 So that day the Lord gave Israel salvation from the hands of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the sea's edge.
- 31 And Israel saw the great work which the Lord had done against the Egyptians, and the fear of the Lord came on the people and they had faith in the Lord and in his servant Moses.
- 1 Then Moses and the children of Israel made this song to the Lord, and said, I will make a song to the Lord, for he is lifted up in glory: the horse and the horseman he has sent down into the sea.
- 2 The Lord is my strength and my strong helper, he has become my salvation: he is my God and I will give him praise; my father's God and I will give him glory.
- 3 The Lord is a man of war: the Lord is his name.
- 4 Pharaoh's war-carriages and his army he has sent down into the sea: the best of his captains have gone down into the Red Sea.
- 5 They were covered by the deep waters: like a stone they went down under the waves.
- 6 Full of glory, O Lord, is the power of your right hand; by your right hand those who came against you are broken.
- 7 When you are lifted up in power, all those who come against you are crushed: when you send out your wrath, they are burned up like dry grass.

- 8 By your breath the waves were massed together, the flowing waters were lifted up like a pillar; the deep waters became solid in the heart of the sea.
- 9 Egypt said, I will go after them, I will overtake, I will make division of their goods: my desire will have its way with them; my sword will be uncovered, my hand will send destruction on them.
- 10 You sent your wind and the sea came over them: they went down like lead into the great waters.
- 11 Who is like you, O Lord, among the gods? who is like you, in holy glory, to be praised with fear, doing wonders?
- 12 When your right hand was stretched out, the mouth of the earth was open for them.
- 13 In your mercy you went before the people whom you have made yours; guiding them in your strength to your holy place.
- 14 Hearing of you the peoples were shaking in fear: the people of Philistia were gripped with pain.
- 15 The chiefs of Edom were troubled in heart; the strong men of Moab were in the grip of fear: all the people of Canaan became like water.
- 16 Fear and grief came on them; by the strength of your arm they were turned to stone; till your people went over, O Lord, till the people went over whom you have made yours.
- 17 You will take them in, planting them in the mountain of your heritage, the place, O Lord, where you have made your house, the holy place, O Lord, the building of your hands.
- 18 The Lord is King for ever and ever.
- 19 For the horses of Pharaoh, with his war-carriages and his horsemen, went into the sea, and the Lord sent the waters of the sea back over them; but the children of Israel went through the sea on dry land.
- 20 And Miriam, the woman prophet, the sister of Aaron, took an instrument of music in her hand; and all the women went after her with music and dances.
- 21 And Miriam, answering, said, Make a song to the Lord, for he is lifted up in glory; the horse and the horseman he has sent into the sea.
- 22 Then Moses took Israel forward from the Red Sea, and they went out into the waste land of Shur; and for three days they were in the waste land where there was no water.
- 23 And when they came to Marah, the water was no good for drinking, for the waters of Marah were bitter, which is why it was named Marah.
- 24 And the people, crying out against Moses, said, What are we to have for drink?
- 25 And in answer to his prayer, the Lord made him see a tree, and when he put it into the water, the water was made sweet. There he gave them a law and an order, testing them;
- 26 And he said, If with all your heart you will give attention to the voice of the Lord your God, and do what is right in his eyes, giving ear to his orders and keeping his laws, I will not put on you any of the diseases which I put on the Egyptians: for I a
- 27 And they came to Elim where there were twelve water-springs and seventy palm-trees: and they put up their tents there by the waters.
- 1 And they went on their way from Elim, and all the children of Israel came into the waste land of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they went out of the land of Egypt.
- 2 And all the children of Israel were crying out against Moses and Aaron in the waste land:
- 3 And the children of Israel said to them, It would have been better for the Lord to have put us to death in the land of Egypt, where we were seated by the flesh-pots and had bread enough for our needs; for you have taken us out to this waste of sand, to pu
- 4 Then the Lord said to Moses, See, I will send down bread from heaven for you; and the people will go out every day and get enough for the day's needs; so that I may put them to the test to see if they will keep my laws or not.
- 5 And on the sixth day they are to make ready what they get in, and it will be twice as much as they get on the other days.
- 6 And Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, This evening it will be clear to you that it is the Lord who has taken you out of the land of Egypt:
- 7 And in the morning you will see the glory of the Lord; for your angry words against the Lord have come to his ears: and what are we that you are crying out against us?
- 8 And Moses said, The Lord will give you meat for your food at evening, and in the morning bread in full measure; for your outcry against the Lord has come to his ears: for what are we? your outcry is not against us but against the Lord.
- 9 And Moses said to Aaron, Say to all the people of Israel, Come near before the Lord for he has given ear to your outcry.

- 10 And while Aaron was talking to the children of Israel, their eyes were turned in the direction of the waste land, and they saw the glory of the Lord shining in the cloud.
- 11 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 12 The outcry of the children of Israel has come to my ears: say to them now, At nightfall you will have meat for your food, and in the morning bread in full measure; and you will see that I am the Lord your God.
- 13 And it came about that in the evening little birds came up and the place was covered with them: and in the morning there was dew all round about the tents.
- 14 And when the dew was gone, on the face of the earth was a small round thing, like small drops of ice on the earth.
- 15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, What is it? for they had no idea what it was. And Moses said to them, It is the bread which the Lord has given you for your food.
- 16 This is what the Lord has said, Let every man take up as much as he has need of; at the rate of one omer for every person, let every man take as much as is needed for his family.
- 17 And the children of Israel did so, and some took more and some less.
- 18 And when it was measured, he who had taken up much had nothing over, and he who had little had enough; every man had taken what he was able to make use of.
- 19 And Moses said to them, Let nothing be kept till the morning.
- 20 But they gave no attention to Moses, and some of them kept it till the morning and there were worms in it and it had an evil smell: and Moses was angry with them.
- 21 And they took it up morning by morning, every man as he had need: and when the sun was high it was gone.
- 22 And on the sixth day they took up twice as much of the bread, two omers for every person: and all the rulers of the people gave Moses word of it.
- 23 And he said, This is what the Lord has said, Tomorrow is a day of rest, a holy Sabbath to the Lord: what has to be cooked may be cooked; and what is over, put on one side to be kept till the morning.
- 24 And they kept it till the morning as Moses had said: and no smell came from it, and it had no worms.
- 25 And Moses said, Make your meal today of what you have, for this day is a Sabbath to the Lord: today you will not get any in the fields.
- 26 For six days you will get it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will not be any.
- 27 But still on the seventh day some of the people went out to get it, and there was not any.
- 28 And the Lord said to Moses, How long will you go against my orders and my laws?
- 29 See, because the Lord has given you the Sabbath, he gives you on the sixth day bread enough for two days; let every man keep where he is; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.
- 30 So the people took their rest on the seventh day.
- 31 And this bread was named manna by Israel: it was white, like a grain seed, and its taste was like cakes made with honey.
- 32 And Moses said, This is the order which the Lord has given: Let one omer of it be kept for future generations, so that they may see the bread which I gave you for your food in the waste land, when I took you out from the land of Egypt.
- 33 And Moses said to Aaron, Take a pot and put one omer of manna in it, and put it away before the Lord, to be kept for future generations.
- 34 So Aaron put it away in front of the holy chest to be kept, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 35 And the children of Israel had manna for their food for forty years, till they came to a land with people in it, till they came to the edge of the land of Canaan.
- 36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.
- 1 And the children of Israel went on from the waste land of Sin, by stages as the Lord gave them orders, and put up their tents in Rephidim: and there was no drinking-water for the people.
- 2 So the people were angry with Moses, and said, Give us water for drinking. And Moses said, Why are you angry with me? and why do you put God to the test?
- 3 And the people were in great need of water; and they made an outcry against Moses, and said, Why have you taken us out of Egypt to send death on us and our children and our cattle through need of water?
- 4 And Moses, crying out to the Lord, said, What am I to do to this people? they are almost ready to put me to death by stoning.

- 5 And the Lord said to Moses, Go on before the people, and take some of the chiefs of Israel with you, and take in your hand the rod which was stretched out over the Nile, and go.
- 6 See, I will take my place before you on the rock in Horeb; and when you give the rock a blow, water will come out of it, and the people will have drink. And Moses did so before the eyes of the chiefs of Israel.
- 7 And he gave that place the name Massah and Meribah, because the children of Israel were angry, and because they put the Lord to the test, saying, Is the Lord with us or not?
- 8 Then Amalek came and made war on Israel in Rephidim.
- 9 And Moses said to Joshua, Get together a band of men for us and go out, make war on Amalek: tomorrow I will take my place on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand.
- 10 So Joshua did as Moses said to him, and went to war with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.
- 11 Now while Moses' hand was lifted up, Israel was the stronger: but when he let his hand go down, Amalek became the stronger.
- 12 But Moses' hands became tired; so they put a stone under him and he took his seat on it, Aaron and Hur supporting his hands, one on one side and one on the other; so his hands were kept up without falling till the sun went down.
- 13 And Joshua overcame Amalek and his people with the sword.
- 14 And the Lord said to Moses, Make a record of this in a book, so that it may be kept in memory, and say it again in the ears of Joshua: that all memory of Amalek is to be completely uprooted from the earth.
- 15 Then Moses put up an altar and gave it the name of Yahweh-nissi:
- 16 For he said, The Lord has taken his oath that there will be war with Amalek from generation to generation.
- 1 Now news came to Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, of all God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, and how the Lord had taken Israel out of Egypt.
- 2 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her away,
- 3 And her two sons, one of whom was named Gershom, for he said, I have been living in a strange land:
- 4 And the name of the other was Eliezer, for he said, The God of my father was my help, and kept me safe from the sword of Pharaoh:
- 5 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to where Moses had put up his tent in the waste land, by the mountain of God.
- 6 And he said to Moses, I, your father-in-law, have come to you, with your wife and your two sons.
- 7 And Moses went out to his father-in-law, and went down on his face before him and gave him a kiss; and they said to one another, Are you well? and they came into the tent.
- 8 And Moses gave his father-in-law an account of all the Lord had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians because of Israel, and of all the troubles which had come on them by the way, and how the Lord had given them salvation.
- 9 And Jethro was glad because the Lord had been good to Israel, freeing them from the power of the Egyptians.
- 10 And Jethro said, Praise be to the Lord, who has taken you out of the hand of Pharaoh and out of the hand of the Egyptians; freeing the people from the yoke of the Egyptians.
- 11 Now I am certain that the Lord is greater than all gods, for he has overcome them in their pride.
- 12 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, made a burned offering to God: and Aaron came, with the chiefs of Israel, and had a meal with Moses' father-in-law, before God.
- 13 Now on the day after, Moses took his seat to give decisions for the people: and the people were waiting before Moses from morning till evening.
- 14 And when Moses' father-in-law saw all he was doing, he said, What is this you are doing for the people? why are you seated here by yourself, with all the people waiting before you from morning till evening?
- 15 And Moses said to his father-in-law, Because the people come to me to get directions from God:
- 16 And if they have any question between themselves, they come to me, and I am judge between a man and his neighbour, and I give them the orders and laws of God.
- 17 And Moses' father-in-law said to him, What you are doing is not good.
- 18 Your strength and that of the people will be completely used up: this work is more than you are able to do by yourself.
- 19 Give ear now to my suggestion, and may God be with you: you are to be the people's representative before God, taking their causes to him:

- 20 Teaching them his rules and his laws, guiding them in the way they have to go, and making clear to them the work they have to do.
- 21 But for the rest, take from among the people able men, such as have the fear of God, true men hating profits wrongly made; and put such men over them, to be captains of thousands, captains of hundreds and of fifties and of tens;
- 22 And let them be judges in the causes of the people at all times: and let them put before you all important questions, but in small things let them give decisions themselves: in this way, it will be less hard for you, and they will take the weight off you.
- 23 If you do this, and God gives approval, then you will be able to go on without weariness, and all this people will go to their tents in peace.
- 24 So Moses took note of the words of his father-in-law, and did as he had said.
- 25 And he made selection of able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, captains of thousands, captains of hundreds and of fifties and of tens.
- 26 And they were judges in the causes of the people at all times: the hard questions they put before Moses; but on every small point they gave decisions themselves.
- 27 And Moses let his father-in-law go away, and he went back to his land.
- 1 In the third month after the children of Israel went out from Egypt, on the same day, they came into the waste land of Sinai.
- 2 And when they had gone away from Rephidim and had come into the waste land of Sinai, they put up their tents in the waste land before the mountain: there Israel put up its tents.
- 3 And Moses went up to God, and the voice of the Lord came to him from the mountain, saying, Say to the family of Jacob, and give word to the children of Israel:
- 4 You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I took you, as on eagles' wings, guiding you to myself.
- 5 If now you will truly give ear to my voice and keep my agreement, you will be my special property out of all the peoples: for all the earth is mine:
- 6 And you will be a kingdom of priests to me, and a holy nation. These are the words which you are to say to the children of Israel.
- 7 And Moses came and sent for the chiefs of the people and put before them all these words which the Lord had given him orders to say.
- 8 And all the people, answering together, said, Whatever the Lord has said we will do. And Moses took back to the Lord the words of the people.
- 9 And the Lord said to Moses, See, I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that what I say to you may come to the ears of the people and they may have belief in you for ever. And Moses gave the Lord word of what the people had said.
- 10 And the Lord said to Moses, Go to the people and make them holy today and tomorrow, and let their clothing be washed.
- 11 And by the third day let them be ready: for on the third day the Lord will come down on Mount Sinai, before the eyes of all the people.
- 12 And let limits be marked out for the people round the mountain, and say to them, Take care not to go up the mountain or near the sides of it: whoever puts his foot on the mountain will certainly come to his death:
- 13 He is not to be touched by a hand, but is to be stoned or have an arrow put through him; man or beast, he is to be put to death: at the long sounding of a horn they may come up to the mountain.
- 14 Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and made the people holy; and their clothing was washed.
- 15 And he said to the people, Be ready by the third day: do not come near a woman.
- 16 And when morning came on the third day, there were thunders and flames and a thick cloud on the mountain, and a horn sounding very loud; and all the people in the tents were shaking with fear.
- 17 And Moses made the people come out of their tents and take their places before God; and they came to the foot of the mountain,
- 18 And all the mountain of Sinai was smoking, for the Lord had come down on it in fire: and the smoke of it went up like the smoke of a great burning; and all the mountain was shaking.
- 19 And when the sound of the horn became louder and louder, Moses' words were answered by the voice of God.
- 20 Then the Lord came down on to Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, and the Lord sent for Moses to come up to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

- 21 And the Lord said to Moses, Go down and give the people orders to keep back, for fear that a great number of them, forcing their way through to see the Lord, may come to destruction.
- 22 And let the priests who come near to the Lord make themselves holy, for fear that the Lord may come on them suddenly.
- 23 And Moses said to the Lord, The people will not be able to come up the mountain, for you gave us orders to put limits round the mountain, marking it out and making it holy.
- 24 And the Lord said to him, Go down, and you and Aaron may come up; but let not the priests and the people make their way through to the Lord, or he will come on them suddenly.
- 25 So Moses went down to the people and said this to them.
- 1 And God said all these words:
- 2 I am the Lord your God who took you out of the land of Egypt, out of the prison-house.
- 3 You are to have no other gods but me.
- 4 You are not to make an image or picture of anything in heaven or on the earth or in the waters under the earth:
- 5 You may not go down on your faces before them or give them worship: for I, the Lord your God, am a God who will not give his honour to another; and I will send punishment on the children for the wrongdoing of their fathers, to the third and fourth generat
- 6 And I will have mercy through a thousand generations on those who have love for me and keep my laws.
- 7 You are not to make use of the name of the Lord your God for an evil purpose; whoever takes the Lord's name on his lips for an evil purpose will be judged a sinner by the Lord
- 8 Keep in memory the Sabbath and let it be a holy day.
- 9 On six days do all your work:
- 10 But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; on that day you are to do no work, you or your son or your daughter, your man-servant or your woman-servant, your cattle or the man from a strange country who is living among you:
- 11 For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and the sea, and everything in them, and he took his rest on the seventh day: for this reason the Lord has given his blessing to the seventh day and made it holy.
- 12 Give honour to your father and to your mother, so that your life may be long in the land which the Lord your God is giving you.
- 13 Do not put anyone to death without cause.
- 14 Do not be false to the married relation.
- 15 Do not take the property of another.
- 16 Do not give false witness against your neighbour.
- 17 Let not your desire be turned to your neighbour's house, or his wife or his man-servant or his woman-servant or his ox or his ass or anything which is his.
- 18 And all the people were watching the thunderings and the flames and the sound of the horn and the mountain smoking; and when they saw it, they kept far off, shaking with fear.
- 19 And they said to Moses, To your words we will give ear, but let not the voice of God come to our ears, for fear death may come on us.
- 20 And Moses said to the people, Have no fear: for God has come to put you to the test, so that fearing him you may be kept from sin.
- 21 And the people kept their places far off, but Moses went near to the dark cloud where God was.
- 22 And the Lord said to Moses, Say to the children of Israel, You yourselves have seen that my voice has come to you from heaven
- 23 Gods of silver and gods of gold you are not to make for yourselves.
- 24 Make for me an altar of earth, offering on it your burned offerings and your peace-offerings, your sheep and your oxen: in every place where I have put the memory of my name, I will come to you and give you my blessing.
- 25 And if you make me an altar of stone do not make it of cut stones: for the touch of an instrument will make it unclean.
- 26 And do not go up by steps to my altar, for fear that your bodies may be seen uncovered.
- 1 Now these are the laws which you are to put before them.

- 2 If you get a Hebrew servant for money, he is to be your servant for six years, and in the seventh year you are to let him go free without payment.
- 3 If he comes to you by himself, let him go away by himself: if he is married, let his wife go away with him.
- 4 If his master gives him a wife, and he gets sons or daughters by her, the wife and her children will be the property of the master, and the servant is to go away by himself.
- 5 But if the servant says clearly, My master and my wife and children are dear to me; I have no desire to be free:
- 6 Then his master is to take him to the gods of the house, and at the door, or at its framework, he is to make a hole in his ear with a sharp-pointed instrument; and he will be his servant for ever.
- 7 And if a man gives his daughter for a price to be a servant, she is not to go away free as the men-servants do.
- 8 If she is not pleasing to her master who has taken her for himself, let a payment be made for her so that she may go free; her master has no power to get a price for her and send her to a strange land, because he has been false to her.
- 9 And if he gives her to his son, he is to do everything for her as if she was his daughter.
- 10 And if he takes another woman, her food and clothing and her married rights are not to be less.
- 11 And if he does not do these three things for her, she has the right to go free without payment.
- 12 He who gives a man a death-blow is himself to be put to death.
- 13 But if he had no evil purpose against him, and God gave him into his hand, I will give you a place to which he may go in flight.
- 14 But if a man makes an attack on his neighbour on purpose, to put him to death by deceit, you are to take him from my altar and put him to death.
- 15 Any man who gives a blow to his father or his mother is certainly to be put to death.
- 16 Any man who gets another into his power in order to get a price for him is to be put to death, if you take him in the act.
- 17 Any man cursing his father or his mother is to be put to death.
- 18 If, in a fight, one man gives another a blow with a stone, or with the shut hand, not causing his death, but making him keep in bed;
- 19 If he is able to get up again and go about with a stick, the other will be let off; only he will have to give him payment for the loss of his time, and see that he is cared for till he is well.
- 20 If a man gives his man-servant or his woman-servant blows with a rod, causing death, he is certainly to undergo punishment.
- 21 But, at the same time, if the servant goes on living for a day or two, the master is not to get punishment, for the servant is his property.
- 22 If men, while fighting, do damage to a woman with child, causing the loss of the child, but no other evil comes to her, the man will have to make payment up to the amount fixed by her husband, in agreement with the decision of the judges.
- 23 But if damage comes to her, let life be given in payment for life,
- 24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,
- 25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, blow for blow.
- 26 If a man gives his man-servant or his woman-servant a blow in the eye, causing its destruction, he is to let him go free on account of the damage to his eye.
- 27 Or if the loss of a tooth is caused by his blow, he will let him go free on account of his tooth.
- 28 If an ox comes to be the cause of death to a man or a woman, the ox is to be stoned, and its flesh may not be used for food; but the owner will not be judged responsible.
- 29 But if the ox has frequently done such damage in the past, and the owner has had word of it and has not kept it under control, so that it has been the cause of the death of a man or woman, not only is the ox to be stoned, but its owner is to be put to death
- 30 If a price is put on his life, let him make payment of whatever price is fixed.
- 31 If the death of a son or of a daughter has been caused, the punishment is to be in agreement with this rule.
- 32 If the death of a man-servant or of a woman-servant is caused by the ox, the owner is to give their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox is to be stoned.
- 33 If a man makes a hole in the earth without covering it up, and an ox or an ass dropping into it comes to its death;
- 34 The owner of the hole is responsible; he will have to make payment to their owner, but the dead beast will be his.

- 35 And if one man's ox does damage to another man's ox, causing its death, then the living ox is to be exchanged for money, and division made of the price of it, and of the price of the dead one.
- 36 But if it is common knowledge that the ox has frequently done such damage in the past, and its owner has not kept it under control, he will have to give ox for ox; and the dead beast will be his.
- 1 If a man takes without right another man's ox or his sheep, and puts it to death or gets a price for it, he is to give five oxen for an ox, or four sheep for a sheep, in payment: the thief will have to make payment for what he has taken; if he has no more
 - 2 If a thief is taken in the act of forcing his way into a house, and his death is caused by a blow, the owner of the house is not responsible for his blood.
 - 3 But if it is after dawn, he will be responsible.
 - 4 If he still has what he had taken, whatever it is, ox or ass or sheep, he is to give twice its value.
 - 5 If a man makes a fire in a field or a vine-garden, and lets the fire do damage to another man's field, he is to give of the best produce of his field or his vine-garden to make up for it.
 - 6 If there is a fire and the flames get to the thorns at the edge of the field, causing destruction of the cut grain or of the living grain, or of the field, he who made the fire will have to make up for the damage.
 - 7 If a man puts money or goods in the care of his neighbour to keep for him, and it is taken from the man's house, if they get the thief, he will have to make payment of twice the value.
 - 8 If they do not get the thief, let the master of the house come before the judges and take an oath that he has not put his hand on his neighbour's goods.
 - 9 In any question about an ox or an ass or a sheep or clothing, or about the loss of any property which anyone says is his, let the two sides put their cause before God; and he who is judged to be in the wrong is to make payment to his neighbour of twice th
 - 10 If a man puts an ass or an ox or a sheep or any beast into the keeping of his neighbour, and it comes to death or is damaged or is taken away, without any person seeing it:
 - 11 If he takes his oath before the Lord that he has not put his hand to his neighbour's goods, the owner is to take his word for it and he will not have to make payment for it.
 - 12 But if it is taken from him by a thief, he is to make up for the loss of it to its owner.
 - 13 But if it has been damaged by a beast, and he is able to make this clear, he will not have to make payment for what was damaged.
 - 14 If a man gets from his neighbour the use of one of his beasts, and it is damaged or put to death when the owner is not with it, he will certainly have to make payment for the loss.
 - 15 If the owner is with it, he will not have to make payment: if he gave money for the use of it, the loss is covered by the payment.
 - 16 If a man takes a virgin, who has not given her word to another man, and has connection with her, he will have to give a bride-price for her to be his wife.
 - 17 If her father will not give her to him on any account, he will have to give the regular payment for virgins.
 - 18 Any woman using unnatural powers or secret arts is to be put to death.
 - 19 Any man who has sex connection with a beast is to be put to death.
 - 20 Complete destruction will come on any man who makes offerings to any other god but the Lord.
 - 21 Do no wrong to a man from a strange country, and do not be hard on him; for you yourselves were living in a strange country, in the land of Egypt.
 - 22 Do no wrong to a widow, or to a child whose father is dead.
 - 23 If you are cruel to them in any way, and their cry comes up to me, I will certainly give ear;
 - 24 And in the heat of my wrath I will put you to death with the sword, so that your wives will be widows and your children without fathers.
 - 25 If you let any of the poor among my people have the use of your money, do not be a hard creditor to him, and do not take interest.
 - 26 If ever you take your neighbour's clothing in exchange for the use of your money, let him have it back before the sun goes down:

- 27 For it is the only thing he has for covering his skin; what is he to go to sleep in? and when his cry comes up to me, I will give ear, for my mercy is great.
- 28 You may not say evil of the judges, or put a curse on the ruler of your people.
- 29 Do not keep back your offerings from the wealth of your grain and your vines. The first of your sons you are to give to me.
- 30 In the same way with your oxen and your sheep: for seven days let the young one be with its mother; on the eighth day give it to me.
- 31 You are to be holy men to me: the flesh of no animal whose death has been caused by the beasts of the field may be used for your food; it is to be given to the dogs.
- 1 Do not let a false statement go further; do not make an agreement with evil-doers to be a false witness.
- 2 Do not be moved to do wrong by the general opinion, or give the support of your words to a wrong decision:
- 3 But, on the other hand, do not be turned from what is right in order to give support to a poor man's cause.
- 4 If you come across the ox or the ass of one who is no friend to you wandering from its way, you are to take it back to him.
- 5 If you see the ass of one who has no love for you bent down to the earth under the weight which is put on it, you are to come to its help, even against your desire.
- 6 Let no wrong decisions be given in the poor man's cause.
- 7 Keep yourselves far from any false business; never let the upright or him who has done no wrong be put to death: for I will make the evil-doer responsible for his sin.
- 8 Take no rewards in a cause: for rewards make blind those who have eyes to see, and make the decisions of the upright false.
- 9 Do not be hard on the man from a strange country who is living among you; for you have had experience of the feelings of one who is far from the land of his birth, because you yourselves were living in Egypt, in a strange land.
- 10 For six years put seed into your fields and get in the increase;
- 11 But in the seventh year let the land have a rest and be unplanted; so that the poor may have food from it: and let the beasts of the field take the rest. Do the same with your vine-gardens and your olive-trees.
- 12 For six days do your work, and on the seventh day keep the Sabbath; so that your ox and your ass may have rest, together with the son of your servant and the man from a strange land living among you.
- 13 Take note of all these things which I have said to you, and let not the names of other gods come into your minds or from your lips.
- 14 Three times in the year you are to keep a feast to me.
- 15 You are to keep the feast of unleavened bread; for seven days let your bread be without leaven, as I gave you orders, at the regular time in the month Abib (for in it you came out of Egypt); and let no one come before me without an offering:
- 16 And the feast of the grain-cutting, the first-fruits of your planted fields: and the feast at the start of the year, when you have got in all the fruit from your fields.
- 17 Three times in the year let all your males come before the Lord God.
- 18 Do not give the blood of my offering with leavened bread; and do not let the fat of my feast be kept all night till the morning.
- 19 The best of the first-fruits of your land are to be taken into the house of the Lord your God. The young goat is not to be cooked in its mother's milk.
- 20 See, I am sending an angel before you, to keep you on your way and to be your guide into the place which I have made ready for you.
- 21 Give attention to him and give ear to his voice; do not go against him; for your wrongdoing will not be overlooked by him, because my name is in him.
- 22 But if you truly give ear to his voice, and do whatever I say, then I will be against those who are against you, fighting those who are fighting you.
- 23 And my angel will go before you, guiding you into the land of the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Canaanite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, and they will be cut off by my hand.
- 24 Do not go down on your faces and give worship to their gods, or do as they do; but overcome them completely, and let their pillars be broken down.

- 25 And give worship to the Lord your God, who will send his blessing on your bread and on your water; and I will take all disease away from among you.
- 26 All your animals will give birth without loss, not one will be without young in all your land; I will give you a full measure of life.
- 27 I will send my fear before you, putting to flight all the people to whom you come; all those who are against you will go in flight, turning their backs before you.
- 28 I will send hornets before you, driving out the Hivite and the Canaanite and the Hittite before your face.
- 29 I will not send them all out in one year, for fear that their land may become waste, and the beasts of the field be increased overmuch against you.
- 30 Little by little I will send them away before you, till your numbers are increased and you take up your heritage in the land.
- 31 I will let the limits of your land be from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the waste land to the river Euphrates: for I will give the people of those lands into your power; and you will send them out before you.
- 32 Make no agreement with them or with their gods.
- 33 Let them not go on living in your land, or they will make you do evil against me: for if you give worship to their gods, it will certainly be a cause of sin to you.
- 1 And he said to Moses, Come up to the Lord, you and Aaron, and Nadab and Abihu and seventy of the chiefs of Israel; and give me worship from a distance.
- 2 And Moses only may come near to the Lord; but the others are not to come near, and the people may not come up with them.
- 3 Then Moses came and put before the people all the words of the Lord and his laws: and all the people, answering with one voice, said, Whatever the Lord has said we will do.
- 4 Then Moses put down in writing all the words of the Lord, and he got up early in the morning and made an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 5 And he sent some of the young men of the children of Israel to make burned offerings and peace-offerings of oxen to the Lord.
- 6 And Moses took half the blood and put it in basins; draining out half of the blood over the altar.
- 7 And he took the book of the agreement, reading it in the hearing of the people: and they said, Everything which the Lord has said we will do, and we will keep his laws.
- 8 Then Moses took the blood and let it come on the people, and said, This blood is the sign of the agreement which the Lord has made with you in these words.
- 9 Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the chiefs of Israel went up:
- 10 And they saw the God of Israel; and under his feet there was, as it seemed, a jewelled floor, clear as the heavens.
- 11 And he put not his hand on the chiefs of the children of Israel: they saw God, and took food and drink.
- 12 And the Lord said to Moses, Come up to me on the mountain, and take your place there: and I will give you the stones on which I have put in writing the law and the orders, so that you may give the people knowledge of them.
- 13 Then Moses and Joshua his servant got up; and Moses went up into the mountain of God.
- 14 And he said to the chiefs, Keep your places here till we come back to you: Aaron and Hur are with you; if anyone has any cause let him go to them.
- 15 And Moses went up into the mountain, and it was covered by the cloud.
- 16 And the glory of the Lord was resting on Mount Sinai, and the cloud was over it for six days; and on the seventh day he said Moses' name out of the cloud.
- 17 And the glory of the Lord was like a flame on the top of the mountain before the eyes of the children of Israel.
- 18 And Moses went up the mountain, into the cloud, and was there for forty days and forty nights.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel that they are to make me an offering; from every man who has the impulse in his heart take an offering for me.
- 3 And this is the offering you are to take from them: gold and silver and brass;
- 4 And blue and purple and red, and the best linen, and goats' hair;
- 5 And sheepskins coloured red, and leather, and hard wood;

- 6 Oil for the light, spices for the sweet-smelling oil, sweet perfumes for burning;
- 7 Beryls and stones of value to be put on the ephod and on the priest's bag.
- 8 And let them make me a holy place, so that I may be ever present among them.
- 9 Make the House and everything in it from the designs which I will give you.
- 10 And they are to make an ark of hard wood; two and a half cubits long, and a cubit and a half wide and high.
- 11 It is to be plated inside and out with the best gold, with an edge of gold all round it
- 12 And make four rings of gold for it, to be fixed on its four feet, two rings on one side of it and two on the other.
- 13 And make rods of the same wood, plating them with gold.
- 14 And put the rods through the rings at the sides of the ark, for lifting it.
- 15 The rods are to be kept in the rings, and never taken out.
- 16 Inside the ark you are to put the record which I will give you.
- 17 And you are to make a cover of the best gold, two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.
- 18 And at the two ends of the cover you are to make two winged ones of hammered gold,
- 19 One at one end and one at the other; the winged ones are to be part of the cover.
- 20 And their wings are to be outstretched over the cover, and the winged ones are to be opposite one another, facing the cover.
- 21 And put the cover over the ark, and in the ark the record which I will give you.
- 22 And there, between the two winged ones on the cover of the ark, I will come to you, face to face, and make clear to you all the orders I have to give you for the children of Israel.
- 23 And you are to make a table of the same wood, two cubits long, a cubit wide and a cubit and a half high,
- 24 Plated with the best gold, with a gold edge all round it;
- 25 And make a frame all round it, as wide as a man's hand, with a gold edge to the frame.
- 26 And make four gold rings and put them at the four angles, on the four feet of the table;
- 27 The rings are to be fixed under the frame to take the rods with which the table is to be lifted.
- 28 Make rods of the same wood, plated with gold, for lifting the table.
- 29 And make the table-vessels, the spoons and the cups and the basins for liquids, all of the best gold.
- 30 And on the table at all times you are to keep my holy bread.
- 31 And you are to make a support for lights, of the best gold; its base and its pillar are to be of hammered gold; its cups, its buds, and its flowers are to be made of the same metal.
- 32 It is to have six branches coming out from its sides; three branches from one side and three from the other.
- 33 Every branch having three cups made like almond flowers, every cup with a bud and a flower, on all the branches.
- 34 And on the pillar, four cups like almond flowers, every one with its bud and its flower:
- 35 And under every two branches a bud, made with the branch, for all the six branches of it.
- 36 The buds and the branches are to be made of the same metal; all together one complete work of hammered gold.
- 37 Then you are to make its seven vessels for the lights, putting them in their place so that they give light in front of it.
- 38 And the instruments and trays for use with it are all to be of the best gold.
- 39 A talent of gold will be needed for it, with all these vessels.
- 40 And see that you make them from the design which you saw on the mountain.
 - 1 And you are to make a House for me, with ten curtains of the best linen, blue and purple and red, worked with designs of winged ones by a good workman.
 - 2 Every curtain is to be twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide, all of the same measure.
 - 3 Five curtains are to be joined together, and the other five are to be joined together.
 - 4 And you are to put twists of blue cord on the edge of the outside curtain of the first group of five, and on the edge of the outside curtain of the second group of five;
 - 5 Fifty twists on one curtain and fifty on the other, the twists to be opposite one another.
 - 6 Then make fifty gold hooks, joining the curtains together by the hooks, and in this way the House will be made.
 - 7 And you are to make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the House, eleven curtains.

- 8 Every curtain is to be thirty cubits long and four cubits wide, all of the same measure.
- 9 Five of these curtains are to be joined together, and the other six are to be joined together, the sixth being folded over to make a hanging in front of the tent.
- 10 And you are to put fifty twists of cord on the edge of the outside curtain of one group, and fifty twists on the edge of the outside curtain of the other group.
- 11 Then make fifty brass hooks and put the hooks into the twists, joining the tent together to make it one.
- 12 And the folded part which is over of the curtains of the tent, the half-curtain which is folded back, will be hanging down over the back of the House.
- 13 And the cubit which is over of the ten curtains at the sides will be hanging over the two sides of the House as a cover.
- 14 And then you are to make a cover for the tent, of sheepskins coloured red, and a cover of leather over that.
- 15 And you are to make upright boards of hard wood for the House.
- 16 Every board is to be ten cubits high and a cubit and a half wide.
- 17 Every board is to be joined to the one nearest to it by two tongues, and so for every board in the House.
- 18 These are the boards needed for the house; twenty boards for the south side,
- 19 With forty silver bases under the twenty boards, two bases under every board to take its tongues.
- 20 And twenty boards for the second side of the house on the north,
- 21 With their forty silver bases, two under every board.
- 22 And six boards for the back of the House on the west,
- 23 With two boards for the angles of the House at the back.
- 24 The two are to be joined together at the base and at the top to one ring, forming the two angles.
- 25 So there are to be eight boards, with their sixteen silver bases, two bases under every board.
- 26 And make rods of the same wood, five for the boards on the one side,
- 27 And five for the boards on the other side of the House, and five for the west side of the House at the back.
- 28 And the middle rod is to go through the rings of all the boards from end to end.
- 29 And the boards are to be plated with gold, having gold rings for the rods to go through: and the rods are to be plated with gold.
- 30 And you are to make the House from the design which you saw on the mountain.
- 31 And you are to make a veil of the best linen, blue and purple and red, worked with designs of winged ones by a good workman:
- 32 Hanging it by gold hooks from four pillars of wood, plated with gold and fixed in silver bases.
- 33 And you are to put up the veil under the hooks, and put inside it the ark of the law: the veil is to be a division between the holy place and the most holy.
- 34 You are to put the cover on the ark of the law, inside the most holy place.
- 35 And outside the veil you are to put the table, and the support for the lights opposite the table on the south side of the House; and the table is to be on the north side.
- 36 And you are to make a curtain for the doorway of the Tent, of the best linen with needlework of blue and purple and red.
- 37 And make five pillars for the curtain, of hard wood plated with gold; their hooks are to be of gold and their bases of brass
- 1 And make an altar of hard wood, a square altar, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high.
- 2 Put horns at the four angles of it, made of the same, plating it all with brass.
- 3 And make all its vessels, the baskets for taking away the dust of the fire, the spades and basins and meat-hooks and fire-trays, of brass.
- 4 And make a network of brass, with four brass rings at its four angles.
- 5 And put the network under the shelf round the altar so that the net comes half-way up the altar.
- 6 And make rods for the altar, of hard wood, plated with brass.
- 7 And put the rods through the rings at the two opposite sides of the altar, for lifting it.
- 8 The altar is to be hollow, boarded in with wood; make it from the design which you saw on the mountain.
- 9 And let there be an open space round the House, with hangings for its south side of the best linen, a hundred cubits long.

- 10 Their twenty pillars and their twenty bases are to be of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their bands are to be of silver.
- 11 And on the north side in the same way, hangings a hundred cubits long, with twenty pillars of brass on bases of brass; their hooks and their bands are to be of silver.
- 12 And for the open space on the west side, the hangings are to be fifty cubits wide, with ten pillars and ten bases;
- 13 And on the east side the space is to be fifty cubits wide.
- 14 On the one side of the doorway will be hangings fifteen cubits long, with three pillars and three bases;
- 15 And on the other side, hangings fifteen cubits long, with three pillars and three bases.
- 16 And across the doorway, a veil of twenty cubits of the best linen, made of needlework of blue and purple and red, with four pillars and four bases.
- 17 All the pillars round the open space are to have silver bands, with hooks of silver and bases of brass.
- 18 The open space is to be a hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, with sides five cubits high, curtained with the best linen, with bases of brass.
- 19 All the instruments for the work of the House, and all its nails, and the nails of the open space are to be of brass.
- 20 Give orders to the children of Israel to give you clear olive oil for the lights, so that a light may be burning there at all times.
- 21 Let Aaron and his sons put this in order, evening and morning, before the Lord, inside the Tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the ark; this is to be an order for ever, from generation to generation, to be kept by the children of Israel.
 - 1 Now let Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, come near from among the children of Israel, so that they may be my priests, even Aaron, and Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, his sons.
 - 2 And make holy robes for Aaron your brother, so that he may be clothed with glory and honour.
 - 3 Give orders to all the wise-hearted workmen, whom I have made full of the spirit of wisdom, to make robes for Aaron, so that he may be made holy as my priest.
 - 4 This is what they are to make: a priest's bag, an ephod, and a robe, and a coat of coloured needlework, a head-dress, and a linen band; they are to make holy robes for Aaron your brother and for his sons, so that they may do the work of priests for me.
 - 5 They are to take the gold and blue and purple and red and the best linen,
 - 6 And make the ephod of gold and blue and purple and red and the best linen, the work of a designer.
 - 7 It is to have two bands stitched to it at the top of the arms, joining it together.
 - 8 And the beautifully worked band, which goes on it, is to be of the same work and the same material, of gold and blue and purple and red and twisted linen-work.
 - 9 You are to take two beryl stones, on which the names of the children of Israel are to be cut:
 - 10 Six names on the one stone and six on the other, in the order of their birth.
 - 11 With the work of a jeweller, like the cutting of a stamp, the names of the children of Israel are to be cut on them, and they are to be fixed in twisted frames of gold.
 - 12 And the two stones are to be placed on the ephod, over the arm-holes, to be stones of memory for the children of Israel: Aaron will have their names on his arms when he goes in before the Lord, to keep the Lord in mind of them.
 - 13 And you are to make twisted frames of gold;
 - 14 And two chains of the best gold, twisted like cords; and have the chains fixed on to the frames.
 - 15 And make a priest's bag for giving decisions, designed like the ephod, made of gold and blue and purple and red and the best linen.
 - 16 It is to be square, folded in two, a hand-stretch long and a hand-stretch wide.
 - 17 And on it you are to put four lines of jewels; the first line is to be a cornelian, a chrysolite, and an emerald;
 - 18 The second, a ruby, a sapphire, and an onyx;
 - 19 The third, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
 - 20 The fourth, a topaz, a beryl, and a jasper; they are to be fixed in twisted frames of gold.
 - 21 The jewels are to be twelve in number, for the names of the children of Israel; every jewel having the name of one of the twelve tribes cut on it as on a stamp.
 - 22 And you are to make two chains of gold, twisted like cords, to be fixed to the priest's bag.

- 23 And put two gold rings on the two ends of the bag.
- 24 Put the two gold chains on the two rings at the ends of the bag;
- 25 Joining the other ends of the chains to the gold frames and putting them on the front of the ephod, at the top of the arms.
- 26 Then make two gold rings and put them on the lower ends of the bag, at the edge of it on the inner side nearest to the ephod.
- 27 And make two more gold rings and put them on the front of the ephod at the top of the arms, at the join, over the worked band:
- 28 So that the rings on the bag may be fixed to the rings of the ephod by a blue cord and on to the band of the ephod, so that the bag may not come loose from the ephod.
- 29 And so Aaron will have the names of the children of Israel on the priest's bag over his heart whenever he goes into the holy place, to keep the memory of them before the Lord.
- 30 And in the bag you are to put the Urim and Thummim, so that they may be on Aaron's heart whenever he goes in before the Lord; and Aaron may have the power of making decisions for the children of Israel before the Lord at all times.
- 31 The robe which goes with the ephod is to be made all of blue;
- 32 With a hole at the top, in the middle of it; the hole is to be edged with a band to make it strong like the hole in the coat of a fighting-man, so that it may not be broken open.
- 33 And round the skirts of it put fruits in blue and purple and red, with bells of gold between;
- 34 A gold bell and a fruit in turn all round the skirts of the robe.
- 35 Aaron is to put it on for his holy work; and the sound of it will be clear, when he goes into the holy place before the Lord, and when he comes out, keeping him safe from death.
- 36 You are to make a plate of the best gold, cutting on it, as on a stamp, these words: HOLY TO THE LORD.
- 37 Put a blue cord on it and put it on the front of the twisted head-dress:
- 38 And it will be over Aaron's brow, so that Aaron will be responsible for any error in all the holy offerings made by the children of Israel; it will be on his brow at all times, so that their offerings may be pleasing to the Lord.
- 39 The coat is to be made of the best linen, worked in squares; and you are to make a head-dress of linen, and a linen band worked in needlework.
- 40 And for Aaron's sons you are to make coats, and bands, and head-dresses, so that they may be clothed with glory and honour.
- 41 These you are to put on Aaron, your brother, and on his sons, putting oil on them, separating them and making them holy, to do the work of priests to me.
- 42 And you are to make them linen trousers, covering their bodies from the middle to the knee;
- 43 Aaron and his sons are to put these on whenever they go into the Tent of meeting or come near the altar, when they are doing the work of the holy place, so that they may be free from any sin causing death: this is to be an order for him and his seed after
- 1 This is what you are to do to make them holy, to do the work of priests to me: Take one young ox and two male sheep, without any mark on them,
- 2 And unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and thin unleavened cakes on which oil has been put, made of the best bread-meal;
- 3 Put these in a basket and take them, with the ox and the two sheep.
- 4 And let Aaron and his sons come to the door of the Tent of meeting, and there let them be washed with water.
- 5 Take the robes, and put the coat and the dress and the ephod and the priest's bag on Aaron; put the band of needlework round him,
- 6 And let the head-dress be placed on his head and the holy crown on the head-dress.
- 7 Then take the oil and put it on his head.
- 8 And take his sons and put their robes on them;
- 9 And put the linen bands round Aaron and his sons, and the head-dresses on them, to make them priests by my order for ever: so you are to make Aaron and his sons holy to me.
- 10 Then let the ox be taken in front of the Tent of meeting: and let Aaron and his sons put their hands on its head.
- 11 And you are to put the ox to death before the Lord at the door of the Tent of meeting.

- 12 Then take some of the blood of the ox, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, draining out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.
- 13 And take all the fat covering the inside of the ox, and the fat joining the liver and the two kidneys with the fat round them, and let them be burned on the altar;
- 14 But the flesh of the ox and its skin and its waste parts are to be burned outside the circle of the tents, for it is a sin-offering.
- 15 Then take one of the sheep, and let Aaron and his sons put their hands on its head.
- 16 Then let it be put to death, so that the sides of the altar are marked with its blood.
- 17 Then the sheep is to be cut up into its parts, and after washing its legs and its inside parts, you are to put them with the parts and the head,
- 18 And let them all be burned on the altar as a burned offering to the Lord: a sweet smell, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 19 Then take the other sheep; and after Aaron and his sons have put their hands on its head,
- 20 You are to put the sheep to death, and take some of its blood and put it on the point of Aaron's right ear, and of the right ears of his sons, and on the thumbs of their right hands and the great toes of their right feet, dropping the rest of the blood on
- 21 Then take some of the blood on the altar, and the oil, and put it on Aaron and his robes and on his sons and on their robes, so that he and his robes and his sons and their robes may be made holy.
- 22 Then take the fat of the sheep, the fat tail, the fat covering the insides, and the fat joining the liver and the two kidneys with the fat round them, and the right leg; for by the offering of this sheep they are to be marked out as priests:
- 23 And take one bit of bread and one cake of oiled bread and one thin cake out of the basket of unleavened bread which is before the Lord:
- 24 And put them all on the hands of Aaron and of his sons, to be waved for a wave offering before the Lord.
- 25 Then take them from their hands, and let them be burned on the burned offering on the altar, a sweet smell before the Lord, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 26 Then take the breast of Aaron's sheep, waving it before the Lord; and it is to be your part of the offering.
- 27 So you are to make holy the breast of the sheep which is waved and the leg which is lifted up on high, that is, of the sheep which is offered for Aaron and his sons;
- 28 And it will be their part as a right for ever from the children of Israel, it is a special offering from the children of Israel, made from their peace-offerings, a special offering lifted up to the Lord.
- 29 And Aaron's holy robes will be used by his sons after him; they will put them on when they are made priests.
- 30 For seven days the son who becomes priest in his place will put them on when he comes into the Tent of meeting to do the work of the holy place.
- 31 Then take the sheep of the wave offering and let its flesh be cooked in water in a holy place.
- 32 And let Aaron and his sons make a meal of it, with the bread in the basket, at the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 33 All those things which were used as offerings to take away sin, and to make them holy to be priests, they may have for food: but no one who is not a priest may have them, for they are holy food.
- 34 And if any of the flesh of the offering or of the bread is over till the morning, let it be burned with fire; it is not to be used for food, for it is holy.
- 35 All these things you are to do to Aaron and his sons as I have given you orders: for seven days the work of making them priests is to go on.
- 36 Every day an ox is to be offered as a sin-offering, to take away sins: and by this offering on it, you will make the altar clean from sin; and you are to put oil on it and make it holy.
- 37 For seven days you are to make offerings for the altar and make it holy, so that it may become completely holy, and anything touching it will become holy.
- 38 Now this is the offering which you are to make on the altar: two lambs in their first year, every day regularly.
- 39 One lamb is to be offered in the morning and the other in the evening:
- 40 And with the one lamb, a tenth part of an ephah of the best meal, mixed with a fourth part of a hin of clear oil; and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering.

- 41 And the other lamb is to be offered in the evening, and with it the same meal offering and drink offering, for a sweet smell, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 42 This is to be a regular burned offering made from generation to generation, at the door of the Tent of meeting before the Lord, where I will come face to face with you and have talk with you.
- 43 There I will come face to face with the children of Israel, and the Tent will be made holy by my glory
- 44 I will make holy the Tent of meeting and the altar: and Aaron and his sons I will make holy, to be my priests
- 45 Among the children of Israel I will make my living-place, and I will be their God.
- 46 And they will see that I am the Lord their God, who took them out of the land of Egypt, so that I might be ever with them: I am the Lord their God.
- 1 And you are to make an altar for the burning of perfume; of hard wood let it be made.
- 2 The altar is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high, and its horns are to be made of the same.
- 3 It is to be plated with the best gold, the top of it and the sides and the horns, with an edging of gold all round it.
- 4 Under the edge on the two opposite sides, you are to make two gold rings, to take the rods for lifting it.
- 5 And make these rods of the same wood, plating them with gold.
- 6 And let it be placed in front of the veil before the ark of the law, before the cover which is over the law, where I will come face to face with you.
- 7 And on this altar sweet spices are to be burned by Aaron every morning when he sees to the lights.
- 8 And every evening, when he puts the lights up in their places, the spices are to be burned, a sweet-smelling smoke going up before the Lord from generation to generation for ever.
- 9 No strange perfume, no burned offering or meal offering, and no drink offering is to be offered on it.
- 10 And once every year Aaron is to make its horns clean: with the blood of the sin-offering he is to make it clean once every year from generation to generation: it is most holy to the Lord.
- 11 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 12 When you are taking the number of the children of Israel, let every man who is numbered give to the Lord a price for his life, so that no disease may come on them when they are numbered.
- 13 And this is what they are to give; let every man who is numbered give half a shekel, by the scale of the holy place: (the shekel being valued at twenty gerahs:) this money is an offering to the Lord.
- 14 Everyone who is numbered, from twenty years old and over, is to give an offering to the Lord.
- 15 The man of wealth is to give no more and the poor man no less than the half-shekel of silver, when the offering is made to the Lord as the price for your lives.
- 16 And you are to take this money from the children of Israel to be used for the work of the Tent of meeting, to keep the memory of the children of Israel before the Lord and to be the price of your lives.
- 17 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 18 You are to make a brass washing-vessel, with a brass base; and put it between the Tent of meeting and the altar, with water in it;
- 19 That it may be used by Aaron and his sons for washing their hands and feet;
- 20 Whenever they go into the Tent of meeting they are to be washed with water, to keep them from death; and whenever they come near to do the work of the altar, or to make an offering by fire to the Lord,
- 21 Their hands and feet are to be washed. so that they may be safe from death: this is an order to them for ever; to him and his seed from generation to generation.
- 22 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 23 Take the best spices, five hundred shekels' weight of liquid myrrh, and of sweet cinnamon half as much, that is, two hundred and fifty shekels, and two hundred and fifty shekels of sweet calamus,
- 24 And of cassia, five hundred shekels' weight measured by the scale of the holy place, and of olive oil a hin:
- 25 And make these into a holy oil, a perfume made by the art of the perfume-maker; it is to be a holy oil.
- 26 This oil is to be put on the Tent of meeting, and on the ark of the law,
- 27 And on the table and all its vessels, and on the support for the lights, with its vessels, and on the altar for burning spices,
- 28 And on the altar of burned offerings with its vessels, and on the washing-vessel and its base.
- 29 And you are to make them most holy; anything touching them will become holy.

- 30 And put the oil on Aaron and his sons, making them holy to do the work of priests to me.
- 31 And say to the children of Israel, This is to be the Lord's holy oil, from generation to generation.
- 32 It is not to be used for man's flesh, and no other is to be made like it: holy it is, and you are to keep it holy.
- 33 Whoever makes any like it, or puts it on one who is not a priest, will be cut off from his people.
- 34 And the Lord said to Moses, Take sweet spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum, with the best frankincense, in equal weights;
- 35 And make from them a perfume, such as is made by the art of the perfume-maker, mixed with salt, and clean and holy.
- 36 And put some of it, crushed very small, in front of the ark in the Tent of meeting, where I will come face to face with you; it is to be most holy.
- 37 You are not to make any perfume like it for yourselves: it is to be kept holy to the Lord.
- 38 Whoever makes any like it, for its sweet smell, will be cut off from his people.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 I have made selection of Bezalel, the son of Uri, by name, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:
- 3 And I have given him the spirit of God and made him wise and full of knowledge and expert in every sort of handwork,
- 4 To do all sorts of delicate work in gold and silver and brass;
- 5 In cutting stones for framing, and to do every form of woodwork.
- 6 And I have made selection of Oholiab with him, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all who are wise I have put the knowledge to make whatever I have given you orders to have made;
- 7 The Tent of meeting, and the ark of the law, and the cover which is on it, and all the things for the tent,
- 8 And the table with its vessels, and the holy light-support with all its vessels, and the altar for the burning of spices,
- 9 And the altar of burned offerings with all its vessels, and the washing-vessel with its base,
- 10 And the robes of needlework, the holy robes for Aaron and for his sons, for their use when acting as priests,
- 11 And the holy oil, and the perfume of sweet spices for the holy place; they will do whatever I have given you orders to have done.
- 12 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 13 Say to the children of Israel that they are to keep my Sabbaths; for the Sabbath day is a sign between me and you through all your generations; so that you may see that I am the Lord who makes you holy.
- 14 So you are to keep the Sabbath as a holy day; and anyone not honouring it will certainly be put to death: whoever does any work on that day will be cut off from his people.
- 15 Six days may work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to the Lord; whoever does any work on the Sabbath day is to be put to death.
- 16 And the children of Israel are to keep the Sabbath holy, from generation to generation, by an eternal agreement.
- 17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever; because in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he took his rest and had pleasure in it.
- 18 And when his talk with Moses on Mount Sinai was ended, he gave him the two stones of the law, two stones on which was the writing made by the finger of God.
- 1 And when the people saw that Moses was a long time coming down from the mountain, they all came to Aaron and said to him, Come, make us a god to go before us: as for this Moses, who took us up out of the land of Egypt, we have no idea what has become of h
- 2 Then Aaron said to them, Take off the gold rings which are in the ears of your wives and your sons and your daughters, and give them to me.
- 3 And all the people took the gold rings from their ears and gave them to Aaron.
- 4 And he took the gold from them and, hammering it with an instrument, he made it into the metal image of a young ox: and they said, This is your god, O Israel, who took you out of the land of Egypt.
- 5 And when Aaron saw this, he made an altar before it, and made a public statement, saying, Tomorrow there will be a feast to the Lord.
- 6 So early on the day after they got up and made burned offerings and peace-offerings; and took their seats at the feast, and then gave themselves to pleasure.

- 7 And the Lord said to Moses, Go down quickly; for your people, whom you took out of the land of Egypt, are turned to evil ways;
- 8 Even now they are turned away from the rule I gave them, and have made themselves a metal ox and given worship to it and offerings, saying, This is your god, O Israel, who took you up out of the land of Egypt.
- 9 And the Lord said to Moses, I have been watching this people, and I see that they are a stiff-necked people.
- 10 Now do not get in my way, for my wrath is burning against them; I will send destruction on them, but of you I will make a great nation.
- 11 But Moses made prayer to God, saying, Lord, why is your wrath burning against your people whom you took out of the land of Egypt, with great power and with the strength of your hand?
- 12 Why let the Egyptians say, He took them out to an evil fate, to put them to death on the mountains, cutting them off from the earth? Let your wrath be turned away from them, and send not this evil on your people.
- 13 Have in mind Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you gave your oath, saying, I will make your seed like the stars of heaven in number, and all this land will I give to your seed, as I said, to be their heritage for ever.
- 14 So the Lord let himself be turned from his purpose of sending punishment on his people.
- 15 Then Moses came down the mountain with the two stones of the law in his hand; the stones had writing on their two sides, on the front and on the back.
- 16 The stones were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, cut on the stones.
- 17 Now when the noise and the voices of the people came to the ears of Joshua, he said to Moses, There is a noise of war in the tents.
- 18 And Moses said, It is not the voice of men who are overcoming in the fight, or the cry of those who have been overcome; it is the sound of songs which comes to my ear.
- 19 And when he came near the tents he saw the image of the ox, and the people dancing; and in his wrath Moses let the stones go from his hands, and they were broken at the foot of the mountain.
- 20 And he took the ox which they had made, burning it in the fire and crushing it to powder, and he put it in the water and made the children of Israel take a drink of it.
- 21 And Moses said to Aaron, What did the people do to you that you let this great sin come on them?
- 22 And Aaron said, Let not my lord be angry; you have seen how the purposes of this people are evil.
- 23 For they said to me, Make us a god to go before us: as for this Moses, who took us up out of the land of Egypt, we have no idea what has come to him.
- 24 Then I said to them, Whoever has any gold, let him take it off; so they gave it to me, and I put it in the fire, and this image of an ox came out.
- 25 And Moses saw that the people were out of control, for Aaron had let them loose to their shame before their haters:
- 26 Then Moses took his place at the way into the tents, and said, Whoever is on the Lord's side, let him come to me. And all the sons of Levi came together to him.
- 27 And he said to them, This is the word of the Lord, the God of Israel: Let every man take his sword at his side, and go from one end of the tents to the other, putting to death his brother and his friend and his neighbour.
- 28 And the sons of Levi did as Moses said; and about three thousand of the people were put to death that day.
- 29 And Moses said, You have made yourselves priests to the Lord this day; for every one of you has made the offering of his son and his brother; the blessing of the Lord is on you this day.
- 30 And on the day after, Moses said to the people, Great has been your sin: but I will go up to the Lord, and see if I may get forgiveness for your sin.
- 31 Then Moses went back to the Lord and said, This people has done a great sin, making themselves a god of gold;
- 32 But now, if you will give them forgiveness--but if not, let my name be taken out of your book.
- 33 And the Lord said to Moses, Whoever has done evil against me will be taken out of my book.
- 34 But now, go, take the people into that place of which I have given you word; see, my angel will go before you: but when the time of my judging has come, I will send punishment on them for their sin.
- 35 And the Lord sent punishment on the people because they gave worship to the ox which Aaron made.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, Go forward from this place, you and the people whom you have taken up out of the land of Egypt, to that land about which I made an oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, To your seed will I give it.

- 2 And I will send an angel before you, driving out the Canaanite and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite:
- 3 Go up to that land flowing with milk and honey; but I will not go up among you, for you are a stiff-necked people, for fear that I send destruction on you while you are on the way.
- 4 Hearing this bad news the people were full of grief, and no one put on his ornaments.
- 5 And the Lord said to Moses, Say to the children of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people: if I come among you, even for a minute, I will send destruction on you; so take off all your ornaments, so that I may see what to do with you.
- 6 So the children of Israel took off their ornaments at Mount Horeb, and did not put them on again.
- 7 Now it was Moses' way to put up the Tent of meeting outside the tent-circle, at some distance away; giving it the name of The Tent of meeting. And everyone desiring to make his prayer to the Lord went to the Tent of meeting outside the tent-circle.
- 8 And whenever Moses went out to the Tent of meeting, all the people got up and everyone went to the door of his tent, looking after Moses till he went inside the Tent.
- 9 And whenever Moses went into the Tent, the pillar of cloud came down, and took its place by the door of the Tent, as long as the Lord was talking with Moses.
- 10 And all the people saw the cloud at the door of the Tent, and they went down on their faces, everyone at the door of his tent.
- 11 And the Lord had talk with Moses face to face, as a man may have talk with his friend. And when Moses came back to the tents, his servant, the young man Joshua, the son of Nun, did not come away from the Tent.
- 12 And Moses said to the Lord, See, you say to me, Be this people's guide on their journey, but you have not made clear to me whom you will send with me. But you have said, I have knowledge of you by name, and you have grace in my eyes.
- 13 If then I have grace in your eyes, let me see your ways, so that I may have knowledge of you and be certain of your grace; and my prayer is that you will keep in mind that this nation is your people.
- 14 And he said, I myself will go with you and give you rest.
- 15 And Moses said, If you yourself are not going with us, do not send us on from here.
- 16 For is not the fact of your going with us the sign that I and this people have grace in your eyes, so that we, that is, I and your people, are separate from all other people on the face of the earth?
- 17 And the Lord said to Moses, I will do as you say: for you have grace in my eyes, and I have knowledge of you by your name.
- 18 And Moses said, O Lord, let me see your glory.
- 19 And he said, I will make all the light of my being come before you, and will make clear to you what I am; I will be kind to those to whom I will be kind, and have mercy on those on whom I will have mercy.
- 20 But it is not possible for you to see my face, for no man may see me and still go on living.
- 21 And the Lord said, See, there is a place near me, and you may take your place on the rock:
- 22 And when my glory goes by, I will put you in a hole in the rock, covering you with my hand till I have gone past:
- 23 Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back: but my face is not to be seen.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, Make two other stones like the first two; and I will put on them the words which were on the first stones, which were broken by you.
- 2 And be ready by the morning, and come up on Mount Sinai, and come before me there in the morning, on the top of the mountain.
- 3 No one is to come up with you, and let no man be seen anywhere on the mountain; let no flocks or herds come near to get their food at its foot.
- 4 So Moses got two stones cut like the first; and early in the morning he went up Mount Sinai, as the Lord had said, with the two stones in his hand.
- 5 And the Lord came down in the cloud and took his place by the side of Moses, and Moses gave worship to the name of the Lord.
- 6 And the Lord went past before his eyes, saying, The Lord, the Lord, a God full of pity and grace, slow to wrath and great in mercy and faith;
- 7 Having mercy on thousands, overlooking evil and wrongdoing and sin; he will not let wrongdoers go free, but will send punishment on children for the sins of their fathers, and on their children's children to the third and fourth generation.

- 8 Then Moses quickly went down on his face in worship.
- 9 And he said, If now I have grace in your eyes, let the Lord go among us, for this is a stiff-necked people, and give us forgiveness for our wrongdoing and our sin, and take us for your heritage.
- 10 And the Lord said, See, this is what I will undertake: before the eyes of your people I will do wonders, such as have not been done in all the earth or in any nation: and all your people will see the work of the Lord, for what I am about to do for you is
- 11 Take care to do the orders which I give you today; I will send out from before you the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.
- 12 But take care, and do not make any agreement with the people of the land where you are going, for it will be a cause of sin to you.
- 13 But their altars are to be overturned and their pillars broken and their images cut down:
- 14 For you are to be worshippers of no other god: for the Lord is a God who will not give his honour to another.
- 15 So see that you make no agreement with the people of the land, and do not go after their gods, or take part in their offerings, or be guests at their feasts,
- 16 Or take their daughters for your sons; for when their daughters give worship before their gods, they will make your sons take part with them.
- 17 Make for yourselves no gods of metal.
- 18 Keep the feast of unleavened bread; for seven days your food is to be bread without leaven, as I gave you orders, at the regular time in the month Abib; for in that month you came out of Egypt.
- 19 Every first male child is mine; the first male birth of your cattle, the first male of every ox and sheep.
- 20 A lamb may be given in payment for the young of an ass, but if you will not make payment for it, its neck will have to be broken. For all the first of your sons you are to make payment. No one is to come before me without an offering.
- 21 Six days let work be done, but on the seventh day take your rest: at ploughing time and at the grain-cutting you are to have a day for rest.
- 22 And you are to keep the feast of weeks when you get in the first-fruits of the grain, and the feast at the turn of the year when you take in the produce of your fields.
- 23 Three times in the year let all your males come before the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 24 For I will send out the nations before you and make wide the limits of your land; and no man will make an attempt to take your land while you go up to give worship to the Lord, three times in the year.
- 25 No leaven is to be offered with the blood of my offering, and the offering of the Passover feast may not be kept till the morning.
- 26 Take the first-fruits of your land as an offering to the house of the Lord your God. Let not the young goat be cooked in its mother's milk
- 27 And the Lord said to Moses, Put all these words in writing; for on them is based the agreement which I will make with you.
- 28 And for forty days and forty nights Moses was there with the Lord, and in that time he had no food or drink. And he put in writing on the stones the words of the agreement, the ten rules of the law.
- 29 Now when Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two stones in his hand, he was not conscious that his face was shining because of his talk with God.
- 30 But when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, and the shining of his face, they would not come near him for fear.
- 31 Then Moses sent for them; and Aaron, with the chiefs of the people, came to him; and Moses had talk with them.
- 32 And later, all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them all the orders which the Lord had given him on Mount Sinai.
- 33 And at the end of his talk with them, Moses put a veil over his face.
- 34 But whenever Moses went in before the Lord to have talk with him, he took off the veil till he came out. And whenever he came out he said to the children of Israel what he had been ordered to say;
- 35 And the children of Israel saw that the face of Moses was shining; so Moses put the veil over his face again till he went to the Lord.

- 1 And Moses sent for all the children of Israel to come together, and said to them, This is what the Lord has said and these are his orders.
- 2 Six days let work be done, but the seventh day is to be a holy day to you, a Sabbath of rest to the Lord; whoever does any work on that day is to be put to death.
- 3 No fire is to be lighted in any of your houses on the Sabbath day.
- 4 And Moses said to all the meeting of the children of Israel, This is the order which the Lord has given:
- 5 Take from among you an offering to the Lord; everyone who has the impulse in his heart, let him give his offering to the Lord; gold and silver and brass;
- 6 And blue and purple and red and the best linen and goats' hair,
- 7 And sheepskins coloured red, and leather, and hard wood,
- 8 And oil for the lights, and spices for the holy oil and for the sweet perfumes for burning.
- 9 And beryls and jewels to be cut for the ephod and for the priest's bag.
- 10 And let every wise-hearted man among you come and make whatever has been ordered by the Lord;
- 11 The House and its tent and its cover, its hooks and its boards, its rods and its pillars and its bases;
- 12 The ark with its cover and its rods and the veil hanging before it;
- 13 The table and its rods and all its vessels, and the holy bread;
- 14 And the support for the lights, with its vessels and its lights and the oil for the light;
- 15 And the altar for burning spices, with its rods, and the holy oil and the sweet perfume, and the curtain for the door, at the door of the House;
- 16 The altar of burned offerings, with its network of brass, its rods, and all its vessels, the washing-vessel and its base;
- 17 The hangings for the open space, its pillars and their bases, and the curtain for the doorway;
- 18 The nails for the House, and the nails for the open space and their cords;
- 19 The robes of needlework for the work of the holy place, the holy robes for Aaron the priest, and the robes for his sons when acting as priests.
- 20 And all the children of Israel went away from Moses.
- 21 And everyone whose heart was moved, everyone who was guided by the impulse of his spirit, came with his offering for the Lord, for whatever was needed for the Tent of meeting and its work and for the holy robes.
- 22 They came, men and women, all who were ready to give, and gave pins and nose-rings and finger-rings and neck-ornaments, all of gold; everyone gave an offering of gold to the Lord.
- 23 And everyone who had blue and purple and red and the best linen and goats' hair and sheepskins coloured red and leather, gave them.
- 24 Everyone who had silver and brass gave an offering of them to the Lord; and everyone who had hard wood, such as was needed for the work, gave it.
- 25 And all the women who were expert with their hands, made cloth, and gave the work of their hands, blue and purple and red and the best linen.
- 26 And those women who had the knowledge, made the goats' hair into cloth.
- 27 And the rulers gave the beryls and the cut jewels for the ephod and the priest's bag;
- 28 And the spice and the oil for the light, and the holy oil and the sweet perfumes.
- 29 The children of Israel, every man and woman, from the impulse of their hearts, gave their offerings freely to the Lord for the work which the Lord had given Moses orders to have done.
- 30 And Moses said to the children of Israel, See, the Lord has made selection of Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;
- 31 And he has made him full of the spirit of God, in all wisdom and knowledge and art of every sort;
- 32 As an expert designer of beautiful things, working in gold and silver and brass;
- 33 Trained in the cutting of stones and the ornamenting of wood and in every sort of handwork.
- 34 And he has given to him, and to Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the power of training others.
- 35 To them he has given knowledge of all the arts of the handworker, of the designer, and the expert workman; of the maker of needlework in blue and purple and red and the best linen, and of the maker of cloth; in all the arts of the designer and the trained

- 1 So let Bezalel and Oholiab get to work, with every wise-hearted man to whom the Lord has given wisdom and knowledge, to do whatever is necessary for the ordering of the holy place, as the Lord has given orders.
- 2 Then Moses sent for Bezalel and Oholiab, and for all the wise-hearted men to whom the Lord had given wisdom, even everyone who was moved by the impulse of his heart to come and take part in the work:
- 3 And they took from Moses all the offerings which the children of Israel had given for the building of the holy place. And still they went on giving him more free offerings every morning.
- 4 Then the wise men, who were doing all the work of the holy place, came from their work;
- 5 And said to Moses, The people are giving much more than is needed for the work which the Lord has given us orders to do.
- 6 So Moses made an order and had it given out through all the tents, saying, Let no man or woman make any more offerings for the holy place. So the people were kept from giving more.
- 7 For the material they had was enough and more than enough for all the work which had to be done.
- 8 Then all the expert workmen among them made the House with its ten curtains; of the best linen, blue and purple and red, they made them, with winged ones worked by expert designers.
- 9 Every curtain was twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide, all of the same measure.
- 10 And five curtains were joined together, and the other five curtains were joined together.
- 11 And they put twists of blue cord on the edge of the outside curtain of the first group, and in the same way on the outside curtain of the second group.
- 12 Fifty twists on the one curtain and fifty on the edge of the curtain of the other group; the twists being opposite to one another.
- 13 And they made fifty hooks of gold, joining the curtains one to another with the hooks; and so the House was made.
- 14 And they made curtains of goats' hair for the tent; eleven curtains were made.
- 15 Every curtain was thirty cubits long and four cubits wide, all of the same measure.
- 16 Five curtains were joined together to make one group, and six curtains were joined together to make the other group.
- 17 And they put fifty twists of cord on the edge of the outside curtain of the first group, and fifty twists on the edge of the outside curtain of the second group,
- 18 And fifty hooks of brass for joining them together to make the tent.
- 19 And they made a cover of sheepskins coloured red, to go over the tent, and a cover of leather over that.
- 20 And for the uprights of the House they made boards of hard wood.
- 21 The boards were ten cubits long and one cubit and a half wide.
- 22 Every board had two tongues fixed into it; all the boards were made in this way.
- 23 They made twenty boards for the south side of the House:
- 24 And for these twenty boards, forty silver bases, two bases under every board, to take its tongues.
- 25 And for the second side of the House, on the north, they made twenty boards,
- 26 With their forty silver bases, two bases for every board.
- 27 And for the west side of the House, at the back, they made six boards,
- 28 And two boards for the angles at the back.
- 29 These were joined together at the base and at the top to one ring, so forming the two angles.
- 30 So there were eight boards with sixteen bases of silver, two bases under every board.
- 31 And they made rods of hard wood; five for the boards on one side of the House,
- 32 And five for the boards on the other side of the House, and five for the boards at the back, on the west.
- 33 The middle rod was made to go right through the rings of all the boards from one end to the other.
- 34 All the boards were plated with gold, and the rings through which the rods went were of gold, and the rods were plated with gold.
- 35 And he made the veil of the best linen, blue and purple and red, worked with winged ones designed by expert workmen.
- 36 And they made four pillars for it of hard wood plated with gold: they had hooks of gold and four silver bases.
- 37 And they made a curtain for the door of the tent, of the best linen with needlework of blue and purple and red;

- 38 And five pillars for the curtain, with their hooks; the heads of the pillars were of gold and they were circled with bands of gold; and their five bases were of brass.
- 1 And Bezalel made the ark of hard wood, two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide and a cubit and a half high;
- 2 Plating it inside and out with the best gold, and putting an edge of gold all round it.
- 3 And he made four gold rings for its four angles, two on one side and two on the other,
- 4 And rods of the same wood plated with gold.
- 5 These rods he put in the rings at the sides of the ark, for lifting it.
- 6 And he made the cover all of gold, two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.
- 7 And he made two winged ones, hammered out of one bit of gold, for the two ends of the cover;
- 8 Placing one at one end and one at the other; the winged ones were part of the cover.
- 9 And their wings were stretched out over the cover; the faces of the winged ones were opposite one another and facing the cover.
- 10 And he made the table of hard wood, two cubits long, a cubit wide and a cubit and a half high;
- 11 Plating it with the best gold and putting a gold edge all round it.
- 12 And he made a frame all round it about as wide as a man's hand, edged with gold all round.
- 13 And he made four gold rings, and put the rings at the angles of its four feet.
- 14 The rings were fixed under the frame to take the rods with which the table was to be lifted.
- 15 The rods for lifting the table he made of hard wood plated with gold.
- 16 And all the table-vessels, the plates and spoons and basins and the cups for liquids, he made of the best gold.
- 17 Then he made the support for the lights, all of the best gold; its base and its pillar were of hammered gold; its cups and buds and flowers were all made out of the same metal:
- 18 It had six branches coming out from its sides, three from one side and three from the other;
- 19 Every branch having three cups made like almond flowers, every cup with a bud and a flower on all the branches;
- 20 And on its pillar, four cups like almond flowers, every one with its bud and its flower;
- 21 And under every two branches a bud, made with the branch, for all six branches of it.
- 22 The buds and the branches were made of the same metal, all together one complete work of the best hammered gold.
- 23 And he made the seven vessels for the lights, and all the necessary instruments for it, of gold.
- 24 A talent of the best gold was used for the making of it and its vessels.
- 25 And he made the altar for the burning of spices, using the same hard wood; it was square, a cubit long and a cubit wide and two cubits high; the horns made of the same.
- 26 The top and the sides and the horns were all plated with the best gold; and he put an edge of gold all round it.
- 27 And he made two gold rings, placing them on the two opposite sides under the edge, to take the rods for lifting it.
- 28 The rods he made of the same hard wood, plating them with gold.
- 29 And he made the holy oil and the perfume of sweet spices for burning, after the art of the perfume-maker.
- 1 The altar of burned offerings he made of hard wood; a square altar, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high,
- 2 And he put horns at its four angles made of the same, plating it all with brass;
- 3 And brass was used for all the vessels of the altar, the baskets and the spades, the basins and the meat-hooks and the fire-trays; all the vessels he made of brass
- 4 And he made a network of brass for the altar, under the frame round it, stretching half-way up;
- 5 And four rings for the four angles of this network, to take the rods.
- 6 The rods he made of hard wood plated with brass.
- 7 He put the rods through the rings at the opposite sides of the altar for lifting it; he made the altar hollow, boarded in with wood.
- 8 And he made the washing-vessel of brass on a brass base, using the polished brass looking-glasses given by the women who did work at the doors of the Tent of meeting.
- 9 To make the open space, he put hangings on the south side, of the best linen, a hundred cubits long:

- 10 Their twenty pillars and their twenty bases were brass; and the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver.
- 11 And for the north side. hangings a hundred cubits long, on twenty brass pillars in brass bases, with silver hooks and bands.
- 12 And on the west side, hangings fifty cubits long, on ten pillars in ten bases, with silver bands.
- 13 And on the east side, the open space was fifty cubits long.
- 14 The hangings on one side of the doorway were fifteen cubits long, on three pillars with their three bases;
- 15 And the same on the other side of the doorway; on this side and on that the hangings were fifteen cubits long, on three pillars with their three bases.
- 16 All the hangings were of the best linen.
- 17 And the bases of the pillars were of brass; their hooks and the bands round the tops of them were of silver; all the pillars were ringed with silver.
- 18 And the curtain for the doorway of the open space was of the best linen, with designs of blue and purple and red in needlework; it was twenty cubits long and five cubits high, to go with the hangings round the sides.
- 19 There were four pillars with their bases, all of brass, the hooks being of silver, and their tops and their bands being covered with silver.
- 20 All the nails used for the House and the open space round it were of brass.
- 21 This is the price of the making of the House, even the House of witness, as it was valued by the word of Moses, for the work of the Levites under the direction of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.
- 22 Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 23 And with him was Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; a designer and a trained workman, expert in needlework of blue and purple and red and the best linen.
- 24 The gold used for all the different work done for the holy place, the gold which was given, was twenty-nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels in weight, by the scale of the holy place.
- 25 And the silver given by those who were numbered of the people was a hundred talents, and a thousand, seven hundred and seventy-five shekels in weight, by the scale of the holy place.
- 26 A beka, that is, half a shekel by the holy scale, for everyone who was numbered; there were six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty men of twenty years old and over.
- 27 Of this silver, a hundred talents was used for making the bases of the pillars of the holy place and of the veil; a talent for every base.
- 28 And a thousand, seven hundred and seventy-five shekels of silver was used to make the hooks for the pillars, and for plating the tops of the pillars and for making their bands.
- 29 The brass which was given was seventy talents, two thousand four hundred shekels;
- 30 From it he made the bases of the doorway of the Tent of meeting and the brass altar and the network for it and all the vessels for the altar,
- 31 And the bases for the open space all round and for its doorway, and all the nails for the House and for the open space.
 - 1 And from the needlework of blue and purple and red they made the robes used for the work of the holy place, and the holy robes for Aaron, as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
 - 2 The ephod he made of gold and blue and purple and red and the best linen;
 - 3 Hammering the gold into thin plates and cutting it into wires to be worked into the blue and the purple and the red and the linen by the designer.
 - 4 And they made two bands for joining its edges together at the top of the arms.
 - 5 And the beautifully worked band which went on it was of the same design and the same material, worked in gold and blue and purple and red and twisted linen-work, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
 - 6 Then they made the beryl stones, fixed in twisted frames of gold and cut like the cutting of a stamp, with the names of the children of Israel.
 - 7 These he put on the ephod, over the arm-holes, to be stones of memory for the children of Israel, as the Lord had said to Moses.
 - 8 The priest's bag was designed like the ephod, of the best linen worked with gold and blue and purple and red.
 - 9 It was square and folded in two, as long and as wide as the stretch of a man's hand;
 - 10 And on it they put four lines of stones: in the first line was a carnelian, a chrysolite, and an emerald;

- 11 In the second, a ruby, a sapphire, and an onyx;
- 12 In the third, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
- 13 In the fourth, a topaz, a beryl, and a jasper; they were fixed in twisted frames of gold.
- 14 There were twelve stones for the twelve tribes of Israel; on every one the name of one of the tribes of Israel was cut, like the cutting of a stamp.
- 15 And on the bag they put gold chains, twisted like cords.
- 16 And they made two gold frames and two gold rings, the rings being fixed to the ends of the priest's bag;
- 17 And they put the two twisted chains on the two rings at the ends of the priest's bag;
- 18 And the other two ends of the chains were joined to the two frames and fixed to the front of the ephod over the arm-holes.
- 19 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two lower ends of the bag, on the inner side nearest to the ephod.
- 20 And two other gold rings were put on the front of the ephod, over the arm-holes, at the join, and over the worked band.
- 21 And the rings on the bag were fixed to the rings of the ephod by a blue cord, keeping it in place over the band, so that the bag might not get loose, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 22 The robe which went with the ephod was made all of blue;
- 23 With a hole at the top in the middle, like the hole in the coat of a fighting-man, edged with a band to make it strong.
- 24 The skirts of the robe were worked all round with fruits in blue and purple and red made of twisted linen.
- 25 And between the fruits all round the skirt they put gold bells, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 26 All round the skirt of the robe were bells and fruits in turn.
- 27 The coats for Aaron and his sons they made of the best linen;
- 28 And the twisted head-dress for Aaron, and beautiful head-dresses of linen, and linen trousers,
- 29 And a linen band worked with a design of blue and purple and red, as the Lord had said to Moses.
- 30 The plate for the holy crown was made of the best gold, and on it were cut these words, HOLY TO THE LORD.
- 31 It was fixed to the head-dress by a blue cord, as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 32 So all the work on the House of the Tent of meeting was done; as the Lord had given orders to Moses, so the children of Israel did it.
- 33 Then they took the House to Moses, the tent with all the things for it; its hooks, its boards, its rods, its pillars, and its bases;
- 34 The outer cover of sheepskins coloured red, and the cover of leather, and the veil for the doorway;
- 35 The ark of the law, with its rods and its cover;
- 36 The table, with all its vessels and the holy bread;
- 37 The support for the lights, with the vessels for the lights to be put in their places on it, and all its vessels, and the oil for the lights;
- 38 And the gold altar, and the holy oil, and the sweet perfume for burning, and the curtain for the doorway of the tent;
- 39 And the brass altar, with its network of brass, and its rods and all its vessels, and the washing-vessel and its base;
- 40 The hangings for the open space, with the pillars and their bases, and the curtain for the doorway, and the cords and nails, and all the instruments necessary for the work of the House of the Tent of meeting;
- 41 The robes for use in the holy place, and the holy robes for Aaron and his sons when acting as priests.
- 42 The children of Israel did everything as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 43 Then Moses, when he saw all their work and saw that they had done everything as the Lord had said, gave them his blessing.
 - 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
 - 2 On the first day of the first month you are to put up the House of the Tent of meeting.
 - 3 And inside it put the ark of the law, hanging the veil before it.
 - 4 And put the table inside, placing all the things on it in order; and put in the support for the lights, and let its lights be burning.
 - 5 And put the gold altar for burning perfumes in front of the ark of the law, hanging the curtain over the doorway of the House.

- 6 And put the altar of burned offerings before the doorway of the House of the Tent of meeting.
- 7 And let the washing-vessel, with water in it, be put between the Tent of meeting and the altar.
- 8 And put up the hangings forming the open space all round it, with the curtain over its doorway.
- 9 And take the holy oil and put it on the House and everything in it, and make it and everything in it holy:
- 10 And put oil on the altar of burned offering, and make it and all its vessels holy; this altar is to be most holy.
- 11 And put oil on the washing-vessel and its base, and make them holy.
- 12 Then let Aaron and his sons come to the door of the Tent of meeting; and after washing them with water,
- 13 You are to put on Aaron the holy robes; and you are to put oil on him, and make him holy, so that he may be my priest.
- 14 And take his sons with him and put coats on them;
- 15 And put oil on them as you did on their father, so that they may be my priests: the putting on of oil will make them priests for ever, from generation to generation.
- 16 And Moses did this; as the Lord gave him orders, so he did.
- 17 So on the first day of the first month in the second year the House was put up.
- 18 Moses put up the House; placing its bases in position and lifting up its uprights, putting in the rods and planting the pillars in their places;
- 19 Stretching the outer tent over it, and covering it, as the Lord had given him orders.
- 20 And he took the law and put it inside the ark, and put the rods at its side and the cover over it;
- 21 And he took the ark into the House, hanging up the veil before it as the Lord had given him orders.
- 22 And he put the table in the Tent of meeting, on the north side outside the veil.
- 23 And he put the bread on it in order before the Lord, as the Lord had said.
- 24 The support for the lights he put in the Tent of meeting, opposite the table, on the south side:
- 25 Lighting the lights before the Lord, as the Lord had given him orders.
- 26 And he put the gold altar in the Tent of meeting, in front of the veil:
- 27 Burning sweet perfumes on it, as the Lord had given him orders.
- 28 And he put up the curtain at the doorway of the House.
- 29 And at the door of the House of the Tent of meeting, he put the altar of burned offerings, offering on it the burned offering and the meal offering, as the Lord had given him orders.
- 30 And between the altar and the Tent of meeting he put the vessel with water in it for washing.
- 31 In it the hands and feet of Moses and Aaron and his sons were washed,
- 32 Whenever they went into the Tent of meeting, and when they came near the altar, as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 33 And he put up the hangings forming the open space round the House and the altar, and put the curtain over the doorway. So Moses made the work complete.
- 34 Then the cloud came down covering the Tent of meeting, and the House was full of the glory of the Lord;
- 35 So that Moses was not able to go into the Tent of meeting, because the cloud was resting on it, and the House was full of the glory of the Lord.
- 36 And whenever the cloud was taken up from the House, the children of Israel went forward on their journey:
- 37 But while the cloud was there, they made no move till it was taken up.
- 38 For the cloud of the Lord was resting on the House by day, and at night there was fire in the cloud, before the eyes of all the people of Israel, and so it was through all their journeys.
- 1 And the voice of the Lord came to Moses out of the Tent of meeting, saying,
- 2 Give these orders to the children of Israel: When anyone of you makes an offering to the Lord, you are to take it from the cattle, from the herd or from the flock.
- 3 If the offering is a burned offering of the herd, let him give a male without a mark: he is to give it at the door of the Tent of meeting so that he may be pleasing to the Lord.
- 4 And he is to put his hand on the head of the burned offering and it will be taken for him, to take away his sin.
- 5 And the ox is to be put to death before the Lord: then Aaron's sons, the priests, are to take the blood and put some of it on and round the altar which is at the door of the Tent of meeting.

- 6 And the burned offering is to be skinned and cut up into its parts.
- 7 And Aaron's sons, the priests, are to put fire on the altar and put the wood in order on the fire:
- 8 And Aaron's sons, the priests, are to put the parts, the head and the fat, in order on the wood which is on the fire on the altar:
- 9 But its inside parts and its legs are to be washed with water, and it will all be burned on the altar by the priest for a burned offering, an offering made by fire, for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 10 And if his offering is of the flock, a burned offering of sheep or goats, let him give a male without a mark.
- 11 And he is to put it to death on the north side of the altar before the Lord: and Aaron's sons, the priests, are to put some of the blood on and round the altar.
- 12 And the offering is to be cut into its parts, with its head and its fat; and the priest is to put them in order on the wood which is on the fire on the altar:
- 13 But the inside parts and the legs are to be washed with water; and the priest will make an offering of all of it, burning it on the altar: it is a burned offering, an offering made by fire, for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 14 And if his offering to the Lord is a burned offering of birds, then he is to make his offering of doves or of young pigeons.
- 15 And the priest is to take it to the altar, and after its head has been twisted off, it is to be burned on the altar, and its blood drained out on the side of the altar:
- 16 And he is to take away its stomach, with its feathers, and put it down by the east side of the altar, where the burned waste is put:
- 17 And let it be broken open at the wings, but not cut in two; and let it be burned on the altar by the priest on the wood which is on the fire; it is a burned offering; an offering made by fire for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 1 And when anyone makes a meal offering to the Lord, let his offering be of the best meal, with oil on it and perfume:
- 2 And let him take it to Aaron's sons, the priests; and having taken in his hand some of the meal and of the oil, with all the perfume, let him give it to the priest to be burned on the altar, as a sign, an offering made by fire, for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 3 And the rest of the meal offering will be for Aaron and his sons; it is most holy among the Lord's fire offerings.
- 4 And when you give a meal offering cooked in the oven, let it be of unleavened cakes of the best meal mixed with oil, or thin unleavened cakes covered with oil.
- 5 And if you give a meal offering cooked on a flat plate, let it be of the best meal, unleavened and mixed with oil.
- 6 Let it be broken into bits, and put oil on it; it is a meal offering.
- 7 And if your offering is of meal cooked in fat over the fire, let it be made of the best meal mixed with oil.
- 8 And you are to give the meal offering made of these things to the Lord, and let the priest take it to the altar.
- 9 And he is to take from the meal offering a part, for a sign, burning it on the altar; an offering made by fire for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 10 And the rest of the meal offering will be for Aaron and his sons; it is most holy among the Lord's fire offerings.
- 11 No meal offering which you give to the Lord is to be made with leaven; no leaven or honey is to be burned as an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 12 You may give them as an offering of first-fruits to the Lord, but they are not to go up as a sweet smell on the altar.
- 13 And every meal offering is to be salted with salt; your meal offering is not to be without the salt of the agreement of your God: with all your offerings give salt.
- 14 And if you give a meal offering of first-fruits to the Lord, give, as your offering of first-fruits, new grain, made dry with fire, crushed new grain.
- 15 And put oil on it and perfume: it is a meal offering.
- 16 And part of the meal of the offering and part of the oil and all the perfume is to be burned for a sign by the priest: it is an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 1 And if his offering is given for a peace-offering; if he gives of the herd, male or female, let him give it without any mark on it, before the Lord.
- 2 And he is to put his hand on the head of his offering and put it to death at the door of the Tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons, the priests, are to put some of the blood on and round the altar.
- 3 And he is to give of the peace-offering, as an offering made by fire to the Lord; the fat covering the inside parts and all the fat on the inside parts,

- 4 And the two kidneys, and the fat on them, which is by the top part of the legs, and the fat joining the liver and the kidneys, he is to take away;
- 5 That it may be burned by Aaron's sons on the altar, on the burned offering which is on the wood on the fire: it is an offering made by fire of a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 6 And if what he gives for a peace-offering to the Lord is of the flock, let him give a male or female, without any mark on it.
- 7 If his offering is a lamb, then let it be placed before the Lord:
- 8 And he is to put his hand on the head of his offering and put it to death before the Tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons are to put some of its blood on and round the altar.
- 9 And of the peace-offering, let him give an offering made by fire to the Lord; the fat of it, all the fat tail, he is to take away near the backbone; and the fat covering the inside parts and all the fat on the inside parts,
- 10 And the two kidneys, with the fat on them, which is by the top part of the legs, and the fat joining the liver and the kidneys, he is to take away;
- 11 That it may be burned by the priest on the altar; it is the food of the offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 12 And if his offering is a goat, then let it be placed before the Lord,
- 13 And let him put his hand on the head of it and put it to death before the Tent of meeting; and the sons of Aaron are to put some of its blood on and round the altar.
- 14 And of it let him make his offering, an offering made by fire to the Lord; the fat covering the inside parts and all the fat on the inside parts,
- 15 And the two kidneys, with the fat on them, which is by the top part of the legs, and the fat joining the liver and the kidneys, let him take away;
- 16 That it may be burned by the priest on the altar; it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet smell: all the fat is the Lord's.
- 17 Let it be an order for ever, through all your generations, in all your houses, that you are not to take fat or blood for food.
 - 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
 - 2 Say to the children of Israel: These are the offerings of anyone who does wrong through error, doing any of the things which by the Lord's order are not to be done:
 - 3 If the chief priest by doing wrong becomes a cause of sin to the people, then let him give to the Lord for the sin which he has done, an ox, without any mark, for a sin-offering.
 - 4 And he is to take the ox to the door of the Tent of meeting before the Lord; and put his hand on its head and put it to death before the Lord.
 - 5 And the chief priest is to take some of its blood and take it to the Tent of meeting;
 - 6 And the priest is to put his finger in the blood, shaking drops of it before the Lord seven times, in front of the veil of the holy place.
 - 7 And the priest is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar on which perfume is burned before the Lord in the Tent of meeting, draining out all the rest of the blood of the ox at the base of the altar of burned offering which is at the door of th
 - 8 And he is to take away all the fat of the ox of the sin-offering; the fat covering the inside parts and all the fat of the inside parts,
 - 9 And the two kidneys, with the fat on them, which is by the top part of the legs, and the fat joining the liver and the kidneys, he is to take away,
 - 10 As it is taken from the ox of the peace-offering; and it is to be burned by the priest on the altar of burned offerings.
 - 11 And the skin of the ox and all its flesh, with its head and its legs and its inside parts and its waste,
 - 12 All the ox, he is to take away outside the circle of the tents into a clean place where the burned waste is put, and there it is to be burned on wood with fire.
 - 13 And if all the people of Israel do wrong, without anyone's knowledge; if they have done any of the things which by the Lord's order are not to be done, causing sin to come on them;
 - 14 When the sin which they have done comes to light, then let all the people give an ox for a sin-offering, and take it before the Tent of meeting.
 - 15 And let the chiefs of the people put their hands on its head before the Lord, and put the ox to death before the Lord.

- 16 And the priest is to take some of its blood to the Tent of meeting;
- 17 And put his finger in the blood, shaking drops of the blood seven times before the Lord in front of the veil.
- 18 And he is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the Lord in the Tent of meeting; and all the rest of the blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar of burned offering at the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 19 And he is to take off all its fat, burning it on the altar.
- 20 Let him do with the ox as he did with the ox of the sin-offering; and the priest will take away their sin and they will have forgiveness.
- 21 Then let the ox be taken away outside the tent-circle, that it may be burned as the other ox was burned; it is the sin-offering for all the people.
- 22 If a ruler does wrong, and in error does any of the things which, by the order of the Lord his God, are not to be done, causing sin to come on him;
- 23 When the sin which he has done is made clear to him, let him give for his offering a goat, a male without any mark.
- 24 And he is to put his hand on the head of the goat and put it to death in the place where they put to death the burned offering before the Lord: it is a sin-offering.
- 25 And the priest is to take some of the blood of the offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burned offering, draining out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar of burned offering.
- 26 And all the fat of it is to be burned on the altar like the fat of the peace-offering; and the priest will take away his sin and he will have forgiveness.
- 27 And if any one of the common people does wrong in error, doing any of the things which the Lord has given orders are not to be done, causing sin to come on him;
- 28 When the sin which he has done is made clear to him, then he is to give for his offering a goat, a female without any mark, for the sin which he has done.
- 29 And he is to put his hand on the head of the sin-offering and put it to death in the place where they put to death the burned offering.
- 30 And the priest is to take some of the blood with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burned offering, and all the rest of its blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar.
- 31 And let all its fat be taken away, as the fat is taken away from the peace-offerings, and let it be burned on the altar by the priest for a sweet smell to the Lord; and the priest will take away his sin and he will have forgiveness.
- 32 And if he gives a lamb as his sin-offering, let it be a female without any mark;
- 33 And he is to put his hand on the head of the offering and put it to death for a sin-offering in the place where they put to death the burned offering.
- 34 And the priest is to take some of the blood of the offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burned offering, and all the rest of the blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar;
- 35 And let him take away all its fat, as the fat is taken away from the lamb of the peace-offerings; and let it be burned by the priest on the altar among the offerings made by fire to the Lord: and the priest will take away his sin and he will have forgiven
- 1 And if anyone does wrong by saying nothing when he is put under oath as a witness of something he has seen or had knowledge of, then he will be responsible:
- 2 If anyone becomes unclean through touching unconsciously some unclean thing, such as the dead body of an unclean beast or of unclean cattle or of any unclean animal which goes flat on the earth, he will be responsible:
- 3 Or if he becomes unclean through touching unconsciously any unclean thing of man, whatever it may be, when it is made clear to him he will be responsible:
- 4 Or if anyone, without thought, takes an oath to do evil or to do good, whatever he says without thought, with an oath, having no knowledge of what he is doing; when it becomes clear to him, he will be responsible for any of these things.
- 5 And whoever is responsible for any such sin, let him make a statement openly of his wrongdoing;
- 6 And take to the Lord the offering for the wrong which he has done, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin-offering, and the priest will take away his sin.
- 7 And if he has not money enough for a lamb, then let him give, for his offering to the Lord, two doves or two young pigeons; one for a sin-offering and one for a burned offering.
- 8 And let him take them to the priest, who will first give the sin-offering, twisting off its head from its neck, but not cutting it in two;

- 9 And he is to put drops of the blood of the offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin-offering.
- 10 And the second is for a burned offering, in agreement with the law; and the priest will take away his sin and he will have forgiveness.
- 11 But if he has not enough money for two doves or two young pigeons, then let him give, for the sin he has done, the tenth part of an ephah of the best meal, for a sin-offering; let him put no oil on it, and no perfume, for it is a sin-offering.
- 12 And let him come to the priest with it, and the priest will take some of it in his hand, to be burned on the altar as a sign, among the offerings of the Lord made by fire: it is a sin-offering.
- 13 And the priest will take away his sin and he will have forgiveness: and the rest of the offering will be the priest's, in the same way as the meal offering.
- 14 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 15 If anyone is untrue, sinning in error in connection with the holy things of the Lord, let him take his offering to the Lord, a male sheep from the flock, without any mark, of the value fixed by you in silver by shekels, by the scale of the holy place.
- 16 And he is to make payment to the priest for what he has done wrong in relation to the holy thing, together with a fifth part of its value in addition; and the priest will take away his sin by the sheep of his offering, and he will have forgiveness.
- 17 And if anyone does wrong, and does any of the things which the Lord has given orders are not to be done, though he has no knowledge of it, still he is in the wrong and he is responsible.
- 18 Let him come to the priest with a sheep, a male without any mark out of the flock, of the value fixed by you, as an offering for his error; and the priest will take away the sin which he did in error, and he will have forgiveness.
- 19 It is an offering for his error: he is certainly responsible before the Lord.
- 20 \6:1\And the Lord said to Moses,
- 21 \6:2\If anyone does wrong, and is untrue to the Lord, acting falsely to his neighbour in connection with something put in his care, or something given for a debt, or has taken away anything by force, or has been cruel to his neighbour,
- 22 \6:3\Or has taken a false oath about the loss of something which he has come across by chance; if a man has done any of these evil things,
- 23 \6:4\Causing sin to come on him, then he will have to give back the thing he took by force or got by cruel acts, or the goods which were put in his care or the thing he came on by chance,
- 24 \6:5\Or anything about which he took a false oath; he will have to give it all back, with the addition of a fifth of its value, to him whose property it is, when he has been judged to be in the wrong.
- 25 \6:6\Then let him take to the Lord the offering for his wrongdoing; giving to the priest for his offering, a male sheep from the flock, without any mark, of the value fixed by you:
- 26 \6:7\And the priest will take away his sin from before the Lord, and he will have forgiveness for whatever crime he has done
- 1 \6:8\And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 \6:9\Give orders to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law for the burned offering: the offering is to be on the fire-wood on the altar all night till the morning; and the fire of the altar is to be kept burning.
- 3 \6:10\And the priest is to put on his linen robes and his linen trousers, and take up what is over of the offering after it has been burned on the altar, and put it by the side of the altar.
- 4 \6:11\Then having taken off his linen robes and put on other clothing, he is to take it away into a clean place, outside the tent-circle.
- 5 \6:12\The fire on the altar is to be kept burning; it is never to go out; every morning the priest is to put wood on it, placing the burned offering in order on it, and there the fat of the peace-offering is to be burned.
- 6 \6:13\Let the fire be kept burning on the altar at all times; it is never to go out.
- 7 \6:14\And this is the law for the meal offering: it is to be offered to the Lord before the altar by the sons of Aaron.
- 8 \6:15\The priest is to take in his hand some of the meal of the meal offering and of the oil of it, and all the perfume on it, burning it on the altar as a sign, for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 9 \6:16\And whatever is over Aaron and his sons may have for their food, taking it without leaven in a holy place; in the open space of the Tent of meeting they may take a meal of it.

- 10 \6:17\It is not to be cooked with leaven. I have given it to them as their part of the offerings made by fire to me; it is most holy, as are the sin-offerings and the offerings for error.
- 11 \6:18\Every male among the children of Aaron may have it for food; it is their right for ever through all your generations, from the offerings made by fire to the Lord: anyone touching them will be holy.
- 12 \6:19\And the Lord said to Moses,
- 13 \6:20\This is the offering which Aaron and his sons are to make to the Lord on the day when he is made a priest: the tenth part of an ephah of the best meal for a meal offering for ever; half of it in the morning and half in the evening.
- 14 \6:21\Let it be made with oil on a flat plate; when it is well mixed and cooked, let it be broken and taken in as a meal offering, for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 15 \6:22\And the same offering is to be given by that one of his sons who takes his place as priest; by an order for ever, all of it is to be burned before the Lord.
- 16 \6:23\Every meal offering offered for the priest is to be completely burned: nothing of it is to be taken for food.
- 17 \6:24\And the Lord said to Moses,
- 18 \6:25\Say to Aaron and his sons, This is the law for the sin-offering: the sin-offering is to be put to death before the Lord in the same place as the burned offering; it is most holy.
- 19 \6:26\The priest by whom it is offered for sin, is to take it for his food in a holy place, in the open space of the Tent of meeting.
- 20 \6:27\Anyone touching the flesh of it will be holy: and if any of the blood is dropped on any clothing, the thing on which the blood has been dropped is to be washed in a holy place.
- 21 \6:28\But the vessel of earth in which the flesh was cooked is to be broken; or if a brass vessel was used, it is to be rubbed clean and washed out with water.
- 22 \6:29\Every male among the priests may take it for his food: it is most holy.
- 23 \6:30\No sin-offering, the blood of which is taken into the Tent of meeting, to take away sin in the holy place, may be used for food: it is to be burned with fire.
- 1 And this is the law of the offering for wrongdoing: it is most holy.
- 2 They are to put to death the offering for wrongdoing in the same place as the burned offering; and the priest is to put the blood on and round the altar.
- 3 And all the fat of it, the fat tail and the fat covering the inside parts, is to be given as an offering.
- 4 And the two kidneys, and the fat on them, which is by the top of the legs, and the fat joining the liver and the kidneys, he is to take away:
- 5 They are to be burned by the priest on the altar for an offering made by fire to the Lord: it is an offering for wrongdoing.
- 6 Every male among the priests may have it as food in a holy place: it is most holy.
- 7 As is the sin-offering, so is the offering for wrongdoing; there is one law for them: the priest who makes the offering to take away sin, he is to have it.
- 8 And the priest offering any man's burned offering for him, may have the skin of the burned offering which is offered by him.
- 9 And every meal offering which is cooked in the oven and everything made in a cooking pot or on a flat plate, is for the priest by whom it is offered.
- 10 And every meal offering, mixed with oil or dry, is for all the sons of Aaron in equal measure.
- 11 And this is the law for the peace-offerings offered to the Lord.
- 12 If any man gives his offering as a praise-offering, then let him give with the offering, unleavened cakes mixed with oil and thin unleavened cakes covered with oil and cakes of the best meal well mixed with oil.
- 13 With his peace-offering let him give cakes of leavened bread, as a praise-offering.
- 14 And let him give one out of every offering to be lifted up before the Lord; that it may be for the priest who puts the blood of the peace-offering on the altar.
- 15 And the flesh of the praise-offering is to be taken as food on the day when it is offered; no part of it may be kept till the morning.
- 16 But if his offering is made because of an oath or given freely, it may be taken as food on the day when it is offered; and the rest may be used up on the day after:
- 17 But if any of the flesh of the offering is still unused on the third day, it is to be burned with fire.

- 18 And if any of the flesh of the peace-offering is taken as food on the third day, it will not be pleasing to God and will not be put to the account of him who gives it; it will be unclean and a cause of sin to him who takes it as food.
- 19 And flesh touched by any unclean thing may not be taken for food: it is to be burned with fire; and as for the flesh of the peace-offerings, everyone who is clean may take it as food:
- 20 But he who is unclean when he takes as food the flesh of the peace-offerings, which are the Lord's, will be cut off from his people.
- 21 And anyone who, after touching any unclean thing of man or an unclean beast or any unclean and disgusting thing, takes as food the flesh of the peace-offerings, which are the Lord's, will be cut off from his people.
- 22 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 23 Say to the children of Israel: You are not to take any fat, of ox or sheep or goat, for food.
- 24 And the fat of that which comes to a natural death, and the fat of that which is attacked by beasts, may be used for other purposes, but not in any way for food.
- 25 For anyone who takes as food the fat of any beast of which men make an offering by fire to the Lord, will be cut off from his people.
- 26 And you are not to take for food any blood, of bird or of beast, in any of your houses.
- 27 Whoever takes any blood for food will be cut off from his people.
- 28 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 29 Say to the children of Israel: He who makes a peace-offering to the Lord, is to give an offering to the Lord out of his peace-offering:
- 30 He himself is to take to the Lord the offering made by fire, even the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the Lord.
- 31 And the fat is to be burned by the priest on the altar, but the breast is for Aaron and his sons.
- 32 And the right leg you are to give to the priest for an offering to be lifted up out of what is given for your peace-offerings.
- 33 That man, among the sons of Aaron, by whom the blood of the peace-offering and the fat are offered, is to have the right leg for his part.
- 34 For the breast which is waved and the right leg which is lifted up on high I have taken from the children of Israel, from their peace-offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as their right for ever from the children of Israel.
- 35 This is the holy part given to Aaron and to his sons, out of the offerings made to the Lord by fire, on the day when they were made priests before the Lord;
- 36 Which the Lord said the children of Israel were to give them, on the day when he made them his priests. It is their right for ever from generation to generation.
- 37 These are the laws for the burned offering, the meal offering, and the offering for wrongdoing; and for the making of priests, and for the giving of peace-offerings;
- 38 As they were given by the Lord to Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day when the Lord gave orders to the children of Israel to make their offerings to the Lord, in the waste land of Sinai.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Take Aaron, and his sons with him, and the robes and the holy oil and the ox of the sin-offering and the two male sheep and the basket of unleavened bread;
- 3 And let all the people come together at the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 4 And Moses did as the Lord said, and all the people came together at the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 5 And Moses said to the people, This is what the Lord has given orders to be done.
- 6 Then Moses took Aaron and his sons; and after washing them with water,
- 7 He put the coat on him, making it tight with its band, and then the robe, and over it the ephod, with its band of needlework to keep it in place.
- 8 And he put the priest's bag on him, and in the bag he put the Urim and Thummim.
- 9 And on his head he put the head-dress, and in front of the head-dress the plate of gold, the holy crown, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 10 And Moses took the holy oil and put it on the House and on all the things in it, to make them holy.
- 11 Seven times he put oil on the altar and on all its vessels, and on the washing-basin and its base, to make them holy.

- 12 And some of the oil he put on Aaron's head, to make him holy.
- 13 Then he took Aaron's sons, clothing them with the coats, and putting the bands round them, and the head-dresses on their heads, as the Lord had given him orders.
- 14 And he took the ox of the sin-offering: and Aaron and his sons put their hands on the head of the ox,
- 15 And he put it to death; and Moses took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar and round it with his finger, and made the altar clean, draining out the blood at the base of the altar; so he made it holy, taking away what was unclean.
- 16 And he took all the fat on the inside parts, and the fat on the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, to be burned on the altar;
- 17 But the ox, with its skin and its flesh and its waste, was burned with fire outside the tent-circle, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 18 And he put the male sheep of the burned offering before the Lord, and Aaron and his sons put their hands on its head,
- 19 And he put it to death; and Moses put some of the blood on and round the altar.
- 20 And when the sheep had been cut into parts, the head and the parts and the fat were burned by Moses.
- 21 And the inside parts and the legs were washed with water and all the sheep was burned by Moses on the altar; it was a burned offering for a sweet smell: it was an offering made by fire to the Lord, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 22 And he put the other sheep before the Lord, the sheep with which they were made priests; and Aaron and his sons put their hands on the head of the sheep,
- 23 And he put it to death; and Moses took some of the blood and put it on the point of Aaron's right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the great toe of his right foot.
- 24 Then he took Aaron's sons, and Moses put some of the blood on the point of their right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the great toes of their right feet: and Moses put the blood on and round the altar.
- 25 And he took the fat, and the fat tail, and the fat on the inside parts, and the fat on the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and the right leg;
- 26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread which was before the Lord he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of bread with oil on it, and one thin cake, and put them on the fat and on the right leg:
- 27 And he put them all on the hands of Aaron and on the hands of his sons, waving them for a wave offering before the Lord.
- 28 And Moses took them from their hands, and they were burned on the altar on the burned offering, as a priest's offering for a sweet smell, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 29 And Moses took the breast, waving it for a wave offering before the Lord; it was Moses' part of the sheep of the priest's offering, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 30 And Moses took some of the holy oil and of the blood which was on the altar and put it on Aaron and on his robes, and on his sons and on his sons' robes; and made Aaron holy, and his robes and his sons and his sons' robes with him.
- 31 And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, The flesh is to be cooked in water at the door of the Tent of meeting, and there you are to take it as food, together with the bread in the basket, as I have given orders, saying, It is the food of Aaron and his so
- 32 And that which is over of the flesh and of the bread is to be burned with fire.
- 33 And you are not to go out from the door of the Tent of meeting for seven days, till the days for making you priest are ended; for this will be the work of seven days.
- 34 What has been done this day, has been ordered by the Lord to take away your sin.
- 35 And you are to keep watch for the Lord at the door of the Tent of meeting day and night for seven days, so that death may not come to you: for so he has given me orders.
- 36 And Aaron and his sons did all the things about which the Lord had given orders through Moses.
- 1 And on the eighth day Moses sent for Aaron and his sons and the responsible men of Israel;
- 2 And he said to Aaron, Take a young ox for a sin-offering and a male sheep for a burned offering, without a mark, and make an offering of them before the Lord.
- 3 And say to the children of Israel: Take a he-goat for a sin-offering, and a young ox and a lamb, in their first year, without any mark on them, for a burned offering;
- 4 And an ox and a male sheep for peace-offerings, to be put to death before the Lord; and a meal offering mixed with oil: for this day you are to see the Lord.

- 5 And they took the things ordered by Moses, before the Tent of meeting, and all the people came near, waiting before the Lord.
- 6 And Moses said, This is what the Lord has said you are to do; and you will see the glory of the Lord.
- 7 And Moses said to Aaron, Come near to the altar and make your sin-offering and your burned offering to take away your sin and the sin of the people, and make the people's offering to take away their sin; as the Lord has given orders.
- 8 So Aaron came near to the altar and put to death the ox for the sin-offering for himself;
- 9 And the sons of Aaron gave him the blood and he put his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, draining out the blood at the base of the altar;
- 10 But the fat and the kidneys and the fat on the liver of the sin-offering were burned by him on the altar as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 11 And the flesh and the skin were burned with fire outside the tent-circle;
- 12 And he put to death the burned offering; and Aaron's sons gave him the blood and he put some of it on and round the altar;
- 13 And they gave him the parts of the burned offering, in their order, and the head, to be burned on the altar.
- 14 And the inside parts and the legs, when they had been washed with water, were burned on the burned offering on the altar.
- 15 And he made an offering for the people and took the goat of the sin-offering for the people and put it to death, offering it for sin, in the same way as the first.
- 16 And he took the burned offering, offering it in the ordered way;
- 17 And he put the meal offering before the Lord, and taking some of it in his hand he had it burned on the altar, separately from the burned offering of the morning.
- 18 And he put to death the ox and the sheep, which were the peace-offerings for the people; and Aaron's sons gave him the blood and he put some of it on and round the altar;
- 19 And as for the fat of the ox and the fat tail of the sheep and the fat covering the inside parts and the kidneys and the fat on the liver;
- 20 They put the fat on the breasts, and the fat was burned on the altar.
- 21 And Aaron took the breasts and the right leg, waving them for a wave offering before the Lord, as Moses gave orders.
- 22 And Aaron, lifting up his hands to the people, gave them a blessing; and he came down from offering the sin-offering, and the burned offering, and the peace-offerings.
- 23 And Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of meeting, and came out and gave the people a blessing, and the glory of the Lord was seen by all the people.
- 24 And fire came out from before the Lord, burning up the offering on the altar and the fat: and when all the people saw it, they gave a loud cry, falling down on their faces.
 - 1 And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took their vessels and put fire in them and perfume, burning strange fire before the Lord, which he had not given them orders to do.
 - 2 And fire came out from before the Lord, burning them up and causing their destruction before the Lord.
 - 3 Then Moses said to Aaron, This is what the Lord said, I will be holy in the eyes of all those who come near to me, and I will be honoured before all the people. And Aaron said nothing.
 - 4 And Moses sent for Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel, the brother of Aaron's father, and said to them, Come near and take your brothers away from before the holy place, outside the tent-circle.
 - 5 So they came and took them, in their coats, outside the tent-circle, as Moses had said.
 - 6 And Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons, Do not let your hair be loose, and give no signs of grief; so that death may not overtake you, and his wrath come on all the people; but let there be weeping among your brothers and all the hou
 - 7 And do not go out from the door of the Tent of meeting, or death will come to you; for the holy oil of the Lord is on you. And they did as Moses said.
 - 8 And the Lord said to Aaron:
 - 9 Take no wine, or strong drink, you or your sons with you, when you go into the Tent of meeting, that it may not be the cause of death to you; this is an order for ever through all your generations.
 - 10 And make a division between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;

- 11 Teaching the children of Israel all the laws which the Lord has given them by the hand of Moses.
- 12 And Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who were still living, Take the rest of the meal offering from the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and take it for your food, without leaven, at the side of the altar, for it is most holy.
- 13 It is to be for your food in a holy place, because it is your right and your sons' right, from the offerings of the Lord made by fire: for so am I ordered.
- 14 And the breast which is waved and the leg which is lifted up on high, you are to take as your food in a clean place; you and your sons and your daughters with you: for they are given to you as your right and your sons' right, from the peace-offerings of t
- 15 Let them take the breast which is waved and the leg which is lifted up on high, with the fat of the burned offering, to be waved for a wave offering before the Lord; and this will be for you and for your sons with you, for a right for ever, as the Lord ha
- 16 And Moses was looking for the goat of the sin-offering, but it was burned; and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron, who were still living, saying,
- 17 Why did you not make a meal of the sin-offering in the holy place? For it is most holy and he has given it to you, so that the sin of the people may be put on it, to take away their sin before the Lord.
- 18 See, its blood was not taken into the holy place: certainly it was right for you to have taken it as food in the holy place, as I gave orders.
- 19 And Aaron said to Moses, You have seen that today they have made their sin-offering and their burned offering before the Lord, and such things as these have come on me. If I had taken the sin-offering as food today, would it have been pleasing to the Lord
- 20 And after hearing this, Moses was no longer angry.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel: These are the living things which you may have for food among all the beasts on the earth.
- 3 You may have as food any beast which has a division in the horn of its foot, and whose food comes back into its mouth to be crushed again.
- 4 But, at the same time, of those beasts, you may not take for food the camel, because its food comes back but the horn of its foot is not parted in two; it is unclean to you.
- 5 And the rock-badger, for the same reason, is unclean to you.
- 6 And the hare, because the horn of its foot is not parted in two, is unclean to you.
- 7 And the pig is unclean to you, because though the horn of its foot is parted, its food does not come back.
- 8 Their flesh may not be used for food, and their dead bodies may not even be touched; they are unclean to you.
- 9 These you may have for food of all things living in the water: anything living in the water, in the seas or rivers, which has special parts for swimming and skin formed of thin plates, may be used for food.
- 10 All other things living and moving in the water, in the sea or in the rivers, are a disgusting thing to you;
- 11 They may not be used for food, and their dead bodies are disgusting to you.
- 12 Anything in the water which has no special parts for swimming and no thin plates on its skin is disgusting to you.
- 13 And among birds these are to be disgusting to you, and not to be used for food: the eagle and the gier-eagle and the ospray;
- 14 And the kite and the falcon, and birds of that sort;
- 15 Every raven, and birds of that sort;
- 16 And the ostrich and the night-hawk and the sea-hawk, and birds of that sort;
- 17 And the little owl and the cormorant and the great owl;
- 18 And the water-hen and the pelican and the vulture;
- 19 The stork and the heron, and birds of that sort, and the hoopoe and the bat.
- 20 Every winged four-footed thing which goes on the earth is disgusting to you;
- 21 But of the winged four-footed things, those which have long legs for jumping on the earth you may have for food;
- 22 Such as all the different sorts of locust.
- 23 But all other winged four-footed things which go on the earth are disgusting to you.

- 24 By these you will be made unclean; anyone touching their dead bodies will be unclean till evening:
- 25 Whoever takes away the dead body of one of them is to have his clothing washed, and will be unclean till evening.
- 26 Every beast, in the horn of whose foot there is not a complete division, and whose food does not come back, is unclean to you: anyone touching one of these will be unclean.
- 27 Any four-footed beast which goes on the ball of its foot, is unclean to you: anyone touching the dead body of one of these will be unclean till evening.
- 28 Anyone who takes away the dead body of one of these is to have his clothing washed and be unclean till evening.
- 29 And these are unclean to you among things which go low down on the earth; the weasel and the mouse and the great lizard, and animals of that sort;
- 30 And the ferret and the land crocodile and the lizard and the sand-lizard and the chameleon.
- 31 All these are unclean to you: anyone touching them when they are dead will be unclean till evening.
- 32 The dead body of any of these, falling on anything, will make that thing unclean; if it is any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or bag, whatever it is, if it is used for any purpose, it will have to be put into water, and will be unclean till evening
- 33 And if one of them gets into any vessel of earth, whatever is in the vessel will be unclean and the vessel will have to be broken.
- 34 Any food in it, and anything on which water from it comes, will be unclean: any drink taken from such a vessel will be unclean.
- 35 Any part of the dead body of one of these, falling on anything, will make it unclean; if it is an oven or a cooking-pot it will have to be broken: they are unclean and will be unclean to you.
- 36 But at the same time a fountain or a place where water is stored for use will be clean; but anyone touching their dead bodies will be unclean.
- 37 If any part of the dead body of one of these gets on to any seed for planting, it is clean;
- 38 But if water is put on the seed, and any part of the dead body gets on to it, it will be unclean to you.
- 39 And if any beast which may be used for food comes to a natural death, anyone touching its dead body will be unclean till evening.
- 40 And he who makes use of any part of its body for food is to have his clothing washed and be unclean till evening; and anyone taking away its body is to have his clothing washed and be unclean till evening.
- 41 Everything which goes flat on its body on the earth is disgusting, and is not to be used for food.
- 42 Whatever goes on its stomach or on four feet or has a great number of feet, even all those going flat on the earth, may not be used for food, for they are disgusting.
- 43 You are not to make yourselves disgusting with anything which goes about flat on the earth; you may not make yourselves unclean with them, in such a way that you are not holy to me.
- 44 For I am the Lord your God: for this reason, make and keep yourselves holy, for I am holy; you are not to make yourselves unclean with any sort of thing which goes about flat on the earth.
- 45 For I am the Lord, who took you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; so be you holy, for I am holy.
- 46 This is the law about beasts and birds and every living thing moving in the waters, and every living thing which goes flat on the earth:
- 47 Marking out the unclean from the clean, and the living thing which may be used for food from that which may not.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, If a woman is with child and gives birth to a male child, she will be unclean for seven days, as when she is unwell.
- 3 And on the eighth day let him be given circumcision.
- 4 And she will be unclean for thirty-three days till the flow of her blood is stopped; no holy thing may be touched by her, and she may not come into the holy place, till the days for making her clean are ended.
- 5 But if she gives birth to a female child, then she will be unclean for two weeks, as when she is unwell; and she will not be completely clean for sixty-six days.
- 6 And when the days are ended for making her clean for a son or a daughter, let her take to the priest at the door of the Tent of meeting, a lamb of the first year for a burned offering and a young pigeon or a dove for a sin-offering:

- 7 And the priest is to make an offering of it before the Lord and take away her sin, and she will be made clean from the flow of her blood. This is the law for a woman who gives birth to a male or a female.
- 8 And if she has not money enough for a lamb, then let her take two doves or two young pigeons, one for a burned offering and the other for a sin-offering, and the priest will take away her sin and she will be clean,
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 2 If a man has on his skin a growth or a mark or a white place, and it becomes the disease of a leper, let him be taken to Aaron the priest, or to one of the priests, his sons;
- 3 And if, when the priest sees the mark on his skin, the hair on the place is turned white and the mark seems to go deeper than the skin, it is the mark of a leper: and the priest, after looking at him, will say that he is unclean.
- 4 But if the mark on his skin is white, and does not seem to go deeper than the skin, and the hair on it is not turned white, then the priest will keep him shut up for seven days;
- 5 And the priest is to see him on the seventh day; and if, in his opinion, the place on his skin has not become worse and is not increased in size, then the priest will keep him shut up for seven days more:
- 6 And the priest is to see him again on the seventh day; and if the mark is less bright and is not increased on his skin, then let the priest say that he is clean: it is only a skin-mark, and after his clothing has been washed he will be clean.
- 7 But if the size of the mark on his skin is increased after he has been seen by the priest, let him go to the priest again:
- 8 And if, after looking at him, he sees that the mark is increased in his skin, let the priest say that he is unclean; he is a leper.
- 9 When the disease of a leper is seen on a man, let him be taken to the priest;
- 10 And if the priest sees that there is a white growth on the skin, and the hair is turned white, and there is diseased flesh in the growth,
- 11 It is an old disease in the skin of his flesh, and the priest will say that he is unclean; he will not have to be shut up, for he is clearly unclean.
- 12 And if the disease comes out all over his skin, from his head to his feet, as far as the priest is able to see,
- 13 And if the priest sees that all his flesh is covered with the leper's disease, the priest will say that he is clean: it is all turned white, he is clean.
- 14 But whenever diseased flesh is seen on him, he will be unclean.
- 15 And when the priest sees the diseased flesh he will say that he is unclean; the diseased flesh is unclean, he is a leper.
- 16 Or if the diseased flesh is turned again and changed to white then he is to come to the priest,
- 17 And the priest will see him: and if the place is turned white, then the priest will say that he is free from the disease.
- 18 And if a bad place has come out on the skin and is well again,
- 19 And on the same place there is a white growth of a bright mark, red and white, then let the priest see it;
- 20 And after looking at it, if it seems to go deeper than the skin, and the hair on it is turned white, then the priest will say that the man is unclean: it is the leper's disease, it has come out in the bad place.
- 21 But if, after looking at it, he sees that there are no white hairs on it, and it is not deeper than the skin, and it is not very bright, then let the priest keep him shut up for seven days:
- 22 And if it is increasing on the skin, the priest will say that he is unclean: it is a disease.
- 23 But if the bright mark keeps in the same place and gets no greater, it is the mark of the old wound, and the priest will say that he is clean.
- 24 Or if there is a burn on the skin of the flesh, and if the diseased flesh in the burn becomes a bright place, red and white or white,
- 25 The priest is to see it: and if the hair on the bright place is turned white and it seems to go deeper than the skin, he is a leper: it has come out in the burn, and the priest will say that he is unclean: it is the leper's disease.
- 26 But if, after looking at it, the priest sees that there is no white hair on the bright place, and it is not deeper than the skin, and is not very bright, then let the priest keep him shut up for seven days:
- 27 And the priest is to see him again on the seventh day; if it is increased in the skin, then the priest will say that he is unclean: it is the leper's disease.
- 28 And if the bright place keeps the same size and gets no greater on the skin, but is less bright, it is the effect of the burn, and the priest will say that he is clean: it is the mark of the burn.
- 29 And when a man or a woman has a disease on the head, or in the hair of the chin,

- 30 Then the priest is to see the diseased place: and if it seems to go deeper than the skin, and if there is thin yellow hair in it, then the priest will say that he is unclean: he has the mark of the leper's disease on his head or in the hair of his chin.
- 31 And after looking at the diseased place, if it does not seem to go deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest will have him shut up for seven days:
- 32 And on the seventh day the priest will see the place: and if it is not increased, and there is no yellow hair in it, and it does not seem to go deeper than the skin,
- 33 Then his hair is to be cut off, but not on the diseased place, and he is to be shut up for seven days more:
- 34 And on the seventh day the priest will see the place: and if it is not increased, and does not seem to go deeper than the skin, the priest will say that he is clean: and after his clothing has been washed he will be clean.
- 35 But if the disease in his skin becomes worse after he has been made clean,
- 36 Then the priest is to see him: and if the mark is increased, the priest, without looking for the yellow hair, will say that he is unclean.
- 37 But if, in his opinion, the growth is stopped, and black hair has come up on it, the disease has gone; he is clean and the priest will say that he is clean.
- 38 And if a man or a woman has bright marks on the skin of their flesh, that is, bright white marks,
- 39 Then the priest is to see them: and if the white marks on their skin are not very bright, it is a skin disease which has come out on the skin; he is clean.
- 40 And if a man's hair has come out and he has no hair, still he is clean.
- 41 And if the hair has gone from the front part of his head, so that he has no hair there, still he is clean.
- 42 But if, on his head or on his brow, where he has no hair, there is a red and white place, it is the disease of the leper coming out on his head or on his brow.
- 43 Then if the priest sees that the growth of the disease has become red and white on his head or on his brow where there is no hair, like the mark in the skin of a leper;
- 44 He is a leper and unclean; the priest is to say that he is most certainly unclean: the disease is in his head.
- 45 And the leper who has the disease on him is to go about with signs of grief, with his hair loose and his mouth covered, crying, Unclean, unclean.
- 46 While the disease is on him, he will be unclean. He is unclean: let him keep by himself, living outside the tent-circle.
- 47 And any clothing of wool or of linen in which is the mark of the disease;
- 48 If it is in the threads of the linen or of the wool, or in leather, or in anything made of skin;
- 49 If there are red or green marks on the clothing, or on the leather, or in the threads of the cloth, or in anything made of skin, it is the leper's disease: let the priest see it.
- 50 And after it has been seen by the priest, the thing which is so marked is to be shut up for seven days:
- 51 And he is to see the mark on the seventh day; if the mark is increased in the clothing, or in the threads of the material, or in the leather, whatever the leather is used for, it is the disease biting into it: it is unclean.
- 52 And the clothing, or the wool or linen material, or anything of leather in which is the disease, is to be burned: for the disease is biting into it; let it be burned in the fire.
- 53 And if the priest sees that the mark is not increased in the clothing or in any part of the material or in the leather,
- 54 Then the priest will give orders for the thing on which the mark is, to be washed, and to be shut up for seven days more:
- 55 And if, after the mark has been washed, the priest sees that the colour of it is not changed and it is not increased, it is to be burned in the fire: the disease is working in it, though the damage may be inside or outside.
- 56 And if the priest sees that the mark is less bright after the washing, then let him have it cut out of the clothing or the leather or from the threads of the material:
- 57 And if the mark is still seen in the clothing or in the threads of the material or in the leather, it is the disease coming out: the thing in which the disease is will have to be burned with fire.
- 58 And the material of the clothing, or anything of skin, which has been washed, if the mark has gone out of it, let it be washed a second time and it will be clean.
- 59 This is the law about the leper's disease in the thread of wool or linen material, in clothing or in anything of skin, saying how it is to be judged clean or unclean.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 This is the law of the leper on the day when he is made clean: he is to be taken to the priest;

- 3 And the priest is to go outside the tent-circle; and if, after looking, the priest sees that the mark of the disease has gone from him,
- 4 Then the priest is to give orders to take, for him who is to be made clean, two living clean birds and some cedar wood and red thread and hyssop.
- 5 And the priest will give orders for one of the birds to be put to death in a vessel made of earth, over flowing water.
- 6 And he will take the living bird and the wood and the red thread and the hyssop and put them in the blood of the bird which was put to death over flowing water.
- 7 And shaking it seven times over the man who is to be made clean, he will say that he is clean and will let the living bird go free into the open country.
- 8 And he who is to be made clean will have his clothing washed and his hair cut and have a bath, and he will be clean. And after that he will come back to the tent-circle; but he is to keep outside his tent for seven days.
- 9 And on the seventh day he is to have all the hair cut off his head and his chin and over his eyes--all his hair is to be cut off--and he will have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and he will be clean.
- 10 And on the eighth day let him take two male lambs, without any marks on them, and one female lamb of the first year, without a mark, and three tenth parts of an ephah of the best meal, mixed with oil, and one log of oil.
- 11 And the priest who is making him clean will put the man who is being made clean, together with these things, before the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 12 And the priest is to take one of the male lambs and give it as an offering for wrongdoing, and the log of oil, waving them for a wave offering before the Lord;
- 13 And he is to put the male lamb to death in the place where they put to death the sin-offering and the burned offering, in the holy place; for as the sin-offering is the property of the priest, so is the offering for wrongdoing: it is most holy.
- 14 And let the priest take some of the blood of the offering for wrongdoing and put it on the point of the right ear of him who is to be made clean, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the great toe of his right foot;
- 15 And take some of the oil and put it in the hollow of his left hand;
- 16 And let the priest put his right finger in the oil which is in his left hand, shaking it out with his finger seven times before the Lord;
- 17 And of the rest of the oil which is in his hand, the priest will put some on the point of the right ear of the man who is to be made clean, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the great toe of his right foot, over the blood of the offering for wrong
- 18 And the rest of the oil in the priest's hand he will put on the head of him who is to be made clean; and so the priest will make him free from sin before the Lord.
- 19 And the priest will give the sin-offering, and take away the sin of him who is to be made clean from his unclean condition; and after that he will put the burned offering to death.
- 20 And the priest is to have the burned offering and the meal offering burned on the altar; and the priest will take away his sin and he will be clean.
- 21 And if he is poor and not able to get so much, then he may take one male lamb as an offering for wrongdoing, to be waved to take away his sin, and one tenth part of an ephah of the best meal mixed with oil for a meal offering, and a log of oil;
- 22 And two doves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and one will be for a sin-offering and the other for a burned offering.
- 23 And on the eighth day he will take them to the priest, to the door of the Tent of meeting before the Lord, so that he may be made clean.
- 24 And the priest will take the lamb of the offering for wrongdoing and the oil, waving them for a wave offering before the Lord;
- 25 And he will put to death the lamb of the offering for wrongdoing and the priest will take some of the blood of the offering for wrongdoing and put it on the point of the right ear of him who is to be made clean, and on the thumb of his right hand and on t
- 26 And the priest will put out some of the oil in the hollow of his left hand,
- 27 Shaking out drops of oil with his right finger before the Lord seven times:

- 28 And the priest will put some of the oil which is in his hand on the point of the ear of the man who is to be made clean and on the thumb of his right hand and on the great toe of his right foot, on the place where the blood of the offering for wrongdoing
- 29 And the rest of the oil which is in the priest's hand he will put on the head of him who is to be made clean, to take away his sin before the Lord.
- 30 And he will make an offering of one of the doves or the young pigeons, such as he is able to get;
- 31 And of these, he will give one for a sin-offering and one for a burned offering, with the meal offering; and the priest will take away the sin of him who is to be made clean before the Lord.
- 32 This is the law for the man who has the disease of the leper on him, and who is not able to get that which is necessary for making himself clean.
- 33 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 34 When you have come into the land of Canaan which I will give you for your heritage, if I put the leper's disease on a house in the land of your heritage,
- 35 Then let the owner of the house come and say to the priest, It seems to me that there is a sort of leper's disease in the house.
- 36 And the priest will give orders for everything to be taken out of the house, before he goes in to see the disease, so that the things in the house may not become unclean; and then the priest is to go in to see the house;
- 37 And if he sees that the walls of the house are marked with hollows of green and red, and if it seems to go deeper than the face of the wall;
- 38 Then the priest will go out of the door of the house, and keep the house shut up for seven days:
- 39 And the priest is to come again on the seventh day and have a look and see if the marks on the walls of the house are increased in size;
- 40 Then the priest will give orders to them to take out the stones in which the disease is seen, and put them out into an unclean place outside the town:
- 41 And he will have the house rubbed all over inside, and the paste which is rubbed off will be put out into an unclean place outside the town:
- 42 And they will take other stones and put them in place of those stones, and he will take other paste and put it on the walls of the house.
- 43 And if the disease comes out again in the house after he has taken out the stones and after the walls have been rubbed and the new paste put on,
- 44 Then the priest will come and see it; and if the disease in the house is increased in size, it is the leper's disease working out in the house: it is unclean.
- 45 And the house will have to be pulled down, the stones of it and the wood and the paste; and everything is to be taken out to an unclean place outside the town.
- 46 And, in addition, anyone who goes into the house at any time, while it is shut up, will be unclean till evening.
- 47 And anyone who has been sleeping in the house will have to have his clothing washed; and anyone who takes food in that house will have to have his clothing washed.
- 48 And if the priest comes in, and sees that the disease is not increased after the new paste has been put on the house, then the priest will say that the house is clean, because the disease is gone.
- 49 And in order to make the house clean, let him take two birds and cedar-wood and red thread and hyssop;
- 50 And put one of the birds to death in a vessel of earth over flowing water;
- 51 And take the cedar-wood and the hyssop and the red thread and the living bird and put them in the blood of the dead bird and in the flowing water, shaking it over the house seven times.
- 52 And he will make the house clean with the blood of the bird and the flowing water and with the living bird and with the cedar-wood and the hyssop and the red thread.
- 53 But he will let the living bird go out of the town into the open country; so he will take away sin from the house and it will be clean.
- 54 This is the law for all signs of the leper's disease and for skin diseases;
- 55 And for signs of disease in clothing, or in a house;
- 56 And for a growth or a bad place or a bright mark on the skin;

- 57 To make clear when it is unclean and when it is clean: this is the law about the disease of the leper.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses and to Aaron,
 - 2 Say to the children of Israel: If a man has an unclean flow from his flesh, it will make him unclean.
 - 3 If the flow goes on or if the part is stopped up, to keep back the flow, he is still unclean.
 - 4 Every bed on which he has been resting will be unclean, and everything on which he has been seated will be unclean.
 - 5 And anyone touching his bed is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 6 And he who has been seated on anything on which the unclean man has been seated is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 7 And anyone touching the flesh of the unclean man is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 8 And if liquid from the mouth of the unclean man comes on to him who is clean, then he is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 9 And any leather seat on a horse on which the unclean man has been seated will be unclean.
 - 10 And anyone touching anything which was under him will be unclean till the evening; anyone taking up any of these things is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 11 And anyone on whom the unclean man puts his hands, without washing them in water, is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 12 And any vessel of earth which has been touched by the unclean man will have to be broken and any vessel of wood washed.
 - 13 And when a man who has a flow from his body is made clean from it, he is to take seven days to make himself clean, washing his clothing and bathing his body in flowing water, and then he will be clean.
 - 14 And on the eighth day he is to take two doves or two young pigeons and come before the Lord to the door of the Tent of meeting and give them to the priest:
 - 15 And they are to be offered by the priest, one for a sin-offering and one for a burned offering, and the priest will take away his sin before the Lord on account of his flow.
 - 16 And if a man's seed goes out from him, then all his body will have to be bathed in water and he will be unclean till evening.
 - 17 And any clothing or skin on which the seed comes is to be washed with water and be unclean till evening.
 - 18 And if a man has sex relations with a woman and his seed goes out from him, the two of them will have to be bathed in water and will be unclean till evening.
 - 19 And if a woman has a flow of blood from her body, she will have to be kept separate for seven days, and anyone touching her will be unclean till evening.
 - 20 And everything on which she has been resting, while she is kept separate, will be unclean, and everything on which she has been seated will be unclean.
 - 21 And anyone touching her bed will have to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 22 And anyone touching anything on which she has been seated will have to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
 - 23 Anyone touching anything on the bed or on the thing on which she has been seated, will be unclean till evening.
 - 24 And if any man has sex relations with her so that her blood comes on him, he will be unclean for seven days and every bed on which he has been resting will be unclean.
 - 25 And if a woman has a flow of blood for a long time, not at the time when she generally has it, or if the flow goes on longer than the normal time, she will be unclean while the flow of blood goes on, as she is at other normal times.
 - 26 Every bed on which she has been resting will be unclean, as at the times when she normally has a flow of blood, and everything on which she has been seated will be unclean, in the same way.
 - 27 And anyone touching these things will be unclean, and his clothing will have to be washed and his body bathed in water and he will be unclean till evening.
 - 28 But when her flow of blood is stopped, after seven days she will be clean.
 - 29 And on the eighth day let her get two doves or two young pigeons and take them to the priest to the door of the Tent of meeting,

- 30 To be offered by the priest, one for a sin-offering and one for a burned offering; and the priest will take away her sin before the Lord on account of her unclean condition.
- 31 In this way may the children of Israel be made free from all sorts of unclean conditions, so that death may not overtake them when they are unclean and when they make unclean my holy place which is among them.
- 32 This is the law for the man who has a flow from his body, or whose seed goes from him so that he is unclean;
- 33 And for her who has a flow of blood, and for any man or woman who has an unclean flow, and for him who has sex relations with a woman when she is unclean.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron when they took in strange fire before the Lord and death overtook them;
- 2 The Lord said to Moses, Say to Aaron, your brother, that he may not come at all times into the holy place inside the veil, before the cover which is on the ark, for fear that death may overtake him; for I will be seen in the cloud on the cover of the ark.
- 3 Let Aaron come into the holy place in this way: with an ox for a sin-offering and a male sheep for a burned offering.
- 4 Let him put on the holy linen coat, and the linen trousers on his body, and the linen band round him, and the linen head-dress on his head; for this is holy clothing, and before he puts them on his body is to be washed with water.
- 5 And let him take from the children of Israel two he-goats for a sin-offering and one male sheep for a burned offering.
- 6 And Aaron is to give the ox of the sin-offering for himself, to make himself and his house free from sin.
- 7 And he is to take the two goats and put them before the Lord at the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 8 And Aaron will make selection from the two goats by the decision of the Lord, one goat for the Lord and one for Azazel.
- 9 And the goat which is marked out for the Lord, let Aaron give for a sin-offering.
- 10 But the goat for Azazel is to be placed living before the Lord, for the taking away of sin, that it may be sent away for Azazel into the waste land.
- 11 And Aaron is to give the ox of the sin-offering for himself and take away sin from himself and his house, and put to death the ox of the sin-offering which is for himself.
- 12 And he is to take a vessel full of burning coal from the altar before the Lord and in his hand some sweet perfume crushed small, and take it inside the veil;
- 13 And let him put the perfume on the fire before the Lord so that the ark may be covered with a cloud of the smoke of the perfume, in order that death may not overtake him.
- 14 And let him take some of the blood of the ox, shaking drops of it from his finger on the cover of the ark on the east side, and before it, seven times.
- 15 Then let him put to death the goat of the sin-offering for the people, and take its blood inside the veil and do with it as he did with the blood of the ox, shaking drops of it on and before the cover of the ark.
- 16 And let him make the holy place free from whatever is unclean among the children of Israel and from their wrongdoing in all their sins; and let him do the same for the Tent of meeting, which has its place among an unclean people.
- 17 And no man may be in the Tent of meeting from the time when Aaron goes in to take away sin in the holy place till he comes out, having made himself and his house and all the people of Israel free from sin.
- 18 And he is to go out to the altar which is before the Lord and make it free from sin; and he is to take some of the blood of the ox and the blood of the goat and put it on the horns of the altar and round it;
- 19 Shaking drops of the blood from his finger on it seven times to make it holy and clean from whatever is unclean among the children of Israel.
- 20 And when he has done whatever is necessary to make the holy place and the Tent of meeting and the altar free from sin, let him put the living goat before the Lord;
- 21 And Aaron, placing his two hands on the head of the living goat, will make a public statement over him of all the evil doings of the children of Israel and all their wrongdoing, in all their sins; and he will put them on the head of the goat and send him
- 22 And the goat will take all their sins into a land cut off from men, and he will send the goat away into the waste land.
- 23 Then let Aaron come into the Tent of meeting and take off the linen clothing which he put on when he went into the holy place, and put them down there;
- 24 And after bathing his body in water in a holy place, he is to put on his clothing and come out and give his burned offering and the burned offering of the people, to take away his sin and the sin of the people.

- 25 And the fat of the sin-offering is to be burned by him on the altar.
- 26 And the man who takes away the goat for Azazel is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and then he may come back to the tent-circle.
- 27 And the ox of the sin-offering and the goat of the sin-offering, whose blood was taken in to make the holy place free from sin, are to be taken away outside the tent-circle and their skins and their flesh and their waste are to be burned with fire.
- 28 And the man by whom they are burned is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water, and then he may come back to the tent-circle.
- 29 And let this be an order to you for ever: in the seventh month, on the tenth day, you are to keep yourselves from pleasure and do no sort of work, those who are Israelites by birth and those from other lands who are living among you:
- 30 For on this day your sin will be taken away and you will be clean: you will be made free from all your sins before the Lord.
- 31 It is a special Sabbath for you, and you are to keep yourselves from pleasure; it is an order for ever.
- 32 And the man on whose head the holy oil has been put, and who has been marked out to be a priest in his father's place, will do what is necessary to take away sin, and will put on the linen clothing, even the holy robes:
- 33 And he will make the holy place and the Tent of meeting and the altar free from sin; he will take away sin from the priests and from all the people.
- 34 And let this be an order for ever for you, so that the sin of the children of Israel may be taken away once every year. And he did as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel: This is the order which the Lord has given.
- 3 If any man of Israel puts to death an ox or a lamb or a goat, in or outside the tent-circle;
- 4 And has not taken it to the door of the Tent of meeting, to make an offering to the Lord, before the Lord's House, its blood will be on him, for he has taken life, and he will be cut off from among his people:
- 5 So that the children of Israel may take to the Lord, to the door of the Tent of meeting and to the priest, the offerings which they have put to death in the open country, and that they may make their peace-offerings to the Lord.
- 6 And the priest will put blood on the altar of the Lord at the door of the Tent of meeting, burning the fat for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 7 And let them make no more offerings to evil spirits, after which they have gone, turning away from the Lord. Let this be a law to them for ever, through all their generations.
- 8 And say to them, If any man of Israel, or any other living among them, makes a burned offering or other offering,
- 9 And does not take it to the door of the Tent of meeting to make an offering to the Lord, that man will be cut off from among his people.
- 10 And if any man of Israel, or any other living among them, takes any sort of blood for food, my wrath will be turned against that man and he will be cut off from among his people.
- 11 For the life of the flesh is in its blood; and I have given it to you on the altar to take away your sin: for it is the blood which makes free from sin because of the life in it.
- 12 For this reason I have said to the children of Israel, No man among you, or any others living with you, may take blood as food.
- 13 And any man of Israel, or any other living among them, who gets with his bow any beast or bird used for food, is to see that its blood is covered with earth.
- 14 For the blood is the life of all flesh: and so I have said to the children of Israel, You may not take any sort of blood as food, and any man who does so will be cut of.
- 15 And anyone who takes as food anything which has come to a natural end, or anything which has been put to death by beasts, if he is one of you by birth, or of another nation, will have to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean
- 16 But if his clothing is not washed and his body bathed, his sin will be on him.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, I am the Lord your God.

- 3 You may not do those things which were done in the land of Egypt where you were living; and you may not do those things which are done in the land of Canaan where I am taking you, or be guided in your behaviour by their rules.
- 4 But you are to be guided by my decisions and keep my rules, and be guided by them: I am the Lord your God.
- 5 So keep my rules and my decisions, which, if a man does them, will be life to him: I am the Lord.
- 6 You may not have sex connection with anyone who is a near relation: I am the Lord.
- 7 You may not have sex relations with your father or your mother: she is your mother, you may not take her.
- 8 And you may not have sex relations with your father's wife: she is your father's.
- 9 You may not take your sister, the daughter of your father or of your mother, wherever her birth took place, among you or in another country.
- 10 You may not have sex relations with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, for they are part of yourself;
- 11 Or your father's wife's daughter, the child of your father, for she is your sister.
- 12 You may not have sex connection with your father's sister, for she is your father's near relation.
- 13 You may not have sex connection with your mother's sister, for she is your mother's near relation.
- 14 You may not have sex relations with the wife of your father's brother, for she is of your family;
- 15 Or with your daughter-in-law, for she is your son's wife, and you may not take her.
- 16 You may not have sex relations with your brother's wife, for she is your brother's.
- 17 You may not take as wife a woman and her daughter, or her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, for they are of one family: it is an act of shame.
- 18 And you may not take as wife a woman and at the same time her sister, to be in competition with her in her life-time.
- 19 And you may not go near a woman or have sex relations with her when she is unclean, at her regular time.
- 20 And you may not have sex relations with your neighbour's wife, making yourself unclean with her.
- 21 And you may not make any of your children go through the fire as an offering to Molech, and you may not put shame on the name of your God: I am the Lord.
- 22 You may not have sex relations with men, as you do with women: it is a disgusting thing.
- 23 And you may not have sex relations with a beast, making yourself unclean with it; and a woman may not give herself to a beast: it is an unnatural act.
- 24 Do not make yourself unclean in any of these ways; for so have those nations whom I am driving out from before you made themselves unclean:
- 25 And the land itself has become unclean; so that I have sent on it the reward of its wrongdoing, and the land itself puts out those who are living in it.
- 26 So then keep my rules and my decisions, and do not do any of these disgusting things, those of you who are Israelites by birth, or any others who are living with you:
- 27 (For all these disgusting things were done by the men of this country who were there before you, and the land has been made unclean by them;)
- 28 So that the land may not put you out from it, when you make it unclean, as it put out the nations which were there before you.
- 29 For all those who do any of these disgusting things will be cut off from among their people.
- 30 So then, keep my orders, so that you may not do any of these disgusting things which were done before you, or make yourselves unclean through them: I am the Lord your God.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to all the people of Israel, You are to be holy, for I, the Lord your God, am holy.
- 3 Let every man give honour to his mother and to his father and keep my Sabbaths: I am the Lord your God.
- 4 Do not go after false gods, and do not make metal images of gods for yourselves: I am the Lord your God.
- 5 And when you give a peace offering to the Lord, do it in the way which is pleasing to the Lord.
- 6 Let it be used for food on the same day on which it is offered, or on the day after; and whatever is over on the third day is to be burned with fire.
- 7 If any of it is used for food on the third day, it is a disgusting thing and will not be pleasing to the Lord.

- 8 And as for anyone who takes it for food, his sin will be on him, for he has put shame on the holy thing of the Lord: he will be cut off from his people.
- 9 And when you get in the grain from your land, do not let all the grain be cut from the edges of the field, or take up what has been dropped on the earth after the getting in of the grain.
- 10 And do not take all the grapes from your vine-garden, or the fruit dropped on the earth; let the poor man, and the man from another country, have these: I am the Lord your God.
- 11 Do not take anyone's property or be false in act or word to another.
- 12 And do not take an oath in my name falsely, putting shame on the name of your God: I am the Lord.
- 13 Do not be cruel to your neighbour or take what is his; do not keep back a servant's payment from him all night till the morning.
- 14 Do not put a curse on those who have no hearing, or put a cause of falling in the way of the blind, but keep the fear of your God before you: I am the Lord.
- 15 Do no wrong in your judging: do not give thought to the position of the poor, or honour to the position of the great; but be a judge to your neighbour in righteousness.
- 16 Do not go about saying untrue things among your people, or take away the life of your neighbour by false witness: I am the Lord.
- 17 Let there be no hate in your heart for your brother; but you may make a protest to your neighbour, so that he may be stopped from doing evil.
- 18 Do not make attempts to get equal with one who has done you wrong, or keep hard feelings against the children of your people, but have love for your neighbour as for yourself: I am the Lord.
- 19 Keep my laws. Do not let your cattle have offspring by those of a different sort; do not put mixed seed into your field; do not put on a robe made of two sorts of cloth.
- 20 If any man has sex relations with a servant-woman who has given her word to be married to a man, and has not been made free for a price or in any other way, the thing will be looked into; but they will not be put to death because she was not a free woman.
- 21 Let him take his offering for wrongdoing to the Lord, to the door of the Tent of meeting; let him give a male sheep as an offering for wrongdoing.
- 22 And the priest will take away his sin before the Lord with the sheep which is offered for his wrongdoing, and he will have forgiveness for the sin which he has done.
- 23 And when you have come into the land, and have put in all sorts of fruit-trees, their fruit will be as if they had not had circumcision, and for three years their fruit may not be used for food.
- 24 And in the fourth year all the fruit will be holy as a praise-offering to the Lord.
- 25 But in the fifth year you may take the fruit and the increase of it for your food: I am the Lord your God.
- 26 Nothing may be used for food with its blood in it; you may not make use of strange arts, or go in search of signs and wonders.
- 27 The ends of the hair round your face and on your chin may not be cut off.
- 28 You may not make cuts in your flesh in respect for the dead, or have marks printed on your bodies: I am the Lord.
- 29 Do not make your daughter common by letting her become a loose woman, for fear that the land may become full of shame.
- 30 Keep my Sabbaths and have respect for my holy place: I am the Lord.
- 31 Do not go after those who make use of spirits, or wonder-workers; do not go in their ways or become unclean through them: I am the Lord your God.
- 32 Get up from your seats before the white-haired, and give honour to the old, and let the fear of your God be before you: I am the Lord.
- 33 And if a man from another country is living in your land with you, do not make life hard for him;
- 34 Let him be to you as one of your countrymen and have love for him as for yourself; for you were living in a strange land, in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.
- 35 Do not make false decisions in questions of yard-sticks and weights and measures.
- 36 Have true scales, true weights and measures for all things: I am the Lord your God, who took you out of the land of Egypt;

- 37 You are to keep all my rules and my decisions and do them: I am the Lord.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Again, say to the children of Israel, If any man of the children of Israel, or any other man living in Israel, gives his offspring to Molech, he is certainly to be put to death: he is to be stoned by the people of the land;
- 3 And my face will be turned against that man, and he will be cut off from his people; because he has given his offspring to Molech, making my holy place unclean, and making my holy name common.
- 4 And if the people of the land do not take note of that man when he gives his offspring to Molech, and do not put him to death,
- 5 Then my face will be turned against him and his family, and he and all those who do evil with him will be cut off from among their people.
- 6 And whoever goes after those who make use of spirits and wonder-workers, doing evil with them, against him will my face be turned, and he will be cut off from among his people.
- 7 So make and keep yourselves holy, for I am the Lord your God.
- 8 And keep my rules and do them: I am the Lord, who make you holy.
- 9 Every man cursing his father or his mother is certainly to be put to death; because of his curse on his father or his mother, his blood will be on him.
- 10 And if a man has sex relations with another man's wife, even the wife of his neighbour, he and she are certainly to be put to death.
- 11 And the man who has sex relations with his father's wife has put shame on his father: the two of them are to be put to death; their blood will be on them.
- 12 And if a man has sex relations with his son's wife, the two of them are to be put to death: it is unnatural; their blood will be on them.
- 13 And if a man has sex relations with a man, the two of them have done a disgusting thing: let them be put to death; their blood will be on them.
- 14 And if a man takes as wife a woman and her mother, it is an act of shame; let them be burned with fire, all three of them, so that there may be no shame among you.
- 15 And if a man has sex relations with a beast, let him be put to death, and let the beast be put to destruction.
- 16 And if a woman goes near a beast and has sex relations with it, you will put an end to the woman and the beast: their blood will be on them.
- 17 And if a man takes his sister, daughter of his father or his mother, and has sex relations with her and she with him, it is an act of shame: they are to be cut off before the children of their people; he has had sex relations with his sister, and his sin
- 18 And if a man has sex relations with a woman at the time when she is unwell, he has seen her fountain and she has let the fountain of her blood be uncovered, and the two of them are to be cut off from among their people.
- 19 And you may not have sex connection with your mother's sister or your father's sister, for they are his near relations: their sin will be on them.
- 20 And if a man has sex relations with the wife of his father's brother, he has put shame on his father's brother: their sin will be on them; till the day of their death they will have no children.
- 21 And if a man takes his brother's wife, it is an unclean act; he has put shame on his brother; they will have no children.
- 22 So then, keep my rules and my decisions and do them, so that the land which I am giving you as your resting-place may not violently send you out again.
- 23 And do not keep the rules of the nations which I am driving out before you; for they did all these things, and for that reason my soul was turned against them.
- 24 But I have said to you, You will take their land and I will give it to you for your heritage, a land flowing with milk and honey: I am the Lord your God who have made you separate from all other peoples.
- 25 So then, make division between the clean beast and the unclean, and between the clean bird and the unclean: do not make yourselves disgusting by any beast or bird or anything which goes flat on the earth, which has been marked by me as unclean for you.
- 26 And you are to be holy to me; for I the Lord am holy and have made you separate from the nations, so that you may be my people.

- 27 Any man or woman who makes use of spirits, or who is a wonder-worker, is to be put to death: they are to be stoned with stones: their blood will be on them.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, Say to the priests, the sons of Aaron, Let no man make himself unclean for the dead among his people;
- 2 But only for his near relations, for his mother or his father, his son or his daughter, and his brother;
- 3 And for his sister, a virgin, for she is his near relation and has had no husband, he may make himself unclean.
- 4 But let him, being a chief among his people, not make himself unclean in such a way as to put shame on himself.
- 5 They are not to have their hair cut off for the dead, or the hair on their chins cut short, or make cuts in their flesh.
- 6 Let them be holy to their God and not make the name of their God common; for the fire offerings of the Lord and the bread of their God are offered by them, and they are to be holy.
- 7 They may not take as wife a loose or common woman, or one who has been put away by her husband: for the priest is holy to his God.
- 8 And he is to be holy in your eyes, for by him the bread of your God is offered; he is to be holy in your eyes, for I the Lord, who make you holy, am holy.
- 9 And if the daughter of a priest makes herself common and by her loose behaviour puts shame on her father, let her be burned with fire.
- 10 And he who is the chief priest among his brothers, on whose head the holy oil has been put, who is marked out to put on the holy robes, may not let his hair go loose or have his clothing out of order as a sign of sorrow.
- 11 He may not go near any dead body or make himself unclean for his father or his mother;
- 12 He may not go out of the holy place or make the holy place of his God common; for the crown of the holy oil of his God is on him: I am the Lord.
- 13 And let him take as his wife one who has not had relations with a man.
- 14 A widow, or one whose husband has put her away, or a common woman of loose behaviour, may not be the wife of a priest; but let him take a virgin from among his people.
- 15 And he may not make his seed unclean among his people, for I the Lord have made him holy.
- 16 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 17 Say to Aaron, If a man of your family, in any generation, is damaged in body, let him not come near to make the offering of the bread of his God.
- 18 For any man whose body is damaged may not come near: one who is blind, or has not the use of his legs, or one who has a broken nose or any unnatural growth,
- 19 Or a man with broken feet or hands,
- 20 Or one whose back is bent, or one who is unnaturally small, or one who has a damaged eye, or whose skin is diseased, or whose sex parts are damaged;
- 21 No man of the offspring of Aaron whose body is damaged in any way may come near to give the fire offerings of the Lord: he is damaged, he may not come near to make the offerings.
- 22 He may take of the bread of God, the holy and the most holy;
- 23 But he may not go inside the veil or come near the altar, because he is damaged; and he may not make my holy places common; for I the Lord have made them holy.
- 24 These are the words which Moses said to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Give orders to Aaron and to his sons to keep themselves separate from the holy things of the children of Israel which they give to me, and not to make my holy name common: I am the Lord,
- 3 Say to them, If any man of all your seed through all your generations, being unclean, comes near the holy things which the children of Israel make holy to the Lord, he will be cut off from before me: I am the Lord.
- 4 No man of the seed of Aaron who is a leper, or who has a flow from his body, may take of the holy food till he is clean. And any man touching anything which is unclean because of the dead, or any man whose seed goes from him;
- 5 Or anyone touching any unclean thing which goes flat on the earth, or someone by whom he may be made unclean in any way whatever;
- 6 Any person touching any such unclean thing will be unclean till evening, and may not take of the holy food till his flesh has been bathed in water;

- 7 And when the sun has gone down he will be clean; and after that he may take part in the holy food, because it is his bread.
- 8 That which comes to a natural death, or is attacked by beasts, he may not take as food, for it will make him unclean: I am the Lord.
- 9 So then, let them keep what I have put into their care, for fear that sin may come on them because of it, so causing their death because they have made it common: I am the Lord, who make them holy.
- 10 No outside person may take of the holy food, or one living as a guest in the priest's house, or a servant working for payment.
- 11 But any person for whom the priest has given money, to make him his, may take of it with him; and those who come to birth in his house may take of his bread.
- 12 And if the daughter of a priest is married to an outside person she may not take of the holy things which are lifted up as offerings.
- 13 But if a priest's daughter is a widow, or parted from her husband, and has no child, and has come back to her father's house as when she was a girl, she may take of her father's bread; but no outside person may do so.
- 14 And if a man takes the holy food in error, he will have to give the holy thing back to the priest, with the addition of a fifth part.
- 15 And they may not make common the holy things which the children of Israel give to the Lord,
- 16 So causing sin to come on them when they take their holy things for food: I am the Lord who make them holy.
- 17 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 18 Say to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel, If any man of the children of Israel, or of another nation living in Israel, makes an offering, given because of an oath or freely given to the Lord for a burned offering;
- 19 So that it may be pleasing to the Lord, let him give a male, without any mark, from among the oxen or the sheep or the goats.
- 20 But anything which has a mark you may not give; it will not make you pleasing to the Lord.
- 21 And whoever makes a peace-offering to the Lord, in payment of an oath or as a free offering, from the herd or the flock, if it is to be pleasing to the Lord, let it be free from any mark or damage.
- 22 Anything blind or broken or damaged or having any disease or any mark on it may not be offered to the Lord; you may not make an offering of it by fire on the altar to the Lord.
- 23 An ox or a lamb which has more or less than its natural parts, may be given as a free offering; but it will not be taken in payment of an oath.
- 24 An animal which has its sex parts damaged or crushed or broken or cut, may not be offered to the Lord; such a thing may not be done anywhere in your land.
- 25 And from one who is not an Israelite you may not take any of these for an offering to the Lord; for they are unclean, there is a mark on them, and the Lord will not be pleased with them.
- 26 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 27 When an ox or a sheep or a goat is given birth, let it be with its mother for seven days; and after the eighth day it may be taken as an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 28 A cow or a sheep may not be put to death with its young on the same day.
- 29 And when you make an offering of praise to the Lord, make it in a way which is pleasing to him.
- 30 Let it be used for food on the same day; do not keep any part of it till the morning: I am the Lord.
- 31 So then, keep my orders and do them: I am the Lord.
- 32 And do not make my holy name common; so that it may be kept holy by the children of Israel: I am the Lord who make you holy,
- 33 Who took you out of the land of Egypt that I might be your God: I am the Lord.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, These are the fixed feasts of the Lord, which you will keep for holy meetings: these are my feasts.
- 3 On six days work may be done; but the seventh day is a special day of rest, a time for worship; you may do no sort of work: it is a Sabbath to the Lord wherever you may be living.
- 4 These are the fixed feasts of the Lord, the holy days of worship which you will keep at their regular times.

- 5 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at nightfall, is the Lord's Passover;
- 6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread; for seven days let your food be unleavened bread.
- 7 On the first day you will have a holy meeting; you may do no sort of field-work.
- 8 And every day for seven days you will give a burned offering to the Lord; and on the seventh day there will be a holy meeting; you may do no field-work.
- 9 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 10 Say to the children of Israel, When you have come to the land which I will give you, and have got in the grain from its fields, take some of the first-fruits of the grain to the priest;
- 11 And let the grain be waved before the Lord, so that you may be pleasing to him; on the day after the Sabbath let it be waved by the priest.
- 12 And on the day of the waving of the grain, you are to give a male lamb of the first year, without any mark, for a burned offering to the Lord.
- 13 And let the meal offering with it be two tenth parts of an ephah of the best meal mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to the Lord for a sweet smell; and the drink offering with it is to be of wine, the fourth part of a hin.
- 14 And you may take no bread or dry grain or new grain for food till the very day on which you have given the offering for your God: this is a rule for ever through all your generations wherever you are living.
- 15 And let seven full weeks be numbered from the day after the Sabbath, the day when you give the grain for the wave offering;
- 16 Let fifty days be numbered, to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you are to give a new meal offering to the Lord.
- 17 Take from your houses two cakes of bread, made of a fifth part of an ephah of the best meal, cooked with leaven, to be waved for first-fruits to the Lord.
- 18 And with the bread, take seven lambs of the first year, without any marks, and one ox and two male sheep, to be a burned offering to the Lord, with their meal offering and their drink offerings, an offering of a sweet smell made by fire to the Lord.
- 19 And you are to give one male goat for a sin-offering and two male lambs of the first year for peace-offerings.
- 20 And these will be waved by the priest, with the bread of the first-fruits, for a wave offering to the Lord, with the two lambs: they will be holy to the Lord for the priest.
- 21 And on the same day, let it be given out that there will be a holy meeting for you: you may do no field-work on that day: it is a rule for ever through all your generations wherever you are living.
- 22 And when you get in the grain from your land, do not let all the grain at the edges of the field be cut, and do not take up the grain which has been dropped in the field; let that be for the poor, and for the man from another country: I am the Lord your G
- 23 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 24 Say to the children of Israel, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, let there be a special day of rest for you, a day of memory, marked by the blowing of horns, a meeting for worship.
- 25 Do no field-work and give to the Lord an offering made by fire.
- 26 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 27 The tenth day of this seventh month is the day for the taking away of sin; let it be a holy day of worship; you are to keep from pleasure, and give to the Lord an offering made by fire.
- 28 And on that day you may do no sort of work, for it is a day of taking away sin, to make you clean before the Lord your God.
- 29 For any person, whoever he may be, who takes his pleasure on that day will be cut off from his people.
- 30 And if any person, whoever he may be, on that day does any sort of work, I will send destruction on him from among his people.
- 31 You may not do any sort of work: this is an order for ever through all your generations wherever you may be living.
- 32 Let this be a Sabbath of special rest to you, and keep yourselves from all pleasure; on the ninth day of the month at nightfall from evening to evening, let this Sabbath be kept.
- 33 And the Lord said to Moses,

- 34 Say to the children of Israel, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month let the feast of tents be kept to the Lord for seven days.
- 35 On the first day there will be a holy meeting: do no field-work.
- 36 Every day for seven days give an offering made by fire to the Lord; and on the eighth day there is to be a holy meeting, when you are to give an offering made by fire to the Lord; this is a special holy day: you may do no field-work on that day.
- 37 These are the fixed feasts of the Lord, to be kept by you as holy days of worship, for making an offering by fire to the Lord; a burned offering, a meal offering, an offering of beasts, and drink offerings; every one on its special day;
- 38 In addition to the Sabbaths of the Lord, and in addition to the things you give and the oaths you make and the free offerings to the Lord.
- 39 But on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have got in all the fruits of the land, you will keep the feast of the Lord for seven days: the first day will be a Sabbath, and the eighth day the same.
- 40 On the first day, take the fruit of fair trees, branches of palm-trees, and branches of thick trees and trees from the riverside, and be glad before the Lord for seven days.
- 41 And let this feast be kept before the Lord for seven days in the year: it is a rule for ever from generation to generation; in the seventh month let it be kept.
- 42 For seven days you will be living in tents; all those who are Israelites by birth are to make tents their living-places:
- 43 So that future generations may keep in mind how I gave the children of Israel tents as their living-places when I took them out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.
- 44 And Moses made clear to the children of Israel the orders about the fixed feasts of the Lord.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Give orders to the children of Israel to give you clean olive oil for the light, so that a light may be burning at all times,
- 3 Outside the veil of the ark in the Tent of meeting; let Aaron see that it is burning from evening till morning at all times before the Lord: it is a rule for ever through all your generations.
- 4 Let Aaron put the lights in order on the support before the Lord at all times.
- 5 And take the best meal and make twelve cakes of it, a fifth part of an ephah in every cake.
- 6 And put them in two lines, six in a line, on the holy table before the Lord.
- 7 And on the lines of cakes put clean sweet-smelling spices, for a sign on the bread, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 8 Every Sabbath day regularly, the priest is to put it in order before the Lord: it is offered for the children of Israel, an agreement made for ever.
- 9 And it will be for Aaron and his sons; they are to take it for food in a holy place: it is the most holy of all the offerings made by fire to the Lord, a rule for ever.
- 10 And a son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel and had a fight with a man of Israel by the tents;
- 11 And the son of the Israelite woman said evil against the holy Name, with curses; and they took him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.
- 12 And they kept him shut up, till a decision might be given by the mouth of the Lord.
- 13 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 14 Take the curser outside the tent-circle; and let all in whose hearing the words were said put their hands on his head, and let him be stoned by all the people.
- 15 And say to the children of Israel, As for any man cursing God, his sin will be on his head.
- 16 And he who says evil against the name of the Lord will certainly be put to death; he will be stoned by all the people; the man who is not of your nation and one who is an Israelite by birth, whoever says evil against the holy Name is to be put to death.
- 17 And anyone who takes another's life is certainly to be put to death.
- 18 And anyone wounding a beast and causing its death, will have to make payment for it: a life for a life.
- 19 And if a man does damage to his neighbour, as he has done, so let it be done to him;
- 20 Wound for wound, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; whatever damage he has done, so let it be done to him.
- 21 He who puts a beast to death will have to make payment for it; he who puts a man to death will himself be put to death.

