Law-1 History-375 Literature-723 Prophecy-968

- 1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
- 2 Now the earth was formless and empty. Darkness was on the surface of the deep. God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters.
- 3 God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.
- 4 God saw the light, and saw that it was good. God divided the light from the darkness.
- 5 God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. There was evening and there was morning, one day.
- 6 God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters."
- 7 God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse, and it was so.
- 8 God called the expanse sky. There was evening and there was morning, a second day.
- 9 God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear," and it was so.
- 10 God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters he called Seas. God saw that it was good.
- 11 God said, "Let the earth put forth grass, herbs yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit after their kind, with its seed in it, on the earth," and it was so.
- 12 The earth brought forth grass, herbs yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit, with its seed in it, after their kind; and God saw that it was good.
- 13 There was evening and there was morning, a third day.
- 14 God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of sky to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years;
- 15 and let them be for lights in the expanse of sky to give light on the earth," and it was so.
- 16 God made the two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He also made the stars.
- 17 God set them in the expanse of sky to give light to the earth,
- 18 and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good.
- 19 There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.
- 20 God said, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the open expanse of sky."
- 21 God created the large sea creatures, and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed, after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind. God saw that it was good.
- 22 God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."
- 23 There was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.
- 24 God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind, cattle, creeping things, and animals of the earth after their kind," and it was so.
- 25 God made the animals of the earth after their kind, and the cattle after their kind, and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind. God saw that it was good.

26 God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

27 God created man in his own image. In God's image he created him; male and female he created them.

28 God blessed them. God said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

29 God said, "Behold, I have given you every herb yielding seed, which is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree, which bears fruit yielding seed. It will be your food.

30 To every animal of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food." And it was so.

31 God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. There was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

1 The heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 On the seventh day God finished his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 God blessed the seventh day, and made it holy, because he rested in it from all his work which he had created and made.

4 This is the history of the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that Yahweh God made earth and the heavens.

5 No plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprung up; for Yahweh God had not caused it to rain on the earth. There was not a man to till the ground,

6 but a mist went up from the earth, and watered the whole surface of the ground.

7 Yahweh God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 Yahweh God planted a garden eastward, in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 Out of the ground Yahweh God made every tree to grow that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

10 A river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it was parted, and became four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pishon: this is the one which flows through the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 and the gold of that land is good. There is aromatic resin and the onyx stone.

13 The name of the second river is Gihon: the same river that flows through the whole land of Cush.

14 The name of the third river is Hiddekel; this is the one which flows in front of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

15 Yahweh God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

16 Yahweh God commanded the man, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;

17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it; for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die."

18 Yahweh God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him."

19 Out of the ground Yahweh God formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.

- 20 The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the sky, and to every animal of the field; but for man there was not found a helper suitable for him.
- 21 Yāhweh God caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, and he slept; and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place.
- 22 He made the rib, which Yāhweh God had taken from the man, into a woman, and brought her to the man.
- 23 The man said, "This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She will be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man."
- 24 Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother, and will join with his wife, and they will be one flesh.
- 25 They were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.
- 1 Now the serpent was more subtle than any animal of the field which Yāhweh God had made. He said to the woman, "Yes, has God said, You shall not eat of any tree of the garden? "
- 2 The woman said to the serpent, "Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat,
- 3 but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die. "
- 4 The serpent said to the woman, "You won't surely die,
- 5 for God knows that in the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as God, knowing good and evil."
- 6 When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit of it, and ate; and she gave some to her husband with her, and he ate.
- 7 Both of their eyes were opened, and they knew that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.
- 8 They heard the voice of Yāhweh God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Yāhweh God among the trees of the garden.
- 9 Yāhweh God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?"
- 10 The man said, "I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself."
- 11 God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"
- 12 The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate."
- 13 Yāhweh God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."
- 14 Yāhweh God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you above all cattle, and above every animal of the field. On your belly shall you go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.
- 15 I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring. He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel."
- 16 To the woman he said, "I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth. In pain you will bring forth children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."
- 17 To Adam he said, "Because you have listened to your wife's voice, and have eaten of the tree, of which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it, cursed is the ground for your sake. In toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.
- 18 Thorns also and thistles will it bring forth to you; and you will eat the herb of the field.

19 By the sweat of your face will you eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. For you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”

20 The man called his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

21 Yāhweh God made coats of skins for Adam and for his wife, and clothed them.

22 Yāhweh God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now, lest he put forth his hand, and also take of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever...”

23 Therefore Yāhweh God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; and he placed Cherubs at the east of the garden of Eden, and the flame of a sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

1 The man knew Eve his wife. She conceived, and gave birth to Cain, and said, “I have gotten a man with Yāhweh’s help.”

2 Again she gave birth, to Cain’s brother Abel. Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 As time passed, it happened that Cain brought an offering to Yāhweh from the fruit of the ground.

4 Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of the fat of it. Yāhweh respected Abel and his offering,

5 but he didn’t respect Cain and his offering. Cain was very angry, and the expression on his face fell.

6 Yāhweh said to Cain, “Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen?

7 If you do well, will it not be lifted up? If you don’t do well, sin crouches at the door. Its desire is for you, but you are to rule over it.”

8 Cain said to Abel, his brother, “Let’s go into the field.” It happened, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel, his brother, and killed him.

9 Yāhweh said to Cain, “Where is Abel, your brother?” He said, “I don’t know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

10 Yāhweh said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries to me from the ground.

11 Now you are cursed because of the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.

12 From now on, when you till the ground, it won’t yield its strength to you. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth.”

13 Cain said to Yāhweh, “My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, you have driven me out this day from the surface of the ground. I will be hidden from your face, and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth. It will happen that whoever finds me will kill me.”

15 Yāhweh said to him, “Therefore whoever slays Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold.” Yāhweh appointed a sign for Cain, lest any finding him should strike him.

16 Cain went out from Yāhweh’s presence, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 Cain knew his wife. She conceived, and gave birth to Enoch. He built a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 To Enoch was born Irad. Irad became the father of Mehujael. Mehujael became the father of Methushael. Methushael became the father of Lamech.

19 Lamech took two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 Adah gave birth to Jabal, who was the father of those who dwell in tents and have cattle.

21 His brother’s name was Jubal, who was the father of all who handle the harp and pipe.

22 Zillah also gave birth to Tubal-Cain, the forger of every cutting instrument of brass and iron. Tubal-Cain's sister was Naamah.

23 Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, You wives of Lamech, listen to my speech, For I have slain a man for wounding me, A young man for bruising me.

24 If Cain will be avenged seven times, Truly Lamech seventy-seven times.

25 Adam knew his wife again. She gave birth to a son, and named him Seth. For, she said, "God has appointed me another child instead of Abel, for Cain killed him."

26 There was also born a son to Seth, and he named him Enosh. Then men began to call on Yahweh's name.

1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, he made him in God's likeness.

2 He created them male and female, and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

3 Adam lived one hundred thirty years, and became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

4 The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

5 All the days that Adam lived were nine hundred thirty years, then he died.

6 Seth lived one hundred five years, and became the father of Enosh.

7 Seth lived after he became the father of Enosh eight hundred seven years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

8 All the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years, then he died.

9 Enosh lived ninety years, and became the father of Kenan.

10 Enosh lived after he became the father of Kenan, eight hundred fifteen years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11 All the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years, then he died.

12 Kenan lived seventy years, and became the father of Mahalalel.

13 Kenan lived after he became the father of Mahalalel eight hundred forty years, and became the father of sons and daughters

14 and all the days of Kenan were nine hundred ten years, then he died.

15 Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Jared.

16 Mahalalel lived after he became the father of Jared eight hundred thirty years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

17 All the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years, then he died.

18 Jared lived one hundred sixty-two years, and became the father of Enoch.

19 Jared lived after he became the father of Enoch eight hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

20 All the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years, then he died.

21 Enoch lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Methuselah.

22 Enoch walked with God after he became the father of Methuselah three hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

23 all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years.

24 Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him.

25 Methuselah lived one hundred eighty-seven years, and became the father of Lamech.
26 Methuselah lived after he became the father of Lamech seven hundred eighty-two years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
27 All the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years, then he died.
28 Lamech lived one hundred eighty-two years, and became the father of a son,
29 and he named him Noah, saying, "This same will comfort us in our work and in the toil of our hands, because of the ground which Yāhweh has cursed."
30 Lamech lived after he became the father of Noah five hundred ninety-five years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
31 All the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy-seven years, then he died.
32 Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
1 It happened, when men began to multiply on the surface of the ground, and daughters were born to them,
2 that God's sons saw that men's daughters were beautiful, and they took for themselves wives of all that they chose.
3 Yāhweh said, "My spirit will not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; yet will his days be one hundred twenty years."
4 The Nephilim were in the earth in those days, and also after that, when God's sons came to men's daughters. They bore children to them; the same were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.
5 Yāhweh saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.
6 Yāhweh was sorry that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him in his heart.
7 Yāhweh said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the surface of the ground; man, along with animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them."
8 But Noah found favor in Yāhweh's eyes.
9 This is the history of the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time. Noah walked with God.
10 Noah became the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
11 The earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.
12 God saw the earth, and saw that it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.
13 God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. Behold, I will destroy them with the earth.
14 Make an ark of gopher wood. You shall make rooms in the ark, and shall seal it inside and outside with pitch.
15 This is how you shall make it. The length of the ark will be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.
16 You shall make a roof in the ark, and to a cubit shall you finish it upward. You shall set the door of the ark in the side of it. You shall make it with lower, second, and third levels.
17 I, even, I do bring the flood of waters on this earth, to destroy all flesh having the breath of life from under the sky. Everything that is in the earth will die.
18 But I will establish my covenant with you. You shall come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.

- 19 Of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female.
- 20 Of the birds after their kind, of the cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every sort shall come to you, to keep them alive.
- 21 Take with you of all food that is eaten, and gather it to you; and it will be for food for you, and for them.
- 22 Thus Noah did. According to all that God commanded him, so he did.
- 1 Yāhweh said to Noah, "Come with all of your household into the ark, for I have seen your righteousness before me in this generation.
- 2 You shall take seven pairs of every clean animal with you, the male and his female. Of the animals that are not clean, take two, the male and his female.
- 3 Also of the birds of the sky, seven and seven, male and female, to keep seed alive on the surface of all the earth.
- 4 In seven days, I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights. Every living thing that I have made, I will destroy from the surface of the ground."
- 5 Noah did everything that Yāhweh commanded him.
- 6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came on the earth.
- 7 Noah went into the ark with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, because of the waters of the flood.
- 8 Clean animals, animals that are not clean, birds, and everything that creeps on the ground
- 9 went by pairs to Noah into the ark, male and female, as God commanded Noah.
- 10 It happened after the seven days, that the waters of the flood came on the earth.
- 11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day all the fountains of the great deep were burst open, and the sky's windows were opened.
- 12 The rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.
- 13 In the same day Noah, and Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ark;
- 14 they, and every animal after its kind, all the cattle after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort.
- 15 They went to Noah into the ark, by pairs of all flesh with the breath of life in them.
- 16 Those who went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God commanded him; and Yāhweh shut him in.
- 17 The flood was forty days on the earth. The waters increased, and lifted up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth.
- 18 The waters prevailed, and increased greatly on the earth; and the ark floated on the surface of the waters.
- 19 The waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth. All the high mountains that were under the whole sky were covered.
- 20 The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered.
- 21 All flesh died that moved on the earth, including birds, cattle, animals, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man.
- 22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, of all that was on the dry land, died.
- 23 Every living thing was destroyed that was on the surface of the ground, including man, cattle, creeping things, and birds of the sky. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those who were with him in the ark.

24 The waters prevailed on the earth one hundred fifty days.
1 God remembered Noah, all the animals, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God made a wind to pass over the earth. The waters subsided.
2 The deep's fountains and the sky's windows were also stopped, and the rain from the sky was restrained.
3 The waters receded from off the earth continually. After the end of one hundred fifty days the waters decreased.
4 The ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on Ararat's mountains.
5 The waters receded continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.
6 It happened at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made,
7 and he sent forth a raven. It went back and forth, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.
8 He sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the surface of the ground,
9 but the dove found no place to rest her foot, and she returned to him into the ark; for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. He put forth his hand, and took her, and brought her to him into the ark.
10 He stayed yet another seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.
11 The dove came back to him at evening, and, behold, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.
12 He stayed yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove; and she didn't return to him any more.
13 It happened in the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth. Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked. He saw that the surface of the ground was dried.
14 In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.
15 God spoke to Noah, saying,
16 "Go forth from the ark, you, and your wife, and your sons, and your sons' wives with you.
17 Bring forth with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh, including birds, cattle, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply on the earth."
18 Noah went forth, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives with him.
19 Every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird, whatever moves on the earth, after their families, went forth out of the ark.
20 Noah built an altar to Yahweh, and took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.
21 Yahweh smelled the sweet savor. Yahweh said in his heart, "I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake, because the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I ever again strike everything living, as I have done."
22 While the earth remains, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."
1 God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.
2 The fear of you and the dread of you will be on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the sky. Everything that the ground teems with, and all the fish of the sea are delivered into your hand.
3 Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. As the green herb, I have given everything to you.
4 But flesh with the life of it, the blood of it, you shall not eat.

5 I will surely require your blood of your lives. At the hand of every animal I will require it. At the hand of man, even at the hand of every man's brother, I will require the life of man.

6 Whoever sheds man's blood, by man his blood will be shed, for in the image of God made he man.

7 Be fruitful, and multiply. Bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply in it."

8 God spoke to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 "As for me, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your offspring after you,

10 and with every living creature that is with you; the birds, the cattle, and every animal of the earth with you. Of all that go out of the ark, even every animal of the earth.

11 I will establish my covenant with you; neither will all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of the flood; neither will there any more be a flood to destroy the earth."

12 God said, "This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I set my rainbow in the cloud, and it will be for a sign of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 It will happen, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud,

15 and I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters will no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 The rainbow will be in the cloud. I will look at it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth."

17 God said to Noah, "This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

18 The sons of Noah who went forth from the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These three were the sons of Noah, and from these, the whole earth was populated.

20 Noah began to be a farmer, and planted a vineyard.

21 He drank of the wine, and got drunk. He was uncovered within his tent.

22 Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

23 Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it on both their shoulders, went in backwards, and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were backwards, and they didn't see their father's nakedness.

24 Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his youngest son had done to him.

25 He said, "Cursed be Canaan; A servant of servants will he be to his brothers."

26 He said, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Shem; Let Canaan be his servant.

27 God enlarge Japheth, Let him dwell in the tents of Shem; Let Canaan be his servant."

28 Noah lived three hundred fifty years after the flood.

29 All the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years, then he died.

1 Now this is the history of the generations of the sons of Noah and of Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

3 The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 The sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 Of these were the isles of the nations divided in their lands, everyone after his language, after their families, in their nations.

6 The sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.

7 The sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.

8 Cush became the father of Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before Yāhweh. Therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before Yāhweh."

10 The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land he went forth into Assyria, and built Nineveh, Rehoboth-Īr, Calah, 12 and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (the same is the great city).

13 Mizraim became the father of Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, 14 Pathrusim, Casluhim (which the Philistines descended from), and Caphtorim.

15 Canaan became the father of Sidon (his firstborn), Heth,

16 the Jebusite, the Amorite, the Girgashite,

17 the Hivite, the Arkite, the Sinite,

18 the Arvadite, the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. Afterward the families of the Canaanites were spread abroad.

19 The border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as you go toward Gerar, to Gaza; as you go toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, to Tasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their languages, in their lands, in their nations.

21 To Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the elder brother of Japheth, to him also were children born.

22 The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram.

23 The sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

24 Arpachshad became the father of Shelah. Shelah became the father of Eber.

25 To Eber were born two sons. The name of the one was Peleg, for in his days was the earth divided. His brother's name was Joktan.

26 Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

30 Their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their languages, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations. Of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

1 The whole earth was of one language and of one speech.

2 It happened, as they journeyed east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they lived there.

3 They said one to another, "Come, let's make brick, and burn them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar.

4 They said, "Come, let's build us a city, and a tower, whose top reaches to the sky, and let's make us a name; lest we be scattered abroad on the surface of the whole earth."

5 Yāhweh came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men built.

6 Yāhweh said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is what they begin to do. Now nothing will be withheld from them, which they intend to do.

- 7 Come, let's go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."
- 8 So Yahweh scattered them abroad from there on the surface of all the earth. They stopped building the city.
- 9 Therefore the name of it was called Babel, because Yahweh confused the language of all the earth, there. From there, Yahweh scattered them abroad on the surface of all the earth.
- 10 This is the history of the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old, and became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood.
- 11 Shem lived after he became the father of Arpachshad five hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 12 Arpachshad lived thirty-five years, and became the father of Shelah.
- 13 Arpachshad lived after he became the father of Shelah four hundred three years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 14 Shelah lived thirty years, and became the father of Eber:
- 15 and Shelah lived after he became the father of Eber four hundred three years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 16 Eber lived thirty-four years, and became the father of Peleg.
- 17 Eber lived after he became the father of Peleg four hundred thirty years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 18 Peleg lived thirty years, and became the father of Reu.
- 19 Peleg lived after he became the father of Reu two hundred nine years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the father of Serug.
- 21 Reu lived after he became the father of Serug two hundred seven years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 22 Serug lived thirty years, and became the father of Nahor.
- 23 Serug lived after he became the father of Nahor two hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 24 Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and became the father of Terah.
- 25 Nahor lived after he became the father of Terah one hundred nineteen years, and became the father of sons and daughters.
- 26 Terah lived seventy years, and became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.
- 27 Now this is the history of the generations of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran became the father of Lot.
- 28 Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldees.
- 29 Abram and Nahor took wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran who was also the father of Iscah.
- 30 Sarai was barren. She had no child.
- 31 Terah took Abram his son, Lot the son of Haran, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife. They went forth from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan. They came to Haran, and lived there.
- 32 The days of Terah were two hundred five years. Terah died in Haran.
- 1 Now Yahweh said to Abram, "Get out of your country, and from your relatives, and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you.

2 I will make of you a great nation. I will bless you, and make your name great. You will be a blessing.
3 I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you. In you will all of the families of the earth be blessed."

4 So Abram went, as Yahweh had spoken to him. Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 Abram took Sarai his wife, Lot his brother's son, all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls who they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan. Into the land of Canaan they came.

6 Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. The Canaanite was then in the land.

7 Yahweh appeared to Abram, and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." He built an altar there to Yahweh, who appeared to him.

8 He left from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to Yahweh, and called on the name of Yahweh.

9 Abram journeyed, going on still toward the South.

10 There was a famine in the land. Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was sore in the land.

11 It happened, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look on.

12 It will happen, when the Egyptians will see you, that they will say, This is his wife. They will kill me, but they will save you alive.

13 Please say that you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that my soul may live because of you."

14 It happened that when Abram had come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful.

15 The princes of Pharaoh saw her, and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 He dealt well with Abram for her sake. He had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels.

17 Yahweh plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 Pharaoh called Abram, and said, "What is this that you have done to me? Why didn't you tell me that she was your wife?

19 Why did you say, She is my sister, so that I took her to be my wife? Now therefore, see your wife, take her, and go your way."

20 Pharaoh gave men charge concerning him; and they brought him on the way, and his wife, and all that he had.

1 Abram went up out of Egypt: he, his wife, all that he had, and Lot with him, into the South.

2 Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 He went on his journeys from the South even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

4 to the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first. There Abram called on the name of Yahweh.

5 Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 The land was not able to bear them, that they might live together: for their substance was great, so that they could not live together.

7 There was a strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite lived then in the land.

8 Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no strife between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are relatives.

9 Isn't the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If you go to the left hand, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right hand, then I will go to the left."

10 Lot lifted up his eyes, and saw all the plain of the Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before Yáhwéh destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of Yáhwéh, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar.

11 So Lot chose the Plain of the Jordan for himself. Lot journeyed east, and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain, and moved his tent as far as Sodom.

13 Now the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinners against Yáhwéh.

14 Yáhwéh said to Abram, after Lot was separated from him, "Now, lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward,

15 for all the land which you see, I will give to you, and to your offspring forever.

16 I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then your seed may also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it to you."

18 Abram moved his tent, and came and lived by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to Yáhwéh.

1 It happened in the days of Amraphel, king of Shinar, Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of Goiim,

2 that they made war with Bera, king of Sodom, and with Birsha, king of Gomorrah, Shinab, king of Admah, and Shemeber, king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar).

3 All these joined together in the vale of Siddim (the same is the Salt Sea).

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year, they rebelled.

5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer came, and the kings who were with him, and struck the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim,

6 and the Horites in their Mount Seir, to Elparan, which is by the wilderness.

7 They returned, and came to En-mishpat (the same is Qadsh), and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that lived in Hazazon-tamar.

8 There went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar); and they set the battle in array against them in the vale of Siddim;

9 against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings against the five.

10 Now the vale of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they fell there, and those who remained fled to the mountain.

11 They took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 They took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who lived in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 One who had escaped came and told Abram, the Hebrew: now he lived by the oaks of Mamre, the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner; and these were confederate with Abram.

- 14 When Abram heard that his relative was taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued as far as Dan.
- 15 He divided himself against them by night, he and his servants, and struck them, and pursued them to Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.
- 16 He brought back all the goods, and also brought back his relative, Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.
- 17 The king of Sodom went out to meet him, after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, at the vale of Shaveh (the same is the King's Vale).
- 18 Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine; and he was priest of God Most High.
- 19 He blessed him, and said, "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth:
- 20 and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand." Abram gave him a tenth of all.
- 21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people, and take the goods to yourself."
- 22 Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth,
- 23 that I will not take a thread nor a shoe-latchet nor anything that is yours, lest you should say, I have made Abram rich.
- 24 Except only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre: let them take their portion."
- 1 After these things the word of Yahweh came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Don't be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward."
- 2 Abram said, "Lord Yahweh, what will you give me, seeing I go childless, and he who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?"
- 3 Abram said, "Behold, to me you have given no seed; and, behold, one born in my house is my heir."
- 4 Behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, "This man will not be your heir, but he who will come forth out of your own body will be your heir."
- 5 Yahweh brought him outside, and said, "Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you be able to count them." He said to Abram, "So shall your seed be."
- 6 He believed in Yahweh; and he reckoned it to him for righteousness.
- 7 He said to him, "I am Yahweh who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it."
- 8 He said, "Lord Yahweh, whereby will I know that I will inherit it?"
- 9 He said to him, "Take me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon."
- 10 He took him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each half opposite the other; but he didn't divide the birds.
- 11 The birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.
- 12 When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. Now terror and great darkness fell on him.
- 13 He said to Abram, "Know for sure that your seed will be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them. They will afflict them four hundred years.
- 14 I will also judge that nation, whom they will serve. Afterward they will come out with great substance.
- 15 But you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried in a good old age.

16 In the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet full."
17 It came to pass that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoking furnace, and a flaming torch passed between these pieces.
18 In that day Yahweh made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates:
19 the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,
20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,
21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."
1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had a handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.
2 Sarai said to Abram, "See now, Yahweh has restrained me from bearing. Please go in to my handmaid. It may be that I will obtain children by her." Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.
3 Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her handmaid, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram her husband to be his wife.
4 He went in to Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.
5 Sarai said to Abram, "This wrong is your fault. I gave my handmaid into your bosom, and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. Yahweh judge between me and you."
6 But Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maid is in your hand. Do to her whatever is good in your eyes." Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her face.
7 The angel of Yahweh found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur.
8 He said, "Hagar, Sarai's handmaid, where did you come from? Where are you going?" She said, "I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai."
9 The angel of Yahweh said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hands."
10 The angel of Yahweh said to her, "I will greatly multiply your seed, that they will not be numbered for multitude."
11 The angel of Yahweh said to her, "Behold, you are with child, and will bear a son. You shall call his name Ishmael, because Yahweh has heard your affliction.
12 He will be like a wild donkey among men. His hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him. He will live opposite all of his brothers."
13 She called the name of Yahweh who spoke to her, "You are a God who sees," for she said, "Have I even stayed alive after seeing him?"
14 Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.
15 Hagar bore a son for Abram. Abram called the name of his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.
16 Abram was eighty-six years old, when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.
1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, Yahweh appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty. Walk before me, and be blameless.
2 I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly."
3 Abram fell on his face. God talked with him, saying,
4 "As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the father of a multitude of nations.
5 Neither will your name any more be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham; for the father of a multitude of nations have I made you.
6 I will make you exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of you. Kings will come out of you.

7 I will establish my covenant between me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your seed after you.

8 I will give to you, and to your seed after you, the land where you are traveling, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. I will be their God."

9 God said to Abraham, "As for you, you will keep my covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations.

10 This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your seed after you. Every male among you shall be circumcised.

11 You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin. It will be a token of a covenant between me and you.

12 He who is eight days old will be circumcised among you, every male throughout your generations, he who is born in the house, or bought with money of any foreigner who is not of your seed.

13 He who is born in your house, and he who is bought with your money, must be circumcised. My covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 The uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that soul shall be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant."

15 God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her name will be Sarah.

16 I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. Yes, I will bless her, and she will be a mother of nations. Kings of peoples will come from her."

17 Then Abraham fell on his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, "Will a child be born to him who is one hundred years old? Will Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth?"

18 Abraham said to God, "Oh that Ishmael might live before you!"

19 God said, "No, but Sarah, your wife, will bear you a son. You shall call his name Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his seed after him.

20 As for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He will become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time in the next year."

22 When he finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham.

23 Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money; every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the same day, as God had said to him.

24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 Ishmael, his son, was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the same day both Abraham and Ishmael, his son, were circumcised.

27 All the men of his house, those born in the house, and those bought with money of a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

1 Yahweh appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day.

2 He lifted up his eyes and looked, and saw that three men stood opposite him. When he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the earth,

3 and said, "My lord, if now I have found favor in your sight, please don't go away from your servant.

4 Now let a little water be fetched, wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

- 5 I will get a morsel of bread so you can refresh your heart. After that you may go your way, now that you have come to your servant." They said, "Very well, do as you have said."
- 6 Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly make ready three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes."
- 7 Abraham ran to the herd, and fetched a tender and good calf, and gave it to the servant. He hurried to dress it.
- 8 He took butter, milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them. He stood by them under the tree, and they ate.
- 9 They said to him, "Where is Sarah, your wife? He said, "See, in the tent."
- 10 He said, "I will certainly return to you when the season comes round. Behold, Sarah your wife will have a son." Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind him.
- 11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age. It had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.
- 12 Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old will I have pleasure, my lord being old also?"
- 13 Yehweh said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, Will I really bear a child, yet I am old? Is anything too hard for Yehweh? At the set time I will return to you, when the season comes round, and Sarah will have a son."
- 15 Then Sarah denied, saying, "I didn't laugh," for she was afraid." He said, "No, but you did laugh."
- 16 The men rose up from there, and looked toward Sodom. Abraham went with them to see them on their way.
- 17 Yehweh said, "Will I hide from Abraham what I do, seeing that Abraham has surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him? For I have known him, to the end that he may command his children and his household after him, that they may keep the way of Yehweh, to do righteousness and justice; to the end that Yehweh may bring on Abraham that which he has spoken of him."
- 20 Yehweh said, "Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come to me. If not, I will know."
- 22 The men turned from there, and went toward Sodom, but Abraham stood yet before Yehweh. Abraham drew near, and said, "Will you consume the righteous with the wicked? What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you consume and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are therein? Be it far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, that so the righteous should be as the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn't the Judge of all the earth do right?"
- 26 Yehweh said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sake."
- 27 Abraham answered, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord, who am but dust and ashes. What if there will lack five of the fifty righteous? Will you destroy all the city for lack of five?" He said, "I will not destroy it, if I find forty-five there."

29 He spoke to him yet again, and said, "What if there are forty found there?" He said, "I will not do it for the forty's sake."

30 He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak. What if there are thirty found there?" He said, "I will not do it, if I find thirty there."

31 He said, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord. What if there are twenty found there?" He said, "I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake."

32 He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once. What if ten are found there?" He said, "I will not destroy it for the ten's sake."

33 Yahweh went his way, as soon as he had finished communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

1 The two angels came to Sodom at evening. Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them. He bowed himself with his face to the earth,

2 and he said, "See now, my lords, please turn aside into your servant's house, stay all night, wash your feet, and you will rise up early, and go on your way." They said, "No, but we will stay in the street all night."

3 He urged them greatly, and they came in with him, and entered into his house. He made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter.

5 They called to Lot, and said to him, "Where are the men who came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them."

6 Lot went out to them to the door, and shut the door after him.

7 He said, "Please, my brothers, don't act so wickedly.

8 See now, I have two virgin daughters. Please let me bring them out to you, and do you to them as is good in your eyes. Only don't do anything to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof."

9 They said, "Stand back!" They said, "This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he appoints himself a judge. Now will we deal worse with you, than with them!" They pressed hard on the man, even Lot, and drew near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 They struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 The men said to Lot, "Do you have you anybody else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whoever you have in the city, bring them out of the place:

13 for we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is grown great before Yahweh. Yahweh has sent us to destroy it."

14 Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law, who married his daughters, and said, "Get up! Get out of this place, for Yahweh will destroy the city." But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be joking.

15 When the morning arose, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, "Arise, take your wife, and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city."

16 But he lingered; and the men laid hold on his hand, and on the hand of his wife, and on the hand of his two daughters, Yahweh being merciful to him; and they took him out, and set him outside of the city.

17 It came to pass, when they had taken them out, that he said, "Escape for your life! Don't look behind you, neither stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountain, lest you be consumed!"

18 Lot said to them, "Oh, not so, my lord.

- 19 See now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your lovingkindness, which you have showed to me in saving my life. I can't escape to the mountain, lest evil overtake me, and I die.
- 20 See now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Oh let me escape there (isn't it a little one?), and my soul will live."
- 21 He said to him, "Behold, I have accepted you concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken.
- 22 Hurry, escape there, for I can't do anything until you get there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.
- 23 The sun was risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.
- 24 Then Yahweh rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah sulfur and fire from Yahweh out of the sky.
- 25 He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew on the ground.
- 26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.
- 27 Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he had stood before Yahweh.
- 28 He looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and looked, and saw that the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace.
- 29 It happened, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.
- 30 Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar. He lived in a cave with his two daughters.
- 31 The firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth.
- 32 Come, let's make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve our father's seed."
- 33 They made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. He didn't know when she lay down, nor when she arose.
- 34 It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger, "Behold, I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine again, tonight. You go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve our father's seed."
- 35 They made their father drink wine that night also. The younger arose, and lay with him. He didn't know when she lay down, nor when she arose.
- 36 Thus both of Lot's daughters were with child by their father.
- 37 The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab. The same is the father of the Moabites to this day.
- 38 The younger also bore a son, and called his name Ben-ammi. The same is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.
- 1 Abraham journeyed from there toward the land of the South, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He sojourned in Gerar.
- 2 Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.
- 3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Behold, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken. For she is a man's wife."
- 4 Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, "Lord, will you kill even a righteous nation?"
- 5 Didn't he tell me, She is my sister? She, even she herself said, He is my brother. In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands have I done this."

6 God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me. Therefore I didn't allow you to touch her.

7 Now therefore, restore the man's wife. For he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. If you don't restore her, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours.

8 Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ear. The men were very scared.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done!"

10 Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you see, that you have done this thing?"

11 Abraham said, "Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place. They will kill me for my wife's sake.

12 Moreover she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 It happened, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, "He is my brother." "

14 Abimelech took sheep and oxen, men-servants and women-servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored Sarah, his wife to him.

15 Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you. Dwell where it pleases you."

16 To Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. Behold, it is for you a covering of the eyes to all that are with you. In front of all you are vindicated."

17 Abraham prayed to God. God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maid-servants, and they bore children.

18 For Yahweh had closed up tight all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

1 Yahweh visited Sarah as he had said, and Yahweh did to Sarah as he had spoken.

2 Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 Abraham called his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

4 Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him.

6 Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me."

7 She said, "Who would have said to Abraham, that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

8 The child grew, and was weaned. Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

9 Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.

10 Therefore she said to Abraham, "Cast out this handmaid and her son! For the son of this handmaid will not be heir with my son, even with Isaac."

11 The thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account of his son.

12 God said to Abraham, "Don't let it be grievous in your sight because of the boy, and because of your handmaid. In all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For from Isaac will your seed be called.

13 Also of the son of the handmaid will I make a nation, because he is your seed."

- 14 Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and gave her the child, and sent her away. She departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.
- 15 The water in the bottle was spent, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.
- 16 She went and sat down opposite him, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For she said, "Don't let me see the death of the child." She sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.
- 17 God heard the voice of the boy. The angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky, and said to her, "What ails you, Hagar? Don't be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.
- 18 Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him in your hand. For I will make him a great nation."
- 19 God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, filled the bottle with water, and gave the boy drink.
- 20 God was with the boy, and he grew. He lived in the wilderness, and became, as he grew up, an archer.
- 21 He lived in the wilderness of Paran. His mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.
- 22 It happened at that time, that Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his host spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that you do.
- 23 Now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son. But according to the kindness that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have sojourned."
- 24 Abraham said, "I will swear."
- 25 Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water well, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.
- 26 Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this thing. Neither did you tell me, neither did I hear of it, until today."
- 27 Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them to Abimelech. Those two made a covenant.
- 28 Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.
- 29 Abimelech said to Abraham, "What do these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves mean?"
- 30 He said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well."
- 31 Therefore he called that place Beersheba, because they both swore there.
- 32 So they made a covenant at Beersheba. Abimelech rose up with Phicol, the captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.
- 33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the name of Yehweh, the Everlasting God.
- 34 Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.
- 1 It happened after these things, that God tested Abraham, and said to him, "Abraham!" He said, "Here I am."
- 2 He said, "Now take your son, your only son, whom you love, even Isaac, and go into the land of Moriah. Offer him there for a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell you of."
- 3 Abraham rose early in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. He split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which God had told him.
- 4 On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place far off.

5 Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go yonder. We will worship, and come back to you.

6 Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son. He took in his hand the fire and the knife. They both went together.

7 Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, "My father?" He said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

8 Abraham said, "God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." So they both went together.

9 They came to the place which God had told him of. Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, on the wood.

10 Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to kill his son.

11 The angel of Yahweh called to him out of the sky, and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" He said, "Here I am."

12 He said, "Don't lay your hand on the boy, neither do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

13 Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and saw that behind him was a ram caught in the thicket by his horns. Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

14 Abraham called the name of that place Yahweh-jireh. As it is said to this day, "In Yahweh's mountain it will be provided.

15 The angel of Yahweh called to Abraham a second time out of the sky,

16 and said, "I have sworn by myself, says Yahweh, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son,

17 that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is on the seashore. Your seed will possess the gate of his enemies.

18 In your seed will all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice."

19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beersheba. Abraham lived at Beersheba.

20 It happened after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, "Behold, Milcah, she also has borne children to your brother Nahor:

21 Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,

22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel."

23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bare Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

1 Sarah lived one hundred twenty-seven years. These were the years of Sarah's life.

2 Sarah died in Kirjath-arba (the same is Hebron), in the land of Canaan. Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

3 Abraham rose up from before his dead, and spoke to the children of Heth, saying,

4 "I am a stranger and a sojourner with you. Give me a possession of a burying-place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."

5 The children of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,

6 "Hear us, my lord. You are a prince of God among us. In the choice of our tombs bury your dead. None of us will withhold from you his tomb, but that you may bury your dead."

7 Abraham rose up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

8 He talked with them, saying, "If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar,

9 that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which is in the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me in the midst of you for a possession of a burying-place."

10 Now Ephron was sitting in the midst of the children of Heth. Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the children of Heth, even of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying,

11 "No, my lord, hear me. I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the children of my people I give it to you. Bury your dead."

12 Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land.

13 He spoke to Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, "But if you will, please hear me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there."

14 Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,

15 "My lord, listen to me. What is a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver between me and you? Therefore bury your dead."

16 Abraham listened to Ephron. Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver which he had named in the audience of the children of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the current merchants standard.

17 So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the border of it round about, were made sure

18 to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.

19 After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (the same is Hebron), in the land of Canaan.

20 The field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure to Abraham for a possession of a burying place by the children of Heth.

1 Abraham was old, and well stricken in age. Yahweh had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, who ruled over all that he had, "Please put your hand under my thigh.

3 I will make you swear by Yahweh, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live.

4 But you shall go to my country, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac."

5 The servant said to him, "What if the woman isn't willing to follow me to this land? Must I bring your son again to the land you came from?"

6 Abraham said to him, "Beware that you don't bring my son there again.

7 Yahweh, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my birth, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, To your descendants I will give this land. He will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.

8 If the woman isn't willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this my oath. Only you shall not bring my son there again."

9 The servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

10 The servant took ten camels, of his master's camels, and departed, having all goodly things of his master's in his hand. He arose, and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.

- 11 He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time that women go out to draw water.
- 12 He said, "Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham.
- 13 Behold, I am standing by the spring of water. The daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
- 14 Let it happen, that the young lady to whom I will say, Please let down your pitcher, that I may drink. She will say, Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink. Let the same be she who you have appointed for your servant Isaac. Thereby will I know that you have showed kindness to my master."
- 15 It happened, before he had done speaking, that behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher on her shoulder.
- 16 The young lady was very beautiful to look at, a virgin, neither had any man known her. She went down to the spring, filled her pitcher, and came up.
- 17 The servant ran to meet her, and said, "Please give me a drink, a little water from your pitcher."
- 18 She said, "Drink, my lord." She hurried, and let down her pitcher on her hand, and gave him drink.
- 19 When she had done giving him drink, she said, "I will also draw for your camels, until they have done drinking."
- 20 She hurried, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw, and drew for all his camels.
- 21 The man looked steadfastly at her, holding his peace, to know whether Yahweh had made his journey prosperous or not.
- 22 It happened, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold,
- 23 and said, "Whose daughter are you? Please tell me. Is there room in your father's house for us to lodge in?"
- 24 She said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor."
- 25 She said moreover to him, "We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in."
- 26 The man bowed his head, and worshipped Yahweh.
- 27 He said, "Blessed be Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his lovingkindness and his truth toward my master. As for me, Yahweh has led me in the way to the house of my master's relatives."
- 28 The young lady ran, and told her mother's house about these words.
- 29 Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban. Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.
- 30 It happened, when he saw the ring, and the bracelets on his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, "This is what the man said to me," that he came to the man. Behold, he was standing by the camels at the spring.
- 31 He said, "Come in, you blessed of Yahweh. Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and room for the camels."
- 32 The man came into the house, and he unloaded the camels. He gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.
- 33 Food was set before him to eat. But he said, "I will not eat until I have told my message." He said, "Speak on."
- 34 He said, "I am Abraham's servant.

35 Yahweh has blessed my master greatly. He has become great. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, men-servants and maid-servants, and camels and donkeys.

36 Sarah, my master's wife, bore a son to my master when she was old. He has given all that he has to him.

37 My master made me swear, saying, You shall not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live,

38 but you shall go to my father's house, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.

39 I said to my master, What if the woman will not follow me?

40 He said to me, Yahweh, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you, and prosper your way. You shall take a wife for my son of my relatives, and of my father's house.

41 Then will you be clear from my oath, when you come to my relatives. If they don't give her to you, you shall be clear from my oath.

42 I came this day to the spring, and said, Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, if now you do prosper my way which I go.

43 Behold, I am standing by the spring of water. Let it happen, that the maiden who comes forth to draw, to whom I will say, Give me, I pray you, a little water from your pitcher to drink.

44 She will tell me, "Drink, and I will also draw for your camels." Let the same be the woman whom Yahweh has appointed for my master's son.

45 Before I had done speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder. She went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, Please let me drink.

46 She hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink. So I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 I asked her, and said, Whose daughter are you? She said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare to him. I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands.

48 I bowed my head, and worshipped Yahweh, and blessed Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter for his son.

49 Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. If not, tell me. That I may turn to the right hand, or to the left."

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, "The thing proceeds from Yahweh. We can't speak to you bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before you, take her, and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as Yahweh has spoken."

52 It happened that when Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself down to the earth to Yahweh.

53 The servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 They ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and stayed all night. They rose up in the morning, and he said, "Send me away to my master."

55 Her brother and her mother said, "Let the young lady stay with us a few days, at least ten. After that she will go."

56 He said to them, "Don't hinder me, seeing Yahweh has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master."

57 They said, "We will call the young lady, and ask her."

58 They called Rebekah, and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" She said, "I will go."

59 They sent away Rebekah, their sister, with her nurse, Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 They blessed Rebekah, and said to her, "Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of ten thousands, and let your seed possess the gate of those who hate them."

61 Rebekah arose with her ladies. They rode on the camels, and followed the man. The servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 Isaac came from the way of Beer-lahai-roi. For he lived in the land of the South.

63 Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the evening. He lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, there were camels coming.

64 Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she dismounted from the camel.

65 She said to the servant, "Who is the man who is walking in the field to meet us?" The servant said, "It is my master." She took her veil, and covered herself.

66 The servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

67 Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife. He loved her. Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

1 Abraham took another wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 Jokshan became the father of Sheba, and Dedan. The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Teummim.

4 The sons of Midian: Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac,

6 but to the sons of the concubines who Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts. He sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, to the east country.

7 These are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived: one hundred seventy-five years.

8 Abraham gave up the spirit, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full, and was gathered to his people.

9 Isaac and Ishmael, his sons, buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre,

10 the field which Abraham purchased of the children of Heth. There was Abraham buried, with Sarah his wife.

11 It happened after the death of Abraham, that God blessed Isaac, his son. Isaac lived by Beer-lahai-roi.

12 Now this is the history of the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bore to Abraham.

13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to the order of their birth: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their villages, and by their encampments: twelve princes, according to their nations.

17 These are the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred thirty-seven years. He gave up the spirit and died, and was gathered to his people.

18 They lived from Havilah to Shur that is before Egypt, as you go toward Assyria. He lived opposite all his relatives.

19 This is the history of the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham became the father of Isaac.

- 20 Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Paddan-aram, the sister of Laban the Syrian, to be his wife.
- 21 Isaac entreated YHweh for his wife, because she was barren. YHweh was entreated by him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.
- 22 The children struggled together within her. She said, "If it be so, why do I live?" She went to inquire of YHweh.
- 23 YHweh said to her, Two nations are in your womb, Two peoples will be separated from your body. The one people will be stronger than the other people. The elder will serve the younger.
- 24 When her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.
- 25 The first came out red all over, like a hairy garment. They named him Esau.
- 26 After that, his brother came out, and his hand had hold on Esau's heel. He was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.
- 27 The boys grew. Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field. Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents.
- 28 Now Isaac loved Esau, because he ate his venison. Rebekah loved Jacob.
- 29 Jacob boiled stew. Esau came in from the field, and he was famished.
- 30 Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am famished." Therefore his name was called Edom.
- 31 Jacob said, "First, sell me your birthright."
- 32 Esau said, "Behold, I am about to die. What good is the birthright to me?"
- 33 Jacob said, "Swear to me first." He swore to him. He sold his birthright to Jacob.
- 34 Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils. He ate and drank, rose up, and went his way. So Esau despised his birthright.
- 1 There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar.
- 2 YHweh appeared to him, and said, "Don't go down into Egypt. Dwell in the land which I will tell you of.
- 3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you. For to you, and to your seed, I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.
- 4 I will multiply your seed as the stars of the sky, and will give to your seed all these lands. In your seed will all the nations of the earth be blessed,
- 5 because Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."
- 6 Isaac lived in Gerar.
- 7 The men of the place asked him about his wife. He said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say, "My wife," lest, he thought, the men of the place might kill me for Rebekah, because she was beautiful to look on.
- 8 It happened, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was caressing Rebekah, his wife.
- 9 Abimelech called Isaac, and said, "Behold, surely she is your wife. Why did you say, She is my sister?" Isaac said to him, "Because I said, Lest I die because of her."
- 10 Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!"
- 11 Abimelech charged all the people, saying, "He who touches this man or his wife will surely be put to death."

12 Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year one hundred times what he planted. Yāhweh blessed him.

13 The man grew great, and grew more and more until he became very great.

14 He had possessions of flocks, possessions of herds, and a great household. The Philistines envied him.

15 Now all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped, and filled with earth.

16 Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go from us, for you are much mightier than we."

17 Isaac departed from there, encamped in the valley of Gerar, and lived there.

18 Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father. For the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. He called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.

20 The herdsmen of Gerar argued with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." He called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him.

21 They dug another well, and they argued over that, also. He called the name of it Sitnah.

22 He left that place, and dug another well. They didn't argue over that one. He called it Rehoboth. He said, "For now Yāhweh has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

23 He went up from there to Beersheba.

24 Yāhweh appeared to him the same night, and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Don't be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your seed for my servant Abraham's sake."

25 He built an altar there, and called on the name of Yāhweh, and pitched his tent there. There Isaac's servants dug a well.

26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the captain of his host.

27 Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and have sent me away from you?"

28 They said, "We saw plainly that Yāhweh was with you. We said, Let there now be an oath between us, even between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you,

29 that you will do us no harm, as we have not touched you, and as we have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of Yāhweh."

30 He made them a feast, and they ate and drink.

31 They rose up some time in the morning, and swore one to another. Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 It happened the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water."

33 He called it Shibah. Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

34 When Esau was forty years old, he took as wife Judith, the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath, the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

35 They grieved Isaac and Rebekah's spirits.

1 It happened, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, "My son?" He said to him, "Here I am."

2 He said, "See now, I am old. I don't know the day of my death.

3 Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and take me venison.

- 4 Make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die.
- 5 Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.
- 6 Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, "Behold, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying,
- 7 Bring me venison, and make me savory food, that I may eat, and bless you before Yehweh before my death.
- 8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you.
- 9 Go now to the flock, and get me from there two good kids of the goats. I will make them savory food for your father, such as he loves.
- 10 You shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death."
- 11 Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.
- 12 What if my father touches me? I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I would bring a curse on myself, and not a blessing."
- 13 His mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Only obey my voice, and go get them for me."
- 14 He went, and got them, and brought them to his mother. His mother made savory food, such as his father loved.
- 15 Rebekah took the good clothes of Esau, her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob, her younger son.
- 16 She put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck.
- 17 She gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.
- 18 He came to his father, and said, "My father?" He said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"
- 19 Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done what you asked me to do. Please arise, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me."
- 20 Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?" He said, "Because Yehweh your God gave me success."
- 21 Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."
- 22 Jacob went near to Isaac his father. He felt him, and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau."
- 23 He didn't recognize him, because his hands were hairy, like his brother, Esau's hands. So he blessed him.
- 24 He said, "Are you really my son Esau?" He said, "I am."
- 25 He said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless you." He brought it near to him, and he ate. He brought him wine, and he drank.
- 26 His father Isaac said to him, "Come near now, and kiss me, my son."
- 27 He came near, and kissed him. He smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, and said, "Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which Yehweh has blessed.
- 28 God give you of the dew of the sky, of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.
- 29 Let peoples serve you, Nations bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, Let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, Blessed be everyone who blesses you."

30 It happened, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob had just gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 He also made savory food, and brought it to his father. He said to his father, "Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that your soul may bless me."

32 Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?" He said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

33 Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who, then, is he who has taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes, he will be blessed."

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceeding great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, even me also, my father."

35 He said, "Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing."

36 He said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright. See, now he has taken away my blessing." He said, "Haven't you reserved a blessing for me?"

37 Isaac answered Esau, "Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brothers have I given to him for servants. With grain and new wine have I sustained him. What then will I do for you, my son?"

38 Esau said to his father, "Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, my father." Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

39 Isaac his father answered him, "Behold, of the fatness of the earth will be your dwelling, and of the dew of the sky from above.

40 By your sword will you live, and you will serve your brother. It will happen, when you will break loose, that you shall shake his yoke from off your neck."

41 Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob."

42 The words of Esau, her elder son, were told to Rebekah. She sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, "Behold, your brother Esau comforts himself about you by planning to kill you.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice. Arise, flee to Laban, my brother, in Haran.

44 Stay with him a few days, until your brother's fury turns away;

45 until your brother's anger turn away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send, and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?"

46 Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these, of the daughters of the land, what good will my life do me?"

1 Isaac called Jacob, blessed him, and commanded him, "You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 Arise, go to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father. Take a wife from there from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.

3 May God Almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, that you may be a company of peoples,

4 and give you the blessing of Abraham, to you, and to your seed with you, that you may inherit the land where you travel, which God gave to Abraham."

5 Isaac sent Jacob away. He went to Paddan-aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, Rebekah's brother, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram, to take him a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, "You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,"

7 and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Paddan-aram.
8 Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan didn't please Isaac, his father.
9 Esau went to Ishmael, and took, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.
10 Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran.
11 He came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place, and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep.
12 He dreamed. Behold, a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven. Behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it.
13 Behold, Yáhwéh stood above it, and said, "I am Yáhwéh, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The land whereon you lie, to you will I give it, and to your seed.
14 Your seed will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. In you and in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.
15 Behold, I am with you, and will keep you, wherever you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken of to you."
16 Jacob awakened out of his sleep, and he said, "Surely Yáhwéh is in this place, and I didn't know it."
17 He was afraid, and said, "How dreadful is this place! This is none other than God's house, and this is the gate of heaven."
18 Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil on the top of it.
19 He called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz at the first.
20 Jacob vowed a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and clothing to put on,
21 so that I come again to my father's house in peace, and Yáhwéh will be my God,
22 then this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, will be God's house. Of all that you will give me I will surely give the tenth to you."
1 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the children of the east.
2 He looked, and behold, a well in the field, and, behold, three flocks of sheep lying there by it. For out of that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was great.
3 There all the flocks were gathered. They rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again on the well's mouth in its place.
4 Jacob said to them, "My relatives, where are you from?" They said, "We are from Haran."
5 He said to them, "Do you know Laban, the son of Nahor?" They said, "We know him."
6 He said to them, "Is it well with him?" They said, "It is well. See, Rachel, his daughter, is coming with the sheep."
7 He said, "Behold, it is still the middle of the day, not time to gather the cattle together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them."
8 They said, "We can't, until all the flocks are gathered together, and they roll the stone from the well's mouth. Then we water the sheep."
9 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she kept them.
10 It happened, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.
11 Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son. She ran and told her father.

13 It happened, when Laban heard the news of Jacob, his sister's son, that he ran to meet Jacob, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things.

14 Laban said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. He lived with him for a month.

15 Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my brother, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what will your wages be?"

16 Laban had two daughters. The name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful and well favored.

18 Jacob loved Rachel. He said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter."

19 Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."

20 Jacob served seven years for Rachel. They seemed to him but a few days, for the love he had for her.

21 Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her."

