18 And with them their brothers of the second order, Zechariah, Bani and Jaaziel and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and Unni, Eliab and Benaiah and Maaseiah and Mattithiah and Eliphelehu and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom and Jeiel, the door-keepers.

26 And when God gave help to the Levites who were lifting up the ark of the agreement of the Lord, they made an offering of seven oxen and seven sheep.

Literal

4 Literal And he put some of the Levites before the ark of the Lord as servants, to keep the acts of the Lord in memory, and to give worship and praise to the Lord, the God of Israel:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Literal Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Uzziel and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and Mattithiah and Eliab and Benaiah and Obed-edom and Jeiel, with corded instruments of music; and Asaph, with brass instruments sounding loudly;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Literal And Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests, blowing horns all the time before the ark of the agreement of God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

7 Then on that day David first made the giving of praise to the Lord the work of Asaph and his brothers.

Literal

Literal

13 O you seed of Israel his servant, you children of Jacob, his loved ones.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

14 He is the Lord our God: he is judge of all the earth.

Literal

15 He has kept his agreement in mind for ever, the word which he gave for a thousand generations;

Literal

Practical

---

16 The agreement which he made with Abraham, and his oath to Isaac;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And he gave it to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an eternal agreement;

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

---

18 Saying, To you will I give the land of Canaan, the measured line of your heritage:

Literal

19 When you were still small in number, and strange in the land;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

20 When they went about from one nation to another, and from one kingdom to another people;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 He would not let anyone do them wrong; he even kept back kings because of them,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Saying, Put not your hand on those who have been marked with my holy oil, and do my prophets no wrong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 Make songs to the Lord, all the earth; give the good news of his salvation day by day.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 Make clear his glory to the nations, and his wonders to all the peoples.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised; and he is more to be feared than all other gods.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 For all the gods of the nations are false gods; but the Lord made the heavens.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Honour and glory are before him: strength and joy are in his holy place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Give to the Lord, O you families of the peoples, give to the Lord glory and strength.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 Give to the Lord the glory of his name; take with you an offering and come before him; give worship to the Lord in holy robes.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 Be in fear before him, all the earth: the world is ordered so that it may not be moved.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 Let the heavens have joy and let the earth be glad; let them say among the nations, The Lord is King.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 Let the sea be thundering with all its waters; let the field be glad, and everything which is in it;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 Then let all the trees of the wood be sounding with joy before the Lord, for he is come to be the judge of the earth.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 O give praise to the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy is unchanging for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 And say, Be our saviour, O God of our salvation, and let us come back, and give us salvation from the nations, so that we may give honour to your holy name and have glory in your praise.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36 Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, for ever and for ever. And all the people said, So be it; and gave praise to the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37 So he made Asaph and his brothers keep their places there before the ark of the agreement of the Lord, to do whatever had to be done before the ark at all times day by day:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

38 And Obed-edom, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, with their brothers, sixty-eight of them, to be door-keepers:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

39 And Zadok the priest, with his brothers the priests, before the House of the Lord in the high place at Gibeon;

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

40 To give burned offerings to the Lord on the altar of burned offerings morning and evening, every day, as it is ordered in the law of the Lord which he gave to Israel;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were marked out by name to give praise to the Lord, for his mercy is unchanging for ever;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

42 And Heman and Jeduthun had horns and brass instruments sounding loudly, and instruments of music for the songs of God; and the sons of Jeduthun were to be at the door.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

43 And all the people went away, every man to his house; and David went back to give a blessing to his family.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 Now when David was living in his house, he said to Nathan the prophet, See, I am living in a house of cedar-wood, but the ark of the Lord's agreement is under the curtains of a tent.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 And Nathan said to David, Do whatever is in your heart, for God is with you.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

3 But that same night, the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Go and say to David my servant, The Lord says, You are not to make me a house for my living-place:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 For from the day when I took Israel up, till this day, I have had no house, but have gone from tent to tent, and from living-place to living-place.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 In all the places where I have gone with all Israel, did I ever say to any of the judges of Israel, whom I made the keepers of my people, Why have you not made for me a house of cedar?

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 So now, say to my servant David, The Lord of armies says, I took you from the fields, from keeping sheep, so that you might be a ruler over my people Israel;

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Literal And I have been with you wherever you went, cutting off before you all those who were against you; and I will make your name like the name of the greatest ones of the earth.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal And I will make a resting-place for my people Israel, planting them there, so that they may be in the place which is theirs and never again be moved; and never again will they be made waste by evil men, as they were at first,

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal From the time when I put judges over my people Israel; and I will overcome all those who are against you; and I will make you great and the head of a line of kings.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And when the time comes for you to go to your fathers, I will put in your place your seed after you, one of your sons, and I will make his kingdom strong.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal He will be the builder of my house, and I will make the seat of his authority certain for ever.

Spiritual

Practical

13 I will be to him a father and he will be to me a son; and I will not take my mercy away from him as I took it from him who was before you;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 But I will make his place in my house and in my kingdom certain for ever; and the seat of his authority will never be overturned.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 So Nathan gave David an account of all these words and this vision.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Then David the king went in and took his seat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is my family, that you have been my guide till now?

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And this was only a small thing to you, O God; but your words have even been about the far-off future of your servant's family, looking on me as on one of high position, O Lord God.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 What more may David say to you? for you have knowledge of your servant.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 O Lord, because of your servant, and from your heart, you have done all these great things and let them be seen.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 O Lord, there is no one like you, and no other God but you, as is clear from everything which has come to our ears.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 And what other nation in the earth, like your people Israel, did a god go out to take for himself, to be his people, making his name great and to be feared, driving out the nations from before your people whom you made free and took out of Egypt?

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 For your people Israel you made yours for ever; and you, Lord, became their God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 And now, Lord, let your words about your servant and about his family be made certain for ever, and do as you have said.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 So let your words be made certain and your name be made great, when men say, The Lord of armies is the God of Israel; and when the family of David your servant is made strong before you.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 For you, O my God, have let your servant see that you will make him head of a line of kings; and so it has come into your servant's heart to make his prayer to you.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 And now, O Lord, you are God, and you have said you will give this good thing to your servant:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 And now you have been pleased to give your blessing to the family of your servant, so that it may go on for ever before you; you, O Lord, have given your blessing, and a blessing will be on it for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Literal And it came about after this that David made an attack on the Philistines and overcame them, and took Gath with its daughter-towns out of the hands of the Philistines.

Practical

2 Literal And he overcame Moab, and the Moabites became his servants and gave him offerings.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 He sent his son Hadoram to King David, to give him words of peace and blessing, because he had overcome Hadadezer in the fight, for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou; and he gave him all sorts of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

Literal

Practical

11 Literal These King David made holy to the Lord, together with the silver and gold he had taken from all nations; from Edom and Moab and from the children of Ammon and from the Philistines and from Amalek.

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the army; and Jehoshaphat, son of Ahilud, was keeper of the records.

Spiritual

16

And Zadok, the son of Ahitub; and Ahimelech, the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was the scribe;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17

And Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief of those whose places were at the king's side.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

Now it came about after this that death came to Nahash, the king of the children of Ammon, and his son became king in his place.

Literal

Spiritual

---

2

And David said, I will be a friend to Hanun, the son of Nahash, because his father was a friend to me. So David sent men to him, to give him words of comfort on account of his father. And the servants of David came to Hanun, to the land of the children of Ammon, offering him comfort.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

But the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Does it seem to you that David is honouring your father, by sending comforters to you? is it not clear that these men have only come to go through the land and to make secret observation of it so that they may overcome it?

Literal

---

Spiritual

4 So Hanun took David's servants, and cutting off their hair and the skirts of their robes up to the middle, sent them away.

Literal

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves hated by David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver as payment for war-carriages and horsemen from Mesopotamia and Aram-maacah and Zobah.

Literal

7 So with this money they got thirty-two thousand war-carriages, and the help of the king of Maacah and his people, who came and took up their position in front of Medeba. And the children of Ammon came together from their towns for the fight.

Literal

---

Practical

---

8 And David, hearing of it, sent Joab with all the army of fighting-men.

Literal

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

Now when Joab saw that their forces were in position against him in front and at his back, he took all the best men of Israel, and put them in line against the Aramaeans;

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

---

---

---

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

13

Literal

Take heart, and let us be strong for our people and for the towns of our God; and may the Lord do what seems good to him.

---

Literal

Practical

3 And he took the people out of the town and put them to work with wood-cutting instruments, and iron grain-crushers, and axes. And this he did to all the towns of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people went back to Jerusalem.

Literal

Practical

4 Now after this there was war with the Philistines at Gezer; then Sibbecai the Hushathite put to death Sippai, one of the offspring of the Rephaim; and they were overcome.

5

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

Practical

4 Literal But the king's word was stronger than Joab's. So Joab went out and went through all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal And Joab gave David the number of all the people; all the men of Israel, able to take up arms, were one million, one hundred thousand men; and those of Judah were four hundred and seventy thousand men, able to take up arms.

Spiritual

8 Then David said to God, Great has been my sin in doing this; but now, be pleased to take away the sin of your servant, for I have done very foolishly.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

9 Then the word of the Lord came to Gad, David's seer, saying,

Literal

10 Go and say to David, The Lord says, Three things are offered to you: say which of them you will have, so that I may do it to you.

Literal

11 So Gad came to David and said to him, The Lord says, Take whichever you will:

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Literal Three years when there will not be enough food; or three months of war, when you will go in flight before your haters, being in great danger of the sword; or three days of the sword of the Lord, disease in the land, and the angel of the Lord taking destruction through all the land of Israel. Now give thought to the answer I am to take back to him who sent me.

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal And David said to Gad, This is a hard decision for me to make: let me come into the hands of the Lord, for great are his mercies: let me not come into the hands of men.

Literal

And David said to God, Was it not I who gave the order for the people to be numbered? It is I who have done the sin and the great wrong; but these are only sheep; what have they done? let your hand, O Lord God, be lifted up against me and against my family, but not against your people to send disease on them.

Spiritual

18

Then the angel of the Lord gave orders to Gad to say to David that he was to go and put up an altar to the Lord on the grain-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

Literal

---

Practical

---

4 It was supported on twelve oxen, three facing to the north, three to the west, three to the south, and three to the east, the water-vessel resting on top of them; their back parts were all turned to the middle of it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 It was as thick as a man's open hand, and the edge of it was curved like the edge of a cup, like a lily flower; it would take three thousand baths.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Literal And he made ten washing-vessels, putting five on the right side and five on the left; such things as were used in making the burned offering were washed in them; but the great water-vessel was to be used by the priests for washing themselves.

Literal

15 The great water-vessel with the twelve oxen under it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 All the pots and the spades and the meat-hooks and their vessels, which Hiram, who was as his father, made for King Solomon for the house of the Lord, were of polished brass.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 The king made them of liquid metal in the lowland of Jordan, in the soft earth between Succoth and Zeredah.

Literal

Practical

18 So Solomon made all these vessels, a very great store of them, and the weight of the brass used was not measured.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels used in the house of God, the gold altar and the tables on which the holy bread was placed,

Literal

Practical

20 And the supports for the lights with their lights, to be burning in the regular way in front of the inmost room, of the best gold;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11            Literal            Now when the priests had come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had made themselves holy, not keeping to their divisions;

Spiritual

Practical

12            Literal            And the Levites who made the music, all of them, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and brothers, robed in fair linen, were in their places with their brass and corded instruments at the east side of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests blowing horns;)

Spiritual

Practical

13            Literal            And when the players on horns, and those who made melody in song, with one voice were sounding the praise and glory of the Lord; with loud voices and with wind instruments, and brass and corded instruments of music, praising the Lord and saying, He is good; his mercy is unchanging for ever: then the house was full of the cloud of the glory of the Lord,

Spiritual

Practical

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

Literal

From the day when I took my people out of the land of Egypt, no town in all the tribes of Israel has been marked out by me for the building of a house for the resting-place of my name; and I took no man to be a ruler over my people Israel;

Spiritual

Practical

6

Literal

But now I have made selection of Jerusalem, that my name might be there, and of David, to be over my people Israel.

Spiritual

Practical

7

Literal

Now it was in the heart of my father David to put up a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.

Spiritual

Practical

8

Literal

But the Lord said to David my father, You did well to have in your heart the desire to make a house for my name:

Spiritual

Practical

9

Literal

But you yourself will not be the builder of the house; but your son, the offspring of your body, he it is who will put up a house for my name.

Spiritual

Practical

10 And the Lord has kept his word; for I have taken my father David's place on the seat of the kingdom of Israel, as the Lord gave his word; and I have made the house for the name of the Lord the God of Israel.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 And there I have put the ark, in which is the agreement of the Lord, which he made with the people of Israel.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 Then he took his place in front of the altar of the Lord, all the men of Israel being present,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 (For Solomon had made a brass stage, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high, and had put it in the middle of the open space; on this he took his place and went down on his knees before all the meeting of Israel, stretching out his hands to heaven.)

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 And he said, O Lord, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth; keeping faith and mercy unchanging for your servants, while they go in your ways with all their hearts;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 For you have kept the word which you gave to your servant David, my father; with your mouth you said it and with your hand you have made it come true this day.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 So now, O Lord, the God of Israel, let your word to your servant David, my father, come true, when you said, You will never be without a man to take his place before me on the seat of the kingdom of Israel; if only your children give attention to their ways, walking in my law, as you have done before me.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 So now, O Lord, the God of Israel, make your word come true which you said to your servant David.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 But is it truly possible that God may be housed with men on earth? see, heaven and the heaven of heavens are not wide enough to be your resting-place: how much less this house which I have made:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 Still, let your heart be turned to the prayer of your servant and to his prayer for grace, O Lord my God, and give ear to the cry and the prayer which your servant makes before you;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

20 That your eyes may be open to this house day and night, to this place of which you have said that you would put your name there; to give ear to the prayer which your servant may make, turning to this place.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

21 And give ear to the prayers of your servant and of your people Israel, when they make their prayers, turning to this place; give ear from heaven your living-place; and hearing have mercy.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

22 If a man does wrong to his neighbour and has to take an oath, and comes before your altar to take his oath in this house:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

23 Then let your ear be open in heaven, and be the judge of your servants, giving punishment to the wrongdoer, so that his sin may come on his head; and, by your decision, keeping from evil him who has done no wrong.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

24 And if your people Israel are overcome in war, because of their sin against you; if they are turned to you again, honouring your name, making prayers and requesting your grace in this house:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

25 Then give ear from heaven, and let the sin of your people Israel have forgiveness, and take them back again to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

26 When heaven is shut up and there is no rain, because of their sin against you: if they make prayers with their faces turned to this place, honouring your name and turning away from their sin when you send trouble on them:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

27 Then give ear from heaven, so that the sin of your servants and the sin of your people Israel may have forgiveness, when you make clear to them the good way in which they are to go; and send rain on your land which you have given to your people for their heritage.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

28 If there is no food in the land, if there is disease, if the fruits of the earth are damaged by heat or water, locust or worm; if their towns are shut in by their attackers: whatever trouble or whatever disease there may be:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

29 Whatever prayer or request for your grace is made by any man, or by all your people Israel, whatever his trouble may be, whose hands are stretched out to this house:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

30 Then give ear from heaven your living-place, answering with forgiveness, and give to every man, whose secret heart is open to you, the reward of all his ways; (for you, and you only, have knowledge of the hearts of the children of men;)

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

31 So that they may give you worship, walking in your ways, as long as they are living in the land which you gave to our fathers.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

32 And as for the man from a strange land, who is not of your people Israel but comes from a far country because of the glory of your name and your strong hand and your outstretched arm; when he comes to make his prayer, turning to this house:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

33 Then give ear from heaven your living-place, and give him his desire, whatever it may be; so that all the peoples of the earth may have knowledge of your name, worshipping you as do your people Israel, and may see that this house which I have made is truly named by your name.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

34 If your people go out to war against their attackers, by whatever way you may send them, if they make their prayers to you turning their faces to this town of yours and to this house which I have put up for your name:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

35 Then give ear from heaven to their prayer and their cry for grace, and see right done to them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36 If they do wrong against you, (for no man is without sin,) and you are angry with them, and give them up into the power of those who are fighting against them, so that they take them away prisoners to a land far off or near;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37 And if they take thought, in the land where they are prisoners, turning again to you, crying out in prayer to you in that land, and saying, We are sinners, we have done wrong, we have done evil;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

38 If with all their heart and soul they are turned again to you, in the land where they are prisoners, the land where they have been taken, and make their prayers, turning their eyes to their land which you gave to their fathers, and to the town which you took for yourself, and the house which I have made for your name:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

39 Then give ear from heaven your living-place to their prayer and their cry, and see right done to them, answering with forgiveness your people who have done wrong against you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

40 Now, O my God, may your eyes be open and your ears awake to the prayers made in this place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

41 Up! now, O Lord God, come back to your resting-place, you and the ark of your strength: let your priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let your saints be glad in what is good.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

42 O Lord God, let him whom you have taken for yourself never be given up by you: keep in mind your mercies to David your servant.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 And the priests were not able to go into the house of the Lord, for the Lord's house was full of the glory of the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Literal

And all the children of Israel were looking on when the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord was on the house; and they went down on their knees, with their faces to the earth, worshipping and praising the Lord, and saying, He is good; for his mercy is unchanging for ever.

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

Then the king and all the people made offerings before the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

5

Literal

King Solomon made an offering of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people kept the feast of the opening of the house of God.

Spiritual

Practical

6

Literal

And the priests were in their places, and the Levites with their instruments of music for the Lord's song, which David the king had made for the praise of the Lord whose mercy is unchanging for ever, when David gave praise by their hand; and the priests were sounding horns before them; and all Israel were on their feet.

Spiritual

Practical

7

Literal

Then Solomon made holy the middle of the open square in front of the house of the Lord, offering the burned offerings there, and the fat of the peace-offerings; for there was not room on the brass altar which Solomon had made for all the burned offerings and the meal offerings and the fat.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal So Solomon kept the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great meeting, for the people had come together from the way into Hamath and from as far as the river of Egypt.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal And on the eighth day they had a holy meeting; the offerings for making the altar holy went on for seven days, and the feast for seven days.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he sent the people away to their tents, full of joy and glad in their hearts, because of all the good which the Lord had done to David and to Solomon and to Israel his people.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal So Solomon came to the end of building the house of the Lord and the king's house; and everything which it was in his mind to make in the house of the Lord and for himself had been well done.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal Now the Lord came to Solomon in a vision by night, and said to him, I have given ear to your prayer, and have taken this place for myself as a house where offerings are to be made.

Spiritual

Practical

13 If, at my word, heaven is shut up, so that there is no rain, or if I send locusts on the land for its destruction, or if I send disease on my people;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 If my people, on whom my name is named, make themselves low and come to me in prayer, searching for me and turning from their evil ways; then I will give ear from heaven, overlooking their sin, and will give life again to their land.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears awake to the prayers made in this place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 For I have taken this house for myself and made it holy, so that my name may be there for ever; and my eyes and my heart will be there at all times.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And as for you, if you will go on your way before me as David your father did, doing whatever I have given you orders to do and keeping my laws and my decisions:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Then I will make strong the seat of your kingdom, as I gave my word to David your father, saying, You will never be without a man to be ruler in Israel.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 But if you are turned away from me, and do not keep my orders and my laws which I have put before you, but go and make yourselves servants to other gods, giving them worship:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

20 Then I will have this people uprooted out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, I will put away from before my eyes, and make it an example and a word of shame among all peoples.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

21 And this house will become a mass of broken walls, and everyone who goes by will be overcome with wonder, and will say, Why has the Lord done so to this land and to this house?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

22 And their answer will be, Because they were turned away from the Lord, the God of their fathers, who took them out of the land of Egypt, and took for themselves other gods and gave them worship and became their servants: that is why he has sent all this evil on them.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 Now at the end of twenty years, in which time Solomon had put up the house of the Lord and a house for himself,

Literal

6 And of Baalath, and all the store-towns which Solomon had, and the towns where he kept his war-carriages and his horse men, and everything which it was his pleasure to put up in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land under his rule.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

7 As for all the rest of the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 Their men who were still living in the land, and whom the children of Israel had not put an end to, these Solomon put to forced work, as is done to this day;

Literal

Practical

12 Then Solomon made burned offerings to the Lord on the altar of the Lord which he had put up in front of the covered way,

Literal

Literal

Literal

Practical

---

5 Literal And he said to them, Come to me again after three days. So the people went away.

---

Practical

11 Literal If my father put a hard yoke on you, I will make it harder: my father gave you punishment with whips, but I will give you blows with snakes.

Literal

13 And the king gave them a rough answer. So King Rehoboam gave no attention to the suggestion of the old men,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 But gave them the answer put forward by the young men, saying, My father made your yoke hard, but I will make it harder; my father gave you punishment with whips, but I will give it with snakes.

Literal

Practical

15 So the king did not give ear to the people; for this came about by the purpose of God, so that the Lord might give effect to his word which he had said by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would give no attention to them, the people in answer said to the king, What part have we in David? what is our heritage in the son of Jesse? every man to your tents, O Israel; now see to your house, David. So all Israel went to their tents.

Literal

12

And in every town he put stores of body-covers and spears, and made them very strong. And Judah and Benjamin were his.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13

And the priests and Levites who were in all Israel came together to him from every part of their country.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 For the Levites gave up their living-places and their property, and came to Judah and Jerusalem; for Jeroboam and his sons had sent them away, not letting them be priests to the Lord;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 And he himself made priests for the high places, and for the images of he-goats and oxen which he had made.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 And after them, from all the tribes of Israel, all those whose hearts were fixed and true to the Lord, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to make offerings to the Lord, the God of their fathers.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 So they went on increasing the power of the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, strong for three years; and for three years they went in the ways of David and Solomon.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 And Rehoboam took as his wife Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth, the son of David and of Abihail, the daughter of Eliab, the son of Jesse;

Literal

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

21 Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, was dearer to Rehoboam than all his wives and his servant-wives: (for he had eighteen wives and sixty servant-wives, and was the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Rehoboam made Abijah, the son of Maacah, chief and ruler among his brothers, for it was his purpose to make him king.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 And in his wisdom he had his sons stationed in every walled town through all the lands of Judah and Benjamin; and he gave them a great store of food, and took wives for them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Literal Now when Rehoboam's position as king had been made certain, and he was strong, he gave up the law of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

Spiritual

Practical

2 Literal Now in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak, king of Egypt, came up against Jerusalem, because of their sin against the Lord,

Spiritual

Practical

3 Literal With twelve hundred war-carriages and sixty thousand horsemen: and the people who came with him out of Egypt were more than might be numbered: Lubim and Sukkiim and Ethiopians.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal And he took the walled towns of Judah, and came as far as Jerusalem.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the chiefs of Judah, who had come together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, The Lord has said, Because you have given me up, I have given you up into the hands of Shishak.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Then the chiefs of Israel and the king made themselves low and said, The Lord is upright.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And the Lord, seeing that they had made themselves low, said to Shemaiah, They have made themselves low: I will not send destruction on them, but in a short time I will give them salvation, and will not let loose my wrath on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 But still they will become his servants, so that they may see how different my yoke is from the yoke of the kingdoms of the lands.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 So Shishak, king of Egypt, came up against Jerusalem and took away all the stored wealth of the house of the Lord and the king's house: he took everything away, and with the rest the gold body-covers which Solomon had made.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 And in their place King Rehoboam had other body-covers made of brass and gave them into the care of the captains of the armed men who were stationed at the door of the king's house.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And whenever the king went into the house of the Lord, the armed men went with him taking the body-covers, and then took them back to their room.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 And when he made himself low, the wrath of the Lord was turned back from him, and complete destruction did not come on him, for there was still some good in Judah.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 So King Rehoboam made himself strong in Jerusalem and was ruling there. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he was ruling for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the town which the Lord had made his out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there; and his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonite woman.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 And he did evil because his heart was not true to the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not recorded in the words of Shemaiah the prophet and Iddo the seer? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 And Rehoboam went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in the town of David; and Abijah his son became king in his place.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 He was king in Jerusalem for three years; his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 And Abijah went out to the fight with an army of men of war, four hundred thousand of his best men; and Jeroboam put his forces in line against him, eight hundred thousand of his best men of war.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 And Abijah took up his position on Mount Zemaraim, in the hill-country of Ephraim, and said, Give ear to me, O Jeroboam and all Israel:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

Literal

Is it not clear to you that the Lord, the God of Israel, gave the rule over Israel to David and to his sons for ever, by an agreement made with salt?

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6

Literal

But Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon, the son of David, took up arms against his lord.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7

Literal

And certain foolish and good-for-nothing men were joined with him, and made themselves strong against Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when he was young and untested and not able to keep them back.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8

Literal

And now it is your purpose to put yourselves against the authority which the Lord has put into the hands of the sons of David, and you are a very great number, and you have with you the gold oxen which Jeroboam made to be your gods.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9

Literal

And after driving out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, have you not made priests for yourselves as the people of other lands do? so that anyone who comes to make himself priest by offering an ox or seven sheep, may be a priest of those who are no gods.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Literal But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we have not been turned away from him; we have priests who do the work of the Lord, even the sons of Aaron and the Levites in their places;

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal By whom burned offerings and perfumes are sent up in smoke before the Lord every morning and every evening; and they put out the holy bread on its table and the gold support for the lights with its lights burning every evening; for we keep the orders given to us by the Lord our God, but you have gone away from him.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal And now God is with us at our head, and his priests with their loud horns sounding against you. O children of Israel, do not make war on the Lord, the God of your fathers, for it will not go well for you.

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal But Jeroboam had put some of his men to make a surprise attack on them from the back, so some were facing Judah and others were stationed secretly at their back.

Spiritual

Practical

14 Literal And Judah, turning their faces, saw that they were being attacked in front and at the back; and they gave a cry for help to the Lord, while the priests were sounding their horns.

Spiritual

Practical

15 And the men of Judah gave a loud cry; and at their cry, God put fear into Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And the children of Israel went in flight before Judah, and God gave them up into their hands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And Abijah and his people put them to death with great destruction: five hundred thousand of the best of Israel were put to the sword.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 So at that time the children of Israel were overcome, and the children of Judah got the better of them, because they put their faith in the Lord, the God of their fathers.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And Abijah went after Jeroboam and took some of his towns, Beth-el with its small towns and Jeshanah with its small towns and Ephron with its small towns.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 And Jeroboam did not get back his power again in the life-time of Abijah; and the Lord sent death on him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 But Abijah became great, and had fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his sayings, are recorded in the account of the prophet Iddo.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 So Abijah went to rest with his fathers, and they put him into the earth in the town of David, and Asa his son became king in his place; in his time the land was quiet for ten years.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 And Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 For he took away the altars of strange gods and the high places, and had the upright stones broken and the wood pillars cut down;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 And he made Judah go after the Lord, the God of their fathers, and keep his laws and his orders.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 And he took away the high places and the sun-images from all the towns of Judah; and the kingdom was quiet under his rule.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 He made walled towns in Judah, for the land was quiet and there were no wars in those years, because the Lord had given him rest.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 He said to Judah, Let us make these towns, building walls round them with towers and doors and locks. The land is still ours, because we have been true to the Lord our God; we have been true to him and he has given us rest on every side. So they went on building and all went well for them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Literal And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men of Judah armed with body-covers and spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand of Benjamin armed with body-covers and bows; all these were men of war.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal And Zerah the Ethiopian, with an army of a million, and three hundred war-carriages, came out against them to Mareshah.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal And Asa went out against him, and they put their forces in position in the valley north of Mareshah.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And Asa made prayer to the Lord his God and said, Lord, you only are able to give help against the strong to him who has no strength; come to our help, O Lord our God, for our hope is in you, and in your name we have come out against this great army. O Lord, you are our God; let not man's power be greater than yours.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal So the Lord sent fear on the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah; and the Ethiopians went in flight.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal And Asa and the people who were with him went after them as far as Gerar; and so great was the destruction among the Ethiopians that they were not able to get their army together again, for they were broken before the Lord and before his army; and they took away a great amount of their goods.

Spiritual

Practical

14 Literal And they overcame all the towns round Gerar, because the Lord sent fear on them; and they took away their goods from the towns, for there were stores of wealth in them.

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal And they made an attack on the tents of the owners of the cattle, and took away great numbers of sheep and camels and went back to Jerusalem.

Spiritual

Practical

1 Literal And the spirit of God came on Azariah, the son of Oded;

Spiritual

Practical

2 Literal And he came face to face with Asa and said to him, Give ear to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin: the Lord is with you while you are with him; if your heart's desire is for him, he will be near you, but if you give him up, he will give you up.

Spiritual

Practical

3 Now for a long time Israel has been without the true God, and without a teaching priest and without the law;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 But when in their trouble they were turned to the Lord, the God of Israel, searching after him, he let their search be rewarded.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 In those times there was no peace for him who went out or for him who came in, but great trouble was on all the people of the lands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 And they were broken by divisions, nation against nation and town against town, because God sent all sorts of trouble on them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 But be you strong and let not your hands be feeble, for your work will be rewarded.

Literal

8

Literal

And Asa, hearing these words of Azariah, the son of Oded the prophet, took heart and put away all the disgusting things out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the towns which he had taken from the hill-country of Ephraim; and he made new again the altar of the Lord in front of the covered way of the Lord's house.

Spiritual

Practical

9

Literal

And he got together all Judah and Benjamin and those of Ephraim and Manasseh and Simeon who were living with them; for numbers of them came to him out of Israel when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

So they came together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the rule of Asa.