- 22 You are to have the same law for a man of another nation living among you as for an Israelite; for I am the Lord your God.
- 23 And Moses said these words to the children of Israel, and they took the man who had been cursing outside the tent-circle and had him stoned. The children of Israel did as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses on Mount Sinai,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, When you come into the land which I will give you, let the land keep a Sabbath to the Lord.
- 3 For six years put seed into your land, and for six years give care to your vines and get in the produce of them;
- 4 But let the seventh year be a Sabbath of rest for the land, a Sabbath to the Lord; do not put seed into your land or have your vines cut.
- 5 That which comes to growth of itself may not be cut, and the grapes of your uncared-for vines may not be taken off; let it be a year of rest for the land.
- 6 And the Sabbath of the land will give food for you and your man-servant and your woman-servant and those working for payment, and for those of another country who are living among you;
- 7 And for your cattle and the beasts on the land; all the natural increase of the land will be for food.
- 8 And let seven Sabbaths of years be numbered to you, seven times seven years; even the days of seven Sabbaths of years, that is forty-nine years;
- 9 Then let the loud horn be sounded far and wide on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of taking away sin let the horn be sounded through all your land.
- 10 And let this fiftieth year be kept holy, and say publicly that everyone in the land is free from debt: it is the Jubilee, and every man may go back to his heritage and to his family.
- 11 Let this fiftieth year be the Jubilee: no seed may be planted, and that which comes to growth of itself may not be cut, and the grapes may not be taken from the uncared-for vines.
- 12 For it is the Jubilee, and it is holy to you; your food will be the natural increase of the field.
- 13 In this year of Jubilee, let every man go back to his heritage.
- 14 And in the business of trading goods for money, do no wrong to one another.
- 15 Let your exchange of goods with your neighbours have relation to the number of years after the year of Jubilee, and the number of times the earth has given her produce.
- 16 If the number of years is great, the price will be increased, and if the number of years is small, the price will be less, for it is the produce of a certain number of years which the man is giving you.
- 17 And do no wrong, one to another, but let the fear of your God be before you; for I am the Lord your God.
- 18 So keep my rules and my decisions and do them, and you will be safe in your land.
- 19 And the land will give her fruit, and you will have food in full measure and be safe in the land.
- 20 And if you say, Where will our food come from in the seventh year, when we may not put in seed, or get in the increase
- 21 Then I will send my blessing on you in the sixth year, and the land will give fruit enough for three years.
- 22 And in the eighth year you will put in your seed, and get your food from the old stores, till the fruit of the ninth year is ready.
- 23 No exchange of land may be for ever, for the land is mine, and you are as my guests, living with me for a time.
- 24 Wherever there is property in land, the owner is to have the right of getting it back.
- 25 If your brother becomes poor, and has to give up some of his land for money, his nearest relation may come and get back that which his brother has given up.
- 26 And if he has no one to get it back for him, and later he himself gets wealth and has enough money to get it back;
- 27 Then let him take into account the years from the time when he gave it up, and make up the loss for the rest of the years to him who took it, and so get back his property.
- 28 But if he is not able to get it back for himself, then it will be kept by him who gave a price for it, till the year of Jubilee; and in that year it will go back to its first owner and he will have his property again.
- 29 And if a man gives his house in a walled town for money, he has the right to get it back for the space of a full year after he has given it up.
- 30 And if he does not get it back by the end of the year, then the house in the town will become the property of him who gave the money for it, and of his children for ever; it will not go from him in the year of Jubilee.

- 31 But houses in small unwallied towns will be the same as property in the country; they may be got back, and they will go back to their owners in the year of Jubilee.
- 32 But the houses in the towns of the Levites may be got back by the Levites at any time.
- 33 And if a Levite does not give money to get back his property, his house in the town which was exchanged for money will come back to him in the year of Jubilee. For the houses of the towns of the Levites are their property among the children of Israel.
- 34 But the land on the outskirts of their towns may not be exchanged for money, for it is their property for ever.
- 35 And if your brother becomes poor and is not able to make a living, then you are to keep him with you, helping him as you would a man from another country who is living among you.
- 36 Take no interest from him, in money or in goods, but have the fear of your God before you, and let your brother make a living among you.
- 37 Do not take interest on the money which you let him have or on the food which you give him.
- 38 I am the Lord your God, who took you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan, that I might be your God.
- 39 And if your brother becomes poor and gives himself to you for money, do not make use of him like a servant who is your property;
- 40 But let him be with you as a servant working for payment, till the year of Jubilee;
- 41 Then he will go out from you, he and his children with him, and go back to his family and to the property of his fathers.
- 42 For they are my servants whom I took out from the land of Egypt; they may not become the property of another.
- 43 Do not be a hard master to him, but have the fear of God before you.
- 44 But you may get servants as property from among the nations round about; from them you may take men-servants and women-servants.
- 45 And in addition, you may get, for money, servants from among the children of other nations who are living with you, and from their families which have come to birth in your land; and these will be your property.
- 46 And they will be your children's heritage after you, to keep as their property; they will be your servants for ever; but you may not be hard masters to your countrymen, the children of Israel.
- 47 And if one from another nation living among you gets wealth, and your countryman, at his side, becomes poor and gives himself for money to the man from another nation or to one of his family;
- 48 After he has given himself he has the right to be made free, for a price, by one of his brothers,
- 49 Or his father's brother, or the son of his father's brother, or any near relation; or if he gets money, he may make himself free.
- 50 And let the years be numbered from the time when he gave himself to his owner till the year of Jubilee, and the price given for him will be in relation to the number of years, on the scale of the payment of a servant.
- 51 If there is still a long time, he will give back, on account of it, a part of the price which was given for him.
- 52 And if there is only a short time, he will take account of it with his master, and in relation to the number of years he will give back the price of making him free.
- 53 And he will be with him as a servant working for payment year by year; his master is not to be cruel to him before your eyes.
- 54 And if he is not made free in this way, he will go out in the year of Jubilee, he and his children with him.
- 55 For the children of Israel are servants to me; they are my servants whom I took out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.
- 1 Do not make images of false gods, or put up an image cut in stone or a pillar or any pictured stone in your land, to give worship to it; for I am the Lord your God.
- 2 Keep my Sabbaths and give honour to my holy place: I am the Lord.
- 3 If you are guided by my rules, and keep my laws and do them,
- 4 Then I will give you rain at the right time, and the land will give her increase and the trees of the field will give their fruit;
- 5 And the crushing of the grain will overtake the cutting of the grapes, and the cutting of the grapes will overtake the planting of the seed, and there will be bread in full measure, and you will be living in your land safely.
- 6 And I will give you peace in the land, and you will take your rest and no one will give you cause for fear; and I will put an end to all evil beasts in the land, and no sword of war will go through your land.

- 7 And you will put to flight those who are against you, and they will be put to death by your swords.
- 8 Then five of you will put to flight a hundred, and a hundred of you will put to flight ten thousand, and all who are against you will be put to death by your swords.
- 9 And I will have pleasure in you and make you fertile and greater in number; and I will keep my agreement with you.
- 10 And old stores long kept will be your food, and you will take out the old because of the new;
- 11 And I will put my holy House among you, and my soul will not be turned away from you in disgust.
- 12 And I will be present among you and will be your God and you will be my people.
- 13 I am the Lord your God, who took you out of the land of Egypt so that you might not be servants to them; by me the cords of your yoke were broken and I made you go upright.
- 14 But if you do not give ear to me, and do not keep all these my laws;
- 15 And if you go against my rules and if you have hate in your souls for my decisions and you do not do all my orders, but go against my agreement;
- 16 This will I do to you: I will put fear in your hearts, even wasting disease and burning pain, drying up the eyes and making the soul feeble, and you will get no profit from your seed, for your haters will take it for food.
- 17 And my face will be turned from you, and you will be broken before those who are against you, and your haters will become your rulers, and you will go in flight when no man comes after you.
- 18 And if, even after these things, you will not give ear to me, then I will send you punishment seven times more for your sins.
- 19 And the pride of your strength will be broken, and I will make your heaven as iron and your earth as brass;
- 20 And your strength will be used up without profit; for your land will not give her increase and the trees of the field will not give their fruit.
- 21 And if you still go against me and will not give ear to me, I will put seven times more punishments on you because of your sins.
- 22 I will let loose the beasts of the field among you, and they will take away your children and send destruction on your cattle, so that your numbers will become small and your roads become waste.
- 23 And if by these things you will not be turned to me, but still go against me;
- 24 Then I will go against you, and I will give you punishment, I myself, seven times for all your sins.
- 25 And I will send a sword on you to give effect to the punishment of my agreement; and when you come together into your towns I will send disease among you and you will be given up into the hands of your haters.
- 26 When I take away your bread of life, ten women will be cooking bread in one oven, and your bread will be measured out by weight; you will have food but never enough.
- 27 And if, after all this, you do not give ear to me, but go against me still,
- 28 Then my wrath will be burning against you, and I will give you punishment, I myself, seven times for your sins.
- 29 Then you will take the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters for food;
- 30 And I will send destruction on your high places, overturning your perfume altars, and will put your dead bodies on your broken images, and my soul will be turned from you in disgust.
- 31 And I will make your towns waste and send destruction on your holy places; I will take no pleasure in the smell of your sweet perfumes;
- 32 And I will make your land a waste, a wonder to your haters living in it.
- 33 And I will send you out in all directions among the nations, and my sword will be uncovered against you, and your land will be without any living thing, and your towns will be made waste.
- 34 Then will the land take pleasure in its Sabbaths while it is waste and you are living in the land of your haters; then will the land have rest.
- 35 All the days while it is waste will the land have rest, such rest as it never had in your Sabbaths, when you were living in it.
- 36 And as for the rest of you, I will make their hearts feeble in the land of their haters, and the sound of a leaf moved by the wind will send them in flight, and they will go in flight as from the sword, falling down when no one comes after them;
- 37 Falling on one another, as before the sword, when no one comes after them; you will give way before your haters.
- 38 And death will overtake you among strange nations, and the land of your haters will be your destruction.

- 39 And those of you who are still living will be wasting away in their sins in the land of your haters; in the sins of their fathers they will be wasting away.
- 40 And they will have grief for their sins and for the sins of their fathers, when their hearts were untrue to me, and they went against me;
- 41 So that I went against them and sent them away into the land of their haters: if then the pride of their hearts is broken and they take the punishment of their sins,
- 42 Then I will keep in mind the agreement which I made with Jacob and with Isaac and with Abraham, and I will keep in mind the land.
- 43 And the land, while she is without them, will keep her Sabbaths; and they will undergo the punishment of their sins, because they were turned away from my decisions and in their souls was hate for my laws.
- 44 But for all that, when they are in the land of their haters I will not let them go, or be turned away from them, or give them up completely; my agreement with them will not be broken, for I am the Lord their God.
- 45 And because of them I will keep in mind the agreement which I made with their fathers, whom I took out of the land of Egypt before the eyes of the nations, to be their God: I am the Lord.
- 46 These are the rules, decisions, and laws, which the Lord made between himself and the children of Israel in Mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, If a man makes a special oath, you will give your decision as to the value of the persons for the Lord.
- 3 And you will put the value of a male from twenty years to sixty years old at fifty shekels of silver, by the scale of the holy place.
- 4 And if it is a female, the value will be thirty shekels.
- 5 And if the person is from five to twenty years old, the value will be twenty shekels for a male, and ten for a female.
- 6 And if the person is from one month to five years old, then the value for a male will be five shekels of silver, and for a female three shekels.
- 7 And for sixty years old and over, for a male the value will be fifteen shekels, and for a female, ten.
- 8 But if he is poorer than the value which you have put on him, then let him be taken to the priest, and the priest will put a value on him, such as it is possible for him to give.
- 9 And if it is a beast of which men make offerings to the Lord, whatever any man gives of such to the Lord will be holy.
- 10 It may not be changed in any way, a good given for a bad, or a bad for a good; if one beast is changed for another, the two will be holy.
- 11 And if it is any unclean beast, of which offerings are not made to the Lord, then let him take the beast before the priest;
- 12 And let the priest put a value on it, if it is good or bad; whatever value the priest puts on it, so will it be.
- 13 But if he has a desire to get it back for himself, let him give a fifth more than your value.
- 14 And if a man has given his house as holy to the Lord, then the priest will put a value on it, if it is good or bad; as the priest gives decision so will the value be fixed.
- 15 And if the owner has a desire to get back his house, let him give a fifth more than your value, and it will be his.
- 16 And if a man gives to the Lord part of the field which is his property, then let your value be in relation to the seed which is planted in it; a measure of barley grain will be valued at fifty shekels of silver.
- 17 If he gives his field from the year of Jubilee, the value will be fixed by your decision.
- 18 But if he gives his field after the year of Jubilee, the amount of the money will be worked out by the priest in relation to the number of years till the coming year of Jubilee, and the necessary amount will be taken off your value.
- 19 And if the man who has given the field has a desire to get it back, let him give a fifth more than the price at which it was valued and it will be his.
- 20 But if he has no desire to get it back, or if he has given it for a price to another man, it may not be got back again.
- 21 But the field, when it becomes free at the year of Jubilee, will be holy to the Lord, as a field given under oath: it will be the property of the priest.
- 22 And if a man gives to the Lord a field which he has got for money from another, which is not part of his heritage;
- 23 Then the value fixed by you up to the year of Jubilee will be worked out for him by the priest, and in that day he will give the amount of your value as holy to the Lord.

- 24 In the year of Jubilee the field will go back to him from whom he got it, that is, to him whose heritage it was.
- 25 And let all your values be based on the shekel of the holy place, that is, twenty gerahs to the shekel.
- 26 But a man may not give by oath to the Lord the first-fruits of cattle which are offered to the Lord: if it is an ox or a sheep it is the Lord's.
- 27 And if it is an unclean beast, then the owner of it may give money to get it back, in agreement with the value fixed by you, by giving a fifth more; or if it is not taken back, let it be given for money in agreement with your valuing.
- 28 But nothing which a man has given completely to the Lord, out of all his property, of man or beast, or of the land which is his heritage, may be given away or got back in exchange for money; anything completely given is most holy to the Lord.
- 29 Any man given completely to the Lord may not be got back: he is certainly to be put to death.
- 30 And every tenth part of the land, of the seed planted, or of the fruit of trees, is holy to the Lord.
- 31 And if a man has a desire to get back any of the tenth part which he has given, let him give a fifth more.
- 32 And a tenth part of the herd and of the flock, whatever goes under the rod of the valuer, will be holy to the Lord.
- 33 He may not make search to see if it is good or bad, or make any changes in it; and if he makes exchange of it for another, the two will be holy; he will not get them back again.
- 34 These are the orders which the Lord gave to Moses for the children of Israel in Mount Sinai.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses in the waste land of Sinai, in the Tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they came out of the land of Egypt,
- 2 Take the full number of the children of Israel, by their families, and by their fathers' houses, every male by name;
- 3 All those of twenty years old and over, who are able to go to war in Israel, are to be numbered by you and Aaron.
- 4 And to give you help, take one man from every tribe, the head of his father's house.
- 5 These are the names of those who are to be your helpers: from Reuben, Elizur, the son of Shedeur;
- 6 From Simeon, Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai;
- 7 From Judah, Nahshon, the son of Amminadab;
- 8 From Issachar, Nethanel, the son of Zuar;
- 9 From Zebulun, Eliab, the son of Helon;
- 10 Of the children of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama, the son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur,
- 11 From Benjamin, Abidan, the son of Gideoni;
- 12 From Dan, Ahiezer, the son of Ammi-shaddai;
- 13 From Asher, Pagiel, the son of Ochran;
- 14 From Gad, Eliasaph, the son of Reuel;
- 15 From Naphtali, Ahira, the son of Enan.
- 16 These are the men named out of all the people, chiefs of their fathers' houses, heads of the tribes of Israel.
- 17 And Moses and Aaron took these men, marked out by name;
- 18 And they got together all the people on the first day of the second month; and everyone made clear his family and his father's house, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and over.
- 19 As the Lord had given orders to Moses, so they were numbered by him in the waste place of Sinai.
- 20 The generations of the sons of Reuben, the oldest son of Israel, were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over, who was able to go to war;
- 21 Forty-six thousand, five hundred of the tribe of Reuben were numbered.
- 22 The generations of the sons of Simeon were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over, who was able to go to war;
- 23 Fifty-nine thousand, three hundred of the tribe of Simeon were numbered.
- 24 The generations of the sons of Gad were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 25 Forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty of the tribe of Gad were numbered.

- 26 The generations of the sons of Judah were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 27 Seventy-four thousand, six hundred of the tribe of Judah were numbered.
- 28 The generations of the sons of Issachar were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 29 Fifty-four thousand, four hundred of the tribe of Issachar were numbered.
- 30 The generations of the sons of Zebulun were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 31 Fifty-seven thousand, four hundred of the tribe of Zebulun were numbered.
- 32 The generations of the sons of Joseph were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 33 Forty thousand, five hundred of the tribe of Ephraim were numbered.
- 34 The generations of the sons of Manasseh were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 35 Thirty-two thousand, two hundred of the tribe of Manasseh were numbered.
- 36 The generations of the sons of Benjamin were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 37 Thirty-five thousand, four hundred of the tribe of Benjamin were numbered.
- 38 The generations of the sons of Dan were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years and over who was able to go to war;
- 39 Sixty-two thousand, seven hundred of the tribe of Dan were numbered.
- 40 The generations of the sons of Asher were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 41 Forty-one thousand, five hundred of the tribe of Asher were numbered.
- 42 The generations of the sons of Naphtali were numbered by their families and their fathers' houses, every male of twenty years old and over who was able to go to war;
- 43 Fifty-three thousand, four hundred of the tribe of Naphtali were numbered.
- 44 These are they who were numbered by Moses and Aaron and by the twelve chiefs of Israel, one from every tribe.
- 45 So all those who were numbered of the children of Israel, by their families, all those of twenty years old and over who were able to go to war,
- 46 Were six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.
- 47 But the Levites, of the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them.
- 48 For the Lord said to Moses,
- 49 Only the tribe of Levi is not to be numbered among the children of Israel,
- 50 But to them you are to give the care of the Tent of meeting with its vessels and everything in it: they are to take up the Tent, and be responsible for everything to do with it, and put up their tents round it.
- 51 And when the Tent of meeting goes forward, the Levites are to take it down; and when it is to be put up, they are to do it: any strange person who comes near it is to be put to death.
- 52 The children of Israel are to put up their tents, every man in his tent-circle round his flag.
- 53 But the tents of the Levites are to be round the Tent of meeting, so that wrath may not come on the children of Israel: the Tent of meeting is to be in the care of the Levites.
- 54 So the children of Israel did as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 2 The children of Israel are to put up their tents in the order of their families, by the flags of their fathers' houses, facing the Tent of meeting on every side.
- 3 Those whose tents are on the east side, looking to the dawn, will be round the flag of the children of Judah, with Nahshon, the son of Amminadab, as their chief.
- 4 The number of his army was seventy-four thousand, six hundred.
- 5 And nearest to him will be the tribe of Issachar, with Nethanel, the son of Zuar, as their chief.

- 6 The number of his army was fifty-four thousand, four hundred.
- 7 After him, the tribe of Zebulun, with Eliab, the son of Helon, as their chief.
- 8 The number of his army was fifty-seven thousand, four hundred.
- 9 The number of all the armies of Judah was a hundred and eighty-six thousand, four hundred. They go forward first.
- 10 On the south side is the flag of the children of Reuben, in the order of their armies, with Elizur, the son of Shedeur, as their chief.
- 11 The number of his army was forty-six thousand, five hundred.
- 12 And nearest to him, the tribe of Simeon, with Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai, as their chief.
- 13 The number of his army was fifty-nine thousand, three hundred.
- 14 Then the tribe of Gad, with Eliasaph, son of Reuel, as their chief.
- 15 The number of his army was forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty.
- 16 The number of all the armies of Reuben together came to a hundred and fifty-one thousand, four hundred and fifty. They go forward second.
- 17 Then the Tent of meeting is to go forward, with the tents of the Levites, in the middle of the armies; in the same order as their tents are placed, they are to go forward, every man under his flag.
- 18 On the west side will be the flag of the children of Ephraim, with Elishama, the son of Ammihud, as their chief.
- 19 The number of his army was forty thousand, five hundred.
- 20 And by him the tribe of Manasseh with Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur, as their chief.
- 21 The number of his army was thirty-two thousand, two hundred.
- 22 Then the tribe of Benjamin, with Abidan, the son of Gideoni, as their chief.
- 23 The number of his army was thirty-five thousand, four hundred.
- 24 The number of all the armies of Ephraim was a hundred and eight thousand, one hundred. They go forward third.
- 25 On the north side will be the flag of the children of Dan, with Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai, as their chief.
- 26 The number of his army was sixty-two thousand, seven hundred.
- 27 Nearest to him will be the tribe of Asher, with Pagiel, the son of Ochran, as their chief.
- 28 The number of his army was forty-one thousand, five hundred;
- 29 Then the tribe of Naphtali, with Ahira, the son of Enan, as their chief.
- 30 The number of his army was fifty-three thousand, four hundred.
- 31 The number of all the armies in the tents of Dan was a hundred and fifty-seven thousand, six hundred. They will go forward last, by their flags.
- 32 These are all who were numbered of the children of Israel, in the order of their fathers' families: all the armies in their tents together came to six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.
- 33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, as the Lord said to Moses.
- 34 So the children of Israel did as the Lord said to Moses, so they put up their tents by their flags, and they went forward in the same order, by their families, and by their fathers' houses.
- 1 Now these are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day when the word of the Lord came to Moses on Mount Sinai.
- 2 These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the oldest, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
- 3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests, on whom the holy oil was put, who were marked out as priests.
- 4 And Nadab and Abihu were put to death before the Lord when they made an offering of strange fire before the Lord, in the waste land of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar did the work of priests before Aaron their father.
- 5 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 6 Make the tribe of Levi come near, and put them before Aaron the priest, to be his helpers,
- 7 In order that they may be responsible to him and to all Israel for the care of the Tent of meeting, and to do the work of the House;
- 8 And they will have the care of all the vessels of the Tent of meeting, and will do for the children of Israel all the necessary work of the House.

- 9 Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; so that they may be his without question from among the children of Israel.
- 10 And give orders that Aaron and his sons are to keep their place as priests; any strange person who comes near is to be put to death.
- 11 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 12 See, I have taken the Levites out of the children of Israel to be mine in place of the first sons of the children of Israel;
- 13 For all the first sons are mine; on the day when I put to death all the first sons in the land of Egypt, I took for myself every first male birth of man and beast. They are mine; I am the Lord.
- 14 And the Lord said to Moses in the waste land of Sinai,
- 15 Let all the children of Levi be numbered by their families and their fathers' houses; let every male of a month old and over be numbered.
- 16 So Moses did as the Lord said, numbering them as he had been ordered.
- 17 These were the sons of Levi by name: Gershon and Kohath and Merari.
- 18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon, by their families: Libni and Shimei.
- 19 And the sons of Kohath, by their families: Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel.
- 20 And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites in the order of their fathers' houses.
- 21 From Gershon come the Libnites and the Shimeites; these are the families of the Gershonites.
- 22 Those who were numbered of them, the males from one month old and over, were seven thousand, five hundred.
- 23 The tents of the Gershonites are to be placed at the back of the House, to the west.
- 24 The chief of the Gershonites is Eliasaph, the son of Lael.
- 25 In the Tent of meeting, the Gershonites are to have the care of the House, and the Tent with its cover, and the veil for the door of the Tent of meeting,
- 26 And the hangings for the open space round the House and the altar, and the curtain for its doorway, and all the cords needed for its use.
- 27 From Kohath come the Amramites and the Izharites and the Hebronites and the Uzzielites; these are the families of the Kohathites.
- 28 Those who were numbered of them, the males from one month old and over, were eight thousand, six hundred, who were responsible for the care of the holy place.
- 29 The tents of the Kohathites are to be placed on the south side of the House.
- 30 Their chief is Elizaphan, the son of Uzziel.
- 31 In their care are the ark, and the table, and the lights, and the altars, and all the vessels used in the holy place, and the veil, and all they are used for.
- 32 Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, will be head over all the Levites and overseer of those responsible for the care of the holy place.
- 33 From Merari come the Mahlites and the Mushites; these are the families of Merari.
- 34 Those who were numbered of them, the males of a month old and over, were six thousand, two hundred.
- 35 The chief of the families of Merari was Zuriel, the son of Abihail: their tents are to be placed on the north side of the House.
- 36 And in their care are to be all the boards of the Tent, with their rods and pillars and bases, and all the instruments, and all they are used for,
- 37 And the pillars of the open space round it, with their bases and nails and cords.
- 38 And those whose tents are to be placed on the east side of the House in front of the Tent of meeting, looking to the dawn, are Moses and Aaron and his sons, who will do the work of the holy place for the children of Israel; and any strange person who come
- 39 All the Levites numbered by Moses and Aaron at the order of the Lord, all the males of one month old and over numbered in the order of their families, were twenty-two thousand.
- 40 And the Lord said to Moses, Let all the first male children be numbered, and take the number of their names.
- 41 And give to me the Levites (I am the Lord) in place of the first sons of the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites in place of the first births among the cattle of the children of Israel.

- 42 So Moses had all the first sons among the children of Israel numbered, as the Lord said to him.
- 43 Every first son from a month old and over was numbered by name, and the number came to twenty-two thousand, two hundred and seventy-three.
- 44 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 45 Take the Levites in place of all the first sons of the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites in place of their cattle; the Levites are to be mine; I am the Lord.
- 46 And the price you have to give for the two hundred and seventy-three first sons of the children of Israel which are in addition to the number of the Levites,
- 47 Will be five shekels for every one, by the scale of the holy place (the shekel is twenty gerahs);
- 48 And this money, the price of those over the number of the Levites, is to be given to Aaron and his sons.
- 49 So Moses took the money, the price of those whose place had not been taken by the Levites;
- 50 From the first sons of Israel he took it, a thousand, three hundred and sixty-five shekels, by the scale of the holy place;
- 51 And he gave the money to Aaron and his sons, as the Lord had said.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 2 Let the sons of Kohath, from among the sons of Levi, be numbered by their families, in the order of their fathers' houses;
- 3 All those from thirty to fifty years old who are able to do the work of the Tent of meeting.
- 4 And this is to be the work of the sons of Kohath in connection with the most holy things.
- 5 When all the people go forward, Aaron is to go in with his sons, and take down the veil of the curtain, covering the ark of witness with it;
- 6 And putting over it the leather cover and over that a blue cloth; and putting its rods in place.
- 7 And on the table of the holy bread they are to put a blue cloth, and on it all the vessels, the spoons and the basins and the cups; and the holy bread with them;
- 8 And over them they are to put a red cloth, covering it with a leather cover, and putting its rods in their places.
- 9 And they are to take a blue cloth, covering with it the light-support with its lights and its instruments and its trays and all the oil vessels which are used for it:
- 10 All these they are to put in a leather cover, and put it on the frame.
- 11 On the gold altar they are to put a blue cloth, covering it with a leather cover; and they are to put its rods in their places.
- 12 All the vessels which are used in the holy place they are to put in a blue cloth, covering them with a leather cover, and put them on the frame.
- 13 And they are to take away the burned waste from the altar, and put a purple cloth on it;
- 14 Placing on the cloth all its vessels, the fire-baskets, the meat-hooks, the spades, and the basins; all the vessels of the altar; they are to put a leather cover over all these, and put its rods in their places.
- 15 And after the holy place and all its vessels have been covered up by Aaron and his sons, when the tents of the people go forward, the sons of Kohath are to come and take it up; but the holy things may not be touched by them for fear of death.
- 16 And Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, is to be responsible for the oil for the light, and the sweet perfumes for burning, and the regular meal offering, and the holy oil; the House and the holy place and everything in it will be in his care.
- 17 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 18 Do not let the family of the Kohathites be cut off from among the Levites;
- 19 But do this to them, so that life and not death may be theirs when they come near the most holy things; let Aaron and his sons go in and give to every one his work and that which he is to take up;
- 20 But they themselves are not to go in to see the holy place, even for a minute, for fear of death.
- 21 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 22 Let the sons of Gershon be numbered by families, in the order of their fathers' houses;
- 23 All those from thirty to fifty years old who are able to do the work of the Tent of meeting.
- 24 This is to be the work of the Gershonites, the things they are to do and take up.
- 25 They are to take up the curtains of the House, and the Tent of meeting with its cover and the leather cover over it, and the hangings for the door of the Tent of meeting;

- 26 And the hangings for the open space round the House and the altar, and the curtain for its doorway, with the cords and all the things used for them; whatever is necessary for these, they are to do.
- 27 From the mouth of Aaron and his sons the Gershonites will have word about all the things they are to do and take up; you are to give them their orders.
- 28 This is the work of the family of the Gershonites in the Tent of meeting, and they will be under the direction of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.
- 29 The sons of Merari are to be numbered by families, in the order of their fathers' houses;
- 30 Every one from thirty to fifty years old who is able to do the work of the Tent of meeting.
- 31 And this is their part in the work of the Tent of meeting: the transport of the boards and the rods of the Tent, with the pillars and their bases;
- 32 And the pillars of the open space outside it, with their bases and their nails and cords and all the instruments used, and everything which has to be done there; all the instruments for which they are responsible are to be numbered by name.
- 33 This is the work which the sons of Merari are to do in connection with the Tent of meeting, under the direction of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.
- 34 So Moses and Aaron and the chiefs of the people took in hand the numbering of the sons of the Kohathites, by families, in the order of their fathers' houses;
- 35 Numbering all those from thirty to fifty years old who were able to do the work in the Tent of meeting;
- 36 And the number of all these was two thousand, seven hundred and fifty.
- 37 This is the number of those of the Kohathites who did the work in the Tent of meeting, as they were numbered by Moses and Aaron at the order of the Lord.
- 38 And those of the sons of Gershon who were numbered by families,
- 39 All those from thirty to fifty years old who were able to do the work in the Tent of meeting,
- 40 Who were numbered by families in the order of their fathers' houses, were two thousand, six hundred and thirty.
- 41 This is the number of the sons of Gershon who did the work in the Tent of meeting, as they were numbered by Moses and Aaron at the order of the Lord.
- 42 And those of the sons of Merari who were numbered by families, in the order of their fathers' houses,
- 43 All those from thirty to fifty years old who did the work in the Tent of meeting,
- 44 Who were numbered by families, were three thousand, two hundred.
- 45 This is the number of the sons of Merari, numbered by Moses and Aaron at the order of the Lord.
- 46 And all the Levites who were numbered by Moses and Aaron and the chiefs of the people, by families, in the order of their fathers' houses,
- 47 Those from thirty to fifty years old who were able to do the work of the Tent of meeting and of its transport,
- 48 Came to eight thousand, five hundred and eighty.
- 49 At the order of the Lord they were numbered by Moses, every one in relation to his work and to his part in the transport; so they were numbered by Moses at the order of the Lord.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Give orders to the children of Israel to put outside the tent-circle every leper, and anyone who has any sort of flow from his body, and anyone who is unclean from the touch of the dead;
- 3 Male or female they are to be put outside the tent-circle, so that they may not make unclean my resting-place among them.
- 4 So the children of Israel did as the Lord had said to Moses, and put them outside the tent-circle.
- 5 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 6 Say to the children of Israel, If a man or a woman does any of the sins of men, going against the word of the Lord, and is in the wrong;
- 7 Let them say openly what they have done; and make payment for the wrong done, with the addition of a fifth part, and give it to him to whom the wrong was done.
- 8 But if the man has no relation to whom the payment may be made, then the payment for sin made to the Lord will be the priest's, in addition to the sheep offered to take away his sin.
- 9 And every offering lifted up of all the holy things which the children of Israel give to the priest, will be his.

- 10 And every man's holy things will be his: whatever a man gives to the priest will be his.
- 11 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 12 Say to the children of Israel, If any man's wife does wrong, sinning against him
- 13 By taking as her lover another man, and keeps it secret so that her husband has no knowledge of it, and there is no witness against her, and she is not taken in the act;
- 14 If the spirit of doubt comes into her husband's heart, and he has doubts of his wife, with good cause; or if he has doubts of her without cause:
- 15 Then let him take her to the priest, offering for her the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal, without oil or perfume; for it is a meal offering of a bitter spirit, a meal offering keeping wrongdoing in mind.
- 16 And the priest will make her come near and put her before the Lord;
- 17 And the priest will take holy water in a pot and put in it dust from the floor of the House;
- 18 And he will make the woman come before the Lord with her hair loose, and will put the meal offering, the offering of a bitter spirit, in her hands; and the priest will take in his hand the bitter water causing the curse;
- 19 And he will make her take an oath, and say to her, If no man has been your lover and you have not been with another in place of your husband, you are free from this bitter water causing the curse;
- 20 But if you have been with another in place of your husband and have made yourself unclean with a lover:
- 21 Then the priest will put the oath of the curse on the woman, and say to her, May the Lord make you a curse and an oath among your people, sending on you wasting of the legs and disease of the stomach;
- 22 And this water of the curse will go into your body, causing disease of your stomach and wasting of your legs: and the woman will say, So be it.
- 23 And the priest will put these curses in a book, washing out the writing with the bitter water;
- 24 And he will give to the woman the bitter water for drink; and the bitter water causing the curse will go into her.
- 25 And the priest will take from her hand the meal offering of doubt, waving it before the Lord, and will take it to the altar;
- 26 And he will take some of it in his hand, burning it on the altar as a sign, and then he will give the woman the bitter water.
- 27 And it will be that if the woman has become unclean, sinning against her husband, when she has taken the bitter water it will go into her body, causing disease of the stomach and wasting of the legs, and she will be a curse among her people.
- 28 But if she is clean she will be free and will have offspring.
- 29 This is the law for testing a wife who goes with another in place of her husband and becomes unclean;
- 30 Or for a husband who, in a bitter spirit, has doubts in his heart about his wife; let him take her to the priest, who will put in force this law.
- 31 Then the man will be free from all wrong, and the woman's sin will be on her.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, If a man or a woman takes an oath to keep himself separate and give himself to the Lord;
- 3 He is to keep himself from wine and strong drink, and take no mixed wine or strong drink or any drink made from grapes, or any grapes, green or dry.
- 4 All the time he is separate he may take nothing made from the grape-vine, from its seeds to its skin.
- 5 All the time he is under his oath let no blade come near his head; till the days while he is separate are ended he is holy and his hair may not be cut.
- 6 All the time he is separate he may not come near any dead body.
- 7 He may not make himself unclean for his father or his mother, his sister or his brother, if death comes to them; because he is under an oath to keep himself separate for God.
- 8 All the time he is separate he is holy to the Lord.
- 9 If death comes suddenly to a man at his side, so that he becomes unclean, let his hair be cut off on the day when he is made clean, on the seventh day.
- 10 And on the eighth day let him take to the priest, at the door of the Tent of meeting, two doves or two young pigeons;
- 11 And the priest will give one for a sin-offering and the other for a burned offering to take away the sin which came on him on account of the dead, and he will make his head holy that same day.

- 12 And he will give to the Lord his days of being separate, offering a he-lamb of the first year as an offering for error: but the earlier days will be a loss, because he became unclean.
- 13 And this is the law for him who is separate, when the necessary days are ended: he is to come to the door of the Tent of meeting,
- 14 And make his offering to the Lord; one he-lamb of the first year, without a mark, for a burned offering, and one female lamb of the first year, without a mark, for a sin-offering, and one male sheep, without a mark, for peace-offerings,
- 15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of the best meal mixed with oil, and thin unleavened cakes covered with oil, with their meal offering and drink offerings.
- 16 And the priest will take them before the Lord, and make his sin-offering and his burned offering;
- 17 Giving the sheep of the peace-offerings, with the basket of unleavened bread; and at the same time, the priest will make his meal offering and his drink offering.
- 18 Then let his long hair, the sign of his oath, be cut off at the door of the Tent of meeting, and let him put it on the fire on which the peace-offerings are burning.
- 19 And the priest will take the cooked leg of the sheep and one unleavened cake and one thin cake out of the basket, and put them on the hands of the separate one after his hair has been cut,
- 20 Waving them for a wave offering before the Lord; this is holy for the priest, together with the waved breast and the leg which is lifted up; after that, the man may take wine.
- 21 This is the law for him who takes an oath to keep himself separate, and for his offering to the Lord on that account, in addition to what he may be able to get; this is the law of his oath, which he will have to keep.
- 22 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 23 Say to Aaron and his sons, These are the words of blessing which are to be used by you in blessing the children of Israel; say to them,
- 24 May the Lord send his blessing on you and keep you:
- 25 May the light of the Lord's face be shining on you in grace:
- 26 May the Lord's approval be resting on you and may he give you peace.
- 27 So they will put my name on the children of Israel, and I will give them my blessing.
- 1 And when Moses had put up the House completely, and had put oil on it and made it holy, with all the things in it, and had made the altar and all its vessels holy with oil;
- 2 Then the chiefs of Israel, the heads of their fathers' houses, made offerings; these were the chiefs of the tribes, who were over those who were numbered.
- 3 And they came with their offerings before the Lord, six covered carts and twelve oxen; a cart for every two of the chiefs, and for every one an ox.
- 4 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 5 Take the things from them, to be used for the work of the Tent of meeting; and give them to the Levites, to every man what is needed for his work.
- 6 So Moses took the carts and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.
- 7 Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon for their work;
- 8 And four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari for their work, under the direction of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.
- 9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave nothing; because they had the care of the holy place, taking it about on their backs.
- 10 And the chiefs gave an offering for the altar on the day when the holy oil was put on it; they made their offering before the altar.
- 11 And the Lord said to Moses, Let every chief on his day give his offering to make the altar holy.
- 12 And he who made his offering on the first day was Nahshon, the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah:
- 13 And his offering was one silver plate, a hundred and thirty shekels in weight, one silver basin of seventy shekels, by the scale of the holy place; the two of them full of the best meal mixed with oil for a meal offering;
- 14 One gold spoon of ten shekels, full of spice for burning;
- 15 One young ox, one male sheep, one he-lamb of the first year, for a burned offering;
- 16 One male of the goats for a sin-offering;

- 89 And when Moses went into the Tent of meeting to have talk with him, then the Voice came to his ears from over the cover which was on the ark of witness, from between the two winged ones. And he had talk with him.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to Aaron, When you put the lights in their places, the seven lights will give light in front of the support.
- 3 And Aaron did so; he put the lights in their places so that they gave light in front of the support, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 4 The support for the lights was of hammered gold work, from its base to its flowers it was of hammered work; from the design which the Lord had given to Moses, he made the support for the lights.
- 5 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 6 Take the Levites out from among the children of Israel and make them clean.
- 7 And this is how you are to make them clean: let the holy water which takes away sin be put on them, and let the hair all over their bodies be cut off with a sharp blade, and let their clothing be washed and their bodies made clean.
- 8 Then let them take a young ox and its meal offering, crushed grain mixed with oil, and take another ox for a sin-offering.
- 9 And make the Levites come forward in front of the Tent of meeting, and let all the children of Israel come together:
- 10 And you are to take the Levites before the Lord: and the children of Israel are to put their hands on them:
- 11 And Aaron is to give the Levites to the Lord as a wave offering from the children of Israel, so that they may do the Lord's work.
- 12 And the Levites are to put their hands on the heads of the oxen, and one of the oxen is to be offered for a sin-offering and the other for a burned offering to the Lord to take away the sin of the Levites.
- 13 Then the Levites are to be put before Aaron and his sons, to be offered as a wave offering to the Lord.
- 14 So you are to make the Levites separate from the children of Israel, and the Levites will be mine.
- 15 After that, the Levites will go in to do whatever has to be done in the Tent of meeting; you are to make them clean and give them as a wave offering.
- 16 For they have been given to me from among the children of Israel; in place of every mother's first son, the first to come to birth in Israel, I have taken them for myself.
- 17 For every mother's first son among the children of Israel is mine, the first male birth of man or beast: on the day when I sent death on all the first sons in the land of Egypt, I made them mine.
- 18 And in place of the first sons among the children of Israel, I have taken the Levites.
- 19 And I have given them to Aaron and to his sons, from among the children of Israel, to undertake for them all the work of the Tent of meeting, and to take away sin from the children of Israel so that no evil may come on them when they come near the holy pl
- 20 All these things Moses and Aaron and the children of Israel did to the Levites; as the Lord gave orders to Moses about the Levites, so the children of Israel did.
- 21 And the Levites were made clean from sin, and their clothing was washed, and Aaron gave them for a wave offering before the Lord; and Aaron took away their sin and made them clean.
- 22 And then the Levites went in to do their work in the Tent of meeting before Aaron and his sons: all the orders which the Lord had given Moses about the Levites were put into effect.
- 23 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 24 This is the rule for the Levites: those of twenty-five years old and over are to go in and do the work of the Tent of meeting;
- 25 But after they are fifty years old, they are to give up their work and do no more;
- 26 But be with their brothers in the Tent of meeting, taking care of it but doing no work. This is what you are to do in connection with the Levites and their work.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses, in the waste land of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt,

- 2 Let the children of Israel keep the Passover at its regular time.
- 3 In the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you are to keep it at the regular time, and in the way ordered in the law.
- 4 And Moses gave orders to the children of Israel to keep the Passover.
- 5 So they kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the waste land of Sinai: as the Lord gave orders to Moses, so the children of Israel did.
- 6 And there were certain men who were unclean because of a dead body, so that they were not able to keep the Passover on that day; and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:
- 7 And these men said to him, We have been made unclean by the dead body of a man; why may we not make the offering of the Lord at the regular time among the children of Israel?
- 8 And Moses said to them, Do nothing till the Lord gives me directions about you.
- 9 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 10 Say to the children of Israel, If any one of you or of your families is unclean because of a dead body, or is on a journey far away, still he is to keep the Passover to the Lord:
- 11 In the second month, on the fourteenth day, in the evening, they are to keep it, taking it with unleavened bread and bitter-tasting plants;
- 12 Nothing of it is to be kept till the morning, and no bone of it is to be broken: they are to keep it by the rules of the Passover.
- 13 But the man who, not being unclean or on a journey, does not keep the Passover, will be cut off from his people: because he did not make the offering of the Lord at the regular time, his sin will be on him.
- 14 And if a man from another country is among you and has a desire to keep the Passover to the Lord, let him do as is ordered in the law of the Passover: there is to be the same rule for the man from another nation and for him who had his birth in the land.
- 15 And on the day when the House was put up, the cloud came down on it, on the Tent of witness; and in the evening there was a light like fire over the House till the morning.
- 16 And so it was at all times: it was covered by the cloud, and by a light as of fire by night.
- 17 And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the House, then the children of Israel went journeying on; and in the place where the cloud came to rest, there the children of Israel put up their tents.
- 18 At the order of the Lord the children of Israel went forward, and at the order of the Lord they put up their tents: as long as the cloud was resting on the House, they did not go away from that place.
- 19 When the cloud was resting on the House for a long time the children of Israel, waiting for the order of the Lord, did not go on.
- 20 Sometimes the cloud was resting on the House for two or three days; then, by the order of the Lord, they kept their tents in that place, and when the Lord gave the order they went on.
- 21 And sometimes the cloud was there only from evening to morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning they went on their journey again: or if it was resting there by day and by night, whenever the cloud was taken up they went forward.
- 22 Or if the cloud came to rest on the House for two days or a month or a year without moving, the children of Israel went on waiting there and did not go on; but whenever it was taken up they went forward on their journey.
- 23 At the word of the Lord they put up their tents, and at the word of the Lord they went forward on their journey: they kept the orders of the Lord as he gave them by Moses.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Make two silver horns of hammered work, to be used for getting the people together and to give the sign for the moving of the tents.
- 3 When they are sounded, all the people are to come together to you at the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 4 If only one of them is sounded, then the chiefs, the heads of the thousands of Israel, are to come to you.
- 5 When a loud note is sounded, the tents placed on the east side are to go forward.
- 6 At the sound of a second loud note, the tents on the south side are to go forward: the loud note will be the sign to go forward.
- 7 But when all the people are to come together, the horn is to be sounded but not loudly.

- 8 The horns are to be sounded by the sons of Aaron, the priests; this is to be a law for you for ever, from generation to generation.
- 9 And if you go to war in your land against any who do you wrong, then let the loud note of the horn be sounded; and the Lord your God will keep you in mind and give you salvation from those who are against you.
- 10 And on days of joy and on your regular feasts and on the first day of every month, let the horns be sounded over your burned offerings and your peace-offerings; and they will put the Lord in mind of you: I am the Lord your God.
- 11 Now in the second year, on the twentieth day of the second month, the cloud was taken up from over the Tent of witness.
- 12 And the children of Israel went on their journey out of the waste land of Sinai; and the cloud came to rest in the waste land of Paran.
- 13 They went forward for the first time on their journey as the Lord had given orders by the hand of Moses.
- 14 First the flag of the children of Judah went forward with their armies: and at the head of his army was Nahshon, the son of Amminadab.
- 15 And at the head of the army of the children of Issachar was Nethanel, the son of Zuar.
- 16 And at the head of the army of the children of Zebulun was Eliab, the son of Helon.
- 17 Then the House was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who were responsible for moving the House, went forward.
- 18 Then the flag of the children of Reuben went forward with their armies: and at the head of his army was Elizur, the son of Shedeur.
- 19 And at the head of the army of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai.
- 20 At the head of the army of the children of Gad was Eliasaph, the son of Reuel.
- 21 Then the Kohathites went forward with the holy place; the others put up the House ready for their coming.
- 22 Then the flag of the children of Ephraim went forward with their armies: and at the head of his army was Elishama, the son of Ammihud.
- 23 At the head of the army of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur.
- 24 At the head of the army of the children of Benjamin was Abidan, the son of Gideoni.
- 25 And the flag of the children of Dan, whose tents were moved last of all, went forward with their armies: and at the head of his army was Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai.
- 26 At the head of the army of the children of Asher was Pagiel, the son of Ocran.
- 27 And at the head of the army of the children of Naphtali was Ahira, the son of Enan.
- 28 This was the order in which the children of Israel were journeying by armies; so they went forward.
- 29 Then Moses said to Hobab, the son of his father-in-law Reuel the Midianite, We are journeying to that place of which the Lord has said, I will give it to you: so come with us, and it will be for your profit: for the Lord has good things in store for Israe
- 30 But he said, I will not go with you, I will go back to the land of my birth and to my relations.
- 31 And he said, Do not go from us; for you will be eyes for us, guiding us to the right places in the waste land to put up our tents.
- 32 And if you come with us, we will give you a part in whatever good the Lord does for us.
- 33 So they went forward three days' journey from the mountain of the Lord; and the ark of the Lord's agreement went three days' journey before them, looking for a resting-place for them;
- 34 And by day the cloud of the Lord went over them, when they went forward from the place where they had put up their tents.
- 35 And when the ark went forward Moses said, Come up, O Lord, and let the armies of those who are against you be broken, and let your haters go in flight before you.
- 36 And when it came to rest, he said, Take rest, O Lord, and give a blessing to the families of Israel.
- 1 Now the people were saying evil against the Lord; and the Lord, hearing it, was angry and sent fire on them, burning the outer parts of the tent-circle.
- 2 And the people made an outcry to Moses, and Moses made prayer to the Lord, and the fire was stopped.
- 3 So that place was named Taberah, because of the fire of the Lord which had been burning among them.

- 4 And the mixed band of people who went with them were overcome by desire: and the children of Israel, weeping again, said, Who will give us flesh for our food?
- 5 Sweet is the memory of the fish we had in Egypt for nothing, and the fruit and green plants of every sort, sharp and pleasing to the taste:
- 6 But now our soul is wasted away; there is nothing at all: we have nothing but this manna before our eyes.
- 7 Now the manna was like a seed of grain, like small clear drops.
- 8 The people went about taking it up from the earth, crushing it between stones or hammering it to powder, and boiling it in pots, and they made cakes of it: its taste was like the taste of cakes cooked with oil.
- 9 When the dew came down on the tents at night, the manna came down with it.
- 10 And at the sound of the people weeping, every man at his tent-door, the wrath of the Lord was great, and Moses was very angry.
- 11 And Moses said to the Lord, Why have you done me this evil? and why have I not grace in your eyes, that you have put on me the care of all this people?
- 12 Am I the father of all this people? have I given them birth, that you say to me, Take them in your arms, like a child at the breast, to the land which you gave by an oath to their fathers?
- 13 Where am I to get flesh to give to all this people? For they are weeping to me and saying, Give us flesh for our food.
- 14 I am not able by myself to take the weight of all this people, for it is more than my strength.
- 15 If this is to be my fate, put me to death now in answer to my prayer, if I have grace in your eyes; and let me not see my shame.
- 16 And the Lord said to Moses, Send for seventy of the responsible men of Israel, who are in your opinion men of weight and authority over the people; make them come to the Tent of meeting and be there with you.
- 17 And I will come down and have talk with you there: and I will take some of the spirit which is on you and put it on them, and they will take part of the weight of the people off you, so that you do not have to take it by yourself.
- 18 And say to the people, Make yourselves clean before tomorrow and you will have flesh for your food: for in the ears of the Lord you have been weeping and saying, Who will give us flesh for food? for we were well off in Egypt: and so the Lord will give you
- 19 Not for one day only, or even for five or ten or twenty days;
- 20 But every day for a month, till you are tired of it, turning from it in disgust: because you have gone against the Lord who is with you, and have been weeping before him saying, Why did we come out of Egypt?
- 21 Then Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand men on foot; and you have said, I will give them flesh to be their food for a month.
- 22 Are flocks and herds to be put to death for them? or are all the fish in the sea to be got together so that they may be full?
- 23 And the Lord said to Moses, Has the Lord's hand become short? Now you will see if my word comes true for you or not.
- 24 And Moses went out and gave the people the words of the Lord: and he took seventy of the responsible men of the people, placing them round the Tent.
- 25 Then the Lord came down in the cloud and had talk with him, and put on the seventy men some of the spirit which was on him: now when the spirit came to rest on them, they were like prophets, but only at that time.
- 26 But two men were still in the tent-circle one of them named Eldad and the other Medad: and the spirit came to rest on them; they were among those who had been sent for, but they had not gone out to the Tent: and the prophet's power came on them in the tent
- 27 And a young man went running to Moses and said, Eldad and Medad are acting as prophets in the tent-circle.
- 28 Then Joshua, the son of Nun, who had been Moses' servant from the time when he was a child, said, My lord Moses, let them be stopped.
- 29 And Moses said to him, Are you moved by envy on my account? If only all the Lord's people were prophets, and the Lord might put his spirit on them!
- 30 Then Moses, with the responsible men of Israel, went back to the tent-circle.
- 31 Then the Lord sent a wind, driving little birds from the sea, so that they came down on the tents, and all round the tent-circle, about a day's journey on this side and on that, in masses about two cubits high over the face of the earth.
- 32 And all that day and all night and the day after, the people were taking up the birds; the smallest amount which anyone got was ten homers: and they put them out all round the tents.

- 33 But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was tasted, the wrath of the Lord was moved against the people and he sent a great outburst of disease on them.
- 34 So that place was named Kibroth-hattaavah; because there they put in the earth the bodies of the people who had given way to their desires.
- 35 From Kibroth-hattaavah the people went on to Hazeroth; and there they put up their tents.
- 1 Now Miriam and Aaron said evil against Moses, because of the Cushite woman to whom he was married, for he had taken a Cushite woman as his wife.
- 2 And they said, Have the words of the Lord been given to Moses only? have they not come to us? And the Lord took note of it.
- 3 Now the man Moses was more gentle than any other man on earth.
- 4 And suddenly the Lord said to Moses and Aaron and Miriam, Come out, you three, to the Tent of meeting. And the three of them went out.
- 5 And the Lord came down in a pillar of cloud, taking his place at the door of the Tent, and made Aaron and Miriam come before him.
- 6 And he said, Now give ear to my words: if there is a prophet among you I will give him knowledge of myself in a vision and will let my words come to him in a dream.
- 7 My servant Moses is not so; he is true to me in all my house:
- 8 With him I will have talk mouth to mouth, openly and not in dark sayings; and with his eyes he will see the form of the Lord: why then had you no fear of saying evil against my servant Moses?
- 9 And burning with wrath against them, the Lord went away.
- 10 And the cloud was moved from over the Tent; and straight away Miriam became a leper, as white as snow: and Aaron, looking at Miriam, saw that she was a leper.
- 11 Then Aaron said to Moses, O my lord, let not our sin be on our heads, for we have done foolishly and are sinners.
- 12 Let her not be as one dead, whose flesh is half wasted when he comes out from the body of his mother.
- 13 And Moses, crying to the Lord, said, Let my prayer come before you, O God, and make her well.
- 14 And the Lord said to Moses, If her father had put a mark of shame on her, would she not be shamed for seven days? Let her be shut up outside the tent-circle for seven days, and after that she may come in again.
- 15 So Miriam was shut up outside the tent-circle for seven days: and the people did not go forward on their journey till Miriam had come in again.
- 16 After that, the people went on from Hazeroth and put up their tents in the waste land of Paran.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Send men to get knowledge about the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel; from every tribe of their fathers you are to send a man, every one a chief among them.
- 3 And Moses sent them from the waste land of Paran as the Lord gave orders, all of them men who were heads of the children of Israel.
- 4 And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua, the son of Zaccur.
- 5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat, the son of Hori.
- 6 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb, the son of Jephunneh.
- 7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal, the son of Joseph.
- 8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea, the son of Nun.
- 9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti, the son of Raphu.
- 10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel, the son of Sodi.
- 11 Of the tribe of Joseph, that is of the family of Manasseh, Gaddi, the son of Susi.
- 12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel, the son of Gemalli.
- 13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur, the son of Michael
- 14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi, the son of Vophsi.
- 15 Of the tribe of Gad, Gevel, the son of Machi.
- 16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to get knowledge about the land. And Moses gave to Hoshea, the son of Nun, the name of Joshua.

- 17 So Moses sent them to have a look at the land of Canaan, and said to them, Go up into the South and into the hill-country;
- 18 And see what the land is like; and if the people living in it are strong or feeble, small or great in number;
- 19 And what sort of land they are living in, if it is good or bad; and what their living-places are, tent-circles or walled towns;
- 20 And if the land is fertile or poor, and if there is wood in it or not. And be of good heart, and come back with some of the produce of the land. Now it was the time when the first grapes were ready.
- 21 So they went up and got a view of the land, from the waste land of Zin to Rehob, on the way to Hamath.
- 22 They went up into the South and came to Hebron; and Ahiman and Sheshai and Talmi, the children of Anak, were living there. (Now the building of Hebron took place seven years before that of Zoan in Egypt.)
- 23 And they came to the valley of Eshcol, and cutting down a vine-branch with its grapes, two of them took it on a rod between them; and they took some pomegranates and figs.
- 24 That place was named the valley of Eshcol because of the grapes which the children of Israel took from there.
- 25 At the end of forty days they came back from viewing the land.
- 26 And they came back to Moses and Aaron and all the children of Israel, to Kadesh in the waste land of Paran; and gave an account to them and to all the people and let them see the produce of the land.
- 27 And they said, We came to the land where you sent us, and truly it is flowing with milk and honey: and here is some of the produce of it.
- 28 But the people living in the land are strong, and the towns are walled and very great; further, we saw the children of Anak there.
- 29 And the Amalekites are in the South; and the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites are living in the hill-country; and the Canaanites by the sea and by the side of Jordan.
- 30 Then Caleb made signs to the people to keep quiet, and said to Moses, Let us go up straight away and take this land; for we are well able to overcome it.
- 31 But the men who had gone up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we.
- 32 And they gave the children of Israel a bad account of the land they had been to see, saying, This land through which we went is a land causing destruction to those living in it; and all the people we saw there are men of more than common size.
- 33 There we saw those great men, the sons of Anak, offspring of the Nephilim: and we seemed to ourselves no more than insects, and so we seemed to them.
- 1 Then all the people gave loud cries of grief, and all that night they gave themselves up to weeping.
- 2 And all the children of Israel, crying out against Moses and Aaron, said, If only we had come to our death in the land of Egypt, or even in this waste land!
- 3 Why is the Lord taking us into this land to come to our death by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will get into strange hands: would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?
- 4 And they said to one another, Let us make a captain over us, and go back to Egypt.
- 5 Then Moses and Aaron went down on their faces before the meeting of the people.
- 6 And Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, two of those who had been to see the land, giving signs of grief,
- 7 Said to all the children of Israel, This land which we went through to see is a very good land.
- 8 And if the Lord has delight in us, he will take us into this land and give it to us, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 9 Only, do not go against the Lord or go in fear of the people of the land, for they will be our food; their strength has been taken from them and the Lord is with us: have no fear of them.
- 10 But all the people said they were to be stoned. Then the glory of the Lord was seen in the Tent of meeting, before the eyes of all the children of Israel.
- 11 And the Lord said to Moses, How long will this people have no respect for me? how long will they be without faith, in the face of all the signs I have done among them?
- 12 I will send disease on them for their destruction, and take away their heritage, and I will make of you a nation greater and stronger than they.

- 13 And Moses said to the Lord, Then it will come to the ears of the Egyptians; for by your power you took this people out from among them;
- 14 And they will give the news to the people of this land: they have had word that you, Lord, are present with this people, letting yourself be seen face to face, and that your cloud is resting over them, and that you go before them in a pillar of cloud by d
- 15 Now if you put to death all this people as one man, then the nations who have had word of your glory will say,
- 16 Because the Lord was not able to take this people into the land which he made an oath to give them, he sent destruction on them in the waste land.
- 17 So now, may my prayer come before you, and let the power of the Lord be great, as you said:
- 18 The Lord is slow to wrath and great in mercy, overlooking wrongdoing and evil, and will not let wrongdoers go free; sending punishment on children for the sins of their fathers, to the third and fourth generation.
- 19 May the sin of this people have forgiveness, in the measure of your great mercy, as you have had mercy on them from Egypt up till now.
- 20 And the Lord said, I have had mercy, as you say:
- 21 But truly, as I am living, and as all the earth will be full of the glory of the Lord;
- 22 Because all these men, having seen my glory and the signs which I have done in Egypt and in the waste land, still have put me to the test ten times, and have not given ear to my voice;
- 23 They will not see the land about which I made an oath to their fathers; not one of these by whom I have not been honoured will see it.
- 24 But my servant Caleb, because he had a different spirit in him, and has been true to me with all his heart, him I will take into that land into which he went, and his seed will have it for their heritage.
- 25 Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites are in the valley; tomorrow, turning round, go into the waste land by the way to the Red Sea.
- 26 Then the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 27 How long am I to put up with this evil people and their outcries against me? The words which they say against me have come to my ears.
- 28 Say to them, By my life, says the Lord, as certainly as your words have come to my ears, so certainly will I do this to you:
- 29 Your dead bodies will be stretched out in this waste land; and of all your number, all those of twenty years old and over who have been crying out against me,
- 30 Not one will come into the land which I gave my word you would have for your resting-place, but only Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua, the son of Nun.
- 31 And your little ones, whom you said would come into strange hands, I will take in, and they will see the land which you would not have.
- 32 But as for you, your dead bodies will be stretched in this waste land.
- 33 And your children will be wanderers in the waste land for forty years, undergoing punishment for your false ways, till your bodies become dust in the waste land.
- 34 And as you went through the land viewing it for forty days, so for forty years, a year for every day, you will undergo punishment for your wrongdoing, and you will see that I am against you.
- 35 I the Lord have said it, and this I will certainly do to all this evil people who have come together against me: in this waste land destruction will come on them, and death will be their fate.
- 36 And the men whom Moses sent to see the land, and who, by the bad account they gave of the land, were the cause of the outcry the people made against Moses,
- 37 Those same men who said evil of the land, came to their death by disease before the Lord.
- 38 But Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, of those who went to see the land, were not touched by disease.
- 39 And when Moses put these words before the children of Israel, the people were full of grief.
- 40 And early in the morning they got up and went to the top of the mountain, saying, We are here and we will go up to the place which the Lord said he would give us: for we have done wrong.
- 41 And Moses said, Why are you now acting against the Lord's order, seeing that no good will come of it?

- 42 Go not up, for the Lord is not with you, and you will be overcome by those who are fighting against you.
- 43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you will be put to death by their swords: because you have gone back from the way of the Lord, the Lord will not be with you.
- 44 But they gave no attention to his words and went to the top of the mountain, though Moses and the ark of the Lord's agreement did not go out of the tent-circle.
- 45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites who were living in the hill-country, and overcame them completely, driving them back as far as Hormah.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, When you have come into the land which I am giving to you for your resting-place,
- 3 And are going to make an offering by fire to the Lord, a burned offering or an offering in connection with an oath, or an offering freely given, or at your regular feasts, an offering for a sweet smell to the Lord, from the herd or the flock:
- 4 Then let him who is making his offering, give to the Lord a meal offering of a tenth part of a measure of the best meal mixed with a fourth part of a hin of oil:
- 5 And for the drink offering, you are to give with the burned offering or other offering, the fourth part of a hin of wine for every lamb.
- 6 Or for a male sheep, give as a meal offering two tenth parts of a measure of the best meal mixed with a third part of a hin of oil:
- 7 And for the drink offering give a third part of a hin of wine, for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 8 And when you make ready a young ox for a burned or other offering, or for the effecting of an oath, or for peace-offerings to the Lord:
- 9 Then with the ox give a meal offering of three tenth parts of a measure of the best meal mixed with half a hin of oil.
- 10 And for the drink offering: give half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 11 This is to be done for every young ox and for every male sheep or he-lamb or young goat.
- 12 Whatever number you make ready, so you are to do for every one.
- 13 All those who are Israelites by birth are to do these things in this way, when giving an offering made by fire of a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 14 And if a man from another country or any other person living among you, through all your generations, has the desire to give an offering made by fire of a sweet smell to the Lord, let him do as you do.
- 15 There is to be one law for you and for the man of another country living with you, one law for ever from generation to generation; as you are, so is he to be before the Lord.
- 16 The law and the rule are to be the same for you and for those from other lands living with you.
- 17 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 18 Say to the children of Israel, When you come into the land where I am guiding you,
- 19 Then, when you take for your food the produce of the land, you are to give an offering lifted up before the Lord.
- 20 Of the first of your rough meal you are to give a cake for a lifted offering, lifting it up before the Lord as the offering of the grain-floor is lifted up.
- 21 From generation to generation you are to give to the Lord a lifted offering from the first of your rough meal.
- 22 And if in error you go against any of these laws which the Lord has given to Moses,
- 23 All the laws which the Lord has given you by the hand of Moses, from the day when the Lord gave them, and ever after from generation to generation;
- 24 Then, if the wrong is done in error, without the knowledge of the meeting of the people, let all the meeting give a young ox as a burned offering, a sweet smell to the Lord, with its meal offering and its drink offering, as is ordered in the law, together
- 25 So the priest will make the people free from sin, and they will have forgiveness; for it was an error, and they have given their offering made by fire to the Lord, and their sin-offering before the Lord, on account of their error:
- 26 And all the meeting of the children of Israel, as well as those from other lands living among them, will have forgiveness; for it was an error on the part of the people.
- 27 And if one person does wrong, without being conscious of it, then let him give a she-goat of the first year for a sin-offering.

- 28 And the priest will take away the sin of the person who has done wrong, if the wrong was done unconsciously, and he will have forgiveness.
- 29 The law in connection with wrong done unconsciously is to be the same for him who is an Israelite by birth and for the man from another country who is living among them.
- 30 But the person who does wrong in the pride of his heart, if he is one of you or of another nation by birth, is acting without respect for the Lord, and will be cut off from his people.
- 31 Because he had no respect for the word of the Lord, and did not keep his law, that man will be cut off without mercy and his sin will be on him.
- 32 Now while the children of Israel were in the waste land, they saw a man who was getting sticks on the Sabbath day.
- 33 And those who saw him getting sticks took him before Moses and Aaron and all the people.
- 34 And they had him shut up, because they had no directions about what was to be done with him.
- 35 Then the Lord said to Moses, Certainly the man is to be put to death: let him be stoned by all the people outside the tent-circle.
- 36 So all the people took him outside the tent-circle and he was stoned to death there, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 37 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 38 Say to the children of Israel that through all their generations they are to put on the edges of their robes an ornament of twisted threads, and in every ornament a blue cord;
- 39 So that, looking on these ornaments, you may keep in mind the orders of the Lord and do them; and not be guided by the desires of your hearts and eyes, through which you have been untrue to me:
- 40 And that you may keep in mind all my orders and do them and be holy to your God.
- 41 I am the Lord your God, who took you out of the land of Egypt, so that I might be your God: I am the Lord your God.
- 1 Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Pallu, the son of Reuben, made themselves ready,
- 2 And came before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty chiefs of the people, men of good name who had a place in the meeting of the people.
- 3 They came together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, You take overmuch on yourselves, seeing that all the people are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them; why then have you put yourselves in authority over the people of the
- 4 And Moses, hearing this, went down on his face;
- 5 And he said to Korah and his band, In the morning the Lord will make clear who are his, and who is holy, and who may come near him: the man of his selection will be caused to come near him.
- 6 So do this: let Korah and all his band take vessels for burning perfumes;
- 7 And put spices on the fire in them before the Lord tomorrow; then the man marked out by the Lord will be holy: you take overmuch on yourselves, you sons of Levi.
- 8 And Moses said to Korah, Give ear now, you sons of Levi:
- 9 Does it seem only a small thing to you that the God of Israel has made you separate from the rest of Israel, letting you come near himself to do the work of the House of the Lord, and to take your place before the people to do what has to be done for them
- 10 Letting you, and all your brothers the sons of Levi, come near to him? and would you now be priests?
- 11 So you and all your band have come together against the Lord; and Aaron, who is he, that you are crying out against him?
- 12 Then Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: and they said, We will not come up:
- 13 Is it not enough that you have taken us from a land flowing with milk and honey, to put us to death in the waste land, but now you are desiring to make yourself a chief over us?
- 14 And more than this, you have not taken us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or given us a heritage of fields and vine-gardens: will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up.
- 15 Then Moses was very angry, and said to the Lord, Give no attention to their offering: not one of their asses have I taken, or done wrong to any of them.
- 16 And Moses said to Korah, You and all your band are to come before the Lord tomorrow, you and they and Aaron:

- 17 And let every man take a vessel for burning perfumes, and put sweet spices in them; let every man take his vessel before the Lord, two hundred and fifty vessels; you and Aaron and everyone with his vessel.
- 18 So every man took his vessel and they put fire in them, with spices, and came to the door of the Tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.
- 19 And Korah made all the people come together against them to the door of the Tent of meeting: and the glory of the Lord was seen by all the people.
- 20 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 21 Come out from among this people, so that I may send sudden destruction on them.
- 22 Then falling down on their faces they said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, because of one man's sin will your wrath be moved against all the people?
- 23 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 24 Say to the people, Come away from the tent of Korah Dathan, and Abiram.
- 25 So Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the responsible men of Israel went with him.
- 26 And he said to the people, Come away now from the tents of these evil men, without touching anything of theirs, or you may be taken in the punishment of their sins.
- 27 So on every side they went away from the tent of Korah Dathan, and Abiram: and Dathan and Abiram came out to the door of their tents, with their wives and their sons and their little ones.
- 28 And Moses said, Now you will see that the Lord has sent me to do all these works, and I have not done them of myself.
- 29 If these men have the common death of men, or if the natural fate of all men overtakes them, then the Lord has not sent me.
- 30 But if the Lord does something new, opening the earth to take them in, with everything which is theirs, and they go down living into the underworld, then it will be clear to you that the Lord has not been honoured by these men.
- 31 And while these words were on his lips, the earth under them was parted in two;
- 32 And the earth, opening her mouth, took them in, with their families, and all the men who were joined to Korah, and their goods.
- 33 So they and all theirs went down living into the underworld, and the earth was shut over them, and they were cut off from among the meeting of the people.
- 34 And all Israel round about them went in flight at their cry, For fear, said they, that we go down into the heart of the earth.
- 35 Then fire came out from the Lord, burning up the two hundred and fifty men who were offering the perfume.
- 36 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 37 Say to Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, that he is to take out of the flames the vessels with the perfumes in them, turning the fire out of them, for they are holy;
- 38 And let the vessels of those men, who with their lives have made payment for their sin, be hammered out into plates as a cover for the altar; for they have been offered before the Lord and are holy; so that they may be a sign to the children of Israel.
- 39 So Eleazar the priest took the brass vessels which had been offered by those who were burned up, and they were hammered out to make a cover for the altar:
- 40 To be a sign, kept in memory for ever by the children of Israel, that no man who is not of the seed of Aaron has the right of burning spices before the Lord, so that he may not be like Korah and his band: as the Lord said to him by the mouth of Moses.
- 41 But on the day after, all the children of Israel made an outcry against Moses and against Aaron, saying, You have put to death the Lord's people.
- 42 Now when the people had come together against Moses and Aaron, looking in the direction of the Tent of meeting, they saw the cloud covering it, and the glory of the Lord came before their eyes.
- 43 Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the Tent of meeting.
- 44 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 45 Come out from among this people, so that I may send sudden destruction on them. And they went down on their faces.

- 46 And Moses said to Aaron, Take your vessel and put in it fire from the altar, and sweet spices, and take it quickly into the meeting of the people, and make them free from sin: for wrath has gone out from the Lord, and the disease is starting.
- 47 And at the words of Moses, Aaron took his vessel, and went running among the people; and even then the disease had made a start among them; and he put spices in his vessel to take away the sin of the people.
- 48 And he took his place between the dead and the living: and the disease was stopped.
- 49 Now fourteen thousand, seven hundred deaths were caused by that disease, in addition to those who came to their end because of what Korah had done.
- 50 Then Aaron went back to Moses to the door of the Tent of meeting: and the disease came to a stop.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel that they are to give you rods, one for every family, for every chief, the head of his father's house, making twelve rods; let every man's name be placed on his rod.
- 3 And let Aaron's name be placed on the rod of Levi: for there is to be one rod for the head of every family.
- 4 And let them be stored up in the Tent of meeting, in front of the ark of witness where I come to you.
- 5 And the rod of that man who is marked out by me for myself will have buds on it; so I will put a stop to the outcries which the children of Israel make to me against you.
- 6 So Moses gave these orders to the children of Israel, and all their chiefs gave him rods, one for the head of every family, making twelve rods: and Aaron's rod was among them.
- 7 And Moses put the rods before the Lord in the Tent of witness.
- 8 Now on the day after, Moses went into the Tent of witness; and he saw that Aaron's rod, the rod of the house of Levi, had put out buds, and was covered with buds and flowers and fruit.
- 9 Then Moses took out all the rods from before the Lord, and gave them back to the children of Israel: and they saw them, and every man took his rod.
- 10 And the Lord said to Moses, Put Aaron's rod back in front of the ark of witness, to be kept for a sign against this false-hearted people, so that you may put a stop to their outcries against me, and death may not overtake them.
- 11 This Moses did: as the Lord gave orders, so he did.
- 12 And the children of Israel said to Moses, Truly, destruction has come on us; an evil fate has overtaken us all.
- 13 Death will overtake everyone who comes near, who comes near the House of the Lord: are we all to come to destruction?
- 1 And the Lord said to Aaron, You and your sons and your father's family are to be responsible for all wrongdoing in relation to the holy place: and you and your sons are to be responsible for the errors which come about in your work as priests.
- 2 Let your brothers, the family of Levi, come near with you, so that they may be joined with you and be your servants: but you and your sons with you are to go in before the ark of witness.
- 3 They are to do your orders and be responsible for the work of the Tent; but they may not come near the vessels of the holy place or the altar, so that death may not overtake them or you.
- 4 They are to be joined with you in the care of the Tent of meeting, doing whatever is needed for the Tent: and no one of any other family may come near you.
- 5 You are to be responsible for the holy place and the altar, so that wrath may never again come on the children of Israel.
- 6 Now, see, I have taken your brothers the Levites from among the children of Israel: they are given to you and to the Lord, to do the work of the Tent of meeting.
- 7 And you and your sons with you are to be responsible as priests for the altar and everything on it, and everything inside the veil; you are to do the work of priests; I have given you your position as priests; and any other man who comes near will be put
- 8 And the Lord said to Aaron, See, I have given into your care my lifted offerings; even all the holy things of the children of Israel I have given to you and to your sons as your right for ever, because you have been marked with the holy oil.
- 9 This is to be yours of the most holy things, out of the fire offerings; every offering of theirs, every meal offering and sin-offering, and every offering which they make on account of error, is to be most holy for you and your sons.
- 10 As most holy things they are to be your food: let every male have them for food; it is to be holy to you.

- 11 And this is yours: the lifted offering which they give and all the wave offerings of the children of Israel I have given to you and to your sons and to your daughters as your right for ever: everyone in your house who is clean may have them for food.
- 12 All the best of the oil and the wine and the grain, the first-fruits of them which they give to the Lord, to you have I given them.
- 13 The earliest produce from their land which they take to the Lord is to be yours; everyone in your house who is clean may have it for his food.
- 14 Everything given by oath to the Lord in Israel is to be yours.
- 15 The first birth of every living thing which is offered to the Lord, of man or beast, is to be yours; but for the first sons of man payment is to be made, and for the first young of unclean beasts.
- 16 Payment is to be made for these when they are a month old, at the value fixed by you, a price of five shekels by the scale of the holy place, that is, twenty gerahs to the shekel.
- 17 But no such payment may be made for the first birth of an ox or a sheep or a goat; these are holy: their blood is to be dropped on the altar, and their fat burned for an offering made by fire, a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 18 Their flesh is to be yours; like the breast of the wave offering and the right leg, it is to be yours.
- 19 All the lifted offerings of the holy things which the children of Israel give to the Lord, I have given to you and to your sons and to your daughters as a right for ever. This is an agreement made with salt before the Lord, to you and to your seed for ever.
- 20 And the Lord said to Aaron, You will have no heritage in their land, or any part among them; I am your part and your heritage among the children of Israel.
- 21 And to the children of Levi I have given as their heritage all the tenths offered in Israel, as payment for the work they do, the work of the Tent of meeting.
- 22 In future the children of Israel are not to come near the Tent of meeting, so that death may not come to them because of sin.
- 23 But the Levites are to do the work of the Tent of meeting, and be responsible for errors in connection with it: this is a law for ever through all your generations; and among the children of Israel they will have no heritage.
- 24 For the tenths which the children of Israel give as a lifted offering to the Lord I have given to the Levites as their heritage. and so I have said to them, Among the children of Israel they will have no heritage.
- 25 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 26 Say to the Levites, When you take from the children of Israel the tenth which I have given to you from them as your heritage, a tenth part of that tenth is to be offered as an offering lifted up before the Lord.
- 27 And this lifted offering is to be put to your credit as if it was grain from the grain-floor and wine from the vines.
- 28 So you are to make an offering lifted up to the Lord from all the tenths which you get from the children of Israel, giving out of it the Lord's lifted offering to Aaron the priest.
- 29 From everything given to you, let the best of it, the holy part of it, be offered as a lifted offering to the Lord.
- 30 Say to them, then, When the best of it is lifted up on high, it is to be put to the account of the Levites as the increase of the grain-floor and of the place where the grapes are crushed.
- 31 It is to be your food, for you and your families in every place: it is your reward for your work in the Tent of meeting.
- 32 And no sin will be yours on account of it, when the best of it has been lifted up on high; you are not to make a wrong use of the holy things of the children of Israel, so that death may not overtake you.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 2 This is the rule of the law which the Lord has made, saying, Give orders to the children of Israel to give you a red cow without any mark on her, and on which the yoke has never been put:
- 3 Give her to Eleazar the priest and let him take her outside the tent-circle and have her put to death before him.
- 4 Then let Eleazar the priest take some of her blood on his finger, shaking the blood seven times in the direction of the front of the Tent of meeting:
- 5 And the cow is to be burned before him, her skin and her flesh and her blood and her waste are to be burned:
- 6 Then let the priest take cedar-wood and hyssop and red thread, and put them into the fire where the cow is burning.
- 7 And the priest, after washing his clothing and bathing his body in water, may come back to the tent-circle, and will be unclean till evening.

- 8 And he who does the burning is to have his clothing washed and his body bathed in water and be unclean till evening.
- 9 Then let a man who is clean take the dust of the burned cow and put it outside the tent-circle in a clean place, where it is to be kept for the children of Israel and used in making the water which takes away what is unclean: it is a sin-offering.
- 10 And he who takes up the dust of the burned cow is to have his clothing washed with water and be unclean till evening: this is to be a law for ever, for the children of Israel as well as for the man from another country who is living among them.
- 11 Anyone touching a dead body will be unclean for seven days:
- 12 On the third day and on the seventh day he is to make himself clean with the water, and so he will be clean: but if he does not do this on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not be clean.
- 13 Anyone touching the body of a dead man without making himself clean in this way, makes the House of the Lord unclean; and that man will be cut off from Israel: because the water was not put on him, he will be unclean; his unclean condition is unchanged.
- 14 This is the law when death comes to a man in his tent: everyone who comes into the tent, and everyone who is in the tent, will be unclean for seven days.
- 15 And every open vessel without a cover fixed on it will be unclean.
- 16 And anyone touching one who has been put to death with the sword in the open country, or the body of one who has come to his end by a natural death, or a man's bone, or the resting-place of a dead body, will be unclean for seven days.
- 17 And for the unclean, they are to take the dust of the burning of the sin-offering, and put flowing water on it in a vessel:
- 18 And a clean person is to take hyssop and put it in the water, shaking it over the tent, and all the vessels, and the people who were there, and over him by whom the bone, or the body of one who has been put to death with the sword, or the body of one who
- 19 Let the clean person do this to the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he is to make him clean; and after washing his clothing and bathing himself in water, he will be clean in the evening.
- 20 But the man who, being unclean, does not make himself clean in this way, will be cut off from the meeting of the people, because he has made the holy place of the Lord unclean: the water has not been put on him, he is unclean.
- 21 This is to be a law for them for ever: he who puts the water on the unclean person is to have his clothing washed; and anyone touching the water will be unclean till evening.
- 22 Anything touched by the unclean person will be unclean; and any person touching it will be unclean till evening.
- 1 In the first month all the children of Israel came into the waste land of Zin, and put up their tents in Kadesh; there death came to Miriam, and they put her body to rest in the earth.
- 2 And there was no water for the people: and they came together against Moses and against Aaron.
- 3 And the people were angry with Moses and said, If only death had overtaken us when our brothers came to their death before the Lord!
- 4 Why have you taken the Lord's people into this waste, for death to come to us and to our cattle there?
- 5 Why have you made us come out of Egypt into this evil place? This is no place of seed or figs or vines or other fruits, and there is no water for drinking.
- 6 Then Moses and Aaron went away from the people to the door of the Tent of meeting; and, falling on their faces there, they saw the glory of the Lord.
- 7 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 8 Take the rod, you and Aaron, your brother, and make all the people come together, and before their eyes give orders to the rock to give out its water; and so make water come out of the rock for them, and give the people and their cattle drink.
- 9 And Moses took the rod from before the Lord as he gave him orders.
- 10 Then Moses and Aaron made the people come together in front of the rock, and he said to them, Give ear now, you people whose hearts are turned from the Lord; are we to get water for you out of the rock?
- 11 And lifting up his hand, Moses gave the rock two blows with his rod: and water came streaming out, and the people and their cattle had drink enough.
- 12 Then the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, Because you had not enough faith in me to keep my name holy before the children of Israel, you will not take this people into the land which I have given them.

- 13 These are the waters of Meribah; because the children of Israel went against the Lord, and they saw that he was holy among them.
- 14 Then Moses sent men from Kadesh to the king of Edom to say to him, Your brother Israel says, You have knowledge of all the things we have been through;
- 15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we were living in Egypt for a long time; and the Egyptians were cruel to us and to our fathers:
- 16 And the Lord gave ear to the voice of our cry, and sent an angel and took us out of Egypt: and now we are in Kadesh, a town on the edge of your land;
- 17 Let us now go through your land: we will not go into field or vine-garden, or take the water of the springs; we will go by the highway, not turning to the right or to the left, till we have gone past the limits of your land.
- 18 And Edom said, You are not to go through my land, for if you do I will come out against you with the sword.
- 19 And the children of Israel said to him, We will go up by the highway: and if we or our cattle take of your water, we will give you a price for it: only let us go through on our feet, nothing more.
- 20 But he said, You are not to go through. And Edom came out against them in his strength, with a great army.
- 21 So Edom would not let Israel go through his land; and Israel went in another direction.
- 22 And they went on from Kadesh, and came, with all their people, to Mount Hor.
- 23 And at Mount Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom, the Lord said to Moses and Aaron,
- 24 Aaron will be put to rest with his people; he will not go into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you went against my word at the waters of Meribah.
- 25 So take Aaron and Eleazar, his son, up into Mount Hor;
- 26 And take Aaron's robes off him and put them on Eleazar, his son: and death will come to Aaron there, and he will be put to rest with his people.
- 27 So Moses did as the Lord had said, and before the eyes of all the people they went up Mount Hor.
- 28 And Moses took off Aaron's robes, and put them on Eleazar, his son; and there on the top of the mountain death came to Aaron: then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.
- 29 And when the people saw that Aaron was dead, all the children of Israel gave themselves up to weeping for him for thirty days.
- 1 And it came to the ears of the Canaanite, the king of Arad, living in the South, that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, and he came out against them and took some of them prisoners.
- 2 Then Israel made an oath to the Lord, and said, If you will give up this people into my hands, then I will send complete destruction on all their towns.
- 3 And the Lord, in answer to the voice of Israel, gave the Canaanites up to them; and they put them and their towns completely to destruction: and that place was named Hormah.
- 4 Then they went on from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, going round the land of Edom: and the spirit of the people was overcome with weariness on the way.
- 5 And crying out against God and against Moses, they said, Why have you taken us out of Egypt to come to our death in the waste land? For there is no bread and no water, and this poor bread is disgusting to us.
- 6 Then the Lord sent poison-snakes among the people; and their bites were a cause of death to numbers of the people of Israel.
- 7 Then the people came to Moses and said, We have done wrong in crying out against the Lord and against you: make prayer to the Lord to take away the snakes from us. So Moses made prayer for the people.
- 8 And the Lord said to Moses, Make an image of a snake and put it on a rod, and anyone who has been wounded by the snakes, looking on it will be made well.
- 9 So Moses made a snake of brass and put it on a rod; and anyone who had a snakebite, after looking on the snake of brass, was made well.
- 10 Then the children of Israel went on and put up their tents in Oboth.
- 11 And journeying on again from Oboth, they put up their tents in Iye-abarim, in the waste land before Moab looking east.
- 12 And moving on from there, they put up their tents in the valley of Zered.
- 13 From there they went on and put up their tents on the other side of the Arnon, which is on the waste land at the edge of the land of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the line of division between Moab and the Amorites:

- 14 As it says in the book of the Wars of the Lord, Vaheb in Suphah, and the valley of the Amon;
- 15 The slope of the valleys going down to the tents of Ar and touching the edge of Moab.
- 16 From there they went on to Beer, the water-spring of which the Lord said to Moses, Make the people come together and I will give them water.
- 17 Then Israel gave voice to this song: Come up, O water-spring, let us make a song to it:
- 18 The fountain made by the chiefs, made deep by the great ones of the people, with the law-givers' rod, and with their sticks. Then from the waste land they went on to Mattanah:
- 19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth:
- 20 And from Bamoth to the valley in the open country of Moab, and to the top of Pisgah looking over Jeshimon.
- 21 And Israel sent men to Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying,
- 22 Let me go through your land: we will not go into field or vine-garden, or take the water of the springs; we will go by the highway till we have gone past the limits of your land.
- 23 And Sihon would not let Israel go through his land; but got all his people together and went out against Israel into the waste land, as far as Jahaz, to make war on Israel.
- 24 But Israel overcame him, and took all his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the country of the children of Ammon, for the country of the children of Ammon was strongly armed.
- 25 And Israel took all their towns, living in Heshbon and all the towns and small places of the Amorites.
- 26 For Heshbon was the town of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had made war against an earlier king of Moab and taken from him all his land as far as the Arnon.
- 27 So the makers of wise sayings say, Come to Heshbon, building up the town of Sihon and making it strong:
- 28 For a fire has gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the town of Sihon: for the destruction of Ar in Moab, and the lords of the high places of the Arnon.
- 29 Sorrow is yours, O Moab! Destruction is your fate, O people of Chemosh: his sons have gone in flight, and his daughters are prisoners, in the hands of Sihon, king of the Amorites.
- 30 They are wounded with our arrows; destruction has come on Heshbon, even to Dibon; and we have made the land waste as far as Nophah, stretching out to Medeba.
- 31 So Israel put up their tents in the land of the Amorites.
- 32 And Moses sent men secretly to Jazer, and they took its towns, driving out the Amorites who were living there.
- 33 Then turning they went up by the way of Bashan; and Og, king of Bashan, went out against them with all his people, to the fight at Edrei.
- 34 And the Lord said to Moses, Have no fear of him: for I have given him up into your hands, with all his people and his land; do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, at Heshbon.
- 35 So they overcame him and his sons and his people, driving them all out: and they took his land for their heritage.
- 1 Then the children of Israel, journeying on, put up their tents in the lowlands of Moab, on the other side of Jordan at Jericho.
- 2 Now Balak, the son of Zippor, saw what Israel had done to the Amorites.
- 3 And in Moab there was great fear of the people, because their numbers were so great: and the feeling of Moab was bitter against the children of Israel.
- 4 Then Moab said to the responsible men of Midian, It is clear that this great people will be the destruction of everything round us, making a meal of us as the ox does of the grass of the field. At that time Balak, the son of Zippor, was king of Moab.
- 5 So he sent men to Balaam, son of Beor, at Pethor by the River in the land of the children of his people, saying to him, See, a people has come out of Egypt, covering all the face of the earth, and they have put up their tents opposite to me:
- 6 Come now, in answer to my prayer, and put a curse on this people, for they are greater than I: and then I may be strong enough to overcome them and send them out of the land: for it is clear that good comes to him who has your blessing, but he on whom you
- 7 So the responsible men of Moab and Midian went away, taking in their hands rewards for the prophet; and they came to Balaam and said to him what Balak had given them orders to say.
- 8 And he said to them, Take your rest here tonight, and I will give you an answer after hearing what the Lord says; so the chiefs of Moab kept there with Balaam that night.

- 9 And God came to Balaam and said, Who are these men with you?
- 10 And Balaam said to God, Balak, the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent them to me, saying,
- 11 See, the people who have come out of Egypt are covering all the earth: now, put a curse on this people for me, so that I may be able to make war on them, driving them out of the land.
- 12 And God said to Balaam, You are not to go with them, or put a curse on this people, for they have my blessing.
- 13 In the morning Balaam got up and said to the chiefs of Balak, Go back to your land, for the Lord will not let me go with you.
- 14 So the chiefs of Moab went back to Balak and said, Balaam will not come with us.
- 15 So Balak sent more chiefs, greater in number and of higher position than the others.
- 16 And they came to Balaam and said, Balak, son of Zippor, says, Let nothing keep you from coming to me:
- 17 For I will give you a place of very great honour, and whatever you say to me I will do; so come, in answer to my prayer, and put a curse on this people.
- 18 But Balaam, in answer; said to the servants of Balak, Even if Balak gave me his house full of silver and gold, it would not be possible for me to do anything more or less than the orders of the Lord my God.
- 19 So take your rest here this night, till I have knowledge what more the Lord has to say to me.
- 20 And that night God came to Balaam and said to him, If these men have come for you, go with them: but do only what I say to you.
- 21 So in the morning Balaam got up and, making his ass ready, went with the chiefs of Moab.
- 22 But God was moved to wrath because he went: and the angel of the Lord took up a position in the road to keep him from his purpose. Now he was seated on his ass, and his two servants were with him.
- 23 And the ass saw the angel of the Lord waiting in the road with his sword in his hand; and turning from the road, the ass went into the field; and Balaam gave the ass blows, to get her back on to the road.
- 24 Then the angel of the Lord took up his position in a narrow road through the vine-gardens, with a wall on this side and on that.
- 25 And the ass saw the angel of the Lord, and went near the wall, crushing Balaam's foot against the wall; and he gave her more blows.
- 26 Then the angel of the Lord went further, stopping in a narrow place where there was no room for turning to the right or to the left.
- 27 And the ass saw the angel of the Lord and went down on the earth under Balaam; and full of wrath, Balaam gave her hard blows with his stick.
- 28 Then the Lord gave the ass the power of talking, and opening her mouth she said to Balaam, What have I done to you that you have given me blows these three times?
- 29 And Balaam said to the ass, You have made me seem foolish: if only I had a sword in my hand I would put you to death.
- 30 And the ass said to Balaam, Am I not your ass upon which you have gone all your life till this day? and have I ever done this to you before? And he said, No.
- 31 Then the Lord made Balaam's eyes open, and he saw the angel of the Lord in the way with his sword in his hand: and he went down on his face to the earth.
- 32 And the angel of the Lord said to him, Why have you given your ass blows these three times? See, I have come out against you to keep you back, because your purpose is not pleasing to me.
- 33 And the ass saw me, turning to one side from me three times: if she had not gone to one side, I would certainly have put you to death and kept her safe.
- 34 And Balaam said to the angel of the Lord, I have done wrong, for I did not see that you were in the way against me: but now, if it is evil in your eyes, I will go back again.
- 35 And the angel of the Lord said to Balaam, Go with the men; but say only what I give you to say. Then Balaam went on with the chiefs of Balak.
- 36 Now Balak, hearing that Balaam had come, went to the chief town of Moab, on the edge of the Arnon, in the farthest part of the land, for the purpose of meeting him.
- 37 And Balak said to Balaam, Did I not send to you, requesting you with all my heart to come to me? why did you not come? am I not able to give you a place of honour?

- 38 Then Balaam said to Balak, Now I have come to you; but have I power to say anything? Only what God puts into my mouth may I say.
- 39 And Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath-huzoth.
- 40 And Balak made offerings of oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam and the chiefs who were with him.
- 41 And in the morning Balak took Balaam up to the high places of Baal, and from there he was able to see the outer limits of the people.
- 1 And Balaam said to Balak, Make me here seven altars and get ready seven oxen and seven male sheep.
- 2 And Balak did as Balaam had said; and Balak and Balaam made an offering on every altar of an ox and a male sheep.
- 3 Then Balaam said to Balak, Take your place by your burned offering, and I will go and see if the Lord comes to me: and I will give you word of whatever he says to me. And he went to an open place on a hill.
- 4 And God came to Balaam, and Balaam said to him, I have made ready seven altars, offering an ox and a male sheep on every altar.
- 5 And the Lord put words in Balaam's mouth, and said, Go back to Balak, and this is what you are to say.
- 6 So he went back to him where he was waiting by his burned offering with all the chiefs of Moab.
- 7 And in the words which the Lord had given him he said, From Aram Balak has sent for me, the king of Moab from the mountains of the East: come, put curses on Jacob for me and be angry with Israel.
- 8 How may I put curses on him who is not cursed by God? how may I be angry with him with whom the Lord is not angry?
- 9 From the top of the rocks I see him, looking down on him from the hills: it is a people made separate, not to be numbered among the nations.
- 10 Who is able to take the measure of the dust of Jacob or the number of the thousands of Israel? May my death be the death of the upright and my last end like his!
- 11 Then Balak said to Balaam, What have you done to me? I sent for you so that my haters might be cursed, and see, you have given them a blessing.
- 12 And in answer he said, Am I not ordered to say only what the Lord puts into my mouth?
- 13 And Balak said to him, Come with me now into another place from which you will not be able to see them all, but only the outskirts of them; and you will send curses on them from there.
- 14 So he took him into the country of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and there they made seven altars, offering an ox and a male sheep on every altar.
- 15 Then he said to Balak, Take your place here by your burned offering, while I go over there to the Lord.
- 16 And the Lord came to Balaam, and put words in his mouth, and said, Go back to Balak, and this is what you are to say.
- 17 So he came to him where he was waiting by his burned offering with the chiefs of Moab by his side. And Balak said to him, What has the Lord said?
- 18 And in the words which the Lord had given him he said, Up! Balak, and give ear; give attention to me, O son of Zippor:
- 19 God is not a man, to say what is false; or the son of man, that his purpose may be changed: what he has said, will he not do? and will he not give effect to the words of his mouth?
- 20 See, I have had orders to give blessing: and he has given a blessing which I have no power to take away.
- 21 He has seen no evil in Jacob or wrongdoing in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, and the glad cry of a king is among them.
- 22 It is God who has taken them out of Egypt; his horns are like those of the mountain ox.
- 23 No evil power has effect against Jacob, no secret arts against Israel; at the right time it will be said of Jacob and of Israel, See what God has done!
- 24 See, Israel comes up like a she-lion, lifting himself up like a lion: he will take no rest till he has made a meal of those he has overcome, drinking the blood of those he has put to death.
- 25 Then Balak said to Balaam, If you will not put a curse on them, at all events do not give them a blessing.
- 26 But Balaam in answer said to Balak, Did I not say to you, I may only do what the Lord says?
- 27 Then Balak said to Balaam, Come now, I will take you to another place; it may be that God will let you put a curse on them from there.
- 28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, looking down over the waste land.

- 29 And Balaam said to Balak, Make me seven altars here and get seven oxen and seven male sheep ready for me.
- 30 And Balak did as Balaam said, offering an ox and a male sheep on every altar.
- 1 Now when Balaam saw that it was the Lord's pleasure to give his blessing to Israel, he did not, as at other times, make use of secret arts, but turning his face to the waste land,
- 2 And lifting up his eyes, he saw Israel there, with their tents in the order of their tribes: and the spirit of God came on him.
- 3 And moved by the spirit, he said, These are the words of Balaam, son of Beor, the words of the man whose eyes are open:
- 4 He says, whose ears are open to the words of God, who has seen the vision of the Ruler of all, falling down, but having his eyes open:
- 5 How fair are your tents, O Jacob, your houses, O Israel!
- 6 They are stretched out like valleys, like gardens by the riverside, like flowering trees planted by the Lord, like cedar-trees by the waters.
- 7 Peoples will be in fear before his strength, his arm will be on great nations: his king will be higher than Agag, and his kingdom made great in honour.
- 8 It is God who has taken him out of Egypt; his horns are like those of the mountain ox; the nations warring against him will be his food, their bones will be broken, they will be wounded with his arrows.
- 9 He took his sleep stretched out like a lion, and like a she-lion: by whom will his rest be broken? May a blessing be on everyone who gives you blessing, and a curse on everyone by whom you are cursed.
- 10 Then Balak was full of wrath against Balaam, and angrily waving his hands he said to Balaam, I sent for you so that those who are against me might be cursed, but now, see, three times you have given them a blessing.
- 11 Go back quickly to the place you came from: it was my purpose to give you a place of honour, but now the Lord has kept you back from honour.
- 12 Then Balaam said to Balak, Did I not say to the men you sent to me,
- 13 Even if Balak gave me his house full of silver and gold, it would not be possible for me to go outside the orders of the Lord, doing good or evil at the impulse of my mind; whatever the Lord says I will say?
- 14 So now I will go back to my people: but first let me make clear to you what this people will do to your people in days to come.
- 15 Then he went on with his story and said, These are the words of Balaam, the son of Beor, the words of him whose eyes are open:
- 16 He says, whose ear is open to the words of God, who has knowledge of the Most High, who has seen the vision of the Ruler of all, falling down and having his eyes open:
- 17 I see him, but not now: looking on him, but not near: a star will come out of Jacob, and a rod of authority out of Israel, sending destruction to the farthest limits of Moab and on the head of all the sons of Sheth.
- 18 Edom will be his heritage, and he will put an end to the last of the people of Seir.
- 19 And Israel will go on in strength, and Jacob will have rule over his haters.
- 20 Then, turning his eyes to Amalek, he went on with his story and said, Amalek was the first of the nations, but his part will be destruction for ever.
- 21 And looking on the Kenites he went on with his story and said, Strong is your living-place, and your secret place is safe in the rock.
- 22 But still the Kenites will be wasted, till Asshur takes you away prisoner.
- 23 Then he went on with his story and said, But who may keep his life when God does this?
- 24 But ships will come from the direction of Kittim, troubling Asshur and troubling Eber, and like the others their fate will be destruction.
- 25 Then Balaam got up and went back to his place: and Balak went away.
- 1 Now when Israel was living in Shittim the people became false to the Lord, doing evil with the daughters of Moab:
- 2 For they sent for the people to be present at the offerings made to their gods; and the people took part in their feasts and gave honour to their gods.
- 3 So Israel had relations with the women of Moab in honour of the Baal of Peor: and the Lord was moved to wrath against Israel.

- 4 Then the Lord said to Moses, Take all the chiefs of the people, hanging them up in the sun before the Lord, so that the wrath of the Lord may be turned from Israel.
- 5 So Moses said to the judges of Israel, Let everyone put to death those of his men who have had relations with the women of Moab in honour of the Baal of Peor.
- 6 Then one of the children of Israel came to his brothers, taking with him a woman of Midian, before the eyes of Moses and all the meeting of the people, while they were weeping at the door of the Tent of meeting.
- 7 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, seeing it, got up from among the people and took a spear in his hand,
- 8 And went after the man of Israel into the tent, driving the spear through the two of them, through the man of Israel and through the stomach of the woman. So the disease was stopped among the children of Israel.
- 9 But twenty-four thousand of them had come to their death by the disease.
- 10 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 11 Through Phinehas, and because of his passion for my honour, my wrath has been turned away from the children of Israel, so that I have not sent destruction on them all in my wrath.
- 12 So say to them that I will make with him an agreement of peace:
- 13 And by this agreement, he and his sons after him have the right to be priests for ever; because, by his care for the honour of his God, he took away the sin of the children of Israel.
- 14 Now the man of Israel who was put to death with the woman of Midian was Zimri, the son of Salu, a chief of one of the families of the Simeonites.
- 15 And the woman of Midian who was put to death was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was the head of a family in Midian.
- 16 Then the Lord said to Moses,
- 17 Take up arms against the Midianites and overcome them;
- 18 For they are a danger to you with their false ways, causing sin to come on you in the question of Peor, and because of Cozbi, their sister, the daughter of the chief of Midian, who was put to death at the time of the disease which came on you because of P
- 1 Now after the disease was over, the Lord said to Moses and Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest,
- 2 Let all the children of Israel be numbered, by the names of their fathers' families, all those of twenty years old and over who are able to go to war in Israel.
- 3 So Moses and Eleazar the priest gave them the order in the lowlands of Moab by Jordan at Jericho, saying,
- 4 Let all the people of twenty years old and over be numbered, as the Lord has given orders to Moses and the children of Israel who have come out of Egypt.
- 5 Reuben, the first son of Israel: the sons of Reuben by their families: of Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites: of Pallu, the family of the Palluites:
- 6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.
- 7 These are the families of the Reubenites: their number was forty-three thousand, seven hundred and thirty.
- 8 And the sons of Pallu, Eliab
- 9 And the sons of Eliab: Nemuel and Dathan and Abiram. These are the same Dathan and Abiram who had a place in the meeting of the people, who together with Korah made an outcry against Moses and Aaron and against the Lord:
- 10 And they went down into the open mouth of the earth, together with Korah, when death overtook him and all his band; at the time when two hundred and fifty men were burned in the fire, and they became a sign.
- 11 But death did not overtake the sons of Korah.
- 12 The sons of Simeon by their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites: of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites:
- 13 Of Zerah, the family of the Zerachites: of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites.
- 14 These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand, two hundred.
- 15 The sons of Gad by their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites: of Haggi, the family of the Haggites: of Shuni, the family of the Shunites:
- 16 Of Ozni, the family of the Oznites: of Eri, the family of the Erites:
- 17 Of Arod, the family of the Arodites: of Areli, the family of the Arelites.

- 18 These are the families of the sons of Gad as they were numbered, forty thousand, five hundred.
- 19 The sons of Judah, Er and Onan: and Er and Onan had come to their death in the land of Canaan.
- 20 And the sons of Judah by their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelahites: of Perez, the family of the Perezites: of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.
- 21 And the sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.
- 22 These are the families of Judah as they were numbered, seventy-six thousand, five hundred.
- 23 The sons of Issachar by their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites: of Puvah, the family of the Punites:
- 24 Of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites: of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites.
- 25 These are the families of Issachar, as they were numbered, sixty-four thousand, three hundred.
- 26 The sons of Zebulun by their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites: of Elon, the family of the Elonites: of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.
- 27 These are the families of the Zebulunites as they were numbered, sixty thousand, five hundred.
- 28 The sons of Joseph by their families: Manasseh and Ephraim.
- 29 The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites: and Machir was the father of Gilead: of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.
- 30 These are the sons of Gilead: of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites: of Helek, the family of the Helekites:
- 31 And of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites: and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites:
- 32 And of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites: and of Hephher, the family of the Hephherites.
- 33 And Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, had no sons, but only daughters, and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
- 34 These are the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand, seven hundred.
- 35 These are the sons of Ephraim by their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites: of Becher, the family of the Becherites: of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.
- 36 And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites:
- 37 These are the families of Ephraim as they were numbered, thirty-two thousand, five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph by their families.
- 38 The sons of Benjamin by their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites: of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites: of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites:
- 39 Of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites: and of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.
- 40 And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites: of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.
- 41 These are the sons of Benjamin by their families: and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand, six hundred.
- 42 These are the sons of Dan by their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan by their families.
- 43 All the families of the Shuhamites, as they were numbered, were sixty-four thousand, four hundred.
- 44 The sons of Asher by their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites: of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites: of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.
- 45 Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites: of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites:
- 46 And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.
- 47 These are the families of the sons of Asher as they were numbered, fifty-three thousand, four hundred.
- 48 The sons of Naphtali by their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites: of Guni, the family of the Gunites:
- 49 Of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites: of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.
- 50 These are the families of Naphtali by their families: and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand, four hundred.
- 51 Those who were numbered of the children of Israel were six hundred and one thousand, seven hundred and thirty.
- 52 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 53 Let there be a division of the land among these, for their heritage, in relation to the number of names.

- 54 To those families who are more in number, give a greater heritage; to those who are less in number, a smaller part: to every one let the heritage be given in relation to the number in his family.
- 55 But let the distribution of the land be made by the decision of the Lord: by the names of the tribes of their fathers let their heritage be given them.
- 56 As it is ordered by the decision of the Lord, let distribution be made between those who are more in number and those who are less.
- 57 These were those of the Levites who were numbered by their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: of Merari, the family of the Merarites.
- 58 These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. And Kohath was the father of Amram.
- 59 Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom he had in Egypt: by Amram she had Moses and Aaron and their sister Miriam.
- 60 Aaron's sons were Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
- 61 Death overtook Nadab and Abihu when they made an offering of strange fire before the Lord.
- 62 Of these, twenty-three thousand males, from one month old and over, were numbered: they were not numbered with the rest of the children of Israel, for they had no heritage among the children of Israel.
- 63 All these were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest when the children of Israel were numbered in the lowlands of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
- 64 But among all these was not one of those numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when the children of Israel were numbered in the waste land of Sinai.
- 65 For the Lord had said of them, Death will certainly overtake them in the waste land. And of them all, only Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua, the son of Nun, were still living.
- 1 Then the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, came forward: their names are Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.
- 2 They came before Moses and Eleazar the priest and the chiefs and all the people at the door of the Tent of meeting, and said,
- 3 Death overtook our father in the waste land; he was not among those who were banded together with Korah against the Lord; but death came to him in his sin; and he had no sons.
- 4 Why is the name of our father to be taken away from among his family, because he had no son? Give us a heritage among our father's brothers.
- 5 So Moses put their cause before the Lord.
- 6 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 7 What the daughters of Zelophehad say is right: certainly you are to give them a heritage among their father's brothers: and let the property which would have been their father's go to them.
- 8 And say to the children of Israel, If a man has no son at the time of his death, let his heritage go to his daughter.
- 9 And if he has no daughter, then give his heritage to his brothers.
- 10 And if he has no brothers, then give his heritage to his father's brothers.
- 11 And if his father has no brothers, then give it to his nearest relation in the family, as his heritage: this is to be a decision made by law for the children of Israel, as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 12 And the Lord said to Moses, Go up into this mountain of Abarim so that you may see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.
- 13 And when you have seen it, you will be put to rest with your people, as your brother Aaron was:
- 14 Because in the waste land of Zin, when the people were angry, you and he went against my word and did not keep my name holy before their eyes, at the waters. (These are the waters of Meribah in Kadesh in the waste land of Zin.)
- 15 Then Moses said to the Lord,
- 16 Let the Lord, the God of the spirits of all flesh, put a man at the head of this people,
- 17 To go out and come in before them and be their guide; so that the people of the Lord may not be like sheep without a keeper.
- 18 And the Lord said to Moses, Take Joshua, the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and put your hand on him;

- 19 And take him before Eleazar the priest and all the meeting of the people, and give him his orders before their eyes.
- 20 And put your honour on him, so that all the children of Israel may be under his authority.
- 21 He will take his place before Eleazar the priest, so that he may get directions from the Lord for him, with the Urim: at his word they will go out, and at his word they will come in, he and all the children of Israel.
- 22 So Moses did as the Lord said: he took Joshua and put him before Eleazar the priest and the meeting of the people:
- 23 And he put his hands on him and gave him his orders, as the Lord had said by Moses.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Give orders to the children of Israel and say to them, Let it be your care to give me my offerings at their regular times, the food of the offerings made by fire to me for a sweet smell.
- 3 Say to them, This is the offering made by fire which you are to give to the Lord; he-lambs of the first year without any mark, two every day as a regular burned offering.
- 4 Let one be offered in the morning, and the other at evening;
- 5 And the tenth part of an ephah of the best meal for a meal offering mixed with the fourth part of a hin of clear oil.
- 6 It is a regular burned offering, as it was ordered in Mount Sinai, for a sweet smell, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 7 And for its drink offering take the fourth part of a hin for one lamb: in the holy place let the wine be drained out for a drink offering for the Lord.
- 8 Let the other lamb be offered at evening; like the meal offering of the morning and its drink offering, let it be offered as an offering made by fire for a sweet smell to the Lord.
- 9 And on the Sabbath day, two he-lambs of the first year, without any mark, and two tenth parts of the best meal for a meal offering mixed with oil, and its drink offering:
- 10 This is the burned offering for every Sabbath day, in addition to the regular burned offering, and its drink offering.
- 11 And on the first day of every month you are to give a burned offering to the Lord; two oxen, one male sheep, and seven he-lambs of the first year, without any mark;
- 12 And three tenth parts of the best meal for a meal offering mixed with oil, for every ox; and two tenth parts of the best meal for a meal offering mixed with oil, for the one sheep;
- 13 And a separate tenth part of the best meal mixed with oil for a meal offering for every lamb; for a burned offering of a sweet smell, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 14 And their drink offerings are to be half a hin of wine for an ox, and the third part of a hin for a male sheep, and the fourth part of a hin for a lamb: this is the burned offering for every month through all the months of the year.
- 15 And one he-goat for a sin-offering to the Lord; it is to be offered in addition to the regular burned offering and its drink offering.
- 16 And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is the Lord's Passover.
- 17 On the fifteenth day of this month there is to be a feast; for seven days let your food be unleavened cakes.
- 18 On the first day there is to be a holy meeting: you may do no sort of field-work:
- 19 And you are to give an offering made by fire, a burned offering to the Lord; two oxen, one male sheep, and seven he-lambs of the first year, without any mark:
- 20 And their meal offering, the best meal mixed with oil: let three tenth parts of an ephah be offered for an ox and two tenth parts for a male sheep;
- 21 And a separate tenth part for every one of the seven lambs;
- 22 And one he-goat for a sin-offering to take away your sin.
- 23 These are to be offered in addition to the morning burned offering, which is a regular burned offering at all times.
- 24 In this way, every day for seven days, give the food of the offering made by fire, a sweet smell to the Lord: it is to be offered in addition to the regular burned offering, and its drink offering.
- 25 Then on the seventh day there will be a holy meeting; you may do no field-work.
- 26 And at the time of the first-fruits, when you give an offering of new meal to the Lord at your feast of weeks, there is to be a holy meeting: you may do no field-work:
- 27 And give a burned offering for a sweet smell to the Lord; two oxen, one male sheep, and seven he-lambs of the first year;
- 28 And their meal offering, the best meal mixed with oil, three tenth parts for an ox, two tenth parts for a male sheep,
- 29 And a separate tenth part for every one of the seven lambs;

- 30 And one he-goat to take away your sin.
- 31 These are in addition to the regular burned offering and its meal offering; take care that they are without any mark, and let them be offered with their drink offerings.
- 1 In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, let there be a holy meeting; on it you may do no field-work; let the day be marked by the blowing of horns;
- 2 And give to the Lord a burned offering for a sweet smell; one ox, one male sheep, seven he-lambs of the first year, without any mark on them:
- 3 And their meal offering, the best meal mixed with oil, three tenth parts for an ox, two tenth parts for a male sheep,
- 4 And a separate tenth part for every one of the seven lambs;
- 5 And one he-goat for a sin-offering, to take away your sin:
- 6 In addition to the burned offering of the new moon, and its meal offering, and the regular burned offering and its meal offering, and their drink offerings, as they are ordered, for a sweet smell, an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 7 And on the tenth day of this seventh month there will be a holy meeting; keep yourselves from pleasure, and do no sort of work;
- 8 And give to the Lord a burned offering for a sweet smell; one ox, one male sheep, seven he-lambs of the first year: only those without any mark on them may be used:
- 9 And their meal offering, the best meal mixed with oil, three tenth parts for an ox, two tenth parts for a male sheep,
- 10 A separate tenth part for every one of the seven lambs;
- 11 One he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the offering for taking away your sin, and the regular burned offering and its meal offering, and their drink offerings.
- 12 And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month let there be a holy meeting; do no field-work, and keep a feast to the Lord for seven days;
- 13 And give a burned offering, an offering made by fire of a sweet smell to the Lord, thirteen oxen, two male sheep, fourteen he-lambs of the first year, all without any mark on them;
- 14 And their meal offering, the best meal mixed with oil, three tenth parts for every one of the thirteen oxen, two tenth parts for every male sheep,
- 15 And a separate tenth part for every one of the fourteen lambs;
- 16 And one he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the regular burned offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.
- 17 On the second day of the feast give an offering of twelve oxen, two male sheep, fourteen he-lambs of the first year, without any mark on them;
- 18 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the oxen and the sheep and the lambs, in relation to their number, as it is ordered:
- 19 And one he-goat for a sin-offering in addition to the regular burned offering, and its meal offering, and their drink offerings.
- 20 And on the third day eleven oxen, two male sheep, fourteen he-lambs of the first year, without any mark;
- 21 And their meal offering and drink offerings for the oxen, for the male sheep, and for the lambs, in relation to their number, as it is ordered:
- 22 And one he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the regular burned offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.
- 23 And on the fourth day ten oxen, two male sheep, fourteen he-lambs of the first year, without any mark:
- 24 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the oxen, for the male sheep, and for the lambs, in relation to their number, as it is ordered.
- 25 And one he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the regular burned offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.
- 26 And on the fifth day nine oxen, two male sheep, fourteen he-lambs of the first year, without any mark:
- 27 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the oxen, for the male sheep, and for the lambs, in relation to their number, as it is ordered:
- 28 And one he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the regular burned offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.

- 29 And on the sixth day eight oxen, two male sheep, fourteen he-lambs of the first year, without any mark:
- 30 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the oxen, for the male sheep, and for the lambs, in relation to their number, as it is ordered:
- 31 And one he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the regular burned offering, its meal offering, and its drink offerings.
- 32 And on the seventh day seven oxen, two male sheep, fourteen he-lambs of the first year, without any mark:
- 33 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the oxen, for the male sheep, and for the lambs, in relation to their number, as it is ordered:
- 34 And one he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the regular burned offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.
- 35 On the eighth day let there be a holy meeting: you may do no field-work;
- 36 And give a burned offering, an offering made by fire of a sweet smell to the Lord: one ox, one male sheep, seven he-lambs of the first year, without any mark:
- 37 With the meal offering and the drink offerings for the ox, the male sheep, and the lambs, in relation to their number, as it is ordered:
- 38 And one he-goat for a sin-offering; in addition to the regular burned offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.
- 39 These are the offerings which you are to give to the Lord at your regular feasts, in addition to the offerings for an oath, and the free offerings you give, for your burned offerings and your drink offerings and your peace-offerings.
- 1 \29:40\So Moses gave the children of Israel all these directions as the Lord had given him orders.
- 2 \30:1\And Moses said to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, This is the order of the Lord.
- 3 \30:2\When a man takes an oath to the Lord, or gives an undertaking having the force of an oath, let him not go back from his word, but let him do whatever he has said he will do.
- 4 \30:3\If a woman, being young and under the authority of her father, takes an oath to the Lord or gives an undertaking;
- 5 \30:4\If her father, hearing of her oath or the undertaking she has given, says nothing to her, then all her oaths and every undertaking she has given will have force.
- 6 \30:5\But if her father, hearing of it, makes her take back her word, then the oaths or the undertakings she has given will have no force; and she will have forgiveness from the Lord, because her oath was broken by her father.
- 7 \30:6\And if she is married to a husband at the time when she is under an oath or an undertaking given without thought;
- 8 \30:7\If her husband, hearing of it, says nothing to her at the time, then the oaths she made and the undertakings she gave will have force.
- 9 \30:8\But if her husband, hearing of it, makes her take it back, then the oath she made and the undertaking she gave without thought will have no force or effect, and she will have the Lord's forgiveness.
- 10 \30:9\But an oath made by a widow or one who is no longer married to her husband, and every undertaking she has given, will have force.
- 11 \30:10\If she made an oath while she was under the authority of her husband,
- 12 \30:11\And her husband, hearing of it, said nothing to her and did not put a stop to it, then all her oaths and every undertaking she gave will have force.
- 13 \30:12\But if her husband, on hearing of it, made them without force or effect, then whatever she has said about her oaths or her undertaking has no force: her husband has made them without effect, and she will have the Lord's forgiveness.
- 14 \30:13\Every oath, and every undertaking which she gives, to keep herself from pleasure, may be supported or broken by her husband.
- 15 \30:14\But if the days go on, and her husband says nothing whatever to her, then he is giving the support of his authority to her oaths and undertakings, because at the time of hearing them he said nothing to her.
- 16 \30:15\But if at some time after hearing of them, he makes them without force, then he is responsible for her wrongdoing.
- 17 \30:16\These are the laws which the Lord gave Moses in relation to a man and his wife, or a father and a young daughter who is under his authority.
- 1 Then the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Give the Midianites punishment for the wrong they did to the children of Israel: and after that you will go to rest with your people.

- 3 So Moses said to the people, Let men from among you be armed for war to put into effect against Midian the Lord's punishment on them.
- 4 From every tribe of Israel send a thousand to the war.
- 5 So from the thousands of Israel a thousand were taken from every tribe, twelve thousand men armed for war.
- 6 And Moses sent them out to war, a thousand from every tribe, and with them Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest, taking in his hands the vessels of the holy place and the horns for sounding the note of war.
- 7 And they made war on Midian, as the Lord gave orders to Moses; and they put to death every male.
- 8 They put the kings of Midian to death with the rest, Evi and Reken and Zur and Hur and Reba, the five kings of Midian: and Balaam, the son of Beor, they put to death with the sword.
- 9 The women of Midian with their little ones the children of Israel took prisoner; and all their cattle and flocks and all their goods they took for themselves;
- 10 And after burning all their towns and all their tent-circles,
- 11 They went away with the goods they had taken, man and beast.
- 12 And the prisoners and the goods and everything they had taken, they took to Moses and Eleazar the priest and the people of Israel, to the tent-circle in the lowlands of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
- 13 Then Moses and Eleazar the priest and the chiefs of the people went out to them before they had come into the tent-circle.
- 14 And Moses was angry with the chiefs of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds who had come back from the war.
- 15 And Moses said to them, Why have you kept all the women safe?
- 16 It was these who, moved by Balaam, were the cause of Israel's sin against the Lord in the question of Peor, because of which disease came on the people of the Lord.
- 17 So now put every male child to death, and every woman who has had sex relations with a man.
- 18 But all the female children who have had no sex relations with men, you may keep for yourselves.
- 19 You yourselves will have to keep outside the tent-circle for seven days, anyone of you who has put any person to death or come near a dead body; and on the third day and on the seventh day make yourselves and your prisoners clean.
- 20 And every bit of clothing, and anything made of leather or goats' hair or wood, you are to make clean.
- 21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had been to the fight, This is the rule of the law which the Lord has given to Moses:
- 22 But gold and silver and brass and iron and tin and lead,
- 23 And anything which may be heated, is to go through the fire and be made clean; but in addition it is to be put in the water of cleaning: and anything which may not go through the fire is to be put in the water.
- 24 And on the seventh day, after washing your clothing, you will be clean, and then you may come into the tent-circle.
- 25 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 26 Get an account of everything which was taken in the war, of man and of beast, you and Eleazar the priest and the heads of families of the people:
- 27 And let division be made of it into two parts, one for the men of war who went out to the fight, and one for all the people:
- 28 And from the men of war who went out let there be offered to the Lord one out of every five hundred, from the persons, and from the oxen and asses and sheep:
- 29 Take this from their part and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to be lifted up to the Lord.
- 30 And from the part given to the children of Israel, take one out of every fifty, from the persons, and from the oxen and asses and sheep, and give it to the Levites who have the care of the House of the Lord.
- 31 So Eleazar and Moses did as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 32 Now the beasts taken, in addition to what the fighting-men took for themselves, were six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep,
- 33 And seventy-two thousand oxen,
- 34 And sixty-one thousand asses;
- 35 And thirty-two thousand persons, that is, women who had never had sex relations with a man.

- 36 And the half given as their part to the men who went to the war, was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand, five hundred sheep,
- 37 Of which the Lord's part was six hundred and seventy-five.
- 38 The number of oxen was thirty-six thousand, of which the Lord's part was seventy-two;
- 39 The number of asses was thirty thousand, five hundred, of which the Lord's part was sixty-one.
- 40 And the number of persons was sixteen thousand, of which the Lord's part was thirty-two persons.
- 41 And Moses gave the Lord's part, lifted up as an offering, to Eleazar the priest, as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 42 And from the half given to the children of Israel, which Moses had kept separate from that given to the fighting-men,
- 43 (Now the people's half was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand, five hundred sheep,
- 44 And thirty-six thousand oxen,
- 45 And thirty thousand, five hundred asses,
- 46 And sixteen thousand persons;)
- 47 Even from the children of Israel's half, Moses took one out of every fifty, men and beasts, and gave them to the Levites who had the care of the House of the Lord; as the Lord gave orders to Moses.
- 48 Then the men in authority over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came to Moses,
- 49 And said to him, Your servants have taken note of the number of all the fighting-men under our orders, and every one is present;
- 50 And we have here an offering for the Lord from what every man took in the war, ornaments of gold, leg-chains and arm-rings, finger-rings, ear-rings, and neck-ornaments, to make our souls free from sin before the Lord.
- 51 So Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, even all the worked ornaments.
- 52 And the gold which the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds gave, as an offering to be lifted up before the Lord, came to sixteen thousand, seven hundred and fifty shekels.
- 53 (For every man of the army had taken goods for himself in the war.)
- 54 Then Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold given by the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, and took it into the Tent of meeting, to be a sign in memory of the children of Israel before the Lord.
- 1 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a great number of cattle: and when they saw that the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead was a good place for cattle;
- 2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and said to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the chiefs of the meeting,
- 3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon,
- 4 The land which the Lord gave into the hands of the children of Israel, is a land for cattle, and your servants have cattle.
- 5 And they said, With your approval, let this land be given to your servants as their heritage: do not take us over Jordan.
- 6 And Moses said to the children of Gad and the children of Reuben, Are your brothers to go to the war, while you take your rest here?
- 7 Why would you take from the children of Israel the desire to go over into the land which the Lord has given them?
- 8 So did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.
- 9 For when they went up to the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they took from the children of Israel the desire to go into the land which the Lord had given them.
- 10 And at that time the Lord was moved to wrath, and made an oath, saying,
- 11 Truly, not one of the men of twenty years old and over who came out of Egypt will see the land which I gave by oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; because they have not been true to me with all their heart;
- 12 But only Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua, the son of Nun: because they have been true to the Lord.
- 13 Then the Lord was angry with Israel, and he made them wanderers in the waste land for forty years? till all that generation who had done evil in the eyes of the Lord was dead.
- 14 And now you have come to take the place of your fathers, another generation of sinners, increasing the wrath of the Lord against Israel.

- 15 For if you are turned away from him, he will send them wandering again in the waste land; and you will be the cause of the destruction of all this people.
- 16 Then they came to him, and said, We will make safe places for our cattle here, and towns for our little ones;
- 17 But we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel till we have taken them to their place: but our little ones will be safe in the walled towns against the people of the land.
- 18 We will not come back to our houses till every one of the children of Israel has come into his heritage.
- 19 For we will not have our heritage with them on the other side of Jordan and forward; because our heritage has come to us on this side of Jordan to the east.
- 20 Then Moses said to them, If you will do this, arming yourselves to go before the Lord to the war,
- 21 Every armed man of you going across Jordan before the Lord till he has overcome and sent in flight all who are against him,
- 22 And the land is under the rule of the Lord: then after that you may come back, having done no wrong to the Lord and to Israel; and this land will be yours for your heritage before the Lord.
- 23 But if you do not do this, then you are sinners against the Lord; and you may be certain that your sin will have its reward.
- 24 So get to work building your towns for your little ones, and safe places for your sheep; and do as you have said.
- 25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben said to Moses, Your servants will do as my lord says.
- 26 Our little ones, our wives, and our flocks, and all our cattle, will be there in the towns of Gilead;
- 27 But your servants will go over, every man armed for war, before the Lord to the fight, as my lord says.
- 28 So Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest and to Joshua, the son of Nun, and to the heads of families of the tribes of the children of Israel.
- 29 And Moses said to them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben go with you over Jordan, every man armed for the fight before the Lord, and all the land is given into your hands, then let them have the land of Gilead for a heritage:
- 30 But if they do not go over with you armed, they will have to take their heritage with you in the land of Canaan.
- 31 Then the children of Gad and the children of Reuben said, As the Lord has said to your servants, so will we do.
- 32 We will go over armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan, and you will give us our heritage on this side of Jordan.
- 33 So Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad and the children of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites and Og, king of Bashan, all the land with its towns and the country round them.
- 34 And the children of Gad were the builders of Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer;
- 35 And Atroth-shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah;
- 36 And Beth-nimrah and Beth-haran: walled towns and shut-in places for sheep.
- 37 And the children of Reuben were the builders of Heshbon and Elealeh and Kiriathaim;
- 38 And Nebo and Baal-meon, (their names being changed,) and Sibmah: and they gave other names to the towns they made.
- 39 And the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, went to Gilead and took it, driving out the Amorites who were living there.
- 40 And Moses gave Gilead to Machir, the son of Manasseh; and he made it his living-place.
- 41 And Jair, the son of Manasseh, went and took the towns of Gilead, naming them Havvoth-Jair.
- 42 And Nobah went and took Kenath and its small towns, naming it Nobah, after himself.
- 1 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, when they went out of the land of Egypt in their armies, under the direction of Moses and Aaron.
- 2 And the stages of their journey on their way out were put down in writing by Moses at the order of the Lord: these are the stages of their journey and the way they went.
- 3 On the fifteenth day of the first month they went out from Rameses; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out by the power of the Lord before the eyes of all the Egyptians,
- 4 While the Egyptians were placing in the earth the bodies of their sons on whom the Lord had sent destruction: and their gods had been judged by him.

- 5 So the children of Israel went from Rameses and put up their tents in Succoth.
- 6 And they went on from Succoth and put up their tents in Etham on the edge of the waste land.
- 7 And from Etham, turning back to Pi-hahiroth which is before Baal-zephon, they put up their tents before Migdol.
- 8 And journeying on from before Hahiroth, they went through the sea into the waste land: they went three days' journey through the waste land of Etham and put up their tents in Marah.
- 9 And from Marah they went on to Elim: and in Elim there were twelve water-springs and seventy palm-trees; and they put up their tents there.
- 10 And they went on from Elim and put up their tents by the Red Sea.
- 11 Then from the Red Sea they went on and put up their tents in the waste land of Sin.
- 12 And they went on from the waste land of Sin, and put up their tents in Dophkah.
- 13 And they went on from Dophkah, and put up their tents in Alush.
- 14 And they went on from Alush, and put up their tents in Rephidim, where there was no drinking-water for the people.
- 15 And they went on from Rephidim, and put up their tents in the waste land of Sinai.
- 16 And they went on from the waste land of Sinai and put up their tents in Kibroth-hattaavah.
- 17 And they went on from Kibroth-hattaavah, and put up their tents in Hazeroth.
- 18 And they went on from Hazeroth, and put up their tents in Rithmah.
- 19 And they went on from Rithmah, and put up their tents in Rimmon-perez.
- 20 And they went on from Rimmon-perez, and put up their tents in Libnah.
- 21 And they went on from Libnah, and put up their tents in Rissah.
- 22 And they went on from Rissah, and put up their tents in Kehelathah.
- 23 And they went on from Kehelathah, and put up their tents in Mount Shepher.
- 24 And they went on from Mount Shepher, and put up their tents in Haradah.
- 25 And they went on from Haradah, and put up their tents in Makheloth.
- 26 And they went on from Makheloth, and put up their tents in Tahath.
- 27 And they went on from Tahath, and put up their tents in Terah.
- 28 And they went on from Terah, and put up their tents in Mithkah.
- 29 And they went on from Mithkah, and put up their tents in Hashmonah.
- 30 And they went on from Hashmonah, and put up their tents in Moseroth.
- 31 And they went on from Moseroth, and put up their tents in Bene-jaakan.
- 32 And they went on from Bene-jaakan, and put up their tents in Hor-haggidgad.
- 33 And they went on from Hor-haggidgad, and put up their tents in Jotbathah.
- 34 And they went on from Jotbathah, and put up their tents in Abronah.
- 35 And they went on from Abronah, and put up their tents in Ezion-geber.
- 36 And they went on from Ezion-geber, and put up their tents in the waste land of Zin (which is Kadesh).
- 37 And they went on from Kadesh, and put up their tents in Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom.
- 38 And Aaron the priest went up into the mountain at the order of the Lord, and came to his death there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month.
- 39 Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old at the time of his death in Mount Hor.
- 40 And news of the coming of the children of Israel came to the king of Arad, the Canaanite, who was living in the South in the land of Canaan.
- 41 And from Mount Hor they went on, and put up their tents in Zalmonah.
- 42 And they went on from Zalmonah, and put up their tents in Punon.
- 43 And they went on from Punon, and put up their tents in Oboth.
- 44 And they went on from Oboth, and put up their tents in Iye-abarim at the edge of Moab.
- 45 And they went on from Iyim, and put up their tents in Dibon-gad.
- 46 And from Dibon-gad they went on, and put up their tents in Almon-diblathaim.
- 47 And from Almon-diblathaim they went on, and put up their tents in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

- 48 And they went on from the mountains of Abarim, and put up their tents in the lowlands of Moab by Jordan at Jericho;
- 49 Planting their tents by the side of Jordan from Beth-jeshimoth as far as Abel-shittim in the lowlands of Moab.
- 50 And in the lowlands of Moab by Jordan at Jericho, the Lord said to Moses,
- 51 Say to the children of Israel, When you go over Jordan into the land of Canaan,
- 52 See that all the people of the land are forced out from before you, and put to destruction all their pictured stones, and all their metal images, and all their high places:
- 53 And take the land for yourselves, for your resting-place: for to you I have given the land as your heritage.
- 54 And you will take up your heritage in the land by the decision of the Lord, to every family its part; the greater the family the greater its heritage, and the smaller the family the smaller will be its heritage; wherever the decision of the Lord gives to
- 55 But if you are slow in driving out the people of the land, then those of them who are still there will be like pin-points in your eyes and like thorns in your sides, troubling you in the land where you are living.
- 56 And it will come about that as it was my purpose to do to them, so I will do to you.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 2 Give orders to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land of Canaan; (this is the land which is to be your heritage, the land of Canaan inside these limits,)
- 3 Then your south quarter will be from the waste land of Zin by the side of Edom, and your limit on the south will be from the east end of the Salt Sea,
- 4 And round to the south of the slope of Akkrabbim, and on to Zin: and its direction will be south of Kadesh-barnea, and it will go as far as Hazar-addar and on to Azmon:
- 5 And from Azmon it will go round to the stream of Egypt as far as the sea.
- 6 And for your limit on the west you will have the Great Sea and its edge: this will be your limit on the west.
- 7 And your limit on the north will be the line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor:
- 8 And from Mount Hor the line will go in the direction of Hamath; the farthest point of it will be at Zedad:
- 9 And the limit will go on to Ziphron, with its farthest point at Hazar-enan: this will be your limit on the north.
- 10 And on the east, your limit will be marked out from Hazar-enan to Shepham,
- 11 Going down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain, and on as far as the east side of the sea of Chinnereth:
- 12 And so down to Jordan, stretching to the Salt Sea: all the land inside these limits will be yours.
- 13 And Moses gave orders to the children of Israel saying, This is the land which is to be your heritage, by the decision of the Lord, which by the Lord's order is to be given to the nine tribes and the half-tribe:
- 14 For the tribe of the children of Reuben, by their fathers' families, and the tribe of the children of Gad, by their fathers' families, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, have been given their heritage:
- 15 The two tribes and the half-tribe have been given their heritage on the other side of Jordan at Jericho, on the east looking to the dawn.
- 16 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 17 These are the names of the men who are to make the distribution of the land among you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun.
- 18 And you are to take one chief from every tribe to make the distribution of the land.
- 19 And these are the names of the men: of the tribe of Judah, Caleb, the son of Jephunneh.
- 20 And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel, the son of Ammihud.
- 21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad, the son of Chislon.
- 22 And of the tribe of the children of Dan, a chief, Bukki, the son of Jogli.
- 23 Of the children of Joseph: of the tribe of the children of Manasseh, a chief, Hanniel, the son of Ephod:
- 24 And of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, a chief, Kemuel, the son of Shiptan.
- 25 And of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, a chief, Elizaphan, the son of Parnach.
- 26 And of the tribe of the children of Issachar, a chief, Paltiel, the son of Azzan.
- 27 And of the tribe of the children of Asher, a chief, Ahihud, the son of Shelomi.
- 28 And of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, a chief, Pedahel, the son of Ammihud.

- 29 These are they to whom the Lord gave orders to make the distribution of the heritage among the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.
- 1 And the Lord said to Moses in the lowlands of Moab by Jordan at Jericho,
- 2 Give orders to the children of Israel to give to the Levites, from the heritage which is theirs, towns for themselves, with land on the outskirts of the towns.
- 3 These towns are to be their living-places, with land round them for their cattle and their food and all their beasts,
- 4 Stretching from the wall of the towns a distance of a thousand cubits all round.
- 5 The measure of this space of land is to be two thousand cubits outside the town on the east, and two thousand cubits on the south and on the west and on the north, the town being in the middle. This space will be the outskirts of their towns.
- 6 And the towns which you give the Levites are to be the six safe places to which the taker of life may go in flight; and in addition you are to give them forty-two towns.
- 7 Forty-eight towns are to be given to the Levites, all with land round them.
- 8 And these towns are to be given out of the heritage of the children of Israel, taking the greater number from those who have much, and a smaller number from those who have little: everyone, in the measure of his heritage, is to give of his property to the
- 9 And the Lord said to Moses,
- 10 Say to the children of Israel, when you have gone over Jordan into the land of Canaan;
- 11 Then let certain towns be marked out as safe places to which anyone who takes the life of another in error may go in flight.
- 12 In these towns you may be safe from him who has the right of punishment; so that death may not overtake the taker of life till he has been judged by the meeting of the people.
- 13 Six of the towns which you give will be such safe places;
- 14 Three on the other side of Jordan and three in the land of Canaan, to be safe places for flight.
- 15 For the children of Israel and for the man from another country who is living among them, these six towns are to be safe places, where anyone causing the death of another through error may go in flight.
- 16 But if a man gives another man a blow with an iron instrument, causing his death, he is a taker of life and is certainly to be put to death.
- 17 Or if he gives him a blow with a stone in his hand, causing his death, he is a taker of life and is certainly to be put to death.
- 18 Or if he gave him blows with a wood instrument in his hands, causing his death, he is a taker of life and is certainly to be put to death.
- 19 He whose right it is to give punishment for blood, may himself put to death the taker of life when he comes face to face with him.
- 20 If in his hate he put a sword through him, or waiting secretly for him sent a spear or stone at him, causing his death;
- 21 Or in hate gave him blows with his hand, causing death; he who gave the death-blow is to be put to death; he is a taker of life: he whose right it is to give punishment for blood may put to death the taker of life when he comes face to face with him.
- 22 But if a man has given a wound to another suddenly and not in hate, or without design has sent something against him,
- 23 Or has given him a blow with a stone, without seeing him, so causing his death, though he had nothing against him and no desire to do him evil:
- 24 Then let the meeting of the people be judge between the man responsible for the death and him who has the right of punishment for blood, acting by these rules:
- 25 And let the people keep the man responsible for the death safe from the hands of him who has the right of punishment for blood, and send him back to his safe town where he had gone in flight: there let him be till the death of the high priest who was mark
- 26 But if ever he goes outside the walls of the safe town where he had gone in flight,
- 27 And the giver of punishment, meeting him outside the walls of the town, puts him to death, he will not be responsible for his blood:
- 28 Because he had been ordered to keep inside the safe town till the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the taker of life may come back to the place of his heritage.

- 29 These rules are to be your guide in judging through all your generations wherever you may be living.
- 30 Anyone causing the death of another is himself to be put to death on the word of witnesses: but the word of one witness is not enough.
- 31 Further, no price may be given for the life of one who has taken life and whose right reward is death: he is certainly to be put to death.
- 32 And no price may be offered for one who has gone in flight to a safe town, for the purpose of letting him come back to his place before the death of the high priest.
- 33 So do not make the land where you are living unholy: for blood makes the land unholy: and there is no way of making the land free from the blood which has come on it, but only by the death of him who was the cause of it.
- 34 Do not make unclean the land where you are living and in which is my House: for I the Lord am present among the children of Israel.
- 1 Now the heads of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came to Moses, the chiefs and the heads of families of the children of Israel being present,
- 2 And said, The Lord gave orders to my lord to make distribution of the land as their heritage to the children of Israel: and my lord was ordered by the Lord to give the heritage of Zelophehad, our brother, to his daughters.
- 3 Now if they get married to any of the sons of other tribes of the children of Israel, then their property will be taken away from the heritage of our fathers, and become part of the heritage of the tribe into which they get married: and their heritage will
- 4 And at the time of the Jubilee of the children of Israel, their property will be joined to the heritage of the tribe of which they are part and will be taken away from the heritage of the tribe of our fathers.
- 5 So by the direction of the Lord, Moses gave orders to the children of Israel, saying, What the tribe of the sons of Joseph have said is right.
- 6 This is the order of the Lord about the daughters of Zelophehad: The Lord says, Let them take as their husbands whoever is most pleasing to them, but only among the family of their father's tribe.
- 7 And so no property will be handed from tribe to tribe among the children of Israel; but every one of the children of Israel will keep the heritage of his father's tribe.
- 8 And every daughter owning property in any tribe of the children of Israel is to be married to one of the family of her father's tribe, so that every man of the children of Israel may keep the heritage of his fathers.
- 9 And no property will be handed from one tribe to another, but every tribe of the children of Israel will keep its heritage.
- 10 So the daughters of Zelophehad did as the Lord gave orders to Moses:
- 11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, took as their husbands the sons of their father's brothers:
- 12 And were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, and their property was kept in the tribe of their father's family
- 13 These are the laws and the orders which the Lord gave to the children of Israel by Moses, in the lowlands of Moab by Jordan at Jericho.
- 1 These are the words which Moses said to all Israel on the far side of Jordan, in the waste land in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran on the one side, and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab on the other.
- 2 It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea.
- 3 Now in the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses gave to the children of Israel all the orders which the Lord had given him for them;
- 4 After he had overcome Sihon, king of the Amorites, ruling in Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan, ruling in Ashtaroth, at Edrei:
- 5 On the far side of Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses gave the people this law, saying,
- 6 The Lord our God said to us in Horeb, You have been long enough in this mountain:
- 7 Make a move now, and go on your way into the hill-country of the Amorites and the places near it, in the Arabah and the hill-country and in the lowlands and in the South and by the seaside, all the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great
- 8 See, all the land is before you: go in and take for yourselves the land which the Lord gave by an oath to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and to their seed after them.
- 9 At that time I said to you, I am not able to undertake the care of you by myself;

- 10 The Lord your God has given you increase, and now you are like the stars of heaven in number.
- 11 May the Lord, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times greater in number than you are, and give you his blessing as he has said!
- 12 How is it possible for me by myself to be responsible for you, and undertake the weight of all your troubles and your arguments?
- 13 Take for yourselves men who are wise, far-seeing, and respected among you, from your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.
- 14 And you made answer and said to me, It is good for us to do as you say.
- 15 So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men and respected, and made them rulers over you, captains of thousands and captains of hundreds and captains of fifties and captains of tens, and overseers of your tribes.
- 16 And at that time I gave orders to your judges, saying, Let all questions between your brothers come before you for hearing, and give decisions uprightly between a man and his brother or one from another nation who is with him.
- 17 In judging, do not let a man's position have any weight with you; give hearing equally to small and great; have no fear of any man, for it is God who is judge: and any cause in which you are not able to give a decision, you are to put before me and I will
- 18 And at that time I gave you all the orders which you were to do.
- 19 Then we went on from Horeb, through all that great and cruel waste which you saw, on our way to the hill-country of the Amorites, as the Lord gave us orders; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.
- 20 And I said to you, You have come to the hill-country of the Amorites, which the Lord our God is giving us.
- 21 See now, the Lord your God has put the land into your hands: go up and take it, as the Lord, the God of your fathers, has said to you; have no fear and do not be troubled.
- 22 And you came near to me, every one of you, and said, Let us send men before us to go through the land with care and give us an account of the way we are to go and the towns to which we will come.
- 23 And what you said seemed good to me, and I took twelve men from among you, one from every tribe;
- 24 And they went up into the hill-country and came to the valley of Eshcol, and saw what was there.
- 25 And taking in their hands some of the fruit of the land, they came down again to us, and gave us their account, saying, It is a good land which the Lord our God is giving us.
- 26 But going against the order of the Lord your God, you would not go up:
- 27 And you made an angry outcry in your tents, and said, In his hate for us the Lord has taken us out of the land of Egypt, to give us up into the hands of the Amorites for our destruction.
- 28 Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our hearts feeble with fear by saying, The people are greater and taller than we are, and the towns are great and walled up to heaven; and more than this, we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.
- 29 Then I said to you, Have no fear of them.
- 30 The Lord your God who goes before you will be fighting for you, and will do such wonders as he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;
- 31 And in the waste land, where you have seen how the Lord was supporting you, as a man does his son, in all your journeying till you came to this place.
- 32 But for all this, you had no faith in the Lord your God,
- 33 Who goes before you on your way, looking for a place where you may put up your tents, in fire by night, lighting up the way you are to go, and in a cloud by day.
- 34 And the Lord, hearing your words, was angry, and said with an oath,
- 35 Truly, not one of this evil generation will see that good land which I said I would give to your fathers,
- 36 But only Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, he will see it; and to him and to his children I will give the land over which his feet have gone, because he has been true to the Lord with all his heart.
- 37 And, in addition, the Lord was angry with me because of you, saying, You yourself will not go into it:
- 38 Joshua, the son of Nun, your servant, he will go into the land: say to him that he is to be strong, for he will be Israel's guide into their heritage.
- 39 And your little ones, who, you said, would come into strange hands, your children, who now have no knowledge of good or evil, they will go into that land, and to them I will give it and it will be theirs.

- 40 But as for you, go back, journeying into the waste land by the way of the Red Sea.
- 41 Then you said to me, We have done evil against the Lord, we will go up to the attack, as the Lord our God has given us orders. And arming yourselves every one, you made ready to go up without care into the hill-country.
- 42 And the Lord said to me, Say to them, Do not go up to the attack; for I am not among you, and you will be overcome by those who are against you.
- 43 This I said to you, but you gave no attention and went against the orders of the Lord, and in your pride went up into the hill-country.
- 44 And the Amorites who were in the hill-country came out against you and put you to flight, rushing after you like bees, and overcame you in Seir, driving you even as far as Hormah.
- 45 And you came back, weeping before the Lord; but the Lord gave no attention to your cries and did not give ear to you.
- 46 So you were kept waiting in Kadesh for a long time.
- 1 Then we went back, journeying into the waste land by the way to the Red Sea, as the Lord had said to me: and we were a long time going round Mount Seir.
- 2 And the Lord said to me,
- 3 You have been journeying round this mountain long enough: now go to the north;
- 4 And give the people orders, saying, You are about to go through the land of your brothers, the children of Esau, who are living in Seir; and they will have fear of you; so take care what you do:
- 5 Make no attack on them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even space enough for a man's foot: because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for his heritage.
- 6 You may get food for your needs from them for a price, and water for drinking.
- 7 For the blessing of the Lord your God has been on you in all the work of your hands: he has knowledge of your wanderings through this great waste: these forty years the Lord your God has been with you, and you have been short of nothing.
- 8 So we went on past our brothers, the children of Esau, living in Seir, by the road through the Arabah, from Elath and Ezion-geber. And turning, we went by the road through the waste land of Moab.
- 9 And the Lord said to me, Make no attack on Moab and do not go to war with them, for I will not give you any of his land: because I have given Ar to the children of Lot for their heritage.
- 10 (In the past the Emim were living there; a great people, equal in numbers to the Anakim and as tall;
- 11 They are numbered among the Rephaim, like the Anakim; but are named Emim by the Moabites.
- 12 And the Horites in earlier times were living in Seir, but the children of Esau took their place; they sent destruction on them and took their land for themselves, as Israel did to the land of his heritage which the Lord gave them.)
- 13 Get up now, and go over the stream Zered. So we went over the stream Zered.
- 14 Thirty-eight years had gone by from the time when we came away from Kadesh-barnea till we went over the stream Zered; by that time all the generation of the men of war among us were dead, as the Lord had said.
- 15 For the hand of the Lord was against them, working their destruction, till all were dead.
- 16 So when death had overtaken all the men of war among the people,
- 17 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 18 You are about to go by Ar, the limit of the country of Moab;
- 19 And when you come near the land of the children of Ammon, give them no cause of trouble and do not make war on them, for I will not give you any of the land of the children of Ammon for your heritage: because I have given it to the children of Lot.
- 20 (That land is said to have been a land of the Rephaim, for Rephaim had been living there in earlier times, but they were named Zamzummim by the Ammonites;
- 21 They were a great people, tall as the Anakim, and equal to them in number; but the Lord sent destruction on them and the children of Ammon took their place, living in their land;
- 22 As he did for the children of Esau living in Seir, when he sent destruction on the Horites before them, and they took their land where they are living to this day:
- 23 And the Avvim, living in the small towns as far as Gaza, came to destruction by the hands of the Caphtorim who came out from Caphtor and took their land.)

- 24 Get up now, and go on your journey, crossing over the valley of the Arnon: see, I have given into your hands Sihon, the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and all his land: go forward to make it yours, and make war on him,
- 25 From now on I will put the fear of you in all peoples under heaven, who, hearing of you, will be shaking with fear and grief of heart because of you.
- 26 Then from the waste land of Kedemoth I sent representatives to Sihon, king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying,
- 27 Let me go through your land: I will keep to the highway, not turning to the right or to the left;
- 28 Let me have food, at a price, for my needs, and water for drinking: only let me go through on foot;
- 29 As the children of Esau did for me in Seir and the Moabites in Ar; till I have gone over Jordan into the land which the Lord our God is giving us.
- 30 But Sihon, king of Heshbon, would not let us go through; for the Lord your God made his spirit hard and his heart strong, so that he might give him up into your hands as at this day.
- 31 And the Lord said to me, See, from now on I have given Sihon and his land into your hands: go forward now to take his land and make it yours.
- 32 Then Sihon came out against us with all his people, to make an attack on us at Jahaz.
- 33 And the Lord our God gave him into our hands; and we overcame him and his sons and all his people.
- 34 At that time we took all his towns, and gave them over to complete destruction, together with men, women, and children; we had no mercy on any:
- 35 Only the cattle we took for ourselves, with the goods from the towns we had taken.
- 36 From Aroer on the edge of the valley of the Arnon and from the town in the valley as far as Gilead, no town was strong enough to keep us out; the Lord our God gave them all into our hands:
- 37 But you did not go near the land of the children of Ammon, that is, all the side of the river Jabbok or the towns of the hill-country, wherever the Lord our God had said we were not to go.
- 1 Then turning we took the road to Bashan: and Og, king of Bashan, came out against us with all his people, and made an attack on us at Edrei.
- 2 And the Lord said to me, Have no fear of him: for I have given him and all his people and his land into your hands; do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who was ruling in Heshbon.
- 3 So the Lord our God gave up Og, king of Bashan, and all his people into our hands; and we overcame him so completely that all his people came to their end in the fight.
- 4 At that time we took all his towns; there was not one town of the sixty towns, all the country of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which we did not take.
- 5 All these towns had high walls round them with doors and locks; and in addition we took a great number of unwalled towns.
- 6 And we put them to the curse, every town together with men, women, and children.
- 7 But we took for ourselves all the cattle and the stored wealth of the towns.
- 8 At that time we took their land from the two kings of the Amorites on the far side of Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon;
- 9 (By the Sidonians, Hermon is named Sirion, and by the Amorites Shenir;)
- 10 All the towns of the table-land and all Gilead and Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, towns of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
- 11 (For Og, king of Bashan, was the last of all the Rephaim; his bed was made of iron; is it not in Rabbah, in the land of the children of Ammon? It was nine cubits long and four cubits wide, measured by the common cubit.)
- 12 And this land which we took at that time, from Aroer by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill-country of Gilead with its towns, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites.
- 13 The rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, all the land of Argob, together with Bashan, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (This land is named the land of the Rephaim.
- 14 Jair, the son of Manasseh, took all the land of Argob, as far as the country of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, naming it, Bashan, Havvoth-Jair after himself, as it is to this day.)
- 15 And Gilead I gave to Machir.
- 16 And the land from Gilead to the valley of the Arnon, with the middle of the valley as a limit, as far as the river Jabbok which is the limit of the country of the children of Ammon, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites;

- 17 As well as the Arabah, with the river Jordan as their limit, from Chinnereth to the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah to the east.
- 18 At that time I gave you orders, saying, The Lord has given you this land for your heritage: all the men of war are to go over armed before your brothers the children of Israel.
- 19 But your wives and your little ones and your cattle (for it is clear that you have much cattle) may go on living in the towns I have given you;
- 20 Till the Lord has given rest to your brothers as to you, and till they have taken for themselves the land which the Lord your God is giving them on the other side of Jordan: then you may go back, every man of you, to the heritage which I have given you.
- 21 And I gave orders to Joshua at that time, saying, Your eyes have seen what the Lord your God has done to these two kings: so will the Lord do to all the kingdoms into which you come.
- 22 Have no fear of them, for the Lord your God will be fighting for you.
- 23 And at that time I made request to the Lord, saying,
- 24 O Lord God, you have now for the first time let your servant see your great power and the strength of your hand; for what god is there in heaven or on earth able to do such great works and such acts of power?
- 25 Let me go over, O Lord, and see the good land on the other side of Jordan, and that fair mountain country, even Lebanon.
- 26 But the Lord was angry with me because of you and would not give ear to my prayer; and the Lord said to me, Let it be enough, say no more about this thing.
- 27 Go up to the top of Pisgah, and turning your eyes to the west and the north, to the south and the east, see the land with your eyes: for you are not to go over Jordan.
- 28 But give my orders to Joshua, comforting him and making him strong; for he is to go over Jordan at the head of this people, and he will give them this land which you will see for their heritage.
- 29 So we were waiting in the valley facing Beth-peor.
- 1 And now give ear, O Israel, to the laws and the decisions which I am teaching you, and do them; so that life may be yours, and you may go in and take for yourselves the land which the Lord, the God of your fathers, is giving you.
- 2 Make no addition to the orders which I give you, and take nothing from them, but keep the orders of the Lord your God which I give you.
- 3 Your eyes have seen what the Lord did because of Baal-peor: for destruction came from the Lord on all those among you who went after Baal-peor.
- 4 But you who kept faith with the Lord are living, every one of you, today.
- 5 I have been teaching you laws and decisions, as I was ordered to do by the Lord my God, so that you might keep them in the land to which you are going to take it for your heritage.
- 6 So keep these laws and do them; for so will your wisdom and good sense be clear in the eyes of the peoples, who hearing all these laws will say, Truly, this great nation is a wise and far-seeing people.
- 7 For what great nation has a god so near to them as the Lord our God is, whenever we are turned to him in prayer?
- 8 And what great nation has laws and decisions so right as all this law which I put before you today?
- 9 Only take care, and keep watch on your soul, for fear that the things which your eyes have seen go from your memory and from your heart all the days of your life; but let the knowledge of them be given to your children and to your children's children;
- 10 That day when you were waiting before the Lord your God in Horeb, and the Lord said to me, Make all the people come together, so that hearing my words they may go in fear of me all the days of their life on earth and give this teaching to their children.
- 11 And you came near, waiting at the foot of the mountain; and flames of fire went up from the mountain to the heart of heaven, with dark clouds, and all was black as night.
- 12 And the voice of the Lord came to you out of the fire: the sound of his words came to your ears but you saw no form; there was nothing but a voice.
- 13 And he gave you his agreement with you, the ten rules which you were to keep, which he put in writing on the two stones of the law.
- 14 And the Lord gave me orders at that time to make clear to you these laws and decisions, so that you might do them in the land to which you are going, and which is to be your heritage.

- 15 So keep watch on yourselves with care; for you saw no form of any sort on the day when the voice of the Lord came to you in Horeb out of the heart of the fire:
- 16 So that you may not be turned to evil ways and make for yourselves an image in the form of any living thing, male or female,
- 17 Or any beast of the earth, or winged bird of the air,
- 18 Or of anything which goes flat on the earth, or any fish in the water under the earth.
- 19 And when your eyes are lifted up to heaven, and you see the sun and the moon and the stars, all the army of heaven, do not let yourselves be moved to give them worship, or become the servants of what the Lord has given equally to all peoples under heaven.
- 20 But the Lord has taken you out of the flaming fire, out of Egypt, to be to him the people of his heritage, as you are today.
- 21 And the Lord was angry with me because of you, and made an oath that I was not to go over Jordan into the good land which the Lord is giving you for your heritage:
- 22 But death is to come to me in this land, I may not go over Jordan: but you will go over and take that good land for your heritage.
- 23 Take care that you do not let the agreement of the Lord your God, which he has made with you, go out of your mind, or make for yourselves images of any sort, against the orders which the Lord your God has given you.
- 24 For the Lord your God is an all-burning fire, and he will not let the honour which is his be given to any other.
- 25 If, when you have had children and children's children, and have been living a long time in the land, you are turned to evil ways, and make an image of any sort, and do evil in the eyes of the Lord your God, moving him to wrath:
- 26 May heaven and earth be my witnesses against you today, that destruction will quickly overtake you, cutting you off from that land which you are going over Jordan to take; your days will not be long in that land, but you will come to a complete end.
- 27 And the Lord will send you wandering among the peoples; only a small band of you will be kept from death among the nations where the Lord will send you.
- 28 There you will be the servants of gods, made by men's hands, of wood and stone, having no power of seeing or hearing or taking food or smelling.
- 29 But if in those lands you are turned again to the Lord your God, searching for him with all your heart and soul, he will not keep himself from you.
- 30 When you are in trouble and all these things have come on you, if, in the future, you are turned again to the Lord your God, and give ear to his voice:
- 31 Because the Lord your God is a God of mercy, he will not take away his help from you or let destruction overtake you, or be false to the agreement which he made by an oath with your fathers.
- 32 Give thought now to the days which are past, before your time, from the day when God first gave life to man on the earth, and searching from one end of heaven to the other, see if such a great thing as this has ever been, or if anything like it has been t
- 33 Has any people ever gone on living after hearing the voice of God out of the heart of the fire as you did?
- 34 Has God ever before taken a nation for himself from out of another nation, by punishments and signs and wonders, by war and by a strong hand and a stretched-out arm and great acts of wonder and fear, as the Lord your God did for you in Egypt, before your
- 35 All this he let you see, so that you might be certain that the Lord is God and there is no other.
- 36 Out of heaven itself his voice came to you, teaching you; and on earth he let you see his great fire; and his words came to your ears out of the heart of the fire.
- 37 And because of his love for your fathers, he took their seed and made it his, and he himself, present among you, took you out of Egypt by his great power;
- 38 Driving out before you nations greater and stronger than you, to take you into their land and give it to you for your heritage, as at this day.
- 39 So today be certain, and keep the knowledge deep in your hearts, that the Lord is God, in heaven on high and here on earth; there is no other God.
- 40 Then keep his laws and his orders which I give you today, so that it may be well for you and for your children after you, and that your lives may be long in the land which the Lord your God is giving you for ever.
- 41 Then Moses had three towns marked out on the far side of Jordan looking to the east;

- 42 To which anyone causing the death of his neighbour in error and not through hate, might go in flight; so that in one of these towns he might be kept from death:
- 43 The names of the towns were Bezer in the waste land, in the table-land, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan for Manasseh.
- 44 This is the law which Moses put before the children of Israel:
- 45 These are the rules and the laws and the decisions which Moses gave to the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt;
- 46 On the far side of Jordan, in the valley facing Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who was ruling in Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel overcame after they had come out of Egypt:
- 47 And they took his land for a heritage, and the land of Og, king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, whose lands were on the other side of Jordan to the east;
- 48 From Aroer on the edge of the valley of the Arnon as far as Mount Sion, which is Hermon,
- 49 And all the Arabah on the far side of Jordan to the east, as far as the sea of the Arabah under the slopes of Pisgah.
- 1 And Moses sent for all Israel, and said to them, Give ear, O Israel, to the laws and the decisions which I give you today, and give attention to them so that you may keep and do them.
- 2 The Lord our God made an agreement with us in Horeb.
- 3 The Lord did not make this agreement with our fathers but with us, who are all living and present here today.
- 4 The word of the Lord came to you face to face on the mountain, out of the heart of the fire,
- 5 (I was between the Lord and you at that time, to make clear to you the word of the Lord: because, through fear of the fire, you did not go up the mountain;) saying,
- 6 I am the Lord your God, who took you out of the land of Egypt, out of the prison-house.
- 7 You are to have no other gods but me.
- 8 You may not make for yourselves an image in the form of anything in heaven or on earth or in the waters under the earth:
- 9 You may not go down on your faces before them or give them worship: for I, the Lord your God, am a God who will not give his honour to another; and I will send punishment on the children for the wrongdoing of their fathers, to the third and fourth generat
- 10 And I will have mercy through a thousand generations on those who have love for me and keep my laws.
- 11 You are not to make use of the name of the Lord your God for an evil purpose; whoever takes the Lord's name on his lips for an evil purpose will be judged as a sinner by the Lord.
- 12 Keep the Sabbath day as a holy day, as you have been ordered by the Lord your God.
- 13 On six days do all your work:
- 14 But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; on that day do no work, you or your son or your daughter, or your man-servant or your woman-servant, or your ox or your ass or any of your cattle, or the man from a strange country who is living among
- 15 And keep in mind that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord your God took you out of that land by his strong hand and his stretched-out arm: for this reason the Lord has given you orders to keep the Sabbath day.
- 16 Give honour to your father and your mother, as you have been ordered by the Lord your God; so that your life may be long and all may be well for you in the land which the Lord your God is giving you.
- 17 Do not put anyone to death without cause.
- 18 Do not be false to the married relation.
- 19 Do not take the property of another.
- 20 Do not give false witness against your neighbour;
- 21 Or let your desire be turned to your neighbour's wife, or his house or his field or his man-servant or his woman-servant or his ox or his ass or anything which is your neighbour's.
- 22 These words the Lord said to all of you together on the mountain, out of the heart of the fire, out of the cloud and the dark, with a great voice: and he said no more; he put them in writing on the two stones of the law and gave them to me.
- 23 And after hearing the voice which came out of the dark while the mountain was burning with fire, all the heads of your tribes and your chiefs came to me,

- 24 And said, The Lord has let us see his glory and his power, and his voice has come to us out of the fire: today we have seen that a man may go on living even after hearing the voice of God.
- 25 Why then is death to be our fate? For if the voice of the Lord our God comes to us any more, death will overtake us, and we will be burned up in this great fire.
- 26 For what man is there in all the earth, who, hearing the voice of the living God as we have, out of the heart of the fire, has been kept from death?
- 27 Do you go near: and after hearing everything which the Lord our God has to say, give us an account of all he has said to you, and we will give ear, and do it.
- 28 Then the Lord, hearing your words to me, said to me, The words which this people have said to you have come to my ears: what they have said is well said.
- 29 If only they had such a heart in them at all times, so that they might go in fear of me and keep my orders and that it might be well for them and for their children for ever!
- 30 Now say to them, Go back to your tents.
- 31 But as for you, keep your place here by me, and I will give you all the orders and the laws and the decisions which you are to make clear to them, so that they may do them in the land which I am giving them for their heritage.
- 32 Take care, then, to do whatever the Lord your God has given you orders to do; let there be no turning away to the right hand or to the left.
- 33 Go on walking in the way ordered for you by the Lord your God, so that life may be yours and it may be well for you, and your days may be long in the land of your heritage.
- 1 Now these are the orders and the laws and the decisions which the Lord your God gave me for your teaching, so that you might do them in the land of your heritage to which you are going:
- 2 So that living in the fear of the Lord your God, you may keep all his laws and his orders, which I give you: you and your son and your son's son, all the days of your life; and so that your life may be long.
- 3 So give ear, O Israel, and take care to do this; so that it may be well for you, and you may be greatly increased, as the Lord the God of your fathers has given you his word, in a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 4 Give ear, O Israel: the Lord our God is one Lord:
- 5 And the Lord your God is to be loved with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.
- 6 Keep these words, which I say to you this day, deep in your hearts;
- 7 Teaching them to your children with all care, talking of them when you are at rest in your house or walking by the way, when you go to sleep and when you get up.
- 8 Let them be fixed as a sign on your hand, and marked on your brow;
- 9 Have them lettered on the pillars of your houses and over the doors of your towns.
- 10 And when the Lord your God has taken you into the land which he gave his oath to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, that he would give you; with great and fair towns which were not of your building;
- 11 And houses full of good things not stored up by you, and places for storing water which you did not make, and vine-gardens and olive-trees not of your planting; and you have taken food and are full;
- 12 Then take care that you keep your hearts true to the Lord, who took you out of the land of Egypt, out of the prison-house.
- 13 Let the fear of the Lord your God be in your hearts, and be his servants, taking your oaths by his name.
- 14 Do not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples round about you;
- 15 For the Lord your God who is with you is a God who will not let his honour be given to another; or the wrath of the Lord will be burning against you, causing your destruction from the face of the earth.
- 16 Do not put the Lord your God to the test as you did in Massah.
- 17 Keep with care the orders of the Lord your God, and his rules and his laws which he has given you;
- 18 And do what is upright and good in the eyes of the Lord your God, so that it may be well for you and you may go in and take for your heritage that good land from which the Lord undertook by an oath to your fathers,
- 19 To send out from before you all those who are against you.
- 20 And when your son says to you in time to come, What is the reason for these rules and laws and decisions which the Lord our God has given you?
- 21 Then you will say to your son, We were servants under Pharaoh's yoke in Egypt; and the Lord took us out of Egypt with a strong hand:

- 22 And the Lord did great signs and wonders against Egypt, and against Pharaoh and all his house, before our eyes:
- 23 And he took us out from that place, guiding us here to give us this land, as he said in his oath to our fathers.
- 24 And the Lord gave us orders to keep all these laws, in the fear of the Lord our God, so that it might be well for us for ever, and that he might keep us from death, as he has done to this day.
- 25 And it will be our righteousness if we take care to keep all this order before the Lord our God as he has given it to us.
- 1 When the Lord your God takes you into the land where you are going, which is to be your heritage, and has sent out the nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebu
- 2 And when the Lord has given them up into your hands and you have overcome them, give them up to complete destruction: make no agreement with them, and have no mercy on them:
- 3 Do not take wives or husbands from among them; do not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters for your sons.
- 4 For through them your sons will be turned from me to the worship of other gods: and the Lord will be moved to wrath against you and send destruction on you quickly.
- 5 But this is what you are to do to them: their altars are to be pulled down and their pillars broken, and their holy trees cut down and their images burned with fire.
- 6 For you are a holy people to the Lord your God: marked out by the Lord your God to be his special people out of all the nations on the face of the earth.
- 7 The Lord did not give you his love or take you for himself because you were more in number than any other people; for you were the smallest of the nations:
- 8 But because of his love for you, and in order to keep his oath to your fathers, the Lord took you out with the strength of his hand, making you free from the prison-house and from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt.
- 9 Be certain, then, that the Lord your God is God; whose faith and mercy are unchanging, who keeps his word through a thousand generations to those who have love for him and keep his laws;
- 10 Rewarding his haters to their face with destruction; he will have no mercy on his hater, but will give him open punishment.
- 11 So keep the orders and the laws and the decisions which I give you today and do them.
- 12 And it will be, that if you give attention to these decisions and keep and do them, then the Lord will keep his agreement with you and his mercy, as he said in his oath to your fathers.
- 13 And he will give you his love, blessing you and increasing you: he will send his blessing on the offspring of your body and the fruit of your land, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the young of your flock, in the land
- 14 You will have greater blessings than any other people: no male or female among you or among your cattle will be without offspring.
- 15 And the Lord will take away from you all disease, and will not put on you any of the evil diseases of Egypt which you have seen, but will put them on your haters.
- 16 And you are to send destruction on all the peoples which the Lord your God gives into your hands; have no pity on them, and do not give worship to their gods; for that will be a cause of sin to you.
- 17 If you say in your hearts, These nations are greater in number than we are: how are we to take their land from them?
- 18 Have no fear of them, but keep well in mind what the Lord your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt;
- 19 The great punishments which your eyes saw, and the signs and the wonders and the strong hand and the stretched-out arm, by which the Lord your God took you out: so will the Lord your God do to all the peoples who are the cause of your fears.
- 20 And the Lord will send a hornet among them, till all the rest who have kept themselves safe from you in secret places have been cut off.
- 21 Have no fear of them: for the Lord your God is with you, a great God greatly to be feared.
- 22 The Lord your God will send out the nations before you little by little; they are not to be rooted out quickly, for fear that the beasts of the field may be increased overmuch against you.
- 23 But the Lord your God will give them up into your hands, overpowering them till their destruction is complete.
- 24 He will give their kings into your hands, and you will put their names out of existence under heaven; there is not one of them who will not give way before you, till their destruction is complete.