22 Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 It happened in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him. He went in to her.

24 Laban gave Zilpah his handmaid to his daughter Leah for a handmaid.

25 It happened in the morning that, behold, it was Leah. He said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Didn't I serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?"

26 Laban said, "It is not done so in our place, to give the younger before the first born.

27 Fulfill the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me yet seven other years."

28 Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. He gave him Rachel his daughter as wife.

29 Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah, his handmaid, to be her handmaid.

30 He went in also to Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 Yahweh saw that Leah was hated, and he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.

32 Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she named him Reuben. For she said, "Because Yahweh has looked at my affliction. For now my husband will love me."

33 She conceived again, and bare a son, and said, "Because Yahweh has heard that I am hated, he has therefore given me this son also." She named him Simeon.

34 She conceived again, and bare a son. Said, "Now this time will my husband be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore was his name called Levi.

35 She conceived again, and bare a son. She said, "This time will I praise Yahweh." Therefore she named him Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

1 When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister. She said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I will die."

2 Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, "Am I in God's place, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

3 She said, "Behold, my maid Bilhah. Go in to her, that she may bear on my knees, and I also may obtain children by her."

4 She gave him Bilhah her handmaid as wife, and Jacob went in to her.

5 Bilhah conceived, and bore Jacob a son.

6 Rachel said, "God has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son." Therefore called she his name Dan.

7 Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid, conceived again, and bore Jacob a second son.

8 Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and have prevailed." She named him Naphtali.

9 When Leah saw that she had finished bearing, she took Zilpah, her handmaid, and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

10 Zilpah, Leah's handmaid, bore Jacob a son.

11 Leah said, "How fortunate!" She named him Gad.

12 Zilpah, Leah's handmaid, bore Jacob a second son.

13 Leah said, "Happy am I, for the daughters will call me happy." She named him Asher.

14 Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother, Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

15 She said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes, also?" Rachel said, "Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."

16 Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, "You must come in to me; for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." He lay with her that night.

17 God listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob a fifth son.

18 Leah said, "God has given me my hire, because I gave my handmaid to my husband." She named him Issachar.

19 Leah conceived again, and bore a sixth son to Jacob.

20 Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good dowry. Now my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons." She named him Zebulun.

21 Afterwards, she bore a daughter, and named her Dinah.

22 God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her, and opened her womb.

23 She conceived, bore a son, and said, "God has taken away my reproach.

24 She named him Joseph, saying, "May Yahweh add another son to me."

25 It happened, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service with which I have served you."

27 Laban said to him, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, stay here, for I have divined that Yahweh has blessed me for your sake."

28 He said, "Appoint me your wages, and I will give it."

29 He said to him, "You know how I have served you, and how your cattle have fared with me.

30 For it was little which you had before I came, and it has increased to a multitude. Yahweh has blessed you wherever I turned. Now when will I provide for my own house also?"

31 He said, "What shall I give you?" Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it.

32 I will pass through all your flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted one, and every black one among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. This will be my hire.

- 33 So my righteousness will answer for me hereafter, when you come concerning my hire that is before you. Everyone that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, that might be with me, will be counted stolen."
- 34 Laban said, "Behold, I desire it to be according to your word."
- 35 That day, he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.
- 36 He set three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.
- 37 Jacob took to himself rods of fresh poplar, almond, plane-tree, peeled white streaks in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.
- 38 He set the rods which he had peeled opposite the flocks in the gutters in the watering-troughs where the flocks came to drink. They conceived when they came to drink.
- 39 The flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted.
- 40 Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the streaked and all the black in the flock of Laban; and he put his own droves apart, and didn't put them into Laban's flock.
- 41 It happened, whenever the stronger of the flock conceived, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the flock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods;
- 42 but when the flock were feeble, he didn't put them in. So the feeble were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.
- 43 The man increased exceedingly, and had large flocks, maid-servants and men-servants, and camels and donkeys.
- 1 He heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's. From that which was our father's, has he gotten all this wealth."
- 2 Jacob saw the expression on Laban's face, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.
- 3 Yahweh said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers, and to your relatives, and I will be with you."
- 4 Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock,
- 5 and said to them, "I see the expression on your father's face, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me.
- 6 You know that I have served your father with all of my strength.
- 7 Your father has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times, but God didn't allow him to hurt me.
- 8 If he said this, The speckled will be your wages, then all the flock bore speckled. If he said this, The streaked will be your wages, then all the flock bore streaked.
- 9 Thus God has taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.
- 10 It happened at the time that the flock conceive, that I lifted up my eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the male goats which leaped on the flock were streaked, speckled, and grizzled.
- 11 The angel of God said to me in the dream, Jacob, and I said, Here I am.
- 12 He said, Now lift up your eyes, and behold, all the male goats which leap on the flock are streaked, speckled, and grizzled, for I have seen all that Laban does to you.
- 13 I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you vowed a vow to me. Now arise, get out from this land, and return to the land of your birth."
- 14 Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?"

15 Aren't we accounted by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and has also quite devoured our money.

16 For all the riches which God has taken away from our father, that is ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do."

17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives on the camels,

18 and he carried away all his cattle, and all his substance which he had gathered, the cattle of his getting, which he had gathered in Paddan-aram, to go to Isaac his father to the land of Canaan.

19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep: and Rachel stole the teraphim that were her father's.

20 Jacob deceived Laban the Syrian, in that he didn't tell him that he was running away.

21 So he fled with all that he had. He rose up, passed over the River, and set his face toward the mountain of Gilead.

22 Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled.

23 He took his relatives with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey. He overtook him in the mountain of Gilead.

24 God came to Laban, the Syrian, in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Take heed to yourself that you don't speak to Jacob either good or bad."

25 Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain, and Laban with his relatives encamped in the mountain of Gilead.

26 Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done, that you have deceived me, and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword?

27 Why did you flee secretly, and deceive me, and didn't tell me, that I might have sent you away with mirth and with songs, with tambourine and with harp;

28 and didn't allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now have you done foolishly.

29 It is in the power of my hand to hurt you, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, Take heed to yourself that you don't speak to Jacob either good or bad.

30 Now, you want to be gone, because you sore longed after your father's house, but why have you stolen my gods?"

31 Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I said, Lest you should take your daughters from me by force.

32 With whoever you find your gods, he shall not live. Before our relatives, discern what is yours with me, and take it." For Jacob didn't know that Rachel had stolen them.

33 Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two maid-servants; but he didn't find them. He went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the teraphim, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban felt about all the tent, but didn't find them.

35 She said to her father, "Don't let my lord be angry that I can't rise up before you; for the manner of women is on me." He searched, but didn't find the teraphim.

36 Jacob was angry, and argued with Laban. Jacob answered Laban, "What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me?

37 Now that you have felt around in all my stuff, what have you found of all your household stuff? Set it here before my relatives and your relatives, that they may judge between us two.

38 These twenty years have I been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not cast their young, and I haven't eaten the rams of your flocks.

39 That which was torn of animals, I didn't bring to you. I bore the loss of it. Of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep fled from my eyes.

41 These twenty years have I been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.

42 Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night."

43 Laban answered Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine; and what can I do this day to these my daughters, or to their children whom they have borne?"

44 Now come, let us make a covenant, you and I; and let it be for a witness between me and you."

45 Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 Jacob said to his relatives, "Gather stones." They took stones, and made a heap. They ate there by the heap.

47 Laban called it Jegar-saha-dutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.

48 Laban said, "This heap is witness between me and you this day." Therefore it was named Galeed and Mizpah, for he said, "Yahweh watch between me and you, when we are absent one from another.

49 If you will afflict my daughters, and if you will take wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; behold, God is witness between me and you."

50 If you will afflict my daughters, and if you will take wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; behold, God is witness between me and you."

51 Laban said to Jacob, "See this heap, and see the pillar, which I have set between me and you.

52 May this heap be a witness, and the pillar be a witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and that you will not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us." Then Jacob swore by the fear of his father, Isaac.

54 Jacob offered a sacrifice in the mountain, and called his relatives to eat bread. They ate bread, and stayed all night in the mountain.

55 Early in the morning, Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. Laban departed and returned to his place.

1 Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

2 When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's host." He called the name of that place Mahanaim.

3 Jacob sent messengers in front of him to Esau, his brother, to the land of Seir, the field of Edom.

4 He commanded them, saying, "This is what you shall tell my lord, Esau: This is what your servant, Jacob, says. I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed until now.

5 I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, men-servants, and maid-servants. I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favor in your sight. "

6 The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau. Not only that, but he comes to meet you, and four hundred men with him."

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and was distressed; and he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks, and the herds, and the camels, into two companies;

8 and he said, "If Esau comes to the one company, and strikes it, then the company which is left will escape."

9 Jacob said, "God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Yahweh, who said to me, Return to your country, and to your relatives, and I will do you good.

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the lovingkindnesses, and of all the truth, which you have shown to your servant; for with just my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I have become two companies.

11 Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he come and strike me, and the mothers with the children.

12 You said, I will surely do you good, and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which can't be numbered because there are so many. "

13 He lodged there that night, and took from that which he had with him, a present for Esau, his brother:

14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

15 thirty milk camels and their colts, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty she-donkeys and ten foals.

16 He delivered them into the hands of his servants, every herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and put a space between herd and herd."

17 He commanded the foremost, saying, "When Esau, my brother, meets you, and asks you, saying, 'Whose are you? Where are you going? Whose are these before you?'"

18 Then you shall say, 'They are your servant, Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord, Esau. Behold, he also is behind us. '"

19 He commanded also the second, and the third, and all that followed the herds, saying, "This is how you shall speak to Esau, when you find him.

20 You shall say, 'Not only that, but behold, your servant, Jacob, is behind us. ' For, he said, "I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face. Perhaps he will accept me."

21 So the present passed over before him; and he himself lodged that night in the camp.

22 He rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two handmaids, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford of the Jabbok.

23 He took them, and sent them over the stream, and sent over that which he had.

24 Jacob was left alone, and wrestled with a man there until the breaking of the day.

25 When he saw that he didn't prevail against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was strained, as he wrestled.

26 The man said, "Let me go, for the day breaks." Jacob said, "I won't let you go, unless you bless me."

27 He said to him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob."

28 He said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but, Israel, for you have fought with God and with men, and have prevailed."

29 Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." He said, "Why is it that you ask what my name is?" He blessed him there.

30 Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for, he said, "I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved."

31 The sun rose on him as he passed over Peniel, and he limped because of his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel don't eat the sinew of the hip, which is on the hollow of the thigh, to this day, because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

1 Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau was coming, and with him four hundred men. He divided the children between Leah, Rachel, and to the two handmaids.

2 He put the handmaids and their children in front, Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph at the rear.

3 He himself passed over in front of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, fell on his neck, kissed him, and they wept.

5 He lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, "Who are these with you?" He said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant."

6 Then the handmaids came near with their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 Leah also and her children came near, and bowed themselves. After them, Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?" Jacob said, "To find favor in the sight of my lord."

9 Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; let that which you have be yours."

10 Jacob said, "Please, no, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, because I have seen your face, as one sees the face of God, and you were pleased with me.

11 Please take the gift that I brought to you; because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough." He urged him, and he took it.

12 Esau said, "Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before you."

13 Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are tender, and that the flocks and herds with me have their young, and if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will die.

14 Please let my lord pass over before his servant; and I will lead on gently, according to the pace of the cattle that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord to Seir."

15 Esau said, "Let me now leave with you some of the folk who are with me." He said, "Why? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord."

16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

17 Jacob journeyed to Succoth, built himself a house, and made shelters for his cattle. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

18 Jacob came in peace to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan-aram; and encamped before the city.

19 He bought the parcel of ground, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for one hundred pieces of money.

20 He erected an altar there, and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

1 Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her. He took her, lay with her, and humbled her.

3 His soul joined to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young lady, and spoke kindly to the young lady.

4 Shechem spoke to his father, Hamor, saying, "Get me this young lady as a wife."

5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah, his daughter; and his sons were with his cattle in the field. Jacob held his peace until they came.

6 Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to talk with him.

7 The sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it. The men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he had done folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.

8 Hamor talked with them, saying, "The soul of my son, Shechem, longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife."

9 Make marriages with us. Give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.
10 You shall dwell with us; and the land will be before you. Live and trade in it, and get possessions in it."
11 Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you will tell me I will give.
12 Ask me a great amount for a dowry, and I will give whatever you ask of me, but give me the young lady as a wife."
13 The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father with deceit, and spoke, because he had defiled Dinah their sister,
14 and said to them, "We can't do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised; for that is a reproach to us.
15 Only on this condition will we consent to you. If you will be as we are, that every male of you be circumcised;
16 then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.
17 But if you will not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our sister, and we will be gone.
18 Their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem, Hamor's son.
19 The young man didn't wait to do this thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter, and he was honored above all the house of his father.
20 Hamor and Shechem, his son, came to the gate of their city, and talked with the men of their city, saying, 21 "These men are peaceful with us. Therefore let them live in the land and trade in it. For, behold, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.
22 Only on this condition will the men consent to us to dwell with us, to become one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.
23 Won't their cattle and their substance and all their animals be ours? Only let us give our consent to them, and they will dwell with us."
24 All who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor, and to Shechem his son; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.
25 It happened on the third day, when they were sore, that two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, came upon the unsuspecting city, and killed all the males.
26 They killed Hamor and Shechem, his son, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away.
27 Jacob's sons came on the dead, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister.
28 They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, that which was in the city, that which was in the field;
29 and all their wealth. They took captive all their little ones and their wives, and took as plunder everything that was in the house.
30 Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have troubled me, to make me odious to the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. They will gather themselves together against me and strike me, and I will be destroyed, I and my house."
31 They said, "Should he deal with our sister as with a prostitute?"
1 God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. Make there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother."

- 2 Then Jacob said to his household, and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, change your garments.
- 3 Let us arise, and go up to Bethel. I will make there an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went."
- 4 They gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.
- 5 They journeyed; and a terror of God was on the cities that were round about them, and they didn't pursue the sons of Jacob.
- 6 So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan (the same is Bethel), he and all the people who were with him.
- 7 He built an altar there, and called the place El-beth-el; because there God was revealed to him, when he fled from the face of his brother.
- 8 Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; and the name of it was called Allon-bacuth.
- 9 God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Paddan-aram, and blessed him.
- 10 God said to him, "Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be Jacob any more, but your name will be Israel." He named him Israel.
- 11 God said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will be from you, and kings will come out of your loins.
- 12 The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you, and to your seed after you will I give the land."
- 13 God went up from him in the place where he spoke with him.
- 14 Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he spoke with him, a pillar of stone. He poured out a drink-offering on it, and poured oil on it.
- 15 Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him "Bethel."
- 16 They journeyed from Bethel. There was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and Rachel travailed. She had hard labor.
- 17 It happened that, when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, "Don't be afraid, for now you will have another son."
- 18 It happened, as her soul was departing (for she died), that she named him Ben-oni, but his father named him Benjamin.
- 19 Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath (the same is Beth-lehem).
- 20 Jacob set up a pillar on her grave. The same is the Pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.
- 21 Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Eder.
- 22 It happened, while Israel lived in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine, and Israel heard of it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve.
- 23 The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob's firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.
- 24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.
- 25 The sons of Bilhah (Rachel's handmaid): Dan and Naphtali.
- 26 The sons of Zilpah (Leah's handmaid): Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan-aram.
- 27 Jacob came to Isaac his father, to Mamre, to Kiriath-arba (the same is Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.
- 28 The days of Isaac were one hundred eighty years.

29 Isaac gave up the spirit, and died, and was gathered to his people, old and full of days. Esau and Jacob, his sons, buried him.

1 Now this is the history of the generations of Esau (the same is Edom).

2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon, the Hittite; and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, the Hivite;

3 and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebaioth.

4 Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz. Basemath bore Reuel.

5 Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the members of his household, with his cattle, all his animals, and all his possessions, which he had gathered in the land of Canaan, and went into a land away from his brother Jacob.

7 For their substance was too great for them to dwell together, and the land of their travels could not bear them because of their cattle.

8 Esau lived in the hill country of Seir. Esau is Edom.

9 This is the history of the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir: these are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Adah, the wife of Esau; and Reuel, the son of Basemath, the wife of Esau.

10 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

11 Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bore to Eliphaz Amalek. These are the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

12 These are the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

13 These were the sons of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

14 These are the chiefs of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz, 15 chief Korah, chief Gatam, chief Amalek: these are the chiefs who came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Adah.

16 These are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Shammah, chief Mizzah: these are the chiefs who came of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

17 These are the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: chief Jeush, chief Jalam, chief Korah: these are the chiefs who came of Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

18 These are the sons of Esau, and these are their chiefs. The same is Edom.

19 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These are the chiefs who came of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

20 The children of Lotan were Hori and Heman. Lotan's sister was Timna.

21 These are the children of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

22 These are the children of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness, as he fed the donkeys of Zibeon his father.

23 These are the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

24 These are the children of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

27 These are the children of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

28 These are the children of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

29 These are the chiefs who came of the Horites: chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Zibeon, chief Anah, 30 chief Dishon, chief Ezer, and chief Dishan: these are the chiefs who came of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.

31 These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before any king reigned over the children of Israel.

32 Bela, the son of Beor, reigned in Edom. The name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 Bela died, and Jobab, the son of Zerah of Bozrah, reigned in his place.

34 Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.

35 Husham died, and Hadad, the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith.

36 Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

37 Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the river, reigned in his place.

38 Shaul died, and Baal-hanan, the son of Achbor reigned in his place.

39 Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his place. The name of his city was Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-zahab.

40 These are the names of the chiefs who came from Esau, according to their families, after their places, and by their names: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth,

41 chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon,

42 chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar,

43 chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession. This is Esau, the father of the Edomites.

1 Jacob lived in the land of his father's travels, in the land of Canaan.

2 This is the history of the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. He was a boy with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought an evil report of them to their father.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a coat of many colors.

4 His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, and they hated him, and couldn't speak peaceably to him.

5 Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brothers, and they hated him all the more.

6 He said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed:

7 for, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and behold, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and behold, your sheaves came around, and bowed down to my sheaf."

8 His brothers said to him, "Will you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed have dominion over us?" They hated him all the more for his dreams and for his words.

9 He dreamed yet another dream, and told it to his brothers, and said, "Behold, I have dreamed yet another dream: and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me."

10 He told it to his father and to his brothers. His father rebuked him, and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I and your mother and your brothers indeed come to bow ourselves down to you to the earth?"

11 His brothers envied him; but his father kept this saying in mind.

12 His brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." He said to him, "Here I am."

14 He said to him, "Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers, and well with the flock; and bring me word again." So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 A certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field; and the man asked him, saying, "What are you looking for?"

16 He said, "I am looking for my brothers. Tell me, please, where they are feeding the flock."

17 The man said, "They have left here, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" Joseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dothan.

18 They saw him afar off, and before he came near to them, they conspired against him to kill him.

19 They said one to another, "Behold, this dreamer comes.

20 Come now therefore, and let's kill him, and cast him into one of the pits, and we will say, 'An evil animal has devoured him.' We will see what will become of his dreams."

21 Reuben heard it, and delivered him out of their hand, and said, "Let's not take his life."

22 Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him" - that he might deliver him out of their hand, to restore him to his father.

23 It happened, when Joseph came to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his coat, the coat of many colors that was on him;

24 and they took him, and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty. There was no water in it.

25 They sat down to eat bread, and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let's sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not let our hand be on him; for he is our brother, our flesh." His brothers listened to him.

28 Midianites who were merchants passed by, and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. They brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 Reuben returned to the pit; and saw that Joseph wasn't in the pit; and he tore his clothes.

30 He returned to his brothers, and said, "The child is no more; and I, where will I go?"

31 They took Joseph's coat, and killed a male goat, and dipped the coat in the blood.

32 They took the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their father, and said, "We have found this. Examine it, now, whether it is your son's coat or not."

33 He recognized it, and said, "It is my son's coat. An evil animal has devoured him. Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces."

34 Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 All his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted. He said, "For I will go down to Sheol to my son mourning." His father wept for him.

36 The Midianites sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard.

1 It happened at that time, that Judah went down from his brothers, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua. He took her, and went in to her.

3 She conceived, and bore a son; and he named him Er.

4 She conceived again, and bore a son; and she named him Onan.
5 She yet again bore a son, and named him Shelah; and he was at Chezib, when she bore him.
6 Judah took a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.
7 Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Yehweh. Yehweh killed him.
8 Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her, and raise up seed to your brother."
9 Onan knew that the seed wouldn't be his; and it happened, when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest he should give seed to his brother.
10 The thing which he did was evil in the sight of Yehweh, and he killed him also.
11 Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house, until Shelah, my son, is grown up;" for he said, "Lest he also die, like his brothers." Tamar went and lived in her father's house.
12 After many days, Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died. Judah was comforted, and went up to his sheep-shearers to Timnah, he and his friend Hirah, the Adullamite.
13 It was told Tamar, saying, "Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep."
14 She took off of her the garments of her widowhood, and covered herself with her veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in the gate of Enaim, which is by the way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown up, and she wasn't given to him as a wife.
15 When Judah saw her, he thought that she was a prostitute, for she had covered her face.
16 He turned to her by the way, and said, "Please come, let me come in to you;" for he didn't know that she was his daughter-in-law. She said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"
17 He said, "I will send you a kid of the goats from the flock." She said, "Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?"
18 He said, "What pledge will I give you?" She said, "Your signet and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand." He gave them to her, and came in to her, and she conceived by him.
19 She arose, and went away, and put off her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.
20 Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend, the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand, but he didn't find her.
21 Then he asked the men of her place, saying, "Where is the prostitute, that was at Enaim by the road?" They said, "There has been no prostitute here."
22 He returned to Judah, and said, "I haven't found her; and also the men of the place said, 'There has been no prostitute here.'"
23 Judah said, "Let her keep it, lest we be put to shame. Behold, I sent this kid, and you haven't found her."
24 It happened about three months later, that it was told Judah, saying, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the prostitute; and moreover, behold, she is with child by prostitution." Judah said, "Bring her forth, and let her be burnt."
25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man, whose these are, I am with child." She also said, "Please discern whose are these - the signet, and the cords, and the staff."
26 Judah acknowledged them, and said, "She is more righteous than I, because I didn't give her to Shelah, my son." He knew her again no more.
27 It happened in the time of her travail, that behold, twins were in her womb.
28 It happened, when she travailed, that one put out a hand; and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying, "This came out first."

- 29 It happened, as he drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out, and she said, "Why have you made a breach for yourself?" Therefore his name was called Perez.
- 30 Afterward his brother came out, that had the scarlet thread on his hand, and his name was called Zerah.
- 1 Joseph was brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites that had brought him down there.
- 2 Yāhweh was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. He was in the house of his master the Egyptian.
- 3 His master saw that Yāhweh was with him, and that Yāhweh made all that he did prosper in his hand.
- 4 Joseph found favor in his sight. He ministered to him, and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.
- 5 It happened from the time that he made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that Yāhweh blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of Yāhweh was on all that he had, in the house and in the field.
- 6 He left all that he had in Joseph's hand. He didn't concern himself with anything, except for the food which he ate. Joseph was handsome, and well-favored.
- 7 It happened after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph; and she said, "Lie with me."
- 8 But he refused, and said to his master's wife, "Behold, my master doesn't know what is with me in the house, and he has put all that he has into my hand.
- 9 He isn't greater in this house than I, neither has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?"
- 10 It happened that as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he didn't listen to her, to lie by her, or to be with her.
- 11 It happened about this time, that he went into the house to do his work, and there were none of the men of the house inside.
- 12 She caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me!" He left his garment in her hand, and ran outside.
- 13 It happened, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and had run outside,
- 14 that she called to the men of her house, and spoke to them, saying, "Behold, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice.
- 15 It happened, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment by me, and ran outside."
- 16 She laid up his garment by her, until his master came home.
- 17 She spoke to him according to these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me,
- 18 and it happened, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment by me, and ran outside."
- 19 It happened, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, "This is what your servant did to me," that his wrath was kindled.
- 20 Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were bound, and he was there in the custody.
- 21 But Yāhweh was with Joseph, and showed kindness to him, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.
- 22 The keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison. Whatever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison didn't look after anything that was under his hand, because Yāhweh was with him; and that which he did, Yāhweh made it prosper.

1 It happened after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker offended their lord, the king of Egypt.

2 Pharaoh was angry against his two officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 He put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he took care of them. They stayed in prison many days.

5 They both dreamed a dream, each man his dream, in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were bound in the prison.

6 Joseph came in to them in the morning, and saw them, and, saw that they were sad.

7 He asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in custody in his master's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"

8 They said to him, "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it." Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Please tell it to me."

9 The chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "In my dream, behold, a vine was in front of me,

10 and in the vine were three branches. It was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and the clusters of it brought forth ripe grapes.

11 Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand."

12 Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days.

13 Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head, and restore you to your office. You will give Pharaoh's cup into his hand, the way you did when you were his butler.

14 But remember me when it will be well with you, and show kindness, please, to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house.

15 For indeed, I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon."

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and, behold, three baskets of white bread were on my head.

17 In the uppermost basket there was of all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

18 Joseph answered, "This is the interpretation of it. The three baskets are three days.

19 Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and will hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from off you."

20 It happened the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and the head of the chief baker among his servants.

21 He restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand;

22 but he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet the chief butler didn't remember Joseph, but forgot him.

1 It happened at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 Behold, there came up out of the river seven cattle, well-favored and fat-fleshed, and they fed in the reed-grass.

3 Behold, seven other cattle came up after them out of the river, ill-favored and lean-fleshed, and stood by the other cattle on the brink of the river.

4 The ill-favored and lean-fleshed cattle ate up the seven well-favored and fat cattle. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 He slept and dreamed a second time; and, behold, seven ears of grain came up on one stalk, rank and good.

6 Behold, seven ears, thin and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them.

7 The thin ears swallowed up the seven rank and full ears. Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 It happened in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men of it. Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my faults today.

10 Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker.

11 We dreamed a dream in one night, I and he. We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 There was with us there a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard, and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams. To each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 It happened, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored to my office, and him he hanged."

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothing, and came in to Pharaoh.

15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."

16 Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It isn't in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."

17 Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, I stood on the brink of the river:

18 and, behold, there came up out of the river seven cattle, fat-fleshed and well-favored. They fed in the reed-grass,

19 and, behold, seven other cattle came up after them, poor and very ill-favored and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness.

20 The lean and ill-favored cattle ate up the first seven fat cattle, 21 and when they had eaten them up, it couldn't be known that they had eaten them, but they were still ill-favored, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up on one stalk, full and good:

23 and, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them.

24 The thin ears swallowed up the seven good ears. I told it to the magicians; but there was no one who could explain it to me."

25 Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dream of Pharaoh is one. What God is about to do he has declared to Pharaoh.

26 The seven good cattle are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years. The dream is one.

27 The seven lean and ill-favored cattle that came up after them are seven years, and also the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind; they will be seven years of famine.

28 That is the thing which I spoke to Pharaoh. What God is about to do he has showed to Pharaoh.
29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.
30 There will arise after them seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt. The famine will consume the land,
31 and the plenty will not be known in the land by reason of that famine which follows; for it will be very grievous.
32 The dream was doubled to Pharaoh, because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.
33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look for a discreet and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt.
34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint overseers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt's produce in the seven plenteous years.
35 Let them gather all the food of these good years that come, and lay up grain under the hand of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them keep it.
36 The food will be for a store to the land against the seven years of famine, which will be in the land of Egypt; that the land not perish through the famine."
37 The thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.
38 Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the spirit of God?"
39 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Because God has showed you all of this, there is none so discreet and wise as you.
40 You shall be over my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne I will be greater than you."
41 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."
42 Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand, and put it on Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in robes of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck,
43 and he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had. They cried before him, "Bow the knee!" He set him over all the land of Egypt.
44 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt."
45 Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-paneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On as a wife. Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.
46 Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.
47 In the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.
48 He gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; the food of the field, which was round about every city, he laid up in the same.
49 Joseph laid up grain as the sand of the sea, very much, until he stopped counting, for it was without number.
50 To Joseph were born two sons before the year of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him.
51 Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, "For," he said, "God has made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house."
52 The name of the second, he called Ephraim: "For God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."
53 The seven years of plenty, that was in the land of Egypt, came to an end.

54 The seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph. What he says to you, do."

56 The famine was over all the surface of the earth. Joseph opened all the store-houses, and sold to the Egyptians. The famine was severe in the land of Egypt.

57 All countries came into Egypt, to Joseph, to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

1 Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?"

2 He said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy for us from there, so that we may live, and not die."

3 Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.

4 But Jacob didn't send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers; for he said, "Lest perhaps harm befall him."

5 The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 Joseph was the governor over the land. It was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came, and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the earth.

7 Joseph saw his brothers, and he recognized them, but acted like a stranger to them, and spoke roughly with them. He said to them, "Where did you come from?" They said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

8 Joseph recognized his brothers, but they didn't recognize him.

9 Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land."

10 They said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are honest men. Your servants are not spies."

12 He said to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land."

13 They said, "We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is no more."

14 Joseph said to them, "It is like I told you, saying, You are spies.

15 Hereby you shall be tested. By the life of Pharaoh you shall not go forth from here, unless your youngest brother come here.

16 Send one of you, and let him get your brother, and you shall be bound, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you, or else by the life of Pharaoh surely you are spies."

17 He put them all together into custody three days.

18 Joseph said to them the third day, "Do this, and live, for I fear God.

19 If you are honest men, then let one of your brothers be bound in your prison-house; but you go, carry grain for the famine of your houses.

20 Bring your youngest brother to me; so will your words be verified, and you won't die." They did so.

21 They said one to another, "We are most assuredly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul, when he begged us, and we wouldn't listen. Therefore this distress has come on us."

22 Reuben answered them, saying, "Didn't I tell you, saying, Don't sin against the child, and you wouldn't listen? Therefore also, behold, his blood is required."

23 They didn't know that Joseph understood them; for there was an interpreter between them.
24 He turned himself about from them, and wept, and he returned to them, and spoke to them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes.
25 Then Joseph commanded to fill their vessels with grain, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provisions for the way. Thus was it done to them.
26 They loaded their donkeys with their grain, and departed from there.
27 As one of them opened his sack to give his donkey food in the lodging-place, he saw his money. Behold, it was in the mouth of his sack.
28 He said to his brothers, "My money is restored! Behold, it is even in my sack." Their hearts failed them, and they turned trembling one to another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?"
29 They came to Jacob their father to the land of Canaan, and told him all that had befallen them, saying,
30 "The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly with us, and took us for spies of the country.
31 We said to him, 'We are honest men. We are no spies.
32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.
33 The man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'Hereby will I know that you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain for the famine of your houses, and go your way.
34 Bring your youngest brother to me. Then will I know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. So will I deliver you your brother, and you shall trade in the land.'"
35 It happened as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were afraid.
36 Jacob, their father, said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children! Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin away. All these things are against me."
37 Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "Kill my two sons, if I don't bring him to you. Deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to you again."
38 He said, "My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he only is left. If harm befall him by the way in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol."
1 The famine was severe in the land.
2 It happened, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again, buy us a little food."
3 Judah spoke to him, saying, "The man solemnly warned us, saying, 'You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.
4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food,
5 but if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.'"
6 Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly, telling the man that you had another brother?"
7 They said, "The man asked directly concerning ourselves, and concerning our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?' We just answered his questions. Is there any way we could know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"
8 Judah said to Israel, his father, "Send the boy with me, and we will arise and go, so that we may live, and not die, both we, and you, and also our little ones.
9 I will be collateral for him. From my hand will you require him. If I don't bring him to you, and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever,
10 for unless we had lingered, surely we would have returned a second time by now."

- 11 Their father, Israel, said to them, "If it be so now, do this. Take from the choice fruits of the land in your vessels, and carry down a present for the man, a little balm, a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts, and almonds;
- 12 and take double money in your hand, with the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks carry again in your hand. Perhaps it was an oversight.
- 13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again to the man.
- 14 May God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."
- 15 The men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.
- 16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Bring the men into the house, and butcher an animal, and make ready; for the men will dine with me at noon."
- 17 The man did as Joseph commanded, and the man brought the men to Joseph's house.
- 18 The men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, "Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall on us, and take us for bondservants, along with our donkeys."
- 19 They came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house,
- 20 and said, "Oh, my lord, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:
- 21 and it happened, when we came to the lodging-place, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it again in our hand.
- 22 Other money have we brought down in our hand to buy food. We don't know who put our money in our sacks."
- 23 He said, "Peace be to you. Don't be afraid. Your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. I received your money." He brought Simeon out to them.
- 24 The man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave their donkeys provender.
- 25 They made ready the present for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.
- 26 When Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed down themselves to him to the earth.
- 27 He asked them of their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive?"
- 28 They said, "Your servant, our father, is well. He is still alive." They bowed the head, and did homage.
- 29 He lifted up his eyes, and saw Benjamin, his brother, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" He said, "God be gracious to you, my son."
- 30 Joseph made haste; for his heart yearned over his brother; and he sought a place to weep; and he entered into his room, and wept there.
- 31 He washed his face, and came out. He controlled himself, and said, "Serve the meal."
- 32 They served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians, that ate with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians don't eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.
- 33 They sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth, and the men marvelled one with another.

34 He sent portions to them from before him, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. They drank, and were merry with him.

1 He commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, with his grain money." He did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

4 When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men. When you overtake them, tell them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good? Isn't this that from which my lord drinks, and whereby he indeed divines? You have done evil in so doing.'"

6 He overtook them, and he spoke to them these words.

7 They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing!

8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal silver or gold out of your lord's house?

9 With whoever of your servants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondservants."

10 He said, "Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found will be my bondservant; and you will be blameless."

11 Then they hurried, and took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 He searched, beginning with the eldest, and ending at the youngest. The cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they tore their clothes, and loaded every man his donkey, and returned to the city.

14 Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there. They fell on the ground before him.

15 Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Don't you know that such a man as I can indeed divine?"

16 Judah said, "What will we tell my lord? What will we speak? Or how will we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my lord's bondservants, both we, and he also in whose hand the cup is found."

17 He said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he will be my bondservant; but as for you, go up in peace to your father."

18 Then Judah came near to him, and said, "Oh, my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and don't let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father, or a brother?'

20 We said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him.

21 You said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.

22 We said to my lord, 'The boy can't leave his father; for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 You said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will see my face no more.

24 It happened when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 Our father said, 'Go again, buy us a little food.'

26 We said, We can't go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, unless our youngest brother is with us.

27 Your servant, my father, said to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons:

28 and the one went out from me, and I said, "Surely he is torn in pieces;" and I haven't seen him since.

29 If you take this one also from me, and harm befalls him, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.

30 Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the boy's life;

31 it will happen, when he sees that the boy is no more, that he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant, our father, with sorrow to Sheol.

32 For your servant became collateral for the boy to my father, saying, If I don't bring him to you, then I will bear the blame to my father forever.

33 Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the boy, a bondservant to my lord; and let the boy go up with his brothers.

34 For how will I go up to my father, if the boy isn't with me? Lest I see the evil that will come on my father."

1 Then Joseph couldn't control himself before all those who stood before him, and he cried, "Cause every man to go out from me!" There stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

2 He wept aloud. The Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Does my father still live?" His brothers couldn't answer him; for they were terrified at his presence.

4 Joseph said to his brothers, "Come near to me, please." They came near. "He said, I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

5 Now don't be grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life.

6 For these two years has the famine been in the land, and there are yet five years, in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.

7 God sent me before you to preserve you a remnant in the earth, and to save you alive by a great deliverance.

8 So now it wasn't you who sent me here, but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

9 Hurry, and go up to my father, and tell him, This is what your son Joseph says, "God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me. Don't wait.

10 You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near to me, you, your children, your children's children, your flocks, your herds, and all that you have.

11 There I will nourish you; for there are yet five years of famine; lest you come to poverty, you, and your household, and all that you have."

12 Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you.

13 You shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. You shall hurry and bring my father down here."

14 He fell on his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.

15 He kissed all his brothers, and wept on them. After that his brothers talked with him.

16 The report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." It pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

- 17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, Do this. Load your animals, and go, travel to the land of Canaan.
- 18 Take your father and your households, and come to me, and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.
- 19 Now you are commanded: do this. Take wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.
- 20 Also, don't concern yourselves about your belongings, for the good of all of the land of Egypt is yours."
- 21 The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.
- 22 To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing.
- 23 To his father, he sent after this manner: ten donkeys laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses laden with grain and bread and provision for his father by the way.
- 24 So he sent his brothers away, and they departed. He said to them, "See that you don't quarrel on the way."
- 25 They went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father.
- 26 They told him, saying, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." His heart fainted, for he didn't believe them.
- 27 They told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them. When he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob, their father, revived.
- 28 Israel said, "It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."
- 1 Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father, Isaac.
- 2 God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob!" He said, "Here I am."
- 3 He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Don't be afraid to go down into Egypt; for there I will make of you a great nation.
- 4 I will go down with you into Egypt. I will also surely bring you up again. Joseph will close your eyes."
- 5 Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob, their father, their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.
- 6 They took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt - Jacob, and all his seed with him,
- 7 his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.
- 8 These are the names of the children of Israel, who came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.
- 9 The sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
- 10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.
- 11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
- 12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.
- 13 The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Job, and Shimron.

14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan-aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.

16 The sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Arefi.

17 The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and Serah their sister. The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah, his daughter, and these she bore to Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin.

20 To Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphara, priest of On, bore to him.

21 The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob; all the souls were fourteen.

23 The sons of Dan: Hushim.

24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel, his daughter, and these she bore to Jacob; all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls who came with Jacob into Egypt, who were his direct descendants, besides Jacob's sons and wives, all the souls were sixty-six.

27 The sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob, who came into Egypt, were seventy.

28 He sent Judah before him to Joseph, to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel, his father, in Goshen. He presented himself to him, and fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

31 Joseph said to his brothers, and to his father's house, "I will go up, and speak with Pharaoh, and will tell him, My brothers, and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

32 These men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of cattle, and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 It will happen, when Pharaoh summons you, and will say, What is your occupation?

34 that you shall say, Your servants have been keepers of cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and our fathers: that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

1 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen."

2 From among his brothers he took five men, and presented them to Pharaoh.

3 Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" They said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we, and our fathers."

4 They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

- 5 Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.
- 6 The land of Egypt is before you. Make your father and your brothers dwell in the best of the land. Let them dwell in the land of Goshen. If you know any able men among them, then put them in charge of my cattle."
- 7 Joseph brought in Jacob, his father, and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.
- 8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many are the days of the years of your life?"
- 9 Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage."
- 10 Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.
- 11 Joseph placed his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.
- 12 Joseph nourished his father, his brothers, and all of his father's household, with bread, according to their families.
- 13 There was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine.
- 14 Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.
- 15 When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For our money fails."
- 16 Joseph said, "Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fails."
- 17 They brought their cattle to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the donkeys; and he fed them with bread in exchange for all their cattle for that year.
- 18 When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord how our money is all spent, and the herds of cattle are my lord's. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands.
- 19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land won't be desolate."
- 20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine was severe on them, and the land became Pharaoh's.
- 21 As for the people, he moved them to the cities from one end of the border of Egypt even to the other end of it.
- 22 Only he didn't buy the land of the priests, for the priests had a portion from Pharaoh, and ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them. That is why they didn't sell their land.
- 23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Behold, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.
- 24 It will happen at the harvests, that you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field, for your food, for them of your households, and for food for your little ones."
- 25 They said, "You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."
- 26 Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth. Only the land of the priests alone didn't become Pharaoh's.

27 Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they got themselves possessions therein, and were fruitful, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years.

29 The time drew near that Israel must die, and he called his son Joseph, and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please don't bury me in Egypt,

30 but when I sleep with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying place." He said, "I will do as you have said."

31 He said, "Swear to me," and he swore to him. Israel bowed himself on the bed's head.

1 It happened after these things, that one said to Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick." He took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 One told Jacob, and said, "Behold, your son Joseph comes to you," and Israel strengthened himself, and sat on the bed.

3 Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

4 and said to me, Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting possession.

5 Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh, even as Reuben and Simeon, will be mine.

6 Your issue, who you become the father of after them, will be yours. They will be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance.

7 As for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when there was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and I buried her there in the way to Ephrath (the same is Beth-lehem)."

8 Israel saw Joseph's sons, and said, "Who are these?"

9 Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." He said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them."

10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he couldn't see. He brought them near to him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 Israel said to Joseph, "I didn't think I would see your face, and, behold, God has let me see your seed also."

12 Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near to him.

14 Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, guiding his hands knowingly, for Manasseh was the firstborn.

15 He blessed Joseph, and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God who has fed me all my life long to this day,

16 the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads, and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac. Let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

17 When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him. He held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.

18 Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father; for this is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head."

19 His father refused, and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. However, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become a multitude of nations."

20 He blessed them that day, saying, "In you will Israel bless, saying, God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh " He set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you, and bring you again to the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow."

1 Jacob called to his sons, and said: "Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which will happen to you in the days to come.

2 Assemble yourselves, and hear, you sons of Jacob; Listen to Israel, your father.

3 "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength; The pre-eminence of dignity, and the pre-eminence of power.

4 Boiling over as water, you shall not have the pre-eminence; Because you went up to your father's bed; Then defiled it. He went up to my couch.

5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers; Weapons of violence are their swords.

6 My soul, don't come into their council; My glory, don't be united to their assembly; For in their anger they killed a man, In their self-will they hamstringed an ox.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; Their wrath, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacob, Scatter them in Israel.

8 "Judah, your brothers will praise you; Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; Your father's sons will bow down before you.

9 Judah is a lion's whelp. From the prey, my son, you have gone up. He stooped down, he couched as a lion, As a lioness. Who will rouse him up?

10 The scepter will not depart from Judah, Nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, Until Shiloh comes. To him will the obedience of the peoples be.

11 Binding his foal to the vine, His donkey's colt to the choice vine; He has washed his garments in wine, His robes in the blood of grapes:

12 His eyes will be red with wine, His teeth white with milk.

13 "Zebulun will dwell at the haven of the sea. He will be for a haven of ships. His border will be on Sidon.

14 "Issachar is a strong donkey, Couching down between the sheepfolds.

15 He saw a resting-place, that it was good, The land, that it was pleasant; He bowed his shoulder to bear, And became a servant doing forced labor.

16 "Dan will judge his people, As one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan will be a serpent in the way, An adder in the path, That bites the horse's heels, So that his rider falls backward.

18 I have waited for your salvation, Yahweh.

19 "Gad, a troop will press on him; But he will press on their heel.

20 Out of Asher his bread will be fat, He will yield royal dainties.

21 "Naphtali is a doe set free, Who bears beautiful fawns.

22 "Joseph is a fruitful bough, A fruitful bough by a spring; His branches run over the wall.

23 The archers have sorely grieved him, Shot at him, and persecute him:

24 But his bow abode in strength, The arms of his hands were made strong, By the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, (From there is the shepherd, the stone of Israel), 25 Even by the God of your father, who will help you, By the Almighty, who will bless you, With blessings of heaven above, Blessings of the deep that couches beneath, Blessings of the breasts, and of the womb.
26 The blessings of your father Have prevailed above the blessings of the ancient mountains, Than the bounty of the age-old hills. They will be on the head of Joseph, On the crown of the head of him who is separated from his brothers.
27 "Benjamin is a ravenous wolf. In the morning she will devour the prey. At evening he will divide the spoil."
28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them and blessed them.
He blessed everyone according to his blessing.
29 He charged them, and said to them, "I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a burying-place.
31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah, his wife. There they buried Isaac and Rebekah, his wife, and there I buried Leah:
32 the field and the cave that is therein, which was purchased from the children of Heth."
33 When Jacob made an end of charging his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the spirit, and was gathered to his people.
1 Joseph fell on his father's face, wept on him, and kissed him.
2 Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father; and the physicians embalmed Israel.
3 Forty days were fulfilled for him, for that is how many the days it takes to embalm. The Egyptians wept for him for seventy days.
4 When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, "If now
I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,
5 My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying. Bury me in my grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come again. "
6 Pharaoh said, "Go up, and bury your father, just like he made you swear."
7 Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8 all the house of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's house. Only their little ones, their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.
9 There went up with him both chariots and horsemen. It was a very great company.
10 They came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and there they lamented with a very great and sore lamentation. He mourned for his father seven days.
11 When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said,
"This is a grievous mourning by the Egyptians." Therefore, the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.
12 His sons did to him just as he commanded them,

- 13 for his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field, for a possession of a burying-place, from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.
- 14 Joseph returned into Egypt - he, and his brothers, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.
- 15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will fully pay us back for all of the evil which we did to him.
- 16 They sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father commanded before he died, saying,
- 17 "So will you tell Joseph, Now please forgive the disobedience of your brothers, and their sin, because they did evil to you. Now, please forgive the disobedience of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him.
- 18 His brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, "Behold, we are your servants."
- 19 Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid, for am I in the place of God?
- 20 As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save many people alive.
- 21 Now therefore don't be afraid. I will nourish you and your little ones." He comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.
- 22 Joseph lived in Egypt, he, and his father's house. Joseph lived one hundred ten years.
- 23 Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph's knees.
- 24 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am dying, but God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."
- 25 Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here."
- 26 So Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.
- 1 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel, who came into Egypt (every man and his household came with Jacob):
- 2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,
- 3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,
- 4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.
- 5 All the souls who came out of the Jacob's body were seventy souls, and Joseph was in Egypt already.
- 6 Joseph died, as did all his brothers, and all that generation.
- 7 The children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.
- 8 Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who didn't know Joseph.
- 9 He said to his people, "Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we.
- 10 Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it happen that when any war breaks out, they also join themselves to our enemies, and fight against us, and escape out of the land."
- 11 Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. They built storage cities for Pharaoh: Pithom and Raamses.
- 12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out. They were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 The Egyptians ruthlessly made the children of Israel serve,
14 and they made their lives bitter with hard service, in mortar and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field, all their service, in which they ruthlessly made them serve.

15 The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah,
16 and he said, "When you perform the duty of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birth stool; if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live."
17 But the midwives feared God, and didn't do what the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the baby boys alive.

18 The king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive?"
19 The midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women aren't like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous, and give birth before the midwife comes to them."
20 God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied, and grew very mighty.
21 It happened, because the midwives feared God, that he gave them families.

22 Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, "You shall cast every son who is born into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive."

1 A man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi as his wife.
2 The woman conceived, and bore a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months.

3 When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket for him, and coated it with tar and with pitch. She put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank.
4 His sister stood far off, to see what would be done to him.

5 Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the river. Her maidens walked along by the riverside. She saw the basket among the reeds, and sent her handmaid to get it.
6 She opened it, and saw the child, and, behold, the baby cried. She had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"
8 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." The maiden went and called the child's mother.
9 Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." The woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 The child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, and said, "Because I drew him out of the water."

11 It happened in those days, when Moses had grown up, that he went out to his brothers, and looked at their burdens. He saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers.
12 He looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no one, he killed the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 He went out the second day, and, behold, two men of the Hebrews were fighting with each other. He said to him who did the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow?"
14 He said, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you plan to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses was afraid, and said, "Surely this thing is known."
15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 The shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

18 When they came to Reuel, their father, he said, "How is it that you have returned so early today?"

19 They said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and moreover he drew water for us, and watered the flock."

20 He said to his daughters, "Where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread."

21 Moses was content to dwell with the man. He gave Moses Zipporah, his daughter.

22 She bore a son, and he named him Gershom, for he said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land."

23 It happened in the course of those many days, that the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to God because of the bondage.

24 God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 God saw the children of Israel, and God was concerned about them.

1 Now Moses was keeping the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the back of the wilderness, and came to God's mountain, to Horeb.

2 The angel of Yahweh appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. He looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 Moses said, "I will turn aside now, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt."

4 When Yahweh saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said, "Moses! Moses!" He said, "Here I am."

5 He said, "Don't come close. Take off your sandals from off your feet, for the place you are standing on is holy ground."

6 Moreover he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look at God.

7 Yahweh said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows.

8 I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

9 Now, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me. Moreover I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."

11 Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?"

12 He said, "Certainly I will be with you. This will be the token to you, that I have sent you: when you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain."

13 Moses said to God, "Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you; and they ask me, 'What is his name? What should I tell them?'"

14 God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM" and he said, "You shall tell the children of Israel this: 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

- 15 God said moreover to Moses, "You shall tell the children of Israel this, Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and this is my memorial to all generations.
- 16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and tell them, Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, "I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt;
- 17 and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey."
- 18 They will listen to your voice, and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you shall tell him, Yāhweh, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now please let us go three days journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to Yāhweh, our God.
- 19 I know that the king of Egypt won't give you permission to go, no, not by a mighty hand.
- 20 I will put forth my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst of it, and after that he will let you go.
- 21 I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and it will happen that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed.
- 22 But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her who sojourns in her house, jewels of silver, jewels of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters. You shall despoil the Egyptians.
- 1 Moses answered, "But, behold, they will not believe me, nor listen to my voice; for they will say, Yāhweh has not appeared to you. "
- 2 Yāhweh said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A rod."
- 3 He said, "Throw it on the ground." He threw it on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses ran away from it.
- 4 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Put forth your hand, and take it by the tail." He put forth his hand, and laid hold of it, and it became a rod in his hand.
- 5 "That they may believe that Yāhweh, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."
- 6 Yāhweh said furthermore to him, "Now put your hand inside your cloak." He put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, as white as snow.
- 7 He said, "Put your hand inside your cloak again." He put his hand inside his cloak again, and when he took it out of his cloak, behold, it had turned again as his other flesh.
- 8 "It will happen, if they will neither believe you nor listen to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.
- 9 It will happen, if they will not believe even these two signs, neither listen to your voice, that you shall take of the water of the river, and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land."
- 10 Moses said to Yāhweh, "Oh, Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before now, nor since you have spoken to your servant; for I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue."
- 11 Yāhweh said to him, "Who made man's mouth? Or who makes one mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Isn't it I, Yāhweh?"
- 12 Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth, and teach you what you shall speak."
- 13 He said, "Oh, Lord, please send someone else."