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

And that day they made offerings to the Lord of the things they had taken in war, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

Spiritual

12

Literal

And they made an agreement to be true to the Lord, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and all their soul;

Spiritual

Practical

13 And that anyone, small or great, man or woman, who was not true to the Lord, the God of Israel, would be put to death.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 And they made an oath to the Lord, with a loud voice, sounding wind-instruments and horns.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

15 And all Judah was glad because of the oath, for they had taken it with all their heart, turning to the Lord with all their desire; and he was with them and gave them rest on every side.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And Asa would not let Maacah, his mother, be queen, because she had made a disgusting image for Asherah; and Asa had her image cut down and broken up and burned by the stream Kidron.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel; but still the heart of Asa was true to the Lord all his life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 He took into the house of God all the things which his father had made holy and those which he himself had made holy, silver and gold and vessels.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 And there was no more war till the thirty-fifth year of the rule of Asa.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 In the thirty-sixth year of the rule of Asa, Baasha, king of Israel, went up against Judah, building Ramah so that no one was able to go out or in to Asa, king of Judah.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 Then Asa took silver and gold out of the stores of the Lord's house and of the king's store-house, and sent to Ben-hadad, king of Aram, at Damascus, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

3 Let there be an agreement between me and you as there was between my father and your father: see, I have sent you silver and gold; go and put an end to your agreement with Baasha, king of Israel, so that he may give up attacking me.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal And Ben-hadad did as King Asa said, and sent the captains of his armies against the towns of Israel, attacking Ijon and Dan and Abel-maim, and all the store-towns of Naphtali.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Then Baasha, hearing of it, put a stop to the building of Ramah, and let his work come to an end.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal Then King Asa, with all Judah, took away the stones and wood with which Baasha was building Ramah, and he made use of them for building Geba and Mizpah.

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa, king of Judah, and said to him, Because you have put your faith in the king of Aram and not in the Lord your God, the army of the king of Aram has got away out of your hands.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubim a very great army, with war-carriages and horsemen more than might be numbered? but because your faith was in the Lord, he gave them up into your hands.

Spiritual

9

Literal

For the eyes of the Lord go this way and that, through all the earth, letting it be seen that he is the strong support of those whose hearts are true to him. In this you have done foolishly, for from now you will have wars.

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in prison, burning with wrath against him because of this thing. And at the same time Asa was cruel to some of the people.

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

Now the acts of Asa, first and last, are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

Spiritual

12

Literal

In the thirty-ninth year of his rule, Asa had a very bad disease of the feet; but he did not go to the Lord for help in his disease, but to medical men.

Spiritual

Practical

13

Literal

So Asa went to rest with his fathers, and death came to him in the forty-first year of his rule.

Spiritual

14

And they put him into the resting-place which he had made for himself in the town of David, in a bed full of sweet perfumes of all sorts of spices, made by the perfumer's art, and they made a great burning for him.

Literal

69 Every one, as he was able, gave for the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, five thousand pounds of silver and a hundred priests' robes.

Literal

Practical

70 So the priests and the Levites and the people and the music-makers and the door-keepers and the Nethinim, took up their places in their towns; even all Israel in their towns.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 And when the seventh month came, and the children of Israel were in the towns, the people came together like one man to Jerusalem.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 Then Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, with his brothers, got up and made the altar of the God of Israel for burned offerings as is recorded in the law of Moses, the man of God.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

3 They put the altar on its base; for fear was on them because of the people of the countries: and they made burned offerings on it to the Lord, even burned offerings morning and evening.

Literal

Practical

4 Literal And they kept the feast of tents, as it is recorded, making the regular burned offerings every day by number, as it is ordered; for every day what was needed.

Spiritual

5 Literal And after that, the regular burned offering and the offerings for the new moons and all the fixed feasts of the Lord which had been made holy, and the offering of everyone who freely gave his offering to the Lord.

Spiritual

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal And they gave money to the stoneworkers and woodworkers; and meat and drink and oil to the people of Zidon and of Tyre, for the transport of cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, as Cyrus, king of Persia, had given them authority to do.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal Now in the second year of their coming into the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, the work was taken in hand by Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come from the land where they were prisoners to Jerusalem: and they made the Levites, of twenty years old and over, responsible for overseeing the work of the house of the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal Then Jeshua with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, the sons of Hodaviah, together took up the work of overseeing the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brothers, the Levites.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal And when the builders put in position the base of the Temple of the Lord, the priests, dressed in their robes, took their places with horns, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with brass instruments, to give praise to the Lord in the way ordered by David, king of Israel.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And they gave praise to the Lord, answering one another in their songs and saying, For he is good, for his mercy to Israel is eternal. And all the people gave a great cry of joy, when they gave praise to the Lord, because the base of the Lord's house was put in place.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal But a number of the priests and Levites and the heads of families, old men who had seen the first house, when the base of this house was put down before their eyes, were overcome with weeping; and a number were crying out with joy:

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal So that in the ears of the people the cry of joy was mixed with the sound of weeping; for the cries of the people were loud and came to the ears of those who were a long way off.

Spiritual

Practical

1 Literal Now news came to the haters of Judah and Benjamin that the people who had come back were building a Temple to the Lord, the God of Israel;

Spiritual

Practical

2 Literal Then they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of families, and said to them, Let us take part in the building with you; for we are servants of your God, even as you are; and we have been making offerings to him from the days of Esar-haddon, king of Assyria, who put us here.

Spiritual

Practical

3 Literal But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of families in Israel said to them, You have no part with us in the building of a house for our God; we ourselves will do the work together for the Lord, the God of Israel, as Cyrus, king of Persia, has given us orders.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal Then the people of the land made the hands of the people of Judah feeble, troubling them with fear in their building;

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal And they gave payment to men who made designs against them and kept them from effecting their purpose, all through the time of Cyrus, king of Persia, till Darius became king.

Spiritual

Practical

6 And in the time of Ahasuerus, when he first became king, they put on record a statement against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

Literal

Literal

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

---

11 This is a copy of the letter which they sent to Artaxerxes the king: Your servants living across the river send these words:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 We give news to the king that the Jews who came from you have come to us at Jerusalem; they are building up again that uncontrolled and evil town; the walls are complete and they are joining up the bases.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 The king may be certain that when the building of this town and its walls is complete, they will give no tax or payment in goods or forced payments, and in the end it will be a cause of loss to the kings.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Now because we are responsible to the king, and it is not right for us to see the king's honour damaged, we have sent to give the king word of these things,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 So that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: and you will see in the book of the records that this town has been uncontrolled, and a cause of trouble to kings and countries, and that there were outbursts against authority there in the past: for which reason the town was made waste.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 We give you word, that if the building of this town and its walls is made complete, there will be an end of your power in the country across the river.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 Then the king sent an answer to Rehum, the chief ruler, and Shimshai the scribe, and their friends living in Samaria, and to the rest of those across the river, saying, Peace to you:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 And now the sense of the letter which you sent to us has been made clear to me,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 And I gave orders for a search to be made, and it is certain that in the past this town has made trouble for kings, and that outbursts against authority have taken place there.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

20 Further, there have been great kings in Jerusalem, ruling over all the country across the river, to whom they gave taxes and payments in goods and forced payments.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

21 Give an order now, that these men are to do nothing more, and that the building of the town is to be stopped, till I give an order.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Be certain to do this with all care: do not let trouble be increased to the king's damage.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 Then, after reading the king's letter, Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their friends went quickly to Jerusalem, to the Jews, and had them stopped by force.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 So the work of the house of God at Jerusalem came to an end; so it was stopped, till the second year of the rule of Darius, king of Persia.

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

---

1 Now the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, the son of Iddo, were preaching to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel.

Literal

Practical

2

Literal

Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, got up and made a start at building the house of God at Jerusalem: and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

At the same time, Tattenai, ruler of the land across the river, and Shethar-bozenai, and their men, came to them and said, Who gave you orders to go on building this house and this wall?

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

Then they said these words to them: What are the names of the men who are at work on this building?

Spiritual

Practical

5

Literal

But the eye of their God was on the chiefs of the Jews, and they did not make them give up working till the question had been put before Darius and an answer had come by letter about it.

Spiritual

Practical

6

Literal

This is a copy of the letter which Tattenai, the ruler of the land across the river, and Shethar-bozenai and his friends the Apharsachites, living across the river, sent to Darius the king:

Spiritual

Practical

7 They sent him a letter saying, To Darius the king, all peace:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 This is to give the king word that we went into the land of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is made of great stones, and has its walls supported with wood, and the work is going on with industry, and they are doing it well.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Then we said to the men responsible, who gave you authority for the building of this house and these walls?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 And we made request for their names, so that we might send you word, and give you the names of the men at the head of them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And they made answer to us, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are building the house which was put up in times long past and was designed and made complete by a great king of Israel.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 But when the God of heaven was moved to wrath by our fathers, he gave them up into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldaean, who sent destruction on this house and took the people away into Babylon.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 But in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, Cyrus the king gave an order for the building of this house of God;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 And the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple which was in Jerusalem, and put into the house of his god in Babylon, these Cyrus the king took from the house of his god in Babylon, and gave to one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made ruler;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 And he said to him, Go, take these vessels, and put them in the Temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be put up again in its place.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 Then this same Sheshbazzar came and put the house of God in Jerusalem on its bases: and from that time till now the building has been going on, but it is still not complete.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17

Literal

So now, if it seems good to the king, let search be made in the king's store-house at Babylon, to see if it is true that an order was given by Cyrus the king for the building of this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us word of his pleasure in connection with this business.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

Then Darius the king gave an order and a search was made in the house of the records, where the things of value were stored up in Babylon.

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

And at Achmetha, in the great house of the king in the land of Media, they came across a roll, in which this statement was put on record:

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made an order: In connection with the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be put up, the place where they make offerings, and let the earth for the bases be put in place; let it be sixty cubits high and sixty cubits wide;

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

With three lines of great stones and one line of new wood supports; and let the necessary money be given out of the king's store-house;

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal And let the gold and silver vessels from the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple at Jerusalem to Babylon, be given back and taken again to the Temple at Jerusalem, every one in its place, and put them in the house of God.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal So now, Tattenai, ruler of the land across the river, and Shethar-bozenai and your people the Apharsachites across the river, keep far from that place:

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal Let the work of this house of God go on; let the ruler of the Jews and their responsible men put up this house of God in its place.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal Further, I give orders as to what you are to do for the responsible men of the Jews in connection with the building of this house of God: that from the king's wealth, that is, from the taxes got together in the land over the river, the money needed is to be given to these men readily, so that their work may not be stopped.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal And whatever they have need of, young oxen and sheep and lambs, for burned offerings to the God of heaven, grain, salt, wine, and oil, whatever the priests in Jerusalem say is necessary, is to be given to them day by day regularly:

Spiritual

Practical

10 So that they may make offerings of a sweet smell to the God of heaven, with prayers for the life of the king and of his sons.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And I have given orders that if anyone makes any change in this word, one of the supports is to be pulled out of his house, and he is to be lifted up and fixed to it; and his house is to be made waste for this;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 And may the God who has made it a resting-place for his name send destruction on all kings and peoples whose hands are outstretched to make any change in this or to do damage to this house of God at Jerusalem. I, Darius, have given this order, let it be done with all care.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Then Tattenai, the ruler across the river, and Shethar-bozenai and their people, because of the order given by King Darius, did as he had said with all care.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 And the responsible men of the Jews went on with their building, and did well, helped by the teaching of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, the son of Iddo. They went on building till it was complete, in keeping with the word of the God of Israel, and the orders given by Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes, king of Persia.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 And the building of this house was complete on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the rule of Darius the king.

Literal

16 And the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of those who had come back, kept the feast of the opening of this house of God with joy.

Literal

17 And they gave as offerings at the opening of this house of God a hundred oxen, two hundred sheep, four hundred lambs; and for a sin-offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, being the number of the tribes of Israel.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

18 And they put the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their order, for the worship of God at Jerusalem; as it is recorded in the book of Moses.

Literal

19 And the children of Israel who had come back kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

For the priests and the Levites had made themselves clean together; they were all clean: and they put the Passover lamb to death for all those who had come back, and for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

21 Then I gave orders for a time of going without food, there by the river Ahava, so that we might make ourselves low before our God in prayer, requesting from him a straight way for us and for our little ones and for all our substance.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

22 For I would not, for shame, make request to the king for a band of armed men and horsemen to give us help against those who might make attacks on us on the way: for we had said to the king, The hand of our God is on his servants for good, but his power and his wrath are against all those who are turned away from him.

23 So we went without food, requesting our God for this: and his ear was open to our prayer.

Literal

Spiritual

---

---

29 Take care of them and keep them, till you put them on the scales before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the chiefs of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, in the rooms of the house of the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 Literal Now after these things were done, the captains came to me and said, The people of Israel and the priests and Levites have not kept themselves separate from the people of the lands, but have taken part in the disgusting ways of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

Spiritual

Practical

2 Literal For they have taken their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed has been mixed with the peoples of the lands; and in fact the captains and rulers have been the first to do this evil.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal Then everyone who went in fear of the words of the God of Israel, because of the sin of those who had come back, came together to me; and I kept where I was, overcome with grief, till the evening offering.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal I said, O my God, shame keeps me from lifting up my face to you, my God: for our sins are increased higher than our heads and our evil-doing has come up to heaven.

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal From the days of our fathers till this day we have been great sinners; and for our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been given up into the hands of the kings of the lands, to the sword and to prison and to loss of goods and to shame of face, as it is this day.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal And now for a little time grace has come to us from the Lord our God, to let a small band of us get free and to give us a nail in his holy place, so that our God may give light to our eyes and a measure of new life in our prison chains.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal For we are servants; but our God has not been turned away from us in our prison, but has had mercy on us before the eyes of the kings of Persia, to give us new strength to put up again the house of our God and to make fair its waste places, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

Spiritual

Practical

10 And now, O our God, what are we to say after this? for we have not kept your laws,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

11 Which you gave to your servants the prophets, saying, The land into which you are going, to take it for a heritage, is an unclean land, because of the evil lives of the peoples of the land and their disgusting ways, which have made the land unclean from end to end.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 So now do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons or do anything for their peace or well-being for ever; so that you may be strong, living on the good of the land, and handing it on to your children for a heritage for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 And after everything which has come on us because of our evil-doing and our great sin, and seeing that the punishment which you, O God, have given us, is less than the measure of our sins, and that you have kept from death those of us who are here;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Are we again to go against your orders, taking wives from among the people who do these disgusting things? would you not be angry with us till our destruction was complete, till there was not one who got away safe?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15

Literal

O Lord God of Israel, righteousness is yours; we are only a small band which has been kept from death, as at this day: see, we are before you in our sin; for no one may keep his place before you because of this.

14 Literal So now let our rulers be representatives for all the people, and let all those in our towns who are married to strange women come at fixed times, and with them the responsible men and the judges of every town, till the burning wrath of our God is turned away from us, and this has been done.

Spiritual

Practical

24 After him Binnui, the son of Henadad, was working on another part, from the house of Azariah as far as the turning of the wall and the angle.

Literal

Spiritual

25 Palal, the son of Uzai, made good the wall opposite the angle and the tower which comes out from the higher part of the king's house, by the open space of the watch. After him was Pedaiah, the son of Parosh.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

26 (Now the Nethinim were living in the Ophel, as far as the place facing the water doorway to the east, and the tower which comes out.)

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

27 After him the Tekoites were making good another part, opposite the great tower which comes out, and up to the wall of the Ophel.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

28 Further on, past the horse doorway, the priests were at work, every one opposite his house.

Literal

29 After them Zadok, the son of Immer, was working opposite his house. And after him Shemaiah, the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the east door.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

30 After him Hananiah, the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, were making good another part. After him Meshullam, the son of Berechiah, made good the wall opposite his room.

Literal

Practical

31 After him Malchijah, one of the gold-workers to the Nethinim and the traders, made good the wall opposite the doorway of Hammiphkad and as far as the way up to the angle.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

32 And between the way up to the angle and the sheep door, the gold-workers and the traders made good the wall.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 Now, Sanballat, hearing that we were building the wall, was very angry, and in his wrath made sport of the Jews.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

And in the hearing of his countrymen and the army of Samaria he said, What are these feeble Jews doing? will they make themselves strong? will they make offerings? will they get the work done in a day? will they make the stones which have been burned come again out of the dust?

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

3

Literal

Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Such is their building that if a fox goes up it, their stone wall will be broken down.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

Literal

Give ear, O our God, for we are looked down on: let their words of shame be turned back on themselves, and let them be given up to wasting in a land where they are prisoners:

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

Literal

Let not their wrongdoing be covered or their sin washed away from before you: for they have made you angry before the builders.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6

Literal

So we went on building the wall; and all the wall was joined together half-way up: for the people were working hard.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7

Literal

But when it came to the ears of Sanballat and Tobiah and the Arabians and the Ammonites and the Ashdodites, that the building of the walls of Jerusalem was going forward and the broken places were being made good, they were full of wrath;

Spiritual

Practical

8

Literal

And they made designs, all of them together, to come and make an attack on Jerusalem, causing trouble there.

Spiritual

Practical

9

Literal

But we made our prayer to God, and had men on watch against them day and night because of them.

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

And Judah said, The strength of the workmen is giving way, and there is much waste material; it is impossible for us to put up the wall.

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

And those who were against us said, Without their knowledge and without their seeing us, we will come among them and put them to death, causing the work to come to a stop.

Spiritual

Practical

12 And it came about that when the Jews who were living near them came, they said to us ten times, From all directions they are coming against us.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 So in the lowest part of the space at the back of the walls, in the open places, I put the people by families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 And after looking, I got up and said to the great ones and to the chiefs and to the rest of the people, Have no fear of them: keep in mind the Lord who is great and greatly to be feared, and take up arms for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 And when it came to the ears of those who were against us, that we had knowledge of their designs and that God had made their purpose come to nothing, we all went back to the wall, everyone to his work

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 And from that time, half of my servants were doing their part of the work, and half kept the spears and body-covers and the bows and the metal war-dresses; and the chiefs were at the back of the men of Judah.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 Those who were building the wall and those who were moving material did their part, everyone working with one hand, with his spear in the other;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Every builder was working with his sword at his side. And by my side was a man for sounding the horn.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And I said to the great ones and the chiefs and the rest of the people, The work is great and widely spaced and we are far away from one another on the wall:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Wherever you may be when the horn is sounded, come here to us; our God will be fighting for us.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 So we went on with the work: and half of them had spears in their hands from the dawn of the morning till the stars were seen.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22

Literal

And at the same time I said to the people, Let everyone with his servant come inside Jerusalem for the night, so that at night they may keep watch for us, and go on working by day.

Spiritual

Practical

23

Literal

So not one of us, I or my brothers or my servants or the watchmen who were with me, took off his clothing, everyone went armed to the water.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

Then there was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their countrymen the Jews.

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

For there were some who said, We, our sons and our daughters, are a great number: let us get grain, so that we may have food for our needs.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

And there were some who said, We are giving our fields and our vine-gardens and our houses for debt: let us get grain because we are in need.

Spiritual

Practical

4 And there were others who said, We have given up our fields and our vine-gardens to get money for the king's taxes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 But our flesh is the same as the flesh of our countrymen, and our children as their children: and now we are giving our sons and daughters into the hands of others, to be their servants, and some of our daughters are servants even now: and we have no power to put a stop to it; for other men have our fields and our vine-gardens.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 And on hearing their outcry and what they said I was very angry.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And after turning it over in my mind, I made a protest to the chiefs and the rulers, and said to them, Every one of you is taking interest from his countryman. And I got together a great meeting of protest.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 And I said to them, We have given whatever we were able to give, to make our brothers the Jews free, who were servants and prisoners of the nations: and would you now give up your brothers for a price, and are they to become our property? Then they said nothing, answering not a word.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Literal And I said, What you are doing is not good: is it not the more necessary for you to go in the fear of our God, because of the shame which the nations may put on us?

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal Even I and my servants have been taking interest for the money and the grain we have let them have. So now, let us give up this thing.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal Give back to them this very day their fields, their vine-gardens, their olive-gardens, and their houses, as well as a hundredth part of the money and the grain and the wine and the oil which you have taken from them.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal Then they said, We will give them back, and take nothing for them; we will do as you say. Then I sent for the priests and made them take an oath that they would keep this agreement.

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal And shaking out the folds of my robe, I said, So may God send out from his house and his work every man who does not keep this agreement; even so let him be sent out and made as nothing. And all the meeting of the people said, So be it, and gave praise to the Lord. And the people did as they had said.

Spiritual

Practical

14 Literal Now from the time when I was made ruler of the people in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year till the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, for twelve years, I and my servants have never taken the food which was the right of the ruler.

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal But earlier rulers who were before me made the people responsible for their upkeep, and took from them bread and wine at the rate of forty shekels of silver; and even their servants were lords over the people: but I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

Spiritual

Practical

16 Literal And I kept on with the work of this wall, and we got no land for ourselves: and all my servants were helping with the work.

Spiritual

Practical

17 Literal And more than this, a hundred and fifty of the Jews and the rulers were guests at my table, in addition to those who came to us from the nations round about us.

Spiritual

Practical

18 Literal Now the food made ready for one day was one ox and six fat sheep, as well as fowls; and once in ten days a store of all sorts of wine: but all the same, I did not take the food to which the ruler had a right, because the people were crushed under a hard yoke.

Spiritual

Practical

19 Keep in mind, O my God, for my good, all I have done for this people.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Now when word was given to Sanballat and Tobiah and to Geshem the Arabian and to the rest of our haters, that I had done the building of the wall and that there were no more broken places in it (though even then I had not put up the doors in the doorways);

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Sanballat and Geshem sent to me saying, Come, let us have a meeting in one of the little towns in the lowland of Ono. But their purpose was to do me evil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 And I sent men to them saying, I am doing a great work, so that it is not possible for me to come down: is the work to be stopped while I go away from it and come down to you?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 And four times they sent to me in this way, and I sent them the same answer.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me a fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 And in it these words were recorded: It is said among the nations, and Geshem says so, that you and the Jews are hoping to make yourselves free from the king's authority; and that this is why you are building the wall: and they say that it is your purpose to be their king;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And that you have prophets preaching about you in Jerusalem, and saying, There is a king in Judah: now an account of these things will be sent to the king. So come now, and let us have a discussion.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Then I sent to him, saying, No such things as you say are being done, they are only a fiction you have made up yourself.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 For they were hoping to put fear in us, saying, Their hands will become feeble and give up the work so that it may not get done. But now, O God, make my hands strong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10

Literal

And I went to the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us have a meeting in the house of God, inside the Temple, and let the doors be shut: for they will come to put you to death; truly, in the night they will come to put you to death.

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

And I said, Am I the sort of man to go in flight? what man, in my position, would go into the Temple to keep himself safe? I will not go in.

Spiritual

Practical

12

Literal

Then it became clear to me that God had not sent him: he had given this word of a prophet against me himself: and Tobiah and Sanballat had given him money to do so.

Spiritual

Practical

13

Literal

For this reason they had given him money, in order that I might be overcome by fear and do what he said and do wrong, and so they would have reason to say evil about me and put shame on me.

Spiritual

Practical

14

Literal

Keep in mind, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat and what they did, and Noadiah, the woman prophet, and the rest of the prophets whose purpose was to put fear into me.

Spiritual

Practical

15 So the wall was complete on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And when our haters had news of this, all the nations round about us were full of fear and were greatly shamed, for they saw that this work had been done by our God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And further, in those days the chiefs of Judah sent a number of letters to Tobiah, and his letters came to them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 For in Judah there were a number of people who had made an agreement by oath with him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah, the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken as his wife the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berechiah.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And they said much before me of the good he had done, and gave him accounts of my words. And Tobiah sent letters with the purpose of causing me fear.

So the priests and the Levites and the door-keepers and the music-makers and some of the people and the Nethinim, and all Israel, were living in their towns.

And when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their towns. And all the people came together like one man into the wide place in front of the water-doorway; and they made a request to Ezra the scribe that he would put before them the book of the law of Moses which the Lord had given to Israel.

Spiritual

And Ezra the priest put the law before the meeting of the people, before the men and women and all those who were able to take it in, on the first day of the seventh month.

And Ezra the scribe took his place on a tower of wood which they had made for the purpose; and by his side were placed Mattithiah and Shema and Anaiah and Uriah and Hilkiyah and Maaseiah on the right; and on the left, Pedaiah and Mishael and Malchijah and Hashum and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

Spiritual

Practical

29

31

Literal

Even then, in your great mercy, you did not put an end to them completely, or give them up; for you are a God of grace and mercy.

And now, our God, the great, the strong, the God who is to be feared, who keeps faith and mercy, let not all this trouble seem small to you, which has come on us, and on our kings and our rulers and on our priests and our prophets and our fathers and on all your people from the time of the kings of Assyria till this day.

Spiritual

---

34

Literal

And our kings, our rulers, our priests, and our fathers have not kept your law or given attention to your orders and your witness, with which you gave witness against them.

---

For they have not been your servants in their kingdom, and in all the good things you gave them, and in the great and fat land you gave them, and they have not been turned away from their evil-doing.

---

Spiritual

---

36

22 The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were listed as heads of families; and the priests, when Darius the Persian was king.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

23 The sons of Levi, heads of families, were recorded in the book of the histories, even till the days of Johanan, the son of Eliashib.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

24 And the chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua, the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers opposite them, to give blessing and praise as ordered by David, the man of God, watch against watch.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were door-keepers keeping the watch at the store-houses of the doors.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

26 These were in the days of Joiakim, the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the ruler and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

Literal

Practical

27

Literal

And when the time came for the wall of Jerusalem to be made holy, they sent for the Levites out of all their places to come to Jerusalem, to keep the feast with joy, and with praise and melody, with brass and corded instruments of music.

Spiritual

Practical

28

Literal

And the sons of the music-makers came together from the lowland round about Jerusalem and from the daughter-towns of the Netophathites,

Spiritual

Practical

29

Literal

And from Beth-gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the music-makers had made daughter-towns for themselves round about Jerusalem.

Spiritual

Practical

30

Literal

And the priests and the Levites made themselves clean; and they made the people clean, and the doorways and the wall.

Spiritual

Practical

31

Literal

Then I made the rulers of Judah come up on the wall, and I put in position two great bands of them who gave praise, walking in ordered lines; one went to the right on the wall, in the direction of the doorway where the waste was put;

Spiritual

Practical

32 And after them went Hoshaiah and half of the rulers of Judah,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

34 Judah and Benjamin and Shemaiah and Jeremiah,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 And certain of the priests' sons with wind instruments; Zechariah, the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36 And his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel and Judah, Hanani, with the music-instruments of David, the man of God; and Ezra the scribe was at their head;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37 And by the doorway of the fountain and straight in front of them, they went up by the steps of the town of David, at the slope up of the wall, over the house of David, as far as the water-doorway to the east.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

38 And the other band of those who gave praise went to the left, and I went after them with half the people, on the wall, over the tower of the ovens, as far as the wide wall;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

39 And over the doorway of Ephraim and by the old door and the fish door and the tower of Hananel and the tower of Hammeah, as far as the sheep door: and at the doorway of the watchmen they came to a stop.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

40 So the two bands of those who gave praise took up their positions in the house of God, and I and half of the chiefs with me:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with wind instruments;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

42 And Maaseiah and Shemaiah and Eleazar and Uzzi and Jehohanan and Malchijah and Elam and Ezer. And the makers of melody made their voices loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

43 And on that day they made great offerings and were glad; for God had made them glad with great joy; and the women and the children were glad with them: so that the joy of Jerusalem came to the ears of those who were far off.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

44 And on that day certain men were put over the rooms where the things which had been given were stored, for the lifted offerings and the first-fruits and the tenths, and to take into them the amounts, from the fields of every town, fixed by the law for the priests and the Levites: for Judah was glad on account of the priests and the Levites who were in their places.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

45 And they kept the watch of their God, and were responsible for making things clean, and so did the music-makers and the door-keepers, as it was ordered by David and Solomon his son.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

46 For in the days of David and Asaph in the past, there was a master of the music, and songs of blessing and praise to God.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

47

Literal

And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah gave what was needed by the music-makers and the door-keepers day by day: and they made the offerings holy for the Levites; and the Levites did the same for the sons of Aaron.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

On that day there was a reading from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and they saw that it said in the book that no Ammonite or Moabite might ever come into the meeting of God;

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

Because they did not give the children of Israel bread and water when they came to them, but got Balaam to put a curse on them: though the curse was turned into a blessing by our God.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

So after hearing the law, they took out of Israel all the mixed people.

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who had been placed over the rooms of the house of our God, being a friend of Tobiah,

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal Had made ready for him a great room, where at one time they kept the meal offerings, the perfume, and the vessels and the tenths of the grain and wine and oil which were given by order to the Levites and the music-makers and the door-keepers, and the lifted offerings for the priests.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal But all this time I was not at Jerusalem: for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes, king of Babylon, I went to the king; and after some days, I got the king to let me go,

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal And I came to Jerusalem; and it was clear to me what evil Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in making ready for him a room in the buildings of the house of God.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal And it was evil in my eyes: so I had all Tobiah's things put out of the room.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal Then I gave orders, and they made the rooms clean: and I put back in them the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offerings and the perfume.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal And I saw that the Levites had not been given what was needed for their support; so that the Levites and the music-makers, who did the work, had gone away, everyone to his field.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal Then I made protests to the chiefs, and said, Why has the house of God been given up? And I got them together and put them in their places.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal Then all Judah came with the tenth part of the grain and wine and oil and put it into the store-houses.

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal And I made controllers over the store-houses, Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and with them was Hanan, the son of Zaccur the son of Mattaniah: they were taken to be true men and their business was the distribution of these things to their brothers.

Spiritual

Practical

14 Literal Keep me in mind, O my God, in connection with this, and do not let the good which I have done for the house of my God and its worship go from your memory completely.

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal In those days, I saw in Judah some who were crushing grapes on the Sabbath, and getting in grain and putting it on asses; as well as wine and grapes and figs and all sorts of goods which they took into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I gave witness against them on the day when they were marketing food.