- 25 The images of their gods are to be burned with fire: have no desire for the gold and silver on them, and do not take it for yourselves, for it will be a danger to you: it is a thing disgusting to the Lord your God:
- 26 And you may not take a disgusting thing into your house, and so become cursed with its curse: but keep yourselves from it, turning from it with fear and hate, for it is a cursed thing.
- 1 Take care to keep all the orders which I give you today, so that you may have life and be increased and go in and take as a heritage the land which the Lord, by his oath to your fathers, undertook to give you.
- 2 And keep in mind the way by which the Lord your God has taken you through the waste land these forty years, so that he might make low your pride and put you to the test, to see what was in your heart and if you would keep his orders or not.
- 3 And he made low your pride and let you be without food and gave you manna for your food, a thing new to you, which your fathers never saw; so that he might make it clear to you that bread is not man's only need, but his life is in every word which comes o
- 4 Through all these forty years your clothing did not get old or your feet become tired.
- 5 Keep in mind this thought, that as a son is trained by his father, so you have been trained by the Lord your God.
- 6 Then keep the orders of the Lord your God, fearing him and walking in his ways.
- 7 For the Lord your God is guiding you into a good land, a land of water-springs, of fountains, and deep streams flowing out from the valleys and the hills;
- 8 A land of grain and vines and fig-trees and fair fruits; a land of oil-giving olive-trees and honey;
- 9 Where there will be bread for you in full measure and you will be in need of nothing; a land where the very stones are iron and from whose hills you may get copper.
- 10 And you will have food enough and be full, praising the Lord your God for the good land he has given you.
- 11 Then take care that you are not turned away from the Lord your God and from keeping his orders and decisions and laws which I give you this day:
- 12 And when you have taken food and are full, and have made fair houses for yourselves and are living in them;
- 13 And when your herds and your flocks are increased, and your stores of silver and gold, and you have wealth of every sort;
- 14 Take care that your hearts are not lifted up in pride, giving no thought to the Lord your God who took you out of the land of Egypt, out of the prison-house;
- 15 Who was your guide through that great and cruel waste, where there were poison-snakes and scorpions and a dry land without water; who made water come out of the hard rock for you;
- 16 Who gave you manna for your food in the waste land, a food which your fathers had never seen; so that your pride might be broken and your hearts tested for your good in the end;
- 17 Say not then, in your hearts, My power and the strength of my hands have got me this wealth.
- 18 But keep in mind the Lord your God: for it is he who gives you the power to get wealth, so that he may give effect to the agreement which he made by his oath with your fathers, as at this day.
- 19 And it is certain that if at any time you are turned away from the Lord your God, and go after other gods, to be their servants and to give them worship, destruction will overtake you.
- 20 Like the nations which the Lord is cutting off before you, so you will be cut off; because you would not give ear to the voice of the Lord your God.
- 1 Give ear, O Israel: today you are to go over Jordan, to take the heritage of nations greater and stronger than yourselves, and towns of great size with walls as high as heaven;
- 2 A people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, of whom you have knowledge and of whom it has been said, All are forced to give way before the sons of Anak.
- 3 Be certain then today that it is the Lord your God who goes over before you like an all-burning fire; he will send destruction on them, crushing them before you; and you will send them in flight, putting an end to them quickly, as the Lord has said.
- 4 And after the Lord has sent them in flight from before you, say not in your heart, Because of my righteousness the Lord has given me this land; when it is because of their evil-doing that the Lord is driving these nations out before you.
- 5 Not for your righteousness or because your hearts are upright are you going in to take their land; but because of the evil-doing of these nations the Lord your God is driving them out from before you, and to give effect to his oath to your fathers, Abraha

- 6 Be certain then that the Lord your God is not giving you this good land as a reward for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people.
- 7 Keep well in mind how you made the Lord your God angry in the waste land; from the day when you went out of Egypt till you came to this place, you have gone against the orders of the Lord.
- 8 Again in Horeb you made the Lord angry, and in his wrath he would have put an end to you.
- 9 When I had gone up into the mountain to be given the stones on which was recorded the agreement which the Lord made with you, I was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights without taking food or drinking water.
- 10 And the Lord gave me the two stones with writing on them done by the finger of God: on them were recorded all the words which the Lord said to you on the mountain out of the heart of the fire, on the day of the great meeting.
- 11 Then at the end of forty days and forty nights the Lord gave me those stones, the stones of the agreement.
- 12 And the Lord said to me, Get up now, and go down quickly from this place; for the people you have taken out of Egypt have given themselves over to evil; they have quickly been turned from the way in which I gave them orders to go; they have made themselves
- 13 And then the Lord said to me, I have seen that this people is stiff-necked:
- 14 Let me send destruction on them till their very name is cut off; and I will make of you a nation greater and stronger than they.
- 15 So turning round I came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire; and the two stones of the agreement were in my hands.
- 16 And I saw that you had done evil against the Lord, and had made for yourselves a metal image of a young ox: you had quickly been turned from the way in which the Lord had given you orders to go.
- 17 And I let the stones go from my hands, and they were broken before your eyes.
- 18 And I went down on my face before the Lord, as at the first, for forty days and forty nights, without taking food or drinking water, because of all your sin, in doing evil in the eyes of the Lord and moving him to wrath.
- 19 For I was full of fear because of the wrath of the Lord which was burning against you, with your destruction in view. But again the Lord's ear was open to my prayer.
- 20 And the Lord, in his wrath, would have put Aaron to death: and I made prayer for Aaron at the same time.
- 21 And I took your sin, the image which you had made, and put it in the fire and had it hammered and crushed very small till it was only dust: and the dust I put in the stream flowing down from the mountain.
- 22 Again at Taberah and at Massah and at Kibroth-hattaavah you made the Lord angry.
- 23 And when the Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and take the land which I have given you; you went against the orders of the Lord your God, and had no faith in him, and would not give ear to his voice.
- 24 From the day when I first had knowledge of you, you have gone against the word of the Lord.
- 25 So I went down on my face in prayer before the Lord for forty days and forty nights as I did at first; because the Lord had said that he would put an end to you.
- 26 And I made prayer to the Lord and said, O Lord God, do not send destruction on your people and your heritage, to whom, by your great power, you have given salvation, whom you have taken out of Egypt by the strength of your hand.
- 27 Keep in mind your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, not looking at the hard heart of this people, or their evil-doing and their sin:
- 28 Or it may be said in the land from which you have taken them, Because the Lord was not able to take them into the land which he said he would give them, and because of his hate for them, he has taken them out to put them to death in the waste land.
- 29 But still they are your people and your heritage, whom you took out by your great power and by your stretched-out arm.
 - 1 At that time the Lord said to me, Make two other stones, cut like the first two, and come up to me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood.
 - 2 And I will put on the stones the words which were on the first stones which were broken by you, and you are to put them into the ark.
 - 3 So I made an ark of hard wood, and had two stones cut like the others, and went up the mountain with the stones in my hands.
 - 4 And he put on the stones, as in the first writing, the ten rules which the Lord gave you on the mountain out of the fire on the day of the great meeting: and the Lord gave the stones to me.

- 5 And turning round I came down from the mountain and put the stones in the ark which I had made; and there they are as the Lord gave me orders.
- 6 (And the children of Israel went on from Beeroth Bene-jaakan to Moserah: there death came to Aaron and he was put to rest in the earth; and Eleazar, his son, took his place as priest.
- 7 From there they went on to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of streams of water.
- 8 At that time the Lord had the tribe of Levi marked out to take up the ark of the Lord's agreement, to be before the Lord and to do his work and to give blessings in his name, to this day.
- 9 For this reason Levi has no part or heritage for himself among his brothers: the Lord is his heritage, as the Lord your God said to him.)
- 10 And I was in the mountain, as at the first time, for forty days and forty nights; and again the ears of the Lord were open to my prayer, and he did not send destruction on you.
- 11 Then the Lord said to me, Get up and go on your journey before the people, so that they may go in and take the land which I said in my oath to their fathers that I would give them.
- 12 And now, Israel, what would the Lord your God have you do, but to go in the fear of the Lord your God, walking in all his ways and loving him and doing his pleasure with all your heart and all your soul,
- 13 Doing the orders of the Lord and keeping his laws which I give you this day for your good?
- 14 The Lord your God is ruler of heaven, of the heaven of heavens, and of the earth with everything in it.
- 15 But the Lord had delight in your fathers and love for them, marking out for himself their seed after them, even you, from all peoples, as at this day.
- 16 Let your circumcision be of the heart, and put away your pride.
- 17 For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, strong in power and greatly to be feared, who has no respect for any man's position and takes no rewards:
- 18 Judging uprightly in the cause of the widow and of the child who has no father, and giving food and clothing in his mercy to the man from a strange country.
- 19 So be kind to the man from a strange country who is living among you, for you yourselves were living in a strange country in the land of Egypt.
- 20 Let the fear of the Lord your God be before you, give him worship and be true to him at all times, taking your oaths in his name.
- 21 He is your God, the God of your praise, your God who has done for you all these works of power which your eyes have seen.
- 22 Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now the Lord your God has made you like the stars of heaven in number.
- 1 So have love for the Lord your God, and give him worship, and keep his laws and his decisions and his orders at all times.
- 2 And be certain in your minds this day; for these words are not said to your children, who have had no experience of the training of the Lord your God, and who have not seen his great power or his strong hand and his stretched-out arm,
- 3 Or his signs and wonders which he did in Egypt, to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and all his land;
- 4 And what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and their war-carriages; how he made the waters of the Red Sea come up over them when they went after you, and how the Lord put an end to them even to this day;
- 5 And what he did for you in the waste land, till you came to this place;
- 6 And what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben; when they went down into the open mouth of the earth, with their families and their tents and every living thing which was theirs, before the eyes of all Israel:
- 7 But your eyes have seen all the great works of the Lord which he has done.
- 8 So keep all the orders which I give you today, so that you may be strong, and go in and take the land which is to be your heritage;
- 9 And that your days may be long in the land which the Lord gave by an oath to your fathers and to their seed after them, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 10 For the land where you are going is not like the land of Egypt from which you have come, where you put in your seeds, watering them with your foot, like a planted garden:

- 11 But the land where you are going is a land of hills and valleys, drinking in the rain of heaven:
- 12 A land cared for by the Lord your God: the eyes of the Lord your God are on it at all times from one end of the year to the other.
- 13 And it will be that if you truly give ear to the orders which I put before you this day, loving the Lord your God and worshipping him with all your heart and all your soul,
- 14 Then I will send rain on your land at the right time, the early rains and the late rains, so that you may get in your grain and your wine and your oil.
- 15 And I will give grass in your fields for your cattle, so that you may have food in full measure.
- 16 But take care that your hearts are not turned to false ways so that you become servants and worshippers of other gods;
- 17 For if you do so, the wrath of the Lord will be burning against you, and the heaven will be shut up so that there is no rain and the land will give no fruit; and in a very little time you will be cut off from the good land which the Lord is giving you.
- 18 So keep these words deep in your heart and in your soul, and have them fixed on your hand for a sign and marked on your brow;
- 19 Teaching them to your children, and talking of them when you are at rest in your house or walking by the way, when you go to sleep and when you get up:
- 20 Writing them on the pillars of your houses and over the doors of your towns:
- 21 So that your days, and the days of your children, may be long in the land which the Lord by his oath to your fathers said he would give them, like the days of the eternal heavens.
- 22 For if you take care to keep all the orders which I give you, and to do them; loving the Lord your God and walking in all his ways and being true to him:
- 23 Then the Lord will send these nations in flight before you, and you will take the lands of nations greater and stronger than yourselves.
- 24 Every place where you put your foot will be yours: from the waste land and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates as far as the Great Sea, will be the limits of your land.
- 25 All people will give way before you: for the Lord your God will put the fear of you on all the land through which you go, as he has said.
- 26 Today I put before you a blessing and a curse:
- 27 The blessing if you give ear to the orders of the Lord your God, which I give you this day:
- 28 And the curse if you do not give ear to the orders of the Lord your God, but let yourselves be turned from the way which I have put before you this day, and go after other gods which are not yours.
- 29 And when the Lord your God has taken you into the land of your heritage, you are to put the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.
- 30 Are they not on the other side of Jordan, looking west, in the land of the Canaanites living in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, by the holy tree of Moreh?
- 31 For you are about to go over Jordan to take the heritage which the Lord your God is giving you, and it will be your resting-place.
- 32 And you are to take care to keep all the laws and the decisions which I put before you today.
- 1 These are the laws and the decisions which you are to keep with care in the land which the Lord, the God of your fathers, has given you to be your heritage all the days of your life on earth.
- 2 You are to give up to the curse all those places where the nations, whom you are driving out, gave worship to their gods, on the high mountains and the hills and under every green tree:
- 3 Their altars and their pillars are to be broken down, and their holy trees burned with fire, and the images of their gods cut down; you are to take away their names out of that place.
- 4 Do not so to the Lord your God.
- 5 But let your hearts be turned to the place which will be marked out by the Lord your God, among your tribes, to put his name there;
- 6 And there you are to take your burned offerings and other offerings, and the tenth part of your goods, and the offerings to be lifted up to the Lord, and the offerings of your oaths, and those which you give freely from the impulse of your hearts, and the

- 7 There you and all your families are to make a feast before the Lord your God, with joy in everything to which you put your hand, because the Lord has given you his blessing.
- 8 You are not to do things then in the way in which we now do them here, every man as it seems right to him:
- 9 For you have not come to the rest and the heritage which the Lord your God is giving you.
- 10 But when you have gone over Jordan and are living in the land which the Lord your God is giving you as your heritage, and when he has given you rest from all those on every side who are fighting against you, and you are living there safely;
- 11 Then there will be a place marked out by the Lord your God as the resting-place for his name, and there you will take all the things which I give you orders to take: your burned offerings and other offerings, and the tenth part of your goods, and the offe
- 12 And you will be glad before the Lord your God, you and your sons and your daughters, and your men-servants and your women-servants, and the Levite who is with you in your house, because he has no part or heritage among you.
- 13 Take care that you do not make your burned offerings in any place you see:
- 14 But in the place marked out by the Lord in one of your tribes, there let your burned offerings be offered, and there do what I have given you orders to do.
- 15 Only you may put to death animals, such as the gazelle or the roe, for your food in any of your towns, at the desire of your soul, in keeping with the blessing of the Lord your God which he has given you: the unclean and the clean may take of it.
- 16 But you may not take the blood for food, it is to be drained out on the earth like water.
- 17 In your towns you are not to take as food the tenth part of your grain, or of your wine or your oil, or the first births of your herds or of your flocks, or anything offered under an oath, or freely offered to the Lord, or given as a lifted offering;
- 18 But they will be your food before the Lord your God in the place of his selection, where you may make a feast of them, with your son and your daughter, and your man-servant and your woman-servant, and the Levite who is living with you: and you will have j
- 19 See that you do not give up caring for the Levite as long as you are living in your land.
- 20 When the Lord your God makes wide the limit of your land, as he has said, and you say, I will take flesh for my food, because you have a desire for it; then you may take whatever flesh you have a desire for.
- 21 If the place marked out by the Lord your God as the resting-place for his name is far away from you, then take from your herds and from your flocks which the Lord has given you, as I have said, and have a meal of it in the towns where you may be living.
- 22 It will be your food, like the gazelle and the roe; the unclean and the clean may take of it.
- 23 But see that you do not take the blood for food; for the blood is the life; and you may not make use of the life as food with the flesh.
- 24 Do not take it for food but let it be drained out on the earth like water.
- 25 Do not take it for food; so that it may be well for you and for your children after you, while you do what is right in the eyes of the Lord.
- 26 But the holy things which you have, and the offerings of your oaths, you are to take to the place which will be marked out by the Lord:
- 27 Offering the flesh and the blood of your burned offerings on the altar of the Lord your God; and the blood of your offerings is to be drained out on the altar of the Lord your God, and the flesh will be your food.
- 28 Take note of all these orders I am giving you and give attention to them, so that it may be well for you and for your children after you for ever, while you do what is good and right in the eyes of the Lord your God.
- 29 When the people of the land where you are going have been cut off before you by the Lord your God, and you have taken their land and are living in it;
- 30 After their destruction take care that you do not go in their ways, and that you do not give thought to their gods, saying, How did these nations give worship to their gods? I will do as they did.
- 31 Do not so to the Lord your God: for everything which is disgusting to the Lord and hated by him they have done in honour of their gods: even burning their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.
- 32 You are to keep with care all the words I give you, making no addition to them and taking nothing from them.
- 1 If ever you have among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams and he gives you a sign or a wonder,

- 2 And the sign or the wonder takes place, and he says to you, Let us go after other gods, which are strange to you, and give them worship;
- 3 Then give no attention to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God is testing you, to see if all the love of your heart and soul is given to him.
- 4 But keep on in the ways of the Lord your God, fearing him and keeping his orders and hearing his voice, worshipping him and being true to him.
- 5 And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams is to be put to death; for his words were said with the purpose of turning you away from the Lord your God, who took you out of the land of Egypt and made you free from the prison-house; and of forcing you out of
- 6 If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or your daughter or the wife of your heart, or the friend who is as dear to you as your life, working on you secretly says to you, Let us go and give worship to other gods, strange to you and to your fa
- 7 Gods of the peoples round about you, near or far, from one end of the earth to the other;
- 8 Do not be guided by him or give attention to him; have no pity on him or mercy, and give him no cover;
- 9 But put him to death without question; let your hand be the first stretched out against him to put him to death, and then the hands of all the people.
- 10 Let him be stoned with stones till he is dead; because it was his purpose to make you false to the Lord your God, who took you out of the land of Egypt, out of the prison-house.
- 11 And all Israel, hearing of it, will be full of fear, and no one will again do such evil as this among you.
- 12 And if word comes to you, in one of the towns which the Lord your God is giving you for your resting-place,
- 13 That good-for-nothing persons have gone out from among you, turning the people of their town from the right way and saying, Let us go and give worship to other gods, of whom you have no knowledge;
- 14 Then let a full search be made, and let questions be put with care; and if it is true and certain that such a disgusting thing has been done among you;
- 15 Then take up arms against the people of that town and give it up to the curse, with all its cattle and everything in it.
- 16 And take all the goods into the middle of its open space, burning the town and all its property with fire as an offering to the Lord your God; it is to be a waste for ever; there is to be no more building there.
- 17 Keep not a thing of what is cursed for yourselves: so the Lord may be turned away from the heat of his wrath, and have mercy on you, and give you increase as he said in his oath to your fathers:
- 18 So long as you give ear to the voice of the Lord your God, and keep all his orders which I give you today, and do what is right in the eyes of the Lord your God.
 - 1 You are the children of the Lord your God: you are not to make cuts on your bodies or take off the hair on your brows in honour of the dead;
 - 2 For you are a holy people to the Lord your God, and the Lord has taken you to be his special people out of all the nations on the face of the earth.
 - 3 No disgusting thing may be your food.
 - 4 These are the beasts which you may have for food: the ox, the sheep, and the goat;
 - 5 The hart, the gazelle, and the roe, the mountain goat and the pygarg and the antelope and the mountain sheep.
 - 6 Any beast which has a division in the horn of its foot and whose food comes back into its mouth to be crushed again, may be used for food.
 - 7 But even among these, there are some which may not be used for food: such as the camel, the hare, and the coney, which are unclean to you, because, though their food comes back, the horn of their feet is not parted in two.
 - 8 And the pig is unclean to you, because though it has a division in the horn of its foot, its food does not come back; their flesh may not be used for food or their dead bodies touched by you.
 - 9 And of the things living in the waters, you may take all those who have wings for swimming with and skins formed of thin plates.
 - 10 But any which have no skin-plates or wings for swimming, you may not take; they are unclean for you.
 - 11 All clean birds may be used for food.
 - 12 But these birds you may not take: the eagle and the gier-eagle and the ospray;
 - 13 The falcon and the kite, and birds of that sort;

- 14 Every raven, and all birds of that sort;
- 15 And the ostrich and the night-hawk and the sea-hawk and birds of that sort;
- 16 The little owl and the great owl and the water-hen;
- 17 And the pelican and the vulture and the cormorant;
- 18 The stork and the heron and birds of that sort, and the hoopoe and the bat.
- 19 Every winged thing which goes flat on the earth is unclean to you and may not be used as food.
- 20 But all clean birds you may take.
- 21 You may not have as food anything which has come to a natural death; the man from another country who is living with you may take it for food, or you may get a price for it from one of another nation; for you are a holy people to the Lord your God. The yo
- 22 Put on one side a tenth of all the increase of your seed, produced year by year.
- 23 And make a feast before the Lord your God, in the place which is to be marked out, where his name will be for ever, of the tenth part of your grain and your wine and your oil, and the first births of your herds and your flocks; so that you may have the fe
- 24 And if the way is so long that you are not able to take these things to the place marked out by the Lord your God for his name, when he has given you his blessing, because it is far away from you;
- 25 Then let these things be exchanged for money, and, taking the money in your hand, go to the place marked out by the Lord your God for himself;
- 26 And with the money get whatever you have a desire for, oxen or sheep or wine or strong drink, whatever your soul's desire may be: and make a feast there before the Lord your God, and be glad, you and all your house;
- 27 And give a thought to the Levite who is living among you, for he has no part or heritage in the land.
- 28 At the end of every three years take a tenth part of all your increase for that year, and put it in store inside your walls:
- 29 And the Levite, because he has no part or heritage in the land, and the man from a strange country, and the child who has no father, and the widow, who are living among you, will come and take food and have enough; and so the blessing of the Lord your God
- 1 At the end of every seven years there is to be a general forgiveness of debt.
- 2 This is how it is to be done: every creditor is to give up his right to whatever he has let his neighbour have; he is not to make his neighbour, his countryman, give it back; because a general forgiveness has been ordered by the Lord.
- 3 A man of another nation may be forced to make payment of his debt, but if your brother has anything of yours, let it go;
- 4 But there will be no poor among you; for the Lord will certainly give you his blessing in the land which the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage;
- 5 If only you give ear to the voice of the Lord your God, and take care to keep all these orders which I give you today.
- 6 For the Lord your God will give you his blessing as he has said: you will let other nations have the use of your money, but you will not make use of theirs; you will be rulers over a number of nations, but they will not be your rulers.
- 7 If in any of your towns in the land which the Lord your God is giving you, there is a poor man, one of your countrymen, do not let your heart be hard or your hand shut to him;
- 8 But let your hand be open to give him the use of whatever he is in need of.
- 9 And see that there is no evil thought in your heart, moving you to say to yourself, The seventh year, the year of forgiveness is near; and so looking coldly on your poor countryman you give him nothing; and he will make an outcry to the Lord against you,
- 10 But it is right for you to give to him, without grief of heart: for because of this, the blessing of the Lord your God will be on all your work and on everything to which you put your hand.
- 11 For there will never be a time when there are no poor in the land; and so I give orders to you, Let your hand be open to your countrymen, to those who are poor and in need in your land.
- 12 If one of your countrymen, a Hebrew man or woman, becomes your servant for a price and does work for you six years, in the seventh year let him go free.
- 13 And when you make him free, do not let him go away with nothing in his hands:
- 14 But give him freely from your flock and from your grain and your wine: in the measure of the wealth which the Lord your God has given you, you are to give to him.

- 15 And keep in mind that you yourself were a servant in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God made you free: so I give you this order today.
- 16 But if he says to you, I have no desire to go away from you; because you and your family are dear to him and he is happy with you;
- 17 Then take a sharp-pointed instrument, driving it through his ear into the door, and he will be your servant for ever. And you may do the same for your servant-girl.
- 18 Let it not seem hard to you that you have to send him away free; for he has been working for you for six years, which is twice the regular time for a servant: and the blessing of the Lord your God will be on you in everything you do.
- 19 All the first males to come to birth in your herd and your flock are to be holy to the Lord your God: the first birth of your ox is not to be used for work, the wool of your first lamb is not to be cut.
- 20 But year by year you and all your house are to take a meal of it before the Lord, in the place of his selection.
- 21 But if it has any mark on it, if it is blind or has damaged legs, or if there is anything wrong with it, it may not be offered to the Lord your God.
- 22 It may be used for food in your houses: the unclean and the clean may take of it, as of the gazelle and the roe.
- 23 Only do not take its blood for food, but let it be drained out on the earth like water.
- 1 Take note of the month of Abib and keep the Passover to the Lord your God: for in the month of Abib the Lord your God took you out of Egypt by night.
- 2 The Passover offering, from your flock or your herd, is to be given to the Lord your God in the place marked out by him as the resting-place of his name.
- 3 Take no leavened bread with it; for seven days let your food be unleavened bread, that is, the bread of sorrow; for you came out of the land of Egypt quickly: so the memory of that day, when you came out of the land of Egypt, will be with you all your life.
- 4 For seven days let no leaven be used through all your land; and nothing of the flesh which is put to death in the evening of the first day is to be kept through the night till morning.
- 5 The Passover offering is not to be put to death in any of the towns which the Lord your God gives you:
- 6 But in the place marked out by the Lord your God as the resting-place of his name, there you are to put the Passover to death in the evening, at sundown, at that time of the year when you came out of Egypt.
- 7 It is to be cooked and taken as food in the place marked out by the Lord: and in the morning you are to go back to your tents.
- 8 For six days let your food be unleavened bread; and on the seventh day there is to be a holy meeting to the Lord your God; no work is to be done.
- 9 Let seven weeks be numbered from the first day when the grain is cut.
- 10 Then keep the feast of weeks to the Lord your God, with an offering freely given to him from the wealth he has given you:
- 11 Then you are to be glad before the Lord your God, you and your son and your daughter, your man-servant and your woman-servant, and the Levite who is with you, and the man from a strange country, and the child without a father, and the widow, who are living.
- 12 And you will keep in mind that you were a servant in the land of Egypt: and you will take care to keep all these laws.
- 13 You are to keep the feast of tents for seven days after you have got in all your grain and made your wine:
- 14 You are to keep the feast with joy, you and your son and your daughter, your man-servant and your woman-servant, and the Levite, and the man from a strange country, and the child without a father, and the widow, who are living among you.
- 15 Keep the feast to the Lord your God for seven days, in the place marked out by the Lord: because the blessing of the Lord your God will be on all the produce of your land and all the work of your hands, and you will have nothing but joy.
- 16 Three times in the year let all your males come before the Lord your God in the place named by him; at the feast of unleavened bread, the feast of weeks, and the feast of tents: and they are not to come before the Lord with nothing in their hands;
- 17 Every man is to give as he is able, in the measure of the blessing which the Lord your God has given you.
- 18 You are to make judges and overseers in all your towns which the Lord your God gives you, for every tribe: and they are to be upright men, judging the people in righteousness.

- 19 You are not to be moved in your judging by a man's position, you are not to take rewards; for rewards make the eyes of the wise man blind, and the decisions of the upright false.
- 20 Let righteousness be your guide, so that you may have life, and take for your heritage the land which the Lord your God is giving you.
- 21 Let no holy tree of any sort be planted by the altar of the Lord your God which you will make.
- 22 You are not to put up stone pillars, for they are hated by the Lord your God.
- 1 No ox or sheep which has a mark on it or is damaged in any way may be offered to the Lord your God: for that is disgusting to the Lord your God.
- 2 If there is any man or woman among you, in any of the towns which the Lord your God gives you, who does evil in the eyes of the Lord your God, sinning against his agreement,
- 3 By becoming a servant of other gods and worshipping them or the sun or the moon or all the stars of heaven, against my orders;
- 4 If word of this comes to your ears, then let this thing be looked into with care, and if there is no doubt that it is true, and such evil has been done in Israel;
- 5 Then you are to take the man or woman who has done the evil to the public place of your town, and they are to be stoned with stones till they are dead.
- 6 On the word of two or three witnesses, a man may be given the punishment of death; but he is not to be put to death on the word of one witness.
- 7 The hands of the witnesses will be the first to put him to death, and after them the hands of all the people. So you are to put away the evil from among you.
- 8 If you are not able to give a decision as to who is responsible for a death, or who is right in a cause, or who gave the first blow in a fight, and there is a division of opinion about it in your town: then go to the place marked out by the Lord your God;
- 9 And come before the priests, the Levites, or before him who is judge at the time: and they will go into the question and give you a decision:
- 10 And you are to be guided by the decision they give in the place named by the Lord, and do whatever they say:
- 11 Acting in agreement with their teaching and the decision they give: not turning to one side or the other from the word they have given you.
- 12 And any man who, in his pride, will not give ear to the priest whose place is there before the Lord your God, or to the judge, is to be put to death: you are to put away the evil from Israel.
- 13 And all the people, hearing of it, will be full of fear and put away their pride.
- 14 When you have come into the land which the Lord your God is giving you, and have taken it for a heritage and are living in it, if it is your desire to have a king over you, like the other nations round about you;
- 15 Then see that you take as your king the man named by the Lord your God: let your king be one of your countrymen, not a man of another nation who is not one of yourselves.
- 16 And he is not to get together a great army of horses for himself, or make the people go back to Egypt to get horses for him: because the Lord has said, You will never again go back that way.
- 17 And he is not to have a great number of wives, for fear that his heart may be turned away; or great wealth of silver and gold.
- 18 And when he has taken his place on the seat of his kingdom, he is to make in a book a copy of this law, from that which the priests, the Levites, have in their care:
- 19 And it is to be with him for his reading all the days of his life, so that he may be trained in the fear of the Lord his God to keep and do all the words of this teaching and these laws:
- 20 So that his heart may not be lifted up over his countrymen, and he may not be turned away from the orders, to one side or the other: but that his life and the lives of his children may be long in his kingdom in Israel.
- 1 The priests, the Levites, that is, all the tribe of Levi, will have no part or heritage with Israel: their food and their heritage will be the offerings of the Lord made by fire.
- 2 And they will have no heritage among their countrymen: the Lord is their heritage, as he has said to them.
- 3 And this is to be the priests' right: those who make an offering of a sheep or an ox are to give to the priest the top part of the leg and the two sides of the head and the stomach.
- 4 And in addition you are to give him the first of your grain and wine and oil, and the first wool cut from your sheep.

- 5 For he, and his sons after him for ever, have been marked out by the Lord your God from all your tribes, to do the work of priests in the name of the Lord.
- 6 And if a Levite, moved by a strong desire, comes from any town in all Israel where he is living to the place marked out by the Lord;
- 7 Then he will do the work of a priest in the name of the Lord his God, with all his brothers the Levites who are there before the Lord.
- 8 His food will be the same as theirs, in addition to what has come to him as the price of his property.
- 9 When you have come into the land which the Lord your God is giving you, do not take as your example the disgusting ways of those nations.
- 10 Let there not be seen among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter go through the fire, or anyone using secret arts, or a maker of strange sounds, or a reader of signs, or any wonder-worker,
- 11 Or anyone using secret force on people, or putting questions to a spirit, or having secret knowledge, or going to the dead for directions.
- 12 For all who do such things are disgusting to the Lord; and because of these disgusting things the Lord your God is driving them out before you.
- 13 You are to be upright in heart before the Lord your God.
- 14 For these nations, whose land you are taking, give attention to readers of signs and to those using secret arts: but the Lord your God will not let you do so.
- 15 The Lord your God will give you a prophet from among your people, like me; you will give ear to him;
- 16 In answer to the request you made to the Lord your God in Horeb on the day of the great meeting, when you said, Let not the voice of the Lord my God come to my ears again, and let me not see this great fire any more, or death will overtake me.
- 17 Then the Lord said to me, What they have said is well said.
- 18 I will give them a prophet from among themselves, like you, and I will put my words in his mouth, and he will say to them whatever I give him orders to say.
- 19 And whoever does not give ear to my words which he will say in my name, will be responsible to me.
- 20 But the prophet who takes it on himself to say words in my name which I have not given him orders to say, or who says anything in the name of other gods, will come to his death.
- 21 And if you say in your hearts, How are we to be certain that the word does not come from the Lord?
- 22 When a prophet makes a statement in the name of the Lord, if what he says does not take place and his words do not come true, then his word is not the word of the Lord: the words of the prophet were said in the pride of his heart, and you are to have no f
- 1 When the nations, whose land the Lord your God is giving you, have been cut off by him, and you have taken their place and are living in their towns and in their houses;
- 2 You are to have three towns marked out in the land which the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage.
- 3 You are to make ready a way, and see that the land which the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage, is marked out into three parts, to which any taker of life may go in flight.
- 4 This is to be the rule for anyone who goes in flight there, after causing the death of his neighbour in error and not through hate;
- 5 For example, if a man goes into the woods with his neighbour for the purpose of cutting down trees, and when he takes his axe to give a blow to the tree, the head of the axe comes off, and falling on to his neighbour gives him a wound causing his death; t
- 6 For if not, he who has the right of punishment may go running after the taker of life in the heat of his wrath, and overtake him because the way is long, and give him a death-blow; though it is not right for him to be put to death because he was not moved
- 7 And so I am ordering you to see that three towns are marked out for this purpose.
- 8 And if the Lord your God makes wide the limits of your land, as he said in his oath to your fathers, and gives you all the land which he undertook to give to your fathers;
- 9 If you keep and do all these orders which I give you today, loving the Lord your God and walking ever in his ways; then let three more towns, in addition to these three, be marked out for you:

- 10 So that in all your land, which the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage, no man may be wrongly put to death, for which you will be responsible.
- 11 But if any man has hate for his neighbour, and waiting for him secretly makes an attack on him and gives him a blow causing his death, and then goes in flight to one of these towns;
- 12 The responsible men of his town are to send and take him, and give him up to the one who has the right of punishment to be put to death.
- 13 Have no pity on him, so that Israel may be clear from the crime of putting a man to death without cause, and it will be well for you.
- 14 Your neighbour's landmark, which was put in its place by the men of old times, is not to be moved or taken away in the land of your heritage which the Lord your God is giving you.
- 15 One witness may not make a statement against a man in relation to any sin or wrongdoing which he has done: on the word of two or three witnesses a question is to be judged.
- 16 If a false witness makes a statement against a man, saying that he has done wrong,
- 17 Then the two men, between whom the argument has taken place, are to come before the Lord, before the priests and judges who are then in power;
- 18 And the judges will have the question looked into with care: and if the witness is seen to be false and to have made a false statement against his brother,
- 19 Then do to him what it was his purpose to do to his brother: and so put away the evil from among you.
- 20 And the rest of the people, hearing of it, will be full of fear, and never again do such evil among you.
- 21 Have no pity; let life be given for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.
 - 1 When you go out to war against other nations, and come face to face with horses and war-carriages and armies greater in number than yourselves, have no fear of them: for the Lord your God is with you, who took you up out of the land of Egypt.
 - 2 And when you are on the point of attacking, let the priest come forward and say to the people,
 - 3 Give ear, O Israel: today you are going forward to the fight; let your heart be strong; do not let uncontrolled fear overcome you because of those who are against you;
 - 4 For the Lord your God goes with you, fighting for you to give you salvation from those who are against you.
 - 5 And let the overseers say to the people, If there is any man who has made for himself a new house and has not gone into it, let him go back to his house, so that in the event of his death in the fight, another may not take his house for himself.
 - 6 Or if any man has made a vine-garden without taking the first-fruits of it, let him go back to his house, so that in the event of his death in the fight, another may not be the first to make use of the fruit.
 - 7 Or if any man is newly married and has had no sex relations with his wife, let him go back to his house, so that in the event of his death in the fight, another man may not take her.
 - 8 And let the overseers go on to say to the people, If there is any man whose heart is feeble with fear, let him go back to his house before he makes the hearts of his countrymen feeble.
 - 9 Then, after saying these words to the people, let the overseers put captains over the army.
- 10 When you come to a town, before attacking it, make an offer of peace.
- 11 And if it gives you back an answer of peace, opening its doors to you, then all the people in it may be put to forced work as your servants.
- 12 If however it will not make peace with you, but war, then let it be shut in on all sides:
- 13 And when the Lord your God has given it into your hands, let every male in it be put to death without mercy.
- 14 But the women and the children and the cattle and everything in the town and all its wealth, you may take for yourselves: the wealth of your haters, which the Lord your God has given you, will be your food.
- 15 So you are to do to all the towns far away, which are not the towns of these nations.
- 16 But in the towns of these peoples whose land the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage, let no living thing be kept from death:
- 17 Give them up to the curse; the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, as the Lord your God has given you orders:
- 18 So that you may not take them as your example and do all the disgusting things which they do in the worship of their gods, so sinning against the Lord your God.

- 19 If in war a town is shut in by your armies for a long time, do not let its trees be cut down and made waste; for their fruit will be your food; are the trees of the countryside men for you to take up arms against them?
- 20 Only those trees which you are certain are not used for food may be cut down and put to destruction: and you are to make walls of attack against the town till it is taken.
 - 1 If, in the land which the Lord your God is giving you, you come across the dead body of a man in the open country, and you have no idea who has put him to death:
 - 2 Then your responsible men and your judges are to come out, and give orders for the distance from the dead body to the towns round about it to be measured;
 - 3 And whichever town is nearest to the body, the responsible men of that town are to take from the herd a young cow which has never been used for work or put under the yoke;
 - 4 And they are to take the cow into a valley where there is flowing water, and which is not ploughed or planted, and there the neck of the cow is to be broken:
 - 5 Then the priests, the sons of Levi, are to come near; for they have been marked out by the Lord your God to be his servants and to give blessings in the name of the Lord; and by their decision every argument and every blow is to be judged:
 - 6 And all the responsible men of that town which is nearest to the dead man, washing their hands over the cow whose neck was broken in the valley,
 - 7 Will say, This death is not the work of our hands and our eyes have not seen it.
 - 8 Have mercy, O Lord, on your people Israel whom you have made free, and take away from your people the crime of a death without cause. Then they will no longer be responsible for the man's death.
 - 9 So you will take away the crime of a death without cause from among you, when you do what is right in the eyes of the Lord.
- 10 When you go out to war against other nations, and the Lord your God gives them up into your hands and you take them as prisoners;
 - 11 If among the prisoners you see a beautiful woman and it is your desire to make her your wife;
 - 12 Then take her back to your house; and let her hair and her nails be cut;
 - 13 And let her take off the dress in which she was made prisoner and go on living in your house and weeping for her father and mother for a full month: and after that you may go in to her and be her husband and she will be your wife.
 - 14 But if you have no delight in her, you are to let her go wherever she will; you may not take a price for her as if she was your property, for you have made use of her for your pleasure.
 - 15 If a man has two wives, one greatly loved and the other hated, and the two of them have had children by him; and if the first son is the child of the hated wife:
 - 16 Then when he gives his property to his sons for their heritage, he is not to put the son of his loved one in the place of the first son, the son of the hated wife:
 - 17 But he is to give his first son his birthright, and twice as great a part of his property: for he is the first-fruits of his strength and the right of the first son is his.
 - 18 If a man has a son who is hard-hearted and uncontrolled, who gives no attention to the voice of his father and mother, and will not be ruled by them, though they give him punishment:
 - 19 Then let his father and mother take him to the responsible men of the town, to the public place;
 - 20 And say to them, This son of ours is hard-hearted and uncontrolled, he will not give attention to us; he gives himself up to pleasure and strong drink.
 - 21 Then he is to be stoned to death by all the men of the town: so you are to put away the evil from among you; and all Israel, hearing of it, will be full of fear.
 - 22 If a man does a crime for which the punishment is death, and he is put to death by hanging him on a tree;
 - 23 Do not let his body be on the tree all night, but put it to rest in the earth the same day; for the man who undergoes hanging is cursed by God; so do not make unclean the land which the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage.
 - 1 If you see your brother's ox or his sheep wandering, do not go by without helping, but take them back to your brother.
 - 2 If their owner is not near, or if you are not certain who he is, then take the beast to your house and keep it till its owner comes in search of it, and then you are to give it back to him.
 - 3 Do the same with his ass or his robe or anything which has gone from your brother's keeping and which you have come across: do not keep it to yourself.

- 4 If you see your brother's ox or his ass falling down on the road, do not go by without giving him help in lifting it up again.
- 5 It is not right for a woman to be dressed in man's clothing, or for a man to put on a woman's robe: whoever does such things is disgusting to the Lord your God.
- 6 If by chance you see a place which a bird has made for itself in a tree or on the earth, with young ones or eggs, and the mother bird seated on the young ones or on the eggs, do not take the mother bird with the young:
- 7 See that you let the mother bird go, but the young ones you may take; so it will be well for you and your life will be long.
- 8 If you are building a house, make a railing for the roof, so that the blood of any man falling from it will not come on your house.
- 9 Do not have your vine-garden planted with two sorts of seed: or all of it may become a loss, the seed you have put in as well as the increase.
- 10 Do not do your ploughing with an ox and an ass yoked together.
- 11 Do not have clothing made of two sorts of thread, wool and linen together.
- 12 On the four edges of your robe, with which your body is covered, put ornaments of twisted threads.
- 13 If any man takes a wife, and having had connection with her, has no delight in her,
- 14 And says evil things about her and gives her a bad name, saying, I took this woman, and when I had connection with her it was clear to me that she was not a virgin:
- 15 Then let the girl's father and mother put before the responsible men of the town, in the public place, signs that the girl was a virgin:
- 16 And let the girl's father say to the responsible men, I gave my daughter to this man for his wife, but he has no love for her;
- 17 And now he has put shame on her, saying that she is not a virgin; but here is the sign that she is a virgin. Then they are to put her clothing before the responsible men of the town.
- 18 Then the responsible men of the town are to give the man his punishment;
- 19 They will take from him a hundred shekels of silver, which are to be given to the father of the girl, because he has given an evil name to a virgin of Israel: she will go on being his wife, he may never put her away all his life.
- 20 But if what he has said is true, and she is seen to be not a virgin,
- 21 Then they are to make the girl come to the door of her father's house and she will be stoned to death by the men of the town, because she has done evil and put shame on Israel, by acting as a loose woman in her father's house: so you are to put away evil
- 22 If a man is taken in the act of going in to a married woman, the two of them, the man as well as the woman, are to be put to death: so you are to put away the evil from Israel.
- 23 If a young virgin has given her word to be married to a man, and another man meeting her in the town, has connection with her;
- 24 Then you are to take the two of them to the doorway of the town, and have them stoned to death; the young virgin, because she gave no cry for help, though it was in the town, and the man, because he has put shame on his neighbour's wife: so you are to put
- 25 But if the man, meeting such a virgin in the open country, takes her by force, then only the man is to be put to death;
- 26 Nothing is to be done to the virgin, because there is no cause of death in her: it is the same as if a man made an attack on his neighbour and put him to death:
- 27 For he came across her in the open country, and there was no one to come to the help of the virgin in answer to her cry.
- 28 If a man sees a young virgin, who has not given her word to be married to anyone, and he takes her by force and has connection with her, and discovery is made of it;
- 29 Then the man will have to give the virgin's father fifty shekels of silver and make her his wife, because he has put shame on her; he may never put her away all his life.
- 30 A man may not take his father's wife or have sex relations with a woman who is his father's.
 - 1 No man whose private parts have been wounded or cut off may come into the meeting of the Lord's people.
 - 2 One whose father and mother are not married may not come into the meeting of the Lord's people, or any of his family to the tenth generation.
 - 3 No Ammonite or Moabite or any of their people to the tenth generation may come into the meeting of the Lord's people:

- 4 Because they gave you no bread or water on your way, when you came out of Egypt: and they got Balaam, the son of Peor, from Pethor in Aram-naharaim to put curses on you.
- 5 But the Lord your God would not give ear to Balaam, but let the curse be changed into a blessing to you, because of his love for you.
- 6 Do nothing for their peace or well-being for ever.
- 7 But have no hate for an Edomite, because he is your brother, or for an Egyptian, for you were living in his land.
- 8 Their children in the third generation may come into the meeting of the Lord's people.
- 9 When you go out to war and put your tents in position, keep from every evil thing.
- 10 If any man among you becomes unclean through anything which has taken place in the night, he is to go out from the tent-circle and keep outside it:
- 11 But when evening comes near, let him take a bath: and after sundown he may come back to the tents.
- 12 Let there be a place outside the tent-circle to which you may go;
- 13 And have among your arms a spade; and when you have been to that place, let that which comes from you be covered up with earth:
- 14 For the Lord your God is walking among your tents, to keep you safe and to give up into your hands those who are fighting against you; then let your tents be holy, so that he may see no unclean thing among you, and be turned away from you.
- 15 Do not give back to his master a servant who has gone in flight from his master and come to you:
- 16 Let him go on living among you in whatever place is most pleasing to him: do not be hard on him.
- 17 No daughter of Israel is to let herself be used as a loose woman for a strange god, and no son of Israel is to give himself to a man.
- 18 Do not take into the house of the Lord your God, as an offering for an oath, the price of a loose woman or the money given to one used for sex purposes in the worship of the gods: for these two things are disgusting to the Lord your God.
- 19 Do not take interest from an Israelite on anything, money or food or any other goods, which you let him have:
- 20 From men of other nations you may take interest, but not from an Israelite: so that the blessing of the Lord your God may be on everything to which you put your hand, in the land which you are about to take as your heritage.
- 21 When you take an oath to the Lord, do not be slow to give effect to it: for without doubt the Lord your God will make you responsible, and will put it to your account as sin.
- 22 But if you take no oath, there will be no sin.
- 23 Whatever your lips have said, see that you do it; for you gave your word freely to the Lord your God.
- 24 When you go into your neighbour's vine-garden, you may take of his grapes at your pleasure, but you may not take them away in your vessel.
- 25 When you go into your neighbour's field, you may take the heads of grain with your hand; but you may not put your blade to his grain.
- 1 If a man takes a wife, and after they are married she is displeasing to him because of some bad quality in her, let him give her a statement in writing and send her away from his house.
- 2 And when she has gone away from him, she may become another man's wife.
- 3 And if the second husband has no love for her and, giving her a statement in writing, sends her away; or if death comes to the second husband to whom she was married;
- 4 Her first husband, who had sent her away, may not take her back after she has been wife to another; for that is disgusting to the Lord: and you are not to be a cause of sin in the land which the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage.
- 5 A newly married man will not have to go out with the army or undertake any business, but may be free for one year, living in his house for the comfort of his wife.
- 6 No one is to take, on account of a debt, the stones with which grain is crushed: for in doing so he takes a man's living.
- 7 If a man takes by force one of his countrymen, the children of Israel, using him as his property or getting a price for him, that thief is to be put to death: so you are to put away evil from among you.
- 8 In connection with the leper's disease, take care to keep and do every detail of the teaching of the priests, the Levites: as I gave them orders, so you are to do.
- 9 Keep in mind what the Lord your God did to Miriam on the way, when you came out of Egypt.

- 10 If you let your brother have the use of anything which is yours, do not go into his house and take anything of his as a sign of his debt;
- 11 But keep outside till he comes out and gives it to you.
- 12 If he is a poor man, do not keep his property all night;
- 13 But be certain to give it back to him when the sun goes down, so that he may have his clothing for sleeping in, and will give you his blessing: and this will be put to your account as righteousness before the Lord your God.
- 14 Do not be hard on a servant who is poor and in need, if he is one of your countrymen or a man from another nation living with you in your land.
- 15 Give him his payment day by day, not keeping it back over night; for he is poor and his living is dependent on it; and if his cry against you comes to the ears of the Lord, it will be judged as sin in you.
- 16 Fathers are not to be put to death for their children or children for their fathers: every man is to be put to death for the sin which he himself has done.
- 17 Be upright in judging the cause of the man from a strange country and of him who has no father; do not take a widow's clothing on account of a debt:
- 18 But keep in mind that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God made you free: for this is why I give you orders to do this.
- 19 When you get in the grain from your field, if some of the grain has been dropped by chance in the field, do not go back and get it, but let it be for the man from a strange land, the child without a father, and the widow: so that the blessing of the Lord
- 20 When you are shaking the fruit from your olive-trees, do not go over the branches a second time: let some be for the man from a strange land, the child without a father, and the widow.
- 21 When you are pulling the grapes from your vines, do not take up those which have been dropped; let them be for the man from a strange land, the child without a father, and the widow.
- 22 Keep in mind that you were a servant in the land of Egypt: for this is why I give you orders to do this.
 - 1 If there is an argument between men and they go to law with one another, let the judges give their decision for the upright, and against the wrongdoer.
 - 2 And if the wrongdoer is to undergo punishment by whipping, the judge will give orders for him to go down on his face and be whipped before him, the number of the blows being in relation to his crime.
 - 3 He may be given forty blows, not more; for if more are given, your brother may be shamed before you.
 - 4 Do not keep the ox from taking the grain when he is crushing it.
 - 5 If brothers are living together and one of them, at his death, has no son, the wife of the dead man is not to be married outside the family to another man: let her husband's brother go in to her and make her his wife, doing as it is right for a brother-in
 - 6 Then the first male child she has will take the rights of the brother who is dead, so that his name may not come to an end in Israel.
 - 7 But if the man says he will not take his brother's wife, then let the wife go to the responsible men of the town, and say, My husband's brother will not keep his brother's name living in Israel; he will not do what it is right for a husband's brother to do
 - 8 Then the responsible men of the town will send for the man, and have talk with him: and if he still says, I will not take her;
 - 9 Then his brother's wife is to come to him, before the responsible men of the town, and take his shoe off his foot, and put shame on him, and say, So let it be done to the man who will not take care of his brother's name.
 - 10 And his family will be named in Israel, The house of him whose shoe has been taken off.
 - 11 If two men are fighting, and the wife of one of them, coming to the help of her husband, takes the other by the private parts;
 - 12 Her hand is to be cut off; have no pity on her.
 - 13 Do not have in your bag different weights, a great and a small;
 - 14 Or in your house different measures, a great and a small.
 - 15 But have a true weight and a true measure: so that your life may be long in the land which the Lord your God is giving you.

- 16 For all who do such things, and all whose ways are not upright, are disgusting to the Lord your God.
- 17 Keep in mind what Amalek did to you on your way from Egypt;
- 18 How, meeting you on the way, he made an attack on you when you were tired and without strength, cutting off all the feeble ones at the end of your line; and the fear of God was not in him.
- 19 So when the Lord your God has given you rest from all who are against you on every side, in the land which the Lord your God is giving you for your heritage, see to it that the memory of Amalek is cut off from the earth; keep this in mind.
- 1 Now when you have come into the land which the Lord is giving you for your heritage, and you have made it yours and are living in it;
- 2 You are to take a part of the first-fruits of the earth, which you get from the land which the Lord your God is giving you, and put it in a basket, and go to the place marked out by the Lord your God, as the resting-place of his name.
- 3 And you are to come to him who is priest at that time, and say to him, I give witness today before the Lord your God, that I have come into the land which the Lord made an oath to our fathers to give us.
- 4 Then the priest will take the basket from your hand and put it down in front of the altar of the Lord your God.
- 5 And these are the words which you will say before the Lord your God: My father was a wandering Aramaean, and he went down with a small number of people into Egypt; there he became a great and strong nation:
- 6 And the Egyptians were cruel to us, crushing us under a hard yoke:
- 7 And our cry went up to the Lord, the God of our fathers, and the Lord's ear was open to the voice of our cry, and his eyes took note of our grief and the crushing weight of our work:
- 8 And the Lord took us out of Egypt with a strong hand and a stretched-out arm, with works of power and signs and wonders:
- 9 And he has been our guide to this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 10 So now, I have come here with the first of the fruits of the earth which you, O Lord, have given me. Then you will put it down before the Lord your God and give him worship:
- 11 And you will have joy in every good thing which the Lord your God has given to you and to your family; and the Levite, and the man from a strange land who is with you, will take part in your joy.
- 12 When you have taken out a tenth from the tenth of all your produce in the third year, which is the year when this has to be done, give it to the Levite, and the man from a strange land, and the child without a father, and the widow, so that they may have
- 13 And say before the Lord your God, I have taken all the holy things out of my house and have given them to the Levite, and the man from a strange land, and him who has no father, and the widow, as you have given me orders: I have kept in mind all your orde
- 14 No part of these things has been used for food in a time of weeping, or put away when I was unclean, or given for the dead: I have given ear to the voice of the Lord my God, and have done all you have given me orders to do.
- 15 So, looking down from your holy place in heaven, send your blessing on your people Israel and on the land which you have given us, as you said in your oath to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 16 Today the Lord your God gives you orders to keep all these laws and decisions: so then keep and do them with all your heart and all your soul.
- 17 Today you have given witness that the Lord is your God, and that you will go in his ways and keep his laws and his orders and his decisions and give ear to his voice:
- 18 And the Lord has made it clear this day that you are a special people to him, as he gave you his word; and that you are to keep all his orders;
- 19 And that he will make you high over all the nations he has made, in praise, in name, and in honour, and that you are to be a holy people to the Lord your God as he has said.
- 1 Then Moses and the responsible men of Israel gave the people these orders: Keep all the orders which I have given you this day;
- 2 And on the day when you go over Jordan into the land which the Lord your God is giving you, put up great stones, coating them with building-paste,
- 3 And writing on them all the words of this law, after you have gone over; so that you may take the heritage which the Lord your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the Lord, the God of your fathers, has said.

- 4 And when you have gone over Jordan, you are to put up these stones, as I have said to you today, in Mount Ebal, and have them coated with building-paste.
- 5 There you are to make an altar to the Lord your God, of stones on which no iron instrument has been used.
- 6 You are to make the altar of the Lord your God of uncut stones; offering on it burned offerings to the Lord your God:
- 7 And you are to make your peace-offerings, feasting there with joy before the Lord your God.
- 8 And put on the stones all the words of this law, writing them very clearly.
- 9 Then Moses and the priests, the Levites, said to all Israel, Be quiet and give ear, O Israel; today you have become the people of the Lord your God.
- 10 For this cause you are to give ear to the voice of the Lord your God, and do his orders and his laws which I give you this day.
- 11 That same day Moses said to the people,
- 12 These are to take their places on Mount Gerizim for blessing the people when you have gone over Jordan: Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Joseph and Benjamin;
- 13 And these are to be on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.
- 14 Then the Levites are to say in a loud voice to all the men of Israel,
- 15 Cursed is the man who makes any image of wood or stone or metal, disgusting to the Lord, the work of man's hands, and puts it up in secret. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 16 Cursed is he who does not give honour to his father or mother. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 17 Cursed is he who takes his neighbour's landmark from its place. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 18 Cursed is he by whom the blind are turned out of the way. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 19 Cursed is he who gives a wrong decision in the cause of a man from a strange land, or of one without a father, or of a widow. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 20 Cursed is he who has sex relations with his father's wife, for he has put shame on his father. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 21 Cursed is he who has sex relations with any sort of beast. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 22 Cursed is he who has sex relations with his sister, the daughter of his father or of his mother. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 23 Cursed is he who has sex relations with his mother-in-law. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 24 Cursed is he who takes his neighbour's life secretly. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 25 Cursed is he who for a reward puts to death one who has done no wrong. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 26 Cursed is he who does not take this law to heart to do it. And let all the people say, So be it.
- 1 Now if you give ear to the voice of the Lord your God, and keep with care all these orders which I have given you today, then the Lord your God will put you high over all the nations of the earth:
- 2 And all these blessings will come on you and overtake you, if your ears are open to the voice of the Lord your God.
- 3 A blessing will be on you in the town, and a blessing in the field.
- 4 A blessing will be on the fruit of your body, and on the fruit of your land, on the fruit of your cattle, the increase of your herd, and the young of your flock.
- 5 A blessing will be on your basket and on your bread-basin.
- 6 A blessing will be on your coming in and on your going out.
- 7 By the power of the Lord, those who take arms against you will be overcome before you: they will come out against you one way, and will go in flight from you seven ways.
- 8 The Lord will send his blessing on your store-houses and on everything to which you put your hand: his blessing will be on you in the land which the Lord your God is giving you.
- 9 The Lord will keep you as a people holy to himself, as he has said to you in his oath, if you keep the orders of the Lord your God and go on walking in his ways.
- 10 And all the peoples of the earth will see that the name of the Lord is on you, and they will go in fear of you.
- 11 And the Lord will make you fertile in every good thing, in the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your cattle, and the fruit of your fields, in the land which the Lord, by his oath to your fathers, said he would give you.

- 12 Opening his store-house in heaven, the Lord will send rain on your land at the right time, blessing all the work of your hands: other nations will make use of your wealth, and you will have no need of theirs.
- 13 The Lord will make you the head and not the tail; and you will ever have the highest place, if you give ear to the orders of the Lord your God which I give you today, to keep and to do them;
- 14 Not turning away from any of the orders which I give you today, to the right hand or to the left, or going after any other gods to give them worship.
- 15 But if you do not give ear to the voice of the Lord your God, and take care to do all his orders and his laws which I give you today, then all these curses will come on you and overtake you:
- 16 You will be cursed in the town and cursed in the field.
- 17 A curse will be on your basket and on your bread-basin.
- 18 A curse will be on the fruit of your body, and on the fruit of your land, on the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock.
- 19 You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.
- 20 The Lord will send on you cursing and trouble and punishment in everything to which you put your hand, till sudden destruction overtakes you; because of your evil ways in which you have been false to me.
- 21 The Lord will send disease after disease on you, till you have been cut off by death from the land to which you are going.
- 22 The Lord will send wasting disease, and burning pain, and flaming heat against you, keeping back the rain till your land is waste and dead; so will it be till your destruction is complete.
- 23 And the heaven over your heads will be brass, and the earth under you hard as iron.
- 24 The Lord will make the rain of your land powder and dust, sending it down on you from heaven till your destruction is complete.
- 25 The Lord will let you be overcome by your haters: you will go out against them one way, and you will go in flight before them seven ways: you will be the cause of fear among all the kingdoms of the earth.
- 26 Your bodies will be meat for all the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth; there will be no one to send them away.
- 27 The Lord will send on you the disease of Egypt, and other sorts of skin diseases which nothing will make well.
- 28 He will make your minds diseased, and your eyes blind, and your hearts wasted with fear:
- 29 You will go feeling your way when the sun is high, like a blind man for whom all is dark, and nothing will go well for you: you will be crushed and made poor for ever, and you will have no saviour.
- 30 You will take a wife, but another man will have the use of her: the house which your hands have made will never be your resting-place: you will make a vine-garden, and never take the fruit of it.
- 31 Your ox will be put to death before your eyes, but its flesh will not be your food: your ass will be violently taken away before your face, and will not be given back to you: your sheep will be given to your haters, and there will be no saviour for you.
- 32 Your sons and your daughters will be given to another people, and your eyes will be wasted away with looking and weeping for them all the day: and you will have no power to do anything.
- 33 The fruit of your land and all the work of your hands will be food for a nation which is strange to you and to your fathers; you will only be crushed down and kept under for ever:
- 34 So that the things which your eyes have to see will send you out of your minds.
- 35 The Lord will send a skin disease, attacking your knees and your legs, bursting out from your feet to the top of your head, so that nothing will make you well.
- 36 And you, and the king whom you have put over you, will the Lord take away to a nation strange to you and to your fathers; there you will be servants to other gods of wood and stone.
- 37 And you will become a wonder and a name of shame among all the nations where the Lord will take you.
- 38 You will take much seed out into the field, and get little in; for the locust will get it.
- 39 You will put in vines and take care of them, but you will get no wine or grapes from them; for they will be food for worms.
- 40 Your land will be full of olive-trees, but there will be no oil for the comfort of your body; for your olive-tree will give no fruit.
- 41 You will have sons and daughters, but they will not be yours; for they will go away prisoners into a strange land.
- 42 All your trees and the fruit of your land will be the locust's.

- 43 The man from a strange land who is living among you will be lifted up higher and higher over you, while you go down lower and lower.
- 44 He will let you have his wealth at interest, and will have no need of yours: he will be the head and you the tail.
- 45 And all these curses will come after you and overtake you, till your destruction is complete; because you did not give ear to the voice of the Lord your God, or keep his laws and his orders which he gave you:
- 46 These things will come on you and on your seed, to be a sign and a wonder for ever;
- 47 Because you did not give honour to the Lord your God, worshipping him gladly, with joy in your hearts on account of all your wealth of good things;
- 48 For this cause you will become servants to those whom the Lord your God will send against you, without food and drink and clothing, and in need of all things: and he will put a yoke of iron on your neck till he has put an end to you.
- 49 The Lord will send a nation against you from the farthest ends of the earth, coming with the flight of an eagle; a nation whose language is strange to you;
- 50 A hard-faced nation, who will have no respect for the old or mercy for the young:
- 51 He will take the fruit of your cattle and of your land till death puts an end to you: he will let you have nothing of your grain or wine or oil or any of the increase of your cattle or the young of your flock, till he has made your destruction complete.
- 52 Your towns will be shut in by his armies, till your high walls, in which you put your faith, have come down: his armies will be round your towns, through all your land which the Lord your God has given you.
- 53 And your food will be the fruit of your body, the flesh of the sons and daughters which the Lord your God has given you; because of your bitter need and the cruel grip of your haters.
- 54 That man among you who is soft and used to comfort will be hard and cruel to his brother, and to his dear wife, and to of those his children who are still living;
- 55 And will not give to any of them the flesh of his children which will be his food because he has no other; in the cruel grip of your haters on all your towns.
- 56 The most soft and delicate of your women, who would not so much as put her foot on the earth, so delicate is she, will be hard-hearted to her husband and to her son and to her daughter;
- 57 And to her baby newly come to birth, and to the children of her body; for having no other food, she will make a meal of them secretly, because of her bitter need and the cruel grip of your haters on all your towns.
- 58 If you will not take care to do all the words of this law, recorded in this book, honouring that name of glory and of fear, THE LORD YOUR GOD;
- 59 Then the Lord your God will make your punishment, and the punishment of your seed, a thing to be wondered at; great punishments and cruel diseases stretching on through long years.
- 60 He will send on you again all the diseases of Egypt, which were a cause of fear to you, and they will take you in their grip.
- 61 And all the diseases and the pains not recorded in the book of this law will the Lord send on you till your destruction is complete.
- 62 And you will become a very small band, though your numbers were like the stars of heaven; because you did not give ear to the voice of the Lord your God.
- 63 And as the Lord took delight in doing you good and increasing you, so the Lord will take pleasure in cutting you off and causing your destruction, and you will be uprooted from the land which you are about to take as your heritage.
- 64 And the Lord will send you wandering among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other: there you will be servants to other gods, of wood and stone, gods of which you and your fathers had no knowledge.
- 65 And even among these nations there will be no peace for you, and no rest for your feet: but the Lord will give you there a shaking heart and wasting eyes and weariness of soul:
- 66 Your very life will be hanging in doubt before you, and day and night will be dark with fears, and nothing in life will be certain:
- 67 In the morning you will say, If only it was evening! And at evening you will say, If only morning would come! Because of the fear in your hearts and the things which your eyes will see.
- 68 And the Lord will take you back to Egypt again in ships, by the way of which I said to you, You will never see it again: there you will be offering yourselves as men-servants and women-servants to your haters for a price, and no man will take you.

- 1 These are the words of the agreement which Moses was ordered by the Lord to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, in addition to the agreement which he made with them in Horeb.
- 2 And Moses said in the hearing of all Israel, You have seen all the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and to all his servants and all his land;
- 3 The great tests which your eyes saw, and the signs and wonders:
- 4 But even to this day the Lord has not given you a mind open to knowledge, or seeing eyes or hearing ears.
- 5 For forty years I have been your guide through the waste land: your clothing has not become old on your backs, or your shoes on your feet.
- 6 You have had no bread, or wine, or strong drink: so that you might see that I am the Lord your God.
- 7 When you came to this place, Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan, came out to make war against us and we overcame them:
- 8 And we took their land and gave it to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for their heritage.
- 9 So keep the words of this agreement and do them, so that it may be well for you in everything you do.
- 10 You have come here today, all of you, before the Lord your God; the heads of your tribes, the overseers, and those who are in authority over you, with all the men of Israel,
- 11 And your little ones, your wives, and the men of other lands who are with you in your tents, down to the wood-cutter and the servant who gets water for you:
- 12 With the purpose of taking part in the agreement of the Lord your God, and his oath which he makes with you today:
- 13 And so that he may make you his people today, and be your God, as he has said to you, and as he made an oath to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
- 14 And not with you only do I make this agreement and this oath;
- 15 But with everyone who is here with us today before the Lord our God, as well as with those who are not here:
- 16 (For you have in mind how we were living in the land of Egypt; and how we came through all the nations which were on your way;
- 17 And you have seen their disgusting doings, and the images of wood and stone and silver and gold which were among them:)
- 18 So that there may not be among you any man or woman or family or tribe whose heart is turned away from the Lord our God today, to go after other gods and give them worship; or any root among you whose fruit is poison and bitter sorrow;
- 19 If such a man, hearing the words of this oath, takes comfort in the thought that he will have peace even if he goes on in the pride of his heart, taking whatever chance may give him:
- 20 The Lord will have no mercy on him, but the wrath of the Lord will be burning against that man, and all the curses recorded in this book will be waiting for him, and the Lord will take away his name completely from the earth.
- 21 He will be marked out by the Lord, from all the tribes of Israel, for an evil fate, in keeping with all the curses of the agreement recorded in this book of the law.
- 22 And future generations, your children coming after you, and travellers from far countries, will say, when they see the punishments of that land and the diseases which the Lord has sent on it;
- 23 And that all the land is a salt and smoking waste, not planted or giving fruit or clothed with grass, but wasted like Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, on which the Lord sent destruction in the heat of his wrath:
- 24 Truly all the nations will say, Why has the Lord done so to this land? what is the reason for this great and burning wrath?
- 25 Then men will say, Because they gave up the agreement of the Lord, the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he took them out of the land of Egypt:
- 26 And they went after other gods and gave them worship, gods who were strange to them, and whom he had not given them:
- 27 And so the wrath of the Lord was moved against this land, to send on it all the curse recorded in this book:
- 28 Rooting them out of their land, in the heat of his wrath and passion, and driving them out into another land, as at this day.
- 29 The secret things are the Lord our God's: but the things which have been made clear are ours and our children's for ever, so that we may do all the words of this law.

- 1 Now when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse which I have put before you, if the thought of them comes back to your minds, when you are living among the nations where the Lord your God has sent you,
 - 2 And your hearts are turned again to the Lord your God, and you give ear to his word which I give you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul:
 - 3 Then the Lord will have pity on you, changing your fate, and taking you back again from among all the nations where you have been forced to go.
 - 4 Even if those who have been forced out are living in the farthest part of heaven, the Lord your God will go in search of you, and take you back;
 - 5 Placing you again in the land of your fathers as your heritage; and he will do you good, increasing you till you are more in number than your fathers were.
 - 6 And the Lord your God will give to you and to your seed a circumcision of the heart, so that, loving him with all your heart and all your soul, you may have life.
 - 7 And the Lord your God will put all these curses on those who are against you, and on your haters who put a cruel yoke on you.
 - 8 And you will again give ear to the voice of the Lord, and do all his orders which I have given you today.
 - 9 And the Lord your God will make you fertile in all good things, blessing the work of your hands, and the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your cattle, and the fruit of your land: for the Lord will have joy in you, as he had in your fathers:
 - 10 If you give ear to the voice of the Lord your God, keeping his orders and his laws which are recorded in this book of the law, and turning to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
 - 11 For these orders which I have given you today are not strange and secret, and are not far away.
 - 12 They are not in heaven, for you to say, Who will go up to heaven for us and give us knowledge of them so that we may do them?
 - 13 And they are not across the sea, for you to say, Who will go over the sea for us and give us news of them so that we may do them?
 - 14 But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may do it.
 - 15 See, I have put before you today, life and good, and death and evil;
 - 16 In giving you orders today to have love for the Lord your God, to go in his ways and keep his laws and his orders and his decisions, so that you may have life and be increased, and that the blessing of the Lord your God may be with you in the land where y
 - 17 But if your heart is turned away and your ear is shut, and you go after those who would make you servants and worshippers of other gods:
 - 18 I give witness against you this day that destruction will certainly be your fate, and your days will be cut short in the land where you are going, the land of your heritage on the other side of Jordan.
 - 19 Let heaven and earth be my witnesses against you this day that I have put before you life and death, a blessing and a curse: so take life for yourselves and for your seed:
 - 20 In loving the Lord your God, hearing his voice and being true to him: for he is your life and by him will your days be long: so that you may go on living in the land which the Lord gave by an oath to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
- 1 So Moses said all these things to Israel.
 - 2 Then he said to them, I am now a hundred and twenty years old; I am no longer able to go out and come in: and the Lord has said to me, You are not to go over Jordan.
 - 3 The Lord your God, he will go over before you; he will send destruction on all those nations, and you will take their land as your heritage: and Joshua will go over at your head as the Lord has said.
 - 4 The Lord will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, whom he put to destruction.
 - 5 The Lord will give them up into your hands, and you are to do to them as I have given you orders.
 - 6 Be strong and take heart, and have no fear of them: for it is the Lord your God who is going with you; he will not take away his help from you.
 - 7 Then Moses sent for Joshua, and before the eyes of all Israel said to him, Be strong and take heart: for you are to go with this people into the land which the Lord, by his oath to their fathers, has given them; by your help they will take it for their he

- 8 It is the Lord who goes before you; he will be with you, he will not take away his help from you or give you up: so have no fear.
- 9 Then Moses put all this law in writing, and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who take up the ark of the Lord's agreement, and to all the responsible men of Israel.
- 10 And Moses said to them, At the end of every seven years, at the time fixed for the ending of debts, at the feast of tents,
- 11 When all Israel has come before the Lord your God in the place named by him, let a reading be given of this law in the hearing of all Israel.
- 12 Make all the people come together, men and women and children, and anyone from another country who is with you, so that hearing they may become wise in the fear of the Lord your God, and take care to do all the words of this law;
- 13 And so that your children, to whom it is new, may give ear and be trained in the fear of the Lord your God, while you are living in the land which you are going over Jordan to take for your heritage.
- 14 At that time the Lord said to Moses, The day of your death is near: send for Joshua, and come to the Tent of meeting so that I may give him his orders. So Moses and Joshua went to the Tent of meeting.
- 15 And the Lord was seen in the Tent in a pillar of cloud resting by the door of the Tent.
- 16 And the Lord said to Moses, Now you are going to rest with your fathers; and this people will be false to me, uniting themselves to the strange gods of the land where they are going; they will be turned away from me and will not keep the agreement I have
- 17 In that day my wrath will be moved against them, and I will be turned away from them, veiling my face from them, and destruction will overtake them, and unnumbered evils and troubles will come on them; so that in that day they will say, Have not these evi
- 18 Truly, my face will be turned away from them in that day, because of all the evil they have done in going after other gods.
- 19 Make then this song for yourselves, teaching it to the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, so that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.
- 20 For when I have taken them into the land named in my oath to their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey, and they have made themselves full of food and are fat, then they will be turned to other gods and will give them worship, no longer honouring
- 21 Then when evils and troubles without number have overtaken them, this song will be a witness to them, for the words of it will be clear in the memories of their children: for I see the thoughts which are moving in their hearts even now, before I have take
- 22 So that same day Moses made this song, teaching it to the children of Israel.
- 23 Then he gave orders to Joshua, the son of Nun, saying to him, Be strong and take heart: for you are to go at the head of the children of Israel into the land which I made an oath to give them; and I will be with you.
- 24 Now after writing all the words of this law in a book till the record of them was complete,
- 25 Moses said to the Levites who were responsible for taking up the ark of the Lord's agreement,
- 26 Take this book of the law and put it by the ark of the Lord's agreement, so that it may be a witness against you.
- 27 For I have knowledge of your hard and uncontrolled hearts: even now, while I am still living, you will not be ruled by the Lord; how much less after my death?
- 28 Get together before me all those who are in authority in your tribes, and your overseers, so that I may say these things in their hearing, and make heaven and earth my witnesses against them.
- 29 For I am certain that after my death you will give yourselves up to sin, wandering from the way which I have given you; and evil will overtake you in the end, because you will do evil in the eyes of the Lord, moving him to wrath by the work of your hands.
- 30 Then in the hearing of all the meeting of Israel, Moses said the words of this song, to the end.
- 1 Give ear, O heavens, to my voice; let the earth take note of the words of my mouth:
- 2 My teaching is dropping like rain, coming down like dew on the fields; like rain on the young grass and showers on the garden plants:
- 3 For I will give honour to the name of the Lord: let our God be named great.
- 4 He is the Rock, complete is his work; for all his ways are righteousness: a God without evil who keeps faith, true and upright is he.

- 5 They have become false, they are not his children, the mark of sin is on them; they are an evil and hard-hearted generation.
- 6 Is this your answer to the Lord, O foolish people and unwise? Is he not your father who has given you life? He has made you and given you your place.
- 7 Keep in mind the days of the past, give thought to the years of generations gone by: go to your father and he will make it clear to you, to the old men and they will give you the story.
- 8 When the Most High gave the nations their heritage, separating into groups the children of men, he had the limits of the peoples marked out, keeping in mind the number of the children of Israel.
- 9 For the Lord's wealth is his people; Jacob is the land of his heritage.
- 10 He came to him in the waste land, in the unpeopled waste of sand: putting his arms round him and caring for him, he kept him as the light of his eye.
- 11 As an eagle, teaching her young to make their flight, with her wings outstretched over them, takes them up on her strong feathers:
- 12 So the Lord only was his guide, no other god was with him.
- 13 He put him on the high places of the earth, his food was the increase of the field; honey he gave him out of the rock and oil out of the hard rock;
- 14 Butter from his cows and milk from his sheep, with fat of lambs and sheep of Bashan, and goats, and the heart of the grain; and for your drink, wine from the blood of the grape.
- 15 But Jeshurun became fat and would not be controlled: you have become fat, you are thick and full of food: then he was untrue to the God who made him, giving no honour to the Rock of his salvation.
- 16 The honour which was his they gave to strange gods; by their disgusting ways he was moved to wrath.
- 17 They made offerings to evil spirits which were not God, to gods who were strange to them, which had newly come up, not feared by your fathers.
- 18 You have no thought for the Rock, your father, you have no memory of the God who gave you birth.
- 19 And the Lord saw with disgust the evil-doing of his sons and daughters.
- 20 And he said, My face will be veiled from them, I will see what their end will be: for they are an uncontrolled generation, children in whom is no faith.
- 21 They have given my honour to that which is not God, moving me to wrath with their false worship: I will give their honour to those who are not a people, moving them to wrath by a foolish nation,
- 22 For my wrath is a flaming fire, burning to the deep parts of the underworld, burning up the earth with her increase, and firing the deep roots of the mountains.
- 23 I will send a rain of troubles on them, my arrows will be showered on them.
- 24 They will be wasted from need of food, and overcome by burning heat and bitter destruction; and the teeth of beasts I will send on them, with the poison of the worms of the dust.
- 25 Outside they will be cut off by the sword, and in the inner rooms by fear; death will take the young man and the virgin, the baby at the breast and the grey-haired man.
- 26 I said I would send them wandering far away, I would make all memory of them go from the minds of men:
- 27 But for the fear that their haters, uplifted in their pride, might say, Our hand is strong, the Lord has not done all this.
- 28 For they are a nation without wisdom; there is no sense in them.
- 29 If only they were wise, if only this was clear to them, and they would give thought to their future!
- 30 How would it be possible for one to overcome a thousand, and two to send ten thousand in flight, if their rock had not let them go, if the Lord had not given them up?
- 31 For their rock is not like our Rock, even our haters themselves being judges.
- 32 For their vine is the vine of Sodom, from the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are the grapes of evil, and the berries are bitter:
- 33 Their wine is the poison of dragons, the cruel poison of snakes.
- 34 Is not this among my secrets, kept safe in my store-house?
- 35 Punishment is mine and reward, at the time of the slipping of their feet: for the day of their downfall is near, sudden will be their fate.

- 36 For the Lord will be judge of his people, he will have pity for his servants; when he sees that their power is gone, there is no one, shut up or free.
- 37 And he will say, Where are their gods, the rock in which they put their faith?
- 38 Who took the fat of their offerings, and the wine of their drink offering? Let them now come to your help, let them be your salvation.
- 39 See now, I myself am he; there is no other god but me: giver of death and life, wounding and making well: and no one has power to make you free from my hand.
- 40 For lifting up my hand to heaven I say, By my unending life,
- 41 If I make sharp my shining sword, and my hand is outstretched for judging, I will give punishment to those who are against me, and their right reward to my haters.
- 42 I will make my arrows red with blood, my sword will be feasting on flesh, with the blood of the dead and the prisoners, of the long-haired heads of my haters.
- 43 Be glad, O you his people, over the nations; for he will take payment for the blood of his servants, and will give punishment to his haters, and take away the sin of his land, for his people.
- 44 So Moses said all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Hoshea, the son of Nun.
- 45 And after saying all this to the people,
- 46 Moses said to them, Let the words which I have said to you today go deep into your hearts, and give orders to your children to do every word of this law.
- 47 And this is no small thing for you, but it is your life, and through this you may make your days long in the land which you are going over Jordan to take for your heritage.
- 48 That same day the Lord said to Moses,
- 49 Go up into this mountain of Abarim, to Mount Nebo in the land of Moab opposite Jericho; there you may see the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel for their heritage:
- 50 And let death come to you on the mountain where you are going, and be put to rest with your people; as death came to Aaron, your brother, on Mount Hor, where he was put to rest with his people:
- 51 Because of your sin against me before the children of Israel at the waters of Meribath Kadesh in the waste land of Zin; because you did not keep my name holy among the children of Israel.
- 52 So you will see the land before you, but you will not go into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel.
- 1 Now this is the blessing which Moses, the man of God, gave to the children of Israel before his death.
- 2 He said, The Lord came from Sinai, dawning on them from Seir; shining out from Mount Paran, coming from Meribath Kadesh: from his right hand went flames of fire: his wrath made waste the peoples.
- 3 All his holy ones are at his hand; they go at his feet; they are lifted up on his wings.
- 4 Moses gave us a law, a heritage for the people of Jacob.
- 5 And there was a king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel came together.
- 6 Let life not death be Reuben's, let not the number of his men be small.
- 7 And this is the blessing of Judah: he said, Give ear, O Lord, to the voice of Judah and make him one with his people: let your hands take up his cause, and be his help against his attackers.
- 8 And of Levi he said, Give your Thummim to Levi and let the Urim be with your loved one, whom you put to the test at Massah, with whom you were angry at the waters of Meribah;
- 9 Who said of his father, Who is he? and of his mother, I have not seen her; he kept himself separate from his brothers and had no knowledge of his children: for they have given ear to your word and kept your agreement.
- 10 They will be the teachers of your decisions to Jacob and of your law to Israel: the burning of perfumes before you will be their right, and the ordering of burned offerings on your altar.
- 11 Let your blessing, O Lord, be on his substance, may the work of his hands be pleasing to you: may those who take up arms against him and all who have hate for him, be wounded through the heart, never to be lifted up again.
- 12 And of Benjamin he said, Benjamin is the loved one of the Lord, he will be kept safe at all times; he will be covered by the Most High, resting between his arms.
- 13 And of Joseph he said, Let the blessing of the Lord be on his land; for the good things of heaven on high, and the deep waters flowing under the earth,
- 14 And the good things of the fruits of the sun, and the good things of the growth of the moons,

- 15 And the chief things of the oldest mountains, and the good things of the eternal hills,
- 16 The good things of the earth and all its wealth, the good pleasure of him who was seen in the burning tree: may they come on the head of Joseph, on the head of him who was prince among his brothers.
- 17 He is a young ox, glory is his; his horns are the horns of the mountain ox, with which all peoples will be wounded, even to the ends of the earth: they are the ten thousands of Ephraim and the thousands of Manasseh.
- 18 And of Zebulun he said, Be glad, Zebulun, in your going out; and, Issachar, in your tents.
- 19 They will send out the word for the people to come to the mountain, taking there the offerings of righteousness: for the store of the seas will be theirs, and the secret wealth of the sand.
- 20 Of Gad he said, A blessing be on him who makes wide the limits of Gad: he takes his rest like a she-lion, taking for himself the arm and the crown of the head.
- 21 He kept for himself the first part, for his was the ruler's right: he put in force the righteousness of the Lord, and his decisions for Israel.
- 22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a young lion, springing out from Bashan.
- 23 And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, made glad with grace and full of the blessing of the Lord: the sea and its fishes will be his.
- 24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher have the blessing of children; may he be pleasing to his brothers, and let his foot be wet with oil.
- 25 Your shoes will be iron and brass; and as your days, so may your work be.
- 26 No other is like the God of Jeshurun, coming on the heavens to your help, and letting his glory be seen in the skies.
- 27 The God of your fathers is your safe resting-place, and under you are his eternal arms: driving out the forces of your haters from before you, he said, Let destruction overtake them.
- 28 And Israel is living in peace, the fountain of Jacob by himself, in a land of grain and wine, with dew dropping from the heavens.
- 29 Happy are you, O Israel: who is like you, a people whose saviour is the Lord, whose help is your cover, whose sword is your strength! All those who are against you will put themselves under your rule, and your feet will be planted on their high places.
- 1 And Moses went up from the table-lands of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah which is facing Jericho. And the Lord let him see all the land, the land of Gilead as far as Dan;
- 2 And all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, as far as the Great Sea of the west;
- 3 And the South, and the circle of the valley of Jericho, the town of palm-trees, as far as Zoar.
- 4 And the Lord said to him, This is the land about which I made an oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed: now I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not go in there.
- 5 So death came to Moses, the servant of the Lord, there in the land of Moab, as the Lord had said.
- 6 And the Lord put him to rest in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth-peor: but no man has knowledge of his resting-place to this day.
- 7 And Moses at his death was a hundred and twenty years old: his eye had not become clouded, or his natural force become feeble.
- 8 For thirty days the children of Israel were weeping for Moses in the table-lands of Moab, till the days of weeping and sorrow for Moses were ended.
- 9 And Joshua, the son of Nun, was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had put his hands on him: and the children of Israel gave ear to him, and did as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 10 There has never been another prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord had knowledge of face to face;
- 11 In all the signs and wonders which the Lord sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and all his land;
- 12 And in all the acts of power and fear which Moses did before the eyes of all Israel.
- 1 Now after the death of Moses, the servant of the Lord, the word of the Lord came to Joshua, the son of Nun, Moses' helper, saying,
- 2 Moses my servant is dead; so now get up! Go over Jordan, you and all this people, into the land which I am giving to them, to the children of Israel.
- 3 Every place on which you put your foot I have given to you, as I said to Moses.

- 4 From the waste land and this mountain Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, and all the land of the Hittites to the Great Sea, in the west, will be your country.
- 5 While you are living, all will give way before you: as I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not take away my help from you or give you up.
- 6 Take heart and be strong; for you will give to this people for their heritage the land which I gave by an oath to their fathers.
- 7 Only take heart and be very strong; take care to do all the law which Moses my servant gave you, not turning from it to the right hand or to the left, so that you may do well in all your undertakings.
- 8 Let this book of the law be ever on your lips and in your thoughts day and night, so that you may keep with care everything in it; then a blessing will be on all your way, and you will do well.
- 9 Have I not given you your orders? Take heart and be strong; have no fear and do not be troubled; for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go,
- 10 Then Joshua gave their orders to those who were in authority over the people, saying,
- 11 Go through the tents and give orders to the people, saying, Get ready a store of food; for in three days you are to go over this river Jordan and take for your heritage the land which the Lord your God is giving you.
- 12 And to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,
- 13 Keep in mind what Moses, the servant of the Lord, said to you, The Lord your God is sending you rest and will give you this land.
- 14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle will be kept here in the land which Moses gave you on this side of Jordan; but you, the fighting-men, are to go over before your brothers, armed, to give them help;
- 15 Till the Lord has given your brothers rest, as he has given it to you, and they have taken their heritage in the land which the Lord your God is giving them: then you will go back to the land of your heritage which Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave you
- 16 Then they said to Joshua in answer, Whatever you say to us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.
- 17 As we gave attention to Moses in all things, so we will give attention to you: and may the Lord your God be with you as he was with Moses.
- 18 Whoever goes against your orders, and does not give attention to all your words, will be put to death: only take heart and be strong.
- 1 Then Joshua, the son of Nun, sent two men from Shittim secretly, with the purpose of searching out the land, and Jericho. So they went and came to the house of a loose woman of the town, named Rahab, where they took their rest for the night.
- 2 And it was said to the king of Jericho, See, some men have come here tonight from the children of Israel with the purpose of searching out the land.
- 3 Then the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, Send out the men who have come to you and are in your house; for they have come with the purpose of searching out all the land.
- 4 And the woman took the two men and put them in a secret place; then she said, Yes, the men came to me, but I had no idea where they came from;
- 5 And when it was the time for shutting the doors at dark, they went out; I have no idea where the men went: but if you go after them quickly, you will overtake them.
- 6 But she had taken them up to the roof, covering them with the stems of flax which she had put out in order there.
- 7 So the men went after them on the road to Jordan as far as the river-crossing: and when they had gone out after them, the door into the town was shut.
- 8 And before the men went to rest, she came up to them on the roof,
- 9 And said to them, It is clear to me that the Lord has given you the land, and that the fear of you has come on us;
- 10 For we have had news of how the Lord made the Red Sea dry before you when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, on the other side of Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you gave up to the curse.
- 11 And because of this news, our hearts became like water, and there was no more spirit in any of us because of you; for the Lord your God is God in heaven on high and here on earth.
- 12 So now, will you give me your oath by the Lord, that, because I have been kind to you, you will be kind to my father's house,

- 13 And that you will keep safe my father and mother and my brothers and sisters and all they have, so that death may not come on us?
- 14 And the men said to her, Our life for yours if you keep our business secret; and when the Lord has given us the land, we will keep faith and be kind to you.
- 15 Then she let them down from the window by a cord, for the house where she was living was on the town wall.
- 16 And she said to them, Get away into the hill-country, or the men who have gone after you will overtake you; keep yourselves safe there for three days, till the searchers have come back, and then go on your way.
- 17 And the men said to her, We will only be responsible for this oath which you have made us take,
- 18 If, when we come into the land, you put this cord of bright red thread in the window from which you let us down; and get your father and mother and your brothers and all your family into the house;
- 19 Then if anyone goes out of your house into the street, his blood will be on his head, we will not be responsible; but if any damage comes to anyone in the house, his blood will be on our heads.
- 20 But if you say anything about our business here, then we will be free from the oath you have made us take.
- 21 And she said, Let it be as you say. Then she sent them away, and they went; and she put the bright red cord in the window.
- 22 And they went into the hill-country and were there three days, till the men who had gone after them had come back; and those who went after them were searching for them everywhere without coming across them.
- 23 Then the two men came down from the hill-country and went over and came back to Joshua, the son of Nun; and they gave him a complete account of what had taken place.
- 24 And they said to Joshua, Truly, the Lord has given all the land into our hands; and all the people of the land have become like water because of us.
- 1 Then Joshua got up early in the morning, and, moving on from Shittim, he and all the children of Israel came to Jordan and were there for the night before going over.
- 2 And at the end of three days, the men in authority over the people went through the tents,
- 3 Giving the people their orders, and saying, When you see the ark of the agreement of the Lord your God lifted up by the priests, the Levites, then get up from your places and go after it;
- 4 But let there be a space between you and it of about two thousand cubits: come no nearer to it, so that you may see the way you have to go, for you have not been over this way before.
- 5 And Joshua said to the people, Make yourselves holy, for tomorrow the Lord will do works of wonder among you.
- 6 Then Joshua said to the priests, Take up the ark of the agreement and go over in front of the people. So they took up the ark of the agreement and went in front of the people.
- 7 And the Lord said to Joshua, From now on I will give you glory in the eyes of all Israel, so that they may see that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.
- 8 And you are to give orders to the priests who take up the ark of the agreement, and say, When you come to the edge of the waters of Jordan, go no further.
- 9 And Joshua said to the children of Israel, Come to me here: and give ear to the words of the Lord your God.
- 10 And Joshua said, By this you will see that the living God is among you, and that he will certainly send out from before you the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Hivite and the Perizzite and the Girgashite and the Amorite and the Jebusite.
- 11 See, the ark of the agreement of the Lord of all the earth is going over before you into Jordan.
- 12 So take twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, a man from every tribe.
- 13 And when the feet of the priests who take up the ark of the Lord, the Lord of all the earth, come to rest in the waters of Jordan, the waters of Jordan will be cut off, all the waters flowing down from higher up, and will come together in a mass.
- 14 So when the people went out from their tents to go over Jordan, the priests who took up the ark of the agreement were in front of the people;
- 15 And when those who took up the ark came to Jordan, and the feet of the priests who took up the ark were touching the edge of the water (for the waters of Jordan are overflowing all through the time of the grain-cutting),
- 16 Then the waters flowing down from higher up were stopped and came together in a mass a long way back at Adam, a town near Zarethan; and the waters flowing down to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were cut off: and the people went across opposite Jeric

- 17 And the priests who took up the ark of the agreement of the Lord kept their places, with their feet on dry land in the middle of Jordan, while all Israel went over on dry land, till all the nation had gone over Jordan.
- 1 Now when all the nation had come to the other side of Jordan, the Lord said to Joshua,
- 2 Take twelve men from the people, a man for every tribe,
- 3 And say to them, Take up from the middle of Jordan, from the place where the feet of the priests were resting, twelve stones, and take them over with you and put them down in the place where you take your rest tonight.
- 4 So Joshua sent for the twelve men, whom he had ready, one man out of every tribe of the children of Israel,
- 5 And he said to them, Go over before the ark of the Lord your God into the middle of Jordan, and let every one of you take up a stone on his back, one for every tribe of the children of Israel:
- 6 So that this may be a sign among you; when your children say to you in time to come, What is the reason for these stones?
- 7 Then you will say to them, Because the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the Lord's agreement; when it went over Jordan the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones will be a sign for the children of Israel, keeping it in their memory
- 8 So the children of Israel did as Joshua gave them orders, and took twelve stones from the middle of Jordan, as the Lord had said to Joshua, one for every tribe of the children of Israel; these they took across with them to their night's resting-place and
- 9 And Joshua put up twelve stones in the middle of Jordan, where the feet of the priests who took up the ark of the agreement had been placed: and there they are to this day.
- 10 For the priests who took up the ark kept there in the middle of Jordan till all the orders given to Joshua by Moses from the Lord had been done: then the people went over quickly.
- 11 And when all the people had come to the other side, the ark of the Lord went over, and the priests, before the eyes of the people.
- 12 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh went over armed before the children of Israel as Moses had said to them:
- 13 About forty thousand armed for war went over before the Lord to the fight, to the lowlands of Jericho.
- 14 That day the Lord made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel; and all the days of his life they went in fear of him, as they had gone in fear of Moses.
- 15 Then the Lord said to Joshua,
- 16 Give orders to the priests who take up the ark of witness, to come up out of Jordan.
- 17 So Joshua gave orders to the priests, saying, Come up now out of Jordan.
- 18 And when the priests who took up the ark of the Lord's agreement came up out of Jordan and their feet came out on to dry land, the waters of Jordan went back to their place, overflowing its edges as before.
- 19 So on the tenth day of the first month the people came up out of Jordan, and put up their tents in Gilgal, on the east side of Jericho.
- 20 And the twelve stones which they took out of Jordan, Joshua put up in Gilgal.
- 21 And he said to the children of Israel, When your children say to their fathers in time to come, What is the reason for these stones?
- 22 Then give your children the story, and say, Israel came over this river Jordan on dry land.
- 23 For the Lord your God made the waters of Jordan dry before you till you had gone across, as he did to the Red Sea, drying it up before us till we had gone across:
- 24 So that all the peoples of the earth may see that the hand of the Lord is strong; and that they may go in fear of the Lord your God for ever.
- 1 Now when the news came to all the kings of the Amorites on the west side of Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites living by the sea, how the Lord had made the waters of Jordan dry before the children of Israel, till they had gone across, their heart
- 2 At that time the Lord said to Joshua, Make yourself stone knives and give the children of Israel circumcision a second time.
- 3 So Joshua made stone knives and gave the children of Israel circumcision at Gibeath-ha-araloth.

- 4 And this is the reason why Joshua did so: all the males of the people who came out of Egypt, all the fighting-men, had been overtaken by death in the waste land on the way, after they came out of Egypt.
- 5 All the people who came out had undergone circumcision; but all the people whose birth had taken place in the waste land on their journey from Egypt had not.
- 6 For the children of Israel were wandering in the waste land for forty years, till all the nation, that is, all the fighting-men, who had come out of Egypt, were dead, because they did not give ear to the voice of the Lord: to whom the Lord said, with an o
- 7 And their children, who came up in their place, now underwent circumcision by the hands of Joshua, not having had it before: for there had been no circumcision on the journey.
- 8 So when all the nation had undergone circumcision, they kept in their tents till they were well again.
- 9 And the Lord said to Joshua, Today the shame of Egypt has been rolled away from you. So that place was named Gilgal, to this day.
- 10 So the children of Israel put up their tents in Gilgal; and they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month, in the evening, in the lowlands of Jericho.
- 11 And on the day after the Passover, they had for their food the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and dry grain on the same day.
- 12 And there was no more manna from the day after they had for their food the produce of the land; the children of Israel had manna no longer, but that year the produce of the land of Canaan was their food.
- 13 Now when Joshua was near Jericho, lifting up his eyes he saw a man in front of him, with his sword uncovered in his hand: and Joshua went up to him and said, Are you for us or against us?
- 14 And he said, No; but I have come as captain of the armies of the Lord. Then Joshua, falling down with his face to the earth in worship, said, What has my lord to say to his servant?
- 15 And the captain of the Lord's army said to Joshua, Take off your shoes from your feet, for the place where you are is holy. And Joshua did so.
- 1 (Now Jericho was all shut up because of the children of Israel: there was no going out or coming in.)
- 2 And the Lord said to Joshua, See, I have given into your hands Jericho with its king and all its men of war.
- 3 Now let all your fighting-men make a circle round the town, going all round it once. Do this for six days.
- 4 And let seven priests go before the ark with seven loud-sounding horns in their hands: on the seventh day you are to go round the town seven times, the priests blowing their horns.
- 5 And at the sound of a long note on the horns, let all the people give a loud cry; and the wall of the town will come down flat, and all the people are to go straight forward.
- 6 Then Joshua, the son of Nun, sent for the priests and said to them, Take up the ark of the agreement, and let seven priests take seven horns in their hands and go before the ark of the Lord.
- 7 And he said to the people, Go forward, circling the town, and let the armed men go before the ark of the Lord.
- 8 So after Joshua had said this to the people, the seven priests with their seven horns went forward before the Lord, blowing on their horns: and the ark of the Lord's agreement went after them.
- 9 And the armed men went before the priests who were blowing the horns, and the mass of the people went after the ark, blowing their horns.
- 10 And to the people Joshua gave an order, saying, You will give no cry, and make no sound, and let no word go out of your mouth till the day when I say, Give a loud cry; then give a loud cry.
- 11 So he made the ark of the Lord go all round the town once: then they went back to the tents for the night.
- 12 And early in the morning Joshua got up, and the priests took up the ark of the Lord.
- 13 And the seven priests with their seven horns went on before the ark of the Lord, blowing their horns: the armed men went before them, and the mass of the people went after the ark of the Lord, blowing their horns.
- 14 The second day they went all round the town once, and then went back to their tents: and so they did for six days.
- 15 Then on the seventh day they got up early, at the dawn of the day, and went round the town in the same way, but that day they went round it seven times.
- 16 And the seventh time, at the sound of the priests' horns, Joshua said to the people, Now give a loud cry; for the Lord has given you the town.

- 17 And the town will be put to the curse, and everything in it will be given to the Lord: only Rahab, the loose woman, and all who are in the house with her, will be kept safe, because she kept secret the men we sent.
- 18 And as for you, keep yourselves from the cursed thing, for fear that you may get a desire for it and take some of it for yourselves, and so be the cause of a curse and great trouble on the tents of Israel.
- 19 But all the silver and gold and the vessels of brass and iron are holy to the Lord: they are to come into the store-house of the Lord.
- 20 So the people gave a loud cry, and the horns were sounded; and on hearing the horns the people gave a loud cry, and the wall came down flat, so that the people went up into the town, every man going straight before him, and they took the town.
- 21 And they put everything in the town to the curse; men and women, young and old, ox and sheep and ass, they put to death without mercy.
- 22 Then Joshua said to the two men who had been sent to make a search through the land, Go into the house of the loose woman, and get her out, and all who are with her, as you gave her your oath.
- 23 So the searchers went in and got out Rahab and her father and mother and her brothers and all she had, and they got out all her family; and they took them outside the tents of Israel.
- 24 Then, after burning up the town and everything in it, they put the silver and gold and the vessels of brass and iron into the store-house of the Lord's house.
- 25 But Joshua kept Rahab, the loose woman, and her father's family and all she had, from death, and so she got a living-place among the children of Israel to this day; because she kept safe the men whom Joshua had sent to make a search through the land.
- 26 Then Joshua gave the people orders with an oath, saying, Let that man be cursed before the Lord who puts his hand to the building up of this town: with the loss of his first son will he put the first stone of it in place, and with the loss of his youngest
- 27 So the Lord was with Joshua; and news of him went through all the land.
- 1 But the children of Israel did wrong about the cursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the family of Judah, took of the cursed thing, moving the Lord to wrath against the children of Israel.
- 2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is by the side of Beth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and said to them, Go up and make a search through the land. And the men went up and saw how Ai was placed.
- 3 Then they came back to Joshua and said to him, Do not send all the people up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and make an attack on Ai; there is no need for all the people to be tired with the journey there, for it is only a small town.
- 4 So about three thousand of the people went up, and were sent in flight by the men of Ai.
- 5 The men of Ai put to death about thirty-six of them, driving them from before the town as far as the stoneworks, and overcoming them on the way down: and the hearts of the people became like water.
- 6 Then Joshua, in great grief, went down on the earth before the ark of the Lord till the evening, and all the chiefs of Israel with him, and they put dust on their heads.
- 7 And Joshua said, O Lord God, why have you taken us over Jordan only to give us up into the hands of the Amorites for our destruction? If only it had been enough for us to keep on the other side of Jordan!
- 8 O Lord, what am I to say now that Israel have given way before their attackers?
- 9 For when the news comes to the Canaanites and all the people of the land, they will come up, shutting us in and cutting off our name from the earth: and what will you do for the honour of your great name?
- 10 Then the Lord said to Joshua, Get up; what are you doing with your face to the earth?
- 11 Israel has done wrong, sinning against the agreement which I made with them: they have even taken of the cursed thing; acting falsely like thieves they have put it among their goods.
- 12 For this reason the children of Israel have given way, turning their backs in flight before their attackers, because they are cursed: I will no longer be with you, if you do not put the cursed thing away from among you.
- 13 Up! make the people holy; say to them, Make yourselves holy before tomorrow, for the Lord, the God of Israel, has said, There is a cursed thing among you, O Israel, and you will give way before your attackers in the fight till the cursed thing has been ta

- 14 So in the morning you are to come near, tribe by tribe; and the tribe marked out by the Lord is to come near, family by family; and the family marked out by the Lord is to come near, house by house; and the house marked out by the Lord is to come near, man by man;
- 15 Then the man who is taken with the cursed thing is to be burned, with everything which is his; because he has gone against the agreement of the Lord and has done an act of shame in Israel.
- 16 So Joshua got up early in the morning, and made Israel come before him by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken;
- 17 Then he made Judah come forward, and the family of the Zerahites was taken; and he made the family of the Zerahites come forward man by man; and Zabdi was taken;
- 18 Then the house of Zabdi came forward man by man, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.
- 19 And Joshua said to Achan, My son, give glory and praise to the Lord, the God of Israel; give me word now of what you have done, and keep nothing back from me.
- 20 And Achan, answering, said to Joshua, Truly I have done wrong against the Lord, the God of Israel, and this is what I have done:
- 21 When I saw among their goods a fair robe of Babylon and two hundred shekels of silver, and a mass of gold, fifty shekels in weight, I was overcome by desire and took them; and they are put away in the earth in my tent, and the silver is under it.
- 22 So Joshua sent men quickly, and looking in his tent, they saw where the robe had been put away secretly with the silver under it.
- 23 And they took them from the tent and came back with them to Joshua and the children of Israel, and put them before the Lord.
- 24 Then Joshua and all Israel took Achan, the son of Zerah, and the silver and the robe and the mass of gold, and his sons and his daughters and his oxen and his asses and his sheep and his tent and everything he had; and they took them up into the valley of
- 25 And Joshua said, Why have you been a cause of trouble to us? Today the Lord will send trouble on you. And all Israel took part in stoning him; they had him stoned to death and then burned with fire.
- 26 And over him they put a great mass of stones, which is there to this day; then the heat of the Lord's wrath was turned away. So that place was named, The Valley of Achor, to this day.
- 1 Then the Lord said to Joshua, Have no fear and do not be troubled: take with you all the fighting-men and go up against Ai: for I have given into your hands the king of Ai and his people and his town and his land:
- 2 And you are to do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king: but their goods and their cattle you may take for yourselves: let a secret force be stationed to make a surprise attack on the town from the back.
- 3 So Joshua and the fighting-men got ready to go up against Ai; and Joshua took thirty thousand men of war, and sent them out by night.
- 4 And he gave them their orders, saying, Go and take up your position secretly at the back of the town: do not go very far away, and let all of you be ready:
- 5 And I and all the people with me will come near the town, and when they come out against us as they did before, we will go in flight from them;
- 6 And they will come out after us, till we have got them away from the town; for they will say, They have gone in flight from us as before; so we will go in flight before them;
- 7 Then you will get up from your secret position and take the town, for the Lord your God will give it up into your hands.
- 8 And when you have taken the town, put fire to it, as the Lord has said: see, I have given you your orders.
- 9 So Joshua sent them out: and they took up a secret position between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua kept with the people that night.
- 10 And early in the morning Joshua got up, and put the people in order, and he and the chiefs of Israel went up before the people to Ai.
- 11 And all the fighting-men who were with him went up and came near the town, and took up a position on the north side of Ai facing the town, with a valley between him and the town.
- 12 And taking about five thousand men, he put them in position for a surprise attack on the west side of Ai, between Beth-el and Ai.

- 13 So all the people were in their places, the army on the north side of the town and the secret force on the west; and that night Joshua went down into the valley.
- 14 Now when the king of Ai saw it, he got up quickly and went out to war against Israel, he and all his people, to the slope going down to the valley; but he had no idea that a secret force was waiting at the back of the town.
- 15 Then Joshua and all Israel, acting as if they were overcome before them, went in flight by way of the waste land.
- 16 And all the people in Ai came together to go after them; and they went after Joshua, moving away from the town.
- 17 There was not a man in Ai and Beth-el who did not go out after Israel; and the town was open and unwatched while they went after Israel.
- 18 And the Lord said to Joshua, Let your spear be stretched out against Ai; for I will give it into your hands. So Joshua took up his spear, stretching it out in the direction of the town.
- 19 Then the secret force came quickly from their place, and running forward when they saw his hand stretched out, went into the town and took it, and put fire to it straight away.
- 20 Then the men of Ai, looking back, saw the smoke of the town going up to heaven, and were unable to go this way or that: and the people who had gone in flight to the waste land were turned back on those who were coming after them.
- 21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the town had been taken by the surprise attack, and that the smoke of the town had gone up, turning round they overcame the men of Ai.
- 22 Then the other force came out of the town against them, so that they were being attacked on this side and on that: and Israel overcame them and let not one of them get away with his life.
- 23 But the king of Ai they made prisoner, and took him to Joshua.
- 24 Then, after the destruction of all the people of Ai in the field and in the waste land where they went after them, and when all the people had been put to death without mercy, all Israel went back to Ai, and put to death all who were in it without mercy.
- 25 On that day twelve thousand were put to death, men and women, all the people of Ai.
- 26 For Joshua did not take back his hand with the outstretched spear till the destruction of the people of Ai was complete.
- 27 But the cattle and the goods from that town, Israel took for themselves, as the Lord had given orders to Joshua.
- 28 So Joshua gave Ai to the flames, and made it a waste mass of stones for ever, as it is to this day.
- 29 And he put the king of Ai to death, hanging him on a tree till evening: and when the sun went down, Joshua gave them orders to take his body down from the tree, and put it in the public place of the town, covering it with a great mass of stones, which is
- 30 Then Joshua put up an altar to the Lord, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal,
- 31 In the way ordered by Moses, the servant of the Lord, as it is recorded in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones, untouched by any iron instrument: and on it they made burned offerings and peace-offerings to the Lord.
- 32 And he made there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, writing it before the eyes of the children of Israel.
- 33 And all Israel, those who were Israelites by birth, as well as the men from other lands living with them, and their responsible men and their overseers and judges, took their places round the ark, in front of the priests, the Levites, whose work it was to
- 34 And after, he gave them all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, as it is all recorded in the book of the law;
- 35 Reading to all the meeting of Israel, with the women and the children and the men from other lands who were living among them, every word of the orders which Moses had given.
- 1 Now on hearing the news of these things, all the kings on the west side of Jordan, in the hill-country and the lowlands and by the Great Sea in front of Lebanon, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites
- 2 Came together with one purpose, to make war against Joshua and Israel.
- 3 And the men of Gibeon, hearing what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,
- 4 Acting with deceit, got food together as if for a long journey; and took old food-bags for their asses, and old and cracked wine-skins kept together with cord;
- 5 And put old stitched-up shoes on their feet, and old clothing on their backs; and all the food they had with them was dry and broken up.
- 6 And they came to Joshua to the tent-circle at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, We have come from a far country: so now make an agreement with us.

- 7 And the men of Israel said to the Hivites, It may be that you are living among us; how then may we make an agreement with you?
- 8 And they said to Joshua, We are your servants. Then Joshua said to them, Who are you and where do you come from?
- 9 And they said to him, Your servants have come from a very far country, because of the name of the Lord your God: for the story of his great name, and of all he did in Egypt has come to our ears,
- 10 And what he did to the two kings of the Amorites east of Jordan, to Sihon, king of Heshbon, and to Og, king of Bashan, at Ashtaroth.
- 11 So the responsible men and all the people of our country said to us, Take food with you for the journey and go to them, and say to them, We are your servants: so now make an agreement with us.
- 12 This bread which we have with us for our food, we took warm and new from our houses when starting on our journey to you; but now see, it has become dry and broken up.
- 13 And these wine-skins were new when we put the wine in them, and now they are cracked as you see; and our clothing and our shoes have become old because of our very long journey here.
- 14 And the men took some of their food, without requesting directions from the Lord.
- 15 So Joshua made peace with them, and made an agreement with them that they were not to be put to death: and the chiefs of the people took an oath to them.
- 16 Now three days after, when they had made this agreement with them, they had word that these men were their neighbours, living near them.
- 17 And the children of Israel went forward on their journey, and on the third day came to their towns. Now their towns were Gibeon and Chephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath-jearim.
- 18 And the children of Israel did not put them to death, because the chiefs of the people had taken an oath to them by the Lord, the God of Israel. And all the people made an outcry against the chiefs.
- 19 But all the chiefs said to the people, We have taken an oath to them by the Lord, the God of Israel, and so we may not put our hands on them.
- 20 This is what we will do to them: we will not put them to death, for fear that wrath may come on us because of our oath to them.
- 21 Keep them living, and let them be servants, cutting wood and getting water for all the people. And all the people did as the chiefs had said to them.
- 22 Then Joshua sent for them, and said to them, Why have you been false to us, saying, We are very far from you, when you are living among us?
- 23 Now because of this you are cursed, and you will for ever be our servants, cutting wood and getting water for the house of my God.
- 24 And, answering Joshua, they said, Because it came to the ears of your servants that the Lord your God had given orders to his servant Moses to give you all this land, and to send destruction on all the people living in it, because of you; so, fearing grea
- 25 And now we are in your hands: do to us whatever seems good and right to you.
- 26 So he kept them safe from the children of Israel, and did not let them be put to death.
- 27 And that day Joshua made them servants, cutting wood and getting water for the people and for the altar of the Lord, in the place marked out by him, to this day.
- 1 Now when it came to the ears of Adoni-zedek, king of Jerusalem, that Joshua had taken Ai, and had given it up to the curse (for as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king); and that the people of Gibeon had made peace with I
- 2 He was in great fear, because Gibeon was a great town, like one of the king's towns, greater than Ai, and all the men in it were men of war.
- 3 So Adoni-zedek, king of Jerusalem, sent to Hoham, king of Hebron, and to Piram, king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia, king of Lachish, and to Debir, king of Eglon, saying,
- 4 Come up to me and give me help, and let us make an attack on Gibeon: for they have made peace with Joshua and the children of Israel.
- 5 So the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, were banded together, and went up with all their armies and took up their position before Gibeon and made war ag

- 6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the tent-circle at Gilgal, saying, Be not slow to send help to your servants; come up quickly to our support and keep us safe: for all the kings of the Amorites from the hill-country have come together against us.
- 7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal with all his army and all his men of war.
- 8 And the Lord said to Joshua, Have no fear of them, for I have given them into your hands; they will all give way before you.
- 9 So Joshua, having come up from Gilgal all night, made a sudden attack on them.
- 10 And the Lord made them full of fear before Israel, and they put great numbers of them to death at Gibeon, and went after them by the way going up to Beth-horon, driving them back to Azekah and Makkedah
- 11 And in their flight before Israel, on the way down from Beth-horon, the Lord sent down great stones from heaven on them all the way to Azekah, causing their death: those whose death was caused by the stones were more than those whom the children of Israel
- 12 It was on the day when the Lord gave up the Amorites into the hands of the children of Israel that Joshua said to the Lord, before the eyes of Israel, Sun, be at rest over Gibeon; and you, O moon, in the valley of Aijalon.
- 13 And the sun was at rest and the moon kept its place till the nation had given punishment to their attackers. (Is it not recorded in the book of Jashar?) So the sun kept its place in the middle of the heavens, and was waiting, and did not go down, for the
- 14 And there was no day like that, before it or after it, when the Lord gave ear to the voice of a man; for the Lord was fighting for Israel.
- 15 And Joshua, with all Israel, went back to the tent-circle at Gilgal.
- 16 But these five kings went in flight secretly to a hole in the rock at Makkedah.
- 17 And word was given to Joshua that the five kings had been taken in a hole in the rock at Makkedah.
- 18 And Joshua said, Let great stones be rolled against the mouth of the hole, and let men keep watch by it:
- 19 But do you, without waiting, go after their army, attacking them from the back; do not let them get into their towns, for the Lord your God has given them into your hands.
- 20 Now when Joshua and the children of Israel had come to the end of their war of complete destruction, and had put to death all but a small band who had got safely into the walled towns,
- 21 All the people went back to Joshua to the tent-circle at Makkedah in peace: and no one said a word against the children of Israel.
- 22 Then Joshua said, Take away the stones from the mouth of the hole in the rock, and make those five kings come out to me.
- 23 And they did so, and made those five kings come out of the hole to him, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
- 24 And when they had made those kings come out to Joshua, Joshua sent for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, Come near and put your feet on the necks of these kings. So they came near and put their feet on
- 25 And Joshua said to them, Have no fear and do not be troubled; be strong and take heart: for so will the Lord do to all against whom you make war.
- 26 Then Joshua had them put to death, hanging them on five trees, where they were till evening.
- 27 And when the sun went down, they were taken down from the trees, by Joshua's orders, and put into the hole where they had gone to be safe; and great stones were placed at the mouth of the hole, where they are to this day.
- 28 That day Joshua took Makkedah, and put it and its king to the sword; every soul in it he gave up to the curse without mercy: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.
- 29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went on from Makkedah and came to Libnah, and made an attack on it;
- 30 And again the Lord gave it and its king into the hands of Israel; and he put it and every person in it to the sword, till their destruction was complete; and he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.
- 31 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went on from Libnah to Lachish, and took up their position against it and made an attack on it,
- 32 And the Lord gave Lachish into the hands of Israel, and on the second day he took it, putting it and every person in it to the sword without mercy, as he had done to Libnah.

- 33 Then Horam, king of Gezer, came up to the help of Lachish; and Joshua overcame him and his people, putting all of them to death.
- 34 And Joshua and all Israel with him went on from Lachish to Eglon: and they took up their position against it and made an attack on it;
- 35 And that day they took it, putting it and every person in it to the sword, as he had done to Lachish.
- 36 And Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron, and made an attack on it;
- 37 And took it, overcoming it and putting it and its king and its towns and every person in it to the sword: as he had done to Eglon, he put them all to death, and gave it up to the curse with every person in it.
- 38 And Joshua and all Israel with him went on to make an attack on Debir;
- 39 And he took it, with its king and all its towns: and he put them to the sword, giving every person in it to the curse; all were put to death: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king.
- 40 So Joshua overcame all the land, the hill-country and the South and the lowland and the mountain slopes, and all their kings; all were put to death: and every living thing he gave up to the curse, as the Lord, the God of Israel, had given him orders.
- 41 Joshua overcame them from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, and all the land of Goshen as far as Gibeon.
- 42 And all these kings and their land Joshua took at the same time, because the Lord, the God of Israel, was fighting for Israel.
- 43 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went back to their tents at Gilgal.
- 1 Now Jabin, king of Hazor, hearing of these things, sent to Jobab, king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,
- 2 And to the kings on the north in the hill-country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in the highlands of Dor on the west,
- 3 And to the Canaanites on the east and on the west, and to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill-country, and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
- 4 And they went out, they and all their armies with them, a great people, in number like the sand on the seaside, with horses and war-carriages in great number.
- 5 And all these kings came together, and put their forces in position at the waters of Merom, to make war on Israel.
- 6 And the Lord said to Joshua, Have no fear of them: for tomorrow at this time I will give them all up dead before Israel; you are to have the leg-muscles of their horses cut and their war-carriages burned with fire.
- 7 So Joshua and all the men of war with him came against them suddenly at the waters of Merom, and made an attack on them.
- 8 And the Lord gave them up into the hands of Israel, and they overcame them driving them back to great Zidon and to Misrephoth-maim and into the valley of Mizpeh to the east; and they put them all to death, no man got away safely.
- 9 And Joshua did to them as the Lord had said to him; he had the leg-muscles of their horses cut and their war-carriages burned with fire.
- 10 At that time, Joshua went on to take Hazor and put its king to the sword: for in earlier times Hazor was the chief of all those kingdoms.
- 11 And they put every person in it to death without mercy, giving every living thing up to the curse, and burning Hazor.
- 12 And all the towns of these kings, and all the kings, Joshua took, and put them to the sword: he gave them up to the curse, as Moses, the servant of the Lord, had said.
- 13 As for the towns made on hills of earth, not one was burned by Israel but Hazor, which was burned by Joshua.
- 14 And all the goods taken from these towns, and their cattle, the children of Israel kept for themselves; but every man they put to death without mercy, till their destruction was complete, and there was no one living.
- 15 As the Lord had given orders to Moses his servant, so Moses gave orders to Joshua, and so Joshua did; every order which the Lord had given to Moses was done.
- 16 So Joshua took all that land, the hill-country and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the lowland and the Arabah, the hill-country of Israel and its lowland;
- 17 From Mount Halak, which goes up to Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon: and all their kings he overcame and put to death.
- 18 For a long time Joshua made war on all those kings.

- 19 Not one town made peace with the children of Israel, but only the Hivites of Gibeon: they took them all in war.
- 20 For the Lord made them strong in heart to go to war against Israel, so that he might give them up to the curse without mercy, and that destruction might come on them, as the Lord had given orders to Moses.
- 21 And Joshua came at that time and put an end to the Anakim in the hill-country, in Hebron, in Debir, in Anab, and in all the hill-country of Judah and Israel: Joshua gave them and their towns to the curse.
- 22 Not one of the Anakim was to be seen in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, some were still living.
- 23 So Joshua took all the land, as the Lord had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it to the children of Israel as their heritage, making division of it among them by their tribes. And the land had rest from war.
- 1 Now these are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel overcame, taking as their heritage their land on the east side of Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah to the east:
- 2 Sihon, king of the Amorites, who was living in Heshbon, ruling from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the town in the middle of the valley, and half Gilead, as far as the river Jabbok, the limits of the children of Ammon;
- 3 And the Arabah to the sea of Chinneroth, to the east, and to the sea of the Arabah, that is the Salt Sea, to the east, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and on the south, under the slopes of Pisgah:
- 4 And the land of Og, king of Bashan, of the rest of the Rephaim, who was living at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,
- 5 Ruling in the mountain of Hermon, and in Salecah, and in all Bashan, as far as the limits of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half Gilead, to the land of Sihon, king of Heshbon.
- 6 Moses, the servant of the Lord, and the children of Israel overcame them; and Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave their land for a heritage to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.
- 7 And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel overcame on the west side of Jordan, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which goes up to Seir; and Joshua gave the land to the tribes of Israel for a heritage,
- 8 In the hill-country, and in the lowland, and in the Arabah, and on the mountain slopes, and in the waste land, and in the South; the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
- 9 The king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is near Beth-el, one;
- 10 The king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;
- 11 The king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;
- 12 The king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;
- 13 The king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;
- 14 The king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;
- 15 The king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;
- 16 The king of Makkedah, one; the king of Beth-el, one;
- 17 The king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hopher, one;
- 18 The king of Aphek, one; the king of Lass Sharon, one;
- 19 The king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;
- 20 The king of Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;
- 21 The king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;
- 22 The king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;
- 23 The king of Dor on the hill of Dor, one; the king of Goiim in Gilgal, one;
- 24 The king of Tirzah, one; all the kings together were thirty-one.
- 1 Now Joshua was old and full of years; and the Lord said to him, You are old and full of years, and there is still very much land to be taken.
- 2 This is the land which is still to be taken: all the country of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites;
- 3 From the Shihor, which is before Egypt, to the edge of Ekron to the north, which is taken to be Canaanite property: the five chiefs of the Philistines; the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites, as well as the Avvi

- 4 On the south: all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah which is the property of the Zidonians, to Aphek, as far as the limit of the Amorites:
- 5 And the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, looking east, from Baal-gad under Mount Hermon as far as Hamath:
- 6 All the people of the hill-country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, all the Zidonians; them will I send out from before the children of Israel: only make division of it to Israel for a heritage, as I have given you orders to do.
- 7 So now make division of this land for a heritage to the nine tribes, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.
- 8 With him the Reubenites and the Gadites have been given their heritage, which Moses gave them, on the east side of Jordan, as Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave them;
- 9 From Aroer, on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the town in the middle of the valley, and all the table-land from Medeba to Dibon;
- 10 And all the towns of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who was ruling in Heshbon, to the limits of the children of Ammon;
- 11 And Gilead, and the land of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah;
- 12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who was ruling in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he was one of the last of the Rephaim); these did Moses overcome, driving them out of their country.
- 13 However, the people of Israel did not send out the Geshurites, or the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maacath are living among Israel to this day.
- 14 Only to the tribe of Levi he gave no heritage; the offerings of the Lord, the God of Israel, made by fire are his heritage, as he said to him.
- 15 And Moses gave their heritage to the tribe of Reuben by their families.
- 16 Their limit was from Aroer, on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the town in the middle of the valley, and all the table-land by Medeba;
- 17 Heshbon and all her towns in the table-land; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon;
- 18 And Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath;
- 19 And Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar in the mountain of the valley;
- 20 And Beth-peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth;
- 21 And all the towns of the table-land, and all the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who was ruling in Heshbon, whom Moses overcame, together with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the chiefs of Sihon, who were living i
- 22 And Balaam, the son of Beor, the prophet, the children of Israel put to death with the sword.
- 23 And the limit of the children of Reuben was the edge of Jordan. This was the heritage of the children of Reuben by their families, with its towns and its unwalled places.
- 24 And Moses gave their heritage to the tribe of Gad by their families.
- 25 And their limit was Jazer, and all the towns of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, to Aroer before Rabbah;
- 26 And from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the edge of Debir;
- 27 And in the valley, Beth-haram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon, king of Heshbon, having Jordan for its limit, to the end of the sea of Chinnereth on the east side of Jordan.
- 28 This is the heritage of the children of Gad by their families, with its towns and its unwalled places
- 29 And Moses gave their heritage to the half-tribe of Manasseh by their families.
- 30 And their limit was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan, and all Havvoth-Jair, in Bashan, sixty towns;
- 31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, towns of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir by their families.
- 32 These are the heritages of which Moses made distribution in the lowlands of Moab, on the other side of Jordan in Jericho, to the east.
- 33 But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no heritage: the Lord, the God of Israel, is their heritage, as he said to them.
 - 1 And these are the heritages which the children of Israel took in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar, the priest, and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, gave out to them;
 - 2 Their heritage by the Lord's decision, as he gave orders by Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

- 3 For Moses had given their heritage to the two tribes and the half-tribe on the other side of Jordan, but to the Levites he gave no heritage among them.
- 4 Because the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; and they gave the Levites no part in the land, only towns for their living-places, with the grass-lands for their cattle and for their property.
- 5 As the Lord had given orders to Moses, so the people of Israel did, and they made division of the land.
- 6 Then the children of Judah went to Joshua in Gilgal; and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, said to him, You have knowledge of what the Lord said to Moses, the man of God, about me and about you in Kadesh-barnea.
- 7 I was forty years old when Moses, the servant of the Lord, sent me from Kadesh-barnea to make a search through the land; and the account which I gave him was in keeping with his desire.
- 8 My brothers, however, who went up with me, made the heart of the people like water: but I was true to the Lord with all my heart.
- 9 And on that day Moses took an oath, saying, Truly the land where your feet have been placed will become a heritage for you and your children for ever, because you have been true to the Lord your God with all your heart.
- 10 And now, as you see, the Lord has kept me safe these forty-five years, from the time when the Lord said this to Moses, while Israel was wandering in the waste land: and now I am eighty-five years old.
- 11 And still, I am as strong today as I was when Moses sent me out: as my strength was then, so is it now, for war and for all the business of life.
- 12 So now, give me this hill-country named by the Lord at that time; for you had an account of it then, how the Anakim were there, and great walled towns: it may be that the Lord will be with me, and I will be able to take their land, as the Lord said.
- 13 And Joshua gave him his blessing; and he gave Hebron to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, for his heritage.
- 14 So Hebron became the heritage of Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, to this day, because with all his heart he was true to the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 15 In earlier times the name of Hebron had been Kiriath-arba, named after Arba, the greatest of the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.
- 1 Now the part of the land marked out for the children of Judah by families, went up to the edge of Edom, as far as the waste land of Zin to the south, to the farthest point of it on the south.
- 2 Their south limit was from the farthest part of the Salt Sea, from the inlet looking to the south:
- 3 From there it goes south of the slope up to Akkrabbim, and on to Zin, then south past Kadesh-barnea, and on by Hezron and up to Addar, turning in the direction of Karka:
- 4 Then on to Azmon, ending at the stream of Egypt: and the end of the limit is at the sea; this will be your limit on the south.
- 5 And the east limit is the Salt Sea as far as the end of Jordan. And the limit of the north part of the land is from the inlet of the sea at the end of Jordan:
- 6 Then the line goes up to Beth-hoglah, past the north of Beth-arabah, and up to the stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben;
- 7 Then the line goes up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and so to the north, in the direction of Gilgal, which is opposite the slope up to Adummim, on the south side of the river: and the line goes on to the waters of En-shemesh, ending at En-rogel:
- 8 Then the line goes up by the valley of the son of Hinnom to the south side of the Jebusite (which is Jerusalem): then up to the top of the mountain in front of the valley of Hinnom to the west, which is at the farthest point of the valley of Rephaim on th
- 9 And the limit is marked out from the top of the mountain to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah, and out to the towns of Mount Ephron, as far as Baalah (which is Kiriath-jearim):
- 10 Then turning west, the line goes from Baalah to Mount Seir, and on to the side of Mount Jearim (which is Chesalon) on the north, then down to Beth-shemesh, and on past Timnah:
- 11 And out to the side of Ekron to the north: then it is marked out to Shikkeron and on to Mount Baalah, ending at Jabneel; the end of the line is at the sea.
- 12 And the limit on the west is the edge of the Great Sea. This is the line going round the land marked out for the children of Judah, by their families.
- 13 And to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, he gave a part among the children of Judah, as the Lord had given orders to Joshua, that is, Kiriath-arba, named after Arba, the father of Anak which is Hebron.

- 14 And the three sons of Anak, Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, the children of Anak, were forced out from there by Caleb.
- 15 From there he went up against the people of Debir: (now the name of Debir before that was Kiriath-sepher.)
- 16 And Caleb said, I will give Achsah, my daughter, as wife to the man who overcomes Kiriath-sepher and takes it.
- 17 And Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, took it: so he gave him his daughter Achsah for his wife.
- 18 Now when she came to him, he put into her mind the idea of requesting a field from her father: and she got down from her ass; and Caleb said to her, What is it?
- 19 And she said, Give me a blessing; because you have put me in dry south-land, now give me springs of water. So he gave her the higher spring and the lower spring.
- 20 This is the heritage of the tribe of Judah, by their families.
- 21 The farthest towns of the tribe of Judah in the direction of the limits of Edom to the south, were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur;
- 22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah;
- 23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan;
- 24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth;
- 25 And Hazor-hadattah, and Kerioth-hezron (which is Hazor);
- 26 Amam, and Shema, and Moladah;
- 27 And Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-pelet;
- 28 And Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba, and Biziothiah;
- 29 Baalah, and Iim, and Ezem;
- 30 And Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah;
- 31 And Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah;
- 32 And Lebaath, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon; all the towns are twenty-nine, with their unwalled places.
- 33 In the lowland, Eshtaol, and Zorah, and Ashnah;
- 34 And Zanoah, and En-gannim, Tappuah, and Enam;
- 35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah;
- 36 And Shaaraim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen towns with their unwalled places.
- 37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad;
- 38 And Dilan, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel;
- 39 Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon;
- 40 And Cabbon, and Lahmas, and Chithlish;
- 41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen towns with their unwalled places.
- 42 Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan;
- 43 And Iphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib;
- 44 And Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine towns with their unwalled places.
- 45 Ekron, with her daughter-towns and her unwalled places;
- 46 From Ekron to the sea, all the towns by the side of Ashdod, with their unwalled places.
- 47 Ashdod, with her daughter-towns and her unwalled places; Gaza, with her daughter-towns and her unwalled places, to the stream of Egypt, with the Great Sea as a limit.
- 48 And in the hill-country, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh;
- 49 And Dannah, and Kiriath-sannah (which is Debir);
- 50 And Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim;
- 51 And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven towns with their unwalled places.
- 52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshan;
- 53 And Janim, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah;
- 54 And Humtah, and Kiriath-arba (which is Hebron), and Zior; nine towns with their unwalled places.
- 55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Jutah;

- 56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah;
- 57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten towns with their unwalled places.
- 58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor;
- 59 And Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six towns with their unwalled places.
- 60 Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-jearim), and Rabbah; two towns with their unwalled places.
- 61 In the waste land, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah;
- 62 And Nibshan, and the Town of Salt, and En-gedi; six towns with their unwalled places.
- 63 And as for the Jebusites living in Jerusalem, the children of Judah were unable to make them go out; but the Jebusites are living with the children of Judah at Jerusalem, to this day.
- 1 And the limit of the land marked out for the children of Joseph went out from Jordan at Jericho, at the waters of Jericho on the east, in the waste land, going up from Jericho through the hill-country to Beth-el;
- 2 And it goes out from Beth-el to Luz, and on as far as the limit of the Archites to Ataroth;
- 3 And it goes down to the west to the limit of the Japhletites, to the limit of Beth-horon the lower, as far as Gezer; ending at the sea.
- 4 And the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their heritage.
- 5 And the limit of the land of the children of Ephraim by their families was marked out in this way: the limit of their heritage to the east was Ataroth-addar, to Beth-horon the higher;
- 6 The line goes out to the west at Michmethath on the north; then turning to the east to Taanath-shiloh, going past it on the east of Janoah;
- 7 And from Janoah down to Ataroth, and to Naarah, and touching Jericho, it goes on to Jordan.
- 8 From Tappuah the line goes on to the west to the river of Kanah; ending at the sea. This is the heritage of the children of Ephraim by their families;
- 9 Together with the towns marked out for the children of Ephraim in the heritage of Manasseh, all the towns with their unwalled places.
- 10 And the Canaanites who were living in Gezer were not forced out; but the Canaanites have been living among Ephraim, to this day, as servants, doing forced work.
- 1 And this was the part marked out for the tribe of Manasseh, because he was the oldest son of Joseph. As for Machir, the oldest son of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war he had Gilead and Bashan.
- 2 And as for the rest of the children of Manasseh, their heritage was given to them by families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hopher, and
- 3 But Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
- 4 And they came before Eleazar the priest, and Joshua, the son of Nun, and before the chiefs, saying, The Lord gave orders to Moses to give us a heritage among our brothers: so in agreement with the orders of the Lord he gave them a heritage among their fat
- 5 And ten parts were given to Manasseh, in addition to the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of Jordan;
- 6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had a heritage among his sons, and the land of Gilead was the property of the other sons of Manasseh.
- 7 And the limit of Manasseh's land was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem; the line goes on to the right hand, to the people of En-tappuah.
- 8 The land of Tappuah was the property of Manasseh; but Tappuah on the edge of Manasseh was the property of the children of Ephraim.
- 9 And the limit goes down to the stream Kanah, to the south of the stream: these towns were Ephraim's among the towns of Manasseh; Manasseh's limit was on the north side of the stream, ending at the sea:
- 10 To the south it is Ephraim's, and to the north it is Manasseh's, and the sea is his limit; and they are touching Asher on the north, and Issachar on the east.

- 11 In Issachar and Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its daughter-towns, and Ibleam and its daughter-towns, and the people of Dor and its daughter-towns, and the people of En-dor and its daughter-towns, and the people of Taanach and its daughter-towns, and
- 12 But the children of Manasseh were not able to make the people of those towns go out; but the Canaanites would go on living in that land.
- 13 And when the children of Israel had become strong, they put the Canaanites to forced work, in place of driving them out.
- 14 Then the children of Joseph said to Joshua, Why have you given me only one part and one stretch of land for my heritage? For through the blessing given to me by the Lord up to now, I am a great people.
- 15 Then Joshua said to them, If you are such a great people, go up into the woodlands, clearing a place there for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, if the hill-country of Ephraim is not wide enough for you.
- 16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill-country is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites living in the valley have iron war-carriages, those in Beth-shean and its towns as well as those in the valley of Jezreel.
- 17 Then Joshua said to the children of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, You are a great people, and have great power: you are not to have one property only,
- 18 For the hill-country of Gilead will be yours ... the woodland and cut down ... its outskirts will be yours ... get the Canaanites out, for they have iron war-carriages ... strong.
- 1 And all the meeting of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh and put up the Tent of meeting there: and the land was crushed before them.
- 2 But there were still seven tribes among the children of Israel who had not taken up their heritage.
- 3 Then Joshua said to the children of Israel, Why are you so slow to go in and take up your heritage in the land which the Lord, the God of your fathers, has given you?
- 4 Take from among you three men from every tribe; and I will send them to go through the land and make a record of it for distribution as their heritage; then let them come back to me.
- 5 And let them make division of it into seven parts: let Judah keep inside his limit on the south, and let the children of Joseph keep inside their limit on the north.
- 6 And you are to have the land marked out in seven parts, and come back to me with the record; and I will make the distribution for you here by the decision of the Lord our God.
- 7 For the Levites have no part among you; to be the Lord's priests is their heritage; and Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have had their heritage on the east side of Jordan, given to them by Moses, the servant of the Lord.
- 8 So the men got up and went; and Joshua gave orders to those who went, to make a record of the land, saying, Go up and down through the land, and make a record of it and come back here to me, and I will make the distribution for you here by the decision of
- 9 So the men went, travelling through the land, and made a record of it by towns in seven parts in a book, and came back to Joshua to the tent-circle at Shiloh.
- 10 And Joshua made the distribution for them in Shiloh by the decision of the Lord, marking out the land for the children of Israel by their divisions.
- 11 And the first heritage came out for the tribe of Benjamin by their families: and the limit of their heritage went between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.
- 12 And their limit on the north was from the Jordan, and the line goes up to the side of Jericho on the north and through the hill-country to the west, ending at the waste land of Beth-aven.
- 13 And from there the line goes south to Luz, to the side of Luz (which is Beth-el), then down to Ataroth-addar, by the mountain to the south of Beth-horon the lower.
- 14 And the limit is marked as coming round to the south on the west side from the mountain which is south of Beth-horon, and ending at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-jearim), a town of the children of Judah: this is the west part.
- 15 And the south part is from the farthest point of Kiriath-jearim, and the line goes out to the west to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah:
- 16 And the line goes down to the farthest part of the mountain facing the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is on the north of the valley of Rephaim: from there it goes down to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite on the south as far as En-rogue
- 17 And it goes to En-shemesh and on to Geliloth, opposite the way up to Adummim, and it goes down to the stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben;

- 18 And it goes on to the side facing the Arabah to the north, and down to the Arabah;
- 19 And on to the north side of Beth-hoglah, ending at the north inlet of the Salt Sea at the south end of Jordan; this is their limit on the south.
- 20 And the limit of the east part is the Jordan. This is the heritage of the children of Benjamin, marked out for their families by these limits on all sides.
- 21 And the towns of the children of Benjamin, given to them in the order of their families, are Jericho and Beth-hoglah and Emek-kezziz
- 22 And Beth-arabah and Zemaraim and Beth-el
- 23 And Avvim and Parah and Ophrah
- 24 And Chephar-Ammoni and Ophni and Geba; twelve towns with their unwallled places;
- 25 Gibeon and Ramah and Beeroth
- 26 And Mizpeh and Chephirah and Mozah
- 27 And Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah
- 28 And Zela, Eleph and the Jebusite (which is Jerusalem), Gibeath and Kiriath; fourteen towns with their unwallled places. This is the heritage of the children of Benjamin by their families.
- 1 And the second heritage came out for the tribe of Simeon by their families; and their heritage was in the middle of the heritage of the children of Judah.
- 2 And they had for their heritage Beer-sheba and Shema and Moladah
- 3 And Hazar-shual and Balah and Ezem
- 4 And Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah
- 5 And Ziklag and Beth-marcaboth and Hazar-susah
- 6 And Beth-lebaoth and Sharuhem; thirteen towns with their unwallled places;
- 7 Ain, Rimmon, and Ether and Ashan; four towns with their unwallled places;
- 8 And all the unwallled places round about these towns as far as Baalath-beer-ramah to the south. This is the heritage of the tribe of Simeon by their families.
- 9 The heritage of Simeon was taken out of Judah's stretch of land, for Judah's part was more than they had need of, so the heritage of the children of Simeon was inside their heritage.
- 10 And the third heritage came out for Zebulun by their families; the limit of their heritage was as far as Sarid;
- 11 And their limit goes up to the west to Maralah, stretching to Dabbesheth, and to the stream in front of Jokneam;
- 12 Then turning east from Sarid to the limit of Chisloth-tabor, it goes out to Daberath, and up to Japhia;
- 13 And from there it goes on east to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin; ending at Rimmon which goes as far as Neah;
- 14 And the line goes round it on the north to Hannathon, ending at the valley of Iphtah-el;
- 15 And Kattath and Nahalal and Shimron and Idalah and Beth-lehem; twelve towns with their unwallled places.
- 16 This is the heritage of the children of Zebulun by their families, these towns with their unwallled places.
- 17 For Issachar the fourth heritage came out, for the children of Issachar by their families;
- 18 And their limit was to Jezreel and Chesulloth and Shunem
- 19 And Hapharaim and Shion and Anaharath
- 20 And Rabbith and Kishion and Ebez
- 21 And Remeth and En-gannim and En-haddah and Beth-pazzez;
- 22 And their limit goes as far as Tabor and Shahazimah and Beth-shemesh, ending at Jordan; sixteen towns with their unwallled places.
- 23 This is the heritage of the tribe of the children of Issachar by their families, these towns with their unwallled places.
- 24 And the fifth heritage came out for the tribe of Asher by their families.
- 25 And their limit was Helkath and Hali and Beten and Achshaph
- 26 And Alammelech and Amad and Mishal, stretching to Carmel on the west and Shihor-libnath;
- 27 Turning to the east to Beth-dagon and stretching to Zebulun and the valley of Iphtah-el as far as Beth-emek and Neiel to the north; on the left it goes as far as Cabul
- 28 And Ebron and Rehob and Hammon and Kanah, to great Zidon;

- 29 And the limit goes round to Ramah and the walled town of Tyre and Hosah, ending at the sea by Heleb and Achzib;
- 30 And Ummah and Aphek and Rehob; twenty-two towns with their unwalled places.
- 31 This is the heritage of the tribe of the children of Asher by their families, these towns with their unwalled places.
- 32 For the children of Naphtali the sixth heritage came out, for the children of Naphtali by their families;
- 33 And their limit was from Heleph, from the oak-tree in Zaanannim, and Adami-hannekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, ending at Jordan;
- 34 And turning west to Aznoth-tabor, the limit goes out from there to Hukkok, stretching to Zebulun on the south, and Asher on the west, and Judah at Jordan on the east.
- 35 And the walled towns are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth
- 36 And Adamah and Ramah and Hazor
- 37 And Kedesh and Edrei and En-Hazor
- 38 And Iron and Migdal-el, Horem and Beth-anath and Beth-shemesh; nineteen towns with their unwalled places.
- 39 This is the heritage of the tribe of the children of Naphtali by their families, these towns with their unwalled places.
- 40 For the tribe of Dan by their families the seventh heritage came out;
- 41 And the limit of their heritage was Zorah and Eshtaol and Ir-shemesh
- 42 And Shaalabbin and Aijalon and Ithlah
- 43 And Elon and Timnah and Ekron
- 44 And Eltekeh and Gibbethon and Baalath
- 45 And Jehud and Bene-berak and Gath-rimmon;
- 46 And on the west was ... opposite Joppa.
- 47 (But the limit of the children of Dan was not wide enough for them; so the children of Dan went up and made war on Leshem and took it, putting it to the sword without mercy, and they took it for their heritage and made a place for themselves there, giving
- 48 This is the heritage of the tribe of the children of Dan by their families, these towns with their unwalled places.
- 49 So the distribution of the land and its limits was complete; and the children of Israel gave Joshua, the son of Nun, a heritage among them;
- 50 By the orders of the Lord they gave him the town for which he made request, Timnath-serah in the hill-country of Ephraim: there, after building the town, he made his living-place.
- 51 These are the heritages which Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the heads of families of the tribes of the children of Israel gave out at Shiloh, by the decision of the Lord, at the door of the Tent of meeting. So the distribution of the
- 1 And the Lord said to Joshua,
- 2 Say to the children of Israel, Let certain towns be marked out as safe places, as I said to you by the mouth of Moses,
- 3 So that any man who in error and without design has taken the life of another, may go in flight to them: and they will be safe places for you from him who has the right of punishment for blood.
- 4 And if anyone goes in flight to one of those towns, and comes into the public place of the town, and puts his cause before the responsible men of the town, they will take him into the town and give him a place among them where he may be safe.
- 5 And if the one who has the right of punishment comes after him, they are not to give the taker of life up to him; because he was the cause of his neighbour's death without designing it and not in hate.
- 6 And he is to go on living in that town till he has to come before the meeting of the people to be judged; (till the death of him who is high priest at that time:) then the taker of life may come back to his town and to his house, to the town from which he
- 7 So they made selection of Kedesh in Galilee in the hill-country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (which is Hebron) in the hill-country of Judah.
- 8 And on the east side of Jordan at Jericho, they made selection of Bezer in the waste land, in the table-land, out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.
- 9 These were the towns marked out for all the children of Israel and for the man from a strange country living among them, so that anyone causing the death of another in error, might go in flight there, and not be put to death by him who has the right of pu

- 1 Then the heads of the families of the Levites came to Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun, and to the heads of families of the tribes of the children of Israel;
- 2 And said to them in Shiloh in the land of Canaan, The Lord gave orders by Moses that we were to have towns for living in, with their grass-lands for our cattle.
- 3 And the children of Israel out of their heritage gave to the Levites these towns with their grass-lands, by the order of the Lord.
- 4 And the heritage came out for the families of the Kohathites: the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, were given thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.
- 5 The rest of the children of Kohath by their families were given ten towns from the tribes of Ephraim and Dan and the half-tribe of Manasseh.
- 6 The children of Gershon by their families were given thirteen towns from the tribes of Issachar and Asher and Naphtali and the half-tribe of Manasseh which was in Bashan.
- 7 The children of Merari by their families were given twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben and Gad and Zebulun.
- 8 All these towns with their grass-lands the children of Israel gave by the decision of the Lord to the Levites, as the Lord had given orders by Moses.
- 9 From the tribes of the children of Judah and the children of Simeon they gave these towns, listed here by name:
- 10 These were for the children of Aaron among the families of the Kohathites, of the children of Levi: for they came first in the distribution.
- 11 They gave them Kiriath-arba, the town of Arba, the father of Anak, (which is Hebron) in the hill-country of Judah, with its grass-lands.
- 12 But the open country round the town, and its unwalled places, they gave to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, as his property.
- 13 And to the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its grass-lands, the town where the taker of life might be safe, and Libnah with its grass-lands;
- 14 And Jattir with its grass-lands, and Eshtemoa with its grass-lands;
- 15 And Holon with its grass-lands, and Debir with its grass-lands;
- 16 And Ain, and Juttah, and Beth-shemesh, with their grass-lands; nine towns from those two tribes.
- 17 And from the tribe of Benjamin they gave Gibeon and Geba with their grass-lands;
- 18 Anathoth and Almon with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 19 Thirteen towns with their grass-lands were given to the children of Aaron, the priests.
- 20 The rest of the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, were given towns from the tribe of Ephraim.
- 21 And they gave them Shechem with its grass-lands in the hill-country of Ephraim, the town where the taker of life might be safe, and Gezer with its grass-lands;
- 22 And Kibzaim and Beth-horon with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 23 And from the tribe of Dan, Elteke and Gibbethon with their grass-lands;
- 24 Aijalon and Gath-rimmon with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 25 And from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach and Gath-rimmon with their grass-lands, two towns.
- 26 All the towns of the rest of the families of the children of Kohath were ten with their grass-lands.
- 27 And to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, they gave from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its grass-lands, the town where the taker of life might be safe, and Ashtaroth with its grass-lands, two towns.
- 28 And from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion and Daberath with their grass-lands;
- 29 Jarmuth and En-gannim with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 30 And from the tribe of Asher, Mishal and Abdon, with their grass-lands:
- 31 Helkath and Rehob with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 32 And from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its grass-lands, the town where the taker of life might be safe, and Hammoth-dor and Kartan with their grass-lands, three towns.
- 33 All the towns of the Gershonites with their families were thirteen with their grass-lands.
- 34 And to the rest of the Levites, that is, the families of the children of Merari, they gave from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam and Kartah with their grass-lands;

- 35 Dimnah and Nahalal with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 36 And from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer and Jahaz with their grass-lands;
- 37 Kedemoth and Mephaath with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 38 And from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead, the town where the taker of life might be safe, and Mahanaim with their grass-lands;
- 39 Heshbon and Jazer with their grass-lands, four towns.
- 40 All these towns were given to the children of Merari by their families, that is, the rest of the families of the Levites; and their heritage was twelve towns.
- 41 All the towns of the Levites, among the heritage of the children of Israel, were forty-eight towns with their grass-lands.
- 42 Every one of these towns had grass-lands round it.
- 43 So the Lord gave to Israel all the land which he gave by oath to their fathers; so it became their heritage and their living-place.
- 44 And the Lord gave them peace on every side, as he had said to their fathers: all those who were against them gave way before them, for the Lord gave them all up into their hands.
- 45 The Lord kept faith with the house of Israel about all the good which he said he would do for them, and all his words came true.
- 1 Then Joshua sent for the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh,
- 2 And said to them, You have kept all the orders of Moses, the Lord's servant, and have done everything I gave you orders to do:
- 3 You have now been with your brothers for a long time; till this day you have been doing the orders of the Lord your God.
- 4 And now the Lord your God has given your brothers rest, as he said: so now you may go back to your tents, to the land of your heritage, which Moses, the Lord's servant, gave to you on the other side of Jordan.
- 5 Only take great care to do the orders and the law which Moses, the Lord's servant, gave you; to have love for the Lord your God and to go in all his ways; and to keep his laws and to be true to him and to be his servants with all your heart and with all y
- 6 Then Joshua gave them his blessing and sent them away: and they went back to their tents.
- 7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given a heritage in Bashan; but to the other half, Joshua gave a heritage among their brothers on the west side of Jordan. Now when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he gave them his blessing,
- 8 And said to them, Go back with much wealth to your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver and gold and brass and iron, and with a very great store of clothing; give your brothers a part of the goods taken in the war.
- 9 So Reuben and Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh went back, parting from the children of Israel at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their heritage which had been given to them by the Lord's order to Moses.
- 10 Now when they came to the country by Jordan in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh put up there, by Jordan, a great altar, seen from far.
- 11 And news came to the children of Israel, See, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have put up an altar opposite the land of Canaan, in the country by Jordan on the side which is Israel's.
- 12 Then all the meeting of the children of Israel, hearing this, came together at Shiloh to go up against them to war.
- 13 And the children of Israel sent Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest, to the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead,
- 14 And with him they sent ten chiefs, one for every tribe of the children of Israel, every one of them the head of his house among the families of Israel.
- 15 And they came to the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and said to them,
- 16 This is what all the meeting of the people of the Lord has said, What is this wrong which you have done against the God of Israel, turning back this day from the Lord and building an altar for yourselves, and being false to the Lord?
- 17 Was not the sin of Baal-peor great enough, from which we are not clear even to this day, though punishment came on the people of the Lord,

- 18 That now you are turned back from the Lord? and, because you are false to him today, tomorrow his wrath will be let loose on all the people of Israel.
- 19 But if the land you now have is unclean, come over into the Lord's land where his House is, and take up your heritage among us: but do not be false to the Lord and to us by building yourselves an altar in addition to the altar of the Lord our God.
- 20 Did not Achan, the son of Zerah, do wrong about the cursed thing, causing wrath to come on all the people of Israel? And not on him only came the punishment of death.
- 21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh said in answer to the heads of the families of Israel,
- 22 God, even God the Lord, God, even God the Lord, he sees, and Israel will see--if it is in pride or in sin against the Lord,
- 23 That we have made ourselves an altar, being false to the Lord, keep us not safe from death this day; and if for the purpose of offering burned offerings on it and meal offerings, or peace-offerings, let the Lord himself send punishment for it;
- 24 And if we have not, in fact, done this designedly and with purpose, having in our minds the fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, What have you to do with the Lord, the God of Israel?
- 25 For the Lord has made Jordan a line of division between us and you, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad; you have no part in the Lord: so your children will make our children give up fearing the Lord.
- 26 So we said, Let us now make an altar for ourselves, not for burned offerings or for the offerings of beasts:
- 27 But to be a witness between us and you, and between the future generations, that we have the right of worshipping the Lord with our burned offerings and our offerings of beasts and our peace-offerings; so that your children will not be able to say to our
- 28 For we said to ourselves, If they say this to us or to future generations, then we will say, See this copy of the Lord's altar which our fathers made, not for burned offerings or offerings of beasts, but for a witness between us and you.
- 29 Never let it be said that we were false to the Lord, turning back this day from him and building an altar for burned offerings and meal offerings and offerings of beasts, in addition to the altar of the Lord our God which is before his House.
- 30 Then Phinehas the priest and the chiefs of the meeting and the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, hearing what the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh said, were pleased.
- 31 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest, said to the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh, Now we are certain that the Lord is among us, because you have not done this wrong against the Lord: and you have kept us fro
- 32 Then Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest, and the chiefs went back from the land of Gilead, from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and came to the children of Israel in Canaan and gave them the news.
- 33 And the children of Israel were pleased about this; and they gave praise to God, and had no more thought of going to war against the children of Reuben and the children of Gad for the destruction of their land.
- 34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad gave to that altar the name of Ed. For, they said, It is a witness between us that the Lord is God.
- 1 Now after a long time, when the Lord had given Israel rest from wars on every side, and Joshua was old and full of years,
- 2 Joshua sent for all Israel, for their responsible men and their chiefs and their judges and their overseers, and said to them, I am old, and full of years:
- 3 You have seen everything the Lord your God has done to all these nations because of you; for it is the Lord your God who has been fighting for you.
- 4 Now I have given to you, as the heritage of your tribes, all these nations which are still in the land, together with those cut off by me, from Jordan as far as the Great Sea on the west.
- 5 The Lord your God will send them away by force, driving them out before you; and you are to take their land for your heritage, as the Lord your God said to you.
- 6 So be very strong to keep and do whatever is recorded in the book of the law of Moses, not turning away from it to the right or to the left;
- 7 Have nothing to do with these nations who still are living among you; let not their gods be named by you or used in your oaths; do not be their servants or give them worship:

- 8 But be true to the Lord your God as you have been till this day.
- 9 For the Lord has sent out from before you nations great and strong; and they have all given way before you till this day.
- 10 One man of you is able to put to flight a thousand; for it is the Lord your God who is fighting for you, as he has said to you.
- 11 So keep watch on yourselves, and see that you have love for the Lord your God.
- 12 For if you go back, joining yourselves to the rest of these nations who are still among you, getting married to them and living with them and they with you:
- 13 Then you may be certain that the Lord your God will not go on driving these nations out from before you; but they will become a danger and a cause of sin to you, a whip for your sides and thorns in your eyes, till you are cut off from this good land which
- 14 Now I am about to go the way of all the earth: and you have seen and are certain, all of you, in your hearts and souls, that in all the good things which the Lord said about you, he has kept faith with you; everything has come true for you.
- 15 And you will see that, as all the good things which the Lord your God undertook to do for you, have come to you, so the Lord will send down on you all the evil things till he has made your destruction complete, and you are cut off from the good land which
- 16 If the agreement of the Lord your God, which was given to you by his orders, is broken, and you become the servants of other gods and give them worship, then the wrath of the Lord will be burning against you, and you will quickly be cut off from the good
- 1 Then Joshua got all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; and he sent for the responsible men of Israel and their chiefs and their judges and their overseers; and they took their place before God.
- 2 And Joshua said to all the people, These are the words of the Lord, the God of Israel: In the past your fathers, Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor, were living on the other side of the River: and they were worshipping other gods.
- 3 And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, guiding him through all the land of Canaan; I made his offspring great in number, and gave him Isaac.
- 4 And to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau: to Esau I gave Mount Seir, as his heritage; but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.
- 5 And I sent Moses and Aaron, troubling Egypt by all the signs I did among them: and after that I took you out.
- 6 I took your fathers out of Egypt: and you came to the Red Sea; and the Egyptians came after your fathers to the Red Sea, with their war-carriages and their horsemen.
- 7 And at their cry, the Lord made it dark between you and the Egyptians, and made the sea go over them, covering them with its waters; your eyes have seen what I did in Egypt: then for a long time you were living in the waste land.
- 8 And I took you into the lands of the Amorites on the other side of Jordan; and they made war on you, and I gave them into your hands and you took their land; and I sent destruction on them before you.
- 9 Then Balak, the son of Zippor, king of Moab, went up to war against Israel; and he sent for Balaam, the son of Beor, to put a curse on you:
- 10 But I did not give ear to Balaam; and so he went on blessing you; and I kept you safe from him.
- 11 Then you went over Jordan and came to Jericho: and the men of Jericho made war on you, the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Hivites and the Jebusites: and I gave them up into your hands.
- 12 And I sent the hornet before you, driving out the two kings of the Amorites before you, not with your sword and your bow.
- 13 And I gave you a land on which you had done no work, and towns not of your building, and you are now living in them; and your food comes from vine-gardens and olive-gardens not of your planting.
- 14 So now, go in fear of the Lord, and be his servants with true hearts: put away the gods worshipped by your fathers across the River and in Egypt, and be servants of the Lord.
- 15 And if it seems evil to you to be the servants of the Lord, make the decision this day whose servants you will be: of the gods whose servants your fathers were across the River, or of the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living: but I and my hou
- 16 Then the people in answer said, Never will we give up the Lord to be the servants of other gods;

- 17 For it is the Lord our God who has taken us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, out of the prison-house, and who did all those great signs before our eyes, and kept us safe on all our journeys, and among all the peoples through whom we went:
- 18 And the Lord sent out from before us all the peoples, the Amorites living in the land: so we will be the servants of the Lord, for he is our God.
- 19 And Joshua said to the people, You are not able to be the servants of the Lord, for he is a holy God, a God who will not let his honour be given to another: he will have no mercy on your wrongdoing or your sins.
- 20 If you are turned away from the Lord and become the servants of strange gods, then turning against you he will do you evil, cutting you off, after he has done you good.
- 21 And the people said to Joshua, No! But we will be the servants of the Lord.
- 22 And Joshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have made the decision to be the servants of the Lord. And they said, We are witnesses.
- 23 Then, he said, put away the strange gods among you, turning your hearts to the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 24 And the people said to Joshua, We will be the servants of the Lord our God, and we will give ear to his voice.
- 25 So Joshua made an agreement with the people that day, and gave them a rule and a law in Shechem.
- 26 And Joshua put these words on record, writing them in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and put it up there under the oak-tree which was in the holy place of the Lord.
- 27 And Joshua said to all the people, See now, this stone is to be a witness against us; for all the words of the Lord have been said to us in its hearing: so it will be a witness against you if you are false to the Lord your God.
- 28 Then Joshua let the people go away, every man to his heritage.
- 29 Now after these things, the death of Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, took place, he being then a hundred and ten years old.
- 30 And they put his body in the earth in the land of his heritage in Timnath-serah, in the hill-country of Ephraim, to the north of Mount Gaash.
- 31 And Israel was true to the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the older men who were still living after Joshua's death, and had seen what the Lord had done for Israel.
- 32 And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had taken up from Egypt, they put in the earth in Shechem, in the property which Jacob had got from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for a hundred shekels: and they became the heritage of the
- 33 Then the death of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, took place; and his body was put in the earth in the hill of Phinehas his son, which had been given to him in the hill-country of Ephraim.
- 1 Now after the death of Joshua, the children of Israel made request to the Lord, saying, Who is to go up first to make war for us against the Canaanites?
- 2 And the Lord said, Judah is to go up: see, I have given the land into his hands.
- 3 Then Judah said to Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my heritage, so that we may make war against the Canaanites; and I will then go with you into your heritage. So Simeon went with him.
- 4 And Judah went up; and the Lord gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands; and they overcame ten thousand of them in Bezek.
- 5 And they came across Adoni-zedek, and made war on him; and they overcame the Canaanites and the Perizzites.
- 6 But Adoni-zedek went in flight; and they went after him and overtook him, and had his thumbs and his great toes cut off.
- 7 And Adoni-zedek said, Seventy kings, whose thumbs and great toes had been cut off, got broken meat under my table: as I have done, so has God done to me in full. And they took him to Jerusalem, and he came to his end there.
- 8 Then the children of Judah made an attack on Jerusalem, and took it, burning down the town after they had put its people to the sword without mercy.
- 9 After that the children of Judah went down to make war on the Canaanites living in the hill-country and in the south and in the lowlands.
- 10 And Caleb went against the Canaanites of Hebron: (now in earlier times Hebron was named Kiriath-arba:) and he put Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai to the sword.
- 11 And from there he went up against the people of Debir. (Now the name of Debir in earlier times was Kiriath-sepher.)