- 14 The anger of Yāhweh was kindled against Moses, and he said, "What about Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Also, behold, he comes forth to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.
- 15 You shall speak to him, and put the words in his mouth. I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do.
- 16 He will be your spokesman to the people; and it will happen, that he will be to you a mouth, and you will be to him as God.
- 17 You shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs."
- 18 Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, "Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive." Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."
- 19 Yāhweh said to Moses in Midian, "Go, return into Egypt; for all the men who sought your life are dead."
- 20 Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. Moses took God's rod in his hand.
- 21 Yāhweh said to Moses, "When you go back into Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart and he will not let the people go.
- 22 You shall tell Pharaoh, Thus says Yāhweh, Israel is my son, my firstborn,
- 23 and I have said to you, "Let my son go, that he may serve me;" and you have refused to let him go. Behold, I will kill your son, your firstborn. "
- 24 It happened on the way at a lodging place, that Yāhweh met him and wanted to kill him.
- 25 Then Zipporah took a flint, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet; and she said, "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me."
- 26 So he let him alone. Then she said, "You are a bridegroom of blood," because of the circumcision.
- 27 Yāhweh said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." He went, and met him on God's mountain, and kissed him.
- 28 Moses told Aaron all the words of Yāhweh with which he had sent him, and all the signs with which he had charged him.
- 29 Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.
- 30 Aaron spoke all the words which Yāhweh had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.
- 31 The people believed, and when they heard that Yāhweh had visited the children of Israel, and that he had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.
- 1 Afterward Moses and Aaron came, and said to Pharaoh, "This is what Yāhweh, the God of Israel, says, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness. "
- 2 Pharaoh said, "Who is Yāhweh, that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I don't know Yāhweh, and moreover I will not let Israel go."
- 3 They said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Yāhweh, our God, lest he fall on us with pestilence, or with the sword."
- 4 The king of Egypt said to them, "Why do you, Moses and Aaron, take the people from their work? Get back to your burdens!"
- 5 Pharaoh said, "Behold, the people of the land are now many, and you make them rest from their burdens."
- 6 The same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 "You shall no longer give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 The number of the bricks, which they made before, you require from them. You shall not diminish anything of it, for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let heavier work be laid on the men, that they may labor therein; and don't let them pay any attention to lying words."

10 The taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spoke to the people, saying, This is what Pharaoh says: "I will not give you straw.

11 Go yourselves, get straw where you can find it, for nothing of your work shall be diminished."

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.

13 The taskmasters were urgent saying, "Fulfill your work quota daily, as when there was straw!"

14 The officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, "Why haven't you fulfilled your quota both yesterday and today, in making brick as before?"

15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you deal this way with your servants?"

16 No straw is given to your servants, and they tell us, Make brick! and, behold, your servants are beaten; but the fault is in your own people."

17 But he said, "You are idle! You are idle! Therefore you say, Let us go and sacrifice to Yehweh.

18 Go therefore now, and work, for no straw shall be given to you, yet shall you deliver the same number of bricks!"

19 The officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble, when it was said, "You shall not diminish anything from your daily quota of bricks!"

20 They met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 and they said to them, "May Yehweh look at you, and judge, because you have made us a stench to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us."

22 Moses returned to Yehweh, and said, "Lord, why have you brought trouble on this people? Why is it that you have sent me?"

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble on this people; neither have you delivered your people at all."

1 Yehweh said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for by a strong hand he shall let them go, and by a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land."

2 God spoke to Moses, and said to him, "I am Yehweh;

3 and I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty; but by my name Yehweh I was not known to them.

4 I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their travels, in which they lived as aliens.

5 Moreover I have heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered my covenant.

6 Therefore tell the children of Israel, I am Yehweh, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments;

7 and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and you shall know that I am Yehweh your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

- 8 I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for a heritage: I am Yāhweh. "
- 9 Moses spoke so to the children of Israel, but they didn't listen to Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.
- 10 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 11 "Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land."
- 12 Moses spoke before Yāhweh, saying, "Behold, the children of Israel haven't listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh listen to me, who am of uncircumcised lips?"
- 13 Yāhweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a charge to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

- 26 These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom Yāhweh said, "Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their hosts."
- 27 These are those who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are that Moses and Aaron.
- 28 It happened on the day when Yāhweh spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,
- 29 that Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying, "I am Yāhweh. Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I speak to you."
- 30 Moses said before Yāhweh, "Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh listen to me?"
- 1 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Behold, I have made you as God to Pharaoh; and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet.
- 2 You shall speak all that I command you; and Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.
- 3 I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

- 4 But Pharaoh will not listen to you, and I will lay my hand on Egypt, and bring forth my hosts, my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.
- 5 The Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh, when I stretch forth my hand on Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them."
- 6 Moses and Aaron did so. As Yahweh commanded them, so they did.
- 7 Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.
- 8 Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
- 9 "When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, Perform a miracle! then you shall tell Aaron, Take your rod, and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it become a serpent. "
- 10 Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, as Yahweh had commanded; and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.
- 11 Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers. They also, the magicians of Egypt, did in like manner with their enchantments.
- 12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.
- 13 Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken.
- 14 Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go.
- 15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Behold, he goes out to the water; and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand.
- 16 You shall tell him, Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, "Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness;" and, behold, until now you haven't listened.
- 17 Thus says Yahweh, "In this you shall know that I am Yahweh. Behold, I will strike with the rod that is in my hand on the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.
- 18 The fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall become foul; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink water from the river." "
- 19 Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, Take your rod, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, and over their pools, and over all their ponds of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone. "
- 20 Moses and Aaron did so, as Yahweh commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.
- 21 The fish that were in the river died; and the river became foul, and the Egyptians couldn't drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt.
- 22 The magicians of Egypt did in like manner with their enchantments; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them; as Yahweh had spoken.
- 23 Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he lay even this to heart.
- 24 All the Egyptians dug round about the river for water to drink; for they couldn't drink of the water of the river.
- 25 Seven days were fulfilled, after Yahweh had struck the river.
- 1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, "This is what Yahweh says, Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 2 If you refuse to let them go, behold, I will plague all your borders with frogs:

- 3 and the river shall swarm with frogs, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedchamber, and on your bed, and into the house of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading-troughs:
- 4 and the frogs shall come up both on you, and on your people, and on all your servants. "
- 5 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, Stretch forth your hand with your rod over the rivers, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt. "
- 6 Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.
- 7 The magicians did in like manner with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.
- 8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Entreat Yāhweh, that he take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to Yāhweh."
- 9 Moses said to Pharaoh, "I give you the honor of setting the time that I should pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, and remain in the river only."
- 10 He said, "Tomorrow." He said, "Be it according to your word, that you may know that there is none like Yāhweh our God.
- 11 The frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only."
- 12 Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to Yāhweh concerning the frogs which he had brought on Pharaoh.
- 13 Yāhweh did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields.
- 14 They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.
- 15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and didn't listen to them, as Yāhweh had spoken.
- 16 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt. "
- 17 They did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and struck the dust of the earth, and there were lice on man, and on animal; all the dust of the earth became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.
- 18 The magicians tried with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they couldn't. There were lice on man, and on animal.
- 19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God:" and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them; as Yāhweh had spoken.
- 20 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; behold, he comes forth to the water; and tell him, This is what Yāhweh says, "Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 21 Else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.
- 22 I will set apart in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end you may know that I am Yāhweh in the midst of the earth.
- 23 I will put a division between my people and your people: by tomorrow shall this sign be." "
- 24 Yāhweh did so; and there came grievous swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses; and in all the land of Egypt the land was corrupted by reason of the swarms of flies.
- 25 Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God in the land!"

- 26 Moses said, "It isn't appropriate to do so; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to Yāhweh our God. Behold, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and won't they stone us?"
- 27 "We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Yāhweh our God, as he shall command us."
- 28 Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to Yāhweh your God in the wilderness, only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me."
- 29 Moses said, "Behold, I go out from you, and I will pray to Yāhweh that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; only don't let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to Yāhweh."
- 30 Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to Yāhweh.
- 31 Yāhweh did according to the word of Moses, and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. There remained not one.
- 32 Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he didn't let the people go.
- 1 Then Yāhweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, This is what Yāhweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 2 For if you refuse to let them go, and hold them still,
- 3 behold, the hand of Yāhweh is on your cattle which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks with a very grievous pestilence.
- 4 Yāhweh will make a distinction between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt; and there shall nothing die of all that belongs to the children of Israel." "
- 5 Yāhweh appointed a set time, saying, "Tomorrow Yāhweh shall do this thing in the land."
- 6 Yāhweh did that thing on the next day; and all the cattle of Egypt died, but of the cattle of the children of Israel, not one died.
- 7 Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not so much as one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, and he didn't let the people go.
- 8 Yāhweh said to Moses and to Aaron, "Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh.
- 9 It shall become small dust over all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with boils on man and on animal, throughout all the land of Egypt."
- 10 They took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward the sky; and it became a boil breaking forth with boils on man and on animal.
- 11 The magicians couldn't stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boils were on the magicians, and on all the Egyptians.
- 12 Yāhweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he didn't listen to them, as Yāhweh had spoken to Moses.
- 13 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, This is what Yāhweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 14 For this time I will send all my plagues on your heart, and on your servants, and on your people; that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth.
- 15 For now I would have put forth my hand, and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth;
- 16 but indeed for this cause I have made you stand, to show you my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.
- 17 As you still exalt yourself against my people, that you won't let them go.

- 18 Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the day it was founded even until now.
- 19 Now therefore command that all of your cattle and all that you have in the field be brought into shelter. Every man and animal that is found in the field, and isn't brought home, the hail shall come down on them, and they shall die." "
- 20 Those who feared the word of Yāhweh among the servants of Pharaoh made their servants and their cattle flee into the houses.
- 21 Whoever didn't regard the word of Yāhweh left his servants and his cattle in the field.
- 22 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Stretch forth your hand toward the sky, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on animal, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt."
- 23 Moses stretched forth his rod toward the heavens, and Yāhweh sent thunder, hail, and lightning flashed down to the earth. Yāhweh rained hail on the land of Egypt.
- 24 So there was very severe hail, and lightning mixed with the hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.
- 25 The hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and animal; and the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field.
- 26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail.
- 27 Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "I have sinned this time. Yāhweh is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.
- 28 Pray to Yāhweh; for there has been enough of mighty thunderings and hail. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer."
- 29 Moses said to him, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to Yāhweh. The thunders shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is Yāhweh's.
- 30 But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not yet fear Yāhweh God."
- 31 The flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bloom.
- 32 But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they had not grown up.
- 33 Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands to Yāhweh; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth.
- 34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.
- 35 The heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he didn't let the children of Israel go, as Yāhweh had spoken through Moses.
- 1 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I may show these my signs in the midst of them,
- 2 and that you may tell in the hearing of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have done to Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am Yāhweh."
- 3 Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, "This is what Yāhweh, the God of the Hebrews, says: How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 4 Or else, if you refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country,
- 5 and they shall cover the surface of the earth, so that one won't be able to see the earth. They shall eat the residue of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field.

- 6 Your houses shall be filled, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; as neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day. " He turned, and went out from Pharaoh.
- 7 Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve Yehweh, their God. Don't you yet know that Egypt is destroyed?"
- 8 Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve Yehweh your God; but who are those who will go?"
- 9 Moses said, "We will go with our young and with our old; with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast to Yehweh."
- 10 He said to them, "Yehweh be with you if I will let you go with your little ones! See, evil is clearly before your faces.
- 11 Not so! Go now you who are men, and serve Yehweh; for that is what you desire!" They were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.
- 12 Yehweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left."
- 13 Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and Yehweh brought an east wind on the land all that day, and all the night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.
- 14 The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt. They were very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.
- 15 For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained nothing green, either tree or herb of the field, through all the land of Egypt.
- 16 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and he said, "I have sinned against Yehweh your God, and against you.
- 17 Now therefore please forgive my sin again, and pray to Yehweh your God, that he may also take away from me this death."
- 18 He went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to Yehweh.
- 19 Yehweh turned an exceeding strong west wind, which took up the locusts, and drove them into the Red Sea. There remained not one locust in all the borders of Egypt.
- 20 But Yehweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he didn't let the children of Israel go.
- 21 Yehweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt."
- 22 Moses stretched forth his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.
- 23 They didn't see one another, neither did anyone rise from his place for three days; but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.
- 24 Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, "Go, serve Yehweh. Only let your flocks and your herds stay behind. Let your little ones also go with you."
- 25 Moses said, "You must also give into our hand sacrifices and burnt-offerings, that we may sacrifice to Yehweh our God.
- 26 Our cattle also shall go with us. There shall not a hoof be left behind, for of it we must take to serve Yehweh our God; and we don't know with what we must serve Yehweh, until we come there."
- 27 But Yehweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he wouldn't let them go.
- 28 Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Be careful to see my face no more; for in the day you see my face you shall die!"

29 Moses said, "You have spoken well. I will see your face again no more."

1 Yahweh said to Moses, "Yet one plague more will I bring on Pharaoh, and on Egypt; afterwards he will let you go. When he lets you go, he will surely thrust you out altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let them ask every man of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold."

3 Yahweh gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 Moses said, "This is what Yahweh says: About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt, and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the maid-servant who is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of cattle.

6 There shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been, nor shall be any more.

7 But against any of the children of Israel a dog won't even bark or move its tongue, against man or animal; that you may know that Yahweh makes a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 All these your servants shall come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, Get out, and all the people who follow you; and after that I will go out." He went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

9 Yahweh said to Moses, "Pharaoh won't listen to you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt."

10 Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, and Yahweh hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he didn't let the children of Israel go out of his land.

1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 "This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you.

3 Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, On the tenth day of this month, they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household;

4 and if the household be too little for a lamb, then he and his neighbor next to his house shall take one according to the number of the souls; according to everyone can eat you shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You shall take it from the sheep, or from the goats;

6 and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at evening.

7 They shall take some of the blood, and put it on the two side-posts and on the lintel, on the houses in which they shall eat it.

8 They shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs.

9 Don't eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire; with its head, its legs and its inner parts.

10 You shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; but that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire.

11 This is how you shall eat it: with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste; it is Yahweh's Passover.

12 For I will go through the land of Egypt in that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal. Against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am Yahweh.

- 13 The blood shall be to you for a token on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there shall no plague be on you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.
- 14 This day shall be to you for a memorial, and you shall keep it a feast to Yāhweh: throughout your generations you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever.
- 15 Seven days shall you eat unleavened bread; even the first day you shall put away yeast out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.
- 16 In the first day there shall be to you a holy convocation, and in the seventh day a holy convocation; no manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you.
- 17 You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this same day have I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall you observe this day throughout your generations by an ordinance forever.
- 18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty first day of the month at evening.
- 19 Seven days shall there be no yeast found in your houses, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a sojourner, or one who is born in the land.
- 20 You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your habitations you shall eat unleavened bread. "
- 21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said to them, "Draw out, and take lambs according to your families, and kill the Passover.
- 22 You shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side-posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning.
- 23 For Yāhweh will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the lintel, and on the two side-posts, Yāhweh will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to strike you.
- 24 You shall observe this thing for an ordinance to you and to your sons forever.
- 25 It shall happen when you have come to the land which Yāhweh will give you, according as he has promised, that you shall keep this service.
- 26 It will happen, when your children ask you, What do you mean by this service?
- 27 that you shall say, It is the sacrifice of Yāhweh's Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians, and spared our houses. " The people bowed their heads and worshipped.
- 28 The children of Israel went and did so; as Yāhweh had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.
- 29 It happened at midnight, that Yāhweh struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.
- 30 Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.
- 31 He called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise up, get out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel; and go, serve Yāhweh, as you have said!
- 32 Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also!"
- 33 The Egyptians were urgent with the people, to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, "We are all dead men."

- 34 The people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes on their shoulders.
- 35 The children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they asked of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing.
- 36 Yāhweh gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. They despoiled the Egyptians.
- 37 The children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot who were men, besides children.
- 38 A mixed multitude went up also with them, with flocks, herds, and even very much cattle.
- 39 They baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt; for it wasn't leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, and couldn't wait, neither had they prepared for themselves any food.
- 40 Now the time that the children of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred thirty years.
- 41 It happened at the end of four hundred thirty years, even the same day it happened, that all the hosts of Yāhweh went out from the land of Egypt.
- 42 It is a night to be much observed to Yāhweh for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of Yāhweh, to be much observed of all the children of Israel throughout their generations.
- 43 Yāhweh said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover. There shall no foreigner eat of it,
- 44 but every man's servant who is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then shall he eat of it.
- 45 A sojourner and a hired servant shall not eat of it.
- 46 In one house shall it be eaten; you shall not carry forth anything of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall you break a bone of it.
- 47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.
- 48 When a stranger shall sojourn with you, and will keep the Passover to Yāhweh, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one who is born in the land; but no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.
- 49 One law shall be to him who is born at home, and to the stranger who sojourns among you."
- 50 Thus did all the children of Israel. As Yāhweh commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.
- 51 It happened the same day, that Yāhweh brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their hosts.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 "Sanctify to me all of the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of animal. It is mine."
- 3 Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand Yāhweh brought you out from this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten.
- 4 This day you go forth in the month Abib.
- 5 It shall be, when Yāhweh shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month.
- 6 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to Yāhweh.
- 7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and no leavened bread shall be seen with you, neither shall there be yeast seen with you, in all your borders.

8 You shall tell your son in that day, saying, It is because of that which Yāhweh did for me when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 It shall be for a sign to you on your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that the law of Yāhweh may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand Yāhweh has brought you out of Egypt.

10 You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

11 "It shall be, when Yāhweh shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and shall give it you,

12 that you shall set apart to Yāhweh all that opens the womb, and every firstborn which you have that comes from an animal. The males shall be Yāhweh's.

13 Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and you shall redeem all the firstborn of man among your sons.

14 It shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, What is this? that you shall tell him, By strength of hand Yāhweh brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 and it happened, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that Yāhweh killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of animal. Therefore I sacrifice to Yāhweh all that opens the womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.

16 It shall be for a sign on your hand, and for symbols between your eyes: for by strength of hand Yāhweh brought us forth out of Egypt."

17 It happened, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God didn't lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt;"

18 but God led the people around by the way of the wilderness by the Red Sea; and the children of Israel went up armed out of the land of Egypt.

19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the children of Israel swear, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you."

20 They took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 Yāhweh went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them on their way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, that they might go by day and by night:

22 the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, didn't depart from before the people.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, that they turn back and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before Baal-zephon. You shall encamp opposite it by the sea.

3 Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are entangled in the land. The wilderness has shut them in.

4 I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will follow after them; and I will get honor over Pharaoh, and over all his host; and the Egyptians shall know that I am Yāhweh." They did so.

5 It was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was changed towards the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?"

6 He made ready his chariot, and took his army with him;

7 and he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over all of them.

8 Yāhweh hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel; for the children of Israel went out with a high hand.

9 The Egyptians pursued after them; all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen, and his army; and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

- 10 When Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them; and they were very afraid. The children of Israel cried out to Yahweh.
- 11 They said to Moses, "Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you treated us this way, to bring us forth out of Egypt?"
- 12 Isn't this the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, "Leave us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it were better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness."
- 13 Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of Yahweh, which he will work for you today: for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see them again.
- 14 Yahweh will fight for you, and you shall be still."
- 15 Yahweh said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Speak to the children of Israel, that they go forward.
- 16 Lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go into the midst of the sea on dry ground.
- 17 I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall go in after them: and I will get myself honor over Pharaoh, and over all his host, over his chariots, and over his horsemen.
- 18 The Egyptians shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have gotten myself honor over Pharaoh, over his chariots, and over his horsemen."
- 19 The angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them, and stood behind them.
- 20 It came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud and the darkness, yet gave it light by night; and the one didn't come near the other all the night.
- 21 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and Yahweh caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all the night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.
- 22 The children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left.
- 23 The Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the midst of the sea: all of Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.
- 24 It happened in the morning watch, that Yahweh looked out on the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and confused the Egyptian army.
- 25 He took off their chariot wheels, and they drove them heavily; so that the Egyptians said, "Let's flee from the face of Israel, for Yahweh fights for them against the Egyptians!"
- 26 Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come again on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen."
- 27 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it. Yahweh overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.
- 28 The waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen, even all Pharaoh's army that went in after them into the sea. There remained not so much as one of them.
- 29 But the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left.
- 30 Thus Yahweh saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.
- 31 Israel saw the great work which Yahweh did to the Egyptians, and the people feared Yahweh; and they believed in Yahweh, and in his servant Moses.

1 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to Yāhweh, and said, "I will sing to Yāhweh, for he has triumphed gloriously: The horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.
2 Yāh is my strength and song, He has become my salvation: This is my God, and I will praise him; My father's God, and I will exalt him.
3 Yāhweh is a man of war. Yāhweh is his name.
4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host has he cast into the sea; His chosen captains are sunk in the Red Sea.
5 The deeps cover them. They went down into the depths like a stone.
6 Your right hand, Yāhweh, is glorious in power, Your right hand, Yāhweh, dashes the enemy in pieces.
7 In the greatness of your excellency, you overthrow those who rise up against you: You send forth your wrath. It consumes them as stubble.
8 With the blast of your nostrils the waters were piled up. The floods stood upright as a heap. The deeps were congealed in the heart of the sea.
9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil. My desire shall be satisfied on them. I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.
10 You blew with your wind. The sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.
11 Who is like you, Yāhweh, among the gods? Who is like you, glorious in holiness, Fearful in praises, doing wonders?
12 You stretched out your right hand. The earth swallowed them.
13 "You, in your lovingkindness, have led the people that you have redeemed. You have guided them in your strength to your holy habitation.
14 The peoples have heard. They tremble. Pangs have taken hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.
15 Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed. Trembling takes hold of the mighty men of Moab. All the inhabitants of Canaan are melted away.
16 Terror and dread falls on them. By the greatness of your arm they are as still as a stone; Until your people pass over, Yāhweh, Until the people pass over who you have purchased.
17 You shall bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of your inheritance, The place, Yāhweh, which you have made for yourself to dwell in; The sanctuary, Lord, which your hands have established.
18 Yāhweh shall reign forever and ever."
19 For the horses of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and Yāhweh brought back the waters of the sea on them; but the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea.
20 Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dances.
21 Miriam answered them, "Sing to Yāhweh, for he has triumphed gloriously: The horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea."
22 Moses led Israel onward from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.
23 When they came to Marah, they couldn't drink from the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah.
24 The people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?"
25 Then he cried to Yāhweh. Yāhweh showed him a tree, and he threw it into the waters, and the waters were made sweet. There he made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there he tested them;

- 26 and he said, "If you will diligently listen to the voice of Yāhweh your God, and will do that which is right in his eyes, and will pay attention to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you, which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am Yāhweh who heals you."
- 27 They came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm-trees; and they encamped there by the waters.
- 1 They took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.
- 2 The whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness;
- 3 and the children of Israel said to them, "We wish that we had died by the hand of Yāhweh in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, when we ate our fill of bread, for you have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger."
- 4 Then said Yāhweh to Moses, "Behold, I will rain bread from the sky for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law, or not.
- 5 It shall come to pass on the sixth day, that they shall prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily."
- 6 Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, "At evening, then you shall know that Yāhweh has brought you out from the land of Egypt;
- 7 and in the morning, then you shall see the glory of Yāhweh; because he hears your murmurings against Yāhweh. Who are we, that you murmur against us?"
- 8 Moses said, "Now Yāhweh shall give you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to satisfy you; because Yāhweh hears your murmurings which you murmur against him. And who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Yāhweh."
- 9 Moses said to Aaron, "Tell all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before Yāhweh, for he has heard your murmurings. "
- 10 It happened, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of Yāhweh appeared in the cloud.
- 11 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 12 "I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, At evening you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; and you shall know that I am Yāhweh your God. "
- 13 It happened at evening that quail came up and covered the camp; and in the morning the dew lay around the camp.
- 14 When the dew that lay had gone, behold, on the surface of the wilderness was a small round thing, small as the hoar-frost on the ground.
- 15 When the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, "What is it?" For they didn't know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread which Yāhweh has given you to eat."
- 16 This is the thing which Yāhweh has commanded: "Gather of it everyone according to his eating; an omer a head, according to the number of your persons, shall you take it, every man for those who are in his tent."
- 17 The children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some less.
- 18 When they measured it with an omer, he who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack. They gathered every man according to his eating.
- 19 Moses said to them, "Let no one leave of it until the morning."

- 20 Notwithstanding they didn't listen to Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and became foul; and Moses was angry with them.
- 21 They gathered it morning by morning, everyone according to his eating. When the sun grew hot, it melted.
- 22 It happened that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one, and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.
- 23 He said to them, "This is that which Yehweh has spoken, Tomorrow is a solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to Yehweh. Bake that which you want to bake, and boil that which you want to boil; and all that remains over lay up for yourselves to be kept until the morning."
- 24 They laid it up until the morning, as Moses asked, and it didn't become foul, neither was there any worm in it.
- 25 Moses said, "Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to Yehweh. Today you shall not find it in the field.
- 26 Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath. In it there shall be none."
- 27 It happened on the seventh day, that some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.
- 28 Yehweh said to Moses, "How long do you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?
- 29 Behold, because Yehweh has given you the Sabbath, therefore he gives you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Everyone stay in his place. Let no one go out of his place on the seventh day."
- 30 So the people rested on the seventh day.
- 31 The house of Israel called the name of it Manna, and it was like coriander seed, white; and its taste was like wafers with honey.
- 32 Moses said, "This is the thing which Yehweh has commanded, Let an omer-full of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt."
- 33 Moses said to Aaron, "Take a pot, and put an omer-full of manna in it, and lay it up before Yehweh, to be kept throughout your generations."
- 34 As Yehweh commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.
- 35 The children of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate the manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.
- 36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.
- 1 All the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeys, according to Yehweh's commandment, and encamped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink.
- 2 Therefore the people quarreled with Moses, and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test Yehweh?"
- 3 The people were thirsty for water there; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?"
- 4 Moses cried to Yehweh, saying, "What shall I do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me."
- 5 Yehweh said to Moses, "Walk on before the people, and take the elders of Israel with you, and take the rod in your hand with which you struck the Nile, and go.
- 6 Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. You shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink." Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.
- 7 He called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because the children of Israel quarreled, and because they tested Yehweh, saying, "Is Yehweh among us, or not?"
- 8 Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

- 9 Moses said to Joshua, "Choose men for us, and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with God's rod in my hand.
- 10 So Joshua did as Moses had told him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.
- 11 It happened, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.
- 12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. His hands were steady until sunset.
- 13 Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.
- 14 Yahweh said to Moses, "Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky."
- 15 Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Yahweh our Banner
- 16 He said, "Yah has sworn: Yahweh will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. "
- 1 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, how that Yahweh had brought Israel out of Egypt.
- 2 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, received Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her away,
- 3 and her two sons. The name of one son was Gershom, for Moses said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land".
- 4 The name of the other was Eliezer, for he said, "My father's God was my help and delivered me from Pharaoh's sword."
- 5 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses into the wilderness where he was encamped, at the Mountain of God.
- 6 He said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, have come to you with your wife, and her two sons with her.
- 7 Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed and kissed him. They asked each other of their welfare, and they came into the tent.
- 8 Moses told his father-in-law all that Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships that had come on them on the way, and how Yahweh delivered them.
- 9 Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which Yahweh had done to Israel, in that he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.
- 10 Jethro said, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.
- 11 Now I know that Yahweh is greater than all gods because of the thing in which they dealt arrogantly against them."
- 12 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. Aaron came with all of the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.
- 13 It happened on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning to the evening.
- 14 When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, "What is this thing that you do for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand around you from morning to evening?"
- 15 Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God.
- 16 When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and I make them know the statutes of God, and his laws."

- 17 Moses father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you do is not good.
18 You will surely wear away, both you, and this people that is with you; for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to perform it yourself alone.
19 Listen now to my voice. I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You represent the people before God, and bring the causes to God.
20 You shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do.
21 Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God; men of truth, hating unjust gain; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.
22 Let them judge the people at all times. It shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge themselves. So shall it be easier for you, and they shall share the load with you.
23 If you will do this thing, and God commands you so, then you will be able to endure, and all of these people also will go to their place in peace."
24 So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said.
25 Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.
26 They judged the people at all times. They brought the hard causes to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.
27 Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way into his own land.
1 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on that same day they came into the wilderness of Sinai.
2 When they had departed from Rephidim, and had come to the wilderness of Sinai, they encamped in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before the mountain.
3 Moses went up to God, and Yahweh called to him out of the mountain, saying, "This is what you shall tell the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:
4 You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings, and brought you to myself.
5 Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice, and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own possession from among all peoples; for all the earth is mine;
6 and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."
7 Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which Yahweh commanded him.
8 All the people answered together, and said, "All that Yahweh has spoken we will do." Moses reported the words of the people to Yahweh.
9 Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you forever." Moses told the words of the people to Yahweh.
10 Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments,
11 and be ready against the third day; for on the third day Yahweh will come down in the sight of all the people on Mount Sinai.
12 You shall set bounds to the people round about, saying, Be careful that you don't go up onto the mountain, or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death.

- 13 No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether it is animal or man, he shall not live. When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain.”
- 14 Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.
- 15 He said to the people, “Be ready by the third day. Don’t have sexual relations with a woman.”
- 16 It happened on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet; and all the people who were in the camp trembled.
- 17 Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain.
- 18 Mount Sinai, the whole of it, smoked, because Yahweh descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly.
- 19 When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice.
- 20 Yahweh came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. Yahweh called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.
- 21 Yahweh said to Moses, “Go down, charge the people, lest they break through to Yahweh to gaze, and many of them perish.
- 22 Let the priests also, who come near to Yahweh, sanctify themselves, lest Yahweh break forth on them.”
- 23 Moses said to Yahweh, “The people can’t come up to Mount Sinai, for you charged us, saying, Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it. ”
- 24 Yahweh said to him, “Go down and you shall bring Aaron up with you, but don’t let the priests and the people break through to come up to Yahweh, lest he break forth on them.”
- 25 So Moses went down to the people, and told them.
- 1 God spoke all these words, saying,
- 2 “I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
- 3 You shall have no other gods before me.
- 4 “You shall not make for yourselves an idol, nor any image of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth;
- 5 you shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them, for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me,
- 6 and showing lovingkindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.
- 7 “You shall not take the name of Yahweh your God in vain, for Yahweh will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.
- 8 “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.
- 9 You shall labor six days, and do all your work,
- 10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yahweh your God. You shall not do any work in it, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your man-servant, nor your maid-servant, nor your catle, nor your stranger who is within your gates;
- 11 for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore Yahweh blessed the Sabbath day, and made it holy.
- 12 “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which Yahweh your God gives you.
- 13 “You shall not murder.

- 14 "You shall not commit adultery.
- 15 "You shall not steal.
- 16 "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.
- 17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's."
- 18 All the people perceived the thunderings, the lightnings, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled, and stayed at a distance.
- 19 They said to Moses, "Speak with us yourself, and we will listen; but don't let God speak with us, lest we die."
- 20 Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid, for God has come to test you, and that his fear may be before you, that you won't sin."
- 21 The people stayed at a distance, and Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.
- 22 Yahweh said to Moses, "This is what you shall tell the children of Israel: You yourselves have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.
- 23 You shall most certainly not make alongside of me gods of silver, or gods of gold for yourselves.
- 24 You shall make an altar of earth for me, and shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace-offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I record my name I will come to you and I will bless you.
- 25 If you make me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stones; for if you lift up your tool on it, you have polluted it.
- 26 Neither shall you go up by steps to my altar, that your nakedness may not be exposed to it.
- 1 "Now these are the ordinances which you shall set before them.
- 2 If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years and in the seventh he shall go out free without paying anything.
- 3 If he comes in by himself, he shall go out by himself. If he is married, then his wife shall go out with him.
- 4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.
- 5 But if the servant shall plainly say, "I love my master, my wife, and my children. I will not go out free;
- 6 then his master shall bring him to God, and shall bring him to the door or to the door-post, and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl, and he shall serve him for ever.
- 7 "If a man sells his daughter to be a maid-servant, she shall not go out as the men-servants do.
- 8 If she doesn't please her master, who has married her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, seeing he has dealt deceitfully with her.
- 9 If he marries her to his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.
- 10 If he takes another wife to himself, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marital rights.
- 11 If he doesn't do these three things for her, she may go free without paying any money.
- 12 "One who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death,
- 13 but not if it is unintentional, but God allows it to happen: then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee.
- 14 If a man schemes and comes presumptuously on his neighbor to kill him, you shall take him from my altar, that he may die.
- 15 "Anyone who attacks his father or his mother shall be surely put to death.

- 16 "Anyone who kidnaps someone and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.
- 17 "Anyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.
- 18 "If men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone, or with his fist, and he doesn't die, but is confined to bed;
- 19 if he rises again and walks around with his staff, then he who struck him shall be cleared; only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall provide for his healing until he is thoroughly healed.
- 20 "If a man strikes his servant or his maid with a rod, and he dies under his hand, he shall surely be punished.
- 21 Notwithstanding, if he gets up after a day or two, he shall not be punished, for he is his property.
- 22 "If men fight and hurt a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely, and yet no harm follows, he shall be surely fined as much as the woman's husband demands and the judges allow.
- 23 But if any harm follows, then you must take life for life,
- 24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,
- 25 burning for burning, wound for wound, and bruise for bruise.
- 26 "If a man strikes his servant's eye, or his maid's eye, and destroys it, he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.
- 27 If he strikes out his man-servant's tooth, or his maid-servant's tooth, he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.
- 28 "If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the bull shall not be held responsible.
- 29 But if the bull had a habit of goring in the past, and it has been testified to its owner, and he has not kept it in, but it has killed a man or a woman, the bull shall be stoned, and its owner shall also be put to death.
- 30 If a ransom is laid on him, then he shall give for the redemption of his life whatever is laid on him.
- 31 Whether it has gored a son or has gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him.
- 32 If the bull gores a man-servant or a maid-servant, thirty shekels of silver shall be given to their master, and the ox shall be stoned.
- 33 "If a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and doesn't cover it, and a bull or a donkey falls into it,
- 34 the owner of the pit shall make it good. He shall give money to its owner, and the dead animal shall be his.
- 35 "If one man's bull injures another's, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live bull, and divide its price; and they shall also divide the dead animal.
- 36 Or if it is known that the bull was in the habit of goring in the past, and its owner has not kept it in, he shall surely pay bull for bull, and the dead animal shall be his own.
- 1 "If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it, or sells it; he shall pay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.
- 2 If the thief is found breaking in, and is struck so that he dies, there shall be no guilt of bloodshed for him.
- 3 If the sun has risen on him, there shall be guilt of bloodshed for him; he shall make restitution. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.
- 4 If the stolen property is found in his hand alive, whether it is ox, donkey, or sheep, he shall pay double.

- 5 "If a man causes a field or vineyard to be eaten, and lets his animal loose, and it grazes in another man's field, he shall make restitution from the best of his own field, and from the best of his own vineyard.
- 6 "If fire breaks out, and catches in thorns so that the shocks of grain, or the standing grain, or the field are consumed; he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.
- 7 "If a man delivers to his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house; if the thief is found, he shall pay double.
- 8 If the thief isn't found, then the master of the house shall come near to God, to find out if he hasn't put his hand to his neighbor's goods.
- 9 For every matter of trespass, whether it be for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, or for any kind of lost thing, whereof one says, This is mine, the cause of both parties shall come before God. He whom God condemns shall pay double to his neighbor.
- 10 "If a man delivers to his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies or is injured, or driven away, no man seeing it;
- 11 the oath of Yahweh shall be between them both, whether he hasn't put his hand to his neighbor's goods; and the owner of it shall accept it, and he shall not make restitution.
- 12 But if it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to the owner of it.
- 13 If it is torn in pieces, let him bring it for evidence. He shall not make good that which was torn.
- 14 "If a man borrows anything of his neighbor's, and it is injured, or dies, the owner of it not being with it, he shall surely make restitution.
- 15 If the owner of it is with it, he shall not make it good. If it is a leased thing, it came for its lease.
- 16 "If a man entices a virgin who isn't pledged to be married, and lies with her, he shall surely pay a dowry for her to be his wife.
- 17 If her father utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.
- 18 "You shall not allow a sorceress to live.
- 19 "Whoever has sex with an animal shall surely be put to death.
- 20 "He who sacrifices to any god, except to Yahweh only, shall be utterly destroyed.
- 21 "You shall not wrong an alien, neither shall you oppress him, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.
- 22 "You shall not take advantage of any widow or fatherless child.
- 23 If you take advantage of them at all, and they cry at all to me, I will surely hear their cry;
- 24 and my wrath will grow hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.
- 25 "If you lend money to any of my people with you who is poor, you shall not be to him as a creditor; neither shall you charge him interest.
- 26 If you take your neighbor's garment as collateral, you shall restore it to him before the sun goes down,
- 27 for that is his only covering, it is his garment for his skin. What would he sleep in? It will happen, when he cries to me, that I will hear, for I am gracious.
- 28 "You shall not blaspheme God, nor curse a ruler of your people.
- 29 "You shall not delay to offer from your harvest and from the outflow of your presses. "You shall give the firstborn of your sons to me.
- 30 You shall do likewise with your oxen and with your sheep. Seven days it shall be with its mother, then on the eighth day you shall give it me.

- 31 "You shall be holy men to me, therefore you shall not eat any flesh that is torn by animals in the field. You shall cast it to the dogs.
- 1 "You shall not spread a false report. Don't join your hand with the wicked to be a malicious witness.
- 2 You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; neither shall you testify in court to side with a multitude to pervert justice;
- 3 neither shall you favor a poor man in his cause.
- 4 "If you meet your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again.
- 5 If you see the donkey of him who hates you fallen down under his burden, don't leave him, you shall surely help him with it.
- 6 "You shall not deny justice to your poor people in their lawsuits.
- 7 "Keep far from a false charge, and don't kill the innocent and righteous: for I will not justify the wicked.
- 8 You shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds those who have sight and perverts the words of the righteous.
- 9 "You shall not oppress an alien, for you know the heart of an alien, seeing you were aliens in the land of Egypt.
- 10 "For six years you shall sow your land, and shall gather in its increase,
- 11 but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the animal of the field shall eat. In like manner you shall deal with your vineyard and with your olive grove.
- 12 "Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your handmaid, and the alien may be refreshed.
- 13 "Be careful to do all things that I have said to you; and don't invoke the name of other gods, neither let them be heard out of your mouth.
- 14 "You shall observe a feast to me three times a year.
- 15 You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib (for in it you came out from Egypt), and no one shall appear before me empty.
- 16 And the feast of harvest, the first-fruits of your labors, which you sow in the field; and the feast of harvest, at the end of the year, when you gather in your labors out of the field.
- 17 Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord YAhweh.
- 18 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, neither shall the fat of my feast remain all night until the morning.
- 19 The first of the first-fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of YAhweh your God.
- "You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.
- 20 "Behold, I send an angel before you, to keep you by the way, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.
- 21 Pay attention to him, and listen to his voice. Don't provoke him, for he will not pardon your disobedience, for my name is in him.
- 22 But if you indeed listen to his voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and an adversary to your adversaries.
- 23 For my angel shall go before you, and bring you in to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I will cut them off.
- 24 You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor follow their practices, but you shall utterly overthrow them and demolish their pillars.

- 25 You shall serve Yāhweh your God, and he will bless your bread and your water, and I will take sickness away from your midst.
- 26 No one will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.
- 27 I will send my terror before you, and will confuse all the people to whom you come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.
- 28 I will send the hornet before you, which will drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before you.
- 29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate, and the animals of the field multiply against you.
- 30 Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and inherit the land.
- 31 I will set your border from the Red Sea even to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you.
- 32 You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.
- 33 They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you."
- 1 He said to Moses, "Come up to Yāhweh, you, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship from a distance.
- 2 Moses alone shall come near to Yāhweh, but they shall not come near, neither shall the people go up with him."
- 3 Moses came and told the people all the words of Yāhweh, and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which Yāhweh has spoken will we do."
- 4 Moses wrote all the words of Yāhweh, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the mountain, and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 5 He sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace-offerings of oxen to Yāhweh.
- 6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.
- 7 He took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people, and they said, "All that Yāhweh has spoken will we do, and be obedient."
- 8 Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, "Look, this is the blood of the covenant, which Yāhweh has made with you concerning all these words."
- 9 Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up.
- 10 They saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was like a paved work of sapphire stone, like the skies for clearness.
- 11 He didn't lay his hand on the nobles of the children of Israel. They saw God, and ate and drank.
- 12 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and stay here, and I will give you the tables of stone with the law and the commands that I have written, that you may teach them."
- 13 Moses rose up with Joshua, his servant, and Moses went up onto God's Mountain.
- 14 He said to the elders, "Wait here for us, until we come again to you. Behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever is involved in a dispute can go to them."
- 15 Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.
- 16 The glory of Yāhweh settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. The seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 The appearance of the glory of Yahweh was like devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 Moses entered into the midst of the cloud, and went up on the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Speak to the children of Israel, that they take an offering for me. From everyone whose heart makes him willing you shall take my offering.

3 This is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, brass,

4 blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats hair,

5 rams skins dyed red, sea cow hides, acacia wood,

6 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense,

7 onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.

8 Let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I show you, the pattern of the tent, and the pattern of all of its furniture, even so you shall make it.

10 "They shall make an ark of acacia wood. Its length shall be two and a half cubits, its breadth a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height.

11 You shall overlay it with pure gold. Inside and outside shall you overlay it, and shall make a gold molding around it.

12 You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four feet. Two rings shall be on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

13 You shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry the ark.

15 The poles shall be in the rings of the ark. They shall not be taken from it.

16 You shall put the testimony which I shall give you into the ark.

17 You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold. Two and a half cubits shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth.

18 You shall make two cherubim of hammered gold. You shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat.

19 Make one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. You shall make the cherubim on its two ends of one piece with the mercy seat.

20 The cherubim shall spread out their wings upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim shall be toward the mercy seat.

21 You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony that I will give you.

22 There I will meet with you, and I will tell you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the testimony, all that I command you for the children of Israel.

23 "You shall make a table of acacia wood. Two cubits shall be its length, and a cubit its breadth, and one and a half cubits its height.

24 You shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it.

25 You shall make a rim of a handbreadth around it. You shall make a golden molding on its rim around it.

26 You shall make four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that are on its four feet.

27 the rings shall be close to the rim, for places for the poles to carry the table.

- 28 You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them.
- 29 You shall make its dishes, its spoons, its ladles, and its bowls to pour out offerings with. Of pure gold shall you make them.
- 30 You shall set bread of the presence on the table before me always.
- 31 "You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. Of hammered work shall the lampstand be made, even its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers, shall be of one piece with it.
- 32 There shall be six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side;
- 33 three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower; and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower, so for the six branches going out of the lampstand;
- 34 and in the lampstand four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers;
- 35 and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of the lampstand.
- 36 Their buds and their branches shall be of one piece with it, the whole of it one beaten work of pure gold.
- 37 You shall make its lamps seven, and they shall light its lamps to give light to the space in front of it.
- 38 Its snuffers and its snuff dishes shall be of pure gold.
- 39 It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these accessories.
- 40 See that you make them after their pattern, which has been shown to you on the mountain.
- 1 "Moreover you shall make the tent with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, with cherubim. The work of the skillful workman you shall make them.
- 2 The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains shall have one measure.
- 3 Five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and the other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.
- 4 You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling; and likewise shall you make in the edge of the curtain that is outmost in the second coupling.
- 5 You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that is in the second coupling. The loops shall be opposite one to another.
- 6 You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains one to another with the clasps; and the tent shall be a unit.
- 7 "You shall make curtains of goats hair for a covering over the tent; eleven curtains shall you make them.
- 8 The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains shall have one measure.
- 9 You shall couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shall double over the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tent.
- 10 You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which is outmost in the second coupling.
- 11 You shall make fifty clasps of brass, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.
- 12 The overhanging part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tent.

- 13 The cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tent on this side and on that side, to cover it.
- 14 You shall make a covering for the tent of rams skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above.
- 15 "You shall make the boards for the tent of acacia wood, standing up.
- 16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and one and a half cubits the breadth of each board.
- 17 There shall be two tenons in each board, joined to one another; thus shall you make for all the boards of the tent.
- 18 You shall make the boards for the tent, twenty boards for the south side southward.
- 19 You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.
- 20 For the second side of the tent, on the north side, twenty boards,
- 21 and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
- 22 For the far part of the tent westward you shall make six boards.
- 23 Two boards shall you make for the corners of the tent in the far part.
- 24 They shall be double beneath, and in like manner they shall be entire to the top of it to one ring; thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.
- 25 There shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
- 26 "You shall make bars of acacia wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tent,
- 27 and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tent, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tent, for the far part westward.
- 28 The middle bar in the midst of the boards shall pass through from end to end.
- 29 You shall overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and you shall overlay the bars with gold.
- 30 You shall set up the tent according to the way that it was shown to you on the mountain.
- 31 "You shall make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cherubim. The work of the skillful workman shall it be made.
- 32 You shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, on four sockets of silver.
- 33 You shall hang up the veil under the clasps, and shall bring the ark of the testimony in there within the veil; and the veil shall separate the holy place from the most holy for you.
- 34 You shall put the mercy seat on the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.
- 35 You shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand over against the table on the side of the tent toward the south; and you shall put the table on the north side.
- 36 "You shall make a screen for the door of the Tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer.
- 37 You shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold; and you shall cast five sockets of brass for them.
- 1 "You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare; and its height shall be three cubits.
- 2 You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it; and you shall overlay it with brass.
- 3 You shall make its pots to take away its ashes, its shovels, its basins, its flesh hooks, and its fire pans: all its vessels you shall make of brass.

- 4 You shall make a grating for it of network of brass; and on the net you shall make four brazen rings in its four corners.
- 5 You shall put it under the ledge around the altar beneath, that the net may reach halfway up the altar.
- 6 You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with brass.
- 7 Its poles shall be put into the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar, when carrying it.
- 8 Hollow with planks shall you make it: as it has been showed you on the mountain, so shall they make it.
- 9 "You shall make the court of the tent; for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen one hundred cubits long for one side:
- 10 and the pillars of it shall be twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.
- 11 Likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, and the pillars of it twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.
- 12 For the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.
- 13 The breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.
- 14 The hangings for the one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.
- 15 For the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.
- 16 For the gate of the court shall be a screen of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer; their pillars four, and their sockets four.
- 17 All the pillars of the court round about shall be filleted with silver; their hooks of silver, and their sockets of brass.
- 18 The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits, of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.
- 19 All the instruments of the tent in all its service, and all the pins of it, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.
- 20 "You shall command the children of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually.
- 21 In the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep it in order from evening to morning before Yahweh: it shall be a statute forever throughout their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.
- 1 "Bring Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, near to you from among the children of Israel, that he may minister to me in the priest s office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron s sons.
- 2 You shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.
- 3 You shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron s garments to sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest s office.
- 4 These are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a coat of checker work, a turban, and a sash: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and his sons, that he may minister to me in the priest s office.
- 5 They shall take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen.
- 6 "They shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the skillful workman.
- 7 It shall have two shoulder-pieces joined to the two ends of it, that it may be joined together.

- 8 The skillfully woven band, which is on it, that is on him, shall be like its work and of the same piece; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.
- 9 You shall take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the children of Israel:
- 10 six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the six that remain on the other stone, in the order of their birth.
- 11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shall you engrave the two stones, according to the names of the children of Israel; you shall make them to be enclosed in settings of gold.
- 12 You shall put the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the children of Israel; and Aaron shall bear their names before Yahweh on his two shoulders for a memorial.
- 13 You shall make settings of gold,
- 14 and two chains of pure gold; you make them like cords shall, of braided work; and you shall put the braided chains on the settings.
- 15 "You shall make a breastplate of judgment, the work of the skillful workman; like the work of the ephod you shall make it; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, shall you make it.
- 16 It shall be square and folded double; a span shall be its length of it, and a span its breadth.
- 17 You shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: a row of ruby, topaz, and beryl shall be the first row;
- 18 and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald;
- 19 and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
- 20 and the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper; they shall be enclosed in gold in their settings.
- 21 The stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, they shall be for the twelve tribes.
- 22 You shall make on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold.
- 23 You shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.
- 24 You shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate.
- 25 The other two ends of the two braided chains you shall put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod in the forepart of it.
- 26 You shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which is toward the side of the ephod inward.
- 27 You shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod underneath, in the forepart of it, close by the coupling of it, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.
- 28 They shall bind the breastplate by the rings of it to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate may not swing out from the ephod.
- 29 Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before Yahweh continually.
- 30 You shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be on Aaron's heart, when he goes in before Yahweh; and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel on his heart before Yahweh continually.
- 31 "You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

- 32 It shall have a hole for the head in the midst of it; it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, that it not be torn.
- 33 On its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, around its hem; and bells of gold between them round about:
- 34 a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe round about.
- 35 It shall be on Aaron to minister; and the sound of it shall be heard when he goes in to the holy place before Yāhweh, and when he comes out, that he not die.
- 36 "You shall make a plate of pure gold, and engrave on it, like the engravings of a signet, HOYVO
YAHWEH.
- 37 You shall put it on a lace of blue, and it shall be on the sash; on the front of the sash it shall be.
- 38 It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall make holy in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always on his forehead, that they may be accepted before Yāhweh.
- 39 You shall weave the coat in checker work of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash, the work of the embroiderer.
- 40 "You shall make coats for Aaron's sons, and you shall make sashes for them and headbands shall you make for them, for glory and for beauty.
- 41 You shall put them on Aaron your brother, and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office.
- 42 You shall make them linen breeches to cover the flesh of their nakedness; from the loins even to the thighs they shall reach:
- 43 They shall be on Aaron, and on his sons, when they go in to the tent of meeting, or when they come near to the altar to minister in the holy place; that they don't bear iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute forever to him and to his descendants after him.
- 1 "This is the thing that you shall do to them to make them holy, to minister to me in the priest's office: take one young bull and two rams without blemish,
- 2 unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil: you shall make them of fine wheat flour.
- 3 You shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams.
- 4 You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tent of meeting, and shall wash them with water.
- 5 You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and dress him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod;
- 6 and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban.
- 7 Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head, and anoint him.
- 8 You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them.
- 9 You shall dress them with belts, Aaron and his sons, and bind headbands on them; and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute; and you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.
- 10 "You shall bring the bull before the tent of meeting; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull.
- 11 You shall kill the bull before Yāhweh, at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 12 You shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; and you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar.
- 13 You shall take all the fat that covers the innards, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.