Spiritual

Practical

16 Literal And there were men of Tyre there, who came with fish and all sorts of goods, trading with the children of Judah and in Jerusalem on the Sabbath.

Spiritual

Practical

17 Literal Then I made protests to the chiefs of Judah, and said to them, What is this evil which you are doing, not keeping the Sabbath day holy?

Spiritual

Practical

18 Literal Did not your fathers do the same, and did not our God send all this evil on us and on this town? but you are causing more wrath to come on Israel by not keeping the Sabbath holy.

Spiritual

Practical

19 Literal And so, when the streets of Jerusalem were getting dark before the Sabbath, I gave orders for the doors to be shut and not to be open again till after the Sabbath: and I put some of my servants by the door so that nothing might be taken in on the Sabbath day.

Spiritual

Practical

20 So the traders in all sorts of goods took their night's rest outside Jerusalem once or twice.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Then I gave witness against them and said, Why are you waiting all night by the wall? if you do so again I will have you taken prisoners. From that time they did not come again on the Sabbath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 And I gave the Levites orders to make themselves clean and come and keep the doors and make the Sabbath holy. Keep this in mind to my credit, O my God, and have mercy on me, for great is your mercy.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 And in those days I saw the Jews who were married to women of Ashdod and Ammon and Moab:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 And their children were talking half in the language of Ashdod; they had no knowledge of the Jews' language, but made use of the language of the two peoples.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Literal And I took up the cause against them, cursing them and giving blows to some of them and pulling out their hair; and I made them take an oath by God, saying, You are not to give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.

Spiritual

Practical

26 Literal Was it not in these things that Solomon, king of Israel, did wrong? among a number of nations there was no king like him, and he was dear to his God, and God made him king over all Israel: but even he was made to do evil by strange women.

Spiritual

Practical

27 Literal Are we then without protest to let you do all this great evil, sinning against our God by taking strange women for your wives?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

28 Literal And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib, the chief priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: so I sent him away from me.

Spiritual

Practical

29 Literal Keep them in mind, O my God, because they have put shame on the priests' name and on the agreement of the priests and the Levites.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

30 So I made them clean from all strange people, and had regular watches fixed for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 And for the wood offering, at fixed times, and for the first fruits. Keep me in mind, O my God, for good.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Now it came about in the days of Ahasuerus, (that Ahasuerus who was ruler of a hundred and twenty-seven divisions of the kingdom, from India as far as Ethiopia:)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 That in those days, when King Ahasuerus was ruling in Shushan, his strong town,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 In the third year of his rule he gave a feast to all his captains and his servants; and the captains of the army of Persia and Media, the great men and the rulers of the divisions of his kingdom, were present before him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Literal And for a long time, even a hundred and eighty days, he let them see all the wealth and the glory of his kingdom and the great power and honour which were his.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal And at the end of that time, the king gave a feast for all the people who were present in Shushan, the king's town, small as well as great, for seven days, in the outer square of the garden of the king's house.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal There were fair hangings of white and green and blue, fixed with cords of purple and the best linen to silver rings and pillars of polished stone: the seats were of gold and silver on a floor of red and white and yellow and black stone.

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal And they gave them drink in gold vessels, every vessel being different, and wine of the kingdom, freely given by the king.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal And the drinking was in keeping with the law; no one was forced: for the king had given orders to all the chief servants of his house to do as was pleasing to every man.

Spiritual

Practical

9 And Vashti the queen gave a feast for the women in the house of King Ahasuerus.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was glad with wine, he gave orders to Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven unsexed servants who were waiting before Ahasuerus the king,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 That Vashti the queen was to come before him, crowned with her crown, and let the people and the captains see her: for she was very beautiful.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 But when the servants gave her the king's order, Vashti the queen said she would not come: then the king was very angry, and his heart was burning with wrath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 And the king said to the wise men, who had knowledge of the times, (for this was the king's way with all who were expert in law and in the giving of decisions:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Literal And second only to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven rulers of Persia and Media, who were friends of the king, and had the first places in the kingdom:)

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal What is to be done by law to Vashti the queen, because she has not done what King Ahasuerus, by his servants, gave her orders to do?

Spiritual

Practical

16 Literal And before the king and the captains, Memucan gave his answer: Vashti the queen has done wrong, not only to the king, but to all the captains and to all the peoples in all the divisions of the kingdom of King Ahasuerus;

Spiritual

Practical

17 Literal For news of what the queen has done will come to the ears of all women, and they will no longer give respect to their husbands when it is said to them, King Ahasuerus gave orders for Vashti the queen to come before him and she came not.

Spiritual

Practical

18 Literal And the wives of the captains of Persia and Media, hearing what the queen has done, will say the same to all the king's captains. So there will be much shame and wrath.

Spiritual

Practical

19

Literal

If it is pleasing to the king, let an order go out from him, and let it be recorded among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it may never be changed, that Vashti is never again to come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her place to another who is better than she.

Spiritual

20

Literal

And when this order, given by the king, is made public through all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give honour to their husbands, great as well as small.

Spiritual

Practical

21

Literal

And this suggestion seemed good to the king and the captains; and the king did as Memucan said;

Spiritual

Practical

22

Literal

And sent letters to all the divisions of the kingdom, to every division in the writing commonly used there, and to every people in the language which was theirs, saying that every man was to be the ruler in his house, and that this order was to be given out in the language of his people.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

After these things, when the king's feelings were calmer, the thought of Vashti and what she had done and the order he had made against her, came back to his mind.

Spiritual

Practical

2 Then the servants who were waiting on the king said to him, Let search be made for some fair young virgins for the king:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Let the king give authority to certain men in all the divisions of his kingdom, to get together all the fair young virgins and send them to Shushan, the king's town, to the women's house, under the care of Hegai, the king's servant, the keeper of the women: and let the things needed for making them clean be given to them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 And let the girl who is pleasing to the king be queen in place of Vashti. And the king was pleased with this suggestion; and he did so.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Now there was a certain Jew in Shushan named Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Who had been taken away from Jerusalem among those who had been made prisoner with Jeconiah, king of Judah, when Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had taken him away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7

Literal

And he had been a father to Hadassah, that is Esther, the daughter of his father's brother: for she had no father or mother, and she was very beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his daughter.

Spiritual

Practical

8

Literal

So when the order made by the king was publicly given out, and a number of girls had been placed in the care of Hegai in the king's house in Shushan, Esther was taken into the king's house and put in the care of Hegai, the keeper of the women.

Spiritual

Practical

9

Literal

And he was pleased with the girl and was kind to her; and he quickly gave her what was needed for making her clean, and the things which were hers by right, and seven servant-girls who were to be hers from the king's house: and he had her and her servant-girls moved to the best place in the women's part of the house.

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

Esther had not said what family or people she came from, for Mordecai had given her orders not to do so.

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

And every day Mordecai took his walk before the square of the women's house, to see how Esther was and what would be done to her.

Spiritual

12

Literal

Now every girl, when her turn came, had to go in to King Ahasuerus, after undergoing, for a space of twelve months, what was ordered by the law for the women (for this was the time necessary for making them clean, that is, six months with oil of myrrh and six months with sweet perfumes and such things as are needed for making women clean):

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13

Literal

And in this way the girl went in to the king; whatever she had a desire for was given to her to take with her from the women's house into the house of the king.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14

Literal

In the evening she went, and on the day after she came back to the second house of the women, into the keeping of Shaashgaz, one of the king's unsexed servants who had the care of the king's wives: only if the king had delight in her and sent for her by name did she go in to him again.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15

Literal

Now when the time came for Esther, the daughter of Abihail, his father's brother, whom Mordecai had taken as his daughter, to go in to the king, she made request for nothing but what Hegai, the king's servant and keeper of the women, had given her. And Esther was looked on kindly by all who saw her.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16

Literal

So Esther was taken in to King Ahasuerus in his house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his rule.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And Esther was more pleasing to the king than all the women, and to his eyes she was fairer and more full of grace than all the other virgins: so he put his crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 Then the king gave a great feast for all his captains and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he gave orders through all the divisions of his kingdom for a day of rest from work, and gave wealth from his store.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 And when the virgins came together in the second house of the women, Mordecai took his seat in the doorway of the king's house.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

20 Esther had still said nothing of her family or her people, as Mordecai had given her orders; for Esther did what Mordecai said, as when she was living with him.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

21 In those days, while Mordecai was seated at the king's doorway, two of the king's servants, Bigthan and Teresh, keepers of the door, being angry, were looking for a chance to make an attack on King Ahasuerus.

Literal

Spiritual

22

And Mordecai, having knowledge of their purpose, sent word of it to Esther the queen; and Esther gave the news to the king in Mordecai's name.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23

And when the thing had been looked into, it was seen to be true, and the two of them were put to death by hanging on a tree: and it was put down in the records before the king.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

After these things, by the order of the king, Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, was lifted up and given a position of honour and a higher place than all the other captains who were with him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

And all the king's servants who were in the king's house went down to the earth before Haman and gave him honour: for so the king had given orders. But Mordecai did not go down before him or give him honour.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Then the king's servants who were in the king's house said to Mordecai, Why do you go against the king's order?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Literal Now when they had said this to him day after day and he gave no attention, they let Haman have news of it, to see if Mordecai's behaviour would be overlooked: for he had said to them that he was a Jew.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal And when Haman saw that Mordecai did not go down before him and give him honour, Haman was full of wrath.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal But it was not enough for him to make an attack on Mordecai only; for they had made clear to him who Mordecai's people were; so Haman made it his purpose to put an end to all the Jews, even Mordecai's people, through all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal In the first month, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, from day to day and from month to month they went on looking for a sign given by Pur (that is chance) before Haman, till the sign came out for the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal And Haman said to King Ahasuerus, There is a certain nation living here and there in small groups among the people in all the divisions of your kingdom; their laws are different from those of any other nation, and they do not keep the king's laws: for this reason it is not right for the king to let them be.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal If it is the king's pleasure, let a statement ordering their destruction be put in writing: and I will give to those responsible for the king's business, ten thousand talents of silver for the king's store-house.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal And the king took his ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the hater of the Jews.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And the king said to Haman, The money is yours, and the people, to do with them whatever seems right to you.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal Then on the thirteenth day of the first month, the king's scribes were sent for, and they put in writing Haman's orders to all the king's captains and the rulers of every division of his kingdom and the chiefs of every people: for every division of the kingdom in the writing commonly used there, and to every people in the language which was theirs; it was signed in the name of King Ahasuerus and stamped with the king's ring.

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal And letters were sent by the runners into every division of the kingdom ordering the death and destruction of all Jews, young and old, little children and women, on the same day, even the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar, and the taking of all their goods by force.

Spiritual

Practical

14 Literal A copy of the writing, to be made public in every part of the kingdom, was sent out to all the peoples, so that they might be ready when that day came.

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal The runners went out quickly by the king's order, and a public statement was made in Shushan: and the king and Haman took wine together: but the town of Shushan was troubled.

Spiritual

Practical

1 Literal Now when Mordecai saw what was done, pulling off his robe, he put on haircloth, with dust on his head, and went out into the middle of the town, crying out with a loud and bitter cry.

Spiritual

Practical

2 Literal And he came even before the king's doorway; for no one might come inside the king's door clothed in haircloth.

Spiritual

Practical

3 Literal And in every part of the kingdom, wherever the king's word and his order came, there was great sorrow among the Jews, and weeping and crying and going without food; and numbers of them were stretched on the earth covered with dust and haircloth.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal And Esther's women and her servants came and gave her word of it. Then great was the grief of the queen: and she sent robes for Mordecai, so that his clothing of haircloth might be taken off; but he would not have them.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal Then Esther sent for Hathach, one of the king's unsexed servants whom he had given her for waiting on her, and she gave him orders to go to Mordecai and see what this was and why it was.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal So Hathach went out and saw Mordecai in the open square of the town before the king's doorway.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal And Mordecai gave him an account of what had taken place, and of the amount of money which Haman had said he would put into the king's store for the destruction of the Jews.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal And he gave him the copy of the order which had been given out in Shushan for their destruction, ordering him to let Esther see it, and to make it clear to her; and to say to her that she was to go in to the king, requesting his mercy, and making prayer for her people.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 And Hathach came back and gave Esther an account of what Mordecai had said.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Then Esther sent Hathach to say to Mordecai:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 It is common knowledge among all the king's servants and the people of every part of the kingdom, that if anyone, man or woman, comes to the king in his inner room without being sent for, there is only one law for him, that he is to be put to death; only those to whom the king's rod of gold is stretched out may keep their lives: but I have not been sent for to come before the king these thirty days.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 And they said these words to Mordecai.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Then Mordecai sent this answer back to Esther: Do not have the idea that you in the king's house will be safe from the fate of all the Jews.

14 If at this time you say nothing, then help and salvation will come to the Jews from some other place, but you and your father's family will come to destruction: and who is to say that you have not come to the kingdom even for such a time as this?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 Then Esther sent them back to Mordecai with this answer:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Go, get together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and go without food for me, taking no food or drink night or day for three days: and I and my women will do the same; and so I will go in to the king, which is against the law: and if death is to be my fate, then let it come.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 So Mordecai went away and did everything as Esther had said.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Now on the third day, Esther put on her queen's robes, and took her place in the inner room of the king's house, facing the king's house: and the king was seated on his high seat in the king's house, facing the doorway of the house.

Literal

Practical

---

2

Literal

And when the king saw Esther the queen waiting in the inner room, looking kindly on her he put out the rod of gold in his hand to her. So Esther came near and put her fingers on the top of the rod.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

Then the king said, What is your desire, Queen Esther, and what is your request? I will give it to you, even to the half of my kingdom.

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

And Esther in answer said, If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come today to the feast which I have made ready for him.

Spiritual

Practical

5

Literal

Then the king said, Let Haman come quickly, so that what Esther has said may be done. So the king and Haman came to the feast which Esther had made ready.

Spiritual

Practical

6

Literal

And while they were drinking wine the king said to Esther, What is your prayer? for it will be given to you and what is your request? for it will be done, even to the half of my kingdom.

Spiritual

Practical

7 Then Esther said in answer, My prayer and my request is this:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 If I have the king's approval, and if it is the king's pleasure to give me my prayer and do my request, let the king and Haman come to the feast which I will make ready for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Then on that day Haman went out full of joy and glad in heart; but when he saw Mordecai in the king's doorway, and he did not get to his feet or give any sign of fear before him, Haman was full of wrath against Mordecai.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 But controlling himself, he went to his house; and he sent for his friends and Zeresh, his wife.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And he gave them an account of the glories of his wealth, and the number of children he had, and the ways in which he had been honoured by the king, and how he had put him over the captains and servants of the king.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 And Haman said further, Truly, Esther the queen let no man but myself come in to the feast which she had made ready for the king; and tomorrow again I am to be her guest with the king.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 But all this is nothing to me while I see Mordecai the Jew seated by the king's doorway.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, Let a pillar, fifty cubits high, be made ready for hanging him, and in the morning get the king to give orders for the hanging of Mordecai: then you will be able to go to the feast with the king with a glad heart. And Haman was pleased with the suggestion, and he had the pillar made.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 That night the king was unable to get any sleep; and he sent for the books of the records; and while some one was reading them to the king,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 It came out that it was recorded in the book how Mordecai had given word of the designs of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's servants, keepers of the door, by whom an attack on the king had been designed.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

3 Literal And the king said, What honour and reward have been given to Mordecai for this? Then the servants who were waiting on the king said, Nothing has been done for him.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal Then the king said, Who is in the outer room? Now Haman had come into the outer room to get the king's authority for the hanging of Mordecai on the pillar which he had made ready for him.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal And the king's servants said to him, See, Haman is waiting in the outer room. And the king said, Let him come in.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal So Haman came in. And the king said to him, What is to be done to the man whom the king has delight in honouring? Then the thought came into Haman's mind, Whom, more than myself, would the king have pleasure in honouring?

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal And Haman, answering the king, said, For the man whom the king has delight in honouring,

Spiritual

Practical

8 Let them take the robes which the king generally puts on, and the horse on which the king goes, and the crown which is on his head:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 And let the robes and the horse be given to one of the king's most noble captains, so that they may put them on the man whom the king has delight in honouring, and let him go on horseback through the streets of the town, with men crying out before him, So let it be done to the man whom the king has delight in honouring.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Then the king said to Haman, Go quickly, and take the robes and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who is seated at the king's doorway: see that you do everything as you have said.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Then Haman took the robes and the horse, and dressing Mordecai in the robes, he made him go on horseback through the streets of the town, crying out before him, So let it be done to the man whom the king has delight in honouring.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 And Mordecai came back to the king's doorway. But Haman went quickly back to his house, sad and with his head covered.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13

Literal

And Haman gave his wife Zeresh and all his friends an account of what had taken place. Then his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, If Mordecai, who is starting to get the better of you, is of the seed of the Jews, you will not be able to do anything against him, but you will certainly go down before him.

Spiritual

Practical

14

Literal

While they were still talking, the king's servants came to take Haman to the feast which Esther had made ready.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

So the king and Haman came to take wine with Esther the queen.

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

And the king said to Esther again on the second day, while they were drinking, What is your prayer, Queen Esther? for it will be given to you; and what is your request? for it will be done, even to the half of my kingdom.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

Then Esther the queen, answering, said, If I have your approval, O king, and if it is the king's pleasure, let my life be given to me in answer to my prayer, and my people at my request:

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal For we are given up, I and my people, to destruction and death and to be cut off. If we had been taken as men-servants and women-servants for a price, I would have said nothing, for our trouble is little in comparison with the king's loss.

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen, Who is he and where is he who has had this evil thought in his heart?

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal And Esther said, Our hater and attacker is this evil Haman. Then Haman was full of fear before the king and the queen.

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal And the king in his wrath got up from the feast and went into the garden: and Haman got to his feet to make a prayer for his life to Esther the queen: for he saw that the king's purpose was evil against him.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal Then the king came back from the garden into the room where they had been drinking; and Haman was stretched out on the seat where Esther was. Then the king said, Is he taking the queen by force before my eyes in my house? And while the words were on the king's lips, they put a cloth over Haman's face.

Spiritual

9

Literal

Then Harbonah, one of the unsexed servants waiting before the king, said, See, the pillar fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who said a good word for the king, is still in its place in Haman's house. Then the king said, Put him to death by hanging him on it.

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

So Haman was put to death by hanging him on the pillar he had made for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath became less.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

That day the king gave all the family of Haman, the hater of the Jews, to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had made clear what he was to her.

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther put Mordecai over the family of Haman.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

Then Esther again came before the king, falling down at his feet, and made request to him with weeping, that he would put a stop to the evil purposes of Haman the Agagite and the designs which he had made against the Jews.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Then the king put out the rod of gold to Esther, and she got up before the king.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 And she said, If it is the king's pleasure and if I have his approval and this thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing to him, then let letters be sent giving orders against those which Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, sent out for the destruction of the Jews in all divisions of the kingdom:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 For how is it possible for me to see the evil which is to overtake my nation? how may I see the destruction of my people?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, See now, I have given Esther the family of Haman, and he has come to his death by hanging, because he made an attack on the Jews.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 So now send a letter about the Jews, writing whatever seems good to you, in the king's name, and stamping it with the king's ring: for a writing signed in the king's name and stamped with the king's ring may not be changed.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9

Literal

Then at that time, on the twenty-third day of the third month, which is the month Sivan, the king's scribes were sent for; and everything ordered by Mordecai was put in writing and sent to the Jews and the captains and the rulers and the chiefs of all the divisions of the kingdom from India to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven divisions, to every division in the writing commonly used there, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing and their language.

Spiritual

10

Literal

The letters were sent in the name of King Ahasuerus and stamped with his ring, and they were taken by men on horseback, going on the quick-running horses used for the king's business, the offspring of his best horses:

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

In these letters the king gave authority to the Jews in every town to come together and make a fight for their lives, and to send death and destruction on the power of any people in any part of the kingdom attacking them or their children or their women, and to take their goods from them by force,

Spiritual

Practical

12

Literal

On one day in every division of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, that is, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar.

Spiritual

Practical

13

Literal

A copy of the writing, to be made public as an order in every division of the kingdom, was given out to all the peoples, so that the Jews might be ready when that day came to give punishment to their haters.

Spiritual

Practical

14 Literal So the men went out on the quick-running horses used on the king's business, wasting no time and forced on by the king's order; and the order was given out in Shushan, the king's town.

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal And Mordecai went out from before the king, dressed in king-like robes of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold and clothing of purple and the best linen: and all the town of Shushan gave loud cries of joy.

Spiritual

Practical

16 Literal And the Jews had light and joy and honour.

Spiritual

Practical

17 Literal And in every part of the kingdom and in every town, wherever the king's letter and his order came, the Jews were glad with great joy, and had a feast and a good day. And a great number of the people of the land became Jews: for the fear of the Jews had come on them.

Spiritual

Practical

1 Literal Now on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, when the time came for the king's order to be put into effect, on the very day when the haters of the Jews had been hoping to have rule over them; though the opposite had come about, and the Jews had rule over their haters;

Spiritual

2

Literal

On that day, the Jews came together in their towns through all the divisions of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, for the purpose of attacking all those who were attempting evil against them: and everyone had to give way before them, for the fear of them had come on all the peoples.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

And all the chiefs and the captains and the rulers and those who did the king's business gave support to the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai had come on them.

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and word of him went out through every part of the kingdom: for the man Mordecai became greater and greater.

Spiritual

Practical

5

Literal

So the Jews overcame all their attackers with the sword and with death and destruction, and did to their haters whatever they had a desire to do.

Spiritual

Practical

6

Literal

And in Shushan the Jews put to death five hundred men.

Spiritual

Practical

7 They put to death Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the hater of the Jews; but they put not a hand on any of their goods.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 On that day the number of those who had been put to death in the town of Shushan was given to the king.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12

Literal

And the king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have put five hundred men to death in Shushan, as well as the ten sons of Haman: what then have they done in the rest of the kingdom! Now what is your prayer? for it will be given to you; what other request have you? and it will be done.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13

Literal

Then Esther said, If it is the king's pleasure, let authority be given to the Jews in Shushan to do tomorrow as has been done today, and let orders be given for the hanging of Haman's ten sons.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14

Literal

And the king said that this was to be done, and the order was given out in Shushan, and the hanging of Haman's ten sons was effected.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15

Literal

For the Jews who were in Shushan came together again on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and put to death three hundred men in Shushan; but they put not a hand on their goods.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16

Literal

And the other Jews in every division of the kingdom came together, fighting for their lives, and got salvation from their haters and put seventy-five thousand of them to death; but they did not put a hand on their goods.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 This they did on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same month they took their rest, and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 But the Jews in Shushan came together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth day of the month; and on the fifteenth day they took their rest, and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 So the Jews of the country places living in unwalled towns make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of feasting and joy and a good day, a day for sending offerings one to another.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

20 And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in every division of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, near and far,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

21 Ordering them to keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and the fifteenth day of the same month, every year,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

22

Literal

As days on which the Jews had rest from their haters, and the month which for them was turned from sorrow to joy, and from weeping to a good day: and that they were to keep them as days of feasting and joy, of sending offerings to one another and good things to the poor.

Spiritual

Practical

23

Literal

And the Jews gave their word to go on as they had been doing and as Mordecai had given them orders in writing;

Spiritual

Practical

24

Literal

Because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the hater of all the Jews, had made designs for their destruction, attempting to get a decision by Pur (that is, chance) with a view to putting an end to them and cutting them off;

Spiritual

Practical

25

Literal

But when the business was put before the king, he gave orders by letters that the evil design which he had made against the Jews was to be turned against himself; and that he and his sons were to be put to death by hanging.

Spiritual

Practical

26

Literal

So these days were named Purim, after the name of Pur. And so, because of the words of this letter, and of what they had seen in connection with this business, and what had come to them,

Spiritual

Practical

27 Literal The Jews made a rule and gave an undertaking, causing their seed and all those who were joined to them to do the same, so that it might be in force for ever, that they would keep those two days, as ordered in the letter, at the fixed time every year;

Spiritual

Practical

28 Literal And that those days were to be kept in memory through every generation and every family, in every division of the kingdom and every town, that there might never be a time when these days of Purim would not be kept among the Jews, or when the memory of them would go from the minds of their seed.

Spiritual

Practical

29 Literal Then Esther the queen, daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, sent a second letter giving the force of their authority to the order about the Purim.

Spiritual

Practical

30 Literal And he sent letters to all the Jews in the hundred and twenty-seven divisions of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with true words of peace,

Spiritual

Practical

31 Literal Giving the force of law to these days of Purim at their fixed times, as they had been ordered by Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen, and in keeping with the rules they had made for themselves and their seed, in connection with their time of going without food and their cry for help.

Spiritual

32

The order given by Esther gave the force of law to the rules about the Purim; and it was recorded in the book.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

And King Ahasuerus put a tax on the land and on the islands of the sea.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

And all his acts of power and his great strength and the full story of the high place which the king gave Mordecai, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Media and Persia?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews and respected by the body of his countrymen; working for the good of his people, and saying words of peace to all his seed.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. He was without sin and upright, fearing God and keeping himself far from evil.

And he had seven sons and three daughters.

3

And of cattle he had seven thousand sheep and goats, and three thousand camels, and a thousand oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great number of servants. And the man was greater than any of the sons of the east.

Literal

---

Spiritual

4

His sons regularly went to one another's houses, and every one on his day gave a feast: and at these times they sent for their three sisters to take part in their feasts with them.

Literal

Practical

---

5

And at the end of their days of feasting, Job sent and made them clean, getting up early in the morning and offering burned offerings for them all. For, Job said, It may be that my sons have done wrong and said evil of God in their hearts. And Job did this whenever the feasts came round.

6

And there was a day when the sons of the gods came together before the Lord, and the Satan came with them.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal And the Satan said in answer to the Lord, Is it for nothing that Job is a god-fearing man?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal Have you yourself not put a wall round him and his house and all he has on every side, blessing the work of his hands, and increasing his cattle in the land?

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal But now, put out your hand against all he has, and he will be cursing you to your face.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 And the Lord said to the Satan, See, I give all he has into your hands, only do not put a finger on the man himself. And the Satan went out from before the Lord.

Literal

Practical

---

13 And there was a day when his sons and daughters were feasting in the house of their oldest brother,

Literal

10 Literal And he said to her, You are talking like one of the foolish women. If we take the good God sends us, are we not to take the evil when it comes? In all this Job kept his lips from sin.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And Job's three friends had word of all this evil which had come on him. And they came every one from his place, Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. So they came together to a meeting-place, in order that they might go and make clear to Job their grief for him, and give him comfort.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal And lifting up their eyes when they were still far off, it did not seem that the man they saw was Job because of the change in him. And they gave way to bitter weeping, with signs of grief, and put dust on their heads.