- 12 And Caleb said, I will give Achsah, my daughter, as wife to the man who overcomes Kiriath-sepher and takes it.
- 13 And Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah for his wife.
- 14 Now when she came to him, he put into her mind the idea of requesting a field from her father: and she got down from her ass; and Caleb said to her, What is it?
- 15 And she said to him, Give me a blessing; because you have put me in a dry south-land, now give me springs of water. So Caleb gave her the higher spring and the lower spring.
- 16 Now Hobab the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, had come up out of the town of palm-trees, with the children of Judah, into the waste land of Arad; and he went and was living among the Amalekites;
- 17 And Judah went with Simeon, his brother, and overcame the Canaanites living in Zephath, and put it under the curse; and he gave the town the name of Hormah.
- 18 Then Judah took Gaza and its limit, and Ashkelon and its limit, and Ekron and its limit.
- 19 And the Lord was with Judah; and he took the hill-country for his heritage; but he was unable to make the people of the valley go out, for they had war-carriages of iron.
- 20 And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said; and he took the land of the three sons of Anak, driving them out from there.
- 21 And the children of Judah did not make the Jebusites who were living in Jerusalem go out; the Jebusites are still living with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem.
- 22 And the family of Joseph went up against Beth-el, and the Lord was with them.
- 23 So they sent men to make a search round Beth-el. (Now the name of the town in earlier times was Luz.)
- 24 And the watchers saw a man coming out of the town, and said to him, If you will make clear to us the way into the town, we will be kind to you.
- 25 So he made clear to them the way into the town, and they put it to the sword; but they let the man and all his family get away safe.
- 26 And he went into the land of the Hittites, building a town there and naming it Luz: which is its name to this day.
- 27 And Manasseh did not take away the land of the people of Beth-shean and its daughter-towns, or of Taanach and its daughter-towns, or of the people of Dor and its daughter-towns, or of the people of Ibleam and its daughter-towns, or of the people of Megidd
- 28 And whenever Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to forced work, without driving them out completely.
- 29 And Ephraim did not make the Canaanites who were living in Gezer go out; but the Canaanites went on living in Gezer among them.
- 30 Zebulun did not make the people of Kitron or the people of Nahalol go out; but the Canaanites went on living among them and were put to forced work.
- 31 And Asher did not take the land of the people of Acco, or Zidon, or Ahlab, or Achzib, or Helbah, or Aphik, or Rehob, driving them out;
- 32 But the Asherites went on living among the Canaanites, the people of the land, without driving them out.
- 33 Naphtali did not take the land of the people of Beth-shemesh or of Beth-anath, driving them out; but he was living among the Canaanites in the land; however, the people of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath were put to forced work.
- 34 And the children of Dan were forced into the hill-country by the Amorites, who would not let them come down into the valley;
- 35 For the Amorites would go on living in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim; but the children of Joseph became stronger than they, and put them to forced work.
- 36 And the limit of the Edomites went from the slope of Akrabbim from Sela and up.
- 1 Now the angel of the Lord came up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said,  I took you out of Egypt, guiding you into the land which I gave by an oath to your fathers; and I said, My agreement with you will never be broken by me:
- 2 And you are to make no agreement with the people of this land; you are to see that their altars are broken down: but you have not given ear to my voice: what have you done?
- 3 And so I have said, I will not send them out from before you; but they will be a danger to you, and their gods will be a cause of falling to you.
- 4 Now on hearing these words which the angel of the Lord said to all the children of Israel, the people gave themselves up to loud crying and weeping.

- 5 And they gave that place the name of Bochim, and made offerings there to the Lord.
- 6 And Joshua let the people go away, and the children of Israel went, every man to his heritage, to take the land for themselves.
- 7 And the people were true to the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the responsible men who were still living after the death of Joshua, and had seen all the great work of the Lord which he had done for Israel.
- 8 And death came to Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, he being a hundred and ten years old.
- 9 And they put his body in the earth in the land of his heritage in Timnath-heres, in the hill-country of Ephraim to the north of Mount Gaash.
- 10 And in time death overtook all that generation; and another generation came after them, having no knowledge of the Lord or of the things which he had done for Israel.
- 11 And the children of Israel did evil in the eyes of the Lord and became servants to the Baals;
- 12 And they gave up the Lord, the God of their fathers, who had taken them out of the land of Egypt, and went after other gods, the gods of the peoples round about them, worshipping them and moving the Lord to wrath.
- 13 And they gave up the Lord, and became the servants of Baal and the Astartes.
- 14 And the wrath of the Lord was burning against Israel, and he gave them up into the hands of those who violently took their property, and into the hands of their haters all round them, so that they were forced to give way before them.
- 15 Wherever they went out, the hand of the Lord was against them for evil, as the Lord had taken his oath it would be; and things became very hard for them.
- 16 Then the Lord gave them judges, as their saviours from the hands of those who were cruel to them.
- 17 But still they would not give ear to their judges, but went after other gods and gave them worship; quickly turning from the way in which their fathers had gone, keeping the orders of the Lord; but they did not do so.
- 18 And whenever the Lord gave them judges, then the Lord was with the judge, and was their saviour from the hands of their haters all the days of the judge; for the Lord was moved by their cries of grief because of those who were cruel to them.
- 19 But whenever the judge was dead, they went back and did more evil than their fathers, going after other gods, to be their servants and their worshippers; giving up nothing of their sins and their hard-hearted ways.
- 20 And the wrath of the Lord was burning against Israel, and he said, Because this nation has not been true to my agreement which I made with their fathers, and has not given ear to my voice;
- 21 From now on I will not go on driving out from before them any of the nations which at the death of Joshua were still living in this land;
- 22 In order to put Israel to the test, and see if they will keep the way of the Lord, walking in it as their fathers did, or not.
- 23 So the Lord let those nations go on living in the land, not driving them out quickly, and did not give them up into the hands of Joshua.
- 1 Now these are the nations which the Lord kept in the land for the purpose of testing Israel by them, all those who had had no experience of all the wars of Canaan;
- 2 Only because of the generations of the children of Israel, for the purpose of teaching them war--only those who up till then had no experience of it;
- 3 The five chiefs of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites and the Zidonians and the Hivites living in Mount Lebanon, from the mountain Baal-hermon as far as Hamath:
- 4 For the purpose of testing Israel by them, to see if they would give ear to the orders of the Lord, which he had given to their fathers by the hand of Moses.
- 5 Now the children of Israel were living among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites:
- 6 And they took as wives the daughters of these nations and gave their daughters to their sons, and became servants to their gods.
- 7 And the children of Israel did evil in the eyes of the Lord, and put out of their minds the Lord their God, and became servants to the Baals and the Astartes.
- 8 So the wrath of the Lord was burning against Israel, and he gave them up into the hands of Cushan-rishathaim, king of Mesopotamia; and the children of Israel were his servants for eight years.
- 9 And when the children of Israel made prayer to the Lord, he gave them a saviour, Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

- 10 And the spirit of the Lord came on him and he became judge of Israel, and went out to war, and the Lord gave up Cushan-rishathaim, king of Mesopotamia, into his hands and he overcame him.
- 11 Then for forty years the land had peace, till the death of Othniel, the son of Kenaz.
- 12 Then the children of Israel again did evil in the eyes of the Lord; and the Lord made Eglon, king of Moab, strong against Israel, because they had done evil in the Lord's eyes.
- 13 And Eglon got together the people of Ammon and Amalek, and they went and overcame Israel and took the town of palm-trees.
- 14 And the children of Israel were servants to Eglon, king of Moab, for eighteen years.
- 15 Then when the children of Israel made prayer to the Lord, he gave them a saviour, Ehud, the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man; and the children of Israel sent an offering by him to Eglon, king of Moab.
- 16 So Ehud made himself a two-edged sword, a cubit long, which he put on at his right side under his robe.
- 17 And he took the offering to Eglon, king of Moab, who was a very fat man.
- 18 And after giving the offering, he sent away the people who had come with the offering.
- 19 But he himself, turning back from the stone images at Gilgal, said, I have something to say to you in secret, O king. And he said, Let there be quiet. Then all those who were waiting before him went out.
- 20 Then Ehud came in to him while he was seated by himself in his summer-house. And Ehud said, I have a word from God for you. And he got up from his seat.
- 21 And Ehud put out his left hand, and took the sword from his right side, and sent it into his stomach;
- 22 And the hand-part went in after the blade, and the fat was joined up over the blade; for he did not take the sword out of his stomach. And he went out into the ...
- 23 Then Ehud went out into the covered way, shutting the doors of the summer-house on him and locking them.
- 24 Now when he had gone, the king's servants came, and saw that the doors of the summer-house were locked; and they said, It may be that he is in his summer-house for a private purpose.
- 25 And they went on waiting till they were shamed, but the doors were still shut; so they took the key, and, opening them, saw their lord stretched out dead on the floor.
- 26 But Ehud had got away while they were waiting and had gone past the stone images and got away to Seirah.
- 27 And when he came there, he had a horn sounded in the hill-country of Ephraim, and all the children of Israel went down with him from the hill-country, and he at their head.
- 28 And he said to them, Come after me; for the Lord has given the Moabites, your haters, into your hands. So they went down after him and took the crossing-places of Jordan against Moab, and let no one go across.
- 29 At that time they put about ten thousand men of Moab to the sword, every strong man and every man of war; not a man got away.
- 30 So Moab was broken that day under the hand of Israel. And for eighty years the land had peace.
- 31 And after him came Shamgar, the son of Anath, who put to death six hundred Philistines with an ox-stick; and he was another saviour of Israel.
- 1 And the children of Israel again did evil in the eyes of the Lord when Ehud was dead.
- 2 And the Lord gave them up into the hands of Jabin, king of Canaan, who was ruling in Hazor; the captain of his army was Sisera, who was living in Harosheth of the Gentiles.
- 3 Then the children of Israel made prayer to the Lord; for he had nine hundred iron war-carriages, and for twenty years he was very cruel to the children of Israel.
- 4 Now Deborah, a woman prophet, the wife of Lapidoth, was judge of Israel at that time.
- 5 (And she had her seat under the palm-tree of Deborah between Ramah and Beth-el in the hill-country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her to be judged.)
- 6 And she sent for Barak, the son of Abinoam, from Kedesh-naphtali, and said to him, Has not the Lord, the God of Israel, given orders saying, Go and get your force into line in Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and
- 7 And I will make Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his war-carriages and his forces, come against you at the river Kishon, where I will give him into your hands.
- 8 And Barak said to her, If you will go with me then I will go; but if you will not go with me I will not go.

- 9 And she said, I will certainly go with you: though you will get no honour in your undertaking, for the Lord will give Sisera into the hands of a woman. So Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh.
- 10 Then Barak sent for Zebulun and Naphtali to come to Kedesh; and ten thousand men went up after him, and Deborah went up with him.
- 11 Now Heber the Kenite, separating himself from the rest of the Kenites, from the children of Hobab, the brother-in-law of Moses, had put up his tent as far away as the oak-tree in Zaananim, by Kedesh.
- 12 And word was given to Sisera that Barak, the son of Abinoam, had gone up to Mount Tabor.
- 13 So Sisera got together all his war-carriages, nine hundred war-carriages of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles as far as the river Kishon.
- 14 Then Deborah said to Barak, Up! for today the Lord has given Sisera into your hands: has not the Lord gone out before you? So Barak went down from Mount Tabor and ten thousand men after him.
- 15 And the Lord sent fear on Sisera and all his war-carriages and all his army before Barak; and Sisera got down from his war-carriage and went in flight on foot.
- 16 But Barak went after the war-carriages and the army as far as Harosheth of the Gentiles; and all Sisera's army was put to the sword; not a man got away.
- 17 But Sisera went in flight on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin, king of Hazor, and the family of Heber the Kenite.
- 18 And Jael went out to Sisera, and said to him, Come in, my lord, come in to me without fear. So he went into her tent, and she put a cover over him.
- 19 Then he said to her, Give me now a little water, for I have need of a drink. And opening a skin of milk, she gave him drink, and put the cover over him again.
- 20 And he said to her, Take your place at the door of the tent, and if anyone comes and says to you, Is there any man here, say, No.
- 21 Then Jael, Heber's wife, took a tent-pin and a hammer and went up to him quietly, driving the pin into his head, and it went through his head into the earth, for he was in a deep sleep from weariness; and so he came to his end.
- 22 Then Jael went out, and meeting Barak going after Sisera, said to him, Come, and I will let you see the man you are searching for. So he came into her tent and saw, and there was Sisera stretched out dead with the tent-pin in his head.
- 23 So that day God overcame Jabin, king of Canaan, before the children of Israel.
- 24 And the power of the children of Israel went on increasing against Jabin, king of Canaan, till he was cut off.
- 1 At that time Deborah and Barak, the son of Abinoam, made this song, saying:
- 2 Because of the flowing hair of the fighters in Israel, because the people gave themselves freely, give praise to the Lord.
- 3 Give attention, O kings; give ear, O rulers; I, even I, will make a song to the Lord; I will make melody to the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 4 Lord, when you went out from Seir, moving like an army from the field of Edom, the earth was shaking and the heavens were troubled, and the clouds were dropping water.
- 5 The mountains were shaking before the Lord, before the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 6 In the days of Shamgar, the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were not used, and travellers went by side roads.
- 7 Country towns were no more in Israel,  were no more, till you, Deborah, came up, till you came up as a mother in Israel.
- 8 They had no one to make arms, there were no more armed men in the towns; was there a body-cover or a spear to be seen among forty thousand in Israel?
- 9 Come, you rulers of Israel, you who gave yourselves freely among the people: give praise to the Lord.
- 10 Let them give thought to it, who go on white asses, and those who are walking on the road.
- 11 Give ear to the women laughing by the water-springs; there they will give again the story of the upright acts of the Lord, all the upright acts of his arm in Israel.
- 12 Awake! awake! Deborah: awake! awake! give a song: Up! Barak, and take prisoner those who took you prisoner, O son of Abinoam.
- 13 Then the chiefs went down to the doors; the Lord's people went down among the strong ones.

- 14 Out of Ephraim they came down into the valley; after you, Benjamin, among your tribesmen; from Machir came down the captains, and from Zebulun those in whose hand is the ruler's rod.
- 15 Your chiefs, Issachar, were with Deborah; and Naphtali was true to Barak; into the valley they went rushing out at his feet. In Reuben there were divisions, and great searchings of heart.
- 16 Why did you keep quiet among the sheep, hearing nothing but the watchers piping to the flocks?
- 17 Gilead was living over Jordan; and Dan was waiting in his ships; Asher kept in his place by the sea's edge, living by his inlets.
- 18 It was the people of Zebulun who put their lives in danger, even to death, with Naphtali on the high places of the field.
- 19 The kings came on to the fight, the kings of Canaan were warring; in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo: they took no profit in money.
- 20 The stars from heaven were fighting; from their highways they were fighting against Sisera.
- 21 The river Kishon took them violently away, stopping their flight, the river Kishon. Give praise, O my soul, to the strength of the Lord!
- 22 Then loudly the feet of the horses were sounding with the stamping, the stamping of their war-horses.
- 23 A curse, a curse on Meroz! said the angel of the Lord. A bitter curse on her townspeople! Because they came not to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord among the strong ones.
- 24 Blessings be on Jael, more than on all women! Blessings greater than on any in the tents!
- 25 His request was for water, she gave him milk; she put butter before him on a fair plate.
- 26 She put out her hand to the tent-pin, and her right hand to the workman's hammer; and she gave Sisera a blow, crushing his head, wounding and driving through his brow.
- 27 Bent at her feet he went down, he was stretched out; bent at her feet he went down; where he was bent down, there he went down in death.
- 28 Looking out from the window she gave a cry, the mother of Sisera was crying out through the window, Why is his carriage so long in coming? When will the noise of his wheels be sounding?
- 29 Her wise women gave answer to her, yes, she made answer again to herself,
- 30 Are they not getting, are they not parting the goods among them: a young girl or two to every man; and to Sisera robes of coloured needlework, worked in fair colours on this side and on that, for the neck of the queen?
- 31 So may destruction come on all your haters, O Lord; but let your lovers be like the sun going out in his strength. And for forty years the land had peace.
- 1 And the children of Israel did evil in the eyes of the Lord; and the Lord gave them up into the hand of Midian for seven years.
- 2 And Midian was stronger than Israel; and because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made holes for themselves in the mountains, and hollows in the rocks, and strong places.
- 3 And whenever Israel's grain was planted, the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east came up against them;
- 4 And put their army in position against them; and they took all the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, till there was no food in Israel, or any sheep or oxen or asses.
- 5 For they came up regularly with their oxen and their tents; they came like the locusts in number; they and their camels were without number; and they came into the land for its destruction.
- 6 And Israel was in great need because of Midian; and the cry of the children of Israel went up to the Lord.
- 7 And when the cry of the children of Israel, because of Midian, came before the Lord,
- 8 The Lord sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, The Lord the God of Israel, has said, I took you up from Egypt, out of the prison-house;
- 9 And I took you out of the hands of the Egyptians and out of the hands of all who were cruel to you, and I sent them out by force from before you and gave you their land;
- 10 And I said to you, I am the Lord your God; you are not to give worship to the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living, but you did not give ear to my voice.
- 11 Now the angel of the Lord came and took his seat under the oak-tree in Ophrah, in the field of Joash the Abiezrite; and his son Gideon was crushing grain in the place where the grapes were crushed, so that the Midianites might not see it.
- 12 And the angel of the Lord came before his eyes, and said to him, The Lord is with you, O man of war.

- 13 Then Gideon said to him, O my lord, if the Lord is with us why has all this come on us? And where are all his works of power, of which our fathers have given us word, saying, Did not the Lord take us out of Egypt? But now he has given us up, handing us ov
- 14 And the Lord, turning to him, said, Go in the strength you have and be Israel's saviour from Midian: have I not sent you?
- 15 And he said to him, O Lord, how may I be the saviour of Israel? See, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.
- 16 Then the Lord said to him, Truly, I will be with you, and you will overcome the Midianites as if they were one man.
- 17 So he said to him, If now I have grace in your eyes, then give me a sign that it is you who are talking to me.
- 18 Do not go away till I come with my offering and put it before you. And he said, I will not go away before you come back.
- 19 Then Gideon went in and made ready a young goat, and with an ephah of meal he made unleavened cakes: he put the meat in a basket and the soup in which it had been cooked he put in a pot, and he took it out to him under the oak-tree and gave it to him ther
- 20 And the angel of God said to him, Take the meat and the unleavened cakes and put them down on the rock over there, draining out the soup over them. And he did so.
- 21 Then the angel of the Lord put out the stick which was in his hand, touching the meat and the cakes with the end of it; and a flame came up out of the rock, burning up the meat and the cakes: and the angel of the Lord was seen no longer.
- 22 Then Gideon was certain that he was the angel of the Lord; and Gideon said, I am in fear, O Lord God! for I have seen the angel of the Lord face to face.
- 23 But the Lord said to him, Peace be with you; have no fear: you are in no danger of death.
- 24 Then Gideon made an altar there to the Lord, and gave it the name Yahweh-shalom; to this day it is in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
- 25 The same night the Lord said to him, Take ten men of your servants and an ox seven years old, and after pulling down the altar of Baal which is your father's, and cutting down the holy tree by its side,
- 26 Make an altar to the Lord your God on the top of this rock, in the ordered way and take the ox and make a burned offering with the wood of the holy tree which has been cut down.
- 27 Then Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the Lord had said to him; but fearing to do it by day, because of his father's people and the men of the town, he did it by night.
- 28 And the men of the town got up early in the morning, and they saw the altar of Baal broken down, and the holy tree which was by it cut down, and the ox offered on the altar which had been put up there.
- 29 And they said to one another, Who has done this thing? And after searching with care, they said, Gideon, the son of Joash, has done this thing.
- 30 Then the men of the town said to Joash, Make your son come out to be put to death, for pulling down the altar of Baal and cutting down the holy tree which was by it.
- 31 But Joash said to all those who were attacking him, Will you take up the cause of Baal? will you be his saviour? Let anyone who will take up his cause be put to death while it is still morning: if he is a god, let him take up his cause himself because of
- 32 So that day he gave him the name of Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal take up his cause against him because his altar has been broken down.
- 33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east, banding themselves together, went over and put up their tents in the valley of Jezreel.
- 34 But the spirit of the Lord came on Gideon; and at the sound of his horn all Abiezer came together after him.
- 35 And he sent through all Manasseh, and they came after him; and he sent to Asher and Zebulun and Naphtali, and they came up and were joined to the others.
- 36 Then Gideon said to God, If you are going to give Israel salvation by my hand, as you have said,
- 37 See, I will put the wool of a sheep on the grain-floor; if there is dew on the wool only, while all the earth is dry, then I will be certain that it is your purpose to give Israel salvation by my hand as you have said.
- 38 And it was so: for he got up early on the morning after, and twisting the wool in his hands, he got a basin full of water from the dew on the wool.
- 39 Then Gideon said to God, Do not be moved to wrath against me if I say only this: let me make one more test with the wool; let the wool now be dry, while the earth is covered with dew.

- 40 And that night God did so; for the wool was dry, and there was dew on all the earth round it.
- 1 Then Jerubbaal, that is, Gideon, and all the people with him, got up early and put up their tents by the side of the water-spring of Harod; the tents of Midian were on the north side of him, under the hill of Moreh in the valley.
- 2 And the Lord said to Gideon, So great is the number of your people, that if I give the Midianites into their hands they will be uplifted in pride over me and will say, I myself have been my saviour.
- 3 So now, let it be given out to the people that anyone who is shaking with fear is to go back from Mount Galud. So twenty-two thousand of the people went back, but there were still ten thousand.
- 4 Then the Lord said to Gideon, There are still more people than is necessary; take them down to the water so that I may put them to the test for you there; then whoever I say is to go with you will go, and whoever I say is not to go will not go.
- 5 So he took the people down to the water; and the Lord said to Gideon, Put on one side by themselves all those drinking up the water with their tongues like a dog; and in the same way, all those who go down on their knees to the water while drinking.
- 6 Now the number of those who took up the water with their tongues was three hundred; all the rest of the people went down on their knees to the water.
- 7 And the Lord said to Gideon, By those three hundred who were drinking with their tongues I will give you salvation and give the Midianites into your hands; let the rest of the people go away, every man to his place.
- 8 So they took the vessels of the people, and their horns from their hands, and he sent them away, every man to his tent, keeping only the three hundred; and the tents of Midian were lower down in the valley.
- 9 The same night the Lord said to him, Up! go down now against their army, for I have given them into your hands.
- 10 But if you have fear of going down, take your servant Purah with you and go down to the tents;
- 11 And after hearing what they are saying, you will get strength to go down against the army. So he went down with his servant Purah to the outer line of the tents of the armed men.
- 12 Now the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the east were covering the valley like locusts; and their camels were like the sand by the seaside, without number.
- 13 When Gideon came there, a man was giving his friend an account of his dream, saying, See, I had a dream about a cake of barley bread which, falling into the tents of Midian, came on to the tent, overturning it so that it was stretched out flat on the eart
- 14 And his friend in answer said, This is certainly the sword of Gideon, the son of Joash, the men of Israel: into their hands God has given up all the army of Midian.
- 15 Then Gideon, hearing the story of the dream and the sense in which they took it, gave worship; then he went back to the tents of Israel, and said, Up! for the Lord has given the army of Midian into your hands.
- 16 Then separating the three hundred men into three bands, he gave every man a horn, and a vessel in which was a flaming branch.
- 17 And he said to them, Keep your eyes on me, and do what I do; when I come to the outer line of tents, whatever I do, you are to do the same.
- 18 At the sound of my horn, and the horns of those who are with me, let your horns be sounded all round the tents, and say, For the Lord and for Gideon.
- 19 So Gideon and the three hundred men who were with him came to the outer line of tents, at the start of the middle watch, when the watchmen had only then taken their stations; and the horns were sounded and the vessels broken.
- 20 So the three bands all gave a loud note on their horns, and when the vessels had been broken, they took the flaming branches in their left hands, and the horns in their right hands ready for blowing, crying out, For the Lord and for Gideon.
- 21 Then they made a line round the tents, every man in his place; and all the army, awaking from sleep, came running out, and with loud cries went in flight.
- 22 And the three hundred gave a loud note on their horns, and every man's sword was turned by the Lord against his brother all through the army; and the army went in flight as far as Beth-shittah in the direction of Zeredah, to the edge of Abel-meholah by Ta
- 23 And the men of Israel came together from Naphtali and from Asher and all Manasseh, and went after Midian.
- 24 Then Gideon sent through all the hill-country of Ephraim saying, Come down against Midian, and keep the ways across Jordan before they come. So all the men of Ephraim, massing themselves together, kept the ways across Jordan.

- 25 And they took the two chiefs of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they put Oreb to death at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they put to death at the place of the grape-crushing in Zeeb, and they went after Midian; but the heads of Oreb and Zeeb they took across Jorda
- 1 And the men of Ephraim came and said to him, Why did you not send for us when you went to war against Midian? And they said sharp and angry words to him.
- 2 And he said to them, What have I done in comparison with you? Is not that which Ephraim took up after the grape-cutting better than all the grapes which Abiezer got in from the grape-cutting?
- 3 God has given into your hands the chiefs of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; what have I been able to do in comparison with you? And when he said this, their feeling about him became kinder.
- 4 Then Gideon came to Jordan and went over it with his three hundred, overcome with weariness and in need of food.
- 5 And he said to the men of Succoth, Give bread cakes to my people, for they are overcome with weariness, and I am going on after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.
- 6 But the chiefs of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna even now in your hand that we are to give bread to your army?
- 7 Then Gideon said, Because of this, when the Lord has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hands, I will have you stretched on a bed of thorns of the waste land and on sharp stems, and have you crushed as grain is crushed on a grain-floor.
- 8 So he went up from there to Penuel and made the same request to the men of Penuel; but they gave him the same answer as the men of Succoth had given.
- 9 So he said to the men of Penuel, When I come back in peace, I will have this tower broken down.
- 10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, those of all the army of the children of the east who were still living; for a hundred and twenty thousand of their swordsmen had been put to death.
- 11 And Gideon went up by the way used by the people living in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and made an attack on the army when they had no thought of danger.
- 12 And Zebah and Zalmunna went in flight; and he went after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and put all the army to the curse.
- 13 Then Gideon, the son of Joash, went back from the fight:
- 14 And taking prisoner a young man of the people of Succoth, he got from him, in answer to his questions, a list of the chiefs of Succoth and the responsible men, seventy-seven men.
- 15 So he came to the men of Succoth and said, Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, on account of whom you made sport of me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna even now in your hand, that we are to give bread to your army who are overcome with weariness?
- 16 Then he took the responsible men of the town and had them crushed on a bed of thorns and sharp stems.
- 17 And he had the tower of Penuel broken down and the men of the town put to death.
- 18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, Where are the men whom you put to death at Tabor? And they gave answer, As you are, so were they; every one of them was like a king's son.
- 19 And he said, They were my brothers, my mother's sons: by the life of the Lord, if you had kept them safe, I would not put you to death.
- 20 Then he said to Jether, his oldest son, Up! Put them to death. But the boy did not take out his sword, fearing because he was still a boy.
- 21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Up! Put an end to us yourself: for you have a man's strength. Then Gideon got up and put Zebah and Zalmunna to death and took the ornaments which were on their camels' necks.
- 22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, Be our ruler, you and your son and your son's son after him; for you have been our saviour from the hands of Midian.
- 23 But Gideon said to them, I will not be a ruler over you, and my son will not be a ruler over you: it is the Lord who will be ruler over you.
- 24 Then Gideon said to them, I have a request to make to you; let every man give me the ear-rings he has taken. (For they had gold ear-rings, because they were Ishmaelites.)
- 25 And they gave answer, We will gladly give them. So they put down a robe, every man dropping into it the ear-rings he had taken.

- 26 The weight of the gold ear-rings which he got from them was one thousand, seven hundred shekels of gold; in addition to the moon-ornaments and jewels and the purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and the chains on their camels' necks.
- 27 And Gideon made an ephod from them and put it up in his town Ophrah; and all Israel went after it there and were false to the Lord; and it became a cause of sin to Gideon and his house.
- 28 So Midian was broken before the children of Israel and the Midianites never got back their strength. And the land had peace for forty years, in the days of Gideon.
- 29 And Jerubbaal, the son of Joash, went back to his house and was living there.
- 30 Gideon had seventy sons, the offspring of his body; for he had a number of wives.
- 31 And the servant-wife he had in Shechem had a son by him, to whom he gave the name Abimelech.
- 32 And Gideon, the son of Joash, came to his end when he was very old, and his body was put in the resting-place of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
- 33 And after the death of Gideon, the children of Israel again went after the gods of Canaan and were false to the Lord, and made Baal-berith their god.
- 34 And the children of Israel did not keep in their minds the Lord their God, who had been their saviour from all their haters on every side;
- 35 And they were not kind to the house of Jerubbaal, that is, Gideon, in reward for all the good he had done to Israel.
- 1 Now Abimelech, the son of Jerubbaal, went to Shechem to his mother's family, and said to them and to all the family of his mother's father,
- 2 Say now in the ears of all the townsmen of Shechem, Is it better for you to be ruled by all the seventy sons of Jerubbaal or by one man only? And keep in mind that I am your bone and your flesh.
- 3 So his mother's family said all this about him in the ears of all the townsmen of Shechem: and their hearts were turned to Abimelech, for they said, He is our brother.
- 4 And they gave him seventy shekels of silver from the house of Baal-berith, with which Abimelech got the support of a number of uncontrolled and good-for-nothing persons.
- 5 Then he went to his father's house at Ophrah, and put his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, to death on the same stone; however, Jotham, the youngest, kept himself safe by going away to a secret place.
- 6 And all the townsmen of Shechem and all Beth-millo came together and went and made Abimelech their king, by the oak of the pillar in Shechem.
- 7 Now Jotham, on hearing of it, went to the top of Mount Gerizim, and crying out with a loud voice said to them, Give ear to me, you townsmen of Shechem, so that God may give ear to you.
- 8 One day the trees went out to make a king for themselves; and they said to the olive-tree, Be king over us.
- 9 But the olive-tree said to them, Am I to give up my wealth of oil, by which men give honour to God, and go waving over the trees?
- 10 Then the trees said to the fig-tree, You come and be king over us.
- 11 But the fig-tree said to them, Am I to give up my sweet taste and my good fruit and go waving over the trees?
- 12 Then the trees said to the vine, You come and be king over us.
- 13 But the vine said to them, Am I to give up my wine, which makes glad God and men, to go waving over the trees?
- 14 Then all the trees said to the thorn, You come and be king over us.
- 15 And the thorn said to the trees, If it is truly your desire to make me your king, then come and put your faith in my shade; and if not, may fire come out of the thorn, burning up the cedars of Lebanon.
- 16 So now, if you have done truly and uprightly in making Abimelech king, and if you have done well to Jerubbaal and his house in reward for the work of his hands;
- 17 (For my father made war for you, and put his life in danger, and made you free from the hands of Midian;
- 18 And you have gone against my father's family this day, and have put to death his sons, even seventy men on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his servant-wife, king over the townsmen of Shechem because he is your brother;)
- 19 If then you have done what is true and upright to Jerubbaal and his family this day, may you have joy in Abimelech, and may he have joy in you;
- 20 But if not, may fire come out from Abimelech, burning up the townsmen of Shechem and Beth-millo; and may fire come out from the townsmen of Shechem and Beth-millo, for the destruction of Abimelech.

- 21 Then Jotham straight away went in flight to Beer, and was living there for fear of his brother Abimelech.
- 22 So Abimelech was chief over Israel for three years.
- 23 And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the townsmen of Shechem; and the townsmen of Shechem were false to Abimelech;
- 24 So that punishment for the violent attack made on the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, and for their blood, might come on Abimelech, their brother, who put them to death, and on the townsmen of Shechem who gave him their help in putting his brothers to death.
- 25 And the townsmen of Shechem put secret watchers on the tops of the mountains, and they made attacks on all who went by on the road and took their goods; and word of this came to Abimelech.
- 26 Then Gaal, the son of Ebed, came with his brothers, and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their faith in him.
- 27 And they went out into their fields and got in the fruit of their vines, and when the grapes had been crushed, they made a holy feast and went into the house of their god, and over their food and drink they were cursing Abimelech.
- 28 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, Who is Abimelech and who is Shechem, that we are to be his servants? Is it not right for the son of Jerubbaal and Zebul his captain to be servants to the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem? But why are we to be his servan
- 29 If only I had authority over this people! I would put Abimelech out of the way, and I would say to Abimelech, Make your army strong, and come out.
- 30 Now Zebul, the ruler of the town, hearing what Gaal, the son of Ebed, had said, was moved to wrath.
- 31 And he sent to Abimelech at Arumah, saying, See, Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers have come to Shechem, and they are working up the town against you.
- 32 So now, get up by night, you and your people, and keep watch in the field secretly;
- 33 And in the morning, when the sun is up, get up early and make a rush on the town; and when he and his people come out against you, do to them whatever you have a chance to do.
- 34 So Abimelech and the people with him got up by night, in four bands, to make a surprise attack on Shechem.
- 35 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out, and took his place at the doorway into the town; then Abimelech and his people got up from the place where they had been waiting.
- 36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, See! people are coming down from the tops of the mountains. And Zebul said to him, You see the shade of the mountains like men.
- 37 And Gaal said again, See! people are coming down from the middle of the land, and one band is coming by way of the oak-tree of the Seers.
- 38 Then Zebul said to him, Now where is your loud talk when you said, Who is Abimelech that we are to be his servants? Is this not the people whom you were rating so low? Go out now, and make war on them.
- 39 So Gaal went out at the head of the townsmen of Shechem and made war on Abimelech.
- 40 And Abimelech went after him and he went in flight before him; and a great number were falling by the sword all the way up to the town.
- 41 Then Abimelech went back to Arumah; and Zebul sent Gaal and his brothers away and would not let them go on living in Shechem.
- 42 Now the day after, the people went out into the fields; and news of it came to Abimelech.
- 43 And he took his people, separating them into three bands, and was waiting secretly in the field; and when he saw the people coming out of the town, he went up and made an attack on them.
- 44 And Abimelech with his band made a rush, and took up their position at the doorway into the town; and the other two bands made a rush on all those who were in the fields, and overcame them.
- 45 And all that day Abimelech was fighting against the town; and he took it, and put to death the people who were in it, and had the town pulled down and covered with salt.
- 46 Then all the townsmen of the tower of Shechem, hearing of it, went into the inner room of the house of El-berith.
- 47 And word was given to Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were there together.
- 48 Then Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, with all his people; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand and, cutting down branches of trees, took them and put them on his back. And he said to the people who were with him, Be quick and do as you have seen me do

- 49 So all the people got branches, every man cutting down a branch, and they went with Abimelech at their head and, massing the branches against the inner room, put fire to the room over them; so all those who were in the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men
- 50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and put his army in position against Thebez and took it.
- 51 But in the middle of the town there was a strong tower, to which all the men and women of the town went in flight and, shutting themselves in, went up to the roof of the tower.
- 52 And Abimelech came to the tower and made an attack on it, and got near to the door of the tower for the purpose of firing it.
- 53 But a certain woman sent a great stone, such as is used for crushing grain, on to the head of Abimelech, cracking the bone.
- 54 Then quickly crying out to his body-servant, he said to him, Take out your sword and put an end to me straight away, so that men may not say of me, His death was the work of a woman. So the young man put his sword through him, causing his death.
- 55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they went away, every man to his place.
- 56 In this way Abimelech was rewarded by God for the evil he had done to his father in putting his seventy brothers to death;
- 57 And God sent back on to the heads of the men of Shechem all the evil they had done, and the curse of Jotham, the son of Jerubbaal, came on them.
- 1 Now after Abimelech, Tola, the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, became the saviour of Israel; he was living in Shamir in the hill-country of Ephraim.
- 2 He was judge over Israel for twenty-three years; and at his death his body was put to rest in the earth in Shamir.
- 3 And after him came Jair the Gileadite, who was judge over Israel for twenty-two years.
- 4 And he had thirty sons, who went on thirty young asses; and they had thirty towns in the land of Gilead, which are named Havvoth-Jair to this day.
- 5 And at the death of Jair his body was put to rest in the earth in Kamon.
- 6 And again the children of Israel did evil in the eyes of the Lord, worshipping the Baals and Astartes, and the gods of Aram and the gods of Zidon and the gods of Moab and the gods of the children of Ammon and the gods of the Philistines; they gave up the
- 7 And the wrath of the Lord was burning against Israel, and he gave them up into the hands of the Philistines and into the hands of the children of Ammon.
- 8 And that year the children of Israel were crushed under their yoke; for eighteen years all the children of Israel on the other side of Jordan, in the land of the Amorites which is in Gilead, were cruelly crushed down.
- 9 And the children of Ammon went over Jordan, to make war against Judah and Benjamin and the house of Ephraim; and Israel was in great trouble.
- 10 Then the children of Israel, crying out to the Lord, said, Great is our sin against you, for we have given up our God and have been servants to the Baals.
- 11 And the Lord said to the children of Israel, Were not the Egyptians and the Amorites and the children of Ammon and the Philistines
- 12 And the Zidonians and Amalek and Midian crushing you down, and in answer to your cry did I not give you salvation from their hands?
- 13 But, for all this, you have given me up and have been servants to other gods: so I will be your saviour no longer.
- 14 Go, send up your cry for help to the gods of your selection; let them be your saviours in the time of your trouble.
- 15 And the children of Israel said to the Lord, We are sinners; do to us whatever seems good to you: only give us salvation this day.
- 16 So they put away the strange gods from among them, and became the Lord's servants; and his soul was angry because of the sorrows of Israel.
- 17 Then the children of Ammon came together and put their army in position in Gilead. And the children of Israel came together and put their army in position in Mizpah.
- 18 And the people of Israel said to one another, Who will be the first to make an attack on the children of Ammon? We will make him head over all Gilead.
- 1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a great man of war; he was the son of a loose woman, and Gilead was his father.

- 2 And Gilead's wife gave birth to sons, and when her sons became men, they sent Jephthah away, saying, You have no part in the heritage of our father's house, for you are the son of another woman.
- 3 So Jephthah went in flight from his brothers and was living in the land of Tob, where a number of good-for-nothing men, joining Jephthah, went out with him on his undertakings.
- 4 Now after a time the children of Ammon made war against Israel.
- 5 And when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the responsible men of Gilead went to get Jephthah back from the land of Tob;
- 6 And they said to Jephthah, Come and be our chief so that we may make war against the children of Ammon.
- 7 But Jephthah said to the responsible men of Gilead, Did you not, in your hate for me, send me away from my father's house? Why do you come to me now when you are in trouble?
- 8 And the responsible men of Gilead said to Jephthah, That is the reason we have come back to you; so go with us and make war against the children of Ammon, and we will make you our head over all the people of Gilead.
- 9 Then Jephthah said to the responsible men of Gilead, If you take me back to make war against the children of Ammon, and if with the help of the Lord I overcome them, will you make me your head?
- 10 And the responsible men of Gilead said to Jephthah, May the Lord be our witness: we will certainly do as you say.
- 11 So Jephthah went with the responsible men of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them; and Jephthah said all these things before the Lord in Mizpah.
- 12 Then Jephthah sent men to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What have you against me that you have come to make war against my land?
- 13 And the king of the children of Ammon said to the men sent by Jephthah, Because Israel, when he came up out of Egypt, took away my land, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok and as far as Jordan: so now, give me back those lands quietly.
- 14 And Jephthah sent again to the king of the children of Ammon,
- 15 And said to him, This is the word of Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the children of Ammon;
- 16 But when they came up from Egypt, Israel went through the waste land to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh;
- 17 Then Israel sent men to the king of Edom saying, Let me now go through your land; but the king of Edom did not give ear to them. And in the same way he sent to the king of Moab, but he would not; so Israel went on living in Kadesh.
- 18 Then he went on through the waste land and round the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and put up their tents on the other side of the Arnon; they did not come inside the limit of Moab, for the Arnon was the
- 19 And Israel sent men to Sihon, king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, Let me now go through your land to my place.
- 20 But Sihon would not give way and let Israel go through his land; and Sihon got together all his people, and put his army in position in Jahaz, and made war on Israel.
- 21 And the Lord, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hands of Israel, and they overcame them; so all the land of the Amorites, the people of that land, became Israel's.
- 22 All the limit of the Amorites was theirs, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok and from the waste land even to Jordan.
- 23 So now the Lord, the God of Israel, has taken away their land from the Amorites and given it to his people Israel; are you then to have it?
- 24 Do you not keep the lands of those whom Chemosh your god sends out from before you? So we will keep all the lands of those whom the Lord our God sends out from before us.
- 25 What! are you any better than Balak, the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever take up a cause against Israel or make war against them?
- 26 While Israel was living in Heshbon and its daughter-towns and in Aroer and its daughter-towns and in all the towns which are by the side of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not get them back at that time?
- 27 So I have done no wrong against you, but you are doing wrong to me in fighting against me: may the Lord, who is Judge this day, be judge between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.
- 28 The king of the children of Ammon, however, did not give ear to the words which Jephthah sent to him.
- 29 Then the spirit of the Lord came on Jephthah, and he went through Gilead and Manasseh, and came to Mizpeh of Gilead; and from Mizpeh of Gilead he went over to the children of Ammon.

- 30 And Jephthah took an oath to the Lord, and said, If you will give the children of Ammon into my hands,
- 31 Then whoever comes out from the door of my house, meeting me when I come back in peace from the children of Ammon, will be the Lord's and I will give him as a burned offering.
- 32 So Jephthah went over to the children of Ammon to make war on them; and the Lord gave them into his hands.
- 33 And he made an attack on them from Aroer all the way to Minnith, overrunning twenty towns, as far as Abel-cheramim, and put great numbers to the sword. So the children of Ammon were crushed before the children of Israel.
- 34 Then Jephthah came back to his house in Mizpah, and his daughter came out, meeting him on his way with music and with dances; she was his only child; he had no other sons or daughters.
- 35 And when he saw her he was overcome with grief, and said, Ah! my daughter! I am crushed with sorrow, and it is you who are the chief cause of my trouble; for I have made an oath to the Lord and I may not take it back.
- 36 And she said to him, My father, you have made an oath to the Lord; do then to me whatever you have said; for the Lord has sent a full reward on your haters, on the children of Ammon.
- 37 Then she said to her father, Only do this for me: let me have two months to go away into the mountains with my friends, weeping for my sad fate.
- 38 And he said, Go then. So he sent her away for two months; and she went with her friends to the mountains, weeping for her sad fate.
- 39 And at the end of two months she went back to her father, who did with her as he had said in his oath: and she had never been touched by a man. So it became a rule in Israel,
- 40 For the women to go year by year sorrowing for the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in every year.
- 1 Now the men of Ephraim came together and took up arms and went over to Zaphon; and they said to Jephthah, Why did you go over to make war against the children of Ammon without sending for us to go with you? Now we will put your house on fire over you.
- 2 And Jephthah said to them, I and my people were in danger, and the children of Ammon were very cruel to us, and when I sent for you, you gave me no help against them.
- 3 So when I saw that there was no help to be had from you, I put my life in my hand and went over against the children of Ammon, and the Lord gave them into my hands: why then have you come up to me this day to make war on me?
- 4 Then Jephthah got together all the men of Gilead and made war on Ephraim; and the men of Gilead overcame Ephraim.
- 5 And the Gileadites took the crossing-places of Jordan against the Ephraimites; and when any of the men of Ephraim who had gone in flight said, let me go over; the men of Gilead said to him, Are you an Ephraimite? And if he said, No;
- 6 Then they said to him, Now say Shibboleth; and he said Sibboleth, and was not able to say it in the right way; then they took him and put him to death at the crossing-places of Jordan; and at that time forty-two thousand Ephraimites were put to death.
- 7 Now Jephthah was judge of Israel for six years. And Jephthah the Gileadite came to his death, and his body was put to rest in his town, Mizpeh of Gilead.
- 8 And after him, Ibzan of Beth-lehem was judge of Israel.
- 9 He had thirty sons, and thirty daughters whom he sent to other places, and he got thirty wives from other places for his sons. And he was judge of Israel for seven years.
- 10 And Ibzan came to his death and his body was put to rest at Beth-lehem.
- 11 And after him, Elon the Zebulonite was judge of Israel; and he was judge of Israel for ten years.
- 12 And Elon the Zebulonite came to his death, and his body was put to rest in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.
- 13 And after him, Abdon, the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, was judge of Israel.
- 14 He had forty sons and thirty sons' sons who went on seventy young asses; and he was judge of Israel for eight years.
- 15 And Abdon, the son of Hillel, came to his death, and his body was put to rest in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill-country of the Amalekites.
- 1 And the children of Israel again did evil in the eyes of the Lord; and the Lord gave them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years.
- 2 Now there was a certain man of Zorah of the family of the Danites, and his name was Manoah; and his wife had never given birth to a child.
- 3 And the angel of the Lord came to the woman, and said to her, See now! though you have never given birth to children, you will be with child and give birth to a son.

- 4 Now then take care to have no wine or strong drink and to take no unclean thing for food;
- 5 For you are with child and will give birth to a son; his hair is never to be cut, for the child is to be separate to God from his birth; and he will take up the work of freeing Israel from the hands of the Philistines.
- 6 Then the woman came in, and said to her husband, A man came to me, and his form was like the form of a god, causing great fear; I put no question to him about where he came from, and he did not give me his name;
- 7 But he said to me, You are with child and will give birth to a son; and now do not take any wine or strong drink or let anything unclean be your food; for the child will be separate to God from his birth to the day of his death.
- 8 Then Manoah made prayer to the Lord, and said, O Lord, let the man of God whom you sent come to us again and make clear to us what we are to do for the child who is to come.
- 9 And God gave ear to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came to the woman again when she was seated in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her.
- 10 So the woman, running quickly, gave her husband the news, saying, I have seen the man who came to me the other day.
- 11 And Manoah got up and went after his wife, and came up to the man and said to him, Are you the man who was talking to this woman? And he said, I am.
- 12 And Manoah said, Now when your words come true, what is to be the rule for the child and what will be his work?
- 13 And the angel of the Lord said to Manoah, Let the woman take note of what I have said to her.
- 14 She is to have nothing which comes from the vine for her food, and let her take no wine or strong drink or anything which is unclean; let her take care to do all I have given her orders to do.
- 15 And Manoah said to the angel of the Lord, Now let us keep you while we make ready a young goat for you.
- 16 And the angel of the Lord said to Manoah, Though you keep me I will not take of your food; but if you will make a burned offering, let it be offered to the Lord. For it had not come into Manoah's mind that he was the angel of the Lord.
- 17 Then Manoah said to the angel of the Lord, What is your name, so that when your words come true we may give you honour?
- 18 But the angel of the Lord said to him, Why are you questioning me about my name, seeing that it is a wonder?
- 19 So Manoah took the young goat with its meal offering, offering it on the rock to the Lord, who did strange things.
- 20 And when the flame went up to heaven from the altar, the angel of the Lord went up in the flame of the altar, while Manoah and his wife were looking on; and they went down on their faces to the earth.
- 21 But the angel of the Lord was seen no more by Manoah and his wife. Then it was clear to Manoah that he was the angel of the Lord.
- 22 And Manoah said to his wife, Death will certainly be our fate, for it is a god whom we have seen.
- 23 But his wife said to him, If the Lord was purposing our death, he would not have taken our burned offering and our meal offering, or have given us such orders about the child.
- 24 So the woman gave birth to a son, and gave him the name Samson; and he became a man and the blessing of the Lord was on him.
- 25 And the spirit of the Lord first came on him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.
 - 1 Now Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah, of the daughters of the Philistines;
 - 2 And when he came back he said to his father and mother, I have seen a woman in Timnah, of the daughters of the Philistines: get her now for me for my wife.
 - 3 Then his father and mother said to him, Is there no woman among the daughters of your relations or among all my people, that you have to go for your wife to the Philistines, who are without circumcision? But Samson said to his father, Get her for me, for
 - 4 Now his father and mother had no knowledge that this was the purpose of the Lord, who had the destruction of the Philistines in mind. Now the Philistines at that time were ruling over Israel.
 - 5 Then Samson went down to Timnah (and his father and his mother,) and came to the vine-gardens of Timnah; and a young lion came rushing out at him.
 - 6 And the spirit of the Lord came on him with power, and, unarmed as he was, pulling the lion in two as one might do to a young goat, he put him to death; (but he said nothing to his father and mother of what he had done.)
 - 7 So he went down and had talk with the woman; and she was pleasing to Samson.
 - 8 Then after a time he went back to take her; and turning from the road to see the dead body of the lion, he saw a mass of bees in the body of the lion, and honey there.

- 9 And he took the honey in his hand, and went on, tasting it on the way; and when he came to his father and mother he gave some to them; but did not say that he had taken the honey from the body of the lion.
- 10 Then Samson went down to the woman, and made a feast there, as was the way among young men.
- 11 And he took thirty friends, and they were with him.
- 12 And Samson said, Now I have a hard question for you: if you are able to give me the answer before the seven days of the feast are over, I will give you thirty linen robes and thirty changes of clothing;
- 13 But if you are not able to give me the answer, then you will have to give me thirty linen robes and thirty changes of clothing. And they said to him, Put your hard question and let us see what it is.
- 14 And he said, Out of the taker of food came food, and out of the strong came the sweet. And at the end of three days they were still not able to give the answer.
- 15 So on the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, Get from your husband the answer to his question by some trick or other, or we will have you and your father's house burned with fire; did you get us here to take all we have?
- 16 Then Samson's wife, weeping over him, said, Truly you have no love for me but only hate; you have put a hard question to the children of my people and have not given me the answer. And he said to her, See, I have not given the answer even to my father or
- 17 And all the seven days of the feast she went on weeping over him; and on the seventh day he gave her the answer, because she gave him no peace; and she sent word of it to the children of her people.
- 18 Then on the seventh day, before he went into the bride's room, the men of the town said to him, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said to them, If you had not been ploughing with my cow you would not have got the answer
- 19 And the spirit of the Lord came rushing on him, and he went down to Ashkelon and, attacking thirty men there, took their clothing from them, and gave it to the men who had given the answer to his hard question. Then, full of wrath, he went back to his fat
- 20 But Samson's wife was given to the friend who had been his best man.
- 1 Now a short time after, at the time of the grain-cutting, Samson, taking with him a young goat, went to see his wife; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the bride's room. But her father would not let him go in.
- 2 And her father said, It seemed to me that you had only hate for her; so I gave her to your friend: but is not her younger sister fairer than she? so please take her in place of the other.
- 3 Then Samson said to them, This time I will give payment in full to the Philistines, for I am going to do them great evil.
- 4 So Samson went and got three hundred foxes and some sticks of fire-wood; and he put the foxes tail to tail with a stick between every two tails;
- 5 Then firing the sticks, he let the foxes loose among the uncut grain of the Philistines, and all the corded stems as well as the living grain and the vine-gardens and the olives went up in flames.
- 6 Then the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they said, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his friend. So the Philistines came up and had her and her father's house burned.
- 7 And Samson said to them, If you go on like this, truly I will take my full payment from you; and that will be the end of it.
- 8 And he made an attack on them, driving them in uncontrolled flight, and causing great destruction; then he went away to his safe place in the crack of the rock at Etam.
- 9 Then the Philistines went and put up their tents in Judah, all round Lehi.
- 10 And the men of Judah said, Why have you come up against us? And they said, We have come up to take Samson, and to do to him as he has done to us.
- 11 Then three thousand of the men of Judah went down to the crack of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, Is it not clear to you that the Philistines are our rulers? What is this you have done to us? And he said to them, I only did to them as they did to me
- 12 Then they said to him, We have come down to take you and give you up into the hands of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, Give me your oath that you will not make an attack on me yourselves.
- 13 And they said, No; we will take you and give you up into their hands, but truly we will not put you to death. So knotting two new cords round him they took him up from the rock.

- 14 And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines came out, meeting him with loud cries; then the spirit of the Lord came rushing on him, and the cords on his arms became like grass which has been burned with fire, and the bands came falling off his hands.
- 15 And taking up the mouth-bone of an ass newly dead, which he saw by chance on the earth, he put to death a thousand men with it.
- 16 And Samson said, With a red ass's mouth-bone I have made them red with blood, with a red ass's mouth-bone I have sent destruction on a thousand men.
- 17 And having said these words, he let the mouth-bone go out of his hand; so that place was named Ramath-lehi.
- 18 After this, he was in great need of water, and crying out to the Lord, he said, You have given this great salvation by the hand of your servant, and now need of water will be my death; and I will be given into the hands of this people who are without circ
- 19 Then God made a crack in the hollow rock in Lehi and water came out of it; and after drinking, his spirit came back to him and he was strong again; so that place was named En-hakkore; it is in Lehi to this day.
- 20 And he was judge of Israel in the days of the Philistines for twenty years.
- 1 Now Samson went to Gaza, and there he saw a loose woman and went in to her.
- 2 And it was said to the Gazites, Samson is here. So they went round, watching for him all day at the doorway of the town, but at night they kept quiet, saying, When daylight comes we will put him to death.
- 3 And Samson was there till the middle of the night; then he got up, and took a grip on the doors of the town, pulling them up, together with their two supports and their locks, and put them on his back and took them up to the top of the hill in front of He
- 4 Now after this, he was in love with a woman in the valley of Sorek, named Delilah.
- 5 And the chiefs of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, Make use of your power over him and see what is the secret of his great strength, and how we may get the better of him, and put bands on him, so that we may make him feeble; and every one
- 6 So Delilah said to Samson, Make clear to me now what is the secret of your great strength, and how you may be put in bands and made feeble.
- 7 And Samson said to her, If seven new bow-cords which have never been made dry are knotted round me, I will become feeble and will be like any other man.
- 8 So the chiefs of the Philistines gave her seven new bow-cords which had never been made dry, and she had them tightly knotted round him.
- 9 Now she had men waiting secretly in the inner room; and she said to him, The Philistines are on you, Samson. And the cords were broken by him as a twist of thread is broken when touched by a flame. So the secret of his strength did not come to light.
- 10 Then Delilah said to Samson, See, you have been making sport of me with false words; now, say truly how may you be put in bands?
- 11 And he said to her, If they only put round me new thick cords which have never been used, then I will become feeble and will be like any other man.
- 12 So Delilah took new thick cords, knotting them tightly round him, and said to him, The Philistines are on you, Samson. And men were waiting secretly in the inner room. And the cords were broken off his arms like threads.
- 13 Then Delilah said to Samson, Up to now you have made sport of me with false words; now say truly, how may you be put in bands? And he said to her, If you get the seven twists of my hair worked into the cloth you are making and fixed with the pin, I will b
- 14 So while he was sleeping she got the seven twists of his hair worked into her cloth and fixed with the pin, and said to him, The Philistines are on you, Samson. Then awaking from his sleep, he got up quickly, pulling up cloth and machine together.
- 15 And she said to him, Why do you say you are my lover when your heart is not mine? Three times you have made sport of me, and have not made clear to me the secret of your great strength.
- 16 So day after day she gave him no peace, for ever questioning him till his soul was troubled to death.
- 17 And opening all his heart to her, he said to her, My head has never been touched by a blade, for I have been separate to God from the day of my birth: if my hair is cut off, then my strength will go from me and I will become feeble, and will be like any o

- 18 And when Delilah saw that he had let her see into his heart, she sent word to the chiefs of the Philistines saying, Come up this time, for he has let out all his heart to me. Then the chiefs of the Philistines came to her, with the money in their hands.
- 19 And she made him go to sleep on her knees; and she sent for a man and had his seven twists of hair cut off; and while it was being done he became feeble and his strength went from him.
- 20 Then she said, The Philistines are on you, Samson. And awaking from his sleep, he said, I will go out as at other times, shaking myself free. But he was not conscious that the Lord had gone from him.
- 21 So the Philistines took him and put out his eyes; then they took him down to Gaza, and, chaining him with bands of brass, put him to work crushing grain in the prison-house.
- 22 But the growth of his hair was starting again after it had been cut off.
- 23 And the chiefs of the Philistines came together to make a great offering to Dagon their god, and to be glad; for they said, Our god has given into our hands Samson our hater.
- 24 And when the people saw him, they gave praise to their god; for they said, Our god has given into our hands the one who was fighting against us, who made our country waste, and who put great numbers of us to death.
- 25 Now when their hearts were full of joy, they said, Send for Samson to make sport for us. And they sent for Samson out of the prison-house, and he made sport before them; and they put him between the pillars.
- 26 And Samson said to the boy who took him by the hand, Let me put my hand on the pillars supporting the house, so that I may put my back against them.
- 27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and about three thousand men and women were on the roof, looking on while Samson made sport.
- 28 And Samson, crying out to the Lord, said, O Lord God, do have me now in mind, and do make me strong only this once, O God, so that I may take one last payment from the Philistines for my two eyes.
- 29 Then Samson put his arms round the two middle pillars supporting the house, putting his weight on them, on one with his right hand and on the other with his left.
- 30 And Samson said, Let death overtake me with the Philistines. And he put out all his strength, and the house came down on the chiefs and on all the people who were in it. So the dead whom he sent to destruction by his death were more than all those on whom
- 31 Then his brothers and his father's people came down and took him up and put his body to rest in the earth between Zorah and Eshtaol in the resting-place of Manoah his father. And he had been judge of Israel for twenty years.
- 1 Now there was a man of the hill-country of Ephraim named Micah.
- 2 And he said to his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver which were taken from you, about which you took an oath and said in my hearing, I have given this silver to the Lord from my hand for myself, to make a pictured image and a metal image: see,
- 3 And he gave back the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, and his mother said, I have made the silver holy to the Lord from me for my son, to make a pictured image and a metal image.
- 4 So he gave the silver back to his mother. Then his mother took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to a metal-worker who made a pictured image and a metal image from them: and it was in the house of Micah.
- 5 And the man Micah had a house of gods; and he made an ephod and family gods and put one of his sons in the position of priest.
- 6 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did as seemed right to him.
- 7 Now there was a young man living in Beth-lehem-judah, of the family of Judah and a Levite, who was not a townsman of the place.
- 8 And he went away from the town of Beth-lehem-judah, looking for somewhere to make his living-place; and on his journey he came to the hill-country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah.
- 9 And Micah said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I am a Levite from Beth-lehem-judah, and I am looking for a living-place.
- 10 Then Micah said to him, Make your living-place with me, and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver a year and your clothing and food.
- 11 And the Levite said he would make his living-place with the man, and he became to him as one of his sons.
- 12 And Micah gave the position to the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.
- 13 Then Micah said, Now I am certain that the Lord will do me good, seeing that the Levite has become my priest.

- 1 In those days there was no king in Israel, and in those days the Danites were looking for a heritage for themselves, to be their living-place; for up to that time no distribution of land had been made to them among the tribes of Israel.
- 2 So the children of Dan sent five men from among their number, strong men, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to take a look at the land and make a search through it; and they said to them, Go and make a search through the land; and they came to the hill-country
- 3 When they were near the house of Micah, hearing a voice which was not strange to them, that of the young Levite, they went out of their road to his place, and said to him, How did you come here? and what are you doing in this place? and why are you here?
- 4 And he said to them, This is what Micah did for me, and he gave me payment and I became his priest.
- 5 Then they said, Do get directions from God for us, to see if the journey on which we are going will have a good outcome.
- 6 And the priest said to them, Go in peace: your way is guided by the Lord.
- 7 Then the five men went on their way and came to Laish and saw the people who were there, living without thought of danger, like the Zidonians, quiet and safe; for they had everything on earth for their needs, and they were far from the Zidonians and had n
- 8 So they came back to their brothers in Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brothers said to them, What news have you?
- 9 And they said, Up! and let us go against Laish; for we have seen the land, and it is very good: why are you doing nothing? Do not be slow to go in and take the land for your heritage.
- 10 When you come there you will come to a people living without thought of danger; and the land is wide, and God has given it into your hands: a place where there is everything on earth for man's needs.
- 11 So six hundred men of the Danites from Zorah and Eshtaol went out armed with instruments of war.
- 12 And they went up and put up their tents in Kiriath-jearim in Judah: so that place is named Mahaneh-dan to this day. It is to the west of Kiriath-jearim.
- 13 From there they went on to the hill-country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.
- 14 Then the five men who had gone to make a search through the country of Laish, said to their brothers, Have you knowledge that in these houses there is an ephod and family gods and a pictured image and a metal image? So now you see what to do.
- 15 And turning from their road they came to the house of the young Levite, the house of Micah, and said to him, Is it well with you?
- 16 And the six hundred armed men of the Danites took their places by the doorway.
- 17 Then the five men who had gone to make a search through the land, went in and took the pictured image and the ephod and the family gods and the metal image; and the priest was by the doorway with the six hundred armed men.
- 18 And when they went into Micah's house and took out the pictured image and the ephod and the family gods and the metal image, the priest said to them, What are you doing?
- 19 And they said to him, Be quiet; say nothing, and come with us and be our father and priest; is it better for you to be priest to one man's house or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?
- 20 Then the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod and the family gods and the pictured image and went with the people.
- 21 So they went on their way again, putting the little ones and the oxen and the goods in front of them.
- 22 When they had gone some way from the house of Micah, the men from the houses near Micah's house came together and overtook the children of Dan,
- 23 Crying out to them. And the Danites, turning round, said to Micah, What is your trouble, that you have taken up arms?
- 24 And he said, You have taken my gods which I made, and my priest, and have gone away; what is there for me now? Why then do you say to me, What is your trouble?
- 25 And the children of Dan said to him, Say no more, or men of bitter spirit may make an attack on you, causing loss of your life and the lives of your people.
- 26 Then the children of Dan went on their way; and when Micah saw that they were stronger than he, he went back to his house.
- 27 And they took that which Micah had made, and his priest, and came to Laish, to a people living quietly and without thought of danger, and they put them to the sword without mercy, burning down their town.
- 28 And they had no saviour, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with Aram; and it was in the valley which is the property of Beth-rehob. And building up the town again they took it for their living-place.

- 29 And they gave the town the name of Dan, after Dan their father, who was the son of Israel: though the town had been named Laish at first.
- 30 (And the children of Dan put up the pictured image for themselves; and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the tribe of the Danites till the day when the ark was taken prisoner.)
- 31 And they put up for themselves the image which Micah had made, and it was there all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.
- 1 Now in those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite was living in the inmost parts of the hill-country of Ephraim, and he got for himself a servant-wife from Beth-lehem-judah.
- 2 And his servant-wife was angry with him, and went away from him to her father's house at Beth-lehem-judah, and was there for four months.
- 3 Then her husband got up and went after her, with the purpose of talking kindly to her, and taking her back with him; he had with him his young man and two asses: and she took him into her father's house, and her father, when he saw him, came forward to him.
- 4 And his father-in-law, the girl's father, kept him there for three days; and they had food and drink and took their rest there.
- 5 Now on the fourth day they got up early in the morning and he made ready to go away; but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, Take a little food to keep up your strength, and then go on your way.
- 6 So seating themselves they had food and drink, the two of them together; and the girl's father said to the man, If it is your pleasure, take your rest here tonight, and let your heart be glad.
- 7 And the man got up to go away, but his father-in-law would not let him go, so he took his rest there again for the night.
- 8 Then early on the morning of the fifth day he got up to go away; but the girl's father said, Keep up your strength; so the two of them had a meal, and the man and his woman and his servant did not go till after the middle of the day.
- 9 And when they got up to go away, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, Now evening is coming on, so do not go tonight; see, the day is almost gone; take your rest here and let your heart be glad, and tomorrow early, go on your way back to you.
- 10 But the man would not be kept there that night, and he got up and went away and came opposite to Jebus (which is Jerusalem); and he had with him the two asses, ready for travelling, and his woman.
- 11 When they got near Jebus the day was far gone; and the servant said to his master, Now let us go from our road into this town of the Jebusites and take our night's rest there.
- 12 But his master said to him, We will not go out of our way into a strange town, whose people are not of the children of Israel; but we will go on to Gibeah.
- 13 And he said to his servant, Come, let us go on to one of these places, stopping for the night in Gibeah or Ramah.
- 14 So they went on their way; and the sun went down when they were near Gibeah in the land of Benjamin.
- 15 And they went off the road there with the purpose of stopping for the night in Gibeah: and he went in, seating himself in the street of the town, for no one took them into his house for the night.
- 16 Now when it was evening they saw an old man coming back from his work in the fields; he was from the hill-country of Ephraim and was living in Gibeah: but the men of the place were Benjamites.
- 17 And when he saw the traveller in the street of the town, the old man said, Where are you going? and where do you come from?
- 18 And he said to him, We are on our way from Beth-lehem-judah to the inmost parts of the hill-country of Ephraim: I came from there and went to Beth-lehem-judah: now I am on my way back to my house, but no man will take me into his house.
- 19 But we have dry grass and food for our asses, as well as bread and wine for me, and for the woman, and for the young man with us: we have no need of anything.
- 20 And the old man said, Peace be with you; let all your needs be my care; only do not take your rest in the street.
- 21 So he took them into his house and gave the asses food; and after washing their feet they took food and drink.
- 22 While they were taking their pleasure at the meal, the good-for-nothing men of the town came round the house, giving blows on the door; and they said to the old man, the master of the house, Send out that man who came to your house, so that we may take our rest.
- 23 So the man, the master of the house, went out to them, and said, No, my brothers, do not this evil thing; this man has come into my house, and you are not to do him this wrong.

- 24 See, here is my daughter, a virgin, and his servant-wife: I will send them out for you to take them and do with them whatever you will. But do no such thing of shame to this man.
- 25 But the men would not give ear to him: so the man took his woman and sent her out to them; and they took her by force, using her for their pleasure all night till the morning; and when dawn came they let her go.
- 26 Then at the dawn of day the woman came, and, falling down at the door of the man's house where her master was, was stretched there till it was light.
- 27 In the morning her master got up, and opening the door of the house went out to go on his way; and he saw his servant-wife stretched on the earth at the door of the house with her hands on the step.
- 28 And he said to her, Get up and let us be going; but there was no answer; so he took her up and put her on the ass, and went on his way and came to his house.
- 29 And when he had come to his house, he got his knife, and took the woman, cutting her up bone by bone into twelve parts, which he sent through all Israel.
- 30 And he gave orders to the men whom he sent, saying, This is what you are to say to all the men of Israel, Has ever an act like this been done from the day when the children of Israel came out of Egypt to this day? Give thought to it, turning it over in yo
- 1 Then all the children of Israel took up arms, and the people came together like one man, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and the land of Gilead, before the Lord at Mizpah.
- 2 And the chiefs of the people, out of all the tribes of Israel, took their places in the meeting of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen armed with swords.
- 3 (Now the children of Benjamin had word that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the children of Israel said, Make clear how this evil thing took place.
- 4 Then the Levite, the husband of the dead woman, said in answer, I came to Gibeah in the land of Benjamin, I and my servant-wife, for the purpose of stopping there for the night.
- 5 And the townsmen of Gibeah came together against me, going round the house on all sides by night; it was their purpose to put me to death, and my servant-wife was violently used by them and is dead.
- 6 So I took her, cutting her into parts which I sent through all the country of the heritage of Israel: for they have done an act of shame in Israel.
- 7 Here you all are, you children of Israel; give now your suggestions about what is to be done.
- 8 Then all the people got up as one man and said, Not one of us will go to his tent or go back to his house:
- 9 But this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by the decision of the Lord;
- 10 And we will take ten men out of every hundred, through all the tribes of Israel, a hundred out of every thousand, a thousand out of every ten thousand, to get food for the people, so that they may give to Gibeah of Benjamin the right punishment for the ac
- 11 So all the men of Israel were banded together against the town, united like one man.
- 12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin saying, What is this evil which has been done among you?
- 13 Now give up those good-for-nothing persons in Gibeah so that we may put them to death, clearing away the evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not give ear to the voice of their brothers, the children of Israel.
- 14 And the children of Benjamin came together from all their towns to Gibeah, to go to war with the children of Israel.
- 15 And the children of Benjamin who came that day from the towns were twenty-six thousand men armed with swords, in addition to the people of Gibeah, numbering seven hundred of the best fighting-men,
- 16 Who were left-handed, able to send a stone at a hair without error.
- 17 And the men of Israel, other than Benjamin, were four hundred thousand in number, all armed with swords; they were all men of war.
- 18 And they got up and went up to Beth-el to get directions from God, and the children of Israel said, Who is to be the first to go up to the fight against the children of Benjamin? And the Lord said, Judah is to go up first.
- 19 So the children of Israel got up in the morning and put themselves in position against Gibeah.
- 20 And the men of Israel went out to war against Benjamin (and the men of Israel put their forces in fighting order against them at Gibeah).
- 21 Then the children of Benjamin came out from Gibeah, cutting down twenty-two thousand of the Israelites that day.

- 22 But the people, the men of Israel, taking heart again, put their forces in order and took up the same position as on the first day.
- 23 Now the children of Israel went up, weeping before the Lord till evening, requesting the Lord and saying, Am I to go forward again to the fight against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the Lord said, Go up against him.
- 24 So the children of Israel went forward against the children of Benjamin the second day.
- 25 And the second day Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah, cutting down eighteen thousand men of the children of Israel, all swordsmen.
- 26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up to Beth-el, weeping and waiting there before the Lord, going without food all day till evening, and offering burned offerings and peace-offerings before the Lord.
- 27 And the children of Israel made request to the Lord, (for the ark of the agreement of the Lord was there in those days,
- 28 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, was in his place before it,) and said, Am I still to go on with the fight against the children of Benjamin my brother, or am I to give it up? And the Lord said, Go on; for tomorrow I will give him into y
- 29 So Israel put men secretly all round Gibeah to make a surprise attack on it.
- 30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in fighting order against Gibeah as before.
- 31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, moving away from the town; and as before, at their first attack, they put to death about thirty men of Israel on the highways, of which one goes up to Beth-el and the other to Gibeah, and in the op
- 32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are giving way before us as at first. But the children of Israel said, Let us go in flight and get them away from the town, into the highways.
- 33 So all the men of Israel got up and put themselves in fighting order at Baal-tamar: and those who had been waiting secretly to make a surprise attack came rushing out of their place on the west of Geba.
- 34 And they came in front of Gibeah, ten thousand of the best men in all Israel, and the fighting became more violent; but the children of Benjamin were not conscious that evil was coming on them.
- 35 Then the Lord sent sudden fear on Benjamin before Israel; and that day the children of Israel put to death twenty-five thousand, one hundred men of Benjamin, all of them swordsmen.
- 36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were overcome: and the men of Israel had given way before Benjamin, putting their faith in the watchers who were to make the surprise attack on Gibeah.
- 37 And the watchers, rushing on Gibeah and overrunning it, put all the town to the sword without mercy.
- 38 Now the sign fixed between the men of Israel and those making the surprise attack was that when they made a pillar of smoke go up from the town,
- 39 The men of Israel were to make a turn about in the fight. And Benjamin had overcome and put to death about thirty of the men of Israel, and were saying, Certainly they are falling back before us as in the first fight.
- 40 Then the sign went up out of the town in the pillar of smoke, and the Benjamites, turning back, saw all the town going up in smoke to heaven.
- 41 And the men of Israel had made a turn about, and the men of Benjamin were overcome with fear, for they saw that evil had overtaken them.
- 42 So turning their backs on the men of Israel, they went in the direction of the waste land; but the fight overtook them; and those who came out of the town were heading them off and putting them to the sword.
- 43 And crushing Benjamin down, they went after them, driving them from Nohah as far as the east side of Gibeah.
- 44 Eighteen thousand men of Benjamin came to their death, all strong men of war.
- 45 And turning, they went in flight to the rock of Rimmon in the waste land: and on the highways five thousand of them were cut off by the men of Israel, who, pushing on hard after them to Geba, put to death two thousand more.
- 46 So twenty-five thousand of the swordsmen of Benjamin came to their end that day, all strong men of war.
- 47 But six hundred men, turning back, went in flight to the rock of Rimmon in the waste land, and were living on the rock of Rimmon for four months.
- 48 And the men of Israel, turning again against the children of Benjamin, put to the sword without mercy all the towns and the cattle and everything there was, burning every town which came into their hands.
- 1 Now the men of Israel had taken an oath in Mizpah, saying, Not one of us will give his daughter as a wife to Benjamin.

- 2 And the people came to Beth-el, waiting there till evening before God, and gave themselves up to bitter weeping.
- 3 And they said, O Lord, the God of Israel, why has this fate come on Israel, that today one tribe has been cut off from Israel?
- 4 Then on the day after, the people got up early and made an altar there, offering burned offerings and peace-offerings.
- 5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel, who did not come up to the Lord at the meeting of all Israel? For they had taken a great oath that whoever did not come up to Mizpah to the Lord was to be put to death.
- 6 And the children of Israel were moved with pity for Benjamin their brother, saying, Today one tribe has been cut off from Israel.
- 7 What are we to do about wives for those who are still living? For we have taken an oath by the Lord that we will not give them our daughters for wives.
- 8 And they said, Which one of the tribes of Israel did not come up to Mizpah to the Lord? And it was seen that no one had come from Jabesh-gilead to the meeting.
- 9 For when the people were numbered, not one man of the people of Jabesh-gilead was present.
- 10 So they (the meeting) sent twelve thousand of the best fighting-men, and gave them orders, saying, Go and put the people of Jabesh-gilead to the sword without mercy, with their women and their little ones.
- 11 And this is what you are to do: every male, and every woman who has had sex relations with a man, you are to put to the curse, but you are to keep safe the virgins. And they did so.
- 12 Now there were among the people of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had never had sex relations with a man; these they took to their tents in Shiloh in the land of Canaan.
- 13 And all the meeting sent to the men of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, offering them peace.
- 14 Then Benjamin came back; and they gave them the women whom they had kept from death among the women of Jabesh-gilead: but still there were not enough for them.
- 15 And the people were moved with pity for Benjamin, because the Lord had let his wrath loose on the tribes of Israel.
- 16 Then the responsible men of the meeting said, What are we to do about wives for the rest of them, seeing that the women of Benjamin are dead?
- 17 And they said, How is the rest of Benjamin to be given offspring so that one tribe of Israel may not be put out of existence,
- 18 Seeing that we may not give them our daughters as wives? For the children of Israel had taken an oath, saying, Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.
- 19 And they said, See, every year there is a feast of the Lord in Shiloh, which is to the north of Beth-el, on the east side of the highway which goes up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.
- 20 And they said to the men of Benjamin, Go into the vine-gardens, waiting there secretly,
- 21 And watching; and if the daughters of Shiloh come out to take part in the dances, then come from the vine-gardens and take a wife for every one of you from among the daughters of Shiloh, and go back to the land of Benjamin.
- 22 And when their fathers or their brothers come and make trouble, you are to say to them, Give them to us as an act of grace; for we did not take them as wives for ourselves in war; and if you yourselves had given them to us you would have been responsible
- 23 So the men of Benjamin did this, and got wives for themselves for every one of their number, taking them away by force from the dance; then they went back to their heritage, building up their towns and living in them.
- 24 Then the children of Israel went away from there, every man to his tribe and his family, every man went back to his heritage.
- 25 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did what seemed right to him.
- 1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim, a Zuphite of the hill-country of Ephraim, named Elkanah; he was the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite:
- 2 And he had two wives, one named Hannah and the other Peninnah: and Peninnah was the mother of children, but Hannah had no children.
- 3 Now this man went up from his town every year to give worship and to make offerings to the Lord of armies in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the Lord, were there.
- 4 And when the day came for Elkanah to make his offering, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and daughters, their part of the feast:

- 5 But to Hannah he gave one part, though Hannah was very dear to him, but the Lord had not let her have children.
- 6 And the other wife did everything possible to make her unhappy, because the Lord had not let her have children;
- 7 And year by year, whenever she went up to the house of the Lord, she kept on attacking her, so that Hannah gave herself up to weeping and would take no food.
- 8 Then her husband Elkanah said to her, Hannah, why are you weeping? and why are you taking no food? why is your heart troubled? am I not more to you than ten sons?
- 9 So after they had taken food and wine in the guest room, Hannah got up. Now Eli the priest was seated by the pillars of the doorway of the Temple of the Lord.
- 10 And with grief in her soul, weeping bitterly, she made her prayer to the Lord.
- 11 And she made an oath, and said, O Lord of armies, if you will truly take note of the sorrow of your servant, not turning away from me but keeping me in mind, and will give me a man-child, then I will give him to the Lord all the days of his life, and his
- 12 Now while she was a long time in prayer before the Lord, Eli was watching her mouth.
- 13 For Hannah's prayer came from her heart, and though her lips were moving she made no sound: so it seemed to Eli that she was overcome with wine.
- 14 And Eli said to her, How long are you going to be the worse for drink? Put away the effects of your wine from you.
- 15 And Hannah, answering him, said, No, my lord, I am a woman whose spirit is broken with sorrow: I have not taken wine or strong drink, but I have been opening my heart before the Lord.
- 16 Do not take your servant to be a good-for-nothing woman: for my words have come from my stored-up sorrow and pain.
- 17 Then Eli said to her, Go in peace: and may the God of Israel give you an answer to the prayer you have made to him.
- 18 And she said, May your servant have grace in your eyes. So the woman went away, and took part in the feast, and her face was no longer sad.
- 19 And early in the morning they got up, and after worshipping before the Lord they went back to Ramah, to their house: and Elkanah had connection with his wife; and the Lord kept her in mind.
- 20 Now the time came when Hannah, being with child, gave birth to a son; and she gave him the name Samuel, Because, she said, I made a prayer to the Lord for him.
- 21 And the man Elkanah with all his family went up to make the year's offering to the Lord, and to give effect to his oath.
- 22 But Hannah did not go, for she said to her husband, I will not go till the child has been taken from the breast, and then I will take him with me and put him before the Lord, where he may be for ever.
- 23 And her husband Elkanah said to her, Do whatever seems right to you, but not till you have taken him from the breast; only may the Lord do as he has said. So the woman, waiting there, gave her son milk till he was old enough to be taken from the breast.
- 24 Then when she had done so, she took him with her, with a three-year old ox and an ephah of meal and a skin full of wine, and took him to the house of the Lord at Shiloh: now the child was still very young.
- 25 And when they had made an offering of the ox, they took the child to Eli.
- 26 And she said, O my lord, as your soul is living, my lord, I am that woman who was making a prayer to the Lord here by your side:
- 27 My prayer was for this child; and the Lord has given him to me in answer to my request:
- 28 So I have given him to the Lord; for all his life he is the Lord's. Then he gave the Lord worship there.
- 1 And Hannah, in prayer before the Lord, said, My heart is glad in the Lord, my horn is lifted up in the Lord: my mouth is open wide over my haters; because my joy is in your salvation.
- 2 No other is holy as the Lord, for there is no other God but you: there is no Rock like our God.
- 3 Say no more words of pride; let not uncontrolled sayings come out of your mouths: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, by him acts are judged.
- 4 The bows of the men of war are broken, and the feeble are clothed with strength.
- 5 Those who were full are offering themselves as servants for bread; those who were in need are at rest; truly, she who had no children has become the mother of seven; and she who had a family is wasted with sorrow.
- 6 The Lord is the giver of death and life: sending men down to the underworld and lifting them up.
- 7 The Lord gives wealth and takes a man's goods from him: crushing men down and again lifting them up;

- 8 Lifting the poor out of the dust, and him who is in need out of the lowest place, to give them their place among rulers, and for their heritage the seat of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's and he has made them the base of the world.
- 9 He will keep the feet of his holy ones, but the evil-doers will come to their end in the dark night, for by strength no man will overcome.
- 10 Those who make war against the Lord will be broken; against them he will send his thunder from heaven: the Lord will be judge of the ends of the earth, he will give strength to his king, lifting up the horn of him on whom the holy oil has been put.
- 11 Then Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child became the servant of the Lord under the direction of Eli the priest.
- 12 Now the sons of Eli were evil and good-for-nothing men, having no knowledge of the Lord.
- 13 And the priests' way with the people was this: when any man made an offering, the priest's servant came while the flesh was being cooked, having in his hand a meat-hook with three teeth;
- 14 This he put into the pot, and everything which came up on the hook the priest took for himself. This they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.
- 15 And more than this, before the fat was burned, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was making the offering, Give me some of the flesh to be cooked for the priest; he has no taste for meat cooked in water, but would have you give it unco
- 16 And if the man said to him, First let the fat be burned, then take as much as you will; then the servant would say, No, you are to give it to me now, or I will take it by force.
- 17 And the sin of these young men was very great before the Lord; for they gave no honour to the Lord's offerings.
- 18 But Samuel did the work of the Lord's house, while he was a child, dressed in a linen ephod.
- 19 And his mother made him a little robe and took it to him every year when she came with her husband for the year's offering.
- 20 And every year Eli gave Elkanah and his wife a blessing, saying, May the Lord give you offspring by this woman in exchange for the child you have given to the Lord. And they went back to their house.
- 21 And the Lord had mercy on Hannah and she gave birth to three sons and two daughters. And the young Samuel became older before the Lord.
- 22 Now Eli was very old; and he had news from time to time of what his sons were doing to all Israel.
- 23 And he said to them, Why are you doing such things? for from all this people I get accounts of your evil ways.
- 24 No, my sons, the account which is given me, which the Lord's people are sending about, is not good.
- 25 If one man does wrong to another, God will be his judge: but if a man's sin is against the Lord, who will take up his cause? But they gave no attention to the voice of their father, for it was the Lord's purpose to send destruction on them.
- 26 And the young Samuel, becoming older, had the approval of the Lord and of men.
- 27 And a man of God came to Eli and said to him, The Lord says, Did I let myself be seen by your father's people when they were in Egypt, servants in Pharaoh's house?
- 28 Did I take him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest and to go up to my altar to make the smoke of the offerings go up and to take up the ephod? Did I give to your father's family all the offerings made by fire by the children of Israel?
- 29 Why then are you looking with envy on my offerings of meat and of meal which were ordered by my word, honouring your sons before me, and making yourselves fat with all the best of the offerings of Israel, my people?
- 30 For this reason the Lord God of Israel has said, Truly I did say that your family and your father's people would have their place before me for ever: but now the Lord says, Let it not be so; I will give honour to those by whom I am honoured, and those who
- 31 See, the days are coming when your arm and the arm of your father's people will be cut off;
- 32 And never again will there be an old man in your family.
- 33 But one man of your family will not be cut off by my hand, and his eyes will be made dark, and grief will be in his heart: and all the offspring of your family will come to their end by the sword of men.
- 34 And this will be the sign to you, which will come on Hophni and Phinehas, your sons; death will overtake them on the same day.
- 35 And I will make a true priest for myself, one who will do what is in my heart and in my mind: and I will make for him a family which will not come to an end; and his place will be before my holy one for ever.

- 36 Then it will be that the rest of your family, anyone who has not been cut off, will go down on his knees to him for a bit of silver or a bit of bread, and say, Be pleased to put me into one of the priest's places so that I may have a little food.
- 1 Now the young Samuel was the servant of the Lord before Eli. In those days the Lord kept his word secret from men; there was no open vision.
- 2 And at that time, when Eli was resting in his place, (now his eyes were becoming clouded so that he was not able to see,)
- 3 And the light of God was still burning, while Samuel was sleeping in the Temple of the Lord where the ark of God was,
- 4 The voice of the Lord said Samuel's name; and he said, Here am I.
- 5 And running to Eli he said, Here am I, for you said my name. And Eli said, I did not say your name; go to your rest again. So he went back to his bed.
- 6 And again the Lord said, Samuel. And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, Here am I; for you certainly said my name. But he said in answer, I said nothing, my son; go to your rest again.
- 7 Now at that time Samuel had no knowledge of the Lord, and the revelation of the word of the Lord had not come to him.
- 8 And for the third time the Lord said Samuel's name. And he got up and went to Eli and said, Here am I; for you certainly said my name. Then it was clear to Eli that the voice which had said the child's name was the Lord's.
- 9 So Eli said to Samuel, Go back: and if the voice comes again, let your answer be, Say on, Lord; for the ears of your servant are open. So Samuel went back to his bed.
- 10 Then the Lord came and said as before, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel made answer, Say on, Lord; for the ears of your servant are open.
- 11 And the Lord said to Samuel, See, I will do a thing in Israel at which the ears of everyone hearing of it will be burning.
- 12 In that day I will do to Eli everything which I have said about his family, from first to last.
- 13 And you are to say to him that I will send punishment on his family for ever, for the sin which he had knowledge of; because his sons have been cursing God and he had no control over them.
- 14 So I have made an oath to the family of Eli that no offering of meat or of meal which they may make will ever take away the sin of his family.
- 15 And Samuel kept where he was, not moving till the time came for opening the doors of the house of God in the morning. And fear kept him from giving Eli an account of his vision.
- 16 Then Eli said, Samuel, my son. And Samuel answering said, Here am I.
- 17 And he said, What did the Lord say to you? Do not keep it from me: may God's punishment be on you if you keep from me anything he said to you.
- 18 Then Samuel gave him an account of everything, keeping nothing back. And he said, It is the Lord; let him do what seems good to him.
- 19 And Samuel became older, and the Lord was with him and let not one of his words be without effect.
- 20 And it was clear to all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba that Samuel had been made a prophet of the Lord.
- 21 And the Lord was seen again in Shiloh; for the Lord gave to Samuel in Shiloh the revelation of his word.
- 1 Now at that time the Philistines came together to make war against Israel, and the men of Israel went out to war against the Philistines and took up their position at the side of Eben-ezer: and the Philistines put their forces in position in Aphek.
- 2 And the Philistines put their forces in order against Israel, and the fighting was hard, and Israel was overcome by the Philistines, who put to the sword about four thousand of their army in the field.
- 3 And when the people came back to their tents, the responsible men of Israel said, Why has the Lord let the Philistines overcome us today? Let us get the ark of the Lord's agreement here from Shiloh, so that it may be with us and give us salvation from the
- 4 So the people sent to Shiloh and got the ark of the agreement of the Lord of armies whose resting-place is between the winged ones; and Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were there with the ark of God's agreement.
- 5 And when the ark of the Lord's agreement came into the tent-circle, all Israel gave a great cry, so that the earth was sounding with it.
- 6 And the Philistines, hearing the noise of their cry, said, What is this great cry among the tents of the Hebrews? Then it became clear to them that the ark of the Lord had come to the tent-circle.
- 7 And the Philistines, full of fear, said, God has come into their tents. And they said, Trouble is ours! for never before has such a thing been seen.

- 8 Trouble is ours! Who will give us salvation from the hands of these great gods? These are the gods who sent all sorts of blows on the Egyptians in the waste land.
- 9 Be strong, O Philistines, be men! Do not be servants to the Hebrews as they have been to you: go forward to the fight without fear.
- 10 So the Philistines went to the fight, and Israel was overcome, and every man went in flight to his tent: and great was the destruction, for thirty thousand footmen of Israel were put to the sword.
- 11 And the ark of God was taken; and Hophni and Phinehas, the sons of Eli, were put to the sword.
- 12 And a man of Benjamin went running from the fight and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothing out of order and earth on his head.
- 13 And when he came, Eli was seated by the wayside watching: and in his heart was fear for the ark of God. And when the man came into the town and gave the news, there was a great outcry.
- 14 And Eli, hearing the noise and the cries, said, What is the reason of this outcry? And the man came quickly and gave the news to Eli.
- 15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were fixed so that he was not able to see.
- 16 And the man said to Eli, I have come from the army and have come in flight today from the fight. And he said, How did it go, my son?
- 17 And the man said, Israel went in flight from the Philistines, and there has been great destruction among the people, and your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been taken.
- 18 And at these words about the ark of God, Eli, falling back off his seat by the side of the doorway into the town, came down on the earth so that his neck was broken and death overtook him, for he was an old man and of great weight. He had been judging Israel.
- 19 And his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was with child and near the time when she would give birth; and when she had the news that the ark of God had been taken and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, her pains came on her suddenly and she gave birth to a son.
- 20 And when she was very near death the women who were with her said, Have no fear, for you have given birth to a son. But she made no answer and gave no attention to it.
- 21 And she gave the child the name of Ichabod, saying, The glory has gone from Israel: because the ark of God was taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband.
- 22 And she said, The glory is gone from Israel, for the ark of God has been taken.
- 1 Now the Philistines, having taken the ark of God, took it with them from Eben-ezer to Ashdod.
- 2 They took the ark of God into the house of Dagon and put it by the side of Dagon.
- 3 And when the people of Ashdod got up early on the morning after, they saw that Dagon had come down to the earth on his face before the ark of the Lord. And they took Dagon up and put him in his place again.
- 4 And when they got up early on the morning after, Dagon had come down to the earth on his face before the ark of the Lord; and his head and his hands were broken off on the doorstep; only the base was in its place.
- 5 So to this day no priest of Dagon, or any who come into Dagon's house, will put his foot on the doorstep of the house of Dagon in Ashdod.
- 6 But the hand of the Lord was hard on the people of Ashdod and he sent disease on them through all the country of Ashdod.
- 7 And when the men of Ashdod saw how it was, they said, Let not the ark of the God of Israel be with us, for his hand is hard on us and on Dagon our god.
- 8 So they sent for all the lords of the Philistines to come together there, and said, What are we to do with the ark of the God of Israel? And their answer was, Let the ark of the God of Israel be taken away to Gath. So they took the ark of the God of Israel to Gath.
- 9 But after they had taken it away, the hand of the Lord was stretched out against the town for its destruction: and the signs of disease came out on all the men of the town, small and great.
- 10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And when the ark of God came to Ekron, the people of the town made an outcry, saying, They have sent the ark of the God of Israel to us for the destruction of us and of our people.
- 11 So they sent and got together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go back to its place, so that it may not be the cause of death to us and to our people: for there was a great fear of death to us.

- 12 And those men who were not overtaken by death were cruelly diseased: and the cry of the town went up to heaven.
- 1 Now the ark of the Lord was in the country of the Philistines for seven months.
- 2 And the Philistines sent for the priests and those who were wise in secret arts, and said to them, What are we to do with the ark of the Lord? How are we to send it away to its place?
- 3 And they said, If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it without an offering, but send him a sin-offering with it: then you will have peace again, and it will be clear to you why the weight of his hand has not been lifted from you.
- 4 Then they said, What sin-offering are we to send to him? And they said, Five gold images of the growths caused by your disease and five gold mice, one for every lord of the Philistines: for the same disease came on you and on your lords.
- 5 So make images of the growths caused by your disease and of the mice which are damaging your land; and give glory to the God of Israel: it may be that the weight of his hand will be lifted from you and from your gods and from your land.
- 6 Why do you make your hearts hard, like the hearts of Pharaoh and the Egyptians? When he had made sport of them, did they not let the people go, and they went away?
- 7 So now, take and make ready a new cart, and two cows which have never come under the yoke, and have the cows yoked to the cart, and take their young ones away from them:
- 8 And put the ark of the Lord on the cart, and the gold images which you are sending as a sin-offering in a chest by its side; and send it away so that it may go.
- 9 If it goes by the land of Israel to Beth-shemesh, then this great evil is his work; but if not, then we may be certain that the evil was not his doing, but was the working of chance.
- 10 And the men did so; they took two cows, yoking them to the cart and shutting up their young ones in their living-place:
- 11 And they put the ark of the Lord on the cart and the chest with the gold images.
- 12 And the cows took the straight way, by the road to Beth-shemesh; they went by the highway, not turning to the right or to the left, and the sound of their voices was clear on the road; and the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the edge of
- 13 And the people of Beth-shemesh were cutting their grain in the valley, and lifting up their eyes they saw the ark and were full of joy when they saw it.
- 14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite, and came to a stop there by a great stone: and cutting up the wood of the cart they made a burned offering of the cows to the Lord.
- 15 Then the Levites took down the ark of the Lord and the chest in which were the gold images, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh made burned offerings and gave worship that day before the Lord.
- 16 And the five lords of the Philistines, having seen it, went back to Ekron the same day.
- 17 Now these are the gold images which the Philistines sent as a sin-offering to the Lord; one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;
- 18 And the gold mice, one for every town of the Philistines, the property of the five lords, walled towns as well as country places: and the great stone where they put the ark of the Lord is still in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite to this day.
- 19 But the Lord sent destruction on seventy men of the people of Beth-shemesh for looking into the ark of the Lord; and great was the sorrow of the people for the destruction which the Lord had sent on them.
- 20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to keep his place before the Lord, this holy God? and to whom may he go from us?
- 21 And they sent men to the people living in Kiriath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have sent back the ark of the Lord; come and take it up to your country.
- 1 So the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took the ark of the Lord to the house of Abinadab in Gibeah, and they made his son Eleazar holy and put the ark in his care.
- 2 And the ark was in Kiriath-jearim for a long time, as much as twenty years: and all Israel was searching after the Lord with weeping.
- 3 Then Samuel said to all Israel, If with all your hearts you would come back to the Lord, then put away all the strange gods and the Astartes from among you, and let your hearts be turned to the Lord, and be servants to him only: and he will make you safe
- 4 So the children of Israel gave up the worship of Baal and Astarte, and became worshippers of the Lord only.
- 5 Then Samuel said, Let all Israel come to Mizpah and I will make prayer to the Lord for you.

- 6 So they came together to Mizpah, and got water, draining it out before the Lord, and they took no food that day, and they said, We have done evil against the Lord. And Samuel was judge of the children of Israel in Mizpah.
- 7 Now when the Philistines had news that the children of Israel had come together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And the children of Israel, hearing of it, were full of fear.
- 8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Go on crying to the Lord our God for us to make us safe from the hands of the Philistines.
- 9 And Samuel took a young lamb, offering all of it as a burned offering to the Lord; and Samuel made prayers to the Lord for Israel and the Lord gave him an answer.
- 10 And while Samuel was offering the burned offering, the Philistines came near for the attack on Israel; but at the thunder of the Lord's voice that day the Philistines were overcome with fear, and they gave way before Israel.
- 11 And the men of Israel went out from Mizpah and went after the Philistines, attacking them till they came under Beth-car.
- 12 Then Samuel took a stone and put it up between Mizpah and Jeshanah, naming it Eben-ezer, and saying, Up to now the Lord has been our help.
- 13 So the Philistines were overcome, and did not come into the country of Israel again: and all the days of Samuel the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines.
- 14 And the towns which the Philistines had taken were given back to Israel, from Ekron to Gath, and all the country round them Israel made free from the power of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.
- 15 And Samuel was judge of Israel all the days of his life.
- 16 From year to year he went in turn to Beth-el and Gilgal and Mizpah, judging Israel in all those places.
- 17 And his base was at Ramah, where his house was; there he was judge of Israel and there he made an altar to the Lord.
- 1 Now when Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel.
- 2 The name of his first son was Joel and the name of his second Abijah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.
- 3 And his sons did not go in his ways, but moved by the love of money took rewards, and were not upright in judging.
- 4 Then all the responsible men of Israel got together and went to Samuel at Ramah,
- 5 And said to him, See now, you are old, and your sons do not go in your ways: give us a king now to be our judge, so that we may be like the other nations.
- 6 But Samuel was not pleased when they said to him, Give us a king to be our judge. And Samuel made prayer to the Lord.
- 7 And the Lord said to Samuel, Give ear to the voice of the people and what they say to you: they have not been turned away from you, but they have been turned away from me, not desiring me to be king over them.
- 8 As they have done from the first, from the day when I took them out of Egypt till this day, turning away from me and worshipping other gods, so now they are acting in the same way to you.
- 9 Give ear now to their voice: but make a serious protest to them, and give them a picture of the sort of king who will be their ruler.
- 10 And Samuel said all these words of the Lord to the people who were desiring a king.
- 11 And he said, This is the sort of king who will be your ruler: he will take your sons and make them his servants, his horsemen, and drivers of his war-carriages, and they will go running before his war-carriages;
- 12 And he will make them captains of thousands and of fifties; some he will put to work ploughing and cutting his grain and making his instruments of war and building his war-carriages.
- 13 Your daughters he will take to be makers of perfumes and cooks and bread-makers.
- 14 He will take your fields and your vine-gardens and your olive-gardens, all the best of them, and give them to his servants.
- 15 He will take a tenth of your seed and of the fruit of your vines and give it to his servants.
- 16 He will take your men-servants and your servant-girls, and the best of your oxen and your asses and put them to his work.
- 17 He will take a tenth of your sheep: and you will be his servants.
- 18 Then you will be crying out because of your king whom you have taken for yourselves; but the Lord will not give you an answer in that day.
- 19 But the people gave no attention to the voice of Samuel; and they said, No, but we will have a king over us,

- 20 So that we may be like the other nations, and so that our king may be our judge and go out before us to war.
- 21 Then Samuel, after hearing all the people had to say, went and gave an account of it to the Lord.
- 22 And the Lord said to Samuel, Give ear to their voice and make a king for them. Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, Let every man go back to his town.
- 1 Now there was a man of Benjamin named Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a man of wealth.
- 2 He had a son named Saul, a specially good-looking young man; there was no one better-looking among the children of Israel: he was taller by a head than any other of the people.
- 3 Now the asses of Saul's father Kish had gone wandering away. And Kish said to his son Saul, Take one of the servants with you, and get up and go in search of the asses.
- 4 So they went through the hill-country of Ephraim and through the land of Shalishah, but they saw no sign of them: then they went through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there: and they went through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not come
- 5 And when they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to the servant who was with him, Come, let us go back, or my father may give up caring about the asses and be troubled about us.
- 6 But the servant said to him, See now, in this town there is a man of God, who is highly honoured, and everything he says comes true: let us go there now; it may be that he will give us directions about our journey.
- 7 Then Saul said to his servant, But if we go, what are we to take the man? all our bread is gone, and we have no offering to take to the man of God: what are we to do?
- 8 But the servant said in answer, I have here a fourth part of a shekel of silver: I will give that to the man of God, and he will give us directions about our way.
- 9 (In the past in Israel, when a man went to get directions from God, he said, Come let us go to the Seer, for he who now is named Prophet was in those days given the name of Seer.)
- 10 Then Saul said to his servant, You have said well; come, let us go. So they went to the town where the man of God was.
- 11 And when they were on the way up to the town, they saw some young girls going out to get water and said to them, Is the seer here?
- 12 And they said, He is; in fact he is before you: go quickly now, for he has come into the town today, for the people are making an offering in the high place today:
- 13 When you come into the town you will see him straight away, before he goes up to the high place for the feast: the people are waiting for his blessing before starting the feast, and after that the guests will take part in it. So go up now and you will see
- 14 So they went up to the town, and when they came inside the town, Samuel came face to face with them on his way to the high place.
- 15 Now the day before Saul came, the word of God had come to Samuel, saying,
- 16 Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and on him you are to put the holy oil, making him ruler over my people Israel, and he will make my people safe from the hands of the Philistines: for I have seen the sorrow of my p
- 17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said to him, This is the man of whom I gave you word! he it is who is to have authority over my people.
- 18 Then Saul came up to Samuel in the doorway of the town and said, Give me directions, if you will be so good, to the house of the seer.
- 19 Then Samuel said to Saul, I am the seer; go up before me to the high place and take food with me today: and in the morning I will let you go, after opening to you all the secrets of your heart.
- 20 As for your asses which have been wandering for three days, give no thought to them, for they have come back. And for whom are all the desired things in Israel? are they not for you and your father's family?
- 21 And Saul said, Am I not a man of Benjamin, the smallest of all the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of the families of Benjamin? why then do you say these words to me?
- 22 Then Samuel took Saul and his servant into the guest room, and made them take the chief place among all the guests who were there, about thirty persons.
- 23 And Samuel said to the cook, Give me that part which I gave you orders to keep by you.

- 24 And the cook took up the leg with the fat tail on it, and put it before Saul. And Samuel said, This is the part which has been kept for you: take it as your part of the feast; because it has been kept for you till the right time came and till the guests were
- 25 And when they had come down from the high place into the town, where a bed was made ready for Saul, he went to rest.
- 26 And about dawn Samuel said to Saul on the roof, Get up so that I may send you away. So Saul got up, and he and Samuel went out together.
- 27 And on their way down to the end of the town, Samuel said to Saul, Give your servant orders to go on in front of us, (so he went on,) but you keep here, so that I may give you the word of God.
- 1 Then Samuel took the bottle of oil, and put the oil on his head and gave him a kiss and said, Is not the Lord with the holy oil making you ruler over Israel, his people? and you will have authority over the people of the Lord, and you will make them safe
- 2 When you have gone away from me today, you will see two men by the resting-place of Rachel's body, in the land of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, The asses which you went in search of have come back, and now your father, caring no longer for
- 3 Then you are to go on from there, and when you come to the oak-tree of Tabor, you will see three men going up to God to Beth-el, one having with him three young goats and another three cakes of bread and another a skin full of wine:
- 4 They will say, Peace be with you, and will give you two cakes of bread, which you are to take from them.
- 5 After that you will come to Gibeah, the hill of God, where an armed force of the Philistines is stationed: and when you come to the town, you will see a band of prophets coming down from the high place with instruments of music before them; and they will
- 6 And the spirit of the Lord will come on you with power, and you will be acting like a prophet with them, and will be changed into another man.
- 7 And when these signs come to you, see that you take the chance which is offered you; for God is with you.
- 8 Then you are to go down before me to Gilgal, where I will come to you, for the offering of burned offerings and peace-offerings: go on waiting there for seven days till I come to you and make clear to you what you have to do.
- 9 And it came about, that when he went away from Samuel, God gave him a changed heart: and all those signs took place that day.
- 10 And when they came to Gibeah, a band of prophets came face to face with him; and the spirit of God came on him with power and he took his place among them as a prophet.
- 11 Now when Saul's old friends saw him among the band of prophets, the people said to one another, What has come to Saul, the son of Kish? Is even Saul among the prophets?
- 12 And one of the people of that place said in answer, And who is their father? So it became a common saying, Is even Saul among the prophets?
- 13 Then going away from the prophets, he came to the house.
- 14 And Saul's father's brother said to him and his servant, Where have you been? And he said, Searching for the asses: and when we saw no sign of them, we came to Samuel.
- 15 Then he said, And what did Samuel say to you?
- 16 And Saul, answering him, said, He gave us word that the asses had come back. But he said nothing to him of Samuel's words about the kingdom.
- 17 Then Samuel sent for the people to come together before the Lord at Mizpah;
- 18 And he said to the children of Israel, The Lord, the God of Israel, has said, I took Israel out of Egypt, and made you free from the hands of the Egyptians and from all the kingdoms which kept you down:
- 19 But today you are turned away from your God, who himself has been your saviour from all your troubles and sorrows; and you have said to him, Put a king over us. So now, take your places before the Lord by your tribes and by your thousands.
- 20 So Samuel made all the tribes of Israel come near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken.
- 21 Then he made the tribe of Benjamin come near by families, and the family of the Matrites was taken: and from them, Saul, the son of Kish, was taken: but when they went in search of him he was nowhere to be seen.
- 22 So they put another question to the Lord, Is the man present here? And the answer of the Lord was, He is keeping himself from view among the goods.

- 23 So they went quickly and made him come out; and when he took his place among the people, he was taller by a head than any of the people.
- 24 And Samuel said to all the people, Do you see the man of the Lord's selection, how there is no other like him among all the people? And all the people with loud cries said, Long life to the king!
- 25 Then Samuel gave the people the laws of the kingdom, writing them in a book which he put in a safe place before the Lord. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.
- 26 And Saul went to Gibeah, to his house; and with him went the men of war whose hearts had been touched by God.
- 27 But certain good-for-nothing persons said, How is this man to be our saviour? And having no respect for him, they gave him no offering.
- 1 Then about a month after this, Nahash the Ammonite came up and put his forces in position for attacking Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, Make an agreement with us and we will be your servants.
- 2 And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, I will make an agreement with you on this condition, that all your right eyes are put out; so that I may make it a cause of shame to all Israel.
- 3 Then the responsible men of Jabesh said to him, Give us seven days, so that we may send men to every part of Israel: and then, if no one comes to our help, we will come out to you.
- 4 So they sent representatives to Saul's town Gibeah, and these gave the news to the people: and all the people gave themselves to weeping.
- 5 Now Saul came from the field, driving the oxen before him; and he said, Why are the people weeping? And they gave him word of what the men of Jabesh had said.
- 6 And at their words, the spirit of God came on Saul with power, and he became very angry.
- 7 And he took two oxen and, cutting them up, sent them through all the land of Israel by the hand of runners, saying, If any man does not come out after Saul and Samuel, this will be done to his oxen. And the fear of the Lord came on the people and they came.
- 8 And he had them numbered in Bezek: the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
- 9 Then he said to the representatives who had come, Say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, Tomorrow, by the time the sun is high, you will be made safe. And the representatives came and gave the news to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.
- 10 So the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you.
- 11 Now on the day after, Saul put the people into three bands, and in the morning watch they came to the tents of the Ammonites, and they went on attacking them till the heat of the day: and those who were not put to death were put to flight in every direction.
- 12 And the people said to Samuel, Who was it who said, Is Saul to be our king? Give the men up, so that we may put them to death.
- 13 And Saul said, Not a man is to be put to death today: for today the Lord has made Israel safe.
- 14 Then Samuel said to the people, Come, let us go to Gilgal and there make the kingdom strong in the hands of Saul.
- 15 So all the people went to Gilgal; and there in Gilgal they made Saul king before the Lord; and peace-offerings were offered before the Lord; and there Saul and all the men of Israel were glad with great joy.
- 1 And Samuel said to all Israel, You see that I have given ear to everything you said to me, and have made a king over you.
- 2 And now, see, the king is before you: and I am old and grey-headed, and my sons are with you: I have been living before your eyes from my early days till now.
- 3 Here I am: give witness against me before the Lord and before the man on whom he has put the holy oil: whose ox or ass have I taken? to whom have I been untrue? who has been crushed down by me? from whose hand have I taken a price for the blinding of my eyes?
- 4 And they said, You have never been untrue to us or cruel to us; you have taken nothing from any man.
- 5 Then he said, The Lord is witness against you, and the man on whom he has put the holy oil is witness this day that you have seen no wrong in me. And they said, He is witness.
- 6 And Samuel said to the people, The Lord is witness, who gave authority to Moses and Aaron, and who took your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.
- 7 Keep your places now, while I take up the argument with you before the Lord, and give you the story of the righteousness of the Lord, which he has made clear by his acts to you and to your fathers.

- 8 When Jacob and his sons had come into Egypt, and were crushed by the Egyptians, the prayers of your fathers came up to the Lord, and the Lord sent Moses and Aaron, who took your fathers out of Egypt, and he put them into this place.
- 9 But they were false to the Lord their God, and he gave them up into the hands of Sisera, captain of the army of Jabin, king of Hazor, and into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the king of Moab, who made war against them.
- 10 Then crying out to the Lord, they said, We have done evil, because we have been turned away from the Lord, worshipping the Baals and the Astartes: but now, make us safe from those who are against us and we will be your servants.
- 11 So the Lord sent Jerubbaal and Barak and Jephthah and Samuel and took you out of the power of those who were fighting against you on every side, and made you safe.
- 12 And when you saw that Nahash, the king of the Ammonites, was coming against you, you said to me, No more of this; we will have a king for our ruler: when the Lord your God was your king.
- 13 Here, then, is the king marked out by you: the Lord has put a king over you.
- 14 If in the fear of the Lord you are his servants, hearing his voice and not going against the orders of the Lord, but being true to the Lord your God, you and the king ruling over you, then all will be well:
- 15 But if you do not give ear to the voice of the Lord, but go against his orders, then the hand of the Lord will be against you and against your king for your destruction, as it was against your fathers.
- 16 Now keep where you are and see this great thing which the Lord will do before your eyes.
- 17 Is it not now the time of the grain cutting? My cry will go up to the Lord and he will send thunder and rain: so that you may see and be conscious of your great sin which you have done in the eyes of the Lord in desiring a king for yourselves.
- 18 So Samuel made prayer to the Lord; and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people were in fear of the Lord and of Samuel.
- 19 And all the people said to Samuel, Make prayer for us to the Lord your God so that death may not overtake us: for in addition to all our sins we have done this evil, in desiring a king.
- 20 Then Samuel said to the people, Have no fear: truly you have done evil, but do not be turned away from the Lord; be his servants with all your heart;
- 21 And do not go from the right way turning to those false gods in which there is no profit and no salvation, for they are false.
- 22 For the Lord will not give his people up, because of the honour of his name; for it was the Lord's pleasure to make of you a people for himself.
- 23 And as for me, never will I go against the orders of the Lord by giving up my prayers for you: but I will go on teaching you the good and right way.
- 24 Only go in the fear of the Lord, and be his true servants with all your heart, keeping in mind what great things he has done for you.
- 25 But if you still do evil, destruction will overtake you and your king.
- 1 ***
- 2 And Saul took for himself three thousand men of Israel, of whom he kept two thousand with him in Michmash and in the mountain of Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah in the land of Benjamin: the rest of the people he sent back to their ten
- 3 And Jonathan made an attack on the armed force of the Philistines stationed at Gibeah; and news was given to the Philistines that the Hebrews were turned against them. And Saul had a horn sounded through all the land,
- 4 And all Israel had the news that Saul had made an attack on the Philistines, and that Israel was bitterly hated by the Philistines. And the people came together after Saul to Gilgal.
- 5 And the Philistines came together to make war on Israel, three thousand war-carriages and six thousand horsemen and an army of people like the sands of the sea in number: they came up and took up their position in Michmash, to the east of Beth-aven.
- 6 When the men of Israel saw the danger they were in, (for the people were troubled,) they took cover in cracks in the hillsides and in the woods and in rocks and holes and hollows.
- 7 And a great number of the people had gone over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; but Saul was still in Gilgal, and all the people went after him shaking in fear.

- 8 And he went on waiting there for seven days, the time fixed by Samuel: but Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were starting to go away from him.
- 9 Then Saul said, Come here and give me the burned offering and the peace-offerings. And he made a burned offering to the Lord.
- 10 And when the burned offering was ended, Samuel came; and Saul went out to see him and to give him a blessing.
- 11 And Samuel said, What have you done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were going away from me, and you had not come at the time which had been fixed, and the Philistines had come together at Michmash;
- 12 I said, Now the Philistines will come down on me at Gilgal, and I have made no prayer for help to the Lord: and so, forcing myself to do it, I made a burned offering.
- 13 And Samuel said to Saul, You have done a foolish thing: you have not kept the rules which the Lord your God gave you; it was the purpose of the Lord to make your authority over Israel safe for ever.
- 14 But now, your authority will not go on: the Lord, searching for a man who is pleasing to him in every way, has given him the place of ruler over his people, because you have not done what the Lord gave you orders to do.
- 15 Then Samuel went up from Gilgal and the rest of the people went up after Saul against the men of war, and they came from Gilgal to Gibeah in the land of Benjamin: and Saul took the number of the people who were with him, about six hundred men.
- 16 And Saul, with Jonathan his son and the people who were with them, was waiting in Geba in the land of Benjamin: but the tents of the Philistines were in Michmash.
- 17 And three bands of men came out from the Philistines to make an attack; one band went by the road which goes to Ophrah, into the land of Shual:
- 18 And another went in the direction of Beth-horon: and another went by the hill looking down on the valley of Zeboiim, in the direction of the waste land.
- 19 Now there was no iron-worker in all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, For fear the Hebrews make themselves swords or spears:
- 20 But all the Israelites had to go to the Philistines to get their ploughs and blades and axes and hooks made sharp;
- 21 For they had instruments for putting an edge on their ploughs and blades and forks and axes, and for putting iron points on their ox-driving rods.
- 22 So on the day of the fight at Michmash, not a sword or a spear was to be seen in the hands of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan: only Saul and his son Jonathan had them.
- 23 And the armed force of the Philistines went out to the narrow way of Michmash.
- 1 Now one day Jonathan, the son of Saul, said to the young man who was with him, looking after his arms, Come, let us go over to the Philistine force over there. But he said nothing to his father.
- 2 And Saul was still waiting in the farthest part of Geba, under the fruit-tree in Migron: there were about six hundred men with him;
- 3 And Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, brother of Ichabod, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the Lord in Shiloh, who had the ephod. And the people had no idea that Jonathan had gone.
- 4 Now between the narrow roads over the mountains by which Jonathan was making his way to the Philistines' forces, there was a sharp overhanging rock on one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: one was named Bozez and the other Seneh.
- 5 The one rock went up on the north in front of Michmash and the other on the south in front of Geba.
- 6 And Jonathan said to his young servant who had his arms, Come, let us go over to the armies of these men who have no circumcision: it may be that the Lord will give us help, for there is no limit to his power; the Lord is able to give salvation by a great
- 7 And his servant said to him, Do whatever is in your mind: see, I am with you in every impulse of your heart.
- 8 Then Jonathan said, Now we will go over to these men and let them see us.
- 9 If they say to us, Keep quiet where you are till we come to you; then we will keep our places and not go up to them.
- 10 But if they say, Come up to us; then we will go up, for the Lord has given them into our hands: and this will be the sign to us.
- 11 And they let the Philistine force see the two of them: and the Philistines said, Look! the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have taken cover.

- 12 And the armed men of the force gave Jonathan and his servant their answer, saying, Come up here to us, and we will let you see something. Then Jonathan said to his servant, Come up after me: for the Lord has given them up into the hands of Israel.
- 13 And Jonathan went up, gripping with his hands and his feet, his servant going up after him; and the Philistines gave way before Jonathan when he made an attack on them, and his servant put them to death after him.
- 14 And at their first attack, Jonathan and his servant put to the sword about twenty men, all inside the space of half an acre of land.
- 15 And there was great fear in the tents and in the field and among all the men of the armed force, and the attackers were shaking with fear; even the earth was moved with a great shaking and there was a fear as from God.
- 16 And the watchmen of Saul, looking out from Geba in the land of Benjamin, saw all the army flowing away and running here and there.
- 17 Then Saul said to the people who were with him, Let everyone be numbered and let us see who has gone from us. And when they had been numbered, it was seen that Jonathan and his servant were not there.
- 18 And Saul said to Ahijah, Let the ephod come here. For he went before Israel with the ephod at that time.
- 19 Now while Saul was talking to the priest, the noise in the tents of the Philistines became louder and louder; and Saul said to the priest, Take back your hand.
- 20 And Saul and all the people with him came together and went forward to the fight: and every man's sword was turned against the man at his side, and there was a very great noise.
- 21 Then the Hebrews who had been with the Philistines for some time, and had gone up with them to their tents, turning round were joined to those who were with Saul and Jonathan.
- 22 And all the men of Israel who had taken cover in the hill-country of Ephraim, hearing that the Philistines had been put to flight, went after them, attacking them.
- 23 So the Lord made Israel safe that day: and the fight went over to Beth-aven.
- 24 And all the people were with Saul, about twenty thousand men, and the fight was general through all the hill-country of Ephraim; but Saul made a great error that day, by putting the people under an oath, saying, Let that man be cursed who takes food before
- 25 And there was honey on the face of the field, and all the people came to the honey, the bees having gone from it;
- 26 But not a man put his hand to his mouth for fear of the curse.
- 27 But Jonathan, having no knowledge of the oath his father had put on the people, stretching out the rod which was in his hand, put the end of it in the honey, and put it to his mouth; then his eyes were made bright.
- 28 Then one of the people said to him, Your father put the people under an oath, saying, Let that man be cursed who takes any food this day. And the people were feeble, needing food.
- 29 Then Jonathan said, My father has made trouble come on the land: now see how bright my eyes have become because I have taken a little of this honey.
- 30 How much more if the people had freely taken their food from the goods of those who were fighting against them! would there not have been much greater destruction among the Philistines?
- 31 That day they overcame the Philistines from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were feeble from need of food.
- 32 And rushing at the goods taken in the fight, the people took oxen and sheep and young oxen, and put them to death there on the earth, and had a meal, taking the flesh with the blood in it.
- 33 Then it was said to Saul, See, the people are sinning against the Lord, taking the blood with the flesh. And he said to those who gave him the news, Now let a great stone be rolled to me here.
- 34 And Saul said, Go about among the people and say to them, Let every man come here to me with his ox and his sheep, and put them to death here, and take his meal: do no sin against the Lord by taking the blood with the flesh. So all the people took their o
- 35 And Saul put up an altar to the Lord: this was the first altar which he put up to the Lord.
- 36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, attacking them till the morning, till there is not a man of them living. And they said, Do whatever seems right to you. Then the priest said, Let us come near to God.
- 37 And Saul, desiring directions from God, said, Am I to go down after the Philistines? will you give them up into the hands of Israel? But he gave him no answer that day.
- 38 And Saul said, Come near, all you chiefs of the people, and let us get word from God and see in whom is this sin today.

- 39 For, by the living Lord, the saviour of Israel, even if the sinner is Jonathan, my son, death will certainly be his fate. But not a man among all the people gave him any answer.
- 40 Then he said to all Israel, You be on one side, and I with Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said to Saul, Do whatever seems good to you.
- 41 Then Saul said to the Lord, the God of Israel, Why have you not given me an answer today? If the sin is in me or in Jonathan my son, O Lord God of Israel, give Urim, and if it is in your people Israel, give Thummim. And by the decision of the Lord, Saul a
- 42 And Saul said, Give your decision between my son Jonathan and me. And Jonathan was taken.
- 43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Give me an account of what you have done. And Jonathan gave him the story and said, Certainly I took a little honey on the end of my rod; and now death is to be my fate.
- 44 And Saul said, May God's punishment be on me if death is not your fate, Jonathan.
- 45 And the people said to Saul, Is death to come to Jonathan, the worker of this great salvation for Israel? Let it not be so: by the living Lord, not one hair of his head is to be touched, for he has been working with God today. So the people kept Jonathan
- 46 Then Saul, turning back, went after the Philistines no longer: and the Philistines went back to their place.
- 47 Now when Saul had taken his place as ruler of Israel, he made war on those who were against him on every side, Moab and the Ammonites and Edom and the kings of Zobah and the Philistines: and whichever way he went, he overcame them.
- 48 And he did great things, and overcame the Amalekites, and made Israel safe from the hands of their attackers.
- 49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishvi and Malchi-shua; and these are the names of his daughters: the older was named Merab and the younger Michal;
- 50 The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz; the captain of his army was Abner, the son of Ner, brother of Saul's father.
- 51 Kish, the father of Saul, and Ner, the father of Abner, were sons of Abiel.
- 52 All through the life of Saul there was bitter war against the Philistines; and whenever Saul saw any strong man or any good fighting man, he kept him near himself.
- 1 And Samuel said to Saul, The Lord sent me to put the holy oil on you and to make you king over his people, over Israel: so give ear now to the words of the Lord.
- 2 The Lord of armies says, I will give punishment to Amalek for what he did to Israel, fighting against him on the way when Israel came out of Egypt.
- 3 Go now and put Amalek to the sword, putting to the curse all they have, without mercy: put to death every man and woman, every child and baby at the breast, every ox and sheep, camel and ass.
- 4 And Saul sent for the people and had them numbered in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen and ten thousand men of Judah.
- 5 And Saul came to the town of Amalek, and took up his position in the valley secretly.
- 6 And Saul said to the Kenites, Go away, take yourselves out from among the Amalekites, or destruction will overtake you with them: for you were kind to the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt. So the Kenites went away from among the Amalekites.
- 7 And Saul made an attack on the Amalekites from Havilah on the road to Shur, which is before Egypt.
- 8 He took Agag, king of the Amalekites, prisoner, and put all the people to the sword without mercy.
- 9 But Saul and the people did not put Agag to death, and they kept the best of the sheep and the oxen and the fat beasts and the lambs, and whatever was good, not desiring to put them to the curse: but everything which was bad and of no use they put to the
- 10 Then the Lord said to Samuel,
- 11 It is no longer my pleasure for Saul to be king; for he is turned back from going in my ways, and has not done my orders. And Samuel was very sad, crying to the Lord in prayer all night.
- 12 And early in the morning he got up and went to Saul; and word was given to Samuel that Saul had come to Carmel and put up a pillar, and had gone from there down to Gilgal.
- 13 And Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said to him, May the blessing of the Lord be with you: I have done what was ordered by the Lord.
- 14 And Samuel said, What then is this sound of the crying of sheep and the noise of oxen which comes to my ears?

- 15 And Saul said, They have taken them from the Amalekites: for the people have kept the best of the sheep and of the oxen as an offering to the Lord your God; all the rest we have given up to destruction.
- 16 Then Samuel said to Saul, Say no more! Let me give you word of what the Lord has said to me this night. And he said to him, Say on.
- 17 And Samuel said, Though you may seem little to yourself, are you not head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord with the holy oil made you king over Israel,
- 18 And the Lord sent you on a journey and said, Go and put to the curse those sinners, the Amalekites, fighting against them till every one is dead.
- 19 Why then did you not do the orders of the Lord, but by violently taking their goods did evil in the eyes of the Lord?
- 20 And Saul said, Truly, I have done the orders of the Lord and have gone the way the Lord sent me; I have taken Agag, the king of Amalek, and have given the Amalekites up to destruction.
- 21 But the people took some of their goods, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which were put to the curse, to make an offering of them to the Lord your God in Gilgal.
- 22 And Samuel said, Has the Lord as much delight in offerings and burned offerings as in the doing of his orders? Truly, to do his pleasure is better than to make offerings, and to give ear to him than the fat of sheep.
- 23 For to go against his orders is like the sin of those who make use of secret arts, and pride is like giving worship to images. Because you have put away from you the word of the Lord, he has put you from your place as king.
- 24 And Saul said to Samuel, Great is my sin: for I have gone against the orders of the Lord and against your words: because, fearing the people, I did what they said.
- 25 So now, let my sin have forgiveness, and go back with me to give worship to the Lord.
- 26 And Samuel said to Saul, I will not go back with you: for you have put away from you the word of the Lord, and the Lord has put you from your place as king over Israel.
- 27 And when Samuel was turning round to go away, Saul took the skirt of his robe in his hand, and the cloth came away.
- 28 And Samuel said to him, The Lord has taken away the kingdom of Israel from you this day by force, and has given it to a neighbour of yours who is better than you.
- 29 And further, the Glory of Israel will not say what is false, and his purpose may not be changed: for he is not a man, whose purpose may be changed.
- 30 Then he said, Great is my sin: but still, give me honour now before the heads of my people and before Israel, and come back with me so that I may give worship to the Lord your God.
- 31 So Samuel went back after Saul, and Saul gave worship to the Lord.
- 32 Then Samuel said, Make Agag, the king of the Amalekites, come here to me. And Agag came to him shaking with fear. And Agag said, Truly the pain of death is past.
- 33 And Samuel said, As your sword has made women without children, so now your mother will be without children among women. And Agag was cut up by Samuel, bone from bone, before the Lord in Gilgal.
- 34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah, in the land of Saul.
- 35 And Samuel never saw Saul again till the day of his death; but Samuel was sorrowing for Saul: and it was no longer the Lord's pleasure for Saul to be king over Israel.
- 1 And the Lord said to Samuel, How long will you go on sorrowing for Saul, seeing that I have put him from his place as king over Israel? Take oil in your vessel and go; I will send you to Jesse, the Beth-lehemite: for I have got a king for myself among his
- 2 And Samuel said, How is it possible for me to go? If Saul gets news of it he will put me to death. And the Lord said, Take a young cow with you and say, I have come to make an offering to the Lord.
- 3 And send for Jesse to be present at the offering, and I will make clear to you what you are to do: and you are to put the holy oil on him whose name I give you.
- 4 And Samuel did as the Lord said and came to Beth-lehem. And the responsible men of the town came out to him in fear and said, Do you come in peace?
- 5 And he said, In peace: I have come to make an offering to the Lord: make yourselves clean and come with me to make the offering. And he made Jesse and his sons clean, and sent for them to be present at the offering.
- 6 Now when they came, looking at Eliab, he said, Clearly the man of the Lord's selection is before him.
- 7 But the Lord said to Samuel, Do not take note of his face or how tall he is, because I will not have him: for the Lord's view is not man's; man takes note of the outer form, but the Lord sees the heart.

- 8 Then Jesse sent for Abinadab and made him come before Samuel. And he said, The Lord has not taken this one.
- 9 Then Jesse made Shammah come before him. And he said, The Lord has not taken this one.
- 10 And Jesse made his seven sons come before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, The Lord has not taken any of these.
- 11 Then Samuel said to Jesse, Are all your children here? And he said, There is still the youngest, and he is looking after the sheep. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send and make him come here: for we will not take our seats till he is here.
- 12 So he sent and made him come in. Now he had red hair and beautiful eyes and pleasing looks. And the Lord said, Come, put the oil on him, for this is he.
- 13 Then Samuel took the bottle of oil, and put the oil on him there among his brothers: and from that day the spirit of the Lord came on David with power. So Samuel went back to Ramah.
- 14 Now the spirit of the Lord had gone from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord was troubling him.
- 15 And Saul's servants said to him, See now, an evil spirit from God is troubling you.
- 16 Now give orders to your servants who are here before you to go in search of a man who is an expert player on a corded instrument: and it will be that when the evil spirit from God is on you, he will make music for you on his instrument, and you will get w
- 17 And Saul said to his servants, Then get me a man who is an expert player, and make him come to me.
- 18 Then one of the servants in answer said, I have seen a son of Jesse, the Beth-lehemite, who is expert at playing, and a strong man and a man of war; and he is wise in his words, and pleasing in looks, and the Lord is with him.
- 19 So Saul sent his servants to Jesse and said, Send me your son David who is with the sheep.
- 20 And Jesse took five cakes of bread and a skin of wine and a young goat and sent them to Saul by David.
- 21 And David came to Saul, waiting before him: and he became very dear to Saul, who made him his servant, giving him the care of his arms.
- 22 And Saul sent to Jesse saying, Let David be with me, for he is pleasing to me.
- 23 And whenever the evil spirit from God came on Saul, David took his instrument and made music: so new life came to Saul, and he got well, and the evil spirit went away from him.
- 1 Now the Philistines got their armies together for war, and came together at Socoh in the land of Judah, and took up their position between Socoh and Azekah in Ephes-dammim.
- 2 And Saul and the men of Israel came together and took up their position in the valley of Elah, and put their forces in order against the Philistines.
- 3 The Philistines were stationed on the mountain on one side and Israel on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.
- 4 And a fighter came out from the tents of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath; he was more than six cubits tall.
- 5 And he had a head-dress of brass on his head, and he was dressed in a coat of metal, the weight of which was five thousand shekels of brass.
- 6 His legs were covered with plates of brass and hanging on his back was a javelin of brass.
- 7 The stem of his spear was as long as a cloth-worker's rod, and its head was made of six hundred shekels' weight of iron: and one went before him with his body-cover.
- 8 He took up his position and in a loud voice said to the armies of Israel, Why have you come out to make war? Am I not a Philistine and you servants of Saul? Send out a man for yourselves and let him come down to me.
- 9 If he is able to have a fight with me and overcome me, then we will be your servants: but if I am able to overcome him, then you will be our servants and do work for us.
- 10 And the Philistine said, I have put to shame the armies of Israel this day; give me a man so that we may have a fight together.
- 11 And Saul and all Israel, hearing those words of the Philistine, were troubled and full of fear.
- 12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah named Jesse, who had eight sons; and he was an old man in Saul's day, and far on in years.
- 13 And the three oldest sons of Jesse had gone with Saul to the fight: the names of the three who went to the fight were Eliab, the oldest, and Abinadab the second, and Shammah the third.
- 14 And David was the youngest: and the three oldest were with Saul's army.
- 15 Now David went to and from Saul, looking after his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.
- 16 And the Philistine came near every morning and evening for forty days.

- 17 And Jesse said to his son David, Take now for your brothers an ephah of this dry grain and these ten cakes of bread, and go quickly with them to the tents to your brothers;
- 18 And take these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers are and come back with a sign to say how they are.
- 19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.
- 20 And David got up early in the morning, and, giving the sheep into the care of a keeper, took the things and went as Jesse had said; and he came to the lines where the carts were, when the army was going out to the fight giving their war-cry.
- 21 And Israel and the Philistines had put their forces in position, army against army.
- 22 And David gave his parcels into the hands of the keeper of the army stores, and went running to the army and came to his brothers to get knowledge about them.
- 23 And while he was talking to them, the fighter, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came out from the Philistines' lines and said the same words, in David's hearing.
- 24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw him, went in flight, overcome with fear.
- 25 And the men of Israel said, Have you seen this man? Clearly he has come out to put shame on Israel: and it is certain that if any man overcomes him, the king will give that man great wealth, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's family fre
- 26 And David said to the men near him, What will be done to the man who overcomes this Philistine and takes away the shame from Israel? for who is this Philistine, a man without circumcision, that he has put shame on the armies of the living God?
- 27 And the people gave him this answer, So it will be done to the man who overcomes him.
- 28 And Eliab, his oldest brother, hearing what David said to the men, was moved to wrath against David, and said, Why have you come here? Into whose care have you given that little flock of sheep in the waste land? I have knowledge of your pride and the evil
- 29 And David said, What have I done now? was it not only a word?
- 30 And turning away from him to one of the other men, he said the same words: and the people gave him the same answer.
- 31 And, hearing what David said, they gave Saul word of it: and he sent for him.
- 32 And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart become feeble because of him; I, your servant, will go out and have a fight with this Philistine.
- 33 And Saul said to David, You are not able to go out against this Philistine and have a fight with him: for you are only a boy, and he has been a man of war from his earliest days.
- 34 And David said to Saul, Your servant has been keeper of his father's sheep; and if a lion or a bear came and took a lamb from the flock,
- 35 I went out after him, and overcame him, and took it out of his mouth: and if, turning on me, he came at me, I took him by the hair and overcame him and put him to death.
- 36 Your servant has overcome lion and bear: and the fate of this Philistine, who is without circumcision, will be like theirs, seeing that he has put shame on the armies of the living God.
- 37 And David said, The Lord, who kept me safe from the grip of the lion and the bear, will be my saviour from the hands of this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go! and may the Lord be with you.
- 38 Then Saul gave David his clothing of war, and put a head-dress of brass on his head and had him clothed with a coat of metal.
- 39 And David took Saul's sword and put the band round him over the metal coat, and was unable to go forward; for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, It is not possible for me to go out with these, for I am not used to them. So David took them o
- 40 Then he took his stick in his hand, and got five smooth stones from the bed of the stream and put them in a bag such as is used by sheep-keepers; and in his hand was a leather band used for sending stones: and so he went in the direction of the Philistine
- 41 And the Philistine came nearer to David; and the man who had his body-cover went before him.
- 42 And when the Philistine, taking note, saw David, he had a poor opinion of him: for he was only a boy, red-haired and good-looking.

- 43 And the Philistine said to David, Am I a dog, that you come out to me with sticks? And the Philistine put curses on David by all his gods.
- 44 And the Philistine said to David, Come here to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field.
- 45 Then David said to the Philistine, You come to me with a sword and a spear and a javelin: but I come to you in the name of the Lord of armies, the God of the armies of Israel on which you have put shame.
- 46 This day the Lord will give you up into my hands, and I will overcome you, and take your head off you; and I will give the bodies of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth today, so that all the earth may see that Israel h
- 47 And all these people who are here today may see that the Lord does not give salvation by sword and spear: for the fight is the Lord's, and he will give you up into our hands.
- 48 Now when the Philistine made a move and came near to David, David quickly went at a run in the direction of the army, meeting the Philistine face to face.
- 49 And David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone and sent it from his leather band straight at the Philistine, and the stone went deep into his brow, and he went down to the earth, falling on his face.
- 50 So David overcame the Philistine with his leather band and a stone, wounding the Philistine and causing his death: but David had no sword in his hand.
- 51 So running up to the Philistine and putting his foot on him, David took his sword out of its cover, and put him to death, cutting off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw that their fighter was dead, they went in flight.
- 52 And the men of Israel and of Judah got up, and gave a cry, and went after the Philistines as far as Gath and the town doors of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines were falling down by the road from Shaaraim all the way to Gath and Ekron.
- 53 Then the children of Israel came back from going after the Philistines, and took their goods from the tents.
- 54 And David took the head of the Philistine to Jerusalem, but the metal war-dress and the arms he put in his tent.
- 55 And when Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, Abner, whose son is this young man? And Abner said, On your life, O king, I have no idea.
- 56 And the king said, Make search and see whose son this young man is.
- 57 And when David was coming back after the destruction of the Philistine, Abner took him to Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.
- 58 And Saul said to him, Young man, whose son are you? And David in answer said, I am the son of your servant Jesse of Beth-lehem.
- 1 Now after David's talk with Saul was ended, the soul of Jonathan was joined with the soul of David, and David became as dear to him as his very life.
- 2 And that day Saul took David and would not let him go back to his father's house.
- 3 Then Jonathan and David made an agreement together, because of Jonathan's love for David.
- 4 And Jonathan took off the robe he had on and gave it to David, with all his military dress, even to his sword and his bow and the band round his body.
- 5 And David went wherever Saul sent him, and did wisely: and Saul put him at the head of his men of war, and this was pleasing to all the people as well as to Saul's servants.
- 6 Now on their way, when David came back after the destruction of the Philistine, the women came out of all the towns of Israel, with songs and dances, meeting David with melody and joy and instruments of music.
- 7 And the women, answering one another in their song, said, Saul has put to death his thousands and David his tens of thousands.
- 8 And Saul was very angry and this saying was displeasing to him; and he said, They have given David credit for tens of thousands, and to me for only thousands: what more is there for him but the kingdom?
- 9 And from that day Saul was looking with envy on David.
- 10 Now on the day after, an evil spirit from God came on Saul with great force and he was acting like a prophet among the men of his house, while David was making music for him, as he did day by day: and Saul had his spear in his hand.
- 11 And Saul, balancing the spear in his hand, said, I will give David a blow, pinning him to the wall. And David got away from him twice.
- 12 And Saul went in fear of David, because the Lord was with David and had gone away from Saul.

- 13 So Saul sent him away, and made him a captain over a thousand; and he went about his business before the people.
- 14 And in all his undertakings David did wisely; and the Lord was with him.
- 15 And when Saul saw how wisely he did, he was in fear of him.
- 16 But David was loved by all Israel and Judah, for he went out and came in before them.
- 17 And Saul said to David, Here is my oldest daughter Merab, whom I will give you for your wife: only be strong for me, fighting in the Lord's wars. For Saul said, Let it not be through me that his fate comes to him, but through the Philistines.
- 18 And David said to Saul, Who am I, and what is my father's family in Israel, that I am to be son-in-law to the king?
- 19 But when the time came to give Merab, Saul's daughter, to David, she was given to Adriel of Meholath.
- 20 And Saul's daughter Michal was in love with David: and Saul had word of it and was pleased.
- 21 And Saul said, I will give her to him, so that she may be a cause of danger to him, and so that the hands of the Philistines may be against him. So Saul said to David, Today you are to become my son-in-law for the second time.
- 22 And Saul gave his servants orders saying, Have talk with David secretly and say to him, See how the king has delight in you, and how you are loved by all his servants: then be the king's son-in-law.
- 23 And Saul's servants said these things to David. And David said, Does it seem to you a small thing to be the king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, of no great name?
- 24 And the servants of Saul gave him an account of what David had said.
- 25 And Saul said, Then say to David, The king has no desire for any bride-price, but only for the private parts of a hundred Philistines so that the king may get the better of his haters. But it was in Saul's mind that David might come to his end by the hand
- 26 And when his servants said these words to David, he was well pleased to be the son-in-law of the king. And the days were still not past.
- 27 So David and his men got up and went, and put to death two hundred of the Philistines; and David took their private parts and gave the full number of them to the king, so that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal for hi
- 28 And it was clear to Saul that the Lord was with David; and he was loved by all Israel.
- 29 And Saul's fear of David became all the greater, and he went on hating him, day by day.
- 30 Then the rulers of the Philistines went out to war: and whenever they went out, David did more wisely than all the other servants of Saul, so that his name became greatly honoured.
- 1 And Saul gave orders to his son Jonathan and to all his servants to put David to death. But Saul's son Jonathan had great delight in David.
- 2 And Jonathan said to David, Saul, my father, is purposing your death: so now, take care in the morning, and keep yourself safe in a secret place:
- 3 And I will go out and take my place by my father's side in the field near where you are; and I will get into talk with my father about you, and when I see how things are, I will give you word.
- 4 And Jonathan gave his father Saul a good account of David, and said to him, Let not the king do wrong against his servant, against David; because he has done you no wrong, and all his acts have had a good outcome for you:
- 5 For he put his life in danger and overcame the Philistine, and the Lord gave all Israel salvation: you saw it and were glad: why then are you sinning against him who has done no wrong, desiring the death of David without cause?
- 6 And Saul gave ear to the voice of Jonathan, and said with an oath, By the living Lord, he is not to be put to death.
- 7 Then Jonathan sent for David and gave him word of all these things. And Jonathan took David to Saul, who kept him by his side as in the past.
- 8 And there was war again: and David went out fighting the Philistines, causing great destruction among them; and they went in flight before him.
- 9 And an evil spirit from the Lord came on Saul, when he was seated in his house with his spear in his hand; and David made music for him.
- 10 And Saul would have sent his spear through him, pinning him to the wall, but he got away and the spear went into the wall: and that night David went in flight and got away.
- 11 Then in that night Saul sent men to David's house to keep watch on him so as to put him to death in the morning: and David's wife Michal said to him, If you do not go away to a safe place tonight you will be put to death in the morning.

- 12 So Michal let David down through the window, and he went in flight and got away.
- 13 Then Michal took the image and put it in the bed, with a cushion of goat's hair at its head, and she put clothing over it.
- 14 And when Saul sent men to take David, she said, He is ill.
- 15 And Saul sent his men to see David, saying, Do not come back without him, take him in his bed, so that I may put him to death.
- 16 And when the men came in, there was the image in the bed, with the cushion of goat's hair at its head
- 17 And Saul said to Michal, why have you been false to me, letting my hater go and get safely away? And in answer Michal said to Saul, He said to me, Let me go, or I will put you to death.
- 18 So David went in flight and got away and came to Ramah, to Samuel, and gave him an account of all Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and were living in Naioth.
- 19 And word was given to Saul that David was at Naioth in Ramah.
- 20 And Saul sent men to take David; and when they saw the band of prophets at work, with Samuel in his place at their head, the spirit of God came on Saul's men, and they became like prophets.
- 21 And Saul, having news of this, sent other men, who in the same way became like prophets. And a third time Saul sent men, and they like the others became like prophets.
- 22 Then he himself went to Ramah, and came to the great water-spring in Secu; and questioning the people he said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, They are at Naioth in Ramah.
- 23 And he went on from there to Naioth in Ramah: and the spirit of God came on him, and he went on, acting like a prophet, till he came to Naioth in Ramah.
- 24 And he took off his clothing, acting like a prophet before Samuel, and falling down he was stretched out, without his clothing, all that day and all that night. This is the reason for the saying, Is even Saul among the prophets?
- 1 And David went in flight from Naioth in Ramah and came to Jonathan and said, What have I done? What is my crime and my sin against your father that he is attempting to take my life?
- 2 And he said to him, Far be the thought: you will not be put to death: see, my father does nothing, great or small, without giving me word of it: would he keep this secret from me? It is not so.
- 3 But David took his oath again and said, Your father sees that I am dear to you; so he says to himself, Let Jonathan have no idea of this, for it will be a grief to him; but as the Lord is living, and as your soul is living, there is only a step between me
- 4 Then Jonathan said to David, Whatever your desire is, I will do it for you.
- 5 And David said to Jonathan, Tomorrow is the new moon, and I will not be seated with the king at his table: but let me go to a safe place in the country till the evening.
- 6 And if your father takes note of the fact that I am away, say, David made a request to me for himself that he might go to Beth-lehem, to his town: for it is the time when his family make their offering year by year.
- 7 If he says, It is well, your servant will be at peace: but if he is angry, then it will be clear to you that he has an evil purpose in mind against me.
- 8 So, then, be kind to your servant; for you have been united with your servant in an agreement made before the Lord: but if there is any wrongdoing in me, put me to death yourself; why take me to your father?
- 9 And Jonathan said, Do not have such a thought: for if I saw that my father was designing evil against you, would I not give you word of it?
- 10 Then David said to Jonathan, Who will give me word if your father gives you a rough answer?
- 11 And Jonathan said to David, Come, let us go out into the country. And the two of them went out together into the open country.
- 12 And Jonathan said to David, May the Lord, the God of Israel, be witness; when I have had a chance of talking to my father, about this time tomorrow, if his feelings to David are good, will I not send and give you the news?
- 13 May the Lord's punishment be on Jonathan, if it is my father's pleasure to do you evil and I do not give you word of it and send you away so that you may go in peace: and may the Lord be with you, as he has been with my father.
- 14 And may you, while I am still living, O may you be kind to me, as the Lord is kind, and keep me from death!
- 15 And let not your mercy ever be cut off from my family, even when the Lord has sent destruction on all David's haters, cutting them off from the face of the earth.

- 16 And if it comes about that the name of Jonathan is cut off from the family of David, the Lord will make David responsible.
- 17 And Jonathan again took an oath to David, because of his love for him: for David was as dear to him as his very soul.
- 18 Then Jonathan said to him, Tomorrow is the new moon: and it will be seen that you are not present, for there will be no one in your seat.
- 19 And on the third day it will be specially noted, and you will go to the place where you took cover when the other business was in hand, waiting by the hill over there.
- 20 And on the third day I will send arrows from my bow against its side as if at a mark.
- 21 And I will send my boy to have a look for the arrow. And if I say to him, See, the arrow is on this side of you; take it up! then you may come; for there is peace for you and no evil, by the living Lord.
- 22 But if I say to the boy, See, the arrow has gone past you: then go on your way, for the Lord has sent you away.
- 23 As for what you and I were talking of, the Lord is between you and me for ever.
- 24 So David went to a secret place in the country: and when the new moon came, the king took his place at the feast.
- 25 And the king took his seat, as at other times, by the wall: and Jonathan was in front, and Abner was seated by Saul's side, but there was no one in David's seat.
- 26 But Saul said nothing that day, for his thought was, Something has taken place making him unclean; it is clear that he is not clean.
- 27 And on the day after the new moon, that is, the second day, there was still no one in David's seat: and Saul said to his son Jonathan, Why has the son of Jesse not come to the feast yesterday or today?
- 28 And answering Saul, Jonathan said, He made a request to me that he might go to Beth-lehem,
- 29 Saying, Our family is making an offering in the town, and my brothers have given me orders to be there: so now, if I have grace in your eyes, let me go away and see my brothers. This is why he has not come to the king's table.
- 30 Then Saul was moved to wrath against Jonathan, and he said to him, You son of an evil and uncontrolled woman, have I not seen how you have given your love to the son of Jesse, to your shame and the shame of your mother?
- 31 For while the son of Jesse is living on the earth, your position is unsafe and your kingdom is in danger. So make him come here to me, for it is certainly right for him to be put to death.
- 32 And Jonathan, answering his father Saul, said to him, Why is he to be put to death? What has he done?
- 33 And Saul, pointing his spear at him, made an attempt to give him a wound: from which it was clear to Jonathan that his father's purpose was to put David to death.
- 34 So Jonathan got up from the table, burning with wrath, and took no part in the feast the second day of the month, being full of grief for David because his father had put shame on him.
- 35 Now in the morning, Jonathan went out into the fields at the time he had said to David, and he had a little boy with him.
- 36 And he said to the boy, Go and get the arrow I let loose from my bow. And while the boy was running, he sent an arrow past him.
- 37 And when the boy came to the place where the arrow was, Jonathan, crying out after the boy, said, Has it not gone past you?
- 38 And Jonathan went on crying out after the boy, Be quick, do not keep waiting about, go quickly. And Jonathan's boy got the arrow and came back to his master.
- 39 But the boy had no idea what was going on; only Jonathan and David had knowledge of it.
- 40 And Jonathan gave his bow and arrows to the boy, and said to him, Take these and go back to the town.
- 41 And when the boy had gone, David came from his secret place by the hill, and falling to the earth went down on his face three times: and they gave one another a kiss, weeping together, till David's grief was the greater.
- 42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, for we two have taken an oath, in the name of the Lord, saying, The Lord will be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed for ever.\
- 43 \20:42\Then David went away, and Jonathan went into the town.
- 1 Then David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was full of fear at meeting David, and said to him, Why are you by yourself, having no man with you?
- 2 And David said to Ahimelech the priest, The king has given me orders and has said to me, Say nothing to anyone about the business on which I am sending you and the orders I have given you: and a certain place has been fixed to which the young men are to g

- 3 So now, if you have here five cakes of bread, give them into my hand, or whatever you have.
- 4 And the priest, answering David, said, I have no common bread here but there is holy bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women.
- 5 And David in answer said to the priest, Certainly women have been kept from us; and as has been done before when I have gone out the arms of the young men were made holy, even though it was a common journey; how much more today will their arms be made hol
- 6 So the priest gave him the holy bread: there was no other, only the holy bread which had been taken from before the Lord, so that new bread might be put in its place on the day when it was taken away.
- 7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, kept back before the Lord; his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the strongest of Saul's runners.
- 8 And David said to Ahimelech, Have you no sword or spear with you here? for I have come without my sword and other arms, because the king's business had to be done quickly.
- 9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you put to death in the valley of Elah, is here folded in a cloth at the back of the ephod: take that, if you will, for there is no other sword here. And David said, there is no other sword li
- 10 Then David got up and went in flight that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish, the king of Gath.
- 11 And the servants of Achish said to him, Is not this David, the king of the land? did they not make songs about him in their dances, saying, Saul has put to death thousands, and David tens of thousands?
- 12 And David took these words to heart, fearing Achish, the king of Gath.
- 13 So changing his behaviour before them, he made it seem as if he was off his head, hammering on the doors of the town, and letting the water from his mouth go down his chin.
- 14 Then Achish said to his servants, Look! the man is clearly off his head; why have you let him come before me?
- 15 Are there not enough unbalanced men about me, that you have let this person come and do such tricks before me? is such a man to come into my house?
- 1 So David went away from there and took cover in a strong place at Adullam; and his brothers and all his father's people, hearing of it, went down to him there.
- 2 And everyone who was in trouble, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was bitter in soul, came together to him, and he became captain over them: about four hundred men were joined to him.
- 3 And from there David went to Mizpeh in the land of Moab: and he said to the king of Moab, Let my father and mother come and make their living-place with you till it is clear to me what God will do for me.
- 4 And he took them to the king of Moab and they went on living with him while David was in his safe place.
- 5 And the prophet Gad said to David, Do not go on living in this place but go into the land of Judah. Then David went away and came to the woodland of Hereth.
- 6 And news was given to Saul that David had been seen, and the men who were with him: now Saul was in Gibeah, seated under the tree in the high place, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were in their places before him.
- 7 Then Saul said to his servants who were there about him, Give ear now, you Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give to every one of you fields and vine-gardens, will he make you all captains of hundreds and captains of thousands;
- 8 That all of you have made designs against me, and not one of you gave me word when my son made an agreement with the son of Jesse, and not one of you has pity for me or has made my eyes open to the fact that my servant has been moved by my son against me,
- 9 Then Doeg, the Edomite, who was by the side of the servants of Saul, in answer said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub.
- 10 And he got directions from the Lord for him, and gave him food, and put in his hand the sword of Goliath the Philistine.
- 11 Then the king sent for Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and for all the men of his father's family who were priests in Nob: and they all came to the king.
- 12 And Saul said, Give ear now, O son of Ahitub. And answering he said, Here I am, my lord.
- 13 And Saul said to him, Why have you made designs against me with the son of Jesse, giving him food and a sword and getting directions from the Lord for him, and helping him to take up arms against me, and to be on the watch to make a secret attack on me as
- 14 Then Ahimelech answering said to the king, Who among all your servants is so true to you as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and is a captain of your armed men, and has a place of honour in your house?

- 15 Is this the first time I have got directions from God for him? Far be the thought! let the king make no such statement against his servant or my father's family, for your servant has no knowledge, great or small, of this thing.
- 16 And the king said, You will certainly be put to death, Ahimelech, you and all your father's family.
- 17 Then the king said to the runners who were waiting near him, Put the priests of the Lord to death; because they are on David's side, and having knowledge of his flight, did not give me word of it. But the king's servants would not put out their hands to m
- 18 Then the king said to Doeg, You are to put the priests to death. And Doeg the Edomite, turning on the priests and attacking them, put to death that day eighty-five men who took up the ephod.
- 19 And Nob, the town of the priests, he put to the sword, all the men and women, children and babies at the breast, and oxen and asses and sheep.
- 20 And Abiathar, one of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, got away and went in flight after David;
- 21 And gave him the news of how Saul had put to death the Lord's priests.
- 22 And David said to Abiathar, I was certain that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would take the news to Saul: I am responsible for the lives of all your father's family.
- 23 Keep here with me and have no fear; for he who has designs on my life has designs on yours: but with me you will be safe.
- 1 And they sent word to David, saying, The Philistines are fighting against Keilah and taking the grain from the grain-floors.
- 2 So David, questioning the Lord, said, Am I to go and make an attack on these Philistines? And the Lord said to David, Go and make an attack on the Philistines so that Keilah may be kept from falling into their hands.
- 3 And David's men said to him, Even here in Judah we are full of fear: how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?
- 4 Then David put the question to the Lord again, and the Lord answering said, Up! go down to Keilah; for I will give the Philistines into your hands.
- 5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and had a fight with the Philistines, and took away their cattle, and put them to the sword with great destruction. So David was the saviour of the people of Keilah.
- 6 Now when Abiathar, the son of Ahimelech, went in flight to David, he came down to Keilah with the ephod in his hand.
- 7 And news was given to Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, Now God has given him into my hands; for by going into a walled town with locked doors, he has let himself be shut in.
- 8 And Saul sent for all the people to come to the fight, and go down to Keilah to make an attack on David and his men.
- 9 And it was clear to David that Saul had evil designs against him, and he said to Abiathar the priest, Come here with the ephod.
- 10 Then David said, O Lord, the God of Israel, news has been given to your servant that it is Saul's purpose to come to Keilah and send destruction on the town because of me.
- 11 And now, is it true, as they have said to me, that Saul is coming? O Lord, the God of Israel, give ear to your servant, and say if these things are so. And the Lord said, He is coming down.
- 12 Then David said, Will the men of Keilah give me and my men up to Saul? and the Lord said, They will give you up.
- 13 Then David and his men, about six hundred of them, went out of Keilah, and got away wherever they were able to go. And Saul, hearing that David had got away from Keilah, did not go there.
- 14 And David kept in the waste land, in safe places, waiting in the hill-country in the waste land of Ziph. And Saul was searching for him every day, but God did not give him up into his hands.
- 15 And David was full of fear, in the knowledge that Saul had come out to take his life; and David was in the waste land of Ziph, in Horesh.
- 16 And Saul's son Jonathan went to David in Horesh, and made his hands strong in God;
- 17 And said to him, Have no fear, for Saul my father will not get you into his power; and you will be king of Israel, and I will be by your side, and my father Saul is certain of this.
- 18 And the two of them made an agreement before the Lord: and David went on living in Horesh, and Jonathan went back to his house.
- 19 Then the Ziphites came up to Gibeah to see Saul, and said, Is not David living secretly among us in the strong places in Horesh, in the hill of Hachilah to the south of the waste land?

- 20 So now, O king, have your soul's desire and come down, and we, for our part, will give him up into the king's hands.
- 21 And Saul said, The Lord's blessing will be yours, for you have had pity on me.
- 22 Go now, and take more steps, and see where he is living: for they say that he is expert in deceit.
- 23 So take care to get knowledge of all the secret places where he is taking cover, and be certain to come back to me, and I will go with you: and without doubt, if he is anywhere in the land, I will get him, among all the families of Judah.
- 24 And they went back and came to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the waste land of Maon, in the dry land south of the waste land.
- 25 And Saul and his men went in search of him. And David had word of it, so he came down to the rock in the waste land of Maon. And Saul, hearing of this, went after David into the waste land of Maon.
- 26 And Saul and his men went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men went on the other: and David's purpose was to get away as quickly as possible, for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men were making a circle round David and his men in order to tak
- 27 But a man came to Saul saying, Be quick and come; for the Philistines have made an attack on the land.
- 28 So turning back from going after David, Saul went against the Philistines: so that place was named Sela-hammah-lekoth.
- 1 \23:29\And from there, David went up and took cover in the safe place of En-gedi.
- 2 \24:1\Now when Saul came back from fighting the Philistines, news was given him that David was in the waste land of En-gedi.
- 3 \24:2\Then Saul took three thousand of the best men out of all Israel, and went in search of David and his men on the rocks of the mountain goats.
- 4 \24:3\And on the way he came to a place where sheep were kept, where there was a hollow in the rock; and Saul went in for a private purpose. Now David and his men were in the deepest part of the hollow.
- 5 \24:4\And David's men said to him, Now is the time when the Lord says to you, I will give up your hater into your hands to do with him whatever seems good to you. Then David, getting up, took the skirt of Saul's robe in his hand, cutting off the end of it
- 6 \24:5\And later, David was full of regret for cutting off Saul's skirt.
- 7 \24:6\And David said to his men, Before the Lord, never let it be said that my hand was lifted up against my lord, the man of the Lord's selection, for the Lord's holy oil has been put on him.
- 8 \24:7\So with these words David kept his servants back, and did not let them make an attack on Saul. And Saul got up and went on his way.
- 9 \24:8\And after that David came out of the hollow rock, and crying after Saul said, My lord the king. And when Saul gave a look back, David went down on his face and gave him honour.
- 10 \24:9\And David said to Saul, Why do you give any attention to those who say that it is my desire to do you wrong?
- 11 \24:10\Look! you have seen today how the Lord gave you up into my hands even now in the hollow of the rocks: and some would have had me put you to death, but I had pity on you: for I said, Never will my hand be lifted up against my lord, who has been mark
- 12 \24:11\And see, my father, see the skirt of your robe in my hand: for the fact that I took off the skirt of your robe and did not put you to death is witness that I have no evil purpose, and I have done you no wrong, though you are waiting for my life to
- 13 \24:12\May the Lord be judge between me and you, and may the Lord give me my rights against you, but my hand will never be lifted up against you.
- 14 \24:13\There is an old saying, From the evil-doer comes evil: but my hand will never be lifted up against you.
- 15 \24:14\After whom has the king of Israel come out? for whom are you searching? for a dead dog, an insect.
- 16 \24:15\So let the Lord be judge, and give a decision between me and you, and see and give support to my cause, and keep me from falling into your hands.
- 17 \24:16\Now when David had said these words to Saul, Saul said, Is this your voice, David, my son? And Saul was overcome with weeping.
- 18 \24:17\And he said to David, You are right and I am wrong: for you have given me back good, but I have given you evil.
- 19 \24:18\And you have made clear to me how good you have been to me today: because, when the Lord gave me up into your hands, you did not put me to death.

- 20 \24:19\If a man comes across his hater, will he let him get away safe? so may you be rewarded by the Lord for what you have done for me today.
- 21 \24:20\And now I am certain that you will be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be made strong under your authority.
- 22 \24:21\So give me your oath by the Lord, that you will not put an end to my seed after me or let my name be cut off from my father's family.
- 23 \24:22\And David gave Saul his oath. And Saul went back to his house; but David and his men went up to their safe place.
- 1 And death came to Samuel; and all Israel came together, weeping for him, and put his body in its resting-place in his house at Ramah. Then David went down to the waste land of Maon.
- 2 Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel; he was a great man and had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats: and he was cutting the wool of his sheep in Carmel.
- 3 Now this man was named Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail: she was a woman of good sense and pleasing looks: but the man was cruel and evil in his ways; he was of the family of Caleb.
- 4 And David had word in the waste land that Nabal was cutting the wool of his sheep.
- 5 And David sent ten young men, and said to them, Go up to Carmel and go to Nabal, and say kind words to him in my name;
- 6 And say this to my brother, May all be well for you: peace be to you and your house and all you have.
- 7 I have had word that you have wool-cutters: now the keepers of your sheep have been with us, and we have done them no evil, and taken nothing of theirs while they were in Carmel.
- 8 If your young men are questioned they will say the same thing. So now, let my young men have grace in your eyes, for we are come at a good time; please give anything you may have by you to your servants and to your son David.
- 9 And when David's young men came, they said all this to Nabal, in David's name, and said nothing more.
- 10 And Nabal gave them his answer and said, Who is David? who is the son of Jesse? there are a number of servants in these days running away from their masters.
- 11 Am I to take my bread and my wine and the meat I have got ready for my wool-cutters and give it to men coming from I have no idea where?
- 12 So David's young men, turning away, went back and gave him an account of everything he had said.
- 13 And David said to his men, Put on your swords, every one of you. And every man put on his sword; and David did the same; and about four hundred men went up with David, and two hundred kept watch over their goods.
- 14 But one of the young men said to Nabal's wife Abigail, David sent men from the waste land to say kind words to our master, and he gave them a rough answer.
- 15 But these men have been very good to us; they did us no wrong and nothing of ours was touched while we were with them in the fields:
- 16 But day and night they were like a wall round us while we were with them, looking after the sheep.
- 17 So now, give thought to what you are going to do; for evil is in store for our master and all his house: for he is such a good-for-nothing person that it is not possible to say anything to him.
- 18 Then Abigail quickly took two hundred cakes of bread and two skins full of wine and five sheep ready for cooking and five measures of dry grain and a hundred parcels of dry grapes and two hundred cakes of figs, and put them on asses.
- 19 And she said to her young men, Go on in front of me and I will come after you. But she said nothing to her husband Nabal.
- 20 Now while she was going down under cover of the mountain on her ass, David and his men came down against her, and suddenly she came face to face with them.
- 21 Now David had said, What was the use of my taking care of this man's goods in the waste land, so that there was no loss of anything which was his? he has only given me back evil for good.
- 22 May God's punishment be on David, if when morning comes there is so much as one male of his people still living.
- 23 And when Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her ass, falling down on her face before him.
- 24 And falling at his feet she said, May the wrong be on me, my lord, on me: let your servant say a word to you, and give ear to the words of your servant.

- 25 Let my lord give no attention to Nabal, that good-for-nothing: for as his name is, so is he, a man without sense: but I, your servant, did not see the young men whom my lord sent.
- 26 So now, my lord, by the living God and by your living soul, seeing that the Lord has kept you from the crime of blood and from taking into your hands the punishment for your wrongs, may all your haters, and those who would do evil to my lord, be like Naba
- 27 And let this offering, which your servant gives to my lord, be given to the young men who are with my lord.
- 28 And may the sin of your servant have forgiveness: for the Lord will certainly make your family strong, because my lord is fighting in the Lord's war; and no evil will be seen in you all your days.
- 29 And though a man has taken up arms against you, putting your life in danger, still the soul of my lord will be kept safe among the band of the living with the Lord your God; and the souls of those who are against you he will send violently away from him,
- 30 And when the Lord has done for my lord all those good things which he has said he will do for you, and has made you a ruler over Israel;
- 31 Then you will have no cause for grief, and my lord's heart will not be troubled because you have taken life without cause and have yourself given punishment for your wrongs: and when the Lord has been good to you, then give a thought to your servant.
- 32 And David said to Abigail, May the Lord, the God of Israel, be praised, who sent you to me today:
- 33 A blessing on your good sense and on you, who have kept me today from the crime of blood and from taking into my hands the punishment for my wrongs.
- 34 For truly, by the living Lord, the God of Israel, who has kept me from doing you evil, if you had not been so quick in coming to me and meeting me, by dawn there would not have been in Nabal's house so much as one male living.
- 35 Then David took from her hands her offering: and he said to her, Go back to your house in peace; see, I have given ear to your voice, and taken your offering with respect.
- 36 And Abigail went back to Nabal; and he was feasting in his house like a king; and Nabal's heart was full of joy, for he had taken much wine; so she said nothing to him till dawn came.
- 37 And in the morning, when the effect of the wine was gone, Nabal's wife gave him an account of all these things, and all the heart went out of him, and he became like stone.
- 38 And about ten days after, the Lord sent disease on Nabal and death came to him.
- 39 And David, hearing that Nabal was dead, said, May the Lord be praised, who has taken up my cause against Nabal for the shame which he put on me, and has kept back his servant from evil, and has sent on Nabal's head the reward of his evil-doing. And David
- 40 And when David's servants came to Carmel, to Abigail, they said to her, David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife.
- 41 And she got up, and going down on her face to the earth, said, See, I am ready to be a servant-girl, washing the feet of the servants of my lord.
- 42 Then Abigail got up quickly and went on her ass, with five of her young women, after the men whom David had sent; and she became David's wife.
- 43 And David had taken Ahinoam of Jezreel, to be his wife; these two were his wives.
- 44 Now Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish of Gallim.
- 1 And the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, and said, Is not David waiting secretly near us in the hill of Hachilah, before the waste land?
- 2 Then Saul went down to the waste land of Ziph, taking with him three thousand of the best men of Israel, to make search for David in the waste land of Ziph.
- 3 And Saul put up his tents on the hill of Hachilah, which is in front of the waste land on the road. But David was in the waste land, and he saw that Saul was coming after him.
- 4 And so David sent out watchers, and got word from them that Saul was certainly coming.
- 5 And David got up and came to the place where Saul's tents were: and David had a view of the place where Saul was sleeping with Abner, the son of Ner, the captain of his army: and Saul was sleeping inside the ring of carts, and the tents of the people were
- 6 Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai, the son of Zeruah, brother of Joab, Who will go down with me to the tents of Saul? And Abishai said, I will go down with you.