- 14 But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside of the camp: it is a sin-offering.
- 15 "You shall also take the one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.
- 16 You shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood, and sprinkle it around on the altar.
- 17 You shall cut the ram into its pieces, and wash its innards, and its legs, and put them with its pieces, and with its head.
- 18 You shall burn the whole ram on the altar: it is a burnt offering to Yāhweh; it is a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 19 "You shall take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.
- 20 Then you shall kill the ram, and take some of its blood, and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood on the altar round about.
- 21 You shall take of the blood that is on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron, and on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he shall be made holy, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons garments with him.
- 22 Also you shall take some of the ram's fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the innards, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration),
- 23 and one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before Yāhweh.
- 24 You shall put all of this in Aaron's hands, and in his sons' hands, and shall wave them for a wave-offering before Yāhweh.
- 25 You shall take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar on the burnt offering, for a sweet savor before Yāhweh: it is an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 26 "You shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of consecration, and wave it for a wave-offering before Yāhweh; and it shall be your portion.
- 27 You shall sanctify the breast of the wave-offering, and the thigh of the heave-offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:
- 28 and it shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the children of Israel; for it is a heave-offering; and it shall be a heave-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, even their heave-offering to Yāhweh.
- 29 "The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them.
- 30 Seven days shall the son who is priest in his place put them on, when he comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.
- 31 "You shall take the ram of consecration, and boil its flesh in a holy place.
- 32 Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 33 They shall eat those things with which atonement was made, to consecrate and sanctify them; but a stranger shall not eat of it, because they are holy.
- 34 If anything of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread, remains to the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.
- 35 "Thus shall you do to Aaron, and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. Seven days shall you consecrate them.

36 Every day shall you offer the bull of sin-offering for atonement; and you shall cleanse the altar, when you make atonement for it; and you shall anoint it, to sanctify it.
37 Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall be holy.
38 "Now this is that which you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old day by day continually.
39 The one lamb you shall offer in the morning; and the other lamb you shall offer at evening:
40 and with the one lamb a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink-offering.
41 The other lamb you shall offer at evening, and shall do to it according to the meal-offering of the morning, and according to its drink-offering, for a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
42 It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tent of meeting before Yāhweh, where I will meet with you, to speak there to you.
43 There I will meet with the children of Israel; and the place shall be sanctified by my glory.
44 I will sanctify the tent of meeting and the altar: Aaron also and his sons I will sanctify, to minister to me in the priest's office.
45 I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.
46 They shall know that I am Yāhweh their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am Yāhweh their God.
1 "You shall make an altar to burn incense on. You shall make it of acacia wood.
2 Its length shall be a cubit, and its breadth a cubit. It shall be square, and its height shall be two cubits. Its horns shall be of one piece with it.
3 You shall overlay it with pure gold, the top of it, the sides of it around it, and its horns; and you shall make a gold molding around it.
4 You shall make two golden rings for it under its molding; on its two ribs, on its two sides you shall make them; and they shall be for places for poles with which to bear it.
5 You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.
6 You shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.
7 Aaron shall burn incense of sweet spices on it every morning. When he tends the lamps, he shall burn it.
8 When Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before Yāhweh throughout your generations.
9 You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt offering, nor meal-offering; and you shall pour no drink-offering on it.
10 Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in the year; with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once in the year he shall make atonement for it throughout your generations. It is most holy to Yāhweh."
11 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
12 "When you take a census of the children of Israel, according to those who are numbered among them, then each man shall give a ransom for his soul to Yāhweh, when you number them; that there be no plague among them when you number them.
13 They shall give this, everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary; (the shekel is twenty gerahs;) half a shekel for an offering to Yāhweh.
14 Everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the offering to Yāhweh.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when they give the offering of Yāhweh, to make atonement for your souls.

16 You shall take the atonement money from the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tent of meeting; that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before Yāhweh, to make atonement for your souls."

17 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

18 "You shall also make a basin of brass, and the base of it of brass, in which to wash. You shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it.

19 Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet in it.

20 When they go into the tent of meeting, they shall wash with water, that they not die; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they not die; and it shall be a statute forever to them, even to him and to his descendants throughout their generations."

22 Moreover Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

23 "Also take fine spices: of liquid myrrh, five hundred shekels; and of fragrant cinnamon half as much, even two hundred and fifty; and of fragrant cane, two hundred and fifty;

24 and of cassia five hundred, after the shekel of the sanctuary; and a hin of olive oil.

25 You shall make it a holy anointing oil, a perfume compounded after the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil.

26 You shall use it to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony,

27 the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense, 28 the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its base.

29 You shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy.

30 You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest s office.

31 You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil to me throughout your generations.

32 It shall not be poured on man s flesh, neither shall you make any like it, according to its composition: it is holy. It shall be holy to you.

33 Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on a stranger, he shall be cut off from his people. "

34 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Take to yourself sweet spices, gum resin, and onycha, and galbanum; sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be an equal weight;

35 and you shall make incense of it, a perfume after the art of the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy:

36 and you shall beat some of it very small, and put some of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be to you most holy.

37 The incense which you shall make, according to its composition you shall not make for yourselves: it shall be to you holy for Yāhweh.

38 Whoever shall make any like that, to smell of it, he shall be cut off from his people."

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Behold, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

3 and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

4 to devise skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,
5 and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all manner of workmanship.
6 ¶, behold, ¶ have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted ¶ have put wisdom, that they may make all that ¶ have commanded you:
7 the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat that is on it, all the furniture of the Tent,
8 the table and its vessels, the pure lampstand with all its vessels, the altar of incense,
9 the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the basin and its base,
10 the finely worked garments -- the holy garments for Aaron the priest -- the garments of his sons to minister in the priest's office,
11 the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that ¶ have commanded you they shall do."
12 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
13 "Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, Most assuredly you shall keep my Sabbaths; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that ¶ am Yāhweh who sanctifies you.
14 You shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.
15 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to Yāhweh. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death.
16 Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.
17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days Yāhweh made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed. "
18 He gave to Moses, when he finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets, written with God's finger.
1 When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him."
2 Aaron said to them, "Take off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me."
3 All the people took off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron.
4 He received what they handed him, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it a molten calf; and they said, "These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt."
5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, "Tomorrow shall be a feast to Yāhweh."
6 They rose up early on the next day, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace-offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.
7 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, "Go, get down; for your people, who you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves!
8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which ¶ commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt. "
9 Yāhweh said to Moses, "¶ have seen these people, and, behold, they are a stiff-necked people.

- 10 Now therefore leave me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation."
- 11 Moses begged Yahweh his God, and said, "Yahweh, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, that you have brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?"
- 12 Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, He brought them forth for evil, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the surface of the earth? Turn from your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against your people.
- 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of the sky, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever. "
- 14 Yahweh repented of the evil which he said he would do to his people.
- 15 Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand; tablets that were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other they were written.
- 16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tables.
- 17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is the noise of war in the camp."
- 18 He said, "It isn't the voice of those who shout for victory, neither is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the noise of those who sing that I hear."
- 19 It happened, as soon as he came near to the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing; and Moses anger grew hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them beneath the mountain.
- 20 He took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.
- 21 Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you, that you have brought a great sin on them?"
- 22 Aaron said, "Don't let the anger of my lord grow hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil.
- 23 For they said to me, Make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.
- 24 I said to them, Whoever has any gold, let them take it off: so they gave it me; and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf."
- 25 When Moses saw that the people had broken loose, (for Aaron had let them loose for a derision among their enemies,)
- 26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on Yahweh's side, come to me!" All the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.
- 27 He said to them, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Every man put his sword on his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor."
- 28 The sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.
- 29 Moses said, "Consecrate yourselves today to Yahweh, yes, every man against his son, and against his brother; that he may bestow on you a blessing this day."
- 30 It happened on the next day, that Moses said to the people, "You have sinned a great sin. Now I will go up to Yahweh. Perhaps I shall make atonement for your sin."
- 31 Moses returned to Yahweh, and said, "Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold.

- 32 Yet now, if you will, forgive their sin-- and if not, please blot me out of your book which you have written."
- 33 Yahweh said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.
- 34 Now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin."
- 35 Yahweh struck the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.
- 1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, "Depart, go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed.
- 2 I will send an angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:
- 3 to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in the midst of you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way."
- 4 When the people heard this evil news, they mourned; and no one put on his jewelry.
- 5 Yahweh said to Moses, "Tell the children of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go up into your midst for one moment, I would consume you. Therefore now take off your jewelry from you, that I may know what to do to you."
- 6 The children of Israel stripped themselves of their jewelry from Mount Horeb onward.
- 7 Now Moses used to take the tent and to pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and he called it "The tent of meeting." It happened that everyone who sought Yahweh went out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.
- 8 It happened that when Moses went out to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood, everyone at their tent door, and watched Moses, until he had gone into the Tent.
- 9 It happened, when Moses entered into the Tent, that the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door of the Tent, and spoke with Moses.
- 10 All the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent, and all the people rose up and worshipped, everyone at their tent door.
- 11 Yahweh spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. He turned again into the camp, but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, didn't depart out of the Tent.
- 12 Moses said to Yahweh, "Behold, you tell me, Bring up this people: and you haven't let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.
- 13 Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your ways, that I may know you, so that I may find favor in your sight; and consider that this nation is your people."
- 14 He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."
- 15 He said to him, "If your presence doesn't go with me, don't carry us up from here.
- 16 For how would people know that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people? Isn't it in that you go with us, so that we are separated, I and your people, from all the people who are on the surface of the earth?"
- 17 Yahweh said to Moses, "I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."
- 18 He said, "Please show me your glory."
- 19 He said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of Yahweh before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy."

20 He said, "You cannot see my face, for man may not see me and live."
21 Yāhweh also said, "Behold, there is a place by me, and you shall stand on the rock.
22 It will happen, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand until I have passed by;
23 then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back; but my face shall not be seen."
1 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Chisel two stone tablets like the first; and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.
2 Be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain.
3 No one shall come up with you; neither let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain."
4 He chiseled two tablets of stone like the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to Mount Sinai, as Yāhweh had commanded him, and took in his hand two stone tablets.
5 Yāhweh descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of Yāhweh.
6 Yāhweh passed by before him, and proclaimed, "Yāhweh! Yāhweh, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness and truth,
7 keeping lovingkindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and disobedience and sin; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the children's children, on the third and on the fourth generation."
8 Moses hurried and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.
9 He said, "If now I have found favor in your sight, Lord, please let the Lord go in the midst of us; although this is a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."
10 He said, "Behold, I make a covenant; before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been worked in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among which you are shall see the work of Yāhweh; for it is an awesome thing that I do with you.
11 Observe that which I command you this day. Behold, I drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.
12 Be careful, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you;
13 but you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and you shall cut down their Asherim;
14 for you shall worship no other god: for Yāhweh, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.
15 Don't make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, lest they play the prostitute after their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and one call you and you eat of his sacrifice;
16 and you take of their daughters to your sons, and their daughters play the prostitute after their gods, and make your sons play the prostitute after their gods.
17 You shall make no cast idols for yourselves.
18 "You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt.
19 All that opens the womb is mine; and all your cattle that is male, the firstborn of cow and sheep.
20 The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. No one shall appear before me empty.

- 21 Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest: in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.
- 22 You shall observe the feast of weeks with the first-fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of harvest at the year's end.
- 23 Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord Yāhweh, the God of Israel.
- 24 For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither shall any man desire your land when you go up to appear before Yāhweh, your God, three times in the year.
- 25 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the Passover be left to the morning.
- 26 You shall bring the first of the first-fruits of your ground to the house of Yāhweh your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk."
- 27 Yāhweh said to Moses, "Write you these words; for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."
- 28 He was there with Yāhweh forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread, nor drank water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.
- 29 It happened, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mountain, that Moses didn't know that the skin of his face shone by reason of his speaking with him.
- 30 When Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come near him.
- 31 Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them.
- 32 Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them all of the commandments that Yāhweh had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.
- 33 When Moses was done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.
- 34 But when Moses went in before Yāhweh to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and he came out, and spoke to the children of Israel that which he was commanded.
- 35 The children of Israel saw Moses' face, that the skin of Moses' face shone; and Moses put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.
- 1 Moses assembled all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said to them, "These are the words which Yāhweh has commanded, that you should do them.
- 2 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of solemn rest to Yāhweh; whoever does any work in it shall be put to death.
- 3 You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day. "
- 4 Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which Yāhweh commanded, saying,
- 5 Take from among you an offering to Yāhweh. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, Yāhweh's offering: gold, silver, brass,
- 6 blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair,
- 7 rams' skins dyed red, sea cow hides, acacia wood,
- 8 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense,
- 9 onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.
- 10 "Let every wise-hearted man among you come, and make all that Yāhweh has commanded:
- 11 the tent, its outer covering, its roof, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;

12 the ark, and its poles, the mercy seat, the veil of the screen;
 13 the table with its poles and all its vessels, and the show bread;
 14 the lampstand also for the light, with its vessels, its lamps, and the oil for the light;
 15 and the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door, at the door of the tent;
 16 the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of brass, its poles, and all its vessels, the basin and its base;
 17 the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court;
 18 the pins of the tent, the pins of the court, and their cords;
 19 the finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office. "

20 All the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 They came, everyone whose heart stirred him up, and everyone whom his spirit made willing, and brought Yahweh's offering, for the work of the tent of meeting, and for all of its service, and for the holy garments.

22 They came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought brooches, ear-rings, signet-rings, and armlets, all jewels of gold; even every man who offered an offering of gold to Yahweh.

23 Everyone, with whom was found blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, and sea cow hides, brought them.

24 Everyone who did offer an offering of silver and brass brought Yahweh's offering; and everyone, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 All the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen.

26 All the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair.

27 The rulers brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastplate;

28 and the spice, and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to Yahweh; every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which Yahweh had commanded to be made by Moses.

30 Moses said to the children of Israel, "Behold, Yahweh has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

31 He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 and to make skillful works, to work in gold, in silver, in brass,

33 in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of skillful workmanship.

34 He has put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35 He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of workmanship, of the engraver, of the skillful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any workmanship, and of those who make skillful works.

1 "Bezalel and Oholiab shall work with every wise-hearted man, in whom Yahweh has put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all the work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that Yahweh has commanded."

2 Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart Yahweh had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred him up to come to the work to do it:

- 3 and they received from Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, with which to make it. They brought yet to him freewill-offerings every morning.
- 4 All the wise men, who performed all the work of the sanctuary, each came from his work which they did.
- 5 They spoke to Moses, saying, "The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which Yahweh commanded to make."
- 6 Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, "Let neither man nor woman make anything else for the offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing.
- 7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.
- 8 All the wise-hearted men among those who did the work made the tent with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, blue, purple, and scarlet, with cherubim, the work of the skillful workman, they made them.
- 9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits. All the curtains had one measure.
- 10 He coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled one to another.
- 11 He made loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling. Likewise he made in the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the second coupling.
- 12 He made fifty loops in the one curtain, and he made fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that was in the second coupling. The loops were opposite one to another.
- 13 He made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains one to another with the clasps: so the tent was a unit.
- 14 He made curtains of goats hair for a covering over the tent. He made them eleven curtains.
- 15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits the breadth of each curtain. The eleven curtains had one measure.
- 16 He coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.
- 17 He made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the coupling, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which was outmost in the second coupling.
- 18 He made fifty clasps of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be a unit.
- 19 He made a covering for the tent of rams skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above.
- 20 He made the boards for the tent of acacia wood, standing up.
- 21 Ten cubits was the length of a board, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each board.
- 22 Each board had two tenons, joined one to another. He made all the boards of the tent this way.
- 23 He made the boards for the tent: twenty boards for the south side southward.
- 24 He made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.
- 25 For the second side of the tent, on the north side, he made twenty boards,
- 26 and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.
- 27 For the far part of the tent westward he made six boards.
- 28 He made two boards for the corners of the tent in the far part.
- 29 They were double beneath, and in like manner they were all the way to the top of it to one ring. He did thus to both of them in the two corners.
- 30 There were eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; under every board two sockets.

31 He made bars of acacia wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tent, 32 and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tent, and five bars for the boards of the tent for the hinder part westward.
33 He made the middle bar to pass through in the midst of the boards from the one end to the other.
34 He overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold for places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.
35 He made the veil of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen; with cherubim. He made it the work of a skillful workman.
36 He made four pillars of acacia for it, and overlaid them with gold. Their hooks were of gold. He cast four sockets of silver for them.
37 He made a screen for the door of the tent, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer;
38 and the five pillars of it with their hooks. He overlaid their capitals and their fillets with gold, and their five sockets were of brass.
1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was two and a half cubits, and its breadth a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height.
2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold for it round about.
3 He cast four rings of gold for it, in its four feet; even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side.
4 He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.
5 He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.
6 He made a mercy seat of pure gold. Its length was two and a half cubits, and a cubit and a half its breadth.
7 He made two cherubim of gold. He made them of beaten work them, at the two ends of the mercy seat;
8 one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. He made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends.
9 The cherubim spread out their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.
10 He made the table of acacia wood. Its length was two cubits, and its breadth was a cubit, and its height was a cubit and a half.
11 He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it.
12 He made a border of a handbreadth around it, and made a golden molding on its border around it.
13 He cast four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that were on its four feet.
14 The rings were close by the border, the places for the poles to carry the table.
15 He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table.
16 He made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes, its spoons, its bowls, and its pitchers with which to pour out, of pure gold.
17 He made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of beaten work. Its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers were of one piece with it.
18 There were six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side:

- 19 three cups made like almond-blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower, and three cups made like almond-blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower; so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.
- 20 ¶ In the lampstand were four cups made like almond-blossoms, its buds and its flowers;
- 21 and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of it.
- 22 Their buds and their branches were of one piece with it. The whole thing was one beaten work of pure gold.
- 23 He made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, of pure gold.
- 24 He made it of a talent of pure gold, with all its vessels.
- 25 He made the altar of incense of acacia wood. It was square; its length was a cubit, and its breadth a cubit. Its height was two cubits. Its horns were of one piece with it.
- 26 He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns. He made a gold molding around it.
- 27 He made two golden rings for it under its molding crown, on its two ribs, on its two sides, for places for poles with which to carry it.
- 28 He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.
- 29 He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, after the art of the perfumer.
- 1 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was square. Its length was five cubits, its breadth was five cubits, and its height was three cubits.
- 2 He made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with brass.
- 3 He made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the flesh-hooks, and the fire pans. He made all its vessels of brass.
- 4 He made for the altar a grating of a network of brass, under the ledge around it beneath, reaching halfway up.
- 5 He cast four rings for the four ends of brass grating, to be places for the poles.
- 6 He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with brass.
- 7 He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.
- 8 He made the basin of brass, and its base of brass, out of the mirrors of the ministering women who ministered at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 9 He made the court; for the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, one hundred cubits;
- 10 their pillars were twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.
- 11 For the north side one hundred cubits, their pillars twenty, and their sockets twenty, of brass; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.
- 12 For the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.
- 13 For the east side eastward fifty cubits.
- 14 The hangings for the one side were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three;
- 15 and so for the other side; on this hand and that hand by the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

- 16 All the hangings around the court were of fine twined linen.
- 17 The sockets for the pillars were of brass. The hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver; and the overlaying of their capitals, of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.
- 18 The screen for the gate of the court was the work of the embroiderer, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. Twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, like to the hangings of the court.
- 19 Their pillars were four, and their sockets four, of brass; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals, and their fillets, of silver.
- 20 All the pins of the tent, and around the court, were of brass.
- 21 This is the amount of material used for the tent, even the Tent of the Testimony, as they were counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.
- 22 Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Yāhweh commanded Moses.
- 23 With him was Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skillful workman, and an embroiderer in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen.
- 24 All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents, and seven hundred thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.
- 25 The silver of those who were numbered of the congregation was one hundred talents, and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:
- 26 a beka a head, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone who passed over to those who were numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty men.
- 27 The one hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil; one hundred sockets for the one hundred talents, a talent for a socket.
- 28 Of the one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made fillets for them.
- 29 The brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels.
- 30 With this he made the sockets to the door of the tent of meeting, the brazen altar, the brazen grating for it, all the vessels of the altar,
- 31 the sockets around the court, the sockets of the gate of the court, all the pins of the tent, and all the pins around the court.
- 1 Of the blue, purple, and scarlet, they made finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
- 2 He made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen.
- 3 They beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, in the purple, in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, the work of the skillful workman.
- 4 They made shoulder-pieces for it, joined together. At the two ends it was joined together.
- 5 The skillfully woven band that was on it, with which to fasten it on, was of the same piece, like its work; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
- 6 They worked the onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold, engraved with the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the children of Israel.
- 7 He put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the children of Israel, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

8 He made the breastplate, the work of a skillful workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was square. They made the breastplate double. Its length was a span, and its breadth a span, being double.

10 They set in it four rows of stones. A row of ruby, topaz, and beryl was the first row;

11 and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire, and an emerald;

12 and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

13 and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in gold settings.

14 The stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, for the twelve tribes.

15 They made on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold.

16 They made two settings of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

17 They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate.

18 The other two ends of the two braided chains they put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, in the front of it.

19 They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which was toward the side of the ephod inward.

20 They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod underneath, in the front of it, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.

21 They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

22 He made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 The opening of the robe in the midst of it was like the opening of a coat of mail, with a binding around its opening, that it should not be torn.

24 They made on the skirts of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, scarlet, and twined linen.

25 They made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates around the skirts of the robe, between the pomegranates;

26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, around the skirts of the robe, to minister in, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

27 They made the coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons,

28 and the turban of fine linen, and the linen headbands of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twined linen,

29 and the sash of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, the work of the embroiderer, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

30 They made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it a writing, like the engravings of a signet: "HOLY TO YAHWEH."

31 They tied to it a lace of blue, to fasten it on the turban above, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

32 Thus all the work of the tent of the tent of meeting was finished. The children of Israel did according to all that Yāhweh commanded Moses; so they did.

33 They brought the tent to Moses, the tent, with all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets,

34 the covering of rams skins dyed red, the covering of sea cow hides, the veil of the screen,

35 the ark of the testimony with its poles, the mercy seat,
36 the table, all its vessels, the show bread,
37 the pure lampstand, its lamps, even the lamps to be set in order, all its vessels, the oil for the light,
38 the golden altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door of the Tent,
39 the brazen altar, its grating of brass, its poles, all of its vessels, the basin and its base, 40 the hangings of the court, its pillars, its sockets, the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, its pins, all the instruments of the service of the tent, for the tent of meeting, 41 the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.
42 According to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work.
43 Moses saw all the work, and, behold, they had done it as Yahweh had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.
1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
2 "On the first day of the first month you shall raise up the tent of the Tent of Meeting.
3 You shall put the ark of the testimony in it, and you shall screen the ark with the veil.
4 You shall bring in the table, and set in order the things that are on it. You shall bring in the lampstand, and light the lamps of it.
5 You shall set the golden altar for incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the screen of the door to the tent.
6 You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tent of the tent of meeting.
7 You shall set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and shall put water therein.
8 You shall set up the court around it, and hang up the screen of the gate of the court.
9 You shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tent, and all that is in it, and shall make it holy, and all its furniture: and it will be holy.
10 You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and the altar will be most holy.
11 You shall anoint the basin and its base, and sanctify it.
12 You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tent of meeting, and shall wash them with water.
13 You shall put on Aaron the holy garments; and you shall anoint him, and sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest's office.
14 You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them.
15 You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to me in the priest's office.
Their anointing shall be to them for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.
16 Thus did Moses: according to all that Yahweh commanded him, so he did.
17 It happened in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tent was raised up.
18 Moses raised up the tent, and laid its sockets, and set up the boards of it, and put in the bars of it, and raised up its pillars.
19 He spread the covering over the tent, and put the roof of the tent above on it, as Yahweh commanded Moses.
20 He took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the poles on the ark, and put the mercy seat above on the ark.

21 He brought the ark into the tent, and set up the veil of the screen, and screened the ark of the testimony, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
22 He put the table in the tent of meeting, on the side of the tent northward, outside of the veil.
23 He set the bread in order on it before Yāhweh, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
24 He put the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table, on the side of the tent southward.
25 He lit the lamps before Yāhweh, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
26 He put the golden altar in the tent of meeting before the veil;
27 and he burnt incense of sweet spices on it, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
28 He put up the screen of the door to the tent.
29 He set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tent of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal-offering, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
30 He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water therein, with which to wash.
31 Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet there.
32 When they went into the tent of meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
33 He raised up the court around the tent and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.
34 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of Yāhweh filled the tent.
35 Moses wasn't able to enter into the tent of meeting, because the cloud stayed on it, and Yāhweh's glory filled the tent.
36 When the cloud was taken up from over the tent, the children of Israel went onward, throughout all their journeys;
37 but if the cloud wasn't taken up, then they didn't travel until the day that it was taken up.
38 For the cloud of Yāhweh was on the tent by day, and there was fire in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.
1 Yāhweh called to Moses, and spoke to him out of the Tent of Meeting, saying,
2 "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When anyone of you offers an offering to Yāhweh, you shall offer your offering of the cattle, of the herd and of the flock.
3 If his offering is a burnt offering of the herd, he shall offer it a male without blemish. He shall offer it at the door of the tent of meeting, that he may be accepted before Yāhweh.
4 He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.
5 He shall kill the bull before Yāhweh. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the door of the tent of meeting.
6 He shall flay the burnt-offering, and cut it into its pieces.
7 The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order on the fire;
8 and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar;
9 but its innards and its legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall burn the whole on the altar, for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
10 If his offering is of the flock, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt offering, he shall offer it a male without blemish.
11 He shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before Yāhweh. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

- 12 He shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat. The priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar,
- 13 but the innards and the legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall offer the whole, and burn it on the altar: it is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 14 If his offering to Yāhweh is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall offer his offering of turtle-doves, or of young pigeons.
- 15 The priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar;
- 16 and he shall take away its crop with its filth, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, in the place of the ashes;
- 17 and he shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it apart. The priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 1 " When anyone offers an offering of a meal-offering to Yāhweh, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it.
- 2 He shall bring it to Aaron s sons the priests; and he shall take his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 3 That which is left of the meal-offering shall be Aaron s and his sons . It is a most holy thing of the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire.
- 4 When you offer an offering of a meal-offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.
- 5 If your offering is a meal-offering of the baking-pan, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mingled with oil.
- 6 You shall cut it in pieces, and pour oil on it. It is a meal-offering.
- 7 If your offering be a meal-offering of the frying-pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.
- 8 You shall bring the meal-offering that is made of these things to Yāhweh; and it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar.
- 9 The priest shall take up from the meal-offering the memorial of it, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 10 That which is left of the meal-offering shall be Aaron s and his sons : it is a thing most holy of the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire.
- 11 No meal-offering, which you shall offer to Yāhweh, shall be made with yeast; for you shall burn no yeast, nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 12 As an offering of first -[fruits] you shall offer them to Yāhweh; but they shall not come up for a sweet savor on the altar.
- 13 Every offering of your meal-offering shall you season with salt; neither shall you allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your meal-offering: with all your offerings you shall offer salt.
- 14 If you offer a meal-offering of first-fruits to Yāhweh, you shall offer for the meal-offering of your first-fruits grain in the ear parched with fire, bruised grain of the fresh ear.
- 15 You shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meal-offering.
- 16 The priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the bruised grain of it, and part of the oil of it, with all the frankincense of it: it is an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.

- 1 If his offering be a sacrifice of peace-offerings; if he offer of the herd, whether male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before Yāhweh.
- 2 He shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood on the altar round about.
- 3 He shall offer of the sacrifice of peace-offerings an offering made by fire to Yāhweh; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is on the inwards,
- 4 and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away.
- 5 Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar on the burnt offering, which is on the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 6 If his offering for a sacrifice of peace-offerings to Yāhweh be of the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.
- 7 If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before Yāhweh;
- 8 and he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it before the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood of it on the altar round about.
- 9 He shall offer of the sacrifice of peace-offerings an offering made by fire to Yāhweh; the fat of it, the fat tail entire, he shall take away hard by the backbone; and the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is on the inwards,
- 10 and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away.
- 11 The priest shall burn it on the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 12 If his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before Yāhweh;
- 13 and he shall lay his hand on the head of it, and kill it before the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood of it on the altar round about.
- 14 He shall offer of it his offering, [even] an offering made by fire to Yāhweh; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is on the inwards,
- 15 and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away.
- 16 The priest shall burn them on the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire, for a sweet savor; all the fat is Yāhweh's.
- 17 It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings, that you shall eat neither fat nor blood.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If anyone shall sin unwittingly, in any of the things which Yāhweh has commanded not to be done, and shall do any one of them:
- 3 if the anointed priest shall sin so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him offer for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bull without blemish to Yāhweh for a sin-offering.
- 4 He shall bring the bull to the door of the tent of meeting before Yāhweh; and he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull, and kill the bull before Yāhweh.
- 5 The anointed priest shall take of the blood of the bull, and bring it to the tent of meeting;
- 6 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before Yāhweh, before the veil of the sanctuary.
- 7 The priest shall put of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before Yāhweh, which is in the tent of meeting; and all the blood of the bull shall he pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tent of meeting.

- 8 All the fat of the bull of the sin-offering he shall take off from it; the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is on the inwards,
- 9 and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away,
- 10 as it is taken off from the ox of the sacrifice of peace-offerings: and the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.
- 11 The skin of the bull, and all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its inwards, and its dung, even the whole bull shall he carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall it be burnt.
- 13 If the whole congregation of Israel err, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done any of the things which Yāhweh has commanded not to be done, and are guilty;
- 14 when the sin in which they have sinned is known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin-offering, and bring it before the tent of meeting.
- 15 The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before Yāhweh; and the bull shall be killed before Yāhweh.
- 16 The anointed priest shall bring of the blood of the bull to the tent of meeting;
- 17 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before Yāhweh, before the veil.
- 18 He shall put of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before Yāhweh, that is in the tent of meeting; and all the blood shall he pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 19 All the fat of it shall he take off from it, and burn it on the altar.
- 20 Thus shall he do with the bull; as he did with the bull of the sin-offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.
- 21 He shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull: it is the sin-offering for the assembly.
- 22 When a ruler sins, and does unwittingly any one of all the things which Yāhweh his God has commanded not to be done, and is guilty;
- 23 if his sin, in which he has sinned, be made known to him, he shall bring for his offering a goat, a male without blemish.
- 24 He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt-offering before Yāhweh: it is a sin-offering.
- 25 The priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the blood of it shall he pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering.
- 26 All the fat of it shall he burn on the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall make atonement for him as concerning his sin, and he shall be forgiven.
- 27 If anyone of the common people sin unwittingly, in doing any of the things which Yāhweh has commanded not to be done, and be guilty;
- 28 if his sin, which he has sinned, be made known to him, then he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned.
- 29 He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering, and kill the sin-offering in the place of burnt offering.
- 30 The priest shall take of the blood of it with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all the blood of it shall he pour out at the base of the altar.

- 31 All the fat of it shall he take away, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savor to Yāhweh; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be forgiven.
- 32 If he bring a lamb as his offering for a sin-offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish.
- 33 He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering, and kill it for a sin-offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.
- 34 The priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all the blood of it shall he pour out at the base of the altar:
- 35 and all the fat of it shall he take away, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn them on the altar, on the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire; and the priest shall make atonement for him as touching his sin that he has sinned, and he shall be forgiven.
- 1 If anyone sin, in that he hears the voice of adjuration, he being a witness, whether he has seen or known, if he doesn't report it, then he shall bear his iniquity.
- 2 Or if anyone touch any unclean thing, whether it be the carcass of an unclean animal, or the carcass of unclean cattle, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and it be hidden from him, and he be unclean, then he shall be guilty.
- 3 Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatever his uncleanness be with which he is unclean, and it be hid from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty.
- 4 Or if anyone swear rashly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it be that a man shall utter rashly with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these [things].
- 5 It shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these [things], that he shall confess that in which he has sinned:
- 6 and he shall bring his trespass-offering to Yāhweh for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him as concerning his sin.
- 7 If his means aren't sufficient for a lamb, then he shall bring his trespass-offering for that in which he has sinned, two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, to Yāhweh; one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt offering.
- 8 He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin-offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it apart:
- 9 and he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin-offering on the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin-offering.
- 10 He shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him as concerning his sin which he has sinned, and he shall be forgiven.
- 11 But if his means aren't sufficient for two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, then he shall bring his offering for that in which he has sinned, the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin-offering; he shall put no oil on it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon; for it is a sin-offering.
- 12 He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as the memorial of it, and burn it on the altar, on the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire: it is a sin-offering.
- 13 The priest shall make atonement for him as touching his sin that he has sinned in any of these things, and he shall be forgiven; and [the remnant] shall be the priest's, as the meal-offering.
- 14 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 15 If anyone commits a trespass, and sin unwittingly, in the holy things of Yāhweh; then he shall bring his trespass-offering to Yāhweh, a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to your estimation in silver by shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass-offering:

- 16 and he shall make restitution for that which he has done amiss in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering, and he shall be forgiven.
- 17 If anyone sins, and does any of the things which Yāhweh has commanded not to be done; though he didn't know it, yet he is guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.
- 18 He shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass-offering, to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning the thing in which he erred unwittingly and didn't know it, and he shall be forgiven.
- 19 It is a trespass-offering: he is certainly guilty before Yāhweh.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 If anyone sins, and commit a trespass against Yāhweh, and deal falsely with his neighbor in a matter of deposit, or of bargain, or of robbery, or have oppressed his neighbor,
- 3 or have found that which was lost, and deal falsely therein, and swear to a lie; in any of all these things that a man does, sinning therein;
- 4 then it shall be, if he has sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took by robbery, or the thing which he has gotten by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to him, or the lost thing which he found,
- 5 or any thing about which he has sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in full, and shall add the fifth part more thereto: to him to whom it appertains shall he give it, in the day of his being found guilty.
- 6 He shall bring his trespass-offering to Yāhweh, a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass-offering, to the priest:
- 7 and the priest shall make atonement for him before Yāhweh; and he shall be forgiven concerning whatever he does so as to be guilty thereby.
- 8 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering shall be on the hearth on the altar all night to the morning; and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning thereon.
- 10 The priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put on his flesh; and he shall take up the ashes whereto the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.
- 11 He shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes outside of the camp to a clean place.
- 12 The fire on the altar shall be kept burning thereon, it shall not go out; and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning; and he shall lay the burnt offering in order on it, and shall burn thereon the fat of the peace-offerings.
- 13 Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out.
- 14 This is the law of the meal-offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before Yāhweh, before the altar.
- 15 He shall take up therefrom his handful, of the fine flour of the meal-offering, and of the oil of it, and all the frankincense which is on the meal-offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savor, as the memorial of it, to Yāhweh.
- 16 That which is left of it shall Aaron and his sons eat: it shall be eaten without yeast in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting they shall eat it.
- 17 It shall not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as the sin-offering, and as the trespass-offering.
- 18 Every male among the children of Aaron shall eat of it, as [his] portion for ever throughout your generations, from the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire: whoever touches them shall be holy.

- 19 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 20 This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer to Yahweh in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal-offering perpetually, half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening.
- 21 On a baking-pan it shall be made with oil; when it is soaked, you shall bring it in: in baked pieces shall you offer the meal-offering for a sweet savor to Yahweh.
- 22 The anointed priest that shall be in his place from among his sons shall offer it: by a statute for ever it shall be wholly burnt to Yahweh.
- 23 Every meal-offering of the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.
- 24 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 25 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin-offering: in the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin-offering be killed before Yahweh: it is most holy.
- 26 The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it: in a holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tent of meeting.
- 27 Whatever shall touch the flesh of it shall be holy; and when there is sprinkled of the blood of it on any garment, you shall wash that whereon it was sprinkled in a holy place.
- 28 But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; and if it be boiled in a brazen vessel, it shall be scoured, and rinsed in water.
- 29 Every male among the priests shall eat of it: it is most holy.
- 30 No sin-offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt with fire.
- 1 This is the law of the trespass-offering: it is most holy.
- 2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass-offering; and the blood of it shall he sprinkle on the altar round about.
- 3 He shall offer of it all the fat of it: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the inwards,
- 4 and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away;
- 5 and the priest shall burn them on the altar for an offering made by fire to Yahweh: it is a trespass-offering.
- 6 Every male among the priests shall eat of it: it shall be eaten in a holy place: it is most holy.
- 7 As is the sin-offering, so is the trespass-offering: there is one law for them: the priest who makes atonement therewith, he shall have it.
- 8 The priest who offers any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered.
- 9 Every meal-offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying-pan, and on the baking-pan, shall be the priest's who offers it.
- 10 Every meal-offering, mingled with oil, or dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as well as another.
- 11 This is the law of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which one shall offer to Yahweh.
- 12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour soaked.
- 13 With cakes of leavened bread he shall offer his offering with the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving.

- 14 Of it he shall offer one out of each offering for a heave-offering to Yāhweh; it shall be the priest s who sprinkles the blood of the peace-offerings.
- 15 The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.
- 16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a freewill-offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice; and on the next day that which remains of it shall be eaten:
- 17 but that which remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.
- 18 If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings be eaten on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to him who offers it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.
- 19 The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire. As for the flesh, everyone who is clean shall eat of it:
- 20 but the soul who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, that pertain to Yāhweh, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from his people.
- 21 When anyone shall touch any unclean thing, the uncleanness of man, or an unclean animal, or any unclean abomination, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which pertain to Yāhweh, that soul shall be cut off from his people.
- 22 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 23 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, You shall eat no fat, of ox, or sheep, or goat.
- 24 The fat of that which dies of itself, and the fat of that which is torn of animals, may be used for any other service; but you shall in no way eat of it.
- 25 For whoever eats the fat of the animal, of which men offer an offering made by fire to Yāhweh, even the soul who eats it shall be cut off from his people.
- 26 You shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of bird or of animal, in any of your dwellings.
- 27 Whoever it be who eats any blood, that soul shall be cut off from his people.
- 28 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 29 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, He who offers the sacrifice of his peace-offerings to Yāhweh shall bring his offering to Yāhweh out of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings:
- 30 his own hands shall bring the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire; the fat with the breast shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave-offering before Yāhweh.
- 31 The priest shall burn the fat on the altar; but the breast shall be Aaron s and his sons .
- 32 The right thigh shall you give to the priest for a heave-offering out of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings.
- 33 He among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have the right thigh for a portion.
- 34 For the wave-breast and the heave-thigh have I taken of the children of Israel out of the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as [their] portion forever from the children of Israel.
- 35 This is the anointing-portion of Aaron, and the anointing-portion of his sons, out of the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister to Yāhweh in the priest s office;
- 36 which Yāhweh commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them. It is [their] portion for ever throughout their generations.
- 37 This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meal-offering, and of the sin-offering, and of the trespass-offering, and of the consecration, and of the sacrifice of peace-offerings;

38 which Yāhweh commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to Yāhweh, in the wilderness of Sinai.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin-offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread;

3 and assemble you all the congregation at the door of the tent of meeting.

4 Moses did as Yāhweh commanded him; and the congregation was assembled at the door of the tent of meeting.

5 Moses said to the congregation, This is the thing which Yāhweh has commanded to be done.

6 Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water.

7 He put on him the coat, and girded him with the sash, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him, and he girded him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and bound it to him therewith.

8 He placed the breastplate on him; and in the breastplate he put the Urim and the Thummim.

9 He set the turban on his head; and on the turban, in front, did he set the golden plate, the holy crown; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

10 Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tent and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 He sprinkled of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, and the basin and its base, to sanctify them.

12 He poured of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 Moses brought Aaron's sons, and clothed them with coats, and girded them with girdles, and bound headbands on them; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

14 He brought the bull of the sin-offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin-offering.

15 He killed it; and Moses took the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement for it.

16 He took all the fat that was on the inwards, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat; and Moses burned it on the altar.

17 But the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burnt with fire outside of the camp; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

18 He presented the ram of the burnt offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

19 He killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar round about.

20 He cut the ram into its pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 He washed the inwards and the legs with water; and Moses burnt the whole ram on the altar; it was a burnt offering for a sweet savor; it was an offering made by fire to Yāhweh; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

22 He presented the other ram, the ram of consecration; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

23 He killed it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot.

24 He brought Aaron's sons; and Moses put of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot; and Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar round about.

25 He took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the inwards, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right thigh:
26 and out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before Yāhweh, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat, and on the right thigh:
27 and he put the whole on the hands of Aaron, and on the hands of his sons, and waved them for a wave-offering before Yāhweh.
28 Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar on the burnt offering: they were a consecration for a sweet savor: it was an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
29 Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave-offering before Yāhweh: it was Moses portion of the ram of consecration; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
30 Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons garments with him, and sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons garments with him.
31 Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tent of meeting: and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.
32 That which remains of the flesh and of the bread shall you burn with fire.
33 You shall not go out from the door of the tent of meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration be fulfilled: for he shall consecrate you seven days.
34 As has been done this day, so Yāhweh has commanded to do, to make atonement for you.
35 At the door of the tent of meeting shall you abide day and night seven days, and keep the charge of Yāhweh, that you don t die: for so I am commanded.
36 Aaron and his sons did all the things which Yāhweh commanded by Moses.
1 It happened on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;
2 and he said to Aaron, Take a calf of the herd for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before Yāhweh.
3 To the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, Take a male goat for a sin-offering; and a calf and a lamb, both a year old, without blemish, for a burnt offering;
4 and an ox and a ram for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before Yāhweh; and a meal-offering mingled with oil: for today Yāhweh appears to you.
5 They brought that which Moses commanded before the tent of meeting: and all the congregation drew near and stood before Yāhweh.
6 Moses said, This is the thing which Yāhweh commanded that you should do: and the glory of Yāhweh shall appear to you.
7 Moses said to Aaron, Draw near to the altar, and offer your sin-offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people; and offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as Yāhweh commanded.
8 So Aaron drew near to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin-offering, which was for himself.
9 The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar:
10 but the fat, and the kidneys, and the cover from the liver of the sin-offering, he burnt on the altar; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
11 The flesh and the skin he burnt with fire outside of the camp.
12 He killed the burnt offering; and Aaron s sons delivered to him the blood, and he sprinkled it on the altar round about.

13 They delivered the burnt-offering to him, piece by piece, and the head; and he burnt them on the altar.
14 He washed the inwards and the legs, and burnt them on the burnt offering on the altar.
15 He presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin-offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, as the first.
16 He presented the burnt-offering, and offered it according to the ordinance.
17 He presented the meal-offering, and filled his hand therefrom, and burnt it on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.
18 He killed also the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which was for the people; and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he sprinkled on the altar round about,
19 and the fat of the ox and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers [the inwards], and the kidneys, and the cover of the liver:
20 and they put the fat on the breasts, and he burnt the fat on the altar:
21 and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave-offering before Yâhweh; as Moses commanded.
22 Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people, and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin-offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace-offerings.
23 Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting, and came out, and blessed the people; and the glory of Yâhweh appeared to all the people.
24 There came forth fire from before Yâhweh, and consumed on the altar the burnt offering and the fat: and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.
1 Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took each of them his censer, and put fire therein, and laid incense thereon, and offered strange fire before Yâhweh, which he had not commanded them.
2 There came forth fire from before Yâhweh, and devoured them, and they died before Yâhweh.
3 Then Moses said to Aaron, This is it what Yâhweh spoke, saying, I will be sanctified in those who come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified. Aaron held his peace.
4 Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, Draw near, carry your brothers from before the sanctuary out of the camp.
5 So they drew near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.
6 Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons, Don't let the hair of your heads go loose, neither tear your clothes; that you don't die, and that he not be angry with all the congregation: but let your brothers, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which Yâhweh has kindled.
7 You shall not go out from the door of the tent of meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of Yâhweh is on you. They did according to the word of Moses.
8 Yâhweh spoke to Aaron, saying,
9 Drink no wine nor strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the tent of meeting, that you don't die: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations:
10 and that you may make a distinction between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;
11 and that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which Yâhweh has spoken to them by Moses.
12 Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons who were left, Take the meal-offering that remains of the offerings of Yâhweh made by fire, and eat it without yeast beside the altar; for it is most holy;
13 and you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your portion, and your sons' portion, of the offerings of Yâhweh made by fire: for so I am commanded.

- 14 The wave-breast and the heave-thigh shall you eat in a clean place, you, and your sons, and your daughters with you: for they are given as your portion, and your sons' portion, out of the sacrifices of the peace-offerings of the children of Israel.
- 15 The heave-thigh and the wave-breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave-offering before Yahweh: and it shall be your, and your sons' with you, as a portion forever; as Yahweh has commanded.
- 16 Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin-offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying,
- 17 Why haven't you eaten the sin-offering in the place of the sanctuary, seeing it is most holy, and he has given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before Yahweh?
- 18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought into the sanctuary within: you should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded.
- 19 Aaron spoke to Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin-offering and their burnt offering before Yahweh; and there have befallen me such things as these: and if I had eaten the sin-offering today, would it have been well-pleasing in the sight of Yahweh?
- 20 When Moses heard [that], it was well-pleasing in his sight.
- 1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them,
- 2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, These are the living things which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth.
- 3 Whatever parts the hoof, and is cloven-footed, [and] chews the cud, among the animals, that may you eat.
- 4 Nevertheless these shall you not eat of them that chew the cud, or of those who part the hoof: the camel, because he chews the cud but doesn't have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you.
- 5 The rabbit, because he chews the cud but doesn't have a parted the hoof, he is unclean to you.
- 6 The hare, because she chews the cud but doesn't part the hoof, she is unclean to you.
- 7 The pig, because he doesn't part the hoof, and is cloven-footed, but doesn't chew the cud, he is unclean to you.
- 8 Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you.
- 9 These may you eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, that may you eat.
- 10 All that don't have fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of all the living creatures that are in the waters, they are an abomination to you,
- 11 and they shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat of their flesh, and their carcasses you shall have in abomination.
- 12 Whatever has no fins nor scales in the waters, that is an abomination to you.
- 13 These you shall have in abomination among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the gier-eagle, and the ospray,
- 14 and the kite, and the falcon after its kind,
- 15 every raven after its kind,
- 16 and the ostrich, and the night-hawk, and the seamew, and the hawk after its kind,
- 17 and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,
- 18 and the horned owl, and the pelican, and the vulture,
- 19 and the stork, the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.
- 20 All winged creeping things that go on all fours are an abomination to you.

- 21 Yet these may you eat of all winged creeping things that go on all fours, which have legs above their feet, with which to leap on the earth.
- 22 Even these of them you may eat: the locust after its kind, and the bald locust after its kind, and the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind.
- 23 But all winged creeping things, which have four feet, are an abomination to you.
- 24 By these you shall become unclean; whoever touches the carcass of them shall be unclean until the even;
- 25 Whoever bears [anything] of the carcass of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.
- 26 Every animal which parts the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor chews the cud, is unclean to you: everyone who touches them shall be unclean.
- 27 Whatever goes on its paws, among all animals that go on all fours, they are unclean to you: whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the even.
- 28 He who bears the carcass of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean to you.
- 29 These are they which are unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the weasel, and the mouse, and the great lizard after its kind,
- 30 and the gecko, and the land-crocodile, and the lizard, and the sand-lizard, and the chameleon.
- 31 These are they which are unclean to you among all that creep; whoever does touch them, when they are dead, shall be unclean until the even.
- 32 On whatever any of them, when they are dead, does fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or sack, whatever vessel it be, with which any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; then shall it be clean.
- 33 Every earthen vessel, into which any of them falls, whatever is in it shall be unclean, and it you shall break.
- 34 All food [therein] which may be eaten, that on which water comes, shall be unclean; and all drink that may be drunk in every [such] vessel shall be unclean.
- 35 Every thing whereupon [any part] of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether oven, or range for pots, it shall be broken in pieces: they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.
- 36 Nevertheless a spring or a pit in which is a gathering of water shall be clean; but that which touches their carcass shall be unclean.
- 37 If [anything] of their carcass fall on any sowing seed which is to be sown, it is clean.
- 38 But if water be put on the seed, and [anything] of their carcass fall thereon, it is unclean to you.
- 39 If any animal, of which you may eat, die; he who touches the carcass of it shall be unclean until the even.
- 40 He who eats of the carcass of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even; he also that bears the carcass of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.
- 41 Every creeping thing that creeps on the earth is an abomination; it shall not be eaten.
- 42 Whatever goes on the belly, and whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet, even all creeping things that creep on the earth, them you shall not eat; for they are an abomination.
- 43 You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps, neither shall you make yourselves unclean with them, that you should be defiled thereby.
- 44 For I am Yahweh your God: sanctify yourselves therefore, and be you holy; for I am holy: neither shall you defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that moves on the earth.
- 45 For I am Yahweh who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: you shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the animal, and of the bird, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth;

47 to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a woman conceive seed, and bear a man-child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of the impurity of her sickness shall she be unclean.

3 In the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 She shall continue in the blood of [her] purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her impurity; and she shall continue in the blood of [her] purifying sixty-six days.

6 When the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb a year old for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle-dove, for a sin-offering, to the door of the tent of meeting, to the priest;

7 and he shall offer it before Yāhweh, and make atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the fountain of her blood. This is the law for her who bears, whether a male or a female.

8 If her means isn't sufficient for a lamb, then she shall take two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons; the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it become in the skin of his flesh the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests:

3 and the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh; and if the hair in the plague be turned white, and the appearance of the plague be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is the plague of leprosy; and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and the appearance of it isn't deeper than the skin, and the hair of it isn't turned white, then the priest shall shut up [him who has] the plague seven days;

5 and the priest shall look on him the seventh day; and, behold, if in his eyes the plague be at a stay, and the plague isn't spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more;

6 and the priest shall look on him again the seventh day; and, behold, if the plague be dim, and the plague hasn't spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is a scab; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread abroad in the skin, after that he has showed himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall show himself to the priest again;

8 and the priest shall look; and, behold, if the scab be spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is leprosy.

9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest;

10 and the priest shall look; and, behold, if there be a white rising in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising,

11 it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.