7

As for that night, let it have no fruit; let no voice of joy be sounded in it;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Let it be cursed by those who put a curse on the day; who are ready to make Leviathan awake.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Let its morning stars be dark; let it be looking for light, but may it not have any; let it not see the eyes of the dawn.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Because it did not keep the doors of my mother's body shut, so that trouble might be veiled from my eyes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Why did death not take me when I came out of my mother's body, why did I not, when I came out, give up my last breath?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Why did the knees take me, or why the breasts that they might give me milk?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 For then I might have gone to my rest in quiet, and in sleep have been in peace,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 With kings and the wise ones of the earth, who put up great houses for themselves;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Or with rulers who had gold, and whose houses were full of silver;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Or as a child dead at birth I might never have come into existence; like young children who have not seen the light.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 There the passions of the evil are over, and those whose strength has come to an end have rest.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 There the prisoners are at peace together; the voice of the overseer comes not again to their ears.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 The small and the great are there, and the servant is free from his master.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Why does he give light to him who is in trouble, and life to the bitter in soul;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 To those whose desire is for death, but it comes not; who are searching for it more than for secret wealth;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Who are glad with great joy, and full of delight when they come to their last resting-place;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 To a man whose way is veiled, and who is shut in by God?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 In place of my food I have grief, and cries of sorrow come from me like water.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 For I have a fear and it comes on me, and my heart is greatly troubled.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 I have no peace, no quiet, and no rest; nothing but pain comes on me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Eliphaz the Temanite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 If one says a word, will it be a weariness to you? but who is able to keep from saying what is in his mind?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Truly, you have been a helper to others, and you have made feeble hands strong;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 He who was near to falling has been lifted up by your words, and you have given strength to bent knees.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 But now it has come on you and it is a weariness to you; you are touched by it and your mind is troubled.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Is not your fear of God your support, and your upright way of life your hope?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Have you ever seen destruction come to an upright man? or when were the god-fearing ever cut off?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 What I have seen is that those by whom trouble has been ploughed, and evil planted, get the same for themselves.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 By the breath of God destruction takes them, and by the wind of his wrath they are cut off.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Though the noise of the lion and the sounding of his voice, may be loud, the teeth of the young lions are broken.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 The old lion comes to his end for need of food, and the young of the she-lion go wandering in all directions.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 A word was given to me secretly, and the low sound of it came to my ears.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 In troubled thoughts from visions of the night, when deep sleep comes on men,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Fear came on me and shaking, and my bones were full of trouble;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 And a breath was moving over my face; the hair of my flesh became stiff:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Something was present before me, but I was not able to see it clearly; there was a form before my eyes: a quiet voice came to my ears, saying:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 May a man be upright before God? or a man be clean before his Maker?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Truly, he puts no faith in his servants, and he sees error in his angels;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 How much more those living in houses of earth, whose bases are in the dust! They are crushed more quickly than an insect;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Between morning and evening they are completely broken; they come to an end for ever, and no one takes note.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 If their tent-cord is pulled up, do they not come to an end, and without wisdom?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Give now a cry for help; is there anyone who will give you an answer? and to which of the holy ones will you make your prayer?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 For wrath is the cause of death to the foolish, and he who has no wisdom comes to his end through passion.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly the curse came on his house.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Now his children have no safe place, and they are crushed before the judges, for no one takes up their cause.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Their produce is taken by him who has no food, and their grain goes to the poor, and he who is in need of water gets it from their spring.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 For evil does not come out of the dust, or trouble out of the earth;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 But trouble is man's fate from birth, as the flames go up from the fire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 But as for me, I would make my prayer to God, and I would put my cause before him:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Who does great things outside our knowledge, wonders without number:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Who gives rain on the earth, and sends water on the fields:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Lifting up those who are low, and putting the sad in a safe place;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Who makes the designs of the wise go wrong, so that they are unable to give effect to their purposes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 He takes the wise in their secret designs, and the purposes of the twisted are cut off suddenly.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 In the daytime it becomes dark for them, and in the sunlight they go feeling about as if it was night.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 But he keeps safe from their sword those who have no father, and the poor from the power of the strong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 So the poor man has hope, and the mouth of the evil-doer is stopped.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Truly, that man is happy who has training from the hand of God: so do not let your heart be shut to the teaching of the Ruler of all.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 For after his punishment he gives comfort, and after wounding, his hands make you well.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 He will keep you safe from six troubles, and in seven no evil will come near you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 When there is need of food he will keep you from death, and in war from the power of the sword.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 He will keep you safe from the evil tongue; and you will have no fear of wasting when it comes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 You will make sport of destruction and need, and will have no fear of the beasts of the earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 For you will be in agreement with the stones of the earth, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 And you will be certain that your tent is at peace, and after looking over your property you will see that nothing is gone.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 You will be certain that your seed will be great, and your offspring like the plants of the earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 You will come to your last resting-place in full strength, as the grain is taken up to the crushing-floor in its time.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 See, we have made search with care, and it is so; it has come to our ears; see that you take note of it for yourself.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 If only my passion might be measured, and put into the scales against my trouble!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 For then its weight would be more than the sand of the seas: because of this my words have been uncontrolled.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 For the arrows of the Ruler of all are present with me, and their poison goes deep into my spirit: his army of fears is put in order against me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Does the ass of the fields give out his voice when he has grass? or does the ox make sounds over his food?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Will a man take food which has no taste without salt? or is there any taste in the soft substance of purslain?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 My soul has no desire for such things, they are as disease in my food.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 If only I might have an answer to my prayer, and God would give me my desire!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 If only he would be pleased to put an end to me; and would let loose his hand, so that I might be cut off!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 So I would still have comfort, and I would have joy in the pains of death, for I have not been false to the words of the Holy One.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Have I strength to go on waiting, or have I any end to be looking forward to?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Is my strength the strength of stones, or is my flesh brass?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 I have no help in myself, and wisdom is completely gone from me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 He whose heart is shut against his friend has given up the fear of the Ruler of all.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 My friends have been false like a stream, like streams in the valleys which come to an end:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Which are dark because of the ice, and the snow falling into them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Under the burning sun they are cut off, and come to nothing because of the heat.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 The camel-trains go out of their way; they go up into the waste and come to destruction.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 The camel-trains of Tema were searching with care, the bands of Sheba were waiting for them:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 They were put to shame because of their hope; they came and their hope was gone.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 So have you now become to me; you see my sad condition and are in fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Did I say, Give me something? or, Make a payment for me out of your wealth?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 Or, Get me out of the power of my hater? or, Give money so that I may be free from the power of the cruel ones?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 Give me teaching and I will be quiet; and make me see my error.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 How pleasing are upright words! but what force is there in your arguments?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 My words may seem wrong to you, but the words of him who has no hope are for the wind.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Truly, you are such as would give up the child of a dead man to his creditors, and would make a profit out of your friend.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Now then, let your eyes be turned to me, for truly I will not say what is false to your face.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 Let your minds be changed, and do not have an evil opinion of me; yes, be changed, for my righteousness is still in me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 Is there evil in my tongue? is not the cause of my trouble clear to me?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Has not man his ordered time of trouble on the earth? and are not his days like the days of a servant working for payment?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 As a servant desiring the shades of evening, and a workman looking for his payment:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 So I have for my heritage months of pain to no purpose, and nights of weariness are given to me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 When I go to my bed, I say, When will it be time to get up? but the night is long, and I am turning from side to side till morning light.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 My flesh is covered with worms and dust; my skin gets hard and then is cracked again.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 My days go quicker than the cloth-worker's thread, and come to an end without hope.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 O, keep in mind that my life is wind: my eye will never again see good.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 The eye of him who sees me will see me no longer: your eyes will be looking for me, but I will be gone.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 A cloud comes to an end and is gone; so he who goes down into the underworld comes not up again.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 He will not come back to his house, and his place will have no more knowledge of him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 So I will not keep my mouth shut; I will let the words come from it in the pain of my spirit, my soul will make a bitter outcry.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Am I a sea, or a sea-beast, that you put a watch over me?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 When I say, In my bed I will have comfort, there I will get rest from my disease;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Then you send dreams to me, and visions of fear;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 So that a hard death seems better to my soul than my pains.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 I have no desire for life, I would not be living for ever! Keep away from me, for my days are as a breath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 What is man, that you have made him great, and that your attention is fixed on him,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 And that your hand is on him every morning, and that you are testing him every minute?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 How long will it be before your eyes are turned away from me, so that I may have a minute's breathing-space?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20

If I have done wrong, what have I done to you, O keeper of men? why have you made me a mark for your blows, so that I am a weariness to myself?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21

And why do you not take away my sin, and let my wrongdoing be ended? for now I go down to the dust, and you will be searching for me with care, but I will be gone.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

Then Bildad the Shuhite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

How long will you say these things, and how long will the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Does God give wrong decisions? or is the Ruler of all not upright in his judging?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 If your children have done evil against him, then their punishment is from his hand.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 If you will make search for God with care, and put your request before the Ruler of all;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 If you are clean and upright; then he will certainly be moved to take up your cause, and will make clear your righteousness by building up your house again.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And though your start was small, your end will be very great.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Put the question now to the past generations, and give attention to what has been searched out by their fathers:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and have no knowledge, because our days on earth are gone like a shade:)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Will they not give you teaching, and say words of wisdom to you?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Will the river-plant come up in its pride without wet earth? will the grass get tall without water?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 When it is still green, without being cut down, it becomes dry and dead before any other plant.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 So is the end of all who do not keep God in mind; and the hope of the evil-doer comes to nothing:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Whose support is cut off, and whose hope is no stronger than a spider's thread.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 He is looking to his family for support, but it is not there; he puts his hope in it, but it comes to nothing.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 He is full of strength before the sun, and his branches go out over his garden.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 His roots are twisted round the stones, forcing their way in between them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 If he is taken away from his place, then it will say, I have not seen you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Such is the joy of his way, and out of the dust another comes up to take his place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Truly, God will not give up him who is without sin, and will not take evil-doers by the hand.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21      The time will come when your mouth will be full of laughing, and cries of joy will come from your lips.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22      Your haters will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the sinner will not be seen again.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1      And Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2      Truly, I see that it is so: and how is it possible for a man to get his right before God?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3      If a man was desiring to go to law with him, he would not be able to give him an answer to one out of a thousand questions.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4      He is wise in heart and great in strength: who ever made his face hard against him, and any good came of it?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 It is he who takes away the mountains without their knowledge, overturning them in his wrath:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Who is moving the earth out of its place, so that its pillars are shaking:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Who gives orders to the sun, and it does not give its light; and who keeps the stars from shining.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 By whose hand the heavens were stretched out, and who is walking on the waves of the sea:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Who made the Bear and Orion, and the Pleiades, and the store-houses of the south:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Who does great things not to be searched out; yes, wonders without number.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 See, he goes past me and I see him not: he goes on before, but I have no knowledge of him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 If he puts out his hand to take, by whom may it be turned back? who may say to him, What are you doing?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 God's wrath may not be turned back; the helpers of Rahab were bent down under him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 How much less may I give an answer to him, using the right words in argument with him?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Even if my cause was good, I would not be able to give an answer; I would make request for grace from him who was against me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 If I had sent for him to be present, and he had come, I would have no faith that he would give ear to my voice.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 For I would be crushed by his storm, my wounds would be increased without cause.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 He would not let me take my breath, but I would be full of bitter grief.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 If it is a question of strength, he says, Here I am! and if it is a question of a cause at law, he says, Who will give me a fixed day?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Though I was in the right, he would say that I was in the wrong; I have done no evil; but he says that I am a sinner.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 I have done no wrong; I give no thought to what becomes of me; I have no desire for life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 It is all the same to me; so I say, He puts an end to the sinner and to him who has done no wrong together.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 If death comes suddenly through disease, he makes sport of the fate of those who have done no wrong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 The land is given into the power of the evil-doer; the faces of its judges are covered; if not by him, then who has done it?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 My days go quicker than a post-runner: they go in flight, they see no good.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 They go rushing on like reed-boats, like an eagle dropping suddenly on its food.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 If I say, I will put my grief out of mind, I will let my face be sad no longer and I will be bright;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 I go in fear of all my pains; I am certain that I will not be free from sin in your eyes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 You will not let me be clear of sin! why then do I take trouble for nothing?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 If I am washed with snow water, and make my hands clean with soap;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 Then you will have me pushed into the dust, so that I will seem disgusting to my very clothing.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 For he is not a man as I am, that I might give him an answer, that we might come together before a judge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 There is no one to give a decision between us, who might have control over us.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 Let him take away his rod from me and not send his fear on me:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35

Then I would say what is in my mind without fear of him; for there is no cause of fear in myself.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

My soul is tired of life; I will let my sad thoughts go free in words; my soul will make a bitter outcry.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

I will say to God, Do not put me down as a sinner; make clear to me what you have against me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

What profit is it to you to be cruel, to give up the work of your hands, looking kindly on the design of evil-doers?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

Have you eyes of flesh, or do you see as man sees?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

Are your days as the days of man, or your years like his,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 That you take note of my sin, searching after my wrongdoing,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Though you see that I am not an evil-doer; and there is no one who is able to take a man out of your hands?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Your hands made me, and I was formed by you, but then, changing your purpose, you gave me up to destruction.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 O keep in mind that you made me out of earth; and will you send me back again to dust?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Was I not drained out like milk, becoming hard like cheese?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 By you I was clothed with skin and flesh, and joined together with bones and muscles.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 You have been kind to me, and your grace has been with me, and your care has kept my spirit safe.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 But you kept these things in the secret of your heart; I am certain this was in your thoughts:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 That, if I did wrong, you would take note of it, and would not make me clear from sin:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 That, if I was an evil-doer, the curse would come on me; and if I was upright, my head would not be lifted up, being full of shame and overcome with trouble.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And that if there was cause for pride, you would go after me like a lion; and again put out your wonders against me:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 That you would send new witnesses against me, increasing your wrath against me, and letting loose new armies on me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Why then did you make me come out of my mother's body? It would have been better for me to have taken my last breath, and for no eye to have seen me,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And for me to have been as if I had not been; to have been taken from my mother's body straight to my last resting-place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Are not the days of my life small in number? Let your eyes be turned away from me, so that I may have a little pleasure,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Before I go to the place from which I will not come back, to the land where all is dark and black,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22

A land of thick dark, without order, where the very light is dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

Then Zophar the Naamathite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

Are all these words to go unanswered? and is a man seen to be right because he is full of talk?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Are your words of pride to make men keep quiet? and are you to make sport, with no one to put you to shame?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

You may say, My way is clean, and I am free from sin in your eyes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

But if only God would take up the word, opening his lips in argument with you;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 And would make clear to you the secrets of wisdom, and the wonders of his purpose!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Are you able to take God's measure, to make discovery of the limits of the Ruler of all?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 They are higher than heaven; what is there for you to do? deeper than the underworld, and outside your knowledge;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Longer in measure than the earth, and wider than the sea.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 If he goes on his way, shutting a man up and putting him to death, who may make him go back from his purpose?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 For in his eyes men are as nothing; he sees evil and takes note of it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 And so a hollow-minded man will get wisdom, when a young ass of the field gets teaching.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 But if you put your heart right, stretching out your hands to him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 If you put far away the evil of your hands, and let no wrongdoing have a place in your tent;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Then truly your face will be lifted up, with no mark of sin, and you will be fixed in your place without fear:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 For your sorrow will go from your memory, like waters flowing away:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And your life will be brighter than day; though it is dark, it will become like the morning.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 And you will be safe because there is hope; after looking round, you will take your rest in quiet;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Sleeping with no fear of danger; and men will be desiring to have grace in your eyes;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 But the eyes of the evil-doers will be wasting away; their way of flight is gone, and their only hope is the taking of their last breath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 No doubt you have knowledge, and wisdom will come to an end with you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 But I have a mind as well as you; I am equal to you: yes, who has not knowledge of such things as these?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 It seems that I am to be as one who is a cause of laughing to his neighbour, one who makes his prayer to God and is answered! the upright man who has done no wrong is to be made sport of!

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

5 In the thought of him who is in comfort there is no respect for one who is in trouble; such is the fate of those whose feet are slipping.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

6 There is wealth in the tents of those who make destruction, and those by whom God is moved to wrath are safe; even those whose god is their strength.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

7 But put now a question to the beasts, and get teaching from them; or to the birds of the heaven, and they will make it clear to you;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 Or to the things which go flat on the earth, and they will give you wisdom; and the fishes of the sea will give you news of it.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 Who does not see by all these that the hand of the Lord has done this?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all flesh of man.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Are not words tested by the ear, even as food is tasted by the mouth?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Old men have wisdom, and a long life gives knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 With him there is wisdom and strength; power and knowledge are his.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Truly, there is no building up of what is pulled down by him; when a man is shut up by him, no one may let him loose.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Truly, he keeps back the waters and they are dry; he sends them out and the earth is overturned.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 With him are strength and wise designs; he who is guided into error, together with his guide, are in his hands;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 He takes away the wisdom of the wise guides, and makes judges foolish;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 He undoes the chains of kings, and puts his band on them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 He makes priests prisoners, overturning those in safe positions;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 He makes the words of responsible persons without effect, and takes away the good sense of the old;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 He puts shame on chiefs, and takes away the power of the strong;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Uncovering deep things out of the dark, and making the deep shade bright;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 Increasing nations, and sending destruction on them; making wide the lands of peoples, and then giving them up.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 He takes away the wisdom of the rulers of the earth, and sends them wandering in a waste where there is no way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 They go feeling about in the dark without light, wandering without help like those overcome with wine.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Truly, my eye has seen all this, word of it has come to my ear, and I have knowledge of it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2      The same things are in my mind as in yours; I am equal to you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3      But I would have talk with the Ruler of all, and my desire is to have an argument with God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4      But you put a false face on things; all your attempts to put things right are of no value.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5      If only you would keep quiet, it would be a sign of wisdom!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6      Give ear to the argument of my mouth, and take note of the words of my lips.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7      Will you say in God's name what is not right, and put false words into his mouth?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Will you have respect for God's person in this cause, and put yourselves forward as his supporters?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Will it be good for you to be searched out by him, or have you the thought that he may be guided into error like a man?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 He will certainly put you right, if you have respect for persons in secret.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Will not his glory put you in fear, so that your hearts will be overcome before him?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Your wise sayings are only dust, and your strong places are only earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Keep quiet, and let me say what is in my mind, whatever may come to me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I will take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Truly, he will put an end to me; I have no hope; but I will not give way in argument before him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And that will be my salvation, for an evil-doer would not come before him,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Give ear with care to my words, and keep what I say in your minds.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 See now, I have put my cause in order, and I am certain that I will be seen to be right.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Is any one able to take up the argument against me? If so, I would keep quiet and give up my breath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Only two things do not do to me, then I will come before your face:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Take your hand far away from me; and let me not be overcome by fear of you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Then at the sound of your voice I will give answer; or let me put forward my cause for you to give me an answer.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 What is the number of my evil-doings and my sins? give me knowledge of them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 Why is your face veiled from me, as if I was numbered among your haters?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Will you be hard on a leaf in flight before the wind? will you make a dry stem go more quickly on its way?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 For you put bitter things on record against me, and send punishment on me for the sins of my early years;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 And you put chains on my feet, watching all my ways, and making a limit for my steps;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Though a man comes to nothing like a bit of dead wood, or like a robe which has become food for the worm.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 As for man, the son of woman, his days are short and full of trouble.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 He comes out like a flower, and is cut down: he goes in flight like a shade, and is never seen again.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Is it on such a one as this that your eyes are fixed, with the purpose of judging him?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 If only a clean thing might come out of an unclean! But it is not possible.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 If his days are ordered, and you have knowledge of the number of his months, having given him a fixed limit past which he may not go;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Let your eyes be turned away from him, and take your hand from him, so that he may have pleasure at the end of his day, like a servant working for payment.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 For there is hope of a tree; if it is cut down, it will come to life again, and its branches will not come to an end.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Though its root may be old in the earth, and its cut-off end may be dead in the dust;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Still, at the smell of water, it will make buds, and put out branches like a young plant.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 But man comes to his death and is gone: he gives up his spirit, and where is he?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 The waters go from a pool, and a river becomes waste and dry;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 So man goes down to his last resting-place and comes not again: till the heavens come to an end, they will not be awake or come out of their sleep.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 If only you would keep me safe in the underworld, putting me in a secret place till your wrath is past, giving me a fixed time when I might come to your memory again!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 If death takes a man, will he come to life again? All the days of my trouble I would be waiting, till the time came for me to be free.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 At the sound of your voice I would give an answer, and you would have a desire for the work of your hands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 For now my steps are numbered by you, and my sin is not overlooked.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 My wrongdoing is corded up in a bag, and my sin is shut up safe.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 But truly a mountain falling comes to dust, and a rock is moved from its place;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19

The stones are crushed small by the force of the waters; the dust of the earth is washed away by their overflowing: and so you put an end to the hope of man.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20

You overcome him for ever, and he is gone; his face is changed in death, and you send him away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21

His sons come to honour, and he has no knowledge of it; they are made low, but he is not conscious of it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22

Only his flesh still has pain, and his soul is sad.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

And Eliphaz the Temanite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Will a wise man make answer with knowledge of no value, or will he give birth to the east wind?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Will he make arguments with words in which is no profit, and with sayings which have no value?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Truly, you make the fear of God without effect, so that the time of quiet worship before God is made less by your outcry.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 For your mouth is guided by your sin, and you have taken the tongue of the false for yourself.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 It is by your mouth, even yours, that you are judged to be in the wrong, and not by me; and your lips give witness against you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Were you the first man to come into the world? or did you come into being before the hills?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Were you present at the secret meeting of God? and have you taken all wisdom for yourself?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 What knowledge have you which we have not? is there anything in your mind which is not in ours?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 With us are men who are grey-haired and full of years, much older than your father.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Are the comforts of God not enough for you, and the gentle word which was said to you?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Why is your heart uncontrolled, and why are your eyes lifted up;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 So that you are turning your spirit against God, and letting such words go out of your mouth?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 What is man, that he may be clean? and how may the son of woman be upright?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Truly, he puts no faith in his holy ones, and the heavens are not clean in his eyes;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 How much less one who is disgusting and unclean, a man who takes in evil like water!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Take note and give ear to my words; and I will say what I have seen:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 (The things which wise men have got from their fathers, and have not kept secret from us;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 For only to them was the land given, and no strange people were among them:)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 The evil man is in pain all his days, and the number of the years stored up for the cruel is small.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 A sound of fear is in his ears; in time of peace destruction will come on him:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 He has no hope of coming safe out of the dark, and his fate will be the sword;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 He is wandering about in search of bread, saying, Where is it? and he is certain that the day of trouble is ready for him:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 He is greatly in fear of the dark day, trouble and pain overcome him:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Because his hand is stretched out against God, and his heart is lifted up against the Ruler of all,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 Running against him like a man of war, covered by his thick breastplate; even like a king ready for the fight,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Because his face is covered with fat, and his body has become thick;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 And he has made his resting-place in the towns which have been pulled down, in houses where no man had a right to be, whose fate was to become masses of broken walls.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 He does not get wealth for himself, and is unable to keep what he has got; the heads of his grain are not bent down to the earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 He does not come out of the dark; his branches are burned by the flame, and the wind takes away his bud.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 Let him not put his hope in what is false, falling into error: for he will get deceit as his reward.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 His branch is cut off before its time, and his leaf is no longer green.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 He is like a vine whose grapes do not come to full growth, or an olive-tree dropping its flowers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 For the band of the evil-doers gives no fruit, and the tents of those who give wrong decisions for reward are burned with fire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 Evil has made them with child, and they give birth to trouble; and the fruit of their body is shame for themselves.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Such things have frequently come to my ears: you are comforters who only give trouble.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 May words which are like the wind be stopped? or what is troubling you to make answer to them?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 It would not be hard for me to say such things if your souls were in my soul's place; joining words together against you, and shaking my head at you:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 I might give you strength with my mouth, and not keep back the comfort of my lips.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 If I say what is in my mind, my pain becomes no less: and if I keep quiet, how much of it goes from me?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7

But now he has overcome me with weariness and fear, and I am in the grip of all my trouble.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8

It has come up as a witness against me, and the wasting of my flesh makes answer to my face.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9

I am broken by his wrath, and his hate has gone after me; he has made his teeth sharp against me: my haters are looking on me with cruel eyes;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10

Their mouths are open wide against me; the blows of his bitter words are falling on my face; all of them come together in a mass against me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11

God gives me over to the power of sinners, sending me violently into the hands of evil-doers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 I was in comfort, but I have been broken up by his hands; he has taken me by the neck, shaking me to bits; he has put me up as a mark for his arrows.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 His bowmen come round about me; their arrows go through my body without mercy; my life is drained out on the earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I am broken with wound after wound; he comes rushing on me like a man of war.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 I have made haircloth the clothing of my skin, and my horn is rolled in the dust.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 My face is red with weeping, and my eyes are becoming dark;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17      Though my hands have done no violent acts, and my prayer is clean.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18      O earth, let not my blood be covered, and let my cry have no resting-place!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19      Even now my witness is in heaven, and the supporter of my cause is on high.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20      My friends make sport of me; to God my eyes are weeping,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21      So that he may give decision for a man in his cause with God, and between a son of man and his neighbour.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22      For in a short time I will take the journey from which I will not come back.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 My spirit is broken, my days are ended, the last resting-place is ready for me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Truly, those who make sport of me are round about me, and my eyes become dark because of their bitter laughing.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Be pleased, now, to be responsible for me to yourself; for there is no other who will put his hand in mine.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 You have kept their hearts from wisdom: for this cause you will not give them honour.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 As for him who is false to his friend for a reward, light will be cut off from the eyes of his children.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 He has made me a word of shame to the peoples; I have become a mark for their sport.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 My eyes have become dark because of my pain, and all my body is wasted to a shade.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 The upright are surprised at this, and he who has done no wrong is troubled because of the evil-doers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Still the upright keeps on his way, and he who has clean hands gets new strength.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 But come back, now, all of you, come; and I will not see a wise man among you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the desires of my heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 They are changing night into day; they say, The light is near the dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 If I am waiting for the underworld as my house, if I have made my bed in the dark;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 If I say to the earth, You are my father; and to the worm, My mother and my sister;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Where then is my hope? and who will see my desire?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Will they go down with me into the underworld? Will we go down together into the dust?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 How long will it be before you have done talking? Get wisdom, and then we will say what is in our minds.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Why do we seem as beasts in your eyes, and as completely without knowledge?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 But come back, now, come: you who are wounding yourself in your passion, will the earth be given up because of you, or a rock be moved out of its place?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 For the light of the sinner is put out, and the flame of his fire is not shining.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 The light is dark in his tent, and the light shining over him is put out.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 The steps of his strength become short, and by his design destruction overtakes him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 His feet take him into the net, and he goes walking into the cords.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 His foot is taken in the net; he comes into its grip.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 The twisted cord is put secretly in the earth to take him, and the cord is placed in his way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 He is overcome by fears on every side, they go after him at every step.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 His strength is made feeble for need of food, and destruction is waiting for his falling footstep.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 His skin is wasted by disease, and his body is food for the worst of diseases.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 He is pulled out of his tent where he was safe, and he is taken away to the king of fears.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 In his tent will be seen that which is not his, burning stone is dropped on his house.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Under the earth his roots are dry, and over it his branch is cut off.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 His memory is gone from the earth, and in the open country there is no knowledge of his name.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 He is sent away from the light into the dark; he is forced out of the world.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 He has no offspring or family among his people, and in his living-place there is no one of his name.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 At his fate those of the west are shocked, and those of the east are overcome with fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Truly, these are the houses of the sinner, and this is the place of him who has no knowledge of God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 How long will you make my life bitter, crushing me with words?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Ten times now you have made sport of me; it gives you no sense of shame to do me wrong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 And, truly, if I have been in error, the effect of my error is only on myself.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 If you make yourselves great against me, using my punishment as an argument against me,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Be certain that it is God who has done me wrong, and has taken me in his net.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Truly, I make an outcry against the violent man, but there is no answer: I give a cry for help, but no one takes up my cause.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 My way is walled up by him so that I may not go by: he has made my roads dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 He has put off my glory from me, and taken the crown from my head.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 I am broken down by him on every side, and I am gone; my hope is uprooted like a tree.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 His wrath is burning against me, and I am to him as one of his haters.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 His armies come on together, they make their road high against me, and put up their tents round mine.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 He has taken my brothers far away from me; they have seen my fate and have become strange to me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 My relations and my near friends have given me up, and those living in my house have put me out of their minds.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 I am strange to my women-servants, and seem to them as one from another country.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 At my cry my servant gives me no answer, and I have to make a prayer to him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 My breath is strange to my wife, and I am disgusting to the offspring of my mother's body.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Even young children have no respect for me; when I get up their backs are turned on me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 All the men of my circle keep away from me; and those dear to me are turned against me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 My bones are joined to my skin, and I have got away with my flesh in my teeth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Have pity on me, have pity on me, O my friends! for the hand of God is on me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Why are you cruel to me, like God, for ever saying evil against me?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 If only my words might be recorded! if they might be put in writing in a book!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 And with an iron pen and lead be cut into the rock for ever!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 But I am certain that he who will take up my cause is living, and that in time to come he will take his place on the dust;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 And ... without my flesh I will see God;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Whom I will see on my side, and not as one strange to me. My heart is broken with desire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 If you say, How cruel we will be to him! because the root of sin is clearly in him:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29

Be in fear of the sword, for the sword is the punishment for such things, so that you may be certain that there is a judge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

Then Zophar the Naamathite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

For this cause my thoughts are troubling me and driving me on.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

I have to give ear to arguments which put me to shame, and your answers to me are wind without wisdom.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

Have you knowledge of this from early times, when man was placed on the earth,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

That the pride of the sinner is short, and the joy of the evil-doer but for a minute?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Though he is lifted up to the heavens, and his head goes up to the clouds;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Like the waste from his body he comes to an end for ever: those who have seen him say, Where is he?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 He is gone like a dream, and is not seen again; he goes in flight like a vision of the night.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 The eye which saw him sees him no longer; and his place has no more knowledge of him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 His children are hoping that the poor will be kind to them, and his hands give back his wealth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 His bones are full of young strength, but it will go down with him into the dust.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12      Though evil-doing is sweet in his mouth, and he keeps it secretly under his tongue;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13      Though he takes care of it, and does not let it go, but keeps it still in his mouth;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14      His food becomes bitter in his stomach; the poison of snakes is inside him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15      He takes down wealth as food, and sends it up again; it is forced out of his stomach by God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16      He takes the poison of snakes into his mouth, the tongue of the snake is the cause of his death.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17      Let him not see the rivers of oil, the streams of honey and milk.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 He is forced to give back the fruit of his work, and may not take it for food; he has no joy in the profit of his trading.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Because he has been cruel to the poor, turning away from them in their trouble; because he has taken a house by force which he did not put up;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 There is no peace for him in his wealth, and no salvation for him in those things in which he took delight.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 He had never enough for his desire; for this cause his well-being will quickly come to an end.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Even when his wealth is great, he is full of care, for the hand of everyone who is in trouble is turned against him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 God gives him his desire, and sends the heat of his wrath on him, making it come down on him like rain.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 He may go in flight from the iron spear, but the arrow from the bow of brass will go through him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 He is pulling it out, and it comes out of his back; and its shining point comes out of his side; he is overcome by fears.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 All his wealth is stored up for the dark: a fire not made by man sends destruction on him, and on everything in his tent.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 The heavens make clear his sin, and the earth gives witness against him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 The produce of his house is taken away into another country, like things given into the hands of others in the day of wrath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 This is the reward of the evil man, and the heritage given to him by God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Then Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Give attention with care to my words; and let this be your comfort.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Let me say what is in my mind, and after that, go on making sport of me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 As for me, is my outcry against man? is it then to be wondered at if my spirit is troubled?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Take note of me and be full of wonder, put your hand on your mouth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 At the very thought of it my flesh is shaking with fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Why is life given to the evil-doers? why do they become old and strong in power?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Their children are ever with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Their houses are free from fear, and the rod of God does not come on them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Their ox is ready at all times to give seed; their cow gives birth, without dropping her young.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 They send out their young ones like a flock, and their children have pleasure in the dance,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 They make songs to the instruments of music, and are glad at the sound of the pipe.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Their days come to an end without trouble, and suddenly they go down to the underworld.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Though they said to God, Go away from us, for we have no desire for the knowledge of your ways.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 What is the Ruler of all, that we may give him worship? and what profit is it to us to make prayer to him?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Truly, is not their well-being in their power? (The purpose of the evil-doers is far from me.)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 How frequently is the light of the evil-doers put out, or does trouble come on them? how frequently does his wrath take them with cords?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 How frequently are they as dry stems before the wind, or as grass taken away by the storm-wind?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 You say, God keeps punishment stored up for his children. Let him send it on the man himself, so that he may have the punishment of it!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Let his eyes see his trouble, and let him be full of the wrath of the Ruler of all!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 For what interest has he in his house after him, when the number of his months is ended?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Is anyone able to give teaching to God? for he is the judge of those who are on high.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 One comes to his end in complete well-being, full of peace and quiet:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 His buckets are full of milk, and there is no loss of strength in his bones.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 And another comes to his end with a bitter soul, without ever tasting good.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 Together they go down to the dust, and are covered by the worm.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 See, I am conscious of your thoughts, and of your violent purposes against me;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 For you say, Where is the house of the ruler, and where is the tent of the evil-doer?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 Have you not put the question to the travellers, and do you not take note of their experience?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 How the evil man goes free in the day of trouble, and has salvation in the day of wrath?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 Who will make his way clear to his face? and if he has done a thing, who gives him punishment for it?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 He is taken to his last resting-place, and keeps watch over it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 The earth of the valley covering his bones is sweet to him, and all men come after him, as there were unnumbered before him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34