- 7 So David and Abishai came down to the army by night: and Saul was sleeping inside the ring of carts with his spear planted in the earth by his head: and Abner and the people were sleeping round him.
- 8 Then Abishai said to David, God has given up your hater into your hands today; now let me give him one blow through to the earth with his spear, and there will be no need to give him a second.
- 9 And David said to Abishai Do not put him to death; for who, without sin, may put out his hand against the man on whom the Lord has put the holy oil?
- 10 And David said, By the living Lord, the Lord will send destruction on him; the natural day of his death will come, or he will go into the fight and come to his end.
- 11 Never will my hand be stretched out against the man marked with the holy oil; but take the spear which is by his head and the vessel of water, and let us go.
- 12 So David took the spear and the vessel of water from Saul's head; and they got away without any man seeing them, or being conscious of their coming, or awaking; for they were all sleeping because a deep sleep from the Lord had come on them.
- 13 Then David went over to the other side, and took his place on the top of a mountain some distance away, with a great space between them;
- 14 And crying out to the people and to Abner, the son of Ner, David said, Have you no answer to give, Abner? Then Abner said, Who is that crying out to the king?
- 15 And David said to Abner, Are you not a man of war? is there any other like you in Israel? why then have you not kept watch over your lord the king? for one of the people came in to put the king your lord to death.
- 16 What you have done is not good. By the living Lord, death is the right fate for you, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the man on whom the Lord has put the holy oil. Now see, where is the king's spear, and the vessel of water which was by hi
- 17 And Saul, conscious that the voice was David's, said, Is that your voice, David, my son? And David said, It is my voice, O my lord king.
- 18 And he said, Why does my lord go armed against his servant? what have I done? or what evil is there in me?
- 19 Let my lord the king give ear now to the words of his servant. If it is the Lord who is moving you against me, let him take an offering: but if it is the children of men, may they be cursed before the Lord, for driving me out today and keeping me from my
- 20 Then do not let my blood be drained out on the earth away from the face of the Lord: for the king of Israel has come out to take my life, like one going after birds in the mountains.
- 21 Then Saul said, I have done wrong: come back to me, David my son: I will do you no more wrong, because my life was dear to you today truly, I have been foolish and my error is very great.
- 22 Then David said, Here is the king's spear! let one of the young men come over and get it.
- 23 And the Lord will give to every man the reward of his righteousness and his faith: because the Lord gave you into my hands today, and I would not put out my hand against the man who has been marked with the holy oil.
- 24 And so, as your life was dear to me today, may my life be dear to the Lord, and may he make me free from all my troubles.
- 25 Then Saul said to David, May a blessing be on you, David, my son; you will do great things and without doubt you will overcome. Then David went on his way, and Saul went back to his place.
- 1 And David said to himself, Some day death will come to me by the hand of Saul: the only thing for me to do is to get away into the land of the Philistines; then Saul will give up hope of taking me in any part of the land of Israel: and so I may be able to
- 2 So David and the six hundred men who were with him went over to Achish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath.
- 3 And David and his men were living with Achish at Gath; every man had his family with him, and David had his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, who had been the wife of Nabal.
- 4 And Saul, hearing that David had gone to Gath, went after him no longer.
- 5 Then David said to Achish, If now I have grace in your eyes, let me have a place in one of the smaller towns of your land, to be my living-place; for it is not right for your servant to be living with you in the king's town.
- 6 So Achish straight away gave him Ziklag: and for that reason Ziklag has been the property of the kings of Judah to this day.
- 7 And David was living in the land of the Philistines for the space of a year and four months.

- 8 And David and his men went up and made attacks on the Geshurites and the Girzites and the Amalekites; for these were the people who were living in the land from Telam on the way to Shur, as far as Egypt.
- 9 And David again and again made attacks on the land till not a man or a woman was still living; and he took away the sheep and the oxen and the asses and the camels and the clothing; and he came back to Achish.
- 10 And every time Achish said, Where have you been fighting today? David said, Against the South of Judah and the South of the Jerahmeelites and the South of the Kenites.
- 11 Not one living man or woman did David ever take back with him to Gath, fearing that they might give an account of what had taken place, and say, This is what David did, and so has he been doing all the time while he has been living in the land of the Phil
- 12 And Achish had belief in what David said, saying, He has made himself hated by all his people Israel, and so he will be my servant for ever.
- 1 Now in those days the Philistines got their forces together to make war on Israel. And Achish said to David, Certainly you and your men are to go out with me to the fight.
- 2 And David said to Achish, You will see now what your servant will do. And Achish said to David, Then I will make you keeper of my head for ever.
- 3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel, after weeping for him, had put his body in its last resting-place in Ramah, his town. And Saul had put away from the land all those who had control of spirits and who made use of secret arts.
- 4 And the Philistines came together and put their forces in position in Shunem; and Saul got all Israel together and they took up their positions in Gilboa.
- 5 And when Saul saw the Philistine army he was troubled, and his heart was moved with fear.
- 6 And when Saul went for directions to the Lord, the Lord gave him no answer, by a dream or by the Urim or by the prophets.
- 7 Then Saul said to his servants, Get me a woman who has control of a spirit so that I may go to her and get directions. And his servants said to him, There is such a woman at En-dor.
- 8 So Saul, putting on other clothing, so that he might not be seen to be the king, took two men with him and went to the woman by night; and he said, Now, with the help of the spirit which you have, make the person whose name I will give you come up.
- 9 And the woman said to him, But you have knowledge of what Saul has done, how he has put away out of the land those who have control of spirits and the users of secret arts: why would you, by a trick, put me in danger of death?
- 10 And Saul made an oath to her by the Lord, saying, By the living Lord, no punishment will come to you for this.
- 11 Then the woman said, Who am I to let you see? And he said, Make Samuel come up for me.
- 12 And the woman saw that it was Saul, and she gave a loud cry, and said to Saul, Why have you made use of deceit? for you are Saul.
- 13 And the king said to her, Have no fear: what do you see? And the woman said to Saul, I see a god coming up out of the earth.
- 14 And he said to her, What is his form? And she said, It is an old man coming up covered with a robe. And Saul saw that it was Samuel, and with his face bent down to the earth he gave him honour.
- 15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why have you made me come up, troubling my rest? And Saul in answer said, I am in great danger; for the Philistines are making war on me, and God has gone away from me and will no longer give me any answer, by the prophets or by d
- 16 And Samuel said, Why do you put your questions to me, seeing that God has gone away from you and is on the side of him who is against you?
- 17 And the Lord himself has done what I said: the Lord has taken the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbour David;
- 18 Because you did not do what the Lord said, and did not give effect to his burning wrath against Amalek. So the Lord has done this thing to you today.
- 19 And more than this, the Lord will give Israel up with you into the hands of the Philistines: and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me: and the Lord will give up the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.
- 20 Then Saul went down flat on the earth, and was full of fear because of Samuel's words: and there was no strength in him, for he had taken no food all that day or all that night.

- 21 And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was in great trouble, and said to him, See now, your servant has given ear to your words, and I have put my life in danger by doing what you said.
- 22 So now, give ear to the voice of your servant, and let me give you a little bread; and take some food to give you strength when you go on your way.
- 23 But he would not, saying, I have no desire for food. But his servants, together with the woman, made him take food, and he gave way to them. So he got up from the earth, and took his seat on the bed.
- 24 And the woman had in the house a young cow, made fat for food; and she put it to death straight away; and she took meal and got it mixed and made unleavened bread;
- 25 And she put it before Saul and his servants, and they had a meal. Then they got up and went away the same night.
- 1 Now the Philistines got all their army together at Aphek: and the Israelites put their forces in position by the fountain in Jezreel.
- 2 And the lords of the Philistines went on with their hundreds and their thousands, and David and his men came after with Achish.
- 3 Then the rulers of the Philistines said, What are these Hebrews doing here? And Achish said to the rulers of the Philistines, Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me for a year or two, and I have never seen any wrong?
- 4 But the rulers of the Philistines were angry with him, and said to him, Make the man go back to the place you have given him; do not let him go down with us to the fight, or he may be turned against us and be false to us: for how will this man make peace?
- 5 Is this not David, who was named in their songs, when in the dance they said to one another, Saul has put to death thousands, and David tens of thousands?
- 6 Then Achish sent for David and said to him, By the living Lord, you are upright, and everything you have done with me in the army has been pleasing to me: I have seen no evil in you from the day when you came to me till now: but still, the lords are not pleased.
- 7 So now go back, and go in peace, so that you do not make the lords of the Philistines angry.
- 8 And David said to Achish, But what have I done? what have you seen in your servant while I have been with you till this day, that I may not go and take up arms against those who are now making war on my lord the king?
- 9 And Achish in answer said, It is true that in my eyes you are good, like an angel of God: but still, the rulers of the Philistines have said, He is not to go up with us to the fight.
- 10 So get up early in the morning, with the servants of your lord who are with you, and go to the place I have given you, and have no evil design in your heart, for you are good in my eyes; but when there is light enough in the morning, go away.
- 11 So David and his men got up early in the morning to go back to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.
- 1 Now when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made an attack on the South and on Ziklag, and had overcome Ziklag and put it on fire;
- 2 And had made the women and all who were there, small and great, prisoners: they had not put any of them to death, but had taken them all away.
- 3 And when David and his men came to the town, they saw that it had been burned down, and their wives and their sons and daughters had been made prisoners.
- 4 Then David and the people who were with him gave themselves up to weeping till they were able to go on weeping no longer.
- 5 And David's two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the wife of Nabal of Carmel, had been made prisoners.
- 6 And David was greatly troubled; for the people were talking of stoning him, because their hearts were bitter, every man sorrowing for his sons and his daughters: but David made himself strong in the Lord his God.
- 7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, Come here to me with the ephod. And Abiathar took the ephod to David.
- 8 Then David, questioning the Lord, said, Am I to go after this band? will I be able to overtake them? And in answer he said, Go after them, for you will certainly overtake them, and get back everything.
- 9 So David went, and his six hundred men went with him, and they came to the stream Besor.

- 10 And David, with four hundred men, went on: but two hundred of them were overcome with weariness, and not able to go across the stream.
- 11 And in the fields they saw an Egyptian whom they took to David, and they gave him bread, and he had a meal, and they gave him water for drink;
- 12 And they gave him part of a cake of figs and some dry grapes; and after the food, his spirit came back to him, for he had had no food or drink for three days and nights.
- 13 And David said to him, Whose man are you and where do you come from? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master went on without me because three days back I became ill.
- 14 We made an attack on the south part of the country of the Cherethites, and on the land which is Judah's, and on the south of Caleb; and we put Ziklag on fire.
- 15 And David said to him, Will you take me down to this band? And he said, If you give me your oath that you will not put me to death or give me up to my master, I will take you to them.
- 16 And when he had taken him down, they saw them all, seated about on all sides, feasting and drinking among all the mass of goods which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and the land of Judah.
- 17 And David went on fighting them from evening till the evening of the day after; and not one of them got away but only four hundred young men who went in flight on camels.
- 18 And David got back everything the Amalekites had taken; and he got back his two wives.
- 19 There was no loss of anything, small or great, sons or daughters or goods or anything which they had taken away: David got it all back.
- 20 And they took all the flocks and herds, and driving them in front of him, said, These are David's.
- 21 And David came to the two hundred men, who because of weariness had not gone with him, but were waiting at the stream Besor: and they went out, meeting David and the people who were with him; and when they came near them, they said, How are you?
- 22 Then the bad and good-for-nothing men among those who went with David said, Because they did not go with us, we will give them nothing of the goods which we have got back, but only to every man his wife and children, so that he may take them and go.
- 23 Then David said, You are not to do this, my brothers, after what the Lord has given us, who has kept us safe and given up the band which came against us into our hands.
- 24 Who is going to give any attention to you in this question? for an equal part will be given to him who went to the fight and to him who was waiting by the goods: they are all to have the same.
- 25 And so he made it a rule and an order for Israel from that day till now.
- 26 And when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the goods to the responsible men of Judah, and to his friends, saying, Here is an offering for you from the goods of those who were fighting against the Lord;
- 27 He sent to those who were in Beth-el, and in Ramah of the South, and in Jattir;
- 28 And to those in Arara and Eshtemoa
- 29 and Carmel and in the towns of the Jerahmeelites, and in the towns of the Kenites;
- 30 And to those who were in Hormah and in Bor-ashan and in Athach;
- 31 And in Hebron, and to all the places where David and his men had been living.
- 1 Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel: and the men of Israel went in flight before the Philistines, falling down wounded in Mount Gilboa.
- 2 And the Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and they put to death Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.
- 3 And the fight was going badly for Saul, and the archers came across him, and he was wounded by the archers.
- 4 Then Saul said to the servant who had the care of his arms, Take out your sword and put it through me, before these men without circumcision come and make sport of me. But his servant, full of fear, would not do so. Then Saul took out his sword, and falli
- 5 And when his servant saw that Saul was dead, he did the same, and was united with him in death.
- 6 So death overtook Saul and his three sons and his servant on the same day.

- 7 And when the men of Israel across the valley and on the other side of Jordan saw that the army of Israel was in flight and that Saul and his sons were dead, they came out of their towns and went in flight; and the Philistines came and took them for themselves.
- 8 Now on the day after, when the Philistines came to take their goods from the dead, they saw Saul and his three sons dead on the earth in Mount Gilboa.
- 9 And cutting off his head and taking away his war-dress, they sent word into the land of the Philistines round about, to take the news to their gods and to the people.
- 10 His war-dress they put in the house of Astarte; and his body was fixed on the wall of Beth-shan.
- 11 And when the people of Jabesh-gilead had news of what the Philistines had done to Saul,
- 12 All the fighting men got up and, travelling all night, took Saul's body and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan; and they came to Jabesh and had them burned there.
- 13 And their bones they put in the earth under a tree in Jabesh; and for seven days they took no food.
- 1 Now after the death of Saul, when David, having come back from the destruction of the Amalekites, had been in Ziklag for two days;
- 2 On the third day a man came from Saul's tents, with his clothing out of order and earth on his head: and when he came to David, he went down on the earth and gave him honour.
- 3 And David said to him, Where have you come from? And he said, I have come in flight from the tents of Israel.
- 4 And David said to him, How did things go? Give me the news. And in answer he said, The people have gone in flight from the fight, and a great number of them are dead; and Saul and his son Jonathan are dead.
- 5 And David said to the young man who gave him the news, Why are you certain that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?
- 6 And the young man said, I came by chance to Mount Gilboa, and I saw Saul supporting himself on his spear; and the war-carriages and horsemen overtook him.
- 7 And looking back, he saw me and gave a cry to me. And answering him I said, Here am I.
- 8 And he said to me, Who are you? And I said, I am an Amalekite.
- 9 Then he said to me, Come here to my side, and put me to death, for the pain of death has me in its grip but my life is still strong in me.
- 10 So I put my foot on him and gave him his death-blow, because I was certain that he would not go on living after his fall: and I took the crown from his head and the band from his arm, and I have them here for my lord.
- 11 Then David gave way to bitter grief, and so did all the men who were with him:
- 12 And till evening they gave themselves to sorrow and weeping, and took no food, weeping for Saul and for Jonathan, his son, and for the people of the Lord and for the men of Israel; because they had come to their end by the sword.
- 13 And David said to the young man who had given him the news, Where do you come from? And he said, I am the son of a man from a strange land; I am an Amalekite.
- 14 And David said to him, Had you no fear of stretching out your hand to put to death the one marked with the holy oil?
- 15 And David sent for one of his young men and said, Go near and put an end to him. And he put him to death.
- 16 And David said to him, May your blood be on your head; for your mouth has given witness against you, saying, I have put to death the man marked with the holy oil.
- 17 Then David made this song of grief for Saul and Jonathan, his son:
- 18 (It is recorded in the book of Jashar for teaching to the sons of Judah) and he said:
- 19 The glory, O Israel, is dead on your high places! How have the great ones been made low!
- 20 Give no news of it in Gath, let it not be said in the streets of Ashkelon; or the daughters of the Philistines will be glad, the daughters of men without circumcision will be uplifted in joy.
- 21 O mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain on you, you fields of death: for there the arms of the strong have been shamed, the arms of Saul, as if he had not been marked with the holy oil.
- 22 From the blood of the dead, from the fat of the strong, the bow of Jonathan was not turned back, the sword of Saul did not come back unused.
- 23 Saul and Jonathan were loved and pleasing; in their lives and in their death they were not parted; they went more quickly than eagles, they were stronger than lions.
- 24 O daughters of Israel, have sorrow for Saul, by whom you were delicately clothed in robes of red, with ornaments of gold on your dresses.

- 25 How have the great ones been made low in the fight! Jonathan is dead on your high places.
- 26 I am full of grief for you, my brother Jonathan: very dear have you been to me: your love for me was a wonder, greater than the love of women.
- 27 How have the great ones been made low, and the arms of war broken!
- 1 Now after this, David, questioning the Lord, said, Am I to go up into any of the towns of Judah? And the Lord said to him, Go up. And David said, Where am I to go? And he said, To Hebron.
- 2 So David went there, taking with him his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail, the wife of Nabal of Carmel.
- 3 And David took all his men with him, every man with his family: and they were living in the towns round Hebron.
- 4 And the men of Judah came there, and with the holy oil made David king over the people of Judah. And word came to David that it was the men of Jabesh-gilead who put Saul's body in its last resting-place.
- 5 And David sent to the men of Jabesh-gilead and said to them, May the Lord give you his blessing, because you have done this kind act to Saul your lord, and have put his body to rest!
- 6 May the Lord be good and true to you: and I myself will see that your kind act is rewarded, because you have done this thing.
- 7 Then let your hands be strong, and have no fear: though Saul your lord is dead, the people of Judah have made me their king.
- 8 Now Abner, the son of Ner, captain of Saul's army, had taken Saul's son Ish-bosheth over to Mahanaim,
- 9 And made him king over Gilead and the Asherites and over Jezreel and Ephraim and Benjamin, that is, over all Israel.
- 10 (Saul's son Ish-bosheth was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he was ruler for two years.) But Judah was on the side of David.
- 11 And the time when David was king in Hebron over the people of Judah was seven years and six months.
- 12 And Abner, the son of Ner, with the servants of Saul's son Ish-bosheth, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.
- 13 And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and came face to face with them by the pool of Gibeon; and they took up their position, facing one another on opposite sides of the pool.
- 14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men give a test of their strength before us. And Joab said, Let them do so.
- 15 So they got up and went over by number: twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth and twelve of the servants of David.
- 16 And every one got the other by the head, driving his sword into the other's side, so they all went down together: and that place was named the Field of Sides, and it is in Gibeon.
- 17 And there was hard fighting that day; and Abner and the men of Israel gave way before the servants of David.
- 18 There were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel: and Asahel was as quick-footed as a roe of the fields.
- 19 Asahel went running after Abner, not turning to the right or to the left.
- 20 Then Abner, looking back, said, Is it you, Asahel? And he said, It is I.
- 21 And Abner said, Then go to the right or to the left and put your hands on one of the fighting-men and take his arms. But Asahel would not be turned away from going after Abner.
- 22 Then again Abner said to Asahel, Go to one side, do not keep on coming after me: why will you make me put an end to you? for then I will be shamed before your brother Joab.
- 23 But still he did not go to one side: so Abner gave him a back blow in the stomach with his spear, so that the spear came out at his back; and he went down on the earth, wounded to death: and all those who came to the place where Asahel went down dead, came
- 24 But Joab and Abishai went after Abner: and the sun went down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is to the east of the road through the waste land of Geba.
- 25 And the men of Benjamin came together after Abner in one band, and took their places on the top of a hill.
- 26 Then crying out to Joab, Abner said, Are fighting and destruction to go on for ever? do you not see that the end will only be bitter? how long will it be before you send the people back and make them give up attacking their countrymen?
- 27 And Joab said, By the living God, if you had not given the word, the people would have gone on attacking their countrymen till the morning.
- 28 So Joab had a horn sounded, and all the people came to a stop, and gave up going after Israel and fighting them.
- 29 And all that night Abner and his men went through the Arabah; they went over Jordan and through all Bithron and came to Mahanaim.

- 30 And Joab came back from fighting Abner: and when he had got all his men together, it was seen that nineteen of David's men, in addition to Asahel, were not with them.
- 31 But David's men had put to death three hundred and sixty of the men of Benjamin and of Abner's men
- 32 And they took Asahel's body and put it in the last resting-place of his father in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men, travelling all night, came to Hebron at dawn.
- 1 Now there was a long war between Saul's people and David's people; and David became stronger and stronger, but those on Saul's side became more and more feeble.
- 2 While David was in Hebron he became the father of sons: the oldest was Amnon, son of Ahinoam of Jezreel;
- 3 And the second, Chileab, whose mother was Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom, son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur;
- 4 And the fourth, Adonijah, the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah, the son of Abital;
- 5 And the sixth, Ithream, whose mother was David's wife Eglah. These were the sons of David, whose birth took place in Hebron.
- 6 Now while there was war between Saul's people and David's people, Abner was making himself strong among the supporters of Saul.
- 7 Now Saul had among his wives a woman named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Why have you taken my father's wife?
- 8 And Abner was very angry at the words of Ish-bosheth, and he said, Am I a dog's head of Judah? I am this day doing all in my power for the cause of your father Saul and for his brothers and his friends, and have not given you up into the hands of David, a
- 9 May God's punishment be on Abner, if I do not for David as the Lord in his oath has said,
- 10 And if I do not take away the kingdom from the family of Saul and make David ruler over Israel and Judah from Dan as far as Beer-sheba!
- 11 And so great was Ish-bosheth's fear of Abner that he was not able to say a word in answer.
- 12 And Abner sent men to David at Hebron, saying, Make an agreement with me, and I will give you my support in getting all Israel on your side.
- 13 And he said, It is well; I will make an agreement with you, but on one condition, which is, that when you come before me, Saul's daughter Michal is to come with you; till she comes you will not see my face.
- 14 And David sent men to Saul's son Ish-bosheth, saying, Give me back Michal, my wife, whom I made mine for the price of the private parts of a hundred Philistines.
- 15 So Ish-bosheth sent and took her from her husband Paltiel, the son of Laish.
- 16 And her husband went with her as far as Bahurim, weeping while he went. Then Abner said to him, Go back. And he went back.
- 17 Then Abner had a talk with the chief men of Israel, saying, In the past it was your desire to make David your king: so now, do it:
- 18 For the Lord has said of David, By the hand of my servant David I will make my people Israel safe from the Philistines, and from all who are against them.
- 19 And Abner said the same things to Benjamin: and he went to David in Hebron to make clear to him what seemed good to Israel and to all the people of Benjamin.
- 20 So Abner, with twenty men, came to Hebron, to David. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.
- 21 And Abner said to David, Now I will go, and make all Israel come to my lord the king, so that they may make an agreement with you, and your kingdom may be as wide as your heart's desire. Then David sent Abner away and he went in peace.
- 22 Now the servants of David and Joab had been out attacking a band of armed men, and they came back with a great store of goods taken in the fight: but Abner was no longer in Hebron with David, for he had sent him away and he had gone in peace.
- 23 When Joab and his men came, news was given them that Abner, the son of Ner, had come to the king, who had let him go away again in peace.
- 24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What have you done? when Abner came to you why did you send him away and let him go?

- 25 Is it not clear to you that Abner, the son of Ner, came with deceit to get knowledge of your going out and your coming in and of all you are doing?
- 26 And when Joab had come out from David, he sent men after Abner, and they overtook him at the water-spring of Sirah, and made him come back with them: but David had no knowledge of it.
- 27 And when Abner was back in Hebron, Joab took him on one side by the doorway of the town to have a word with him quietly, and there he gave him a wound in the stomach, causing his death in payment for the death of his brother Asahel.
- 28 And when David had word of it he said, May I and my kingdom be clear for ever in the eyes of the Lord from the blood of Abner, the son of Ner:
- 29 May it come on the head of Joab and all his father's family: among the men of Joab's family may there ever be some who are diseased or lepers, or who do the work of women, or are put to the sword, or are wasted from need of food!
- 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother put Abner to death, because he had put to death their brother Asahel in the fight at Gibeon.
- 31 And David said to Joab and all the people who were with him, Go in grief and put haircloth about you, in sorrow for Abner. And King David went after the dead body.
- 32 And they put Abner's body to rest in Hebron; and the king and all the people were weeping loudly by the resting-place of Abner's body.
- 33 And the king made a song of grief for Abner and said, Was the death of Abner to be like the death of a foolish man?
- 34 Your hands were free, your feet were not chained: like the downfall of a man before evil men, so was your fall. And the weeping of the people over him went on again.
- 35 And the people came to make David take food, while it was still day, but David with an oath said, May God's punishment be on me if I take a taste of bread or any other thing till the sun has gone down!
- 36 And all the people took note of it and were pleased: like everything the king did, it was pleasing to the people.
- 37 So it was clear to Israel and to all the people on that day that the king was not responsible for the death of Abner, the son of Ner.
- 38 And the king said to his servants, Do you not see that a chief and a great man has come to his end today in Israel?
- 39 While I, though I am crowned king, have little strength, and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are out of my control: may the Lord give to the evil-doer the reward of his evil-doing!
- 1 And when Saul's son Ish-bosheth had news that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.
- 2 And Saul's son had two men, captains of bands, one named Baanah and the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the tribe of Benjamin; (for Beeroth was at one time taken to be part of Benjamin:
- 3 But the people of Beeroth had gone in flight to Gittaim, where they have been living to this day.)
- 4 Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son whose feet were damaged. He was five years old when news of the death of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and the woman who took care of him took him up and went in flight: and while she was getting him away as quick
- 5 And Rechab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, went out and came to the house of Ish-bosheth in the heat of the day, when he was resting in the middle of the day. Now the woman who kept the door was cleaning grain, and sleep overcame her.
- 6 And Rechab and his brother Baanah got in without being seen.
- 7 And when they came into the house, Ish-bosheth was stretched on his bed in his bedroom; and they made an attack on him and put him to death, and, cutting off his head, they took it with them and went by the road through the Arabah all night.
- 8 And they took the head of Ish-bosheth to David in Hebron, and said to the king, Here is the head of Ish-bosheth, the son of Saul your hater, who would have taken your life; the Lord has taken payment for the wrongs of my lord the king from Saul and his se
- 9 And David made answer to Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, By the living Lord, who has kept me safe from all my trouble,
- 10 When one came to me with the news of Saul's death, in the belief that it would be good news, I took him and put him to death in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news:
- 11 How much more, when evil men have put an upright person to death, in his house, sleeping on his bed, will I take payment from you for his blood, and have you cut off from the earth?

- 12 And David gave orders to his young men and they put them to death, cutting off their hands and their feet and hanging them up by the side of the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth and put it in its last resting-place with Abner's body
- 1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron and said, Truly, we are your bone and your flesh.
- 2 In the past when Saul was king over us, it was you who went at the head of Israel when they went out or came in: and the Lord said to you, You are to be the keeper of my people Israel and their ruler.
- 3 So all the responsible men of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made an agreement with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they put the holy oil on David and made him king over Israel.
- 4 David was thirty years old when he became king, and he was king for forty years,
- 5 Ruling over Judah in Hebron for seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem, over all Israel and Judah, for thirty-three years.
- 6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the people of the land: and they said to David, You will not come in here, but the blind and the feeble-footed will keep you out; for they said, David will not be able to come in here.
- 7 But David took the strong place of Zion, which is the town of David.
- 8 And that day David said, Whoever makes an attack on the Jebusites, let him go up by the water-pipe, and put to death all the blind and feeble-footed who are hated by David. And this is why they say, The blind and feeble-footed may not come into the house.
- 9 So David took the strong tower for his living-place, naming it the town of David. And David took in hand the building of the town all round, starting from the Millo.
- 10 And David became greater and greater; for the Lord, the God of armies, was with him.
- 11 And Hiram, king of Tyre, sent men to David, with cedar-trees and woodworkers and stoneworkers: and they made David a house.
- 12 And David saw that the Lord had made his position safe as king over Israel, and that he had made his kingdom great because of his people Israel.
- 13 And David took more women and wives in Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron: and he had more sons and daughters.
- 14 These are the names of those whose birth took place in Jerusalem: Shammua and Shobab and Nathan and Solomon
- 15 And Ibhar and Elishua and Nepheg and Japhia
- 16 And Elishama and Eliada and Eliphelet.
- 17 And when the Philistines had news that David had been made king over Israel, they all went up in search of David; and David, hearing of it, went down to the strong place.
- 18 And when the Philistines came, they went in every direction in the valley of Rephaim.
- 19 And David, desiring directions from the Lord, said, Am I to go up against the Philistines? will you give them up into my hands? And the Lord said, Go up, for I will certainly give up the Philistines into your hands.
- 20 And David went to Baal-perazim, and overcame them there; and he said, The Lord has let the forces fighting against me be broken before me as a wall is broken by rushing waters. So that place was named Baal-perazim.
- 21 And the Philistines, when they went in flight, did not take their images with them, and David and his men took them away.
- 22 And the Philistines came up again, and went in every direction in the valley of Rephaim.
- 23 And when David went for directions to the Lord, he said, You are not to go up against them in front; but make a circle round them from the back and come on them opposite the spice-trees.
- 24 Then at the sound of footsteps in the tops of the trees, go forward quickly, for the Lord has gone out before you to overcome the army of the Philistines.
- 25 And David did as the Lord had said; and he overcame the Philistines, attacking them from Gibeon to near Gezer.
- 1 And David got together all the fighting-men of Israel to the number of thirty thousand;
- 2 And David, and all the people who were with him, went to Baal of Judah to get the ark of God, over which the holy name is named, the name of the Lord of armies, whose place is between the winged ones.
- 3 And they put the ark of God on a new cart and took it out of the house of Abinadab which was on the hill: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were the drivers of the cart.

- 4 And Uzzah went by the side of the ark, while Ahio went before it.
- 5 And David and all the men of Israel made melody before the Lord with all their power, with songs and with corded instruments and instruments of brass.
- 6 And when they came to Nacon's grain-floor, Uzzah put his hand on the ark of God to keep it safe in its place, for the oxen were out of control.
- 7 And the wrath of the Lord, burning against Uzzah, sent destruction on him because he had put his hand on the ark, and death came to him there by the ark of God.
- 8 And David was angry because of the Lord's outburst of wrath against Uzzah: and he gave that place the name Perez-uzzah, which is its name to this day.
- 9 And such was David's fear of the Lord that day, that he said, How may I let the ark of God come to me?
- 10 So David did not let the ark of the Lord come back to him to the town of David: but had it turned away and put into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
- 11 And the ark of the Lord was in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite for three months: and the Lord sent a blessing on Obed-edom and all his family.
- 12 And they said to King David, The blessing of the Lord is on the family of Obed-edom and on all he has, because of the ark of God. And David went and took the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the town of David with joy.
- 13 And when those who were lifting the ark of the Lord had gone six steps, he made an offering of an ox and a fat young beast.
- 14 And David, clothed in a linen ephod, was dancing before the Lord with all his strength.
- 15 So David and all the men of Israel took up the ark of the Lord with cries of joy and sounding of horns.
- 16 And when the ark of the Lord came into the town of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looking out of the window, saw King David dancing and jumping before the Lord; and to her mind he seemed foolish.
- 17 And they took in the ark of the Lord, and put it in its place inside the tent which David had put up for it: and David made burned offerings and peace-offerings to the Lord.
- 18 And after David had made the burned offerings and the peace-offerings, he gave the people a blessing in the name of the Lord of armies.
- 19 And he gave to every man and woman among all the people, among all the masses of Israel, a cake of bread and a measure of wine and a cake of dry grapes. Then all the people went away, every man to his house.
- 20 Then David came back to give a blessing to his family. And Michal, Saul's daughter, came out to him and said, How full of glory was the king of Israel today, who let himself be seen uncovered by his servant-girls like a foolish person uncovering himself w
- 21 And David said to Michal, I was dancing before the Lord, who put me over your father and all his sons, to make me a ruler over the people of the Lord, over his people Israel: and I will go on playing before the Lord;
- 22 And I will do even worse than this, and make myself even lower in your eyes: but the servant-girls of whom you were talking will give me honour.
- 23 And Michal, Saul's daughter, had no child till the day of her death.
- 1 Now when the king was living in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from war on every side;
- 2 The king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God is housed inside the curtains of a tent.
- 3 And Nathan said to the king, Go and do whatever is in your heart; for the Lord is with you.
- 4 Now that night the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying,
- 5 Go and say to my servant David, The Lord says, Are you to be the builder of a house, a living-place for me?
- 6 For from the day when I took the children of Israel up out of Egypt till this day, I have had no house, but have gone from place to place in a tent.
- 7 In all the places where I went with all the children of Israel, did I ever say to any of the judges of Israel, to whom I gave the care of my people Israel, Why have you not made me a house of cedar?
- 8 Then say these words to my servant David, The Lord of armies says, I took you from the fields, from keeping the sheep, so that you might be a ruler over my people, over my people Israel:
- 9 And I have been with you wherever you went, cutting off before you all those who were against you; and I will make your name great, like the name of the greatest ones of the earth.

- 10 And I will make a resting-place for my people Israel, planting them there, so that they may be living in the place which is theirs, and never again be moved; and never again will they be troubled by evil men as they were at the first,
- 11 From the time when I put judges over my people Israel; and I will give you peace from all who are against you. And the Lord says to you that he will make you the head of a line of kings.
- 12 And when the time comes for you to go to rest with your fathers, I will put in your place your seed after you, the offspring of your body, and I will make his kingdom strong.
- 13 He will be the builder of a house for my name, and I will make the seat of his authority certain for ever.
- 14 I will be to him a father and he will be to me a son: if he does wrong, I will give him punishment with the rod of men and with the blows of the children of men;
- 15 But my mercy will not be taken away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.
- 16 And your family and your kingdom will keep their place before me for ever: the seat of your authority will never be overturned.
- 17 So Nathan gave David an account of all these words and this vision.
- 18 Then David the king went in and took his seat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is my family, that you have been my guide till now?
- 19 And this was only a small thing to you, O Lord God; but your words have even been about the far-off future of your servant's family, O Lord God!
- 20 What more may David say to you? for you have knowledge of your servant, O Lord God.
- 21 Because of your word and from your heart, you have done all this great work, and let your servant see it.
- 22 Truly you are great, O Lord God: there is no one like you and no other God but you, as is clear from everything which has come to our ears.
- 23 And what other nation in the earth, like your people Israel, did a god go out to take for himself, to be his people, and to make a name for himself, and to do great and strange things for them, driving out a nation and its gods from before his people?
- 24 But you took and made strong for yourself your people Israel, to be your people for ever; and you, Lord, became their God.
- 25 And now, O Lord God, may the word which you have said about your servant and about his family, be made certain for ever, and may you do as you have said!
- 26 And let your name be made great for ever, and let men say, The Lord of armies is God over Israel: and let the family of David your servant be made strong before you!
- 27 For you, O Lord of armies, the God of Israel, have clearly said to your servant, I will make you the head of a family of kings: and so it has come into your servant's heart to make this prayer to you.
- 28 And now, O Lord God, you are God and your words are true and you have said you will give your servant this good thing;
- 29 So may it be your pleasure to give your blessing to the family of your servant, so that it may go on for ever before you: (for you, O Lord God, have said it,) and may your blessing be on your servant's family line for ever!
- 1 And it came about after this that David made an attack on the Philistines and overcame them; and David took the authority of the mother-town from the hands of the Philistines.
- 2 And he overcame the Moabites, and he had them measured with a line when they were stretched out on the earth; marking out two lines for death and one full line for life. So the Moabites became servants to David and gave him offerings.
- 3 And David overcame Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when he went to make his power seen by the River.
- 4 And David took from him one thousand, seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand footmen: and David had the leg-muscles of the horses cut, only keeping enough of them for a hundred war-carriages.
- 5 And when the Aramaeans of Damascus came to the help of Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David put to the sword twenty-two thousand of the Aramaeans.
- 6 And David put armed forces in Aram of Damascus: and the Aramaeans became servants to David and gave him offerings. And the Lord made David overcome wherever he went.
- 7 And David took their gold body-covers from the servants of Hadadezer and took them to Jerusalem.
- 8 And from Tebah and Berothai, towns of Hadadezer, King David took a great store of brass.

- 9 And when Tou, king of Hamath, had news that David had overcome all the army of Hadadezer,
- 10 He sent his son Hadoram to David, with words of peace and blessing, because he had overcome Hadadezer in the fight, for Hadadezer had wars with Tou; and Hadoram took with him vessels of silver and gold and brass:
- 11 These King David made holy to the Lord, together with the silver and gold which he had taken from the nations he had overcome--
- 12 The nations of Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon and the Philistines and the Amalekites and the goods he had taken from Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.
- 13 And David got great honour for himself, when he came back, by the destruction of Edom in the valley of Salt, to the number of eighteen thousand men.
- 14 And he put armed forces in Edom; all through Edom he had armed forces stationed, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the Lord made David overcome wherever he went.
- 15 And David was king over all Israel, judging and giving right decisions for all his people.
- 16 And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the army; and Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was keeper of the records;
- 17 And Zadok and Abiathar, the son of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, were priests; and Seraiah was the scribe;
- 18 And Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were priests.
- 1 And David said, Is there still anyone of Saul's family living, so that I may be a friend to him, because of Jonathan?
- 2 Now there was of Saul's people a servant named Ziba, and they sent him to David; and the king said to him, Are you Ziba? And he said, I am.
- 3 And the king said, Is there anyone of Saul's family still living, to whom I may be a friend in God's name? And Ziba said, There is a son of Jonathan, whose feet are damaged.
- 4 And the king said to him, Where is he? And Ziba said to the king, He is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.
- 5 Then King David sent, and had him taken from Lo-debar, from the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel.
- 6 And Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, came to David, and falling down on his face, gave him honour. And David said, Mephibosheth. And answering he said, Your servant is here.
- 7 And David said to him, Have no fear: for truly I will be good to you, because of your father Jonathan, and I will give back to you all the land which was Saul's; and you will have a place at my table at all times.
- 8 And he went down on his face before the king, and said, What is your servant, for you to take note of a dead dog such as I am?
- 9 Then the king sent for Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, All the property of Saul and of his family I have given to your master's son.
- 10 And you and your sons and your servants are to take care of the land for him, and get in the fruit of it, so that your master's son may have food: but Mephibosheth, your master's son, will have a place at my table at all times. Now Ziba had fifteen sons a
- 11 Then Ziba said to the king, Every order which you have given to your servant will be done. As for Mephibosheth, he had a place at David's table, like one of the king's sons.
- 12 And Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. And all the people living in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.
- 13 So Mephibosheth went on living in Jerusalem; for he took all his meals at the king's table; and he had not the use of his feet.
- 1 Now after this, death came to the king of the children of Ammon, and Hanun, his son, became king in his place.
- 2 And David said, I will be a friend to Hanun, the son of Nahash, as his father was a friend to me. So David sent his servants, to give him words of comfort on account of his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.
- 3 But the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, Does it seem to you that David is honouring your father by sending comforters to you? has he not sent his servants to go through the town and make secret observation of it, and overcome it?
- 4 So Hanun took David's servants, and after cutting off half the hair on their chins, and cutting off the skirts of their robes up to the middle, he sent them away.
- 5 When David had news of it, he sent men out with the purpose of meeting them on their way, for the men were greatly shamed: and the king said, Go to Jericho till your hair is long again, and then come back.

- 6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves hated by David, they sent to the Aramaeans of Beth-rehob and Zobah, and got for payment twenty thousand footmen, and they got from the king of Maacah a thousand men, and from Tob twelve thou
- 7 And hearing of this, David sent Joab and all the army and the best fighting-men.
- 8 And the children of Ammon came out and put their forces in position at the way into the town: and the Aramaeans of Zobah and of Rehob, with the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.
- 9 Now when Joab saw that their forces were in position against him in front and at his back, he took the best of the men of Israel and put them in line against the Aramaeans;
- 10 And the rest of the people he put in position against the children of Ammon, with Abishai, his brother, at their head.
- 11 And he said, If the Aramaeans are stronger and get the better of me, then you are to come to my help; but if the children of Ammon get the better of you, I will come to your help.
- 12 Take heart, and let us be strong for our people and for the towns of our God, and may the Lord do what seems good to him.
- 13 Then Joab and the people with him went forward to the fight against the Aramaeans, and they went in flight before him.
- 14 And when the children of Ammon saw the flight of the Aramaeans, they themselves went in flight from Abishai, and came into the town. So Joab went back from fighting the children of Ammon and came to Jerusalem.
- 15 And when the Aramaeans saw that Israel had overcome them, they got themselves together.
- 16 And Hadadezer sent for the Aramaeans who were on the other side of the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach, the captain of Hadadezer's army, at their head.
- 17 And word of this was given to David: and he got all Israel together and went over Jordan and came to Helam. And the Aramaeans put their forces in position against David, and made an attack on him.
- 18 And the Aramaeans went in flight before Israel; and David put to the sword the men of seven hundred Aramaean war-carriages and forty thousand footmen, and Shobach, the captain of the army, was wounded, and came to his death there.
- 19 And when all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they were overcome by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became their servants. So the Aramaeans, in fear, gave no more help to the children of Ammon.
- 1 Now in the spring, at the time when kings go out to war, David sent Joab and his servants and all Israel with him; and they made waste the land of the children of Ammon, and took up their position before Rabbah, shutting it in. But David was still at Jeru
- 2 Now one evening, David got up from his bed, and while he was walking on the roof of the king's house, he saw from there a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful.
- 3 And David sent to get knowledge who the woman was. And one said, Is this not Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hittite?
- 4 And David sent and took her; and she came to him, and he took her to his bed: (for she had been made clean;) then she went back to her house.
- 5 And the woman became with child; and she sent word to David that she was with child.
- 6 And David sent to Joab saying, Send Uriah the Hittite to me. And Joab sent Uriah to David.
- 7 And when Uriah came to him, David put questions to him about how Joab and the people were, and how the war was going.
- 8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house and let your feet be washed. And Uriah went away from the king's house, and an offering from the king was sent after him.
- 9 But Uriah took his rest at the door of the king's house, with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.
- 10 And when word was given to David that Uriah had not gone down to his house, David said to Uriah, Have you not come from a journey? why did you not go down to your house?
- 11 And Uriah said to David, Israel and Judah with the ark are living in tents, and my lord Joab and the other servants of my lord are sleeping in the open field; and am I to go to my house and take food and drink, and go to bed with my wife? By the living Lo
- 12 And David said to Uriah, Be here today, and after that I will let you go. So Uriah was in Jerusalem that day and the day after.
- 13 And when David sent for him, he took meat and drink with him, and David made him the worse for drink: and when evening came, he went to rest on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.
- 14 Now in the morning, David gave Uriah a letter to take to Joab.

- 15 And in the letter he said, Take care to put Uriah in the very front of the line, where the fighting is most violent, and go back from him, so that he may be overcome and put to death.
- 16 So while Joab was watching the town, he put Uriah in the place where it was clear to him the best fighters were.
- 17 And the men of the town went out and had a fight with Joab: and a number of David's men came to their death in the fight, and with them Uriah the Hittite.
- 18 Then Joab sent David news of everything which had taken place in the war:
- 19 And he gave orders to the man who took the news, saying, After you have given the king all the news about the war,
- 20 If the king is angry and says, Why did you go so near the town for the fight? was it not certain that their archers would be on the wall?
- 21 Who put Abimelech, the son of Jerubbaal, to death? did not a woman send a great stone down on him from the wall, putting him to death at Thebez? why did you go so near the wall? Then say to him, Your servant Uriah the Hittite is among the dead.
- 22 So the man went, and came to David, and gave him all the news which Joab had sent him to give; then David was angry with Joab and said, Why did you go so near the town for the fight? was it not certain that their archers would be on the wall? who put Abim
- 23 And the man said to David, Truly the men got the better of us, and came out against us into the open country, but we sent them back to the very doors of the town.
- 24 And the archers sent their arrows at your servants from the wall, and some of the king's servants are dead, and among them is your servant Uriah the Hittite.
- 25 Then David said to the man, Go and say to Joab, Do not let this be a grief to you; for one man may come to his death by the sword like another: put up an even stronger fight against the town, and take it: and do you put heart into him.
- 26 And when the wife of Uriah had news that her husband was dead, she gave herself up to weeping for him.
- 27 And when the days of weeping were past, David sent for her, and took her into his house, and she became his wife and gave him a son. But the Lord was not pleased with the thing David had done.
- 1 And the Lord sent Nathan to David. And Nathan came to him and said, There were two men in the same town: one a man of great wealth, and the other a poor man.
- 2 The man of wealth had great numbers of flocks and herds;
- 3 But the poor man had only one little she-lamb, which he had got and taken care of: from its birth it had been with him like one of his children; his meat was its food, and from his cup it took its drink, resting in his arms, and it was like a daughter to
- 4 Now a traveller came to the house of the man of wealth, but he would not take anything from his flock or his herd to make a meal for the traveller who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb and made it ready for the man who had come.
- 5 And David was full of wrath against that man; and he said to Nathan, By the living Lord, death is the right punishment for the man who has done this:
- 6 And he will have to give back four times the value of the lamb, because he has done this and because he had no pity.
- 7 And Nathan said to David, You are that man. The Lord God of Israel says, I made you king over Israel, putting holy oil on you, and I kept you safe from the hands of Saul;
- 8 I gave you your master's daughter and your master's wives for yourself, and I gave you the daughters of Israel and Judah; and if that had not been enough, I would have given you such and such things.
- 9 Why then have you had no respect for the word of the Lord, doing what is evil in his eyes? You have put Uriah the Hittite to death with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife; you have put him to death with the sword of the children of Ammon.
- 10 So now the sword will never be turned away from your family; because you have had no respect for me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.
- 11 The Lord says, From those of your family I will send evil against you, and before your very eyes I will take your wives and give them to your neighbour, and he will take your wives to his bed by the light of this sun.
- 12 You did it secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel and in the light of the sun.
- 13 And David said to Nathan, Great is my sin against the Lord. And Nathan said to David, The Lord has put away your sin; death will not come on you.

- 14 But still, because you have had no respect for the Lord, death will certainly overtake the child who has newly come to birth.
- 15 Then Nathan went back to his house. And the hand of the Lord was on David's son, the child of Uriah's wife, and it became very ill.
- 16 So David made prayer to God for the child; and he took no food day after day, and went in and, stretching himself out on the earth, was there all night.
- 17 And the chief men of his house got up and went to his side to make him get up from the earth, but he would not; and he would not take food with them.
- 18 And then on the seventh day the child's death took place. And David's servants were in fear of giving him the news of the child's death: for they said, Truly, while the child was still living he gave no attention when we said anything to him: what will he
- 19 But when David saw that his servants were talking together quietly, he was certain that the child was dead: and he said to his servants, Is the child dead? and they said, He is.
- 20 Then David got up from the earth, and after washing and rubbing himself with oil and changing his clothing, he went into the house of the Lord and gave worship: then he went back to his house, and at his order they put food before him and he had a meal.
- 21 Then his servants said to him, Why have you been acting in this way? you were weeping and going without food while the child was still living; but when the child was dead, you got up and had a meal.
- 22 And he said, While the child was still living I went without food and gave myself up to weeping: for I said, Who is able to say that the Lord will not have mercy on me and give the child life?
- 23 But now that the child is dead there is no reason for me to go without food; am I able to make him come back to life? I will go to him, but he will never come back to me.
- 24 And David gave comfort to his wife Bath-sheba, and he went in to her and had connection with her: and she had a son to whom she gave the name Solomon. And he was dear to the Lord.
- 25 And he sent word by Nathan the prophet, who gave him the name Jedidiah, by the word of the Lord.
- 26 Now Joab was fighting against Rabbah, in the land of the children of Ammon, and he took the water-town.
- 27 And Joab sent men to David, saying, I have made war against Rabbah and have taken the water-town.
- 28 So now, get the rest of the people together, and put them in position against the town and take it, for if I take it, it will be named after my name.
- 29 Then David got all the people together and went to Rabbah and made war on it and took it.
- 30 And he took the crown of Milcom from his head; the weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it were stones of great price; and it was put on David's head. And he took a great store of goods from the town.
- 31 And he took the people out of the town and put them to work with wood-cutting instruments, and iron grain-crushers, and iron axes, and at brick-making: this he did to all the towns of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people went back to Jerus
- 1 Now after this, it came about that Absalom, David's son, had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and David's son Amnon was in love with her.
- 2 And he was so deeply in love that he became ill because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin, and so it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her.
- 3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother: and Jonadab was a very wise man.
- 4 And he said to him, O son of the king, why are you getting thinner day by day? will you not say what your trouble is? And Amnon said to him, I am in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.
- 5 Then Jonadab said to him, Go to your bed, and let it seem that you are ill: and when your father comes to see you, say to him, Let my sister Tamar come and give me bread, and get the food ready before my eyes, so that I may see it and take it from her han
- 6 So Amnon went to bed and made himself seem ill: and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, Please let my sister Tamar come and make me one or two cakes before my eyes, so that I may take food from her hand.
- 7 Then David sent to the house for Tamar and said, Go now to your brother Amnon's house and get a meal for him.
- 8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was in bed. And she took paste and made cakes before his eyes, cooking them over the fire.

- 9 And she took the cooking-pot, and put the cakes before him, but he would not take them. And Amnon said, Let everyone go away from me. So they all went out.
- 10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, Take the food and come into my bedroom, so that I may take it from your hand. So Tamar took the cakes she had made and went with them into her brother Amnon's bedroom.
- 11 And when she took them to give them to him, he put his arms round her and said, Come to bed, my sister.
- 12 And answering him, she said, O my brother, do not put shame on me; it is not right for such a thing to be done in Israel: do not this evil thing.
- 13 What will become of me in my shame? and as for you, you will be looked down on with disgust by all Israel. Now then, go and make your request to the king, for he will not keep me from you.
- 14 But he would not give attention to what she said: but being stronger than she, he took her by force, and had connection with her.
- 15 Then Amnon was full of hate for her, hating her with a hate greater than his earlier love for her. And he said to her, Get up and be gone.
- 16 And she said to him, Not so, my brother, for this great wrong in sending me away is worse than what you did to me before. But he gave no attention to her.
- 17 Then he gave a cry to the servant who was waiting on him and said, Put this woman out, and let the door be locked after her.
- 18 Now she had on a long robe, such as in past times the king's virgin daughters were dressed in. Then the servant put her out, locking the door after her.
- 19 And Tamar, in her grief, put dust on her head; and she put her hand on her head and went away crying loudly.
- 20 And her brother Absalom said to her, Has your brother Amnon been with you? but now, let there be an end to your crying, my sister: he is your brother, do not take this thing to heart. So Tamar went on living uncomforted in her brother's house.
- 21 But when King David had news of all these things he was very angry; but he did not make trouble for Amnon his son, for he was dear to David, being his oldest son.
- 22 But Absalom said nothing to his brother Amnon, good or bad: for he was full of hate for him, because he had taken his sister Tamar by force.
- 23 Now after two full years, Absalom had men cutting the wool of his sheep in Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim: and he sent for all the king's sons to come to his feast.
- 24 And Absalom came to the king and said, See now, your servant is cutting the wool of his sheep; will the king and his servants be pleased to come?
- 25 And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all go, or the number will be over-great for you. And he made his request again, but he would not go, but he gave him his blessing.
- 26 Then Absalom said, If you will not go, then let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said to him, Is there any reason for him to go with you?
- 27 But Absalom went on requesting him till he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. And Absalom made a great feast like a feast for a king.
- 28 Now Absalom had given orders to his servants, saying, Now take note when Amnon's heart is glad with wine; and when I say to you, Make an attack on Amnon, then put him to death without fear: have I not given you orders? be strong and without fear.
- 29 So Absalom's servants did to Amnon as Absalom had given them orders. Then all the king's sons got up, and every man got on his beast and went in flight.
- 30 Now while they were on their way, news was given to David that Absalom had put to death all the sons of the king and that not one of them was still living.
- 31 Then the king got up in great grief, stretching himself out on the earth: and all his servants were by his side, with their clothing parted.
- 32 And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, Let not my lord have the idea that all the sons of the king have been put to death; for only Amnon is dead: this has been purposed by Absalom from the day when he took his sister Tamar by force.
- 33 So now, let not my lord the king take this thing to heart, with the idea that all the king's sons are dead: for only Amnon is dead.

- 34 But Absalom went in flight. And the young man who kept the watch, lifting up his eyes, saw that a great band of people was coming down the slope by the way of the Horons; and the watchman came and gave word to the king, saying, I saw men coming down by th
- 35 And Jonadab said to the king, See, the king's sons are coming; as your servant said, so it is.
- 36 And while he was talking, the king's sons came, with weeping and loud cries: and the king and all his servants were weeping bitterly.
- 37 So Absalom went in flight and came to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur, where he was for three years.
- 38 And the king was sorrowing for his son all the time.
- 39 And the heart of David was wasted with desire for Absalom: for he was comforted for the death of Amnon.
- 1 Now it was clear to Joab, the son of Zeruiah, that the king's heart was turning to Absalom.
- 2 And Joab sent to Tekoa and got from there a wise woman, and said to her, Now make yourself seem like one given up to grief, and put on the clothing of sorrow, not using any sweet oil for your body, but looking like one who for a long time has been weeping
- 3 And come to the king and say these words to him. So Joab gave her words to say.
- 4 And the woman of Tekoa came to the king, and falling on her face, gave him honour and said, Give me help, O king.
- 5 And the king said to her, What is your trouble? And her answer was, Truly I am a widow, and my husband is dead.
- 6 And I had two sons, and the two of them had a fight in the field, and there was no one to come between them, and one with a blow put the other to death.
- 7 And now all the family is turned against me, your servant, saying, Give up him who was the cause of his brother's death, so that we may put him to death in payment for the life of his brother, whose life he took; and we will put an end to the one who will
- 8 And the king said to the woman, Go to your house and I will give orders about this.
- 9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, My lord, O king, may the sin be on me and on my family, and may the king and the seat of his kingdom be clear of sin!
- 10 And the king said, If anyone says anything to you, make him come to me, and he will do you no more damage.
- 11 Then she said, Let the king keep in mind the Lord your God, so that he who gives punishment for blood may be kept back from further destruction and that no one may send death on my son. And he said, By the living Lord, not a hair of your son's head will c
- 12 Then the woman said, Will the king let his servant say one word more? And he said, Say on.
- 13 And the woman said, Why have you had such a thought about the people of God? (for in saying these very words the king has put himself in the wrong because he has not taken back the one whom he sent far away.)
- 14 For death comes to us all, and we are like water drained out on the earth, which it is not possible to take up again; and God will not take away the life of the man whose purpose is that he who has been sent away may not be completely cut off from him.
- 15 And now it is my fear of the people which has made me come to say these words to my lord the king: and your servant said, I will put my cause before the king, and it may be that he will give effect to my request.
- 16 For the king will give ear, and take his servant out of the power of the man whose purpose is the destruction of me and my son together from the heritage of God.
- 17 Then your servant said, May the word of my lord the king give me peace! for my lord the king is as the angel of God in his hearing of good and bad: and may the Lord your God be with you!
- 18 Then the king said to the woman, Now give me an answer to the question I am going to put to you; keep nothing back. And the woman said, Let my lord the king say on.
- 19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman in answer said, By the life of your soul, my lord the king, it is not possible for anyone to go to the right hand or to the left from anything said by the king: your servant Jo
- 20 This he did, hoping that the face of this business might be changed: and my lord is wise, with the wisdom of the angel of God, having knowledge of everything on earth.
- 21 And the king said to Joab, See now, I will do this thing: go then and Come back with the young man Absalom.
- 22 Then Joab, falling down on his face on the earth, gave the king honour and blessing; and Joab said, Today it is clear to your servant that I have grace in your eyes, my lord king, because the king has given effect to the request of his servant.

- 23 So Joab got up and went to Geshur and came back again to Jerusalem with Absalom.
- 24 And the king said, Let him go to his house, but let him not see my face. So Absalom went back to his house and did not see the face of the king.
- 25 Now in all Israel there was no one so greatly to be praised for his beautiful form as Absalom: from his feet to the crown of his head he was completely beautiful.
- 26 And when he had his hair cut, (which he did at the end of every year, because of the weight of his hair;) the weight of the hair was two hundred shekels by the king's weight.
- 27 And Absalom was the father of three sons and of one daughter named Tamar, who was very beautiful.
- 28 For two full years Absalom was living in Jerusalem without ever seeing the face of the king.
- 29 Then Absalom sent for Joab to send him to the king, but he would not come to him: and he sent again a second time, but he would not come.
- 30 So he said to his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley in it; go and put it on fire. And Absalom's servants put the field on fire.
- 31 Then Joab came to Absalom in his house and said to him, Why have your servants put my field on fire?
- 32 And Absalom's answer was, See, I sent to you saying, Come here, so that I may send you to the king to say, Why have I come back from Geshur? it would be better for me to be there still: let me now see the king's face, and if there is any sin in me, let hi
- 33 So Joab went to the king and said these words to him: and when the king had sent for him, Absalom came, and went down on his face on the earth before the king: and the king gave him a kiss.
- 1 Now after this, Absalom got for himself a carriage and horses, and fifty runners to go before him.
- 2 And Absalom got up early, morning after morning, and took his place at the side of the public meeting-place: and when any man had a cause which had to come to the king to be judged, then Absalom, crying out to him, said, What is your town? and he would sa
- 3 And Absalom would say to him, See, your cause is true and right; but no man has been named by the king to give you a hearing.
- 4 And more than this, Absalom said, If only I was made judge in the land, so that every man who has any cause or question might come to me, and I would give a right decision for him!
- 5 And if any man came near to give him honour, he took him by the hand and gave him a kiss.
- 6 And this Absalom did to everyone in Israel who came to the king to have his cause judged: so Absalom, like a thief, took away the hearts of the men of Israel.
- 7 Now at the end of four years, Absalom said to the king, Let me go to Hebron and give effect to the oath which I made to the Lord:
- 8 For while I was living in Geshur in Aram, your servant made an oath, saying, If ever the Lord lets me come back to Jerusalem, I will give him worship in Hebron.
- 9 And the king said to him, Go in peace. So he got up and went to Hebron.
- 10 But Absalom at the same time sent watchers through all the tribes of Israel to say, At the sound of the horn you are to say, Absalom is king in Hebron.
- 11 And with Absalom, at his request, went two hundred men from Jerusalem, who were completely unconscious of his designs.
- 12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, one of David's helpers, from Giloh his town, while he was making the offerings. And the design against David became strong, for more and more people were joined to Absalom.
- 13 And one came to David and said, The hearts of the men of Israel have gone after Absalom.
- 14 And David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, Come, let us go in flight, or not one of us will be safe from Absalom: let us go without loss of time, or he will overtake us quickly and send evil on us, and put the town to the sword.
- 15 And the king's servants said to the king, See, your servants are ready to do whatever the king says is to be done.
- 16 So the king went out, taking with him all the people of his house, but for ten of his women, who were to take care of the house.
- 17 And the king went out, and all his servants went after him, and made a stop at the Far House.

- 18 And all the people went on by his side; and all the Cherethites and all the Pelethites and all the men of Ittai of Gath, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, went on before the king.
- 19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, Why are you coming with us? go back and keep with the king: for you are a man of another country, you are far from the land of your birth.
- 20 It was only yesterday you came to us; why then am I to make you go up and down with us? for I have to go where I may; go back then, and take your countrymen with you, and may the Lord's mercy and good faith be with you.
- 21 And Ittai the Gittite in answer said, By the living Lord, and by the life of my lord the king, in whatever place my lord the king may be, for life or death, there will your servant be.
- 22 And David said to Ittai, Go forward, then. And Ittai the Gittite went on, with all his men and all the little ones he had with him.
- 23 And there was great weeping in all the country when all the people went through; and the king himself was waiting in the Kidron valley and all the people went by him in the direction of the olive-tree on the edge of the waste land.
- 24 Then Zadok came, and Abiathar, and with them the ark of God's agreement: and they put down the ark of God, till all the people from the town had gone by.
- 25 And the king said to Zadok, Take the ark of God back into the town: if I have grace in the eyes of the Lord, he will let me come back and see it and his House again:
- 26 But if he says, I have no delight in you: then, here I am; let him do to me what seems good to him.
- 27 The king said further to Zadok the priest, See, you and Abiathar are to go back to the town in peace, with your two sons, Ahimaaz, your son, and Jonathan, the son of Abiathar.
- 28 See, I will be waiting at the way across the river, in the waste land, till I get news from you.
- 29 So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem, and did not go away from there.
- 30 And David went up the slopes of the Mount of Olives weeping all the way, with his head covered and no shoes on his feet: and all the people who were with him, covering their heads, went up weeping.
- 31 And word came to David, saying, Ahithophel is among those who are joined to Absalom. And David said, O Lord, let the wisdom of Ahithophel be made foolish.
- 32 Now when David had come to the top of the slope, where they gave worship to God, Hushai the Archite came to him in great grief with dust on his head:
- 33 David said to him, If you go on with me, you will be a trouble to me:
- 34 But if you go back to the town and say to Absalom, I will be your servant, O king; as in the past I have been your father's servant, so now I will be yours: then you will be able to keep Ahithophel's designs against me from being put into effect.
- 35 And have you not there Zadok and Abiathar the priests? so whatever comes to your ears from the king's house, give word of it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.
- 36 See, they have with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, the son of Abiathar; by them you may send word to me of everything which comes to your ears.
- 37 So Hushai, David's friend, went into the town, and Absalom came to Jerusalem.
- 1 And when David had gone a little way past the top of the slope, Ziba, the servant of Mephibosheth, came to him, with two asses on which were two hundred cakes of bread and a hundred stems of dry grapes and a hundred summer fruits and a skin of wine.
- 2 And David said to Ziba, What is your reason for this? And Ziba said, The asses are for the use of the king's people, and the bread and the fruit are food for the young men; and the wine is for drink for those who are overcome by weariness in the waste land.
- 3 And the king said, And where is your master's son? And Ziba said, He is still at Jerusalem: for he said, Today Israel will give back to me the kingdom of my father.
- 4 Then the king said to Ziba, Truly everything which was Mephibosheth's is yours. And Ziba said, I give honour to my lord, may I have grace in your eyes, my lord, O king!
- 5 And when King David came to Bahurim, a man of Saul's family named Shimei, the son of Gera, came out from there, calling curses after him.
- 6 And he sent stones at David and at all the king's servants and at all the people and at all the men of war by his side, on the right hand and on the left.
- 7 And Shimei said, with curses, Be gone, be gone, you man of blood, you good-for-nothing:

- 8 The Lord has sent punishment on you for all the blood of the family of Saul, whose kingdom you have taken; and the Lord has given the kingdom to Absalom, your son: now you yourself are taken in your evil, because you are a man of blood.
- 9 Then Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, said to the king, Is this dead dog to go on cursing my lord the king? let me go over and take off his head.
- 10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? Let him go on cursing, for the Lord has said, Put a curse on David, and who then may say, Why have you done so?
- 11 And David said to Abishai and to all his servants, You see how my son, the offspring of my body, has made designs against my life: how much more then may this Benjamite do so? Let him be, and let him go on cursing; for the Lord has given him orders.
- 12 It may be that the Lord will take note of my wrongs, and give me back good in answer to his cursing of me today.
- 13 So David and his men went on their way: and Shimei went by the hillside parallel with them, cursing and sending stones and dust at him.
- 14 And the king and his people came tired to Jordan, and took their rest there.
- 15 And Absalom and the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.
- 16 Then Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom and said, Long life to the king, long life to the king!
- 17 And Absalom said, Is this your love for your friend? why did you not go with your friend?
- 18 And Hushai said to Absalom, Not so; I am for that man whom the Lord and this people and all the men of Israel have taken as king, and I will take my place with him.
- 19 And more than this! where is my place as a servant? is it not before his son? as I have been your father's servant, so will I be yours.
- 20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give your opinion now, what are we to do?
- 21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to your father's women who are here looking after his house; then all Israel will have the news that you are hated by your father, and the hands of your supporters will be strong.
- 22 So they put up the tent for Absalom on the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's women before the eyes of all Israel.
- 23 In those days the opinions of Ahithophel were valued as highly as if through him a man might get direction from God; so were they valued by David as much as by Absalom.
- 1 Then Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me take out twelve thousand men and this very night I will go after David:
- 2 And I will come up with him when he is tired and feeble, and make him full of fear: and all the people with him will go in flight; and I will make an attack on the king only:
- 3 And I will make all the people come back to you as a bride comes back to her husband: it is the life of only one man you are going after; so all the people will be at peace.
- 4 And the saying was pleasing to Absalom and to the responsible men of Israel.
- 5 Then Absalom said, Now send for Hushai the Archite, and let us give ear to what he has to say.
- 6 And when Hushai came, Absalom said to him, This is what Ahithophel has said: are we to do as he says? if not, what is your suggestion?
- 7 And Hushai said to Absalom, Ahithophel's idea is not a good one at this time.
- 8 Hushai said further, You have knowledge of your father and his men, that they are men of war, and that their feelings are bitter, like those of a bear in the field whose young ones have been taken from her: and your father is a man of war, and will not ta
- 9 But he will certainly have taken cover now in some hole or secret place; and if some of our people, at the first attack, are overcome, then any hearing of it will say, There is destruction among the people who are on Absalom's side.
- 10 Then even the strongest, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will become like water; for all Israel is conscious that your father is a man of war, and those who are with him are strong and without fear.
- 11 But my suggestion is that all Israel, from Dan as far as Beer-sheba, comes together to you, a great army like the sands of the sea in number; and that you yourself go out among them.
- 12 Then we will come on him in some place, wherever he may be, falling on him as the dew comes on the earth: and of him and all the men who are with him not one will get away with his life.

- 13 And if he has gone into some town, then let all Israel take strong cords to that town, and we will have it pulled into the valley, till not one small stone is to be seen there.
- 14 Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, Hushai's suggestion is better than that of Ahithophel. For it was the purpose of the Lord to make the wise designs of Ahithophel without effect, so that the Lord might send evil on Absalom.
- 15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, This is the suggestion made by Ahithophel to Absalom and the responsible men of Israel, and this is what I said to them.
- 16 So now send the news quickly to David, and say, Do not take your night's rest by the way across the river to the waste land, but be certain to go over; or the king and all the people with him will come to destruction.
- 17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting by En-rogel; and a servant-girl went from time to time and gave them news and they went with the news to King David, for it was not wise for them to let themselves be seen coming into the town.
- 18 But a boy saw them, and gave word of it to Absalom: so the two of them went away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim who had a water-hole in his garden, and they went down into it.
- 19 And a woman put a cover over the hole, and put crushed grain on top of it, and no one had any knowledge of it.
- 20 And Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They have gone from here to the stream. And after searching for them, and seeing nothing of them, they went back to Jerusalem.
- 21 Then after the servants had gone away, they came up out of the water-hole and went to give King David the news; and they said, Get up and go quickly over the water, for such and such are Ahithophel's designs against you.
- 22 So David and all the people who were with him went up over Jordan: when dawn came, every one of them had gone over Jordan.
- 23 Now when Ahithophel saw that his suggestion was not acted on, he got his ass ready, and went back to his house, to the town where he came from, and having put his house in order, he put himself to death by hanging; so he came to his end and was put in the
- 24 And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom, with all the men of Israel, went over Jordan.
- 25 And Absalom put Amasa at the head of the army in place of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite, who had been the lover of Abigail, the daughter of Jesse, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.
- 26 And Israel and Absalom put up their tents in the land of Gilead.
- 27 Now when David had come to Mahanaim, Shobi, the son of Nahash of Rabbah, the Ammonite, and Machir, the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,
- 28 Came with beds and basins and pots, and grain and meal, and all sorts of dry foods,
- 29 And honey and butter and sheep and milk-cheeses, for David and his people: for they said, This people is in the waste land, needing food and drink and rest.
- 1 And David had the people who were with him numbered, and he put over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds.
- 2 And David sent the people out, a third of them under the orders of Joab, and a third under the orders of Abishai, son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, And I myself will certainly go out with
- 3 But the people said, It is better for you not to go out: for if we are put to flight, they will not give a thought to us, and if death overtakes half of us, it will be nothing to them: but you are of more value than ten thousand of us: so it is better for
- 4 And the king said to them, I will do whatever seems best to you. So the king took his place by the door of the town, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.
- 5 And the king gave orders to Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Because of me, be gentle to the young man Absalom. And this order about Absalom was given in the hearing of all the people.
- 6 So the people went out into the field against Israel, and the fight took place in the woods of Ephraim.
- 7 And the people of Israel were overcome there by the servants of David, and there was a great destruction that day, and twenty thousand men were put to the sword.
- 8 And the fighting went on over all the face of the country: and the woods were responsible for more deaths than the sword.
- 9 And Absalom came across some of David's men. And Absalom was seated on his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great tree, and his head became fixed in the tree and he was lifted up between earth and heaven, and the beast under him went

- 10 And a certain man saw it and said to Joab, I saw Absalom hanging in a tree.
- 11 And Joab said to the man who had given him the news, If you saw this, why did you not put your sword through him, and I would have given you ten bits of silver and a band for your robe?
- 12 And the man said to Joab, Even if you gave me a thousand bits of silver, I would not put out my hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king gave orders to you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Take care that the young man Absalom is not touched.
- 13 And if I had falsely put him to death (and nothing may be kept secret from the king), you would have had nothing to do with me.
- 14 Then Joab said, I would have made it safe for you. And he took three spears in his hand, and put them through Absalom's heart, while he was still living, in the branches of the tree.
- 15 And ten young men, servants of Joab, came round Absalom and put an end to him.
- 16 And Joab had the horn sounded, and the people came back from going after Israel, for Joab kept them back.
- 17 And they took Absalom's body and put it into a great hole in the wood, and put a great mass of stones over it: and every man of Israel went in flight to his tent.
- 18 Now Absalom, before his death, had put up for himself a pillar in the king's valley, naming it after himself; for he said, I have no son to keep my name in memory: and to this day it is named Absalom's pillar.
- 19 Then Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, said, Let me go and give the king news of how the Lord has done right in his cause against those who took up arms against him.
- 20 And Joab said, You will take no news today; another day you may give him the news, but you will take no news today, because the king's son is dead.
- 21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, Go and give the king word of what you have seen. And the Cushite, making a sign of respect to Joab, went off running.
- 22 Then Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, said to Joab again, Whatever may come of it, let me go after the Cushite. And Joab said, Why have you a desire to go, my son, seeing that you will get no reward for your news?
- 23 Whatever may come of it, he said, I will go. Then he said to him, Go. So Ahimaaz went running by the lowland road and overtook the Cushite.
- 24 Now David was seated between the two town doors; and the watchman went up to the roof of the doorways, on the wall, and, lifting up his eyes, saw a man running by himself.
- 25 And the watchman gave news of it to the king. And the king said, If he is coming by himself, then he has news. And the man was travelling quickly, and came near.
- 26 Then the watchman saw another man running: and crying out in the direction of the door he said, Here is another man running by himself. And the king said, He, like the other, comes with news.
- 27 And the watchman said, It seems to me that the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and his news will be good.
- 28 And Ahimaaz, crying out to the king, said, It is well. And falling down before the king, with his face to the earth, he said, May the Lord your God be praised, who has given up the men who took up arms against my lord the king!
- 29 And the king said, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And Ahimaaz said in answer, When Joab sent me, your servant, I saw a great outcry going on, but I had no knowledge of what it was.
- 30 And the king said, Get back and take your place here. So turning to one side, he took his place there.
- 31 And then the Cushite came and said, I have news for my lord the king: today the Lord has done right in your cause against all those who took up arms against you.
- 32 And the king said to the Cushite, Is the young man Absalom safe? And the Cushite said in answer, May all the king's haters and those who do evil against the king, be as that young man is!
- 33 Then the king was much moved, and went up into the room over the door, weeping, and saying, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! if only my life might have been given for yours, O Absalom, my son, my son!
- 1 And word was given to Joab that the king was weeping and sorrowing for Absalom.
- 2 And the salvation of that day was changed to sorrow for all the people: for it was said to the people, The king is in bitter grief for his son.
- 3 And the people made their way back to the town quietly and secretly, as those who are shamed go secretly when they go in flight from the war.
- 4 But the king, covering his face, gave a great cry, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!

- 5 And Joab came into the house to the king and said, Today you have put to shame the faces of all your servants who even now have kept you and your sons and your daughters and your wives and all your women safe from death;
- 6 For your haters, it seems, are dear to you, and your friends are hated. For you have made it clear that captains and servants are nothing to you: and now I see that if Absalom was living and we had all been dead today, it would have been right in your eye
- 7 So get up now, and go out and say some kind words to your servants; for, by the Lord, I give you my oath, that if you do not go out, not one of them will keep with you tonight; and that will be worse for you than all the evil which has overtaken you from
- 8 Then the king got up and took his seat near the town-door. And word was given to all the people that the king was in the public place: and all the people came before the king. Now all the men of Israel had gone back in flight to their tents.
- 9 And through all the tribes of Israel the people were having arguments, saying, The king made us safe from the hands of those who were against us and made us free from the hands of the Philistines; and now he has gone in flight from the land, because of Ab
- 10 And Absalom, whom we made a ruler over us, is dead in the fight. So now why do you say nothing about getting the king back? And word of what all Israel was saying came to the king.
- 11 And King David sent word to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, Say to the responsible men of Judah, Why are you the last to take steps to get the king back to his house?
- 12 You are my brothers, my bone and my flesh; why are you the last to get the king back again?
- 13 And say to Amasa, Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God's punishment be on me, if I do not make you chief of the army before me at all times in place of Joab!
- 14 And the hearts of the men of Judah were moved like one man; so that they sent to the king, saying, Come back, with all your servants.
- 15 So the king came back, and came as far as Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, meeting the king there, to take him back with them over Jordan.
- 16 And Shimei, the son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, got up quickly and went down with the men of Judah for the purpose of meeting King David;
- 17 And with him a thousand men of Benjamin, and Ziba, the servant of Saul, with his fifteen sons and twenty servants, came rushing to Jordan before the king,
- 18 And kept going across the river to take the people of the king's house over, and to do whatever was desired by the king. And Shimei, the son of Gera, went down on his face in the dust before the king, when he was about to go over Jordan,
- 19 And said to him, Let me not be judged as a sinner in your eyes, O my lord, and do not keep in mind the wrong I did on the day when my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, or take it to heart.
- 20 For your servant is conscious of his sin: and so, as you see, I have come today, the first of all the sons of Joseph, for the purpose of meeting my lord the king.
- 21 But Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, said, Is not death the right fate for Shimei, because he has been cursing the one marked by the holy oil?
- 22 And David said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you put yourselves against me today? is it right for any man in Israel to be put to death today? for I am certain today that I am king in Israel.
- 23 So the king said to Shimei, You will not be put to death. And the king gave him his oath.
- 24 And Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son, came down for the purpose of meeting the king; his feet had not been cared for or his hair cut or his clothing washed from the day when the king went away till the day when he came back in peace.
- 25 Now when he had come from Jerusalem to see the king, the king said to him, Why did you not come with me, Mephibosheth?
- 26 And he said in answer, Because of the deceit of my servant, my lord king: for I, your servant, said to him, You are to make ready an ass and on it I will go with the king, for your servant has not the use of his feet.
- 27 He has given you a false account of me: but my lord the king is like the angel of God: do then whatever seems good to you.
- 28 For all my father's family were only dead men before my lord the king: and still you put your servant among those whose place is at the king's table. What right then have I to say anything more to the king?
- 29 And the king said, Say nothing more about these things. I say, Let there be a division of the land between Ziba and you.

- 30 And Mephibosheth said, Let him take it all, now that my lord the king has come back to his house in peace!
- 31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and he went on as far as Jordan with the king to take him across Jordan.
- 32 Now Barzillai was a very old man, as much as eighty years old: and he had given the king everything he had need of, while he was at Mahanaim, for he was a very great man.
- 33 And the king said to Barzillai, Come over with me, and I will take care of you in Jerusalem.
- 34 And Barzillai said to the king, How much of my life is still before me, for me to go up to Jerusalem with the king?
- 35 I am now eighty years old: good and bad are the same to me; have meat and drink any taste for me now? am I able to take pleasure in the voices of men or women in song? why then am I to be a trouble to my lord the king?
- 36 Your servant's desire was only to take the king over Jordan; why is the king to give me such a reward?
- 37 Let your servant now go back again, so that when death comes to me, it may be in my town and by the resting-place of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham: let him go with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good to you.
- 38 And the king said in answer, Let Chimham go over with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you: and whatever your desire is, I will do it for you.
- 39 Then all the people went over Jordan, and the king went over: and the king gave Barzillai a kiss, with his blessing; and he went back to his place.
- 40 So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him: and all the people of Judah, as well as half the people of Israel, took the king on his way.
- 41 Then the men of Israel came to the king and said, Why have our countrymen of Judah taken you away in secret and come over Jordan with the king and all his family, because all his people are David's men?
- 42 And all the men of Judah gave this answer to the men of Israel, Because the king is our near relation: why then are you angry about this? have we taken any of the king's food, or has he given us any offering?
- 43 And in answer to the men of Judah, the men of Israel said, We have ten parts in the king, and we are the first in order of birth: why did you make nothing of us? and were we not the first to make suggestions for getting the king back? And the words of the
- 1 Now by chance there was present a good-for-nothing person named Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he, sounding the horn, said, We have no part in David, or any interest in the son of Jesse: let every man go to his tent, O Israel.
- 2 So all the men of Israel, turning away from David, went after Sheba, the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah were true to their king, going with him from Jordan as far as Jerusalem.
- 3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem: and the king took the ten women to whom he had given the care of the house, and had them shut up, and gave them the necessaries of life, but did not go near them. So they were shut up till the day of their death,
- 4 Then the king said to Amasa, Get all the men of Judah together, and in three days be here yourself.
- 5 So Amasa went to get all the men of Judah together, but he took longer than the time David had given him.
- 6 And David said to Abishai, Sheba, the son of Bichri, will do us more damage than Absalom did; so take some of your lord's servants and go after him, before he makes himself safe in the walled towns, and gets away before our eyes.
- 7 So there went after Abishai, Joab and the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all the fighting-men; they went out of Jerusalem to overtake Sheba, the son of Bichri.
- 8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came face to face with them. Now Joab had on his war-dress, and round him a band from which his sword was hanging in its cover; and while he was walking, it came out, falling to the earth.
- 9 And Joab said to Amasa, Is it well, my brother? And with his right hand he took him by the hair of his chin to give him a kiss.
- 10 But Amasa did not see danger from the sword which was now in Joab's left hand, and Joab put it through his stomach so that his inside came out on to the earth, and he did not give him another blow. So Joab and his brother Abishai went on after Sheba, the
- 11 And one of Joab's young men, taking his place at Amasa's side, said, Whoever is for Joab and for David, let him go after Joab!

- 12 And Amasa was stretched out in a pool of blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people were stopping, he took Amasa out of the highway and put him in a field, with a cloth over him, when he saw that everyone who went by came
- 13 When he had been taken off the road, all the people went on after Joab in search of Sheba, the son of Bichri.
- 14 And Sheba went through all the tribes of Israel, to Abel of Beth-maacah; and all the Bichrites came together and went in after him.
- 15 And Joab and his men got him shut up in Abel of Beth-maacah, and put up an earthwork against the town: and all Joab's men did their best to get the wall broken down.
- 16 Then a wise woman got up on the wall, and crying out from the town, said, Give ear, give ear; say now to Joab, Come near, so that I may have talk with you.
- 17 And he came near, and the woman said, Are you Joab? And he said in answer, I am. Then she said, Give ear to your servant's words. And he said, I am giving ear.
- 18 Then she said, In the old days, there was a saying, Let them put the question in Abel and in Dan, saying, Has what was ordered by men of good faith in Israel ever come to an end?
- 19 Your purpose is the destruction of a mother-town in Israel: why would you put an end to the heritage of the Lord?
- 20 And Joab, answering her, said, Far, far be it from me to be a cause of death or destruction;
- 21 Not so: but a man of the hill-country of Ephraim, Sheba, son of Bichri, by name, has taken up arms against the king, against David: give up this man only, and I will go away from the town. And the woman said to Joab, His head will be dropped over the wall
- 22 Then the woman in her wisdom had talk with all the town. And they had Sheba's head cut off and sent out to Joab. And he had the horn sounded, and sent them all away from the town, every man to his tent. And Joab went back to Jerusalem to the king.
- 23 Now Joab was over all the army; and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was at the head of the Cherethites and the Pelethites;
- 24 And Adoram was overseer of the forced work; and Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was the recorder;
- 25 And Sheva was the scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;
- 26 And in addition, Ira the Jairite was a priest to David.
- 1 In the days of David they were short of food for three years, year after year; and David went before the Lord for directions. And the Lord said, On Saul and on his family there is blood, because he put the Gibeonites to death.
- 2 Then the king sent for the Gibeonites; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but were the last of the Amorites, to whom the children of Israel had given an oath; but Saul, in his passion for the children of Israel and Judah, had made an
- 3 So David said to the Gibeonites, What may I do for you? how am I to make up to you for your wrongs, so that you may give a blessing to the heritage of the Lord?
- 4 And the Gibeonites said to him, It is not a question of silver and gold between us and Saul or his family; and it is not in our power to put to death any man in Israel. And he said, Say, then, what am I to do for you?
- 5 And they said to the king, As for the man by whom we were wasted, and who made designs against us to have us completely cut off from the land of Israel,
- 6 Let seven men of his family be given up to us and we will put an end to them by hanging them before the Lord in Gibeon, on the hill of the Lord. And the king said, I will give them.
- 7 But the king did not give up Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the Lord's oath made between David and Jonathan, the son of Saul.
- 8 But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Saul to whom Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, had given birth; and the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab, whose father was Adriel, the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:
- 9 And he gave them up to the Gibeonites, and they put them to death, hanging them on the mountain before the Lord; all seven came to their end together in the first days of the grain-cutting, at the start of the cutting of the barley.
- 10 And Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, took haircloth, placing it on the rock as a bed for herself, from the start of the grain-cutting till rain came down on them from heaven; and she did not let the birds of the air come near them by day, or the beasts of th
- 11 And news was given to David of what Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, one of Saul's wives, had done.

- 12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had taken them away secretly from the public place of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had put them, hanging up the bodies there on the day when they put Saul
- 13 And he took the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from that place; and they got together the bones of those who had been put to death by hanging.
- 14 And they put them with the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the resting-place of Kish, his father, in Zela in the country of Benjamin; they did all the king had given them orders to do. And after that, God gave ear to their prayers for the land.
- 15 And the Philistines went to war again with Israel; and David went down with his people, and while they were at Gob they had a fight with the Philistines:
- 16 And there came against David one of the offspring of the Rephaim, whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass in weight, and having a new sword, he made an attempt to put David to death.
- 17 But Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, came to his help, and, turning on the Philistine, gave him his death-blow. Then David's men took an oath, and said, Never again are you to go out with us to the fight, so that you may not put out the light of Israel.
- 18 Now after this there was war with the Philistines again at Gob, and Sibbecai the Hushathite put to death Saph, one of the offspring of the Rephaim.
- 19 And again there was war with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan, the son of Jair the Beth-lehemite, put to death Goliath the Gittite, the stem of whose spear was like a cloth-worker's rod.
- 20 And again there was war at Gath, where there was a very tall man, who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six fingers on his hands and six toes on his feet; he was one of the offspring of the Rephaim.
- 21 And when he was purposing to put shame on Israel, Jonathan, the son of Shimei, David's brother, put him to death.
- 22 These four were of the offspring of the Rephaim in Gath; and they came to their end by the hands of David and his servants.
- 1 And David made a song to the Lord in these words, on the day when the Lord made him free from the hands of all his haters, and from the hand of Saul:
- 2 And he said, The Lord is my Rock, my walled town, and my saviour, even mine;
- 3 My God, my Rock, in him will I put my faith; my breastplate, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my safe place; my saviour, who keeps me safe from the violent man.
- 4 I will send up my cry to the Lord, who is to be praised; so will I be made safe from those who are against me.
- 5 For the waves of death came round me, and the seas of evil put me in fear;
- 6 The cords of hell were round me: the nets of death came on me.
- 7 In my trouble my voice went up to the Lord, and my cry to my God: my voice came to his hearing in his holy Temple, and my prayer came to his ears.
- 8 Then the earth was moved with a violent shock; the bases of heaven were moved and shaking, because he was angry.
- 9 There went up a smoke from his nose, and a fire of destruction from his mouth: coals were lighted by it.
- 10 The heavens were bent, so that he might come down; and it was dark under his feet.
- 11 And he went through the air, seated on a storm-cloud: going quickly on the wings of the wind.
- 12 And he made the dark his tent round him, a mass of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
- 13 Before his shining light his dark clouds went past, raining ice and coals of fire.
- 14 The Lord made thunder in the heavens, and the voice of the Highest was sounding out.
- 15 And he sent out his arrows, driving them in all directions; by his flames of fire they were troubled.
- 16 Then the deep beds of the sea were seen, and the bases of the world were uncovered, because of the Lord's wrath, because of the breath of his mouth.
- 17 He sent from on high, he took me, pulling me out of great waters.
- 18 He made me free from my strong hater, from those who were against me, because they were stronger than I.
- 19 They came on me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my support.
- 20 He took me out into a wide place; he was my saviour because he had delight in me.
- 21 The Lord gives me the reward of my righteousness, because my hands are clean before him.

- 22 For I have kept the ways of the Lord; I have not been turned away in sin from my God.
- 23 For all his decisions were before me, and I did not put away his laws from me.
- 24 And I was upright before him, and I kept myself from sin.
- 25 Because of this the Lord has given me the reward of my righteousness, because my hands are clean in his eyes.
- 26 On him who has mercy you will have mercy; to the upright you will be upright;
- 27 He who is holy will see that you are holy; but to the man whose way is not straight you will be a hard judge.
- 28 For you are the saviour of those who are in trouble; but your eyes are on men of pride, to make them low.
- 29 For you are my light, O Lord; and the Lord will make the dark bright for me.
- 30 By your help I have made a way through the wall which was shutting me in: by the help of my God I have gone over a wall.
- 31 As for God, his way is all good: the word of the Lord is tested; he is a safe cover for all those who put their faith in him.
- 32 For who is God but the Lord? and who is a Rock but our God?
- 33 God puts a strong band about me, guiding me in a straight way.
- 34 He makes my feet like roes' feet, and puts me on high places.
- 35 He makes my hands expert in war, so that a bow of brass is bent by my arms.
- 36 You have given me the breastplate of your salvation, and your mercy has made me great.
- 37 You have made my steps wide under me, so that my feet make no slip.
- 38 I go after my haters and overtake them; not turning back till they are all overcome.
- 39 I have sent destruction on them and given them wounds, so that they are not able to get up: they are stretched under my feet.
- 40 For I have been armed by you with strength for the fight: you have made low under me those who came out against me.
- 41 By you their backs are turned in flight, so that my haters are cut off.
- 42 They were crying out, but there was no one to come to their help: even to the Lord, but he gave them no answer.
- 43 Then they were crushed as small as the dust of the earth, stamped down under my feet like the waste of the streets.
- 44 You have made me free from the fightings of my people; you have made me the head of the nations: a people of whom I had no knowledge will be my servants.
- 45 Men of other countries will, with false hearts, put themselves under my authority: from the time when my name comes to their ears, they will be ruled by me.
- 46 They will be wasted away, they will come out of their secret places shaking with fear.
- 47 The Lord is living; praise be to my Rock, and let the God of my salvation be honoured:
- 48 It is God who sends punishment on my haters, and puts peoples under my rule.
- 49 He makes me free from my haters: I am lifted up over those who come up against me: you have made me free from the violent man.
- 50 Because of this I will give you praise, O Lord, among the nations, and will make a song of praise to your name.
- 51 Great salvation does he give to his king; he has mercy on the king of his selection, David, and on his seed for ever.
- 1 Now these are the last words of David. David, the son of Jesse, says, the man who was lifted up on high, the man on whom the God of Jacob put the holy oil, the loved one of Israel's songs, says:
- 2 The spirit of the Lord had voice through me, his word was on my tongue.
- 3 The God of Israel said, the word of the Rock of Israel came to me: When an upright king is ruling over men, when he is ruling in the fear of God,
- 4 It is as the light of the morning, when the sun comes up, a morning without clouds; making young grass come to life from the earth.
- 5 For is not my house so with God? For he has made with me an eternal agreement, ordered in all things and certain: as for all my salvation and all my desire, will he not give it increase?
- 6 But the evil-doers, all of them, will be like thorns to be pushed away, because they may not be gripped in the hand:
- 7 But anyone touching them has to be armed with iron and the rod of a spear; and they will be burned with fire, every one of them.

- 8 These are the names of David's men of war: Ishbaal the Hachmonite, chief of the three; his axe was lifted up against eight hundred put to death at one time.
- 9 After him was Eleazar, the son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three great fighters, who was with David in Pasdammim when the Philistines came together there for the fight; and when the men of Israel had gone in flight,
- 10 He was with David and went on fighting the Philistines till his hand became tired and stiff from gripping his sword: and that day the Lord gave a great salvation, and the people came back after him only to take the goods of the Philistines.
- 11 After him was Shammah, the son of Ela the Hararite. And the Philistines came together in Lehi, where there was a bit of land full of seed; and the people went in flight from the Philistines.
- 12 But he kept his place in the middle of the bit of land, and kept back their attack and overcame the Philistines: and the Lord gave a great salvation.
- 13 And three of the thirty went down at the start of the grain-cutting, and they came to David at the strong place of Adullam; and the band of Philistines had taken up their position in the valley of Rephaim.
- 14 And at that time David had taken cover in the strong place, and an armed force of the Philistines was in Beth-lehem.
- 15 And David, moved by a strong desire, said, If only someone would give me a drink of water from the water-hole of Beth-lehem, by the doorway into the town!
- 16 And the three men, forcing their way through the Philistine army, got water from the water-hole of Beth-lehem, by the doorway into the town, and took it back to David: but he would not take it, but, draining it out, made an offering of it to the Lord.
- 17 And he said, Far be it from me, O Lord, to do this; how may I take as my drink the life-blood of men who have put their lives in danger? So he would not take it. These things did the three great men of war.
- 18 And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the thirty. He put to death three hundred with his spear, and he got for himself a name among the thirty.
- 19 Was he not the noblest of the thirty? so he was made their captain: but he was not equal to the first three.
- 20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a fighting man of Kabzeel, had done great acts; he put to death the two sons of Ariel of Moab: he went down into a hole and put a lion to death in time of snow:
- 21 And he made an attack on an Egyptian, a tall man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a stick, and pulling the spear out of the hands of the Egyptian, put him to death with that same spear.
- 22 These were the acts of Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, who had a great name among the thirty men of war.
- 23 He was honoured over the rest of the thirty, but he was not equal to the first three. And David put him over the fighting men who kept him safe.
- 24 Asahel, the brother of Joab, was one of the thirty; and Elhanan, the son of Dodai, of Beth-lehem,
- 25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,
- 26 Helez the Paltite, Ira, the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,
- 27 Abiezer the Anathothite, Sibbecai the Hushathite,
- 28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,
- 29 Heldai, the son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai, the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,
- 30 Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the valleys of Gaash,
- 31 Abiel the Arbathite, Azmaveth of Bahurim,
- 32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, Jashen the Gunite,
- 33 Jonathan, the son of Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam, the son of Sharar the Hararite,
- 34 Eliphelet, the son of Ahasbai the Maacathite, Eliam, the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,
- 35 Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Archite,
- 36 Igal, the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,
- 37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, who had the care of the arms of Joab, son of Zeruiah,
- 38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
- 39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in number.
- 1 Again the wrath of the Lord was burning against Israel, and moving David against them, he said, Go, take the number of Israel and Judah.

- 2 And the king said to Joab and the captains of the army, who were with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan as far as Beer-sheba, and have all the people numbered, so that I may be certain of the number of the people.
- 3 And Joab said to the king, Whatever the number of the people, may the Lord make it a hundred times as much, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it: but why does my lord the king take pleasure in doing this thing?
- 4 But the king's order was stronger than Joab and the captains of the army. And Joab and the captains of the army went out from the king, to take the number of the children of Israel.
- 5 And they went over Jordan, and starting from Aroer, from the town which is in the middle of the valley, they went in the direction of the Gadites, and on to Jazer;
- 6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of the Hittites under Hermon; and they came to Dan, and from Dan they came round to Zidon,
- 7 And to the walled town of Tyre, and to all the towns of the Hivites and the Canaanites: and they went out to the South of Judah at Beer-sheba.
- 8 So after going through all the land in every direction, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.
- 9 And Joab gave the king the number of all the people: there were in Israel eight hundred thousand fighting men able to take up arms; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.
- 10 And after the people had been numbered, David's heart was troubled. And David said to the Lord, Great has been my sin in doing this; but now, O Lord, be pleased to take away the sin of your servant, for I have done very foolishly
- 11 And David got up in the morning; now the word of the Lord had come to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,
- 12 Go and say to David, The Lord says, Three things are offered to you: say which of them you will have, and I will do it to you.
- 13 So Gad came to David, and gave him word of this and said to him, Are there to be three years when there is not enough food in your land? or will you go in flight from your haters for three months, while they go after you? or will you have three days of vi
- 14 And David said to Gad, This is a hard decision for me to make: let us come into the hands of the Lord, for great are his mercies: let me not come into the hands of men.
- 15 So David made selection of the disease; and the time was the days of the grain-cutting, when the disease came among the people, causing the death of seventy thousand men from Dan as far as Beer-sheba.
- 16 And when the hand of the angel was stretched out in the direction of Jerusalem, for its destruction, the Lord had regret for the evil, and said to the angel who was sending destruction on the people, It is enough; do no more. And the angel of the Lord was
- 17 And when David saw the angel who was causing the destruction of the people, he said to the Lord, Truly, the sin is mine; I have done wrong: but these are only sheep; what have they done? let your hand be against me and against my family.
- 18 And that day Gad came to David and said to him, Go up, and put up an altar to the Lord on the grain-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 19 So David went up, as Gad had said and as the Lord had given orders.
- 20 And Araunah, looking out, saw the king and his servants coming to him: and Araunah went out, and went down on his face to the earth before the king.
- 21 And Araunah said, Why has my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To give you a price for your grain-floor, so that I may put up an altar to the Lord, and the disease may be stopped among the people.
- 22 And Araunah said to David, Let my lord the king take whatever seems right to him, and make an offering of it: see, here are the oxen for the burned offering, and the grain-cleaning instruments and the ox-yokes for wood:
- 23 All this does the servant of my lord the king give to the king. And Araunah said, May the Lord your God be pleased with your offering!
- 24 And the king said to Araunah, No, but I will give you a price for it; I will not give to the Lord my God burned offerings for which I have given nothing. So David got the grain-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
- 25 And there David put up an altar to the Lord, making burned offerings and peace-offerings. So the Lord gave ear to his prayer for the land, and the disease came to an end in Israel.
- 1 Now King David was old and far on in years; and though they put covers over him, his body was cold.
- 2 So his servants said to him, Let search be made for a young virgin for my lord the king, to take care of him and be waiting on him; and you may take her in your arms, and so my lord the king will be warm.

- 3 So after searching through all the land of Israel for a fair young girl, they saw Abishag the Shunammite, and took her to the king.
- 4 Now she was very beautiful; and she took care of the king, waiting on him at all times; but the king had no connection with her.
- 5 Then Adonijah, the son of Haggith, lifting himself up in pride, said, I will become king; and he made ready his carriages of war and his horsemen, with fifty runners to go before him.
- 6 Now all his life his father had never gone against him or said to him, Why have you done so? and he was a very good-looking man, and younger than Absalom.
- 7 And he had talk with Joab, the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest; and they were on his side and gave him their support.
- 8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet and Shimei and Rei, and David's men of war did not take the side of Adonijah.
- 9 Then Adonijah put to death sheep and oxen and fat beasts by the stone of Zoheleth, by En-rogel; and he sent for all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants, to come to him:
- 10 But he did not send for Nathan the prophet and Benaiah and the other men of war and Solomon his brother.
- 11 Then Nathan said to Bath-sheba, the mother of Solomon, Has it not come to your ears that Adonijah, the son of Haggith, has made himself king without the knowledge of David our lord?
- 12 So now, let me make a suggestion, so that you may keep your life safe and the life of your son Solomon.
- 13 Come now, go to King David and say to him, Did you not, O my lord, take an oath to me, your servant, saying, Truly Solomon your son will be king after me, seated on the seat of my kingdom? why then is Adonijah acting as king?
- 14 And while you are still talking there with the king, see, I will come in after you and say that your story is true.
- 15 Then Bath-sheba went into the king's room; now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was waiting on him.
- 16 And Bath-sheba went down on her face on the earth before the king giving him honour. And he said, What is your desire?
- 17 And she said to him, My lord, you took an oath by the Lord your God and gave your word to your servant, saying, Truly, Solomon your son will be king after me, seated on the seat of my kingdom.
- 18 And now, see, Adonijah has made himself king without my lord's knowledge;
- 19 And has put to death oxen and fat beasts and sheep in great numbers, and has sent for all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab, the captain of the army; but he has not sent for Solomon your servant.
- 20 And now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, waiting for you to say who is to take the place of my lord the king after him.
- 21 For as things are, it will come about, when my lord the king is sleeping with his fathers, that I and Solomon my son will be made outlaws.
- 22 And while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.
- 23 And they said to the king, Here is Nathan the prophet. And when he came in before the king, he went down on his face on the earth.
- 24 And Nathan said, O my lord king, have you said, Adonijah is to be king after me, seated on the seat of my kingdom?
- 25 Because today he has gone down and has put to death oxen and fat beasts and sheep in great numbers, and has sent for all the king's sons to come to him, with the captains of the army and Abiathar the priest; and they are feasting before him and crying, Lo
- 26 But me, your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon, he has not sent for.
- 27 Has this thing been done by my lord the king, without giving word to your servants who was to be placed on my lord the king's seat after him?
- 28 Then King David in answer said, Send for Bath-sheba to come to me. And she came in and took her place before the king.
- 29 And the king took an oath, and said, By the living Lord, who has been my saviour from all my troubles,
- 30 As I took an oath to you by the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, Certainly Solomon your son will become king after me, seated on my seat in my place; so will I do this day.

- 31 Then Bath-sheba went down on her face on the earth before the king giving him honour, and said, May my lord King David go on living for ever.
- 32 And King David said, Send for Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.
- 33 And the king said to them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and put Solomon my son on my beast, yes, mine, and take him down to Gihon;
- 34 And there let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet put the holy oil on him to make him king over Israel; and sounding the horn say, Long life to King Solomon!
- 35 Then come up after him and he will come in and take his place on the seat of my kingdom; for he is to be king in my place, and I have given orders that he is to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.
- 36 And Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, answering the king, said, So be it: and may the Lord, the God of my lord the king, say so.
- 37 As the Lord has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon and make the seat of his authority greater than that of my lord King David.
- 38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down and put Solomon on King David's beast and took him to Gihon.
- 39 And Zadok the priest took the vessel of oil out of the Tent, and put the holy oil on Solomon. And when the horn was sounded, all the people said, Long life to King Solomon!
- 40 And all the people came up after him, piping with pipes, and they were glad with great joy, so that the earth was shaking with the sound.
- 41 And it came to the ears of Adonijah and all the guests who were with him, when their meal was ended. And Joab, hearing the sound of the horn, said, What is the reason of this noise as if the town was worked up?
- 42 And while the words were on his lips, Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest, came; and Adonijah said, Come in; for you are a man of good faith and the news which you have for us will be good.
- 43 And Jonathan, answering, said to Adonijah, Not so, but our lord King David has made Solomon king:
- 44 And he sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they put him on the king's beast:
- 45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet put the holy oil on him and made him king in Gihon; and they came back from there with joy, and the town was all worked up. This is the noise which has come to your ears.
- 46 And now Solomon is seated on the seat of the kingdom.
- 47 And the king's servants came to our lord King David, blessing him and saying, May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and the seat of his authority greater than your seat; and the king was bent low in worship on his bed.
- 48 Then the king said, May the God of Israel be praised, who has given one of my seed to be king in my place this day and has let my eyes see it.
- 49 And all the guests of Adonijah got up in fear and went away, every man to his place.
- 50 And Adonijah himself was full of fear because of Solomon; and he got up and went to the altar, and put his hands on its horns.
- 51 And they gave Solomon word of it, saying, See, Adonijah goes in such fear of King Solomon, that he has put his hands on the horns of the altar, saying, Let King Solomon first give me his oath that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.
- 52 And Solomon said, If he is seen to be a man of good faith, not a hair of him will be touched; but if any wrongdoing is seen in him, he is to be put to death.
- 53 So King Solomon sent, and they took him down from the altar. And he came and gave honour to King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, Go to your house.
- 1 Now the time of David's death came near; and he gave orders to Solomon his son, saying,
- 2 I am going the way of all the earth: so be strong and be a man;
- 3 And keep the orders of the Lord your God, walking in his ways, keeping his laws and his orders and his rules and his words, as they are recorded in the law of Moses; so that you may do well in all you do and wherever you go,
- 4 So that the Lord may give effect to what he said of me, If your children give attention to their ways, living uprightly before me with all their heart and their soul, you will never be without a man to be king in Israel.

- 5 Now you have knowledge of what Joab, the son of Zeruiah, did to me, and to the two captains of the army of Israel, Abner, the son of Ner, and Amasa, the son of Jether, whom he put to death, taking payment for the blood of war in time of peace, and making
- 6 So be guided by your wisdom, and let not his white head go down to the underworld in peace.
- 7 But be good to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be guests at your table; for so they came to me when I went in flight from Absalom your brother.
- 8 Now you have with you Shimei, the son of Gera the Benjamite of Bahurim, who put a bitter curse on me on the day when I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to see me at Jordan, and I gave him my oath by the Lord, saying, I will not put you to death by the s
- 9 But do not let him be free from punishment, for you are a wise man; and it will be clear to you what you have to do with him; see that his white head goes down to the underworld in blood.
- 10 Then David went to rest with his fathers, and his body was put into the earth in the town of David.
- 11 David was king over Israel for forty years: for seven years he was king in Hebron and for thirty-three years in Jerusalem.
- 12 And Solomon took his place on the seat of David his father, and his kingdom was made safe and strong.
- 13 Then Adonijah, the son of Haggith, came to Bath-sheba, the mother of Solomon. And she said, Come you in peace? And he said, Yes, in peace.
- 14 Then he said, I have something to say to you. And she said, Say on.
- 15 And he said, You saw how the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had the idea that I would be their king; but now the kingdom is turned about, and has become my brother's, for it was given to him by the Lord.
- 16 Now I have one request to make to you, and do not say, No, to me. And she said to him, Say on.
- 17 Then he said, Will you go to Solomon the king (for he will not say, No, to you) and put before him my request that he will give me Abishag the Shunammite for a wife?
- 18 And Bath-sheba said, Good! I will make your request to the king.
- 19 So Bath-sheba went to King Solomon to have talk with him on Adonijah's account. And the king got up to come to her, and went down low to the earth before her; then he took his place on the king's seat and had a seat made ready for the king's mother and sh
- 20 Then she said, I have one small request to make to you; do not say, No, to me. And the king said, Say on, my mother, for I will not say, No, to you.
- 21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother for a wife.
- 22 Then King Solomon made answer and said to his mother, Why are you requesting me to give Abishag the Shunammite to Adonijah? Take the kingdom for him in addition, for he is my older brother, and Abiathar the priest and Joab, the son of Zeruiah, are on his
- 23 Then King Solomon took an oath by the Lord, saying, May God's punishment be on me if Adonijah does not give payment for these words with his life.
- 24 Now by the living Lord, who has given me my place on the seat of David my father, and made me one of a line of kings, as he gave me his word, truly Adonijah will be put to death this day.
- 25 And King Solomon sent Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, and he made an attack on him and put him to death.
- 26 And to Abiathar the priest the king said, Go to Anathoth, to your fields; for death would be your right reward; but I will not put you to death now, because you took up the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and you were with him in all his trou
- 27 So Solomon let Abiathar be priest no longer, so that he might make the word of the Lord come true which he said about the sons of Eli in Shiloh.
- 28 And news of this came to Joab; for Joab had been one of Adonijah's supporters, though he had not been on Absalom's side. Then Joab went in flight to the Tent of the Lord, and put his hands on the horns of the altar.
- 29 And they said to King Solomon, Joab has gone in flight to the Tent of the Lord and is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, make an attack on him.
- 30 And Benaiah came to the Tent of the Lord and said to him, The king says, Come out. And he said, No; but let death come to me here. And Benaiah went back to the king and gave him word of the answer which Joab had given.
- 31 And the king said, Do as he has said and make an attack on him there, and put his body into the earth; so that you may take away from me and from my family the blood of one put to death by Joab without cause.

- 32 And the Lord will send back his blood on his head, because of the attack he made on two men more upright and better than himself, putting them to the sword without my father's knowledge; even Abner, the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa
- 33 So their blood will be on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed for ever; but for David and his seed and his family and the seat of his kingdom, there will be peace for ever from the Lord.
- 34 So Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, went up, and falling on him, put him to death; and his body was put to rest in his house in the waste land.
- 35 And the king put Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, in his place over the army; and Zadok the priest he put in the place of Abiathar.
- 36 Then the king sent for Shimei, and said to him, Make a house for yourself in Jerusalem and keep there and go to no other place.
- 37 For be certain that on the day when you go out and go over the stream Kidron, death will overtake you: and your blood will be on your head.
- 38 And Shimei said to the king, Very well! as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. And for a long time Shimei went on living in Jerusalem.
- 39 But after three years, two of the servants of Shimei went in flight to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And word was given to Shimei that his servants had gone to Gath.
- 40 Then Shimei got up, and making ready his ass, he went to Gath, to Achish, in search of his servants; and he sent and got them from Gath.
- 41 And news was given to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had come back again.
- 42 Then the king sent for Shimei, and said to him, Did I not make you take an oath by the Lord, protesting to you and saying, Be certain that on the day when you go out from here, wherever you go, death will overtake you? and you said to me, Very well!
- 43 Why then have you not kept the oath of the Lord and the order which I gave you?
- 44 And the king said to Shimei, You have knowledge of all the evil which you did to David my father; and now the Lord has sent back your evil on yourself.
- 45 But a blessing will be on King Solomon, and the kingdom of David will keep its place before the Lord for ever.
- 46 So the king gave orders to Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and, falling on him, put him to death. And Solomon's authority over the kingdom was complete.
- 1 Solomon became the son-in-law of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter as his wife, keeping her in the town of David, till the house he was building for himself, and the house of the Lord and the wall round Jerusalem, were complete.
- 2 But all this time the people were making their offerings in the high places, because no house had been put up to the name of the Lord till those days.
- 3 And Solomon, in his love for the Lord, kept the laws of David his father; but he made offerings and let them go up in smoke on the high places.
- 4 And the king went to Gibeon to make an offering there, because that was the chief high place: it was Solomon's way to make a thousand burned offerings on that altar.
- 5 In Gibeon, Solomon had a vision of the Lord in a dream by night; and God said to him, Say what I am to give you.
- 6 And Solomon said, Great was your mercy to David my father, as his life before you was true and upright and his heart was true to you; and you have kept for him this greatest mercy, a son to take his place this day.
- 7 And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in the place of David my father; and I am only a young boy, with no knowledge of how to go out or come in.
- 8 And your servant has round him the people of your selection, a people so great that they may not be numbered, and no account of them may be given.
- 9 Give your servant, then, a wise heart for judging your people, able to see what is good and what evil; for who is able to be the judge of this great people?
- 10 Now these words and Solomon's request were pleasing to the Lord.
- 11 And God said to him, Because your request is for this thing, and not for long life for yourself or for wealth or for the destruction of your haters, but for wisdom to be a judge of causes;

- 12 I have done as you said: I have given you a wise and far-seeing heart, so that there has never been your equal in the past, and never will there be any like you in the future.
- 13 And with this I have given you what you made no request for: wealth and honour, so that no king was ever your equal.
- 14 And if you go on in my ways, keeping my laws and my orders as your father David did, I will give you a long life.
- 15 And Solomon, awakening, saw that it was a dream; then he came to Jerusalem, where he went before the ark of the agreement of the Lord, offering burned offerings and peace-offerings; and he made a feast for all his servants.
- 16 Then two loose women of the town came and took their places before the king;
- 17 And one of them said, O my lord, I and this woman are living in the same house; and I gave birth to a child by her side in the house.
- 18 And three days after the birth of my child, this woman had a child: we were together, no other-person was with us in the house but we two only.
- 19 In the night, this woman, sleeping on her child, was the cause of its death.
- 20 And she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while your servant was sleeping; and she took it in her arms and put her dead child in my arms.
- 21 And when I got up to give my child the breast, I saw that it was dead; but in the morning, looking at it with care, I saw that it was not my son.
- 22 And the other woman said, No; but the living child is my son and the dead one yours. But the first said, No; the dead child is your son and the living one mine. So they kept on talking before the king.
- 23 Then the king said, One says, The living child is my son, and yours is the dead: and the other says, Not so; but your son is the dead one and mine is the living.
- 24 Then he said, Get me a sword. So they went and put a sword before the king.
- 25 And the king said, Let the living child be cut in two and one half given to one woman and one to the other.
- 26 Then the mother of the living child came forward, for her heart went out to her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the child; do not on any account put it to death. But the other woman said, It will not be mine or yours; let it be cut in two.
- 27 Then the king made answer and said, Give her the child, and do not put it to death; she is the mother of it.
- 28 And news of this decision which the king had made went through all Israel; and they had fear of the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to give decisions.
- 1 Now Solomon was king over all Israel.
- 2 And these were his chief men: Azariah, the son of Zadok, was the priest;
- 3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, were scribes; Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was the recorder;
- 4 Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was head of the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;
- 5 Azariah, the son of Nathan, was over those in authority in the different divisions of the country; Zabud, the son of Nathan, was priest and the king's friend;
- 6 Ahishar was controller of the king's house; Adoniram, the son of Abda, was overseer of the forced work.
- 7 And Solomon put twelve overseers over all Israel, to be responsible for the stores needed for the king and those of his house; every man was responsible for one month in the year.
- 8 And these are their names: ... the son of Hur in the hill country of Ephraim;
- 9 ... the son of Deker in Makaz and Shaalbim and Beth-shemesh and Elonbeth-hanan;
- 10 ... the son of Hesed in Arubboth; Socoh and all the land of Hephher were under his control;
- 11 ... the son of Abinadab in all Naphath-dor; his wife was Taphath, the daughter of Solomon.
- 12 Baana, the son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean which is by the side of Zarethan, under Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as the far side of Jokmeam;
- 13 ... the son of Geber in Ramoth-gilead; he had the towns of Jair, the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and the country of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great towns with walls and locks of brass.
- 14 Ahinadab, the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;
- 15 Ahimaaz in Naphtali; he took Basemath, the daughter of Solomon, as his wife;
- 16 Baana, the son of Hushai, in Asher and Aloth;
- 17 Jehoshaphat, the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

- 18 Shimei, the son of Ela, in Benjamin;
- 19 Geber, the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan; and one overseer had authority over all the overseers who were in the land.
- 20 Judah and Israel were as great in number as the sand by the seaside, and they took their food and drink with joy in their hearts.
- 21 And Solomon was ruler over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the edge of Egypt; men gave him offerings and were his servants all the days of his life.
- 22 And the amount of Solomon's food for one day was thirty measures of crushed grain and sixty measures of meal;
- 23 Ten fat oxen and twenty oxen from the fields, and a hundred sheep, in addition to harts and gazelles and roes and fat fowls.
- 24 For he had authority over all the country on this side of the River, from Tiphseh to Gaza, over all the kings on this side of the River; and he had peace round him on every side.
- 25 So Judah and Israel were living safely, every man under his vine and his fig-tree, from Dan as far as Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.
- 26 And Solomon had four thousand boxed-off spaces for horses for his carriages, and twelve thousand horsemen.
- 27 And those overseers, every man in his month, saw that food was produced for Solomon and all his guests, they took care that nothing was overlooked.
- 28 And they took grain and dry grass for the horses and the carriage-horses, to the right place, every man as he was ordered.
- 29 And God gave Solomon a great store of wisdom and good sense, and a mind of wide range, as wide as the sand by the seaside.
- 30 And Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the people of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt.
- 31 For he was wiser than all men, even than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman and Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and he had a great name among all the nations round about.
- 32 He was the maker of three thousand wise sayings, and of songs to the number of a thousand and five.
- 33 He made sayings about all plants, from the cedar in Lebanon to the hyssop hanging on the wall; and about all beasts and birds and fishes and the small things of the earth.
- 34 People came from every nation to give ear to the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had word of his wisdom.
- 1 Now Hiram, king of Tyre, hearing that Solomon had been made king in place of his father, sent his servants to him; for Hiram had ever been a friend to David.
- 2 And Solomon sent back word to Hiram, saying,
- 3 You have knowledge that David my father was not able to make a house for the name of the Lord his God, because of the wars which were round him on every side, till the Lord put all those who were against him under his feet.
- 4 But now the Lord my God has given me rest on every side; no one is making trouble, and no evil is taking place.
- 5 And so it is my purpose to make a house for the name of the Lord my God, as he said to David my father, Your son, whom I will make king in your place, will be the builder of a house for my name.
- 6 So now, will you have cedar-trees from Lebanon cut down for me, and my servants will be with your servants; and I will give you payment for your servants at whatever rate you say; for it is common knowledge that we have no such wood-cutters among us as th
- 7 And these words of Solomon made Hiram glad, and he said, Now may the Lord be praised who has given to David a wise son to be king over this great people.
- 8 Then Hiram sent to Solomon, saying; The words you sent have been given to me: I will do all your desire in the question of cedar-wood and cypress-wood.
- 9 My men will take them down from Lebanon to the sea, where I will have them corded together to go by sea to whatever place you say, and I will have them cut up there so that you may take them away; as for payment, it will be enough if you give me food for
- 10 So Hiram gave Solomon all the cedar-wood and cypress-wood he had need of;
- 11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of grain, as food for his people, and twenty measures of clear oil; this he did every year.

- 12 Now the Lord had given Solomon wisdom, as he had said to him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and they made an agreement together.
- 13 Then King Solomon got together men for the forced work through all Israel, thirty thousand men in number;
- 14 And sent them to Lebanon in bands of ten thousand every month: for a month they were working in Lebanon and for two months in their country, and Adoniram was in control of them.
- 15 Then he had seventy thousand for the work of transport, and eighty thousand stone-cutters in the mountains;
- 16 In addition to the chiefs of the responsible men put by Solomon to oversee the work, three thousand and three hundred in authority over the workmen.
- 17 By the king's orders great stones, stones of high price, were cut out, so that the base of the house might be made of squared stone.
- 18 Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did the work of cutting them, and put edges on them, and got the wood and the stone ready for the building of the house.
- 1 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year that Solomon was king of Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, the building of the Lord's house was started.
- 2 The house which Solomon made for the Lord was sixty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and thirty cubits high.
- 3 The covered way before the Temple of the house was twenty cubits long, as wide as the house, and ten cubits wide in front of the house.
- 4 And for the house he made windows, with network across.
- 5 And against the walls all round, and against the walls of the Temple and of the inmost room, he put up wings, with side rooms all round:
- 6 The lowest line of them being five cubits wide, the middle six cubits wide and the third seven cubits; for there was a space all round the outside walls of the house so that the boards supporting the rooms did not have to be fixed in the walls of the house.
- 7 (And the stones used in the building of the house were squared at the place where they were cut out; there was no sound of hammer or axe or any iron instrument while they were building the house.)
- 8 The door to the lowest side rooms was in the right side of the house; and they went up by twisting steps into the middle rooms, and from the middle into the third.
- 9 So he put up the house and made it complete, roofing it with boards of cedar-wood.
- 10 And he put up the line of side rooms against the walls of the house, fifteen cubits high, resting against the house on boards of cedar-wood.
- 11 (And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying,
- 12 About this house which you are building: if you will keep my laws and give effect to my decisions and be guided by my rules, I will give effect to my word which I gave to David your father.
- 13 And I will be ever among the children of Israel, and will not go away from my people.
- 14 So Solomon made the building of the house complete.)
- 15 The walls of the house were covered inside with cedar-wood boards; from the floor to the roof of the house they were covered inside with wood; and the floor was covered with boards of cypress-wood.
- 16 And at the back of the house a further space of twenty cubits was shut in with boards of cedar-wood, for the inmost room.
- 17 And the house, that is, the Temple, in front of the holy place was forty cubits long.
- 18 (All the inside of the house was cedar-wood, ornamented with designs of buds and flowers; no stonework was to be seen inside.)
- 19 And he made ready an inmost room in the middle of the house, in which to put the ark of the agreement of the Lord.
- 20 And the inmost room was twenty cubits square and twenty cubits high, plated over with clear gold, and he made an altar of cedar-wood, plating it with gold.
- 21 Solomon had all the inside of the house covered with gold, and he put chains of gold across in front of the inmost room, which itself was covered with gold.
- 22 Plates of gold were put all through the house till it was covered completely (and the altar in the inmost room was all covered with gold).
- 23 In the inmost room he made two winged beings of olive-wood, ten cubits high;

- 24 With outstretched wings five cubits wide; the distance from the edge of one wing to the edge of the other was ten cubits.
- 25 The two winged ones were ten cubits high, of the same size and form.
- 26 The two of them were ten cubits high.
- 27 These were placed inside the inner house, their outstretched wings touching the walls of the house, one touching one wall and one the other, while their other wings were touching in the middle.
- 28 These winged ones were plated over with gold.
- 29 And all the walls of the house inside and out were ornamented with forms of winged ones and palm-trees and open flowers.
- 30 And the floor of the house was covered with gold, inside and out.
- 31 For the way into the inmost room he made doors of olive-wood, the arch and the door supports forming a five-sided opening.
- 32 On the olive-wood doors were cut designs of winged ones and palm-trees and open flowers, all of them, with the doors, plated with gold.
- 33 Then he made pillars of olive-wood for the way into the Temple; the pillars were square:
- 34 And two folding doors of cypress-wood, with two leaves.
- 35 These were ornamented with designs of winged ones and palm-trees and open flowers, plated over with gold.
- 36 And the inner space was walled with three lines of squared stones and a line of cedar-wood boards.
- 37 In the fourth year the base of the house was put in its place, in the month Ziv.
- 38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, the building of the house was complete in every detail, as it had been designed. So he was seven years building it.
- 1 Solomon was thirteen years building a house for himself till it was complete.
- 2 And he made the house of the Woods of Lebanon, which was a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide and thirty cubits high, resting on four lines of cedar-wood pillars with cedar-wood supports on the pillars.
- 3 And it was covered with cedar over the forty-five supports which were on the pillars, fifteen in a line.
- 4 There were three lines of window-frames, window facing window in every line.
- 5 And all the doors and windows had square frames, with the windows facing one another in three lines.
- 6 And he made a covered room of pillars, fifty cubits long and thirty cubits wide, and ... with steps before it.
- 7 Then he made a covered room for his high seat when he gave decisions; this was the covered room of judging; it was covered with cedar-wood from floor to roof.
- 8 And the house for his living-place, the other open square in the covered room, was made in the same way. And then he made a house like it for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had taken as his wife.
- 9 All these buildings were made, inside and out, from base to crowning stone, and outside to the great walled square, of highly priced stone, cut to different sizes with cutting-instruments.
- 10 And the base was of great masses of highly priced stone, some ten cubits and some eight cubits square.
- 11 Overhead were highly priced stones cut to measure, and cedar-wood.
- 12 The great outer square all round was walled with three lines of squared stones and a line of cedar-wood boards, round about the open square inside the house of the Lord and the covered room of the king's house.
- 13 Then King Solomon sent and got Hiram from Tyre.
- 14 He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; he was full of wisdom and knowledge and an expert worker in brass. He came to King Solomon and did all his work for him.
- 15 He it was who made the two brass pillars; the first pillar was eighteen cubits high, and a line of twelve cubits went round it; and the second was the same.
- 16 And he made the two crowns to be put on the tops of the pillars, of brass made soft in the fire; the crowns were five cubits high.
- 17 There were nets of open-work for the crowns on the tops of the pillars, a net of open-work for one and a net of open-work for the other.
- 18 And he made ornaments of apples; and two lines of apples all round over the network, covering the crowns of the pillars, the two crowns in the same way.
- 19 The crowns on the tops of the pillars were ornamented with a design of flowers, and were four cubits across.

- 20 And there were crowns on the two pillars near the round part by the network, and there were two hundred apples in lines round every crown.
- 21 He put up the pillars at the doorway of the Temple, naming the one on the right Jachin, and that on the left Boaz.
- 22 The tops of the pillars had a design of flowers; and the work of making the pillars was complete.
- 23 And he made a great metal water-vessel ten cubits across from edge to edge, five cubits high and thirty cubits round.
- 24 And under the edge of it, circling it all round for ten cubits, were two lines of flower buds, made together with it from liquid metal.
- 25 It was supported on twelve oxen, with their back parts turned to the middle of it, three of them facing to the north, three to the west, three to the south, and three to the east; the vessel was resting on top of them.
- 26 It was as thick as a man's open hand, and was curved like the edge of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it would take two thousand baths.
- 27 And he made ten wheeled bases of brass; every one four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three cubits high.
- 28 And the bases were made in this way; their sides were square, fixed in a framework;
- 29 And on the square sides between the frames were lions, oxen, and winged ones; and the same on the frame; and over and under the lions and the oxen and the winged ones were steps.
- 30 Every base had four wheels of brass, turning on brass rods, and their four angles had angle-plates under them; the angle-plates under the base were of metal, and there were ornaments at the side of every one.
- 31 The mouth of it inside the angle-plate was one cubit across; it was round like a pillar, a cubit and a half across; it had designs cut on it; the sides were square, not round.
- 32 The four wheels were under the frames, and the rods on which the wheels were fixed were in the base; the wheels were a cubit and a half high.
- 33 The wheels were made like carriage-wheels, the rods on which they were fixed, the parts forming their edges, their rods and the middle points of them, were all formed out of liquid metal.
- 34 And there were four angle-plates at the four angles of every base, forming part of the structure of the base.
- 35 And at the top of the base there was a round vessel, half a cubit high;
- 36 In the spaces of the flat sides and on the frames of them, he made designs of winged ones, lions, and palm-trees, with ornamented edges all round.
- 37 All the ten bases were made in this way, after the same design, of the same size and form.
- 38 And he made ten brass washing-vessels, everyone taking forty baths, and measuring four cubits; one vessel was placed on every one of the ten bases.
- 39 And he put the bases by the house, five on the right side and five on the left; and he put the great water-vessel on the right side of the house, to the east, facing south.
- 40 And Hiram made the pots and spades and the basins. So Hiram came to the end of all the work he did for King Solomon in the house of the Lord:
- 41 The two pillars and the two cups of the crowns which were on the tops of the two pillars; and the network covering the two cups of the crowns on the tops of the pillars,
- 42 And the four hundred apples for the network, two lines of apples for every network, covering the two cups of the crowns on the pillars;
- 43 And the ten bases, with the ten washing-vessels on them;
- 44 And the great water-vessel, with the twelve oxen under it;
- 45 And the pots and the spades and the basins; all the vessels which Hiram made for King Solomon, for the house of the Lord, were of polished brass.
- 46 He made them of liquid metal in the lowland of Jordan, at the way across the river, at Adama, between Succoth and Zarethan.
- 47 The weight of all these vessels was not measured, because there was such a number of them; it was not possible to get the weight of the brass.
- 48 And Solomon had all the vessels made for use in the house of the Lord: the altar of gold and the gold table on which the holy bread was placed;
- 49 And the supports for the lights, five on the right side and five on the left before the inmost room, of clear gold; and the flowers and the lights and all the instruments of gold;

- 50 And the cups and the scissors and the basins and the spoons and the fire-trays, all of gold; and the pins on which the doors were turned, the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and the doors of the Temple, all of gold.
- 51 So all the work King Solomon had done in the house of the Lord was complete. Then Solomon took the holy things which David his father had given, the silver and the gold and all the vessels, and put them in the store-houses of the house of the Lord.
- 1 Then Solomon sent for all the responsible men of Israel, and all the chiefs of the tribes, and the heads of families of the children of Israel, to come to him in Jerusalem to take the ark of the Lord's agreement up out of the town of David, which is Zion.
- 2 And all the men of Israel came together to King Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, the seventh month.
- 3 And all the responsible men of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.
- 4 They took up the ark of the Lord, and the Tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels which were in the Tent; all these the priests and the Levites took up.
- 5 And King Solomon and all the men of Israel who had come together there, were with him before the ark, making offerings of sheep and oxen more than might be numbered.
- 6 And the priests took the ark of the agreement of the Lord and put it in its place in the inner room of the house, in the most holy place, under the wings of the winged ones.
- 7 For their wings were outstretched over the place where the ark was, covering the ark and its rods.
- 8 The rods were so long that their ends were seen from the holy place, in front of the inmost room; but they were not seen from outside: and there they are to this day.
- 9 There was nothing in the ark but the two flat stones which Moses put there at Horeb, where the Lord made an agreement with the children of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt.
- 10 Now when the priests had come out of the holy place, the house of the Lord was full of the cloud,
- 11 So that the priests were not able to keep their places to do their work because of the cloud, for the house of the Lord was full of the glory of the Lord.
- 12 Then Solomon said, O Lord, to the sun you have given the heaven for a living-place, but your living-place was not seen by men;
- 13 So I have made for you a living-place, a house in which you may be for ever present.
- 14 Then, turning his face about, the king gave a blessing to all the men of Israel; and they were all on their feet together.
- 15 And he said, Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, who himself gave his word to David my father, and with his strong hand has made his word come true, saying,
- 16 From the day when I took my people Israel out of Egypt, no town in all the tribes of Israel has been marked out by me for the building of a house for the resting-place of my name; but I made selection of David to be king over my people Israel.
- 17 Now it was in the heart of David my father to put up a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 18 But the Lord said to David my father, You did well to have in your heart the desire to make a house for my name;
- 19 But you yourself will not be the builder of my house; but your son, the offspring of your body, he it is who will put up a house for my name.
- 20 And the Lord has made his word come true; for I have taken my father David's place on the seat of the kingdom of Israel, as the Lord gave his word; and I have made a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 21 In it I have made a place for the ark, in which is the agreement which the Lord made with our fathers, when he took them out of the land of Egypt.
- 22 Then Solomon took his place before the altar of the Lord, all the men of Israel being present, and stretching out his hands to heaven,
- 23 Said, O Lord, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on the earth; keeping faith and mercy unchanging for your servants, while they go in your ways with all their hearts.
- 24 And you have kept the word which you gave to your servant David, my father; with your mouth you said it and with your hand you have made it come true this day.
- 25 So now, O Lord, the God of Israel, let your word to your servant David, my father, come true, when you said, You will never be without a man to take his place on the seat of the kingdom of Israel before me, if only your children give attention to their wa

- 26 So now, O God of Israel, it is my prayer that you will make your word come true which you said to your servant David, my father.
- 27 But is it truly possible that God may be housed on earth? see, heaven and the heaven of heavens are not wide enough to be your resting-place; how much less this house which I have made!
- 28 Still, let your heart be turned to the prayer of your servant, O Lord God, and to his prayer for grace; give ear to the cry and the prayer which your servant sends up to you this day;
- 29 That your eyes may be open to this house night and day, to this place of which you have said, My name will be there; hearing the prayer which your servant may make, turning to this place.
- 30 Give ear to the prayers of your servant, and the prayers of your people Israel, when they make their prayers, turning to this place; give ear in heaven your living-place, and hearing, have mercy.
- 31 If a man does wrong to his neighbour, and has to take an oath, and comes before your altar to take his oath in this house:
- 32 Then let your ear be open in heaven, and be the judge of your servants, giving your decision against the wrongdoer, so that punishment for his sins may come on his head; and, by your decision, keeping from evil him who has done no wrong.
- 33 When your people Israel are overcome in war, because of their sin against you; if they are turned to you again, honouring your name, making prayers to you and requesting your grace in this house:
- 34 Then give ear in heaven, and let the sin of your people Israel have forgiveness, and take them back again into the land which you gave to their fathers.
- 35 When heaven is shut up and there is no rain, because of their sin against you; if they make prayers with their faces turned to this place, honouring your name and turning away from their sin when you send trouble on them:
- 36 Then give ear in heaven, so that the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, may have forgiveness, when you make clear to them the good way in which they are to go; and send rain on your land which you have given to your people for their heritage
- 37 If there is no food in the land, or if there is disease, or if the fruits of the earth are damaged through heat or water, locust or worm; if their towns are shut in by their attackers; whatever trouble, whatever disease there may be:
- 38 Whatever prayer or request for your grace is made by any man, or by all your people Israel, whatever his trouble may be, whose hands are stretched out to this house:
- 39 Give ear in heaven your living-place, acting in mercy; and give to every man whose secret heart is open to you, the reward of all his ways; for you, and you only, have knowledge of the hearts of all the children of men:
- 40 So that they may give you worship all the days of their life in the land which you gave to our fathers.
- 41 And as for the man from a strange land, who is not of your people Israel; when he comes from a far country because of the glory of your name:
- 42 (For they will have news of your great name and your strong hand and your out-stretched arm;) when he comes to make his prayer, turning to this house:
- 43 Give ear in heaven your living-place, and give him his desire, whatever it may be; so that all the peoples of the earth may have knowledge of your name, worshipping you as do your people Israel, and that they may see that this house which I have put up is
- 44 If your people go out to war against their attackers, by whatever way you may send them, if they make their prayer to the Lord, turning their faces to this town of yours and to this house which I have made for your name:
- 45 Give ear in heaven to their prayer and their cry for grace, and see right done to them.
- 46 If they do wrong against you, (for no man is without sin,) and you are angry with them and give them up into the power of those who are fighting against them, so that they take them away as prisoners into a strange land, far off or near;
- 47 And if they take thought, in the land where they are prisoners, and are turned again to you, crying out in prayer to you in that land, and saying, We are sinners, we have done wrong, we have done evil;
- 48 And with all their heart and soul are turned again to you, in the land of those who took them prisoners, and make their prayer to you, turning their eyes to this land which you gave to their fathers, and to the town which you took for yourself, and the ho
- 49 Then give ear to their prayer and to their cry in heaven your living-place, and see right done to them;
- 50 Answering with forgiveness the people who have done wrong against you, and overlooking the evil which they have done against you; let those who made them prisoners be moved with pity for them, and have pity on them;
- 51 For they are your people and your heritage, which you took out of Egypt, out of the iron fireplace;

- 52 Let your eyes be open to your servant's prayer for grace and to the prayer of your people Israel, hearing them when their cry comes to you.
- 53 For you made them separate from all the peoples of the earth, to be your heritage, as you said by Moses your servant, when you took our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.
- 54 Then Solomon, after making all these prayers and requests for grace to the Lord, got up from his knees before the altar of the Lord, where his hands had been stretched out in prayer to heaven;
- 55 And, getting on his feet, he gave a blessing to all the men of Israel, saying with a loud voice,
- 56 Praise be to the Lord who has given rest to his people Israel, as he gave them his word to do; every word of all his oath, which he gave by the hand of Moses his servant, has come true.
- 57 Now may the Lord our God be with us as he was with our fathers; let him never go away from us or give us up;
- 58 Turning our hearts to himself, guiding us to go in all his ways, to keep his orders and his laws and his decisions, which he gave to our fathers.
- 59 And may these my words, the words of my prayer to the Lord, be before the Lord our God day and night, so that he may see right done to his servant and to his people Israel, day by day as we have need.
- 60 So that all the peoples of the earth may see that the Lord is God, and there is no other.
- 61 Then let your hearts be without sin before the Lord our God, walking in his laws and keeping his orders as at this day.
- 62 Now the king, and all Israel with him, were making offerings before the Lord.
- 63 And Solomon gave to the Lord for peace-offerings, twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel kept the feast of the opening of the Lord's house.
- 64 The same day the king made holy the middle of the open square in front of the house of the Lord, offering there the burned offering and the meal offering and the fat of the peace-offerings; for there was not room on the brass altar of the Lord for the bur
- 65 So Solomon and all Israel with him, a very great meeting, (for the people had come together from the way into Hamath to the river of Egypt,) kept the feast at that time before the Lord our God, for two weeks, even fourteen days.
- 66 And on the eighth day he sent the people away, and, blessing the king, they went to their tents full of joy and glad in their hearts, because of all the good which the Lord had done to David his servant and to Israel his people.
- 1 Now when Solomon came to the end of building the house of the Lord and the king's house, and all Solomon's desires, which he had in mind were effected;
- 2 The Lord came to him again in a vision, as he had done at Gibeon;
- 3 And the Lord said to him, Your prayers and your requests for grace have come to my ears: I have made holy this house which you have made, and I have put my name there for ever; my eyes and my heart will be there at all times.
- 4 As for you, if you will go on your way before me, as David your father did, uprightly and with a true heart, doing what I have given you orders to do, keeping my laws and my decisions;
- 5 Then I will make the seat of your rule over Israel certain for ever, as I gave my word to David your father, saying, You will never be without a man to be king in Israel.
- 6 But if you are turned from my ways, you or your children, and do not keep my orders and my laws which I have put before you, but go and make yourselves servants to other gods and give them worship:
- 7 Then I will have Israel cut off from the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for myself, I will put away from before my eyes; and Israel will be a public example, and a word of shame among all peoples.
- 8 And this house will become a mass of broken walls, and everyone who goes by will be overcome with wonder at it and make whistling sounds; and they will say, Why has the Lord done so to this land and to this house?
- 9 And their answer will be, Because they were turned away from the Lord their God, who took their fathers out of the land of Egypt; they took for themselves other gods and gave them worship and became their servants: that is why the Lord has sent all this e
- 10 Now at the end of twenty years, in which time Solomon had put up the two houses, the house of the Lord and the king's house,
- 11 (Hiram, king of Tyre, had given Solomon cedar-trees and cypress-trees and gold, as much as he had need of,) King Solomon gave Hiram twenty towns in the land of Galilee.
- 12 But when Hiram came from Tyre to see the towns which Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them.

- 13 And he said, What sort of towns are these which you have given me, my brother? So they were named the land of Cabul, to this day.
- 14 And Hiram sent the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold.
- 15 Now, this was the way of Solomon's system of forced work for the building of the Lord's house and of the king's house, and the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem and Megiddo and Gezer. ...
- 16 Pharaoh, king of Egypt, came and took Gezer, burning it down and putting to death the Canaanites living in the town, and he gave it for a bride-offering to his daughter, Solomon's wife. ...
- 17 ... and Solomon was the builder of Gezer and Beth-horon the lower,
- 18 And Baalath and Tamar in the waste land, in that land;
- 19 And all the store-towns and the towns which Solomon had for his war-carriages and for his horsemen, and everything which it was his pleasure to put up in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land under his rule.
- 20 As for the rest of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not children of Israel;
- 21 Their children who were still in the land, and whom the children of Israel had not been able to put to complete destruction, them did Solomon put to forced work, to this day.
- 22 But Solomon did not put the children of Israel to forced work; they were the men of war, his servants, his captains, and his chiefs, captains of his war-carriages and of his horsemen.
- 23 These were the chiefs of the overseers of Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, in authority over the people who did the work.
- 24 At that time Solomon made Pharaoh's daughter come up from the town of David to the house which he had made for her: then he made the Millo.
- 25 Three times in the year it was Solomon's way to give burned offerings and peace-offerings on the altar he had made to the Lord, causing his fire-offering to go up on the altar before the Lord.
- 26 And King Solomon made a sea-force of ships in Ezion-geber, by Eloth, on the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.
- 27 Hiram sent his servants, who were experienced seamen, in the sea-force with Solomon's men.
- 28 And they came to Ophir, where they got four hundred and twenty talents of gold, and took it back to King Solomon.
- 1 Now the queen of Sheba, hearing great things of Solomon, came to put his wisdom to the test with hard questions.
- 2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels weighted down with spices, and stores of gold and jewels: and when she came to Solomon she had talk with him of everything in her mind.
- 3 And Solomon gave her answers to all her questions; there was no secret which the king did not make clear to her.
- 4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house which he had made,
- 5 And the food at his table, and all his servants seated there, and those who were waiting on him in their places, and their robes, and his wine-servants, and the burned offerings which he made in the house of the Lord, there was no more spirit in her.
- 6 And she said to the king, The account which was given to me in my country of your acts and your wisdom was true.
- 7 But I had no faith in what was said about you, till I came and saw for myself; and now I see that it was not half the story; your wisdom and your wealth are much greater than they said.
- 8 Happy are your wives, happy are these your servants whose place is ever before you, hearing your words of wisdom.
- 9 May the Lord your God be praised, whose pleasure it was to put you on the seat of the kingdom of Israel; because the Lord's love for Israel is eternal, he has made you king, to be their judge in righteousness.
- 10 And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a great store of spices and jewels: never again was such a wealth of spices seen as that which the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.
- 11 And the sea-force of Hiram, in addition to gold from Ophir, came back with much sandal-wood and jewels.
- 12 And from the sandal-wood the king made pillars for the house of the Lord, and for the king's house, and instruments of music for the makers of melody: never has such sandal-wood been seen to this day.
- 13 And King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she made request for, in addition to what he gave her freely from the impulse of his heart. So she went back to her country, she and her servants.
- 14 Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents;
- 15 In addition to what came to him from the business of the traders, and from all the kings of the Arabians, and from the rulers of the country.
- 16 And Solomon made two hundred body-covers of hammered gold, every one having six hundred shekels of gold in it.

- 17 And he made three hundred smaller body-covers of hammered gold, with three pounds of gold in every cover: and the king put them in the house of the Woods of Lebanon.
- 18 Then the king made a great ivory seat, plated with the best gold.
- 19 There were six steps going up to it, and the top of it was round at the back, there were arms on the two sides of the seat, and two lions by the side of the arms;
- 20 And twelve lions were placed on the one side and on the other side on the six steps: there was nothing like it in any kingdom.
- 21 And all King Solomon's drinking-vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the Woods of Lebanon were of the best gold; not one was of silver, for no one gave a thought to silver in the days of King Solomon.
- 22 For the king had Tarshish-ships at sea with the ships of Hiram; once every three years the Tarshish-ships came with gold and silver and ivory and monkeys and peacocks.
- 23 And King Solomon was greater than all the kings of the earth in wealth and in wisdom.
- 24 And from all over the earth they came to see Solomon and to give ear to his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
- 25 And everyone took with him an offering, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and robes, and coats of metal, and spices, and horses, and beasts of transport, regularly year by year.
- 26 And Solomon got together war-carriages and horsemen; he had one thousand, four hundred carriages and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he kept, some in the carriage-towns and some with the king at Jerusalem.
- 27 And the king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem and cedars like the sycamore-trees of the lowlands in number.
- 28 And Solomon's horses came from Egypt and from Kue; the king's traders got them at a price from Kue.
- 29 A war-carriage might be got from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; they got them at the same rate for all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.
- 1 Now a number of strange women were loved by Solomon, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites:
- 2 The nations of which the Lord had said to the children of Israel, You are not to take wives from them and they are not to take wives from you; or they will certainly make you go after their gods: to these Solomon was united in love.
- 3 He had seven hundred wives, daughters of kings, and three hundred other wives; and through his wives his heart was turned away.
- 4 For it came about that when Solomon was old, his heart was turned away to other gods by his wives; and his heart was no longer true to the Lord his God as the heart of his father David had been.
- 5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Zidonians, and Milcom, the disgusting god of the Ammonites.
- 6 And Solomon did evil in the eyes of the Lord, not walking in the Lord's ways with all his heart as David his father did.
- 7 Then Solomon put up a high place for Chemosh, the disgusting god of Moab, in the mountain before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the disgusting god worshipped by the children of Ammon.
- 8 And so he did for all his strange wives, who made offerings with burning of perfumes to their gods.
- 9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from the Lord, the God of Israel, who had twice come to him in a vision;
- 10 And had given him orders about this very thing, that he was not to go after other gods; but he did not keep the orders of the Lord.
- 11 So the Lord said to Solomon, Because you have done this, and have not kept my agreement and my laws, which I gave you, I will take the kingdom away from you by force and will give it to your servant.
- 12 I will not do it in your life-time, because of your father David, but I will take it from your son.
- 13 Still I will not take all the kingdom from him; but I will give one tribe to your son, because of my servant David, and because of Jerusalem, the town of selection.
- 14 So the Lord sent Hadad the Edomite to make trouble for Solomon: he was of the king's seed in Edom.
- 15 And when David had sent destruction on Edom, and Joab, the captain of the army, had gone to put the dead into the earth, and had put to death every male in Edom;
- 16 (For Joab and all Israel were there six months till every male in Edom had been cut off;)
- 17 Hadad, being still a young boy, went in flight to Egypt, with certain Edomites, servants of his father;

- 18 And they went on from Midian and came to Paran; and, taking men from Paran with them, they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who gave him a house and gave orders for his food and gave him land.
- 19 Now Hadad was very pleasing to Pharaoh, so that he gave him the sister of his wife, Tahpenes the queen, for his wife.
- 20 And the sister of Tahpenes had a son by him, Genubath, whom Tahpenes took care of in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was living in Pharaoh's house among Pharaoh's sons.
- 21 Now when Hadad had news in Egypt that David had been put to rest with his fathers, and that Joab, the captain of the army, was dead, he said to Pharaoh, Send me back to my country.
- 22 But Pharaoh said to him, What have you been short of while you have been with me, that you are desiring to go back to your country? And he said, Nothing; but even so, send me back.
- 23 And God sent another trouble-maker, Rezon, the son of Eliada, who had gone in flight from his lord, Hadadezer, king of Zobah:
- 24 He got some men together and made himself captain of a band of outlaws; and went to Damascus and became king there.
- 25 He was a trouble to Israel all through the days of Solomon. And this is the damage Hadad did: he was cruel to Israel while he was ruler over Edom.
- 26 And there was Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother was Zeruah, a widow; and his hand was lifted up against the king.
- 27 The way in which his hand came to be lifted up against the king was this: Solomon was building the Millo and making good the damaged parts of the town of his father David;
- 28 And Jeroboam was an able and responsible man; and Solomon saw that he was a good worker and made him overseer of all the work given to the sons of Joseph.
- 29 Now at that time, when Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite came across him on the road; now Ahijah had put on a new robe; and the two of them were by themselves in the open country.
- 30 And Ahijah took his new robe in his hands, parting it violently into twelve.
- 31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take ten of the parts, for this is what the Lord has said: See, I will take the kingdom away from Solomon by force, and will give ten tribes to you;
- 32 (But one tribe will be his, because of my servant David, and because of Jerusalem, the town which, out of all the tribes of Israel, I have made mine,)
- 33 Because they are turned away from me to the worship of Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Zidonians, and Chemosh, the god of Moab, and Milcom, the god of the Ammonites; they have not been walking in my ways or doing what is right in my eyes or keeping my laws
- 34 But I will not take the kingdom from him; I will let him be king all the days of his life, because of David my servant, in whom I took delight because he kept my orders and my laws.
- 35 But I will take the kingdom from his son, and give it to you.
- 36 And one tribe I will give to his son, so that David my servant may have a light for ever burning before me in Jerusalem, the town which I have made mine to put my name there.
- 37 And you I will take, and you will be king over Israel, ruling over whatever is the desire of your soul.
- 38 And if you give attention to the orders I give you, walking in my ways and doing what is right in my eyes and keeping my laws and my orders as David my servant did; then I will be with you, building up for you a safe house, as I did for David, and I will
- 39 (So that I may send trouble for this on the seed of David, but not for ever.)
- 40 And Solomon was looking for a chance to put Jeroboam to death; but he went in flight to Egypt, to Shishak, king of Egypt, and was in Egypt till the death of Solomon.
- 41 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all he did, and his wisdom, are they not recorded in the book of the acts of Solomon?
- 42 And the time Solomon was king in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.
- 43 And Solomon went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in the town of David his father: and Solomon went to rest with his fathers and Rehoboam his son became king in his place.
- 1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all Israel had come together to make him king,
- 2 And, hearing of it, Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who was still in Egypt, where he had gone in flight from Solomon, and was living there, came back to his town Zeredah, in the hill-country of Ephraim;

- 3 And all the men of Israel came to Rehoboam and said,
- 4 Your father put a hard yoke on us: if you will make the conditions under which your father kept us down less cruel, and the weight of the yoke he put on us less hard, then we will be your servants.
- 5 And he said to them, Go away for three days and then come back to me again. So the people went away.
- 6 Then King Rehoboam took the opinion of the old men who had been with Solomon his father when he was living, and said, In your opinion, what answer am I to give to this people?
- 7 And they said to him, If you will be a servant to this people today, caring for them and giving them a gentle answer, then they will be your servants for ever.
- 8 But he gave no attention to the opinion of the old men, and went to the young men of his generation who were waiting before him:
- 9 And said to them, What is your opinion? What answer are we to give to this people who have said to me, Make less the weight of the yoke which your father put on us?
- 10 And the young men of his generation said to him, This is the answer to give to the people who came to you saying, Your father put a hard yoke on us; will you make it less? say to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's body;
- 11 If my father put a hard yoke on you, I will make it harder: my father gave you punishment with whips, but I will give you blows with snakes.
- 12 So all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had given orders, saying, Come back to me the third day.
- 13 And the king gave them a rough answer, giving no attention to the suggestion of the old men;
- 14 But giving them the answer put forward by the young men, saying, My father made your yoke hard, but I will make it harder; my father gave you punishment with whips, but I will give it with snakes.
- 15 So the king did not give ear to the people; and this came about by the purpose of the Lord, so that what he had said by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam, son of Nebat, might be effected.
- 16 And when all Israel saw that the king would give no attention to them, the people in answer said to the king, What part have we in David? what is our heritage in the son of Jesse? to your tents, O Israel; now see to your people, David. So Israel went away
- 17 (But Rehoboam was still king over those of the children of Israel who were living in the towns of Judah.)
- 18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, the overseer of the forced work; and he was stoned to death by all Israel. And King Rehoboam went quickly and got into his carriage to go in flight to Jerusalem.
- 19 So Israel was turned away from the family of David to this day.
- 20 Now when all Israel had news that Jeroboam had come back, they sent for him to come before the meeting of the people, and made him king over Israel: not one of them was joined to the family of David but only the tribe of Judah.
- 21 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he got together all the men of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand of his best fighting-men, to make war against Israel and get the kingdom back for Rehoboam, the son of Solomon.
- 22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah, the man of God, saying,
- 23 Say to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the men of Judah and Benjamin and the rest of the people:
- 24 The Lord has said, You are not to go to war against your brothers, the children of Israel; go back, every man to his house, because this thing is my purpose. So they gave ear to the word of the Lord, and went back, as the Lord had said.
- 25 Then Jeroboam made the town of Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim a strong place, and was living there; and from there he went out and did the same to Penuel.
- 26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now the kingdom will go back to the family of David:
- 27 If the people go up to make offerings in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, their heart will be turned again to their lord, to Rehoboam, king of Judah; and they will put me to death and go back to Rehoboam, king of Judah.
- 28 So after taking thought the king made two oxen of gold; and he said to the people, You have been going up to Jerusalem long enough; see! these are your gods, O Israel, who took you out of the land of Egypt.
- 29 And he put one in Beth-el and the other in Dan.
- 30 And this became a sin in Israel; for the people went to give worship to the one at Beth-el, and to the other at Dan.
- 31 And he made places for worship at the high places, and made priests, who were not Levites, from among all the people.

- 32 And Jeroboam gave orders for a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast which is kept in Judah, and he went up to the altar. And in the same way, in Beth-el, he gave offerings to the oxen which he had made, placing in B
- 33 He went up to the altar he had made in Beth-el on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, the month fixed by him at his pleasure; and he gave orders for a feast for the people of Israel, and went up to the altar, and there he made the smoke of his offering
- 1 Then a man of God came from Judah by the order of the Lord to Beth-el, where Jeroboam was by the altar, burning offerings.
- 2 And by the order of the Lord he made an outcry against the altar, saying, O altar, altar, the Lord has said, From the seed of David will come a child, named Josiah, and on you he will put to death the priests of the high places, who are burning offerings
- 3 The same day he gave them a sign, saying, This is the sign which the Lord has given: See, the altar will be broken and the burned waste on it overturned.
- 4 Then the king, hearing the man of God crying out against the altar at Beth-el, put out his hand from the altar, saying, Take him prisoner. And his hand, stretched out against him, became dead, and he had no power of pulling it back.
- 5 And the altar was broken and the burned waste on it overturned; this was the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the Lord.
- 6 Then the king made answer and said to the man of God, Make a prayer now for the grace of the Lord your God, and for me, that my hand may be made well. And in answer to the prayer of the man of God, the king's hand was made well again, as it was before.
- 7 And the king said to the man of God, Come with me to my house for food and rest, and I will give you a reward.
- 8 But the man of God said to the king, Even if you gave me half of all you have, I would not go in with you, and I would not take food or a drink of water in this place;
- 9 For so I was ordered by the word of the Lord, who said, You are not to take food or a drink of water, and you are not to go back the way you came.
- 10 So he went another way, and not by the way he came to Beth-el.
- 11 Now there was an old prophet living in Beth-el; and one of his sons came and gave him word of all the man of God had done that day in Beth-el, and they gave their father an account of the words he had said to the king.
- 12 Then their father said to them, Which way did he go? Now his sons had seen which way the man of God who came from Judah had gone.
- 13 So the prophet said to his sons, Make ready an ass for me. So they made an ass ready, and he got on it,
- 14 And went after the man of God, and came up with him while he was seated under an oak-tree. And he said to him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? And he said, I am.
- 15 Then he said to him, Come back to the house with me and have a meal.
- 16 But he said, I may not go back with you or go into your house; and I will not take food or a drink of water with you in this place;
- 17 For the Lord said to me, You are not to take food or water there, or go back again by the way you came.
- 18 Then he said to him, I am a prophet like you; and an angel said to me by the word of the Lord, Take him back with you and give him food and water. But he said false words to him.
- 19 So he went back with him, and had a meal in his house and a drink of water.
- 20 But while they were seated at the table, the word of the Lord came to the prophet who had taken him back;
- 21 And crying out to the man of God who came from Judah, he said, The Lord says, Because you have gone against the voice of the Lord, and have not done as you were ordered by the Lord,
- 22 But have come back, and have taken food and water in this place where he said you were to take no food or water; your dead body will not be put to rest with your fathers.
- 23 Now after the meal he made ready the ass for him, for the prophet whom he had taken back.
- 24 And he went on his way; but on the road a lion came rushing at him and put him to death; and his dead body was stretched in the road with the ass by its side, and the lion was there by the body.
- 25 And some men, going by, saw the body stretched out in the road with the lion by its side; and they came and gave news of it in the town where the old prophet was living.

- 26 Then the prophet who had made him come back, hearing it, said, It is the man of God, who went against the word of the Lord; that is why the Lord has given him to the lion to be wounded to death, as the Lord said.
- 27 And he said to his sons, Make ready the ass for me. And they did so.
- 28 And he went and saw the dead body stretched out in the road with the ass and the lion by its side: the lion had not taken the body for its food or done any damage to the ass.
- 29 Then the prophet took up the body of the man of God and put it on the ass and took it back; and he came to the town to put the body to rest with weeping.
- 30 And he put the body in the resting-place made ready for himself, weeping and sorrowing over it, saying, O my brother!
- 31 And when he had put it to rest, he said to his sons, When I am dead, then you are to put my body into the earth with the body of this man of God, and put me by his bones so that my bones may be kept safe with his bones.
- 32 For the outcry he made by the word of the Lord against the altar in Beth-el and against all the houses of the high places in the towns of Samaria, will certainly come about.
- 33 After this Jeroboam, not turning back from his evil ways, still made priests for his altars from among all the people; he made a priest of anyone desiring it, so that there might be priests of the high places.
- 34 And this became a sin in the family of Jeroboam, causing it to be cut off and sent to destruction from the face of the earth.
- 1 At that time Abijah, the son of Jeroboam, became ill.
- 2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Now come, put on different clothing so that you may not seem to be the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh; see, Ahijah is there, the prophet who said I would be king over this people.
- 3 And take with you ten cakes of bread and dry cakes and a pot of honey, and go to him: he will give you word of what is to become of the child.
- 4 So Jeroboam's wife did so, and got up and went to Shiloh and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah was unable to see, because he was very old.
- 5 And the Lord had said to Ahijah, The wife of Jeroboam is coming to get news from you about her son, who is ill; give her such and such an answer; for she will make herself seem to be another woman.
- 6 Then Ahijah, hearing the sound of her footsteps coming in at the door, said, Come in, O wife of Jeroboam; why do you make yourself seem like another? for I am sent to you with bitter news.
- 7 Go, say to Jeroboam, These are the words of the Lord, the God of Israel: Though I took you from among the people, lifting you up to be a ruler over my people Israel,
- 8 And took the kingdom away by force from the seed of David and gave it to you, you have not been like my servant David, who kept my orders, and was true to me with all his heart, doing only what was right in my eyes.
- 9 But you have done evil more than any before you, and have made for yourself other gods, and images of metal, moving me to wrath, and turning your back on me.
- 10 So I will send evil on the line of Jeroboam, cutting off from his family every male child, those who are shut up and those who go free in Israel; the family of Jeroboam will be brushed away like a man brushing away waste till it is all gone.
- 11 Those of the family of Jeroboam who come to death in the town, will become food for the dogs; and those on whom death comes in the open country, will be food for the birds of the air; for the Lord has said it.
- 12 Up, then! go back to your house; and in the hour when your feet go into the town, the death of the child will take place.
- 13 And all Israel will put his body to rest, weeping over him, because he only of the family of Jeroboam will be put into his resting-place in the earth; for of all the family of Jeroboam, in him only has the Lord, the God of Israel, seen some good.
- 14 And the Lord will put up a king over Israel who will send destruction on the family of Jeroboam in that day;
- 15 And even now the hand of the Lord has come down on Israel, shaking it like a river-grass in the water; and, uprooting Israel from this good land, which he gave to their fathers, he will send them this way and that on the other side of the River; because t
- 16 And he will give Israel up because of the sins which Jeroboam has done and made Israel do.
- 17 Then Jeroboam's wife got up and went away and came to Tirzah; and when she came to the doorway of the house, death came to the child.
- 18 And all Israel put his body to rest, weeping over him, as the Lord had said by his servant Ahijah the prophet.
- 19 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he became king, are recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.

- 20 And Jeroboam was king for twenty-two years, and was put to rest with his fathers, and Nadab his son became king in his place.
- 21 And Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, was king in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he was king for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the town which the Lord had made his out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there; his m
- 22 And Judah did evil in the eyes of the Lord, and made him more angry than their fathers had done by their sins.
- 23 For they made high places and upright stones and wood pillars on every high hill and under every green tree;
- 24 And more than this, there were those in the land who were used for sex purposes in the worship of the gods, doing the same disgusting crimes as the nations which the Lord had sent out before the children of Israel.
- 25 Now in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak, king of Egypt, came up against Jerusalem;
- 26 And took away all the stored wealth from the house of the Lord, and from the king's house, and all the gold body-covers which Solomon had made.
- 27 So in their place King Rehoboam had other body-covers made of brass, and gave them into the care of the captains of the armed men who were stationed at the door of the king's house.
- 28 And whenever the king went into the house of the Lord, the armed men went with him taking the body-covers, and then took them back to their room.
- 29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.
- 31 And Rehoboam went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth with his fathers in the town of David; his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonite woman. And Abijam his son became king in his place.
- 1 Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah.
- 2 For three years he was king in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom.
- 3 And he did the same sins which his father had done before him: his heart was not completely true to the Lord his God, like the heart of David his father.
- 4 But because of David, the Lord gave him a light in Jerusalem, making his sons king after him, so that Jerusalem might be safe;
- 5 Because David did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, and never in all his life went against his orders, but only in the question of Uriah the Hittite.
- 6 ...
- 7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.
- 8 Then Abijam went to rest with his fathers, and they put him into the earth in the town of David: and Asa his son became king in his place.
- 9 In the twentieth year that Jeroboam was king of Israel, Asa became king over Judah.
- 10 And he was king for forty-one years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom.
- 11 Asa did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as David his father did.
- 12 Those used for sex purposes in the worship of the gods he sent out of the country, and he took away all the images which his fathers had made.
- 13 And he would not let Maacah his mother be queen, because she had made a disgusting image for Asherah; and Asa had the image cut down and burned by the stream Kidron.
- 14 The high places, however, were not taken away: but still the heart of Asa was true to the Lord all his life.
- 15 He took into the house of the Lord all the things which his father had made holy, and those which he himself had made holy, silver and gold and vessels.
- 16 Now there was war between Asa and Baasha, king of Israel, all their days.
- 17 And Baasha, king of Israel, went up against Judah, building Ramah, so that no one was able to go out or in to Asa, king of Judah.
- 18 Then Asa took all the silver and gold which was still stored in the Lord's house, and in the king's house, and sent them, in the care of his servants, to Ben-hadad, son of Tabrimmon, son of Rezon, king of Aram, at Damascus, saying,

- 19 Let there be an agreement between me and you as there was between my father and your father: see, I have sent you an offering of silver and gold; go and put an end to your agreement with Baasha, king of Israel, so that he may give up attacking me.
- 20 So Ben-hadad did as King Asa said, and sent the captains of his armies against the towns of Israel, attacking Ijon and Dan and Abel-beth-maacah, and all Chinneroth as far as all the land of Naphtali.
- 21 And Baasha, hearing of it, put a stop to the building of Ramah, and was living in Tirzah.
- 22 Then King Asa got all Judah together, making every man come; and they took away the stones and the wood with which Baasha was building Ramah, and King Asa made use of them for building Geba in the land of Benjamin, and Mizpah.
- 23 Now the rest of the acts of Asa, and his power, and all he did, and the towns of which he was the builder, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah? But when he was old he had a disease of the feet.
- 24 So Asa went to rest with his fathers and was put into the earth in the town of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son became king in his place.
- 25 Nadab, the son of Jeroboam, became king over Israel in the second year that Asa was king of Judah; and he was king of Israel for two years.
- 26 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, copying the evil ways of his father, and the sin which he did and made Israel do.
- 27 And Baasha, the son of Ahijah, of the family of Issachar, made a secret design against him, attacking him at Gibbethon, a town of the Philistines; for Nadab and the armies of Israel were making war on Gibbethon.
- 28 In the third year of the rule of Asa, king of Judah, Baasha put him to death, and became king in his place.
- 29 And straight away when he became king, he sent destruction on all the offspring of Jeroboam; there was not one living person of all the family of Jeroboam whom he did not put to death, so the word of the Lord, which he said by his servant Ahijah the Shilo
- 30 Because of the sins which Jeroboam did and made Israel do, moving the Lord, the God of Israel, to wrath.
- 31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha, king of Israel, all their days.
- 33 In the third year of the rule of Asa, king of Judah, Baasha, the son of Ahijah, became king over all Israel in Tirzah, and was king for twenty-four years.
- 34 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, copying the evil ways of Jeroboam and the sin which he made Israel do.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to Jehu, son of Hanani, protesting against Baasha and saying,
- 2 Because I took you up out of the dust, and made you ruler over my people Israel; and you have gone in the ways of Jeroboam, and made my people Israel do evil, moving me to wrath by their sins;
- 3 Truly, I will see that Baasha and all his family are completely brushed away; I will make your family like the family of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.
- 4 Anyone of the family of Baasha who comes to death in the town, will become food for the dogs; and he to whom death comes in the open country, will be food for the birds of the air.
- 5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 6 And Baasha went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth at Tirzah; and Elah his son became king in his place.
- 7 And the Lord sent his word against Baasha and his family by the mouth of the prophet Jehu, the son of Hanani, because of all the evil he did in the eyes of the Lord, moving him to wrath by the work of his hands, because he was like the family of Jeroboam,
- 8 In the twenty-sixth year that Asa was king of Judah, Elah, the son of Baasha, became king of Israel in Tirzah, and he was king for two years.
- 9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his war-carriages, made secret designs against him: now he was in Tirzah, drinking hard in the house of Arza, controller of the king's house in Tirzah.
- 10 And Zimri went in and made an attack on him and put him to death, in the twenty-seventh year that Asa was king of Judah, and made himself king in his place.
- 11 And straight away when he became king and took his place on the seat of the kingdom, he put to death all the family of Baasha: not one male child of his relations or his friends kept his life.