12 If the leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of [him who has] the plague from his head even to his feet, as far as appears to the priest;

- 13 then the priest shall look; and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce [him] clean [who has] the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.
- 14 But whenever raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean.
- 15 The priest shall look on the raw flesh, and pronounce him unclean: the raw flesh is unclean: it is leprosy.
- 16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed to white, then he shall come to the priest;
- 17 and the priest shall look on him; and, behold, if the plague be turned into white, then the priest shall pronounce [him] clean [who has] the plague: he is clean.
- 18 When the flesh has in the skin of it a boil, and it is healed,
- 19 and in the place of the boil there is a white rising, or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be showed to the priest;
- 20 and the priest shall look; and, behold, if the appearance of it be lower than the skin, and the hair of it be turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy, it has broken out in the boil.
- 21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and it isn't lower than the skin, but is dim; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:
- 22 If it spread abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.
- 23 But if the bright spot stay in its place, and hasn't spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
- 24 Or when the flesh has in the skin of it a burning by fire, and the quick [flesh] of the burning become a bright spot, reddish-white, or white;
- 25 then the priest shall look on it; and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and the appearance of it be deeper than the skin; it is leprosy, it has broken out in the burning; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.
- 26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the skin, but be dim; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:
- 27 and the priest shall look on him the seventh day: if it spread abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.
- 28 If the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread in the skin, but be dim; it is the rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is the scar of the burning.
- 29 When a man or woman has a plague on the head or on the beard,
- 30 then the priest shall look on the plague; and, behold, if the appearance of it be deeper than the skin, and there be in it yellow thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a scall, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard.
- 31 If the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, the appearance of it isn't deeper than the skin, and there be no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up [him who has] the plague of the scall seven days:
- 32 In the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague; and, behold, if the scall isn't spread, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the appearance of the scall isn't deeper than the skin,
- 33 then he shall be shaved, but he shall not shave the scall; and the priest shall shut up [him who has] the scall seven days more;
- 34 and in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall; and, behold, if the scall hasn't spread in the skin, and the appearance of it isn't deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.
- 35 But if the scall spread abroad in the skin after his cleansing,

36 then the priest shall look on him; and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if in his eyes the scall be at a stay, and black hair be grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 When a man or a woman has in the skin of the flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

39 then the priest shall look; and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be of a dull white, it is a harmless rash, it has broken out in the skin; he is clean.

40 If a man's hair be fallen off his head, he is bald; [yet] is he clean.

41 If his hair be fallen off from the front part of his head, he is forehead bald; [yet] is he clean.

42 But if there be in the bald head, or the bald forehead, a reddish-white plague; it is leprosy breaking out in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look on him; and, behold, if the rising of the plague be reddish-white in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the flesh;

44 he is a leprous man, he is unclean; the priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his plague is in his head.

45 The leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be torn, and the hair of his head shall go loose, and he shall cover his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days in which the plague is in him he shall be unclean; he is unclean; he shall dwell alone; outside of the camp shall his dwelling be.

47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woolen garment, or a linen garment;

48 whether it be in warp, or woof; of linen, or of woolen; whether in a skin, or in anything made of skin;

49 if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin; it is the plague of leprosy, and shall be showed to the priest.

50 The priest shall look on the plague, and shut up [that which has] the plague seven days;

51 and he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, whatever service skin is used for; the plague is a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in woolen or in linen, or anything of skin, in which the plague is; for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 If the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague hasn't spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin;

54 then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more;

55 and the priest shall look, after that the plague is washed; and, behold, if the plague hasn't changed its color, and the plague hasn't spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire: it is a fret, whether the bareness be inside or outside.

56 If the priest look, and, behold, the plague be dim after the washing of it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof;

57 and if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is breaking out; you shall burn that in which the plague is with fire.

58 The garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatever thing of skin it be, which you shall wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woolen or linen, either in the warp, or the woof, or anything of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: he shall be brought to the priest:
3 and the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look; and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper,
4 then shall the priest command to take for him who is to be cleansed two living clean birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:
5 The priest shall command to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water.
6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:
7 He shall sprinkle on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let go the living bird into the open field.
8 He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water; and he shall be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, but shall dwell outside his tent seven days.
9 It shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.
10 On the eighth day he shall take two he-lambs without blemish, and one ewe-lamb a year old without blemish, and three tenth parts [of an ephah] of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil.
11 The priest who cleanses him shall set the man who is to be cleansed, and those things, before Yāhweh, at the door of the tent of meeting.
12 The priest shall take one of the he-lambs, and offer him for a trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave-offering before Yāhweh:
13 and he shall kill the he-lamb in the place where they kill the sin-offering and the burnt offering, in the place of the sanctuary: for as the sin-offering is the priest's, so is the trespass-offering: it is most holy:
14 and the priest shall take of the blood of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot.
15 The priest shall take of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand;
16 and the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before Yāhweh:
17 and of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, on the blood of the trespass-offering:
18 and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed:
and the priest shall make atonement for him before Yāhweh.
19 The priest shall offer the sin-offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed because of his uncleanness: and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering:
20 and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meal-offering on the altar: and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.
21 If he be poor, and can't get so much, then he shall take one he-lamb for a trespass-offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and one tenth part [of an ephah] of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal-offering, and a log of oil:
22 and two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt offering.

- 23 On the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting, before Yāhweh;
- 24 and the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before Yāhweh.
- 25 He shall kill the lamb of the trespass-offering; and the priest shall take of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot.
- 26 The priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand;
- 27 and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before Yāhweh;
- 28 and the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass-offering;
- 29 and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before Yāhweh.
- 30 He shall offer one of the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he is able to get,
- 31 even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before Yāhweh.
- 32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, who is not able to get [that which pertains] to his cleansing.
- 33 Yāhweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
- 34 When you are come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;
- 35 then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, There seems to me to be as it were a plague in the house.
- 36 The priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes in to see the plague, that all that is in the house not be made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house;
- 37 and he shall look on the plague; and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and the appearance of it be lower than the wall;
- 38 then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.
- 39 The priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look; and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;
- 40 then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which the plague is, and cast them into an unclean place outside of the city;
- 41 and he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the mortar, that they scrape off, outside of the city into an unclean place;
- 42 and they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.
- 43 If the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he has taken out the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered;
- 44 then the priest shall come in and look; and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean.
- 45 He shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber of it, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.
- 46 Moreover he who goes into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the even.

47 He who lies in the house shall wash his clothes; and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.
48 If the priest shall come in, and look, and, behold, the plague hasn't spread in the house, after the house was plastered; then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.
49 He shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:
50 and he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:
51 and he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:
52 and he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:
53 but he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open field: so shall he make atonement for the house; and it shall be clean.
54 This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and for a scall,
55 and for the leprosy of a garment, and for a house,
56 and for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot;
57 to teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy.
1 Yehweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When any man has an issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.
3 This shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.
4 Every bed whereon he who has the issue lies shall be unclean; and everything whereon he sits shall be unclean.
5 Whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
6 He who sits on anything whereon he who has the issue sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
7 He who touches the flesh of him who has the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
8 If he who has the issue spit on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
9 Whatever saddle he who has the issue rides on shall be unclean.
10 Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the even; and he who bears those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
11 Whoever he who has the issue touches, without having rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
12 The earthen vessel, which he who has the issue touches, shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13 When he who has an issue is cleansed of his issue, then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes; and he shall bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.
14 On the eighth day he shall take to him two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, and come before Yehweh to the door of the tent of meeting, and give them to the priest:
15 and the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him before Yehweh for his issue.

- 16 If any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.
- 17 Every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.
- 18 The woman also with whom a man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.
- 19 If a woman have an issue, [and] her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be in her impurity seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the even.
- 20 Everything that she lies on in her impurity shall be unclean; everything also that she sits on shall be unclean.
- 21 Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
- 22 Whoever touches anything that she sits on shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
- 23 If it be on the bed, or on anything whereon she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the even.
- 24 If any man lie with her, and her impurity be on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed whereon he lies shall be unclean.
- 25 If a woman have an issue of her blood many days not in the time of her impurity, or if she have an issue beyond the time of her impurity; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness she shall be as in the days of her impurity; she is unclean.
- 26 Every bed whereon she lies all the days of her issue shall be to her as the bed of her impurity; and everything whereon she sits shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her impurity.
- 27 Whoever touches those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
- 28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.
- 29 On the eighth day she shall take to her two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting.
- 30 The priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before Yāhweh for the issue of her uncleanness.
- 31 Thus shall you separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, that they not die in their uncleanness, when they defile my tent that is in the midst of them.
- 32 This is the law of him who has an issue, and of him whose seed of copulation goes from him, so that he is unclean thereby;
- 33 and of her who is sick with her impurity, and of him who has an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him who lies with her who is unclean.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before Yāhweh, and died;
- 2 and Yāhweh said to Moses, Speak to Aaron your brother, that he doesn't come at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark; that he not die: for I will appear in the cloud on the mercy seat.
- 3 Herewith shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bull for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

- 4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches on his flesh, and shall be girded with the linen sash, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired; they are the holy garments; and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and put them on.
- 5 He shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two male goats for a sin-offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.
- 6 Aaron shall present the bull of the sin-offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself, and for his house.
- 7 He shall take the two goats, and set them before Y^hweh at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 8 Aaron shall cast lots on the two goats; one lot for Y^hweh, and the other lot for Azazel.
- 9 Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for Y^hweh, and offer him for a sin-offering.
- 10 But the goat, on which the lot fell for Azazel, shall be set alive before Y^hweh, to make atonement for him, to send him away for Azazel into the wilderness.
- 11 Aaron shall present the bull of the sin-offering, which is for himself, and shall make atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bull of the sin-offering which is for himself:
- 12 and he shall take a censer full of coals of fire from off the altar before Y^hweh, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil:
- 13 and he shall put the incense on the fire before Y^hweh, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is on the testimony, that he not die:
- 14 and he shall take of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the mercy seat on the east; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.
- 15 Then shall he kill the goat of the sin-offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the veil, and do with his blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat:
- 16 and he shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, even all their sins; and so shall he do for the tent of meeting, that dwells with them in the midst of their uncleanness.
- 17 There shall be no man in the tent of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.
- 18 He shall go out to the altar that is before Y^hweh, and make atonement for it, and shall take of the blood of the bull, and of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar round about.
- 19 He shall sprinkle of the blood on it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and make it holy from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.
- 20 When he has made an end of atoning for the holy place, and the tent of meeting, and the altar, he shall present the live goat:
- 21 and Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, even all their sins; and he shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a man who is in readiness into the wilderness:
- 22 and the goat shall bear on him all their iniquities to a solitary land; and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.
- 23 Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there:
- 24 and he shall bathe his flesh in water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.

- 25 The fat of the sin-offering shall he burn on the altar.
- 26 He who lets go the goat for Azazel shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.
- 27 The bull of the sin-offering, and the goat of the sin-offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be carried forth outside of the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.
- 28 He who burns them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.
- 29 It shall be a statute forever to you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and shall do no manner of work, the home-born, or the stranger who sojourns among you:
- 30 for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins shall you be clean before Yāhweh.
- 31 It is a Sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict your souls; it is a statute forever.
- 32 The priest, who shall be anointed and who shall be consecrated to be priest in his father's place, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, even the holy garments:
- 33 and he shall make atonement for the holy sanctuary; and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar; and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.
- 34 This shall be an everlasting statute to you, to make atonement for the children of Israel because of all their sins once in the year. He did as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and tell them: This is the thing which Yāhweh has commanded, saying,
- 3 Whatever man there be of the house of Israel, who kills an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills it outside of the camp,
- 4 and hasn't brought it to the door of the tent of meeting, to offer it as an offering to Yāhweh before the tent of Yāhweh; blood shall be imputed to that man; he has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people:
- 5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they sacrifice in the open field, even that they may bring them to Yāhweh, to the door of the tent of meeting, to the priest, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace-offerings to Yāhweh.
- 6 The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of Yāhweh at the door of the tent of meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 7 They shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to the male goats, after which they play the prostitute. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.
- 8 You shall tell them, Whatever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,
- 9 and doesn't bring it to the door of the tent of meeting, to sacrifice it to Yāhweh; that man shall be cut off from his people.
- 10 Whatever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among them, who eats any manner of blood, I will set my face against that soul who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people.
- 11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement by reason of the life.

- 12 Therefore I said to the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger who sojourns among you eat blood.
- 13 Whatever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among them, who takes in hunting any animal or bird that may be eaten; he shall pour out the blood of it, and cover it with dust.
- 14 For as to the life of all flesh, the blood of it is [all one] with the life of it; therefore I said to the children of Israel, You shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh; for the life of all flesh is the blood of it: whoever eats it shall be cut off.
- 15 Every soul who eats that which dies of itself, or that which is torn of animals, whether he be home-born or a sojourner, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean.
- 16 But if he doesn't wash them, nor bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, I am Yāhweh your God.
- 3 After the doings of the land of Egypt, in which you lived, you shall not do; and after the doings of the land of Canaan, where I bring you, you shall not do; neither shall you walk in their statutes.
- 4 My ordinances shall you do, and my statutes shall you keep, to walk therein; I am Yāhweh your God.
- 5 You shall therefore keep my statutes, and my ordinances; which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am Yāhweh.
- 6 None of you shall approach to any who are close relatives to him, to uncover [their] nakedness: I am Yāhweh.
- 7 The nakedness of your father, even the nakedness of your mother, you shall not uncover: she is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness.
- 8 The nakedness of your father's wife you shall not uncover: it is your father's nakedness.
- 9 The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness you shall not uncover.
- 10 The nakedness of your son's daughter, or of your daughter's daughter, even their nakedness you shall not uncover: for theirs is your own nakedness.
- 11 The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, conceived by your father, she is your sister, you shall not uncover her nakedness.
- 12 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister: she is your father's near kinswoman.
- 13 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister: for she is your mother's near kinswoman.
- 14 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother, you shall not approach to his wife: she is your aunt.
- 15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law: she is your son's wife; you shall not uncover her nakedness.
- 16 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife: it is your brother's nakedness.
- 17 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter; you shall not take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; they are near kinswomen: it is wickedness.
- 18 You shall not take a wife to her sister, to be a rival [to her], to uncover her nakedness, besides the other in her lifetime.
- 19 You shall not approach to a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is impure by her uncleanness.
- 20 You shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's wife, to defile yourself with her.

- 21 You shall not give any of your seed to make them pass through [the fire] to Molech; neither shall you profane the name of your God: I am Yahweh.
- 22 You shall not lie with mankind, as with womankind; it is abomination.
- 23 You shall not lie with any animal to defile yourself therewith; neither shall any woman stand before a animal, to lie down thereto: it is confusion.
- 24 Don t defile yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out from before you;
- 25 The land is defiled; therefore I do visit the iniquity of it on it, and the land vomits out her inhabitants.
- 26 You therefore shall keep my statutes and my ordinances, and shall not do any of these abominations; neither the home-born, nor the stranger who sojourns among you;
- 27 (for all these abominations have the men of the land done, that were before you, and the land is defiled);
- 28 that the land not vomit you out also, when you defile it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you.
- 29 For whoever shall do any of these abominations, even the souls that do them shall be cut off from among their people.
- 30 Therefore shall you keep my charge, that you not practice any of these abominable customs, which were practiced before you, and that you not defile yourselves therein: I am Yahweh your God.
- 1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and tell them, You shall be holy; for I Yahweh your God am holy.
- 3 You shall fear every man his mother, and his father; and you shall keep my Sabbaths: I am Yahweh your God.
- 4 Don t turn to idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am Yahweh your God.
- 5 When you offer a sacrifice of peace-offerings to Yahweh, you shall offer it that you may be accepted.
- 6 It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day; and if anything remain until the third day, it shall be burnt with fire.
- 7 If it be eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination; it shall not be accepted;
- 8 but everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the holy thing of Yahweh: and that soul shall be cut off from his people.
- 9 When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleaning of your harvest.
- 10 You shall not glean your vineyard, neither shall you gather the fallen fruit of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am Yahweh your God.
- 11 You shall not steal; neither shall you deal falsely, nor lie one to another.
- 12 You shall not swear by my name falsely, and profane the name of your God: I am Yahweh.
- 13 You shall not oppress your neighbor, nor rob him: the wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning.
- 14 You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind; but you shall fear your God: I am Yahweh.
- 15 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; you shall not respect the person of the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty; but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor.
- 16 You shall not go up and down as a talebearer among your people; neither shall you stand against the blood of your neighbor: I am Yahweh.

- 17 You shall not hate your brother in your heart; you shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him.
- 18 You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people; but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am Yāhweh.
- 19 You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let your cattle breed with a diverse kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; neither shall there come on you a garment of two kinds of stuff mingled together.
- 20 Whoever lies carnally with a woman, who is a bondmaid, pledged to be married to a husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; they shall be punished; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.
- 21 He shall bring his trespass-offering to Yāhweh, to the door of the tent of meeting, even a ram for a trespass-offering.
- 22 The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering before Yāhweh for his sin which he has sinned; and the sin which he has sinned shall be forgiven him.
- 23 When you shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then you shall count the fruit of it as their uncircumcision: three years shall they be as uncircumcised to you; it shall not be eaten.
- 24 But in the fourth year all the fruit of it shall be holy, for giving praise to Yāhweh.
- 25 In the fifth year shall you eat of the fruit of it, that it may yield to you the increase of it: I am Yāhweh your God.
- 26 You shall not eat anything with the blood; neither shall you use enchantments, nor practice sorcery.
- 27 You shall not cut the hair on the sides of your heads, neither shall you clip off the edge of your beard.
- 28 You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks on you: I am Yāhweh.
- 29 Don't profane your daughter, to make her a prostitute; lest the land fall to prostitution, and the land become full of wickedness.
- 30 You shall keep my Sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary; I am Yāhweh.
- 31 Don't turn to those who have familiar spirits, nor to the wizards; don't seek them out, to be defiled by them: I am Yāhweh your God.
- 32 You shall rise up before the gray head, and honor the face of the old man, and you shall fear your God: I am Yāhweh.
- 33 If a stranger sojourn with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.
- 34 The stranger who sojourns with you shall be to you as the home-born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt: I am Yāhweh your God.
- 35 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures of length, of weight, or of quantity.
- 36 Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall you have: I am Yāhweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
- 37 You shall observe all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them: I am Yāhweh.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Moreover, you shall tell the children of Israel, Whoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn in Israel, who gives of his seed to Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.
- 3 I also will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he has given of his seed to Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.
- 4 If the people at the land do at all hide their eyes from that man, when he gives of his seed to Molech, and don't put him to death;

- 5 then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all who play the prostitute after him, to play the prostitute with Molech, from among their people.
- 6 The soul that turns to those who have familiar spirits, and to the wizards, to play the prostitute after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.
- 7 Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be you holy; for I am Yahweh your God.
- 8 You shall keep my statutes, and do them; I am Yahweh who sanctifies you.
- 9 For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death; he has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be on him.
- 10 The man who commits adultery with another man's wife, even he who commits adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.
- 11 The man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be on them.
- 12 If a man lie with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death; they have created confusion; their blood shall be on them.
- 13 If a man lie with mankind, as with womankind, both of them have committed abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be on them.
- 14 If a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness; they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.
- 15 If a man lie with an animal, he shall surely be put to death; and you shall kill the animal.
- 16 If a woman approach to any animal, and lie down thereto, you shall kill the woman, and the animal; they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be on them.
- 17 If a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a shameful thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.
- 18 If a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he has made naked her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood; and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.
- 19 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, nor of your father's sister; for he has made naked his close relative; they shall bear their iniquity.
- 20 If a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.
- 21 If a man shall take his brother's wife, it is impurity; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.
- 22 You shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land, where I bring you to dwell therein, not vomit you out.
- 23 You shall not walk in the customs of the nation, which I cast out before you; for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.
- 24 But I have said to you, You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey; I am Yahweh your God, who has separated you from the peoples.
- 25 You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean; and you shall not make your souls abominable by animal, or by bird, or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have separated from you as unclean.
- 26 You shall be holy to me; for I, Yahweh, am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples, that you should be mine.

27 A man also or a woman that has a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones; their blood shall be on them.

1 Yāhweh said to Moses, Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them, There shall none defile himself for the dead among his people;

2 except for his relatives, that is near to him, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 and for his sister a virgin, that is near to him, that has had no husband; for her may he defile himself.

4 He shall not defile himself, [being] a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 They shall not make baldness on their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire, the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 They shall not take a woman that is a prostitute, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy to his God.

8 You shall sanctify him therefore; for he offers the bread of your God: he shall be holy to you: for I Yāhweh, who sanctify you, am holy.

9 The daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the prostitute, she profanes her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 He who is the high priest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil is poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not let the hair of his head go loose, nor tear his clothes;

11 neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is on him: I am Yāhweh.

13 He shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or one divorced, or a profane woman, a prostitute, these shall he not take: but a virgin of his own people shall he take as a wife.

15 He shall not profane his seed among his people: for I am Yāhweh who sanctifies him.

16 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

17 Speak to Aaron, saying, Whoever he be of your seed throughout their generations that has a blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his God.

18 For whatever man he be that has a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that has a flat nose, or any deformity,

19 or a man that is broken-footed, or broken-handed,

20 or crook-backed, or a dwarf, or that has a blemish in his eye, or is scurvy, or scabbed, or has his stones broken;

21 no man of the seed of Aaron the priest, that has a blemish, shall come near to offer the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire: he has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy:

23 only he shall not go in to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a blemish; that he not profane my sanctuaries: for I am Yāhweh who sanctifies them.

24 So Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, which they make holy to me, and that they not profane my holy name: I am Yāhweh.

- 3 Tell them, Whoever he be of all your seed throughout your generations, that approaches to the holy things, which the children of Israel make holy to Yāhweh, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from before me: I am Yāhweh.
- 4 Whatever man of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or has an issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goes from him;
- 5 or whoever touches any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has;
- 6 the soul that touches any such shall be unclean until the even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he bathe his flesh in water.
- 7 When the sun is down, he shall be clean; and afterward he shall eat of the holy things, because it is his bread.
- 8 That which dies of itself, or is torn by animals, he shall not eat, to defile himself therewith: I am Yāhweh.
- 9 They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it, and die therein, if they profane it: I am Yāhweh who sanctifies them.
- 10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing; a sojourner of the priest s, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.
- 11 But if a priest buy any soul, the purchase of his money, he shall eat of it; and such as are born in his house, they shall eat of his bread.
- 12 If a priest s daughter be married to a stranger, she shall not eat of the heave-offering of the holy things.
- 13 But if a priest s daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and be returned to her father s house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father s bread; but there shall no stranger eat of it.
- 14 If a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part of it to it, and shall give to the priest the holy thing.
- 15 They shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer to Yāhweh,
- 16 and [so] cause them to bear the iniquity that brings guilt, when they eat their holy things: for I am Yāhweh who sanctifies them.
- 17 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 18 Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and tell them, Whoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the sojourners in Israel, that offers his offering, whether it be any of their vows, or any of their freewill-offerings, which they offer to Yāhweh for a burnt offering;
- 19 that you may be accepted, [you shall offer] a male without blemish, of the bulls, of the sheep, or of the goats.
- 20 But whatever has a blemish, that shall you not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.
- 21 Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace-offerings to Yāhweh to accomplish a vow, or for a freewill-offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.
- 22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not offer these to Yāhweh, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to Yāhweh.
- 23 Either a bull or a lamb that has any deformity or lacking in his parts, that may you offer for a freewill-offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.
- 24 That which has its stones bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut, you shall not offer to Yāhweh; neither shall you do [thus] in your land.

- 25 Neither from the hand of a foreigner shall you offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, there is a blemish in them; they shall not be accepted for you.
- 26 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 27 When a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the hen; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for the offering of an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 28 Whether it be cow or ewe, you shall not kill it and its young both in one day.
- 29 When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Yāhweh, you shall sacrifice it that you may be accepted.
- 30 On the same day it shall be eaten; you shall leave none of it until the morning: I am Yāhweh.
- 31 Therefore shall you keep my commandments, and do them; I am Yāhweh.
- 32 You shall not profane my holy name; but I will be made holy among the children of Israel: I am Yāhweh who makes you holy,
- 33 who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am Yāhweh.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, The set feasts of Yāhweh, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my set feasts.
- 3 Six days shall work be done: but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no manner of work: it is a Sabbath to Yāhweh in all your dwellings.
- 4 These are the set feasts of Yāhweh, even holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed season.
- 5 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, is Yāhweh s Passover.
- 6 On the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to Yāhweh: seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.
- 7 In the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work.
- 8 But you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yāhweh seven days: in the seventh day is a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work.
- 9 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 10 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you are come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest of it, then you shall bring the sheaf of the first-fruits of your harvest to the priest:
- 11 and he shall wave the sheaf before Yāhweh, to be accepted for you: on the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.
- 12 In the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a he-lamb without blemish a year old for a burnt offering to Yāhweh.
- 13 The meal-offering of it shall be two tenth parts [of an ephah] of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire to Yāhweh for a sweet savor; and the drink-offering of it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin.
- 14 You shall eat neither bread, nor parched grain, nor fresh ears, until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
- 15 You shall count to you from the next day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven Sabbaths shall there be complete:
- 16 even to the next day after the seventh Sabbath shall you number fifty days; and you shall offer a new meal-offering to Yāhweh.

- 17 You shall bring out of your habitations two wave-loaves of two tenth parts [of an ephah]; they shall be of fine flour, they shall be baked with yeast, for first-fruits to Yāhweh.
- 18 You shall present with the bread seven lambs without blemish a year old, and one young bull, and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to Yāhweh, with their meal-offering, and their drink-offerings, even an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 19 You shall offer one male goat for a sin-offering, and two he-lambs a year old for a sacrifice of peace-offerings.
- 20 The priest shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits for a wave-offering before Yāhweh, with the two lambs; they shall be holy to Yāhweh for the priest.
- 21 You shall make proclamation on the same day; there shall be a holy convocation to you; you shall do no servile work; it is a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.
- 22 When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleaning of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor, and for the sojourner: I am Yāhweh your God.
- 23 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 24 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, shall be a solemn rest to you, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.
- 25 You shall do no servile work; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 26 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 27 However on the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation to you, and you shall afflict your souls; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 28 You shall do no manner of work in that same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before Yāhweh your God.
- 29 For whatever soul it be who shall not be afflicted in that same day; he shall be cut off from his people.
- 30 Whatever soul it be who does any manner of work in that same day, that soul will I destroy from among his people.
- 31 You shall do no manner of work; it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
- 32 It shall be to you a Sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict your souls; in the ninth day of the month at even, from even to even, shall you keep your Sabbath.
- 33 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 34 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of tents for seven days to Yāhweh.
- 35 On the first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work.
- 36 Seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yāhweh; on the eighth day shall be a holy convocation to you; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to Yāhweh; it is a solemn assembly; you shall do no servile work.
- 37 These are the set feasts of Yāhweh, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire to Yāhweh, a burnt offering, and a meal-offering, a sacrifice, and drink-offerings, each on its own day;
- 38 besides the Sabbaths of Yāhweh, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill-offerings, which you give to Yāhweh.
- 39 However on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruits of the land, you shall keep the feast of Yāhweh seven days: on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest.

40 You shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm-trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before Yāhweh your God seven days.

41 You shall keep it a feast to Yāhweh seven days in the year: it is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month.

42 You shall dwell in booths seven days; all who are home-born in Israel shall dwell in booths;

43 that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am Yāhweh your God.

44 Moses declared to the children of Israel the set feasts of Yāhweh.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually.

3 Outside of the veil of the testimony, in the tent of meeting, shall Aaron keep it in order from evening to morning before Yāhweh continually: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations.

4 He shall keep in order the lamps on the pure lampstand before Yāhweh continually.

5 You shall take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes of it: two tenth parts [of an ephah] shall be in one cake.

6 You shall set them in two rows, six on a row, on the pure table before Yāhweh.

7 You shall put pure frankincense on each row, that it may be to the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.

8 Every Sabbath day he shall set it in order before Yāhweh continually; it is on the behalf of the children of Israel, an everlasting covenant.

9 It shall be for Aaron and his sons; and they shall eat it in a holy place: for it is most holy to him of the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire by a perpetual statute.

10 The son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and the son of the Israelite woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp:

11 and the son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name, and cursed; and they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.

12 They put him in custody, that it might be declared to them at the mouth of Yāhweh.

13 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth him who has cursed outside of the camp; and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin.

16 He who blasphemes the name of Yāhweh, he shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him; as well the sojourner, as the home-born, when he blasphemes the name [of Yāhweh], shall be put to death.

17 He who strikes any man mortally shall surely be put to death.

18 He who strikes a animal mortally shall make it good, life for life.

19 If a man cause a blemish in his neighbor; as he has done, so shall it be done to him:

20 breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be rendered to him.

21 He who kills a animal shall make it good; and he who kills a man shall be put to death.

22 You shall have one manner of law, as well for the sojourner, as for the home-born; for I am Yāhweh your God.

23 Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they brought forth him who had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones. The children of Israel did as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses in Mount Sinai, saying,
2 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a Sabbath to Yāhweh.
3 Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in the fruits of it;
4 but in the seventh year shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a Sabbath to Yāhweh: you shall neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard.
5 That which grows of itself of your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your undressed vine you shall not gather: it shall be a year of solemn rest for the land.
6 The Sabbath of the land shall be for food for you; for you, and for your servant and for your maid, and for your hired servant and for your stranger, who sojourn with you.
7 For your cattle, and for the animals that are in your land, shall all the increase of it be for food.
8 You shall number seven Sabbaths of years to you, seven times seven years; and there shall be to you the days of seven Sabbaths of years, even forty-nine years.
9 Then shall you send abroad the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month; in the day of atonement shall you send abroad the trumpet throughout all your land.
10 You shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all the inhabitants of it: it shall be a jubilee to you; and you shall return every man to his possession, and you shall return every man to his family.
11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be to you: you shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself in it, nor gather [the grapes] in it of the undressed vines.
12 For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you: you shall eat the increase of it out of the field.
13 In this year of jubilee you shall return every man to his possession.
14 If you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy of your neighbor's hand, you shall not wrong one another.
15 According to the number of years after the jubilee you shall buy of your neighbor, [and] according to the number of years of the crops he shall sell to you.
16 According to the length of the years you shall increase the price of it, and according to the shortness of the years you shall diminish the price of it; for the number of the crops does he sell to you.
17 You shall not wrong one another; but you shall fear your God: for I am Yāhweh your God.
18 Therefore you shall do my statutes, and keep my ordinances and do them; and you shall dwell in the land in safety.
19 The land shall yield its fruit, and you shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.
20 If you shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? Behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase;
21 then I will command my blessing on you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for the three years.
22 You shall sow the eighth year, and eat of the fruits, the old store; until the ninth year, until its fruits come in, you shall eat the old store.
23 The land shall not be sold in perpetuity; for the land is mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with me.
24 In all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land.
25 If your brother be grown poor, and sell some of his possession, then shall his kinsman who is next to him come, and shall redeem that which his brother has sold.

- 26 If a man have no one to redeem it, and he be grown rich and find sufficient to redeem it;
- 27 then let him reckon the years of the sale of it, and restore the surplus to the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return to his possession.
- 28 But if he isn't able to get it back for himself, then that which he has sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return to his possession.
- 29 If a man sell a dwelling-house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; for a full year shall he have the right of redemption.
- 30 If it isn't redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him who bought it, throughout his generations; it shall not go out in the jubilee.
- 31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country; they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.
- 32 Nevertheless the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.
- 33 If one of the Levites redeem, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the jubilee; for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.
- 34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.
- 35 If your brother has grown poor, and his hand fail with you; then you shall uphold him: [as] a stranger and a sojourner shall he live with you.
- 36 Take no interest of him or increase, but fear your God; that your brother may live with you.
- 37 You shall not give him your money on interest, nor give him your victuals for increase.
- 38 I am Yahweh your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, [and] to be your God.
- 39 If your brother has grown poor with you, and sell himself to you; you shall not make him to serve as a bond-servant.
- 40 As a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with you; he shall serve with you to the year of jubilee;
- 41 then shall he go out from you, he and his children with him, and shall return to his own family, and to the possession of his fathers shall he return.
- 42 For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondservants.
- 43 You shall not rule over him with rigor, but shall fear your God.
- 44 As for your bondservants, and your bondmaids, whom you shall have; of the nations that are round about you, of them shall you buy bondservants and bondmaids.
- 45 Moreover of the children of the strangers who sojourn among you, of them shall you buy, and of their families who are with you, which they have conceived in your land; and they shall be your possession.
- 46 You shall make them an inheritance for your children after you, to hold for a possession; of them shall you take your bondservants forever: but over your brothers the children of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with rigor.
- 47 If a stranger or sojourner with you has grown rich, and your brother has grown poor beside him, and sell himself to the stranger [or] sojourner with you, or to the stock of the stranger's family;
- 48 after that he is sold he may be redeemed: one of his brothers may redeem him;

- 49 or his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any who is a close relative to him of his family may redeem him; or if he has grown rich, he may redeem himself.
- 50 He shall reckon with him who bought him from the year that he sold himself to him to the year of jubilee; and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years; according to the time of a hired servant shall he be with him.
- 51 If there be yet many years, according to them he shall give back the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.
- 52 If there remain but few years to the year of jubilee, then he shall reckon with him; according to his years shall he give back the price of his redemption.
- 53 As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him; he shall not rule with rigor over him in your sight.
- 54 If he isn't redeemed by these [means], then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, he, and his children with him.
- 55 For to me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am Yahweh your God.
- 1 You shall make you no idols, neither shall you rear you up an engraved image, or a pillar, neither shall you place any figured stone in your land, to bow down to it; for I am Yahweh your God.
- 2 You shall keep my Sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am Yahweh.
- 3 If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them;
- 4 then I will give your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.
- 5 Your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time; and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.
- 6 I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; and I will cause evil animals to cease out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.
- 7 You shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.
- 8 Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.
- 9 I will have respect to you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and will establish my covenant with you.
- 10 You shall eat old store long kept, and you shall bring forth the old because of the new.
- 11 I will set my tent among you; and my soul won't abhor you.
- 12 I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be my people.
- 13 I am Yahweh your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their bondservants; and I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you go upright.
- 14 But if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments;
- 15 and if you shall reject my statutes, and if your soul abhor my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant;
- 16 I also will do this to you: I will appoint terror over you, even consumption and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and make the soul to pine away; and you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.
- 17 I will set my face against you, and you shall be struck before your enemies; those who hate you shall rule over you; and you shall flee when none pursues you.
- 18 If you will not yet for these things listen to me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins.

19 I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your sky as iron, and your earth as brass;
20 and your strength shall be spent in vain; for your land shall not yield its increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.
21 If you walk contrary to me, and won't listen to me, I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins.
22 I will send the animal of the field among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your ways shall become desolate.
23 If by these things you won't be reformed to me, but will walk contrary to me;
24 then will I also walk contrary to you; and I will strike you, even I, seven times for your sins.
25 I will bring a sword on you, that shall execute the vengeance of the covenant; and you shall be gathered together within your cities; and I will send the pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.
26 When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight; and you shall eat, and not be satisfied.
27 If you won't for all this listen to me, but walk contrary to me;
28 then I will walk contrary to you in wrath; and I also will chastise you seven times for your sins.
29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall you eat.
30 I will destroy your high places, and cut down your sun-images, and cast your dead bodies on the bodies of your idols; and my soul shall abhor you.
31 I will make your cities a waste, and will bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I won't smell the savor of your sweet odors.
32 I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies that dwell therein shall be astonished at it.
33 You will I scatter among the nations, and I will draw out the sword after you; and your land shall be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste.
34 Then shall the land enjoy its Sabbaths, as long as it lies desolate, and you are in your enemies' land;
even then shall the land rest, and enjoy its Sabbaths.
35 As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, even the rest which it didn't have in your Sabbaths, when you lived on it.
36 As for those who are left of you, I will send a faintness into their heart in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a driven leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as one flees from the sword; and they shall fall when none pursues.
37 They shall stumble one on another, as it were before the sword, when none pursues; and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.
38 You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.
39 Those who are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.
40 They shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that, because they walked contrary to me, 41 I also walked contrary to them, and brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised heart be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity; 42 then will I remember my covenant with Jacob; and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.
43 The land also shall be left by them, and shall enjoy its Sabbaths, while it lies desolate without them; and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because they rejected my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them; for I am YAhweh their God;

45 but I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am YAhweh.

46 These are the statutes and ordinances and laws, which YAhweh made between him and the children of Israel in Mount Sinai by Moses.

1 YAhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When a man shall accomplish a vow, the persons shall be for YAhweh by your estimation.

3 Your estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even to sixty years old, even your estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 If it be a female, then your estimation shall be thirty shekels.

5 If it be from five years old even to twenty years old, then your estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 If it be from a month old even to five years old, then your estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female your estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 If it be from sixty years old and upward; if it be a male, then your estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than your estimation, then he shall be set before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him who vowed shall the priest value him.

9 If it be a animal, whereof men offer an offering to YAhweh, all that any man gives of such to YAhweh shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; and if he shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy.

11 If it be any unclean animal, of which they do not offer an offering to YAhweh, then he shall set the animal before the priest;

12 and the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad; as you the priest value it, so shall it be.

13 But if he will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of it to your estimation.

14 When a man shall sanctify his house to be holy to YAhweh, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 If he who sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your estimation to it, and it shall be his.

16 If a man shall sanctify to YAhweh part of the field of his possession, then your estimation shall be according to the sowing of it: the sowing of a homer of barley [shall be valued] at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, according to your estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain to the year of jubilee; and an abatement shall be made from your estimation.

19 If he who sanctified the field will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your estimation to it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 If he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more;

21 but the field, when it goes out in the jubilee, shall be holy to YAhweh, as a field devoted; the possession of it shall be the priest s.

22 If he sanctify to YAhweh a field which he has bought, which is not of the field of his possession;

- 23 then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your estimation to the year of jubilee: and he shall give your estimation in that day, as a holy thing to Yāhweh.
- 24 In the year of jubilee the field shall return to him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land belongs.
- 25 All your estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.
- 26 Only the firstborn among animals, which is made a firstborn to Yāhweh, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox or sheep, it is Yāhweh s.
- 27 If it be of an unclean animal, then he shall ransom it according to your estimation, and shall add to it the fifth part of it: or if it isn t redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your estimation.
- 28 Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a man shall devote to Yāhweh of all that he has, whether of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy to Yāhweh.
- 29 No one devoted, who shall be devoted from among men, shall be ransomed; he shall surely be put to death.
- 30 All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is Yāhweh s: it is holy to Yāhweh.
- 31 If a man will redeem anything of his tithe, he shall add to it the fifth part of it.
- 32 All the tithe of the herd or the flock, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to Yāhweh.
- 33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.
- 34 These are the commandments, which Yāhweh commanded Moses for the children of Israel in Mount Sinai.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying.
- 2 Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers houses, according to the number of the names, every male, by their polls;
- 3 from twenty years old and upward, all who are able to go forth to war in Israel, you and Aaron shall number them by their hosts.
- 4 With you there shall be a man of every tribe; everyone head of his fathers house.
- 5 These are the names of the men who shall stand with you. Of Reuben: Elizur the son of Shedeur.
- 6 Of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
- 7 Of Judah: Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
- 8 Of Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar.
- 9 Of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon.
- 10 Of the children of Joseph: Of Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud. Of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
- 11 Of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni.
- 12 Of Dan: Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
- 13 Of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ochran.
- 14 Of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
- 15 Of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan.
- 16 These are those who were called of the congregation, the princes of the tribes of their fathers; they were the heads of the thousands of Israel.

17 Moses and Aaron took these men who are mentioned by name:

18 They assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month; and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 As Yahweh commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 The children of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

21 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Reuben, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

22 Of the children of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, those who were numbered of it, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

23 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

24 Of the children of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

25 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Gad, were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

26 Of the children of Judah, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

27 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Judah, were sixty-four thousand six hundred.

28 Of the children of Issachar, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

29 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

30 Of the children of Zebulun, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

31 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

32 Of the children of Joseph, [namely], of the children of Ephraim, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

33 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand five hundred.

34 Of the children of Manasseh, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

35 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

36 Of the children of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

37 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38 Of the children of Dan, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

39 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40 Of the children of Asher, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

41 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Asher, were forty-one thousand five hundred.

42 Of the children of Naphtali, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war;

43 those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty-three thousand and four hundred.

44 These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: they were each one for his fathers house.

45 So all those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers houses, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war in Israel;

46 even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

47 But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

48 For Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

49 Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, neither shall you take the sum of them among the children of Israel;

50 but appoint you the Levites over the tent of the testimony, and over all the furniture of it, and over all that belongs to it: they shall bear the tent, and all the furniture of it; and they shall minister to it, and shall encamp round about the tent.

51 When the tent sets forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tent is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

52 The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, according to their hosts.

53 But the Levites shall encamp round about the tent of the testimony, that there be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tent of the testimony.

54 Thus did the children of Israel; according to all that Yahweh commanded Moses, so did they.

1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 The children of Israel shall encamp every man by his own standard, with the ensigns of their fathers houses: over against the tent of meeting shall they encamp round about.

3 Those who encamp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be they of the standard of the camp of Judah, according to their hosts: and the prince of the children of Judah shall be Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

4 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

5 Those who encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and the prince of the children of Issachar shall be Nethanel the son of Zuar.

6 His host, and those who were numbered of it, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

7 The tribe of Zebulun: and the prince of the children of Zebulun shall be Eliab the son of Helon.

8 His host, and those who were numbered of it, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

9 All who were numbered of the camp of Judah were one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their hosts. They shall set forth first.

10 On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their hosts: and the prince of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.

11 His host, and those who were numbered of it, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

12 Those who encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon: and the prince of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

13 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

14 The tribe of Gad: and the prince of the children of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel.

15 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

- 16 All who were numbered of the camp of Reuben were one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty, according to their hosts. They shall set forth second.
- 17 Then the tent of meeting shall set forward, with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place, by their standards.
- 18 On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their hosts: and the prince of the children of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud.
- 19 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty thousand five hundred.
- 20 Next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the prince of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
- 21 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty-two thousand and two hundred.
- 22 The tribe of Benjamin: and the prince of the children of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideon.
- 23 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.
- 24 All who were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were one hundred eight thousand one hundred, according to their hosts. They shall set forth third.
- 25 On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan according to their hosts: and the prince of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
- 26 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.
- 27 Those who encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the prince of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.
- 28 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-one thousand and five hundred.
- 29 The tribe of Naphtali: and the prince of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan.
- 30 His host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.
- 31 All who were numbered of the camp of Dan were one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set forth hindmost by their standards.
- 32 These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses: all who were numbered of the camps according to their hosts were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.
- 33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as Yáhwéh commanded Moses.
- 34 Thus did the children of Israel; according to all that Yáhwéh commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards, and so they set forward, everyone by their families, according to their fathers' houses.
- 1 Now this is the history of the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that Yáhwéh spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai.
- 2 These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
- 3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office.
- 4 Nadab and Abihu died before Yáhwéh, when they offered strange fire before Yáhwéh, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children; and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the presence of Aaron their father.
- 5 Yáhwéh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him.
- 7 They shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tent.
- 8 They shall keep all the furniture of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tent.

9 You shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given to him on the behalf of the children of Israel.

10 You shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priesthood: and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

11 Yáhwéh spoke to Moses, saying,

12 I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn who opens the womb among the children of Israel; and the Levites shall be mine:

13 for all the firstborn are mine; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I made holy to me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and animal; mine they shall be: I am Yáhwéh.

14 Yáhwéh spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 Number the children of Levi by their fathers' houses, by their families; every male from a month old and upward shall you number them.

16 Moses numbered them according to the word of Yáhwéh, as he was commanded.

17 These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

18 These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.

19 The sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 The sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimeites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites shall encamp behind the tent westward.

24 The prince of the fathers' house of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Jael.

25 The charge of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting shall be the tent, and the Tent, the covering of it, and the screen for the door of the tent of meeting,

26 and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the door of the court, which is by the tent, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it for all the service of it.

27 Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall encamp on the side of the tent southward.

30 The prince of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 Their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the lamp stand, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all the service of it.

32 Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be prince of the princes of the Levites, [and have] the oversight of those who keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 The prince of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zurriel the son of Abihail: they shall encamp on the side of the tent northward.

- 36 The appointed charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tent, and the bars of it, and the pillars of it, and the sockets of it, and all the instruments of it, and all the service of it,
- 37 and the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.
- 38 Those who encamp before the tent eastward, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.
- 39 All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of Yahweh, by their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.
- 40 Yahweh said to Moses, Number all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.
- 41 You shall take the Levites for me (I am Yahweh) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the cattle of the children of Israel;
- 42 and Moses numbered, as Yahweh commanded him, all the first-born among the children of Israel.
- 43 All the firstborn males according to the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.
- 44 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 45 Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am Yahweh.
- 46 For the redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, that are over and above [the number of] the Levites,
- 47 you shall take five shekels apiece by the poll; after the shekel of the sanctuary shall you take them (the shekel is twenty gerahs):
- 48 and you shall give the money, with which the odd number of them is redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons.
- 49 Moses took the redemption-money from those who were over and above those who were redeemed by the Levites;
- 50 from the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money, one thousand three hundred sixty-five [shekels], after the shekel of the sanctuary;
- 51 and Moses gave the redemption-money to Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of Yahweh, as Yahweh commanded Moses.
- 1 Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
- 2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers houses,
- 3 from thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all who enter on the service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.
- 4 This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting, [about] the most holy things:
- 5 when the camp sets forward, Aaron shall go in, and his sons, and they shall take down the veil of the screen, and cover the ark of the testimony with it,
- 6 and shall put thereon a covering of sealskin, and shall spread over it a cloth all of blue, and shall put in the poles of it.
- 7 On the table of show bread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls and the cups with which to pour out; and the continual bread shall be thereon:
- 8 and they shall spread on them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in the poles of it.

9 They shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the lampstand of the light, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, and all the oil vessels of it, with which they minister to it:
10 and they shall put it and all the vessels of it within a covering of sealskin, and shall put it on the frame.
11 On the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in the poles of it:
12 and they shall take all the vessels of ministry, with which they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of sealskin, and shall put them on the frame.
13 They shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:
14 and they shall put on it all the vessels of it, with which they minister about it, the fire pans, the flesh-hooks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of sealskin, and put in the poles of it.
15 When Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the furniture of the sanctuary, as the camp is set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it; but they shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting.
16 The charge of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the continual meal-offering, and the anointing oil, the charge of all the tent, and of all that therein is, the sanctuary, and the furniture of it.
17 Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
18 Don't cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites;
19 but thus do to them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them everyone to his service and to his burden;
20 but they shall not go in to see the sanctuary even for a moment, lest they die.
21 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
22 Take the sum of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers' houses, by their families;
23 from thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shall you number them; all who enter in to wait on the service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.
24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in bearing burdens:
25 they shall bear the curtains of the tent, and the tent of meeting, its covering, and the covering of sealskin that is above on it, and the screen for the door of the tent of meeting,
26 and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tent and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and whatever shall be done with them; therein shall they serve.
27 At the commandment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burden, and in all their service; and you shall appoint to them in charge all their burden.
28 This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tent of meeting; and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
29 As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their fathers' houses;
30 from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old shall you number them, everyone who enters on the service, to do the work of the tent of meeting.
31 This is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tent of meeting: the boards of the tent, and the bars of it, and the pillars of it, and the sockets of it,
32 and the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service; and by name you shall appoint the instruments of the charge of their burden.

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

34 Moses and Aaron and the princes of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families, and by their fathers houses,

35 from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered on the service, for work in the tent of meeting:

36 and those who were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred fifty.

37 These are those who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who did serve in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yāhweh by Moses.

38 Those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, their families, and by their fathers houses,

39 from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered on the service, for work in the tent of meeting,

40 even those who were numbered of them, by their families, by their fathers houses, were two thousand six hundred thirty.

41 These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who did serve in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yāhweh.

42 Those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers houses,

43 from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered on the service, for work in the tent of meeting,

44 even those who were numbered of them by their families, were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Yāhweh by Moses.

46 All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel numbered, by their families, and by their fathers houses,

47 from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered in to do the work of service, and the work of bearing burdens in the tent of meeting,

48 even those who were numbered of them, were eight thousand five hundred eighty.

49 According to the commandment of Yāhweh they were numbered by Moses, everyone according to his service, and according to his burden; thus were they numbered of him, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and everyone who has an issue, and whoever is unclean by the dead:

3 both male and female shall you put out, outside of the camp shall you put them; that they not defile their camp, in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 The children of Israel did so, and put them out outside of the camp; as Yāhweh spoke to Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

6 Speak to the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, so as to trespass against Yāhweh, and that soul shall be guilty;

7 then he shall confess his sin which he has done: and he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, and add to it the fifth part of it, and give it to him in respect of whom he has been guilty.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the guilt, the restitution for guilt which is made to Yāhweh shall be the priest s; besides the ram of the atonement, whereby atonement shall be made for him.