Why then do you give me comfort with words in which there is no profit, when you see that there is nothing in your answers but deceit?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

Then Eliphaz the Temanite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

Is it possible for a man to be of profit to God? No, for a man's wisdom is only of profit to himself.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Is it of any interest to the Ruler of all that you are upright? or is it of use to him that your ways are without sin?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

Is it because you give him honour that he is sending punishment on you and is judging you?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Is not your evil-doing great? and there is no end to your sins.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 For you have taken your brother's goods when he was not in your debt, and have taken away the clothing of those who have need of it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 You do not give water to the tired traveller, and from him who has no food you keep back bread.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 For it was the man with power who had the land, and the man with an honoured name who was living in it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 You have sent widows away without hearing their cause, and you have taken away the support of the child who has no father.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 For this cause nets are round your feet, and you are overcome with sudden fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Your light is made dark so that you are unable to see, and you are covered by a mass of waters.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Is not God as high as heaven? and see the stars, how high they are!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 And you say, What knowledge has God? is he able to give decisions through the deep dark?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Thick clouds are covering him, so that he is unable to see; and he is walking on the arch of heaven.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Will you keep the old way by which evil men went?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Who were violently taken away before their time, who were overcome by the rush of waters:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Who said to God, Go away from us; and, What is the Ruler of all able to do to us?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Though he made their houses full of good things: but the purpose of the evil-doers is far from me!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 The upright saw it and were glad: and those who had done no wrong made sport of them,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Saying, Truly, their substance is cut off, and their wealth is food for the fire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Put yourself now in a right relation with him and be at peace: so will you do well in your undertakings.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Be pleased to take teaching from his mouth, and let his words be stored up in your heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 If you come back to the Ruler of all, making yourself low before him; if you put evil far away from your tents;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 And put your gold in the dust, even your gold of Ophir among the rocks of the valleys;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Then the Ruler of all will be your gold, and his teaching will be your silver;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 For then you will have delight in the Ruler of all, and your face will be lifted up to God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 You will make your prayer to him, and be answered; and you will give effect to your oaths.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Your purposes will come about, and light will be shining on your ways.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 For God makes low those whose hearts are lifted up, but he is a saviour to the poor in spirit.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 He makes safe the man who is free from sin, and if your hands are clean, salvation will be yours.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Even today my outcry is bitter; his hand is hard on my sorrow.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 If only I had knowledge of where he might be seen, so that I might come even to his seat!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 I would put my cause in order before him, and my mouth would be full of arguments.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 I would see what his answers would be, and have knowledge of what he would say to me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Would he make use of his great power to overcome me? No, but he would give attention to me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 There an upright man might put his cause before him; and I would be free for ever from my judge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 See, I go forward, but he is not there; and back, but I do not see him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 I am looking for him on the left hand, but there is no sign of him; and turning to the right, I am not able to see him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 For he has knowledge of the way I take; after I have been tested I will come out like gold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 My feet have gone in his steps; I have kept in his way, without turning to one side or to the other.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 I have never gone against the orders of his lips; the words of his mouth have been stored up in my heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 But his purpose is fixed and there is no changing it; and he gives effect to the desire of his soul.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 For what has been ordered for me by him will be gone through to the end: and his mind is full of such designs.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 For this cause I am in fear before him, my thoughts of him overcome me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 For God has made my heart feeble, and my mind is troubled before the Ruler of all.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 For I am overcome by the dark, and by the black night which is covering my face.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Why are times not stored up by the Ruler of all, and why do those who have knowledge of him not see his days?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 The landmarks are changed by evil men, they violently take away flocks, together with their keepers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 They send away the ass of him who has no father, they take the widow's ox for debt.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 The crushed are turned out of the way; all the poor of the earth go into a secret place together.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

Literal

Like asses in the waste land they go out to their work, looking for food with care; from the waste land they get bread for their children.

Spiritual

Practical

6

Literal

They get mixed grain from the field, and they take away the late fruit from the vines of those who have wealth.

Spiritual

Practical

7

Literal

They take their rest at night without clothing, and have no cover in the cold.

Spiritual

Practical

8

Literal

They are wet with the rain of the mountains, and get into the cracks of the rock for cover.

Spiritual

Practical

9

Literal

The child without a father is forced from its mother's breast, and they take the young children of the poor for debt.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Others go about without clothing, and though they have no food, they get in the grain from the fields.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Between the lines of olive-trees they make oil; though they have no drink, they are crushing out the grapes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 From the town come sounds of pain from those who are near death, and the soul of the wounded is crying out for help; but God does not take note of their prayer.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Then there are those who are haters of the light, who have no knowledge of its ways, and do not go in them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

14 He who is purposing death gets up before day, so that he may put to death the poor and those in need.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 And the man whose desire is for the wife of another is waiting for the evening, saying, No eye will see me; and he puts a cover on his face. And in the night the thief goes about;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 In the dark he makes holes in the walls of houses: in the daytime they are shutting themselves up, they have no knowledge of the light.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 For the middle of the night is as morning to them, they are not troubled by the fear of the dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 They go quickly on the face of the waters; their heritage is cursed in the earth; the steps of the crusher of grapes are not turned to their vine-garden.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Snow waters become dry with the heat: so do sinners go down into the underworld.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20

The public place of his town has no more knowledge of him, and his name has gone from the memory of men: he is rooted up like a dead tree.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21

He is not kind to the widow, and he has no pity for her child.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22

But God by his power gives long life to the strong; he gets up again, though he has no hope of life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23

He takes away his fear of danger and gives him support; and his eyes are on his ways.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24

For a short time they are lifted up; then they are gone; they are made low, they are pulled off like fruit, and like the heads of grain they are cut off.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25

And if it is not so, now, who will make it clear that my words are false, and that what I say is of no value?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

1

Then Bildad the Shuhite made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

Rule and power are his; he makes peace in his high places.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Is it possible for his armies to be numbered? and on whom is not his light shining?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

How then is it possible for man to be upright before God? or how may he be clean who is a son of woman?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

See, even the moon is not bright, and the stars are not clean in his eyes:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 How much less man who is an insect, and the son of man who is a worm!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Then Job made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 How have you given help to him who has no power! how have you been the salvation of the arm which has no strength!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 How have you given teaching to him who has no wisdom, and fully made clear true knowledge!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 To whom have your words been said? and whose spirit came out from you?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 The shades in the underworld are shaking; the waters and those living in them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6      The underworld is uncovered before him, and Destruction has no veil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7      By his hand the north is stretched out in space, and the earth is hanging on nothing.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8      By him the waters are shut up in his thick clouds, and the cloud does not give way under them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9      By him the face of his high seat is veiled, and his cloud stretched out over it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10      By him a circle is marked out on the face of the waters, to the limits of the light and the dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11      The pillars of heaven are shaking, and are overcome by his sharp words.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 By his power the sea was made quiet; and by his wisdom Rahab was wounded.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 By his wind the heavens become bright: by his hand the quickly moving snake was cut through.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 See, these are only the outskirts of his ways; and how small is that which comes to our ears about him! But the thunder of his acts of power is outside all knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Job again took up the word and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 By the life of God, who has taken away my right; and of the Ruler of all, who has made my soul bitter;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 (For all my breath is still in me, and the spirit of God is my life;)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Truly, there is no deceit in my lips, and my tongue does not say what is false.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Let it be far from me! I will certainly not say that you are right! I will come to death before I give up my righteousness.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 I will keep it safe, and will not let it go: my heart has nothing to say against any part of my life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Let my hater be like the evil man, and let him who comes against me be as the sinner.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 For what is the hope of the sinner when he is cut off, when God takes back his soul?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9

Will his cry come to the ears of God when he is in trouble?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10

Will he take delight in the Ruler of all, and make his prayer to God at all times?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11

I will give you teaching about the hand of God; I will not keep secret from you what is in the mind of the Ruler of all.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12

Truly, you have all seen it yourselves; why then have you become completely foolish?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13

This is the punishment of the evil-doer from God, and the heritage given to the cruel by the Ruler of all.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14

If his children are increased, it is for the sword; and his offspring have not enough bread.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 When those of his house who are still living come to their end by disease, they are not put into the earth, and their widows are not weeping for them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Though he may get silver together like dust, and make ready great stores of clothing;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 He may get them ready, but the upright will put them on, and he who is free from sin will take the silver for a heritage.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 His house has no more strength than a spider's thread, or a watchman's tent.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 He goes to rest full of wealth, but does so for the last time: on opening his eyes, he sees it there no longer.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Fears overtake him like rushing waters; in the night the storm-wind takes him away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 The east wind takes him up and he is gone; he is forced violently out of his place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 God sends his arrows against him without mercy; he goes in flight before his hand.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 Men make signs of joy because of him, driving him from his place with sounds of hissing.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Truly there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is washed out.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and stone is changed into brass by the fire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Man puts an end to the dark, searching out to the farthest limit the stones of the deep places of the dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 He makes a deep mine far away from those living in the light of day; when they go about on the earth, they have no knowledge of those who are under them, who are hanging far from men, twisting from side to side on a cord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 As for the earth, bread comes out of it; but under its face it is turned up as if by fire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Its stones are the place of sapphires, and it has dust of gold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 No bird has knowledge of it, and the hawk's eye has never seen it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8      The great beasts have not gone over it, and the cruel lion has not taken that way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9      Man puts out his hand on the hard rock, overturning mountains by the roots.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10      He makes deep ways, cut through the rock, and his eye sees everything of value.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11      He keeps back the streams from flowing, and makes the secret things come out into the light.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12      But where may wisdom be seen? and where is the resting-place of knowledge?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13      Man has not seen the way to it, and it is not in the land of the living.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14      The deep waters say, It is not in me: and the sea says, It is not with me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15      Gold may not be given for it, or a weight of silver in payment for it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16      It may not be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the onyx of great price, or the sapphire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17      Gold and glass are not equal to it in price, and it may not be exchanged for jewels of the best gold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18      There is no need to say anything about coral or crystal; and the value of wisdom is greater than that of pearls.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19      The topaz of Ethiopia is not equal to it, and it may not be valued with the best gold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 From where then does wisdom come, and where is the resting-place of knowledge?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 For it is kept secret from the eyes of all living, unseen by the birds of the air.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Destruction and Death say, We have only had word of it with our ears.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 God has knowledge of the way to it, and of its resting-place;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 For his eyes go to the ends of the earth, and he sees everything under heaven.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 When he made a weight for the wind, measuring out the waters;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 When he made a law for the rain, and a way for the thunder-flames;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Then he saw it, and put it on record; he gave it its fixed form, searching it out completely.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 And he said to man, Truly the fear of the Lord is wisdom, and to keep from evil is the way to knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Job again took up the word and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 If only I might again be as I was in the months which are past, in the days when God was watching over me!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 When his light was shining over my head, and when I went through the dark by his light.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 As I was in my flowering years, when my tent was covered by the hand of God;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 While the Ruler of all was still with me, and my children were round me;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 When my steps were washed with milk, and rivers of oil were flowing out of the rock for me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 When I went out of my door to go up to the town, and took my seat in the public place,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 The young men saw me, and went away, and the old men got up from their seats;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 The rulers kept quiet, and put their hands on their mouths;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 The chiefs kept back their words, and their tongues were joined to the roofs of their mouths.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 For when it came to their ears, men said that I was truly happy; and when their eyes saw, they gave witness to me;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 For I was a saviour to the poor when he was crying for help, to the child with no father, and to him who had no supporter.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 The blessing of him who was near to destruction came on me, and I put a song of joy into the widow's heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I put on righteousness as my clothing, and was full of it; right decisions were to me a robe and a head-dress.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet to him who had no power of walking.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 I was a father to the poor, searching out the cause of him who was strange to me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 By me the great teeth of the evil-doer were broken, and I made him give up what he had violently taken away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Then I said, I will come to my end with my children round me, my days will be as the sand in number;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 My root will be open to the waters, and the night mist will be on my branches,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 My glory will be ever new, and my bow will be readily bent in my hand.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Men gave ear to me, waiting and keeping quiet for my suggestions.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 After I had said what was in my mind, they were quiet and let my words go deep into their hearts;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 They were waiting for me as for the rain, opening their mouths wide as for the spring rains.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 I was laughing at them when they had no hope, and the light of my face was never clouded by their fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 I took my place as a chief, guiding them on their way, and I was as a king among his army. ...

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 But now those who are younger than I make sport of me; those whose fathers I would not have put with the dogs of my flocks.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Of what use is the strength of their hands to me? all force is gone from them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 They are wasted for need of food, biting the dry earth; their only hope of life is in the waste land.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 They are pulling off the salt leaves from the brushwood, and making a meal of roots.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 They are sent out from among their townsmen, men are crying after them as thieves

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 They have to get a resting-place in the hollows of the valleys, in holes of the earth and rocks.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 They make noises like asses among the brushwood; they get together under the thorns.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 They are sons of shame, and of men without a name, who have been forced out of the land.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 And now I have become their song, and I am a word of shame to them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 I am disgusting to them; they keep away from me, and put marks of shame on me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 For he has made loose the cord of my bow, and put me to shame; he has sent down my flag to the earth before me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 The lines of his men of war put themselves in order, and make high their ways of destruction against me:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 They have made waste my roads, with a view to my destruction; his bowmen come round about me;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 As through a wide broken place in the wall they come on, I am overturned by the shock of their attack.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Fears have come on me; my hope is gone like the wind, and my well-being like a cloud.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 But now my soul is turned to water in me, days of trouble overtake me:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 The flesh is gone from my bones, and they give me no rest; there is no end to my pains.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 With great force he takes a grip of my clothing, pulling me by the neck of my coat.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Truly God has made me low, even to the earth, and I have become like dust.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 You give no answer to my cry, and take no note of my prayer.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 You have become cruel to me; the strength of your hand is hard on me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Lifting me up, you make me go on the wings of the wind; I am broken up by the storm.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 For I am certain that you will send me back to death, and to the meeting-place ordered for all living.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 Has not my hand been stretched out in help to the poor? have I not been a saviour to him in his trouble?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Have I not been weeping for the crushed? and was not my soul sad for him who was in need?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 For I was looking for good, and evil came; I was waiting for light, and it became dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 My feelings are strongly moved, and give me no rest; days of trouble have overtaken me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 I go about in dark clothing, uncomforted; I get up in the public place, crying out for help.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 I have become a brother to the jackals, and go about in the company of ostriches.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 My skin is black and dropping off me; and my bones are burning with the heat of my disease.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 And my music has been turned to sorrow, and the sound of my pipe into the noise of weeping.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 I made an agreement with my eyes; how then might my eyes be looking on a virgin?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 For what is God's reward from on high, or the heritage given by the Ruler of all from heaven?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Is it not trouble for the sinner, and destruction for the evil-doers?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Does he not see my ways, and are not my steps all numbered?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 If I have gone in false ways, or my foot has been quick in working deceit;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 (Let me be measured in upright scales, and let God see my righteousness:)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 If my steps have been turned out of the way, or if my heart went after my eyes, or if the property of another is in my hands;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Let me put seed in the earth for another to have the fruit of it, and let my produce be uprooted.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 If my heart went after another man's wife, or if I was waiting secretly at my neighbour's door;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Then let my wife give pleasure to another man and let others make use of her body.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 For that would be a crime; it would be an act for which punishment would be measured out by the judges:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 It would be a fire burning even to destruction, and taking away all my produce.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 If I did wrong in the cause of my man-servant, or my woman-servant, when they went to law with me;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 What then will I do when God comes as my judge? and what answer may I give to his questions?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Did not God make him as well as me? did he not give us life in our mothers' bodies?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 If I kept back the desire of the poor; if the widow's eye was looking for help to no purpose;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 If I kept my food for myself, and did not give some of it to the child with no father;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 (For I was cared for by God as by a father from my earliest days; he was my guide from the body of my mother;)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 If I saw one near to death for need of clothing, and that the poor had nothing covering him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 If his back did not give me a blessing, and the wool of my sheep did not make him warm;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 If my hand had been lifted up against him who had done no wrong, when I saw that I was supported by the judges;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 May my arm be pulled from my body, and be broken from its base.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 For the fear of God kept me back, and because of his power I might not do such things.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 If I made gold my hope, or if I ever said to the best gold, I have put my faith in you;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 If I was glad because my wealth was great, and because my hand had got together a great store;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 If, when I saw the sun shining, and the moon moving on its bright way,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 A secret feeling of worship came into my heart, and my hand gave kisses from my mouth;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 That would have been another sin to be rewarded with punishment by the judges; for I would have been false to God on high.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 If I was glad at the trouble of my hater, and gave cries of joy when evil overtook him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 (For I did not let my mouth give way to sin, in putting a curse on his life;)

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 If the men of my tent did not say, Who has not had full measure of his meat?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32      The traveller did not take his night's rest in the street, and my doors were open to anyone on a journey;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33      If I kept my evil doings covered, and my sin in the secret of my breast,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34      For fear of the great body of people, or for fear that families might make sport of me, so that I kept quiet, and did not go out of my door;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35      If only God would give ear to me, and the Ruler of all would give me an answer! or if what he has against me had been put in writing!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36      Truly I would take up the book in my hands; it would be to me as a crown;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37 I would make clear the number of my steps, I would put it before him like a prince! The words of Job are ended.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

38 If my land has made an outcry against me, or the ploughed earth has been in sorrow;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

39 If I have taken its produce without payment, causing the death of its owners;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

40 Then in place of grain let thorns come up, and in place of barley evil-smelling plants.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 So these three men gave no more answers to Job, because he seemed to himself to be right.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Literal And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was angry, burning with wrath against Job, because he seemed to himself more right than God;

Spiritual

Practical

3 Literal And he was angry with his three friends, because they had been unable to give him an answer, and had not made Job's sin clear.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal Now Elihu had kept quiet while Job was talking, because they were older than he;

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, he was very angry.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, made answer and said, I am young, and you are very old, so I was in fear, and kept myself from putting my knowledge before you.

Spiritual

Practical

7 I said to myself, It is right for the old to say what is in their minds, and for those who are far on in years to give out wisdom.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 But truly it is the spirit in man, even the breath of the Ruler of all, which gives them knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 It is not the old who are wise, and those who are full of years have not the knowledge of what is right.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 So I say, Give ear to me, and I will put forward my knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 I was waiting for your words, I was giving ear to your wise sayings; while you were searching out what to say,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 I was taking note; and truly not one of you was able to make clear Job's error, or to give an answer to his words.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Take care that you do not say, Wisdom is here; God may overcome him, but not man.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I will not put forward words like these, or make use of your sayings in answer to him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Fear has overcome them, they have no more answers to give; they have come to an end of words.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And am I to go on waiting while they have nothing to say? while they keep quiet and give no more answers?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 I will give my answer; I will put forward my knowledge:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 For I am full of words, I am unable to keep in my breath any longer:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 My stomach is like wine which is unable to get out; like skins full of new wine, it is almost burst.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Let me say what is in my mind, so that I may get comfort; let me give answer with open mouth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Let me not give respect to any man, or give names of honour to any living.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 For I am not able to give names of honour to any man; and if I did, my Maker would quickly take me away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And now, O Job, give ear to my words, and take note of all I say.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 See, now my mouth is open, my tongue gives out words.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 My heart is overflowing with knowledge, my lips say what is true.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 The spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Ruler of all gives me life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 If you are able, give me an answer; put your cause in order, and come forward.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 See, I am the same as you are in the eyes of God; I was cut off from the same bit of wet earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Fear of me will not overcome you, and my hand will not be hard on you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 But you said in my hearing, and your voice came to my ears:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 I am clean, without sin; I am washed, and there is no evil in me:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 See, he is looking for something against me; in his eyes I am as one of his haters;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 He puts chains on my feet; he is watching all my ways.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Truly, in saying this you are wrong; for God is greater than man.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Why do you put forward your cause against him, saying, He gives no answer to any of my words?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 For God gives his word in one way, even in two, and man is not conscious of it:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep comes on men, while they take their rest on their beds;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Then he makes his secrets clear to men, so that they are full of fear at what they see;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 In order that man may be turned from his evil works, and that pride may be taken away from him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 To keep back his soul from the underworld, and his life from destruction.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Pain is sent on him as a punishment, while he is on his bed; there is no end to the trouble in his bones;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 He has no desire for food, and his soul is turned away from delicate meat;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 His flesh is so wasted away, that it may not be seen, and his bones. ...

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 And his soul comes near to the underworld, and his life to the angels of death.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 If now there may be an angel sent to him, one of the thousands which there are to be between him and God, and to make clear to man what is right for him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 And if he has mercy on him, and says, Let him not go down to the underworld, I have given the price for his life:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Then his flesh becomes young again, and he comes back to the days of his early strength;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 He makes his prayer to God, and he has mercy on him; he sees God's face with cries of joy; he gives news of his righteousness to men;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 He makes a song, saying, I did wrong, turning from the straight way, but he did not give me the reward of my sin.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 He kept my soul from the underworld, and my life sees the light in full measure.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 Truly, God does all these things to man, twice and three times,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 Keeping back his soul from the underworld, so that he may see the light of life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 Take note O Job, give ear to me; keep quiet, while I say what is in my mind.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 If you have anything to say, give me an answer; for it is my desire that you may be judged free from sin.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 If not, give attention to me, and keep quiet, and I will give you wisdom.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And Elihu made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Give ear, you wise, to my words; and you who have knowledge, give attention to me;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 For words are tested by the ear, as food is tasted by the mouth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Let us make the decision for ourselves as to what is right; let us have the knowledge among ourselves of what is good.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 For Job has said, I am upright, and it is God who has taken away my right;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Though I am right, still I am in pain; my wound may not be made well, though I have done no wrong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 What man is like Job, a man who freely makes sport of God,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 And goes in the company of evil-doers, walking in the way of sinners?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 For he has said, It is no profit to a man to take delight in God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10      Now then, you wise, take note; you men of knowledge, give ear to me. Let it be far from God to do evil, and from the Ruler of all to do wrong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11      For he gives to every man the reward of his work, and sees that he gets the fruit of his ways.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12      Truly, God does not do evil, and the Ruler of all is not a false judge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13      Who put the earth into his care, or made him responsible for the world?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14      If he made his spirit come back to him, taking his breath into himself again,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 All flesh would come to an end together, and man would go back to the dust.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 If you are wise, take note of this; give ear to the voice of my words.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 How may a hater of right be a ruler? and will you say that the upright Ruler of all is evil?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 He who says to a king, You are an evil-doer; and to rulers, You are sinners;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Who has no respect for rulers, and who gives no more attention to those who have wealth than to the poor, for they are all the work of his hands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20

Suddenly they come to an end, even in the middle of the night: the blow comes on the men of wealth, and they are gone, and the strong are taken away without the hand of man.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21

For his eyes are on the ways of a man, and he sees all his steps.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22

There is no dark place, and no thick cloud, in which the workers of evil may take cover.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23

For he does not give man a fixed time to come before him to be judged.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24

He sends the strong to destruction without searching out their cause, and puts others in their place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 For he has knowledge of their works, overturning them in the night, so that they are crushed.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 The evil-doers are broken by his wrath, he puts his hand on them with force before the eyes of all onlookers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Because they did not go after him, and took no note of his ways,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 So that the cry of the poor might come up to him, and the prayer of those in need come to his ears.

Men of knowledge, and all wise men, hearing me, will say,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

35

Job's words do not come from knowledge; they are not the fruit of wisdom.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36

May Job be tested to the end, because his answers have been like those of evil men.

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

37

For in addition to his sin, he is uncontrolled in heart; before our eyes he makes sport of God, increasing his words against him.

Literal

Spiritual

1

And Elihu made answer and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

2

Does it seem to you to be right, and righteousness before God, to say,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

What profit is it to me, and how am I better off than if I had done wrong?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

I will make answer to you and to your friends:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

Let your eyes be turned to the heavens, and lifted up to see the skies; they are higher than you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 If you have done wrong, is he any the worse for it? and if your sins are great in number, what is it to him?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 If you are upright, what do you give to him? or what does he take from your hand?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Your evil-doing may have an effect on a man like yourself, or your righteousness on a son of man.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Because the hand of the cruel is hard on them, men are making sounds of grief; they are crying out for help because of the arm of the strong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 But no one has said, Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Who gives us more knowledge than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the heaven?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 There they are crying out because of the pride of the evil-doers, but he gives them no answer.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 But God will not give ear to what is false, or the Ruler of all take note of it;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 How much less when you say that you do not see him; that the cause is before him, and you are waiting for him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 And now ... ;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And Job's mouth is open wide to give out what is of no profit, increasing words without knowledge.

Literal

And Elihu went on to say,

Literal

Spiritual

Give me a little more time, and I will make it clear to you; for I have still something to say for God.

Literal

Spiritual

3

I will get my knowledge from far, and I will give righteousness to my Maker.

Literal

---

For truly my words are not false; one who has all knowledge is talking with you.

Literal

Spiritual

5

Truly, God gives up the hard-hearted, and will not give life to the sinner.

Literal

Spiritual

6

His eyes are ever on the upright, and he gives to the crushed their right;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

7 Lifting them up to the seat of kings, and making them safe for ever.

Literal

Spiritual

8 And if they have been prisoned in chains, and taken in cords of trouble,

Literal

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

26 Truly, God is great, greater than all our knowledge; the number of his years may not be searched out.

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

27 For he takes up the drops from the sea; he sends them through his mist as rain,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

28 Flowing down from the sky, and dropping on the peoples.

Literal

Spiritual

29 And who has knowledge of how the clouds are stretched out, or of the thunders of his tent?

Literal

Spiritual

30 See, he is stretching out his mist, covering the tops of the mountains with it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 For by these he gives food to the peoples, and bread in full measure.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 He takes the light in his hands, sending it against the mark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 The thunder makes clear his passion, and the storm gives news of his wrath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 At this my heart is shaking; it is moved out of its place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Give ear to the rolling noise of his voice; to the hollow sound which goes out of his mouth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 He sends it out through all the heaven, and his thunder-flame to the ends of the earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 After it a voice is sounding, thundering out the word of his power; he does not keep back his thunder-flames; from his mouth his voice is sounding.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 He does wonders, more than may be searched out; great things of which we have no knowledge;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 For he says to the snow, Make the earth wet; and to the rain-storm, Come down.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 He puts an end to the work of every man, so that all may see his work.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8

Then the beasts go into their holes, and take their rest.

Literal

---

Spiritual

9

Out of its place comes the storm-wind, and the cold out of its store-houses.

Literal

---

Practical

---

10

By the breath of God ice is made, and the wide waters are shut in.

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

11

The thick cloud is weighted with thunder-flame, and the cloud sends out its light;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12

And it goes this way and that, round about, turning itself by his guiding, to do whatever he gives orders to be done, on the face of his world of men,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 For a rod, or for a curse, or for mercy, causing it to come on the mark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Give ear to this, O Job, and keep quiet in your place; and take note of the wonders worked by God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Have you knowledge of God's ordering of his works, how he makes the light of his cloud to be seen?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Have you knowledge of the balancings of the clouds, the wonders of him who has all wisdom?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 You, whose clothing is warm, when the earth is quiet because of the south wind,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Will you, with him, make the skies smooth, and strong as a polished looking-glass?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Make clear to me what we are to say to him; we are unable to put our cause before him, because of the dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 How may he have knowledge of my desire for talk with him? or did any man ever say, May destruction come on me?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 And now the light is not seen, for it is dark because of the clouds; but a wind comes, clearing them away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 A bright light comes out of the north; God's glory is greatly to be feared.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 There is no searching out of the Ruler of all: his strength and his judging are great; he is full of righteousness, doing no wrong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 For this cause men go in fear of him; he has no respect for any who are wise in heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And the Lord made answer to Job out of the storm-wind, and said,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Who is this who makes the purpose of God dark by words without knowledge?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Get your strength together like a man of war; I will put questions to you, and you will give me the answers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Where were you when I put the earth on its base? Say, if you have knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 By whom were its measures fixed? Say, if you have wisdom; or by whom was the line stretched out over it?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 On what were its pillars based, or who put down its angle-stone,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 When the morning stars made songs together, and all the sons of the gods gave cries of joy?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Or where were you when the sea came to birth, pushing out from its secret place;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 When I made the cloud its robe, and put thick clouds as bands round it,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Ordering a fixed limit for it, with locks and doors;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And said, So far you may come, and no farther; and here the pride of your waves will be stopped?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Have you, from your earliest days, given orders to the morning, or made the dawn conscious of its place;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 So that it might take a grip of the skirts of the earth, shaking all the evil-doers out of it?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 It is changed like wet earth under a stamp, and is coloured like a robe;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 And from the evil-doers their light is kept back, and the arm of pride is broken.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Have you come into the springs of the sea, walking in the secret places of the deep?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Have the doors of death been open to you, or have the door-keepers of the dark ever seen you?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Have you taken note of the wide limits of the earth? Say, if you have knowledge of it all.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Which is the way to the resting-place of the light, and where is the store-house of the dark;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 So that you might take it to its limit, guiding it to its house?