- 12 So Zimri put to death all the family of Baasha, so that the word which the Lord said against him by the mouth of Jehu the prophet came about;
- 13 Because of all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they did and made Israel do, moving the Lord, the God of Israel, to wrath by their foolish acts.
- 14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa, king of Judah, Zimri was king for seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were attacking Gibbethon in the land of the Philistines.
- 16 And news came to the people in the tents that Zimri had made a secret design and had put the king to death: so all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king that day in the tents.
- 17 Then Omri went up from Gibbethon, with all the army of Israel, and they made an attack on Tirzah, shutting in the town on every side.
- 18 And when Zimri saw that the town was taken, he went into the inner room of the king's house, and burning the house over his head, came to his end,
- 19 Because of his sin in doing evil in the eyes of the Lord, in going in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he made Israel do.
- 20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the secret design he made, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 21 Then there was a division among the people of Israel; half the people were for making Tibni, son of Ginath, king, and half were supporting Omri.
- 22 But the supporters of Omri overcame those who were on the side of Tibni, the son of Ginath; and death came to Tibni and to his brother Joram at that time: and Omri became king in the place of Tibni.
- 23 In the thirty-first year of Asa, king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and he was king for twelve years; for six years he was ruling in Tirzah.
- 24 He got the hill Samaria from Shemer for the price of two talents of silver, and he made a town there, building it on the hill and naming it Samaria, after Shemer the owner of the hill.
- 25 And Omri did evil in the eyes of the Lord, even worse than all those before him,
- 26 Copying all the evil ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and all the sins he did and made Israel do, moving the Lord, the God of Israel, to wrath by their foolish ways.
- 27 Now the rest of the acts which Omri did, and his great power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 28 So Omri went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in Samaria; and Ahab his son became king in his place.
- 29 In the thirty-eighth year that Asa was king of Judah, Ahab, the son of Omri, became king over Israel; and Ahab was king in Samaria for twenty-two years.
- 30 And Ahab, the son of Omri, did evil in the eyes of the Lord, even worse than all who went before him.
- 31 And as if copying the evil ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, was a small thing for him, he took as his wife Jezebel, daughter of Ethbaal, king of Zidon, and became a servant and worshipper of Baal.
- 32 And he put up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal which he had made in Samaria.
- 33 And Ahab made an image of Asherah and did more than all the kings of Israel before him to make the Lord, the God of Israel, angry.
- 34 In his days Hiel made Jericho; he put its base in position at the price of Abiram, his oldest son, and he put its doors in place at the price of his youngest son Segub; even as the Lord had said by Joshua, the son of Nun.
- 1 And Elijah the Tishbite, of Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, By the living Lord, the God of Israel, whose servant I am, there will be no dew or rain in these years, but only at my word.
- 2 Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying,
- 3 Go from here in the direction of the east, and keep yourself in a secret place by the stream Cherith, east of Jordan.
- 4 The water of the stream will be your drink, and by my orders the ravens will give you food there.
- 5 So he went and did as the Lord said, living by the stream Cherith, east of Jordan.
- 6 And the ravens took him bread in the morning and meat in the evening; and the water of the stream was his drink.
- 7 Now after a time the stream became dry, because there was no rain in the land.
- 8 Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

- 9 Up! go now to Zarephath, in Zidon, and make your living-place there; I have given orders to a widow woman there to see that you have food.
- 10 So he got up and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the door of the town, he saw a widow woman getting sticks together; and crying out to her he said, Will you give me a little water in a vessel for my drink?
- 11 And when she was going to get it, he said to her, And get me with it a small bit of bread.
- 12 Then she said, By the life of the Lord your God, I have nothing but a little meal in my store, and a drop of oil in the bottle; and now I am getting two sticks together so that I may go in and make it ready for me and my son, so that we may have a meal be
- 13 And Elijah said to her, Have no fear; go and do as you have said, but first make me a little cake of it and come and give it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son.
- 14 For this is the word of the Lord, the God of Israel: The store of meal will not come to an end, and the bottle will never be without oil, till the day when the Lord sends rain on the earth.
- 15 So she went and did as Elijah said; and she and he and her family had food for a long time.
- 16 The store of meal did not come to an end, and the bottle was never without oil, as the Lord had said by the mouth of Elijah.
- 17 Now after this, the son of the woman of the house became ill, so ill that there was no breath in him.
- 18 And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, O man of God? have you come to put God in mind of my sin, and to put my son to death?
- 19 And he said to her, Give your son to me. And lifting him out of her arms, he took him up to his room and put him down on his bed.
- 20 And crying to the Lord he said, O Lord my God, have you sent evil even on the widow whose guest I am, by causing her son's death?
- 21 And stretching herself out on the child three times, he made his prayer to the Lord, saying, O Lord my God, be pleased to let this child's life come back to him again.
- 22 And the Lord gave ear to the voice of Elijah, and the child's spirit came into him again, and he came back to life.
- 23 And Elijah took the child down from his room into the house and gave him to his mother and said to her, See, your son is living.
- 24 Then the woman said to Elijah, Now I am certain that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is true.
- 1 Now after a long time, the word of the Lord came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go and let Ahab see you, so that I may send rain on the earth.
- 2 So Elijah went to let Ahab see him. Now there was no food to be had in Samaria.
- 3 And Ahab sent for Obadiah, the controller of the king's house. (Now Obadiah had the fear of the Lord before him greatly;
- 4 For when Jezebel was cutting off the prophets of the Lord, Obadiah took a hundred of them, and kept them secretly in a hole in the rock, fifty at a time, and gave them bread and water.)
- 5 And Ahab said to Obadiah, Come, let us go through all the country, to all the fountains of water and all the rivers, and see if there is any grass to be had for the horses and the transport beasts, so that we may be able to keep some of the beasts from de
- 6 So they went through all the country, covering it between them; Ahab went in one direction by himself, and Obadiah went in another by himself.
- 7 And while Obadiah was on his way, he came face to face with Elijah; and seeing who it was, he went down on his face and said, Is it you, my lord Elijah?
- 8 And Elijah in answer said, It is I; now go and say to your lord, Elijah is here.
- 9 And he said, What sin have I done, that you would give up your servant into the hand of Ahab, and be the cause of my death?
- 10 By the life of the Lord your God, there is not a nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent in search of you; and when they said, He is not here; he made them take an oath that they had not seen you.
- 11 And now you say, Go, say to your lord, Elijah is here.

- 12 And straight away, when I have gone from you, the spirit of the Lord will take you away, I have no idea where, so that when I come and give word to Ahab, and he sees you not, he will put me to death: though I, your servant, have been a worshipper of the L
- 13 Has my lord not had word of what I did when Jezebel was putting the Lord's prophets to death? how I kept a hundred of them in a secret hole in the rock, fifty at a time, and gave them bread and water?
- 14 And now you say, Go and say to your Lord, Elijah is here; and he will put me to death.
- 15 And Elijah said, By the life of the Lord of armies, whose servant I am, I will certainly let him see me today.
- 16 So Obadiah went to Ahab and gave him the news; and Ahab went to see Elijah.
- 17 And when he saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, Is it you, you troubler of Israel?
- 18 Then he said in answer, I have not been troubling Israel, but you and your family; because, turning away from the orders of the Lord, you have gone after the Baals.
- 19 Now send, and get Israel together before me at Mount Carmel, with the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal who get their food at Jezebel's table.
- 20 So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and got the prophets together at Mount Carmel.
- 21 And Elijah came near to all the people and said, How long will you go on balancing between two opinions? if the Lord is God, then give worship to him; but if Baal, give worship to him. And the people said not a word in answer.
- 22 Then Elijah said to the people, I, even I, am the only living prophet of the Lord; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.
- 23 Now, let them give us two oxen; and let them take one for themselves, and have it cut up, and put it on the wood, but put no fire under it; I will get the other ox ready, and put it on the wood, and put no fire under it.
- 24 And do you make prayers to your god, and I will make a prayer to the Lord: and it will be clear that the one who gives an answer by fire is God. And all the people in answer said, It is well said.
- 25 Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Take one ox for yourselves and get it ready first, for there are more of you; and make your prayers to your god, but put no fire under.
- 26 So they took the ox which was given them, and made it ready, crying out to Baal from morning till the middle of the day, and saying, O Baal, give ear to us. But there was no voice and no answer. And they were jumping up and down before the altar they had
- 27 And in the middle of the day, Elijah made sport of them, saying, Give louder cries, for he is a god; he may be deep in thought, or he may have gone away for some purpose, or he may be on a journey, or by chance he is sleeping and has to be made awake.
- 28 So they gave loud cries, cutting themselves with knives and swords, as was their way, till the blood came streaming out all over them.
- 29 And from the middle of the day they went on with their prayers till the time of the offering; but there was no voice, or any answer, or any who gave attention to them.
- 30 Then Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me; and all the people came near. And he put up again the altar of the Lord which had been broken down.
- 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the Lord had said, Israel will be your name:
- 32 And with the stones he made an altar to the name of the Lord; and he made a deep drain all round the altar, great enough to take two measures of seed.
- 33 And he put the wood in order, and, cutting up the ox, put it on the wood. Then he said, Get four vessels full of water and put it on the burned offering and on the wood. And he said, Do it a second time, and they did it a second time;
- 34 And he said, Do it a third time, and they did it a third time.
- 35 And the water went all round the altar, till the drain was full.
- 36 Then at the time of the offering, Elijah the prophet came near and said, O Lord, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be seen this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things by your ord
- 37 Give me an answer, O Lord, give me an answer, so that this people may see that you are God, and that you have made their hearts come back again.
- 38 Then the fire of the Lord came down, burning up the offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and drinking up the water in the drain.

- 39 And when the people saw it, they all went down on their faces, and said, The Lord, he is God, the Lord, he is God.
- 40 And Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal, let not one of them get away. So they took them, and Elijah made them go down to the stream Kishon, and put them to death there.
- 41 Then Elijah said to Ahab, Up! take food and drink, for there is a sound of much rain.
- 42 So Ahab went up to have food and drink, while Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he went down on the earth, putting his face between his knees.
- 43 And he said to his servant, Go now, and take a look in the direction of the sea. And he went up, and after looking said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times; and he went seven times.
- 44 And the seventh time he said, I see a cloud coming up out of the sea, as small as a man's hand. Then he said, Go up and say to Ahab, Get your carriage ready and go down or the rain will keep you back.
- 45 And after a very little time, the heaven became black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab went in his carriage to Jezreel.
- 46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah; and he made himself strong, and went running before Ahab till they came to Jezreel.
- 1 Ahab gave Jezebel news of all Elijah had done, and how he had put all the prophets to death with the sword.
- 2 Then Jezebel sent a servant to Elijah, saying, May the gods' punishment be on me if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.
- 3 And he got up, fearing for his life, and went in flight, and came to Beer-sheba in Judah, parting there from his servant;
- 4 While he himself went a day's journey into the waste land, and took a seat under a broom-plant, desiring for himself only death; for he said, It is enough: now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers.
- 5 And stretching himself on the earth, he went to sleep under the broom-plant; but an angel, touching him, said to him, Get up and have some food.
- 6 And looking up, he saw by his head a cake cooked on the stones and a bottle of water. So he took food and drink and went to sleep again.
- 7 And the angel of the Lord came again a second time, and touching him said, Get up and have some food, or the journey will be overmuch for your strength.
- 8 So he got up and took food and drink, and in the strength of that food he went on for forty days and nights, to Horeb, the mountain of God.
- 9 And there he went into a hole in the rock for the night; then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, What are you doing here, Elijah?
- 10 And he said, I have been burning for the honour of the Lord, the God of armies; for the children of Israel have not kept your agreement; they have made destruction of your altars, and have put your prophets to death with the sword: till I, even I, am the
- 11 Then he said, Go out and take your place on the mountain before the Lord. Then the Lord went by, and mountains were parted by the force of a great wind, and rocks were broken before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind. And after the wind there was
- 12 And after the earth-shock a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire, the sound of a soft breath.
- 13 And Elijah, hearing it, went out, covering his face with his robe, and took his place in the opening of the hole. And there a voice came to him saying, What are you doing here, Elijah?
- 14 And he said, I have been burning for the honour of the Lord, the God of armies; for the children of Israel have not kept your agreement; they have had your altars broken down, and have put your prophets to death with the sword: till I, even I, am the only
- 15 And the Lord said to him, Go back on your way through the waste land to Damascus; and when you come there, put the holy oil on Hazael to make him king over Aram;
- 16 And on Jehu, son of Nimshi, making him king over Israel; and on Elisha, the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah, to be prophet in your place.
- 17 And it will come about that the man who gets away safe from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will put to death; and whoever gets away safe from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will put to death.
- 18 But I will keep safe seven thousand in Israel, all those whose knees have not been bent to Baal, and whose mouths have given him no kisses.

- 19 So he went away from there and came across Elisha, the son of Shaphat, ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen, he himself walking with the twelfth; and Elijah went up to him and put his robe on him.
- 20 And letting the oxen be where they were, he came running after Elijah, and said, Only let me give a kiss to my father and mother, and then I will come after you. But he said to him, Go back again; for what have I done to you?
- 21 And he went back, and took the oxen and put them to death, and cooking their flesh with the yokes of the oxen, he gave the people a feast. Then he got up and went after Elijah and became his servant.
- 1 Now Ben-hadad, king of Aram, got all his army together, and thirty-two kings with him, and horses and carriages of war; he went up and made war on Samaria, shutting it in.
- 2 And he sent representatives into the town to Ahab, king of Israel;
- 3 And they said to him, Ben-hadad says, Your silver and your gold are mine; and your wives and children are mine.
- 4 And the king of Israel sent him an answer saying, As you say, my lord king, I am yours with all I have.
- 5 Then the representatives came back again, and said, These are the words of Ben-hadad: I sent to you saying, Give up to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children;
- 6 But I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, to make a search through your house and the houses of your people, and everything which is pleasing in your eyes they will take away in their hands.
- 7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the responsible men of the land, and said, Now will you take note and see the evil purpose of this man: he sent for my wives and my children, my silver and my gold, and I did not keep them back.
- 8 And all the responsible men and the people said to him, Do not give attention to him or do what he says.
- 9 So he said to the representatives of Ben-hadad, Say to my lord the king, All the orders you sent the first time I will do; but this thing I may not do. And the representatives went back with this answer.
- 10 Then Ben-hadad sent to him, saying, May the gods' punishment be on me if there is enough of the dust of Samaria for all the people at my feet to take some in their hands.
- 11 And the king of Israel said in answer, Say to him, The time for loud talk is not when a man is putting on his arms, but when he is taking them off.
- 12 Now when this answer was given to Ben-hadad, he was drinking with the kings in the tents, and he said to his men, Take up your positions. So they put themselves in position for attacking the town.
- 13 Then a prophet came up to Ahab, king of Israel, and said, The Lord says, Have you seen all this great army? See, I will give it into your hands today, and you will see that I am the Lord.
- 14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, The Lord says, By the servants of the chiefs who are over the divisions of the land. Then he said, By whom is the fighting to be started? And he made answer, By you.
- 15 Then he got together the servants of all the chiefs who were over the divisions of the land, two hundred and thirty-two of them; and after them, he got together all the people, all the children of Israel, seven thousand.
- 16 And in the middle of the day they went out. But Ben-hadad was drinking in the tents with the thirty-two kings who were helping him.
- 17 And the servants of the chiefs who were over the divisions of the land went forward first; and when Ben-hadad sent out, they gave him the news, saying, Men have come out from Samaria.
- 18 And he said, If they have come out for peace, take them living, and if they have come out for war, take them living.
- 19 So the servants of the chiefs of the divisions of the land went out of the town, with the army coming after them.
- 20 And every one of them put his man to death, and the Aramaeans went in flight with Israel after them; and Ben-hadad, king of Aram, got away safely on a horse with his horsemen.
- 21 And the king of Israel went out and took the horses and the war-carriages, and made great destruction among the Aramaeans.
- 22 Then the prophet came up to the king of Israel, and said to him, Now make yourself strong, and take care what you do, or a year from now the king of Aram will come up against you again.
- 23 Then the king of Aram's servants said to him, Their god is a god of the hills; that is why they were stronger than we: but if we make an attack on them in the lowlands, we will certainly be stronger than they.
- 24 This is what you have to do: take away the kings from their positions, and put captains in their places;
- 25 And get together another army like the one which came to destruction, horse for horse, and carriage for carriage; and let us make war on them in the lowlands, and certainly we will be stronger than they. And he gave ear to what they said, and did so.

- 26 So, a year later, Ben-hadad got the Aramaeans together and went up to Aphek to make war on Israel.
- 27 And the children of Israel got themselves together, and food was made ready and they went against them; the tents of the children of Israel were like two little flocks of goats before them, but all the country was full of the Aramaeans.
- 28 And a man of God came up and said to the king of Israel, The Lord says, Because the Aramaeans have said, The Lord is a god of the hills and not of the valleys; I will give all this great army into your hands, and you will see that I am the Lord.
- 29 Now the two armies kept their positions facing one another for seven days. And on the seventh day the fight was started; and the children of Israel put to the sword a hundred thousand Aramaean footmen in one day.
- 30 But the rest went in flight to Aphek, into the town, where a wall came down on the twenty-seven thousand who were still living. And Ben-hadad went in flight into the town, into an inner room.
- 31 Then his servants said to him, It is said that the kings of Israel are full of mercy: let us then put on haircloth, and cords on our heads, and go to the king of Israel; it may be that he will give you your life.
- 32 So they put on haircloth, and cords on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, Your servant Ben-hadad says, Let me now keep my life. And he said, Is he still living? he is my brother.
- 33 Now the men took it as a sign, and quickly took up his words; and they said, Ben-hadad is your brother. Then he said, Go and get him. So Ben-hadad came out to him and he made him get up into his carriage.
- 34 And Ben-hadad said to him, The towns my father took from your father I will give back; and you may make streets for yourself in Damascus as my father did in Samaria. And as for me, at the price of this agreement you will let me go. So he made an agreement
- 35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbour by the word of the Lord, Give me a wound. But the man would not.
- 36 Then he said to him, Because you have not given ear to the voice of the Lord, straight away when you have gone from me a lion will put you to death. And when he had gone, straight away a lion came rushing at him and put him to death.
- 37 Then he came across another man, and said, Give me a wound. And the man gave him a blow wounding him.
- 38 So the prophet went away, and pulling his head-band over his eyes to keep his face covered, took his place by the road waiting for the king.
- 39 And when the king went by, crying out to him he said, Your servant went out into the fight; and a man came out to me with another man and said, Keep this man: if by any chance he gets away, your life will be the price of his life, or you will have to give
- 40 But while your servant was turning this way and that, he was gone. Then the king of Israel said to him, You are responsible; you have given the decision against yourself.
- 41 Then he quickly took the head-band from his eyes; and the king of Israel saw that he was one of the prophets.
- 42 And he said to him, These are the words of the Lord: Because you have let go from your hands the man whom I had put to the curse, your life will be taken for his life, and your people for his people.
- 43 Then the king of Israel went back to his house, bitter and angry, and came to Samaria.
- 1 Now Naboth the Jezreelite had a vine-garden in Jezreel, near the house of Ahab, king of Samaria.
- 2 And Ahab said to Naboth, Give me your vine-garden so that I may have it for a garden of sweet plants, for it is near my house; and let me give you a better vine-garden in exchange, or, if it seems good to you, let me give you its value in money.
- 3 But Naboth said to Ahab, By the Lord, far be it from me to give you the heritage of my fathers.
- 4 So Ahab came into his house bitter and angry because Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him, I will not give you the heritage of my fathers. And stretching himself on the bed with his face turned away, he would take no food.
- 5 But Jezebel, his wife, came to him and said, Why is your spirit so bitter that you have no desire for food?
- 6 And he said to her, Because I was talking to Naboth the Jezreelite, and I said to him, Let me have your vine-garden for a price, or, if it is pleasing to you, I will give you another vine-garden for it: and he said, I will not give you my vine-garden.
- 7 Then Jezebel, his wife, said, Are you now the ruler of Israel? Get up, take food, and let your heart be glad; I will give you the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite.
- 8 So she sent a letter in Ahab's name, stamped with his stamp, to the responsible men and the chiefs who were in authority with Naboth.
- 9 And in the letter she said, Let a time of public sorrow be fixed, and put Naboth at the head of the people;

- 10 And get two good-for-nothing persons to come before him and give witness that he has been cursing God and the king. Then take him out and have him stoned to death.
- 11 So the responsible men and the chiefs who were in authority in his town, did as Jezebel had said in the letter she sent them.
- 12 They gave orders for a day of public sorrow, and put Naboth at the head of the people.
- 13 And the two good-for-nothing persons came in and took their seats before him and gave witness against Naboth, in front of the people, saying, Naboth has been cursing God and the king. Then they took him outside the town and had him stoned to death.
- 14 And they sent word to Jezebel, saying, Naboth has been stoned and is dead.
- 15 Then Jezebel, hearing that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, said to Ahab, Get up and take as your heritage the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he would not give you for money, for Naboth is no longer living but is dead.
- 16 So Ahab, hearing that Naboth was dead, went down to the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite to take it as his heritage.
- 17 And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
- 18 Go down to Ahab, king of Israel, in Samaria; see, he is in the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite, where he has gone to take it as his heritage.
- 19 Say to him, The Lord says, Have you put a man to death and taken his heritage? Then say to him, The Lord says, In the place where dogs have been drinking the blood of Naboth, there will your blood become the drink of dogs.
- 20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you come face to face with me, O my hater? And he said, I have come to you because you have given yourself up to do evil in the eyes of the Lord.
- 21 See, I will send evil on you and put an end to you completely, cutting off from Ahab every male child, him who is shut up and him who goes free in Israel;
- 22 And I will make your family like the family of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and like the family of Baasha, the son of Ahijah, because you have made me angry, and have made Israel do evil.
- 23 And of Jezebel the Lord said, Jezebel will become food for dogs in the heritage of Jezreel.
- 24 Any man of the family of Ahab who comes to his death in the town will become food for the dogs; and he who comes to his death in the open country will be food for the birds of the air.
- 25 (There was no one like Ahab, who gave himself up to do evil in the eyes of the Lord, moved to it by Jezebel his wife.
- 26 He did a very disgusting thing in going after false gods, doing all the things the Amorites did, whom the Lord sent out before the children of Israel.)
- 27 Hearing these words, Ahab, in great grief, put haircloth on his flesh and went without food, sleeping in haircloth, and going about quietly.
- 28 Then the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
- 29 Do you see how Ahab has made himself low before me? because he has made himself low before me, I will not send the evil in his life-time, but in his son's time I will send the evil on his family.
- 1 Now for three years there was no war between Aram and Israel.
- 2 And it came about in the third year, that Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, came down to the king of Israel.
- 3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, Do you not see that Ramoth-gilead is ours? and we are doing nothing to get it back from the hands of the king of Aram.
- 4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead to make war? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you are: my people as your people, my horses as your horses.
- 5 Then Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Let us now get directions from the Lord.
- 6 So the king of Israel got all the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, Am I to go to Ramoth-gilead to make war or not? And they said, Go up: for the Lord will give it into the hands of the king.
- 7 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there no other prophet of the Lord here from whom we may get directions?
- 8 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is still one man by whom we may get directions from the Lord, Micaiah, son of Imlah; but I have no love for him, for he is a prophet of evil to me and not of good. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king sa
- 9 Then the king of Israel sent for one of his unsexed servants and said, Go quickly and come back with Micaiah, the son of Imlah.

- 10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, were seated on their seats of authority, dressed in their robes, by the doorway into Samaria; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them.
- 11 And Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, made himself horns of iron and said, The Lord says, Pushing back the Aramaeans with these, you will put an end to them completely.
- 12 And all the prophets said the same thing, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and it will go well for you, for the Lord will give it into the hands of the king.
- 13 Now the servant who had gone to get Micaiah said to him, See now, all the prophets with one voice are saying good things to the king; so let your words be like theirs and say good things.
- 14 And Micaiah said, By the living Lord, whatever the Lord says to me I will say.
- 15 When he came to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, are we to go to Ramoth-gilead to make war or not? And in answer he said, Go up, and it will go well for you; and the Lord will give it into the hands of the king.
- 16 Then the king said to him, Have I not, again and again, put you on your oath to say nothing to me but what is true in the name of the Lord?
- 17 Then he said, I saw all Israel wandering on the mountains like sheep without a keeper; and the Lord said, These have no master: let them go back, every man to his house in peace.
- 18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not say that he would not be a prophet of good but of evil?
- 19 And he said, Give ear now to the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord seated on his seat of power, with all the army of heaven in their places round him at his right hand and at his left.
- 20 And the Lord said, How may Ahab be tricked into going up to Ramoth-gilead to his death? And one said one thing and one another.
- 21 Then a spirit came forward and took his place before the Lord and said, I will get him to do it by a trick.
- 22 And the Lord said, How? And he said, I will go out and be a spirit of deceit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Your trick will have its effect on him: go out and do so.
- 23 And now, see, the Lord has put a spirit of deceit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the Lord has said evil against you.
- 24 Then Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, came near and gave Micaiah a blow on the side of the face, saying, Where is the spirit of the Lord whose word is in you?
- 25 And Micaiah said, Truly, you will see on that day when you go into an inner room to keep yourself safe.
- 26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon, the ruler of the town, and to Joash, the king's son;
- 27 And say, It is the king's order that this man is to be put in prison and given prison food till I come again in peace.
- 28 And Micaiah said, If you come back at all in peace, the Lord has not sent his word by me.
- 29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.
- 30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will make a change in my clothing, so that I do not seem to be the king, and will go into the fight; but do you put on your robes. So the king of Israel made a change in his dress and went into the fight.
- 31 Now the king of Aram had given orders to the thirty-two captains of his war-carriages, saying, Make no attack on small or great, but only on the king of Israel.
- 32 So when the captains of the war-carriages saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Truly, this is the king of Israel; and turning against him, they came round him, but Jehoshaphat gave a cry.
- 33 And when the captains of the war-carriages saw that he was not the king of Israel, they went back from going after him.
- 34 And a certain man sent an arrow from his bow without thought of its direction, and gave the king of Israel a wound where his breastplate was joined to his clothing; so he said to the driver of his war-carriage, Go to one side and take me away out of the a
- 35 But the fight became more violent while the day went on; and the king was supported in his war-carriage facing the Aramaeans, and the floor of the carriage was covered with the blood from his wound, and by evening he was dead.
- 36 And about sundown a cry went up from all parts of the army, saying, Let every man go back to his town and his country, for the king is dead.
- 37 And they came to Samaria, and put the king's body to rest in Samaria.

- 38 And the war-carriage was washed by the pool of Samaria, which was the bathing-place of the loose women, and the dogs were drinking his blood there, as the Lord had said.
- 39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all he did, and his ivory house, and all the towns of which he was the builder, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 40 So Ahab was put to rest with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.
- 41 And Jehoshaphat, the son of Asa, became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab's rule over Israel.
- 42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he was king for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.
- 43 He did as Asa his father had done, not turning away from it, but doing what was right in the eyes of the Lord;
- 44 \22:43\but the high places were not taken away: the people went on making offerings and burning them in the high places.
- 45 \22:44\And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.
- 46 \22:45\Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his great power, and how he went to war, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 47 \22:46\He put an end to the rest of those who were used for sex purposes in the worship of the gods, all those who were still in the land in the time of his father Asa.
- 48 \22:47\At that time there was no king in Edom;
- 49 \22:48\And the representative of King Jehoshaphat made a Tarshish-ship to go to Ophir for gold, but it did not go, because it was broken at Ezion-geber.
- 50 \22:49\Then Ahaziah, the son of Ahab, said to Jehoshaphat, Let my men go with yours in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not let them.
- 51 \22:50\Then Jehoshaphat went to rest with his fathers, and his body was put into the earth in the town of David his father; and Jehoram his son became king in his place.
- 52 \22:51\Ahaziah, the son of Ahab, became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of the rule of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, and he was king over Israel for two years.
- 53 \22:52\He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, going in the ways of his father and his mother, and in the ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who made Israel do evil.
- 54 \22:53\He was a servant and worshipper of Baal, moving the Lord, the God of Israel, to wrath, as his father had done.
- 1 After the death of Ahab, Moab made itself free from the authority of Israel.
- 2 Now Ahaziah had a fall from the window of his room in Samaria, and was ill. And he sent men, and said to them, Put a question to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, about the outcome of my disease, to see if I will get well or not.
- 3 But the angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, Go now, and, meeting the men sent by the king of Samaria, say to them, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you are going to get directions from Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?
- 4 Give ear then to the words of the Lord: You will never again get down from the bed on to which you have gone up, but death will certainly come to you. Then Elijah went away.
- 5 And the men he had sent came back to the king; and he said to them, Why have you come back?
- 6 And they said to him, On our way we had a meeting with a man who said, Go back to the king who sent you and say to him, The Lord says, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you send to put a question to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? For this reason
- 7 And he said to them, What sort of a man was it who came and said these words to you?
- 8 And they said in answer, He was a man clothed in a coat of hair, with a leather band about his body. Then he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.
- 9 Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men; and he went up to him where he was seated on the top of a hill, and said to him, O man of God, the king has said, Come down.
- 10 And Elijah in answer said to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven on you and on your fifty men, and put an end to you. Then fire came down from heaven and put an end to him and his fifty men.
- 11 Then the king sent another captain of fifty with his fifty men; and he said to Elijah, O man of God, the king says, Come down quickly.
- 12 And Elijah in answer said, If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven on you and on your fifty men, and put an end to you. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and put an end to him and his fifty men.

- 13 Then he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men; and the third captain of fifty went up, and falling on his knees before Elijah, requesting mercy of him, said, O man of God, let my life and the life of these your fifty servants be of value to you
- 14 For fire came down from heaven and put an end to the first two captains of fifty and their fifties; but now let my life be of value in your eyes.
- 15 Then the angel of the Lord said to Elijah, Go down with him; have no fear of him. So he got up and went down with him to the king.
- 16 And he said to him, This is the word of the Lord: Because you sent men to put a question to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, for this reason you will never again get down from the bed on to which you have gone up, but death will certainly come to you.
- 17 So death came to him, as the Lord had said by the mouth of Elijah. And Jehoram became king in his place in the second year of the rule of Jehoram, son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah; because he had no son.
- 18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 1 Now when the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a great wind, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.
- 2 And Elijah said to Elisha, Come no farther for the Lord has sent me to Beth-el. But Elisha said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not be parted from you. So they went down to Beth-el.
- 3 And at Beth-el the sons of the prophets came out to Elisha and said, Has it been made clear to you that the Lord is going to take away your master from over you today? And he said, Yes, I have knowledge of it: say no more.
- 4 Then Elijah said to him, Come no farther, for the Lord has sent me to Jericho. But he said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not be parted from you. So they went on to Jericho.
- 5 And at Jericho the sons of the prophets came up to Elisha and said to him, Has it been made clear to you that the Lord is going to take away your master from over you today? And he said in answer, Yes, I have knowledge of it: say no more.
- 6 Then Elijah said to him, Come no farther, for the Lord has sent me to Jordan. But he said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not be parted from you. So they went on together.
- 7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went out and took their places facing them a long way off, while the two of them were by the edge of Jordan.
- 8 Then Elijah took off his robe, and, rolling it up, gave the water a blow with it, and the waters were parted, flowing back this way and that, so that they went over on dry land.
- 9 And when they had come to the other side, Elijah said to Elisha, Say what you would have me do for you before I am taken from you. And Elisha said, Be pleased to let a special measure of your spirit be on me.
- 10 And he said, You have made a hard request: still, if you see me when I am taken from you, you will get your desire; but if not, it will not be so.
- 11 And while they went on their way, going on talking together, suddenly there were carriages and horses of fire separating them from one another and Elijah went up to heaven in a great wind.
- 12 And when Elisha saw it he gave a cry, My father, my father, the carriages of Israel and its horsemen! And he saw him no longer; and he was full of grief.
- 13 Then he took up Elijah's robe, which had been dropped from him, and went back till he came to the edge of Jordan.
- 14 And he took Elijah's robe, which had been dropped from him, and giving the water a blow with it, said, Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah? and at his blow the waters were parted this way and that; and Elisha went over.
- 15 And when the sons of the prophets who were facing him at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah is resting on Elisha. And they came out to him, and went down on the earth before him.
- 16 And they said, Your servants have with us here fifty strong men; be pleased to let them go in search of Elijah; for it may be that the spirit of the Lord has taken him up and put him down on some mountain or in some valley. But he said, Do not send them.
- 17 But when they kept on requesting him, he was shamed and said, Send, then. So they sent fifty men; but after searching for three days, they came back without having seen him.
- 18 And they came back to him, while he was still at Jericho; and he said to them, Did I not say to you, Go not?
- 19 Now the men of the town said to Elisha, You see that the position of this town is good; but the water is bad, causing the young of the cattle to come to birth dead.
- 20 So he said, Get me a new vessel, and put salt in it; and they took it to him.

- 21 Then he went out to the spring from which the water came, and put salt in it, and said, The Lord says, Now I have made this water sweet; no longer will it be death-giving or unfertile.
- 22 And the water was made sweet again to this day, as Elisha said.
- 23 Then from there he went up to Beth-el; and on his way, some little boys came out from the town and made sport of him, crying, Go up, old no-hair! go up, old no-hair!
- 24 And turning back, he saw them, and put a curse on them in the name of the Lord. And two she-bears came out of the wood and put forty-two of the children to death.
- 25 From there he went to Mount Carmel, and came back from there to Samaria.
- 1 And Jehoram, the son of Ahab, became king over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of the rule of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah; and he was king for twelve years.
- 2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord; but not like his father and his mother, for he put away the stone pillar of Baal which his father had made.
- 3 But still he did the same sins which Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, did and made Israel do; he went on in them.
- 4 Now Mesha, king of Moab, was a sheep-farmer; and he gave regularly to the king of Israel the wool from a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand sheep.
- 5 But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab got free from the authority of the king of Israel.
- 6 At that time, King Jehoram went out from Samaria and got all Israel together in fighting order.
- 7 And he sent to Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has got free from my authority: will you go with me to make war on Moab? And he said, I will go with you: I am as you are, my people as your people, and my horses as your horses.
- 8 And he said, Which way are we to go? And he said in answer, By the waste land of Edom.
- 9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom by a roundabout way for seven days: and there was no water for the army or for the beasts they had with them.
- 10 And the king of Israel said, Here is trouble: for the Lord has got these three kings together to give them into the hands of Moab.
- 11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there no prophet of the Lord here, through whom we may get directions from the Lord? And one of the king of Israel's men said in answer, Elisha, the son of Shaphat, is here, who was servant to Elijah.
- 12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the Lord is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.
- 13 But Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? go to the prophets of your father and your mother. And the king of Israel said, No; for the Lord has got these three kings together to give them up into the hands of Moab.
- 14 Then Elisha said, By the life of the Lord of armies whose servant I am, if it was not for the respect I have for Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, I would not give a look at you, or see you.
- 15 But now, get me a player of music, and it will come about that while the man is playing, the hand of the Lord will come on me and I will give you the word of the Lord: and they got a player of music, and while the man was playing, the hand of the Lord was
- 16 And he said, The Lord says, I will make this valley full of water-holes.
- 17 For the Lord says, Though you see no wind or rain, the valley will be full of water, and you and your armies and your beasts will have drink.
- 18 And this will be only a small thing to the Lord: in addition he will give the Moabites into your hands.
- 19 And you are to put every walled town to destruction, cutting down every good tree, and stopping up every water-spring, and making all the good land rough with stones.
- 20 Now in the morning, about the time when the offering was made, they saw water flowing from the direction of Edom till the country was full of water.
- 21 Now all Moab, hearing that the kings had come to make war against them, got together all who were able to take up arms and went forward to the edge of the country.
- 22 And early in the morning they got up, when the sun was shining on the water, and they saw the water facing them as red as blood.
- 23 Then they said, This is blood: it is clear that destruction has come on the kings; they have been fighting one another: now come, Moab, let us take their goods.

- 24 But when they came to the tents of Israel, the Israelites came out and made a violent attack on the Moabites, so that they went in flight before them; and they went forward still attacking them;
- 25 Pulling down the towns, covering every good field with stones, stopping up all the water-springs, and cutting down all the good trees; they went on driving Moab before them till only in Kir-hareseth were there any Moabites; and the fighting-men went round
- 26 And when the king of Moab saw that the fight was going against him, he took with him seven hundred men armed with swords, with the idea of forcing a way through to the king of Aram, but they were not able to do so.
- 27 Then he took his oldest son, who would have been king after him, offering him as a burned offering on the wall. So there was great wrath against Israel; and they went away from him, back to their country.
- 1 Now a certain woman, the wife of one of the sons of the prophets, came crying to Elisha and said, Your servant my husband is dead; and to your knowledge he was a worshipper of the Lord; but now, the creditor has come to take my two children as servants in
- 2 Then Elisha said to her, What am I to do for you? say now, what have you in the house? And she said, Your servant has nothing in the house but a pot of oil.
- 3 Then he said, Go out to all your neighbours and get vessels, a very great number of them.
- 4 Then go in, and, shutting the door on yourself and your sons, put oil into all these vessels, putting on one side the full ones.
- 5 So she went away, and when the door was shut on her and her sons, they took the vessels to her and she put oil into them.
- 6 And when all the vessels were full, she said to her son, Get me another vessel. And he said, There are no more. And the flow of oil was stopped.
- 7 So she came to the man of God and gave him word of what she had done. And he said, Go and get money for the oil and make payment of your debt, and let the rest be for the needs of yourself and your sons.
- 8 Now there came a day when Elisha went to Shunem, and there was a woman of high position living there, who made him come in and have a meal with her. And after that, every time he went by, he went into her house for a meal.
- 9 And she said to her husband, Now I see that this is a holy man of God, who comes by day after day.
- 10 So let us make a little room on the wall; and put a bed there for him, and a table and a seat and a light; so that when he comes to us, he will be able to go in there.
- 11 Now one day, when he had gone there, he went into the little room and took his rest there.
- 12 And he said to Gehazi, his servant, Send for this Shunammite. So in answer to his voice she came before him.
- 13 And he said to him, Now say to her, See, you have taken all this trouble for us; what is to be done for you? will you have any request made for you to the king or the captain of the army? But she said, I am living among my people.
- 14 So he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi made answer, Still there is this, she has no son and her husband is old.
- 15 Then he said, Send for her. And in answer to his voice she took her place at the door.
- 16 And Elisha said, At this time in the coming year you will have a son in your arms. And she said, No, my lord, O man of God, do not say what is false to your servant.
- 17 Then the woman became with child and gave birth to a son at the time named, in the year after, as Elisha had said to her.
- 18 Now one day, when the child was older, he went out to his father to where the grain was being cut.
- 19 And he said to his father, My head, my head! And the father said to a servant, Take him in to his mother.
- 20 And he took him in to his mother, and she took him on her knees and kept him there till the middle of the day, when his life went from him.
- 21 Then she went up and put him on the bed of the man of God, shutting the door on him, and went out.
- 22 And she said to her husband, Send me one of the servants and one of the asses so that I may go quickly to the man of God and come back again.
- 23 And he said, Why are you going to him today? it is not a new moon or a Sabbath. But she said, It is well.
- 24 Then she made the ass ready and said to her servant, Keep driving on; do not make a stop without orders from me.
- 25 So she went, and came to Mount Carmel, to the man of God. And when the man of God saw her coming in his direction, he said to Gehazi, his servant, See, there is the Shunammite;

- 26 Go quickly to her, and on meeting her say to her, Are you well? and your husband and the child, are they well? And she said in answer, All is well.
- 27 And when she came to where the man of God was on the hill, she put her hands round his feet; and Gehazi came near with the purpose of pushing her away; but the man of God said, Let her be, for her soul is bitter in her; and the Lord has kept it secret from her.
- 28 Then she said, Did I make a request to my lord for a son? did I not say, Do not give me false words?
- 29 Then he said to Gehazi, Make yourself ready, and take my stick in your hand, and go: if you come across anyone on the way, give him no blessing, and if anyone gives you a blessing, give him no answer. And put my stick on the child's face.
- 30 But the mother of the child said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not go back without you. So he got up and went with her.
- 31 And Gehazi went on before them and put the stick on the child's face; but there was no voice, and no one gave attention. So he went back, and meeting him gave him the news, saying, The child is not awake.
- 32 And when Elisha came into the house he saw the child dead, stretched on his bed.
- 33 So he went in, and shutting the door on the two of them, made prayer to the Lord.
- 34 Then he got up on the bed, stretching himself out on the child, and put his mouth on the child's mouth, his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands; and the child's body became warm.
- 35 Then he came back, and after walking once through the house and back, he went up, stretching himself out on the child seven times; and the child's eyes became open.
- 36 And he gave orders to Gehazi, and said, Send for the Shunammite. And she came in answer to his voice. And he said, Take up your son.
- 37 And she came in, and went down on her face to the earth at his feet; then she took her son in her arms and went out.
- 38 And Elisha went back to Gilgal, now there was very little food in the land; and the sons of the prophets were seated before him. And he said to his servant, Put the great pot on the fire, and make soup for the sons of the prophets.
- 39 And one went out into the field to get green plants and saw a vine of the field, and pulling off the fruit of it till the fold of his robe was full, he came back and put the fruit, cut up small, into the pot of soup, having no idea what it was.
- 40 Then they gave the men soup from the pot. And while they were drinking the soup, they gave a cry, and said, O man of God, there is death in the pot; and they were not able to take any more food.
- 41 But he said, Get some meal. And he put it into the pot, and said, Now give it to the people so that they may have food. And there was nothing bad in the pot.
- 42 Now a man came from Baal-shalishah with an offering of first-fruits for the man of God, twenty barley cakes and garden fruit in his bag. And he said, Give these to the people for food.
- 43 But his servant said, How am I to put this before a hundred men? But he said, Give it to the people for food; for the Lord says, There will be food for them and some over.
- 44 So he put it before them, and they had a meal and there was more than enough, as the Lord had said.
- 1 Now Naaman, chief of the army of the king of Aram, was a man of high position with his master, and greatly respected, because by him the Lord had given salvation to Aram; but he was a leper.
- 2 Now the Aramaeans had gone out in bands, and taken prisoner from Israel a little girl, who became servant to Naaman's wife.
- 3 And she said to her master's wife, If only my lord would go to the prophet in Samaria, he would make him well.
- 4 And someone went and said to his lord, This is what the girl from the land of Israel says.
- 5 So the king of Aram said, Go then; and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he went, taking with him ten talents of silver and six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing.
- 6 And he took the letter to the king of Israel, in which the king of Aram had said, See, I have sent my servant Naaman to you to be made well, for he is a leper.
- 7 But the king of Israel, after reading the letter, was greatly troubled and said, Am I God, to give death and life? why does this man send a leper to me to be made well? is it not clear that he is looking for a cause of war?
- 8 Now Elisha, the man of God, hearing that the king of Israel had done this, sent to the king, saying, Why are you troubled? send the man to me, so that he may see that there is a prophet in Israel.
- 9 So Naaman, with all his horses and his carriages, came to the door of Elisha's house.

- 10 And Elisha sent a servant to him, saying, Go to Jordan, and after washing seven times in its waters your flesh will be well again and you will be clean.
- 11 But Naaman was angry and went away and said, I had the idea that he would come out to see such an important person as I am, and make prayer to the Lord his God, and with a wave of his hand over the place make the leper well.
- 12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not be washed in them and become clean? So turning, he went away in wrath.
- 13 Then his servants came to him and said, If the prophet had given you orders to do some great thing, would you not have done it? how much more then, when he says to you, Be washed and become clean?
- 14 Then he went down seven times into the waters of Jordan, as the man of God had said; and his flesh became like the flesh of a little child again, and he was clean.
- 15 Then he went back to the man of God, with all his train, and, taking his place before him, said, Now I am certain that there is no God in all the earth, but only in Israel: now then, take an offering from me.
- 16 But he said, By the life of the Lord whose servant I am, I will take nothing from you. And he did his best to make him take it but he would not.
- 17 Then Naaman said, If you will not, then let there be given to your servant as much earth as two beasts are able to take on their backs; because from now on, your servant will make no offering or burned offering to other gods, but only to the Lord.
- 18 But may your servant have the Lord's forgiveness for this one thing: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon for worship there, supported on my arm, and my head is bent in the house of Rimmon; when his head is bent in the house of Rimmon, may your se
- 19 And he said to him, Go in peace. And he went from him some distance.
- 20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha, the man of God, said, Now my master has taken nothing from Naaman, this Aramaean, of what he would have given him: by the living Lord, I will go after him and get something from him.
- 21 So Gehazi went after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from his carriage and went back to him and said, Is all well?
- 22 And he said, All is well: but my master has sent me, saying, Even now, two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim; will you give me a talent of silver and two changes of clothing for them?
- 23 And Naaman said, Be good enough to take two talents. And forcing him to take them, he put two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and gave them to his two servants to take before him.
- 24 When he came to the hill, he took them from their hands, and put them away in the house; and he sent the men away, and they went.
- 25 Then he came in and took his place before his master. And Elisha said to him, Where have you come from, Gehazi? And he said, Your servant went nowhere.
- 26 And he said to him, Did not my heart go with you, when the man got down from his carriage and went back to you? Is this a time for getting money, and clothing, and olive-gardens and vine-gardens, and sheep and oxen, and men-servants and women-servants?
- 27 Because of what you have done, the disease of Naaman the leper will take you in its grip, and your seed after you, for ever. And he went out from before him a leper as white as snow.
- 1 Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, There is not room enough for us in the place where we are living under your care;
- 2 So let us go to Jordan, and let everyone get to work cutting boards, and we will make a living-place for ourselves there. And he said to them, Go, then.
- 3 And one of them said, Be pleased to go with your servants. And he said, I will go.
- 4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they got to work cutting down trees.
- 5 But one of them, while cutting a board, let the head of his axe go into the water; and he gave a cry, and said, This is a bad business, my master, for it is another's.
- 6 And the man of God said, Where did it go in? and when he saw the place where it had gone into the water, cutting a stick, he put it into the water, and the iron came up to the top of the water.
- 7 Then he said, Take it up. So he put out his hand and took it.
- 8 At that time the king of Aram was making war against Israel; and he had a meeting with the chiefs of his army and said, I will be waiting in secret in some named place.

- 9 And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Take care to keep away from that place, for the Aramaeans are waiting there in secret.
- 10 So the king of Israel sent to the place where the man of God had said there was danger, and kept clear of it more than once.
- 11 And at this, the mind of the king of Aram was greatly troubled, and he sent for his servants and said to them, Will you not make clear to me which of us is helping the king of Israel?
- 12 And one of them said, Not one of us, my lord king; but Elisha, the prophet in Israel, gives the king of Israel news of the words you say even in your bedroom.
- 13 Then he said, Go and see where he is, so that I may send and get him. And news came to him that he was in Dothan.
- 14 So he sent there horses and carriages and a great army; and they came by night, circling the town.
- 15 Now the servant of the man of God, having got up early and gone out, saw an army with horses and carriages of war all round the town. And the servant said to him, O my master, what are we to do?
- 16 And he said in answer, Have no fear; those who are with us are more than those who are with them.
- 17 Then Elisha made a prayer to the Lord, saying, Lord, let his eyes be open so that he may see. And the Lord made the young man's eyes open; and he saw that all the mountain was full of horses and carriages of fire round Elisha.
- 18 Now when the Aramaeans came down to Elisha, he made a prayer to the Lord saying, Lord, make this people blind. And he made them blind at Elisha's request.
- 19 And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, and this is not the town: come after me so that I may take you to the man you are searching for. And he took them to Samaria.
- 20 And when they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, Lord, let the eyes of these men be open so that they may see. And the Lord made their eyes open, and they saw that they were in the middle of Samaria.
- 21 And the king of Israel, when he saw them, said to Elisha, My father, am I to put them to the sword?
- 22 But he said in answer, You are not to put them to death; have you any right to put to death those whom you have not taken prisoner with your sword and your bow? put bread and water before them, so that they may have food and drink and go to their master.
- 23 So he made ready a great feast for them, and when they had had food and drink, he sent them away and they went back to their master. And no more bands of Aramaeans came into the land of Israel.
- 24 Now after this, Ben-hadad, king of Aram, got together all his army and went up to make an attack on Samaria, shutting the town in on all sides with his forces.
- 25 And they became very short of food in Samaria; for they kept it shut in till the price of an ass's head was eighty shekels of silver, and a small measure of doves' droppings was five shekels of silver.
- 26 And when the king of Israel was going by on the wall, a woman came crying out to him, and said, Help! my lord king.
- 27 And he said, If the Lord does not give you help, where am I to get help for you? from the grain-floor or the grape-crusher?
- 28 And the king said to her, What is troubling you? And she said in answer, This woman said to me, Give your son to be our food today, and we will have my son tomorrow.
- 29 So, boiling my son, we had a meal of him; and on the day after I said to her, Now give your son for our food; but she has put her son in a secret place.
- 30 Then the king, hearing what the woman said, took his robes in his hands, violently parting them; and, while he was walking on the wall, the people, looking, saw that under his robe he had haircloth on his flesh.
- 31 Then he said, May God's punishment come on me if Elisha, the son of Shaphat, keeps his head on his body after this day.
- 32 But Elisha was in his house, and the responsible men were seated there with him; and before the king got there, Elisha said to those who were with him, Do you see how this cruel and violent man has sent to take away my life?
- 33 While he was still talking to them, the king came down and said, This evil is from the Lord; why am I to go on waiting any longer for the Lord?
- 1 Then Elisha said, Give ear to the word of the Lord: the Lord says, Tomorrow, about this time, a measure of good meal will be offered for the price of a shekel and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the market-place of Samaria.
- 2 Then the captain whose arm was supporting the king said to the man of God, Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, would such a thing be possible? And he said, Your eyes will see it, but you will not have a taste of the food.

- 3 Now there were four lepers seated at the doorway into the town: and they said to one another, Why are we waiting here for death?
- 4 If we say, We will go into the town, there is no food in the town, and we will come to our end there; and if we go on waiting here, death will come to us. Come then, let us give ourselves up to the army of Aram: if they let us go on living, then life will
- 5 So in the half light they got up to go to the tents of Aram; but when they came to the outer line of tents, there was no one there.
- 6 For the Lord had made the sound of carriages and horses, and the noise of a great army, come to the ears of the Aramaeans, so that they said to one another, Truly, the king of Israel has got the kings of the Hittites and of the Egyptians for a price to ma
- 7 So they got up and went in flight, in the half light, without their tents or their horses or their asses or any of their goods; they went in flight, fearing for their lives.
- 8 And when those lepers came to the outer line of tents, they went into one tent, and had food and drink, and took from it silver and gold and clothing, which they put in a secret place; then they came back and went into another tent from which they took mo
- 9 Then they said to one another, We are not doing right. Today is a day of good news, and we say nothing: if we go on waiting here till the morning, punishment will come to us. So let us go and give the news to those of the king's house.
- 10 So they came in, and, crying out to the door-keepers of the town, they gave them the news, saying, We came to the tents of the Aramaeans, and there was no one there and no voice of man, only the horses and the asses in their places, and the tents as they
- 11 Then the door-keepers, crying out, gave the news to those inside the king's house.
- 12 Then the king got up in the night and said to his servants, This is my idea of what the Aramaeans have done to us. They have knowledge that we are without food; and so they have gone out of their tents, and are waiting secretly in the open country, saying
- 13 And one of his servants said in answer, Send men and let them take five of the horses which we still have in the town; if they keep their lives they will be the same as those of Israel who are still living here; if they come to their death they will be th
- 14 So they took two horsemen; and the king sent them after the army of the Aramaeans, saying, Go and see.
- 15 And they went after them as far as Jordan; and all the road was covered with clothing and vessels dropped by the Aramaeans in their flight. So those who were sent went back and gave the news to the king.
- 16 Then the people went out and took the goods from the tents of the Aramaeans. So a measure of good meal was to be had for the price of a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, as the Lord had said.
- 17 And the king gave authority to that captain, on whose arm he was supported, to have control over the doorway into the town; but he was crushed to death there under the feet of the people, as the man of God had said when the king went down to him.
- 18 So the words of the man of God came true, which he said to the king: Two measures of barley will be offered for the price of a shekel and a measure of good meal for a shekel, tomorrow about this time in the market-place of Samaria.
- 19 And that captain said to the man of God, Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, would such a thing be possible? And he said to him, Your eyes will see it, but you will not have a taste of the food.
- 20 And such was his fate; for he was crushed to death under the feet of the people, in the doorway into the town.
- 1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had given back to life, Go now, with all the people of your house, and get a living-place for yourselves wherever you are able; for by the word of the Lord, there will be great need of food in the land; and th
- 2 So the woman got up and did as the man of God said; and she and the people of her house were living in the land of the Philistines for seven years.
- 3 And when the seven years were ended, the woman came back from the land of the Philistines and went to the king with a request for her house and her land.
- 4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, Now, give me an account of all the great things Elisha has done.
- 5 And while he was giving the king the story of how Elisha had given life to the dead, the woman whose son had come back to life came to the king with a request for her house and her land. And Gehazi said, My lord king, this is the woman and this is her son

- 6 And in answer to the king's questions, the woman gave him all the story. So the king gave orders to one of his unsexed servants, saying, Give her back all her property, and all the produce of her fields from the day when she went away from the land up til
- 7 And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad, king of Aram, was ill; and they said to him, The man of God has come.
- 8 Then the king said to Hazael, Take an offering with you, and go to see the man of God and get directions from the Lord by him, saying, Am I going to get better from my disease?
- 9 So Hazael went to see him, taking with him forty camels with offerings on their backs of every sort of good thing from Damascus; and when he came before him, he said, Your son Ben-hadad, king of Aram, has sent me to you, saying, Will I get better from thi
- 10 And Elisha said to him, Go, say to him, You will certainly get better; but the Lord has made it clear to me that only death is before him.
- 11 And he kept his eyes fixed on him till he was shamed, and the man of God was overcome with weeping.
- 12 And Hazael said, Why is my lord weeping? Then he said in answer, Because I see the evil which you will do to the children of Israel: burning down their strong towns, putting their young men to death with the sword, smashing their little ones against the s
- 13 And Hazael said, How is it possible that your servant, who is only a dog, will do this great thing? And Elisha said, The Lord has made it clear to me that you will be king over Aram.
- 14 Then he went away from Elisha and came in to his master, who said to him, What did Elisha say to you? And his answer was, He said that you would certainly get well.
- 15 Now on the day after, Hazael took the bed-cover, and making it wet with water, put it over Ben-hadad's face, causing his death: and Hazael became king in his place.
- 16 In the fifth year of Joram, the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoram, the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, became king.
- 17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king; and he was ruling in Jerusalem for eight years.
- 18 He went in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the family of Ahab did: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the eyes of the Lord.
- 19 But it was not the Lord's purpose to send destruction on Judah, because of David his servant, to whom he had given his word that he would have a light for ever.
- 20 In his time, Edom made themselves free from the rule of Judah, and took a king for themselves.
- 21 Then Joram went over to Zair, with all his war-carriages; ... made an attack by night on the Edomites, whose forces were all round him, ... the captains of the war-carriages; and the people went in flight to their tents.
- 22 So Edom made themselves free from the rule of Judah to this day. And at the same time, Libnah made itself free.
- 23 Now the rest of the acts of Joram, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 24 And Joram went to rest with his fathers and was put into the earth with his fathers in the town of David: and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.
- 25 In the twelfth year that Joram, the son of Ahab, was king of Israel, Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, became king;
- 26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he was ruling in Jerusalem for one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri, king of Israel.
- 27 He went in the ways of the family of Ahab, and did evil in the eyes of the Lord as the family of Ahab did, for he was a son-in-law of the family of Ahab.
- 28 He went with Joram, the son of Ahab, to make war on Hazael, king of Aram, at Ramoth-gilead: and Joram was wounded by the Aramaeans.
- 29 So King Joram went back to Jezreel to get well from the wounds which the bowmen had given him at Ramah, when he was fighting against Hazael, king of Aram. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Joram, the son of Ahab, in Jezreel,
 - 1 And Elisha the prophet sent for one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, Make yourself ready for a journey, and take this bottle of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.
 - 2 And when you get there, go in search of Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi; and go in and make him get up from among his brothers, and take him to an inner room.
 - 3 Then take the bottle and put the oil on his head, and say, The Lord says, I have put the holy oil on you to make you king over Israel. Then, opening the door, go in flight, without waiting.

- 4 So the young prophet went to Ramoth-gilead.
- 5 And when he came, he saw the captains of the army seated together; and he said, I have something to say to you, O captain. And Jehu said, To which of us? And he said, To you, O captain.
- 6 And he got up and went into the house; then he put the holy oil on his head and said to him, The Lord, the God of Israel, says, I have made you king over the people of the Lord, over Israel.
- 7 You are to see that the family of Ahab your master is cut off, so that I may take from Jezebel payment for the blood of my servants the prophets, and for the blood of all the servants of the Lord.
- 8 For the family of Ahab will come to an end; every male of Ahab's family will be cut off, he who is shut up and he who goes free in Israel.
- 9 I will make the family of Ahab like that of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and Baasha, the son of Ahijah.
- 10 And Jezebel will become food for the dogs in the heritage of Jezreel, and there will be no one to put her body into the earth. Then, opening the door, he went in flight.
- 11 Then Jehu came out again to the servants of his lord, and one said to him, Is all well? why did this man, who is off his head, come to you? And he said to them, You have knowledge of the man and of his talk.
- 12 And they said, That is not true; now give us his story. Then he said, This is what he said to me: The Lord says, I have made you king over Israel.
- 13 Then straight away everyone took his robe and put it under him on the top of the steps, and, sounding the horn, they said, Jehu is king.
- 14 So Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, made designs against Joram. (Now Joram and all the army of Israel were keeping watch on Ramoth-gilead because of Hazael, king of Aram:
- 15 But King Joram had gone back to Jezreel to get well from the wounds which the Aramaeans had given him when he was fighting against Hazael, king of Aram.) And Jehu said, If this is your purpose, then let no one get away and go out of the town to give news
- 16 So Jehu got into his carriage and went to Jezreel, for Joram was ill in bed there; and Ahaziah, king of Judah, had come down to see Joram.
- 17 And the watchman on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu and his band coming, and said, I see a band of people. And Joram said, Send out a horseman to them, and let him say, Is it peace?
- 18 So a horseman went out to them and said, The king says, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? come after me. And the watchman gave them word, saying, The horseman went up to them, but has not come back.
- 19 Then he sent out a second horseman, who came up to them and said, The king says, Is it peace? And Jehu said in answer, What have you to do with peace? come after me.
- 20 And the watchman gave them word, saying, He went up to them and has not come back again; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu, son of Nimshi, for he is driving violently.
- 21 Then Joram said, Make ready. So they made his carriage ready; and Joram, king of Israel, with Ahaziah, king of Judah, went out in their carriages for the purpose of meeting Jehu; and they came face to face with him at the field of Naboth the Jezreelite.
- 22 Now when Joram saw Jehu he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he said in answer, What peace is possible while all the land is full of the disgusting sins of your mother Jezebel, and her secret arts?
- 23 Then Joram, turning his horses in flight, said to Ahaziah, Broken faith, O Ahaziah!
- 24 Then Jehu took his bow in his hand, and with all his strength sent an arrow, wounding Joram between the arms; and the arrow came out at his heart, and he went down on his face in his carriage.
- 25 Then Jehu said to Bidkar, his captain, Take him up, and put him in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for is not that day in your memory when you and I together on our horses were going after Ahab, his father, and the Lord put this fate on him, saying:
- 26 I saw the blood of Naboth and of his sons yesterday; and I will give you full payment in this field, says the Lord? So now, take him and put him in this field, as the Lord said.
- 27 Now when Ahaziah, king of Judah, saw this, he went in flight by the way of the garden house. And Jehu came after him and said, Put him to death in the same way; and they gave him a death-wound in his carriage, on the slope up to Gur, by Ibleam; and he went
- 28 And his servants took him in a carriage to Jerusalem, and put him into the earth with his fathers in the town of David.
- 29 (In the eleventh year of the rule of Joram, the son of Ahab, Ahaziah became king over Judah.)

- 30 And when Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel had news of it; and, painting her eyes and dressing her hair with ornaments, she put her head out of the window.
- 31 And when Jehu was coming into the town, she said, Is all well, O Zimri, taker of your master's life?
- 32 Then, looking up to the window, he said, Who is on my side, who? and two or three unsexed servants put out their heads.
- 33 And he said, Take her and put her out of the window. So they sent her down with force, and her blood went in a shower on the wall and on the horses; and she was crushed under their feet.
- 34 And he came in, and took food and drink; then he said, Now see to this cursed woman, and put her body into the earth, for she is a king's daughter.
- 35 And they went out to put her body into the earth, but nothing of her was to be seen, only the bones of her head, and her feet, and parts of her hands.
- 36 So they came back and gave him word of it. And he said, This is what the Lord said by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the heritage of Jezreel the flesh of Jezebel will become food for dogs;
- 37 And the dead body of Jezebel will be like waste dropped on the face of the earth in the heritage of Jezreel; so that they will not be able to say, This is Jezebel.
- 1 Now there were in Samaria seventy of Ahab's sons. And Jehu sent letters to Samaria, to the rulers of the town, and to the responsible men, and to those who had the care of the sons of Ahab, saying,
- 2 Straight away, when you get this letter, seeing that your master's sons are with you, and that you have carriages and horses and a walled town and arms;
- 3 Take the best and most upright of your master's sons, and make him king in his father's place, and put up a fight for your master's family.
- 4 But they were full of fear, and said, The two kings have gone down before him: how may we keep our place?
- 5 So the controller of the king's house, with the ruler of the town, and the responsible men, and those who had the care of Ahab's sons, sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants and will do all your orders; we will not make any man king; do whatever seems
- 6 Then he sent them a second letter, saying, If you are on my side, and if you will do my orders, come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow, with the heads of your master's sons. Now the king's seventy sons were with the great men of the town, who had the
- 7 And when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and put them to death, all the seventy, and put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.
- 8 And a man came and said to him, They have come with the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Put them down in two masses at the doorway of the town till the morning.
- 9 And in the morning he went out and, stopping, said to all the people there, You are upright men: it is true that I made designs against my master, and put him to death; but who is responsible for the death of all these?
- 10 You may be certain that nothing which the Lord has said about the family of Ahab will be without effect; for the Lord has done what he said by his servant Elijah.
- 11 So Jehu put to death all the rest of the seed of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his relations and his near friends and his priests, till there were no more of them.
- 12 Then he got up and came to Samaria. And he was at the meeting-place of the keepers of sheep, by the way,
- 13 When he came across the brothers of Ahaziah, king of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they said, We are the brothers of Ahaziah, king of Judah; we are going down to see the children of the king and of the queen.
- 14 And he said, Take them living. So they took them living, and put them to death in the water-hole of Beth-eked; of the forty-two men he put every one to death;
- 15 And when he had gone away from there, he came across Jehonadab, the son of Rechab: and he said good-day to him, and said to him, Is your heart true to mine, as mine is to yours? And Jehonadab in answer said, It is; and Jehu said, If it is, give me your ha
- 16 And he said, Come with me and see how I am on fire for the Lord's cause. So he made him go with him in his carriage.
- 17 And when he came to Samaria, he put to death all those of Ahab's family who were still in Samaria, till there were no more of them, as the Lord had said to Elijah.
- 18 Then Jehu got all the people together and said to them, Ahab was Baal's servant in a small way, but Jehu will be his servant on a great scale.

- 19 Now send for all the prophets of Baal and all his servants and all his priests, to come to me; let no one keep away: for I have a great offering to make to Baal; anyone who is not present, will be put to death. This Jehu did with deceit, his purpose being
- 20 And Jehu said, Let there be a special holy meeting for the worship of Baal. So a public statement was made.
- 21 And Jehu sent out through all Israel; and all the servants of Baal came, not one kept away. And they came into the house of Baal, so that it was full from end to end.
- 22 And Jehu said to him who kept the robes, Get out robes for all the servants of Baal. So he got out robes for them.
- 23 And Jehu, with Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, went into the house of Baal; and he said to the servants of Baal, Make a search with care, to see that no servant of the Lord is with you, but only servants of Baal.
- 24 Then they went in to make offerings and burned offerings. Now Jehu had put eighty men outside, and said to them, If any man whom I give into your hands gets away, the life of him who lets him go will be the price of his life.
- 25 Then when the burned offering was ended, straight away Jehu said to the armed men and the captains, Go in and put them to death; let not one come out. So they put them to the sword; and, pulling the images to the earth, they went into the holy place of th
- 26 And they took out the image of Asherah from the house of Baal, and had it burned.
- 27 The altar of Baal was pulled down and the house of Baal was broken up and made an unclean place, as it is to this day.
- 28 So Jehu put an end to the worship of Baal in Israel.
- 29 But Jehu did not keep himself from all the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and the evil he made Israel do; the gold oxen were still in Beth-el and in Dan.
- 30 And the Lord said to Jehu, Because you have done well in doing what is right in my eyes and effecting all my purpose for the family of Ahab, your sons will be kings of Israel to the fourth generation.
- 31 But Jehu did not take care to keep the law of the Lord with all his heart: he did not keep himself from the sin which Jeroboam did and made Israel do.
- 32 In those days the Lord was angry first with Israel; and Hazael made attacks on all the land of Israel,
- 33 East of Jordan, in all the land of Gilead, the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Manassites, from Aroer by the valley of the Arnon, all Gilead and Bashan.
- 34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all he did, and his great power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 35 And Jehu went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son became king in his place.
- 36 And the time of Jehu's rule over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.
- 1 Now when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she had all the rest of the seed of the kingdom put to death.
- 2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, secretly took Joash, the son of Ahaziah, with the woman who took care of him, away from among the king's sons who were put to death, and put him in the bedroom; and they kept him safe from Atha
- 3 And for six years she kept him safe in the house of the Lord, while Athaliah was ruling over the land.
- 4 Then in the seventh year, Jehoiada sent for the captains of hundreds of the Carians, and the armed men, and taking them into the house of the Lord, made an agreement with them, and made them take an oath in the house of the Lord, and let them see the king
- 5 And he gave them orders, saying, This is what you are to do: the third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath and keep the watch of the king's house,
- 6 ...
- 7 And the two divisions of you, who go out on the Sabbath and keep the watch of the house of the Lord,
- 8 Will make a circle round the king, every man being armed; and whoever comes inside your lines is to be put to death; keep with the king, when he goes out and when he comes in.
- 9 And the captains of hundreds did as Jehoiada the priest gave them orders; every one took with him his men, those who came in and those who went out on the Sabbath, and they came in to Jehoiada the priest.
- 10 And the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and body-covers which had been King David's, and which were kept in the house of the Lord.

- 11 Then the armed men took up their positions, every man with his instruments of war in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left, round about the altar and the house.
- 12 Then he made the king's son come out, and put the crown on him and the arm-bands, and made him king, and put the holy oil on him; and they all, making sounds of joy with their hands, said, Long life to the king.
- 13 Now Athaliah, hearing the noise made by the people, came to the people in the house of the Lord;
- 14 And looking, she saw the king in his regular place by the pillar, and the captains and the horns near him; and all the people of the land giving signs of joy and sounding the horns. Then Athaliah, violently parting her robes, gave a cry, saying, Broken fa
- 15 Then Jehoiada the priest gave orders to those who were placed in authority over the army, saying, Take her outside the lines, and let anyone who goes after her be put to death with the sword, for he said, Let her not be put to death in the house of the Lo
- 16 So they put their hands on her, and she went to the king's house by the doorway of the horses, and there she was put to death.
- 17 And Jehoiada made an agreement between the Lord and the king and the people, that they would be the Lord's people; and in the same way between the king and the people.
- 18 Then all the people of the land went to the house of Baal and had it pulled down: its altars and images were all broken to bits, and Mattan, the priest of Baal, they put to death before the altars. And the priest put overseers over the Lord's house.
- 19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, and the Carians, and the armed men, and all the people of the land; and they came down with the king from the house of the Lord, through the doorway of the armed men, to the king's house. And he took his place on the
- 20 So all the people of the land were glad, and the town was quiet; and they had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king's house.
- 21 And Jehoash was seven years old when he became king.
- 1 In the seventh year of Jehu's rule, Jehoash became king; and he was ruling for forty years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.
- 2 Jehoash did what was right in the eyes of the Lord all his days, because he was guided by the teaching of Jehoiada the priest.
- 3 But the high places were not taken away; the people went on making offerings and burning them in the high places.
- 4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the holy things, which comes into the house of the Lord, (the amount fixed for every man's payment,) and all the money given by any man freely from the impulse of his heart,
- 5 Let the priests take, every man from his friends and neighbours, to make good what is damaged in the house, wherever it is to be seen.
- 6 But in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had not made good the damaged parts of the house.
- 7 Then King Jehoash sent for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said to them, Why have you not made good what is damaged in the house? now take no more money from your neighbours, but give it for the building up of the house.
- 8 So the priests made an agreement to take no more money from the people, and not to make good what was damaged in the house.
- 9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and making a hole in the cover of it, put it by the altar, on the right side when one comes into the house of the Lord; and the priests who kept the door put in it regularly all the money which was taken into the hous
- 10 And when they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came and put it in bags, noting the amount of all the money there was in the house of the Lord.
- 11 And the money which was measured out they gave regularly to those who were responsible for overseeing the work, and these gave it in payment to the woodworkers and the builders who were working on the house of the Lord,
- 12 And to the wall-builders and the stone-cutters, and to get wood and cut stone for building up the broken parts of the house of the Lord, and for everything needed to put the house in good order.
- 13 But the money was not used for making silver cups or scissors or basins or wind-instruments or any vessels of gold or silver for the house of the Lord;
- 14 But it was all given to the workmen who were building up the house.

- 15 And they did not get any statement of accounts from the men to whom the money was given for the workmen, for they made use of it with good faith.
- 16 The money of the offerings for error and the sin-offerings was not taken into the house of the Lord; it was the priests'.
- 17 Then Hazael, king of Aram, went up against Gath and took it; and his purpose was to go up to Jerusalem.
- 18 Then Jehoash, king of Judah, took all the holy things which Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah his fathers, the kings of Judah, had given to the Lord, together with the things he himself had given, and all the gold in the Temple store and in the king's h
- 19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 20 And his servants made a secret design and put Joash to death at the house of Millo on the way down to Silla.
- 21 And Jozacar, the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad, the son of Shomer, his servants, came to him and put him to death; and they put him into the earth with his fathers in the town of David; and Amaziah his son became king in his place.
- 1 In the twenty-third year of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, became king over Israel in Samaria, ruling for seventeen years.
- 2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, copying the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, which he did and made Israel do; he did not keep himself from them.
- 3 So the wrath of the Lord was burning against Israel, and he gave them up into the power of Hazael, king of Aram, and into the power of Ben-hadad, the son of Hazael, again and again.
- 4 Then Jehoahaz made prayer to the Lord, and the Lord gave ear to him, for he saw how cruelly Israel was crushed by the king of Aram.
- 5 (And the Lord gave Israel a saviour, so that they became free from the hands of the Aramaeans; and the children of Israel were living in their tents as in the past.
- 6 But still they did not give up the sin of Jeroboam, which he made Israel do, but went on with it; and there was an image of Asherah in Samaria.)
- 7 For out of all his army, Jehoahaz had only fifty horsemen and ten carriages and ten thousand footmen; the king of Aram had given them up to destruction, crushing them like dust.
- 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all he did, and his great power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 9 And Jehoahaz went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in Samaria; and Joash his son became king in his place.
- 10 In the thirty-seventh year of the rule of Joash, king of Judah, Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, became king over Israel in Samaria, ruling for sixteen years.
- 11 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, not turning away from the sin of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, which he did and made Israel do, but he went on with it.
- 12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all he did, and the force with which he went to war against Amaziah, king of Judah, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 13 And Joash went to rest with his fathers and Jeroboam took his place as king; and Joash was put into the earth in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
- 14 Now Elisha became ill with the disease which was the cause of his death: and Joash, king of Israel, came down to him, and weeping over him said, My father, my father, the war-carriages of Israel and its horsemen!
- 15 Then Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows: and he took bow and arrows.
- 16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put your hand on the bow: and he put his hand on it; and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.
- 17 Then he said; Let the window be open to the east: and he got it open. Then Elisha said, Let the arrow go; and he let it go. And he said, The Lord's arrow of salvation, of salvation over Aram; for you will overcome the Aramaeans in Aphek and put an end to
- 18 And he said, Take the arrows: and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Send them down into the earth; and he did so three times and no more.
- 19 Then the man of God was angry with him and said, If you had done it five or six times, then you would have overcome Aram completely; but now you will only overcome them three times.
- 20 And death came to Elisha and they put his body into the earth. Now in the spring of the year, armed bands of Moabites frequently came, overrunning the land.

- 21 And while they were putting a dead man into the earth, they saw a band coming; and they put the man quickly into the place where Elisha's body was; and the dead man, on touching Elisha's bones, came to life again, and got up on his feet.
- 22 And Israel was crushed under the power of Hazael, king of Aram, all the days of Jehoahaz.
- 23 But the Lord was kind to them and had pity on them, caring for them, because of his agreement with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; he would not put them to destruction or send them away from before his face till now.
- 24 Then Hazael, king of Aram, came to his end; and Ben-hadad his son became king in his place.
- 25 And Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, took again from Ben-hadad, the son of Hazael, the towns which he had taken from Jehoahaz his father in war. Three times Jehoash overcame him and got back the towns of Israel.
- 1 In the second year of Joash, son of Joahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah, the son of Joash, became king of Judah.
- 2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king; and he was ruling in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.
- 3 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, though not like David his father; he did as Joash his father had done.
- 4 But still the high places were not taken away; the people went on making offerings and burning them in the high places.
- 5 Now when he became strong in the kingdom, straight away he put to death those servants who had taken the life of the king his father;
- 6 But he did not put their children to death; for the orders of the Lord recorded in the book of the law of Moses say, The fathers are not to be put to death for the children, or the children for their fathers; but a man is to be put to death for the sin wh
- 7 He put to the sword twelve thousand men of Edom in the Valley of Salt, and took Sela in war, naming it Joktheel, as it is to this day.
- 8 Then Amaziah sent representatives to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us have a meeting face to face.
- 9 And Jehoash, king of Israel, sent to Amaziah, king of Judah, saying, The thorn-tree in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife: and a beast from the woodland in Lebanon went by, crushing the thorn under his fe
- 10 It is true that you have overcome Edom and your heart is uplifted; let that glory be enough for you, and keep in your country; why do you make causes of trouble, putting yourself, and Judah with you, in danger of downfall?
- 11 But Amaziah gave no attention. So Jehoash, king of Israel, went up, and he and Amaziah, king of Judah, came face to face at Beth-shemesh, which is in Judah.
- 12 And Judah was overcome before Israel, so that they went in flight, every man to his tent.
- 13 And Jehoash, king of Israel, made Amaziah, king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, prisoner at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and had the wall of Jerusalem pulled down from the doorway of Ephraim to the door in the angle, four hundred cub
- 14 And he took all the gold and silver and all the vessels which were in the house of the Lord and in the store-house of the king, together with those whose lives would be the price of broken faith, and went back to Samaria.
- 15 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash, and his power, and how he went to war with Amaziah, king of Judah, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 16 And Jehoash went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son became king in his place.
- 17 Amaziah, the son of Joash, king of Judah, went on living for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.
- 18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 19 Now they made a secret design against him in Jerusalem; and he went in flight to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish and put him to death there.
- 20 And they took his body on horseback and put it into the earth with his fathers in Jerusalem, the town of David.
- 21 Then all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.
- 22 He was the builder of Elath, which he got back for Judah after the death of the king.
- 23 In the fifteenth year of the rule of Amaziah, son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam, the son of Joash, king of Israel, became king in Samaria, ruling for forty-one years.

- 24 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, not turning away from the sin which Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, did and made Israel do.
- 25 He got back the old limits of Israel from the way into Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, as the Lord had said by his servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet of Gath-hepher.
- 26 For the Lord saw how bitter was the trouble of Israel, and that everyone was cut off, he who was shut up and he who went free, and that Israel had no helper.
- 27 And the Lord had not said that the name of Israel was to be taken away from the earth; but he gave them a saviour in Jeroboam, the son of Joash.
- 28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all he did, and his power, and how he went to war with Damascus, causing the wrath of the Lord to be turned away from Israel, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 29 And Jeroboam went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son became king in his place.
- 1 In the twenty-seventh year of the rule of Jeroboam, king of Israel, Azariah, son of Amaziah, became king of Judah.
- 2 He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he was ruling in Jerusalem for fifty-two years; his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.
- 3 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as his father Amaziah had done.
- 4 But he did not take away the high places, and the people still went on making offerings and burning them in the high places.
- 5 And the Lord sent disease on the king and he became a leper, and to the day of his death he was living separately in his private house. And Jotham his son was over his house, judging the people of the land.
- 6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 7 And Azariah went to rest with his fathers and was put into the earth with his fathers in the town of David; and Jotham his son became king in his place.
- 8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azaliah, king of Judah, Zechariah, son of Jeroboam, was king over Israel for six months.

- 10 And Shallum, the son of Jabesh, made a secret design against him, and, attacking him in Ibleam, put him to death and became king in his place.
- 11 Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah are recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.
- 12 This was what the Lord had said to Jehu, Your sons to the fourth generation will be kings of Israel. And so it came about.
- 13 Shallum, the son of Jabesh, became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah, king of Judah; and he was ruling in Samaria for the space of one month.
- 14 Then Menahem, the son of Gadi, went up from Tirzah and came to Samaria, and attacking Shallum, son of Jabesh, in Samaria, put him to death and made himself king in his place.
- 15 Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the secret design which he made, are recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.
- 16 Then Menahem sent destruction on Tappuah and all the people in it, and its limits, from Tirzah, because they would not let him come in; and he had all the women who were with child cut open.
- 17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah, king of Judah, Menahem, the son of Gadi, became king over Israel, and was ruling in Samaria for ten years.
- 18 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not keep himself from the sin which Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, did and made Israel do.
- 19 In his day, Pul, the king of Assyria, came up against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that he might let him keep the kingdom.
- 20 And Menahem got the money from Israel, from all the men of wealth, fifty silver shekels from every man, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria went back without stopping in the land.
- 21 Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
- 22 And Menahem went to rest with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son became king in his place.

- 23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah, the son of Menahem, became king over Israel in Samaria, ruling for two years.

- 29 In the days of Pekah, king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser, king of Assyria, came and took Ijon and Abel-beth-maacah and Janoah and Kedesh and Hazor and Gilead and Galilee and all the land of Naphtali; and he took the people away to Assyria.
- 30 And Hoshea, the son of Elah, made a secret design against Pekah, the son of Remaliah, and, attacking him, put him to death and became king in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham, the son of Uzziah.
- 31 Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all he did, are recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel.
- 32 In the second year of Pekah, the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham, the son of Uzziah, became king of Judah.
- 33 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he was ruling for sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.
- 34 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as his father Uzziah had done.
- 35 But he did not take away the high places, and the people still went on making offerings and burning them in the high places. He was the builder of the higher doorway of the house of the Lord.
- 36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 37 In those days the Lord first sent against Judah, Rezin, the king of Aram, and Pekah, the son of Remaliah.
- 38 And Jotham went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in the town of David his father; and Ahaz his son became king in his place.
- 1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah, the son of Remaliah, Ahaz, the son of Jotham, became king of Judah.
- 2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king; he was ruling for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the eyes of the Lord his God, as David his father did.
- 3 But he went in the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made his son go through the fire, copying the disgusting ways of the nations whom the Lord had sent out of the land before the children of Israel.
- 4 And he made offerings, burning them in the high places and on the hills and under every green tree.
- 5 Then Rezin, king of Aram, and Pekah, son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they made an attack on Ahaz, shutting him in, but were not able to overcome him.
- 6 At that time the king of Edom got Elath back for Edom, and sent the Jews out of Elath; and the Edomites came back to Elath where they are living to this day.
- 7 So Ahaz sent representatives to Tiglath-pileser, king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son; come to my help against the kings of Aram and Israel who have taken up arms against me.
- 8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold which were in the house of the Lord and in the king's store-house, and sent them as an offering to the king of Assyria.
- 9 And the king of Assyria, in answer to his request, went up against Damascus and took it, and took its people away as prisoners to Kir, and put Rezin to death.
- 10 Then King Ahaz went to Damascus for a meeting with Tiglath-pileser, king of Assyria; and there he saw the altar which was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest a copy of the altar, giving the design of it and all the details of its structure.
- 11 And from the copy King Ahaz sent from Damascus, Urijah made an altar and had it ready by the time King Ahaz came back from Damascus.
- 12 And when the king came from Damascus, he saw the altar; and he went up on it and made an offering on it.
- 13 He made his burned offering and his meal offering and his drink offering there, draining out the blood of his peace-offerings on the altar.

- 14 And the brass altar, which was before the Lord, he took from the front of the house, from between his altar and the house of the Lord, and put it on the north side of his altar.
- 15 And King Ahaz gave orders to Urijah the priest, saying, Make the morning burned offering and the evening meal offering and the king's burned offering and meal offering, with the burned offerings of all the people and their meal offerings and drink offerin
- 16 So Urijah the priest did everything as the king said
- 17 And King Ahaz took off the sides of the wheeled bases, and took down the great water-vessel from off the brass oxen which were under it and put it on a floor of stone.
- 18  the house of the Lord, because of the king of Assyria.
- 19 Now the rest of the things which Ahaz did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 20 And Ahaz went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth with his fathers in the town of David; and Hezekiah his son became king in his place.
- 1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz, king of Judah, Hoshea, the son of Elah, became king over Israel in Samaria, ruling for nine years.
- 2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, though not like the kings of Israel before him.
- 3 Against him came up Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, and Hoshea became his servant and sent him offerings.
- 4 But Hoshea's broken faith became clear to the king of Assyria because he had sent representatives to So, king of Egypt, and did not send his offering to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: so the king of Assyria had him shut up in prison and
- 5 Then the king of Assyria went through all the land and came up to Samaria, shutting it in with his forces for three years.
- 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and took Israel away to Assyria, placing them in Halah and in Habor on the river Gozan, and in the towns of the Medes.
- 7 And the wrath of the Lord came on Israel because they had done evil against the Lord their God, who took them out of the land of Egypt from under the yoke of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and had become worshippers of other gods,
- 8 Living by the rules of the nations whom the Lord had sent out from before the children of Israel.
- 9 And the children of Israel did secretly against the Lord their God things which were not right, building high places for themselves in all their towns, from the tower of the watchmen to the walled town.
- 10 They put up pillars of stone and wood on every high hill and under every green tree:
- 11 Burning their offerings in all the high places, as those nations did whom the Lord sent away from before them; they did evil things, moving the Lord to wrath;
- 12 And they made themselves servants of disgusting things, though the Lord had said, You are not to do this.
- 13 And he gave witness to Israel and Judah, by every prophet and seer, saying, Come back from your evil ways, and do my orders and keep my rules, and be guided by the law which I gave to your fathers and sent to you by my servants the prophets.
- 14 And they did not give ear, but became stiff-necked, like their fathers who had no faith in the Lord their God.
- 15 And they went against his rules, and the agreement which he made with their fathers, and his laws which he gave them; they gave themselves up to things without sense or value, and became foolish like the nations round them, of whom the Lord had said, Do n
- 16 And turning their backs on all the orders which the Lord had given them, they made for themselves images of metal, and the image of Asherah, worshipping all the stars of heaven and becoming servants to Baal.
- 17 And they made their sons and their daughters go through the fire, and they made use of secret arts and unnatural powers, and gave themselves up to doing evil in the eyes of the Lord, till he was moved to wrath.
- 18 So the Lord was very angry with Israel, and his face was turned away from them: only the tribe of Judah kept its place.
- 19 (But even Judah did not keep the orders of the Lord their God, but were guided by the rules which Israel had made.
- 20 So the Lord would have nothing to do with all the offspring of Israel, and sent trouble on them, and gave them up into the hands of their attackers, till he had sent them away from before his face.)
- 21 For Israel was broken off from the family of David, and they made Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, king, who, driving them away from the laws of the Lord, made them do a great sin.
- 22 And the children of Israel went on with all the sins which Jeroboam did; they did not keep themselves from them;

- 23 Till the Lord put Israel away from before his face, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was taken away from their land to Assyria, to this day.
- 24 Then the king of Assyria took men from Babylon and from Cuthah and Avva and Hamath and Sepharvaim, and put them in the towns of Samaria in place of the children of Israel; so they got Samaria for their heritage, living in its towns.
- 25 Now when first they were living there they did not give worship to the Lord. So the Lord sent lions among them, causing the death of some of them.
- 26 So they said to the king of Assyria, The nations whom you have taken as prisoners and put in the towns of Samaria, have no knowledge of the way of the god of the land: so he has sent lions among them, causing their death, because they have no knowledge of
- 27 Then the king of Assyria gave orders, saying, Send there one of the priests whom you took away, and let him be living there and teaching the people the way of the god of the land.
- 28 So one of the priests whom they had taken away as a prisoner from Samaria came back, and, living in Beth-el, became their teacher in the worship of the Lord.
- 29 And every nation made gods for themselves, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the towns where they were living.
- 30 The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,
- 31 The Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites gave their children to be burned in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.
- 32 So they went on worshipping the Lord, and made for themselves, from among all the people, priests for the high places, to make offerings for them in the houses of the high places.
- 33 They gave worship to the Lord, but they gave honour to their gods like the nations did from whom they had been taken as prisoners.
- 34 So to this day they go on in their old ways, not worshipping the Lord or keeping his orders or his ways or the law and the rule which the Lord gave to the children of Jacob, to whom he gave the name Israel;
- 35 And the Lord made an agreement with them and gave them orders, saying, You are to have no other gods; you are not to give worship to them or be their servants or make them offerings:
- 36 But the Lord, who took you out of the land of Egypt with his great power and his outstretched arm, he is your God, to whom you are to give worship and make offerings:
- 37 And the rules and the orders and the law which he put in writing for you, you are to keep and do for ever; you are to have no other gods.
- 38 And you are to keep in memory the agreement which I have made with you; and you are to have no other gods.
- 39 And you are to give worship to the Lord your God; for it is he who will give you salvation from the hands of all who are against you.
- 40 But they gave no attention, but went on in their old way.
- 41 So these nations, worshipping the Lord, still were servants to the images they had made; their children and their children's children did the same; as their fathers did, so do they, to this day.
- 1 Now in the third year of Hoshea, son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah, the son of Ahaz, became king of Judah.
- 2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, ruling in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah.
- 3 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord as David his father had done.
- 4 He had the high places taken away, and the stone pillars broken to bits, and the Asherah cut down; and the brass snake which Moses had made was crushed to powder at his order, because in those days the children of Israel had offerings burned before it, an
- 5 He had faith in the Lord, the God of Israel; so that there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah who were before him.
- 6 For his heart was fixed on the Lord, not turning from his ways, and he did his orders which the Lord gave to Moses.
- 7 And the Lord was with him; he did well in all his undertakings: and he took up arms against the king of Assyria and was his servant no longer.
- 8 He overcame the Philistines as far as Gaza and its limits, from the tower of the watchman to the walled town.
- 9 Now in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea, son of Elah, king of Israel, Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, came up against Samaria, shutting it in with his armies.

- 10 And at the end of three years they took it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah's rule, which was the ninth year of Hoshea, king of Israel, Samaria was taken.
- 11 And the king of Assyria took Israel away as prisoners into Assyria, placing them in Halah and in Habor on the river Gozan, and in the towns of the Medes;
- 12 Because they did not give ear to the voice of the Lord their God, but went against his agreement, even against everything ordered by Moses, the servant of the Lord, and they did not give ear to it or do it.
- 13 Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came up against all the walled towns of Judah and took them.
- 14 And Hezekiah, king of Judah, sent to Lachish, to the king of Assyria, saying, I have done wrong; give up attacking me, and whatever you put on me I will undergo. And the payment he was to make was fixed by the king of Assyria at three hundred talents of s
- 15 So Hezekiah gave him all the silver in the house of the Lord, and in the king's store-house.
- 16 And at that time Hezekiah had the gold from the doors of the Lord's house, and from the door-pillars plated by him, cut off and gave it to the king of Assyria.
- 17 Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan and the Rab-saris and the Rab-shakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah, with a strong force. And they went up and came to Jerusalem, and took up their position by the stream of the higher pool, by the hig
- 18 And they sent for the king, and Eliakim, the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.
- 19 And the Rab-shakeh said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, These are the words of the great king, the king of Assyria: In what are you placing your hope?
- 20 You say you have a design, and strength for war, but these are only words. Now to whom are you looking for support, that you have gone against my authority?
- 21 See, now, you are basing your hope on that broken rod of Egypt, which will go through a man's hand if he makes use of it for a support; for so is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all who put their faith in him.
- 22 And if you say to me, Our hope is in the Lord our God: is it not he, whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, saying to Judah and Jerusalem that worship may only be given before this altar in Jerusalem?
- 23 And now, take a chance with my master, the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put horsemen on them.
- 24 How then may you put to shame the least of my master's servants? and you have put your hope in Egypt for war-carriages and horsemen:
- 25 And have I now come up to send destruction on this place without the Lord's authority? It was the Lord himself who said to me, Go up against this land and make it waste.
- 26 Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna and Joah said to the Rab-shakeh, Will you kindly make use of the Aramaean language in talking to your servants, for we are used to it, and do not make use of the Jews' language in the hearing of the people on t
- 27 But the Rab-shakeh said to them, Is it to your master or to you that my master has sent me to say these words? has he not sent me to the men seated on the wall? for they are the people who will be short of food with you when the town is shut in.
- 28 Then the Rab-shakeh got up and said with a loud voice in the Jews' language, Give ear to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria;
- 29 This is what the king says: Do not be tricked by Hezekiah, for there is no salvation for you in him.
- 30 And do not let Hezekiah make you put your faith in the Lord, saying, The Lord will certainly keep us safe, and this town will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.
- 31 Do not give ear to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me; and everyone will be free to take the fruit of his vine and of his fig-tree, and the water of his spring;
- 32 Till I come and take you away to a land like yours, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vine-gardens, a land of oil-giving olives and of honey, so that life and not death may be your fate. Give no attention to Hezekiah when he says to you, The L
- 33 Has any one of the gods of the nations kept his land from falling into the hands of the king of Assyria?

- 34 Where are the gods of Hamath and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena and Ivvah? have they kept Samaria out of my hands?
- 35 Who among all the gods of these countries have kept their country from falling into my hands, to give cause for the thought that the Lord will keep Jerusalem from falling into my hands?
- 36 But the people kept quiet and gave him no answer: for the king's order was, Give him no answer.
- 37 Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah, with their clothing parted as a sign of grief, and gave him an account of what the Rabshakeh had said.
- 1 And on hearing it, King Hezekiah took off his robe, and put on haircloth, and went into the house of the Lord.
- 2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the chief priests, dressed in haircloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.
- 3 And they said to him, Hezekiah says, This day is a day of trouble and punishment and shame; for the children are ready to come to birth, but there is no strength to give birth to them.
- 4 It may be that the Lord your God will give ear to the words of the Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria, his master, sent to say evil things against the living God, and will make his words come to nothing: so then make your prayer for the rest of the peop
- 5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
- 6 And Isaiah said to them, This is what you are to say to your master: The Lord says, Be not troubled by the words which the servants of the king of Assyria have said against me in your hearing.
- 7 See, I will put a spirit into him, and bad news will come to his ears, and he will go back to his land; and there I will have him put to death by the sword.
- 8 So the Rabshakeh went back, and when he got there the king of Assyria was making war against Libnah, for it had come to his ears that he had gone away from Lachish.
- 9 And when news came to him that Tirhakah, king of Ethiopia, had made an attack on him, he sent representatives to Hezekiah again, saying,
- 10 This is what you are to say to Hezekiah, king of Judah: Let not your God, in whom is your faith, give you a false hope, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.
- 11 No doubt the story has come to your ears of what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, putting them to the curse; and will you be kept safe?
- 12 Did the gods of the nations keep safe those on whom my fathers sent destruction, Gozan and Haran and Rezech and the children of Eden who were in Telassar?
- 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the town of Sepharvaim, of Hena and of Ivvah?
- 14 And Hezekiah took the letter from the hands of those who had come with it; and after reading it, Hezekiah went up to the house of the Lord, opening the letter there before the Lord.
- 15 And Hezekiah made his prayer to the Lord, saying, O Lord, the God of Israel, seated between the winged ones, you only are the God of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.
- 16 Let your ear be turned to us, O Lord, and let your eyes be open, O Lord, and see; take note of all the words of Sennacherib who has sent men to say evil against the living God.
- 17 Truly, O Lord, the kings of Assyria have made waste the nations and their lands,
- 18 And have given their gods to the fire; for they were no gods, but wood and stone, the work of men's hands; so they have given them to destruction.
- 19 But now, O Lord our God, give us salvation from his hands, so that it may be clear to all the kingdoms of the earth that you and only you, O Lord, are God.
- 20 Then Isaiah, the son of Amoz, sent to Hezekiah, saying, The Lord, the God of Israel, says, The prayer which you have made to me against Sennacherib, king of Assyria, has come to my ears.
- 21 This is the word which the Lord has said about him: In the eyes of the virgin daughter of Zion you are shamed and laughed at; the daughter of Jerusalem has made sport of you.
- 22 Against whom have you said evil and bitter things? against whom has your voice been loud and your eyes lifted up? even against the Holy One of Israel.

- 23 You have sent your servants with evil words against the Lord, and have said, With all my war-carriages I have come up to the top of the mountains, to the inmost parts of Lebanon; its tall cedars will be cut down, and the best trees of its woods; I will co
- 24 I have made water-holes and taken their waters, and with my foot I have made all the rivers of Egypt dry.
- 25 Has it not come to your ears how I did it long before, purposing it in times long past? Now I have given effect to my design, so that by you strong towns might be turned into masses of broken walls.
- 26 This is why their townsmen had no power, they were broken and put to shame; they were like the grass of the field and the green plant, like grass on the house-tops.
- 27 But I have knowledge of your getting up and your resting, of your going out and your coming in.
- 28 Because your wrath against me and your words of pride have come up to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my cord in your lips, and I will make you go back by the way you came.
- 29 And this will be the sign to you: you will get your food this year from what comes up of itself; and in the second year from the produce of the same; and in the third year you will put in your seed and get in the grain and make vine-gardens and take of th
- 30 And those of Judah who are still living will again take root in the earth and give fruit.
- 31 For from Jerusalem those who have been kept safe will go out, and those who are still living will go out of Mount Zion: by the fixed purpose of the Lord of armies this will be done.
- 32 For this cause the Lord says about the king of Assyria, He will not come into this town, or send an arrow against it; he will not come before it with arms, or put up an earthwork against it;
- 33 By the way he came he will go back, and he will not get into this town, says the Lord.
- 34 For I will keep this town safe, for my honour, and for the honour of my servant David.
- 35 And that night the angel of the Lord went out and put to death in the army of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty-five thousand men; and when the people got up early in the morning, there was nothing to be seen but dead bodies.
- 36 So Sennacherib, king of Assyria, went back to his place at Nineveh.
- 37 And it came about, when he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer put him to death with the sword; and they went in flight into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son became king in his place.
- 1 In those days Hezekiah was ill and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, The Lord says, Put your house in order, for your death is near.
- 2 Then, turning his face to the wall, he made his prayer to the Lord, saying,
- 3 O Lord, keep in mind how I have been true to you with all my heart, and have done what is good in your eyes. And Hezekiah gave way to bitter weeping.
- 4 Now before Isaiah had gone out of the middle of the town, the word of the Lord came to him, saying,
- 5 Go back and say to Hezekiah, the ruler of my people, The Lord, the God of David your father, says, Your prayer has come to my ears, and I have seen your weeping; see, I will make you well: on the third day you will go up to the house of the Lord.
- 6 I will give you fifteen more years of life; and I will keep you and this town safe from the hands of the king of Assyria; I will keep this town safe, for my honour, and for the honour of my servant David.
- 7 Then Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs. So they took it and put it on his wound, and he got better.
- 8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What is to be the sign that the Lord will make me well, and that I will go up to the house of the Lord on the third day?
- 9 And Isaiah said, This is the sign the Lord will give you, that he will do what he has said; will the shade go forward ten degrees or back?
- 10 And Hezekiah said in answer, It is a simple thing for the shade to go forward; but let it go back ten degrees.
- 11 Then Isaiah the prophet made prayer to the Lord, and he made the shade go back ten degrees from its position on the steps of Ahaz.
- 12 At that time, Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters with an offering to Hezekiah, because he had news that Hezekiah had been ill.
- 13 And Hezekiah was glad at their coming and let them see all his store of wealth, the silver and the gold and the spices and the oil of great price, and the house of his arms, and everything there was in his stores; there was nothing in all his house or his

- 14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say and where did they come from? And Hezekiah said, They came from a far country, even from Babylon.
- 15 And he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah said in answer, They saw everything in my house: there is nothing among my stores which I did not let them see.
- 16 And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Give ear to the word of the Lord.
- 17 Truly, days are coming when everything in your house, and whatever your fathers have put in store till this day, will be taken away to Babylon: all will be gone, says the Lord.
- 18 And your sons, the offspring of your body, they will take away to be unsexed servants in the house of the king of Babylon.
- 19 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, Good is the word of the Lord which you have said. Then he said, ... if in my time there is peace and righteousness?
- 20 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his power, and how he made the pool and the stream, to take water into the town, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 21 And Hezekiah went to rest with his fathers; and Manasseh his son became king in his place.
- 1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king; for fifty-five years he was ruling in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hephzi-bah.
- 2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, copying the disgusting ways of those nations whom the Lord had sent out before the children of Israel.
- 3 He put up again the high places which had been pulled down by Hezekiah his father; he made altars for Baal, and an Asherah, as Ahab, king of Israel, had done; he was a worshipper and servant of all the stars of heaven.
- 4 And he put up altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord had said, In Jerusalem will I put my name.
- 5 And he put up altars for all the stars of heaven in the two outer squares of the house of the Lord.
- 6 And he made his son go through the fire, and made use of secret arts and signs for reading the future; he gave positions to those who had control of spirits and to wonder-workers; he did much evil in the eyes of the Lord, moving him to wrath.
- 7 He put the image of Asherah which he had made in the house of which the Lord had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, the town which I have made mine out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name for ever.
- 8 And never again will I send the feet of Israel wandering from the land which I gave to their fathers; if only they will take care to do all my orders, and keep all the law which my servant Moses gave them.
- 9 But they did not give ear; and Manasseh made them do more evil than those nations did, whom the Lord gave up to destruction before the children of Israel.
- 10 And the Lord said, by his servants the prophets,
- 11 Because Manasseh, king of Judah, has done these disgusting things, doing more evil than all the Amorites before him, and making Judah do evil with his false gods,
- 12 For this cause, says the Lord, the God of Israel, I will send such evil on Jerusalem and Judah that the ears of all to whom the news comes will be burning.
- 13 And over Jerusalem will be stretched the line of Samaria and the weight of Ahab; Jerusalem will be washed clean as a plate is washed, and turned over on its face.
- 14 And I will put away from me the rest of my heritage, and give them up into the hands of their haters, who will take their property and their goods for themselves;
- 15 Because they have done evil in my eyes, moving me to wrath, from the day when their fathers came out of Egypt till this day.
- 16 More than this, Manasseh took the lives of upright men, till Jerusalem from one end to the other was full of blood; in addition to his sin in making Judah do evil in the eyes of the Lord.
- 17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all he did, and his sins, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 18 So Manasseh went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son became king in his place.
- 19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, ruling in Jerusalem for two years; his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

- 20 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as Manasseh his father had done.
- 21 He went in all the ways of his father, being a servant and worshipper of the false gods to which his father had been a servant;
- 22 Turning away from the Lord, the God of his fathers, and not walking in his ways.
- 23 And the servants of Amon made a secret design against him, and put the king to death in his house.
- 24 But the people of the land put to death all those who had taken part in the design against the king, and made Josiah his son king in his place.
- 25 Now the rest of the acts which Amon did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 26 He was put in his last resting-place in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son became king in his place.
- 1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king; and he was ruling in Jerusalem for thirty-one years; his mother's name was Jedidah, daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.
- 2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, walking in the ways of David his father, without turning to the right hand or to the left.
- 3 Now in the eighteenth year after he became king, Josiah sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the Lord, saying to him,
- 4 Go up to Hilkiyah, the chief priest, and let him give out the money which is taken into the house of the Lord, which the keepers of the door have got together from the people;
- 5 And let it be given to the overseers of the work of the Lord's house, to give to the workmen who are making good what was damaged in the house of the Lord;
- 6 To the woodworkers and the builders and the stone-cutters; and for getting wood and cut stones for the building up of the house.
- 7 They did not have to give any account of the money which was handed to them, for they made use of it with good faith.
- 8 Then Hilkiyah, the chief priest, said to Shaphan the scribe, I have made discovery of the book of the law in the house of the Lord. So Hilkiyah gave it to Shaphan;
- 9 Then, after reading it, Shaphan the scribe went in to the king and gave him an account of what had been done, saying, Your servants have given out the money which was in the house, and have given it to the overseers of the work of the house of the Lord.
- 10 Then Shaphan the scribe said to the king, Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book; and he was reading it before the king.
- 11 And the king, hearing the words of the book of the law, took his robe in his hands, violently parting it as a sign of his grief;
- 12 And he gave orders to Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Achbor, the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,
- 13 Go and get directions from the Lord for me and for the people and for all Judah, about the words of this book which has come to light; for great is the wrath of the Lord which is burning against us, because our fathers have not given ear to the words of t
- 14 So Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam and Achbor and Shaphan and Asaiah, went to Huldah the woman prophet, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the robes, (now she was living in Jerusalem, in the second part of the town;) and t
- 15 And she said to them, The Lord, the God of Israel, says, Say to the man who sent you to me,
- 16 These are the words of the Lord: See, I will send evil on this place and on its people, even everything which the king of Judah has been reading in the book;
- 17 Because they have given me up, burning offerings to other gods and moving me to wrath by all the work of their hands; so my wrath will be on fire against this place, and will not be put out.
- 18 But to the king of Judah who sent you to get directions from the Lord, say, This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said: As to the words which have come to your ears,
- 19 Because your heart was soft, and you made yourself low before me, when you had word of what I said against this place and its people, that they would become a waste and a curse, and you gave signs of grief, weeping before me: truly, I have given ear to yo
- 20 For this cause I will let you go to your fathers and be put in your last resting-place in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will send on this place. So they took this news back to the king.
- 1 Then the king sent and got together all the responsible men of Judah and of Jerusalem.

- 2 And the king went up to the house of the Lord, with all the men of Judah and all the people of Jerusalem, and the priests and the prophets and all the people, small and great; and they were present at his reading of the book of the law which had come to l
- 3 And the king took his place by the pillar, and made an agreement before the Lord, to go in the way of the Lord, and keep his orders and his decisions and his rules with all his heart and all his soul, and to keep the words of the agreement recorded in the
- 4 Then the king gave orders to Hilkiyah, the chief priest, and to the priests of the second order, and to the keepers of the door, to take out of the house of the Lord all the vessels made for Baal and for the Asherah and for all the stars of heaven; and he
- 5 And he put an end to the false priests, who had been put in their positions by the kings of Judah to see to the burning of offerings in the high places in the towns of Judah and the outskirts of Jerusalem, and all those who made offerings to Baal and to t
- 6 And he took the Asherah from the house of the Lord, outside Jerusalem to the stream Kidron, burning it by the stream and crushing it to dust, and he put the dust on the place where the bodies of the common people were put to rest.
- 7 And he had the houses pulled down of those who were used for sex purposes in the house of the Lord, where women were making robes for the Asherah.
- 8 And he made all the priests from the towns of Judah come into Jerusalem, and he made unclean the high places where the priests had been burning offerings, from Geba to Beer-sheba; and he had the high places of the evil spirits pulled down which were by th
- 9 Still the priests of the high places never came up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem; but they took their food of unleavened bread among their brothers.
- 10 And Topheth, in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, he made unclean, so that no man might make his son or his daughter go through the fire to Molech.
- 11 And he took away the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the way into the house of the Lord, by the room of Nathan-melech, the unsexed servant, which was in the outer part of the building, and the carriages of the sun he put on fire.
- 12 And the altars on the roof of the high room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two outer squares of the house of the Lord, were pulled down and crushed to bits, and the dust of them was put into the s
- 13 And the high places before Jerusalem, on the south side of the mountain of destruction, which Solomon, king of Israel, had made for Ashtoreth, the disgusting god of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh, the disgusting god of Moab, and for Milcom, the disgusting
- 14 The stone pillars were broken to bits and the wood pillars cut down, and the places where they had been were made full of the bones of the dead.
- 15 And the altar at Beth-el, and the high place put up by Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who made Israel do evil, that altar and that high place were pulled down; and the high place was burned and crushed to dust and the Asherah was burned.
- 16 Then Josiah, turning round, saw on the mountain the places of the dead, and he sent and had the bones taken out of their places and burned on the altar, so making it unclean, as the Lord had said by the man of God when Jeroboam was in his place by the alt
- 17 What is that headstone I see over there? And the men of the town said to him, It is the resting-place of the man of God who came from Judah and gave word of all these things which you have done to the altar of Beth-el.
- 18 So he said, Let him be; let not his bones be moved. So they let his bones be with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.
- 19 Then Josiah took away all the houses of the high places in the towns of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had put up, moving the Lord to wrath, and he did with them as he had done in Beth-el.
- 20 And all the priests of the high places there he put to death on the altars, burning the bones of the dead on them; and then he went back to Jerusalem.
- 21 And the king gave orders to all the people, saying, Keep the Passover to the Lord your God, as it says in this book of the law.
- 22 Truly, such a Passover had not been kept in all the days of the judges of Israel or of the kings of Israel or the kings of Judah;
- 23 In the eighteenth year of the rule of King Josiah this Passover was kept to the Lord in Jerusalem.

- 24 And all those who had control of spirits, and the wonder-workers, and the images, and the false gods, and all the disgusting things which were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, Josiah put away, so that he might give effect to the words of the ag
- 25 Never before had there been a king like him, turning to the Lord with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his power, as the law of Moses says; and after him there was no king like him.
- 26 But still the heat of the Lord's wrath was not turned back from Judah, because of all Manasseh had done in moving him to wrath.
- 27 And the Lord said, I will send Judah away from before my face, as I have sent Israel; I will have nothing more to do with this town, which I had made mine, even Jerusalem, and the holy house of which I said, My name will be there.
- 28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 29 In his days, Pharaoh-necoh, king of Egypt, sent his armies against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates; and King Josiah went out against him; and he put him to death at Megiddo, when he had seen him.
- 30 And his servants took his body in a carriage from Megiddo to Jerusalem, and put him into the earth there. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz, the son of Josiah, and put the holy oil on him and made him king in place of his father.
- 31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, ruling in Jerusalem for three months; his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
- 32 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as his fathers had done.
- 33 And Pharaoh-necoh put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he might not be king in Jerusalem; and took from the land a tax of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.
- 34 Then Pharaoh-necoh made Eliakim, the son of Josiah, king in place of Josiah his father, changing his name to Jehoiakim; but Jehoahaz he took away to Egypt, where he was till his death.
- 35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh, taxing the land by his orders to get the money; the people of the land had to give silver and gold, everyone as he was taxed, to make the payment to Pharaoh-necoh.
- 36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king; he was ruling in Jerusalem for eleven years; his mother's name was Zebidah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.
- 37 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord as his fathers had done.
- 1 In his days, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came up and Jehoiakim was his servant for three years; then he took up arms against him.
- 2 And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldaeans and of the Edomites and of the Moabites and of the children of Ammon; sending them against Judah for its destruction, as he had said by his servants the prophets.
- 3 Only by the word of the Lord did this fate come on Judah, to take them away from before his face; because of the sins of Manasseh and all the evil he did;
- 4 And because of the death of those who had done no wrong, for he made Jerusalem full of the blood of the upright; and the Lord had no forgiveness for it.
- 5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
- 6 So Jehoiakim went to rest with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.
- 7 And the king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, for the king of Babylon had taken all his country, from the stream of Egypt to the river Euphrates.
- 8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, he was ruling in Jerusalem for three months, and his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.
- 9 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as his father had done.
- 10 At that time the armies of Nebuchadnezzar came up to Jerusalem and the town was shut in on every side.
- 11 And Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came there, while his servants were shutting in the town;
- 12 Then Jehoiachin, king of Judah, went out to the king of Babylon, with his mother and his servants and his chiefs and his unsexed servants; and in the eighth year of his rule the king of Babylon took him.
- 13 And he took away all the stored wealth of the Lord's house, and the goods from the king's store-house, cutting up all the gold vessels which Solomon, king of Israel, had made in the house of the Lord, as the Lord had said.
- 14 And he took away all the people of Jerusalem and all the chiefs and all the men of war, ten thousand prisoners; and all the expert workmen and the metal-workers; only the poorest sort of the people of the land were not taken away.

- 15 He took Jehoiachin a prisoner to Babylon, with his mother and his wives and his unsexed servants and the great men of the land; he took them all as prisoners from Jerusalem to Babylon.
- 16 And all the men of war, seven thousand of them, and a thousand expert workmen and metal-workers, all of them strong and able to take up arms, the king of Babylon took away as prisoners into Babylon.
- 17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, his father's brother, king in place of Jehoiachin, changing his name to Zedekiah.
- 18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem for eleven years; his mother's name was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
- 19 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as Jehoiakim had done.
- 20 And because of the wrath of the Lord, this came about in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had sent them all away from before him: and Zedekiah took up arms against the king of Babylon.
- 1 Now in the ninth year of his rule, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came against Jerusalem with all his army and took up his position before it, building earthworks all round the town.
- 2 And the town was shut in by their forces till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.
- 3 Now on the ninth day of the fourth month, the store of food in the town was almost gone, so that there was no food for the people of the land.
- 4 So an opening was made in the wall of the town, and all the men of war went in flight by night through the doorway between the two walls which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldaeans were stationed round the town:) and the king went by the way of th
- 5 But the Chaldaean army went after the king, and overtook him in the lowlands of Jericho, and all his army went in flight from him in every direction.
- 6 And they made the king a prisoner and took him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah to be judged.
- 7 And they put the sons of Zedekiah to death before his eyes, and then they put out his eyes, and chaining him with iron bands, took him to Babylon.
- 8 Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem;
- 9 And he had the house of the Lord and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned with fire;
- 10 And the walls round Jerusalem were broken down by the Chaldaean army which was with the captain.
- 11 And the rest of the people who were still in the town, and all those who had given themselves up to the king of Babylon, and all the rest of the workmen, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, took away as prisoners;
- 12 But he let the poorest of the land go on living there, to take care of the vines and the fields.
- 13 And the brass pillars in the house of the Lord, and the wheeled bases, and the great brass water-vessel in the house of the Lord, were broken up by the Chaldaeans, who took the brass to Babylon.
- 14 And the pots and the spades and the scissors for the lights and the spoons, and all the brass vessels used in the Lord's house, they took away.
- 15 And the fire-trays and the basins; the gold of the gold vessels and the silver of the silver vessels, were all taken away by the captain of the armed men.
- 16 The two pillars, the great water-vessel and the wheeled bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.
- 17 One of the pillars was eighteen cubits high, with a crown of brass on it; the crown was three cubits high, circled with a network and apples all of brass; and the second pillar had the same.
- 18 And the captain of the armed men took Seraiah, the chief priest, and Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three door-keepers;
- 19 And from the town he took the unsexed servant who was over the men of war, and five of the king's near friends who were in the town, and the scribe of the captain of the army, who was responsible for getting the people of the land together in military ord
- 20 These Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, took with him to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
- 21 And the king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was taken away prisoner from his land.

- 22 As for the people who were still living in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, did not take away, he made Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler over them.
- 23 Now the captains of the armed forces, hearing that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah ruler, came with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah; Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, and Seraiah, the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, a
- 24 Then Gedaliah gave his oath to them and their men, saying, Have no fear because of the servants of the Chaldeans; go on living in the land under the rule of the king of Babylon, and all will be well.
- 25 But in the seventh month, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the king's seed, came with ten men and made an attack on Gedaliah, causing his death and the death of the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.
- 26 Then all the people, small and great, and the captains of the forces, got up and went away to Egypt, for fear of the Chaldeans.
- 27 And in the thirty-seventh year after Jehoiachin, king of Judah, had been taken prisoner, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Evil-merodach, king of Babylon, in the first year of his rule, took Jehoiachin, king of Judah, out of pr
- 28 And said kind words to him, and put his seat higher than the seats of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.
- 29 And his prison clothing was changed, and he was a guest at the king's table every day for the rest of his life.
- 30 And for his food, the king gave him a regular amount every day for the rest of his life.
- 1 The vision of Isaiah, the son of Amoz, which he saw about Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.
- 2 Give ear, O heavens, and you, O earth, to the word which the Lord has said: I have taken care of my children till they became men, but their hearts have been turned away from me.
- 3 Even the ox has knowledge of its owner, and the ass of the place where its master puts its food: but Israel has no knowledge, my people give no thought to me.
- 4 O nation full of sin, a people weighted down with crime, a generation of evil-doers, false-hearted children: they have gone away from the Lord, they have no respect for the Holy One of Israel, their hearts are turned back from him.
- 5 Why will you have more and more punishment? why keep on in your evil ways? Every head is tired and every heart is feeble.
- 6 The body, from head to foot, is all diseased; it is a mass of open wounds, marks of blows, and broken flesh: the flow of blood has not been stopped, and no oil has been put on the wounds.
- 7 Your country has become waste; your towns are burned with fire; as for your land, it is overturned before your eyes, made waste and overcome by men from strange lands.
- 8 And the daughter of Zion has become like a tent in a vine-garden, like a watchman's house in a field of fruit, like a town shut in by armies.
- 9 If the Lord of armies had not kept some at least of us safe, we would have been like Sodom, and the fate of Gomorrah would have been ours.
- 10 Give ear to the word of the Lord, you rulers of Sodom; let your hearts be turned to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah.
- 11 What use to me is the number of the offerings which you give me? says the Lord; your burned offerings of sheep, and the best parts of fat cattle, are a weariness to me; I take no pleasure in the blood of oxen, or of lambs, or of he-goats.
- 12 At whose request do you come before me, making my house unclean with your feet?
- 13 Give me no more false offerings; the smoke of burning flesh is disgusting to me, so are your new moons and Sabbaths and your holy meetings.
- 14 Your new moons and your regular feasts are a grief to my soul: they are a weight in my spirit; I am crushed under them.
- 15 And when your hands are stretched out to me, my eyes will be turned away from you: even though you go on making prayers, I will not give ear: your hands are full of blood.
- 16 Be washed, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes; let there be an end of sinning;
- 17 Take pleasure in well-doing; let your ways be upright, keep down the cruel, give a right decision for the child who has no father, see to the cause of the widow.
- 18 Come now, and let us have an argument together, says the Lord: how may your sins which are red like blood be white as snow? how may their dark purple seem like wool?

- 19 If you will give ear to my word and do it, the good things of the land will be yours;
- 20 But if your hearts are turned against me, I will send destruction on you by the sword; so the Lord has said.
- 21 The upright town has become untrue; there was a time when her judges gave right decisions, when righteousness had a resting-place in her, but now she is full of those who take men's lives.
- 22 Your silver is no longer true metal, your wine is mixed with water.
- 23 Your chiefs have gone against the Lord, they have become friends of thieves; every one of them is looking for profit and going after rewards; they do not give right decisions for the child who has no father, and they do not let the cause of the widow come
- 24 For this reason the Lord, the Lord of armies, the Strong One of Israel, has said, I will put an end to my haters, and send punishment on those who are against me;
- 25 And my hand will again be on you, washing away what is unclean as with soap, and taking away all your false metal;
- 26 And I will give you judges again as at the first, and wise guides as in the past; then you will be named, The Town of Righteousness, the true town.
- 27 Upright acts will be the price of Zion's forgiveness, and by righteousness will men be living there.
- 28 But a common destruction will overtake sinners and evil-doers together, and those who have gone away from the Lord will be cut off.
- 29 For you will be put to shame because of the trees of your desire, and because of the gardens of your pleasure.
- 30 For you will be like a tree whose leaves have become dry, and like a garden without water.
- 31 And the strong will be as food for the fire, and his work as a flame; and they will be burned together, with no one to put out the fire.
- 1 The word which Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw about Judah and Jerusalem.
- 2 And it will come about in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord will be placed on the top of the mountains, and be lifted up over the hills; and all nations will come to it.
- 3 And the peoples will say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob: and he will give us knowledge of his ways, and we will be guided by his word; for out of Zion the law will go out, and the word of the Lord fro
- 4 And he will be the judge between the nations, and the peoples will be ruled by his decisions: and their swords will be turned into plough-blades, and their spears into vine-knives: no longer will the nations be turning their swords against one another, an
- 5 O family of Jacob, come, and let us go in the light of the Lord.
- 6 For you, O Lord, have given up your people, the family of Jacob, because they are full of the evil ways of the east, and make use of secret arts like the Philistines, and are friends with the children of strange countries.
- 7 And their land is full of silver and gold, and there is no end to their stores; their land is full of horses, and there is no end to their carriages.
- 8 Their land is full of images; they give worship to the work of their hands, even to that which their fingers have made.
- 9 And the poor man's head is bent, and the great man goes down on his face: for this cause there will be no forgiveness for their sin.
- 10 Go into a hole in the rock, covering yourselves with dust, in fear of the Lord, before the glory of his power.
- 11 The high looks of man will be put to shame, and the pride of men will be made low, and only the Lord will be lifted up in that day.
- 12 For the day of the Lord of armies is coming on all the pride of men, and on all who are high and lifted up;
- 13 And on all the high trees of Lebanon, and on all the strong trees of Bashan;
- 14 And on all the high mountains, and on all the hills which are lifted up;
- 15 And on every high tower, and on every strong wall;
- 16 And on all the ships of Tarshish, and on all the fair boats.
- 17 And the high looks of man will be put to shame, and the pride of men will be made low: and only the Lord will be lifted up in that day.
- 18 And the images will never be seen again.
- 19 And men will go into cracks of the rocks, and into holes of the earth, for fear of the Lord, and before the glory of his power, when he comes out of his place, shaking the earth with his strength.

- 20 In that day men will put their images of silver and of gold, which they made for worship, in the keeping of the beasts of the dark places;
- 21 To take cover in the cracks of the rocks, and in the holes of the hills, for fear of the Lord, and before the glory of his power, when he comes out of his place, shaking the earth with his strength.
- 22 Have no more to do with man, whose life is only a breath, for he is of no value.
- 1 For the Lord, the Lord of armies, is about to take away from Jerusalem and from Judah all their support; their store of bread and of water;
- 2 The strong man and the man of war; the judge and the prophet; the man who has knowledge of secret arts, and the man who is wise because of his years;
- 3 The captain of fifty, and the man of high position, and the wise guide, and the wonder-worker, and he who makes use of secret powers.
- 4 And I will make children their chiefs, and foolish ones will have rule over them.
- 5 And the people will be crushed, every one by his neighbour; the young will be full of pride against the old, and those of low position will be lifted up against the noble.
- 6 When one man puts his hand on another in his father's house, and says, You have clothing, be our ruler and be responsible for us in our sad condition:
- 7 Then he will say with an oath, I will not be a helper, for in my house there is no bread or clothing: I will not let you make me a ruler of the people.
- 8 For Jerusalem has become feeble, and destruction has come on Judah, because their words and their acts are against the Lord, moving the eyes of his glory to wrath.
- 9 Their respect for a man's position is a witness against them; and their sin is open to the view of all; like that of Sodom, it is not covered. A curse on their soul! for the measure of their sin is full.
- 10 Happy is the upright man! for he will have joy of the fruit of his ways.
- 11 Unhappy is the sinner! for the reward of his evil doings will come on him.
- 12 As for my people, their ruler is acting like a child, and those who have authority over them are women. O my people, your guides are the cause of your wandering, turning your footsteps out of the right way.
- 13 The Lord is ready to take up his cause against his people, and is about to come forward as their judge.
- 14 The Lord comes to be the judge of their responsible men and of their rulers: it is you who have made waste the vine-garden, and in your houses is the property of the poor which you have taken by force.
- 15 By what right are you crushing my people, and putting a bitter yoke on the necks of the poor? This is the word of the Lord, the Lord of armies.
- 16 Again, the Lord has said, Because the daughters of Zion are full of pride, and go with outstretched necks and wandering eyes, with their foot-chains sounding when they go:
- 17 The Lord will send disease on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will let their secret parts be seen.
- 18 In that day the Lord will take away the glory of their foot-rings, and their sun-jewels, and their moon-ornaments,
- 19 The ear-rings, and the chains, and the delicate clothing,
- 20 The head-bands, and the arm-chains, and the worked bands, and the perfume-boxes, and the jewels with secret powers,
- 21 The rings, and the nose-jewels,
- 22 The feast-day dresses, and the robes, and the wide skirts, and the handbags,
- 23 The looking-glasses, and the fair linen, and the high head-dresses, and the veils.
- 24 And in the place of sweet spices will be an evil smell, and for a fair band a thick cord; for a well-dressed head there will be the cutting-off of the hair, and for a beautiful robe there will be the clothing of sorrow; the mark of the prisoner in place of
- 25 Your men will be put to the sword, and your men of war will come to destruction in the fight.
- 26 And in the public places of her towns will be sorrow and weeping; and she will be seated on the earth, waste and uncovered.
- 1 And in that day seven women will put their hands on one man, saying, There will be no need for you to give us food or clothing, only let us go under your name, so that our shame may be taken away.
- 2 In that day will the young growth of the Lord be beautiful in glory, and the fruit of the earth will be the pride of those who are still living in Israel.

- 3 And it will come about that the rest of the living in Zion, and of those who have been kept from destruction in Jerusalem, will be named holy, even everyone who has been recorded for life in Jerusalem:
- 4 When Zion has been washed from her sin by the Lord, and Jerusalem made clean from her blood by a judging and a burning wind.
- 5 And over every living-place on Mount Zion, all over all her meetings, the Lord will make a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for over all, the glory of the Lord will be a cover and a tent;
- 6 And a shade in the daytime from the heat, and a safe cover from storm and from rain.
- 1 Let me make a song about my loved one, a song of love for his vine-garden. My loved one had a vine-garden on a fertile hill:
- 2 And after working the earth of it with a spade, he took away its stones, and put in it a very special vine; and he put up a watchtower in the middle of it, hollowing out in the rock a place for the grape-crushing; and he was hoping that it would give the
- 3 And now, you people of Jerusalem and you men of Judah, be the judges between me and my vine-garden.
- 4 Is there anything which might have been done for my vine-garden which I have not done? why then, when I was hoping for the best grapes did it give me common grapes?
- 5 And now, this is what I will do to my vine-garden: I will take away the circle of thorns round it, and it will be burned up; its wall will be broken down and the beasts of the field will go through it;
- 6 And I will make it waste; its branches will not be touched with the knife, or the earth worked with the spade; but blackberries and thorns will come up in it: and I will give orders to the clouds not to send rain on it.
- 7 For the vine-garden of the Lord of armies is the people of Israel, and the men of Judah are the plant of his delight: and he was looking for upright judging, and there was blood; for righteousness, and there was a cry for help.
- 8 Cursed are those who are joining house to house, and putting field to field, till there is no more living-space for any but themselves in all the land!
- 9 The Lord of armies has said to me secretly, Truly, numbers of great and fair houses will be waste, with no one living in them.
- 10 For ten fields of vines will only give one measure of wine, and a great amount of seed will only give a small measure of grain.
- 11 Cursed are those who get up early in the morning to give themselves up to strong drink; who keep on drinking far into the night till they are heated with wine!
- 12 And corded instruments and wind-instruments and wine are in their feasts: but they give no thought to the work of the Lord, and they are not interested in what his hands are doing.
- 13 For this cause my people are taken away as prisoners into strange countries for need of knowledge: and their rulers are wasted for need of food, and their loud-voiced feasters are dry for need of water.
- 14 For this cause the underworld has made wide its throat, opening its mouth without limit: and her glory, and the noise of her masses, and her loud-voiced feasters, will go down into it.
- 15 And the poor man's head is bent, and the great man goes down on his face, and the eyes of pride are put to shame:
- 16 But the Lord of armies is lifted up as judge, and the Holy God is seen to be holy in righteousness.
- 17 Then the lambs will get food as in their grass-lands, and the fat cattle will be feasting in the waste places.
- 18 Cursed are those who make use of ox-cords for pulling the evil thing, and the bands of a young ox for their sin!
- 19 Who say, Let him do his work quickly, let him make it sudden, so that we may see it: let the design of the Holy One of Israel come near, so that it may be clear to us.
- 20 Cursed are those who give the name of good to evil, and of evil to what is good: who make light dark, and dark light: who make bitter sweet, and sweet bitter!
- 21 Cursed are those who seem wise to themselves, and who take pride in their knowledge!
- 22 Cursed are those who are strong to take wine, and great in making mixed drinks!
- 23 Who for a reward give support to the cause of the sinner, and who take away the righteousness of the upright from him.
- 24 For this cause, as the waste of the grain is burned up by tongues of fire, and as the dry grass goes down before the flame, so their root will be like the dry stems of grain, and their flower will go up in dust: because they have gone against the law of t

- 25 For this reason the wrath of the Lord has been burning against his people, and his hand has been stretched out against them in punishment, and the hills were shaking, and their dead bodies were like waste in the open places of the town.
- 26 And he will let a flag be lifted up as a sign to a far-off nation, whistling to them from the ends of the earth: and they will come quickly and suddenly.
- 27 There is no weariness among them, and no man is feeble-footed: they come without resting or sleeping, and the cord of their shoes is not broken.
- 28 Their arrows are sharp, and every bow is bent: the feet of their horses are like rock, and their wheels are like a rushing storm.
- 29 The sound of their armies will be like the voice of a lion, and their war-cry like the noise of young lions: with loud cries they will come down on their food and will take it away safely, and there will be no one to take it out of their hands.
- 30 And his voice will be loud over him in that day like the sounding of the sea: and if a man's eyes are turned to the earth, it is all dark and full of trouble; and the light is made dark by thick clouds.
- 1 In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord seated in his place, high and lifted up, and the Temple was full of the wide skirts of his robe.
- 2 Over him were the winged ones: every one had six wings; two for covering his face, two for covering his feet, and two for flight.
- 3 And one said in a loud voice to another, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of armies: all the earth is full of his glory.
- 4 And the bases of the door-pillars were shaking at the sound of his cry, and the house was full of smoke.
- 5 Then I said, The curse is on me, and my fate is destruction; for I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of armies.
- 6 Then a winged one came to me with a burning coal in his hand, which he had taken from off the altar with the fire-spoon.
- 7 And after touching my mouth with it, he said, See, your lips have been touched with this; and your evil is taken away, and you are made clean from sin.
- 8 And the voice of the Lord came to my ears, saying, Whom am I to send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I, send me.
- 9 And he said, Go, and say to this people, You will go on hearing, but learning nothing; you will go on seeing, but without getting wiser.
- 10 Make the hearts of this people fat, and let their ears be stopped, and their eyes shut; for fear that they may see with their eyes, and be hearing with their ears, and their heart may become wise, and they may be turned to me and made well.
- 11 Then I said, Lord, how long? And he said in answer, Till the towns are waste and unpeopled, and the houses have no men, and the land becomes completely waste,
- 12 And the Lord has taken men far away, and there are wide waste places in the land.
- 13 And even if there is still a tenth part in it, it will again be burned, like a tree of the woods whose broken end is still in the earth after the tree has been cut down (the holy seed is the broken end).
- 1 Now it came about in the days of Ahaz, the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin, the king of Aram, and Pekah, the son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war against it, but were not able to overcome it.
- 2 And word came to the family of David that Aram had put up its tents in Ephraim. And the king's heart, and the hearts of his people, were moved, like the trees of the wood shaking in the wind.
- 3 Then the Lord said to Isaiah, Go out now, you and Shear-jashub, your son, and you will come across Ahaz at the end of the stream flowing from the higher pool, in the highway of the washerman's field;
- 4 And say to him, Take care and be quiet; have no fear, and do not let your heart be feeble, because of these two ends of smoking fire-wood, because of the bitter wrath of Rezin and Aram, and of the son of Remaliah.
- 5 Because Aram has made evil designs against you, saying,
- 6 Let us go up against Judah, troubling her, and forcing our way into her, and let us put up a king in her, even the son of Tabeel:
- 7 This is the word of the Lord God: This design will not come about or be effected.
- 8 For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin (and in sixty-five years from now Ephraim will be broken, and will no longer be a people):

- 9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not have faith, your kingdom will be broken.
- 10 And Isaiah said again to Ahaz,
- 11 Make a request to the Lord your God for a sign, a sign in the deep places of the underworld, or in the high heavens.
- 12 But Ahaz said, I will not put the Lord to the test by making such a request.
- 13 And he said, Give ear now, O family of David: is it not enough that you are driving men to disgust? will you do the same to my God?
- 14 For this cause the Lord himself will give you a sign; a young woman is now with child, and she will give birth to a son, and she will give him the name Immanuel.
- 15 Butter and honey will be his food, when he is old enough to make a decision between evil and good.
- 16 For before the child is old enough to make a decision between evil and good, the land whose two kings you are now fearing will have become waste.
- 17 The Lord is about to send on you, and on your people, and on your father's house, such a time of trouble as there has not been from the days of the separating of Ephraim from Judah; even the coming of the king of Assyria.
- 18 And it will be in that day that the Lord will make a piping sound for the fly which is in the end of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee which is in the land of Assyria.
- 19 And they will come, covering all the waste valleys, and the holes of the rocks, and the thorns, and all the watering-places.
- 20 In that day will the Lord take away the hair of the head and of the feet, as well as the hair of the face, with a blade got for a price from the other side of the River; even with the king of Assyria.
- 21 And it will be in that day that a man will give food to a young cow and two sheep;
- 22 And they will give so much milk that he will be able to have butter for his food: for butter and honey will be the food of all who are still living in the land.
- 23 And it will be in that day that in every place where before there were a thousand vines valued at a thousand shekels of silver, there will be nothing but blackberries and thorns.
- 24 Men will come there with bows and arrows, because all the land will be full of blackberries and thorns.
- 25 And they will send out the oxen and the sheep on all the hills which before were worked with the spade, ... fear of blackberries and thorns.
- 1 And the Lord said to me, Take a great writing-board, and on it put down in common letters, Maher-shalal-hash-baz;
- 2 And take true witnesses to the writing, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah, the son of Jeberechiah.
- 3 And I went in to my wife, and she became with child, and gave birth to a son. Then the Lord said to me, Give him the name Maher-shalal-hash-baz,
- 4 For before the child is able to say, Father, or, Mother, the wealth of Damascus and the goods of Samaria will be taken away by the king of Assyria.
- 5 And the Lord said again to me,
- 6 Because this people will have nothing to do with the softly-flowing waters of Shiloah, and have fear of Rezin and Remaliah's son;
- 7 For this cause the Lord is sending on them the waters of the River, deep and strong, even the king of Assyria and all his glory: and it will come up through all its streams, overflowing all its edges:
- 8 And it will come on into Judah; rushing on and overflowing, till the waters are up to the neck;  and his outstretched wings will be covering the land from side to side: for God is with us.
- 9 Have knowledge, O peoples, and be in fear; give ear, all you far-off parts of the earth:
- 10 Let your designs be formed, and they will come to nothing; give your orders, and they will not be effected: for God is with us.
- 11 For the Lord, controlling me with a strong hand, gave me orders not to go in the way of this people, saying,
- 12 Do not say, It is holy, about everything of which this people says, It is holy; and do not be in fear of what they go in fear of.
- 13 But let the Lord of armies be holy to you, and go in fear of him, giving honour to him.
- 14 And he will be for a holy place: but for a stone of falling and a rock of trouble to the two houses of Israel, and to the men of Jerusalem, for a net in which they may be taken.

- 15 And numbers of them, falling on the stone, will be broken, and will be taken in the net.
- 16 Let my teaching be kept secret: and my words be given to my disciples only.
- 17 And I will be waiting for the Lord, whose face is veiled from the house of Jacob, and I will be looking for him.
- 18 See, I and the children whom the Lord has given me, are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of armies, whose resting-place is in Mount Zion.
- 19 And when they say to you, Make request for us to those who have control of spirits, and to those wise in secret arts, who make hollow bird-like sounds; is it not right for a people to make request to their gods, to make request for the living to the dead?
- 20 Then say to them, Put your faith in the teaching and the witness. ... If they do not say such things. ... For him there is no dawn. ...
- 21 And he will go through the land in bitter trouble and in need of food; and when he is unable to get food, he will become angry, cursing his king and his God, and his eyes will be turned to heaven on high;
- 22 And he will be looking down on the earth, and there will be trouble and dark clouds, black night where there is no seeing.
- 1 In earlier times he made the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali of small value, but after that he gave it glory, by the way of the sea, on the other side of Jordan, Galilee of the nations.
- 2 The people who went in the dark have seen a great light, and for those who were living in the land of the deepest night, the light is shining.
- 3 You have made them very glad, increasing their joy. They are glad before you as men are glad in the time of getting in the grain, or when they make division of the goods taken in war.
- 4 For by your hand the yoke on his neck and the rod on his back, even the rod of his cruel master, have been broken, as in the day of Midian.
- 5 For every boot of the man of war with his sounding step, and the clothing rolled in blood, will be for burning, food for the fire.
- 6 For to us a child has come, to us a son is given; and the government has been placed in his hands; and he has been named Wise Guide, Strong God, Father for ever, Prince of Peace.
- 7 Of the increase of his rule and of peace there will be no end, on the seat of David, and in his kingdom; to make it strong, supporting it with wise decision and righteousness, now and for ever. By the fixed purpose of the Lord of armies this will be done.
- 8 The Lord has sent a word to Jacob, and it has come on Israel;
- 9 And all the people will have experience of it, even Ephraim and the men of Samaria, who say in the pride of their uplifted hearts,
- 10 The bricks have come down, but we will put up buildings of cut stone in their place: the sycamores are cut down, but they will be changed to cedars.
- 11 For this cause the Lord has made strong the haters of Israel, driving them on to make war against him;
- 12 Aram on the east, and the Philistines on the west, who have come against Israel with open mouths. For all this his wrath is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
- 13 But the heart of the people was not turned to him who sent punishment on them, and they made no prayer to the Lord of armies.
- 14 For this cause the Lord took away from Israel head and tail, high and low, in one day.
- 15 The man who is honoured and responsible is the head, and the prophet who gives false teaching is the tail.
- 16 For the guides of this people are the cause of their wandering from the right way, and those who are guided by them come to destruction.
- 17 For this cause the Lord will have no pleasure in their young men, and no pity on their widows and the children without fathers: for they are all haters of God and evil-doers, and foolish words come from every mouth. For all this his wrath is not turned aw
- 18 For evil was burning like a fire; the blackberries and thorns were burned up; the thick woods took fire, rolling up in dark clouds of smoke.
- 19 The land was dark with the wrath of the Lord of armies: the people were like those who take men's flesh for food.
- 20 On the right a man was cutting off bits and was still in need; on the left a man took a meal but had not enough; no man had pity on his brother; every man was making a meal of the flesh of his neighbour.

- 21 Manasseh was making a meal of Ephraim, and Ephraim of Manasseh; and together they were attacking Judah. For all this his wrath is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
- 1 Cursed are those who make evil decisions, and the writers who make the records of their cruel acts:
- 2 Who do wrong to the poor in their cause, and take away the right of the crushed among my people, so that they may have the property of widows, and get under their power those who have no father.
- 3 And what will you do in the day of punishment, and in the destruction which is coming from far? to whom will you go for help, and what will become of your glory?
- 4 ... For all this his wrath is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
- 5 Ho! Assyrian, the rod of my wrath, the instrument of my punishment!
- 6 I will send him against a nation of wrongdoers, and against the people of my wrath I will give him orders, to take their wealth in war, crushing them down like the dust in the streets.
- 7 But this is not what is in his mind, and this is not his design; but his purpose is destruction, and the cutting off of more and more nations.
- 8 For he says, Are not all my captains kings?
- 9 Will not the fate of Calno be like that of Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?
- 10 As my hand has come on the kingdoms of the images, whose pictured images were more in number than those of Jerusalem and Samaria;
- 11 So, as I have done to Samaria and her images, I will do to Jerusalem and her images.
- 12 For this cause it will be that, when the purpose of the Lord against Mount Zion and Jerusalem is complete, I will send punishment on the pride of the heart of the king of Assyria, and on the glory of his uplifted eyes.
- 13 For he has said, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my knowledge, for I am wise: and I have taken away the limits of the peoples' lands, and the stores of their wealth have become mine; and I have made towns low in the dust, sending destruc
- 14 And I have put my hands on the wealth of the peoples, as on the place where a bird has put her eggs; and as a man may take the eggs from which a bird has gone, so I have taken all the earth for myself: and not a wing was moved, and not a mouth gave out a
- 15 Will the axe say high-sounding words against him who is using it, or the blade be full of pride against him who is cutting with it? As if a rod had the power of shaking him who is using it, or as if a stick might take up him who is not wood.
- 16 For this cause the Lord, the Lord of armies, will make his fat become wasted; and in his inner parts a fire will be lighted like a burning flame.
- 17 And the light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: wasting and burning up his thorns in one day.
- 18 And he will put an end to the glory of his woods and of his planted fields, soul and body together; and it will be as when a man is wasted by disease.
- 19 And the rest of the trees of his wood will be small in number, so that a child may put them down in writing.
- 20 And it will be in that day that the rest of Israel, and those of Jacob who have come safely through these troubles, will no longer go for help to him whose rod was on their back, but their faith will be in the Lord, the Holy One of Israel.
- 21 The rest, even the rest of Jacob, will come back to the Strong God.
- 22 For though your people, O Israel, are as the sand of the sea, only a small number will come back: for the destruction is fixed, overflowing in righteousness.
- 23 For the Lord, the Lord of armies, is about to make destruction complete in all the land.
- 24 For this cause the Lord, the Lord of armies, says, O my people living in Zion, have no fear of the Assyrian, even if his rod comes on your back, and his stick is lifted up as in Egypt.
- 25 For in a very short time my passion will be over, and my wrath will be turned to their destruction.
- 26 And the Lord of armies will be shaking a whip against him, as when he overcame Midian at the rock of Oreb: and his rod will be lifted up against them as it was against the Egyptians.
- 27 And in that day the weight which he put on your back will be taken away, and his yoke broken from off your neck.
- 28 He has gone up from Pene-Rimmon, he has come to Aiath; he has gone past Migron, at Michmash he puts his forces in order.

- 29 They have gone across the mountain; Geba will be our resting-place tonight, they say; Ramah is shaking with fear; Gibeah of Saul has gone in flight.
- 30 Give a loud cry, daughter of Gallim; let Laishah give ear; let Anathoth give answer to her.
- 31 Madmenah has gone; the men of Gebim are putting their goods in a safe place.
- 32 This very day he is stopping at Nob; he is shaking his hand against the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.
- 33 See, the Lord, the Lord of armies, is cutting off his branches with a great noise, and his strong ones are falling and his high ones are coming down.
- 34 And he is cutting down the thick places of the wood with an axe, and Lebanon with its tall trees is coming down.
- 1 And there will come a rod out of the broken tree of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will give fruit.
- 2 And the spirit of the Lord will be resting on him, the spirit of wisdom and good sense, the spirit of wise guiding and strength, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;
- 3 And he will not be guided in his judging by what he sees, or give decisions by the hearing of his ears:
- 4 But he will do right in the cause of the poor, and give wise decisions for those in the land who are in need; and the rod of his mouth will come down on the cruel, and with the breath of his lips he will put an end to the evil-doer.
- 5 And righteousness will be the cord of his robe, and good faith the band round his breast.
- 6 And the wolf will be living with the lamb, and the leopard will take his rest with the young goat; and the lion will take grass for food like the ox; and the young lion will go with the young ones of the herd; and a little child will be their guide.
- 7 And the cow and the bear will be friends while their young ones are sleeping together.
- 8 And the child at the breast will be playing by the hole of the snake, and the older child will put his hand on the bright eye of the poison-snake.
- 9 There will be no cause of pain or destruction in all my holy mountain: for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the sea is covered by the waters.
- 10 And in that day, the eyes of the nations will be turned to the root of Jesse which will be lifted up as the flag of the peoples; and his resting-place will be glory.
- 11 And in that day the hand of the Lord will be stretched out the second time to get back the rest of his people, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the sea-lands.
- 12 And he will put up a flag as a sign to the nations, and he will get together those of Israel who had been sent away, and the wandering ones of Judah, from the four ends of the earth.
- 13 And the envy of Ephraim will be gone, and those who make trouble for Judah will come to an end: Ephraim will have no more envy of Judah, and there will be an end of Judah's hate for Ephraim.
- 14 And they will be united in attacking the Philistines on the west, and together they will take the goods of the children of the east: their hand will be on Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon will be under their rule.
- 15 And the Lord will make the tongue of the Egyptian sea completely dry; and with his burning wind his hand will be stretched out over the River, and it will be parted into seven streams, so that men may go over it with dry feet.
- 16 And there will be a highway for the rest of his people from Assyria; as there was for Israel in the day when he came up out of the land of Egypt.
- 1 And in that day you will say I will give praise to you, O Lord; for though you were angry with me, your wrath is turned away, and I am comforted.
- 2 See, God is my salvation; I will have faith in the Lord, without fear: for the Lord Jah is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation.
- 3 So with joy will you get water out of the springs of salvation.
- 4 And in that day you will say, Give praise to the Lord, let his name be honoured, give word of his doings among the peoples, say that his name is lifted up.
- 5 Make a song to the Lord; for he has done noble things: give news of them through all the earth.
- 6 Let your voice be sounding in a cry of joy, O daughter of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you.
- 1 The word of the Lord about Babylon which Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw.

- 2 Put up a flag on a clear mountain-top, make a loud outcry to them, give directions with the hand, so that they may go into the doors of the great ones.
- 3 I have given orders to my holy ones, I have sent out my men of war, those of mine who take pride in their power, to give effect to my wrath.
- 4 The noise of great numbers in the mountains, like the noise of a strong people! The noise of the kingdoms of the nations meeting together! The Lord of armies is numbering his forces for war.
- 5 They come from a far country, from the farthest part of heaven, even the Lord and the instruments of his wrath, with destruction for all the land.
- 6 Send out a cry of grief; for the day of the Lord is near; it comes as destruction from the Most High.
- 7 For this cause all hands will be feeble, and every heart of man be turned to water;
- 8 Their hearts will be full of fear; pains and sorrows will overcome them; they will be in pain like a woman in childbirth; they will be shocked at one another; their faces will be like flames.
- 9 See, the day of the Lord is coming, cruel, with wrath and burning passion: to make the land a waste, driving the sinners in it to destruction.
- 10 For the stars of heaven and its bright armies will not give their light: the sun will be made dark in his journey through the heaven, and the moon will keep back her light.
- 11 And I will send punishment on the world for its evil, and on the sinners for their wrongdoing; and I will put an end to all pride, and will make low the power of the cruel.
- 12 I will make men so small in number, that a man will be harder to get than gold, even the best gold of Ophir.
- 13 For this cause the heavens will be shaking, and the earth will be moved out of its place, in the wrath of the Lord of armies, and in the day of his burning passion.
- 14 And it will be that, like a roe in flight, and like wandering sheep, they will go every man to his people and to his land.
- 15 Everyone who is overtaken will have a spear put through him, and everyone who goes in flight will be put to the sword.
- 16 Their young children will be broken up before their eyes; their goods will be taken away, and their wives made the property of others.
- 17 See, I am driving the Medes against them, who put no value on silver and have no pleasure in gold.
- 18 In their hands are bows and spears; they are cruel, violently putting the young men to death, and crushing the young women; they have no pity for children, and no mercy for the fruit of the body.
- 19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beautiful town which is the pride of the Chaldaeans, will be like God's destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.
- 20 People will never be living in it again, and it will have no more men from generation to generation: the Arab will not put up his tent there; and those who keep sheep will not make it a resting-place for their flocks.
- 21 But the beasts of the waste land will have their holes there; and the houses will be full of crying jackals, and ostriches will have their place there, and evil spirits will be dancing there.
- 22 And wolves will be answering one another in their towers, and jackals in their houses of pleasure: her time is near, and her days of power will quickly be ended.
- 1 For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and will again make Israel his special people, and will put them in their land; and the man from a strange country will take his place among them and be joined to the family of Jacob.
- 2 And the people will take them with them to their place: and the children of Israel will give them a heritage in the Lord's land as men-servants and women-servants, making them prisoners whose prisoners they were; and they will be rulers over their masters
- 3 And it will be, in the day when the Lord gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your trouble, and from the hard yoke which they had put on you,
- 4 That you will take up this bitter song against the king of Babylon, and say, How has the cruel overseer come to an end! He who was lifted up in pride is cut off;
- 5 The stick of the evil-doers, the rod of the rulers, is broken by the Lord;
- 6 He whose rod was on the peoples with an unending wrath, ruling the nations in passion, with an uncontrolled rule.
- 7 All the earth is at rest and is quiet: they are bursting into song.
- 8 Even the trees of the wood are glad over you, the trees of Lebanon, saying, From the time of your fall no wood-cutter has come up against us with an axe.

- 9 The underworld is moved at your coming: the shades of the dead are awake before you, even the strong ones of the earth; all the kings of the world have got up from their seats.
- 10 They all make answer and say to you, Have you become feeble like us? have you been made even as we are?
- 11 Your pride has gone down into the underworld, and the noise of your instruments of music; the worms are under you, and your body is covered with them.
- 12 How great is your fall from heaven, O shining one, son of the morning! How are you cut down to the earth, low among the dead bodies!
- 13 For you said in your heart, I will go up to heaven, I will make my seat higher than the stars of God; I will take my place on the mountain of the meeting-place of the gods, in the inmost parts of the north.
- 14 I will go higher than the clouds; I will be like the Most High.
- 15 But you will come down to the underworld, even to its inmost parts.
- 16 Those who see you will be looking on you with care, they will be in deep thought, saying, Is this the troubler of the earth, the shaker of kingdoms?
- 17 Who made the world a waste, overturning its towns; who did not let his prisoners loose from the prison-house.
- 18 All the kings of the earth are at rest in glory, every man in his house,
- 19 But you, like a birth before its time, are stretched out with no resting-place in the earth; clothed with the bodies of the dead who have been put to the sword, who go down to the lowest parts of the underworld; a dead body, crushed under foot.
- 20 As for your fathers, you will not be united with them in their resting-place, because you have been the cause of destruction to your land, and of death to your people; the seed of the evil-doer will have no place in the memory of man.
- 21 Make ready a place of death for his children, because of the evil-doing of their father; so that they may not come up and take the earth for their heritage, covering the face of the world with waste places.
- 22 For I will come up against them, says the Lord of armies, cutting off from Babylon name and offspring, son and son's son, says the Lord.
- 23 And I will make you a heritage for the hedgehog, and pools of water: and I will go through it with the brush of destruction, says the Lord of armies.
- 24 The Lord has taken an oath, saying, My design will certainly come about, and my purpose will be effected:
- 25 To let the Assyrian be broken in my land, and crushed under foot on my mountains: there will his yoke be taken away from them, and his rule over them come to an end.
- 26 This is the purpose for all the earth: and this is the hand stretched out over all nations.
- 27 For it is the purpose of the Lord of armies, and who will make it of no effect? when his hand is stretched out, by whom may it be turned back?
- 28 In the year of the death of King Ahaz this word came to the prophet:
- 29 Be not glad, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod which was on you is broken: for out of the snake's root will come a poison-snake, and its fruit will be a winged poison-snake.
- 30 And the poorest of the land will have food, and those in need will be given a safe resting-place: but your seed will come to an end for need of food, and the rest of you will be put to the sword.
- 31 Send out a cry, O door! Make sounds of sorrow, O town! All your land has come to nothing, O Philistia; for there comes a smoke out of the north, and everyone keeps his place in the line.
- 32 What answer, then, will my people give to the representatives of the nation? That the Lord is the builder of Zion, and she will be a safe place for the poor of his people.
- 1 The word about Moab. For in a night Ar of Moab has become waste, and is seen no longer; for in a night Kir of Moab has become waste, and is seen no longer.
- 2 The daughter of Dibon has gone up to the high places, weeping: Moab is sounding her cry of sorrow over Nebo, and over Medeba: everywhere the hair of the head and of the face is cut off.
- 3 In their streets they are covering themselves with haircloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their public places, there is crying and bitter weeping.
- 4 Heshbon is crying out, and Elealeh; their voice is sounding even to Jahaz: for this cause the heart of Moab is shaking; his soul is shaking with fear.

- 5 My heart is crying out for Moab; her people go in flight to Zoar, and to Eglath-shelishiyah: for they go up with weeping by the slope of Luhith; on the way to Horonaim they send up a cry of destruction.
- 6 The waters of Nimrim will become dry: for the grass is burned up, the young grass is coming to an end, every green thing is dead.
- 7 For this cause they will take away their wealth, and the stores they have got together, over the stream of the water-plants.
- 8 For the cry has gone round the limits of Moab; as far as to Eglaim and Beer-elim.
- 9 For the waters of Dimon are full of blood: and I'm sending even more on Moab, a lion on those of Moab who go in flight, and on the rest of the land.
- 1 And they will send ... to the mountain of the daughter of Zion.
- 2 For the daughters of Moab will be like wandering birds, like a place from which the young birds have gone in flight, at the ways across the Arnon.
- 3 Give wise directions, make a decision; let your shade be as night in full day: keep safe those who are in flight; do not give up the wandering ones.
- 4 Let those who have been forced out of Moab have a resting-place with you; be a cover to them from him who is making waste their land: till the cruel ones are cut off, and wasting has come to an end, and those who take pleasure in crushing the poor are gone.
- 5 Then a king's seat will be based on mercy, and one will be seated on it in the tent of David for ever; judging uprightly, and quick to do righteousness.
- 6 We have had word of the pride of Moab, how great it is; how he is lifted up in pride and passion: his high words about himself are false.
- 7 For this cause everyone in Moab will give cries of grief for Moab: crushed to the earth, they will be weeping for the men of Kir-hareseth.
- 8 For the fields of Heshbon are waste, the vine of Sibmah is dead; the lords of nations were overcome by the produce of her vines; her vine-plants went as far as Jazer, and came even to the waste land; her branches were stretched out to the sea.
- 9 For this cause my sorrow for the vine of Sibmah will be like the weeping for Jazer: my eyes are dropping water on you, O Heshbon and Elealeh! For they are sounding the war-cry over your summer fruits and the getting in of your grain;
- 10 And all joy is gone; no longer are they glad for the fertile field; and in the vine-gardens there are no songs or sounds of joy: the crushing of grapes has come to an end, and its glad cry has been stopped.
- 11 For this cause the cords of my heart are sounding for Moab, and I am full of sorrow for Kir-heres.
- 12 And when Moab goes up to the high place, and makes prayer in the house of his god, it will have no effect.
- 13 This is the word which the Lord said about Moab in the past.
- 14 But now the Lord has said, In three years, the years of a servant working for payment, the glory of Moab, all that great people, will be turned to shame, and the rest of Moab will be very small and without honour.
- 1 The word about Damascus. See, they have made Damascus a town no longer; it has become a waste place.
- 2 Her towns are unpeopled for ever; there the flocks take their rest in peace, without fear.
- 3 The strong tower has gone from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus: the rest of Aram will come to destruction, and be made like the glory of the children of Israel, says the Lord of armies.
- 4 And it will be in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made small, and the strength of his body will become feeble.
- 5 And it will be like a man cutting the growth of his grain, pulling together the heads of the grain with his arm; even as when they get in the grain in the valley of Rephaim.
- 6 But it will be like a man shaking an olive-tree, something will still be there, two or three berries on the top of the highest branch, four or five on the outside branches of a fertile tree, says the Lord, the God of Israel.
- 7 In that day a man's heart will be turned to his Maker, and his eyes to the Holy One of Israel.
- 8 He will not be looking to the altars, the work of his hands, or to the wood pillars or to the sun-images which his fingers have made.
- 9 In that day your towns will be like the waste places of the Hivites and the Amorites which the children of Israel took for a heritage, and they will come to destruction.
- 10 For you have not given honour to the God of your salvation, and have not kept in mind the Rock of your strength; for this cause you made a garden of Adonis, and put in it the vine-cuttings of a strange god;

- 11 In the day of your planting you were watching its growth, and in the morning your seed was flowering: but its fruit is wasted away in the day of grief and bitter sorrow.
- 12 Ah! the voice of peoples, like the loud sounding of the seas, and the thundering of great nations rushing on like the bursting out of waters!
- 13 But he will put a stop to them, and make them go in flight far away, driving them like the waste of the grain on the tops of the mountains before the wind, and like the circling dust before the storm.
- 14 In the evening there is fear, and in the morning they are gone. This is the fate of those who take our goods, and the reward of those who violently take our property for themselves.
- 1 Ho! land of the sounding of wings, on the other side of the rivers of Ethiopia:
- 2 Which sends its representatives by the sea, even in ships of papyrus on the waters. Go back quickly, O representatives, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people causing fear through all their history; a strong nation, crushing down its haters, whose land
- 3 All you peoples of the world, and you who are living on the earth, when a flag is lifted up on the mountains, give attention; and when the horn is sounded, give ear.
- 4 For this is what the Lord has said to me: I will be quiet, watching from my place; like the clear heat when the sun is shining, like a mist of dew in the heat of summer.
- 5 For before the time of getting in the grapes, after the opening of the bud, when the flower has become a grape ready for crushing, he will take away the small branches with knives, cutting down and taking away the wide-stretching branches.
- 6 They will be for the birds of the mountains, and for the beasts of the earth: the birds will come down on them in the summer, and the beasts of the earth in the winter.
- 7 In that time an offering will be made to the Lord of armies from a people tall and smooth, causing fear through all their history; a strong nation, crushing down its haters, whose land is cut through by rivers, an offering taken to the place of the name o
- 1 The word about Egypt. See, the Lord is seated on a quick-moving cloud, and is coming to Egypt: and the false gods of Egypt will be troubled at his coming, and the heart of Egypt will be turned to water.
- 2 And I will send the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they will be fighting every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; town against town, and kingdom against kingdom.
- 3 And the spirit of Egypt will be troubled in her, and I will make her decisions without effect: and they will be turning to the false gods, and to those who make hollow sounds, and to those who have control of spirits, and to those who are wise in secret a
- 4 And I will give the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; and a hard king will be their ruler, says the Lord, the Lord of armies.
- 5 And the waters of the sea will be cut off, and the river will become dry and waste:
- 6 And the rivers will have an evil smell; the stream of Egypt will become small and dry: all the water-plants will come to nothing.
- 7 The grass-lands by the Nile, and everything planted by the Nile, will become dry, or taken away by the wind, and will come to an end.
- 8 The fishermen will be sad, and all those who put fishing-lines into the Nile will be full of grief, and those whose nets are stretched out on the waters will have sorrow in their hearts.
- 9 And all the workers in linen thread, and those who make cotton cloth, will be put to shame.
- 10 And the makers of twisted thread will be crushed, and those who ... will be sad in heart.
- 11 The chiefs of Zoan are completely foolish; the wisest guides of Pharaoh have become like beasts: how do you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the offspring of early kings?
- 12 Where, then, are your wise men? let them make clear to you, let them give you knowledge of the purpose of the Lord of armies for Egypt.
- 13 The chiefs of Zoan have become foolish, the chiefs of Noph are tricked, the heads of her tribes are the cause of Egypt's wandering out of the way.
- 14 The Lord has sent among them a spirit of error: and by them Egypt is turned out of the right way in all her doings, as a man overcome by wine is uncertain in his steps.
- 15 And in Egypt there will be no work for any man, head or tail, high or low, to do.

- 16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women: and the land will be shaking with fear because of the waving of the Lord's hand stretched out over it.
- 17 And the land of Judah will become a cause of great fear to Egypt; whenever its name comes to mind, Egypt will be in fear before the Lord of armies because of his purpose against it.
- 18 In that day there will be five towns in the land of Egypt using the language of Canaan, and making oaths to the Lord of armies; and one of them will be named, The Town of the Sun.
- 19 In that day there will be an altar to the Lord in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the Lord at the edge of the land.
- 20 And it will be a sign and a witness to the Lord of armies in the land of Egypt: when they are crying out to the Lord because of their cruel masters, then he will send them a saviour and a strong one to make them free.
- 21 And the Lord will give the knowledge of himself to Egypt, and the Egyptians will give honour to the Lord in that day; they will give him worship with offerings and meal offerings, and will take an oath to the Lord and give effect to it.
- 22 And the Lord will send punishment on Egypt, and will make them well again; and when they come back to the Lord he will give ear to their prayer and take away their disease.
- 23 In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and Assyria will come into Egypt, and Egypt will come into Assyria; and the Egyptians will give worship to the Lord together with the Assyrians.
- 24 In that day Israel will be the third together with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the earth:
- 25 Because of the blessing of the Lord of armies which he has given them, saying, A blessing on Egypt my people, and on Assyria the work of my hands, and on Israel my heritage.
- 1 In the year when the Tartan came to Ashdod, sent by Sargon, king of Assyria, and made war against it and took it;
- 2 At that time the word of the Lord came to Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and take off your robe, and your shoes from your feet; and he did so, walking unclothed and without shoes on his feet.
- 3 And the Lord said, As my servant Isaiah has gone unclothed and without shoes for three years as a sign and a wonder to Egypt and Ethiopia,
- 4 So will the king of Assyria take away the prisoners of Egypt and those forced out of Ethiopia, young and old, unclothed and without shoes, and with backs uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.
- 5 And they will be full of fear, and will no longer have faith in Ethiopia which was their hope, or in Egypt which was their glory.
- 6 And those living by the sea will say in that day, See the fate of our hope to whom we went for help and salvation from the king of Assyria: what hope have we then of salvation?
- 1 The word about the waste land. As storm-winds in the South go rushing through, it comes from the waste land, from the land greatly to be feared.
- 2 A vision of fear comes before my eyes; the worker of deceit goes on in his false way, and the waster goes on making waste. Up! Elam; to the attack! Media; I have put an end to her sorrow.
- 3 For this cause I am full of bitter grief; pains like the pains of a woman in childbirth have come on me: I am bent down with sorrow at what comes to my ears; I am shocked by what I see.
- 4 My mind is wandering, fear has overcome me: the evening of my desire has been turned into shaking for me.
- 5 They make ready the table, they put down the covers, they take food and drink. Up! you captains; put oil on your breastplates.
- 6 For so has the Lord said to me, Go, let a watchman be placed; let him give word of what he sees:
- 7 And when he sees war-carriages, horsemen by twos, war-carriages with asses, war-carriages with camels, let him give special attention.
- 8 And the watchman gave a loud cry, O my lord, I am on the watchtower all day, and am placed in my watch every night:
- 9 See, here come war-carriages with men, horsemen by twos: and in answer he said, Babylon is made low, is made low, and all her images are broken on the earth.
- 10 O my crushed ones, the grain of my floor! I have given you the word which came to me from the Lord of armies, the God of Israel.
- 11 The word about Edom. A voice comes to me from Seir, Watchman, how far gone is the night? how far gone is the night?
- 12 The watchman says, The morning has come, but night is still to come: if you have questions to put, put them, and come back again.