- 9 Every heave-offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they present to the priest, shall be his.
- 10 Every man's holy things shall be his: whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his.
- 11 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 12 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,
- 13 and a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she is defiled, and there be no witness against her, and she isn't taken in the act;
- 14 and the spirit of jealousy come on him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she isn't defiled:
- 15 then shall the man bring his wife to the priest, and shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil on it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is a meal-offering of jealousy, a meal-offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to memory.
- 16 The priest shall bring her near, and set her before Yāhweh:
- 17 and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tent the priest shall take, and put it into the water.
- 18 The priest shall set the woman before Yāhweh, and let the hair of the woman's head go loose, and put the meal-offering of memorial in her hands, which is the meal-offering of jealousy; and the priest shall have in his hand the water of bitterness that causes the curse.
- 19 The priest shall cause her to swear, and shall tell the woman, If no man has lain with you, and if you haven't gone aside to uncleanness, being under your husband, be you free from this water of bitterness that causes the curse.
- 20 But if you have gone aside, being under your husband, and if you be defiled, and some man have lain with you besides your husband:
- 21 then the priest shall cause the woman to swear with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall tell the woman, Yāhweh make you a curse and an oath among your people, when Yāhweh does make your thigh to fall away, and your body to swell;
- 22 and this water that causes the curse shall go into your bowels, and make your body to swell, and your thigh to fall away. The woman shall say, Amen, Amen.
- 23 The priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out into the water of bitterness:
- 24 and he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that causes the curse; and the water that causes the curse shall enter into her [and become] bitter.
- 25 The priest shall take the meal-offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the meal-offering before Yāhweh, and bring it to the altar:
- 26 and the priest shall take a handful of the meal-offering, as the memorial of it, and burn it on the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water.
- 27 When he has made her drink the water, then it shall happen, if she be defiled, and have committed a trespass against her husband, that the water that causes the curse shall enter into her [and become] bitter, and her body shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away; and the woman shall be a curse among her people.
- 28 If the woman isn't defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.
- 29 This is the law of jealousy, when a wife, being under her husband, goes aside, and is defiled;
- 30 or when the spirit of jealousy comes on a man, and he is jealous of his wife; then shall he set the woman before Yāhweh, and the priest shall execute on her all this law.
- 31 The man shall be free from iniquity, and that woman shall bear her iniquity.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When either man or woman shall make a special vow,
the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to Yāhweh,
3 he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any juice of grapes, nor eat fresh grapes or dried.
4 All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the grape-vine, from the kernels even to the husk.
5 All the days of his vow of separation there shall no razor come on his head; until the days be fulfilled, in which he separates himself to Yāhweh, he shall be holy; he shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow long.
6 All the days that he separates himself to Yāhweh he shall not come near to a dead body.
7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because his separation to God is on his head.
8 All the days of his separation he is holy to Yāhweh.
9 If any man die very suddenly beside him, and he defile the head of his separation; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.
10 On the eighth day he shall bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting:
11 and the priest shall offer one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, for that he sinned by reason of the dead, and shall make his head holy that same day.
12 He shall separate to Yāhweh the days of his separation, and shall bring a he-lamb a year old for a trespass-offering; but the former days shall be void, because his separation was defiled.
13 This is the law of the Nazirite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought to the door of the tent of meeting:
14 and he shall offer his offering to Yāhweh, one he-lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe-lamb a year old without blemish for a sin-offering, and one ram without blemish for peace-offerings,
15 and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their meal-offering, and their drink-offerings.
16 The priest shall present them before Yāhweh, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt offering;
17 and he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings to Yāhweh, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also the meal-offering of it, and the drink-offering of it.
18 The Nazirite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tent of meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace-offerings.
19 The priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaved [the head of] his separation;
20 and the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before Yāhweh; this is holy for the priest, together with the wave-breast and heave-thigh: and after that the Nazirite may drink wine.
21 This is the law of the Nazirite who vows, [and of] his offering to Yāhweh for his separation, besides that which he is able to get: according to his vow which he vows, so he must do after the law of his separation.
22 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

23 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, On this wise you shall bless the children of Israel: you shall tell them,

24 Yāhweh bless you, and keep you:

25 Yāhweh make his face to shine on you, and be gracious to you:

26 Yāhweh lift up his face toward you, and give you peace.

27 So shall they put my name on the children of Israel; and I will bless them.

1 It happened on the day that Moses had made an end of setting up the tent, and had anointed it and sanctified it, and all the furniture of it, and the altar and all the vessels of it, and had anointed them and sanctified them;

2 that the princes of Israel, the heads of their fathers' houses, offered. These were the princes of the tribes, these are those who were over those who were numbered:

3 and they brought their offering before Yāhweh, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for every two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they presented them before the tent.

4 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be [used] in doing the service of the tent of meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service.

6 Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service:

8 and four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because the service of the sanctuary belonged to them; they bore it on their shoulders.

10 The princes offered for the dedication of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

89 When Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with him, then he heard the Voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim; and he spoke to him.
1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to Aaron, and tell him, When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lamp stand.
3 Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps of it [so as to give light] in front of the lampstand, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
4 This was the work of the lampstand, beaten work of gold; to the base of it, [and] to the flowers of it, it was beaten work: according to the pattern which Yāhweh had showed Moses, so he made the lampstand.
5 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.
7 Thus shall you do to them, to cleanse them; sprinkle the water of expiation on them, and let them cause a razor to pass over all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and cleanse themselves.
8 Then let them take a young bull, and its meal-offering, fine flour mingled with oil; and another young bull shall you take for a sin-offering.
9 You shall present the Levites before the tent of meeting; and you shall assemble the whole congregation of the children of Israel:
10 and you shall present the Levites before Yāhweh. The children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites:
11 and Aaron shall offer the Levites before Yāhweh for a wave-offering, on the behalf of the children of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of Yāhweh.
12 The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; and offer you the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt offering, to Yāhweh, to make atonement for the Levites.
13 You shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for a wave-offering to Yāhweh.
14 Thus shall you separate the Levites from among the children of Israel; and the Levites shall be mine.
15 After that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tent of meeting; and you shall cleanse them, and offer them for a wave-offering.

- 16 For they are wholly given to me from among the children of Israel; instead of all who open the womb, even the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them to me.
- 17 For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, both man and animal; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.
- 18 I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel.
- 19 I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel; that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come near to the sanctuary.
- 20 Thus did Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the Levites; according to all that Yâhweh commanded Moses touching the Levites, so did the children of Israel to them.
- 21 The Levites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them for a wave-offering before Yâhweh; and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.
- 22 After that went the Levites in to do their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron, and before his sons; as Yâhweh had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they to them.
- 23 Yâhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 24 This is that which belongs to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to wait on the service in the work of the tent of meeting;
- 25 and from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting on the work, and shall serve no more,
- 26 but shall minister with their brothers in the tent of meeting, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shall you do to the Levites touching their charges.
- 1 Yâhweh spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,
- 2 Moreover let the children of Israel keep the Passover in its appointed season.
- 3 In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, you shall keep it in its appointed season; according to all the statutes of it, and according to all the ordinances of it, shall you keep it.
- 4 Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should keep the Passover.
- 5 They kept the Passover in the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month, at even, in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that Yâhweh commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.
- 6 There were certain men, who were unclean by reason of the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day; and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day;
- 7 and those men said to him, We are unclean by reason of the dead body of a man: why are we kept back, that we may not offer the offering of Yâhweh in its appointed season among the children of Israel?
- 8 Moses said to them, Stay you, that I may hear what Yâhweh will command concerning you.
- 9 Yâhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 10 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your generations shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be on a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the Passover to Yâhweh.
- 11 In the second month on the fourteenth day at even they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs;
- 12 they shall leave none of it to the morning, nor break a bone of it; according to all the statute of the Passover they shall keep it.

- 13 But the man who is clean, and is not on a journey, and forbears to keep the Passover, that soul shall be cut off from his people; because he didn't offer the offering of Yāhweh in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin.
- 14 If a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the Passover to Yāhweh; according to the statute of the Passover, and according to the ordinance of it, so shall he do: you shall have one statute, both for the sojourner, and for him who is born in the land.
- 15 On the day that the tent was reared up the cloud covered the tent, even the tent of the testimony: and at even it was on the tent as it were the appearance of fire, until morning.
- 16 So it was always: the cloud covered it, and the appearance of fire by night.
- 17 Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Tent, then after that the children of Israel journeyed; and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel encamped.
- 18 At the commandment of Yāhweh the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of Yāhweh they encamped: as long as the cloud abode on the tent they remained encamped.
- 19 When the cloud stayed on the tent many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of Yāhweh, and didn't travel.
- 20 Sometimes the cloud was a few days on the tent; then according to the commandment of Yāhweh they remained encamped, and according to the commandment of Yāhweh they journeyed.
- 21 Sometimes the cloud was from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they journeyed: or [if it continued] by day and by night, when the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.
- 22 Whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud stayed on the tent, abiding thereon, the children of Israel remained encamped, and didn't travel; but when it was taken up, they traveled.
- 23 At the commandment of Yāhweh they encamped, and at the commandment of Yāhweh they journeyed: they kept the charge of Yāhweh, at the commandment of Yāhweh by Moses.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Make you two trumpets of silver; of beaten work shall you make them: and you shall use them for the calling of the congregation, and for the journeying of the camps.
- 3 When they shall blow them, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 4 If they blow but one, then the princes, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you.
- 5 When you blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall take their journey.
- 6 When you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.
- 7 But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.
- 8 The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and they shall be to you for a statute forever throughout your generations.
- 9 When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets; and you shall be remembered before Yāhweh your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies.
- 10 Also in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God: I am Yāhweh your God.
- 11 It happened in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud was taken up from over the tent of the testimony.

- 12 The children of Israel set forward according to their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud abode in the wilderness of Paran.
- 13 They first took their journey according to the commandment of Yāhweh by Moses.
- 14 In the first [place] the standard of the camp of the children of Judah set forward according to their hosts; and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
- 15 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.
- 16 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.
- 17 The tent was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who bore the tent, set forward.
- 18 The standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their hosts; and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.
- 19 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
- 20 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
- 21 The Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary; and [the others] did set up the tent against their coming.
- 22 The standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their hosts; and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.
- 23 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
- 24 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideon.
- 25 The standard of the camp of the children of Dan, which was the rearward of all the camps, set forward according to their hosts; and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
- 26 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ochran.
- 27 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.
- 28 Thus were the travels of the children of Israel according to their hosts; and they set forward.
- 29 Moses said to Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses father-in-law, We are journeying to the place of which Yāhweh said, I will give it you: come you with us, and we will do you good; for Yāhweh has spoken good concerning Israel.
- 30 He said to him, I will not go; but I will depart to my own land, and to my relatives.
- 31 He said, Don't leave us, please; because you know how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and you shall be to us instead of eyes.
- 32 It shall be, if you go with us, yes, it shall be, that whatever good Yāhweh shall do to us, the same will we do to you.
- 33 They set forward from the Mount of Yāhweh three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting-place for them.
- 34 The cloud of Yāhweh was over them by day, when they set forward from the camp.
- 35 It happened, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, Yāhweh, and let your enemies be scattered; and let those who hate you flee before you.
- 36 When it rested, he said, Return, Yāhweh, to the ten thousands of the thousands of Israel.
- 1 The people were as murmurers, [speaking] evil in the ears of Yāhweh; and when Yāhweh heard it, his anger was kindled; and the fire of Yāhweh burnt among them, and devoured in the uttermost part of the camp.
- 2 The people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to Yāhweh, and the fire abated.
- 3 The name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of Yāhweh burnt among them.

- 4 The mixed multitude that was among them lusted exceedingly; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?
- 5 We remember the fish, which we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic:
- 6 but now our soul is dried away; there is nothing at all save this manna to look on.
- 7 The manna was like coriander seed, and the appearance of it as the appearance of bdellium.
- 8 The people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it; and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.
- 9 When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.
- 10 Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man at the door of his tent; and the anger of Yāhweh was kindled greatly; and Moses was displeased.
- 11 Moses said to Yāhweh, Why have you dealt ill with your servant? and why haven't I found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me?
- 12 Have I conceived all this people? have I brought them forth, that you should tell me, Carry them in your bosom, as a nursing-father carries the sucking child, to the land which you swore to their fathers?
- 13 Whence should I have flesh to give to all this people? for they weep to me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.
- 14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.
- 15 If you deal thus with me, please kill me out of hand, if I have found favor in your sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.
- 16 Yāhweh said to Moses, Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the tent of meeting, that they may stand there with you.
- 17 I will come down and talk with you there; and I will take of the Spirit which is on you, and will put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you not bear it yourself alone.
- 18 Say you to the people, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh; for you have wept in the ears of Yāhweh, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore Yāhweh will give you flesh, and you shall eat.
- 19 You shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days,
- 20 but a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome to you; because that you have rejected Yāhweh who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?
- 21 Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and you have said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.
- 22 Shall flocks and herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?
- 23 Yāhweh said to Moses, Has Yāhweh's hand grown short? now shall you see whether my word shall happen to you or not.
- 24 Moses went out, and told the people the words of Yāhweh; and he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the Tent.
- 25 Yāhweh came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was on him, and put it on the seventy elders; and it happened that when the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did so no more.

26 But there remained two men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad; and the Spirit rested on them; and they were of those who were written, but had not gone out to the Tent; and they prophesied in the camp.

27 There ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 Joshua the son of Nun, the minister of Moses, one of his chosen men, answered, My lord Moses, forbid them.

29 Moses said to him, Are you jealous for my sake? would that all Yehweh's people were prophets, that Yehweh would put his Spirit on them!

30 Moses got him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 There went forth a wind from Yehweh, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the earth.

32 The people rose up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails; he who gathered least gathered ten homers; and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 While the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of Yehweh was kindled against the people, and Yehweh struck the people with a very great plague.

34 The name of that place was called Kibrothhattaavah, because there they buried the people who lusted.

35 From Kibrothhattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth; and they abode at Hazeroth.

1 Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married; for he had married a Cushite woman.

2 They said, Has Yehweh indeed spoken only with Moses? Hasn't he spoken also with us? Yehweh heard it.

3 Now the man Moses was very humble, above all the men who were on the surface of the earth.

4 Yehweh spoke suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam, Come out you three to the tent of meeting. They three came out.

5 Yehweh came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forth.

6 He said, Hear now my words; if there be a prophet among you, I Yehweh will make myself known to him in a vision, I will speak with him in a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so; he is faithful in all my house;

8 with him will I speak mouth to mouth, even manifestly, and not in dark speeches; and the form of Yehweh shall he see: why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?

9 The anger of Yehweh was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 The cloud removed from over the Tent; and, behold, Miriam was leprous, as [white as] snow; and Aaron looked at Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 Aaron said to Moses, Oh, my lord, please don't lay sin on us, for that we have done foolishly, and for that we have sinned.

12 Let her not, I pray, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb.

13 Moses cried to Yehweh, saying, Heal her, God, I beg you.

14 Yehweh said to Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, shouldn't she be ashamed seven days? let her be shut up outside of the camp seven days, and after that she shall be brought in again.

15 Miriam was shut up outside of the camp seven days; and the people didn't travel until Miriam was brought in again.

16 Afterward the people journeyed from Hazeroth, and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.
1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Send you men, that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall you send a man, everyone a prince among them.
3 Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran according to the commandment of Yāhweh: all of them men who were heads of the children of Israel.
4 These were their names: Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.
5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.
6 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.
7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.
8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun.
9 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.
10 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.
11 Of the tribe of Joseph, [namely], of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.
12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.
13 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.
14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.
15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.
16 These are the names of the men who Moses sent to spy out the land. Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun Joshua.
17 Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, Get you up this way by the South, and go up into the hill-country:
18 and see the land, what it is; and the people who dwell therein, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many;
19 and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they are that they dwell in, whether in camps, or in strongholds;
20 and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood therein, or not. Be you of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes.
21 So they went up, and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, to the entrance of Hamath.
22 They went up by the South, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)
23 They came to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bore it on a staff between two; [they brought] also of the pomegranates, and of the figs.
24 That place was called the valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the children of Israel cut down from there.
25 They returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days.
26 They went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.
27 They told him, and said, We came to the land where you sent us; and surely it flows with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

- 28 However the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified, [and] very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there.
- 29 Amalek dwells in the land of the South; and the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, dwell in the hill-country; and the Canaanite dwells by the sea, and along by the side of the Jordan.
- 30 Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.
- 31 But the men who went up with him said, We aren't able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.
- 32 They brought up an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up the inhabitants of it; and all the people who we saw in it are men of great stature.
- 33 There we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, who come of the Nephilim; and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.
- 1 All the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night.
- 2 All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron; and the whole congregation said to them, Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would that we had died in this wilderness!
- 3 Why does Yehweh bring us to this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will be a prey: wouldn't it be better for us to return into Egypt?
- 4 They said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.
- 5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.
- 6 Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were of those who spied out the land, tore their clothes;
- 7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceeding good land.
- 8 If Yehweh delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it to us; a land which flows with milk and honey.
- 9 Only don't rebel against Yehweh, neither fear you the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is removed from over them, and Yehweh is with us: don't fear them.
- 10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. The glory of Yehweh appeared in the tent of meeting to all the children of Israel.
- 11 Yehweh said to Moses, How long will this people despise me? and how long will they not believe in me, for all the signs which I have worked among them?
- 12 I will strike them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.
- 13 Moses said to Yehweh, Then the Egyptians will hear it; for you brought up this people in your might from among them;
- 14 and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you Yehweh are in the midst of this people; for you Yehweh are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them, and you go before them, in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night.
- 15 Now if you shall kill this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of you will speak, saying,
- 16 Because Yehweh was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness.

17 Now please let the power of the Lord be great, according as you have spoken, saying,
18 Yāhweh is slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, forgiving iniquity and disobedience; and that will by no means clear [the guilty], visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation.
19 Pardon, Please, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your lovingkindness, and according as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.
20 Yāhweh said, I have pardoned according to your word:
21 but in very deed, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of Yāhweh;
22 because all those men who have seen my glory, and my signs, which I worked in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have tempted me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice;
23 surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their fathers, neither shall any of those who despised me see it:
24 but my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed me fully, him will I bring into the land into which he went; and his seed shall possess it.
25 Now the Amalekite and the Canaanite dwell in the valley; tomorrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea.
26 Yāhweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
27 How long [shall I bear] with this evil congregation, that murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.
28 Tell them, As I live, says Yāhweh, surely as you have spoken in my ears, so will I do to you:
29 your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness; and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me,
30 surely you shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore that I would make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.
31 But your little ones, that you said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected.
32 But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness.
33 Your children shall be wanderers in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your prostitution, until your dead bodies be consumed in the wilderness.
34 After the number of the days in which you spied out the land, even forty days, for every day a year, shall you bear your iniquities, even forty years, and you shall know my alienation.
35 I, Yāhweh, have spoken, surely this will I do to all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.
36 The men, whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report against the land,
37 even those men who did bring up an evil report of the land, died by the plague before Yāhweh.
38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, remained alive of those men who went to spy out the land.
39 Moses told these words to all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly.
40 They rose up early in the morning, and got them up to the top of the mountain, saying, Behold, we are here, and will go up to the place which Yāhweh has promised: for we have sinned.
41 Moses said, Why now do you disobey the commandment of Yāhweh, seeing it shall not prosper?
42 Don t go up, for Yāhweh isn t among you; that you not be struck down before your enemies.

43 For there the Amalekite and the Canaanite are before you, and you shall fall by the sword; because you are turned back from following Yāhweh, therefore Yāhweh will not be with you.

44 But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain; nevertheless the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh, and Moses, didn't depart out of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekite came down, and the Canaanite who lived in that mountain, and struck them and beat them down, even to Hormah.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you are come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you,

3 and will make an offering by fire to Yāhweh, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or as a freewill-offering, or in your set feasts, to make a sweet savor to Yāhweh, of the herd, or of the flock;

4 then shall he who offers his offering offer to Yāhweh a meal-offering of a tenth part [of an ephah] of fine flour mingled with the fourth part of a hin of oil:

5 and wine for the drink-offering, the fourth part of a hin, shall you prepare with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

6 Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a meal-offering two tenth parts [of an ephah] of fine flour mingled with the third part of a hin of oil:

7 and for the drink-offering you shall offer the third part of a hin of wine, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.

8 When you prepare a bull for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or for peace-offerings to Yāhweh;

9 then shall he offer with the bull a meal-offering of three tenth parts [of an ephah] of fine flour mingled with half a hin of oil:

10 and you shall offer for the drink-offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.

11 Thus shall it be done for each bull, or for each ram, or for each of the he-lambs, or of the kids.

12 According to the number that you shall prepare, so shall you do to everyone according to their number.

13 All who are home-born shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.

14 If a stranger sojourn with you, or whoever may be among you throughout your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh; as you do, so he shall do.

15 For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you, and for the stranger who sojourns [with you], a statute forever throughout your generations: as you are, so shall the sojourner be before Yāhweh.

16 One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger who sojourns with you.

17 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

18 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you come into the land where I bring you,

19 then it shall be that when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a heave-offering to Yāhweh.

20 Of the first of your dough you shall offer up a cake for a heave-offering: as the heave-offering of the threshing floor, so shall you heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough you shall give to Yāhweh a heave-offering throughout your generations.

22 When you shall err, and not observe all these commandments, which Yāhweh has spoken to Moses,

23 even all that Yāhweh has commanded you by Moses, from the day that Yāhweh gave commandment, and onward throughout your generations;

- 24 then it shall be, if it be done unwittingly, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor to Yāhweh, with the meal-offering of it, and the drink-offering of it, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin-offering.
- 25 The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; for it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire to Yāhweh, and their sin-offering before Yāhweh, for their error:
- 26 and all the congregation of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who sojourns among them; for in respect of all the people it was done unwittingly.
- 27 If one person sin unwittingly, then he shall offer a female goat a year old for a sin-offering.
- 28 The priest shall make atonement for the soul who errs, when he sins unwittingly, before Yāhweh, to make atonement for him; and he shall be forgiven.
- 29 You shall have one law for him who does anything unwittingly, for him who is home-born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them.
- 30 But the soul who does anything with a high hand, whether he be home-born or a sojourner, the same blasphemes Yāhweh; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.
- 31 Because he has despised the word of Yāhweh, and has broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be on him.
- 32 While the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.
- 33 Those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.
- 34 They put him in custody, because it had not been declared what should be done to him.
- 35 Yāhweh said to Moses, The man shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside of the camp.
- 36 All the congregation brought him outside of the camp, and stoned him to death with stones; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
- 37 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 38 Speak to the children of Israel, and bid those who they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put on the fringe of each border a cord of blue;
- 39 and it shall be to you for a fringe, that you may look on it, and remember all the commandments of Yāhweh, and do them; and that you not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you use to play the prostitute;
- 40 that you may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy to your God.
- 41 I am Yāhweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am Yāhweh your God.
- 1 Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took [men]:
- 2 and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred fifty princes of the congregation, called to the assembly, men of renown;
- 3 and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, You take too much on you, seeing all the congregation are holy, everyone of them, and Yāhweh is among them: why then lift you up yourselves above the assembly of Yāhweh?
- 4 When Moses heard it, he fell on his face:

5 and he spoke to Korah and to all his company, saying, In the morning Yāhweh will show who are his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him; even him whom he shall choose will he cause to come near to him.

6 This do: take you censers, Korah, and all his company;

7 and put fire in them, and put incense on them before Yāhweh tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom Yāhweh does choose, he [shall be] holy: you take too much on you, you sons of Levi.

8 Moses said to Korah, Hear now, you sons of Levi:

9 [seems it but] a small thing to you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tent of Yāhweh, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them;

10 and that he has brought you near, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you? and seek you the priesthood also?

11 Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against Yāhweh: and Aaron, what is he who you murmur against him?

12 Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said, We won't come up:

13 is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but you must needs make yourself also a prince over us?

14 Moreover you haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will you put out the eyes of these men? we won't come up.

15 Moses was very angry, and said to Yāhweh, "Don't respect their offering: I have not taken one donkey from them, neither have I hurt one of them."

16 Moses said to Korah, Be you and all your company before Yāhweh, you, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow:

17 and take every man his censer, and put incense on them, and bring you before Yāhweh every man his censer, two hundred fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each his censer.

18 They took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood at the door of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.

19 Korah assembled all the congregation against them to the door of the tent of meeting: and the glory of Yāhweh appeared to all the congregation.

20 Yāhweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

21 Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.

22 They fell on their faces, and said, God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and will you be angry with all the congregation?

23 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

24 Speak to the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 He spoke to the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they got them up from the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood at the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little ones.

28 Moses said, Hereby you shall know that Yāhweh has sent me to do all these works; for [I have] not [done them] of my own mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then Yāhweh hasn't sent me.

30 But if Yāhweh make a new thing, and the ground open its mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain to them, and they go down alive into Sheol; then you shall understand that these men have despised Yāhweh.

31 It happened, as he made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground split apart that was under them;

32 and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the men who appertained to Korah, and all their goods.

33 So they, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into Sheol; and the earth closed on them, and they perished from among the assembly.

34 All Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them; for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up.

35 Fire came forth from Yāhweh, and devoured the two hundred fifty men who offered the incense.

36 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

37 Speak to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter you the fire yonder; for they are holy,

38 even the censers of these sinners against their own lives; and let them be made beaten plates for a covering of the altar; for they offered them before Yāhweh; therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the children of Israel.

39 Eleazar the priest took the brazen censers, which those who were burnt had offered; and they beat them out for a covering of the altar,

40 to be a memorial to the children of Israel, to the end that no stranger, who isn't of the seed of Aaron, comes near to burn incense before Yāhweh; that he not be as Korah, and as his company; as Yāhweh spoke to him by Moses.

41 But on the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, You have killed the people of Yāhweh.

42 It happened, when the congregation was assembled against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tent of meeting; and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of Yāhweh appeared.

43 Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting.

44 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. They fell on their faces.

46 Moses said to Aaron, Take they censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and lay incense thereon, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for there is wrath gone out from Yāhweh; the plague is begun.

47 Aaron took as Moses spoke, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people; and he put on the incense, and made atonement for the people.

48 He stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed.

49 Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Korah.

50 Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the tent of meeting; and the plague was stayed.

1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and take of them rods, one for each fathers' house, of all their princes according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods: write you every man's name on his rod.

3 You shall write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi; for there shall be one rod for each head of their fathers' houses.

4 You shall lay them up in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you.

5 It shall happen, that the rod of the man whom I shall choose shall bud; and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against you.

6 Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and all their princes gave him rods, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 Moses laid up the rods before Yahweh in the tent of the testimony.

8 It happened on the next day, that Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and put forth buds, and produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds.

9 Moses brought out all the rods from before Yahweh to all the children of Israel; and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 Yahweh said to Moses, Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the children of rebellion; that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, that they not die.

11 Thus did Moses: as Yahweh commanded him, so did he.

12 The children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, Behold, we perish, we are undone, we are all undone.

13 Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tent of Yahweh, dies: shall we perish all of us?

1 Yahweh said to Aaron, You and your sons and your fathers' house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

2 Your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, bring you near with you, that they may be joined to you, and minister to you: but you and your sons with you shall be before the tent of the testimony.

3 They shall keep your charge, and the charge of all the Tent: only they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar, that they not die, neither they, nor you.

4 They shall be joined to you, and keep the charge of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the Tent: and a stranger shall not come near to you.

5 You shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar; that there be wrath no more on the children of Israel.

6 I, behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from among the children of Israel; to you they are a gift, given to Yahweh, to do the service of the tent of meeting.

7 You and your sons with you shall keep your priesthood for everything of the altar, and for that within the veil; and you shall serve: I give you the priesthood as a service of gift; and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

8 Yahweh spoke to Aaron, I, behold, I have given you the charge of my heave-offerings, even all the holy things of the children of Israel; to you have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to your sons, as a portion forever.

9 This shall be your of the most holy things, [reserved] from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every meal-offering of theirs, and every sin-offering of theirs, and every trespass-offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons.

10 As the most holy things shall you eat of it; every male shall eat of it: it shall be holy to you.

11 This is your: the heave-offering of their gift, even all the wave-offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them to you, and to your sons and to your daughters with you, as a portion forever; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the vintage, and of the grain, the first-fruits of them which they give to Yahweh, to you have I given them.

- 13 The first-ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to Yāhweh, shall be your; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.
- 14 Everything devoted in Israel shall be your.
- 15 Everything that opens the womb, of all flesh which they offer to Yāhweh, both of man and animal shall be your; nevertheless the firstborn of man shall you surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals shall you redeem.
- 16 Those who are to be redeemed of them from a month old shall you redeem, according to your estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary (the same is twenty gerahs).
- 17 But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy: you shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and shall burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 18 The flesh of them shall be your, as the wave-breast and as the right thigh, it shall be your.
- 19 All the heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to Yāhweh, have I given you, and your sons and your daughters with you, as a portion forever: it is a covenant of salt forever before Yāhweh to you and to your seed with you.
- 20 Yāhweh said to Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them: I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.
- 21 To the children of Levi, behold, I have given all the tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, even the service of the tent of meeting.
- 22 Henceforth the children of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting, lest they bear sin, and die.
- 23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations; and among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.
- 24 For the tithe of the children of Israel, which they offer as a heave-offering to Yāhweh, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance; therefore I have said to them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.
- 25 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 26 Moreover you shall speak to the Levites, and tell them, When you take of the children of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave-offering of it for Yāhweh, a tithe of the tithe.
- 27 Your heave-offering shall be reckoned to you, as though it were the grain of the threshing floor, and as the fullness of the winepress.
- 28 Thus you also shall offer a heave-offering to Yāhweh of all your tithes, which you receive of the children of Israel; and of it you shall give Yāhweh s heave-offering to Aaron the priest.
- 29 Out of all your gifts you shall offer every heave-offering of Yāhweh, of all the best of it, even the holy part of it out of it.
- 30 Therefore you shall tell them, When you heave the best of it from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor, and as the increase of the wine-press.
- 31 You shall eat it in every place, you and your households: for it is your reward in return for your service in the tent of meeting.
- 32 You shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it the best of it: and you shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, that you not die.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
- 2 This is the statute of the law which Yāhweh has commanded, saying, Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without spot, in which is no blemish, [and] on which never came yoke.

- 3 You shall give her to Eleazar the priest, and he shall bring her forth outside of the camp, and one shall kill her before his face:
- 4 and Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle her blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.
- 5 One shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:
- 6 and the priest shall take cedar-wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.
- 7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.
- 8 He who burns her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.
- 9 A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up outside of the camp in a clean place; and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water for impurity: it is a sin-offering.
- 10 He who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even; and it shall be to the children of Israel, and to the stranger who sojourns among them, for a statute forever.
- 11 He who touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days:
- 12 the same shall purify himself therewith on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean; but if he doesn't purify himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.
- 13 Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a man who has died, and doesn't purify himself, defiles the tent of Yahweh; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet on him.
- 14 This is the law when a man dies in a tent; everyone who comes into the tent, and everyone who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.
- 15 Every open vessel, which has no covering bound on it, is unclean.
- 16 Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.
- 17 For the unclean they shall take of the ashes of the burning of the sin-offering; and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel:
- 18 and a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, and on all the vessels, and on the persons who were there, and on him who touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave:
- 19 and the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify him; and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even.
- 20 But the man who shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of Yahweh: the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.
- 21 It shall be a perpetual statute to them; and he who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until even.
- 22 Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the soul that touches it shall be unclean until even.
- 1 The children of Israel, even the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month; and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

- 2 There was no water for the congregation; and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.
- 3 The people strove with Moses, and spoke, saying, Would that we had died when our brothers died before Yāhweh!
- 4 Why have you brought the assembly of Yāhweh into this wilderness, that we should die there, we and our animals?
- 5 Why have you made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in to this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.
- 6 Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tent of meeting, and fell on their faces; and the glory of Yāhweh appeared to them.
- 7 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 8 Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you, and Aaron your brother, and speak you to the rock before their eyes, that it give forth its water; and you shall bring forth to them water out of the rock; so you shall give the congregation and their cattle drink.
- 9 Moses took the rod from before Yāhweh, as he commanded him.
- 10 Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, Hear now, you rebels; shall we bring you forth water out of this rock?
- 11 Moses lifted up his hand, and struck the rock with his rod twice; and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their cattle.
- 12 Yāhweh said to Moses and Aaron, Because you didn't believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.
- 13 These are the waters of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with Yāhweh, and he was sanctified in them.
- 14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, Thus says your brother Israel, You know all the travail that has befallen us:
- 15 how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt ill with us, and our fathers:
- 16 and when we cried to Yāhweh, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of your border.
- 17 Please let us pass through your land: we will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go along the king's highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your border.
- 18 Edom said to him, You shall not pass through me, lest I come out with the sword against you.
- 19 The children of Israel said to him, We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my cattle, then will I give the price of it: let me only, without [doing] anything [else], pass through on my feet.
- 20 He said, You shall not pass through. Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.
- 21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: why Israel turned away from him.
- 22 They journeyed from Kadesh: and the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.
- 23 Yāhweh spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom, saying,
- 24 Aaron shall be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against my word at the waters of Meribah.
- 25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor;

26 and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron shall be gathered [to his people], and shall die there.

27 Moses did as Yahweh commanded: and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

29 When all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they wept for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

1 The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the South, heard tell that Israel came by the way of Atharim; and he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive.

2 Israel vowed a vow to Yahweh, and said, If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.

3 Yahweh listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities; and the name of the place was called Hormah.

4 They journeyed from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to compass the land of Edom; and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way.

5 The people spoke against God, and against Moses, Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul loathes this light bread.

6 Yahweh sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

7 The people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, because we have spoken against Yahweh, and against you; pray to Yahweh, that he take away the serpents from us. Moses prayed for the people.

8 Yahweh said to Moses, Make you a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard: and it shall happen, that everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live.

9 Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it on the standard: and it happened, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 The children of Israel journeyed, and encamped in Oboth.

11 They journeyed from Oboth, and encamped at Iyzebarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrise.

12 From there they journeyed, and encamped in the valley of Zered.

13 From there they journeyed, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness, that comes out of the border of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Therefore it is said in the book of the Wars of Yahweh, Baheb in Suphah, The valleys of the Arnon, 15 The slope of the valleys That inclines toward the dwelling of Ar, Leans on the border of Moab.

16 From there [they journeyed] to Beer: that is the well whereof Yahweh said to Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 Then sang Israel this song: Spring up, well; sing you to it:

18 The well, which the princes dug, Which the nobles of the people dug, With the scepter, [and] with their poles. From the wilderness [they journeyed] to Mattanah;

19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth;

20 and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down on the desert.

21 Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

- 22 Let me pass through your land; we will not turn aside into field, or into vineyard; we will not drink of the water of the wells; we will go by the king's highway, until we have passed your border.
- 23 Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz; and he fought against Israel.
- 24 Israel struck him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the children of Ammon; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.
- 25 Israel took all these cities; and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the towns of it.
- 26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even to the Arnon.
- 27 Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, Come you to Heshbon; Let the city of Sihon be built and established:
- 28 For a fire is gone out of Heshbon, A flame from the city of Sihon: It has devoured Ar of Moab, The lords of the high places of the Arnon.
- 29 Woe to you, Moab! You are undone, people of Chemosh; He has given his sons as fugitives, His daughters into captivity, To Sihon king of the Amorites.
- 30 We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even to Dibon, We have laid waste even to Nophah, Which [reaches] to Medeba.
- 31 Thus Israel lived in the land of the Amorites.
- 32 Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took the towns of it, and drove out the Amorites who were there.
- 33 They turned and went up by the way of Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.
- 34 Yahweh said to Moses, Don't fear him; for I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people, and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.
- 35 So they struck him, and his sons and all his people, until there was none left him remaining; and they possessed his land.
- 1 The children of Israel journeyed, and encamped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho.
- 2 Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.
- 3 Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many; and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.
- 4 Moab said to the elders of Midian, Now will this multitude lick up all that is round about us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.
- 5 He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the River, to the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt; behold, they cover the surface of the earth, and they abide over against me.
- 6 Please come now therefore curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me; peradventure I shall prevail, that we may strike them, and that I may drive them out of the land; for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.
- 7 The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and spoke to him the words of Balak.
- 8 He said to them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as Yahweh shall speak to me; and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.
- 9 God came to Balaam, and said, What men are these with you?
- 10 Balaam said to God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, [saying],

- 11 Behold, the people that is come out of Egypt, it covers the surface of the earth; now, come curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to fight against them, and shall drive them out.
- 12 God said to Balaam, You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people; for they are blessed.
- 13 Balaam rose up in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, Get you into your land; for Yāhweh refuses to give me leave to go with you.
- 14 The princes of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak, and said, Balaam refuses to come with us.
- 15 Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honorable than they.
- 16 They came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me:
- 17 for I will promote you to very great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do. Please come therefore, and curse this people for me.
- 18 Balaam answered the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can t go beyond the word of Yāhweh my God, to do less or more.
- 19 Now therefore, please wait also here this night, that I may know what Yāhweh will speak to me more.
- 20 God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, If the men are come to call you, rise up, go with them; but only the word which I speak to you, that shall you do.
- 21 Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.
- 22 God s anger was kindled because he went; and the angel of Yāhweh placed himself in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.
- 23 The donkey saw the angel of Yāhweh standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and the donkey turned aside out of the way, and went into the field; and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the way.
- 24 Then the angel of Yāhweh stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.
- 25 The donkey saw the angel of Yāhweh, and she thrust herself to the wall, and crushed Balaam s foot against the wall; and he struck her again.
- 26 The angel of Yāhweh went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.
- 27 The donkey saw the angel of Yāhweh, and she lay down under Balaam; and Balaam s anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff.
- 28 Yāhweh opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?
- 29 Balaam said to the donkey, Because you have mocked me, I would there were a sword in my hand, for now I had killed you.
- 30 The donkey said to Balaam, Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? was I ever wont to do so to you? and he said, No.
- 31 Then Yāhweh opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of Yāhweh standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed his head, and fell on his face.
- 32 The angel of Yāhweh said to him, Why have you struck your donkey these three times? behold, I am come forth for an adversary, because your way is perverse before me:
- 33 and the donkey saw me, and turned aside before me these three times; unless she had turned aside from me, surely now I had even slain you, and saved her alive.
- 34 Balaam said to the angel of Yāhweh, I have sinned; for I didn t know that you stood in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease you, I will get me back again.

35 The angel of Yāhweh said to Balaam, Go with the men; but only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 When Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him to the City of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, which is in the utmost part of the border.

37 Balak said to Balaam, Didn't I earnestly send to you to call you? why didn't you come to me? am I not able indeed to promote you to honor?

38 Balaam said to Balak, Behold, I have come to you; have I now any power at all to speak anything? the word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth.

40 Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes who were with him.

41 It happened in the morning, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal; and he saw from there the utmost part of the people.

1 Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bulls and seven rams.

2 Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram.

3 Balaam said to Balak, Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; peradventure Yāhweh will come to meet me; and whatever he shows me I will tell you. He went to a bare height.

4 God met Balaam; and he said to him, I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on every altar.

5 Yāhweh put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak.

6 He returned to him, and, behold, he was standing by his burnt-offering, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 He took up his parable, and said, From Aram has Balak brought me, The king of Moab from the mountains of the East: Come, curse me Jacob, Come, defy Israel.

8 How shall I curse, whom God has not cursed? How shall I defy, whom Yāhweh has not defied?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, From the hills I see him: behold, it is a people that dwells alone, And shall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, Or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, Let my last end be like his!

11 Balak said to Balaam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have blessed them altogether.

12 He answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which Yāhweh puts in my mouth?

13 Balak said to him, Please come with me to another place, from whence you may see them; you shall see but the utmost part of them, and shall not see them all: and curse me them from there.

14 He took him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar.

15 He said to Balak, Stand here by your burnt offering, while I meet [Yāhweh] yonder.

16 Yāhweh met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and thus shall you speak.

17 He came to him, and, behold, he was standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. Balak said to him, What has Yāhweh spoken?

18 He took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; Listen to me, you son of Zippor:

19 God is not a man, that he should lie, Neither the son of man, that he should repent: Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not make it good?

20 Behold, I have received [commandment] to bless: He has blessed, and I can't reverse it.

- 21 He has not saw iniquity in Jacob; Neither has he seen perverseness in Israel: Yāhweh his God is with him, The shout of a king is among them.
- 22 God brings them forth out of Egypt; He has as it were the strength of the wild-ox.
- 23 Surely there is no enchantment with Jacob; Neither is there any divination with Israel: Now shall it be said of Jacob and of Israel, What has God done!
- 24 Behold, the people rises up as a lioness, As a lion does he lift himself up: He shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, Drink the blood of the slain.
- 25 Balak said to Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.
- 26 But Balaam answered Balak, Didn't I tell you, saying, All that Yāhweh speaks, that I must do?
- 27 Balak said to Balaam, Come now, I will take you to another place; peradventure it will please God that you may curse me them from there.
- 28 Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that looks down on the desert.
- 29 Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bulls and seven rams.
- 30 Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar.
- 1 When Balaam saw that it pleased Yāhweh to bless Israel, he didn't go, as at the other times, to meet with enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.
- 2 Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came on him.
- 3 He took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor says, The man whose eye was closed says;
- 4 He says, who hears the words of God, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, and having his eyes open:
- 5 How goodly are your tents, Jacob, Your tents, Israel!
- 6 As valleys are they spread forth, As gardens by the river-side, As sign-aloes which Yāhweh has planted, As cedar-trees beside the waters.
- 7 Water shall flow from his buckets, His seed shall be in many waters, His king shall be higher than Agag, His kingdom shall be exalted.
- 8 God brings him forth out of Egypt; He has as it were the strength of the wild-ox: He shall eat up the nations his adversaries, Shall break their bones in pieces, Smite [them] through with his arrows.
- 9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, As a lioness; who shall rouse him up? Blessed be everyone who blesses you, Cursed be everyone who curses you.
- 10 Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times.
- 11 Therefore now flee you to your place: I thought to promote you to great honor; but, behold, Yāhweh has kept you back from honor.
- 12 Balaam said to Balak, Didn't I also tell your messengers who you sent to me, saying,
- 13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the word of Yāhweh, to do either good or bad of my own mind; what Yāhweh speaks, that will I speak?
- 14 Now, behold, I go to my people: come, [and] I will advertise you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days.
- 15 He took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor says, The man whose eye was closed says;
- 16 He says, who hears the words of God, Knows the knowledge of the Most High, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, and having his eyes open:

17 I see him, but not now; I see him, but not near: There shall come forth a star out of Jacob, A scepter shall rise out of Israel, Shall strike through the corners of Moab, Break down all the sons of tumult.
 18 Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession, [who were] his enemies; While Israel does valiantly.
 19 Out of Jacob shall one have dominion, Shall destroy the remnant from the city.
 20 He looked at Amalek, and took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations; But his latter end shall come to destruction.
 21 He looked at the Kenite, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is your dwelling-place, Your nest is set in the rock.
 22 Nevertheless Kain shall be wasted, Until Asshur shall carry you away captive.
 23 He took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God does this?
 24 But ships [shall come] from the coast of Kittim, They shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber; He also shall come to destruction.
 25 Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.
 1 Israel abode in Shittim; and the people began to play the prostitute with the daughters of Moab:
 2 for they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods; and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods.
 3 Israel joined himself to Baal-peor: and the anger of Yehweh was kindled against Israel.
 4 Yehweh said to Moses, Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up to Yehweh before the sun, that the fierce anger of Yehweh may turn away from Israel.
 5 Moses said to the judges of Israel, Kill you everyone his men who have joined themselves to Baal-peor.
 6 Behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought to his brothers a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the tent of meeting.
 7 When Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the midst of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand;
 8 and he went after the man of Israel into the pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.
 9 Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.
 10 Yehweh spoke to Moses, saying,
 11 Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I didn't consume the children of Israel in my jealousy.
 12 Therefore say, Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace:
 13 and it shall be to him, and to his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.
 14 Now the name of the man of Israel that was slain, who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a fathers' house among the Simeonites.
 15 The name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a fathers' house in Midian.
 16 Yehweh spoke to Moses, saying,
 17 Vex the Midianites, and strike them;

18 for they vex you with their wives, with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague in the matter of Peor.

1 It happened after the plague, that Yehweh spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying,

2 Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' houses, all who are able to go forth to war in Israel.

3 Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

- 53 To these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.
- 54 To the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: to everyone according to those who were numbered of him shall his inheritance be given.
- 55 Notwithstanding, the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.

- 61 Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before Yahweh.
- 62 Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.
- 63 These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
- 64 But among these there was not a man of them who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.
- 65 For Yahweh had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. There was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.
- 1 Then drew near the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.
- 2 They stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, at the door of the tent of meeting, saying,
- 3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against Yahweh in the company of Korah; but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons.
- 4 Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he had no son? Give to us a possession among the brothers of our father.
- 5 Moses brought their cause before Yahweh.
- 6 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: you shall surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brothers; and you shall cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.
- 8 You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.
- 9 If he have no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.
- 10 If he have no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.

- 11 If his father have no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman who is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it; and it shall be to the children of Israel a statute [and] ordinance, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
- 12 Yāhweh said to Moses, Get you up into this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.
- 13 When you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was gathered;
- 14 because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the waters before their eyes. (These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)
- 15 Moses spoke to Yāhweh, saying,
- 16 Let Yāhweh, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation,
- 17 who may go out before them, and who may come in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in; that the congregation of Yāhweh not be as sheep which have no shepherd.
- 18 Yāhweh said to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him;
- 19 and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight.
- 20 You shall put of your honor on him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may obey.
- 21 He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before Yāhweh; at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.
- 22 Moses did as Yāhweh commanded him; and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation:
- 23 and he laid his hands on him, and gave him a charge, as Yāhweh spoke by Moses.
- 1 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Command the children of Israel, and tell them, My offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, of a sweet savor to me, shall you observe to offer to me in their due season.
- 3 You shall tell them, This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to Yāhweh: he-lambs a year old without blemish, two day by day, for a continual burnt offering.
- 4 The one lamb shall you offer in the morning, and the other lamb shall you offer at even;
- 5 and the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil.
- 6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 7 The drink-offering of it shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shall you pour out a drink-offering of strong drink to Yāhweh.
- 8 The other lamb shall you offer at even: as the meal-offering of the morning, and as the drink-offering of it, you shall offer it, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh.
- 9 On the Sabbath day two he-lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenth parts [of an ephah] of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, and the drink-offering of it:
- 10 this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt-offering, and the drink-offering of it.
- 11 In the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to Yāhweh: two young bulls, and one ram, seven he-lambs a year old without blemish;

- 12 and three tenth parts [of an ephah] of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, for each bull; and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal-offering, mingled with oil, for the one ram;
- 13 and a tenth part of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal-offering to every lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to Yāhweh.
- 14 Their drink-offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, and the third part of a hin for the ram, and the fourth part of a hin for a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year.
- 15 One male goat for a sin-offering to Yāhweh; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink-offering of it.
- 16 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is Yāhweh s Passover.
- 17 On the fifteenth day of this month shall be a feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.
- 18 In the first day shall be a holy convocation: you shall do no servile work;
- 19 but you shall offer an offering made by fire, a burnt offering to Yāhweh: two young bulls, and one ram, and seven he-lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish;
- 20 and their meal-offering, fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth parts shall you offer for a bull, and two tenth parts for the ram;
- 21 a tenth part shall you offer for every lamb of the seven lambs;
- 22 and one male goat for a sin-offering, to make atonement for you.
- 23 You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.
- 24 After this manner you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to Yāhweh; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink-offering of it.
- 25 On the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation: you shall do no servile work.
- 26 Also in the day of the first-fruits, when you offer a new meal-offering to Yāhweh in your [feast of] weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work;
- 27 but you shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savor to Yāhweh: two young bulls, one ram, seven he-lambs a year old;
- 28 and their meal-offering, fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for each bull, two tenth parts for the one ram,
- 29 a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs;
- 30 one male goat, to make atonement for you.
- 31 Besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal-offering of it, you shall offer them (they shall be to you without blemish), and their drink-offerings.
- 1 In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work; it is a day of blowing of trumpets to you.

- 7 On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; and you shall afflict your souls; you shall do no manner of work;

39 These you shall offer to Yāhweh in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill-offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal-offerings, and for your drink-offerings, and for your peace-offerings.
40 Moses told the children of Israel according to all that Yāhweh commanded Moses.
1 Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which Yāhweh has commanded.
2 When a man vows a vow to Yāhweh, or swears an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.
3 Also when a woman vows a vow to Yāhweh, and binds herself by a bond, being in her father's house, in her youth,
4 and her father hears her vow, and her bond with which she has bound her soul, and her father holds his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand.
5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he hears, none of her vows, or of her bonds with which she has bound her soul, shall stand: and Yāhweh will forgive her, because her father disallowed her.
6 If she be [married] to a husband, while her vows are on her, or the rash utterance of her lips, with which she has bound her soul,
7 and her husband hear it, and hold his peace at her in the day that he hears it; then her vows shall stand, and her bonds with which she has bound her soul shall stand.
8 But if her husband disallow her in the day that he hears it, then he shall make void her vow which is on her, and the rash utterance of her lips, with which she has bound her soul; and Yāhweh will forgive her.
9 But the vow of a widow, or of her who is divorced, [even] everything with which she has bound her soul, shall stand against her.
10 If she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath, 11 and her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and didn't disallow her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she bound her soul shall stand.
12 But if her husband made them null and void in the day that he heard them, then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband has made them void; and Yāhweh will forgive her.
13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

- 14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows, or all her bonds, which are on her: he has established them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.
- 15 But if he shall make them null and void after that he has heard them, then he shall bear her iniquity.
- 16 These are the statutes, which Yáhwēh commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter, being in her youth, in her father's house.
- 1 Yáhwēh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shall you be gathered to your people.
- 3 Moses spoke to the people, saying, Arm you men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute Yáhwēh's vengeance on Midian.
- 4 Of every tribe one thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall you send to the war.
- 5 So there were delivered, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.
- 6 Moses sent them, one thousand of every tribe, to the war, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand.
- 7 They warred against Midian, as Yáhwēh commanded Moses; and they killed every male.
- 8 They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they killed with the sword.
- 9 The children of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their little ones; and all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods, they took for a prey.
- 10 All their cities in the places in which they lived, and all their encampments, they burnt with fire.
- 11 They took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of man and of animal.
- 12 They brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan at Jericho.
- 13 Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside of the camp.
- 14 Moses was angry with the officers of the host, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from the service of the war.
- 15 Moses said to them, Have you saved all the women alive?
- 16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against Yáhwēh in the matter of Peor, and so the plague was among the congregation of Yáhwēh.
- 17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him.
- 18 But all the girls, who have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.
- 19 Encamp you outside of the camp seven days: whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives.
- 20 As to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats [hair], and all things made of wood, you shall purify yourselves.
- 21 Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who went to the battle, This is the statute of the law which Yáhwēh has commanded Moses:
- 22 however the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 everything that may abide the fire, you shall make to go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified with the water for impurity; and all that doesn't withstand the fire you shall make to go through the water.

24 You shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; and afterward you shall come into the camp.

25 Yāhweh spoke to Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of animal, you, and Eleazar the priest, and the heads of the fathers [houses] of the congregation;

27 and divide the prey into two parts: between the men skilled in war, who went out to battle, and all the congregation.

28 Levy a tribute to Yāhweh of the men of war who went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, [both] of the persons, and of the oxen, and of the donkeys, and of the flocks:

29 take it of their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest, for Yāhweh's heave-offering.

30 Of the children of Israel's half, you shall take one drawn out of every fifty, of the persons, of the oxen, of the donkeys, and of the flocks, [even] of all the cattle, and give them to the Levites, who keep the charge of the tent of Yāhweh.

31 Moses and Eleazar the priest did as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

32 Now the prey, over and above the booty which the men of war took, was six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep,

33 and seventy-two thousand oxen,

34 and seventy-one thousand donkeys,

35 and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of the women who had not known man by lying with him.

36 The half, which was the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep:

37 and Yāhweh's tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy-five.

38 The oxen were thirty-six thousand; of which Yāhweh's tribute was seventy-two.

39 The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred; of which Yāhweh's tribute was sixty-one.

40 The persons were sixteen thousand; of whom Yāhweh's tribute was thirty-two persons.

41 Moses gave the tribute, which was Yāhweh's heave-offering, to Eleazar the priest, as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

42 Of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided off from the men who warred

43 (now the congregation's half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

44 and thirty-six thousand oxen,

45 and thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,

46 and sixteen thousand persons),

47 even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both of man and of animal, and gave them to the Levites, who kept the charge of the tent of Yāhweh; as Yāhweh commanded Moses.