Literal

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 The children of Ephraim, armed with bows, were turned back on the day of the fight.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 They were not ruled by God's word, and they would not go in the way of his law;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 They let his works go out of their memory, and the wonders which he had made them see.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 He did great works before the eyes of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 The sea was cut in two so that they might go through; the waters were massed together on this side and on that.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 In the daytime he was guiding them in the cloud, and all through the night with a light of fire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 The rocks of the waste land were broken by his power, and he gave them drink as out of the deep waters.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 He made streams come out of the rock; and waters came flowing down like rivers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And they went on sinning against him even more, turning away from the Most High in the waste land;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Testing God in their hearts, requesting meat for their desire.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 They said bitter words against God, saying, Is God able to make ready a table in the waste land?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 See, the rock was cut open by his power, so that the water came rushing out, and overflowing streams; is he able to give us bread? is he able to get meat for his people?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 So these things came to the Lord's ears, and he was angry; and a fire was lighted against Jacob, and wrath came up against Israel;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Because they had no faith in God, and no hope in his salvation.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 And he gave orders to the clouds on high, and the doors of heaven were open;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 And he sent down manna like rain for their food, and gave them the grain of heaven.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Man took part in the food of strong ones; he sent them meat in full measure.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 He sent an east wind from heaven, driving on the south wind by his power.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 He sent down meat on them like dust, and feathered birds like the sand of the sea,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 And he let it come down into their resting-place, round about their tents.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 So they had food and were full; for he gave them their desire;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 But they were not turned from their desires; and while the food was still in their mouths,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 The wrath of God came on them, and put to death the fattest of them, and put an end to the young men of Israel.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 For all this they went on sinning even more, and had no faith in his great wonders.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 So their days were wasted like a breath, and their years in trouble.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 When he sent death on them, then they made search for him; turning to him and looking for him with care;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 In the memory that God was their Rock, and the Most High God their saviour.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36 But their lips were false to him, and their tongues were untrue to him;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37 And their hearts were not right with him, and they did not keep their agreement with him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

38 But he, being full of pity, has forgiveness for sin, and does not put an end to man: frequently turning back his wrath, and not being violently angry.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

39 So he kept in mind that they were only flesh; a breath which is quickly gone, and will not come again.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

40 How frequently did they go against him in the waste land, and give him cause for grief in the dry places!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

41 Again they put God to the test, and gave pain to the Holy One of Israel.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

42 They did not keep in mind the work of his hand, or the day when he took them from the power of their haters;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

43 How he had done his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

44 So that their rivers were turned to blood, and they were not able to get drink from their streams.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

45 He sent different sorts of flies among them, poisoning their flesh; and frogs for their destruction.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

46 He gave the increase of their fields to worms, the fruits of their industry to the locusts.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

47 He sent ice for the destruction of their vines; their trees were damaged by the bitter cold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

48 Ice was rained down on their cattle; thunderstorms sent destruction among the flocks.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

49 He sent on them the heat of his wrath, his bitter disgust, letting loose evil angels among them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

50 He let his wrath have its way; he did not keep back their soul from death, but gave their life to disease.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

51 He gave to destruction all the first sons of Egypt; the first-fruits of their strength in the tents of Ham;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

52 But he took his people out like sheep, guiding them in the waste land like a flock.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

53 He took them on safely so that they had no fear; but their haters were covered by the sea.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

54 And he was their guide to his holy land, even to the mountain, which his right hand had made his;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

55 Driving out nations before them, marking out the line of their heritage, and giving the people of Israel their tents for a resting-place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

56 But they were bitter against the Most High God, testing him, and not keeping his laws;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

57 Their hearts were turned back and untrue like their fathers; they were turned to one side like a twisted bow.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

58 They made him angry with their high places; moving him to wrath with their images.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

59 When this came to God's ears he was very angry, and gave up Israel completely;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

60 So that he went away from the holy place in Shiloh, the tent which he had put among men;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

61 And he let his strength be taken prisoner, and gave his glory into the hands of his hater.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

62 He gave his people up to the sword, and was angry with his heritage.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

63 Their young men were burned in the fire; and their virgins were not praised in the bride-song.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

64 Their priests were put to death by the sword, and their widows made no weeping for them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

65 Then was the Lord like one awaking from sleep, and like a strong man crying out because of wine.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

66 His haters were turned back by his blows and shamed for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

67 And he put the tent of Joseph on one side, and took not the tribe of Ephraim;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

68 But he took the tribe of Judah for himself, and the mountain of Zion, in which he had pleasure.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

69 And he made his holy place like the high heaven, like the earth which is fixed by him for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

70 He took David to be his servant, taking him from the place of the flocks;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

71 From looking after the sheep which were giving milk, he took him to give food to Jacob his people, and to Israel his heritage.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

72 So he gave them food with an upright heart, guiding them by the wisdom of his hands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 &lt;A Psalm. Of Asaph.&gt; O God, the nations have come into your heritage; they have made your holy Temple unclean; they have made Jerusalem a mass of broken walls.

Literal

2 They have given the bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the air, and the flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

3 Their blood has been flowing like water round about Jerusalem; there was no one to put them in their last resting-place.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 We are looked down on by our neighbours, we are laughed at and made sport of by those who are round us.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

5 How long, O Lord? will you be angry for ever? will your wrath go on burning like fire?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Let your wrath be on the nations who have no knowledge of you, and on the kingdoms who have not made prayer to your name.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 For they have taken Jacob for their meat, and made waste his house.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Do not keep in mind against us the sins of our fathers; let your mercy come to us quickly, for we have been made very low.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Give us help, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name; take us out of danger and give us forgiveness for our sins, because of your name.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Why may the nations say, Where is their God? Let payment for the blood of your servants be made openly among the nations before our eyes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Let the cry of the prisoner come before you; with your strong arm make free the children of death;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 And give punishment seven times over into the breast of our neighbours for the bitter words which they have said against you, O Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 So we your people, and the sheep of your flock, will give you glory for ever: we will go on praising you through all generations.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

4 Keep me in mind, O Lord, when you are good to your people; O let your salvation come to me;

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 So that I may see the well-being of the people of your selection, and have a part in the joy of your nation, and take pride in your heritage.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 We are sinners like our fathers, we have done wrong, our acts are evil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Our fathers did not give thought to your wonders in Egypt; they did not keep in memory the great number of your mercies, but gave you cause for wrath at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

Literal

Practical

---

8 But he was their saviour because of his name, so that men might see his great power.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11

And the waters went over their haters; all of them came to an end.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12

Then they had faith in his words; they gave him songs of praise.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13

But their memory of his works was short; not waiting to be guided by him,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14

They gave way to their evil desires in the waste land, and put God to the test in the dry places.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 And he gave them their request, but sent a wasting disease into their souls.

Literal

---

Spiritual

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 The earth opening put an end to Dathan, covering up Abiram and his band.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 And a fire was lighted among their tents; the sinners were burned up by the flames.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 They made a young ox in Horeb, and gave worship to an image of gold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 And their glory was changed into the image of an ox, whose food is grass.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 They had no memory of God their saviour, who had done great things in Egypt;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 Works of wonder in the land of Ham, and things of fear by the Red Sea.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 And he was purposing to put an end to them if Moses, his special servant, had not gone up before him, between him and his people, turning back his wrath, to keep them from destruction.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 They were disgusted with the good land; they had no belief in his word;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Talking against him secretly in their tents, they did not give ear to the voice of the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 So he made an oath against them, to put an end to them in the waste land:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 That their children might be mixed among the nations, and sent away into other lands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 And they were joined to Baal-peor, and took part in the offerings to the dead.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 So they made him angry by their behaviour; and he sent disease on them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 Then Phinehas got up, and made prayer for them; and the disease went no farther.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 And all the generations coming after him kept the memory of his righteousness for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 They made God angry again at the waters of Meribah, so that Moses was troubled because of them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 For they made his spirit bitter, and he said unwise things.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 They did not put an end to the peoples, as the Lord had said;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 But they were joined to the nations, learning their works.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36 And they gave worship to images; which were a danger to them:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37 They even made offerings of their sons and their daughters to evil spirits,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

38 And gave the blood of their sons and their daughters who had done no wrong, offering them to the images of Canaan; and the land was made unclean with blood.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

39 So they became unclean through their works, going after their evil desires.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

40 Then the wrath of the Lord was burning against his people, and he was angry with his heritage.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

41 And he gave them into the hands of the nations; and they were ruled by their haters.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

42 By them they were crushed, and made low under their hands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

43 Again and again he made them free; but their hearts were turned against his purpose, and they were overcome by their sins.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

44 But when their cry came to his ears, he had pity on their trouble:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

45 And kept in mind his agreement with them, and in his great mercy gave them forgiveness.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

46 He put pity into the hearts of those who made them prisoners.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

47 Be our saviour, O Lord our God, and let us come back together from among the nations, so that we may give honour to your holy name, and have glory in your praise.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

48 Praise be to the Lord God of Israel for ever and for ever; and let all the people say, So be it. Give praise to the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 O give praise to the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy is unchanging for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Let those whose cause the Lord has taken up say so, his people whom he has taken out of the hands of their haters;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Making them come together out of all the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 They were wandering in the waste places; they saw no way to a resting-place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Their souls became feeble for need of food and drink.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Then they sent up their cry to the Lord in their sorrow, and he gave them salvation out of all their troubles;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Guiding them in the right way, so that they might come into the town of their resting-place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Let men give praise to the Lord for his mercy, and for the wonders which he does for the children of men!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 He gives its desire to the unresting soul, so that it is full of good things.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Those who were in the dark, in the black night, in chains of sorrow and iron;

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Because they went against the words of God, and gave no thought to the laws of the Most High:

Practical

---

28 Then I will give no answer to their cries; searching for me early, they will not see me:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 For they were haters of knowledge, and did not give their hearts to the fear of the Lord:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 They had no desire for my teaching, and my words of protest were as nothing to them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 So the fruit of their way will be their food, and with the designs of their hearts they will be made full.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 For the turning back of the simple from teaching will be the cause of their death, and the peace of the foolish will be their destruction.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 But whoever gives ear to me will take his rest safely, living in peace without fear of evil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 My son, if you will take my words to your heart, storing up my laws in your mind;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 So that your ear gives attention to wisdom, and your heart is turned to knowledge;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Truly, if you are crying out for good sense, and your request is for knowledge;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 If you are looking for her as for silver, and searching for her as for stored-up wealth;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Then the fear of the Lord will be clear to you, and knowledge of God will be yours.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 For the Lord gives wisdom; out of his mouth come knowledge and reason:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 He has salvation stored up for the upright, he is a breastplate to those in whom there is no evil;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 He keeps watch on the ways which are right, and takes care of those who have the fear of him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Then you will have knowledge of righteousness and right acting, and upright behaviour, even of every good way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 For wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasing to your soul;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Wise purposes will be watching over you, and knowledge will keep you;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Giving you salvation from the evil man, from those whose words are false;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Who give up the way of righteousness, to go by dark roads;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Who take pleasure in wrongdoing, and have joy in the evil designs of the sinner;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Whose ways are not straight, and whose footsteps are turned to evil:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 To take you out of the power of the strange woman, who says smooth words with her tongue;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Who is false to the husband of her early years, and does not keep the agreement of her God in mind:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 For her house is on the way down to death; her footsteps go down to the shades:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Those who go to her do not come back again; their feet do not keep in the ways of life:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 So that you may go in the way of good men, and keep in the footsteps of the upright.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 For the upright will be living in the land, and the good will have it for their heritage.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 But sinners will be cut off from the land, and those whose acts are false will be uprooted.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 My son, keep my teaching in your memory, and my rules in your heart:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 For they will give you increase of days, years of life, and peace.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Let not mercy and good faith go from you; let them be hanging round your neck, recorded on your heart;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 So you will have grace and a good name in the eyes of God and men.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Put all your hope in God, not looking to your reason for support.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 In all your ways give ear to him, and he will make straight your footsteps.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Put no high value on your wisdom: let the fear of the Lord be before you, and keep yourself from evil:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 This will give strength to your flesh, and new life to your bones.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Give honour to the Lord with your wealth, and with the first-fruits of all your increase:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 So your store-houses will be full of grain, and your vessels overflowing with new wine.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 My son, do not make your heart hard against the Lord's teaching; do not be made angry by his training:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 For to those who are dear to him the Lord says sharp words, and makes the son in whom he has delight undergo pain.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Happy is the man who makes discovery of wisdom, and he who gets knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 For trading in it is better than trading in silver, and its profit greater than bright gold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 She is of more value than jewels, and nothing for which you may have a desire is fair in comparison with her.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Long life is in her right hand, and in her left are wealth and honour.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Her ways are ways of delight, and all her goings are peace.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 She is a tree of life to all who take her in their hands, and happy is everyone who keeps her.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 The Lord by wisdom put in position the bases of the earth; by reason he put the heavens in their place.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 By his knowledge the deep was parted, and dew came dropping from the skies.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 My son, keep good sense, and do not let wise purpose go from your eyes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 So they will be life for your soul, and grace for your neck.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 Then you will go safely on your way, and your feet will have no cause for slipping.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 When you take your rest you will have no fear, and on your bed sleep will be sweet to you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Have no fear of sudden danger, or of the storm which will come on evil-doers:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 For the Lord will be your hope, and will keep your foot from being taken in the net.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Do not keep back good from those who have a right to it, when it is in the power of your hand to do it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Say not to your neighbour, Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give; when you have it by you at the time.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 Do not make evil designs against your neighbour, when he is living with you without fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 Do not take up a cause at law against a man for nothing, if he has done you no wrong.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 Have no envy of the violent man, or take any of his ways as an example.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 For the wrong-hearted man is hated by the Lord, but he is a friend to the upright.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 The curse of the Lord is on the house of the evil-doer, but his blessing is on the tent of the upright.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 He makes sport of the men of pride, but he gives grace to the gentle-hearted.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 The wise will have glory for their heritage, but shame will be the reward of the foolish.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Give ear, my sons, to the teaching of a father; give attention so that you may have knowledge:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 For I give you good teaching; do not give up the knowledge you are getting from me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 For I was a son to my father, a gentle and an only one to my mother.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 And he gave me teaching, saying to me, Keep my words in your heart; keep my rules so that you may have life:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Get wisdom, get true knowledge; keep it in memory, do not be turned away from the words of my mouth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Do not give her up, and she will keep you; give her your love, and she will make you safe.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7      The first sign of wisdom is to get wisdom; go, give all you have to get true knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8      Put her in a high place, and you will be lifted up by her; she will give you honour, when you give her your love.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9      She will put a crown of grace on your head, giving you a head-dress of glory.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10      Give ear, O my son, and let your heart be open to my sayings; and long life will be yours.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11      I have given you teaching in the way of wisdom, guiding your steps in the straight way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12      When you go, your way will not be narrow, and in running you will not have a fall.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Take learning in your hands, do not let her go: keep her, for she is your life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Do not go in the road of sinners, or be walking in the way of evil men.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Keep far from it, do not go near; be turned from it, and go on your way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 For they take no rest till they have done evil; their sleep is taken away if they have not been the cause of someone's fall.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 The bread of evil-doing is their food, the wine of violent acts their drink.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 But the way of the upright is like the light of early morning, getting brighter and brighter till the full day.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19      The way of sinners is dark; they see not the cause of their fall.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20      My son, give attention to my words; let your ear be turned to my sayings.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21      Let them not go from your eyes; keep them deep in your heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22      For they are life to him who gets them, and strength to all his flesh.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23      And keep watch over your heart with all care; so you will have life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24      Put away from you an evil tongue, and let false lips be far from you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25      Keep your eyes on what is in front of you, looking straight before you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26      Keep a watch on your behaviour; let all your ways be rightly ordered.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27      Let there be no turning to the right or to the left, keep your feet from evil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1      My son, give attention to my wisdom; let your ear be turned to my teaching:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2      So that you may be ruled by a wise purpose, and your lips may keep knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3      For honey is dropping from the lips of the strange woman, and her mouth is smoother than oil;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, and sharp as a two-edged sword;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Her feet go down to death, and her steps to the underworld;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 She never keeps her mind on the road of life; her ways are uncertain, she has no knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Give ear to me then, my sons, and do not put away my words from you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Go far away from her, do not come near the door of her house;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 For fear that you may give your honour to others, and your wealth to strange men:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 And strange men may be full of your wealth, and the fruit of your work go to the house of others;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And you will be full of grief at the end of your life, when your flesh and your body are wasted;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 And you will say, How was teaching hated by me, and my heart put no value on training;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 I did not give attention to the voice of my teachers, my ear was not turned to those who were guiding me!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I was in almost all evil in the company of the people.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Let water from your store and not that of others be your drink, and running water from your fountain.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Let not your springs be flowing in the streets, or your streams of water in the open places.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Let them be for yourself only, not for other men with you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Let blessing be on your fountain; have joy in the wife of your early years.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 As a loving hind and a gentle doe, let her breasts ever give you rapture; let your passion at all times be moved by her love.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Why let yourself, my son, go out of the way with a strange woman, and take another woman in your arms?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 For a man's ways are before the eyes of the Lord, and he puts all his goings in the scales.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22      The evil-doer will be taken in the net of his crimes, and prisoned in the cords of his sin.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23      He will come to his end for need of teaching; he is so foolish that he will go wandering from the right way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1      My son, if you have made yourself responsible for your neighbour, or given your word for another,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2      You are taken as in a net by the words of your mouth, the sayings of your lips have overcome you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3      Do this, my son, and make yourself free, because you have come into the power of your neighbour; go without waiting, and make a strong request to your neighbour.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Give no sleep to your eyes, or rest to them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Make yourself free, like the roe from the hand of the archer, and the bird from him who puts a net for her.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Go to the ant, you hater of work; give thought to her ways and be wise:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Having no chief, overseer, or ruler,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 She gets her meat in the summer, storing up food at the time of the grain-cutting.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 How long will you be sleeping, O hater of work? when will you get up from your sleep?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 A little sleep, a little rest, a little folding of the hands in sleep:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Then loss will come on you like an outlaw, and your need like an armed man

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 A good-for-nothing man is an evil-doer; he goes on his way causing trouble with false words;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Making signs with his eyes, rubbing with his feet, and giving news with his fingers;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 His mind is ever designing evil: he lets loose violent acts.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 For this cause his downfall will be sudden; quickly he will be broken, and there will be no help for him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Six things are hated by the Lord; seven things are disgusting to him:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Eyes of pride, a false tongue, hands which take life without cause;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 A heart full of evil designs, feet which are quick in running after sin;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 A false witness, breathing out untrue words, and one who lets loose violent acts among brothers.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 My son, keep the rule of your father, and have in memory the teaching of your mother:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Keep them ever folded in your heart, and have them hanging round your neck.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 In your walking, it will be your guide; when you are sleeping, it will keep watch over you; when you are awake, it will have talk with you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 For the rule is a light, and the teaching a shining light; and the guiding words of training are the way of life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 They will keep you from the evil woman, from the smooth tongue of the strange woman.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Let not your heart's desire go after her fair body; let not her eyes take you prisoner.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 For a loose woman is looking for a cake of bread, but another man's wife goes after one's very life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 May a man take fire to his breast without burning his clothing?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Or may one go on lighted coals, and his feet not be burned?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 So it is with him who goes in to his neighbour's wife; he who has anything to do with her will not go free from punishment.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 Men do not have a low opinion of a thief who takes food when he is in need of it:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 But if he is taken in the act he will have to give back seven times as much, giving up all his property which is in his house.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 He who takes another man's wife is without all sense: he who does it is the cause of destruction to his soul.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 Wounds will be his and loss of honour, and his shame may not be washed away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 For bitter is the wrath of an angry husband; in the day of punishment he will have no mercy.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 He will not take any payment; and he will not make peace with you though your money offerings are increased.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 My son, keep my sayings, and let my rules be stored up with you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Keep my rules and you will have life; let my teaching be to you as the light of your eyes;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Let them be fixed to your fingers, and recorded in your heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Say to wisdom, You are my sister; let knowledge be named your special friend:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 So that they may keep you from the strange woman, even from her whose words are smooth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Looking out from my house, and watching through the window,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 I saw among the young men one without sense,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Walking in the street near the turn of her road, going on the way to her house,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 At nightfall, in the evening of the day, in the black dark of the night.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 And the woman came out to him, in the dress of a loose woman, with a designing heart;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 She is full of noise and uncontrolled; her feet keep not in her house.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Now she is in the street, now in the open spaces, waiting at every turning of the road.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 So she took him by his hand, kissing him, and without a sign of shame she said to him:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I have a feast of peace-offerings, for today my oaths have been effected.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 So I came out in the hope of meeting you, looking for you with care, and now I have you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 My bed is covered with cushions of needlework, with coloured cloths of the cotton thread of Egypt;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 I have made my bed sweet with perfumes and spices.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Come, let us take our pleasure in love till the morning, having joy in love's delights.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 For the master of the house is away on a long journey:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 He has taken a bag of money with him; he is coming back at the full moon.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 With her fair words she overcame him, forcing him with her smooth lips.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22      The simple man goes after her, like an ox going to its death, like a roe pulled by a cord;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23      Like a bird falling into a net; with no thought that his life is in danger, till an arrow goes into his side.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24      So now, my sons, give ear to me; give attention to the sayings of my mouth;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25      Let not your heart be turned to her ways, do not go wandering in her footsteps.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26      For those wounded and made low by her are great in number; and all those who have come to their death through her are a great army.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Her house is the way to the underworld, going down to the rooms of death.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Is not wisdom crying out, and the voice of knowledge sounding?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 At the top of the highways, at the meeting of the roads, she takes her place;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Where the roads go into the town her cry goes out, at the doorways her voice is loud:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 I am crying out to you, O men; my voice comes to the sons of men.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Become expert in reason, O you simple ones; you foolish ones, take training to heart.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Give ear, for my words are true, and my lips are open to give out what is upright.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 For good faith goes out of my mouth, and false lips are disgusting to me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 All the words of my mouth are righteousness; there is nothing false or twisted in them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 They are all true to him whose mind is awake, and straightforward to those who get knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Take my teaching, and not silver; get knowledge in place of the best gold.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 For wisdom is better than jewels, and all things which may be desired are nothing in comparison with her.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Literal

Literal

Spiritual

9      That which has been, is that which is to be, and that which has been done, is that which will be done, and there is no new thing under the sun.

Literal

Literal

Literal

12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 And I gave my heart to searching out in wisdom all things which are done under heaven: it is a hard thing which God has put on the sons of men to do.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I have seen all the works which are done under the sun; all is to no purpose, and desire for wind.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 That which is bent may not be made straight, and that which is not there may not be numbered.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 I said to my heart, See, I have become great and am increased in wisdom more than any who were before me in Jerusalem--yes, my heart has seen much wisdom and knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And I gave my heart to getting knowledge of wisdom, and of the ways of the foolish. And I saw that this again was desire for wind.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Because in much wisdom is much grief, and increase of knowledge is increase of sorrow.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 I said in my heart, I will give you joy for a test; so take your pleasure--but it was to no purpose.

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

2 Of laughing I said, It is foolish; and of joy--What use is it?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 I made a search with my heart to give pleasure to my flesh with wine, still guiding my heart with wisdom, and to go after foolish things, so that I might see what was good for the sons of men to do under the heavens all the days of their life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 I undertook great works, building myself houses and planting vine-gardens.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 I made myself gardens and fruit gardens, planting in them fruit-trees of all sorts.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 I made pools to give water for the woods with their young trees.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7

Literal

I got men-servants and women-servants, and they gave birth to sons and daughters in my house. I had great wealth of herds and flocks, more than all who were in Jerusalem before me.

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

8

Literal

I got together silver and gold and the wealth of kings and of countries. I got makers of song, male and female; and the delights of the sons of men--girls of all sorts to be my brides.

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

9

Literal

And I became great; increasing more than all who had been before me in Jerusalem, and my wisdom was still with me.

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

And nothing which was desired by my eyes did I keep from them; I did not keep any joy from my heart, because my heart took pleasure in all my work, and this was my reward.

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

Then I saw all the works which my hands had made, and everything I had been working to do; and I saw that all was to no purpose and desire for wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

---

---

---

Spiritual

Practical

12 And I went again in search of wisdom and of foolish ways. What may the man do who comes after the king? The thing which he has done before.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 Then I saw that wisdom is better than foolish ways--as the light is better than the dark.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the foolish man goes walking in the dark; but still I saw that the same event comes to them all.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Then said I in my heart: As it comes to the foolish man, so will it come to me; so why have I been wise overmuch? Then I said in my heart: This again is to no purpose.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Of the wise man, as of the foolish man, there is no memory for ever, seeing that those who now are will have gone from memory in the days to come. See how death comes to the wise as to the foolish!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 So I was hating life, because everything under the sun was evil to me: all is to no purpose and desire for wind.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Hate had I for all my work which I had done, because the man who comes after me will have its fruits.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And who is to say if that man will be wise or foolish? But he will have power over all my work which I have done and in which I have been wise under the sun. This again is to no purpose.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 So my mind was turned to grief for all the trouble I had taken and all my wisdom under the sun.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Because there is a man whose work has been done with wisdom, with knowledge, and with an expert hand; but one who has done nothing for it will have it for his heritage. This again is to no purpose and a great evil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 What does a man get for all his work, and for the weight of care with which he has done his work under the sun?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 All his days are sorrow, and his work is full of grief. Even in the night his heart has no rest. This again is to no purpose.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 There is nothing better for a man than taking meat and drink, and having delight in his work. This again I saw was from the hand of God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Who may take food or have pleasure without him?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 To the man with whom he is pleased, God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy; but to the sinner he gives the work of getting goods together and storing up wealth, to give to him in whom God has pleasure. This again is to no purpose and desire for wind.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 For everything there is a fixed time, and a time for every business under the sun.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 A time for birth and a time for death; a time for planting and a time for uprooting;

Literal

Literal

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

7 A time for undoing and a time for stitching; a time for keeping quiet and a time for talk;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 A time for love and a time for hate; a time for war and a time for peace.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

9 What profit has the worker in the work which he does?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 I saw the work which God has put on the sons of man.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 He has made everything right in its time; but he has made their hearts without knowledge, so that man is unable to see the works of God, from the first to the last.

Literal

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 I am certain that there is nothing better for a man than to be glad, and to do good while life is in him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 And for every man to take food and drink, and have joy in all his work, is a reward from God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I am certain that whatever God does will be for ever. No addition may be made to it, nothing may be taken from it; and God has done it so that man may be in fear before him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Whatever is has been before, and what is to be is now; because God makes search for the things which are past.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And again, I saw under the sun, in the place of the judges, that evil was there; and in the place of righteousness, that evil was there.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 I said in my heart, God will be judge of the good and of the bad; because a time for every purpose and for every work has been fixed by him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 I said in my heart, It is because of the sons of men, so that God may put them to the test and that they may see themselves as beasts.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Because the fate of the sons of men and the fate of the beasts is the same. As is the death of one so is the death of the other, and all have one spirit. Man is not higher than the beasts; because all is to no purpose.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 All go to one place, all are of the dust, and all will be turned to dust again.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Who is certain that the spirit of the sons of men goes up to heaven, or that the spirit of the beasts goes down to the earth?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22

Literal

So I saw that there is nothing better than for a man to have joy in his work--because that is his reward. Who will make him see what will come after him?

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

And again I saw all the cruel things which are done under the sun; there was the weeping of those who have evil done to them, and they had no comforter: and from the hands of the evil-doers there went out power, but they had no comforter.

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

So my praise was for the dead who have gone to their death, more than for the living who still have life.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

Yes, happier than the dead or the living seemed he who has not ever been, who has not seen the evil which is done under the sun.

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

And I saw that the cause of all the work and of everything which is done well was man's envy of his neighbour. This again is to no purpose and a desire for wind.

Spiritual

Practical

5      The foolish man, folding his hands, takes the flesh of his body for food.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6      One hand full of rest is better than two hands full of trouble and desire for wind.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7      Then I came back, and I saw an example of what is to no purpose under the sun.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8      It is one who is by himself, without a second, and without son or brother; but there is no end to all his work, and he has never enough of wealth. For whom, then, am I working and keeping myself from pleasure? This again is to no purpose, and a bitter work.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

9      Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their work.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 And if one has a fall, the other will give him a hand; but unhappy is the man who is by himself, because he has no helper.

Literal

11 So again, if two are sleeping together they are warm, but how may one be warm by himself?

Literal

Practical

12 And two attacked by one would be safe, and three cords twisted together are not quickly broken.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

---

13 A young man who is poor and wise is better than a king who is old and foolish and will not be guided by the wisdom of others.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Because out of a prison the young man comes to be king, though by birth he was only a poor man in the kingdom.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 I saw all the living under the sun round the young man who was to be ruler in place of the king.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 \5:12\The sleep of a working man is sweet, if he has little food or much; but to him who is full, sleep will not come.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 \5:13\There is a great evil which I have seen under the sun--wealth kept by the owner to be his downfall.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 \5:14\And I saw the destruction of his wealth by an evil chance; and when he became the father of a son he had nothing in his hand.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 \5:15\As he came from his mother at birth, so does he go again; he gets from his work no reward which he may take away in his hand.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 \5:16\And this again is a great evil, that in all points as he came so will he go; and what profit has he in working for the wind?

Literal

Literal

2 A man to whom God gives money, wealth, and honour so that he has all his desires but God does not give him the power to have joy of it, and a strange man takes it. This is to no purpose and an evil disease.

Literal

It is better to go to the house of weeping, than to go to the house of feasting; because that is the end of every man, and the living will take it to their hearts.

3

Sorrow is better than joy; when the face is sad the mind gets better.