- 13 The word about Arabia. In the thick woods of Arabia will be your night's resting-place, O travelling bands of Dedanites!
- 14 Give water to him who is in need of water; give bread, O men of the land of Tema, to those in flight.
- 15 For they are in flight from the sharp sword, and the bent bow, and from the trouble of war.
- 16 For so has the Lord said to me, In a year, by the years of a servant working for payment, all the glory of Kedar will come to an end:
- 17 And the rest of the bowmen, the men of war of the children of Kedar, will be small in number: for the Lord, the God of Israel, has said it.
- 1 The word about the valley of vision. Why have all your people gone up to the house-tops?
- 2 You, who are full of loud voices, a town of outcries, given up to joy; your dead men have not been put to the sword, or come to their death in war.
- 3 All your rulers ... have gone in flight; all your strong ones have gone far away.
- 4 For this cause I have said, Let your eyes be turned away from me in my bitter weeping; I will not be comforted for the wasting of the daughter of my people.
- 5 For it is a day of trouble and of crushing down and of destruction from the Lord, the Lord of armies, in the valley of vision; ...
- 6 And Elam was armed with arrows, and Aram came on horseback; and the breastplate of Kir was uncovered.
- 7 And your most fertile valleys were full of war-carriages, and the horsemen took up their positions in front of the town.
- 8 He took away the cover of Judah; and in that day you were looking with care at the store of arms in the house of the woods.
- 9 And you saw all the broken places in the wall of the town of David: and you got together the waters of the lower pool.
- 10 And you had the houses of Jerusalem numbered, pulling down the houses to make the wall stronger.
- 11 And you made a place between the two walls for storing the waters of the old pool: but you gave no thought to him who had done this, and were not looking to him by whom it had been purposed long before.
- 12 And in that day the Lord, the Lord of armies, was looking for weeping, and cries of sorrow, cutting off of the hair, and putting on the clothing of grief:
- 13 But in place of these there was joy and delight, oxen and sheep were being made ready for food, there was feasting and drinking: men said, Now is the time for food and wine, for tomorrow death comes.
- 14 And the Lord of armies said to me secretly, Truly, this sin will not be taken from you till your death, says the Lord, the Lord of armies.
- 15 The Lord, the Lord of armies, says, Go to this person in authority, this Shebna, who is over the house; who has made himself a resting-place on high, cutting out a place for himself in the rock, and say,
- 16 Who are you, and by what right have you made for yourself a resting-place here?
- 17 See, O strong man, the Lord will send you violently away, gripping you with force,
- 18 Twisting you round and round like a ball he will send you out into a wide country: there you will come to your end, and there will be the carriages of your pride, O shame of your lord's house!
- 19 And I will have you forced out of your place of authority, and pulled down from your position.
- 20 And in that day I will send for my servant, Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah:
- 21 And I will put your robe on him, and put your band about him, and I will give your authority into his hand: and he will be a father to the men of Jerusalem, and to the family of Judah.
- 22 And I will give the key of the family of David into his care; and what he keeps open will be shut by no one, and what he keeps shut no one will make open.
- 23 And I will put him like a nail in a safe place; and he will be for a seat of glory to his father's family.
- 24 And all the glory of his father's family will be hanging on him, all their offspring, every small vessel, even the cups and the basins.
- 25 In that day, says the Lord of armies, will the nail fixed in a safe place give way; and it will be cut down, and in its fall the weight hanging on it will be cut off, for the Lord has said it.
- 1 The word about Tyre. Let a cry of sorrow go up, O ships of Tarshish, because your strong place is made waste; on the way back from the land of Kittim the news is given to them.
- 2 Send out a cry of grief, you men of the sea-land, traders of Zidon, who go over the sea, whose representatives are on great waters;

- 3 Who get in the seed of Shihor, whose wealth is the trade of the nations.
- 4 Be shamed, O Zidon: for the sea, the strong place of the sea has said, I have not been with child, or given birth; I have not taken care of young men, or kept watch over the growth of virgins.
- 5 When the news comes to Egypt they will be bitterly pained at the fate of Tyre.
- 6 Go over to Tarshish; give cries of sorrow, O men of the sea-land.
- 7 Is this the town which was full of joy, whose start goes back to times long past, whose wanderings took her into far-off countries?
- 8 By whom was this purposed against Tyre, the crowning town, whose traders are chiefs, whose business men are honoured in the land?
- 9 It was the purpose of the Lord of armies to put pride to shame, to make sport of the glory of those who are honoured in the earth.
- 10 Let your land be worked with the plough, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no longer any harbour.
- 11 His hand is stretched out over the sea, the kingdoms are shaking: the Lord has given orders about Canaan, to make waste its strong places.
- 12 And he said, There is no more joy for you, O crushed virgin daughter of Zidon: up! go over to Kittim; even there you will have no rest.
- 13 ...
- 14 Let a cry of sorrow go up, O ships of Tarshish: because your strong place is made waste.
- 15 And it will be in that day that Tyre will go out of mind for seventy years, that is, the days of one king: after the end of seventy years it will be for Tyre as in the song of the loose woman.
- 16 Take an instrument of music, go about the town, O loose woman who has gone out from the memory of man; make sweet melody with songs, so that you may come back to men's minds.
- 17 And it will be after the end of seventy years, that the Lord will have mercy on Tyre, and she will go back to her trade, acting as a loose woman with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.
- 18 And her goods and her trade will be holy to the Lord: they will not be kept back or stored up; for her produce will be for those living in the Lord's land, to give them food for their needs, and fair clothing.
- 1 See, the Lord is making the earth waste and unpeopled, he is turning it upside down, and sending the people in all directions.
- 2 And it will be the same for the people as for the priest; for the servant as for his master; and for the woman-servant as for her owner; the same for the one offering goods for a price as for him who takes them; the same for him who gives money at interest
- 3 The earth will be completely waste and without men; for this is the word of the Lord.
- 4 The earth is sorrowing and wasting away, the world is full of grief and wasting away, the high ones of the earth come to nothing.
- 5 The earth has been made unclean by those living in it; because the laws have not been kept by them, the orders have been changed, and the eternal agreement has been broken.
- 6 For this cause the earth is given up to the curse, and those in it are judged as sinners: for this cause those living on the earth are burned up, and the rest are small in number.
- 7 The new wine is thin, the vine is feeble, and all the glad-hearted make sounds of grief.
- 8 The pleasing sound of all instruments of music has come to an end, and the voices of those who are glad.
- 9 There is no more drinking of wine with a song; strong drink will be bitter to those who take it.
- 10 The town is waste and broken down: every house is shut up, so that no man may come in.
- 11 There is a crying in the streets because of the wine; there is an end of all delight, the joy of the land is gone.
- 12 In the town all is waste, and in the public place is destruction.
- 13 For it will be in the heart of the earth among the peoples, like the shaking of an olive-tree, as the last of the grapes after the getting-in is done.
- 14 But those will be making sounds of joy; they will be crying loudly from the sea for the glory of the Lord.
- 15 Give praise to the Lord in the east, to the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, in the sea-lands.
- 16 From the farthest part of the earth comes the sound of songs, glory to the upright. But I said, I am wasting away, wasting away, the curse is on me! The false ones go on in their false way, yes, they go on acting falsely.

- 17 Fear, and death, and the net, are come on you, O people of the earth.
- 18 And it will be that he who goes in flight from the sound of fear will be overtaken by death; and he who gets free from death will be taken in the net: for the windows on high are open, and the bases of the earth are shaking.
- 19 The earth is completely broken, it is parted in two, it is violently moved.
- 20 The earth will be moving uncertainly, like a man overcome by drink; it will be shaking like a tent; and the weight of its sin will be on it, crushing it down so that it will not get up again.
- 21 And in that day the Lord will send punishment on the army of the high ones on high, and on the kings of the earth on the earth.
- 22 And they will be got together, like prisoners in the prison-house; and after a long time they will have their punishment.
- 23 Then the moon will be veiled, and the sun put to shame; for the Lord of armies will be ruling in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his judges he will let his glory be seen.
- 1 O Lord, you are my God; I will give praise to you, I will give honour to your name; for you have done great acts of power; your purposes in the past have been made true and certain in effect.
- 2 For you have made a town a waste place: a strong town a mass of broken walls; the tower of the men of pride has come to an end; it will never be put up again.
- 3 For this cause will the strong people give glory to you, the town of the cruel ones will be in fear of you.
- 4 For you have been a strong place for the poor and the crushed in their trouble, a safe place from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the wrath of the cruel ones is like a winter storm.
- 5 As heat by the shade of a cloud, the noise of the men of pride has been made quiet by you; as heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the cruel ones has been stopped.
- 6 And in this mountain will the Lord of armies make for all peoples a feast of good things, a feast of wines long stored, of good things sweet to the taste, of wines long kept and tested.
- 7 And in this mountain he will put an end to the shade covering the face of all peoples, and the veil which is stretched over all nations.
- 8 He has put an end to death for ever; and the Lord God will take away all weeping; and he will put an end to the shame of his people in all the earth: for the Lord has said it.
- 9 And in that day it will be said, See, this is our God; we have been waiting for him, and he will be our saviour: this is the Lord in whom is our hope; we will be glad and have delight in his salvation.
- 10 For in this mountain will the hand of the Lord come to rest, and Moab will be crushed down in his place, even as the dry stems of the grain are crushed under foot in the waste place.
- 11 And if he puts out his hands, like a man stretching out his hands in swimming, the Lord will make low his pride, however expert his designs.
- 12 And the strong tower of your walls has been broken by him, made low, and crushed even to the dust.
- 1 In that day will this song be made in the land of Judah: We have a strong town; he will make salvation our walls and towers.
- 2 Let the doors be open, so that the upright nation which keeps faith may come in.
- 3 The man whose heart is unmoved you will keep in peace, because his hope is in you.
- 4 Let your hope be in the Lord for ever: for the Lord Jah is an unchanging Rock.
- 5 For he has made low those who are lifted up, all the people of the town of pride: he makes it low, crushing it down to the earth; he makes it low in the dust.
- 6 It will be crushed under the feet of the poor and the steps of those who are in need.
- 7 The way of the good man is straight; the road of the upright is made smooth by you.
- 8 We have been waiting for you, O Lord; the desire of our soul is for the memory of your name.
- 9 In the night the desire of my soul has been for you; early will my spirit be searching for you; for when your punishments come on the earth, the people of the world will get the knowledge of righteousness.
- 10 Even if you are kind to the evil-doer, he will not go after righteousness; even in the land of the upright he will still go on in his wrongdoing, and will not see the glory of the Lord.
- 11 Lord, your hand is lifted up, but they do not see: let them see ... yes, your haters will be burned up in the fire.
- 12 Lord, you will give us peace: for all our works are the outcome of your purpose.

- 13 O Lord, our God, other lords than you have had rule over us; but in you only is our salvation, and no other name will we take on our lips.
- 14 The dead will not come back to life: their spirits will not come back to earth; for this cause you have sent destruction on them, so that the memory of them is dead.
- 15 You have made the nation great, O Lord, you have made it great; glory is yours: you have made wide the limits of the land.
- 16 Lord, in trouble our eyes have been turned to you, we sent up a prayer when your punishment was on us.
- 17 As a woman with child, whose time is near, is troubled, crying out in her pain; so have we been before you, O Lord.
- 18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have given birth to wind; no salvation has come to the earth through us, and no children have come into the world.
- 19 Your dead will come back; their dead bodies will come to life again. Those in the dust, awaking from their sleep, will send out a song; for your dew is a dew of light, and the earth will give birth to the shades.
- 20 Come, my people, into your secret places, and let your doors be shut: keep yourself safe for a short time, till his wrath is over.
- 21 For the Lord is coming out of his place to send punishment on the people of the earth for their evil-doing: the earth will let the blood drained out on her be seen, and will keep her dead covered no longer.
- 1 In that day the Lord, with his great and strong and cruel sword, will send punishment on Leviathan, the quick-moving snake, and on Leviathan, the twisted snake; and he will put to death the dragon which is in the sea.
- 2 In that day it will be said, A vine-garden of delight, make a song about it.
- 3 I, the Lord, am watching it; I will give it water at all times: I will keep it night and day, for fear that any damage comes to it.
- 4 My passion is over: if the thorns were fighting against me, I would make an attack on them, and they would be burned up together.
- 5 Or let him put himself under my power, and make peace with me.
- 6 In days to come Jacob will take root: Israel will put out buds and flowers; and the face of the world will be full of fruit.
- 7 Is his punishment like the punishment of those who overcame him? or are his dead as great in number as those he put to the sword?
- 8 Your anger against her has been made clear by driving her away; he has taken her away with his storm-wind in the day of his east wind.
- 9 So by this will the sin of Jacob be covered, and this is all the fruit of taking away his punishment; when all the stones of the altar are crushed together, so that the wood pillars and the sun-images will not be put up again.
- 10 For the strong town is without men, an unpeopled living-place; and she has become a waste land: there the young ox will take his rest, and its branches will be food for him.
- 11 When its branches are dry they will be broken off; the women will come and put fire to them: for it is a foolish people; for this cause he who made them will have no mercy on them, and he whose work they are will not have pity on them.
- 12 And it will be in that day that the Lord will get together his grain, from the River to the stream of Egypt, and you will be got together with care, O children of Israel.
- 13 And it will be in that day that a great horn will be sounded; and those who were wandering in the land of Assyria, and those who had been sent away into the land of Egypt, will come; and they will give worship to the Lord in the holy mountain at Jerusalem
- 1 Ho! crown of pride of those who are given up to wine in Ephraim, and the dead flower of his glory which is on the head of those who are overcome by strong drink!
- 2 See, the Lord has a strong and cruel one; like a rain of ice, a storm of destruction, like the overflowing of a strong river, he will violently overcome them.
- 3 The crown of pride of those who are given up to wine in Ephraim will be crushed under foot;
- 4 And the dead flower of his glory, which is on the head of the fertile valley, will be like the first early fruit before the summer; which a man takes and puts in his mouth the minute he sees it.
- 5 In that day will the Lord of armies be a crown of glory, and a fair ornament, to the rest of his people;
- 6 And a spirit of wisdom to the judge, and strength to those who keep back the attackers at the door of the town.

- 7 And further, these are uncertain through wine, and have gone out of the right way through strong drink: the priest and the prophet are uncertain through strong drink, they are overcome by wine, they have gone out of the way through strong drink; their vis
- 8 For all the tables are covered with coughed-up food, so that there is not a clean place.
- 9 To whom will he give knowledge? and to whom will he make clear the word? Will it be to those who have newly given up milk, and who have only now been taken from the breast?
- 10 For it is one rule after another; one line after another; here a little, there a little.
- 11 No, but with broken talk, and with a strange tongue, he will give his word to this people:
- 12 To whom he said, This is the rest, give rest to him who is tired; and by this you may get new strength; but they would not give ear.
- 13 For this cause the word of the Lord will be to them rule after rule, line after line, here a little, there a little; so that they may go on their way, and falling back may be broken, and taken in the net.
- 14 Give ear then to the word of the Lord, you men of pride, the rulers of this people in Jerusalem:
- 15 Because you have said, We have made death our friend, and with the underworld we have made an agreement; when the overflowing waters come through they will not come near us; for we are looking to false words for help, taking cover in what is untrue:
- 16 For this cause says the Lord God, See, I am placing in Zion as a base, a stone, a tested stone, an angle-stone which is certain and of great value: and he who has faith will not give way.
- 17 And I will make right decision the measuring-line, and righteousness the weight: and the ice-storm will take away the safe place of false words, and the secret place will be covered by the flowing waters.
- 18 And the help you were looking for from death will come to nothing, and your agreement with the underworld will be broken; when the overflowing waters come through, then you will be overcome by them.
- 19 Whenever they come through they will overtake you; for they will come through morning after morning, by day and by night: and the news will be nothing but fear.
- 20 For the bed is not long enough for a man to be stretched out on: and the cover is not wide enough for him to be covered with.
- 21 For the Lord will come up as on Mount Perazim, he will be moved to wrath as in the valley of Gibeon; so that he may do his work--strange is his work; and give effect to his act--unnatural is his act.
- 22 And now, take care that you do not make sport of him, or your bands will be made strong; for I have had word from the Lord, the Lord of armies, of an end, of a complete end, which is to come on all the land.
- 23 Let your ears be open to my voice; give attention to what I say.
- 24 Is the ploughman for ever ploughing? does he not get the earth ready and broken up for the seed?
- 25 When the face of the earth has been levelled, does he not put in the different sorts of seed, and the grain in lines, and the barley in its place, and the spelt at the edge?
- 26 For his God is his teacher, giving him the knowledge of these things.
- 27 For the fitches are not crushed with a sharp instrument, and a cart-wheel is not rolled over the cummin; but the grain of the fitches is hammered out with a stick, and of the cummin with a rod.
- 28 Is the grain for bread crushed? He does not go on crushing it for ever, but he lets his cart-wheels and his horses go over it without crushing it.
- 29 This comes from the Lord of armies, purposing wonders, and wise in all his acts.
- 1 Ho! Ariel, Ariel, the town against which David made war; put year to year, let the feasts come round:
- 2 And I will send trouble on Ariel, and there will be weeping and cries of grief; and she will be to me as Ariel.
- 3 And I will make war on you like David, and you will be shut in by earthworks, and I will make towers round you.
- 4 And you will be made low, and your voice will come out of the earth, and your words will be low out of the dust; and your voice will come out of the earth like that of a spirit, making bird-like noises out of the dust.
- 5 And the army of your attackers will be like small dust, and all the cruel ones like dry stems gone before the wind; suddenly it will come about.
- 6 The Lord of armies will come in with thunder and earth-shaking and great noise, with rushing wind and storm, and the flame of burning fire.

- 7 And all the nations making war on Ariel, and all those who are fighting against her and shutting her in with their towers, will be like a dream, like a vision of the night.
- 8 And it will be like a man desiring food, and dreaming that he is feasting; but when he is awake there is nothing in his mouth: or like a man in need of water, dreaming that he is drinking; but when he is awake he is feeble and his soul is full of desire:
- 9 Be surprised and full of wonder; let your eyes be covered and be blind: be overcome, but not with wine; go with uncertain steps, but not because of strong drink.
- 10 For the Lord has sent on you a spirit of deep sleep; and by him your eyes, the prophets, are shut, and your heads, the seers, are covered.
- 11 And the vision of all this has become to you like the words of a book which is shut, which men give to one who has knowledge of writing, saying, Make clear to us what is in the book: and he says, I am not able to, for the book is shut:
- 12 And they give it to one without learning, saying, Make clear to us what is in the book: and he says, I have no knowledge of writing.
- 13 And the Lord said, because this people come near to me with their mouths, and give honour to me with their lips, but their heart is far from me, and their fear of me is false, a rule given them by the teaching of men;
- 14 For this cause I will again do a strange thing among this people, a thing to be wondered at: and the wisdom of their wise men will come to nothing, and the sense of their guides will no longer be seen.
- 15 Cursed are those who go deep to keep their designs secret from the Lord, and whose works are in the dark, and who say, Who sees us? and who has knowledge of our acts?
- 16 You are turning things upside down! Is the wet earth the same to you as the one who is forming it? will the thing made say of him who made it, He made me not: or the thing formed say of him who gave it form, He has no knowledge?
- 17 In a very short time Lebanon will become a fertile field, and the fertile field will seem like a wood.
- 18 And in that day those whose ears are stopped will be hearing the words of the book; and the eyes of the blind will see through the mist and the dark.
- 19 And the poor will have their joy in the Lord increased, and those in need will be glad in the Holy One of Israel.
- 20 For the cruel one has come to nothing; and those who make sport of the Lord are gone; and those who are watching to do evil are cut off:
- 21 Who give help to a man in a wrong cause, and who put a net for the feet of him who gives decisions in the public place, taking away a man's right without cause.
- 22 For this reason the Lord, the saviour of Abraham, says about the family of Jacob, Jacob will not now be put to shame, or his face be clouded with fear.
- 23 But when they, the children of Jacob, see the work of my hands among them, they will give honour to my name; yes, they will give honour to the Holy One of Jacob, and go in fear of the God of Israel.
- 24 Those whose hearts were turned away from him will get knowledge, and those who made an outcry against him will give attention to his teaching.
- 1 Ho! uncontrolled children, says the Lord, who give effect to a purpose which is not mine, and who make an agreement, but not by my spirit, increasing their sin:
- 2 Who make a move to go down into Egypt, without authority from me; who are looking to the strength of Pharaoh for help, and whose hope is in the shade of Egypt.
- 3 And the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and your hope in the shade of Egypt will come to nothing.
- 4 For his chiefs are at Zoan, and his representatives have come to Hanes.
- 5 For they have all come with offerings to a people of no use to them, in whom is no help or profit, but only shame and a bad name.
- 6 The word about the Beasts of the South. Through the land of trouble and grief, the land of the she-lion and the voice of the lion, of the snake and the burning winged snake, they take their wealth on the backs of young asses, and their stores on camels, t
- 7 For there is no use or purpose in the help of Egypt: so I have said about her, She is Rahab, who has come to an end.
- 8 Now go, put it in writing before them on a board, and make a record of it in a book, so that it may be for the future, a witness for all time to come.
- 9 For they are an uncontrolled people, false-hearted, who will not give ear to the teaching of the Lord:

- 10 Who say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Do not give us word of what is true, but say false things to give us pleasure:
- 11 Get out of the good way, turning from the right road; do not keep the Holy One of Israel before our minds.
- 12 For this cause the Holy One of Israel says, Because you will not give ear to this word, and are looking for help in ways of deceit and evil, and are putting your hope in them:
- 13 This sin will be to you like a crack in a high wall, causing its fall suddenly and in a minute.
- 14 And he will let it be broken as a potter's vessel is broken: it will be smashed to bits without mercy; so that there will not be a bit in which one may take fire from the fireplace, or water from the spring.
- 15 For the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, said, In quiet and rest is your salvation: peace and hope are your strength: but you would not have it so.
- 16 Saying, No, for we will go in flight on horses; so you will certainly go in flight: and, We will go on the backs of quick-running beasts; so those who go after you will be quick-footed.
- 17 A thousand will go in fear before one; even before five you will go in flight: till you are like a pillar by itself on the top of a mountain, and like a flag on a hill.
- 18 For this cause the Lord will be waiting, so that he may be kind to you; and he will be lifted up, so that he may have mercy on you; for the Lord is a God of righteousness: there is a blessing on all whose hope is in him.
- 19 O people, living in Zion, at Jerusalem, your weeping will be ended; he will certainly have mercy on you at the sound of your cry; when it comes to his ear, he will give you an answer.
- 20 And though the Lord will give you the bread of trouble and the water of grief, you will no longer put your teacher on one side, but you will see your teacher:
- 21 And at your back, when you are turning to the right hand or to the left, a voice will be sounding in your ears, saying, This is the way in which you are to go.
- 22 And you will make unclean what is covering your pictured images of silver, and the plating of your images of gold: you will send them away as an unclean thing, saying, Be gone!
- 23 And he will give rain for your seed, so that you may put it in the earth; and you will have bread from the produce of the earth, good and more than enough for your needs: in that day the cattle will get their food in wide grass-lands.
- 24 And the oxen and the young asses which are used for ploughing, will have salted grain which has been made free from the waste with fork and basket.
- 25 And there will be rivers and streams of water on every tall mountain and on every high hill, in the day when great numbers are put to the sword, when the towers come down.
- 26 And the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times greater, as the light of seven days, in the day when the Lord puts oil on the wounds of his people, and makes them well from the blows they have underg
- 27 See, the name of the Lord is coming from far, burning with his wrath, with thick smoke going up: his lips are full of passion, and his tongue is like a burning fire:
- 28 And his breath is as an overflowing stream, coming up even to the neck, shaking the nations for their destruction, like the shaking of grain in a basket: and he will put a cord in the mouths of the people, turning them out of their way.
- 29 You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and you will be glad in heart, as when they go with music of the pipe to the mountain of the Lord, the Rock of Israel.
- 30 And the Lord will send out the sound of his great voice, and they will see his arm stretched out, with the heat of his wrath, and the flame of a burning fire; with a cloud-burst, and storm, and a rain of ice.
- 31 For through the voice of the Lord the Assyrian will be broken, and the Lord's rod will be lifted up against him.
- 32 And every blow of the rod of his punishment, which the Lord will send on him, will be with the sound of music: and with the waving of his sword the Lord will make war against him.
- 33 For a place of fire has long been ready; yes, it has been made ready for the king; he has made it deep and wide: it is massed with fire and much wood; the breath of the Lord, like a stream of fire, puts a light to it.
- 1 Cursed are those who go down to Egypt for help, and who put their faith in horses; looking to war-carriages for salvation, because of their numbers; and to horsemen, because they are very strong; but they are not looking to the Holy One of Israel, or turn
- 2 Though he is wise, and able to send evil, and his purpose will not be changed; but he will go against the house of the evil-doers, and against those to whom they are looking for help.

- 3 For the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses are flesh, and not spirit: and when the Lord's hand is stretched out, the helper and he who is helped will come down together.
- 4 For the Lord has said to me, As a lion, or a young lion, makes an angry noise over his food, and if a band of herdsmen come out against him, he will not be in fear of their voices, or give up his food for their noise: so the Lord of armies will come down
- 5 Like birds with outstretched wings, so will the Lord of armies be a cover to Jerusalem; he will be a cover and salvation for it, going over it he will keep it from danger.
- 6 Come back to him who has been so deeply sinned against by the children of Israel.
- 7 For in that day they will all give up their images of silver and of gold, the sin which they made for themselves.
- 8 Then the Assyrian will come down by the sword, but not of man; the sword, not of men, will be the cause of his destruction: and he will go in flight from the sword, and his young men will be put to forced work.
- 9 And his rock will come to nothing because of fear, and his chiefs will go in flight from the flag, says the Lord, whose fire is in Zion, and his altar in Jerusalem.
- 1 See, a king will be ruling in righteousness, and chiefs will give right decisions.
- 2 And a man will be as a safe place from the wind, and a cover from the storm; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shade of a great rock in a waste land.
- 3 And the eyes of those who see will not be shut, and those who have hearing will give ear to the word.
- 4 The man of sudden impulses will become wise in heart, and he whose tongue is slow will get the power of talking clearly.
- 5 The foolish man will no longer be named noble, and they will not say of the false man that he is a man of honour.
- 6 For the foolish man will say foolish things, having evil thoughts in his heart, working what is unclean, and talking falsely about the Lord, to keep food from him who is in need of it, and water from him whose soul is desiring it.
- 7 The designs of the false are evil, purposing the destruction of the poor man by false words, even when he is in the right.
- 8 But the noble-hearted man has noble purposes, and by these he will be guided.
- 9 Give ear to my voice, you women who are living in comfort; give attention to my words, you daughters who have no fear of danger.
- 10 In not much more than a year, you, who are not looking for evil, will be troubled: for the produce of the vine-gardens will be cut off, and there will be no getting in of the grapes.
- 11 Be shaking with fear, you women who are living in comfort; be troubled, you who have no fear of danger: take off your robes and put on clothing of grief.
- 12 Have sorrow for the fields, the pleasing fields, the fertile vine;
- 13 And for the land of my people, where thorns will come up; even for all the houses of joy in the glad town.
- 14 For the fair houses will have no man living in them; the town which was full of noise will become a waste; the hill and the watchtower will be unpeopled for ever, a joy for the asses of the woods, a place of food for the flocks;
- 15 Till the spirit comes on us from on high, and the waste land becomes a fertile field, and the fertile field is changed into a wood.
- 16 Then in the waste land there will be an upright rule, and righteousness will have its place in the fertile field.
- 17 And the work of righteousness will be peace; and the effect of an upright rule will be to take away fear for ever.
- 18 And my people will be living in peace, in houses where there is no fear, and in quiet resting-places.
- 19 But the tall trees will come down with a great fall, and the town will be low in a low place.
- 20 Happy are you who are planting seed by all the waters, and sending out the ox and the ass.
- 1 Ho! you who make waste those who did not make you waste; acting falsely to those who were not false to you. When you have come to an end of wasting, you will be made waste, and after your false acts, they will do the same to you.
- 2 O Lord, have mercy on us; for we have been waiting for your help: be our strength every morning, our salvation in time of trouble.
- 3 At the loud noise the peoples have gone in flight; at your coming up the nations have gone in all directions.
- 4 And the goods taken in war will be got together like the massing of young locusts; men will be rushing on them like the rushing of locusts.
- 5 The Lord is lifted up; his place is on high: he has made Zion full of righteousness and true religion.

- 6 And she will have no more fear of change, being full of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge: the fear of the Lord is her wealth.
- 7 See, the men of war are sorrowing outside the town: those who came looking for peace are weeping bitterly.
- 8 The highways are waste, no man is journeying there: the agreement is broken, he has made sport of the towns, he has no thought for man.
- 9 The earth is sorrowing and wasting away; Lebanon is put to shame and has become waste; Sharon is like the Arabah; and in Bashan and Carmel the leaves are falling.
- 10 Now will I come forward, says the Lord; now will I be lifted up; now will my power be seen.
- 11 Your designs will be without profit, and their effect will be nothing: you will be burned up by the fire of my breath.
- 12 And the peoples will be like the burning of chalk: as thorns cut down, which are burned in the fire.
- 13 Give ear, you who are far off, to what I have done: see my power, you who are near.
- 14 The sinners in Zion are full of fear; the haters of God are shaking with wonder. Who among us may keep his place before the burning fire? who among us may see the eternal burnings?
- 15 He whose ways are true, and whose words are upright; he who gives no thought to the profits of false acts, whose hands have not taken rewards, who will have no part in putting men to death, and whose eyes are shut against evil;
- 16 He will have a place on high: he will be safely shut in by the high rocks: his bread will be given to him; his waters will be certain.
- 17 Your eyes will see the king in his glory: they will be looking on a far-stretching land.
- 18 Your heart will give thought to the cause of your fear: where is the scribe, where is he who made a record of the payments, where is he by whom the towers were numbered?
- 19 Never again will you see the cruel people, a people whose tongue has no sense for you; whose language is strange to you.
- 20 Let your eyes be resting on Zion, the town of our holy feasts: you will see Jerusalem, a quiet resting-place, a tent which will not be moved, whose tent-pins will never be pulled up, and whose cords will never be broken.
- 21 But there the Lord will be with us in his glory, ... wide rivers and streams; where no boat will go with blades, and no fair ship will be sailing.
- 22 For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our law-giver, the Lord is our king; he will be our saviour.
- 23 Your cords have become loose; they were not able to make strong the support of their sails, the sail was not stretched out: then the blind will take much property, the feeble-footed will make division of the goods of war.
- 24 And the men of Zion will not say, I am ill: for its people will have forgiveness for their sin.
- 1 Come near, you nations, and give ear; take note, you peoples: let the earth and everything in it give ear; the world and all those living in it.
- 2 For the Lord is angry with all the nations, and his wrath is burning against all their armies: he has put them to the curse, he has given them to destruction.
- 3 Their dead bodies will be thick on the face of the earth, and their smell will come up, and the mountains will be flowing with their blood, and all the hills will come to nothing.
- 4 And the heavens will be rolled together like the roll of a book: and all their army will be gone, like a dead leaf from the vine, or a dry fruit from the fig-tree.
- 5 For my sword in heaven is full of wrath: see, it is coming down on Edom, in punishment on the people of my curse.
- 6 The sword of the Lord is full of blood, it is fat with the best of the meat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the best parts of the sheep: for the Lord has a feast in Bozrah, and much cattle will be put to death in the land of Edom.
- 7 And the strong oxen will go down to death together with the smaller cattle.
- 8 For it is the day of the Lord's punishment, when he gives payment for the wrongs done to Zion.
- 9 And its streams will be turned into boiling oil, and its dust into burning stone, and all the land will be on fire.
- 10 It will not be put out day or night; its smoke will go up for ever: it will be waste from generation to generation; no one will go through it for ever.
- 11 But the birds of the waste land will have their place there; it will be a heritage for the bittern and the raven: and it will be measured out with line and weight as a waste land.
- 12 The jackals will be there, and her great ones will be gone; they will say, There is no longer a kingdom there, and all her chiefs will have come to an end.

- 13 And thorns will come up in her fair houses, and waste plants in her strong towers: and foxes will make their holes there, and it will be a meeting-place for ostriches.
- 14 And the beasts of the waste places will come together with the jackals, and the evil spirits will be crying to one another, even the night-spirit will come and make her resting-place there.
- 15 The arrowsnake will make her hole and put her eggs there, and get her young together under her shade: there the hawks will come together by twos.
- 16 See what is recorded in the book of the Lord: all these will be there, not one without the other: the mouth of the Lord has given the order, and his spirit has made them come together.
- 17 And he has given them their heritage, and by his hand it has been measured out to them: it will be theirs for ever, their resting-place from generation to generation.
- 1 The waste land and the dry places will be glad; the lowland will have joy and be full of flowers.
- 2 It will be flowering like the rose; it will be full of delight and songs; the glory of Lebanon will be given to it; the pride of Carmel and Sharon: they will see the glory of the Lord, the power of our God.
- 3 Make strong the feeble hands, give support to the shaking knees.
- 4 Say to those who are full of fear, Be strong and take heart: see, your God will give punishment; the reward of God will come; he himself will come to be your saviour.
- 5 Then the eyes of the blind will see, and the ears which are stopped will be open.
- 6 Then will the feeble-footed be jumping like a roe, and the voice which was stopped will be loud in song: for in the waste land streams will be bursting out, and waters in the dry places.
- 7 And the burning sand will become a pool, and the dry earth springs of waters: the fields where the sheep take their food will become wet land, and water-plants will take the place of grass.
- 8 And a highway will be there; its name will be, The Holy Way; the unclean and the sinner may not go over it, and those who go on it will not be turned out of the way by the foolish.
- 9 No lion will be there, or any cruel beast; they will not be seen there; but those for whom the Lord has given a price,
- 10 Even those whom he has made free, will come back again; they will come with songs to Zion; on their heads will be eternal joy; delight and joy will be theirs, and sorrow and sounds of grief will be gone for ever.
- 1 And it came about in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah that Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came up against all the walled towns of Judah and took them.
- 2 And the king of Assyria sent the Rab-shakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a strong force, and he took up his position by the stream of the higher pool, by the highway of the washerman's
- 3 And there came out to him Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder.
- 4 And the Rab-shakeh said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, These are the words of the great king, the king of Assyria: In what are you placing your hope?
- 5 You say you have a design and strength for war, but these are only words: now to whom are you looking for support, that you have gone against my authority?
- 6 See, you are basing your hope on that broken rod of Egypt, which will go into a man's hand if he makes use of it for a support; for so is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all who put their faith in him.
- 7 And if you say to me, Our hope is in the Lord our God; is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, saying to Judah and Jerusalem that worship may only be given before this altar?
- 8 And now, take a chance with my master, the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put horsemen on them.
- 9 How then may you put to shame the least of my master's servants? and you have put your hope in Egypt for war-carriages and horsemen:
- 10 And have I now come to send destruction on this land without the Lord's authority? It was the Lord himself who said to me, Go up against this land and make it waste.
- 11 Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the Rab-shakeh, Please make use of the Aramaean language in talking to your servants, for we are used to it, and do not make use of the Jews' language in the hearing of the people on the wall.
- 12 But the Rab-shakeh said, Is it to your master or to you that my master has sent me to say these words? has he not sent me to the men seated on the wall? for they are the people who will be short of food with you when the town is shut in.

- 13 Then the Rab-shakeh got up and said with a loud voice in the Jews' language, Give ear to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria:
- 14 This is what the king says: Do not be tricked by Hezekiah, for there is no salvation for you in him.
- 15 And do not let Hezekiah make you put your faith in the Lord, saying, The Lord will certainly keep us safe, and this town will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.
- 16 Do not give ear to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says, Make peace with me, and come out to me; and everyone will be free to take the fruit of his vine and of his fig-tree, and the water of his spring;
- 17 Till I come and take you away to a land like yours, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vine-gardens.
- 18 Give no attention to Hezekiah when he says to you, The Lord will keep us safe. Has any one of the gods of the nations kept his land from falling into the hands of the king of Assyria?
- 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? where are the gods of Samaria? and have they kept Samaria out of my hand?
- 20 Who among all the gods of these countries have kept their country from falling into my hand, to give cause for the thought that the Lord will keep Jerusalem from falling into my hand?
- 21 But they kept quiet and gave him no answer: for the king's order was, Give him no answer.
- 22 Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothing parted as a sign of grief, and gave him an account of what the Rab-shakeh had said.
- 1 And on hearing it Hezekiah took off his robe and put on haircloth and went into the house of the Lord.
- 2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the chief priests, dressed in haircloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.
- 3 And they said to him, Hezekiah says, This day is a day of trouble and punishment and shame: for the children are ready to come to birth, but there is no strength to give birth to them.
- 4 It may be that the Lord your God will give ear to the words of the Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria, his master, has sent to say evil things against the living God, and will make his words come to nothing: so make your prayer for the rest of the people.
- 5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
- 6 And Isaiah said to them, This is what you are to say to your master: The Lord says, Be not troubled by the words which the servants of the king of Assyria have said against me in your hearing.
- 7 See, I will put a spirit into him, and bad news will come to his ears, and he will go back to his land; and there I will have him put to death.
- 8 So the Rab-shakeh went back, and when he got there the king of Assyria was making war against Libnah: for it had come to his ears that the king of Assyria had gone away from Lachish.
- 9 And when news came to him that Tirhakah, king of Ethiopia, had made an attack on him, ... And he sent representatives to Hezekiah, king of Judah, saying,
- 10 This is what you are to say to Hezekiah, king of Judah: Let not your God, in whom is your faith, give you a false hope, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.
- 11 No doubt the story has come to your ears of what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, putting them to the curse: and will you be kept safe from their fate?
- 12 Did the gods of the nations keep safe those on whom my fathers sent destruction, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar?
- 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the town of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivva?
- 14 And Hezekiah took the letter from the hands of those who had come with it; and after reading it, Hezekiah went up to the house of the Lord, opening the letter there before the Lord,
- 15 And he made prayer to the Lord, saying,
- 16 O Lord of armies, the God of Israel, seated between the winged ones, you only are the God of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.
- 17 Let your ear be turned to us, O Lord; let your eyes be open, O Lord, and see: take note of all the words of Sennacherib who has sent men to say evil against the living God.
- 18 Truly, O Lord, the kings of Assyria have made waste all the nations and their lands,

- 19 And have given their gods to the fire: for they were no gods, but wood and stone, the work of men's hands; so they have given them to destruction.
- 20 But now, O Lord our God, give us salvation from his hand, so that it may be clear to all the kingdoms of the earth that you, and you only, are the Lord.
- 21 Then Isaiah, the son of Amoz, sent to Hezekiah, saying, The Lord, the God of Israel, says, The prayer you have made to me against Sennacherib, king of Assyria, has come to my ears.
- 22 This is the word which the Lord has said about him: In the eyes of the virgin daughter of Zion you are shamed and laughed at; the daughter of Jerusalem has made sport of you.
- 23 Against whom have you said evil and bitter things? and against whom has your voice been loud and your eyes lifted up? even against the Holy One of Israel.
- 24 You have sent your servants with evil words against the Lord, and have said, With all my war-carriages I have come up to the top of the mountains, to the inmost parts of Lebanon; and its tall cedars will be cut down, and the best trees of its woods: I will
- 25 I have made water-holes and taken their waters, and with my foot I have made all the rivers of Egypt dry.
- 26 Has it not come to your ears how I did it long before, purposing it in times long past? Now I have given effect to my design, so that by you strong towns might be turned into masses of broken walls.
- 27 This is why their townsmen had no power, they were broken and put to shame; they were like the grass of the field, or a green plant; like the grass on the house-tops, which a cold wind makes waste.
- 28 But I have knowledge of your getting up and your resting, of your going out and your coming in.
- 29 Because your wrath against me and your pride have come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my cord in your lips, and I will make you go back by the way you came.
- 30 And this will be the sign to you: you will get your food this year from what comes up of itself, and in the second year from the produce of the same; and in the third year you will put in your seed, and get in the grain, and make vine-gardens, and take of
- 31 And those of Judah who are still living will again take root in the earth, and give fruit.
- 32 For from Jerusalem those who have been kept safe will go out, and those who are still living will go out of Mount Zion: by the fixed purpose of the Lord of armies this will be done.
- 33 For this cause the Lord says about the king of Assyria, He will not come into this town, or send an arrow against it; he will not come before it with arms, or put up an earthwork against it.
- 34 By the way he came he will go back, and he will not get into this town.
- 35 For I will keep this town safe, for my honour, and for the honour of my servant David.
- 36 And the angel of the Lord went out and put to death in the army of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty-five thousand men: and when the people got up early in the morning, there was nothing to be seen but dead bodies.
- 37 Sennacherib, king of Assyria, went back to his place at Nineveh.
- 38 And it came about, when he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer put him to death with the sword, and they went in flight into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon, his son, became king in his place.
- 1 In those days Hezekiah was ill and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, The Lord says, Put your house in order; for your death is near.
- 2 And Hezekiah, turning his face to the wall, made his prayer to the Lord, saying,
- 3 O Lord, keep in mind how I have been true to you with all my heart, and have done what is good in your eyes. And Hezekiah gave way to bitter weeping.
- 4 Then the word of the Lord came to Isaiah, saying,
- 5 Go to Hezekiah, and say, The Lord, the God of David, your father, says, Your prayer has come to my ears, and I have seen your weeping: see, I will give you fifteen more years of life.
- 6 And I will keep you and this town safe from the hands of the king of Assyria: and I will keep watch over this town.
- 7 And Isaiah said, This is the sign the Lord will give you, that he will do what he has said:
- 8 See, I will make the shade which has gone down on the steps of Ahaz with the sun, go back ten steps. So the shade went back the ten steps by which it had gone down.
- 9 The writing of Hezekiah, king of Judah, after he had been ill, and had got better from his disease.

- 10 I said, In the quiet of my days I am going down into the underworld: the rest of my years are being taken away from me.
- 11 I said, I will not see the Lord, even the Lord in the land of the living: I will not see man again or those living in the world.
- 12 My resting-place is pulled up and taken away from me like a herdsman's tent: my life is rolled up like a linen-worker's thread; I am cut off from the cloth on the frame: from day even to night you give me up to pain.
- 13 I am crying out with pain till the morning; it is as if a lion was crushing all my bones.
- 14 I make cries like a bird; I give out sounds of grief like a dove: my eyes are looking up with desire; O Lord, I am crushed, take up my cause.
- 15 What am I to say? seeing that it is he who has done it: all my time of sleeping I am turning from side to side without rest.
- 16 O Lord, for this cause I am waiting for you, give rest to my spirit: make me well again, and let me come back to life.
- 17 See, in place of peace my soul had bitter sorrow. but you have kept back my soul from the underworld; for you have put all my sins out of your memory.
- 18 For the underworld is not able to give you praise, death gives you no honour: for those who go down into the underworld there is no hope in your mercy.
- 19 The living, the living man, he will give you praise, as I do this day: the father will give the story of your mercy to his children.
- 20 O Lord, quickly be my saviour; so we will make my songs to corded instruments all the days of our lives in the house of the Lord.
- 21 And Isaiah said, Let them take a cake of figs, and put it on the diseased place, and he will get well.
- 22 And Hezekiah said, What is the sign that I will go up to the house of the Lord?
- 1 At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters with an offering to Hezekiah, because he had news that Hezekiah had been ill, and was well again.
- 2 And Hezekiah was glad at their coming, and let them see all his store of wealth, the silver and the gold and the spices and the oil, and all the house of his arms, and everything there was in his stores: there was nothing in all his house or his kingdom w
- 3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, What did these men say, and where did they come from? And Hezekiah said, They came from a far country, even from Babylon.
- 4 And he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah said in answer, They saw everything in my house: there is nothing among my stores which I did not let them see.
- 5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Give ear to the word of the Lord of armies:
- 6 Truly, the days are coming when everything in your house, and whatever your fathers have put in store till this day, will be taken away to Babylon: all will be gone.
- 7 And your sons, even your offspring, will they take away to be unsexed servants in the house of the king of Babylon.
- 8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the Lord which you have said. And he said in his heart, There will be peace and quiet in my days.
- 1 Give comfort, give comfort, to my people, says your God.
- 2 Say kind words to the heart of Jerusalem, crying out to her that her time of trouble is ended, that her punishment is complete; that she has been rewarded by the Lord's hand twice over for all her sins.
- 3 A voice of one crying, Make ready in the waste land the way of the Lord, make level in the lowland a highway for our God.
- 4 Let every valley be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low, and let the rough places become level, and the hilltops become a valley,
- 5 And the glory of the Lord will be made clear, and all flesh will see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has said it.
- 6 A voice of one saying, Give a cry! And I said, What is my cry to be? All flesh is grass, and all its strength like the flower of the field.
- 7 The grass becomes dry, the flower is dead; because the breath of the Lord goes over it: truly the people is grass.
- 8 The grass is dry, the flower is dead; but the word of our God is eternal.
- 9 You who give good news to Zion, get up into the high mountain; you who give good news to Jerusalem, let your voice be strong; let it be sounding without fear; say to the towns of Judah, See, your God!

- 10 See, the Lord God will come as a strong one, ruling in power: see, those made free by him are with him, and those whom he has made safe go before him.
- 11 He will give food to his flock like a keeper of sheep; with his arm he will get it together, and will take up the lambs on his breast, gently guiding those which are with young.
- 12 In the hollow of whose hand have the waters been measured? and who is able to take the heavens in his stretched-out fingers? who has got together the dust of the earth in a measure? who has taken the weight of the mountains, or put the hills into the scale?
- 13 By whom has the spirit of the Lord been guided, or who has been his teacher?
- 14 Who gave him suggestions, and made clear to him the right way? who gave him knowledge, guiding him in the way of wisdom?
- 15 See, the nations are to him like a drop hanging from a bucket, and like the small dust in the scales: he takes up the islands like small dust.
- 16 And Lebanon is not enough to make a fire with, or all its cattle enough for a burned offering.
- 17 All the nations are as nothing before him; even less than nothing, a thing of no value.
- 18 Whom then is God like, in your opinion? or what will you put forward as a comparison with him?
- 19 The workman makes an image, and the gold-worker puts gold plates over it, and makes silver bands for it.
- 20 The wise workman makes selection of the mulberry-tree of the offering, a wood which will not become soft; so that the image may be fixed to it and not be moved.
- 21 Have you no knowledge of it? has it not come to your ears? has not news of it been given to you from the first? has it not been clear to you from the time when the earth was placed on its base?
- 22 It is he who is seated over the arch of the earth, and the people in it are as small as locusts; by him the heavens are stretched out like an arch, and made ready like a tent for a living-place.
- 23 He makes rulers come to nothing; the judges of the earth are of no value.
- 24 They have only now been planted, and their seed put into the earth, and they have only now taken root, when he sends out his breath over them and they become dry, and the storm-wind takes them away like dry grass.
- 25 Who then seems to you to be my equal? says the Holy One.
- 26 Let your eyes be lifted up on high, and see: who has made these? He who sends out their numbered army: who has knowledge of all their names: by whose great strength, because he is strong in power, all of them are in their places.
- 27 Why do you say, O Jacob, such words as these, O Israel, The Lord's eyes are not on my way, and my God gives no attention to my cause?
- 28 Have you no knowledge of it? has it not come to your ears? The eternal God, the Lord, the Maker of the ends of the earth, is never feeble or tired; there is no searching out of his wisdom.
- 29 He gives power to the feeble, increasing the strength of him who has no force.
- 30 Even the young men will become feeble and tired, and the best of them will come to the end of his strength;
- 31 But those who are waiting for the Lord will have new strength; they will get wings like eagles: running, they will not be tired, and walking, they will have no weariness.
- 1 Come quietly before me, O sea-lands, and let the peoples get together their strength: let them come near; then let them say what they have to say: let us put forward our cause against one another.
- 2 Who sent out from the east one who is right wherever he goes? he gives the nations into his hands, and makes him ruler over kings; he gives them as the dust to his sword, as dry stems before the wind to his bow.
- 3 He goes after them safely, not touching the road with his feet.
- 4 Whose purpose and work was it? His who sent out the generations from the start. I the Lord, the first, and with the last, I am he.
- 5 The sea-lands saw it, and were in fear; the ends of the earth were shaking: they came near.
- 6 They gave help everyone to his neighbour; and everyone said to his brother, Take heart!
- 7 So the metal-worker put heart into the gold-worker, and he who was hammering the metal smooth said kind words to the iron-worker, saying of the plate, It is ready: and he put it together with nails, so that there might be no slipping.
- 8 But as for you, Israel, my servant, and you, Jacob, whom I have taken for myself, the seed of Abraham my friend:
- 9 You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and sent for from its farthest parts, saying to you, You are my servant, whom I have taken for myself, and whom I have not given up:

- 10 Have no fear, for I am with you; do not be looking about in trouble, for I am your God; I will give you strength, yes, I will be your helper; yes, my true right hand will be your support.
- 11 Truly, all those who are angry with you will be made low and put to shame: those desiring to do you wrong will come to nothing and never again be seen.
- 12 You will make search for your haters but they will not be there; those who make war against you will be as nothing and will come to destruction.
- 13 For I, the Lord your God, have taken your right hand in mine, saying to you, Have no fear; I will be your helper.
- 14 Have no fear, you worm Jacob, and you men of Israel; I will be your helper, says the Lord, even he who takes up your cause, the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 See, I will make you like a new grain-crushing instrument with teeth, crushing the mountains small, and making the hills like dry stems.
- 16 You will send the wind over them, and it will take them away; they will go in all directions before the storm-wind: you will have joy in the Lord, and be glad in the Holy One of Israel.
- 17 The poor and crushed are looking for water where no water is, and their tongue is dry for need of it: I the Lord will give ear to their prayer, I the God of Israel will not give them up.
- 18 I will make rivers on the dry mountain-tops, and fountains in the valleys: I will make the waste land a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.
- 19 I will put in the waste land the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive-tree; and in the lowland will be planted the fir-tree, the plane, and the cypress together:
- 20 So that they may see and be wise and give their mind to it, and that it may be clear to them all that the hand of the Lord has done this, and that the Holy One of Israel has made it.
- 21 Put forward your cause, says the Lord; let your strong argument come out, says the King of Jacob.
- 22 Let the future be made clear to us: give us news of the past things, so that we may give thought to them; or of the things to come, so that we may see if they are true.
- 23 Give us word of what will be after this, so that we may be certain that you are gods: yes, do good or do evil, so that we may all see it and be surprised.
- 24 But you are nothing, and your work is of no value: foolish is he who takes you for his gods.
- 25 I have sent for one from the north, and from the dawn he has come; in my name he will get rulers together and go against them; they will be like dust, even as the wet earth is stamped on by the feet of the potter.
- 26 Who has given knowledge of it from the first, so that we may be certain of it? and from the start, so that we may say, His word is true? There is no one who gives news, or says anything, or who gives ear to your words.
- 27 I was the first to give word of it to Zion, and I gave the good news to Jerusalem.
- 28 And I saw that there was no man, even no wise man among them, who might give an answer to my questions.
- 29 Truly they are all nothing, their works are nothing and of no value: their metal images are of no more use than wind.
- 1 See my servant, whom I am supporting, my loved one, in whom I take delight: I have put my spirit on him; he will give the knowledge of the true God to the nations.
- 2 He will make no cry, his voice will not be loud: his words will not come to men's ears in the streets.
- 3 He will not let a crushed stem be quite broken, and he will not let a feebly burning light be put out: he will go on sending out the true word to the peoples.
- 4 His light will not be put out, and he will not be crushed, till he has given the knowledge of the true God to the earth, and the sea-lands will be waiting for his teaching.
- 5 God the Lord, even he who made the heavens, measuring them out on high; stretching out the earth, and giving its produce; he who gives breath to the people on it, and life to those who go about on it, says:
- 6 I the Lord have made you the vessel of my purpose, I have taken you by the hand, and kept you safe, and I have given you to be an agreement to the people, and a light to the nations:
- 7 To give eyes to the blind, to make free the prisoners from the prison, to let out those who are shut up in the dark.
- 8 I am the Lord; that is my name: I will not give my glory to another, or my praise to pictured images.
- 9 See, the things said before have come about, and now I give word of new things: before they come I give you news of them.

- 10 Make a new song to the Lord, and let his praise be sounded from the end of the earth; you who go down to the sea, and everything in it, the sea-lands and their people.
- 11 Let the waste land and its flocks be glad, the tent-circles of Kedar; let the people of the rock give a glad cry, from the top of the mountains let them make a sound of joy.
- 12 Let them give glory to the Lord, sounding his praise in the sea-lands.
- 13 The Lord will go out as a man of war, he will be moved to wrath like a fighting-man: his voice will be strong, he will give a loud cry; he will go against his attackers like a man of war.
- 14 I have long been quiet, I have kept myself in and done nothing: now I will make sounds of pain like a woman in childbirth, breathing hard and quickly.
- 15 I will make waste mountains and hills, drying up all their plants; and I will make rivers dry, and pools dry land.
- 16 And I will take the blind by a way of which they had no knowledge, guiding them by roads strange to them: I will make the dark places light before them, and the rough places level. These things will I do and will not give them up.
- 17 They will be turned back and be greatly shamed who put their hope in pictured images, who say to metal images, You are our gods.
- 18 Give ear, you whose ears are shut; and let your eyes be open, you blind, so that you may see.
- 19 Who is blind, but my servant? who has his ears stopped, but he whom I send? who is blind as my true one, or who has his ears shut like the Lord's servant?
- 20 Seeing much, but keeping nothing in mind; his ears are open, but there is no hearing.
- 21 It was the Lord's pleasure, because of his righteousness, to make the teaching great and give it honour.
- 22 But this is a people whose property has been taken away from them by force; they are all taken in holes, and shut up in prisons: they are made prisoners, and no one makes them free; they are taken by force and no one says, Give them back.
- 23 Who is there among you who will give ear to this? who will give attention to it for the time to come?
- 24 Who gave up Jacob to those who took away his goods, and Israel to his attackers? Did not the Lord? he against whom they did wrong, and in whose ways they would not go, turning away from his teaching.
- 25 For this reason he let loose on him the heat of his wrath, and his strength was like a flame; and it put fire round about him, but he did not see it; he was burned, but did not take it to heart.
- 1 But now, says the Lord your Maker, O Jacob, and your life-giver, O Israel: have no fear, for I have taken up your cause; naming you by your name, I have made you mine.
- 2 When you go through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not go over you: when you go through the fire, you will not be burned; and the flame will have no power over you.
- 3 For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your saviour; I have given Egypt as a price for you, Ethiopia and Seba for you.
- 4 Because of your value in my eyes, you have been honoured, and loved by me; so I will give men for you, and peoples for your life.
- 5 Have no fear, for I am with you: I will take your seed from the east, and get you together from the west;
- 6 I will say to the north, Give them up; and to the south, Do not keep them back; send back my sons from far, and my daughters from the end of the earth;
- 7 Every one who is named by my name, and whom I have made for my glory, who has been formed and designed by me.
- 8 Send out the blind people who have eyes, and those who have ears, but they are shut.
- 9 Let all the nations come together, and let the peoples be present: who among them is able to make this clear, and give us word of earlier things? let their witnesses come forward, so that they may be seen to be true, and that they may give ear, and say, I
- 10 You are my witnesses, says the Lord, and my servant whom I have taken for myself: so that you may see and have faith in me, and that it may be clear to you that I am he; before me there was no God formed, and there will not be after me.
- 11 I, even I, am the Lord; and there is no saviour but me.
- 12 I gave the word, and made it clear, and there was no strange god among you: for this reason you are my witnesses, says the Lord.
- 13 From time long past I am God, and from this day I am he: there is no one who is able to take you out of my hand: when I undertake a thing, by whom will my purpose be changed?

- 14 The Lord, who has taken up your cause, the Holy One of Israel, says, Because of you I have sent to Babylon, and made all their seers come south, and the Chaldaeans whose cry is in the ships.
- 15 I am the Lord, your Holy One, the Maker of Israel, your King.
- 16 This is the word of the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, and a road through the deep waters;
- 17 Who sends out the war-carriages and the horses, the army with all its force; they have come down, they will not get up again; like a feebly burning light they are put out.
- 18 Give no thought to the things which are past; let the early times go out of your minds.
- 19 See, I am doing a new thing; now it is starting; will you not take note of it? I will even make a way in the waste land, and rivers in the dry country.
- 20 The beasts of the field will give me honour, the jackals and the ostriches: because I send out waters in the waste land, and rivers in the dry country, to give drink to the people whom I have taken for myself:
- 21 Even the people whom I made to be the witnesses of my praise.
- 22 But you have made no prayer to me, O Jacob: and you have given no thought to me, O Israel.
- 23 You have not made me burned offerings of sheep, or given me honour with your offerings of beasts; I did not make you servants to give me an offering, and I did not make you tired with requests for perfumes.
- 24 You have not got me sweet-smelling plants with your money, or given me pleasure with the fat of your offerings: but you have made me a servant to your sins, and you have made me tired with your evil doings.
- 25 I, even I, am he who takes away your sins; and I will no longer keep your evil doings in mind.
- 26 Put me in mind of this; let us take up the cause between us: put forward your cause, so that you may be seen to be in the right.
- 27 Your first father was a sinner, and your guides have gone against my word.
- 28 Your chiefs have made my holy place unclean, so I have made Jacob a curse, and Israel a thing of shame.
- 1 And now, give ear, O Jacob my servant, and Israel whom I have taken for myself:
- 2 The Lord who made you, forming you in your mother's body, the Lord, your helper, says, Have no fear, O Jacob my servant, and you, Jeshurun, whom I have taken for myself.
- 3 For I will send water on the land needing it, and streams on the dry earth: I will let my spirit come down on your seed, and my blessing on your offspring.
- 4 And they will come up like grass in a well-watered field, like water-plants by the streams.
- 5 One will say, I am the Lord's; and another will give himself the name, Jacob; another will put a mark on his hand, I am the Lord's, and another will take the name of Israel for himself.
- 6 The Lord, the King of Israel, even the Lord of armies who has taken up his cause, says, I am the first and the last, and there is no God but me.
- 7 If there is one like me, let him come forward and say it, let him make it clear and put it in order before me: who has made clear in the past the things to come? let him make clear the future to me.
- 8 Have no fear, be strong in heart; have I not made it clear to you in the past, and let you see it? and you are my witnesses. Is there any God but me, or a Rock of whom I have no knowledge?
- 9 Those who make a pictured image are all of them as nothing, and the things of their desire will be of no profit to them: and their servants see not, and have no knowledge; so they will be put to shame.
- 10 Whoever makes a god, makes nothing but a metal image in which there is no profit.
- 11 Truly, all those who make use of secret arts will be put to shame, and their words of power are only words of men: let them all come forward together; they will all be in fear and be put to shame.
- 12 The iron-worker is heating the metal in the fire, giving it form with his hammers, and working on it with his strong arm: then for need of food his strength gives way, and for need of water he becomes feeble.
- 13 The woodworker is measuring out the wood with his line, marking it out with his pencil: after smoothing it with his plane, and making circles on it with his instrument, he gives it the form and glory of a man, so that it may be placed in the house.
- 14 He has cedars cut down for himself, he takes an oak and lets it get strong among the trees of the wood; he has an ash-tree planted, and the rain gives it growth.
- 15 Then it will be used to make a fire, so that a man may get warm; he has the oven heated with it and makes bread: he makes a god with it, to which he gives worship: he makes a pictured image out of it, and goes down on his face before it.

- 16 With part of it he makes a fire, and on the fire he gets meat cooked and takes a full meal: he makes himself warm, and says, Aha! I am warm, I have seen the fire:
- 17 And the rest of it he makes into a god, even his pictured image: he goes down on his face before it, giving worship to it, and making prayer to it, saying, Be my saviour; for you are my god.
- 18 They have no knowledge or wisdom; for he has put a veil over their eyes, so that they may not see; and on their hearts, so that they may not give attention.
- 19 And no one takes note, no one has enough knowledge or wisdom to say, I have put part of it in the fire, and made bread on it; I have had a meal of the flesh cooked with it: and am I now to make the rest of it into a false god? am I to go down on my face b
- 20 As for him whose food is the dust of a dead fire, he has been turned from the way by a twisted mind, so that he is unable to keep himself safe by saying, What I have here in my hand is false.
- 21 Keep these things in mind, O Jacob; and you Israel, for you are my servant: I have made you; you are my servant; O Israel, I will not let you go out of my memory.
- 22 I have put your evil doings out of my mind like a thick cloud, and your sins like a mist: come back to me; for I have taken up your cause.
- 23 Make a song, O heavens, for the Lord has done it: give a loud cry, you deep parts of the earth: let your voices be loud in song, you mountains, and you woods with all your trees: for the Lord has taken up the cause of Jacob, and will let his glory be seen
- 24 The Lord, who has taken up your cause, and who gave you life in your mother's body, says, I am the Lord who makes all things; stretching out the heavens by myself, and giving the earth its limits; who was with me?
- 25 Who makes the signs of those who give word of the future come to nothing, so that those who have knowledge of secret arts go off their heads; turning the wise men back, and making their knowledge foolish:
- 26 Who makes the word of his servants certain, and gives effect to the purposes of his representatives; who says of Jerusalem, Her people will come back to her; and of the towns of Judah, I will give orders for their building, and will make her waste places
- 27 Who says to the deep, Be dry, and I will make your rivers dry:
- 28 Who says of Cyrus, He will take care of my sheep, and will do all my pleasure: who says of Jerusalem, I will give the word for your building; and of the Temple, Your bases will be put in place.
- 1 The Lord says to the man of his selection, to Cyrus, whom I have taken by the right hand, putting down nations before him, and taking away the arms of kings; making the doors open before him, so that the ways into the towns may not be shut;
- 2 I will go before you, and make the rough places level: the doors of brass will be broken, and the iron rods cut in two:
- 3 And I will give you the stores of the dark, and the wealth of secret places, so that you may be certain that I am the Lord, who gave you your name, even the God of Israel.
- 4 Because of Jacob my servant, and Israel whom I have taken for myself, I have sent for you by name, giving you a name of honour, though you had no knowledge of me.
- 5 I am the Lord, and there is no other; there is no God but me: I will make you ready for war, though you had no knowledge of me:
- 6 So that they may see from the east and from the west that there is no God but me: I am the Lord, and there is no other.
- 7 I am the giver of light and the maker of the dark; causing blessing, and sending troubles; I am the Lord, who does all these things.
- 8 Let righteousness come down, O heavens, from on high, and let the sky send it down like rain: let the earth be open to give the fruit of salvation, causing righteousness to come up with it; I the Lord have made it come about.
- 9 Cursed is he who has an argument with his Maker, the pot which has an argument with the Potter! Will the wet earth say to him who is working with it, What are you doing, that your work has nothing by which it may be gripped?
- 10 Cursed is he who says to a father, To what are you giving life? or to a woman, What are you in birth-pains with?
- 11 The Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, says, Will you put a question to me about the things which are to come, or will you give me orders about my sons, and the work of my hands?
- 12 I have made the earth, forming man on it: by my hands the heavens have been stretched out, and all the stars put in their ordered places.

- 13 I have sent him out to overcome the nations, and I will make all his ways straight: I will give him the work of building my town, and he will let my prisoners go free, without price or reward, says the Lord of armies.
- 14 The Lord says, The workmen of Egypt, and the traders of Ethiopia, and the tall Sabaeans, will come over the sea to you, and they will be yours; they will go after you; in chains they will come over: and they will go down on their faces before you, and will
- 15 Truly, you have a secret God, the God of Israel is a Saviour!
- 16 All those who have gone against him will be put to shame; the makers of images will be made low.
- 17 But the Lord will make Israel free with an eternal salvation: you will not be put to shame or made low for ever and ever.
- 18 For this is the word of the Lord who made the heavens; he is God; the maker and designer of the earth; who made it not to be a waste, but as a living-place for man: I am the Lord, and there is no other.
- 19 I have not given my word in secret, in a place in the underworld; I did not say to the seed of Jacob, Go into a waste land to make request of me: I the Lord say what is true, my word is righteousness.
- 20 Come together, even come near, you nations who are still living: they have no knowledge who take up their image of wood, and make prayer to a god in whom is no salvation.
- 21 Give the word, put forward your cause, let us have a discussion together: who has given news of this in the past? who made it clear in early times? did not I, the Lord? and there is no God but me; a true God and a saviour; there is no other.
- 22 Let your hearts be turned to me, so that you may have salvation, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is no other.
- 23 By myself have I taken an oath, a true word has gone from my mouth, and will not be changed, that to me every knee will be bent, and every tongue will give honour.
- 24 Only in the Lord will Jacob overcome and be strong: together all those who were angry with him will be put to shame and come to destruction.
- 25 In the Lord will all the seed of Israel get their rights, and they will give glory to him.
- 1 Bel is bent down, Nebo is falling; their images are on the beasts and on the cattle: the things which you took about have become a weight to the tired beast.
- 2 They are bent down, they are falling together: they were not able to keep their images safe, but they themselves have been taken prisoner.
- 3 Give ear to me, O family of Jacob, and all the rest of the people of Israel, who have been supported by me from their birth, and have been my care from their earliest days:
- 4 Even when you are old I will be the same, and when you are grey-haired I will take care of you: I will still be responsible for what I made; yes, I will take you and keep you safe.
- 5 Who in your eyes is my equal? or what comparison will you make with me?
- 6 As for those who take gold out of a bag, and put silver in the scales, they give payment to a gold-worker, to make it into a god; they go down on their faces and give it worship.
- 7 They put him on their backs, and take him up, and put him in his fixed place, from which he may not be moved; if a man gives a cry for help to him, he is unable to give an answer, or get him out of his trouble.
- 8 Keep this in mind and be shamed; let it come back to your memory, you sinners.
- 9 Let the things which are past come to your memory: for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like me;
- 10 Making clear from the first what is to come, and from past times the things which have not so far come about; saying, My purpose is fixed, and I will do all my pleasure;
- 11 Sending for a bird of strong flight from the east, the man of my purpose from a far country; I have said it, and I will give effect to it; the thing designed by me will certainly be done.
- 12 Give ear to me, you feeble-hearted, who have no faith in my righteousness:
- 13 My righteousness is near, it is not far off; salvation will come quickly; and I will make Zion free, and give Israel my glory.
- 1 Come and take your seat in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; come down from your seat of power, and take your place on the earth, O daughter of the Chaldaeans: for you will never again seem soft and delicate.
- 2 Take the crushing-stones and get the meal crushed: take off your veil, put away your robe, let your legs be uncovered, go through the rivers.

- 3 The shame of your unclothed condition will be seen by all: I will give punishment without mercy,
- 4 Says the Lord who takes up our cause; the Lord of armies is his name, the Holy One of Israel.
- 5 Be seated in the dark without a word, O daughter of the Chaldaeans: for you will no longer be named, The Queen of Kingdoms.
- 6 I was angry with my people, I put shame on my heritage, and gave them into your hands: you had no mercy on them; you put a cruel yoke on those who were old;
- 7 And you said, I will be a queen for ever: you did not give attention to these things, and did not keep in mind what would come after.
- 8 So now take note of this, you who are given up to pleasure, living without fear of evil, saying in your heart, I am, and there is no one like me; I will never be a widow, or have my children taken from me.
- 9 But these two things will come on you suddenly in one day, the loss of children and of husband: in full measure they will come on you, for all your secret arts, and all your wonders.
- 10 For you had faith in your evil-doing; you said, No one sees me; by your wisdom and knowledge you have been turned out of the way: and you have said in your heart, I am, and there is no other.
- 11 Because of this evil will come on you, which may not be turned away for any price: and trouble will overtake you, from which no money will give salvation: destruction will come on you suddenly, without your knowledge.
- 12 Go on now with your secret arts, and all your wonder-working, to which you have given yourself up from your earliest days; it may be that they will be of profit to you, or by them you may put fear into your attackers.
- 13 But your mind is troubled by the number of your guides: let them now come forward for your salvation: the measurers of the heavens, the watchers of the stars, and those who are able to say from month to month what things are coming on you.
- 14 Truly, they have become like dry stems, they have been burned in the fire; they are not able to keep themselves safe from the power of the flame: it is not a coal for warming them, or a fire by which a man may be seated.
- 15 Small profit have you had from those who, from your earliest days, got great profit out of you; they have gone in flight, every one straight before him, and you have no saviour.
- 1 Give ear to this, O family of Jacob, you who are named by the name of Israel, and have come out of the body of Judah; who take oaths by the name of the Lord, and make use of the name of the God of Israel, but not truly and not in good faith.
- 2 For they say that they are of the holy town, and put their faith in the God of Israel: the Lord of armies is his name.
- 3 I gave word in the past of the things which came about; they came from my mouth, and I made them clear: suddenly I did them, and they came about.
- 4 Because I saw that your heart was hard, and that your neck was an iron cord, and your brow brass;
- 5 For this reason I made it clear to you in the past, before it came I gave you word of it: for fear that you might say, My god did these things, and my pictured and metal images made them come about.
- 6 All this has come to your ears and you have seen it; will you not give witness to it? I am now making clear new things, even secret things, of which you had no knowledge.
- 7 They have only now been effected, and not in the past: and before this day they had not come to your ears; for fear that you might say, I had knowledge of them.
- 8 Truly you had no word of them, no knowledge of them; no news of them in the past had come to your ears; because I saw how false was your behaviour, and that your heart was turned against me from your earliest days.
- 9 Because of my name I will put away my wrath, and for my praise I will keep myself from cutting you off.
- 10 See, I have been testing you for myself like silver; I have put you through the fire of trouble.
- 11 For myself, even because of my name, I will do it; for I will not let my name be shamed; and my glory I will not give to another.
- 12 Give ear to me, Jacob, and Israel, my loved one; I am he, I am the first and I am the last.
- 13 Yes, by my hand was the earth placed on its base, and by my right hand the heavens were stretched out; at my word they take up their places.
- 14 Come together, all of you, and give ear; who among you has given news of these things? the Lord's loved one will do his pleasure with Babylon, and with the seed of the Chaldaeans.
- 15 I, even I, have given the word; I have sent for him: I have made him come, and have given effect to his undertakings.

- 16 Come near to me, and give ear to this; from the start I did not keep it secret; from the time of its coming into existence I was there: and now the Lord God has sent me, and given me his spirit.
- 17 The Lord who takes up your cause, the Holy One of Israel, says, I am the Lord your God, who is teaching you for your profit, guiding you by the way in which you are to go.
- 18 If only you had given ear to my orders, then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness as the waves of the sea:
- 19 Your seed would have been like the sand, and your offspring like the dust: your name would not be cut off or come to an end before me.
- 20 Go out of Babylon, go in flight from the Chaldeans; with the sound of song make it clear, give the news, let the word go out even to the end of the earth: say, The Lord has taken up the cause of his servant Jacob.
- 21 They had no need of water when he was guiding them through the waste lands: he made water come out of the rock for them: the rock was parted and the waters came flowing out.
- 22 There is no peace, says the Lord, for the evil-doers.
- 1 Give ear, O sea-lands, to me; and take note, you peoples from far: I have been marked out by the Lord from the first; when I was still in my mother's body, he had my name in mind:
- 2 And he has made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shade of his hand he has kept me; and he has made me like a polished arrow, keeping me in his secret place;
- 3 And he said to me, You are my servant, Israel, in whom my glory will be seen;
- 4 And I said, I have undergone weariness for nothing, I have given my strength for no purpose or profit: but still the Lord will take up my cause, and my God will give me my reward.
- 5 And now, says the Lord, who made me his servant when I was still in my mother's body, so that I might make Jacob come back to him, and so that Israel might come together to him: and I was honoured in the eyes of the Lord, and my God became my strength.
- 6 It is not enough for one who is my servant to put the tribes of Jacob again in their place, and to get back those of Israel who have been sent away: my purpose is to give you as a light to the nations, so that you may be my salvation to the end of the ear
- 7 The Lord who takes up Israel's cause, even his Holy One, says to him whom men make sport of, who is hated by the nations, a servant of rulers: Kings will see and get up from their places, and chiefs will give worship: because of the Lord who keeps faith;
- 8 This is the word of the Lord: I have given ear to you at a good time, and I have been your helper in a day of salvation: and I will keep you safe, and will make you a glory for the people, putting the land in order, and giving them the heritages which now
- 9 Saying to those who are in chains, Go free; to those who are in the dark, Come out into the light. They will get food by the way wherever they go, and have grass-lands on all the dry mountain-tops.
- 10 They will not be in need of food or drink, or be troubled by the heat or the sun: for he who has mercy on them will be their guide, taking them by the springs of water.
- 11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways will be lifted up.
- 12 See, these are coming from far; and these from the north and the west; and these from the land of Sinim.
- 13 Let your voice be loud in song, O heavens; and be glad, O earth; make sounds of joy, O mountains, for the Lord has given comfort to his people, and will have mercy on his crushed ones.
- 14 But Zion said, The Lord has given me up, I have gone from his memory.
- 15 Will a woman give up the child at her breast, will she be without pity for the fruit of her body? yes, these may, but I will not let you go out of my memory.
- 16 See, your name is marked on my hands; your walls are ever before me.
- 17 Your builders are coming quickly; your haters and those who made you waste will go out of you.
- 18 Let your eyes be lifted up round about, and see: they are all coming together to you. By my life, says the Lord, truly you will put them all on you as an ornament, and be clothed with them like a bride.
- 19 For though the waste places of your land have been given to destruction, now you will not be wide enough for your people, and those who made you waste will be far away.
- 20 The children to whom you gave birth in other lands will say in your ears, The place is not wide enough for me: make room for me to have a resting-place.

- 21 Then you will say in your heart, Who has given me all these children? when my children had been taken from me, and I was no longer able to have others, who took care of these? when I was by myself, where then were these?
- 22 This is the word of the Lord God: See, I will make a sign with my hand to the nations, and put up my flag for the peoples; and they will take up your sons on their beasts, and your daughters on their backs.
- 23 And kings will take care of you, and queens will give you their milk: they will go down on their faces before you, kissing the dust of your feet; and you will be certain that I am the Lord, and that those who put their hope in me will not be shamed.
- 24 Will the goods of war be taken from the strong man, or the prisoners of the cruel one be let go?
- 25 But the Lord says, Even the prisoners of the strong will be taken from him, and the cruel made to let go his goods: for I will take up your cause against your haters, and I will keep your children safe.
- 26 And the flesh of your attackers will be taken by themselves for food; and they will take their blood for drink, as if it was sweet wine: and all men will see that I the Lord am your saviour, even he who takes up your cause, the Strong One of Jacob.
- 1 This is the word of the Lord: Where is the statement which I gave your mother when I put her away? or to which of my creditors have I given you for money? It was for your sins that you were given into the hands of others, and for your evil-doing was your
- 2 Why, then, when I came, was there no man? and no one to give answer to my voice? has my hand become feeble, so that it is unable to take up your cause? or have I no power to make you free? See, at my word the sea becomes dry, I make the rivers a waste lan
- 3 By me the heavens are clothed with black, and I make haircloth their robe.
- 4 The Lord God has given me the tongue of those who are experienced, so that I may be able to give the word a special sense for the feeble: every morning my ear is open to his teaching, like those who are experienced:
- 5 And I have not put myself against him, or let my heart be turned back from him.
- 6 I was offering my back to those who gave me blows, and my face to those who were pulling out my hair: I did not keep my face covered from marks of shame.
- 7 For the Lord God is my helper; I will not be put to shame: so I have made my face like a rock, and I am certain that he will give me my right.
- 8 He who takes up my cause is near; who will go to law with me? let us come together before the judge: who is against me? let him come near to me.
- 9 See, the Lord God is my helper; who will give a decision against me? truly, all of them will become old like a robe; they will be food for the worm.
- 10 Who among you has the fear of the Lord, giving ear to the voice of his servant who has been walking in the dark and has no light? Let him put his faith in the name of the Lord, looking to his God for support.
- 11 See, all you who make a fire, arming yourselves with burning branches: go in the flame of your fire, and among the branches you have put a light to. This will you have from my hand, you will make your bed in sorrow.
- 1 Give ear to me, you who are searching for righteousness, who are looking for the Lord: see the rock from which you were cut out, and the hole out of which you were taken.
- 2 Let your thoughts be turned to Abraham, your father, and to Sarah, who gave you birth: for when he was but one, my voice came to him, and I gave him my blessing, and made him a great people.
- 3 For the Lord has given comfort to Zion: he has made glad all her broken walls; making her waste places like Eden, and changing her dry land into the garden of the Lord; joy and delight will be there, praise and the sound of melody.
- 4 Give attention to me, O my people; and give ear to me, O my nation; for teaching will go out from me, and the knowledge of the true God will be a light to the peoples.
- 5 Suddenly will my righteousness come near, and my salvation will be shining out like the light; the sea-lands will be waiting for me, and they will put their hope in my strong arm.
- 6 Let your eyes be lifted up to the heavens, and turned to the earth which is under them: for the heavens will go in flight like smoke, and the earth will become old like a coat, and its people will come to destruction like insects: but my salvation will be
- 7 Give ear to me, you who have knowledge of righteousness, in whose heart is my law; have no fear of the evil words of men, and give no thought to their curses.

- 8 For like a coat they will be food for the insect, the worm will make a meal of them like wool: but my righteousness will be for ever, and my salvation to all generations.
- 9 Awake! awake! put on strength, O arm of the Lord, awake! as in the old days, in the generations long past. Was it not by you that Rahab was cut in two, and the dragon Wounded?
- 10 Did you not make the sea dry, the waters of the great deep? did you not make the deep waters of the sea a way for the Lord's people to go through?
- 11 Those whom the Lord has made free will come back with songs to Zion; and on their heads will be eternal joy: delight and joy will be theirs, and sorrow and sounds of grief will be gone for ever.
- 12 I, even I, am your comforter: are you so poor in heart as to be in fear of man who will come to an end, and of the son of man who will be like grass?
- 13 And you have given no thought to the Lord your Maker, by whom the heavens were stretched out, and the earth placed on its base; and you went all day in fear of the wrath of the cruel one, when he was making ready for your destruction. And where is the wra
- 14 The prisoner, bent under his chain, will quickly be made free, and will not go down into the underworld, and his bread will not come to an end.
- 15 For I am the Lord your God, who makes the sea calm when its waves are thundering: the Lord of armies is his name.
- 16 And I have put my words in your mouth, covering you with the shade of my hand, stretching out the heavens, and placing the earth on its base, and saying to Zion, You are my people.
- 17 Awake! awake! up! O Jerusalem, you who have taken from the Lord's hand the cup of his wrath; tasting in full measure the wine which overcomes.
- 18 She has no one among all her children to be her guide; not one of the sons she has taken care of takes her by the hand.
- 19 These two things have come on you; who will be weeping for you? wasting and destruction; death from need of food, and from the sword; how may you be comforted?
- 20 Your sons are overcome, like a roe in a net; they are full of the wrath of the Lord, the punishment of your God.
- 21 So now give ear to this, you who are troubled and overcome, but not with wine:
- 22 This is the word of the Lord your master, even your God who takes up the cause of his people: See, I have taken out of your hand the cup which overcomes, even the cup of my wrath; it will not again be given to you:
- 23 And I will put it into the hand of your cruel masters, and of those whose yoke has been hard on you; who have said to your soul, Down on your face! so that we may go over you: and you have given your backs like the earth, even like the street, for them to
- 1 Awake! awake! put on your strength, O Zion; put on your beautiful robes, O Jerusalem, the holy town: for from now there will never again come into you the unclean and those without circumcision.
- 2 Make yourself clean from the dust; up! and take the seat of your power, O Jerusalem: the bands of your neck are loose, O prisoned daughter of Zion.
- 3 For the Lord says, You were given for nothing, and you will be made free without price.
- 4 For the Lord God says, My people went down at first into Egypt, to get a place for themselves there: and the Assyrian put a cruel yoke on them without cause.
- 5 Now then, what have I here? says the Lord, for my people are taken away without cause; they are made waste and give cries of sorrow, says the Lord, and all the day the nations put shame on my name.
- 6 For this cause I will make my name clear to my people; in that day they will be certain that it is my word which comes to them; see, here am I.
- 7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who comes with good news, who gives word of peace, saying that salvation is near; who says to Zion, Your God is ruling!
- 8 The voice of your watchmen! their voices are loud in song together; for they will see him, eye to eye, when the Lord comes back to Zion.
- 9 Give sounds of joy, make melody together, waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord has given comfort to his people, he has taken up the cause of Jerusalem.
- 10 The Lord has let his holy arm be seen by the eyes of all nations; and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.
- 11 Away! away! go out from there, touching no unclean thing; go out from among her; be clean, you who take up the vessels of the Lord.

- 12 For you will not go out suddenly, and you will not go in flight: for the Lord will go before you, and the God of Israel will come after you to keep you.
- 13 See, my servant will do well in his undertakings, he will be honoured, and lifted up, and be very high.
- 14 As peoples were surprised at him, And his face was not beautiful, so as to be desired: his face was so changed by disease as to be unlike that of a man, and his form was no longer that of the sons of men.
- 15 So will nations give him honour; kings will keep quiet because of him: for what had not been made clear to them they will see; and they will give their minds to what had not come to their ears.
- 1 Who would have had faith in the word which has come to our ears, and to whom had the arm of the Lord been unveiled?
- 2 For his growth was like that of a delicate plant before him, and like a root out of a dry place: he had no grace of form, to give us pleasure;
- 3 Men made sport of him, turning away from him; he was a man of sorrows, marked by disease; and like one from whom men's faces are turned away, he was looked down on, and we put no value on him.
- 4 But it was our pain he took, and our diseases were put on him: while to us he seemed as one diseased, on whom God's punishment had come.
- 5 But it was for our sins he was wounded, and for our evil doings he was crushed: he took the punishment by which we have peace, and by his wounds we are made well.
- 6 We all went wandering like sheep; going every one of us after his desire; and the Lord put on him the punishment of us all.
- 7 Men were cruel to him, but he was gentle and quiet; as a lamb taken to its death, and as a sheep before those who take her wool makes no sound, so he said not a word.
- 8 They took away from him help and right, and who gave a thought to his fate? for he was cut off from the land of the living: he came to his death for the sin of my people.
- 9 And they put his body into the earth with sinners, and his last resting-place was with the evil-doers, though he had done no wrong, and no deceit was in his mouth.
- 10 And the Lord was pleased ... see a seed, long life, ... will do well in his hand. ...
- 11 ... made clear his righteousness before men ... had taken their sins on himself.
- 12 For this cause he will have a heritage with the great, and he will have a part in the goods of war with the strong, because he gave up his life, and was numbered with the evil-doers; taking on himself the sins of the people, and making prayer for the wrong
- 1 Let your voice be loud in song, O woman without children; make melody and sounds of joy, you who did not give birth: for the children of her who had no husband are more than those of the married wife, says the Lord.
- 2 Make wide the place of your tent, and let the curtains of your house be stretched out without limit: make your cords long, and your tent-pins strong.
- 3 For I will make wide your limits on the right hand and on the left; and your seed will take the nations for a heritage, and make the waste towns full of people.
- 4 Have no fear; for you will not be shamed or without hope: you will not be put to shame, for the shame of your earlier days will go out of your memory, and you will no longer keep in mind the sorrows of your widowed years.
- 5 For your Maker is your husband; the Lord of armies is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is he who takes up your cause; he will be named the God of all the earth.
- 6 For the Lord has made you come back to him, like a wife who has been sent away in grief of spirit; for one may not give up the wife of one's early days.
- 7 For a short time I gave you up; but with great mercies I will take you back again.
- 8 In overflowing wrath my face was veiled from you for a minute, but I will have pity on you for ever, says the Lord who takes up your cause.
- 9 For this is like the days of Noah to me: for as I took an oath that the waters of Noah would never again go over the earth, so have I taken an oath that I will not again be angry with you, or say bitter words to you.
- 10 For the mountains may be taken away, and the hills be moved out of their places, but my love will not be taken from you, or my agreement of peace broken, says the Lord, who has had mercy on you.
- 11 O troubled one, storm-crushed, un comforted! see, your stones will be framed in fair colours, and your bases will be sapphires.

- 12 I will make your towers of rubies, and your doors of carbuncles, and the wall round you will be of all sorts of beautiful stones.
- 13 And all your builders will be made wise by the Lord; and great will be the peace of your children.
- 14 All your rights will be made certain to you: have no fear of evil, and destruction will not come near you.
- 15 See, they may be moved to war, but not by my authority: all those who come together to make an attack on you, will be broken against you.
- 16 See, I have made the iron-worker, blowing on the burning coals, and making the instrument of war by his work; and I have made the waster for destruction.
- 17 No instrument of war which is formed against you will be of any use; and every tongue which says evil against you will be judged false. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness comes from me, says the Lord.
- 1 Ho! everyone in need, come to the waters, and he who has no strength, let him get food: come, get bread without money; wine and milk without price.
- 2 Why do you give your money for what is not bread, and the fruit of your work for what will not give you pleasure? Give ear to me, so that your food may be good, and you may have the best in full measure.
- 3 Give ear, and come to me, take note with care, so that your souls may have life: and I will make an eternal agreement with you, even the certain mercies of David.
- 4 See, I have given him as a witness to the peoples, a ruler and a guide to the nations.
- 5 See, you will send for a nation of which you had no knowledge, and those who had no knowledge of you will come running to you, because of the Lord your God, and because of the Holy One of Israel, for he has given you glory.
- 6 Make search for the Lord while he is there, make prayer to him while he is near:
- 7 Let the sinner give up his way, and the evil-doer his purpose: and let him come back to the Lord, and he will have mercy on him; and to our God, for there is full forgiveness with him.
- 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, or your ways my ways, says the Lord.
- 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and does not go back again, but gives water to the earth, and makes it fertile, giving seed to the planter, and bread for food;
- 11 So will my word be which goes out of my mouth: it will not come back to me with nothing done, but it will give effect to my purpose, and do that for which I have sent it.
- 12 For you will go out with joy, and be guided in peace: the mountains and the hills will make melody before you, and all the trees of the fields will make sounds of joy.
- 13 In place of the thorn will come up the fir-tree, and in place of the blackberry the myrtle: and it will be to the Lord for a name, for an eternal sign which will not be cut off.
- 1 The Lord says, Let your way of life be upright, and let your behaviour be rightly ordered: for my salvation is near, and my righteousness will quickly be seen.
- 2 Happy is the man who does this, and the son of man whose behaviour is so ordered; who keeps the Sabbath holy, and his hand from doing any evil.
- 3 And let not the man from a strange country, who has been joined to the Lord, say, The Lord will certainly put a division between me and his people: and let not the unsexed man say, See, I am a dry tree.
- 4 For the Lord says, As for the unsexed who keep my Sabbaths, and give their hearts to pleasing me, and keep their agreement with me:
- 5 I will give to them in my house, and inside my walls, a place and a name better than that of sons and daughters; I will give them an eternal name which will not be cut off.
- 6 And as for those from a strange country, who are joined to the Lord, to give worship to him and honour to his name, to be his servants, even everyone who keeps the Sabbath holy, and keeps his agreement with me:
- 7 I will make them come to my holy mountain, and will give them joy in my house of prayer; I will take pleasure in the burned offerings which they make on my altar: for my house will be named a house of prayer for all peoples.
- 8 The Lord God, who gets together the wandering ones of Israel, says, I will get together others in addition to those of Israel who have come back.
- 9 All you beasts of the field, come together for your meat, even all you beasts of the wood.

- 10 His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all dogs without tongues, unable to make a sound; stretched out dreaming, loving sleep.
- 11 Yes, the dogs are for ever looking for food; while these, the keepers of the sheep, are without wisdom: they have all gone after their pleasure, every one looking for profit; they are all the same.
- 12 Come, they say, I will get wine, and we will take strong drink in full measure; and tomorrow will be like today, full of pleasure.
- 1 The upright man goes to his death, and no one gives a thought to it; and god-fearing men are taken away, and no one is troubled by it; for the upright man is taken away because of evil-doing, and goes into peace.
- 2 They are at rest in their last resting-places, every one going straight before him.
- 3 But come near, you sons of her who is wise in secret arts, the seed of her who is false to her husband, and of the loose woman.
- 4 Of whom do you make sport? against whom is your mouth open wide and your tongue put out? are you not uncontrolled children, a false seed,
- 5 You who are burning with evil desire among the oaks, under every green tree; putting children to death in the valleys, under the cracks of the rocks?
- 6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your heritage; they, even they, are your part: even to them have you made a drink offering and a meal offering. Is it possible for such things to be overlooked by me?
- 7 You have put your bed on a high mountain: there you went up to make your offering.
- 8 And on the back of the doors and on the pillars you have put your sign: for you have been false to me with another; you have made your bed wide, and made an agreement with them; you had a desire for their bed where you saw it
- 9 And you went to Melech with oil and much perfume, and you sent your representatives far off, and went as low as the underworld.
- 10 You were tired with your long journeys; but you did not say, There is no hope: you got new strength, and so you were not feeble.
- 11 And of whom were you in fear, so that you were false, and did not keep me in mind, or give thought to it? Have I not been quiet, keeping myself secret, and so you were not in fear of me?
- 12 I will make clear what your righteousness is like and your works; you will have no profit in them.
- 13 Your false gods will not keep you safe in answer to your cry; but the wind will take them, they will be gone like a breath: but he who puts his hope in me will take the land, and will have my holy mountain as his heritage.
- 14 And I will say, Make it high, make it high, get ready the way, take the stones out of the way of my people.
- 15 For this is the word of him who is high and lifted up, whose resting-place is eternal, whose name is Holy: my resting-place is in the high and holy place, and with him who is crushed and poor in spirit, to give life to the spirit of the poor, and to make
- 16 For I will not give punishment for ever, or be angry without end: for from me breath goes out; and I it was who made the souls.
- 17 I was quickly angry with his evil ways, and sent punishment on him, veiling my face in wrath: and he went on, turning his heart from me.
- 18 I have seen his ways, and I will make him well: I will give him rest, comforting him and his people who are sad.
- 19 I will give the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him who is near and to him who is far off, says the Lord; and I will make him well.
- 20 But the evil-doers are like the troubled sea, for which there is no rest, and its waters send up earth and waste.
- 21 There is no peace, says my God, for the evil-doers.
- 1 Make a loud cry, do not be quiet, let your voice be sounding like a horn, and make clear to my people their evil doings, and to the family of Jacob their sins.
- 2 Though they make prayer to me every day, and take pleasure in the knowledge of my ways: like a nation which has done righteousness, and has not given up the rules of their God, they make requests to me for the right orders, it is their delight to come near
- 3 They say, Why have we kept ourselves from food, and you do not see it? why have we kept ourselves from pleasure, and you take no note of it? If, in the days when you keep from food, you take the chance to do your business, and get in your debts;

- 4 If keeping from food makes you quickly angry, ready for fighting and giving blows with evil hands; your holy days are not such as to make your voice come to my ears on high.
- 5 Have I given orders for such a day as this? a day for keeping yourselves from pleasure? is it only a question of the bent head, of putting on haircloth, and being seated in the dust? is this what seems to you a holy day, well-pleasing to the Lord?
- 6 Is not this the holy day for which I have given orders: to let loose those who have wrongly been made prisoners, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the crushed go free, and every yoke be broken?
- 7 Is it not to give your bread to those in need, and to let the poor who have no resting-place come into your house? to put a robe on the unclothed one when you see him, and not to keep your eyes shut for fear of seeing his flesh?
- 8 Then will light be shining on you like the morning, and your wounds will quickly be well: and your righteousness will go before you, and the glory of the Lord will come after you.
- 9 Then at the sound of your voice, the Lord will give an answer; at your cry he will say, Here am I. If you take away from among you the yoke, the putting out of the finger of shame, and the evil word;
- 10 And if you give your bread to those in need of it, so that the troubled one may have his desire; then you will have light in the dark, and your night will be as the full light of the sun:
- 11 And the Lord will be your guide at all times; in dry places he will give you water in full measure, and will make strong your bones; and you will be like a watered garden, and like an ever-flowing spring.
- 12 And your sons will be building again the old waste places: you will make strong the bases of old generations: and you will be named, He who puts up the broken walls, and, He who makes ready the ways for use.
- 13 If you keep the Sabbath with care, not doing your business on my holy day; and if the Sabbath seems to you a delight, and the new moon of the Lord a thing to be honoured; and if you give respect to him by not doing your business, or going after your pleas
- 14 Then the Lord will be your delight; and I will put you on the high places of the earth; and I will give you the heritage of Jacob your father: for the mouth of the Lord has said it.
 - 1 Truly, the Lord's hand has not become short, so that he is unable to give salvation; and his ear is not shut from hearing:
 - 2 But your sins have come between you and your God, and by your evil doings his face has been veiled from you, so that he will give you no answer.
 - 3 For your hands are unclean with blood, and your fingers with sin; your lips have said false things, and your tongue gives out deceit.
 - 4 No one puts forward an upright cause, or gives a true decision: their hope is in deceit, and their words are false; they are with child with sin, and give birth to evil.
 - 5 They give birth to snake's eggs, and make spider's threads: whoever takes their eggs for food comes to his death, and the egg which is crushed becomes a poison-snake.
 - 6 Their twisted threads will not make clothing, and their works will give them nothing for covering themselves: their works are works of sin, and violent acts are in their hands.
 - 7 Their feet go quickly to evil, and they take delight in the death of the upright; their thoughts are thoughts of sin; wasting and destruction are in their ways.
 - 8 They have no knowledge of the way of peace, and there is no sense of what is right in their behaviour: they have made for themselves ways which are not straight; whoever goes in them has no knowledge of peace.
 - 9 For this cause our right is far from us, and righteousness does not overtake us: we are looking for light, but there is only the dark; for the shining of the sun, but our way is in the night.
 - 10 We go on our way, like blind men feeling for the wall, even like those who have no eyes: we are running against things in daylight as if it was evening; our place is in the dark like dead men.
 - 11 We make noises of grief, like bears, and sad sounds like doves: we are looking for our right, but it is not there; for salvation, but it is far from us.
 - 12 For our evil doings are increased before you, and our sins give witness against us: for our evil doings are with us, and we have knowledge of our sins:
 - 13 We have gone against the Lord, and been false to him, turning away from our God, our words have been uncontrolled, and in our hearts are thoughts of deceit.
 - 14 And the right is turned back, and righteousness is far away: for good faith is not to be seen in the public places, and upright behaviour may not come into the town.

- 15 Yes, faith is gone; and he whose heart is turned from evil comes into the power of the cruel: and the Lord saw it, and he was angry that there was no one to take up their cause.
- 16 And he saw that there was no man, and was surprised that there was no one to take up their cause: so his arm gave salvation, and he made righteousness his support.
- 17 Yes, he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and salvation as a head-dress; and he put on punishment as clothing, and wrath as a robe.
- 18 He will give them the right reward of their doings, wrath to his attackers, punishment to his haters, and even on the sea-lands he will send punishment.
- 19 So they will see the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the east: for he will come like a rushing stream, forced on by a wind of the Lord.
- 20 And as a saviour he will come to Zion, turning away sin from Jacob, says the Lord.
- 21 And as for me, this is my agreement with them, says the Lord: my spirit which is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not go away from your mouth, or from the mouth of your seed, or from the mouth of your seed's seed, says the Lord, f
- 1 Up! let your face be bright, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord is shining on you.
- 2 For truly, the earth will be dark, and the peoples veiled in blackest night; but the Lord will be shining on you, and his glory will be seen among you.
- 3 And nations will come to your light, and kings to your bright dawn.
- 4 Let your eyes be lifted up, and see: they are all coming together to you: your sons will come from far, and your daughters taken with loving care.
- 5 Then you will see, and be bright with joy, and your heart will be shaking with increase of delight: for the produce of the sea will be turned to you, the wealth of the nations will come to you.
- 6 You will be full of camel-trains, even the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba will come, with gold and spices, giving word of the great acts of the Lord.
- 7 All the flocks of Kedar will come together to you, the sheep of Nebaioth will be ready for your need; they will be pleasing offerings on my altar, and my house of prayer will be beautiful.
- 8 Who are these coming like a cloud, like a flight of doves to their windows?
- 9 Vessels of the sea-lands are waiting for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, so that your sons may come from far, and their silver and gold with them, to the place of the name of the Lord your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he has made you b
- 10 And men from strange countries will be building up your walls, and their kings will be your servants: for in my wrath I sent punishment on you, but in my grace I have had mercy on you.
- 11 Your doors will be open at all times; they will not be shut day or night; so that men may come into you with the wealth of the nations, with their kings at their head.
- 12 For the nation or kingdom which will not be your servant will come to destruction; such nations will be completely waste.
- 13 The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the sherrin-tree together, to make my holy place beautiful; and the resting-place of my feet will be full of glory.
- 14 And the sons of those who were cruel to you will come before you with bent heads; and those who made sport of you will go down on their faces at your feet; and you will be named, The Town of the Lord, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 And though you were turned away from, and hated, and had no helper, I will make you a pride for ever, a joy from generation to generation.
- 16 And you will take the milk of the nations, flowing from the breast of kings; and you will see that I, the Lord, am your saviour, and he who takes up your cause, the Strong One of Jacob.
- 17 In place of brass, I will give gold, and for iron silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: and I will make Peace your judge, and Righteousness your overseer.
- 18 Violent acts will no longer be seen in your land, wasting or destruction in your limits; but your walls will be named, Salvation, and your doors Praise.
- 19 The sun will not be your light by day, and the moon will no longer be bright for you by night: but the Lord will be to you an eternal light, and your God your glory.

- 20 Your sun will never again go down, or your moon keep back her light: for the Lord will be your eternal light, and the days of your sorrow will be ended.
- 21 Your people will all be upright, the land will be their heritage for ever; the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, to be for my glory.
- 22 The smallest of their families will become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I, the Lord, will make it come quickly in its time.
- 1 The spirit of the Lord is on me, because I am marked out by him to give good news to the poor; he has sent me to make the broken-hearted well, to say that the prisoners will be made free, and that those in chains will see the light again;
- 2 To give knowledge that the year of the Lord's good pleasure has come, and the day of punishment from our God; to give comfort to all who are sad;
- 3 To give them a fair head-dress in place of dust, the oil of joy in place of the clothing of grief, praise in place of sorrow; so that they may be named trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, and so that he may have glory.
- 4 And they will be building again the old broken walls, and will make new the old waste places, and will put up again the towns which have been waste for long generations.
- 5 And men from strange countries will be your herdsmen, and those who are not Israelites will be your ploughmen and vine-keepers.
- 6 But you will be named the priests of the Lord, the servants of our God: you will have the wealth of the nations for your food, and you will be clothed with their glory.
- 7 As they had twice as much grief, and marks of shame were their heritage, so in their land they will be rewarded twice over, and will have eternal joy.
- 8 For I, the Lord, take pleasure in upright judging; I will not put up with the violent taking away of right; and I will certainly give them their reward, and I will make an eternal agreement with them.
- 9 And their seed will be noted among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples: it will be clear to all who see them that they are the seed to which the Lord has given his blessing.
- 10 I will be full of joy in the Lord, my soul will be glad in my God; for he has put on me the clothing of salvation, covering me with the robe of righteousness, as the husband puts on a fair head-dress, and the bride makes herself beautiful with jewels.
- 11 For as the earth puts out buds, and as the garden gives growth to the seeds which are planted in it, so the Lord will make righteousness and praise to be flowering before all the nations.
- 1 Because of Zion I will not keep quiet, and because of Jerusalem I will take no rest, till her righteousness goes out like the shining of the sun, and her salvation like a burning light.
- 2 And the nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory: and you will have a new name, given by the mouth of the Lord.
- 3 And you will be a fair crown in the hand of the Lord, and a king's head-dress in the hand of your God.
- 4 You will not now be named, She who is given up; and your land will no longer be named, The waste land: but you will have the name, My pleasure is in her, and your land will be named, Married: for the Lord has pleasure in you, and your land will be married
- 5 For as a young man takes a virgin for his wife, so will your maker be married to you: and as a husband has joy in his bride, so will the Lord your God be glad over you.
- 6 I have put watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will not keep quiet day or night: you who are the Lord's recorders, take no rest,
- 7 And give him no rest, till he puts Jerusalem in her place to be praised in the earth.
- 8 The Lord has taken an oath by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Truly, I will no longer give your grain to be food for your haters; and men of strange countries will not take the wine for which your work has been done:
- 9 But those who have got in the grain will have it for their food, and will give praise to the Lord; and those who have got in the grapes will take the wine of them in the open places of my holy house.
- 10 Go through, go through the doors; make ready the way of the people; let the highway be lifted up; let the stones be taken away; let a flag be lifted up over the peoples.
- 11 The Lord has sent out word to the end of the earth, Say to the daughter of Zion, See, your saviour comes; those whom he has made free are with him, and those to whom he has given salvation go before him.

- 12 And they will be named, The holy people, Those whose cause has been taken up by the Lord: and you will be named, Desired, A town not given up.
- 1 Who is this who comes from Edom, with blood-red robes from Bozrah? he whose clothing is fair, stepping with pride in his great strength? I whose glory is in the right, strong for salvation.
- 2 Why is your clothing red, and why are your robes like those of one who is crushing the grapes?
- 3 I have been crushing the grapes by myself, and of the peoples there was no man with me: in my wrath and in my passion, they were crushed under my feet; and my robes are marked with their life-blood, and all my clothing is red.
- 4 For the day of punishment is in my heart, and the year for the payment of the price for my people has come.
- 5 And I saw that there was no helper, and I was wondering that no one gave them support: so my arm did the work of salvation, and my wrath was my support.
- 6 And in my passion the peoples were crushed under my feet, and broken in my wrath, and I put down their strength to the earth.
- 7 I will give news of the mercies of the Lord, and his great acts, even all the things the Lord has done for us, in his great grace to the house of Israel; even all he has done for us in his unnumbered mercies.
- 8 For he said, Truly they are my people, children who will not be false: so he was their saviour out of all their trouble.
- 9 It was no sent one or angel, but he himself who was their saviour: in his love and in his pity he took up their cause, and he took them in his arms, caring for them all through the years.
- 10 But they went against him, causing grief to his holy spirit: so he was turned against them, and made war on them.
- 11 Then the early days came to their minds, the days of Moses his servant: and they said, Where is he who made the keeper of his flock come up from the sea? where is he who put his holy spirit among them,
- 12 He who made the arm of his glory go at the right hand of Moses, by whom the waters were parted before them, to make himself an eternal name;
- 13 He who made them go through the deep waters, like a horse in the waste land?
- 14 Like the cattle which go down into the valley, they went without falling, the spirit of the Lord guiding them: so you went before your people, to make yourself a great name.
- 15 Let your eyes be looking down from heaven, from your holy and beautiful house: where is your deep feeling, the working of your power? do not keep back the moving of your pity and your mercies:
- 16 For you are our father, though Abraham has no knowledge of us, and Israel gives no thought to us: you, O Lord, are our father; from the earliest days you have taken up our cause.
- 17 O Lord, why do you send us wandering from your ways, making our hearts hard, so that we have no fear of you? Come back, because of your servants, the tribes of your heritage.
- 18 Why have evil men gone over your holy place, so that it has been crushed under the feet of our haters?
- 19 We have become as those who were never ruled by you, on whom your name was not named.
- 1 O let the heavens be broken open and come down, so that the mountains may be shaking before you,\
- 1 \64:2\As when fire puts the brushwood in flames, or as when water is boiling from the heat of the fire: to make your name feared by your haters, so that the nations may be shaking before you;
- 2 \64:3\While you do acts of power for which we are not looking, and which have not come to the ears of men in the past.
- 3 \64:4\The ear has not had news of, or the eye seen, ... any God but you, working for the man who is waiting for him.
- 4 \64:5\Will you not have mercy on him who takes pleasure in doing righteousness, even on those who keep in mind your ways? Truly you were angry, and we went on doing evil, and sinning against you in the past.
- 5 \64:6\For we have all become like an unclean person, and all our good acts are like a dirty robe: and we have all become old like a dead leaf, and our sins, like the wind, take us away.
- 6 \64:7\And there is no one who makes prayer to your name, or who is moved to keep true to you: for your face is veiled from us, and you have given us into the power of our sins.
- 7 \64:8\But now, O Lord, you are our father; we are the earth, and you are our maker; and we are all the work of your hand.
- 8 \64:9\Be not very angry, O Lord, and do not keep our sins in mind for ever: give ear to our prayer, for we are all your people.
- 9 \64:10\Your holy towns have become a waste, Zion has become a waste, Jerusalem is a mass of broken walls.

- 10 \64:11\Our holy and beautiful house, where our fathers gave praise to you, is burned with fire; and all the things of our desire have come to destruction.
- 11 \64:12\In view of all this, will you still do nothing, O Lord? will you keep quiet, and go on increasing our punishment?
- 1 I have been ready to give an answer to those who did not make prayer to me; I have been offering myself to those who were not searching for me; I said, Here am I, here am I, to a nation which gave no respect to my name.
- 2 All day my hands have been stretched out to an uncontrolled people, who go in an evil way, after the purposes of their hearts;
- 3 A people who make me angry every day, making offerings in gardens, and burning perfumes on bricks.
- 4 Who are seated in the resting-places of the dead, and by night are in the secret places; who take pig's flesh for food, and have the liquid of disgusting things in their vessels.
- 5 Who say, Keep away, do not come near me, for fear that I make you holy: these are a smoke in my nose, a fire burning all day.
- 6 See, it is recorded before me, says the Lord: I will not keep back my hand, till I have sent punishment,
- 7 For their sins and the sins of their fathers, who were burning perfumes on the mountains, and saying evil things against me on the hills: so I will take the measure of their sins, and will send the punishment for them into their breast.
- 8 This is the word of the Lord: As the new wine is seen in the grapes, and they say, Do not send destruction on it, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants, in order that I may not put an end to them all.
- 9 And I will take a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah one who will have my mountains for a heritage: and the people I have taken to be mine will have it for themselves, and my servants will have their resting-place there.
- 10 And Sharon will be a grass-land for the flocks, and the valley of Achor a resting-place for the herds: for my people whose hearts have been turned back to me.
- 11 But as for you who have given up the Lord, who have no care for my holy mountain, who get ready a table for Chance, and make offerings of mixed wine to Fate;
- 12 Your fate will be the sword, and you will all go down to death: because when my voice came to you, you made no answer; you did not give ear to my word; but you did what was evil in my eyes, desiring what was not pleasing to me.
- 13 For this cause says the Lord God, My servants will have food, but you will be in need of food: my servants will have drink, but you will be dry: my servants will have joy, but you will be shamed:
- 14 My servants will make songs in the joy of their hearts, but you will be crying for sorrow, and making sounds of grief from a broken spirit.
- 15 And your name will become a curse to my people, and the Lord God will put you to death, and give his servants another name:
- 16 So that he who is requesting a blessing will make use of the name of the true God, and he who takes an oath will do so by the true God; because the past troubles are gone out of mind, and because they are covered from my eyes.
- 17 For see, I am making a new heaven and a new earth: and the past things will be gone completely out of mind.
- 18 But men will be glad and have joy for ever in what I am making; for I am making Jerusalem a delight, and her people a joy.
- 19 And I will be glad over Jerusalem, and have joy in my people: and the voice of weeping will no longer be sounding in her, or the voice of grief.
- 20 No longer will there be there a child whose days are cut short, or an old man whose days have not come to their full measure: for the young man at his death will be a hundred years old, and he whose life is shorter than a hundred years will seem as one cu
- 21 And they will be building houses and living in them; planting vine-gardens and getting the fruit of them.
- 22 They will no longer be building for the use of others, or planting for others to have the fruit: for the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and my loved ones will have joy in full measure in the work of their hands.
- 23 Their work will not be for nothing, and they will not give birth to children for destruction; for they are a seed to whom the Lord has given his blessing, and their offspring will be with them.
- 24 And before they make their request I will give an answer, and while they are still making prayer to me, I will give ear.
- 25 The wolf and the lamb will take their food together, and the lion will make a meal of grass like the ox: but dust will be the snake's food. There will be no cause of pain or destruction in all my holy mountain, says the Lord.
- 1 The Lord says, Heaven is the seat of my power, and earth is the resting-place for my feet: what sort of house will you make for me, and what place will be my resting-place?

- 2 For all these things my hand has made, and they are mine, says the Lord; but to this man only will I give attention, to him who is poor and broken in spirit, fearing my word.
- 3 He who puts an ox to death puts a man to death; he who makes an offering of a lamb puts a dog to death; he who makes a meal offering makes an offering of pig's blood; he who makes an offering of perfumes for a sign gives worship to an image: as they have
- 4 So I will go after trouble for them, and will send on them what they are fearing: because no one made answer to my voice, or gave ear to my word; but they did what was evil in my eyes, going after that in which I took no pleasure.
- 5 Give ear to the word of the Lord, you who are in fear at his word: your countrymen, hating you, and driving you out because of my name, have said, Let the Lord's glory be made clear, so that we may see your joy; but they will be put to shame.
- 6 There is a noise of war from the town, a sound from the Temple, the voice of the Lord giving punishment to his haters.
- 7 Before her pains came, she gave birth; before her pains, she gave birth to a man-child.
- 8 When has such a story come to men's ears? who has seen such things? will a land come to birth in one day? will a nation be given birth in a minute? For when Zion's pains came on her, she gave birth to her children straight away.
- 9 Will I by whom the birth was started, not make it complete? says the Lord. Will I who make children come to birth, let them be kept back? says your God.
- 10 Have joy with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you her lovers: take part in her joy, all you who are sorrowing for her:
- 11 So that you may take of the comfort flowing from her breasts, and be delighted with the full measure of her glory.
- 12 For the Lord says, See, I will make her peace like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream, and she will take her children in her arms, gently caring for them on her knees.
- 13 As to one who is comforted by his mother, so will I give you comfort: and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.
- 14 And you will see it and your heart will be glad, and your bones will get new strength, like young grass: and the hand of the Lord will be seen at work for his servants, and his wrath against his haters.
- 15 For the Lord is coming with fire, and his war-carriages will be like the storm-wind; to give punishment in the heat of his wrath, and his passion is like flames of fire.
- 16 For with fire and sword will the Lord come, judging all the earth, and his sword will be on all flesh: and great numbers will be put to death by him.
- 17 As for those who keep themselves separate, and make themselves clean in the gardens, going after one in the middle, taking pig's flesh for food, and other disgusting things, such as the mouse: their works and their thoughts will come to an end together, s
- 18 And I am coming to get together all nations and tongues: and they will come and will see my glory.
- 19 And I will put a sign among them, and I will send those who are still living to the nations, to Tarshish, Put, and Lud, Meshech and Rosh, Tubal and Javan, to the sea-lands far away, who have not had word of me, or seen my glory; and they will give the kno
- 20 And they will take your countrymen out of all the nations for an offering to the Lord, on horses, and in carriages, and in carts, and on asses, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the Lord, as the children of Israel take their offering in a
- 21 And some of them will I take for priests and Levites, says the Lord.
- 22 For as the new heaven and the new earth which I will make will be for ever before me, says the Lord, so will your seed and your name be for ever.
- 23 And it will be, that from new moon to new moon, and from Sabbath to Sabbath, all flesh will come to give worship before me, says the Lord.
- 24 And they will go out to see the dead bodies of the men who have done evil against me: for their worm will ever be living, and their fire will never be put out, and they will be a thing of fear to all flesh.
- 1 The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiyah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:
- 2 To whom the word of the Lord came in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his rule.
- 3 And it came again in the days of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, up to the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah; till Jerusalem was taken away in the fifth month.
- 4 Now the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

- 5 Before you were formed in the body of your mother I had knowledge of you, and before your birth I made you holy; I have given you the work of being a prophet to the nations.
- 6 Then said I, O Lord God! see, I have no power of words, for I am a child.
- 7 But the Lord said to me, Do not say, I am a child: for wherever I send you, you are to go, and whatever I give you orders to say, you are to say.
- 8 Have no fear because of them: for I am with you, to keep you safe, says the Lord.
- 9 Then the Lord put out his hand, touching my mouth; and the Lord said to me, See, I have put my words in your mouth:
- 10 See, this day I have put you over the nations and over the kingdoms, for uprooting and smashing down, for destruction and overturning, for building up and planting.
- 11 Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see a branch of an almond-tree.
- 12 Then the Lord said to me, You have seen well: for I keep watch over my word to give effect to it.
- 13 And the word of the Lord came to me a second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, I see a boiling pot, and its face is from the north.
- 14 Then the Lord said to me, Out of the north evil will come, bursting out on all the people of the land.
- 15 For see, I will send for all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says the Lord; and they will come, everyone placing his high seat at the way into Jerusalem, and against its walls on every side, and against all the towns of Judah.
- 16 And I will give my decision against them on account of all their evil-doing; because they have given me up, burning perfumes to other gods and worshipping the works of their hands.
- 17 So make yourself ready, and go and say to them everything I give you orders to say: do not be overcome by fear of them, or I will send fear on you before them.
- 18 For see, this day have I made you a walled town, and an iron pillar, and walls of brass, against all the land, against the kings of Judah, against its captains, against its priests, and against the people of the land.
- 19 They will be fighting against you, but they will not overcome you: for I am with you, says the Lord, to give you salvation.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 Go and say in the ears of Jerusalem, The Lord says, I still keep the memory of your kind heart when you were young, and your love when you became my bride; how you went after me in the waste of sand, in an unplanted land.
- 3 Israel was holy to the Lord, the first-fruits of his increase: all who made attacks on him were judged as wrongdoers, evil came on them, says the Lord.
- 4 Give ear to the words of the Lord, O sons of Jacob and all the families of Israel:
- 5 These are the words of the Lord: What evil have your fathers seen in me that they have gone far from me, and, walking after what is false, have become false?
- 6 And they never said, Where is the Lord, who took us up out of the land of Egypt; who was our guide through the waste of sand, through an unplanted land full of deep holes, through a dry land of deep shade, which no one went through and where no man was li
- 7 And I took you into a fertile land, where you were living on its fruit and its wealth; but when you came in, you made my land unclean, and made my heritage a disgusting thing.
- 8 The priests did not say, Where is the Lord? and those who were expert in the law had no knowledge of me: and the rulers did evil against me, and the prophets became prophets of the Baal, going after things without value.
- 9 For this reason, I will again put forward my cause against you, says the Lord, even against you and against your children's children.
- 10 For go over to the sea-lands of Kittim and see; send to Kedar and give deep thought to it; and see if there has ever been such a thing.
- 11 Has any nation ever made a change in their gods, though they are no gods? but my people have given up their glory in exchange for what is of no profit.
- 12 Be full of wonder, O heavens, at this; be overcome with fear, be completely waste, says the Lord.
- 13 For my people have done two evils; they have given up me, the fountain of living waters, and have made for themselves water-holes, cut out from the rock, broken water-holes, of no use for storing water.
- 14 Is Israel a servant? has he been a house-servant from birth? why has he been made waste?

- 15 The young lions have made an outcry against him with a loud voice: they have made his land waste; his towns are burned up, with no one living in them.
- 16 Even the children of Noph and Tahpanhes have put shame on you.
- 17 Has not this come on you because you have given up the Lord your God, who was your guide by the way?
- 18 And now, what have you to do on the way to Egypt, to get your drink from the waters of the Nile? or what have you to do on the way to Assyria, to get your drink from the waters of the River?
- 19 The evil you yourselves have done will be your punishment, your errors will be your judge: be certain then, and see that it is an evil and a bitter thing to give up the Lord your God, and no longer to be moved by fear of me, says the Lord, the Lord of arm
- 20 For in the past, your yoke was broken by your hands and your cords parted; and you said, I will not be your servant; for on every high hill and under every branching tree, your behaviour was like that of a loose woman
- 21 But when you were planted by me, you were a noble vine, in every way a true seed: how then have you been changed into the branching plant of a strange vine?
- 22 For even if you are washed with soda and take much soap, still your evil-doing is marked before me, says the Lord God.
- 23 How are you able to say, I am not unclean, I have not gone after the Baals? see your way in the valley, be clear about what you have done: you are a quick-footed camel twisting her way in and out;
- 24 An untrained ass, used to the waste land, breathing up the wind in her desire; at her time, who is able to send her away? all those who are looking for her will have no need to make themselves tired; in her month they will get her.
- 25 Do not let your foot be without shoes, or your throat dry from need of water: but you said, There is no hope: no, for I have been a lover of strange gods, and after them I will go.
- 26 As the thief is shamed when he is taken, so is Israel shamed; they, their kings and their rulers, their priests and their prophets;
- 27 Who say to a tree, You are my father; and to a stone, You have given me life: for their backs have been turned to me, not their faces: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Up! and be our saviour.
- 28 But where are the gods you have made for yourselves? let them come, if they are able to give you salvation in the time of your trouble: for the number of your gods is as the number of your towns, O Judah.
- 29 Why will you put forward your cause against me? You have all done evil against me, says the Lord.
- 30 I gave your children blows to no purpose; they got no good from training: your sword has been the destruction of your prophets, like a death-giving lion.
- 31 O generation, see the word of the Lord. Have I been a waste land to Israel? or a land of dark night? why do my people say, We have got loose, we will not come to you again?
- 32 Is it possible for a virgin to put out of her memory her ornaments, or a bride her robes? but my people have put me out of their memories for unnumbered days.
- 33 With what care are your ways ordered when you are looking for love! so ... your ways.
- 34 And in the skirts of your robe may be seen the life-blood of those who have done no wrong: ...
- 35 And still you said, I have done no wrong; truly, his wrath is turned away from me. See, I will take up the cause against you, because you say, I have done no wrong.
- 36 Why do you go about so much for the purpose of changing your way? you will be shamed on account of Egypt, as you were shamed on account of Assyria.
- 37 Truly, you will go out from him with your hands on your head: for the Lord has given up those in whom you have put your faith, and they will be of no help to you.
- 1 They say, If a man puts away his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man's, will he go back to her again? will not that land have been made unclean? but though you have been acting like a loose woman with a number of lovers, will you now come b
- 2 Let your eyes be lifted up to the open hilltops, and see; where have you not been taken by your lovers? You have been seated waiting for them by the wayside like an Arabian in the waste land; you have made the land unclean with your loose ways and your ev
- 3 So the showers have been kept back, and there has been no spring rain; still your brow is the brow of a loose woman, you will not let yourself be shamed.
- 4 Will you not, from this time, make your prayer to me, crying, My father, you are the friend of my early years?

- 5 Will he be angry for ever? will he keep his wrath to the end? These things you have said, and have done evil and have had your way.
- 6 And the Lord said to me in the days of Josiah the king, Have you seen what Israel, turning away from me, has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every branching tree, acting like a loose woman there.
- 7 And I said, After she has done all these things she will come back to me; but she did not. And her false sister Judah saw it.
- 8 And though she saw that, because Israel, turning away from me, had been untrue to me, I had put her away and given her a statement in writing ending the relation between us, still Judah, her false sister, had no fear, but went and did the same.
- 9 So that through all her loose behaviour the land became unclean, and she was untrue, giving herself to stones and trees.
- 10 But for all this, her false sister Judah has not come back to me with all her heart, but with deceit, says the Lord.
- 11 And the Lord said to me, Israel in her turning away is seen to be more upright than false Judah.
- 12 Go, and give out these words to the north, and say, Come back, O Israel, though you have been turned away from me, says the Lord; my face will not be against you in wrath: for I am full of mercy, says the Lord, I will not be angry for ever.
- 13 Only be conscious of your sin, the evil you have done against the Lord your God; you have gone with strange men under every branching tree, giving no attention to my voice, says the Lord.
- 14 Come back, O children who are turned away, says the Lord; for I am a husband to you, and I will take you, one from a town and two from a family, and will make you come to Zion;
- 15 And I will give you keepers, pleasing to my heart, who will give you your food with knowledge and wisdom.
- 16 And it will come about, when your numbers are increased in the land, in those days, says the Lord, that they will no longer say, The ark of the agreement of the Lord: it will not come into their minds, they will not have any memory of it, or be conscious
- 17 At that time Jerusalem will be named the seat of the Lord's kingdom; and all the nations will come together to it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem: and no longer will their steps be guided by the purposes of their evil hearts.
- 18 In those days the family of Judah will go with the family of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north into the land which I gave for a heritage to your fathers.
- 19 But I said, How am I to put you among the children, and give you a desired land, a heritage of glory among the armies of the nations? and I said, You are to say to me, My father; and not be turned away from me.
- 20 Truly, as a wife is false to her husband, so have you been false to me, O Israel, says the Lord.
- 21 A voice is sounding on the open hilltops, the weeping and the prayers of the children of Israel; because their way is twisted, they have not kept the Lord their God in mind.
- 22 Come back, you children who have been turned away, and I will take away your desire for wandering. See, we have come to you, for you are the Lord our God.
- 23 Truly, the hills, and the noise of an army on the mountains, are a false hope: truly, in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel.
- 24 But the Baal has taken all the work of our fathers from our earliest days; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.
- 25 Let us be stretched on the earth in our downfall, covering ourselves with our shame: for we have been sinners against the Lord our God, we and our fathers, from our earliest years even till this day: and we have not given ear to the voice of the Lord our
- 1 If you will come back, O Israel, says the Lord, you will come back to me: and if you will put away your disgusting ways, you will not be sent away from before me.
- 2 And you will take your oath, By the living Lord, in good faith and wisdom and righteousness; and the nations will make use of you as a blessing, and in you will they take a pride.
- 3 For this is what the Lord says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem: Get your unworked land ploughed up, do not put in your seeds among thorns.
- 4 Undergo a circumcision of the heart, you men of Judah and people of Jerusalem: or my wrath may come out like fire, burning so that no one is able to put it out, because of the evil of your doings.
- 5 Say openly in Judah, give it out in Jerusalem, and say, Let the horn be sounded in the land: crying out in a loud voice, Come together, and let us go into the walled towns.

- 6 Put up a flag for a sign to Zion: go in flight so that you may be safe, waiting no longer: for I will send evil from the north, and a great destruction.
- 7 A lion has gone up from his secret place in the woods, and one who makes waste the nations is on his way; he has gone out from his place, to make your land unpeopled, so that your towns will be made waste, with no man living in them.
- 8 For this put on haircloth, with weeping and loud crying: for the burning wrath of the Lord is not turned back from us.
- 9 And it will come about in that day, says the Lord, that the heart of the king will be dead in him, and the hearts of the rulers; and the priests will be overcome with fear, and the prophets with wonder.
- 10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! your words were not true when you said to this people and to Jerusalem, You will have peace; when the sword has come even to the soul.
- 11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A burning wind from the open hilltops in the waste land is blowing on the daughter of my people, not for separating or cleaning the grain;
- 12 A full wind will come for me: and now I will give my decision against them.
- 13 See, he will come up like the clouds, and his war-carriages like the storm-wind: his horses are quicker than eagles. Sorrow is ours, for destruction has come on us.
- 14 O Jerusalem, make your heart clean from evil, so that you may have salvation. How long are evil purposes to have a resting-place in you?
- 15 For a voice is sounding from Dan, giving out evil from the hills of Ephraim:
- 16 Make this come to the minds of the nations, make a statement openly against Jerusalem, that attackers are coming from a far country and their voices will be loud against the towns of Judah.
- 17 Like keepers of a field they are against her on every side; because she has been fighting against me, says the Lord.
- 18 Your ways and your doings have made these things come on you; this is your sin; truly it is bitter, going deep into your heart.
- 19 My soul, my soul! I am pained to my inmost heart; my heart is troubled in me; I am not able to be quiet, because the sound of the horn, the note of war, has come to my ears.
- 20 News is given of destruction on destruction; all the land is made waste: suddenly my tents, straight away my curtains, are made waste.
- 21 How long will I go on seeing the flag and hearing the sound of the war-horn?
- 22 For my people are foolish, they have no knowledge of me; they are evil-minded children, without sense, all of them: they are wise in evil-doing, but have no knowledge of doing good.
- 23 Looking at the earth, I saw that it was waste and without form; and to the heavens, that they had no light.
- 24 Looking at the mountains, I saw them shaking, and all the hills were moved about.
- 25 Looking, I saw that there was no man, and all the birds of heaven had gone in flight.
- 26 Looking, I saw that the fertile field was a waste, and all its towns were broken down before the Lord and before his burning wrath.
- 27 For this is what the Lord has said: All the land will become a waste; I will make destruction complete.
- 28 The earth will be weeping for this, and the heavens on high will be black: because I have said it, and I will not go back from it; it is my purpose, and it will not be changed.
- 29 All the land is in flight because of the noise of the horsemen and the bowmen; they have taken cover in the woodland and up on the rocks: every town has been given up, not a man is living in them.
- 30 And you, when you are made waste, what will you do? Though you are clothed in red, though you make yourself beautiful with ornaments of gold, though you make your eyes wide with paint, it is for nothing that you make yourself fair; your lovers have no more.
- 31 A voice has come to my ears like the voice of a woman in birth-pains, the pain of one giving birth to her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, fighting for breath, stretching out her hands, saying, Now sorrow is mine! for my strength is gone from me.
- 1 Go quickly through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and get knowledge, and make a search in her wide places if there is a man, if there is one in her who is upright, who keeps faith; and she will have my forgiveness.
- 2 And though they say, By the living Lord; truly their oaths are false.

- 3 O Lord, do not your eyes see good faith? you have given them punishment, but they were not troubled; you have sent destruction on them, but they did not take your teaching to heart: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they would not come back.
- 4 Then I said, But these are the poor: they are foolish, for they have no knowledge of the way of the Lord or of the behaviour desired by their God.
- 5 I will go to the great men and have talk with them; for they have knowledge of the way of the Lord and of the behaviour desired by their God. But as for these, their one purpose is a broken yoke and burst bands.
- 6 And so a lion from the woods will put them to death, a wolf of the waste land will make them waste, a leopard will keep watch on their towns, and everyone who goes out from them will be food for the beasts; because of the great number of their sins and th
- 7 How is it possible for you to have my forgiveness for this? your children have given me up, taking their oaths by those who are no gods: when I had given them food in full measure, they were false to their wives, taking their pleasure in the houses of loo
- 8 They were full of desire, like horses after a meal of grain: everyone went after his neighbour's wife.
- 9 Am I not to give punishment for these things? says the Lord: will not my soul take payment from such a nation as this?
- 10 Go up against her vines and make waste; let the destruction be complete: take away her branches, for they are not the Lord's.
- 11 For the people of Israel and the people of Judah have been very false to me, says the Lord.
- 12 They would have nothing to do with the Lord, saying, He will do nothing, and no evil will come to us; we will not see the sword or be short of food:
- 13 And the prophets will become wind, and the word is not in them; so it will be done to them.
- 14 For this reason the Lord, the God of armies, has said: Because you have said this, I will make my words in your mouth a fire, and this people wood, and they will be burned up by it.
- 15 See, I will send you a nation from far away, O people of Israel, says the Lord; a strong nation and an old nation, a nation whose language is strange to you, so that you may not get the sense of their words.
- 16 Their arrows give certain death, they are all men of war.
- 17 They will take all the produce of your fields, which would have been food for your sons and your daughters: they will take your flocks and your herds: they will take all your vines and your fig-trees: and with the sword they will make waste your walled to
- 18 But even in those days, says the Lord, I will not let your destruction be complete.
- 19 And it will come about, when you say, Why has the Lord our God done all these things to us? that you will say to them, As you gave me up, making yourselves servants to strange gods in your land, so will you be servants to strange men in a land which is no
- 20 Say this openly in Jacob and give it out in Judah, saying,
- 21 Give ear now to this, O foolish people without sense; who have eyes but see nothing, and ears without the power of hearing:
- 22 Have you no fear of me? says the Lord; will you not be shaking with fear before me, who have put the sand as a limit for the sea, by an eternal order, so that it may not go past it? and though it is ever in motion, it is not able to have its way; though t
- 23 But the heart of this people is uncontrolled and turned away from me; they are broken loose and gone.
- 24 And they do not say in their hearts, Now let us give worship to our God, who gives the rain, the winter and the spring rain, at the right time; who keeps for us the ordered weeks of the grain-cutting.
- 25 Through your evil-doing these things have been turned away, and your sins have kept back good from you.
- 26 For there are sinners among my people: they keep watch, like men watching for birds; they put a net and take men in it.
- 27 As the fowl-house is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: for this reason they have become great and have got wealth.
- 28 They have become fat and strong: they have gone far in works of evil: they give no support to the cause of the child without a father, so that they may do well; they do not see that the poor man gets his rights.
- 29 Am I not to give punishment for these things? says the Lord: will not my soul take payment from such a nation as this?
- 30 A thing of wonder and fear has come about in the land;

- 31 The prophets give false words and the priests give decisions by their direction; and my people are glad to have it so: and what will you do in the end?
- 1 Go in flight out of Jerusalem, so that you may be safe, you children of Benjamin, and let the horn be sounded in Tekoa, and the flag be lifted up on Beth-haccherem: for evil is looking out from the north, and a great destruction.
- 2 The fair and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, will be cut off by my hand.
- 3 Keepers of sheep with their flocks will come to her; they will put up their tents round her; everyone will get food in his place.
- 4 Make war ready against her; up! let us go up when the sun is high. Sorrow is ours! for the day is turned and the shades of evening are stretched out.
- 5 Up! let us go up by night, and send destruction on her great houses.
- 6 For this is what the Lord of armies has said: Let trees be cut down and an earthwork be placed against Jerusalem: sorrow on the false town! inside her there is nothing but cruel ways.
- 7 As the spring keeps its waters cold, so she keeps her evil in her: the sound of cruel and violent behaviour is in her; before me at all times are disease and wounds.
- 8 Undergo teaching, O Jerusalem, or my soul will be turned away from you, and I will make you a waste, an unpeopled land.
- 9 This is what the Lord of armies has said: Everything will be taken from the rest of Israel as the last grapes are taken from the vine; let your hand be turned to the small branches, like one pulling off grapes.
- 10 To whom am I to give word, witnessing so that they may take note? see, their ears are stopped, and they are not able to give attention: see, the word of the Lord has been a cause of shame to them, they have no delight in it.
- 11 For this reason I am full of the wrath of the Lord, I am tired of keeping it in: may it be let loose on the children in the street, and on the band of the young men together: for even the husband with his wife will be taken, the old man with him who is fu
- 12 And their houses will be handed over to others, their fields and their wives together: for my hand will be stretched out against the people of the land, says the Lord.
- 13 For from the least of them even to the greatest, everyone is given up to getting money; from the prophet even to the priest, everyone is working deceit.
- 14 And they have made little of the wounds of my people, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.
- 15 Let them be put to shame because they have done disgusting things. They had no shame, they were not able to become red with shame: so they will come down with those who are falling: when my punishment comes on them, they will be made low, says the Lord.
- 16 This is what the Lord has said: Take your place looking out on the ways; make search for the old roads, saying, Where is the good way? and go in it that you may have rest for your souls. But they said, We will not go in it.
- 17 And I put watchmen over you, saying, Give attention to the sound of the horn; but they said, We will not give attention.
- 18 So then, give ear, you nations, and ...
- 19 Give ear, O earth: see, I will make evil come on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not given attention to my words, and they would have nothing to do with my law.
- 20 To what purpose does sweet perfume come to me from Sheba, and spices from a far country? your burned offerings give me no pleasure, your offerings of beasts are not pleasing to me.
- 21 For this reason the Lord has said, See, I will put stones in the way of this people: and the fathers and the sons together will go falling over them; the neighbour and his friend will come to destruction.
- 22 The Lord has said, See, a people is coming from the north country, a great nation will be put in motion from the inmost parts of the earth.
- 23 Bows and spears are in their hands; they are cruel and have no mercy; their voice is like the thunder of the sea, and they go on horses; everyone in his place like men going to the fight, against you, O daughter of Zion.
- 24 The news of it has come to our ears; our hands have become feeble: trouble has come on us and pain, like the pain of a woman in childbirth.
- 25 Go not out into the field or by the way; for there is the sword of the attacker, and fear on every side.
- 26 O daughter of my people, put on haircloth, rolling yourself in the dust: give yourself to sorrow, as for an only son, with most bitter cries of grief; for he who makes waste will come on us suddenly.
- 27 I have made you a tester among my people, so that you may have knowledge of their way and put it to the test.

- 28 All of them are turned away, going about with false stories; they are brass and iron: they are all workers of deceit.
- 29 The blower is blowing strongly, the lead is burned away in the fire: they go on heating the metal to no purpose, for the evil-doers are not taken away.
- 30 They will be named waste silver, because the Lord has given them up.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
- 2 Take your place in the doorway of the Lord's house, and give out this word there, and say, Give ear to the word of the Lord, all you of Judah who come inside these doors to give worship to the Lord.
- 3 The Lord of armies, the God of Israel, says, Let your ways and your doings be changed for the better and I will let you go on living in this place.
- 4 Put no faith in false words, saying, The Temple of the Lord, the Temple of the Lord, the Temple of the Lord, are these.
- 5 For if your ways and your doings are truly changed for the better; if you truly give right decisions between a man and his neighbour;
- 6 If you are not cruel to the man from a strange country, and to the child without a father, and to the widow, and do not put the upright to death in this place, or go after other gods, causing damage to yourselves:
- 7 Then I will let you go on living in this place, in the land which I gave to your fathers in the past and for ever.
- 8 See, you put your faith in false words which are of no profit.
- 9 Will you take the goods of others, put men to death, and be untrue to your wives, and take false oaths, and have perfumes burned to the Baal, and go after other gods which are strange to you;
- 10 And come and take your place before me in this house, which is named by my name, and say, We have been made safe; so that you may do all these disgusting things?
- 11 Has this house, which is named by my name, become a hole of thieves to you? Truly I, even I, have seen it, says the Lord.
- 12 But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I put my name at first, and see what I did to it because of the evil-doing of my people Israel.
- 13 And now, because you have done all these works, says the Lord, and I sent my word to you, getting up early and sending, but you did not give ear; and my voice came to you, but you gave no answer:
- 14 For this reason I will do to the house which is named by my name, and in which you have put your faith, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.
- 15 And I will send you away from before my face, as I have sent away all your brothers, even all the seed of Ephraim.
- 16 And as for you (Jeremiah), make no prayers for this people, send up no cry or prayer for them, make no request for them to me: for I will not give ear.
- 17 Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
- 18 The children go for wood, the fathers get the fire burning, the women are working the paste to make cakes for the queen of heaven, and drink offerings are drained out to other gods, moving me to wrath.
- 19 Are they moving me to wrath? says the Lord; are they not moving themselves to their shame?
- 20 So this is what the Lord God has said: See, my wrath and my passion will be let loose on this place, on man and beast, and on the trees of the field, and on the produce of the earth; it will be burning and will not be put out.
- 21 These are the words of the Lord of armies, the God of Israel: Put your burned offerings with your offerings of beasts, and take flesh for your food.
- 22 For I said nothing to your fathers, and gave them no orders, on the day when I took them out of Egypt, about burned offerings or offerings of beasts:
- 23 But this was the order I gave them, saying, Give ear to my voice, and I will be your God, and you will be my people: go in all the way ordered by me, so that all may be well for you.
- 24 But they took no note and did not give ear, but were guided by the thoughts and the pride of their evil hearts, going back and not forward.
- 25 From the day when your fathers came out of Egypt till this day, I have sent my servants the prophets to you, getting up early every day and sending them:
- 26 But still they took no note and would not give ear, but they made their necks stiff, doing worse than their fathers.
- 27 And you are to say all these words to them, but they will not give ear to you: you will send out your voice to them, but they will give no answer.

- 28 And you are to say to them, This is the nation which has not given ear to the voice of their God, or taken his teaching to heart: good faith is dead and is cut off from their mouths.
- 29 Let your hair be cut off, O Jerusalem, and let it go, and let a song of grief go up on the open hilltops; for the Lord is turned away from the generation of his wrath and has given them up.
- 30 For the children of Judah have done what is evil in my eyes, says the Lord: they have put their disgusting images in the house which is named by my name, making it unclean.
- 31 And they have put up the high place of Topheth in the valley of the son of Hinnom, burning their sons and their daughters there in the fire; a thing which was not ordered by me and never came into my mind.
- 32 For this cause, the days are coming, says the Lord, when it will no longer be named Topheth, or, The valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of Death: for they will put the dead into the earth in Topheth till there is no more room.
- 33 And the bodies of this people will be food for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth; and there will be no one to send them away.
- 34 And in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, I will put an end to the laughing voices, the voice of joy and the voice of the newly-married man and the voice of the bride: for the land will become a waste.
- 1 At that time, says the Lord, they will take the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his rulers, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem out of their resting-places:
- 2 And they will put them out before the sun and the moon and all the stars of heaven, whose lovers and servants they have been, after whom they have gone, to whom they have made prayers, and to whom they have given worship: they will not be put together or
- 3 And death will be desired more than life by the rest of this evil family who are still living in all the places where I have sent them away, says the Lord of armies.
- 4 Further, you are to say to them, This is what the Lord has said: Will those who are falling not be lifted up again? will he who has gone away not come back?
- 5 Why do these people of Jerusalem go back, for ever turning away? they will not give up their deceit, they will not come back.
- 6 I took note and gave ear, but no one said what is right: no man had regret for his evil-doing, saying, What have I done? everyone goes off on his way like a horse rushing to the fight.
- 7 Truly, the stork in the heavens is conscious of her fixed times; the dove and the swallow and the crane keep to the times of their coming; but my people have no knowledge of the law of the Lord.
- 8 How is it that you say, We are wise and the law of the Lord is with us? But see, the false pen of the scribes has made it false.
- 9 The wise men are shamed, they are overcome with fear and taken: see, they have given up the word of the Lord; and what use is their wisdom to them?
- 10 So I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who will take them for themselves: for everyone, from the least to the greatest, is given up to getting money; from the priest even to the prophet, everyone is false.
- 11 And they have made little of the wounds of the daughter of Zion, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.
- 12 Let them be put to shame because they have done disgusting things. They had no shame, they were not able to become red with shame: so they will come down with those who are falling: in the time of their punishment they will be made low, says the Lord.
- 13 I will put an end to them completely, says the Lord: there are no grapes on the vine and no figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf is dry.
- 14 Why are we seated doing nothing? come together, and let us go to the walled towns, and let destruction overtake us there, for the Lord our God has sent destruction on us, and given us bitter water for our drink, because we have done evil against the Lord.
- 15 We were looking for peace, but no good came; and for a time of well-being, but there is only a great fear.
- 16 The loud breathing of the horses comes to our ears from Dan: at the sound of the outcry of his war-horses, all the land is shaking with fear; for they have come, and have made a meal of the land and everything in it; the town and the people living in it.
- 17 See, I will send snakes and poison-snakes among you, against which the wonder-worker has no power; and they will give you wounds which may not be made well, says the Lord.
- 18 Sorrow has come on me! my heart in me is feeble.

- 19 The voice of the cry of the daughter of my people comes from a far land: Is the Lord not in Zion? is not her King in her? Why have they made me angry with their images and their strange gods which are no gods?
- 20 The grain-cutting is past, the summer is ended, and no salvation has come to us.
- 21 For the destruction of the daughter of my people I am broken: I am dressed in the clothing of grief; fear has taken me in its grip.
- 22 Is there no life-giving oil in Gilead? is there no expert in medical arts? why then have my people not been made well?
- 1 If only my head was a stream of waters and my eyes fountains of weeping, so that I might go on weeping day and night for the dead of the daughter of my people!
- 2 If only I had in the waste land a night's resting-place for travellers, so that I might go away, far from my people! for they are all untrue, a band of false men.
- 3 Their tongues are bent like a bow to send out false words: they have become strong in the land, but not for good faith: they go on from evil to evil, and they have no knowledge of me, says the Lord.
- 4 Let everyone keep watch on his neighbour, and put no faith in any brother: for every brother will certainly be tricking his brother, and every neighbour will go about saying evil.
- 5 Everyone will make sport of his neighbour with deceit, not saying what is true: their tongues have been trained to say false words; they are twisted, hating to come back.
- 6 There is wrong on wrong, deceit on deceit; they have given up the knowledge of me, says the Lord.
- 7 So the Lord of armies has said, See, I will make them soft in the fire and put them to the test; this I will do because of their evil-doing.
- 8 His tongue is an arrow causing death; the words of his mouth are deceit: he says words of peace to his neighbour, but in his heart he is waiting secretly for him.
- 9 Am I not to send punishment for these things? says the Lord: will not my soul take payment from such a nation as this?
- 10 Give yourselves to weeping, crying out in sorrow for the mountains; and for the fields of the waste land send up a song of grief, because they are burned up, so that no one goes through; there is no sound of cattle; the bird of the heavens and the beast a
- 11 And I will make Jerusalem a mass of broken stones, the living-place of jackals; and I will make the towns of Judah a waste, with no man living there.
- 12 Who is the wise man able to see this? who is he to whom the word of the Lord has come, so that he may make it clear? why is the land given to destruction and burned up like a waste place, so that no one goes through?
- 13 And the Lord said, Because they have given up my law which I put before them, giving no attention to my voice and not being guided by it;
- 14 But they have been walking in the pride of their hearts, going after the Baals, as their fathers gave them teaching.
- 15 So the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, I will give them, even this people, bitter plants for food and bitter water for drink.
- 16 And I will send them wandering among the nations, among people strange to them and to their fathers: and I will send the sword after them till I have put an end to them.
- 17 This is what the Lord of armies has said: Take thought and send for the weeping women, so that they may come; and send for the wise women, so that they may come:
- 18 Let them quickly make cries of sorrow for us, so that drops may be flowing from our eyes till they are streaming with water.
- 19 For a sound of weeping goes up from Zion, a cry, How has destruction come on us? we are overcome with shame because we have gone away from our land; he has sent us out from our house.
- 20 But even now, give ear to the word of the Lord, O you women; let your ears be open to the word of his mouth, training your daughters to give cries of sorrow, everyone teaching her neighbour a song of grief.
- 21 For death has come up into our windows, forcing its way into our great houses; cutting off the children in the streets and the young men in the wide places.
- 22 The bodies of men will be falling like waste on the open fields, and like grain dropped by the grain-cutter, and no one will take them up.
- 23 This is the word of the Lord: Let not the wise man take pride in his wisdom, or the strong man in his strength, or the man of wealth in his wealth:

- 24 But if any man has pride, let it be in this, that he has the wisdom to have knowledge of me, that I am the Lord, working mercy, giving true decisions, and doing righteousness in the earth: for in these things I have delight, says the Lord.
- 25 See, the day is coming, says the Lord, when I will send punishment on all those who have circumcision in the flesh;
- 26 On Egypt and on Judah and on Edom and on the children of Ammon and on Moab and on all who have the ends of their hair cut, who are living in the waste land: for all these nations and all the people of Israel are without circumcision in their hearts.
- 1 Give ear to the word which the Lord says to you, O people of Israel:
- 2 This is what the Lord has said: Do not go in the way of the nations; have no fear of the signs of heaven, for the nations go in fear of them.
- 3 For that which is feared by the people is foolish: it is the work of the hands of the workman; for a tree is cut down by him out of the woods with his axe.
- 4 They make it beautiful with silver and gold; they make it strong with nails and hammers, so that it may not be moved.
- 5 It is like a pillar in a garden of plants, and has no voice: it has to be lifted, for it has no power of walking. Have no fear of it; for it has no power of doing evil and it is not able to do any good.
- 6 There is no one like you, O Lord; you are great and your name is great in power.
- 7 Who would not have fear of you, O King of the nations? for it is your right: for among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is no one like you.
- 8 But they are together like beasts and foolish: the teaching of false gods is wood.
- 9 Silver hammered into plates is sent from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the expert workman and of the hands of the gold-worker; blue and purple is their clothing, all the work of expert men.
- 10 But the Lord is the true God; he is the living God and an eternal king: when he is angry, the earth is shaking with fear, and the nations give way before his wrath.
- 11 This is what you are to say to them: The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth will be cut off from the earth and from under the heavens.
- 12 He has made the earth by his power, he has made the world strong in its place by his wisdom, and by his wise design the heavens have been stretched out.
- 13 At the sound of his voice there is a massing of waters in the heavens, and he makes the mists go up from the ends of the earth; he makes the thunder-flames for the rain, and sends out the wind from his store-houses.
- 14 Then every man becomes like a beast without knowledge; every gold-worker is put to shame by the image he has made: for his metal image is deceit, and there is no breath in them.
- 15 They are nothing, a work of error: in the time of their punishment, destruction will overtake them.
- 16 The heritage of Jacob is not like these; for the maker of all things is his heritage: the Lord of armies is his name.
- 17 Get your goods together and go out of the land, O you who are shut up in the walled town.
- 18 For the Lord has said, I will send the people in flight like a stone from the land at this time, troubling them so that they will be conscious of it.
- 19 Sorrow is mine for I am wounded! my wound may not be made well; and I said, Cruel is my disease, I may not be free from it.
- 20 My tent is pulled down and all my cords are broken: my children have gone from me, and they are not: no longer is there anyone to give help in stretching out my tent and hanging up my curtains.
- 21 For the keepers of the sheep have become like beasts, not looking to the Lord for directions: so they have not done wisely and all their flocks have been put to flight.
- 22 News is going about, see, it is coming, a great shaking is coming from the north country, so that the towns of Judah may be made waste and become the living-place of jackals.
- 23 O Lord, I am conscious that a man's way is not in himself: man has no power of guiding his steps.
- 24 O Lord, put me right, but with wise purpose; not in your wrath, or you will make me small.
- 25 Let your wrath be let loose on the nations which have no knowledge of you, and on the families who give no worship to your name: for they have made a meal of Jacob, truly they have made a meal of him and put an end to him and made his fields a waste.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
- 2 Give ear to the words of this agreement, and say to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem,

- 3 The Lord, the God of Israel, has said, Let that man be cursed who does not give ear to the words of this agreement,
- 4 To the order which I gave your fathers on the day when I took them out of the land of Egypt, out of the oven of iron, saying, Give ear to my voice, and do all the orders I have given you: so you will be my people, and I will be your God:
- 5 So that I may give effect to the oath which I made to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey as at this day. And I said in answer, So be it, O Lord.
- 6 And the Lord said to me, Give out these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Give ear to the words of this agreement and do them.
- 7 For I gave certain witness to your fathers on the day when I took them up out of the land of Egypt, and even to this day, getting up early and witnessing and saying, Give ear to my voice.
- 8 But they gave no attention and did not give ear, but they went on, every man in the pride of his evil heart: so I sent on them all the curses in this agreement, which I gave them orders to keep, but they did not.
- 9 And the Lord said to me, There is an evil design at work among the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem.
- 10 They are turned back to the sins of their fathers, who would not give ear to my words; they have gone after other gods and become their servants: the people of Israel and the people of Judah have not kept the agreement which I made with their fathers.
- 11 So the Lord has said, I will send evil on them, which they will not be able to get away from; and they will send up a cry for help to me, but I will not give ear to them.
- 12 Then the towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go crying for help to the gods to whom they have been burning perfumes: but they will give them no salvation in the time of their trouble.
- 13 For the number of your gods is as the number of your towns, O Judah; and for every street in Jerusalem you have put up altars to the Baal for burning perfumes to the Baal.
- 14 And as for you, make no prayers for this people, send up no cry or prayer for them: for I will not give ear to their cry in the time of their trouble.
- 15 About Judah. What have you to do in my house? is it your thought that oaths and holy flesh will get you out of your trouble? will you make yourself safe in this way?
- 16 You had been named by the Lord, A branching olive-tree, fair with beautiful fruit: with the noise of a great rushing he has put it on fire and its branches are broken.
- 17 For the Lord of armies, by whom you were planted, has given his decision for evil against you, because of the evil which the people of Israel and the people of Judah have done, In moving me to wrath by offering perfumes to the Baal.
- 18 And the Lord gave me knowledge of it and I saw it: then you made clear to me their doings.
- 19 But I was like a gentle lamb taken to be put to death; I had no thought that they were designing evil against me, saying, Come and let us make trouble his food, cutting him off from the land of the living, so that there may be no more memory of his name.
- 20 But, O Lord of armies, judging in righteousness, testing the thoughts and the heart, let me see your punishment come on them: for I have put my cause before you.
- 21 So this is what the Lord of armies has said about the men of Anathoth who have made designs against your life, saying, You are not to be a prophet in the name of the Lord, or death will overtake you by our hands:
- 22 So the Lord of armies has said, See, I will send punishment on them: the young men will be put to the sword; their sons and their daughters will come to death through need of food:
- 23 Not one of them will keep his life, for I will send evil on the men of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.
- 1 You are in the right, O Lord, when I put my cause before you: still let me take up with you the question of your decisions: why does the evil-doer do well? why are the workers of deceit living in comfort?
- 2 They have been planted by you, they have taken root; they go on and give fruit: you are near in their mouths but far from their thoughts.
- 3 But you, O Lord, have knowledge of me; you see me, searching and testing how my heart is with you: let them be pulled out like sheep to be put to death, make them ready for the day of death.
- 4 How long will the land have grief, and the plants of all the land be dry? because of the sins of the people living in it, destruction has overtaken the beasts and the birds; because they said, God does not see our ways.
- 5 If running with the fighting-men has made you tired, how will you be able to keep up with horses? and if in a land of peace you go in flight, what will become of you in the thick growth of Jordan?

- 6 For even your brothers, your father's family, even they have been untrue to you, crying loudly after you: have no faith in them, though they say fair words to you.
- 7 I have given up my house, I have let my heritage go; I have given the loved one of my soul into the hands of her haters.
- 8 My heritage has become like a lion in the woodland to me; her voice has been loud against me; so I have hate for her.
- 9 My heritage is like a brightly coloured bird to me; the cruel birds are attacking her on every side: go, get together all the beasts of the field, make them come for destruction.
- 10 The keepers of sheep have been the destruction of my vine-garden, crushing my heritage under their feet; they have made my fair heritage an unplanted waste;
- 11 They have made it waste; it is weeping to me, being wasted; all the land is made waste, because no man takes it to heart.
- 12 Those who make waste have come on all the open hilltops in the waste land; for the sword of the Lord sends destruction from one end of the land to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace.
- 13 Though good grain was planted, they have got in thorns: they have given themselves pain without profit: they will be shamed on account of their produce, because of the burning wrath of the Lord.
- 14 This is what the Lord has said against all my evil neighbours, who put their hands on the heritage which I gave my people Israel: See, I will have them uprooted from their land, uprooting the people of Judah from among them.
- 15 And it will come about that, after they have been uprooted, I will again have pity on them; and I will take them back, every man to his heritage and every man to his land.
- 16 And it will be that, if they give their minds to learning the ways of my people, using my name in their oaths, By the living Lord; as they have been teaching my people to take oaths by the Baal; then their place will be made certain among my people.
- 17 But if they will not give ear, then I will have that nation uprooted, and given to destruction, says the Lord.
- 1 This is what the Lord said to me: Go and get yourself a linen band and put it round you and do not put it in water.
- 2 So, as the Lord said, I got a band for a price and put it round my body.
- 3 And the word of the Lord came to me a second time, saying,
- 4 Take the band which you got for a price, which is round your body, and go to Parah and put it in a secret place there in a hole of the rock.
- 5 So I went and put it in a secret place by Parah, as the Lord had said to me.
- 6 Then after a long time, the Lord said to me, Up! go to Parah and get the band which I gave you orders to put there.
- 7 So I went to Parah and, uncovering the hole, took the band from the place where I had put it away: and the band was damaged and of no use for anything.
- 8 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 9 The Lord has said, In this way I will do damage to the pride of Judah and to the great pride of Jerusalem.
- 10 These evil people who say they will not give ear to my words, who go on in the pride of their hearts and have become servants and worshippers of other gods, will become like this band which is of no use for anything.
- 11 For as a band goes tightly round a man's body, so I made all the people of Israel and all the people of Judah tightly united to me; so that they might be a people for me and a name and a praise and a glory: but they would not give ear.
- 12 So you are to say this word to them: This is the word of the Lord, the God of Israel: Every skin bottle will be full of wine; and they will say to you, Is it not quite clear to us that every skin bottle will be full of wine?
- 13 Then you are to say to them, The Lord has said, I will make all the people of this land, even the kings seated on David's seat, and the priests and the prophets and all the people of Jerusalem, overcome with strong drink.
- 14 I will have them smashed against one another, fathers and sons together, says the Lord: I will have no pity or mercy, I will have no feeling for them to keep me from giving them to destruction.
- 15 Give ear and let your ears be open; be not lifted up: for these are the words of the Lord.
- 16 Give glory to the Lord your God, before he makes it dark, and before your feet are slipping on the dark mountains, and, while you are looking for a light, he makes it into deep dark, into black night.
- 17 But if you do not give ear to it, my soul will be weeping in secret for your pride; my eye will be weeping bitterly, streaming with water, because the Lord's flock has been taken away as prisoners.
- 18 Say to the king and to the queen-mother, Make yourselves low, be seated on the earth: for the crown of your glory has come down from your heads.

- 19 The towns of the south are shut up, and there is no one to make them open: Judah is taken away as prisoners; all Judah is taken away as prisoners.
- 20 Let your eyes be lifted up (O Jerusalem), and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the flock which was given to you, your beautiful flock?
- 21 What will you say when he puts over you those whom you yourself have made your friends? will not pains take you like a woman in childbirth?
- 22 And if you say in your heart, Why have these things come on me? because of the number of your sins, your skirts have been uncovered and violent punishment overtakes you.
- 23 Is it possible for the skin of the Ethiopian to be changed, or the markings on the leopard? Then it might be possible for you to do good, who have been trained to do evil.
- 24 So I will send them in all directions, as dry grass is taken away by the wind of the waste land.
- 25 This is your fate, the part measured out to you by me, says the Lord, because you have put me out of your memory and put your faith in what is false.
- 26 So I will have your skirts uncovered before your face, in order that your shame may be seen.
- 27 I have seen your disgusting acts, even your false behaviour and your cries of desire and your loose ways on the hills in the field. Unhappy are you, O Jerusalem, you have no desire to be made clean; how long will you be in turning back to me?
- 1 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah when there was no water.
- 2 Judah is weeping and its doors are dark with sorrow, and people are seated on the earth clothed in black; and the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.
- 3 Their great men have sent their servants for water: they come to the holes and there is no water to be seen; they come back with nothing in their vessels; they are overcome with shame and fear, covering their heads.
- 4 Those who do work on the land are in fear, for there has been no rain on the land, and the farmers are shamed, covering their heads.
- 5 And the roe, giving birth in the field, lets her young one be uncared for, because there is no grass.
- 6 And the asses of the field on the open hilltops are opening their mouths wide like jackals to get air; their eyes are hollow because there is no grass.
- 7 Though our sins give witness against us, do something, O Lord, for the honour of your name: for again and again we have been turned away from you, we have done evil against you.
- 8 O you hope of Israel, its saviour in time of trouble, why are you like one who is strange in the land, and like a traveller putting up his tent for a night?
- 9 Why are you like a man surprised, like a man of war who is not able to give help? but you, O Lord, are with us, and we are named by your name; do not go away from us.
- 10 This is what the Lord has said about this people: Even so they have been glad to go from the right way; they have not kept their feet from wandering, so the Lord has no pleasure in them; now he will keep their wrongdoing in mind and send punishment for them.
- 11 And the Lord said to me, Make no prayer for this people for their good.
- 12 When they go without food, I will not give ear to their cry; when they give burned offerings and meal offerings, I will not take pleasure in them: but I will put an end to them by the sword and by need of food and by disease.
- 13 Then I said, Ah, Lord God! see, the prophets say to them, You will not see the sword or be short of food; but I will give you certain peace in this place.
- 14 Then the Lord said to me, The prophets say false words in my name, and I gave them no orders, and I said nothing to them: what they say to you is a false vision and wonder-working words without substance, the deceit of their hearts.
- 15 So this is what the Lord has said about the prophets who make use of my name, though I sent them not, and say, The sword and need of food will not be in this land: the sword and need of food will put an end to those prophets.
- 16 And the people to whom they are prophets will be pushed out dead into the streets of Jerusalem, because there is no food, and because of the sword; and they will have no one to put their bodies into the earth, them or their wives or their sons or their daughters.
- 17 And you are to say this word to them, Let my eyes be streaming with water night and day, and let it not be stopped; for the virgin daughter of my people is wounded with a great wound, with a very bitter blow.

- 18 If I go out into the open country, there are those put to death by the sword! and if I go into the town, there are those who are diseased from need of food! for the prophet and the priest go about in the land and have no knowledge.
- 19 Have you completely given up Judah? is your soul turned in disgust from Zion? why have you given us blows from which there is no one to make us well? we were looking for peace, but no good came; and for a time of well-being, but there was only a great fear
- 20 We are conscious, O Lord, of our sin and of the wrongdoing of our fathers: we have done evil against you.
- 21 Do not be turned from us in disgust, because of your name; do not put shame on the seat of your glory: keep us in mind, let not your agreement with us be broken.
- 22 Are any of the false gods of the nations able to make rain come? are the heavens able to give showers? are you not he, O Lord our God? so we will go on waiting for you, for you have done all these things.
- 1 Then the Lord said to me, Even if Moses and Samuel came before me, I would have no desire for this people: send them away from before me, and let them go.
- 2 And it will be, when they say to you, Where are we to go? then you are to say to them, The Lord has said, Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are to be in need of food, to need of food; and such as are
- 3 And I will put over them four divisions, says the Lord: the sword causing death, dogs pulling the dead bodies about, and the birds of heaven, and the beasts of the earth to take their bodies for food and put an end to them.
- 4 And I will make them a cause of fear to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, and what he did in Jerusalem.
- 5 For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem? and who will have sorrow for you? or who will go out of his way to see how you are?
- 6 You have given me up, says the Lord, you have gone back: so my hand is stretched out against you for your destruction; I am tired of changing my purpose.
- 7 And I have sent a cleaning wind on them in the public places of the land; I have taken their children from them; I have given my people to destruction; they have not been turned from their ways.
- 8 I have let their widows be increased in number more than the sand of the seas: I have sent against them, against the mother and the young men, one who makes waste in the heat of the day, causing pain and fears to come on her suddenly.
- 9 The mother of seven is without strength; her spirit is gone from her, her sun has gone down while it is still day: she has been shamed and overcome: and the rest of them I will give up to the sword before their haters, says the Lord.
- 10 Sorrow is mine, my mother, because you have given birth to me, a cause of fighting and argument in all the earth! I have not made men my creditors and I am not in debt to any, but every one of them is cursing me.
- 11 ...
- 12 Is it possible for iron to be broken; even iron from the north, and brass?
- 13 I will give your wealth and your stores to your attackers, without a price, because of all your sins, even in every part of your land.
- 14 They will go away with your haters into a land which is strange to you: for my wrath is on fire with a flame which will be burning on you.
- 15 O Lord, you have knowledge: keep me in mind and come to my help, and give their right reward to those who are attacking me; take me not away, for you are slow to be angry: see how I have undergone shame because of you from all those who make little of you
- 16 But to me your word is a joy, making my heart glad; for I am named by your name, O Lord God of armies.
- 17 I did not take my seat among the band of those who are glad, and I had no joy; I kept by myself because of your hand; for you have made me full of wrath.
- 18 Why is my pain unending and my wound without hope of being made well? Sorrow is mine, for you are to me as a stream offering false hope and as waters which are not certain.
- 19 For this cause the Lord has said, If you will come back, then I will again let you take your place before me; and if you give out what is of value and not that which has no value, you will be as my mouth: let them come back to you, but do not go back to t
- 20 And I will make you a strong wall of brass to this people; they will be fighting against you, but they will not overcome you: for I am with you to keep you safe, says the Lord.
- 21 I will keep you safe from the hands of the evil-doers, and I will give you salvation from the hands of the cruel ones.