48 The officers who were over the thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, came near to Moses;

49 and they said to Moses, Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are under our charge, and there lacks not one man of us.

50 We have brought Yāhweh's offering, what every man has gotten, of jewels of gold, ankle-chains, and bracelets, signet-rings, ear-rings, and armlets, to make atonement for our souls before Yāhweh.

51 Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all worked jewels.

52 All the gold of the heave-offering that they offered up to Yāhweh, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels.

53 ([For] the men of war had taken booty, every man for himself.)

54 Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting, for a memorial for the children of Israel before Yāhweh.

1 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle; and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that behold, the place was a place for cattle;

2 the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying,

3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 the land which Yāhweh struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle; and your servants have cattle.

5 They said, If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; don't bring us over the Jordan.

6 Moses said to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brothers go to the war, and shall you sit here?

7 Why discourage you the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which Yāhweh has given them?

8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

9 For when they went up to the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which Yāhweh had given them.

10 Yāhweh's anger was kindled in that day, and he swore, saying,

11 Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me:

12 save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun; because they have wholly followed Yāhweh.

13 Yāhweh's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander back and forth in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, who had done evil in the sight of Yāhweh, was consumed.

14 Behold, you are risen up in your fathers' place, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of Yāhweh toward Israel.

15 For if you turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people.

16 They came near to him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

17 but we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return to our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance.

19 For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side of the Jordan eastward.

20 Moses said to them, If you will do this thing, if you will arm yourselves to go before Yāhweh to the war,

21 and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan before Yāhweh, until he has driven out his enemies from before him,

22 and the land is subdued before Yāhweh; then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless towards Yāhweh, and towards Israel; and this land shall be to you for a possession before Yāhweh.

23 But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against Yāhweh; and be sure your sin will find you out.

24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth.

25 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, Your servants will do as my lord commands.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead;

27 but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before Yāhweh to battle, as my lord says.

28 So Moses gave charge concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers [houses] of the tribes of the children of Israel.

29 Moses said to them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over the Jordan, every man who is armed to battle, before Yāhweh, and the land shall be subdued before you; then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As Yāhweh has said to your servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before Yāhweh into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance [shall remain] with us beyond the Jordan.

33 Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, according to the cities of it with [their] borders, even the cities of the land round about.

34 The children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer,

35 and Atrothshophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah,

36 and Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran: fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

37 The children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim,

38 and Nebo, and Baal-meon, (their names being changed,) and Sibmah; and they gave other names to the cities which they built.

39 The children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were therein.

40 Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh; and he lived therein.

41 Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the towns of it, and called them Havvoth-jair.

42 Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages of it, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

1 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, when they went forth out of the land of Egypt by their hosts under the hand of Moses and Aaron.

2 Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of Yāhweh: and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

3 They journeyed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the next day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, 21 They journeyed from Libnah, and encamped in Rissah.

22 They journeyed from Rissah, and encamped in Kehelathah.

23 They journeyed from Kehelathah, and encamped in Mount Shepher.

24 They journeyed from Mount Shepher, and encamped in Haradah.

25 They journeyed from Haradah, and encamped in Makheloth.

26 They journeyed from Makheloth, and encamped in Tahath.

27 They journeyed from Tahath, and encamped in Terah.

28 They journeyed from Terah, and encamped in Mithkah.

29 They journeyed from Mithkah, and encamped in Hashmonah.

30 They journeyed from Hashmonah, and encamped in Moseroth.

31 They journeyed from Moseroth, and encamped in Bene-jaakan.

32 They journeyed from Bene-jaakan, and encamped in Hor-haggidgad.

33 They journeyed from Hor-haggidgad, and encamped in Jotbathah.

34 They journeyed from Jotbathah, and encamped in Abronah.

35 They journeyed from Abronah, and encamped in Ezion-geber.

36 They journeyed from Ezion-geber, and encamped in the wilderness of Zin (the same is Kadesh).

37 They journeyed from Kadesh, and encamped in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.

- 38 Aaron the priest went up into Mount Hor at the commandment of Yahweh, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month.
- 39 Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died in Mount Hor.
- 40 The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the South in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.
- 41 They journeyed from Mount Hor, and encamped in Zalmonah.
- 42 They journeyed from Zalmonah, and encamped in Punon.
- 43 They journeyed from Punon, and encamped in Oboth.
- 44 They journeyed from Oboth, and encamped in Iye-abarim, in the border of Moab.
- 45 They journeyed from Iyim, and encamped in Dibon-gad.
- 46 They journeyed from Dibon-gad, and encamped in Almon-diblathaim.
- 47 They journeyed from Almon-diblathaim, and encamped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.
- 48 They journeyed from the mountains of Abarim, and encamped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
- 49 They encamped by the Jordan, from Beth-jeshimoth even to Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.
- 50 Yahweh spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,
- 51 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,
- 52 then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their figured [stones], and destroy all their molten images, and demolish all their high places;
- 53 and you shall take possession of the land, and dwell therein; for to you have I given the land to possess it.
- 54 You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance; wherever the lot falls to any man, that shall be his; according to the tribes of your fathers shall you inherit.
- 55 But if you will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then shall those who you let remain of them be as pricks in your eyes, and as thorns in your sides, and they shall vex you in the land in which you dwell.
- 56 It shall happen that as I thought to do to them, so will I do to you.
- 1 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,
- 2 Command the children of Israel, and tell them, When you come into the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan according to the borders of it),
- 3 then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the side of Edom, and your south border shall be from the end of the Salt Sea eastward;
- 4 and your border shall turn about southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass along to Zin; and the goings out of it shall be southward of Kadesh-barnea; and it shall go forth to Hazar-addar, and pass along to Azmon;
- 5 and the border shall turn about from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.
- 6 For the western border, you shall have the great sea and the border [of it]; this shall be your west border.
- 7 This shall be your north border: from the great sea you shall mark out for you Mount Hor;

8 from Mount Hor you shall mark out to the entrance of Hamath; and the goings out of the border shall be at Zedad;

9 and the border shall go forth to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-enan: this shall be your north border.

10 You shall mark out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham;

11 and the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down, and shall reach to the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward;

12 and the border shall go down to the Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to the borders of it round about.

13 Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which Yehweh has commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half-tribe;

14 for the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their fathers' houses, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to their fathers' houses, have received, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received, their inheritance:

15 the two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.

16 Yehweh spoke to Moses, saying,

17 These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun.

18 You shall take one prince of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance.

19 These are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

20 Of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud.

21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

22 Of the tribe of the children of Dan a prince, Bukki the son of Jogli.

23 Of the children of Joseph: of the tribe of the children of Manasseh a prince, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

24 Of the tribe of the children of Ephraim a prince, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan.

25 Of the tribe of the children of Zebulun a prince, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.

26 Of the tribe of the children of Issachar a prince, Paltiel the son of Azzan.

27 Of the tribe of the children of Asher a prince, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.

28 Of the tribe of the children of Naphtali a prince, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

29 These are they whom Yehweh commanded to divide the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

1 Yehweh spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel that they give to the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and suburbs for the cities round about them shall you give to the Levites.

3 The cities shall they have to dwell in; and their suburbs shall be for their cattle, and for their substance, and for all their animals.

4 The suburbs of the cities, which you shall give to the Levites, shall be from the wall of the city and outward one thousand cubits round about.

5 You shall measure outside of the city for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, the city being in the midst. This shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6 The cities which you shall give to the Levites, they shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to: and besides them you shall give forty-two cities.

7 All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities; them [shall you give] with their suburbs.

8 Concerning the cities which you shall give of the possession of the children of Israel, from the many you shall take many; and from the few you shall take few: everyone according to his inheritance which he inherits shall give of his cities to the Levites.

9 Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying,

10 Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

11 then you shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person unwittingly may flee there.

12 The cities shall be to you for refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer not die, until he stands before the congregation for judgment.

13 The cities which you shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge.

14 You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities shall you give in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge.

15 For the children of Israel, and for the stranger and for the sojourner among them, shall these six cities be for refuge; that everyone who kills any person unwittingly may flee there.

16 But if he struck him with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 If he struck him with a stone in the hand, whereby a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he struck him with a weapon of wood in the hand, whereby a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death: when he meets him, he shall put him to death.

20 If he thrust him of hatred, or hurled at him, lying in wait, so that he died,

21 or in enmity struck him with his hand, so that he died; he who struck him shall surely be put to death; he is a murderer: the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when he meets him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or hurled on him anything without lying in wait,

23 or with any stone, whereby a man may die, not seeing him, and cast it on him, so that he died, and he was not his enemy, neither sought his harm;

24 then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances;

25 and the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, where he was fled: and he shall dwell therein until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the border of his city of refuge, where he flees,

27 and the avenger of blood find him outside of the border of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kill the manslayer; he shall not be guilty of blood, 28 because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the manslayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 These things shall be for a statute [and] ordinance to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be slain at the mouth of witnesses; but one witness shall not testify against any person that he die.

31 Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death; but he shall surely be put to death.

32 You shall take no ransom for him who is fled to his city of refuge, that he may come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So you shall not pollute the land in which you are; for blood, it pollutes the land; and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him who shed it.

34 You shall not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell; for I, Yāhweh, dwell in the midst of the children of Israel.

1 The heads of the fathers [houses] of the family of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spoke before Moses, and before the princes, the heads of the fathers [houses] of the children of Israel:

2 and they said, Yāhweh commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the children of Israel; and my lord was commanded by Yāhweh to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.

3 If they be married to any of the sons of the [other] tribes of the children of Israel, then will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong; so will it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 When the jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then will their inheritance be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong; so will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of Yāhweh, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks right.

6 This is the thing which Yāhweh does command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be married to whom they think best; only into the family of the tribe of their father shall they be married.

7 So shall no inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe; for the children of Israel shall cleave everyone to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 Every daughter, who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may possess every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 So shall no inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; for the tribes of the children of Israel shall cleave everyone to his own inheritance.

10 Even as Yāhweh commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 for Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father's brothers' sons.

12 They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the ordinances which Yāhweh commanded by Moses to the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah over against Suph, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Di-zahab.

2 It is eleven days [journey] from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea.

3 It happened in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that Yāhweh had given him in commandment to them;

4 after he had struck Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth, at Edrei.

5 Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 Yāhweh our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, You have lived long enough in this mountain:

7 turn you, and take your journey, and go to the hill-country of the Amorites, and to all [the places] near thereunto, in the Arabah, in the hill-country, and in the lowland, and in the South, and by the sea-shore, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which Yāhweh swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their seed after them.

9 I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 Yāhweh your God has multiplied you, and, behold, you are this day as the stars of the sky for multitude.

11 Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as he has promised you!

12 How can I myself alone bear your encumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 Take wise men of understanding and well known according to your tribes, and I will make them heads over you.

14 You answered me, and said, The thing which you have spoken is good [for us] to do.

15 So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers, according to your tribes.

16 I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear [the causes] between your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the sojourner who is with him.

17 You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you you shall bring to me, and I will hear it.

18 I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.

19 We journeyed from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, by the way to the hill-country of the Amorites, as Yāhweh our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 I said to you, You are come to the hill-country of the Amorites, which Yāhweh our God gives to us.

21 Behold, Yāhweh your God has set the land before you; go up, take possession, as Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed.

22 You came near to me everyone of you, and said, Let us send men before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and the cities to which we shall come.

23 The thing pleased me well; and I took twelve men of you, one man for every tribe:

24 and they turned and went up into the hill-country, and came to the valley of Eshcol, and spied it out.

25 They took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which Yāhweh our God gives to us.

26 Yet you wouldn't go up, but rebelled against the commandment of Yāhweh your God:

27 and you murmured in your tents, and said, Because Yāhweh hated us, he has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Where are we going up? our brothers have made our heart to melt, saying, The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to the sky; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.

29 Then I said to you, Don't dread, neither be afraid of them.

30 Yāhweh your God who goes before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes,

31 and in the wilderness, where you have seen how that Yāhweh your God bore you, as a man does bear his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place.

32 Yet in this thing you didn't believe Yāhweh your God,

33 who went before you in the way, to seek you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in the cloud by day.

34 Yāhweh heard the voice of your words, and was angry, and swore, saying,

35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see the good land, which I swore to give to your fathers,

36 save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it; and to him will I give the land that he has trodden on, and to his children, because he has wholly followed Yāhweh.

37 Also Yāhweh was angry with me for your sakes, saying, You also shall not go in there:

38 Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there: encourage you him; for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover your little ones, whom you said should be a prey, and your children, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea.

41 Then you answered and said to me, We have sinned against Yāhweh, we will go up and fight, according to all that Yāhweh our God commanded us. You girded on every man his weapons of war, and were forward to go up into the hill-country.

42 Yāhweh said to me, Tell them, Don't go up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be struck before your enemies.

43 So I spoke to you, and you didn't listen; but you rebelled against the commandment of Yāhweh, and were presumptuous, and went up into the hill-country.

44 The Amorites, who lived in that hill-country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and beat you down in Seir, even to Hormah.

45 You returned and wept before Yāhweh; but Yāhweh didn't listen to your voice, nor gave ear to you.

46 So you abode in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you abode [there].

1 Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea, as Yāhweh spoke to me; and we compassed Mount Seir many days.

2 Yāhweh spoke to me, saying,

3 You have compassed this mountain long enough; turn you northward.

4 Command you the people, saying, You are to pass through the border of your brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they will be afraid of you; take good heed to yourselves therefore;

5 don't contend with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as for the sole of the foot to tread on; because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession.

6 You shall purchase food of them for money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water of them for money, that you may drink.

7 For Yāhweh your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand; he has known your walking through this great wilderness; these forty years Yāhweh your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.

8 So we passed by from our brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, from the way of the Arabah from Elath and from Ezion-geber. We turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 Yāhweh said to me, Don't bother Moab, neither contend with them in battle; for I will not give you of his land for a possession; because I have given Ar to the children of Lot for a possession.

10 (The Emim lived therein before, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim;

11 these also are accounted Rephaim, as the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emim.

12 The Horites also lived in Seir before, but the children of Esau succeeded them; and they destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place; as Israel did to the land of his possession, which Yāhweh gave to them.)

13 Now rise up, and get you over the brook Zered. We went over the brook Zered.

14 The days in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, were thirty-eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were consumed from the midst of the camp, as Yāhweh swore to them.

15 Moreover the hand of Yāhweh was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were consumed.

16 So it happened, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 that Yāhweh spoke to me, saying,

18 You are this day to pass over Ar, the border of Moab;

19 and when you come near over against the children of Ammon, don't bother them, nor contend with them; for I will not give you of the land of the children of Ammon for a possession; because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also is accounted a land of Rephaim; Rephaim lived therein before; but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,

21 a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim; but Yāhweh destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and lived in their place;

22 as he did for the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them; and they succeeded them, and lived in their place even to this day;

23 and the Arvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and lived in their place.)

24 Rise you up, take your journey, and pass over the valley of the Arnon; behold, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land; begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle.

25 This day will I begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you on the peoples who are under the whole sky, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of you.

26 I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,

27 Let me pass through your land: I will go along by the highway, I will turn neither to the right hand nor to the left.

28 You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only let me pass through on my feet,

29 as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did to me; until I shall pass over the Jordan into the land which Yehweh our God gives us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for Yehweh your God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into your hand, as at this day.

31 Yehweh said to me, Behold, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you; begin to possess, that you may inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz.

33 Yehweh our God delivered him up before us; and we struck him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 We took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones; we left none remaining:

35 only the cattle we took for a prey to ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we had taken.

36 From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and [from] the city that is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us; Yehweh our God delivered up all before us:

37 only to the land of the children of Ammon you didn't come near; all the side of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill-country, and wherever Yehweh our God forbade us.

1 Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

2 Yehweh said to me, Don't fear him; for I have delivered him, and all his people, and his land, into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.

3 So Yehweh our God delivered into our hand Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people; and we struck him until none was left to him remaining.

4 We took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we didn't take from them; sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; besides the unwalled towns a great many.

6 We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 We took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon;

9 ([which] Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir;)

10 all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salekah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 (For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephaim; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; isn't it in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length of it, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.)

12 This land we took in possession at that time; from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill-country of Gilead, and the cities of it, gave I to the Reubenites and to the Gadites;

13 and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I to the half-tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, even all Bashan. (The same is called the land of Rephaim.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth-jair, to this day.)

15 I gave Gilead to Machir.

- 16 To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley, and the border [of it], even to the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;
- 17 the Arabah also, and the Jordan and the border [of it], from Chinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.
- 18 I commanded you at that time, saying, Yāhweh your God has given you this land to possess it: you shall pass over armed before your brothers the children of Israel, all the men of valor.
- 19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (I know that you have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you,
- 20 until Yāhweh give rest to your brothers, as to you, and they also possess the land which Yāhweh your God gives them beyond the Jordan: then shall you return every man to his possession, which I have given you.
- 21 I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Your eyes have seen all that Yāhweh your God has done to these two kings: so shall Yāhweh do to all the kingdoms where you go over.
- 22 You shall not fear them; for Yāhweh your God, he it is who fights for you.
- 23 I begged Yāhweh at that time, saying,
- 24 Lord Yāhweh, you have begun to show your servant your greatness, and your strong hand: for what god is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to your works, and according to your mighty acts?
- 25 Please let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.
- 26 But Yāhweh was angry with me for your sakes, and didn't listen to me; and Yāhweh said to me, Let it suffice you; speak no more to me of this matter.
- 27 Get you up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Jordan.
- 28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see.
- 29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.
- 1 Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the ordinances, which I teach you, to do them; that you may live, and go in and possess the land which Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, gives you.
- 2 You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish from it, that you may keep the commandments of Yāhweh your God which I command you.
- 3 Your eyes have seen what Yāhweh did because of Baal-peor; for all the men who followed Baal-peor, Yāhweh your God has destroyed them from the midst of you.
- 4 But you who did cleave to Yāhweh your God are alive everyone of you this day.
- 5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as Yāhweh my God commanded me, that you should do so in the midst of the land where you go in to possess it.
- 6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.
- 7 For what great nation is there, that has a god so near to them, as Yāhweh our God is whenever we call on him?
- 8 What great nation is there, that has statutes and ordinances so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

- 9 Only take heed to yourself, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes saw, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your children and your children's children;
- 10 the day that you stood before Yāhweh your God in Horeb, when Yāhweh said to me, Assemble me the people, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.
- 11 You came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.
- 12 Yāhweh spoke to you out of the midst of the fire; you heard the voice of words, but you saw no form; only [you heard] a voice.
- 13 He declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even the ten commandments; and he wrote them on two tables of stone.
- 14 Yāhweh commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it.
- 15 Take therefore good heed to yourselves; for you saw no manner of form on the day that Yāhweh spoke to you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire.
- 16 Lest you corrupt yourselves, and make yourself an engraved image in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female,
- 17 the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky,
- 18 the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth;
- 19 and lest you lift up your eyes to the sky, and when you see the sun and the moon and the stars, even all the host of the sky, you be drawn away and worship them, and serve them, which Yāhweh your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole sky.
- 20 But Yāhweh has taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to him a people of inheritance, as at this day.
- 21 Furthermore Yāhweh was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not go in to that good land, which Yāhweh your God gives you for an inheritance;
- 22 but I must die in this land, I must not go over the Jordan; but you shall go over, and possess that good land.
- 23 Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of Yāhweh your God, which he made with you, and make you an engraved image in the form of anything which Yāhweh your God has forbidden you.
- 24 For Yāhweh your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.
- 25 When you shall father children, and children's children, and you shall have been long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make an engraved image in the form of anything, and shall do that which is evil in the sight of Yāhweh your God, to provoke him to anger;
- 26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go over the Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days on it, but shall utterly be destroyed.
- 27 Yāhweh will scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations, where Yāhweh shall lead you away.
- 28 There you shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.
- 29 But from there you shall seek Yāhweh your God, and you shall find him, when you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul.

30 When you are in oppression, and all these things are come on you, in the latter days you shall return to Yāhweh your God, and listen to his voice;

31 for Yāhweh your God is a merciful God; he will not fail you, neither destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which he swore to them.

32 For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and from the one end of the sky to the other, whether there has been [any such thing] as this great thing is, or has been heard like it?

33 Did ever a people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?

34 Or has God tried to go and take him a nation from the midst of [another] nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that Yāhweh your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 To you it was showed, that you might know that Yāhweh he is God; there is none else besides him.

36 Out of heaven he made you to hear his voice, that he might instruct you; and on earth he made you to see his great fire; and you heard his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 Because he loved your fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought you out with his presence, with his great power, out of Egypt;

38 to drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as at this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and lay it to your heart, that Yāhweh he is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is none else.

40 You shall keep his statutes, and his commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land, which Yāhweh your God gives you, forever.

41 Then Moses set apart three cities beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise;

42 that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unawares, and didn't hate him in time past; and that fleeing to one of these cities he might live:

43 [namely], Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

44 This is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 these are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Moses spoke to the children of Israel, when they came forth out of Egypt,

46 beyond the Jordan, in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel struck, when they came forth out of Egypt.

47 They took his land in possession, and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise;

48 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, even to Mount Sion (the same is Hermon), 49 and all the Arabah beyond the Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

1 Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, Hear, Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your ears this day, that you may learn them, and observe to do them.

2 Yāhweh our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

- 3 Yāhweh didn't make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.
- 4 Yāhweh spoke with you face to face on the mountain out of the midst of the fire,
- 5 (I stood between Yāhweh and you at that time, to show you the word of Yāhweh: for you were afraid because of the fire, and didn't go up onto the mountain;) saying,
- 6 "I am Yāhweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
- 7 You shall have no other gods before me.
- 8 "You shall not make an engraved image for yourself, [nor] any likeness [of anything] that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:
- 9 you shall not bow down yourself to them, nor serve them; for I, Yāhweh, your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me;
- 10 and showing lovingkindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.
- 11 "You shall not take the name of Yāhweh your God in vain: for Yāhweh will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.
- 12 "Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as Yāhweh your God commanded you.
- 13 Six days shall you labor, and do all your work;
- 14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yāhweh your God: [in it] you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your man-servant, nor your maid-servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates; that your man-servant and your maid-servant may rest as well as you.
- 15 You shall remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and Yāhweh your God brought you out of there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm: therefore Yāhweh your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.
- 16 "Honor your father and your mother, as Yāhweh your God commanded you; that your days may be long, and that it may go well with you, in the land which Yāhweh your God gives you.
- 17 "You shall not murder.
- 18 "Neither shall you commit adultery.
- 19 "Neither shall you steal.
- 20 "Neither shall you give false testimony against your neighbor.
- 21 "Neither shall you covet your neighbor's wife; neither shall you desire your neighbor's house, his field, or his man-servant, or his maid-servant, his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's."
- 22 These words Yāhweh spoke to all your assembly on the mountain out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice; and he added no more. He wrote them on two tables of stone, and gave them to me.
- 23 It happened, when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;
- 24 and you said, Behold, Yāhweh our God has showed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God does speak with man, and he lives.
- 25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of Yāhweh our God any more, then we shall die.
- 26 For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

- 27 Go you near, and hear all that Yāhweh our God shall say; and speak you to us all that Yāhweh our God shall speak to you; and we will hear it, and do it.
- 28 Yāhweh heard the voice of your words, when you spoke to me; and Yāhweh said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you: they have well said all that they have spoken.
- 29 Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children forever!
- 30 Go tell them, Return you to your tents.
- 31 But as for you, stand you here by me, and I will speak to you all the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.
- 32 You shall observe to do therefore as Yāhweh your God has commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.
- 33 You shall walk in all the way which Yāhweh your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.
- 1 Now this is the commandment, the statutes, and the ordinances, which Yāhweh your God commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it;
- 2 that you might fear Yāhweh your God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you, you, and your son, and your son's son, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged.
- 3 Hear therefore, Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with you, and that you may increase mightily, as Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, has promised to you, in a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 4 Hear, Israel: Yāhweh is our God; Yāhweh is one;
- 5 and you shall love Yāhweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.
- 6 These words, which I command you this day, shall be on your heart;
- 7 and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.
- 8 You shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for symbols between your eyes.
- 9 You shall write them on the door-posts of your house, and on your gates.
- 10 It shall be, when Yāhweh your God shall bring you into the land which he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you, great and goodly cities, which you didn't build,
- 11 and houses full of all good things, which you didn't fill, and cisterns dug out, which you didn't dig, vineyards and olive-trees, which you didn't plant, and you shall eat and be full;
- 12 then beware lest you forget Yāhweh, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
- 13 You shall fear Yāhweh your God; and him shall you serve, and shall swear by his name.
- 14 You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who are round about you;
- 15 for Yāhweh your God in the midst of you is a jealous God; lest the anger of Yāhweh your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth.
- 16 You shall not tempt Yāhweh your God, as you tempted him in Massah.
- 17 You shall diligently keep the commandments of Yāhweh your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he has commanded you.

18 You shall do that which is right and good in the sight of Yāhweh; that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which Yāhweh swore to your fathers,
19 to thrust out all your enemies from before you, as Yāhweh has spoken.
20 When your son asks you in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Yāhweh our God has commanded you?
21 then you shall tell your son, We were Pharaoh's bondservants in Egypt: and Yāhweh brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand;
22 and Yāhweh showed signs and wonders, great and sore, on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house, before our eyes;
23 and he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore to our fathers.
24 Yāhweh commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear Yāhweh our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as at this day.
25 It shall be righteousness to us, if we observe to do all this commandment before Yāhweh our God, as he has commanded us.

1 When Yāhweh your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, and shall cast out many nations before you, the Hittite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, seven nations greater and mightier than you;
2 and when Yāhweh your God shall deliver them up before you, and you shall strike them; then you shall utterly destroy them; you shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them;
3 neither shall you make marriages with them; your daughter you shall not give to his son, nor his daughter shall you take to your son.
4 For he will turn away your son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of Yāhweh be kindled against you, and he will destroy you quickly.
5 But thus shall you deal with them; you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and hew down their Asherim, and burn their engraved images with fire.
6 For you are a holy people to Yāhweh your God: Yāhweh your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth.
7 Yāhweh didn't set his love on you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples:
8 but because Yāhweh loves you, and because he would keep the oath which he swore to your fathers, has Yāhweh brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.
9 Know therefore that Yāhweh your God, he is God, the faithful God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness with them who love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations,
10 and repays those who hate him to their face, to destroy them; he will not be slack to him who hates him, he will repay him to his face.
11 You shall therefore keep the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which I command you this day, to do them.
12 It shall happen, because you listen to these ordinances, and keep and do them, that Yāhweh your God will keep with you the covenant and the lovingkindness which he swore to your fathers:
13 and he will love you, and bless you, and multiply you; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the young of your flock, in the land which he swore to your fathers to give you.

- 14 You shall be blessed above all peoples: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.
- 15 Yāhweh will take away from you all sickness; and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, will he put on you, but will lay them on all those who hate you.
- 16 You shall consume all the peoples who Yāhweh your God shall deliver to you; your eye shall not pity them; neither shall you serve their gods; for that will be a snare to you.
- 17 If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?
- 18 you shall not be afraid of them; you shall well remember what Yāhweh your God did to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt;
- 19 the great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, whereby Yāhweh your God brought you out: so shall Yāhweh your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.
- 20 Moreover Yāhweh your God will send the hornet among them, until those who are left, and hide themselves, perish from before you.
- 21 You shall not be scared of them; for Yāhweh your God is in the midst of you, a great and awesome God.
- 22 Yāhweh your God will cast out those nations before you by little and little: you may not consume them at once, lest the animals of the field increase on you.
- 23 But Yāhweh your God will deliver them up before you, and will confuse them with a great confusion, until they be destroyed.
- 24 He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall make their name to perish from under the sky: there shall no man be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them.
- 25 The engraved images of their gods shall you burn with fire; you shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it to you, lest you be snared therein; for it is an abomination to Yāhweh your God.
- 26 You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and become a devoted thing like it: you shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted thing.
- 1 All the commandment which I command you this day shall you observe to do, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which Yāhweh swore to your fathers.
- 2 You shall remember all the way which Yāhweh your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not.
- 3 He humbled you, and allowed you to hunger, and fed you with manna, which you didn't know, neither did your fathers know; that he might make you know that man does not live by bread only, but by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of Yāhweh does man live.
- 4 Your clothing didn't grow old on you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years.
- 5 You shall consider in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so Yāhweh your God chastens you.
- 6 You shall keep the commandments of Yāhweh your God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.
- 7 For Yāhweh your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of springs and springs, flowing forth in valleys and hills;
- 8 a land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig-trees and pomegranates; a land of olive-trees and honey;
- 9 a land in which you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper.
- 10 You shall eat and be full, and you shall bless Yāhweh your God for the good land which he has given you.

- 11 Beware lest you forget Yāhweh your God, in not keeping his commandments, and his ordinances, and his statutes, which I command you this day:
- 12 lest, when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and lived therein;
- 13 and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied;
- 14 then your heart be lifted up, and you forget Yāhweh your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage;
- 15 who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, [in which were] fiery serpents and scorpions, and thirsty ground where was no water; who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint;
- 16 who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers didn't know; that he might humble you, and that he might prove you, to do you good at your latter end:
- 17 and [lest] you say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth.
- 18 But you shall remember Yāhweh your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth; that he may establish his covenant which he swore to your fathers, as at this day.
- 19 It shall be, if you shall forget Yāhweh your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish.
- 20 As the nations that Yāhweh makes to perish before you, so shall you perish; because you wouldn't listen to the voice of Yāhweh your God.
- 1 Hear, Israel: you are to pass over the Jordan this day, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to the sky,
- 2 a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard say, Who can stand before the sons of Anak?
- 3 Know therefore this day, that Yāhweh your God is he who goes over before you as a devouring fire; he will destroy them, and he will bring them down before you; so shall you drive them out, and make them to perish quickly, as Yāhweh has spoken to you.
- 4 Don't speak in your heart, after that Yāhweh your God has thrust them out from before you, saying, For my righteousness Yāhweh has brought me in to possess this land; whereas for the wickedness of these nations Yāhweh does drive them out from before you.
- 5 Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go in to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations Yāhweh your God does drive them out from before you, and that he may establish the word which Yāhweh swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.
- 6 Know therefore, that Yāhweh your God doesn't give you this good land to possess it for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people.
- 7 Remember, don't forget, how you provoked Yāhweh your God to wrath in the wilderness; from the day that you went forth out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Yāhweh.
- 8 Also in Horeb you provoked Yāhweh to wrath, and Yāhweh was angry with you to destroy you.
- 9 When I was gone up onto the mountain to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which Yāhweh made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water.
- 10 Yāhweh delivered to me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them [was written] according to all the words, which Yāhweh spoke with you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.
- 11 It came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that Yāhweh gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

- 12 Yahweh said to me, Arise, get you down quickly from hence; for your people whom you have brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.
- 13 Furthermore Yahweh spoke to me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people:
- 14 let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the sky; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.
- 15 So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.
- 16 I looked, and, behold, you had sinned against Yahweh your God; you had made you a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which Yahweh had commanded you.
- 17 I took hold of the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes.
- 18 I fell down before Yahweh, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water; because of all your sin which you sinned, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke him to anger.
- 19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with which Yahweh was angry against you to destroy you. But Yahweh listened to me that time also.
- 20 Yahweh was very angry with Aaron to destroy him: and I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.
- 21 I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust: and I cast the dust of it into the brook that descended out of the mountain.
- 22 At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you provoked Yahweh to wrath.
- 23 When Yahweh sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the commandment of Yahweh your God, and you didn't believe him, nor listen to his voice.
- 24 You have been rebellious against Yahweh from the day that I knew you.
- 25 So I fell down before Yahweh the forty days and forty nights that I fell down, because Yahweh had said he would destroy you.
- 26 I prayed to Yahweh, and said, Lord Yahweh, don't destroy your people and your inheritance, that you have redeemed through your greatness, that you have brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.
- 27 Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; don't look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin,
- 28 lest the land whence you brought us out say, Because Yahweh was not able to bring them into the land which he promised to them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.
- 29 Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm.
- 1 At that time Yahweh said to me, Hew you two tables of stone like the first, and come up to me onto the mountain, and make an ark of wood.
- 2 I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.
- 3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, and hewed two tables of stone like the first, and went up onto the mountain, having the two tables in my hand.

- 4 He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which Yāhweh spoke to you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and Yāhweh gave them to me.
- 5 I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are as Yāhweh commanded me.
- 6 The children of Israel journeyed from Beeroth Bene-jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his place.
- 7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water.
- 8 At that time Yāhweh set apart the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh, to stand before Yāhweh to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day.
- 9 Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; Yāhweh is his inheritance, according as Yāhweh your God spoke to him.)
- 10 I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights; and Yāhweh listened to me that time also; Yāhweh would not destroy you.
- 11 Yāhweh said to me, Arise, take your journey before the people; and they shall go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give to them.
- 12 Now, Israel, what does Yāhweh your God require of you, but to fear Yāhweh your God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve Yāhweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul,
- 13 to keep the commandments of Yāhweh, and his statutes, which I command you this day for your good?
- 14 Behold, to Yāhweh your God belongs heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth, with all that is therein.
- 15 Only Yāhweh had a delight in your fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all peoples, as at this day.
- 16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked.
- 17 For Yāhweh your God, he is God of gods, and Lord of lords, the great God, the mighty, and the awesome, who doesn't regard persons, nor takes reward.
- 18 He does execute justice for the fatherless and widow, and loves the sojourner, in giving him food and clothing.
- 19 Love you therefore the sojourner; for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.
- 20 You shall fear Yāhweh your God; him shall you serve; and to him shall you cleave, and by his name shall you swear.
- 21 He is your praise, and he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which your eyes have seen.
- 22 Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now Yāhweh your God has made you as the stars of the sky for multitude.
- 1 Therefore you shall love Yāhweh your God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his ordinances, and his commandments, always.
- 2 Know you this day: for I don't speak with your children who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of Yāhweh your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his outstretched arm,
- 3 and his signs, and his works, which he did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land;

- 4 and what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how Yāhweh has destroyed them to this day;
- 5 and what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place;
- 6 and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben; how the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel;
- 7 but your eyes have seen all the great work of Yāhweh which he did.
- 8 Therefore shall you keep all the commandment which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, where you go over to possess it;
- 9 and that you may prolong your days in the land, which Yāhweh swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 10 For the land, where you go in to possess it, isn't as the land of Egypt, from whence you came out, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs;
- 11 but the land, where you go over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, [and] drinks water of the rain of the sky,
- 12 a land which Yāhweh your God cares for: the eyes of Yāhweh your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year.
- 13 It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to my commandments which I command you this day, to love Yāhweh your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,
- 14 that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil.
- 15 I will give grass in your fields for your cattle, and you shall eat and be full.
- 16 Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;
- 17 and the anger of Yāhweh be kindled against you, and he shut up the sky, so that there shall be no rain, and the land shall not yield its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the good land which Yāhweh gives you.
- 18 Therefore shall you lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul; and you shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for symbols between your eyes.
- 19 You shall teach them your children, talking of them, when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.
- 20 You shall write them on the door-posts of your house, and on your gates;
- 21 that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which Yāhweh swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens above the earth.
- 22 For if you shall diligently keep all this commandment which I command you, to do it, to love Yāhweh your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave to him;
- 23 then will Yāhweh drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves.
- 24 Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours; from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the hinder sea shall be your border.
- 25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: Yāhweh your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land that you shall tread on, as he has spoken to you.
- 26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

27 the blessing, if you shall listen to the commandments of Yāhweh your God, which I command you this day;

28 and the curse, if you shall not listen to the commandments of Yāhweh your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which you have not known.

29 It shall happen, when Yāhweh your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount Ebal.

30 Aren't they beyond the Jordan, behind the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?

31 For you are to pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which Yāhweh your God gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 You shall observe to do all the statutes and the ordinances which I set before you this day.

1 These are the statutes and the ordinances which you shall observe to do in the land which Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess it, all the days that you live on the earth.

2 You shall surely destroy all the places in which the nations that you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every green tree:

3 and you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and burn their Asherim with fire; and you shall cut down the engraved images of their gods; and you shall destroy their name out of that place.

4 You shall not do so to Yāhweh your God.

5 But to the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, even to his habitation shall you seek, and there you shall come;

6 and there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the heave-offering of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill-offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock:

7 and there you shall eat before Yāhweh your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which Yāhweh your God has blessed you.

8 You shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatever is right in his own eyes;

9 for you haven't yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which Yāhweh your God gives you.

10 But when you go over the Jordan, and dwell in the land which Yāhweh your God causes you to inherit, and he gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety;

11 then it shall happen that to the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, there shall you bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave-offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to Yāhweh.

12 You shall rejoice before Yāhweh your God, you, and your sons, and your daughters, and your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to yourself that you don't offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see;

14 but in the place which Yāhweh shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.

15 Notwithstanding, you may kill and eat flesh within all your gates, after all the desire of your soul, according to the blessing of Yāhweh your God which he has given you: the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle, and as of the hart.

16 Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out on the earth as water.

- 17 You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, nor any of your vows which you vow, nor your freewill-offerings, nor the heave-offering of your hand;
- 18 but you shall eat them before Yāhweh your God in the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite who is within your gates: and you shall rejoice before Yāhweh your God in all that you put your hand to.
- 19 Take heed to yourself that you don't forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.
- 20 When Yāhweh your God shall enlarge your border, as he has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat flesh, because your soul desires to eat flesh; you may eat flesh, after all the desire of your soul.
- 21 If the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose, to put his name there, be too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which Yāhweh has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates, after all the desire of your soul.
- 22 Even as the gazelle and as the hart is eaten, so you shall eat of it: the unclean and the clean may eat of it alike.
- 23 Only be sure that you don't eat the blood: for the blood is the life; and you shall not eat the life with the flesh.
- 24 You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out on the earth as water.
- 25 You shall not eat it; that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of Yāhweh.
- 26 Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take, and go to the place which Yāhweh shall choose;
- 27 and you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of Yāhweh your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of Yāhweh your God; and you shall eat the flesh.
- 28 Observe and hear all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the eyes of Yāhweh your God.
- 29 When Yāhweh your God shall cut off the nations from before you, where you go in to dispossess them, and you dispossess them, and dwell in their land;
- 30 take heed to yourself that you not be ensnared to follow them, after that they are destroyed from before you; and that you not inquire after their gods, saying, How do these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.
- 31 You shall not do so to Yāhweh your God: for every abomination to Yāhweh, which he hates, have they done to their gods; for even their sons and their daughters do they burn in the fire to their gods.
- 32 Whatever thing I command you, that shall you observe to do: you shall not add thereto, nor diminish from it.
- 1 If there arise in the midst of you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and he give you a sign or a wonder,
- 2 and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spoke to you, saying, Let us go after other gods, which you have not known, and let us serve them;
- 3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet, or to that dreamer of dreams: for Yāhweh your God proves you, to know whether you love Yāhweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
- 4 You shall walk after Yāhweh your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you shall serve him, and cleave to him.

5 That prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death, because he has spoken rebellion against Yāhweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to draw you aside out of the way which Yāhweh your God commanded you to walk in. So shall you put away the evil from the midst of you.

6 If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend, who is as your own soul, entice you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known, you, nor your fathers;

7 of the gods of the peoples who are round about you, near to you, or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth;

8 you shall not consent to him, nor listen to him; neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal him:

9 but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 You shall stone him to death with stones, because he has sought to draw you away from Yāhweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

11 All Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall not do any more such wickedness as this is in the midst of you.

12 If you shall hear tell concerning one of your cities, which Yāhweh your God gives you to dwell there, saying,

13 Certain base fellows are gone out from the midst of you, and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known;

14 then shall you inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in the midst of you,

15 you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein and the cattle of it, with the edge of the sword.

16 You shall gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street of it, and shall burn with fire the city, and all the spoil of it every whit, to Yāhweh your God: and it shall be a heap forever; it shall not be built again.

17 There shall cleave nothing of the devoted thing to your hand; that Yāhweh may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as he has sworn to your fathers;

18 when you shall listen to the voice of Yāhweh your God, to keep all his commandments which I command you this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of Yāhweh your God.

1 You are the children of Yāhweh your God: you shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

2 For you are a holy people to Yāhweh your God, and Yāhweh has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth.

3 You shall not eat any abominable thing.

4 These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 the hart, and the gazelle, and the roebuck, and the wild goat, and the gazelle, and the antelope, and the chamois.

6 Every animal that parts the hoof, and has the hoof cloven in two, [and] chews the cud, among the animals, that may you eat.

7 Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of those who have the hoof cloven: the camel, and the hare, and the rabbit; because they chew the cud but don't part the hoof, they are unclean to you.

8 The pig, because he doesn't part the hoof but doesn't chew the cud, he is unclean to you: of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch.

9 These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales may you eat; and whatever doesn't have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean to you.

10 Of all clean birds you may eat.

11 But these are they of which you shall not eat: the eagle, and the gier-eagle, and the ospray, and the red kite, and the falcon, and the kite after its kind, and every raven after its kind, and the ostrich, and the night-hawk, and the sea-mew, and the hawk after its kind, the little owl, and the great owl, and the horned owl, and the pelican, and the vulture, and the cormorant, and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

12 All winged creeping things are unclean to you: they shall not be eaten.

13 Of all clean birds you may eat.

14 You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself: you may give it to the sojourner who is within your gates, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner: for you are a holy people to Yāhweh your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

15 You shall surely tithe all the increase of your seed, that which comes forth from the field year by year.

16 You shall eat before Yāhweh your God, in the place which he shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear Yāhweh your God always.

17 If the way be too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, because the place is too far from you, which Yāhweh your God shall choose, to set his name there, when Yāhweh your God shall bless you; then shall you turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose; and you shall bestow the money for whatever your soul desires, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul asks of you; and you shall eat there before Yāhweh your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household.

18 The Levite who is within your gates, you shall not forsake him; for he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

19 At the end of every three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase in the same year, and shall lay it up within your gates; and the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the sojourner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that Yāhweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

20 At the end of every seven years you shall make a release.

21 This is the manner of the release: every creditor shall release that which he has lent to his neighbor; he shall not exact it of his neighbor and his brother; because Yāhweh's release has been proclaimed.

22 Of a foreigner you may exact it: but whatever of your is with your brother your hand shall release.

23 However there shall be no poor with you; (for Yāhweh will surely bless you in the land which Yāhweh your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it;)

24 if only you diligently listen to the voice of Yāhweh your God, to observe to do all this commandment which I command you this day.

- 6 For Yāhweh your God will bless you, as he promised you: and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.
- 7 If there be with you a poor man, one of your brothers, within any of your gates in your land which Yāhweh your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your poor brother;
- 8 but you shall surely open your hand to him, and shall surely lend him sufficient for his need [in that] which he wants.
- 9 Beware that there not be a base thought in your heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and your eye be evil against your poor brother, and you give him nothing; and he cry to Yāhweh against you, and it be sin to you.
- 10 You shall surely give him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him; because that for this thing Yāhweh your God will bless you in all your work, and in all that you put your hand to.
- 11 For the poor will never cease out of the land: therefore I command you, saying, You shall surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy, and to your poor, in your land.
- 12 If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, be sold to you, and serve you six years; then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you.
- 13 When you let him go free from you, you shall not let him go empty:
- 14 you shall furnish him liberally out of your flock, and out of your threshing floor, and out of your winepress; as Yāhweh your God has blessed you, you shall give to him.
- 15 You shall remember that you were a bondservant in the land of Egypt, and Yāhweh your God redeemed you: therefore I command you this thing today.
- 16 It shall be, if he tell you, I will not go out from you; because he loves you and your house, because he is well with you;
- 17 then you shall take an awl, and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your maid-servant you shall do likewise.
- 18 It shall not seem hard to you, when you let him go free from you; for to the double of the hire of a hireling has he served you six years: and Yāhweh your God will bless you in all that you do.
- 19 All the firstborn males that are born of your herd and of your flock you shall sanctify to Yāhweh your God; you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock.
- 20 You shall eat it before Yāhweh your God year by year in the place which Yāhweh shall choose, you and your household.
- 21 If it have any blemish, [as if it be] lame or blind, any ill blemish whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to Yāhweh your God.
- 22 You shall eat it within your gates: the unclean and the clean [shall eat it] alike, as the gazelle, and as the hart.
- 23 Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it out on the ground as water.
- 1 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to Yāhweh your God; for in the month of Abib Yāhweh your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night.
- 2 You shall sacrifice the Passover to Yāhweh your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which Yāhweh shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there.
- 3 You shall eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shall you eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste; that you may remember the day when you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.
- 4 There shall be no yeast seen with you in all your borders seven days; neither shall any of the flesh, which you sacrifice the first day at even, remain all night until the morning.

- 5 You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which Yāhweh your God gives you;
6 but at the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came forth out of Egypt.
- 7 You shall roast and eat it in the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose; and you shall turn in the morning, and go to your tents.
- 8 Six days you shall eat unleavened bread; and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to Yāhweh your God; you shall do no work [therein].
- 9 Seven weeks shall you number to you: from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain shall you begin to number seven weeks.
- 10 You shall keep the feast of weeks to Yāhweh your God with a tribute of a freewill-offering of your hand, which you shall give, according as Yāhweh your God blesses you:
11 and you shall rejoice before Yāhweh your God, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite who is within your gates, and the sojourner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are in the midst of you, in the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there.
- 12 You shall remember that you were a bondservant in Egypt; and you shall observe and do these statutes.
13 You shall keep the feast of tents seven days, after that you have gathered in from your threshing floor and from your winepress:
14 and you shall rejoice in your feast, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite, and the sojourner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates.
- 15 Seven days shall you keep a feast to Yāhweh your God in the place which Yāhweh shall choose; because Yāhweh your God will bless you in all your increase, and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful.
- 16 Three times in a year shall all your males appear before Yāhweh your God in the place which he shall choose: in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents; and they shall not appear before Yāhweh empty:
17 every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of Yāhweh your God which he has given you.
- 18 Judges and officers shall you make you in all your gates, which Yāhweh your God gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.
- 19 You shall not wrest justice: you shall not respect persons; neither shall you take a bribe; for a bribe does blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.
- 20 That which is altogether just shall you follow, that you may live, and inherit the land which Yāhweh your God gives you.
- 21 You shall not plant you an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of Yāhweh your God, which you shall make you.
- 22 Neither shall you set you up a pillar; which Yāhweh your God hates.
- 1 You shall not sacrifice to Yāhweh your God an ox, or a sheep, in which is a blemish, [or] anything evil; for that is an abomination to Yāhweh your God.
- 2 If there be found in the midst of you, within any of your gates which Yāhweh your God gives you, man or woman, who does that which is evil in the sight of Yāhweh your God, in transgressing his covenant,
3 and has gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, or the sun, or the moon, or any of the host of the sky, which I have not commanded;

4 and it be told you, and you have heard of it, then shall you inquire diligently; and, behold, if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in Israel,

5 then shall you bring forth that man or that woman, who has done this evil thing, to your gates, even the man or the woman; and you shall stone them to death with stones.

6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he who is to die be put to death; at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hand of the witnesses shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from the midst of you.

8 If there arise a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within your gates; then shall you arise, and get you up to the place which Yāhweh your God shall choose;

9 and you shall come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge who shall be in those days: and you shall inquire; and they shall show you the sentence of judgment.

10 You shall do according to the tenor of the sentence which they shall show you from that place which Yāhweh shall choose; and you shall observe to do according to all that they shall teach you:

11 according to the tenor of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 The man who does presumptuously, in not listening to the priest who stands to minister there before Yāhweh your God, or to the judge, even that man shall die; and you shall put away the evil from Israel.

13 All the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 When you are come to the land which Yāhweh your God gives you, and shall possess it, and shall dwell therein, and shall say, I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are round about me;

15 you shall surely set him king over you, whom Yāhweh your God shall choose: one from among your brothers shall you set king over you; you may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your brother.

16 Only he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he may multiply horses; because Yāhweh has said to you, You shall henceforth return no more that way.

17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart not turn away; neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18 It shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book, out of [that which is] before the priests the Levites:

19 and it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear Yāhweh his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them;

20 that his heart not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he not turn aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, in the midst of Israel.

1 The priests the Levites, [even] all the tribe of Levi, shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of Yāhweh made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 They shall have no inheritance among their brothers: Yāhweh is their inheritance, as he has spoken to them.

3 This shall be the priests due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The first-fruits of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, shall you give him.

5 For Yāhweh your God has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to minister in the name of Yāhweh, him and his sons for ever.

6 If a Levite come from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he sojourns, and come with all the desire of his soul to the place which Yāhweh shall choose;

7 then he shall minister in the name of Yāhweh his God, as all his brothers the Levites do, who stand there before Yāhweh.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, besides that which comes of the sale of his patrimony.

9 When you are come into the land which Yāhweh your God gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found with you anyone who makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices sorcery, or an enchanter, or a sorcerer,

11 or a charmer, or a consulter with a familiar spirit, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For whoever does these things is an abomination to Yāhweh; and because of these abominations Yāhweh your God does drive them out from before you.

13 You shall be perfect with Yāhweh your God.

14 For these nations, that you shall dispossess, listen to those who practice sorcery, and to diviners; but as for you, Yāhweh your God has not allowed you so to do.

15 Yāhweh your God will raise up to you a prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, like me; to him you shall listen;

16 according to all that you desired of Yāhweh your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of Yāhweh my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I not die.

17 Yāhweh said to me, They have well said that which they have spoken.

18 I will raise them up a prophet from among their brothers, like you; and I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him.

19 It shall happen, that whoever will not listen to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

20 But the prophet, who shall speak a word presumptuously in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die.

21 If you say in your heart, How shall we know the word which Yāhweh has not spoken?

22 when a prophet speaks in the name of Yāhweh, if the thing doesn't follow, nor happen, that is the thing which Yāhweh has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously, you shall not be afraid of him.

1 When Yāhweh your God shall cut off the nations, whose land Yāhweh your God gives you, and you succeed them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses;

2 you shall set apart three cities for you in the midst of your land, which Yāhweh your God gives you to possess it.

3 You shall prepare you the way, and divide the borders of your land, which Yāhweh your God causes you to inherit, into three parts, that every manslayer may flee there.

4 This is the case of the manslayer, that shall flee there and live; whoever kills his neighbor unawares, and didn't hate him in time past;

5 as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to hew wood, and his hand fetches a stroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle, and lights on his neighbor, so that he dies; he shall flee to one of these cities and live;

6 lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and strike him mortally; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he didn't hate him in time past.