Literal

The hearts of the wise are in the house of weeping; but the hearts of the foolish are in the house of joy.

Literal

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 There is a thing which is to no purpose done on the earth: that there are good men to whom is given the same punishment as those who are evil, and there are evil men who get the reward of the good. I say that this again is to no purpose.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 So I gave praise to joy, because there is nothing better for a man to do under the sun than to take meat and drink and be happy; for that will be with him in his work all the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 When I gave my mind to the knowledge of wisdom and to seeing the business which is done on the earth (and there are those whose eyes see not sleep by day or by night),

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Then I saw all the work of God, and that man may not get knowledge of the work which is done under the sun; because, if a man gives hard work to the search he will not get knowledge, and even if the wise man seems to be coming to the end of his search, still he will be without knowledge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Literal All this I took to heart, and my heart saw it all: that the upright and the wise and their works are in the hand of God; and men may not be certain if it will be love or hate; all is to no purpose before them.

Spiritual

Practical

2 Literal Because to all there is one event, to the upright man and to the evil, to the clean and to the unclean, to him who makes an offering and to him who makes no offering; as is the good so is the sinner; he who takes an oath is as he who has fear of it.

Spiritual

Practical

3 Literal This is evil in all things which are done under the sun: that there is one fate for all, and the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil; while they have life their hearts are foolish, and after that--to the dead.

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal For him who is joined to all the living there is hope; a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Spiritual

Practical

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal Whatever comes to your hand to do with all your power, do it because there is no work, or thought, or knowledge, or wisdom in the place of the dead to which you are going.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And again I saw under the sun that the reward goes not to him who is quick, or the fruits of war to the strong; and there is no bread for the wise, or wealth for men of learning, or respect for those who have knowledge; but time and chance come to all.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal Even man has no knowledge of his time; like fishes taken in an evil net, or like birds taken by deceit, are the sons of men taken in an evil time when it comes suddenly on them.

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal This again I have seen under the sun as wisdom and it seemed great to me.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 Literal There was a little town and the number of its men was small, and there came a great king against it and made an attack on it, building works of war round about it.

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal Now there was in the town a poor, wise man, and he, by his wisdom, kept the town safe. But no one had any memory of that same poor man.

Spiritual

Literal

7 Literal See, Hanamel, the son of Shallum, your father's brother, will come to you and say, Give the price and get for yourself my property in Anathoth: for you have the right of the nearest relation.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal So Hanamel, the son of my father's brother, came to me, as the Lord had said, to the place of the armed watchmen, and said to me, Give the price and get my property which is in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: for you have the nearest relation's right to the heritage; so get it for yourself. Then it was clear to me that this was the word of the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal So I got for a price the property in Anathoth from Hanamel, the son of my father's brother, and gave him the money, seventeen shekels of silver;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 And I put it in writing, stamping it with my stamp, and I took witnesses and put the money into the scales.

Literal

11 So I took the paper witnessing the business, one copy rolled up and stamped, and one copy open:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 And I gave the paper to Baruch, the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, before the eyes of Hanamel, the son of my father's brother, and of the witnesses who had put their names to the paper, and before all the Jews who were seated in the place of the armed watchmen.

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

13 And I gave orders to Baruch in front of them, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 This is what the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said: Take these papers, the witness of this business, the one which is rolled up and stamped, and the one which is open; and put them in a vessel of earth so that they may be kept for a long time.

Literal

15 For the Lord of armies, the God of Israel, has said, There will again be trading in houses and fields and vine-gardens in this land.

Literal

16 Now after I had given the paper to Baruch, the son of Neriah, I made my prayer to the Lord, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

17 Ah Lord God! see, you have made the heaven and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm, and there is nothing you are not able to do:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 You have mercy on thousands, and send punishment for the evil-doing of the fathers on their children after them: the great, the strong God, the Lord of armies is his name:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Great in wisdom and strong in act: whose eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of men, giving to everyone the reward of his ways and the fruit of his doings:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 You have done signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and even to this day, in Israel and among other men; and have made a name for yourself as at this day;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

21 And have taken your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and with wonders and with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, causing great fear;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

22 And have given them this land, which you gave your word to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

23 And they came in and took it for their heritage, but they did not give ear to your voice, and were not ruled by your law; they have done nothing of all you gave them orders to do: so you have made all this evil come on them:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

24 See, they have made earthworks against the town to take it; and the town is given into the hands of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it, because of the sword and need of food and disease: and what you have said has taken place, and truly you see it.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

25 And you have said to me, Give the money to get yourself a property, and have the business witnessed; though the town is given into the hands of the Chaldaeans.

Literal

28 So this is what the Lord has said: See, I am giving this town into the hands of the Chaldaeans and into the hands of Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, and he will take it:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 And the Chaldaeans, who are fighting against this town, will come and put the town on fire, burning it together with the houses, on the roofs of which perfumes have been burned to the Baal, and drink offerings have been drained out to other gods, moving me to wrath.

30 Literal For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done nothing but evil in my eyes from their earliest years: the children of Israel have only made me angry with the work of their hands, says the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

31 Literal For this town has been to me a cause of wrath and of burning passion from the day of its building till this day, so that I put it away from before my face:

Spiritual

Practical

32 Literal Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to make me angry, they and their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem.

Spiritual

Practical

33 Literal And they have been turning their backs and not their faces to me: and though I was their teacher, getting up early and teaching them, their ears were not open to teaching.

Spiritual

Practical

34 Literal But they put their disgusting images into the house which is named by my name, making it unclean.

38

Literal

And they will be my people, and I will be their God:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

42 For the Lord has said: As I have made all this great evil come on this people, so I will send on them all the good which I said about them.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

43 And there will be trading in fields in this land of which you say, It is a waste, without man or beast; it is given into the hands of the Chaldeans.

Literal

For I will let the land come back to its first condition, says the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal This is what the Lord of armies has said: Again there will be in this place, which is a waste, without man and without beast, and in all its towns, a resting-place where the keepers of sheep will make their flocks take rest.

20 The Lord has said: If it is possible for my agreement of the day and the night to be broken, so that day and night no longer come at their fixed times,

23 And the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

The Lord, the God of Israel, has said, Go and say to Zedekiah, king of Judah, This is what the Lord has said: See, I will give this town into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will have it burned with fire:

But give ear to the word of the Lord, O Zedekiah, king of Judah; this is what the Lord has said about you: Death will not come to you by the sword:

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal You will come to your end in peace; and such burnings as they made for your fathers, the earlier kings before you, will be made for you; and they will be weeping for you and saying, Ah lord! for I have said the word, says the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 And this was done by all the rulers and the people who had taken part in the agreement, and every one let his man-servant and his servant-girl go free, not to be used as servants any longer; they did so, and let them go.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 But later, they took back again the servants and the servant-girls whom they had let go free, and put them again under the yoke as servants and servant-girls.

Literal

Practical

14 At the end of seven years every man is to let go his countryman who is a Hebrew, who has become yours for a price and has been your servant for six years; you are to let him go free: but your fathers gave no attention and did not give ear.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 Literal And now, turning away from evil, you had done what is right in my eyes, giving a public undertaking for every man to make his neighbour free; and you had made an agreement before me in the house which is named by my name:

Spiritual

Practical

16 Literal But again you have put shame on my name, and you have taken back, every one his man-servant and his servant-girl, whom you had sent away free, and you have put them under the yoke again to be your servants and servant-girls.

Spiritual

Practical

17 Literal And so the Lord has said, You have not given ear to me and undertaken publicly, every man to let loose his countryman and his neighbour: see, I undertake to let loose against you the sword and disease and need of food; and I will send you wandering among all the kingdoms of the earth.

Spiritual

Practical

4 And he said to me, Son of man, go now to the children of Israel, and say my words to them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 For you are not sent to a people whose talk is strange and whose language is hard, but to the children of Israel;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Not to a number of peoples whose talk is strange and whose language is hard and whose words are not clear to you. Truly, if I sent you to them they would give ear to you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Literal But the children of Israel will not give ear to you; for they have no mind to give ear to me: for all the children of Israel have a hard brow and a stiff heart.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal See, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your brow hard against their brows.

Spiritual

Practical

Spiritual

Practical

18 Literal When I say to the evil-doer, Death will certainly be your fate; and you give him no word of it and say nothing to make clear to the evil-doer the danger of his evil way, so that he may be safe; that same evil man will come to death in his evil-doing; but I will make you responsible for his blood.

Spiritual

Practical

19 Literal But if you give the evil-doer word of his danger, and he is not turned from his sin or from his evil way, death will overtake him in his evil-doing; but your life will be safe.

Spiritual

Practical

20 Literal Again, when an upright man, turning away from his righteousness, does evil, and I put a cause of falling in his way, death will overtake him: because you have given him no word of his danger, death will overtake him in his evil-doing, and there will be no memory of the upright acts which he has done; but I will make you responsible for his blood.

Spiritual

Practical

21 Literal But if you say to the upright man that he is not to do evil, he will certainly keep his life because he took note of your word; and your life will be safe.

Spiritual

Practical

22 And the hand of the Lord was on me there; and he said, Get up and go out into the valley and there I will have talk with you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 O Israel, your prophets have been like jackals in the waste places.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 You have not gone up into the broken places or made up the wall for the children of Israel to take your place in the fight in the day of the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Literal They have seen visions without substance and made use of secret arts, who say, The Lord has said; and the Lord has not sent them: hoping that the word would have effect.

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal Have you not seen a vision without substance and have you not falsely made use of secret arts, when you say, The Lord has said; though I have said nothing?

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal So this is what the Lord has said: Because your words are without substance and your visions are false, see, I am against you, says the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal And my hand will be against the prophets who see visions without substance and who make false use of secret arts: they will not be in the secret of my people, and they will not be recorded in the list of the children of Israel, and they will not come into the land of Israel; and it will be clear to you that I am the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal Because, even because they have been guiding my people into error, saying, Peace; when there is no peace; and in the building of a division wall they put whitewash on it:

Spiritual

Practical

11 Say to those who put whitewash on it, There will be an overflowing shower; and you, O ice-drops, will come raining down; and it will be broken in two by the storm-wind.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 And when the wall has come down, will they not say to you, Where is the whitewash which you put on it?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 For this reason, the Lord has said: I will have it broken in two by a storm-wind in my passion; and there will be an overflowing shower in my wrath, and you, O ice-drops, will come raining angrily down.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 So I will let the wall, which you were covering with whitewash, be broken down; I will have it levelled to the earth so that its base is uncovered: it will come down, and destruction will come on you with it; and it will be clear to you that I am the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 So I will let loose my passion on the wall in full measure, and on those who put whitewash on it; and I will say to you, Where is the wall, and where are those who put whitewash on it?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 Even the prophets of Israel who say words to Jerusalem, who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And you, son of man, let your face be turned against the daughters of your people, who are acting the part of prophets at their pleasure; be a prophet against them, and say,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 This is what the Lord has said: A curse is on the women who are stitching bands on all arms and putting veils on the heads of those of every size, so that they may go after souls! Will you go after the souls of my people and keep yourselves safe from death?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And you have put me to shame among my people for a little barley and some bits of bread, sending death on souls for whom there is no cause of death, and keeping those souls living who have no right to life, by the false words you say to my people who give ear to what is false.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 For this cause the Lord has said: See, I am against your bands with which you go after souls, and I will violently take them off their arms; and I will let loose the souls, even the souls whom you go after freely.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 And I will have your veils violently parted in two, and will make my people free from your hands, and they will no longer be in your power for you to go after them; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

22 Because with your false words you have given pain to the heart of the upright man when I had not made him sad; in order to make strong the hands of the evil-doer so that he may not be turned from his evil way and get life:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

23 For this cause you will see no more foolish visions or make false use of secret arts: and I will make my people free from your power; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 Then certain of the responsible men of Israel came to me and took their seats before me.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

3      Son of man, these men have taken their false gods into their hearts and put before their faces the sin which is the cause of their fall: am I to give ear when they come to me for directions?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

4      For this cause say to them, These are the words of the Lord: Every man of Israel who has taken his false god into his heart, and put before his face the sin which is the cause of his fall, and comes to the prophet; I the Lord will give him an answer by myself in agreement with the number of his false gods;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

5      So as to take the children of Israel in the thoughts of their hearts, because they have become strange to me through their false gods.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

6      For this cause say to the children of Israel, These are the words of the Lord: Come back and give up your false gods and let your faces be turned from your disgusting things.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

7      When any one of the men of Israel, or of those from other lands who are living in Israel, who has become strange to me, and takes his false gods into his heart, and puts before his face the sin which is the cause of his fall, comes to the prophet to get directions from me; I the Lord will give him an answer by myself:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 And my face will be turned against that man, and I will make him a sign and a common saying, cutting him off from among my people; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 And if the prophet, tricked by deceit, says anything, it is I the Lord by whom he has been tricked, and I will put out my hand against him, and he will be cut off from among my people Israel.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 And the punishment of their sin will be on them: the sin of the prophet will be the same as the sin of him who goes to him for directions;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 So that the children of Israel may no longer go wandering away from me, or make themselves unclean with all their wrongdoing; but they will be my people, and I will be their God, says the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 Son of man, when a land, sinning against me, does wrong, and my hand is stretched out against it, and the support of its bread is broken, and I make it short of food, cutting off man and beast from it:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, only themselves would they keep safe by their righteousness, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 Or if I send evil beasts through the land causing destruction and making it waste, so that no man may go through because of the beasts:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Even if these three men were in it, by my life, says the Lord, they would not keep safe their sons or daughters, but only themselves, and the land would be made waste.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 Or if I send a sword against that land, and say, Sword, go through the land, cutting off from it man and beast:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Even if these three men were in it, by my life, says the Lord, they would not keep safe their sons or daughters, but only themselves.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Or if I send disease into that land, letting loose my wrath on it in blood, cutting off from it man and beast:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, by my life, says the Lord, they would not keep son or daughter safe; only themselves would they keep safe through their righteousness.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 For this is what the Lord has said: How much more when I send my four bitter punishments on Jerusalem, the sword and need of food and evil beasts and disease, cutting off from it man and beast?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 But truly, there will still be a small band who will be safe, even sons and daughters: and they will come out to you, and you will see their ways and their doings: and you will be comforted about the evil which I have sent on Jerusalem, even about everything I have sent on it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23

They will give you comfort when you see their ways and their doings: and you will be certain that not for nothing have I done all the things I have done in it, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1

And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

Son of man, what is the vine-tree more than any branching tree which is among the trees of the woods?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Will its wood be used for any work? do men make of it a pin for hanging any vessel on?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

See, it is put into the fire for burning: the fire has made a meal of its two ends and the middle part of it is burned; is it good for any work?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 Truly, before it was cut down, it was not used for any purpose: how much less, when the fire has made a meal of it and it is burned, will it be made into anything?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 For this cause the Lord has said: Like the vine-tree among the trees of the woods which I have given to the fire for burning, so will I give the people of Jerusalem.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And my face will be turned against them; and though they have come out of the fire they will be burned up by it; and it will be clear to you that I am the Lord when my face is turned against them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 And I will make the land a waste because they have done evil, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2

Son of man, make clear to Jerusalem her disgusting ways,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

And say, This is what the Lord has said to Jerusalem: Your start and your birth was from the land of the Canaanite; an Amorite was your father and your mother was a Hittite.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

As for your birth, on the day of your birth your cord was not cut and you were not washed in water to make you clean; you were not salted or folded in linen bands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

No eye had pity on you to do any of these things to you or to be kind to you; but you were put out into the open country, because your life was hated at the time of your birth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6

And when I went past you and saw you stretched out in your blood, I said to you, Though you are stretched out in your blood, have life;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Literal And be increased in number like the buds of the field; and you were increased and became great, and you came to the time of love: your breasts were formed and your hair was long; but you were uncovered and without clothing.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal Now when I went past you, looking at you, I saw that your time was the time of love; and I put my skirts over you, covering your unclothed body: and I gave you my oath and made an agreement with you, says the Lord, and you became mine.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal Then I had you washed with water, washing away all your blood and rubbing you with oil.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal And I had you clothed with needlework, and put leather shoes on your feet, folding fair linen about you and covering you with silk.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And I made you fair with ornaments and put jewels on your hands and a chain on your neck.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 And I put a ring in your nose and ear-rings in your ears and a beautiful crown on your head.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 So you were made beautiful with gold and silver; and your clothing was of the best linen and silk and needlework; your food was the best meal and honey and oil: and you were very beautiful.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 You were so beautiful that the story of you went out into all nations; you were completely beautiful because of my glory which I had put on you, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 But you put your faith in the fact that you were beautiful, acting like a loose woman because you were widely talked of, and offering your cheap love to everyone who went by, whoever it might be.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And you took your robes and made high places for yourself ornamented with every colour, acting like a loose woman on them, without shame or fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And you took the fair jewels, my silver and gold which I had given to you, and made for yourself male images, acting like a loose woman with them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 And you took your robes of needlework for their clothing, and put my oil and my perfume before them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And my bread which I gave you, the best meal and oil and honey which I gave you for your food, you put it before them for a sweet smell, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 And you took your sons and your daughters whom I had by you, offering even these to them to be their food. Was your loose behaviour so small a thing,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 That you put my children to death and gave them up to go through the fire to them?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22

Literal

And in all your disgusting and false behaviour you had no memory of your early days, when you were uncovered and without clothing, stretched out in your blood.

Spiritual

Practical

23

Literal

And it came about, after all your evil-doing, says the Lord,

Spiritual

Practical

24

Literal

That you made for yourself an arched room in every open place.

Spiritual

Practical

25

Literal

You put up your high places at the top of every street, and made the grace of your form a disgusting thing, opening your feet to everyone who went by, increasing your loose ways.

Spiritual

Practical

26

Literal

And you went with the Egyptians, your neighbours, great of flesh; increasing your loose ways, moving me to wrath.

Spiritual

Practical

27

Literal

Now, then, my hand is stretched out against you, cutting down your fixed amount, and I have given you up to the desire of your haters, the daughters of the Philistines who are shamed by your loose ways.

Spiritual

Practical

28

Literal

And you went with the Assyrians, because of your desire which was without measure; you were acting like a loose woman with them, and still you had not enough.

Spiritual

Practical

29

Literal

And you went on in your loose ways, even as far as the land of Chaldaeae, and still you had not enough.

Spiritual

Practical

30

Literal

How feeble is your heart, says the Lord, seeing that you do all these things, the work of a loose and overruling woman;

Spiritual

Practical

31

Literal

For you have made your arched room at the top of every street, and your high place in every open place; though you were not like a loose woman in getting together your payment.

Spiritual

Practical

32      The untrue wife who takes strange lovers in place of her husband!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33      They give payment to all loose women: but you give rewards to your lovers, offering them payment so that they may come to you on every side for your cheap love.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34      And in your loose behaviour you are different from other women, for no one goes after you to make love to you: and because you give payment and no payment is given to you, in this you are different from them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35      For this cause, O loose woman, give ear to the voice of the Lord:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36      This is what the Lord has said: Because your unclean behaviour was let loose and your body uncovered in your loose ways with your lovers and with your disgusting images, and for the blood of your children which you gave to them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37

Literal

For this cause I will get together all your lovers with whom you have taken your pleasure, and all those to whom you have given your love, with all those who were hated by you; I will even make them come together against you on every side, and I will have you uncovered before them so that they may see your shame.

Spiritual

Practical

38

Literal

And you will be judged by me as women are judged who have been untrue to their husbands and have taken life; and I will let loose against you passion and bitter feeling.

Spiritual

Practical

39

Literal

I will give you into their hands, and your arched room will be overturned and your high places broken down; they will take your clothing off you and take away your fair jewels: and when they have done, you will be uncovered and shamed.

Spiritual

Practical

40

Literal

And they will get together a meeting against you, stoning you with stones and wounding you with their swords.

Spiritual

Practical

41

Literal

And they will have you burned with fire, sending punishments on you before the eyes of great numbers of women; and I will put an end to your loose ways, and you will no longer give payment.

Spiritual

Practical

42 Literal And the heat of my wrath against you will have an end, and my bitter feeling will be turned away from you, and I will be quiet and will be angry no longer.

Spiritual

Practical

43 Literal Because you have not kept in mind the days when you were young, but have been troubling me with all these things; for this reason I will make the punishment of your ways come on your head, says the Lord, because you have done this evil thing in addition to all your disgusting acts.

Spiritual

Practical

44 Literal See, in every common saying about you it will be said, As the mother is, so is her daughter.

Spiritual

Practical

45 Literal You are the daughter of your mother whose soul is turned in disgust from her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters who were turned in disgust from their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Spiritual

Practical

46 Literal Your older sister is Samaria, living at your left hand, she and her daughters: and your younger sister, living at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

Spiritual

Practical

47 Still you have not gone in their ways or done the disgusting things which they have done; but, as if that was only a little thing, you have gone deeper in evil than they in all your ways.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

48 By my life, says the Lord, Sodom your sister never did, she or her daughters, what you and your daughters have done.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

49 Truly, this was the sin of your sister Sodom: pride, a full measure of food, and the comforts of wealth in peace, were seen in her and her daughters, and she gave no help to the poor or to those in need.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

50 They were full of pride and did what was disgusting to me: and so I took them away as you have seen.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

51 And Samaria has not done half your sins; but you have made the number of your disgusting acts greater than theirs, making your sisters seem more upright than you by all the disgusting things which you have done.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

52

Literal

And you yourself will be put to shame, in that you have given the decision for your sisters; through your sins, which are more disgusting than theirs, they are more upright than you: truly, you will be shamed and made low, for you have made your sisters seem upright.

Spiritual

Practical

53

Literal

And I will let their fate be changed, the fate of Sodom and her daughters, and the fate of Samaria and her daughters, and your fate with theirs.

Spiritual

Practical

54

Literal

So that you will be shamed and made low because of all you have done, when I have mercy on you.

Spiritual

Practical

55

Literal

And your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, will go back to their first condition, and Samaria and her daughters will go back to their first condition, and you and your daughters will go back to your first condition.

Spiritual

Practical

56

Literal

Was not your sister Sodom an oath in your mouth in the day of your pride,

Spiritual

Practical

57 Before your shame was uncovered? Now you have become like her a word of shame to the daughters of Edom and all who are round about you, the daughters of the Philistines who put shame on you round about.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

58 The reward of your evil designs and your disgusting ways has come on you, says the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

59 For this is what the Lord has said: I will do to you as you have done, you who, putting the oath on one side, have let the agreement be broken.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

60 But still I will keep in mind the agreement made with you in the days when you were young, and I will make with you an eternal agreement.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

61 Then at the memory of your ways you will be overcome with shame, when I take your sisters, the older and the younger, and give them to you for daughters, but not by your agreement.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

62 And I will make my agreement with you; and you will be certain that I am the Lord:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

63 So that, at the memory of these things, you may be at a loss, never opening your mouth because of your shame; when you have my forgiveness for all you have done, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Son of man, give out a dark saying, and make a comparison for the children of Israel,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 And say, This is what the Lord has said: A great eagle with great wings, full of long feathers of different colours, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Biting off the highest of its young branches, he took it to the land of Canaan, and put it in a town of traders.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 And he took some of the seed of the land, planting it in fertile earth, placing it by great waters; he put it in like a willow-tree.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 And its growth went on and it became a vine, low and widely stretching, whose branches were turned to him and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, putting out branches and young leaves.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And there was another eagle with great wings and thick feathers: and now this vine, pushing out its roots to him, sent out its branches in his direction from the bed where it was planted, so that he might give it water.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 He had it planted in a good field by great waters so that it might put out branches and have fruit and be a strong vine.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9

Literal

Say, This is what the Lord has said: Will it do well? will he not have its roots pulled up and its branches cut off, so that all its young leaves may become dry and it may be pulled up by its roots?

Spiritual

Practical

10

Literal

And if it is planted will it do well? will it not become quite dry at the touch of the east wind, drying up in the bed where it was planted?

Spiritual

Practical

11

Literal

Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Spiritual

Practical

12

Literal

Say now to this uncontrolled people, Are these things not clear to you? Say to them, See, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took its king and its rulers away with him to Babylon;

Spiritual

Practical

13

Literal

And he took one of the sons of the king and made an agreement with him; and he put him under an oath, and took away the great men of the land:

Spiritual

Practical

14 So that the kingdom might be made low with no power of lifting itself up, but might keep his agreement to be his servants.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 But he went against his authority in sending representatives to Egypt to get from them horses and a great army. Will he do well? will he be safe who does such things? if the agreement is broken will he be safe?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 By my life, says the Lord, truly in the place of the king who made him king, whose oath he put on one side and let his agreement with him be broken, even in Babylon he will come to his death.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And Pharaoh with his strong army and great forces will be no help to him in the war, when they put up earthworks and make strong walls for the cutting off of lives:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 For he put his oath on one side in letting the agreement be broken; and though he had given his hand to it, he did all these things; he will not get away safe.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 Literal And so the Lord has said, By my life, truly, for my oath which he put on one side, and my agreement which has been broken, I will send punishment on his head.

Spiritual

Practical

20 Literal My net will be stretched out over him, and he will be taken in my cords, and I will send him to Babylon, and there I will be his judge for the wrong which he has done against me.

Spiritual

Practical

21 Literal All his best fighting-men will be put to the sword, and the rest will be sent away to every wind: and you will be certain that I the Lord have said it.

Spiritual

Practical

22 Literal This is what the Lord has said: Further, I will take the highest top of the cedar and put it in the earth; cutting off from the highest of his young branches a soft one, I will have it planted on a high and great mountain;

Spiritual

Practical

23 Literal It will be planted on the high mountain of Israel: it will put out branches and have fruit and be a fair cedar: under it all birds of every sort will make their living-place, resting in the shade of its branches.

Spiritual

Practical

24

Literal

And it will be clear to all the trees of the field that I the Lord have made low the high tree and made high the low tree, drying up the green tree and making the dry tree full of growth; I the Lord have said it and have done it.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

Why do you make use of this saying about the land of Israel, The fathers have been tasting bitter grapes and the children's teeth are on edge?

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

By my life, says the Lord, you will no longer have this saying in Israel.

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

See, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so the soul of the son is mine: death will be the fate of the sinner's soul.

Spiritual

Practical

5 But if a man is upright, living rightly and doing righteousness,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 And has not taken flesh with the blood for food, or given worship to the images of the children of Israel; if he has not had connection with his neighbour's wife, or come near to a woman at the time when she is unclean;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And has done no wrong to any, but has given back to the debtor what is his, and has taken no one's goods by force, and has given food to him who was in need of it, and clothing to him who was without it;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 And has not given his money out at interest or taken great profits, and, turning his hand from evil-doing, has kept faith between man and man,

Literal

---

Spiritual

Practical

---

9 And has been guided by my rules and has kept my laws and done them: he is upright, life will certainly be his, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 If he has a son who is a thief, a taker of life, who does any of these things,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Who has taken flesh with the blood as food, and has had connection with his neighbour's wife,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Has done wrong to the poor and to him who is in need, and taken property by force, and has not given back to one in his debt what is his, and has given worship to images and has done disgusting things,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 And has given out his money at interest and taken great profits: he will certainly not go on living: he has done all these disgusting things: death will certainly be his fate; his blood will be on him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Now if he has a son who sees all his father's sins which he has done, and in fear does not do the same:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15

Literal

Who has not taken the flesh with the blood for food, or given worship to the images of the children of Israel, and has not had connection with his neighbour's wife,

Spiritual

Practical

16

Literal

Or done wrong to any, or taken anything from one in his debt, or taken goods by force, but has given food to him who was in need of it, and clothing to him who was without it;

Spiritual

Practical

17

Literal

Who has kept his hand from evil-doing and has not taken interest or great profits, who has done my orders and been guided by my rules: he will certainly not be put to death for the evil-doing of his father; life will certainly be his.

Spiritual

Practical

18

Literal

As for his father, because he was cruel, took goods by force, and did what is not good among his people, truly, death will overtake him in his evil-doing.

Spiritual

Practical

19

Literal

But you say, Why does not the son undergo punishment for the evil-doing of the father? When the son has done what is ordered and right, and has kept my rules and done them, life will certainly be his.

Spiritual

Practical

20

Literal

The soul which does sin will be put to death: the son will not be made responsible for the evil-doing of the father, or the father for the evil-doing of the son; the righteousness of the upright will be on himself, and the evil-doing of the evil-doer on himself.

Spiritual

Practical

21

Literal

But if the evil-doer, turning away from all the sins which he has done, keeps my rules and does what is ordered and right, life will certainly be his; death will not be his fate.

Spiritual

Practical

22

Literal

Not one of the sins which he has done will be kept in memory against him: in the righteousness which he has done he will have life.

Spiritual

Practical

23

Literal

Have I any pleasure in the death of the evil-doer? says the Lord: am I not pleased if he is turned from his way so that he may have life?

Spiritual

Practical

24

Literal

But when the upright man, turning away from his righteousness, does evil, like all the disgusting things which the evil man does, will he have life? Not one of his upright acts will be kept in memory: in the wrong which he has done and in his sin death will overtake him.

Spiritual

Practical

25 But you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Give ear, now, O children of Israel; is my way not equal? are not your ways unequal?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 When the upright man, turning away from his righteousness, does evil, death will overtake him; in the evil which he has done death will overtake him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Again, when the evil-doer, turning away from the evil he has done, does what is ordered and right, he will have life for his soul.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Because he had fear and was turned away from all the wrong which he had done, life will certainly be his, death will not be his fate.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 But still the children of Israel say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O children of Israel, are my ways not equal? are not your ways unequal?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 For this cause I will be your judge, O children of Israel, judging every man by his ways, says the Lord. Come back and be turned from all your sins; so that they may not be the cause of your falling into evil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 Put away all your evil-doing in which you have done sin; and make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit: why are you desiring death, O children of Israel?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him on whom death comes, says the Lord: be turned back then, and have life.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Take up now a song of grief for the ruler of Israel, and say,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 What was your mother? Like a she-lion among lions, stretched out among the young lions she gave food to her little ones.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3

Literal

And one of her little ones came to growth under her care, and became a young lion, learning to go after beasts for his food; and he took men for his meat.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4

Literal

And the nations had news of him; he was taken in the hole they had made: and, pulling him with hooks, they took him into the land of Egypt.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5

Literal

Now when she saw that her hope was made foolish and gone, she took another of her little ones and made him into a young lion.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6

Literal

And he went up and down among the lions and became a young lion, learning to go after beasts for his food; and he took men for his meat.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7

Literal

And he sent destruction on their widows and made waste their towns; and the land and everything in it became waste because of the loud sound of his voice.