- 1 Then again the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
 - 2 You are not to take a wife for yourself or have sons or daughters in this place.
 - 3 For this is what the Lord has said about the sons and daughters who come to birth in this place, and about their mothers who have given them birth, and about their fathers who have given life to them in this land:
 - 4 Death from evil diseases will overtake them; there will be no weeping for them and their bodies will not be put to rest; they will be like waste on the face of the earth: the sword and need of food will put an end to them; their dead bodies will be meat f
 - 5 For this is what the Lord has said: Do not go into the house of sorrow, do not go to make weeping or songs of grief for them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, says the Lord, even mercy and pity.
 - 6 Death will overtake great as well as small in the land: their bodies will not be put in a resting-place, and no one will be weeping for them or wounding themselves or cutting off their hair for them:
 - 7 No one will make a feast for them in sorrow, to give them comfort for the dead, or put to their lips the cup of comfort on account of their father or their mother.
 - 8 And you are not to go into the house of feasting, or be seated with them to take food or drink.
 - 9 For the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, See, before your eyes and in your days I will put an end in this place to the laughing voices and the voice of joy; to the voice of the newly-married man and the voice of the bride.
 - 10 And it will be, that when you say all these words to the people, then they will say to you, Why has the Lord done all this evil against us? what is our wrongdoing and what is our sin which we have done against the Lord our God?
 - 11 Then you will say to them, Because your fathers have given me up, says the Lord, and have gone after other gods and become their servants and their worshippers, and have given me up and have not kept my law;
 - 12 And you have done worse evil than your fathers; for see, every one of you is guided by the pride of his evil heart, so as not to give ear to me:
 - 13 For this reason I will send you away out of this land into a land which is strange to you, to you and to your fathers; there you will be the servants of other gods day and night, and you will have no mercy from me.
 - 14 For this cause, see, the days are coming, says the Lord, when it will no longer be said, By the living Lord, who took the children of Israel up out of the land of Egypt.
 - 15 But, By the living Lord, who took the children of Israel up out of the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had sent them: and I will take them back again to their land which I gave to their fathers.
 - 16 See, I will send for great numbers of fishermen, says the Lord, and they will take them like fish in a net; and after that, I will send for numbers of bowmen, and they will go after them, driving them from every mountain and from every hill, and out of th
 - 17 For my eyes are on all their ways: there is no cover for them from my face, and their evil-doing is not kept secret from my eyes.
 - 18 And I will give them the reward of their evil-doing and their sin twice over; because they have made my land unclean, and have made my heritage full of the bodies of their unholy and disgusting things.
 - 19 O Lord, my strength and my strong tower, my safe place in the day of trouble, the nations will come to you from the ends of the earth, and say, The heritage of our fathers is nothing but deceit, even false things in which there is no profit.
 - 20 Will a man make for himself gods which are no gods?
 - 21 For this reason, truly, I will make them see, this once I will give them knowledge of my hand and my power; and they will be certain that my name is the Lord.
- 1 The sin of Judah is recorded with a pen of iron, and with the sharp point of a jewel it is cut on their hearts of stone, and on the horns of their altars for a sign to them:
 - 2 Their altars and their wood pillars under every branching tree, on the high hills and the mountains in the field.
 - 3 I will give your wealth and all your stores to be taken away in war without a price, because of your sins in every part of your land.
 - 4 And your hand will have to let go your heritage which I gave you; and I will make you a servant to your haters in a land which is strange to you: for you have put my wrath on fire with a flame which will go on burning for ever.
 - 5 This is what the Lord has said: Cursed is the man who puts his faith in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart is turned away from the Lord.
 - 6 For he will be like the brushwood in the upland, and will not see when good comes; but his living-place will be in the dry places in the waste land, in a salt and unpeopled land.

- 7 A blessing is on the man who puts his faith in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.
- 8 For he will be like a tree planted by the waters, pushing out its roots by the stream; he will have no fear when the heat comes, but his leaf will be green; in a dry year he will have no care, and will go on giving fruit.
- 9 The heart is a twisted thing, not to be searched out by man: who is able to have knowledge of it?
- 10 I the Lord am the searcher of the heart, the tester of the thoughts, so that I may give to every man the reward of his ways, in keeping with the fruit of his doings.
- 11 Like the partridge, getting eggs together but not producing young, is a man who gets wealth but not by right; before half his days are ended, it will go from him, and at his end he will be foolish.
- 12 A seat of glory, placed on high from the first, is our holy place.
- 13 O Lord, the hope of Israel, all who give you up will be put to shame; those who go away from you will be cut off from the earth, because they have given up the Lord, the fountain of living waters.
- 14 Make me well, O Lord, and I will be well; be my saviour, and I will be safe: for you are my hope.
- 15 See, they say to me, Where is the word of the Lord? let it come now.
- 16 As for me, I have not said; Let the day of trouble come to them quickly; and I have not been hoping for the death-giving day; you have knowledge of what came from my lips; it was open before you.
- 17 Be not a cause of fear to me: you are my safe place in the day of evil.
- 18 Let them be put to shame who are attacking me, but let me not be shamed; let them be overcome with fear, but let me not be overcome: send on them the day of evil, and put them to destruction twice over.
- 19 This is what the Lord has said to me: Go and take your place in the doorway of Benjamin, where the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the doorways of Jerusalem;
- 20 And say to them, Give ear to the word of the Lord, you kings of Judah, and all the people of Jerusalem who come in by these doors:
- 21 This is what the Lord has said: See to yourselves, that you take up no weight on the Sabbath day, or take it in through the doors of Jerusalem;
- 22 And take no weight out of your houses on the Sabbath day, or do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I gave orders to your fathers;
- 23 But they gave no attention and would not give ear, but they made their necks stiff so that they might not give ear and might not get teaching.
- 24 And it will be, that if with all care you give ear to me, says the Lord, and take no weight through the doorways of this town on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy and do no work in it;
- 25 Then through the doors of this town there will come kings and princes, seated on the seat of David, going in carriages and on horseback, they and their princes, and the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem: and this town will keep its place for ever.
- 26 And they will come from the towns of Judah, and from the places round about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowlands, and from the mountains, and from the South, with burned offerings and offerings of beasts and meal offerings and p
- 27 But if you do not give ear to me, to keep the Sabbath day holy, and to let no weight be lifted and taken through the doors of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: then I will put a fire in its doorways, burning up the great houses of Jerusalem, and it will never
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
- 2 Up! go down to the potter's house, and there I will let my words come to your ears.
- 3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and he was doing his work on the stones.
- 4 And when the vessel, which he was forming out of earth, got damaged in the hand of the potter, he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make it.
- 5 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 6 O Israel, am I not able to do with you as this potter does? says the Lord. See, like earth in the potter's hand are you in my hands, O Israel.
- 7 Whenever I say anything about uprooting a nation or a kingdom, and smashing it and sending destruction on it;
- 8 If, in that very minute, that nation of which I was talking is turned away from its evil, my purpose of doing evil to them will be changed.

- 9 And whenever I say anything about building up a nation or a kingdom, and planting it;
- 10 If, in that very minute, it does evil in my eyes, going against my orders, then my good purpose, which I said I would do for them, will be changed.
- 11 Now, then, say to the men of Judah and to the people of Jerusalem, This is what the Lord has said: See, I am forming an evil thing against you, and designing a design against you: let every man come back now from his evil way, and let your ways and your d
- 12 But they will say, There is no hope: we will go on in our designs, and every one of us will do what he is moved by the pride of his evil heart to do.
- 13 So this is what the Lord has said: Make search among the nations and see who has had word of such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very shocking thing.
- 14 Will the white snow go away from the top of Sirion? will the cold waters flowing from the mountains become dry?
- 15 For my people have put me out of their memory, burning perfumes to that which is nothing; and because of this, I will put a cause of falling in their ways, even in the old roads, and will make them go on side-roads, in a way not lifted up;
- 16 Making their land a thing of wonder, causing sounds of surprise for ever; everyone who goes by will be overcome with wonder, shaking his head.
- 17 I will send them in flight, as from an east wind, before the attacker; I will let them see my back and not my face on the day of their downfall.
- 18 Then they said, Come, let us make a design against Jeremiah; for teaching will never be cut off from the priest, or wisdom from the wise, or the word from the prophet. Come, let us make use of his words for an attack on him, and let us give attention with
- 19 Give thought to me, O Lord, and give ear to the voice of those who put forward a cause against me.
- 20 Is evil to be the reward of good? for they have made a deep hole for my soul. Keep in mind how I took my place before you, to say a good word for them so that your wrath might be turned away from them.
- 21 For this cause, let their children be without food, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives be without children and become widows; let their men be overtaken by death, and their young men be put to the sword in the fight.
- 22 Let a cry for help go up from their houses, when you send an armed band on them suddenly: for they have made a hole in which to take me, and have put nets for my feet secretly.
- 23 But you, Lord, have knowledge of all the designs which they have made against my life; let not their evil-doing be covered or their sin be washed away from before your eyes: but let it be a cause of falling before you: so do to them in the time of your wr
- 1 This is what the Lord has said: Go and get for money a potter's bottle made of earth, and take with you some of the responsible men of the people and of the priests;
- 2 And go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, by the way into the door of broken pots, and there say in a loud voice the words which I will give you;
- 3 Say, Give ear to the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem; the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, See, I will send evil on this place which will be bitter to the ears of anyone hearing of it.
- 4 Because they have given me up, and made this place a strange place, burning perfumes in it to other gods, of whom they and their fathers and the kings of Judah had no knowledge; and they have made this place full of the blood of those who have done no wro
- 5 And they have put up the high places of the Baal, burning their sons in the fire; a thing which was not ordered by me, and it was never in my mind:
- 6 For this cause, see, a time is coming, says the Lord, when this place will no longer be named Topheth, or, The valley of the son of Hinnom, but, The valley of Death.
- 7 I will make the purpose of Judah and Jerusalem come to nothing in this place; I will have them put to the sword by their haters, and by the hands of those who have designs on their life; and their dead bodies I will give to be food for the birds of heaven
- 8 And I will make this town a thing of wonder and a cause of surprise; everyone who goes by will be overcome with wonder and make sounds of surprise, because of all its troubles.
- 9 I will make them take the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters for food, they will be making a meal of one another, because of their bitter need and the cruel grip of their haters and those who have made designs against their life.

- 10 Then let the potter's bottle be broken before the eyes of the men who have gone with you,
- 11 And say to them, This is what the Lord of armies has said: Even so will this people and this town be broken by me, as a potter's bottle is broken and may not be put together again: and the bodies of the dead will be put in the earth in Topheth, till there
- 12 This is what I will do to this place, says the Lord, and to its people, making this town like Topheth:
- 13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which they have made unclean, will be like the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs perfumes have been burned to all the army of heaven, and drink offerings drained out to
- 14 Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the Lord had sent him to give the prophet's word; and he took his place in the open square of the Lord's house, and said to all the people,
- 15 The Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: See, I will send on this town and on all her towns all the evil which I have said; because they made their necks stiff, so that they might not give ear to my words.
- 1 Now it came to the ears of Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief in authority in the house of the Lord, that Jeremiah was saying these things;
- 2 And Pashhur gave blows to Jeremiah and had his feet chained in a framework of wood in the higher doorway of Benjamin, which was in the house of the Lord.
- 3 Then on the day after, Pashhur let Jeremiah loose. Then Jeremiah said to him, The Lord has given you the name of Magor-missabib (Cause-of-fear-on-every-side), not Pashhur.
- 4 For the Lord has said, See, I will make you a cause of fear to yourself and to all your friends: they will come to their death by the sword of their haters, and your eyes will see it: and I will give all Judah into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he
- 5 And more than this, I will give all the wealth of this town and all its profits and all its things of value, even all the stores of the kings of Judah will I give into the hands of their haters, who will put violent hands on them and take them away to Bab
- 6 And you, Pashhur, and all who are in your house, will go away prisoners: you will come to Babylon, and there your body will be put to rest, you and all your friends, to whom you said false words.
- 7 O Lord, you have been false to me, and I was tricked; you are stronger than I, and have overcome me: I have become a thing to be laughed at all the day, everyone makes sport of me.
- 8 For every word I say is a cry for help; I say with a loud voice, Violent behaviour and wasting: because the word of the Lord is made a shame to me and a cause of laughing all the day.
- 9 And if I say, I will not keep him in mind, I will not say another word in his name; then it is in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am tired of keeping myself in, I am not able to do it.
- 10 For numbers of them say evil secretly in my hearing (there is fear on every side): they say, Come, let us give witness against him; all my nearest friends, who are watching for my fall, say, It may be that he will be taken by deceit, and we will get the b
- 11 But the Lord is with me as a great one, greatly to be feared: so my attackers will have a fall, and they will not overcome me: they will be greatly shamed, because they have not done wisely, even with an unending shame, kept in memory for ever.
- 12 But, O Lord of armies, testing the upright and seeing the thoughts and the heart, let me see your punishment come on them; for I have put my cause before you.
- 13 Make melody to the Lord, give praise to the Lord: for he has made the soul of the poor man free from the hands of the evil-doers.
- 14 A curse on the day of my birth: let there be no blessing on the day when my mother had me.
- 15 A curse on the man who gave the news to my father, saying, You have a male child; making him very glad.
- 16 May that man be like the towns overturned by the Lord without mercy: let a cry for help come to his ears in the morning, and the sound of war in the middle of the day;
- 17 Because he did not put me to death before my birth took place: so my mother's body would have been my last resting-place, and she would have been with child for ever.
- 18 Why did I come from my mother's body to see pain and sorrow, so that my days might be wasted with shame?
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur, the son of Malchiah, and Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

- 2 Will you get directions from the Lord for us; for Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, is making war against us; it may be that the Lord will do something for us like all the wonders he has done, and make him go away from us.
- 3 Then Jeremiah said to them, This is what you are to say to Zedekiah:
- 4 The Lord God of Israel has said, See, I am turning back the instruments of war in your hands, with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans, who are outside the walls and shutting you in; and I will get them together inside th
- 5 And I myself will be fighting against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even with angry feeling and passion and in great wrath.
- 6 And I will send a great disease on the people living in this town, on man and on beast, causing their death.
- 7 And after that, says the Lord, I will give up Zedekiah, king of Judah, and his servants and his people, even those in the town who have not come to their end from the disease and the sword and from need of food, into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar, king of B
- 8 And to this people you are to say, The Lord has said, See, I put before you the way of life and the way of death.
- 9 He who keeps in this town will come to his death by the sword and through need of food and through disease; but he who goes out and gives himself up to the Chaldeans who are shutting you in, will go on living, and will keep his life safe.
- 10 For my face is turned to this town for evil and not for good, says the Lord: it will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will have it burned with fire.
- 11 About the family of the king of Judah. Give ear to the word of the Lord;
- 12 O family of David, this is what the Lord has said: Do what is right in the morning, and make free from the hands of the cruel one him whose goods have been violently taken away, or my wrath will go out like fire, burning so that no one may put it out, bec
- 13 See, I am against you, you who are living on the rock of the valley, says the Lord; you who say, Who will come down against us? or who will get into our houses?
- 14 I will send punishment on you in keeping with the fruit of your doings, says the Lord: and I will put a fire in her woodlands, burning up everything round about her.
- 1 This is what the Lord has said: Go down to the house of the king of Judah and there give him this word,
- 2 And say, Give ear to the word of the Lord, O king of Judah, seated on the seat of David, you and your servants and your people who come in by these doors.
- 3 This is what the Lord has said: Do what is right, judging uprightly, and make free from the hands of the cruel one him whose goods have been violently taken away: do no wrong and be not violent to the man from a strange country and the child without a fat
- 4 For if you truly do this, then there will come in through the doors of this house kings seated on the seat of David, going in carriages and on horseback, he and his servants and his people
- 5 But if you do not give ear to these words, I give you my oath by myself, says the Lord, that this house will become a waste.
- 6 For this is what the Lord has said about the family of the king of Judah: You are Gilead to me, and the top of Lebanon: but, truly, I will make you waste, with towns unpeopled.
- 7 And I will make ready those who will send destruction on you, everyone armed for war: by them your best cedar-trees will be cut down and put in the fire.
- 8 And nations from all sides will go past this town, and every man will say to his neighbour, Why has the Lord done such things to this great town?
- 9 And they will say, Because they gave up the agreement of the Lord their God, and became worshippers and servants of other gods.
- 10 Let there be no weeping for the dead, and make no songs of grief for him: but make bitter weeping for him who has gone away, for he will never come back or see again the country of his birth.
- 11 For this is what the Lord has said about Shallum, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who became king in place of Josiah his father, who went out from this place: He will never come back there again:
- 12 But death will come to him in the place where they have taken him away prisoner, and he will never see this land again.
- 13 A curse is on him who is building his house by wrongdoing, and his rooms by doing what is not right; who makes use of his neighbour without payment, and gives him nothing for his work;

- 14 Who says, I will make a wide house for myself, and rooms of great size, and has windows cut out, and has it roofed with cedar and painted with bright red.
- 15 Are you to be a king because you make more use of cedar than your father? did not your father take food and drink and do right, judging in righteousness, and then it was well for him?
- 16 He was judge in the cause of the poor and those in need; then it was well. Was not this to have knowledge of me? says the Lord.
- 17 But your eyes and your heart are fixed only on profit for yourself, on causing the death of him who has done no wrong, and on violent and cruel acts.
- 18 So this is what the Lord has said about Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah: They will make no weeping for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they will make no weeping for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!
- 19 They will do to him what they do to the dead body of an ass; his body will be pulled out and placed on the earth outside the doors of Jerusalem.
- 20 Go up to Lebanon and give a cry; let your voice be loud in Bashan, crying out from Abarim; for all your lovers have come to destruction
- 21 My word came to you in the time of your well-being; but you said, I will not give ear. This has been your way from your earliest years, you did not give attention to my voice.
- 22 All the keepers of your sheep will be food for the wind, and your lovers will be taken away prisoners: truly, then you will be shamed and unhonoured because of all your evil-doing.
- 23 O you who are living in Lebanon, making your living-place in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied will you be when pains come on you, as on a woman in childbirth!
- 24 By my life, says the Lord, even if Coniah, the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, was the ring on my right hand, even from there I would have you pulled off;
- 25 And I will give you into the hands of those desiring your death, and into the hands of those whom you are fearing, even into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, and into the hands of the Chaldeans.
- 26 I will send you out, and your mother who gave you birth, into another country not the land of your birth; and there death will come to you.
- 27 But to the land on which their soul's desire is fixed, they will never come back.
- 28 Is this man Coniah a broken vessel of no value? is he a vessel in which there is no pleasure? why are they violently sent out, he and his seed, into a land which is strange to them?
- 29 O earth, earth, earth, give ear to the word of the Lord!
- 30 The Lord has said, Let this man be recorded as having no children, a man who will not do well in all his life: for no man of his seed will do well, seated on the seat of the kingdom of David and ruling again in Judah.
- 1 A curse is on the keepers who are causing the destruction and loss of the sheep of my field, says the Lord.
- 2 So this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said against the keepers who have the care of my people: You have let my flock be broken up, driving them away and not caring for them; see, I will send on you the punishment for the evil of your doings, sa
- 3 And I will get the rest of my flock together from all the countries where I have sent them, and will make them come back again to their resting-place; and they will have offspring and be increased.
- 4 And I will put over them keepers who will take care of them: never again will they be overcome with fear or be troubled, and there will not be the loss of one of them, says the Lord.
- 5 See, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will give to David a true Branch, and he will be ruling as king, acting wisely, doing what is right, and judging uprightly in the land.
- 6 In his days Judah will have salvation and Israel will be living without fear: and this is the name by which he will be named, The Lord is our righteousness.
- 7 And so, truly, the days are coming when they will say no longer, By the living Lord, who took the children of Israel up out of the land of Egypt;
- 8 But, By the living Lord, who took up the seed of Israel, and made them come out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had sent them; and they will be living in the land which is theirs.
- 9 About the prophets. My heart is broken in me, all my bones are shaking; I am like a man full of strong drink, like a man overcome by wine; because of the Lord, and because of his holy words.

- 10 For the land is full of men who are untrue to their wives; because of the curse the land is full of grief; the green fields of the waste land have become dry; and they are quick to do evil, their strength is for what is not right.
- 11 For the prophet as well as the priest is unclean; even in my house I have seen their evil-doing, says the Lord.
- 12 For this cause their steps will be slipping on their way: they will be forced on into the dark and have a fall there: for I will send evil on them in the year of their punishment, says the Lord.
- 13 And I have seen ways without sense in the prophets of Samaria; they became prophets of the Baal, causing my people Israel to go wrong.
- 14 And in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a shocking thing; they are untrue to their wives, walking in deceit, and they make strong the hands of evil-doers, so that a man may not be turned back from his evil-doing: they have all become like Sodom to me
- 15 So this is what the Lord of armies has said about the prophets: See, I will give them a bitter plant for their food, and bitter water for their drink: for from the prophets of Jerusalem unclean behaviour has gone out into all the land.
- 16 This is what the Lord of armies has said: Do not give ear to the words which the prophets say to you: they give you teaching of no value: it is from themselves that their vision comes, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.
- 17 They keep on saying to those who have no respect for the word of the Lord, You will have peace; and to everyone who goes on his way in the pride of his heart, they say, No evil will come to you.
- 18 For which of them has knowledge of the secret of the Lord, and has seen him, and given ear to his word? which of them has taken note of his word and given attention to it?
- 19 See, the storm-wind of the Lord, even the heat of his wrath, has gone out, a rolling storm, bursting on the heads of the evil-doers.
- 20 The wrath of the Lord will not be turned back till he has done, till he has put into effect, the purposes of his heart: in days to come you will have full knowledge of this.
- 21 I did not send these prophets, but they went running: I said nothing to them, but they gave out the prophet's word.
- 22 But if they had been in my secret, then they would have made my people give ear to my words, turning them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.
- 23 Am I only a God who is near, says the Lord, and not a God at a distance?
- 24 In what secret place may a man take cover without my seeing him? says the Lord. Is there any place in heaven or earth where I am not? says the Lord.
- 25 My ears have been open to what the prophets have said, who say false words in my name, saying, I have had a dream, I have had a dream, I have had a dream,
- 26 Is (my word) in the hearts of the prophets who give out false words, even the prophets of the deceit of their hearts?
- 27 Whose purpose is to take away the memory of my name from my people by their dreams, of which every man is talking to his neighbour, as their fathers gave up the memory of my name for the Baal.
- 28 If a prophet has a dream, let him give out his dream; and he who has my word, let him give out my word in good faith. What has the dry stem to do with the grain? says the Lord.
- 29 Is not my word like fire? says the Lord; and like a hammer, smashing the rock to bits?
- 30 For this cause I am against the prophets, says the Lord, who take my words, every one from his neighbour.
- 31 See, I am against the prophets, says the Lord, who let their tongues say, He has said.
- 32 See, I am against the prophets of false dreams, says the Lord, who give them out and make my people go out of the way by their deceit and their uncontrolled words: but I did not send them or give them orders; and they will be of no profit to this people,
- 33 And if this people, or the prophet, or a priest, questioning you, says, What word of weight is there from the Lord? then you are to say to them, You are the word, for I will not be troubled with you any more, says the Lord.
- 34 And as for the prophet and the priest and the people who say, A word of weight from the Lord! I will send punishment on that man and on his house.
- 35 But this is what you are to say, every man to his neighbour and every man to his brother, What answer has the Lord given? and, What has the Lord said?
- 36 And you will no longer put people in mind of the word of weight of the Lord: for every man's word will be a weight on himself; for the words of the living God, of the Lord of armies, our God, have been twisted by you.
- 37 This is what you are to say to the prophet, What answer has the Lord given to you? and, What has the Lord said?

- 38 But if you say, The word of weight of the Lord; this is what the Lord has said: Because you say, The weight of the Lord, and I have sent to you, saying, You are not to say, The weight of the Lord;
- 39 For this reason, truly, I will put you completely out of my memory, and I will put you, and the town which I gave to you and to your fathers, away from before my face:
- 40 And I will give you a name without honour for ever, and unending shame which will never go from the memory of men.
- 1 The Lord gave me a vision, and I saw two baskets full of figs put in front of the Temple of the Lord, after Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, had taken prisoner Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the chiefs of Judah, and the expert workmen
- 2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs which first come to growth: and the other basket had very bad figs, so bad that they were of no use for food.
- 3 Then the Lord said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs are very good, and the bad very bad, and of no use for food, they are so bad.
- 4 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 5 This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said: Like these good figs, so in my eyes will be the prisoners of Judah, whom I have sent from this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.
- 6 For I will keep my eyes on them for good, and I will take them back again to this land, building them up and not pulling them down, planting them and not uprooting them.
- 7 And I will give them a heart to have knowledge of me, that I am the Lord: and they will be my people, and I will be their God: for they will come back to me with all their heart.
- 8 And like the bad figs which are so bad that they are of no use for food, so I will give up Zedekiah, king of Judah, and his chiefs and the rest of Jerusalem who are still in this land, and those who are in the land of Egypt:
- 9 I will give them up to be a cause of fear and of trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth; to be a name of shame and common talk and a cutting word and a curse in all the places wherever I will send them wandering.
- 10 And I will send the sword, and need of food, and disease, among them till they are all cut off from the land which I gave to them and to their fathers.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah king of Judah; this was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon.
- 2 This word Jeremiah gave out to all the people of Judah and to those living in Jerusalem, saying,
- 3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah, even till this day, for twenty-three years, the word of the Lord has been coming to me, and I have given it to you, getting up early and talking to you; but you have not given ear.
- 4 And the Lord has sent to you all his servants the prophets, getting up early and sending them; but you have not given attention and your ear has not been open to give hearing;
- 5 Saying, Come back now, everyone from his evil way and from the evil of your doings, and keep your place in the land which the Lord has given to you and to your fathers, from times long past even for ever:
- 6 Do not go after other gods to be their servants and to give them worship, and do not make me angry with the work of your hands, causing evil to yourselves.
- 7 But you have not given ear to me, says the Lord; so that you have made me angry with the work of your hands, causing evil to yourselves.
- 8 So this is what the Lord of armies has said: Because you have not given ear to my words,
- 9 See, I will send and take all the families of the north, says the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, my servant, and make them come against this land, and against its people, and against all these nations on every side; and I will give them up to
- 10 And more than this, I will take from them the sound of laughing voices, the voice of joy, the voice of the newly-married man, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the stones crushing the grain, and the shining of lights.
- 11 All this land will be a waste and a cause of wonder; and these nations will be the servants of the king of Babylon for seventy years.
- 12 And it will come about, after seventy years are ended, that I will send punishment on the king of Babylon, and on that nation, says the Lord, for their evil-doing, and on the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it a waste for ever.
- 13 And I will make that land undergo everything I have said against it, even everything recorded in this book, which Jeremiah the prophet has said against all the nations.

- 14 For a number of nations and great kings will make servants of them, even of them: and I will give them the reward of their acts, even the reward of the work of their hands.
- 15 For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said to me: Take the cup of the wine of this wrath from my hand, and make all the nations to whom I send you take of it.
- 16 And after drinking it, they will go rolling from side to side, and be off their heads, because of the sword which I will send among them.
- 17 Then I took the cup from the Lord's hand, and gave a drink from it to all the nations to whom the Lord sent me;
- 18 Jerusalem and the towns of Judah and their kings and their princes, to make them a waste place, a cause of fear and surprise and a curse, as it is this day;
- 19 Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his servants and his princes and all his people;
- 20 And all the mixed people and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon and Gaza and Ekron and the rest of Ashdod;
- 21 Edom and Moab and the children of Ammon,
- 22 And all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the lands across the sea;
- 23 Dedan and Tema and Buz, and all who have the ends of their hair cut;
- 24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people living in the waste land;
- 25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes;
- 26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.
- 27 And you are to say to them, This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Take of this cup and be overcome, and let it come out again from your lips, and from your fall you will never be lifted up again, because of the sword which I will s
- 28 And it will be, if they will not take of the cup in your hand, then you are to say to them, This is what the Lord of armies has said: You will certainly take of it.
- 29 For see, I am starting to send evil on the town which is named by my name, and are you to be without any punishment? You will not be without punishment: for I will send a sword on all people living on the earth, says the Lord of armies.
- 30 So, as a prophet, give out these words among them, and say to them, The voice of the Lord will be sounding like a lion from on high; he will send out his voice from his holy place, like the loud voice of a lion, against his flock; he will give a cry, like
- 31 A noise will come, even to the end of the earth; for the Lord has a cause against the nations, he will give his decision against all flesh; as for the evil-doers, he will give them to the sword, says the Lord.
- 32 This is what the Lord of armies has said: See, evil is going out from nation to nation, and a great storm will come up from the inmost parts of the earth.
- 33 And at that day, the bodies of those whom the Lord has put to death will be seen from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: there will be no weeping for them, their bodies will not be taken up or put to rest in the earth; they will be l
- 34 Give cries of grief, you keepers of sheep; give cries for help, rolling yourselves in the dust, you chiefs of the flock: for the days of your destruction have fully come, and I will send you in all directions, and your fall will be like that of the males
- 35 There will be no way of flight for the keepers of sheep, no road for the chiefs of the flock to get away safely.
- 36 A sound of the cry of the keepers of sheep, and the bitter crying of the chiefs of the flock! for the Lord has made waste their green fields.
- 37 And there is no sound in the fields of peace, because of the burning wrath of the Lord.
- 38 The lion has come out of his secret place, for the land has become a waste because of the cruel sword, and because of the heat of his wrath.
- 1 When Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, first became king, this word came from the Lord, saying,
- 2 This is what the Lord has said: Take your place in the open square of the Lord's house and say to all the towns of Judah, who come into the Lord's house for worship, everything I give you orders to say to them: keep back not a word;
- 3 It may be that they will give ear, and that every man will be turned from his evil way, so that my purpose of sending evil on them because of the evil of their doings may be changed.

- 4 And you are to say to them, This is what the Lord has said: If you do not give ear to me and go in the way of my law which I have put before you,
- 5 And give ear to the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you, getting up early and sending them, though you gave no attention;
- 6 Then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this town a curse to all the nations of the earth.
- 7 And in the hearing of the priests and the prophets and all the people, Jeremiah said these words in the house of the Lord.
- 8 Now, when Jeremiah had come to the end of saying everything the Lord had given him orders to say to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people took him by force, saying, Death will certainly be your fate.
- 9 Why have you said in the name of the Lord, This house will be like Shiloh, and this land a waste with no one living in it? And all the people had come together to Jeremiah in the house of the Lord.
- 10 And the rulers of Judah, hearing of these things, came up from the king's house to the house of the Lord, and took their seats by the new door of the Lord's house.
- 11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the rulers and to all the people, The right fate for this man is death; for he has said words against this town in your hearing.
- 12 Then Jeremiah said to all the rulers and to all the people, The Lord has sent me as his prophet to say against this house and against this town all the words which have come to your ears.
- 13 So now, make a change for the better in your ways and your doings, and give ear to the voice of the Lord your God; then the Lord will let himself be turned from the decision he has made against you for evil.
- 14 As for me, here I am in your hands: do with me whatever seems good and right in your opinion.
- 15 Only be certain that, if you put me to death, you will make yourselves and your town and its people responsible for the blood of one who has done no wrong: for truly, the Lord has sent me to you to say all these words in your ears.
- 16 Then the rulers and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, It is not right for this man to be put to death: for he has said words to us in the name of the Lord our God.
- 17 Then some of the responsible men of the land got up and said to all the meeting of the people,
- 18 Micah the Morashtite, who was a prophet in the days of Hezekiah, king of Judah, said to all the people of Judah, This is what the Lord of armies has said: Zion will become like a ploughed field, and Jerusalem will become a mass of broken walls, and the mo
- 19 Did Hezekiah and all Judah put him to death? did he not in the fear of the Lord make prayer for the grace of the Lord, and the Lord let himself be turned from the decision he had made against them for evil? By this act we might do great evil against our
- 20 And there was another man who was a prophet of the Lord, Uriah, the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-jearim; he said against this town and against this land all the words which Jeremiah had said:
- 21 And when his words came to the ears of Jehoiakim the king and all his men of war and his captains, the king would have put him to death; but Uriah, hearing of it, was full of fear and went in flight into Egypt:
- 22 And Jehoiakim the king sent Elnathan, the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt.
- 23 And they took Uriah out of Egypt and came back with him to Jehoiakim the king; who put him to death with the sword, and had his dead body put into the resting-place of the bodies of the common people.
- 24 But Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, gave Jeremiah his help, so that he was not given into the hands of the people to be put to death.
- 1 When Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, first became king this word came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
- 2 This is what the Lord has said to me: Make for yourself bands and yokes and put them on your neck;
- 3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by their servants who come to Jerusalem, to Zedekiah, king of Judah;
- 4 And give them orders to say to their masters, This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Say to your masters,
- 5 I have made the earth, and man and beast on the face of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I will give it to anyone at my pleasure.
- 6 And now I have given all these lands into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant; and I have given the beasts of the field to him for his use.
- 7 And all the nations will be servants to him and to his son and to his son's son, till the time comes for his land to be overcome: and then a number of nations and great kings will take it for their use.

- 8 And it will come about, that if any nation does not become a servant to this same Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and does not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, then I will send punishment on that nation, says the Lord, by the sword and
- 9 And you are not to give attention to your prophets or your readers of signs or your dreamers or those who see into the future or those who make use of secret arts, who say to you, You will not become servants of the king of Babylon:
- 10 For they say false words to you, so that you may be sent away far from your land, and so that you may be forced out by me and come to destruction.
- 11 But as for that nation which puts its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and becomes his servant, I will let that nation keep on in its land, farming it and living in it, says the Lord.
- 12 And I said all this to Zedekiah, king of Judah, saying, Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and become his servants and his people, so that you may keep your lives.
- 13 Why are you desiring death, you and your people, by the sword, and because food is gone, and by disease, as the Lord has said of the nation which does not become the servant of the king of Babylon?
- 14 And you are not to give ear to the prophets who say to you, You will not become servants of the king of Babylon: for what they say is not true.
- 15 For I have not sent them, says the Lord, but they are saying what is false in my name, so that I might send you out by force, causing destruction to come on you and on your prophets.
- 16 And I said to the priests and to all the people, This is what the Lord has said: Give no attention to the words of your prophets who say to you, See, in a very little time now the vessels of the Lord's house will come back again from Babylon: for what the
- 17 Give no attention to them; become servants of the king of Babylon and keep yourselves from death: why let this town become a waste?
- 18 But if they are prophets, and if the word of the Lord is with them, let them now make request to the Lord of armies that the vessels which are still in the house of the Lord and in the house of the king of Judah and at Jerusalem, may not go to Babylon.
- 19 For this is what the Lord has said about the rest of the vessels which are still in this town,
- 20 Which Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, did not take away, when he took Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, a prisoner from Jerusalem to Babylon, with all the great men of Judah and Jerusalem;
- 21 For this is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said about the rest of the vessels in the house of the Lord and in the house of the king of Judah and at Jerusalem:
- 22 They will be taken away to Babylon, and there they will be till the day when I send their punishment on them, says the Lord. Then I will take them up and put them back in their place.
- 1 And it came about in that year, when Zedekiah first became king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah, the son of Azzur the prophet, who came from Gibeon, said to Jeremiah in the house of the Lord, before the priests and all the
- 2 These are the words of the Lord of armies, the God of Israel: By me the yoke of the king of Babylon has been broken.
- 3 In the space of two years I will send back into this place all the vessels of the Lord's house which Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, took away from this place to Babylon:
- 4 And I will let Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, come back to this place, with all the prisoners of Judah who went to Babylon, says the Lord: for I will have the yoke of the king of Babylon broken.
- 5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, before the priests and all the people who had come into the house of the Lord,
- 6 The prophet Jeremiah said, So be it: may the Lord do so: may the Lord give effect to the words which you have said, and let the vessels of the Lord's house, and all the people who have been taken away, come back from Babylon to this place.
- 7 But still, give ear to this word which I am saying to you and to all the people:
- 8 The prophets, who were before me and before you, from early times gave word to a number of countries and great kingdoms about war and destruction and disease.
- 9 The prophet whose words are of peace, when his words come true, will be seen to be a prophet whom the Lord has sent.
- 10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and it was broken by his hands.

- 11 And before all the people Hananiah said, The Lord has said, Even so will I let the yoke of the king of Babylon be broken off the necks of all the nations in the space of two years. Then the prophet Jeremiah went away.
- 12 Then after the yoke had been broken off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah by Hananiah the prophet, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
- 13 Go and say to Hananiah, This is what the Lord has said: Yokes of wood have been broken by you, but in their place I will make yokes of iron.
- 14 For the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: I have put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations, making them servants to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon; and they are to be his servants: and in addition I have given him the beasts of the
- 15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, Give ear, now, Hananiah; the Lord has not sent you; but you are making this people put their faith in what is false.
- 16 For this reason the Lord has said, See, I will send you away from off the face of the earth: this year death will overtake you, because you have said words against the Lord.
- 17 So death came to Hananiah the prophet the same year, in the seventh month.
- 1 Now these are the words of the letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the responsible men among those who had been taken away, and to the priests and the prophets and to all the rest of the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken away priso
- 2 (After Jeconiah the king and the queen-mother and the unsexed servants and the rulers of Judah and Jerusalem and the expert workmen and the metal-workers had gone away from Jerusalem;)
- 3 By the hand of Elasah, the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah, the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah, king of Judah, sent to Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon,) saying,
- 4 This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said to all those whom I have taken away prisoners from Jerusalem to Babylon:
- 5 Go on building houses and living in them, and planting gardens and using the fruit of them;
- 6 Take wives and have sons and daughters, and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may have sons and daughters; and be increased in number there and do not become less.
- 7 And be working for the peace of the land to which I have had you taken away prisoners, and make prayer to the Lord for it: for in its peace you will have peace.
- 8 For this is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Do not let yourselves be tricked by the prophets who are among you, and the readers of signs, and give no attention to their dreams which they may have;
- 9 For they are saying to you what is false in my name: I have not sent them, says the Lord.
- 10 For this is what the Lord has said: When seventy years are ended for Babylon, I will have pity on you and give effect to my good purpose for you, causing you to come back to this place.
- 11 For I am conscious of my thoughts about you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you hope at the end.
- 12 And you will go on crying to me and making prayer to me, and I will give ear to you.
- 13 And you will be searching for me and I will be there, when you have gone after me with all your heart.
- 14 I will be near you again, says the Lord, and your fate will be changed, and I will get you together from all the nations and from all the places where I had sent you away, says the Lord; and I will take you back again to the place from which I sent you aw
- 15 For you have said, The Lord has given us prophets in Babylon.
- 16 For this is what the Lord has said about the king who is seated on the seat of David's kingdom, and about all the people living in this town, your countrymen who have not gone out with you as prisoners;
- 17 This is what the Lord of armies has said: See, I will send on them the sword and need of food and disease, and will make them like bad figs, which are of no use for food, they are so bad.
- 18 I will go after them, attacking them with the sword and with need of food and with disease, and will make them a cause of fear to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse and a wonder and a surprise and a name of shame among all the nations where I ha
- 19 Because they have not given ear to my words, says the Lord, when I sent to them my servants the prophets, getting up early and sending them; but you did not give ear, says the Lord.
- 20 And now, give ear to the word of the Lord, all you whom I have sent away prisoners from Jerusalem to Babylon.

- 21 This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said about Ahab, the son of Kolaiah, and about Zedekiah, the son of Maaseiah, who are saying to you what is false in my name: See, I will give them up into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylo
- 22 And their fate will be used as a curse by all the prisoners of Judah who are in Babylon, who will say, May the Lord make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, who were burned in the fire by the king of Babylon;
- 23 Because they have done shame in Israel, and have taken their neighbours' wives, and in my name have said false words, which I did not give them orders to say; and I myself am the witness, says the Lord.
- 24 About Shemaiah the Nehelamite.
- 25 Shemaiah the Nehelamite sent a letter in his name to Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,
- 26 The Lord has made you priest in place of Jehoiada the priest, to be an overseer in the house of the Lord for every man who is off his head and is acting as a prophet, to put such men in prison and in chains.
- 27 So why have you made no protest against Jeremiah of Anathoth, who is acting as a prophet to you?
- 28 For he has sent to us in Babylon saying, The time will be long: go on building houses and living in them, and planting gardens and using the fruit of them.
- 29 And Zephaniah the priest made clear to Jeremiah the prophet what was said in the letter, reading it to him.
- 30 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying,
- 31 Send to all those who have been taken away, saying, This is what the Lord has said about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has been acting as a prophet to you, and I did not send him, and has made you put your faith in what is false;
- 32 For this cause the Lord has said, Truly I will send punishment on Shemaiah and on his seed; not a man of his family will have a place among this people, and he will not see the good which I am going to do to my people, says the Lord: because he has said w
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
- 2 The Lord, the God of Israel, has said, Put down in a book all the words which I have said to you.
- 3 For see, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will let the fate of my people Israel and Judah be changed, says the Lord: and I will make them come back to the land which I gave to their fathers, so that they may take it for their heritage.
- 4 And these are the words which the Lord said about Israel and about Judah.
- 5 This is what the Lord has said: A voice of shaking fear has come to our ears, of fear and not of peace.
- 6 Put the question and see if it is possible for a man to have birth-pains: why do I see every man with his hands gripping his sides, as a woman does when the pains of birth are on her, and all faces are turned green?
- 7 Ha! for that day is so great that there is no day like it: it is the time of Jacob's trouble: but he will get salvation from it.
- 8 For it will come about on that day, says the Lord of armies, that his yoke will be broken off his neck, and his bands will be burst; and men of strange lands will no longer make use of him as their servant:
- 9 But they will be servants to the Lord their God and to David their king, whom I will give back to them.
- 10 So have no fear, O Jacob, my servant, says the Lord; and do not be troubled, O Israel: for see, I will make you come back from far away, and your seed from the land where they are prisoners; and Jacob will come back, and will be quiet and at peace, and no
- 11 For I am with you, says the Lord, to be your saviour: for I will put an end to all the nations where I have sent you wandering, but I will not put an end to you completely: though with wise purpose I will put right your errors, and will not let you go qui
- 12 For the Lord has said, Your disease may not be made well and your wound is bitter.
- 13 There is no help for your wound, there is nothing to make you well.
- 14 Your lovers have no more thought for you, they go after you no longer; for I have given you the wound of a hater, even cruel punishment;
- 15 Why are you crying for help because of your wound? for your pain may never be taken away: because your evil-doing was so great and because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you.
- 16 For this cause, all those who take you for their food will themselves become your food; and all your attackers, every one of them, will be taken prisoners; and those who send destruction on you will come to destruction; and all those who take away your go

- 17 For I will make you healthy again and I will make you well from your wounds, says the Lord; because they have given you the name of an outlaw, saying, It is Zion cared for by no man.
- 18 The Lord has said, See, I am changing the fate of the tents of Jacob, and I will have pity on his houses; the town will be put up on its hill, and the great houses will be living-places again.
- 19 And from them will go out praise and the sound of laughing: and I will make them great in number, and they will not become less; and I will give them glory, and they will not be small.
- 20 And their children will be as they were in the old days, and the meeting of the people will have its place before me, and I will send punishment on all who are cruel to them.
- 21 And their chief will be of their number; their ruler will come from among themselves; and I will let him be present before me, so that he may come near to me: for who may have strength of heart to come near me? says the Lord.
- 22 And you will be my people, and I will be your God.
- 23 See, the storm-wind of the Lord, even the heat of his wrath, has gone out, a rolling storm, bursting on the heads of the evil-doers.
- 24 The wrath of the Lord will not be turned back till he has done, till he has put into effect, the purposes of his heart: in days to come you will have full knowledge of this.
- 1 At that time, says the Lord, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people.
- 2 The Lord has said, Grace came in the waste land to a people kept safe from the sword, even to Israel on the way to his resting-place.
- 3 From far away he saw the Lord: my love for you is an eternal love: so with mercy I have made you come with me.
- 4 I will again make new your buildings, O virgin of Israel, and you will take up your place: again you will take up your instruments of music, and go out in the dances of those who are glad.
- 5 Again will your vine-gardens be planted on the hill of Samaria: the planters will be planting and using the fruit.
- 6 For there will be a day when those who get in the grapes on the hills of Ephraim will be crying, Up! let us go up to Zion to the Lord our God.
- 7 For the Lord has said, Make a glad song for Jacob and give a cry on the top of the mountains: give the news, give praise, and say, The Lord has given salvation to his people, even to the rest of Israel.
- 8 See, I will take them from the north country, and get them from the inmost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the feeble-footed, the woman with child and her who is in birth-pains together: a very great army, they will come back here.
- 9 They will come with weeping, and going before them I will be their guide: guiding them by streams of water in a straight way where there is no falling: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is the first of my sons.
- 10 Give ear to the word of the Lord, O you nations, and give news of it in the sea-lands far away, and say, He who has sent Israel wandering will get him together and will keep him as a keeper does his flock.
- 11 For the Lord has given a price for Jacob, and made him free from the hands of him who was stronger than he.
- 12 So they will come with songs on the high places, flowing together to the good things of the Lord, to the grain and the wine and the oil, to the young ones of the flock and of the herd: their souls will be like a watered garden, and they will have no more
- 13 Then the virgin will have joy in the dance, and the young men and the old will be glad: for I will have their weeping turned into joy, I will give them comfort and make them glad after their sorrow.
- 14 I will give the priests their desired fat things, and my people will have a full measure of my good things, says the Lord.
- 15 So has the Lord said: In Ramah there is a sound of crying, weeping and bitter sorrow; Rachel weeping for her children; she will not be comforted for their loss.
- 16 The Lord has said this: Keep your voice from sorrow and your eyes from weeping: for your work will be rewarded, says the Lord; and they will come back from the land of their hater.
- 17 And there is hope for the future, says the Lord; and your children will come back to the land which is theirs.
- 18 Certainly Ephraim's words of grief have come to my ears, You have given me training and I have undergone it like a young cow unused to the yoke: let me be turned and come back, for you are the Lord my God.
- 19 Truly, after I had been turned, I had regret for my ways; and after I had got knowledge, I made signs of sorrow: I was put to shame, truly, I was covered with shame, because I had to undergo the shame of my early years.
- 20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he the child of my delight? for whenever I say things against him, I still keep him in my memory: so my heart is troubled for him; I will certainly have mercy on him, says the Lord.

- 21 Put up guiding pillars, make road signs for yourself: give attention to the highway, even the way in which you went: be turned again, O virgin of Israel, be turned to these your towns.
- 22 How long will you go on turning this way and that, O wandering daughter? for the Lord has made a new thing on the earth, a woman changed into a man.
- 23 So the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, Again will these words be used in the land of Judah and in its towns, when I have let their fate be changed: May the blessing of the Lord be on you, O resting-place of righteousness, O holy mountain.
- 24 And Judah and all its towns will be living there together; the farmers and those who go about with flocks.
- 25 For I have given new strength to the tired soul and to every sorrowing soul in full measure.
- 26 At this, awaking from my sleep, I saw; and my sleep was sweet to me.
- 27 See, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will have Israel and Judah planted with the seed of man and with the seed of beast.
- 28 And it will come about that, as I have been watching over them for the purpose of uprooting and smashing down and overturning and sending destruction and causing trouble; so I will be watching over them for the purpose of building up and planting, says th
- 29 In those days they will no longer say, The fathers have been tasting bitter grapes and the children's teeth are put on edge.
- 30 But everyone will be put to death for the evil which he himself has done: whoever has taken bitter grapes will himself have his teeth put on edge.
- 31 See, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new agreement with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah:
- 32 Not like the agreement which I made with their fathers, on the day when I took them by the hand to be their guide out of the land of Egypt; which agreement was broken by them, and I gave them up, says the Lord.
- 33 But this is the agreement which I will make with the people of Israel after those days, says the Lord; I will put my law in their inner parts, writing it in their hearts; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.
- 34 And no longer will they be teaching every man his neighbour and every man his brother, saying, Get knowledge of the Lord: for they will all have knowledge of me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the Lord: for they will have my forgiven
- 35 These are the words of the Lord, who has given the sun for a light by day, ordering the moon and stars for a light by night, who puts the sea in motion, causing the thunder of its waves; the Lord of armies is his name.
- 36 If the order of these things before me is ever broken, says the Lord, then will the seed of Israel come to an end as a nation before me for ever.
- 37 This is what the Lord has said: If the heavens on high may be measured, and the bases of the earth searched out, then I will give up the seed of Israel, because of all they have done, says the Lord.
- 38 See, the days are coming, says the Lord, for the building of the Lord's town, from the tower of Hananel to the doorway of the angle.
- 39 And the measuring-line will go out in front of it as far as the hill Gareb, going round to Goah.
- 40 And all the valley of the dead bodies, and all the field of death as far as the stream Kidron, up to the angle of the horses' doorway to the east, will be holy to the Lord; it will not again be uprooted or overturned for ever.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord in the tenth year of Zedekiah, king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.
- 2 Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was round Jerusalem, shutting it in: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the place of the armed watchmen, in the house of the king of Judah.
- 3 For Zedekiah, king of Judah, had had him shut up, saying, Why have you, as a prophet, been saying, The Lord has said, See, I will give this town into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will take it;
- 4 And Zedekiah, king of Judah, will not get away from the hands of the Chaldeans, but will certainly be given up into the hands of the king of Babylon, and will have talk with him, mouth to mouth, and see him, eye to eye.
- 5 And he will take Zedekiah away to Babylon, where he will be till I have pity on him, says the Lord: though you are fighting with the Chaldeans, things will not go well for you?
- 6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 7 See, Hanamel, the son of Shallum, your father's brother, will come to you and say, Give the price and get for yourself my property in Anathoth: for you have the right of the nearest relation.

- 8 So Hanamel, the son of my father's brother, came to me, as the Lord had said, to the place of the armed watchmen, and said to me, Give the price and get my property which is in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: for you have the nearest relation's right to
- 9 So I got for a price the property in Anathoth from Hanamel, the son of my father's brother, and gave him the money, seventeen shekels of silver;
- 10 And I put it in writing, stamping it with my stamp, and I took witnesses and put the money into the scales.
- 11 So I took the paper witnessing the business, one copy rolled up and stamped, and one copy open:
- 12 And I gave the paper to Baruch, the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, before the eyes of Hanamel, the son of my father's brother, and of the witnesses who had put their names to the paper, and before all the Jews who were seated in the place of the arme
- 13 And I gave orders to Baruch in front of them, saying,
- 14 This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Take these papers, the witness of this business, the one which is rolled up and stamped, and the one which is open; and put them in a vessel of earth so that they may be kept for a long time.
- 15 For the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, There will again be trading in houses and fields and vine-gardens in this land.
- 16 Now after I had given the paper to Baruch, the son of Neriah, I made my prayer to the Lord, saying,
- 17 Ah Lord God! see, you have made the heaven and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm, and there is nothing you are not able to do:
- 18 You have mercy on thousands, and send punishment for the evil-doing of the fathers on their children after them: the great, the strong God, the Lord of armies is his name:
- 19 Great in wisdom and strong in act: whose eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of men, giving to everyone the reward of his ways and the fruit of his doings:
- 20 You have done signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and even to this day, in Israel and among other men; and have made a name for yourself as at this day;
- 21 And have taken your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and with wonders and with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, causing great fear;
- 22 And have given them this land, which you gave your word to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;
- 23 And they came in and took it for their heritage, but they did not give ear to your voice, and were not ruled by your law; they have done nothing of all you gave them orders to do: so you have made all this evil come on them:
- 24 See, they have made earthworks against the town to take it; and the town is given into the hands of the Chaldaeans who are fighting against it, because of the sword and need of food and disease: and what you have said has taken place, and truly you see it
- 25 And you have said to me, Give the money to get yourself a property, and have the business witnessed; though the town is given into the hands of the Chaldaeans.
- 26 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
- 27 See, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there anything so hard that I am unable to do it?
- 28 So this is what the Lord has said: See, I am giving this town into the hands of the Chaldaeans and into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, and he will take it:
- 29 And the Chaldaeans, who are fighting against this town, will come and put the town on fire, burning it together with the houses, on the roofs of which perfumes have been burned to the Baal, and drink offerings have been drained out to other gods, moving m
- 30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done nothing but evil in my eyes from their earliest years: the children of Israel have only made me angry with the work of their hands, says the Lord.
- 31 For this town has been to me a cause of wrath and of burning passion from the day of its building till this day, so that I put it away from before my face:
- 32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to make me angry, they and their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem.
- 33 And they have been turning their backs and not their faces to me: and though I was their teacher, getting up early and teaching them, their ears were not open to teaching.

- 34 But they put their disgusting images into the house which is named by my name, making it unclean.
- 35 And they put up the high places of the Baal in the valley of the son of Hinnom, making their sons and their daughters go through the fire to Molech; which I did not give them orders to do, and it never came into my mind that they would do this disgusting
- 36 And now the Lord, the God of Israel, has said of this town, about which you say, It is given into the hands of the king of Babylon by the sword and by need of food and by disease:
- 37 See, I will get them together from all the countries where I have sent them in my wrath and in the heat of my passion and in my bitter feeling; and I will let them come back into this place where they may take their rest safely.
- 38 And they will be my people, and I will be their God:
- 39 And I will give them one heart and one way, so that they may go on in the worship of me for ever, for their good and the good of their children after them:
- 40 And I will make an eternal agreement with them, that I will never give them up, but ever do them good; and I will put the fear of me in their hearts, so that they will not go away from me.
- 41 And truly, I will take pleasure in doing them good, and all my heart and soul will be given to planting them in this land in good faith.
- 42 For the Lord has said: As I have made all this great evil come on this people, so I will send on them all the good which I said about them.
- 43 And there will be trading in fields in this land of which you say, It is a waste, without man or beast; it is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.
- 44 Men will get fields for money, and put the business in writing, stamping the papers and having them witnessed, in the land of Benjamin and in the country round Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah and in the towns of the hill-country and in the towns of th
- 1 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still shut up in the place of the armed watchmen, saying,
- 2 These are the words of the Lord, who is doing it, the Lord who is forming it, to make it certain; the Lord is his name;
- 3 Let your cry come to me, and I will give you an answer, and let you see great things and secret things of which you had no knowledge.
- 4 For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said about the houses of this town and the houses of the kings of Judah, which have been broken down to make earthworks and ...;
- 5 ... and to make them full of the dead bodies of men whom I have put to death in my wrath and in my passion, and because of whose evil-doing I have kept my face covered from this town.
- 6 See, I will make it healthy and well again, I will even make them well; I will let them see peace and good faith in full measure.
- 7 And I will let the fate of Judah and of Israel be changed, building them up as at first.
- 8 And I will make them clean from all their sin, with which they have been sinning against me; I will have forgiveness for all their sins, with which they have been sinning against me, and with which they have done evil against me.
- 9 And this town will be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth, who, hearing of all the good which I am doing for them, will be shaking with fear because of all the good and the peace which I am doing for it.
- 10 This is what the Lord has said: There will again be sounding in this place, of which you say, It is a waste, without man and without beast; even in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem which are waste and unpeopled, without man and without b
- 11 Happy sounds, the voice of joy, the voice of the newly-married man and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who say, Give praise to the Lord of armies, for the Lord is good, for his mercy is unchanging for ever: the voices of those who go with prai
- 12 This is what the Lord of armies has said: Again there will be in this place, which is a waste, without man and without beast, and in all its towns, a resting-place where the keepers of sheep will make their flocks take rest.
- 13 In the towns of the hill-country, in the towns of the lowland, and in the towns of the South and in the land of Benjamin and in the country round Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah, the flocks will again go under the hand of him who is numbering them, sa

- 14 See, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will give effect to the good word which I have said about the people of Israel and the people of Judah.
- 15 In those days and at that time, I will let a Branch of righteousness come up for David; and he will be a judge in righteousness in the land.
- 16 In those days, Judah will have salvation and Jerusalem will be safe: and this is the name which will be given to her: The Lord is our righteousness.
- 17 For the Lord has said, David will never be without a man to take his place on the seat of the kingdom of Israel;
- 18 And the priests and the Levites will never be without a man to come before me, offering burned offerings and perfumes and meal offerings and offerings of beasts at all times.
- 19 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
- 20 The Lord has said: If it is possible for my agreement of the day and the night to be broken, so that day and night no longer come at their fixed times,
- 21 Then my agreement with my servant David may be broken, so that he no longer has a son to take his place on the seat of the kingdom; and my agreement with the Levites, the priests, my servants.
- 22 As it is not possible for the army of heaven to be numbered, or the sand of the sea measured, so will I make the seed of my servant David, and the Levites my servants.
- 23 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
- 24 Have you taken note of what these people have said, The two families, which the Lord took for himself, he has given up? This they say, looking down on my people as being, in their eyes, no longer a nation.
- 25 The Lord has said, If I have not made day and night, and if the limits of heaven and earth have not been fixed by me,
- 26 Then I will give up caring for the seed of Jacob and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will let their fate be changed and will have mercy on them.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, when Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth which were under his rule, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem and all its towns, saying,
- 2 The Lord, the God of Israel, has said, Go and say to Zedekiah, king of Judah, This is what the Lord has said: See, I will give this town into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will have it burned with fire:
- 3 And you will not get away from him, but will certainly be taken and given up into his hands; and you will see the king of Babylon, eye to eye, and he will have talk with you, mouth to mouth, and you will go to Babylon.
- 4 But give ear to the word of the Lord, O Zedekiah, king of Judah; this is what the Lord has said about you: Death will not come to you by the sword:
- 5 You will come to your end in peace; and such burnings as they made for your fathers, the earlier kings before you, will be made for you; and they will be weeping for you and saying, Ah lord! for I have said the word, says the Lord.
- 6 Then Jeremiah the prophet said all these things to Zedekiah, king of Judah, in Jerusalem,
- 7 When the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the towns of Judah which had not been taken, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these were the last of the walled towns of Judah.
- 8 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, after King Zedekiah had made an agreement with all the people in Jerusalem, to give news in public that servants were to be made free;
- 9 That every man was to let his Hebrew man-servant and his Hebrew servant-girl go free; so that no one might make use of a Jew, his countryman, as a servant:
- 10 And this was done by all the rulers and the people who had taken part in the agreement, and every one let his man-servant and his servant-girl go free, not to be used as servants any longer; they did so, and let them go.
- 11 But later, they took back again the servants and the servant-girls whom they had let go free, and put them again under the yoke as servants and servant-girls.
- 12 For this reason the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
- 13 The Lord, the God of Israel, has said, I made an agreement with your fathers on the day when I took them out of Egypt, out of the prison-house, saying,
- 14 At the end of seven years every man is to let go his countryman who is a Hebrew, who has become yours for a price and has been your servant for six years; you are to let him go free: but your fathers gave no attention and did not give ear.
- 15 And now, turning away from evil, you had done what is right in my eyes, giving a public undertaking for every man to make his neighbour free; and you had made an agreement before me in the house which is named by my name:

- 16 But again you have put shame on my name, and you have taken back, every one his man-servant and his servant-girl, whom you had sent away free, and you have put them under the yoke again to be your servants and servant-girls.
- 17 And so the Lord has said, You have not given ear to me and undertaken publicly, every man to let loose his countryman and his neighbour: see, I undertake to let loose against you the sword and disease and need of food; and I will send you wandering among
- 18 And I will give the men who have gone against my agreement and have not given effect to the words of the agreement which they made before me, when the ox was cut in two and they went between the parts of it,
- 19 The rulers of Judah and the rulers of Jerusalem, the unsexed servants and the priests and all the people of the land who went between the parts of the ox,
- 20 Even these I will give up into the hands of their haters and into the hands of those who have designs against their lives: and their dead bodies will become food for the birds of heaven and the beasts of the earth.
- 21 And Zedekiah, king of Judah, and his rulers I will give into the hands of their haters and into the hands of those who have designs against their lives, and into the hands of the king of Babylon's army which has gone away from you.
- 22 See, I will give orders, says the Lord, and make them come back to this town; and they will make war on it and take it and have it burned with fire: and I will make the towns of Judah waste and unpeopled.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, in the days of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,
- 2 Go into the house of the Rechabites, and have talk with them, and take them into the house of the Lord, into one of the rooms, and give them wine.
- 3 Then I took Jaazaniah, the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons and all the Rechabites;
- 4 And I took them into the house of the Lord, into the room of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was near the rulers' room, which was over the room of Maaseiah, the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door;
- 5 And I put before the sons of the Rechabites basins full of wine and cups, and I said to them, Take some wine.
- 6 But they said, We will take no wine: for Jonadab, the son of Rechab our father, gave us orders, saying, You are to take no wine, you or your sons, for ever:
- 7 And you are to make no houses, or put in seed, or get vine-gardens planted, or have any: but all your days you are to go on living in tents, so that you may have a long life in the land where you are living as in a strange country.
- 8 And we have kept the rules of Jonadab, the son of Rechab our father, in everything which he gave us orders to do, drinking no wine all our days, we and our wives and our sons and our daughters;
- 9 Building no houses for ourselves, having no vine-gardens or fields or seed:
- 10 But we have been living in tents, and have done everything which Jonadab our father gave us orders to do.
- 11 But when Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, came up into the land, we said, Come, let us go to Jerusalem, away from the army of the Chaldeans and from the army of the Aramaeans: and so we are living in Jerusalem.
- 12 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
- 13 This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Go and say to the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem, Is there no hope of teaching you to give ear to my words? says the Lord.
- 14 The orders which Jonadab, the son of Rechab, gave to his sons to take no wine, are done, and to this day they take no wine, for they do the orders of their father: but I have sent my words to you, getting up early and sending them, and you have not given
- 15 And I have sent you all my servants the prophets, getting up early and sending them, saying, Come back, now, every man from his evil way, and do better, and go not after other gods to become their servants, and you will go on living in the land which I ha
- 16 Though the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have done the orders of their father which he gave them, this people has not given ear to me:
- 17 For this reason the Lord, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, See, I will send on Judah and on all the people of Jerusalem all the evil which I said I would do to them: because I sent my words to them, but they did not give ear; crying out to
- 18 But to the Rechabites Jeremiah said, This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Because you have done the orders of Jonadab your father, and have kept his rules, and done everything as he gave you orders to do it;
- 19 For this reason the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, Jonadab, the son of Rechab, will never be without a man to take his place before me.

- 1 Now it came about in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,
- 2 Take a book and put down in it all the words I have said to you against Israel and against Judah and against all the nations, from the day when my word came to you in the days of Josiah till this day.
- 3 It may be that the people of Judah, hearing of all the evil which it is my purpose to do to them, will be turned, every man from his evil ways; so that they may have my forgiveness for their evil-doing and their sin.
- 4 Then Jeremiah sent for Baruch, the son of Neriah; and Baruch took down from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the Lord which he had said to him, writing them in a book.
- 5 And Jeremiah gave orders to Baruch, saying, I am shut up, and am not able to go into the house of the Lord:
- 6 So you are to go, reading there from the book, which you have taken down from my mouth, the words of the Lord, in the hearing of the people in the Lord's house, on a day when they go without food, and in the hearing of all the men of Judah who have come o
- 7 It may be that their prayer for grace will go up to the Lord, and that every man will be turned from his evil ways: for great is the wrath and the passion made clear by the Lord against this people.
- 8 And Baruch, the son of Neriah, did as Jeremiah the prophet gave him orders to do, reading from the book the words of the Lord in the Lord's house.
- 9 Now it came about in the fifth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that it was given out publicly that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the towns of Judah to Jerusalem, were to keep from fo
- 10 Then Baruch gave a public reading of the words of Jeremiah from the book, in the house of the Lord, in the room of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher square, as one goes in by the new doorway of the Lord's house, in the hearing of all
- 11 And Micaiah, the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, after hearing all the words of the Lord from the book,
- 12 Went down to the king's house, to the scribe's room: and all the rulers were seated there, Elishama the scribe and Delaiah, the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan, the son of Achbor, and Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah, the son of Hananiah, and all
- 13 Then Micaiah gave them an account of all the words which had come to his ears when Baruch was reading the book to the people.
- 14 So all the rulers sent Jehudi, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the book from which you have been reading to the people and come. So Baruch, the son of Neriah, took the book in his hand and
- 15 Then they said to him, Be seated now, and give us a reading from it. So Baruch did so, reading it to them.
- 16 Now it came about that, after hearing all the words, they said to one another in fear, We will certainly give the king an account of all these words.
- 17 And questioning Baruch, they said, Say now, how did you put all these words down in writing from his mouth?
- 18 Then Baruch, answering, said, He said all these things to me by word of mouth, and I put them down with ink in the book.
- 19 Then the rulers said to Baruch, Go and put yourself in a safe place, you and Jeremiah, and let no man have knowledge of where you are.
- 20 Then they went into the open square to the king; but the book they put away in the room of Elishama the scribe; and they gave the king an account of all the words.
- 21 So the king sent Jehudi to get the book, and he took it from the room of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi gave a reading of it in the hearing of the king and all the rulers who were by the king's side.
- 22 Now the king was seated in the winter house, and a fire was burning in the fireplace in front of him.
- 23 And it came about that whenever Jehudi, in his reading, had got through three or four divisions, the king, cutting them with his penknife, put them into the fire, till all the book was burned up in the fire which was burning in the fireplace.
- 24 But they had no fear and gave no signs of grief, not the king or any of his servants, after hearing all these words.
- 25 And Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made a strong request to the king not to let the book be burned, but he would not give ear to them.
- 26 And the king gave orders to Jerahmeel, the king's son, and Seraiah, the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah, the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the Lord kept them safe.

- 27 Then after the book, in which Baruch had put down the words of Jeremiah, had been burned by the king, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,
- 28 Take another book and put down in it all the words which were in the first book, which Jehoiakim, king of Judah, put into the fire.
- 29 And about Jehoiakim, king of Judah, you are to say, This is what the Lord has said: You have put this book into the fire, saying, Why have you put in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come, causing the destruction of this land and putting an end
- 30 For this reason the Lord has said of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, He will have no son to take his place on the seat of David: his dead body will be put out to undergo the heat of the day and the cold of the night.
- 31 And I will send punishment on him and on his seed and on his servants for their evil-doing; I will send on them and on the people of Jerusalem and the men of Judah, all the evil which I said against them, but they did not give ear.
- 32 Then Jeremiah took another book, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who put down in it, from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which had been burned in the fire by Jehoiakim, king of Judah: and in addition a number of othe
- 1 And Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, became king in place of Coniah, the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, made king in the land of Judah.
- 2 But he and his servants and the people of the land did not give ear to the words of the Lord which he said by Jeremiah the prophet.
- 3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal, the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Make prayer now to the Lord our God for us.
- 4 (Now Jeremiah was going about among the people, for they had not put him in prison.
- 5 And Pharaoh's army had come out from Egypt: and the Chaldaeans, who were attacking Jerusalem, hearing news of them, went away from Jerusalem.)
- 6 Then the word of the Lord came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying,
- 7 The Lord, the God of Israel, has said: This is what you are to say to the king of Judah who sent you to get directions from me: See, Pharaoh's army, which has come out to your help, will go back to Egypt, to their land.
- 8 And the Chaldaeans will come back again and make war against this town and they will take it and put it on fire.
- 9 The Lord has said, Have no false hopes, saying to yourselves, The Chaldaeans will go away from us: for they will not go away.
- 10 For even if you had overcome all the army of the Chaldaeans fighting against you, and there were only wounded men among them, still they would get up, every man in his tent, and put this town on fire.
- 11 And it came about that when the Chaldaean army outside Jerusalem had gone away for fear of Pharaoh's army,
- 12 Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, with the purpose of taking up his heritage there among the people.
- 13 But when he was at the Benjamin door, a captain of the watch named Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, who was stationed there, put his hand on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are going to give yourself up to the Chaldaeans.
- 14 Then Jeremiah said, That is not true; I am not going to the Chaldaeans. But he would not give ear to him: so Irijah made him prisoner and took him to the rulers.
- 15 And the rulers were angry with Jeremiah, and gave him blows and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.
- 16 So Jeremiah came into the hole of the prison, under the arches, and was there for a long time.
- 17 Then King Zedekiah sent and got him out: and the king, questioning him secretly in his house, said, Is there any word from the Lord? And Jeremiah said, There is. Then he said, You will be given up into the hands of the king of Babylon.
- 18 Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, What has been my sin against you or against your servants or against this people, that you have put me in prison?
- 19 Where now are your prophets who said to you, The king of Babylon will not come against you and against this land?
- 20 And now be pleased to give ear, O my lord the king; let my prayer for help come before you, and do not make me go back to the house of Jonathan the scribe, for fear that I may come to my death there.

- 21 Then by the order of Zedekiah the king, Jeremiah was put into the place of the armed watchmen, and they gave him every day a cake of bread from the street of the bread-makers, till all the bread in the town was used up. So Jeremiah was kept in the place o
- 1 Now it came to the ears of Shephatiah, the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah, the son of Pashhur, and Jucal, the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur, the son of Malchiah, that Jeremiah had said to all the people,
- 2 These are the words of the Lord: Whoever goes on living in this town will come to his death by the sword or through need of food or by disease: but whoever goes out to the Chaldeans will keep his life out of the power of the attackers and be safe.
- 3 The Lord has said, This town will certainly be given into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will take it.
- 4 Then the rulers said to the king, Let this man be put to death, because he is putting fear into the hearts of the men of war who are still in the town, and into the hearts of the people, by saying such things to them: this man is not working for the well-
- 5 Then Zedekiah the king said, See, he is in your hands: for the king was not able to do anything against them.
- 6 So they took Jeremiah and put him into the water-hole of Malchiah, the king's son, in the place of the armed watchmen: and they let Jeremiah down with cords. And in the hole there was no water, but wet earth: and Jeremiah went down into the wet earth.
- 7 Now it came to the ears of Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, an unsexed servant in the king's house, that they had put Jeremiah into the water-hole; the king at that time being seated in the doorway of Benjamin:
- 8 And Ebed-melech went out from the king's house and said to the king,
- 9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have put into the water-hole; and he will come to his death in the place where he is through need of food: for there is no more bread in the town.
- 10 Then the king gave orders to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take with you three men from here and get Jeremiah out of the water-hole before death overtakes him.
- 11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went into the house of the king, to the place where the clothing was kept, and got from there old clothing and bits of old cloth, and let them down by cords into the water-hole where Jeremiah was.
- 12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Put these bits of old cloth under your arms under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.
- 13 So pulling Jeremiah up with the cords they got him out of the water-hole: and Jeremiah was kept in the place of the armed watchmen.
- 14 Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and took him into the rulers' doorway in the house of the Lord: and the king said to Jeremiah, I have a question to put to you; keep nothing back from me.
- 15 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I give you the answer to your question, will you not certainly put me to death? and if I make a suggestion to you, you will not give it a hearing.
- 16 So King Zedekiah gave his oath to Jeremiah secretly, saying, By the living Lord, who gave us our life, I will not put you to death, or give you up to these men who are desiring to take your life.
- 17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, These are the words of the Lord, the God of armies, the God of Israel: If you go out to the king of Babylon's captains, then you will have life, and the town will not be burned with fire, and you and your family will be kep
- 18 But if you do not go out to the king of Babylon's captains, then this town will be given into the hands of the Chaldeans and they will put it on fire, and you will not get away from them.
- 19 And King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, I am troubled on account of the Jews who have gone over to the Chaldeans, for fear that they may give me up to them and they will put me to shame.
- 20 But Jeremiah said, They will not give you up: be guided now by the word of the Lord as I have given it to you, and it will be well for you, and you will keep your life.
- 21 But if you do not go out, this is what the Lord has made clear to me:
- 22 See, all the rest of the women in the house of the king of Judah will be taken out to the king of Babylon's captains, and these women will say, Your nearest friends have been false to you and have got the better of you: they have made your feet go deep in

- 23 And they will take all your wives and your children out to the Chaldeans: and you will not get away out of their hands, but will be taken by the hands of the king of Babylon: and this town will be burned with fire.
- 24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, Let no man have knowledge of these words, and you will not be put to death.
- 25 But if it comes to the ears of the rulers that I have been talking with you, and they come and say to you, Give us word now of what you have said to the king and what the king said to you, keeping nothing back and we will not put you to death;
- 26 Then you are to say to them, I made my request to the king, that he would not send me back to my death in Jonathan's house.
- 27 Then all the rulers came to Jeremiah, questioning him: and he gave them an answer in the words the king had given him orders to say. So they said nothing more to him; for the thing was not made public.
- 28 So Jeremiah was kept in the place of the armed watchmen till the day when Jerusalem was taken.
- 1 And it came about, that when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah, king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, with all his army, came against Jerusalem, shutting it in on every side;
- 2 In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the town was broken into:)
- 3 All the captains of the king of Babylon came in and took their places in the middle doorway of the town, Nergal-shar-ezer, ruler of Sin-magir, the Rabmag, and Nebushazban, the Rab-saris, and all the captains of the king of Babylon.
- 4 And when Zedekiah, king of Judah, and all the men of war saw it, they went in flight from the town by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the doorway between the two walls: and they went out by the Arabah.
- 5 But the Chaldaean army went after them and overtook Zedekiah in the lowlands of Jericho: and they made him a prisoner and took him up to Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, to be judged by him.
- 6 Then the king of Babylon put the sons of Zedekiah to death before his eyes in Riblah: and the king of Babylon put to death all the great men of Judah.
- 7 And more than this, he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and had him put in chains to take him away to Babylon.
- 8 And the Chaldeans put the king's house on fire, as well as the houses of the people, and had the walls of Jerusalem broken down.
- 9 Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, took away to Babylon as prisoners, all the rest of the workmen who were still in the town, as well as those who had given themselves up to him, and all the rest of the people.
- 10 But Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, let the poorest of the people, who had nothing whatever, go on living in the land of Judah, and gave them vine-gardens and fields at the same time.
- 11 Now Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, gave orders about Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, saying,
- 12 Take him and keep an eye on him and see that no evil comes to him; but do with him whatever he says to you.
- 13 So Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, sent Nebushazban, the Rab-saris, and Nergal-shar-ezer, the Rabmag, and all the chief captains of the king of Babylon,
- 14 And they sent and took Jeremiah out of the place of the watchmen, and gave him into the care of Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him to his house: so he was living among the people.
- 15 Now the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the place of the armed watchmen, saying,
- 16 Go and say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: See, my words will come true for this town, for evil and not for good: they will come about before your eyes on that day.
- 17 But I will keep you safe on that day, says the Lord: you will not be given into the hands of the men you are fearing.
- 18 For I will certainly let you go free, and you will not be put to the sword, but your life will be given to you out of the hands of your attackers: because you have put your faith in me, says the Lord.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, after Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him; for he had been put in chains, among all the prisoners of Jerusalem and Judah who were taken away prisoners t
- 2 And the captain of the armed men took Jeremiah and said to him, The Lord your God gave word of the evil which was to come on this place:
- 3  and the Lord has made it come, and has done as he said; because of your sin against the Lord in not giving ear to his voice; and that is why this thing has come on you.

- 4 Now see, this day I am freeing you from the chains which are on your hands. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, then come, and I will keep an eye on you; but if it does not seem good to you to come with me to Babylon, then do not come: see
- 5 Then go back to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made ruler over the towns of Judah, and make your living-place with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the armed
- 6 So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, in Mizpah, and was living with him among the people who were still in the land.
- 7 Now when it came to the ears of all the captains of the forces who were in the field, and their men, that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, ruler in the land, and had put under his care the men and women and children, all the poore
- 8 Then they came to Gedaliah in Mizpah, even Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, and Seraiah, the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah, the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.
- 9 And Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to them and their men, saying, Have no fear of the servants of the Chaldaeans: go on living in the land, and become the servants of the king of Babylon, and all will be well.
- 10 As for me, I will be living in Mizpah as your representative before the Chaldaeans who come to us: but you are to get in your wine and summer fruits and oil and put them in your vessels, and make living-places for yourselves in the towns which you have ta
- 11 In the same way, when all the Jews who were in Moab and among the children of Ammon and in Edom and in all the countries, had news that the king of Babylon had let Judah keep some of its people and that he had put over them Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, th
- 12 Then all the Jews came back from all the places to which they had gone in flight, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and got in a great store of wine and summer fruit.
- 13 Now Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were in the field, came to Gedaliah in Mizpah,
- 14 And said to him, Has it come to your knowledge that Baalis, the king of the children of Ammon, has sent Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, to take your life? But Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, put no faith in what they said.
- 15 Then Johanan, the son of Kareah, said to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, Let me now go and put Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, to death without anyone's knowledge: why let him take your life so that all the Jews who have come together to you may be sent in fl
- 16 But Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, said to Johanan, the son of Kareah, You are not to do this: for what you say about Ishmael is false.
- 1 Now it came about in the seventh month that Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the king's seed, having with him ten men, came to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, in Mizpah; and they had a meal together in Mizpah.
- 2 Then Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, got up, and attacking Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, put to death him whom the king of Babylon had made ruler over the land.
- 3 And Ishmael put to death all the Jews who were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldaean men of war.
- 4 Now on the second day after he had put Gedaliah to death, when no one had knowledge of it,
- 5 Some people came from Shechem, from Shiloh and Samaria, eighty men, with the hair of their faces cut off and their clothing out of order, and with cuts on their bodies, and in their hands meal offerings and perfumes which they were taking to the house of
- 6 And Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, went out from Mizpah with the purpose of meeting them, weeping on his way: and it came about that when he was face to face with them he said, Come to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam.
- 7 And when they came inside the town, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and the men who were with him, put them to death and put their bodies into a deep hole.
- 8 But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, Do not put us to death, for we have secret stores, in the country, of grain and oil and honey. So he did not put them to death with their countrymen.
- 9 Now the hole into which Ishmael had put the dead bodies of the men whom he had put to death, was the great hole which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha, king of Israel: and Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, made it full of the bodies of those who had

- 10 Then Ishmael took away as prisoners all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people still in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, had put under the care of Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam: Ishmael, the
- 11 But when Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the armed forces who were with him, had news of all the evil which Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had done,
- 12 They took their men and went out to make war on Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and they came face to face with him by the great waters in Gibeon.
- 13 Now when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces with him, then they were glad.
- 14 And all the people whom Ishmael had taken away prisoners from Mizpah, turning round, came back and went to Johanan, the son of Kareah.
- 15 But Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, got away from Johanan, with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.
- 16 Then Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, took all the rest of the people whom Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had made prisoners, after he had put to death Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the people from Mizpah, t
- 17 And they went and were living in the resting-place of Chimham, which is near Beth-lehem on the way into Egypt,
- 18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were in fear of them because Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had put to death Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made ruler over the land.
- 1 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah, the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, came near,
- 2 And said to Jeremiah the prophet, Let our request come before you, and make prayer for us to the Lord your God, even for this small band of us; for we are only a small band out of what was a great number, as your eyes may see:
- 3 That the Lord your God may make clear to us the way in which we are to go and what we are to do.
- 4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have given ear to you; see, I will make prayer to the Lord your God, as you have said; and it will be that, whatever the Lord may say in answer to you, I will give you word of it, keeping nothing back.
- 5 Then they said to Jeremiah, May the Lord be a true witness against us in good faith, if we do not do everything which the Lord your God sends you to say to us.
- 6 If it is good or if it is evil, we will be guided by the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we are sending you; so that it may be well for us when we give ear to the voice of the Lord our God.
- 7 And it came about that after ten days the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah.
- 8 And he sent for Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were still with him, and all the people, from the least to the greatest,
- 9 And said to them, These are the words of the Lord, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to put your request before him:
- 10 If you still go on living in the land, then I will go on building you up and not pulling you down, planting you and not uprooting you: for my purpose of doing evil to you has been changed.
- 11 Have no fear of the king of Babylon, of whom you are now in fear; have no fear of him, says the Lord: for I am with you to keep you safe and to give you salvation from his hands.
- 12 And I will have mercy on you, so that he may have mercy on you and let you go back to your land.
- 13 But if you say, We have no desire to go on living in this land; and do not give ear to the voice of the Lord your God,
- 14 Saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we will not see war, or be hearing the sound of the horn, or be in need of food; there we will make our living-place;
- 15 Then give ear now to the word of the Lord, O you last of Judah: the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, If your minds are fixed on going into Egypt and stopping there;
- 16 Then it will come about that the sword, which is the cause of your fear, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and need of food, which you are fearing, will go after you there in Egypt; and there death will come to you.
- 17 Such will be the fate of all the men whose minds are fixed on going into Egypt and stopping there; they will come to their end by the sword, by being short of food, and by disease: not one of them will keep his life or get away from the evil which I will

- 18 For this is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: As my wrath and passion have been let loose on the people of Jerusalem, so will my passion be let loose on you when you go into Egypt: and you will become an oath and a cause of wonder and
- 19 The Lord has said about you, O last of Judah, Go not into Egypt: be certain that I have given witness to you this day.
- 20 For you have been acting with deceit in your hearts; for you sent me to the Lord your God, saying, Make prayer for us to the Lord our God, and give us word of everything he may say, and we will do it.
- 21 And this day I have made it clear to you, and you have not given ear to the voice of the Lord your God in anything for which he has sent me to you.
- 22 And now be certain that you will come to your end by the sword and by being short of food and by disease, in the place to which you are pleased to go for a living-place.
- 1 And it came about that when Jeremiah had come to the end of giving all the people the words of the Lord their God, which the Lord their God had sent him to say to them, even all these words,
- 2 Then Azariah, the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the men of pride, said to Jeremiah, You have said what is false: the Lord our God has not sent you to say, You are not to go into the land of Egypt and make your living-place there
- 3 But Baruch, the son of Neriah, is moving you against us, to give us up into the hands of the Chaldaeans so that they may put us to death, and take us away prisoners into Babylon.
- 4 So Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, did not give ear to the order of the Lord that they were to go on living in the land of Judah.
- 5 But Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces took all the rest of Judah who had come back into the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been forced to go;
- 6 The men and the women and the children and the king's daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, had put under the care of Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch, the son of Ne
- 7 And they came into the land of Egypt; for they did not give ear to the voice of the Lord: and they came to Tahpanhes.
- 8 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,
- 9 Take in your hand some great stones, and put them in a safe place in the paste in the brickwork which is at the way into Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, before the eyes of the men of Judah;
- 10 And say to them, This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: See, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant, and he will put the seat of his kingdom on these stones which have been put in a safe place here by y
- 11 And he will come and overcome the land of Egypt; those who are for death will be put to death, those who are to be prisoners will be made prisoners, and those who are for the sword will be given to the sword.
- 12 And he will put a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and they will be burned by him: and he will make Egypt clean as a keeper of sheep makes clean his clothing; and he will go out from there in peace.
- 13 And the stone pillars of Beth-shemesh in the land of Egypt will be broken by him, and the houses of the gods of Egypt burned with fire.
- 1 The word which came to Jeremiah about all the Jews who were living in the land of Egypt, in Migdol and at Tahpanhes and at Noph and in the country of Pathros, saying,
- 2 The Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: You have seen all the evil which I have sent on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah; and now, this day they are waste and unpeopled;
- 3 Because of the evil which they have done, moving me to wrath by burning perfumes in worship to other gods, who were not their gods or yours or the gods of their fathers.
- 4 And I sent all my servants the prophets to you, getting up early and sending them, saying, Do not do this disgusting thing which is hated by me.
- 5 But they gave no attention, and their ears were not open so that they might be turned from their evil-doing and from burning perfume to other gods.
- 6 Because of this, my passion and my wrath were let loose, burning in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are waste and unpeopled as at this day.

- 7 So now, the Lord, the God of armies, the God of Israel, has said, Why are you doing this great evil against yourselves, causing every man and woman, little child and baby at the breast among you in Judah to be cut off till not one is still living;
- 8 Moving me to wrath with the work of your hands, burning perfumes to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to make a place for yourselves, so that you may become a curse and a name of shame among all the nations of the earth?
- 9 Have you no memory of the evil-doing of your fathers, and the evil-doing of the kings of Judah, and the evil-doing of their wives, and the evil which you yourselves have done, and the evil which your wives have done, in the land of Judah and in the street
- 10 Even to this day their hearts are not broken, and they have no fear, and have not gone in the way of my law or of my rules which I gave to you and to your fathers.
- 11 So this is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: See, my face will be turned against you for evil, for the cutting off of all Judah;
- 12 And I will take the last of Judah, whose minds are fixed on going into the land of Egypt and stopping there, and they will all come to their end, falling in the land of Egypt by the sword and by being short of food and by disease; death will overtake them
- 13 For I will send punishment on those who are living in the land of Egypt, as I have sent punishment on Jerusalem, by the sword and by need of food and by disease:
- 14 So that not one of the rest of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt and are living there, will get away or keep his life, to come back to the land of Judah where they are hoping to come back and be living again: for not one will come back, but only
- 15 Then all the men who had knowledge that their wives were burning perfumes to other gods, and all the women who were present, a great meeting, answering Jeremiah, said,
- 16 As for the word which you have said to us in the name of the Lord, we will not give ear to you.
- 17 But we will certainly do every word which has gone out of our mouths, burning perfumes to the queen of heaven and draining out drink offerings to her as we did, we and our fathers and our kings and our rulers, in the towns of Judah and in the streets of J
- 18 But from the time when we gave up burning perfumes to the queen of heaven and draining out drink offerings to her, we have been in need of all things, and have been wasted by the sword and by need of food.
- 19 And the women said, When we were burning perfumes to the queen of heaven and draining out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes in her image and give her our drink offerings without the knowledge of our husbands?
- 20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and women and all the people who had given him that answer,
- 21 The perfumes which you have been burning in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers and your kings and your rulers and the people of the land, had the Lord no memory of them, and did he not keep them in mind?
- 22 And the Lord was no longer able to put up with the evil of your doings and the disgusting things you did; and because of this your land has become a waste and a cause of wonder and a curse, with no one living in it, as at this day.
- 23 Because you have been burning perfumes, and sinning against the Lord, and have not given ear to the voice of the Lord, or gone in the way of his law or his rules or his orders; for this reason this evil has come on you, as it is today.
- 24 Further, Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, Give ear to the word of the Lord, all those of Judah who are living in Egypt:
- 25 This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: You women have said with your mouths, and with your hands you have done what you said, We will certainly give effect to the oaths we have made, to have perfumes burned to the queen of heaven an
- 26 And now give ear to the word of the Lord, all you of Judah who are living in the land of Egypt: Truly, I have taken an oath by my great name, says the Lord, that my name is no longer to be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, s
- 27 See, I am watching over them for evil and not for good: all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be wasted by the sword and by need of food till there is an end of them.
- 28 And those who get away safe from the sword will come back from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, a very small number; and all the rest of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt and are living there, will see whose word has effect, mine or their

- 29 And this will be the sign to you, says the Lord, that I will give you punishment in this place, so that you may see that my words will certainly have effect against you for evil:
- 30 The Lord has said, See, I will give up Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, into the hands of those who are fighting against him and desiring to take his life, as I gave Zedekiah, king of Judah, into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, his hater, who
- 1 The words which Jeremiah the prophet said to Baruch, the son of Neriah, when he put these words down in a book from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah; he said,
- 2 This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said of you, O Baruch:
- 3 You said, Sorrow is mine! for the Lord has given me sorrow in addition to my pain; I am tired with the sound of my sorrow, and I get no rest.
- 4 This is what you are to say to him: The Lord has said, Truly, the building which I put up will be broken down, and that which was planted by me will be uprooted, and this through all the land;
- 5 And as for you, are you looking for great things for yourself? Have no desire for them: for truly I will send evil on all flesh, says the Lord: but your life I will keep safe from attack wherever you go.
- 1 The word of the Lord which came to Jeremiah the prophet about the nations.
- 2 Of Egypt: about the army of Pharaoh-neco, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, overcame in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah.
- 3 Get out the breastplate and body-cover, and come together to the fight.
- 4 Make the horses ready, and get up, you horsemen, and take your places with your head-dresses; make the spears sharp and put on the breastplates.
- 5 What have I seen? they are overcome with fear and turned back; their men of war are broken and have gone in flight, not looking back: fear is on every side, says the Lord.
- 6 Let not the quick-footed go in flight, or the man of war get away; on the north, by the river Euphrates, they are slipping and falling.
- 7 Who is this coming up like the Nile, whose waters are lifting their heads like the rivers?
- 8 Egypt is coming up like the Nile, and his waters are lifting their heads like the rivers, and he says, I will go up, covering the earth; I will send destruction on the town and its people.
- 9 Go up, you horses; go rushing on, you carriages of war; go out, you men of war: Cush and Put, gripping the body-cover, and the Ludim, with bent bows.
- 10 But that day is the day of the Lord, the Lord of armies, a day of punishment when he will take payment from his haters: and the sword will have all its desire, drinking their blood in full measure: for there is an offering to the Lord, the Lord of armies,
- 11 Go up to Gilead and take sweet oil, O virgin daughter of Egypt: there is no help in all your medical arts; nothing will make you well.
- 12 Your shame has come to the ears of the nations, and the earth is full of your cry: for the strong man is falling against the strong, they have come down together.
- 13 The word which the Lord said to Jeremiah the prophet, of how Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, would come and make war on the land of Egypt.
- 14 Give the news in Migdol, make it public in Noph: say, Take up your positions and make yourselves ready; for on every side of you the sword has made destruction.
- 15 Why has Apis, your strong one, gone in flight? he was not able to keep his place, because the Lord was forcing him down with strength.
- 16 ... are stopped in their going, they are falling; and they say one to another, Let us get up and go back to our people, to the land of our birth, away from the cruel sword.
- 17 Give a name to Pharaoh, king of Egypt: A noise who has let the time go by.
- 18 By my life, says the King, whose name is the Lord of armies, truly, like Tabor among the mountains and like Carmel by the sea, so will he come.
- 19 O daughter living in Egypt, make ready the vessels of a prisoner: for Noph will become a waste, it will be burned up and become unpeopled.
- 20 Egypt is a fair young cow; but a biting insect has come on her out of the north.

- 21 And those who were her fighters for payment are like fat oxen; for they are turned back, they have gone in flight together, they do not keep their place: for the day of their fate has come on them, the time of their punishment.
- 22 She makes a sound like the hiss of a snake when they come on with strength; they go against her with axes, like woodcutters.
- 23 They will be cutting down her woods, for they may not be searched out; because they are like locusts, more than may be numbered.
- 24 The daughter of Egypt will be put to shame; she will be given up into the hands of the people of the north.
- 25 The Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: See, I will send punishment on Amon of No and on Pharaoh and on those who put their faith in him;
- 26 And I will give them up into the hands of those who will take their lives, and into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, and into the hands of his servants: and later, it will be peopled as in the past, says the Lord.
- 27 But have no fear, O Jacob, my servant, and do not be troubled, O Israel: for see, I will make you come back from far away, and your seed from the land where they are prisoners; and Jacob will come back, and will be quiet and in peace, and no one will give
- 28 Have no fear, O Jacob, my servant, says the Lord; for I am with you: for I will put an end to all the nations where I have sent you, but I will not put an end to you completely: though with wise purpose I will put right your errors, and will not let you g
- 1 The word of the Lord which came to Jeremiah the prophet about the Philistines, before Pharaoh's attack on Gaza.
- 2 This is what the Lord has said: See, waters are coming up out of the north, and will become an overflowing stream, overflowing the land and everything in it, the town and those who are living in it; and men will give a cry, and all the people of the land
- 3 At the noise of the stamping of the feet of his war-horses, at the rushing of his carriages and the thunder of his wheels, fathers will give no thought to their children, because their hands are feeble;
- 4 Because of the day which is coming with destruction on all the Philistines, cutting off from Tyre and Sidon the last of their helpers: for the Lord will send destruction on the Philistines, the rest of the sea-land of Caphtor.
- 5 The hair is cut off from the head of Gaza; Ashkelon has come to nothing; the last of the Anakim are deeply wounding themselves.
- 6 O sword of the Lord, how long will you have no rest? put yourself back into your cover; be at peace, be quiet.
- 7 How is it possible for it to be quiet, seeing that the Lord has given it orders? against Ashkelon and against the sea-land he has given it directions.
- 1 Of Moab. The Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Sorrow on Nebo, for it has been made waste; Kiriathaim has been put to shame and is taken: the strong place is put to shame and broken down.
- 2 The praise of Moab has come to an end; as for Heshbon, evil has been designed against her; come, let us put an end to her as a nation. But your mouth will be shut, O Madmen; the sword will go after you.
- 3 There is the sound of crying from Horonaim, wasting and great destruction;
- 4 Moab is broken; her cry has gone out to Zoar.
- 5 For by the slope of Luhith they will go up, weeping all the way; for on the way down to Horonaim the cry of destruction has come to their ears.
- 6 Go in flight, get away with your lives, and let your faces be turned to Aroer in the Arabah.
- 7 For because you have put your faith in your strong places, you, even you, will be taken: and Chemosh will go out as a prisoner, his priests and his rulers together.
- 8 And the attacker will come against every town, not one will be safe; and the valley will be made waste, and destruction will come to the lowland, as the Lord has said.
- 9 Put up a pillar for Moab, for she will come to a complete end: and her towns will become a waste, without anyone living in them.
- 10 Let him be cursed who does the Lord's work half-heartedly; let him be cursed who keeps back his sword from blood.
- 11 From his earliest days, Moab has been living in comfort; like wine long stored he has not been drained from vessel to vessel, he has never gone away as a prisoner: so his taste is still in him, his smell is unchanged.
- 12 So truly, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will send to him men who will have him turned over till there is no more wine in his vessels, and his wine-skins will be completely broken.

- 13 And Moab will be shamed on account of Chemosh, as the children of Israel were shamed on account of Beth-el their hope.
- 14 How say you, We are men of war and strong fighters?
- 15 He who makes Moab waste has gone up against her; and the best of her young men have gone down to their death, says the King, whose name is the Lord of armies.
- 16 The fate of Moab is near, and trouble is coming on him very quickly.
- 17 All you who are round about him, give signs of grief for him, and all you who have knowledge of his name, say, How is the strong rod broken, even the beautiful branch!
- 18 Come down from your glory, O people of Dibon, and take your seat in the place of the waste; for the attacker of Moab has gone up against you, sending destruction on your strong places.
- 19 O daughter of Aroer, take your station by the way, on the watch: questioning him who is in flight, and her who has got away safe, say, What has been done?
- 20 Moab has been put to shame, she is broken: make loud sounds of grief, crying out for help; give the news in Arnon, that Moab has been made waste.
- 21 And punishment has come on the lowlands; on Holon and Jahzah, and on Mephaath,
- 22 And on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth-diblathaim,
- 23 And on Kiriathaim, and on Beth-gamul, and on Beth-meon,
- 24 And on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the towns of the land of Moab, far and near.
- 25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the Lord.
- 26 Make him full of wine, for his heart has been lifted up against the Lord: and Moab will be rolling in the food he was not able to keep down, and everyone will be making sport of him.
- 27 For did you not make sport of Israel? was he taken among thieves? for whenever you were talking about him, you were shaking your head over him.
- 28 O people of Moab, go away from the towns and take cover in the rock; be like the dove of the Arabah, which makes her living-place in holes.
- 29 We have had word of the pride of Moab, how great it is; how he is lifted up in pride; and his great opinion of himself, and that his heart is lifted up.
- 30 I have knowledge of his wrath, says the Lord, that it is nothing; his high-sounding words have done nothing.
- 31 For this cause I will give cries of grief for Moab, crying out for Moab, even for all of it; I will be sorrowing for the men of Kir-heres.
- 32 My weeping for you, O vine of Sibmah, will be more than the weeping of Jazer: your branches have gone over the sea, stretching even to Jazer: destruction has come down on your summer fruits and your cut grapes.
- 33 All joy is gone; no longer are they glad for the fertile field and for the land of Moab; I have made the wine come to an end from the crushing vessels: no longer will the grapes be crushed with the sound of glad voices.
- 34 The cry of Heshbon comes even to Elealeh; to Jahaz their voice is sounding; from Zoar even to Horonaim and to Eglath-shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim will become dry.
- 35 And I will put an end in Moab, says the Lord, to him who is making offerings in the high place and burning perfumes to his gods.
- 36 So my heart is sounding for Moab like the sound of pipes, and my heart is sounding like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: for the wealth he has got for himself has come to an end.
- 37 For everywhere the hair of the head and the hair of the face is cut off: on every hand there are wounds, and haircloth on every body.
- 38 On all the house-tops of Moab and in its streets there is weeping everywhere; for Moab has been broken like a vessel in which there is no pleasure, says the Lord.
- 39 How is it broken down! how is Moab's back turned in shame! so Moab will be a cause of sport and of fear to everyone round about him.
- 40 For the Lord has said, See, he will come like an eagle in flight, stretching out his wings against Moab.
- 41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong places have been forced, and the hearts of Moab's men of war in that day will be like the heart of a woman in birth-pains.
- 42 And Moab will come to an end as a people, because he has been lifting himself up against the Lord.

- 43 Fear and death and the net have come on you, O people of Moab, says the Lord.
- 44 He who goes in flight from the fear will be overtaken by death; and he who gets free from death will be taken in the net: for I will make this come on Moab, even the year of their punishment, says the Lord.
- 45 Those who went in flight from the fear are waiting under the shade of Heshbon: for a fire has gone out from Heshbon and a flame from the house of Sihon, burning up the pride of Moab and the crown of the head of the violent ones.
- 46 Sorrow is yours, O Moab! the people of Chemosh are overcome: for your sons have been taken away as prisoners, and your daughters made servants.
- 47 But still, I will let the fate of Moab be changed in the last days, says the Lord.
- 1 About the children of Ammon. These are the words of the Lord: Has Israel no sons? has he no one to take the heritage? why then has Milcom taken Gad for himself, putting his people in its towns?
- 2 Because of this, see, the days are coming when I will have a cry of war sounded against Rabbah, the town of the children of Ammon; it will become a waste of broken walls, and her daughter-towns will be burned with fire: then Israel will take the heritage
- 3 Make sounds of grief, O Heshbon, for Ai is wasted; give loud cries, O daughters of Rabbah, and put haircloth round you: give yourselves to weeping, running here and there and wounding yourselves; for Milcom will be taken prisoner together with his rulers
- 4 Why are you lifted up in pride on account of your valleys, your flowing valley, O daughter ever turning away? who puts her faith in her wealth, saying, Who will come against me?
- 5 See, I will send fear on you, says the Lord, the Lord of armies, from those who are round you on every side; you will be forced out, every man straight before him, and there will be no one to get together the wanderers.
- 6 But after these things, I will let the fate of the children of Ammon be changed, says the Lord.
- 7 About Edom. This is what the Lord of armies has said. Is there no more wisdom in Teman? have wise suggestions come to an end among men of good sense? has their wisdom completely gone?
- 8 Go in flight, go back, take cover in deep places, you who are living in Dedan; for I will send the fate of Edom on him, even the time of his punishment.
- 9 If men came to get your grapes, would they not let some be uncut on the vines? if thieves came by night, would they not make waste till they had enough?
- 10 I have had Esau searched out, uncovering his secret places, so that he may not keep himself covered: his seed is wasted and has come to an end, and there is no help from his neighbours.
- 11 Put in my care your children who have no father, and I will keep them safe; and let your widows put their faith in me.
- 12 For the Lord has said, Those for whom the cup was not made ready will certainly be forced to take of it; and are you to go without punishment? you will not be without punishment, but will certainly be forced to take from the cup.
- 13 For I have taken an oath by myself, says the Lord, that Bozrah will become a cause of wonder, a name of shame, a waste and a curse; and all its towns will be waste places for ever.
- 14 Word has come to me from the Lord, and a representative has been sent to the nations, to say, Come together and go up against her, and take your places for the fight.
- 15 For see, I have made you small among the nations, looked down on by men.
- 16 ... the pride of your heart has been a false hope, O you who are living in the cracks of the rock, keeping your place on the top of the hill: even if you made your living-place as high as the eagle, I would make you come down, says the Lord.
- 17 And Edom will become a cause of wonder: everyone who goes by will be overcome with wonder, and make sounds of fear at all her punishments.
- 18 As at the downfall of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring towns, says the Lord, no man will be living in it, no son of man will have a resting-place there.
- 19 See, he will come up like a lion from the thick growth of Jordan against the resting-place of Teman: but I will suddenly make him go in flight from her; and I will put over her the man of my selection: for who is like me? and who will put forward his cause
- 20 For this cause give ear to the decision of the Lord which he has made against Edom, and to his purposes designed against the people of Teman: Truly, they will be pulled away by the smallest of the flock; truly, he will make waste their fields with them.
- 21 The earth is shaking with the noise of their fall; their cry is sounding in the Red Sea.

- 22 See, he will come up like an eagle in flight, stretching out his wings against Bozrah: and the hearts of Edom's men of war on that day will be like the heart of a woman in birth-pains.
- 23 About Damascus. Hamath is put to shame, and Arpad; for the word of evil has come to their ears, their heart in its fear is turned to water, it will not be quiet.
- 24 Damascus has become feeble, she is turned to flight, fear has taken her in its grip: pain and sorrows have come on her, as on a woman in birth-pains.
- 25 How has the town of praise been wasted, the place of joy!
- 26 So her young men will be falling in her streets, and all the men of war will be cut off in that day, says the Lord of armies.
- 27 And I will have a fire lighted on the wall of Damascus, burning up the great houses of Ben-hadad.
- 28 About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, overcame. This is what the Lord has said: Up! go against Kedar, and make an attack on the children of the east.
- 29 Their tents and their flocks they will take; they will take away for themselves their curtains and all their vessels and their camels: they will give a cry to them, Fear on every side.
- 30 Go in flight, go wandering far off, take cover in deep places, O people of Hazor, says the Lord; for Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, has made a design against you, he has a purpose against you in mind.
- 31 Up! go against a nation which is living in comfort and without fear of danger, says the Lord, without doors or locks, living by themselves.
- 32 And their camels will be taken from them by force, and their great herds will come into the hands of their attackers: those who have the ends of their hair cut I will send in flight to all the winds; and I will send their fate on them from every side, say
- 33 And Hazor will be a hole for jackals, a waste for ever: no one will be living in it, and no son of man will have a resting-place there.
- 34 The word of the Lord which came to Jeremiah the prophet about Elam, when Zedekiah first became king of Judah, saying,
- 35 This is what the Lord of armies has said: See, I will have the bow of Elam, their chief strength, broken.
- 36 And I will send on Elam four winds from the four quarters of heaven, driving them out to all those winds; there will be no nation into which the wanderers from Elam do not come.
- 37 And I will let Elam be broken before their haters, and before those who are making designs against their lives: I will send evil on them, even my burning wrath, says the Lord; and I will send the sword after them till I have put an end to them:
- 38 I will put the seat of my power in Elam, and in Elam I will put an end to kings and rulers, says the Lord.
- 39 But it will come about that, in the last days, I will let the fate of Elam be changed, says the Lord.
- 1 The word which the Lord said about Babylon, about the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.
- 2 Give it out among the nations, make it public, and let the flag be lifted up; give the word and keep nothing back; say, Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is broken, her images are put to shame, her gods are broken.
- 3 For out of the north a nation is coming up against her, which will make her land waste and unpeopled: they are in flight, man and beast are gone.
- 4 In those days and in that time, says the Lord, the children of Israel will come, they and the children of Judah together; they will go on their way weeping and making prayer to the Lord their God.
- 5 They will be questioning about the way to Zion, with their faces turned in its direction, saying, Come, and be united to the Lord in an eternal agreement which will be kept in mind for ever.
- 6 My people have been wandering sheep: their keepers have made them go out of the right way, turning them loose on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, having no memory of their resting-place.
- 7 They have been attacked by all those who came across them: and their attackers said, We are doing no wrong, because they have done evil against the Lord in whom is righteousness, against the Lord, the hope of their fathers.
- 8 Go in flight out of Babylon, go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be like he-goats before the flocks.
- 9 For see, I am moving and sending up against Babylon a band of great nations from the north country: and they will put their armies in position against her; and from there she will be taken: their arrows will be like those of an expert man of war; not one

- 10 And the wealth of Chaldaeae will come into the hands of her attackers: all those who take her wealth will have enough, says the Lord.
- 11 Because you are glad, because you are lifted up with pride, you wasters of my heritage, because you are playing like a young cow put out to grass, and you make a noise like strong horses;
- 12 Your mother will be put to shame; she who gave you birth will be looked down on: see, she will be the last of the nations, a waste place, a dry and unwatered land.
- 13 Because of the wrath of the Lord no one will be living in it, and it will be quite unpeopled: everyone who goes by Babylon will be overcome with wonder, and make sounds of fear at all her punishments.
- 14 Put your armies in position against Babylon on every side, all you bowmen; let loose your arrows at her, not keeping any back: for she has done evil against the Lord.
- 15 Give a loud cry against her on every side; she has given herself up, her supports are overturned, her walls are broken down: for it is the payment taken by the Lord; give her payment; as she has done, so do to her.
- 16 Let the planter of seed be cut off from Babylon, and everyone using the curved blade at the time of the grain-cutting: for fear of the cruel sword, everyone will be turned to his people, everyone will go in flight to his land.
- 17 Israel is a wandering sheep; the lions have been driving him away: first he was attacked by the king of Assyria, and now his bones have been broken by Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon.
- 18 So this is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: See, I will send punishment on the king of Babylon and on his land, as I have given punishment to the king of Assyria.
- 19 And I will make Israel come back to his resting-place, and he will get his food on Carmel and Bashan, and have his desire in full measure on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead.
- 20 In those days and in that time, says the Lord, when the evil-doing of Israel is looked for, there will be nothing; and in Judah no sins will be seen: for I will have forgiveness for those whom I will keep safe.
- 21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the people of Pekod; put them to death and send destruction after them, says the Lord, and do everything I have given you orders to do.
- 22 There is a sound of war in the land and of great destruction.
- 23 How is the hammer of all the earth cut in two and broken! how has Babylon become a waste among the nations!
- 24 I have put a net for you, and you have been taken, O Babylon, without your knowledge: you have been uncovered and taken because you were fighting against the Lord.
- 25 From his store-house the Lord has taken the instruments of his wrath: for the Lord, the Lord of armies, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldaeans.
- 26 Come up against her one and all, let her store-houses be broken open: make her into a mass of stones, give her to the curse, till there is nothing of her to be seen.
- 27 Put all her oxen to the sword; let them go down to death: sorrow is theirs, for their day has come, the time of their punishment.
- 28 The voice of those who are in flight, who have got away safe from the land of Babylon, to give news in Zion of punishment from the Lord our God, even payment for his Temple.
- 29 Send for the archers to come together against Babylon, all the bowmen; put up your tents against her on every side; let no one get away: give her the reward of her work; as she has done, so do to her: for she has been uplifted in pride against the Lord, a
- 30 For this cause her young men will be falling in her streets, and all her men of war will be cut off in that day, says the Lord.
- 31 See, I am against you, O pride, says the Lord, the Lord of armies, for your day has come, the time when I will send punishment on you.
- 32 And pride will go with uncertain steps and have a fall, and there will be no one to come to his help: and I will put a fire in his towns, burning up everything round about him.
- 33 This is what the Lord of armies has said: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are crushed down together: all those who took them prisoner keep them in a tight grip; they will not let them go.
- 34 Their saviour is strong; the Lord of armies is his name: he will certainly take up their cause, so that he may give rest to the earth and trouble to the people of Babylon.
- 35 A sword is on the Chaldaeans, says the Lord, and on the people of Babylon, and on her rulers and on her wise men.
- 36 A sword is on the men of pride, and they will become foolish: a sword is on her men of war, and they will be broken.

- 37 A sword is on all the mixed people in her, and they will become like women: a sword is on her store-houses, and they will be taken by her attackers.
- 38 A sword is on her waters, drying them up; for it is a land of images, and their minds are fixed on false gods.
- 39 For this reason the beasts of the waste land with the wolves will make their holes there and the ostriches will be living in it: never again will men be living there, it will be unpeopled from generation to generation.
- 40 As when Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring towns were overturned by God, says the Lord, so no man will be living in it, and no son of man will have a resting-place there.
- 41 See, a people is coming from the north; a great nation and a number of kings will be put in motion from the inmost parts of the earth.
- 42 Bows and spears are in their hands; they are cruel and have no mercy; their voice is like the thunder of the sea, and they go on horses; everyone in his place like men going to the fight, against you, O daughter of Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon has had news of them, and his hands have become feeble: trouble has come on him and pain like the pain of a woman in childbirth.
- 44 See, he will come up like a lion from the thick growth of Jordan against the resting-place of Teman: but I will suddenly make them go in flight from her; and I will put over her the man of my selection: for who is like me? and who will put forward his cau
- 45 So give ear to the decision of the Lord which he has made against Babylon, and to his purposes designed against the land of the Chaldaeans; Truly, they will be pulled away by the smallest of the flock; truly, he will make waste their fields with them.
- 46 At the cry, Babylon is taken! the earth is shaking, and the cry comes to the ears of the nations.
- 1 The Lord has said: See, I will make a wind of destruction come up against Babylon and against those who are living in Chaldaea;
- 2 And I will send men to Babylon to make her clean and get her land cleared: for in the day of trouble they will put up their tents against her on every side.
- 3 Against her the bow of the archer is bent, and he puts on his coat of metal: have no mercy on her young men, give all her army up to the curse.
- 4 And the dead will be stretched out in the land of the Chaldaeans, and the wounded in her streets.
- 5 For Israel has not been given up, or Judah, by his God, by the Lord of armies; for their land is full of sin against the Holy One of Israel.
- 6 Go in flight out of Babylon, so that every man may keep his life; do not be cut off in her evil-doing: for it is the time of the Lord's punishment; he will give her her reward.
- 7 Babylon has been a gold cup in the hand of the Lord, which has made all the earth overcome with wine: the nations have taken of her wine, and for this cause the nations have gone off their heads.
- 8 Sudden is the downfall of Babylon and her destruction: make cries of grief for her; take sweet oil for her pain, if it is possible for her to be made well.
- 9 We would have made Babylon well, but she is not made well: give her up, and let us go everyone to his country: for her punishment is stretching up to heaven, and lifted up even to the skies.
- 10 The Lord has made clear our righteousness: come, and let us give an account in Zion of the work of the Lord our God.
- 11 Make bright the arrows; take up the body-covers: the Lord has been moving the spirit of the king of the Medes; because his design against Babylon is its destruction: for it is the punishment from the Lord, the payment for his Temple.
- 12 Let the flag be lifted up against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, put the watchmen in their places, make ready a surprise attack: for it is the Lord's purpose, and he has done what he said about the people of Babylon.
- 13 O you whose living-place is by the wide waters, whose stores are great, your end is come, your evil profit is ended.
- 14 The Lord of armies has taken an oath by himself, saying, Truly, I will make you full with men as with locusts, and their voices will be loud against you.
- 15 He has made the earth by his power, he has made the world strong in its place by his wisdom, and by his wise design the heavens have been stretched out:
- 16 At the sound of his voice there is a massing of the waters in the heavens, and he makes the mists go up from the ends of the earth; he makes the thunder-flames for the rain and sends out the wind from his store-houses.
- 17 Then every man becomes like a beast without knowledge; every gold-worker is put to shame by the image he has made: for his metal image is deceit, and there is no breath in them.

- 18 They are nothing, a work of error: in the time of their punishment, destruction will overtake them.
- 19 The heritage of Jacob is not like these; for the maker of all things is his heritage: the Lord of armies is his name.
- 20 You are my fighting axe and my instrument of war: with you the nations will be broken; with you kingdoms will be broken;
- 21 With you the horse and the horseman will be broken; with you the war-carriage and he who goes in it will be broken;
- 22 With you man and woman will be broken; with you the old man and the boy will be broken; with you the young man and the virgin will be broken;
- 23 With you the keeper of sheep with his flock will be broken, and with you the farmer and his oxen will be broken, and with you captains and rulers will be broken.
- 24 And I will give to Babylon, and to all the people of Chaldaeae, their reward for all the evil they have done in Zion before your eyes, says the Lord.
- 25 See, I am against you, says the Lord, O mountain of destruction, causing the destruction of all the earth: and my hand will be stretched out on you, rolling you down from the rocks, and making you a burned mountain.
- 26 And they will not take from you a stone for the angle of a wall or the base of a building; but you will be a waste place for ever, says the Lord.
- 27 Let a flag be lifted up in the land, let the horn be sounded among the nations, make the nations ready against her; get the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz together against her, make ready a scribe against her; let the horses come up against her!
- 28 Make the nations ready for war against her, the king of the Medes and his rulers and all his captains, and all the land under his rule.
- 29 And the land is shaking and in pain: for the purposes of the Lord are fixed, to make the land of Babylon an unpeopled waste.
- 30 Babylon's men of war have kept back from the fight, waiting in their strong places; their strength has given way, they have become like women: her houses have been put on fire, her locks are broken.
- 31 One man, running, will give word to another, and one who goes with news will be handing it on to another, to give word to the king of Babylon that his town has been taken from every quarter:
- 32 And the ways across the river have been taken, and the water-holes ... burned with fire, and the men of war are in the grip of fear.
- 33 For these are the words of the Lord of armies, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a grain-floor when it is stamped down; before long, the time of her grain-cutting will come.
- 34 Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, has made a meal of me, violently crushing me, he has made me a vessel with nothing in it, he has taken me in his mouth like a dragon, he has made his stomach full with my delicate flesh, crushing me with his teeth.
- 35 May the violent things done to me, and my downfall, come on Babylon, the daughter of Zion will say; and, May my blood be on the people of Chaldaeae, Jerusalem will say.
- 36 For this reason the Lord has said: See, I will give support to your cause, and take payment for what you have undergone; I will make her sea dry, and her fountain without water.
- 37 And Babylon will become a mass of broken walls, a hole for jackals, a cause of wonder and surprise, without a living man in it.
- 38 They will be crying out together like lions, their voices will be like the voices of young lions.
- 39 When they are heated, I will make a feast for them, and overcome them with wine, so that they may become unconscious, sleeping an eternal sleep without awaking, says the Lord.
- 40 I will make them go down to death like lambs, like he-goats together.
- 41 How is Babylon taken! and the praise of all the earth surprised! how has Babylon become a cause of wonder among the nations!
- 42 The sea has come up over Babylon; she is covered with the mass of its waves.
- 43 Her towns have become a waste, a dry and unwatered land, where no man has his living-place and no son of man goes by.
- 44 And I will send punishment on Bel in Babylon, and take out of his mouth what went into it; no longer will the nations be flowing together to him: truly, the wall of Babylon will come down.
- 45 My people, go out from her, and let every man get away safe from the burning wrath of the Lord.

- 46 So that your hearts may not become feeble and full of fear because of the news which will go about in the land; for a story will go about one year, and after that in another year another story, and violent acts in the land, ruler against ruler.
- 47 For this cause, truly, the days are coming when I will send punishment on the images of Babylon, and all her land will be shamed, and her dead will be falling down in her.
- 48 And the heaven and the earth and everything in them, will make a song of joy over Babylon: for those who make her waste will come from the north, says the Lord.
- 49 As Babylon had the dead of Israel put to the sword, so in Babylon the dead of all the land will be stretched out.
- 50 You who have got away safe from the sword, go, waiting for nothing; have the Lord in memory when you are far away, and keep Jerusalem in mind.
- 51 We are shamed because bitter words have come to our ears; our faces are covered with shame: for men from strange lands have come into the holy places of the Lord's house.
- 52 For this reason, see, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will send punishment on her images; and through all her land the wounded will be crying out in pain.
- 53 Even if Babylon was lifted up to heaven, even if she had the high places of her strength shut in with walls, still I would send against her those who will make her waste, says the Lord.
- 54 There is the sound of a cry from Babylon, and of a great destruction from the land of the Chaldaeans:
- 55 For the Lord is making Babylon waste, and putting an end to the great voice coming out of her; and her waves are thundering like great waters, their voice is sounding loud:
- 56 For the waster has come on her, even on Babylon, and her men of war are taken, their bows are broken: for the Lord is a rewarding God, and he will certainly give payment.
- 57 And I will make her chiefs and her wise men, her rulers and her captains and her men of war, overcome with wine; their sleep will be an eternal sleep without awaking, says the King; the Lord of armies is his name.
- 58 The Lord of armies has said: The wide walls of Babylon will be completely uncovered and her high doorways will be burned with fire; so peoples keep on working for nothing, and the weariness of nations comes to an end in the smoke.
- 59 The order which Jeremiah the prophet gave to Seraiah, the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah, the king of Judah, to Babylon in the fourth year of his rule. Now Seraiah was the chief controller of the house.
- 60 And Jeremiah put in a book all the evil which was to come on Babylon.
- 61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, see that you give them all these words;
- 62 And after reading them, say, O Lord, you have said about this place that it is to be cut off, so that no one will be living in it, not a man or a beast, but it will be unpeopled for ever.
- 63 And it will be that, when you have come to an end of reading this book, you are to have a stone fixed to it, and have it dropped into the Euphrates:
- 64 And you are to say, So Babylon will go down, never to be lifted up again, because of the evil which I will send on her: and weariness will overcome them. So far, these are the words of Jeremiah.
- 1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king; he was king for eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
- 2 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as Jehoiakim had done.
- 3 And because of the wrath of the Lord this came about in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had sent them away from before him: and Zedekiah took up arms against the king of Babylon.
- 4 And in the ninth year of his rule, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, came against Jerusalem with all his army and took up his position before it, building earthworks all round it.
- 5 So the town was shut in by their forces till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.
- 6 In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the store of food in the town was almost gone, so that there was no food for the people of the land.
- 7 Then an opening was made in the wall of the town, and all the men of war went in flight out of the town by night through the doorway between the two walls which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldaeans were stationed round the town:) and they went by
- 8 And the Chaldaean army went after King Zedekiah and overtook him on the other side of Jericho, and all his army went in flight from him in every direction.
- 9 Then they made the king a prisoner and took him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath to be judged.

- 10 And the king of Babylon put the sons of Zedekiah to death before his eyes: and he put to death all the rulers of Judah in Riblah.
- 11 And he put out Zedekiah's eyes; and the king of Babylon, chaining him in iron bands, took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.
- 12 Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, a servant of the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem.
- 13 And he had the house of the Lord and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned with fire:
- 14 And the walls round Jerusalem were broken down by the Chaldaean army which was with the captain.
- 15 Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, took away as prisoners the rest of the people who were still in the town, and those who had given themselves up to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the workmen.
- 16 But Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, let the poorest of the land go on living there, to take care of the vines and the fields.
- 17 And the brass pillars which were in the house of the Lord, and the wheeled bases and the great brass water-vessel in the house of the Lord, were broken up by the Chaldaeans, who took all the brass away to Babylon.
- 18 And the pots and the spades and the scissors for the lights and the spoons, and all the brass vessels used in the Lord's house, they took away.
- 19 And the cups and the fire-trays and the basins and the pots and the supports for the lights and the spoons and the wide basins; the gold of the gold vessels, and the silver of the silver vessels, the captain of the armed men took away.
- 20 The two pillars, the great water-vessel, and the twelve brass oxen which were under it, and the ten wheeled bases, which King Solomon had made for the house of the Lord: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.
- 21 And as for the pillars, one pillar was eighteen cubits high, and twelve cubits measured all round, and it was as thick as a man's hand: it was hollow.
- 22 And there was a crown of brass on it: the crown was five cubits high, circled with a network and apples all of brass; and the second pillar had the same.
- 23 There were ninety-six apples on the outside; the number of apples all round the network was a hundred.
- 24 And the captain of the armed men took Seraiah, the chief priest, and Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three door-keepers;
- 25 And from the town he took the unsexed servant who was over the men of war, and seven of the king's near friends who were in the town, and the scribe of the captain of the army, who was responsible for getting the people of the land together in military or
- 26 These Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, took with him to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
- 27 And the king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was taken prisoner away from his land.
- 28 These are the people whom Nebuchadrezzar took away prisoner: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Jews:
- 29 And in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he took away as prisoners from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons:
- 30 In the twenty-third year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, took away as prisoners seven hundred and forty-five of the Jews: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.
- 31 And in the thirty-seventh year after Jehoiachin, king of Judah, had been taken prisoner, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evil-merodach, king of Babylon, in the first year after he became king, took Jehoiachin, king of Judah, ou
- 32 And he said kind words to him and put his seat higher than the seats of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.
- 33 And his prison clothing was changed, and he was a guest at the king's table every day for the rest of his life.
- 34 And for his food, the king gave him a regular amount every day till the day of his death, for the rest of his life.
- 1 Now it came about in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, while I was by the river Chebar among those who had been made prisoners, that the heavens were made open and I saw visions of God.
- 2 On the fifth day of the month, in the fifth year after King Jehoiachin had been made a prisoner,
- 3 The word of the Lord came to me, Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldaeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the Lord was on me there.

- 4 And, looking, I saw a storm-wind coming out of the north, a great cloud with flames of fire coming after one another, and a bright light shining round about it and in the heart of it was something coloured like electrum.
- 5 And in the heart of it were the forms of four living beings. And this was what they were like; they had the form of a man.
- 6 And every one had four faces, and every one of them had four wings.
- 7 And their feet were straight feet; and the under sides of their feet were like the feet of oxen; and they were shining like polished brass.
- 8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings; the four of them had faces on their four sides.
- 9 They went without turning, every one went straight forward.
- 10 As for the form of their faces, they had the face of a man, and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side, and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side, and the four of them had the face of an eagle.
- 11 And their wings were separate at the top; two of the wings of every one were joined one to another, and two were covering their bodies.
- 12 Every one of them went straight forward; wherever the spirit was to go they went; they went on without turning.
- 13 And between the living beings it was like burning coals of fire, as if flames were going one after the other between the living beings; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went thunder-flames.
- 14 And the living beings went out and came back as quickly as a thunder-flame.
- 15 Now while I was looking at the four living beings, I saw one wheel on the earth, by the side of the living beings, for the four of them.
- 16 The form of the wheels and their work was like a beryl; the four of them had the same form and design, and they were like a wheel inside a wheel.
- 17 The four of them went straight forward without turning to one side.
- 18 And I saw that they had edges, and their edges, even of the four, were full of eyes round about.
- 19 And when the living beings went on, the wheels went by their side; and when the living beings were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.
- 20 Wherever the spirit was to go they went; and the wheels were lifted up by their side: for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.
- 21 When these went on, the others went; and when these came to rest, the others came to rest; and when these were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up by their side: for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.
- 22 And over the heads of the living beings there was the form of an arch, looking like ice, stretched out over their heads on high.
- 23 Under the arch their wings were straight, one stretched out to another: every one had two wings covering their bodies on this side and two covering their bodies on that side.
- 24 And when they went, the sound of their wings was like the sound of great waters to my ears, like the voice of the Ruler of all, a sound like the rushing of an army: when they came to rest they let down their wings.
- 25 And there was a voice from the top of the arch which was over their heads: when they came to rest they let down their wings.
- 26 And on the top of the arch which was over their heads was the form of a king's seat, like a sapphire stone; and on the form of the seat was the form of a man seated on it on high.
- 27 And I saw it coloured like electrum, with the look of fire in it and round it, going up from what seemed to be the middle of his body; and going down from what seemed to be the middle of his body I saw what was like fire, and there was a bright light shin
- 28 Like the bow in the cloud on a day of rain, so was the light shining round him. And this is what the glory of the Lord was like. And when I saw it I went down on my face, and the voice of one talking came to my ears.
- 1 And he said to me, Son of man, get up on your feet, so that I may say words to you.
- 2 And at his words the spirit came into me and put me on my feet; and his voice came to my ears.
- 3 And he said to me, Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Israel, to an uncontrolled nation which has gone against me: they and their fathers have been sinners against me even to this very day.
- 4 And the children are hard and stiff-hearted; I am sending you to them: and you are to say to them, These are the words of the Lord.

- 5 And they, if they give ear to you or if they do not give ear (for they are an uncontrolled people), will see that there has been a prophet among them.
- 6 And you, son of man, have no fear of them or of their words, even if sharp thorns are round you and you are living among scorpions: have no fear of their words and do not be overcome by their looks, for they are an uncontrolled people.
- 7 And you are to give them my words, if they give ear to you or if they do not: for they are uncontrolled.
- 8 But you, son of man, give ear to what I say to you, and do not be uncontrolled like that uncontrolled people: let your mouth be open and take what I give you.
- 9 And looking, I saw a hand stretched out to me, and I saw the roll of a book in it;
- 10 And he put it open before me, and it had writing on the front and on the back; words of grief and sorrow and trouble were recorded in it.
- 1 And he said to me, Son of man, take this roll for your food, and go and say my words to the children of Israel.
- 2 And, on my opening my mouth, he made me take the roll as food.
- 3 And he said to me, Son of man, let your stomach make a meal of it and let your inside be full of this roll which I am giving you. Then I took it, and it was sweet as honey in my mouth.
- 4 And he said to me, Son of man, go now to the children of Israel, and say my words to them.
- 5 For you are not sent to a people whose talk is strange and whose language is hard, but to the children of Israel;
- 6 Not to a number of peoples whose talk is strange and whose language is hard and whose words are not clear to you. Truly, if I sent you to them they would give ear to you.
- 7 But the children of Israel will not give ear to you; for they have no mind to give ear to me: for all the children of Israel have a hard brow and a stiff heart.
- 8 See, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your brow hard against their brows.
- 9 Like a diamond harder than rock I have made your brow: have no fear of them and do not be overcome by their looks, for they are an uncontrolled people.
- 10 Then he said to me, Son of man, take into your heart all my words which I am about to say to you, and let your ears be open to them.
- 11 And go now to those who have been taken away as prisoners, to the children of your people, and say to them, This is what the Lord has said; if they give ear or if they do not.
- 12 Then I was lifted up by the wind, and at my back the sound of a great rushing came to my ears when the glory of the Lord was lifted up from his place.
- 13 And there was the sound of the wings of the living beings touching one another, and the sound of the wheels at their side, the sound of a great rushing.
- 14 And the wind, lifting me up, took me away: and I went in the heat of my spirit, and the hand of the Lord was strong on me.
- 15 Then I came to those who had been taken away as prisoners, who were at Telabib by the river Chebar, and I was seated among them full of wonder for seven days.
- 16 And at the end of seven days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 17 Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the children of Israel: so give ear to the word of my mouth, and give them word from me of their danger.
- 18 When I say to the evil-doer, Death will certainly be your fate; and you give him no word of it and say nothing to make clear to the evil-doer the danger of his evil way, so that he may be safe; that same evil man will come to death in his evil-doing; but
- 19 But if you give the evil-doer word of his danger, and he is not turned from his sin or from his evil way, death will overtake him in his evil-doing; but your life will be safe.
- 20 Again, when an upright man, turning away from his righteousness, does evil, and I put a cause of falling in his way, death will overtake him: because you have given him no word of his danger, death will overtake him in his evil-doing, and there will be no
- 21 But if you say to the upright man that he is not to do evil, he will certainly keep his life because he took note of your word; and your life will be safe.
- 22 And the hand of the Lord was on me there; and he said, Get up and go out into the valley and there I will have talk with you.

- 23 Then I got up and went out into the valley; and I saw the glory of the Lord resting there as I had seen it by the river Chebar; and I went down on my face.
- 24 Then the spirit came into me and put me on my feet; and he had talk with me and said to me, Go and keep yourself shut up inside your house.
- 25 But see, O son of man, I will put bands on you, prisoning you in them, and you will not go out among them:
- 26 And I will make your tongue fixed to the roof of your mouth, so that you have no voice and may not make protests to them: for they are an uncontrolled people.
- 27 But when I have talk with you I will make your mouth open, and you are to say to them, This is what the Lord has said: Let the hearer give ear; and as for him who will not, let him keep his ears shut: for they are an uncontrolled people.
- 1 And you, son of man, take a brick and put it before you and on it make a picture of a town, even Jerusalem.
- 2 And make an attack on it, shutting it in, building strong places against it, and making high an earthwork against it; and put up tents against it, placing engines all round it for smashing down its walls.
- 3 And take a flat iron plate, and put it for a wall of iron between you and the town: and let your face be turned to it, and it will be shut in and you will make an attack on it. This will be a sign to the children of Israel.
- 4 Then, stretching yourself out on your left side, take the sin of the children of Israel on yourself: for as long as you are stretched out, so long will the sin of the children of Israel be on you.
- 5 For I have had the years of their sin measured for you by a number of days, even three hundred and ninety days: and you will take on yourself the sin of the children of Israel.
- 6 And when these days are ended, turning on your right side, you are to take on yourself the sin of the children of Judah: forty days, a day for a year, I have had it fixed for you.
- 7 And let your face be turned to where Jerusalem is shut in, with your arm uncovered, and be a prophet against it.
- 8 And see, I will put bands on you; and you will be stretched out without turning from one side to the other till the days of your attack are ended.
- 9 And take for yourself wheat and barley and different sorts of grain, and put them in one vessel and make bread for yourself from them; all the days when you are stretched on your side it will be your food.
- 10 And you are to take your food by weight, twenty shekels a day: you are to take it at regular times.
- 11 And you are to take water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: you are to take it at regular times.
- 12 And let your food be barley cakes, cooking it before their eyes with the waste which comes out of a man.
- 13 And the Lord said, Even so the children of Israel will have unclean bread for their food among the nations where I am driving them.
- 14 Then I said, Ah, Lord! see, my soul has never been unclean, and I have never taken as my food anything which has come to a natural death or has been broken by beasts, from the time when I was young even till now; no disgusting flesh has ever come into my
- 15 Then he said to me, See, I have given you cow's waste in place of man's waste, and you will make your bread ready on it.
- 16 And he said to me, Son of man, see, I will take away from Jerusalem her necessary bread: they will take their bread by weight and with care, measuring out their drinking-water with fear and wonder:
- 17 So that they may be in need of bread and water and be wondering at one another, wasting away in their sin.
- 1 And you, son of man, take a sharp sword, using it like a haircutter's blade, and making it go over your head and the hair of your chin: and take scales for separating the hair by weight.
- 2 You are to have a third part burned with fire inside the town, when the days of the attack are ended; and a third part you are to take and give blows with the sword round about it; and give a third part for the wind to take away, and let loose a sword aft
- 3 And take from them a small number of hairs, folding them in your skirts.
- 4 And again take some of these and put them in the fire, burning them up in the fire; and say to all the children of Israel,
- 5 This is what the Lord has said: This is Jerusalem: I have put her among the nations, and countries are round her on every side;
- 6 And she has gone against my orders by doing evil more than the nations, and against my rules more than the countries round her: for they have given up my orders, and as for my rules, they have not gone in the way of them.
- 7 For this cause the Lord has said: Because you have been more uncontrolled than the nations round about you, and have not been guided by my rules or kept my orders, but have kept the orders of the nations round about you;

- 8 For this cause the Lord has said: See, I, even I, am against you; and I will be judging among you before the eyes of the nations.
- 9 And I will do in you what I have not done and will not do again, because of all your disgusting ways.
- 10 For this cause fathers will take their sons for food among you, and sons will make a meal of their fathers; and I will be judge among you, and all the rest of you I will send away to every wind.
- 11 For this cause, by my life, says the Lord, because you have made my holy place unclean with all your hated things and all your disgusting ways, you will become disgusting to me; my eye will have no mercy and I will have no pity.
- 12 A third of you will come to death from disease, wasting away among you through need of food; a third will be put to the sword round about you; and a third I will send away to every wind, letting loose a sword after them.
- 13 So my wrath will be complete and my passion will come to rest on them; and they will be certain that I the Lord have given the word of decision, when my wrath against them is complete.
- 14 And I will make you a waste and a name of shame among the nations round about you, in the eyes of everyone who goes by.
- 15 And you will be a name of shame and a cause of bitter words, an example and a wonder to the nations round about you, when I give effect to my judging among you in wrath and in passion and in burning protests: I the Lord have said it:
- 16 When I send on you the evil arrows of disease, causing destruction, which I will send to put an end to you; and, further, I will take away your necessary food.
- 17 And I will send on you need of food and evil beasts, and they will be a cause of loss to you; and disease and violent death will go through you; and I will send the sword on you: I the Lord have said it.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 Son of man, let your face be turned to the mountains of Israel, and be a prophet to them, and say,
- 3 You mountains of Israel, give ear to the words of the Lord: this is what the Lord has said to the mountains and the hills, to the waterways and the valleys: See, I, even I, am sending on you a sword for the destruction of your high places.
- 4 And your altars will be made waste, and your sun-images will be broken: and I will have your dead men placed before your images.
- 5 And I will put the dead bodies of the children of Israel in front of their images, sending your bones in all directions about your altars.
- 6 In all your living-places the towns will become broken walls, and the high places made waste; so that your altars may be broken down and made waste, and your images broken and ended, and so that your sun-images may be cut down and your works rubbed out.
- 7 And the dead will be falling down among you, and you will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 8 But still, I will keep a small band safe from the sword among the nations, when you are sent wandering among the countries.
- 9 And those of you who are kept safe will have me in mind among the nations where they have been taken away as prisoners, how I sent punishment on their hearts which were untrue to me, and on their eyes which were turned to their false gods: and they will b
- 10 And they will be certain that I am the Lord: not for nothing did I say that I would do this evil to them.
- 11 This is what the Lord has said: Give blows with your hand, stamping with your foot, and say, O sorrow! because of all the evil and disgusting ways of the children of Israel: for death will overtake them by the sword and through need of food and by disease
- 12 He who is far away will come to his death by disease; he who is near will be put to the sword; he who is shut up will come to his death through need of food; and I will give full effect to my passion against them.
- 13 And you will be certain that I am the Lord, when their dead men are stretched among their images round about their altars on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every branching tree, and under every thick oak-tree, the places wher
- 14 And my hand will be stretched out against them, making the land waste and unpeopled, from the waste land to Riblah, through all their living-places: and they will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 And you, son of man, say, This is what the Lord has said to the land of Israel: An end has come, the end has come on the four quarters of the land.

- 3 Now the end has come on you, and I will send my wrath on you, judging you for your ways, I will send punishment on you for all your disgusting acts.
- 4 My eye will not have mercy on you, and I will have no pity: but I will send the punishment of your ways on you, and your disgusting works will be among you: and you will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 5 This is what the Lord has said: An evil, even one evil; see, it is coming.
- 6 An end has come, the end has come; see, it is coming on you.
- 7 The crowning time has come on you, O people of the land: the time has come, the day is near; the day will not be slow in coming, it will not keep back.
- 8 Now, in a little time, I will let loose my passion on you, and give full effect to my wrath against you, judging you for your ways, and sending punishment on you for all your disgusting works.
- 9 My eye will not have mercy, and I will have no pity: I will send on you the punishment of your ways, and your disgusting works will be among you; and you will see that I am the Lord who gives punishment.
- 10 See, the day; see, it is coming: the crowning time has gone out; the twisted way is flowering, pride has put out buds.
- 11 Violent behaviour has been lifted up into a rod of evil; it will not be slow in coming, it will not keep back.
- 12 The time has come, the day is near: let not him who gives a price for goods be glad, or him who gets the price have sorrow:
- 13 For the trader will not go back to the things for which he had his price, even while he is still living:
- 14 And he who has given a price for goods will not get them, for my wrath is on all of them.
- 15 Outside is the sword, and inside disease and need of food: he who is in the open country will be put to the sword; he who is in the town will come to his end through need of food and disease.
- 16 And those of them who get away safely will go and be in the secret places like the doves of the valleys, all of them will come to death, every one in his sin.
- 17 All hands will be feeble and all knees without strength, like water.
- 18 And they will put haircloth round them, and deep fear will be covering them; and shame will be on all faces, and the hair gone from all their heads.
- 19 They will put out their silver into the streets, and their gold will be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold will not be able to keep them safe in the day of the wrath of the Lord; they will not get their desire or have food for their need: be
- 20 As for their beautiful ornament, they had put it on high, and had made the images of their disgusting and hated things in it: for this cause I have made it an unclean thing to them.
- 21 And I will give it into the hands of men from strange lands who will take it by force, and to the evil-doers of the earth to have for themselves; and they will make it unholy.
- 22 And my face will be turned away from them, and they will make my secret place unholy: violent men will go into it and make it unholy.
- 23 Make the chain: for the land is full of crimes of blood, and the town is full of violent acts.
- 24 For this reason I will send the worst of the nations and they will take their houses for themselves: I will make the pride of their strength come to an end; and their holy places will be made unclean.
- 25 Shaking fear is coming; and they will be looking for peace, and there will be no peace.
- 26 Destruction will come on destruction, and one story after another; and the vision of the prophet will be shamed, and knowledge of the law will come to an end among the priests, and wisdom among the old.
- 27 The king will give himself up to sorrow, and the ruler will be clothed with wonder, and the hands of the people of the land will be troubled: I will give them punishment for their ways, judging them as it is right for them to be judged; and they will be c
- 1 Now in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, when I was in my house and the responsible men of Judah were seated before me, the hand of the Lord came on me there.
- 2 And looking, I saw a form like fire; from the middle of his body and down there was fire: and up from the middle of his body a sort of shining, like electrum.
- 3 And he put out the form of a hand and took me by the hair of my head; and the wind, lifting me up between the earth and the heaven, took me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the way into the inner door facing to the north; where was the seat of the i

- 4 And I saw the glory of the Lord there, as in the vision which I saw in the valley.
- 5 Then he said to me, Son of man, now let your eyes be lifted up in the direction of the north; and on looking in the direction of the north, to the north of the doorway of the altar, I saw this image of envy by the way in.
- 6 And he said to me, Son of man, do you see what they are doing? even the very disgusting things which the children of Israel are doing here, causing me to go far away from my holy place? but you will see other most disgusting things.
- 7 And he took me to the door of the open place; and looking, I saw a hole in the wall.
- 8 And he said to me, Son of man, make a hole in the wall: and after making a hole in the wall I saw a door.
- 9 And he said to me, Go in and see the evil and disgusting things which they are doing here.
- 10 So I went in and saw; and there every sort of living thing which goes flat on the earth, and unclean beasts, and all the images of the children of Israel, were pictured round about on the wall.
- 11 And before them seventy of the responsible men of the children of Israel had taken their places, every man with a vessel for burning perfumes in his hand, and in the middle of them was Jaazaniah, the son of Shaphan; and a cloud of smoke went up from the b
- 12 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the responsible men of the children of Israel do in the dark, every man in his room of pictured images? for they say, The Lord does not see us; the Lord has gone away from the land.
- 13 Then he said to me, You will see even more disgusting things which they do.
- 14 Then he took me to the door of the way into the Lord's house looking to the north; and there women were seated weeping for Tammuz.
- 15 Then he said to me, Have you seen this, O son of man? you will see even more disgusting things than these.
- 16 And he took me into the inner square of the Lord's house, and at the door of the Temple of the Lord, between the covered way and the altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs turned to the Temple of the Lord and their faces turned to the ea
- 17 Then he said to me, Have you seen this, O son of man? is it a small thing to the children of Judah that they do the disgusting things which they are doing here? for they have made the land full of violent behaviour, making me angry again and again: and se
- 18 For this reason I will let loose my wrath: my eye will not have mercy, and I will have no pity.
- 1 Then crying out in my hearing in a loud voice, he said, Let the overseers of the town come near, every man armed.
- 2 And six men came from the way of the higher doorway looking to the north, every man with his axe in his hand: and one man among them was clothed in linen, with a writer's inkpot at his side. And they went in and took their places by the brass altar.
- 3 And the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the winged ones on which it was resting, to the doorstep of the house. And crying out to the man clothed in linen who had the writer's inkpot at his side,
- 4 The Lord said to him, Go through the town, through the middle of Jerusalem, and put a mark on the brows of the men who are sorrowing and crying for all the disgusting things which are done in it.
- 5 And to these he said in my hearing, Go through the town after him using your axes: do not let your eyes have mercy, and have no pity:
- 6 Give up to destruction old men and young men and virgins, little children and women: but do not come near any man who has the mark on him: and make a start at my holy place. So they made a start with the old men who were before the house.
- 7 And he said to them, Make the house unclean, make the open places full of dead: go forward and send destruction on the town.
- 8 Now while they were doing so, and I was untouched, I went down on my face, and crying out, I said, Ah, Lord! will you give all the rest of Israel to destruction in letting loose your wrath on Jerusalem?
- 9 Then he said to me, The sin of the children of Israel and Judah is very, very great, and the land is full of blood and the town full of evil ways: for they say, The Lord has gone away from the land, and the Lord does not see.
- 10 And as for me, my eye will not have mercy, and I will have no pity, but I will send the punishment of their ways on their heads.
- 11 Then the man clothed in linen, who had the inkpot at his side, came back and said, I have done what you gave me orders to do.
- 1 Then looking, I saw that on the arch which was over the head of the winged ones there was seen over them what seemed like a sapphire stone, having the form of a king's seat.

- 2 And he said to the man clothed in linen, Go in between the wheels, under the winged ones, and get your two hands full of burning coals from between the winged ones and send them in a shower over the town. And he went in before my eyes.
- 3 Now the winged ones were stationed on the right side of the house when the man went in; and the inner square was full of the cloud.
- 4 And the glory of the Lord went up from the winged ones and came to rest over the doorstep of the house; and the house was full of the cloud and the open square was full of the shining of the Lord's glory.
- 5 And the sound of the wings of the winged ones was clear even in the outer square, like the voice of the Ruler of all.
- 6 And when he gave orders to the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the winged ones, then he went in and took his place at the side of a wheel.
- 7 And stretching out his hand to the fire which was between the winged ones, he took some of it and went out.
- 8 And I saw the form of a man's hands among the winged ones under their wings.
- 9 And looking, I saw four wheels by the side of the winged ones, one wheel by the side of a winged one and another wheel by the side of another: and the wheels were like the colour of a beryl stone to the eye.
- 10 In form the four of them were all the same, they seemed like a wheel inside a wheel.
- 11 When they were moving, they went on their four sides without turning; they went after the head in the direction in which it was looking; they went without turning.
- 12 And the edges of the four wheels were full of eyes round about.
- 13 As for the wheels, they were named in my hearing, the circling wheels.
- 14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a winged one, and the second was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.
- 15 And the winged ones went up on high: this is the living being which I saw by the river Chebar.
- 16 And when the winged ones went, the wheels went by their side: and when their wings were lifted to take them up from the earth, the wheels were not turned from their side.
- 17 When they were at rest in their place, these were at rest; when they were lifted up, these went up with them: for the spirit of life was in them.
- 18 Then the glory of the Lord went out from the doorstep of the house, and came to rest over the winged ones.
- 19 And the winged ones, lifting up their wings, went up from the earth before my eyes, with the wheels by their side: and they came to rest at the east doorway of the Lord's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them on high.
- 20 This is the living being which I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and it was clear to me that they were the winged ones.
- 21 Every one had four faces and every one had four wings; and hands like a man's hands were under their wings.
- 22 As for the form of their faces, they were the faces whose form I saw by the river Chebar; when they went, every one of them went straight forward.
- 1 And the wind, lifting me up, took me to the east doorway of the Lord's house, looking to the east: and at the door I saw twenty-five men; and among them I saw Jaazaniah, the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, rulers of the people.
- 2 Then he said to me, Son of man, these are the men who are designing evil, who are teaching evil ways in this town:
- 3 Who say, This is not the time for building houses: this town is the cooking-pot and we are the flesh.
- 4 For this cause be a prophet against them, be a prophet, O son of man.
- 5 And the spirit of the Lord came on me, and he said to me, Say, These are the words of the Lord: This is what you have said, O children of Israel; what comes into your mind is clear to me.
- 6 You have made great the number of your dead in this town, you have made its streets full of dead men.
- 7 For this reason the Lord has said: Your dead whom you have put down in its streets, they are the flesh, and this town is the cooking-pot: but I will make you come out from inside it.
- 8 You have been fearing the sword, and I will send the sword on you, says the Lord.
- 9 I will make you come out from inside the town and will give you up into the hands of men from other lands, and will be judge among you.
- 10 You will come to your death by the sword; and I will be your judge in the land of Israel; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

- 11 This town will not be your cooking-pot, and you will not be the flesh inside it; I will be your judge at the limit of the land of Israel;
- 12 And you will be certain that I am the Lord: for you have not been guided by my rules or given effect to my orders, but you have been living by the orders of the nations round about you.
- 13 Now while I was saying these things, death came to Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah. Then falling down on my face and crying out with a loud voice, I said, Ah, Lord! will you put an end to all the rest of Israel?
- 14 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 15 Son of man, your countrymen, your relations, and all the children of Israel, all of them, are those to whom the people of Jerusalem have said, Go far from the Lord; this land is given to us for a heritage:
- 16 For this reason say, This is what the Lord has said: Though I have had them moved far off among the nations, and though I have sent them wandering among the countries, still I have been a safe place for them for a little time in the countries where they h
- 17 Then say, This is what the Lord has said: I will get you together from the peoples, and make you come out of the countries where you have been sent in flight, and I will give you the land of Israel.
- 18 And they will come there, and take away all the hated and disgusting things from it.
- 19 And I will give them a new heart, and I will put a new spirit in them; and I will take the heart of stone out of their flesh and give them a heart of flesh:
- 20 So that they may be guided by my rules and keep my orders and do them: and they will be to me a people, and I will be to them a God.
- 21 But as for those whose heart goes after their hated and disgusting things, I will send on their heads the punishment of their ways, says the Lord.
- 22 Then the wings of the winged ones were lifted up, and the wheels were by their side; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them on high.
- 23 And the glory of the Lord went up from inside the town, and came to rest on the mountain on the east side of the town.
- 24 And the wind, lifting me up, took me in the visions of God into Chaldea, to those who had been taken away as prisoners. So the vision which I had seen went away from me.
- 25 Then I gave an account to those who had been taken prisoners of all the things which the Lord had made me see.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 Son of man, you are living among an uncontrolled people, who have eyes to see but see not, and ears for hearing but they do not give ear; for they are an uncontrolled people.
- 3 And you, O son of man, by day, before their eyes, get ready the vessels of one who is taken away, and go away from your place to another place before their eyes: it may be that they will see, though they are an uncontrolled people.
- 4 By day, before their eyes, take out your vessels like those of one who is taken away: and go out in the evening before their eyes, like those who are taken away as prisoners.
- 5 Make a hole in the wall, before their eyes, and go out through it.
- 6 And before their eyes, take your goods on your back and go out in the dark; go with your face covered: for I have made you a sign to the children of Israel.
- 7 And I did as I was ordered: I took out my vessels by day, like those of one who is taken away, and in the evening I made a hole through the wall with a tent-pin; and in the dark I went out, taking my things on my back before their eyes.
- 8 And in the morning the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 9 Son of man, has not Israel, the uncontrolled people, said to you, What are you doing?
- 10 You are to say to them, This is what the Lord has said: This word has to do with the ruler in Jerusalem and all the children of Israel in it.
- 11 Say, I am your sign: as I have done, so will it be done to them: they will go away as prisoners.
- 12 And the ruler who is among them will take his goods on his back in the dark and go out: he will make a hole in the wall through which to go out: he will have his face covered so that he may not be seen.
- 13 And my net will be stretched out on him, and he will be taken in my cords: and I will take him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; but he will not see it, and there death will come to him.
- 14 And all his helpers round about him and all his armies I will send in flight to every wind; and I will let loose a sword after them.

- 15 And they will be certain that I am the Lord, when I send them in flight among the nations, driving them out through the countries.
- 16 But a small number of them I will keep from the sword, from the need of food, and from disease, so that they may make clear all their disgusting ways among the nations where they come; and they will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 17 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 18 Son of man, take your food with shaking fear, and your water with trouble and care;
- 19 And say to the people of the land, This is what the Lord has said about the people of Jerusalem and the land of Israel: They will take their food with care and their drink with wonder, so that all the wealth of their land may be taken from it because of t
- 20 And the peopled towns will be made waste, and the land will become a wonder; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 21 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 22 Son of man, what is this saying which you have about the land of Israel, The time is long and every vision comes to nothing?
- 23 For this cause say to them, This is what the Lord has said: I have made this saying come to an end, and it will no longer be used as a common saying in Israel; but say to them, The days are near, and the effect of every vision.
- 24 For there will be no more false visions or smooth use of secret arts in Israel.
- 25 For I am the Lord; I will say the word and what I say I will do; it will not be put off: for in your days, O uncontrolled people, I will say the word and do it, says the Lord.
- 26 Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 27 Son of man, see, the children of Israel say, The vision which he sees is for the days which are a long way off, and his words are of times still far away.
- 28 Say to them then, This is what the Lord has said: Not one of my words will be put off any longer, but what I say I will do, says the Lord.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 Son of man, be a prophet against the prophets of Israel, and say to those prophets whose words are the invention of their hearts, Give ear to the word of the Lord;
- 3 This is what the Lord has said: A curse on the foolish prophets who go after the spirit which is in them and have seen nothing!
- 4 O Israel, your prophets have been like jackals in the waste places.
- 5 You have not gone up into the broken places or made up the wall for the children of Israel to take your place in the fight in the day of the Lord.
- 6 They have seen visions without substance and made use of secret arts, who say, The Lord has said; and the Lord has not sent them: hoping that the word would have effect.
- 7 Have you not seen a vision without substance and have you not falsely made use of secret arts, when you say, The Lord has said; though I have said nothing?
- 8 So this is what the Lord has said: Because your words are without substance and your visions are false, see, I am against you, says the Lord.
- 9 And my hand will be against the prophets who see visions without substance and who make false use of secret arts: they will not be in the secret of my people, and they will not be recorded in the list of the children of Israel, and they will not come into
- 10 Because, even because they have been guiding my people into error, saying, Peace; when there is no peace; and in the building of a division wall they put whitewash on it:
- 11 Say to those who put whitewash on it, There will be an overflowing shower; and you, O ice-drops, will come raining down; and it will be broken in two by the storm-wind.
- 12 And when the wall has come down, will they not say to you, Where is the whitewash which you put on it?
- 13 For this reason, the Lord has said: I will have it broken in two by a storm-wind in my passion; and there will be an overflowing shower in my wrath, and you, O ice-drops, will come raining angrily down.
- 14 So I will let the wall, which you were covering with whitewash, be broken down; I will have it levelled to the earth so that its base is uncovered: it will come down, and destruction will come on you with it; and it will be clear to you that I am the Lord

- 15 So I will let loose my passion on the wall in full measure, and on those who put whitewash on it; and I will say to you, Where is the wall, and where are those who put whitewash on it?
- 16 Even the prophets of Israel who say words to Jerusalem, who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace, says the Lord.
- 17 And you, son of man, let your face be turned against the daughters of your people, who are acting the part of prophets at their pleasure; be a prophet against them, and say,
- 18 This is what the Lord has said: A curse is on the women who are stitching bands on all arms and putting veils on the heads of those of every size, so that they may go after souls! Will you go after the souls of my people and keep yourselves safe from death
- 19 And you have put me to shame among my people for a little barley and some bits of bread, sending death on souls for whom there is no cause of death, and keeping those souls living who have no right to life, by the false words you say to my people who give
- 20 For this cause the Lord has said: See, I am against your bands with which you go after souls, and I will violently take them off their arms; and I will let loose the souls, even the souls whom you go after freely.
- 21 And I will have your veils violently parted in two, and will make my people free from your hands, and they will no longer be in your power for you to go after them; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 22 Because with your false words you have given pain to the heart of the upright man when I had not made him sad; in order to make strong the hands of the evil-doer so that he may not be turned from his evil way and get life:
- 23 For this cause you will see no more foolish visions or make false use of secret arts: and I will make my people free from your power; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 1 Then certain of the responsible men of Israel came to me and took their seats before me.
- 2 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 3 Son of man, these men have taken their false gods into their hearts and put before their faces the sin which is the cause of their fall: am I to give ear when they come to me for directions?
- 4 For this cause say to them, These are the words of the Lord: Every man of Israel who has taken his false god into his heart, and put before his face the sin which is the cause of his fall, and comes to the prophet; I the Lord will give him an answer by my
- 5 So as to take the children of Israel in the thoughts of their hearts, because they have become strange to me through their false gods.
- 6 For this cause say to the children of Israel, These are the words of the Lord: Come back and give up your false gods and let your faces be turned from your disgusting things.
- 7 When any one of the men of Israel, or of those from other lands who are living in Israel, who has become strange to me, and takes his false gods into his heart, and puts before his face the sin which is the cause of his fall, comes to the prophet to get d
- 8 And my face will be turned against that man, and I will make him a sign and a common saying, cutting him off from among my people; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.
- 9 And if the prophet, tricked by deceit, says anything, it is I the Lord by whom he has been tricked, and I will put out my hand against him, and he will be cut off from among my people Israel.
- 10 And the punishment of their sin will be on them: the sin of the prophet will be the same as the sin of him who goes to him for directions;
- 11 So that the children of Israel may no longer go wandering away from me, or make themselves unclean with all their wrongdoing; but they will be my people, and I will be their God, says the Lord.
- 12 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 13 Son of man, when a land, sinning against me, does wrong, and my hand is stretched out against it, and the support of its bread is broken, and I make it short of food, cutting off man and beast from it:
- 14 Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, only themselves would they keep safe by their righteousness, says the Lord.
- 15 Or if I send evil beasts through the land causing destruction and making it waste, so that no man may go through because of the beasts:
- 16 Even if these three men were in it, by my life, says the Lord, they would not keep safe their sons or daughters, but only themselves, and the land would be made waste.

- 17 Or if I send a sword against that land, and say, Sword, go through the land, cutting off from it man and beast:
- 18 Even if these three men were in it, by my life, says the Lord, they would not keep safe their sons or daughters, but only themselves.
- 19 Or if I send disease into that land, letting loose my wrath on it in blood, cutting off from it man and beast:
- 20 Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, by my life, says the Lord, they would not keep son or daughter safe; only themselves would they keep safe through their righteousness.
- 21 For this is what the Lord has said: How much more when I send my four bitter punishments on Jerusalem, the sword and need of food and evil beasts and disease, cutting off from it man and beast?
- 22 But truly, there will still be a small band who will be safe, even sons and daughters: and they will come out to you, and you will see their ways and their doings: and you will be comforted about the evil which I have sent on Jerusalem, even about everyth
- 23 They will give you comfort when you see their ways and their doings: and you will be certain that not for nothing have I done all the things I have done in it, says the Lord.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 Son of man, what is the vine-tree more than any branching tree which is among the trees of the woods?
- 3 Will its wood be used for any work? do men make of it a pin for hanging any vessel on?
- 4 See, it is put into the fire for burning: the fire has made a meal of its two ends and the middle part of it is burned; is it good for any work?
- 5 Truly, before it was cut down, it was not used for any purpose: how much less, when the fire has made a meal of it and it is burned, will it be made into anything?
- 6 For this cause the Lord has said: Like the vine-tree among the trees of the woods which I have given to the fire for burning, so will I give the people of Jerusalem.
- 7 And my face will be turned against them; and though they have come out of the fire they will be burned up by it; and it will be clear to you that I am the Lord when my face is turned against them.
- 8 And I will make the land a waste because they have done evil, says the Lord.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
- 2 Son of man, make clear to Jerusalem her disgusting ways,
- 3 And say, This is what the Lord has said to Jerusalem: Your start and your birth was from the land of the Canaanite; an Amorite was your father and your mother was a Hittite.
- 4 As for your birth, on the day of your birth your cord was not cut and you were not washed in water to make you clean; you were not salted or folded in linen bands.
- 5 No eye had pity on you to do any of these things to you or to be kind to you; but you were put out into the open country, because your life was hated at the time of your birth.
- 6 And when I went past you and saw you stretched out in your blood, I said to you, Though you are stretched out in your blood, have life;
- 7 And be increased in number like the buds of the field; and you were increased and became great, and you came to the time of love: your breasts were formed and your hair was long; but you were uncovered and without clothing.
- 8 Now when I went past you, looking at you, I saw that your time was the time of love; and I put my skirts over you, covering your unclothed body: and I gave you my oath and made an agreement with you, says the Lord, and you became mine.
- 9 Then I had you washed with water, washing away all your blood and rubbing you with oil.
- 10 And I had you clothed with needlework, and put leather shoes on your feet, folding fair linen about you and covering you with silk.
- 11 And I made you fair with ornaments and put jewels on your hands and a chain on your neck.
- 12 And I put a ring in your nose and ear-rings in your ears and a beautiful crown on your head.
- 13 So you were made beautiful with gold and silver; and your clothing was of the best linen and silk and needlework; your food was the best meal and honey and oil: and you were very beautiful.
- 14 You were so beautiful that the story of you went out into all nations; you were completely beautiful because of my glory which I had put on you, says the Lord.

- 15 But you put your faith in the fact that you were beautiful, acting like a loose woman because you were widely talked of, and offering your cheap love to everyone who went by, whoever it might be.
- 16 And you took your robes and made high places for yourself ornamented with every colour, acting like a loose woman on them, without shame or fear.
- 17 And you took the fair jewels, my silver and gold which I had given to you, and made for yourself male images, acting like a loose woman with them;
- 18 And you took your robes of needlework for their clothing, and put my oil and my perfume before them.
- 19 And my bread which I gave you, the best meal and oil and honey which I gave you for your food, you put it before them for a sweet smell, says the Lord.
- 20 And you took your sons and your daughters whom I had by you, offering even these to them to be their food. Was your loose behaviour so small a thing,
- 21 That you put my children to death and gave them up to go through the fire to them?
- 22 And in all your disgusting and false behaviour you had no memory of your early days, when you were uncovered and without clothing, stretched out in your blood.
- 23 And it came about, after all your evil-doing, says the Lord,
- 24 That you made for yourself an arched room in every open place.
- 25 You put up your high places at the top of every street, and made the grace of your form a disgusting thing, opening your feet to everyone who went by, increasing your loose ways.
- 26 And you went with the Egyptians, your neighbours, great of flesh; increasing your loose ways, moving me to wrath.
- 27 Now, then, my hand is stretched out against you, cutting down your fixed amount, and I have given you up to the desire of your haters, the daughters of the Philistines who are shamed by your loose ways.
- 28 And you went with the Assyrians, because of your desire which was without measure; you were acting like a loose woman with them, and still you had not enough.
- 29 And you went on in your loose ways, even as far as the land of Chaldaea, and still you had not enough.
- 30 How feeble is your heart, says the Lord, seeing that you do all these things, the work of a loose and overruling woman;
- 31 For you have made your arched room at the top of every street, and your high place in every open place; though you were not like a loose woman in getting together your payment.
- 32 The untrue wife who takes strange lovers in place of her husband!
- 33 They give payment to all loose women: but you give rewards to your lovers, offering them payment so that they may come to you on every side for your cheap love.
- 34 And in your loose behaviour you are different from other women, for no one goes after you to make love to you: and because you give payment and no payment is given to you, in this you are different from them.
- 35 For this cause, O loose woman, give ear to the voice of the Lord:
- 36 This is what the Lord has said: Because your unclean behaviour was let loose and your body uncovered in your loose ways with your lovers and with your disgusting images, and for the blood of your children which you gave to them;
- 37 For this cause I will get together all your lovers with whom you have taken your pleasure, and all those to whom you have given your love, with all those who were hated by you; I will even make them come together against you on every side, and I will have
- 38 And you will be judged by me as women are judged who have been untrue to their husbands and have taken life; and I will let loose against you passion and bitter feeling.
- 39 I will give you into their hands, and your arched room will be overturned and your high places broken down; they will take your clothing off you and take away your fair jewels: and when they have done, you will be uncovered and shamed.
- 40 And they will get together a meeting against you, stoning you with stones and wounding you with their swords.
- 41 And they will have you burned with fire, sending punishments on you before the eyes of great numbers of women; and I will put an end to your loose ways, and you will no longer give payment.
- 42 And the heat of my wrath against you will have an end, and my bitter feeling will be turned away from you, and I will be quiet and will be angry no longer.
- 43 Because you have not kept in mind the days when you were young, but have been troubling me with all these things; for this reason I will make the punishment of your ways come on your head, says the Lord, because you have done this evil thing in addition t

- 44 See, in every common saying about you it will be said, As the mother is, so is her daughter.
- 45 You are the daughter of your mother whose soul is turned in disgust from her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters who were turned in disgust from their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite and your father an A
- 46 Your older sister is Samaria, living at your left hand, she and her daughters: and your younger sister, living at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.
- 47 Still you have not gone in their ways or done the disgusting things which they have done; but, as if that was only a little thing, you have gone deeper in evil than they in all your ways.
- 48 By my life, says the Lord, Sodom your sister never did, she or her daughters, what you and your daughters have done.
- 49 Truly, this was the sin of your sister Sodom: pride, a full measure of food, and the comforts of wealth in peace, were seen in her and her daughters, and she gave no help to the poor or to those in need.
- 50 They were full of pride and did what was disgusting to me: and so I took them away as you have seen.
- 51 And Samaria has not done half your sins; but you have made the number of your disgusting acts greater than theirs, making your sisters seem more upright than you by all the disgusting things which you have done.
- 52 And you yourself will be put to shame, in that you have given the decision for your sisters; through your sins, which are more disgusting than theirs, they are more upright than you: truly, you will be shamed and made low, for you have made your sisters s
- 53 And I will let their fate be changed, the fate of Sodom and her daughters, and the fate of Samaria and her daughters, and your fate with theirs.
- 54 So that you will be shamed and made low because of all you have done, when I have mercy on you.
- 55 And your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, will go back to their first condition, and Samaria and her daughters will go back to their first condition, and you and your daughters will go back to your first condition.
- 56 Was not your sister Sodom an oath in your mouth in the day of your pride,
- 57 Before your shame was uncovered? Now you have become like her a word of shame to the daughters of Edom and all who are round about you, the daughters of the Philistines who put shame on you round about.
- 58 The reward of your evil designs and your disgusting ways has come on you, says the Lord.
- 59 For this is what the Lord has said: I will do to you as you have done, you who, putting the oath on one side, have let the agreement be broken.
- 60 But still I will keep in mind the agreement made with you in the days when you were young, and I will make with you an eternal agreement.
- 61 Then at the memory of your ways you will be overcome with shame, when I take your sisters, the older and the younger, and give them to you for daughters, but not by your agreement.
- 62 And I will make my agreement with you; and you will be certain that I am the Lord:
- 63 So that, at the memory of these things, you may be at a loss, never opening your mouth because of your shame; when you have my forgiveness for all you have done, says the Lord.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