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 Then the nations came against him from the kingdoms round about: their net was stretched over him and he was taken in the hole they had made.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 They made him a prisoner with hooks, and took him to the king of Babylon; they put him in the strong place so that his voice might be sounding no longer on the mountains of Israel.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 Your mother was in comparison like a vine, planted by the waters: she was fertile and full of branches because of the great waters.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 And she had a strong rod for a rod of authority for the rulers, and it became tall among the clouds and it was seen lifted up among the number of its branches.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 But she was uprooted in burning wrath, and made low on the earth; the east wind came, drying her up, and her branches were broken off; her strong rod became dry, the fire made a meal of it.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

13 And now she is planted in the waste land, in a dry and unwatered country.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 And fire has gone out from her rod, causing the destruction of her branches, so that there is no strong rod in her to be the ruler's rod of authority. This is a song of grief, and it was for a song of grief.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 Now it came about in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that certain of the responsible men of Israel came to get directions from the Lord and were seated before me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 Son of man, say to the responsible men of Israel, This is what the Lord has said: Have you come to get directions from me? By my life, says the Lord, you will get no directions from me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Will you be their judge, O son of man, will you be their judge? make clear to them the disgusting ways of their fathers,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 And say to them, This is what the Lord has said: In the day when I took Israel for myself, when I made an oath to the seed of the family of Jacob, and I gave them knowledge of myself in the land of Egypt, saying to them with an oath, I am the Lord your God;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 In that day I gave my oath to take them out of the land of Egypt into a land which I had been searching out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And I said to them, Let every man among you put away the disgusting things to which his eyes are turned, and do not make yourselves unclean with the images of Egypt; I am the Lord your God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 But they would not be controlled by me, and did not give ear to me; they did not put away the disgusting things to which their eyes were turned, or give up the images of Egypt: then I said I would let loose my passion on them to give full effect to my wrath against them in the land of Egypt.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Literal And I was acting for the honour of my name, so that it might not be made unclean before the eyes of the nations among whom they were, and before whose eyes I gave them knowledge of myself, by taking them out of the land of Egypt.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal So I made them go out of the land of Egypt and took them into the waste land.

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And I gave them my rules and made clear to them my orders, which, if a man keeps them, will be life to him.

Spiritual

Practical

12 Literal And further, I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, so that it might be clear that I, who make them holy, am the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

13 Literal But the children of Israel would not be controlled by me in the waste land: they were not guided by my rules, and they were turned away from my orders, which, if a man does them, will be life to him; and they had no respect for my Sabbaths: then I said that I would let loose my passion on them in the waste land, and put an end to them.

Spiritual

Practical

14 And I was acting for the honour of my name, so that it might not be made unclean in the eyes of the nations, before whose eyes I had taken them out.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 And further, I gave my oath to them in the waste land, that I would not take them into the land which I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 Because they were turned away from my orders, and were not guided by my rules, and had no respect for my Sabbaths: for their hearts went after their images.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 But still my eye had pity on them and I kept them from destruction and did not put an end to them completely in the waste land.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 And I said to their children in the waste land, Do not be guided by the rules of your fathers or keep their orders or make yourselves unclean with their images:

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 I am the Lord your God; be guided by my rules and keep my orders and do them:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 And keep my Sabbaths holy; and they will be a sign between me and you so that it may be clear to you that I am the Lord your God.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 But the children would not be controlled by me; they were not guided by my rules, and they did not keep and do my orders, which, if a man does them, will be life to him; and they had no respect for my Sabbaths: then I said I would let loose my passion on them to give full effect to my wrath against them in the waste land.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 And I was acting for the honour of my name, so that it might not be made unclean in the eyes of the nations, before whose eyes I had taken them out.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 Further, I gave my oath to them in the waste land that I would send them wandering among the nations, driving them out among the countries;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 Literal Because they had not done my orders, but had been turned away from my rules, and had not given respect to my Sabbaths, and their eyes were turned to the images of their fathers.

Spiritual

Practical

25 Literal And further, I gave them rules which were not good and orders in which there was no life for them;

Spiritual

Practical

26 Literal I made them unclean in the offerings they gave, causing them to make every first child go through the fire, so that I might put an end to them.

Spiritual

Practical

27 Literal For this cause, son of man, say to the children of Israel, This is what the Lord has said: In this your fathers have further put shame on my name by doing wrong against me.

Spiritual

Practical

28 Literal For when I had taken them into the land which I made an oath to give to them, then they saw every high hill and every branching tree and made their offerings there, moving me to wrath by their offerings; and there the sweet smell of their offerings went up and their drink offerings were drained out.

Spiritual

Practical

29 Then I said to them, What is this high place where you go to no purpose? And it is named Bamah to this day.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 For this cause say to the children of Israel, This is what the Lord has said: Are you making yourselves unclean as your fathers did? are you being untrue to me by going after their disgusting works?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 And when you give your offerings, causing your sons to go through the fire, you make yourselves unclean with all your images to this day; and will you come to me for directions, O children of Israel? By my life, says the Lord, you will get no direction from me.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 And that which comes into your minds will never take place; when you say, We will be like the nations, like the families of the countries, servants of wood and stone;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

33 By my life, says the Lord, truly, with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm and with burning wrath let loose, I will be King over you:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

34 And I will take you out from the peoples and get you together out of the countries where you are wandering, with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm and with burning wrath let loose:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

35 And I will take you into the waste land of the peoples, and there I will take up the cause with you face to face.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

36 As I took up the cause with your fathers in the waste land of the land of Egypt, so will I take up the cause with you says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

37 And I will make you go under the rod and will make you small in number:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

38 Clearing out from among you all those who are uncontrolled and who are sinning against me; I will take them out of the land where they are living, but they will not come into the land of Israel: and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

39

Literal

As for you, O children of Israel, the Lord has said: Let every man completely put away his images and give ear to me: and let my holy name no longer be shamed by your offerings and your images.

Spiritual

Practical

40

Literal

For in my holy mountain, in the high mountain of Israel, says the Lord, there all the children of Israel, all of them, will be my servants in the land; there I will take pleasure in them, and there I will be worshipped with your offerings and the first-fruits of the things you give, and with all your holy things.

Spiritual

Practical

41

Literal

I will take pleasure in you as in a sweet smell, when I take you out from the peoples and get you together from the countries where you have been sent in flight; and I will make myself holy in you before the eyes of the nations.

Spiritual

Practical

42

Literal

And you will be certain that I am the Lord, when I take you into the land of Israel, into the country which I made an oath to give to your fathers.

Spiritual

Practical

43

Literal

And there, at the memory of your ways and of all the things you did to make yourselves unclean, you will have bitter hate for yourselves because of all the evil things you have done.

Spiritual

Practical

44 And you will be certain that I am the Lord, when I take you in hand for the honour of my name, and not for your evil ways or your unclean doings, O children of Israel, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

45 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

46 Son of man, let your face be turned to the south, let your words be dropped to the south, and be a prophet against the woodland of the South;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

47 And say to the woodland of the South, Give ear to the words of the Lord: this is what the Lord has said: See, I will have a fire lighted in you, for the destruction of every green tree in you and every dry tree: the flaming flame will not be put out, and all faces from the south to the north will be burned by it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

48 And all flesh will see that I the Lord have had it lighted: it will not be put out.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

49 Then I said, Ah, Lord! they say of me, Is he not a maker of stories?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Son of man, let your face be turned to Jerusalem, let your words be dropped in the direction of her holy place, and be a prophet against the land of Israel;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 And say to the land of Israel, These are the words of the Lord: See, I am against you, and I will take my sword out of its cover, cutting off from you the upright and the evil.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Because I am going to have the upright and the evil cut off from you, for this cause my sword will go out from its cover against all flesh from the south to the north:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 And all flesh will see that I the Lord have taken my sword out of its cover: and it will never go back.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Make sounds of grief, son of man; with body bent and a bitter heart make sounds of grief before their eyes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 And when they say to you, Why are you making sounds of grief? then say, Because of the news, for it is coming: and every heart will become soft, and all hands will be feeble, and every spirit will be burning low, and all knees will be turned to water: see, it is coming and it will be done, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 Son of man, say as a prophet, These are the words of the Lord: Say, A sword, a sword which has been made sharp and polished:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 It has been made sharp to give death; it is polished so that it may be like a thunder-flame: ...

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And I have given it to the polisher so that it may be taken in the hand: he has made the sword sharp, he has had it polished, to put it into the hand of him who gives death.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 Give loud cries and make sounds of grief, O son of man: for it has come on my people, it has come on all the rulers of Israel: fear of the sword has come on my people: for this cause give signs of grief.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 ...

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 So then, son of man, be a prophet, and put your hands together with a loud sound, and give two blows with the sword, and even three; it is the sword of those who are wounded, even the sword of the wounded; the great sword which goes round about them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 In order that hearts may become soft, and the number of those who are falling may be increased, I have sent death by the sword against all their doors: you are made like a flame, you are polished for death.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 Be pointed to the right, to the left, wherever your edge is ordered.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And I will put my hands together with a loud sound, and I will let my wrath have rest: I the Lord have said it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 And the word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And you, son of man, have two ways marked out, so that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; let the two of them come out of one land: and let there be a pillar at the top of the road:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20

Literal

Put a pillar at the top of the road for the sword to come to Rabbah in the land of the children of Ammon, and to Judah and to Jerusalem in the middle of her.

Spiritual

Practical

21

Literal

For the king of Babylon took his place at the parting of the ways, at the top of the two roads, to make use of secret arts: shaking the arrows this way and that, he put questions to the images of his gods, he took note of the inner parts of dead beasts.

Spiritual

Practical

22

Literal

At his right hand was the fate of Jerusalem, to give orders for destruction, to send up the war-cry, to put engines of war against the doors, lifting up earthworks, building walls.

Spiritual

Practical

23

Literal

And this answer given by secret arts will seem false to those who have given their oaths and have let them be broken: but he will keep the memory of evil-doing so that they may be taken.

Spiritual

Practical

24

Literal

For this cause the Lord has said: Because you have made your evil-doing come to mind by the uncovering of your wrongdoing, causing your sins to be seen in all your evil-doings; because you have come to mind, you will be taken in them.

Spiritual

Practical

25 And you, O evil one, wounded to death, O ruler of Israel, whose day has come in the time of the last punishment;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 This is what the Lord has said: Take away the holy head-dress, take off the crown: this will not be again: let that which is low be lifted up, and that which is high be made low.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 I will let it be overturned, overturned, overturned: this will not be again till he comes whose right it is; and I will give it to him.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 And you, son of man, say as a prophet, This is what the Lord has said about the children of Ammon and about their shame: Say, A sword, even a sword let loose, polished for death, to make it shining so that it may be like a flame:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

29 Your vision is to no purpose, your use of secret arts gives a false answer, to put it on the necks of evil-doers who are wounded to death, whose day has come, in the time of the last punishment.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

30 Go back into your cover. In the place where you were made, in the land from which you were taken, I will be your judge.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

31 And I will let loose my burning passion on you, breathing out on you the fire of my wrath: and I will give you up into the hands of men like beasts, trained to destruction.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

32 You will be food for the fire; your blood will be drained out in the land; there will be no more memory of you: for I the Lord have said it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 And you, son of man, will you be a judge, will you be a judge of the town of blood? then make clear to her all her disgusting ways.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3      And you are to say, This is what the Lord has said: A town causing blood to be drained out in her streets so that her time may come, and making images in her to make her unclean!

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4      You are responsible for the blood drained out by you, and you are unclean through the images which you have made; and you have made your day come near, and the time of your judging has come; for this cause I have made you a name of shame to the nations and a cause of laughing to all countries.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5      Those who are near and those who are far from you will make sport of you; your name is unclean, you are full of sounds of fear.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6      See, the rulers of Israel, every one in his family, have been causing death in you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7      In you they have had no respect for father and mother; in you they have been cruel to the man from a strange land; in you they have done wrong to the child without a father and to the widow.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

8 You have made little of my holy things, and have made my Sabbaths unclean.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 In you there are men who say evil of others, causing death; in you they have taken the flesh with the blood for food; in your streets they have put evil designs into effect.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 In you they have let the shame of their fathers be seen; in you they have done wrong to a woman at the time when she was unclean.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And in you one man has done what was disgusting with his neighbour's wife; and another has made his daughter-in-law unclean; and another has done wrong to his sister, his father's daughter.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 In you they have taken rewards as the price of blood; you have taken interest and great profits, and you have taken away your neighbours' goods by force, and have not kept me in mind, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 See, then, I have made my hands come together in wrath against your taking of goods by force and against the blood which has been flowing in you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 Will your heart be high or your hands strong in the days when I take you in hand? I the Lord have said it and will do it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 And I will send you in flight among the nations and wandering among the countries; and I will completely take away out of you everything which is unclean.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And you will be made low before the eyes of the nations; and it will be clear to you that I am the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

18 Son of man, the children of Israel have become like the poorest sort of waste metal to me: they are all silver and brass and tin and iron and lead mixed with waste.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 For this cause the Lord has said: Because you have all become waste metal, see, I will get you together inside Jerusalem.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 As they put silver and brass and iron and lead and tin together inside the oven, heating up the fire on it to make it soft; so will I get you together in my wrath and in my passion, and, heating the fire with my breath, will make you soft.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Yes, I will take you, breathing on you the fire of my wrath, and you will become soft in it.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 As silver becomes soft in the oven, so you will become soft in it; and you will be certain that I the Lord have let loose my passion on you.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

24 Son of man, say to her, You are a land on which no rain or thunderstorm has come in the day of wrath.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

25 Her rulers in her are like a loud-voiced lion violently taking his food; they have made a meal of souls; they have taken wealth and valued property; they have made great the number of widows in her.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

26 Her priests have been acting violently against my law; they have made my holy things unclean: they have made no division between what is holy and what is common, and they have not made it clear that the unclean is different from the clean, and their eyes have been shut to my Sabbaths, and I am not honoured among them.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

27 Her rulers in her are like wolves violently taking their food; putting men to death and causing the destruction of souls, so that they may get their profit.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

28 Literal And her prophets have been using whitewash, seeing foolish visions and making false use of secret arts, saying, This is what the Lord has said, when the Lord has said nothing.

Spiritual

Practical

29 Literal The people of the land have been acting cruelly, taking men's goods by force; they have been hard on the poor and those in need, and have done wrong to the man from a strange land.

Spiritual

Practical

30 Literal And I was looking for a man among them who would make up the wall and take his station in the broken place before me for the land, so that I might not send destruction on it: but there was no one.

Spiritual

Practical

31 Literal And I let loose my passion on them, and have put an end to them in the fire of my wrath: I have made the punishment of their ways come on their heads, says the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

1 Literal The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 Son of man, there were two women, daughters of one mother:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 They were acting like loose women in Egypt; when they were young their behaviour was loose: there their breasts were crushed, even the points of their young breasts were crushed.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 Their names were Oholah, the older, and Oholibah, her sister: and they became mine, and gave birth to sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem, Oholibah.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 And Oholah was untrue to me when she was mine; she was full of desire for her lovers, even for the Assyrians, her neighbours,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Who were clothed in blue, captains and rulers, all of them young men to be desired, horsemen seated on horses.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

7 Literal And she gave her unclean love to them, all of them the noblest men of Assyria: and she made herself unclean with the images of all who were desired by her.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal And she has not given up her loose ways from the time when she was in Egypt; for when she was young they were her lovers, and by them her young breasts were crushed, and they let loose on her their unclean desire.

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal For this cause I gave her up into the hands of her lovers, into the hands of the Assyrians on whom her desire was fixed.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal By these her shame was uncovered: they took her sons and daughters and put her to death with the sword: and she became a cause of wonder to women; for they gave her the punishment which was right.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

11 Literal And her sister Oholibah saw this, but her desire was even more unmeasured, and her loose behaviour was worse than that of her sister.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

12 She was full of desire for the Assyrians, captains and rulers, her neighbours, clothed in blue, horsemen going on horses, all of them young men to be desired.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 And I saw that she had become unclean; the two of them went the same way.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 And her loose behaviour became worse; for she saw men pictured on a wall, pictures of the Chaldaeans painted in bright red,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 With bands round their bodies and with head-dresses hanging round their heads, all of them looking like rulers, like the Babylonians, the land of whose birth is Chaldea.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 And when she saw them she was full of desire for them, and sent servants to them in Chaldea.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

17 And the Babylonians came to her, into the bed of love, and made her unclean with their loose desire, and she became unclean with them, and her soul was turned from them.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 So her loose behaviour was clearly seen and her shame uncovered: then my soul was turned from her as it had been turned from her sister.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19 But still she went on the more with her loose behaviour, keeping in mind the early days when she had been a loose woman in the land of Egypt.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

20 And she was full of desire for her lovers, whose flesh is like the flesh of asses and whose seed is like the seed of horses.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

21 And she made the memory of the loose ways of her early years come back to mind, when her young breasts were crushed by the Egyptians.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

22

Literal

For this cause, O Oholibah, this is what the Lord has said: See, I will make your lovers come up against you, even those from whom your soul is turned away in disgust; and I will make them come up against you on every side;

Spiritual

Practical

23

Literal

The Babylonians and all the Chaldaeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: young men to be desired, captains and rulers all of them, and chiefs, her neighbours, all of them on horseback.

Spiritual

Practical

24

Literal

And they will come against you from the north on horseback, with war-carriages and a great band of peoples; they will put themselves in order against you with breastplate and body-cover and metal head-dress round about you: and I will make them your judges, and they will give their decision against you as seems right to them.

Spiritual

Practical

25

Literal

And my bitter feeling will be working against you, and they will take you in hand with passion; they will take away your nose and your ears, and the rest of you will be put to the sword: they will take your sons and daughters, and the rest of you will be burned up in the fire.

Spiritual

Practical

26

Literal

And they will take all your clothing off you and take away your ornaments.

Spiritual

Practical

27

Literal

So I will put an end to your evil ways and your loose behaviour which came from the land of Egypt: and your eyes will never be lifted up to them again, and you will have no more memory of Egypt.

Spiritual

Practical

28

Literal

For this is what the Lord has said: See, I will give you up into the hands of those who are hated by you, into the hands of those from whom your soul is turned away in disgust:

Spiritual

Practical

29

Literal

And they will take you in hand with hate, and take away all the fruit of your work, and let you be unveiled and without clothing: and the shame of your loose behaviour will be uncovered, your evil designs and your loose ways.

Spiritual

Practical

30

Literal

They will do these things to you because you have been untrue to me, and have gone after the nations, and have become unclean with their images.

Spiritual

Practical

31

Literal

You have gone in the way of your sister; and I will give her cup into your hand.

Spiritual

Practical

32 This is what the Lord has said: You will take a drink from your sister's cup, which is deep and wide: you will be laughed at and looked down on, more than you are able to undergo.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

33 You will be broken and full of sorrow, with the cup of wonder and destruction, with the cup of your sister Samaria.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

34 And after drinking it and draining it out, you will take the last drops of it to the end, pulling off your breasts: for I have said it, says the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

35 So this is what the Lord has said: Because you have not kept me in your memory, and because your back has been turned to me, you will even undergo the punishment of your evil designs and your loose ways.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

36 Then the Lord said to me: Son of man, will you be the judge of Oholibah? then make clear to her the disgusting things she has done.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

37 For she has been false to me, and blood is on her hands, and with her images she has been untrue; and more than this, she made her sons, whom she had by me, go through the fire to them to be burned up.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

38 Further, this is what she has done to me: she has made my holy place unclean and has made my Sabbaths unclean.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

39 For when she had made an offering of her children to her images, she came into my holy place to make it unclean; see, this is what she has done inside my house.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

40 And she even sent for men to come from far away, to whom a servant was sent, and they came: for whom she was washing her body and painting her eyes and making herself fair with ornaments.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

41 And she took her seat on a great bed, with a table put ready before it on which she put my perfume and my oil.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

42 ... and they put jewels on her hands and beautiful crowns on her head.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

43 Then I said ... now she will go on with her loose ways.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

44 And they went in to her, as men go to a loose woman: so they went in to Oholibah, the loose woman.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

45 And upright men will be her judges, judging her as false wives and women who take lives are judged; because she has been untrue to me and blood is on her hands.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

46 For this is what the Lord has said: I will make a great meeting of the people come together against her, and will send on her shaking fear and take everything from her.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

47 Literal And the meeting, after stoning her with stones, will put an end to her with their swords; they will put her sons and daughters to death and have her house burned up with fire.

Spiritual

Practical

48 Literal And I will put an end to evil in all the land, teaching all women not to do as you have done.

Spiritual

Practical

49 Literal And I will send on you the punishment of your evil ways, and you will be rewarded for your sins with your images: and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

1 Literal And the word of the Lord came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, saying,

Spiritual

Practical

2 Literal Son of man, put down in writing this very day: The king of Babylon let loose the weight of his attack against Jerusalem on this very day.

Spiritual

Practical

3

Literal

And make a comparison for this uncontrolled people, and say to them, This is what the Lord has said: Put on the cooking-pot, put it on the fire and put water in it:

Spiritual

Practical

4

Literal

And get the bits together, the fat tail, every good part, the leg and the top part of it: make it full of the best bones.

Spiritual

Practical

5

Literal

Take the best of the flock, put much wood under it: see that its bits are boiling well; let the bones be cooked inside it.

Spiritual

Practical

6

Literal

For this is what the Lord has said: A curse is on the town of blood, the cooking-pot which is unclean inside, which has never been made clean! take out its bits; its fate is still to come on it.

Spiritual

Practical

7

Literal

For her blood is in her; she has put it on the open rock not draining it on to the earth so that it might be covered with dust;

Spiritual

Practical

8 In order that it might make wrath come up to give punishment, she has put her blood on the open rock, so that it may not be covered.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

9 For this cause the Lord has said: A curse is on the town of blood! and I will make great the burning mass.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Put on much wood, heating up the fire, boiling the flesh well, and making the soup thick, and let the bones be burned.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 And I will put her on the coals so that she may be heated and her brass burned, so that what is unclean in her may become soft and her waste be completely taken away.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 I have made myself tired to no purpose: still all the waste which is in her has not come out, it has an evil smell.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 As for your unclean purpose: because I have been attempting to make you clean, but you have not been made clean from it, you will not be made clean till I have let loose my passion on you in full measure.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

14 I the Lord have said the word and I will do it; I will not go back or have mercy, and my purpose will not be changed; in the measure of your ways and of your evil doings you will be judged, says the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 Son of man, see, I am taking away the desire of your eyes by disease: but let there be no sorrow or weeping or drops running from your eyes.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 Let there be no sound of sorrow; make no weeping for your dead, put on your head-dress and your shoes on your feet, let not your lips be covered, and do not take the food of those in grief.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 So in the morning I was teaching the people and in the evening death took my wife; and in the morning I did what I had been ordered to do.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

19 And the people said to me, Will you not make clear to us the sense of these things; is it for us you do them?

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

20 Then I said to them, The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

21 Say to the people of Israel, The Lord has said, See, I will make my holy place unclean, the pride of your strength, the pleasure of your eyes, and the desire of your soul; and your sons and daughters, who did not come with you here, will be put to the sword.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

22 And you will do as I have done, not covering your lips or taking the food of those in grief.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

23

Literal

And your head-dresses will be on your heads and your shoes on your feet: there will be no sorrow or weeping; but you will be wasting away in the punishment of your evil-doing, and you will be looking at one another in wonder.

Spiritual

Practical

24

Literal

And Ezekiel will be a sign to you; everything he has done you will do: when this takes place, you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

25

Literal

And as for you, son of man, your mouth will be shut in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which their hearts are fixed, and their sons and daughters.

Spiritual

Practical

26

Literal

In that day, one who has got away safe will come to you to give you news of it.

Spiritual

Practical

27

Literal

In that day your mouth will be open to him who has got away safe, and you will say words to him and your lips will no longer be shut: so you will be a sign to them and they will be certain that I am the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

1 And the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

2 Son of man, let your face be turned to the children of Ammon, and be a prophet against them:

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

3 And say to the children of Ammon, Give ear to the word of the Lord; this is what the Lord has said: Because you said, Aha! against my holy place when it was made unclean, and against the land of Israel when it was made waste, and against the people of Judah when they were taken away as prisoners;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

4 For this cause I will give you up to the children of the east for their heritage, and they will put their tent-circles in you and make their houses in you; they will take your fruit for their food and your milk for their drink.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

5 And I will make Rabbah a place for housing camels, and the children of Ammon a resting-place for flocks: and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

6 Literal For the Lord has said, Because you have made sounds of joy with your hands, stamping your feet, and have been glad, putting shame with all your soul on the land of Israel;

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal For this cause my hand has been stretched out against you, and I will give up your goods to be taken by the nations; I will have you cut off from the peoples and will put an end to you among the countries: I will give you up to destruction; and you will be certain that I am the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal This is what the Lord has said: Because Moab and Seir are saying, See, the people of Judah are like all the nations;

Spiritual

Practical

9 Literal For this cause, I will let the side of Moab be uncovered, and his towns on every side, the glory of the land, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon and as far as Kiriathaim.

Spiritual

Practical

10 Literal To the children of the east I have given her for a heritage, as well as the children of Ammon, so that there may be no memory of her among the nations:

Spiritual

Practical

11 And I will be the judge of Moab; and they will see that I am the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 This is what the Lord has said: Because Edom has taken his payment from the people of Judah, and has done great wrong in taking payment from them;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 The Lord has said, My hand will be stretched out against Edom, cutting off from it man and beast: and I will make it waste, from Teman even as far as Dedan they will be put to the sword.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I will take payment from Edom because of my people Israel; and I will take Edom in hand in my wrath and in my passion: and they will have experience of my reward, says the Lord.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

15 This is what the Lord has said: Because the Philistines have taken payment, with the purpose of causing shame and destruction with unending hate;

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

16 The Lord has said, See, my hand will be stretched out against the Philistines, cutting off the Cherethites and sending destruction on the rest of the sea-land.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 And I will take great payment from them with acts of wrath; and they will be certain that I am the Lord when I send my punishment on them.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

1 Now in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

2 Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she who was the doorway of the peoples is broken; she is turned over to them; she who was full is made waste;

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

3 For this cause the Lord has said, See, I am against you, O Tyre, and will send up a number of nations against you as the sea sends up its waves.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

4 Literal And they will give the walls of Tyre to destruction and have its towers broken: and I will take even her dust away from her, and make her an uncovered rock

Spiritual

Practical

5 Literal She will be a place for the stretching out of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have said it, says the Lord: and her goods will be given over to the nations.

Spiritual

Practical

6 Literal And her daughters in the open country will be put to the sword: and they will be certain that I am the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

7 Literal For this is what the Lord has said: See, I will send up from the north Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, king of kings, against Tyre, with horses and war-carriages and with an army and great numbers of people.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

8 Literal He will put to the sword your daughters in the open country: he will make strong walls against you and put up an earthwork against you, arming himself for war against you.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

9 He will put up his engines of war against your walls, and your towers will be broken down by his axes.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

10 Because of the number of his horses you will be covered with their dust: your walls will be shaking at the noise of the horsemen and of the wheels and of the war-carriages, when he comes through your doorways, as into a town which has been broken open.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

11 Your streets will be stamped down by the feet of his horses: he will put your people to the sword, and will send down the pillars of your strength to the earth.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

12 They will take by force all your wealth and go off with the goods with which you do trade: they will have your walls broken down and all the houses of your desire given up to destruction: they will put your stones and your wood and your dust deep in the water.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

13 I will put an end to the noise of your songs, and the sound of your instruments of music will be gone for ever.

Literal

---

Spiritual

---

Practical

---

14 I will make you an uncovered rock: you will be a place for the stretching out of nets; there will be no building you up again: for I the Lord have said it, says the Lord.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

15 This is what the Lord has said to Tyre: Will not the sea-lands be shaking at the sound of your fall, when the wounded give cries of pain, when men are put to the sword in you?

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

16 Then all the rulers of the sea will come down from their high seats, and put away their robes and take off their clothing of needlework: they will put on the clothing of grief, they will take their seats on the earth, shaking with fear every minute and overcome with wonder at you.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

17 And they will send up a song of grief for you, and say to you, What destruction has come on you, how are you cut off from the sea, the noted town, which was strong in the sea, she and her people, causing the fear of them to come on all the dry land!

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

18 Now the sea-lands will be shaking in the day of your fall; and all the ships on the sea will be overcome with fear at your going.

Literal

Spiritual

Practical

19

Literal

For this is what the Lord has said: I will make you a waste town, like the towns which are unpeopled; when I make the deep come upon you, covering you with great waters.

Spiritual

Practical

20

Literal

Then I will make you go down with those who go down into the underworld, to the people of the past, causing your living-place to be in the deepest parts of the earth, in places long unpeopled, with those who go down into the deep, so that there will be no one living in you; and you will have no glory in the land of the living.

Spiritual

Practical

21

Literal

I will make you a thing of fear, and you will come to an end: even if you are looked for, you will not be seen again for ever, says the Lord.

Spiritual

Practical

1

Literal

The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

Spiritual

Practical

2

Literal

Spiritual