7 Therefore I command you, saying, You shall set apart three cities for you.

8 If Yāhweh your God enlarge your border, as he has sworn to your fathers, and give you all the land which he promised to give to your fathers;

9 if you shall keep all this commandment to do it, which I command you this day, to love Yāhweh your God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shall you add three cities more for you, besides these three:

10 that innocent blood not be shed in the midst of your land, which Yāhweh your God gives you for an inheritance, and so blood be on you.

11 But if any man hate his neighbor, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and strike him mortally so that he dies, and he flee into one of these cities;

12 then the elders of his city shall send and bring him there, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you.

14 You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set, in your inheritance which you shall inherit, in the land that Yāhweh your God gives you to possess it.

15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins; at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall a matter be established.

16 If an unrighteous witness rise up against any man to testify against him of wrong-doing,

17 then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before Yāhweh, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days;

18 and the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against his brother;

19 then shall you do to him, as he had thought to do to his brother: so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you.

20 Those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil in the midst of you.

21 Your eyes shall not pity; life [shall go] for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

1 When you go forth to battle against your enemies, and see horses, and chariots, [and] a people more than you, you shall not be afraid of them; for Yāhweh your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

2 It shall be, when you draw near to the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people,

3 and shall tell them, Hear, Israel, you draw near this day to battle against your enemies; don't let your heart faint; don't be afraid, nor tremble, neither be you scared of them;

4 for Yāhweh your God is he who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 The officers shall speak to the people, saying, What man is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 What man is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not used the fruit of it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man use the fruit of it.

7 What man is there who has pledged to be married a wife, and has not taken her? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.

8 The officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, What man is there who is fearful and faint-hearted? let him go and return to his house, lest his brother's heart melt as his heart.

9 It shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of hosts at the head of the people.

10 When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace to it.

11 It shall be, if it make you answer of peace, and open to you, then it shall be, that all the people who are found therein shall become tributary to you, and shall serve you.

12 If it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it:

13 and when Yāhweh your God delivers it into your hand, you shall strike every male of it with the edge of the sword:

14 but the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil of it, shall you take for a prey to yourself; and you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which Yāhweh your God has given you.

15 Thus shall you do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these peoples, that Yāhweh your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes;

17 but you shall utterly destroy them; the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; as Yāhweh your God has commanded you;

18 that they not teach you to do after all their abominations, which they have done to their gods; so would you sin against Yāhweh your God.

19 When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy the trees of it by wielding an ax against them; for you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down; for is the tree of the field man, that it should be besieged of you?

20 Only the trees of which you know that they are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down; and you shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it fall.

1 If one be found slain in the land which Yāhweh your God gives you to possess it, lying in the field, and it isn't known who has struck him;

2 then your elders and your judges shall come forth, and they shall measure to the cities which are round about him who is slain;

3 and it shall be, that the city which is nearest to the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer of the herd, which hasn't been worked with, and which has not drawn in the yoke;

4 and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer to a valley with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley.

5 The priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them Yāhweh your God has chosen to minister to him, and to bless in the name of Yāhweh; and according to their word shall every controversy and every stroke be.

6 All the elders of that city, who are nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley;

7 and they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Forgive, Yāhweh, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and don't allow innocent blood [to remain] in the midst of your people Israel. The blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shall you put away the innocent blood from the midst of you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of Yāhweh.

- 10 When you go forth to battle against your enemies, and Yāhweh your God delivers them into your hands, and you carry them away captive,
- 11 and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and you have a desire to her, and would take her to you as wife;
- 12 then you shall bring her home to your house; and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails;
- 13 and she shall put the clothing of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in your house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month; and after that you shall go in to her, and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.
- 14 It shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall let her go where she will; but you shall not sell her at all for money, you shall not deal with her as a slave, because you have humbled her.
- 15 If a man have two wives, the one beloved, and the other hated, and they have borne him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers who was hated;
- 16 then it shall be, in the day that he causes his sons to inherit that which he has, that he may not make the son of the beloved the firstborn before the son of the hated, who is the firstborn:
- 17 but he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the hated, by giving him a double portion of all that he has; for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.
- 18 If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and, though they chasten him, will not listen to them;
- 19 then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place;
- 20 and they shall tell the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.
- 21 All the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones; so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.
- 22 If a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be put to death, and you hang him on a tree;
- 23 his body shall not remain all night on the tree, but you shall surely bury him the same day; for he who is hanged is accursed of God; that you don't defile your land which Yāhweh your God gives you for an inheritance.
- 1 You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely bring them again to your brother.
- 2 If your brother isn't near to you, or if you don't know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother seek after it, and you shall restore it to him.
- 3 So shall you do with his donkey; and so shall you do with his garment; and so shall you do with every lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost, and you have found: you may not hide yourself.
- 4 You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down by the way, and hide yourself from them; you shall surely help him to lift them up again.
- 5 A woman shall not wear that which pertains to a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment; for whoever does these things is an abomination to Yāhweh your God.
- 6 If a bird's nest chance to be before you in the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the hen sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the hen with the young;
- 7 you shall surely let the hen go, but the young you may take to yourself; that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days.
- 8 When you build a new house, then you shall make a battlement for your roof, that you don't bring blood on your house, if any man fall from there.

- 9 You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole fruit be forfeited, the seed which you have sown, and the increase of the vineyard.
- 10 You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.
- 11 You shall not wear a mingled stuff, wool and linen together.
- 12 You shall make you fringes on the four borders of your cloak, with which you cover yourself.
- 13 If any man take a wife, and go in to her, and hate her,
- 14 and lay shameful things to her charge, and bring up an evil name on her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came near to her, I didn't find in her the tokens of virginity;
- 15 then shall the father of the young lady, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the young lady's virginity to the elders of the city in the gate;
- 16 and the young lady's father shall tell the elders, I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he hates her;
- 17 and, behold, he has laid shameful things [to her charge], saying, I didn't find in your daughter the tokens of virginity; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. They shall spread the garment before the elders of the city.
- 18 The elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him;
- 19 and they shall fine him one hundred [shekels] of silver, and give them to the father of the young lady, because he has brought up an evil name on a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.
- 20 But if this thing be true, that the tokens of virginity were not found in the young lady;
- 21 then they shall bring out the young lady to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done folly in Israel, to play the prostitute in her father's house: so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you.
- 22 If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman: so shall you put away the evil from Israel.
- 23 If there be a young lady who is a virgin pledged to be married to a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her;
- 24 then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the lady, because she didn't cry, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbor's wife: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you.
- 25 But if the man find the lady who is pledged to be married in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only who lay with her shall die:
- 26 but to the lady you shall do nothing; there is in the lady no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbor, and kills him, even so is this matter;
- 27 for he found her in the field, the pledged to be married lady cried, and there was none to save her.
- 28 If a man find a lady who is a virgin, who is not pledged to be married, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;
- 29 then the man who lay with her shall give to the lady's father fifty [shekels] of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has humbled her; he may not put her away all his days.
- 30 A man shall not take his father's wife, and shall not uncover his father's skirt.
- 1 He who is wounded in the stones, or has his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the assembly of Yahweh.
- 2 A bastard shall not enter into the assembly of Yahweh; even to the tenth generation shall none of his enter into the assembly of Yahweh.

- 3 An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter into the assembly of Yāhweh; even to the tenth generation shall none belonging to them enter into the assembly of Yāhweh forever:
- 4 because they didn't meet you with bread and with water in the way, when you came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.
- 5 Nevertheless Yāhweh your God wouldn't listen to Balaam; but Yāhweh your God turned the curse into a blessing to you, because Yāhweh your God loved you.
- 6 You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever.
- 7 You shall not abhor an Edomite; for he is your brother: you shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you were a sojourner in his land.
- 8 The children of the third generation who are born to them shall enter into the assembly of Yāhweh.
- 9 When you go forth in camp against your enemies, then you shall keep you from every evil thing.
- 10 If there be among you any man, who is not clean by reason of that which happens him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp:
- 11 but it shall be, when evening comes on, he shall bathe himself in water; and when the sun is down, he shall come within the camp.
- 12 You shall have a place also outside of the camp, where you shall go forth abroad:
- 13 and you shall have a paddle among your weapons; and it shall be, when you sit down abroad, you shall dig therewith, and shall turn back and cover that which comes from you:
- 14 for Yāhweh your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you, and to give up your enemies before you; therefore shall your camp be holy, that he may not see an unclean thing in you, and turn away from you.
- 15 You shall not deliver to his master a servant who is escaped from his master to you:
- 16 he shall dwell with you, in the midst of you, in the place which he shall choose within one of your gates, where it pleases him best: you shall not oppress him.
- 17 There shall be no prostitute of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a sodomite of the sons of Israel.
- 18 You shall not bring the hire of a prostitute, or the wages of a dog, into the house of Yāhweh your God for any vow: for even both these are an abomination to Yāhweh your God.
- 19 You shall not lend on interest to your brother; interest of money, interest of victuals, interest of anything that is lent on interest:
- 20 to a foreigner you may lend on interest; but to your brother you shall not lend on interest, that Yāhweh your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go in to possess it.
- 21 When you shall vow a vow to Yāhweh your God, you shall not be slack to pay it: for Yāhweh your God will surely require it of you; and it would be sin in you.
- 22 But if you shall forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in you.
- 23 That which is gone out of your lips you shall observe and do; according as you have vowed to Yāhweh your God, a freewill-offering, which you have promised with your mouth.
- 24 When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat of grapes your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your vessel.
- 25 When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.
- 1 When a man takes a wife, and marries her, then it shall be, if she find no favor in his eyes, because he has found some unseemly thing in her, that he shall write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

2 When she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's [wife].
3 If the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, who took her to be his wife; 4 her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before Yāhweh; and you shall not cause the land to sin, which Yāhweh your God gives you for an inheritance.
5 When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out in the host, neither shall he be charged with any business: he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer his wife whom he has taken.
6 No man shall take the mill or the upper millstone to pledge; for he takes [a man's] life to pledge.
7 If a man be found stealing any of his brothers of the children of Israel, and he deal with him as a slave, or sell him; then that thief shall die: so shall you put away the evil from the midst of you.
8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that you observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so you shall observe to do.
9 Remember what Yāhweh your God did to Miriam, by the way as you came forth out of Egypt.
10 When you do lend your neighbor any manner of loan, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge.
11 You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you do lend shall bring forth the pledge outside to you.
12 If he be a poor man, you shall not sleep with his pledge;
13 you shall surely restore to him the pledge when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his garment, and bless you: and it shall be righteousness to you before Yāhweh your God.
14 You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he be of your brothers, or of your sojourners who are in your land within your gates:
15 in his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down on it; for he is poor, and sets his heart on it: lest he cry against you to Yāhweh, and it be sin to you.
16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.
17 You shall not wrest the justice [due] to the sojourner, [or] to the fatherless, nor take the widow's clothing to pledge;
18 but you shall remember that you were a bondservant in Egypt, and Yāhweh your God redeemed you there; therefore I command you to do this thing.
19 When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgot a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to get it; it shall be for the sojourner, for the fatherless, and for the widow; that Yāhweh your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.
20 When you beat your olive-tree, you shall not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the sojourner, for the fatherless, and for the widow.
21 When you gather [the grapes of] your vineyard, you shall not glean it after you: it shall be for the sojourner, for the fatherless, and for the widow.
22 You shall remember that you were a bondservant in the land of Egypt: therefore I command you to do this thing.
1 If there be a controversy between men, and they come to judgment, and [the judges] judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked;
2 and it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his wickedness, by number.
3 Forty stripes he may give him, he shall not exceed; lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother should seem vile to you.
4 You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out [the grain].

5 If brothers dwell together, and one of them die, and have no son, the wife of the dead shall not be married outside to a stranger; her husband's brother shall go in to her, and take her to him as wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.

6 It shall be, that the firstborn whom she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother who is dead, that his name not be blotted out of Israel.

7 If the man doesn't want to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuses to raise up to his brother a name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me.

8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him; and if he stand, and say, I don't want to take her;

9 then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face; and she shall answer and say, So shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house.

10 His name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who has his shoe loosed.

11 When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draws near to deliver her husband out of the hand of him who strikes him, and puts forth her hand, and takes him by the secrets;

12 then you shall cut off her hand, your eye shall have no pity.

13 You shall not have in your bag diverse weights, a great and a small.

14 You shall not have in your house diverse measures, a great and a small.

15 A perfect and just weight shall you have; a perfect and just measure shall you have; that your days may be long in the land which Yahweh your God gives you.

16 For all who do such things, [even] all who do unrighteously, are an abomination to Yahweh your God.

17 Remember what Amalek did to you by the way as you came forth out of Egypt;

18 how he met you by the way, and struck the hindmost of you, all who were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and he didn't fear God.

19 Therefore it shall be, when Yahweh your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about, in the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, that you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky; you shall not forget.

1 It shall be, when you are come in to the land which Yahweh your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and dwell therein,

2 that you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you shall bring in from your land that Yahweh your God gives you; and you shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which Yahweh your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there.

3 You shall come to the priest who shall be in those days, and tell him, I profess this day to Yahweh your God, that I am come to the land which Yahweh swore to our fathers to give us.

4 The priest shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before the altar of Yahweh your God.

5 You shall answer and say before Yahweh your God, A Syrian ready to perish was my father; and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there, few in number; and he became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous.

6 The Egyptians dealt ill with us, and afflicted us, and laid on us hard bondage;

7 and we cried to Yahweh, the God of our fathers, and Yahweh heard our voice, and saw our affliction, and our toil, and our oppression;

8 and Yahweh brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror, and with signs, and with wonders;

9 and he has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

- 10 Now, behold, I have brought the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, Yāhweh, have given me. You shall set it down before Yāhweh your God, and worship before Yāhweh your God:
- 11 and you shall rejoice in all the good which Yāhweh your God has given to you, and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the sojourner who is in the midst of you.
- 12 When you have made an end of tithing all the tithe of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the sojourner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled.
- 13 You shall say before Yāhweh your God, I have put away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the sojourner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all your commandment which you have commanded me: I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them:
- 14 I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I put away of it, being unclean, nor given of it for the dead: I have listened to the voice of Yāhweh my God; I have done according to all that you have commanded me.
- 15 Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the ground which you have given us, as you swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 16 This day Yāhweh your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances: you shall therefore keep and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul.
- 17 You have declared Yāhweh this day to be your God, and that you would walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and listen to his voice:
- 18 and Yāhweh has declared you this day to be a people for his own possession, as he has promised you, and that you should keep all his commandments;
- 19 and to make you high above all nations that he has made, in praise, and in name, and in honor; and that you may be a holy people to Yāhweh your God, as he has spoken.
- 1 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandment which I command you this day.
- 2 It shall be on the day when you shall pass over the Jordan to the land which Yāhweh your God gives you, that you shall set you up great stones, and plaster them with plaster:
- 3 and you shall write on them all the words of this law, when you are passed over; that you may go in to the land which Yāhweh your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, has promised you.
- 4 It shall be, when you are passed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster.
- 5 There shall you build an altar to Yāhweh your God, an altar of stones: you shall lift up no iron [tool] on them.
- 6 You shall build the altar of Yāhweh your God of uncut stones; and you shall offer burnt offerings thereon to Yāhweh your God:
- 7 and you shall sacrifice peace-offerings, and shall eat there; and you shall rejoice before Yāhweh your God.
- 8 You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very plainly.
- 9 Moses and the priests the Levites spoke to all Israel, saying, Keep silence, and listen, Israel: this day you are become the people of Yāhweh your God.
- 10 You shall therefore obey the voice of Yāhweh your God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command you this day.
- 11 Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

- 12 These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you are passed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin.
- 13 These shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.
- 14 The Levites shall answer, and tell all the men of Israel with a loud voice,
- 15 Cursed be the man who makes an engraved or molten image, an abomination to Yāhweh, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret. All the people shall answer and say, Amen.
- 16 Cursed be he who sets light by his father or his mother. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 17 Cursed be he who removes his neighbor's landmark. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 18 Cursed be he who makes the blind to wander out of the way. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 19 Cursed be he who wrests the justice [due] to the sojourner, fatherless, and widow. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 20 Cursed be he who lies with his father's wife, because he has uncovered his father's skirt. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 21 Cursed be he who lies with any manner of animal. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 22 Cursed be he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 23 Cursed be he who lies with his mother-in-law. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 24 Cursed be he who strikes his neighbor in secret. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 25 Cursed be he who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 26 Cursed be he who doesn't confirm the words of this law to do them. All the people shall say, Amen.
- 1 It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to the voice of Yāhweh your God, to observe to do all his commandments which I command you this day, who Yāhweh your God will set you on high above all the nations of the earth:
- 2 and all these blessings shall come on you, and overtake you, if you shall listen to the voice of Yāhweh your God.
- 3 Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.
- 4 Blessed shall be the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your animals, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock.
- 5 Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading-trough.
- 6 Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.
- 7 Yāhweh will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck before you: they shall come out against you one way, and shall flee before you seven ways.
- 8 Yāhweh will command the blessing on you in your barns, and in all that you put your hand to; and he will bless you in the land which Yāhweh your God gives you.
- 9 Yāhweh will establish you for a holy people to himself, as he has sworn to you; if you shall keep the commandments of Yāhweh your God, and walk in his ways.
- 10 All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of Yāhweh; and they shall be afraid of you.
- 11 Yāhweh will make you plenteous for good, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which Yāhweh swore to your fathers to give you.
- 12 Yāhweh will open to you his good treasure in the sky, to give the rain of your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand; and you shall lend to many nations, and you shall not borrow.

- 13 Yahweh will make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall be above only, and you shall not be beneath; if you shall listen to the commandments of Yahweh your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do [them],
- 14 and shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.
- 15 But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command you this day, that all these curses shall come on you, and overtake you.
- 16 Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.
- 17 Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading-trough.
- 18 Cursed shall be the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your ground, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock.
- 19 Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.
- 20 Yahweh will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke, in all that you put your hand to do, until you be destroyed, and until you perish quickly; because of the evil of your doings, whereby you have forsaken me.
- 21 Yahweh will make the pestilence cleave to you, until he have consumed you from off the land, where you go in to possess it.
- 22 Yahweh will strike you with consumption, and with fever, and with inflammation, and with fiery heat, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue you until you perish.
- 23 Your sky that is over your head shall be brass, and the earth that is under you shall be iron.
- 24 Yahweh will make the rain of your land powder and dust: from the sky shall it come down on you, until you are destroyed.
- 25 Yahweh will cause you to be struck before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them, and shall flee seven ways before them: and you shall be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth.
- 26 Your dead body shall be food to all birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth; and there shall be none to frighten them away.
- 27 Yahweh will strike you with the boil of Egypt, and with the tumors, and with the scurvy, and with the itch, whereof you can not be healed.
- 28 Yahweh will strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart;
- 29 and you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways; and you shall be only oppressed and robbed always, and there shall be none to save you.
- 30 You shall betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her; you shall build a house, and you shall not dwell therein: you shall plant a vineyard, and shall not use the fruit of it.
- 31 Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it: your donkey shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you: your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have none to save you.
- 32 Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people; and your eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day; and there shall be nothing in the power of your hand.
- 33 The fruit of your ground, and all your labors, shall a nation which you don't know eat up; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed always;
- 34 so that you shall be mad for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.
- 35 Yahweh will strike you in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil, whereof you can not be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.

- 36 Yāhweh will bring you, and your king whom you shall set over you, to a nation that you have not known, you nor your fathers; and there shall you serve other gods, wood and stone.
- 37 You shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples where Yāhweh shall lead you away.
- 38 You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather little in; for the locust shall consume it.
- 39 You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink of the wine, nor gather [the grapes]; for the worm shall eat them.
- 40 You shall have olive-trees throughout all your borders, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olive shall cast [its fruit].
- 41 You shall father sons and daughters, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity.
- 42 All your trees and the fruit of your ground shall the locust possess.
- 43 The sojourner who is in the midst of you shall mount up above you higher and higher; and you shall come down lower and lower.
- 44 He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.
- 45 All these curses shall come on you, and shall pursue you, and overtake you, until you be destroyed; because you didn't listen to the voice of Yāhweh your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded you:
- 46 and they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your seed forever.
- 47 Because you didn't serve Yāhweh your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things;
- 48 therefore shall you serve your enemies whom Yāhweh shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things; and he shall put a yoke of iron on your neck, until he have destroyed you.
- 49 Yāhweh will bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose language you shall not understand;
- 50 a nation of fierce facial expressions, that shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young,
- 51 and shall eat the fruit of your cattle, and the fruit of your ground, until you be destroyed; that also shall not leave you grain, new wine, or oil, the increase of your cattle, or the young of your flock, until they have caused you to perish.
- 52 They shall besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, in which you trusted, throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which Yāhweh your God has given you.
- 53 You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, whom Yāhweh your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you.
- 54 The man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children whom he has remaining;
- 55 so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat, because he has nothing left him, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in all your gates.
- 56 The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not adventure to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

- 57 and toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her children whom she shall bear; for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in your gates.
- 58 If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, YAHWEH YOUR GOD;
- 59 then Yāhweh will make your plagues wonderful, and the plagues of your seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.
- 60 He will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they shall cleave to you.
- 61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will Yāhweh bring on you, until you be destroyed.
- 62 You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of the sky for multitude; because you didn't listen to the voice of Yāhweh your God.
- 63 It shall happen that as Yāhweh rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so Yāhweh will rejoice over you to cause you to perish, and to destroy you; and you shall be plucked from off the land where you go in to possess it.
- 64 Yāhweh will scatter you among all peoples, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; and there you shall serve other gods, which you have not known, you nor your fathers, even wood and stone.
- 65 Among these nations shall you find no ease, and there shall be no rest for the sole of your foot; but Yāhweh will give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and pining of soul;
- 66 and your life shall hang in doubt before you; and you shall fear night and day, and shall have no assurance of your life.
- 67 In the morning you shall say, Would it were even! and at even you shall say, Would it were morning! for the fear of your heart which you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.
- 68 Yāhweh will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I said to you, You shall see it no more again; and there you shall sell yourselves to your enemies for bondservants and for bondmaids, and no man shall buy you.
- 1 These are the words of the covenant which Yāhweh commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.
- 2 Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, You have seen all that Yāhweh did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land;
- 3 the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders;
- 4 but Yāhweh has not given you a heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, to this day.
- 5 I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes have not grown old on you, and your shoe has not grown old on your foot.
- 6 You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink; that you may know that I am Yāhweh your God.
- 7 When you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we struck them;
- 8 and we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of the Manassites.
- 9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

10 You stand this day all of you before Yāhweh your God; your heads, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, even all the men of Israel,
11 your little ones, your wives, and your sojourner who is in the midst of your camps, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water;
12 that you may enter into the covenant of Yāhweh your God, and into his oath, which Yāhweh your God makes with you this day;
13 that he may establish you this day to himself for a people, and that he may be to you a God, as he spoke to you, and as he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.
14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath,
15 but with him who stands here with us this day before Yāhweh our God, and also with him who is not here with us this day
16 (for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed;
17 and you have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them);
18 lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from Yāhweh our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that bears gall and wormwood;
19 and it happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to destroy the moist with the dry.
20 Yāhweh will not pardon him, but then the anger of Yāhweh and his jealousy will smoke against that man, and all the curse that is written in this book shall lie on him, and Yāhweh will blot out his name from under the sky.
21 Yāhweh will set him apart to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that is written in this book of the law.
22 The generation to come, your children who shall rise up after you, and the foreigner who shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses with which Yāhweh has made it sick;
23 [and that] the whole land of it is sulfur, and salt, [and] a burning, [that] it is not sown, nor bears, nor any grass grows therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which Yāhweh overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath;
24 even all the nations shall say, Why has Yāhweh done thus to this land? what means the heat of this great anger?
25 Then men shall say, Because they forsook the covenant of Yāhweh, the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt,
26 and went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods that they didn't know, and that he had not given to them;
27 therefore the anger of Yāhweh was kindled against this land, to bring on it all the curse that is written in this book;
28 and Yāhweh rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as at this day.
29 The secret things belong to Yāhweh our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.
1 It shall happen, when all these things are come on you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among all the nations, where Yāhweh your God has driven you,

2 and shall return to Yāhweh your God, and shall obey his voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul;
 3 that then Yāhweh your God will turn your captivity, and have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the peoples, where Yāhweh your God has scattered you.
 4 If [any of] your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of the heavens, from there will Yāhweh your God gather you, and from there will he bring you back:
 5 and Yāhweh your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and he will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers.
 6 Yāhweh your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your seed, to love Yāhweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live.
 7 Yāhweh your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.
 8 You shall return and obey the voice of Yāhweh, and do all his commandments which I command you this day.
 9 Yāhweh your God will make you plenteous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, for good: for Yāhweh will again rejoice over you for good, as he rejoiced over your fathers;
 10 if you shall obey the voice of Yāhweh your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law; if you turn to Yāhweh your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.
 11 For this commandment which I command you this day, it is not too hard for you, neither is it far off.
 12 It is not in heaven, that you should say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?
 13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?
 14 But the word is very near to you, in your mouth, and in your heart, that you may do it.
 15 Behold, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and evil;
 16 in that I command you this day to love Yāhweh your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, that you may live and multiply, and that Yāhweh your God may bless you in the land where you go in to possess it.
 17 But if your heart turn away, and you will not hear, but shall be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;
 18 I denounce to you this day, that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land, where you pass over the Jordan to go in to possess it.
 19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse; therefore choose life, that you may live, you and your seed;
 20 to love Yāhweh your God, to obey his voice, and to cleave to him; for he is your life, and the length of your days; that you may dwell in the land which Yāhweh swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.
 1 Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel.
 2 He said to them, I am one hundred twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in; and Yāhweh has said to me, You shall not go over this Jordan.
 3 Yāhweh your God, he will go over before you; he will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them: [and] Joshua, he shall go over before you, as Yāhweh has spoken.

- 4 Yāhweh will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land; whom he destroyed.
- 5 Yāhweh will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you.
- 6 Be strong and of good courage, don't be afraid, nor be scared of them; for Yāhweh your God, he it is who does go with you; he will not fail you, nor forsake you.
- 7 Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of good courage: for you shall go with this people into the land which Yāhweh has sworn to their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it.
- 8 Yāhweh, he it is who does go before you; he will be with you, he will not fail you, neither forsake you; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed.
- 9 Moses wrote this law, and delivered it to the priests the sons of Lēvi, who bore the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh, and to all the elders of Israel.
- 10 Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of [every] seven years, in the set time of the year of release, in the feast of tents,
- 11 when all Israel is come to appear before Yāhweh your God in the place which he shall choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
- 12 Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and your sojourner who is within your gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear Yāhweh your God, and observe to do all the words of this law;
- 13 and that their children, who have not known, may hear, and learn to fear Yāhweh your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over the Jordan to possess it.
- 14 Yāhweh said to Moses, Behold, your days approach that you must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, that I may give him a charge. Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tent of meeting.
- 15 Yāhweh appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the Tent.
- 16 Yāhweh said to Moses, Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers; and this people will rise up, and play the prostitute after the strange gods of the land, where they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.
- 17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come on them; so that they will say in that day, Haven't these evils come on us because our God is not among us?
- 18 I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they shall have worked, in that they are turned to other gods.
- 19 Now therefore write you this song for you, and teach you it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.
- 20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore to their fathers, flowing with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and grown fat; then will they turn to other gods, and serve them, and despise me, and break my covenant.
- 21 It shall happen, when many evils and troubles are come on them, that this song shall testify before them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they frame this day, before I have brought them into the land which I swore.
- 22 So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.
- 23 He gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of good courage; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to them; and I will be with you.

24 It happened, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished,

25 that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh, saying,

26 Take this book of the law, and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh your God, that it may be there for a witness against you.

27 For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck; behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against Yāhweh; and how much more after my death?

28 Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them.

29 For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because you will do that which is evil in the sight of Yāhweh, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were finished.

1 Give ear, you heavens, and I will speak; Let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shall drop as the rain; My speech shall condense as the dew, As the small rain on the tender grass, As the showers on the herb.

3 For I will proclaim the name of Yāhweh: Ascribe you greatness to our God.

4 The Rock, his work is perfect; For all his ways are justice: A God of faithfulness and without iniquity, Just and right is he.

5 They have dealt corruptly with him, [they are] not his children, [it is] their blemish; [They are] a perverse and crooked generation.

6 Do you thus requite Yāhweh, Foolish people and unwise? Isn't he your father who has bought you? He has made you, and established you.

7 Remember the days of old, Consider the years of many generations: Ask your father, and he will show you; Your elders, and they will tell you.

8 When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance, When he separated the children of men, He set the bounds of the peoples According to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For Yāhweh's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him in a desert land, In the waste howling wilderness; He compassed him about, he cared for him, He kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle that stirs up her nest, That flutters over her young, He spread abroad his wings, he took them, He bore them on his pinions.

12 Yāhweh alone did lead him, There was no foreign god with him.

13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, He ate the increase of the field; He made him to suck honey out of the rock, Oil out of the flinty rock;

14 Butter of the herd, and milk of the flock, With fat of lambs, Rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, With the finest of the wheat; Of the blood of the grape you drank wine.

15 But Jeshurun grew fat, and kicked: You have grown fat, you are grown thick, you are become sleek; Then he forsook God who made him, Lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

16 They moved him to jealousy with strange [gods]; With abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 They sacrificed to demons, [which were] no God, To gods that they didn't know, To new [gods] that came up of late, Which your fathers didn't dread.

18 Of the Rock that became your father, you are unmindful, Have forgotten God who gave you birth.

19 Yāhweh saw [it], and abhorred [them], Because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters.

20 He said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: For they are a very perverse generation, Children in whom is no faithfulness.
 21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; They have provoked me to anger with their vanities: I will move them to jealousy with those who are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.
 22 For a fire is kindled in my anger, Burns to the lowest Sheol, Devours the earth with its increase,
 Sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.
 23 I will heap evils on them; I will spend my arrows on them:
 24 [They shall be] wasted with hunger, and devoured with burning heat Bitter destruction; The teeth of animals will I send on them, With the poison of crawling things of the dust.
 25 Outside shall the sword bereave, In the chambers terror; [It shall destroy] both young man and virgin, The suckling with the man of gray hairs.
 26 I said, I would scatter them afar, I would make the memory of them to cease from among men;
 27 Were it not that I feared the provocation of the enemy, Lest their adversaries should judge amiss,
 Lest they should say, Our hand is exalted, Yâhweh has not done all this.
 28 For they are a nation void of counsel, There is no understanding in them.
 29 Oh that they were wise, that they understood this, That they would consider their latter end!
 30 How should one chase a thousand, Two put ten thousand to flight, Except their Rock had sold them,
 Yâhweh had delivered them up?
 31 For their rock is not as our Rock, Even our enemies themselves being judges.
 32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, Of the fields of Gomorrah: Their grapes are grapes of gall,
 Their clusters are bitter:
 33 Their wine is the poison of serpents, The cruel venom of asps.
 34 Isn't this laid up in store with me, Sealed up among my treasures?
 35 Vengeance is mine, and recompense, At the time when their foot shall slide: For the day of their calamity is at hand, The things that are to come on them shall make haste.
 36 For Yâhweh will judge his people, Repent himself for his servants; When he sees that [their] power is gone, There is none [remaining], shut up or left at large.
 37 He will say, Where are their gods, The rock in which they took refuge;
 38 Which ate the fat of their sacrifices, And drank the wine of their drink-offering? Let them rise up and help you, Let them be your protection.
 39 See now that I, even I, am he, There is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal; There is none who can deliver out of my hand.
 40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, And say, As I live forever, 41 If I whet my glittering sword, My hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to my adversaries, Will recompense those who hate me.
 42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, My sword shall devour flesh; With the blood of the slain and the captives, From the head of the leaders of the enemy.
 43 Rejoice, you nations, [with] his people: For he will avenge the blood of his servants, Will render vengeance to his adversaries, Will make expiation for his land, for his people.
 44 Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun.
 45 Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel;

46 He said to them, Set your heart to all the words which I testify to you this day, which you shall command your children to observe to do, [even] all the words of this law.

47 For it is no vain thing for you; because it is your life, and through this thing you shall prolong your days in the land, where you go over the Jordan to possess it.

48 Yāhweh spoke to Moses that same day, saying,

49 Get you up into this mountain of Abarim, to Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and see the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel for a possession;

50 and die on the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people:

51 because you trespassed against me in the midst of the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah of Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you did not sanctify me in the midst of the children of Israel.

52 For you shall see the land before you; but you shall not go there into the land which I give the children of Israel.

1 This is the blessing, with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 He said, Yāhweh came from Sinai, Rose from Seir to them; He shined forth from Mount Paran, He came from the ten thousands of holy ones: At his right hand was a fiery law for them.

3 Yes, he loves the people; All his saints are in your hand: They sat down at your feet; [Everyone] shall receive of your words.

4 Moses commanded us a law, An inheritance for the assembly of Jacob.

5 He was king in Jeshurun, When the heads of the people were gathered, All the tribes of Israel together.

6 Let Reuben live, and not die; Nor let his men be few.

7 This is [the blessing] of Judah: and he said, Hear, Yāhweh, the voice of Judah, Bring him in to his people. With his hands he contended for himself; You shall be a help against his adversaries.

8 Of Levi he said, Your Thummim and your Urim are with your godly one, Whom you did prove at Massah, With whom you did strive at the waters of Meribah;

9 Who said of his father, and of his mother, I have not seen him; Neither did he acknowledge his brothers, Nor knew he his own children: For they have observed your word, Keep your covenant.

10 They shall teach Jacob your ordinances, Israel your law: They shall put incense before you, Whole burnt offering on your altar.

11 Bless, Yāhweh, his substance, Accept the work of his hands; Smite through the loins of those who rise up against him, Of those who hate him, that they not rise again.

12 Of Benjamin he said, The beloved of Yāhweh shall dwell in safety by him; He covers him all the day long. He dwells between his shoulders.

13 Of Joseph he said, Blessed of Yāhweh be his land, For the precious things of the heavens, for the dew, For the deep that couches beneath,

14 For the precious things of the fruits of the sun, For the precious things of the growth of the moons,

15 For the chief things of the ancient mountains, For the precious things of the everlasting hills,

16 For the precious things of the earth and the fullness of it, The good will of him who lived in the bush. Let [the blessing] come on the head of Joseph, On the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

17 The firstborn of his herd, majesty is his; His horns are the horns of the wild-ox: With them he shall push the peoples all of them, [even] the ends of the earth: They are the ten thousands of Ephraim, They are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 Of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out; Issachar, in your tents.

19 They shall call the peoples to the mountain; There shall they offer sacrifices of righteousness: For they shall suck the abundance of the seas, The hidden treasures of the sand.
 20 Of Gad he said, Blessed be he who enlarges Gad: He dwells as a lioness, Tears the arm, yes, the crown of the head.
 21 He provided the first part for himself, For there was the lawgiver's portion reserved; He came [with] the heads of the people; He executed the righteousness of Yāhweh, His ordinances with Israel.
 22 Of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp, That leaps forth from Bashan.
 23 Of Naphtali he said, Naphtali, satisfied with favor, Full with the blessing of Yāhweh, Possess you the west and the south.
 24 Of Asher he said, Blessed be Asher with children; Let him be acceptable to his brothers, Let him dip his foot in oil.
 25 Your bars shall be iron and brass; As your days, so shall your strength be.
 26 There is none like God, Jeshurun, Who rides on the heavens for your help, In his excellency on the skies.
 27 The eternal God is [your] dwelling-place, Underneath are the everlasting arms. He thrust out the enemy from before you, Said, Destroy.
 28 Israel dwells in safety, The fountain of Jacob alone, In a land of grain and new wine; Yes, his heavens drop down dew.
 29 Happy are you, Israel: Who is like you, a people saved by Yāhweh, The shield of your help, The sword of your excellency! Your enemies shall submit themselves to you; You shall tread on their high places.
 1 Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. Yāhweh showed him all the land of Gilead, to Dan,
 2 and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the hinder sea,
 3 and the South, and the Plain of the valley of Jericho the city of palm-trees, to Zoar.
 4 Yāhweh said to him, This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed: I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there.
 5 So Moses the servant of Yāhweh died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of Yāhweh.
 6 He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab over against Beth-peor: but no man knows of his tomb to this day.
 7 Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.
 8 The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping in the mourning for Moses were ended.
 9 Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands on him; and the children of Israel listened to him, and did as Yāhweh commanded Moses.
 10 There has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom Yāhweh knew face to face,
 11 in all the signs and the wonders, which Yāhweh sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,
 12 and in all the mighty hand, and in all the great terror, which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.
 1 The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.
 2 Abraham became the father of Isaac. Isaac became the father of Jacob. Jacob became the father of Judah and his brothers.

- 3 Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez became the father of Hezron. Hezron became the father of Ram.
- 4 Ram became the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nahshon. Nahshon became the father of Salmon.
- 5 Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rahab. Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse.
- 6 Jesse became the father of David the king. David became the father of Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah.
- 7 Solomon became the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam became the father of Abijah. Abijah became the father of Asa.
- 8 Asa became the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat became the father of Joram. Joram became the father of Uzziah.
- 9 Uzziah became the father of Jotham. Jotham became the father of Ahaz. Ahaz became the father of Hezekiah.
- 10 Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh. Manasseh became the father of Amon. Amon became the father of Josiah.
- 11 Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the exile to Babylon.
- 12 After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel.
- 13 Zerubbabel became the father of Abiud. Abiud became the father of Eliakim. Eliakim became the father of Azor.
- 14 Azor became the father of Sadoc. Sadoc became the father of Achim. Achim became the father of Eliud.
- 15 Eliud became the father of Eleazar. Eleazar became the father of Matthan. Matthan became the father of Jacob.
- 16 Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.
- 17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon to the Christ, fourteen generations.
- 18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was like this; because when his mother, Mary, had been engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit.
- 19 Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly.
- 20 But when he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, you son of David, don't be afraid to take to yourself Mary, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.
- 21 She shall bring forth a son. You shall call his name JESUS, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins."
- 22 Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,
- 23 "Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son. They shall call his name Immanuel;" which is, being interpreted, "God with us."
- 24 Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself;

25 and didn't know her sexually until she had brought forth her firstborn son. He named him JESUS.

1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod, the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying,

2 "Where is he who is born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east, and have come to worship him."

3 When Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ would be born.

5 They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written through the prophet,

6 You Bethlehem, land of Judah, Are in no way least among the princes of Judah: For out of you shall come forth a governor, Who shall shepherd my people, Israel."

7 Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared.

8 He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him."

9 They, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.

11 They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshipped him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 Being warned in a dream that they shouldn't return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."

14 He arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt,

15 and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my son."

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent forth, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem, and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men.

17 Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

18 "A voice was heard in Ramah, Lamentation, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; She wouldn't be comforted, because they are no more."

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,

20 "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child's life are dead."

21 He arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee,

23 and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets: "He will be called a Nazarene."

1 In those days, John the Baptizer came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying,

2 "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!"

3 For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make ready the way of the Lord, Make his paths straight."

4 Now John himself had clothing made of camel's hair, and a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him.

6 They were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Therefore bring forth fruit worthy of repentance!

9 Don't think to yourselves, We have Abraham for our father, for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

10 Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit.

12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire."

13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him.

14 But John would have hindered him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?"

15 But Jesus, answering, said to him, "Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him.

16 Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him.

17 Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

2 When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward.

3 The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

4 But he answered, "It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God. "

5 Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple,

6 and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, He will give his angels charge concerning you. and, On their hands they will bear you up, So that you don't dash your foot against a stone. "

7 Jesus said to him, "Again, it is written, You shall not test the Lord, your God. "

8 Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory.

9 He said to him, "I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me."

10 Then Jesus said to him, "Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve. "

11 Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him.

12 Now when Jesus heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee.

13 Leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,

14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,
15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, Toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles,
16 The people who sat in darkness saw a great light, To those who sat in the region and shadow of death, To them did light spring up." 17 From that time, Jesus began to preach, and to say, "Repent! For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."
18 Walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.
19 He said to them, "Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers for men."
20 They immediately left their nets, and followed him.
21 Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and John, his brother, in the boat with Zebedee, their father, mending their nets. He called them.
22 They immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.
23 Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.
24 The report about him went forth into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them.
25 Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and from beyond the Jordan followed him.
1 Seeing the multitudes, he went up onto a mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
2 He opened his mouth and taught them, saying,
3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
4 "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
5 "Blessed are the humble, for they shall inherit the earth.
6 "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.
7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.
8 "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.
10 "Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
11 "Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
12 "Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
13 You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, what will it be salted with? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men.
14 You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill can't be hid.
15 Neither do you light a lamp, and put it under a bushel basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house.
16 Even so, let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.
17 Don't think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn't come to destroy, but to fulfill.

18 For most assuredly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter or one tiny pen stroke shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished.

19 Whoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

20 For I tell you, that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

21 "You have heard that it was said to them of old time, You shall not murder; and Whoever shall murder shall be in danger of the judgment.

22 But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment; and whoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whoever shall say, You fool, shall be in danger of the fire of Gehenna.

23 If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you,

24 leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

25 Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him in the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison.

26 Most assuredly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last penny.

27 "You have heard that it was said, You shall not commit adultery;

28 but I tell you that everyone who gazes at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and cast it from you. For it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehenna.

30 If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you: for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not your whole body be cast into Gehenna.

31 "It was also said, Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce, 32 but I tell you that whoever who puts away his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes her an adulteress; and whoever shall marry her when she is put away commits adultery.

33 "Again you have heard that it was said to them of old time, You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to the Lord your vows,

34 but I tell you, don't swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God;

35 nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

36 Neither shall you swear by your head, for you can't make one hair white or black.

37 But let your speech be, Yes, yes; No, no. Whatever is more than these is of the evil one.

38 You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.

39 But I tell you, don't resist him who is evil; but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 If any man would go to law with you and take away your coat, let him have your cloak also.

41 Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two.

42 Give to him who asks you, and don't turn away him who desires to borrow from you.

43 "You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy.

44 But I tell you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,

45 that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust.

46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same?

47 If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don't even the tax collectors do the same?

48 Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

1 "Be careful that you don't do your charitable giving before men, to be seen by them, or else you have no reward with your Father who is in heaven.

2 Therefore when you do merciful deeds, don't sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may get glory from men. Most assuredly, I tell you, they have received their reward.

3 But when you do merciful deeds, don't let your left hand know what your right hand does,

4 so that your merciful deeds may be in secret, then your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

5 "When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Most assuredly, I tell you, they have received their reward.

6 But you, when you pray, enter into your inner chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

7 In praying, don't use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking.

8 Therefore don't be like them, for your Father knows what things you need, before you ask him.

9 Pray like this. Our Father, who is in heaven, may your name be kept holy.

10 May your kingdom come. May your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors.

13 Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen.

14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

15 But if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 "Moreover when you fast, don't be, as the hypocrites, with sad faces. For they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen by men to be fasting. Most assuredly I tell you, they have received their reward.

17 But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face;

18 that you are not seen by men to be fasting, but by your Father who is in secret, and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

19 "Don't lay up treasures for yourselves on the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal;

20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where thieves don't break through and steal;

21 for where your treasure is, your heart will be there also.

22 The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light.

23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

24 "No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You can't serve both God and Mammon.

25 Therefore, I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor yet for your body, what you will put on. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing?

26 See the birds of the sky, that they don't sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns. Your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you of much more value than they?

27 Which of you, by being anxious, can add one cubit to the measure of his life?

28 Why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin, 29 yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these.

30 But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, won't he much more clothe you, you of little faith?

31 Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?' or, 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?'

32 For the Gentiles seek after all these things, for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.

33 But seek first God's Kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things will be added to you.

34 Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.

1 "Don't judge, so that you won't be judged.

2 For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you.

3 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?

4 Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye; and behold, the beam is in your own eye?'

5 You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye.

6 "Don't give that which is holy to the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the pigs, lest perhaps they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

7 "Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened to you.

8 For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, who, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone?

10 Or if he asks for a fish, who will give him a serpent?

11 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

12 Therefore whatever you desire for men to do to you, you shall also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

13 Enter in by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter in by it.

14 How narrow is the gate, and restricted is the way that leads to life! Few are those who find it.

15 "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.

16 By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

17 Even so, every good tree brings forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree brings forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree can't bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
19 Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.
20 Therefore, by their fruits you will know them.
21 Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.
22 Many will tell me in that day, Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy by your name, by your name cast out demons, and by your name do many mighty works?
23 Then I will tell them, I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.
24 "Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house on a rock.
25 The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it didn't fall, for it was founded on the rock.
26 Everyone who hears these words of mine, and doesn't do them will be like a foolish man, who built his house on the sand.
27 The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it fell -- and great was its fall."
28 It happened, when Jesus had finished saying these things, that the multitudes were astonished at his teaching,
29 for he taught them with authority, and not like the scribes.
1 When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
2 Behold, a leper came to him and worshipped him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."
3 Jesus stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.
4 Jesus said to him, "See that you tell nobody, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."
5 When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him,
6 and saying, "Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented."
7 Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."
8 The centurion answered, "Lord, I'm not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.
9 For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does it."
10 When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, "Most assuredly I tell you, I haven't found so great a faith, not even in Israel.
11 I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven,
12 but the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth."
13 Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed." His servant was healed in that hour.
14 When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever.
15 He touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and served him.

16 When evening came, they brought to him many possessed with demons. He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick;

17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: "He took our infirmities, and bore our diseases."

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave the order to depart to the other side.

19 A scribe came, and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

20 Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

21 Another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

23 When he got into a boat, his disciples followed him.

24 Behold, a great tempest arose in the sea, so much that the boat was covered with the waves, but he was asleep.

25 They came to him, and woke him up, saying, "Save us, Lord! We are dying!"

26 He said to them, "Why are you fearful, oh you of little faith?" Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.

27 The men marveled, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

28 When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, two people possessed with demons met him there, coming forth out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no man could pass by that way.

29 Behold, they cried out, saying, "What do we have to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?"

30 Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them.

31 The demons begged him, saying, "If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs."

32 He said to them, "Go!" They came out, and went into the herd of pigs: and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water.

33 Those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what happened to those who were possessed with demons.

34 Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.

1 He entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city.

2 Behold, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you."

3 Behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man blasphemes."

4 Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?

5 For which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven; or to say, Get up, and walk?

6 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." (then he said to the paralytic), "Get up, and take up your mat, and go up to your house."

7 He arose and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

9 As Jesus passed by from there, he saw a man called Matthew, sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, "Follow me." He got up and followed him.

10 It happened, as he sat at the table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples.

11 When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with the tax collectors and sinners?"

12 When Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do.

13 But you go and learn what this means: I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

14 Then John's disciples came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don't fast?"

15 Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

16 No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made.

17 Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

18 While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshipped him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live."

19 Jesus got up and followed him, as did his disciples.

20 Behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, came behind him, and touched the tassels of his garment;

21 for she said within herself, "If I just touch his garment, I will be made well."

22 But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, "Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.

23 When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd in noisy disorder,

24 he said to them, "Make room, because the young lady isn't dead, but sleeping." They laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the young lady arose.

26 The report of this went forth into all that land.

27 As Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, "Have mercy on us, son of David!"

28 When he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They told him, "Yes, Lord."

29 Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you."

30 Their eyes were opened. Jesus strictly charged them, saying, "See that no one knows about this."

31 But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

32 As they went forth, behold, there was brought to him a mute man who was demon possessed.

33 When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The multitudes marveled, saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"

34 But the Pharisees said, "By the prince of the demons, he casts out demons."

35 Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, as sheep without a shepherd.

37 Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few.

38 Pray therefore that the Lord of the harvest will send forth laborers into his harvest."

1 He called to himself his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these. The first, Simon, who is called Peter; Andrew, his brother; James the son of Zebedee; John, his brother;

3 Philip; Bartholomew; Thomas; Matthew, the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus; and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;

4 Simon the Canaanite; and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 Jesus sent these twelve forth, and charged them, saying, "Don't go among the Gentiles, and don't enter into any city of the Samaritans.

6 Rather, go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 As you go, preach, saying, The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, and cast out demons. Freely you received, so freely give.

9 Don't take any gold, nor silver, nor brass in your money belts.

10 Take no bag for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of his food.

11 Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy; and stay there until you go on.

12 As you enter into the household, greet it.

13 If the household is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it isn't worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 Whoever doesn't receive you, nor hear your words, as you go forth out of that house or that city, shake off the dust from your feet.

15 Most assuredly I tell you, It will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you.

18 Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say.

20 For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

21 Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most assuredly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel, until the Son of Man has come.

24 "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be like his teacher, and the servant like his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more them of his household!

26 Therefore don't be afraid of them, for there is nothing covered, that will not be revealed; and hidden, that will not be known.

27 What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in the ear, proclaim on the housetops.

28 Don't be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.

29 "Aren't two sparrows sold for an assarion? Not one of them falls on the ground apart from your Father's will,

30 but the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Therefore don't be afraid, you are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Everyone therefore who confesses me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven.

33 But whoever denies me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

34 "Don't think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn't come to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 A man's foes will be those of his own household.

37 He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn't worthy of me.

38 He who doesn't take his cross and follow after me, isn't worthy of me.

39 He who finds his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

40 He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me.

41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.

42 "Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink, in the name of a disciple, most assuredly I tell you he will in no way lose his reward."

1 It happened that when Jesus had finished directing his twelve disciples, he departed there to teach and preach in their cities.

2 Now when John heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples

3 and said to him, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?"

4 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see:

5 the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.

6 Blessed is he, whoever finds no occasion for stumbling in me."

7 As these went their way, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what did you go out to see? A man in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in king's houses.

9 But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.

- 11 Most assuredly I tell you, among those who are born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptizer; yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he.
- 12 From the days of John the Baptizer until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.
- 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.
- 14 If you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, who is to come.
- 15 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.
- 16 "But what will I compare this generation to? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions
- 17 and say, We played the flute for you, and you didn't dance. We mourned for you, and you didn't lament.
- 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon.
- 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners! But wisdom is justified by her children."
- 20 Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works were done, because they didn't repent.
- 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
- 22 But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you.
- 23 You, Capernaum, who are exalted to Heaven, you will go down to Hades. For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until this day.
- 24 But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgment, than for you."
- 25 At that time, Jesus answered, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants.
- 26 Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight.
- 27 All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, except the Son, and he to whoever the Son wants to reveal him.
- 28 "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest.
- 29 Take my yoke on you, and learn from me, for I am humble and lowly in heart; and you will find rest for your souls.
- 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."
- 1 At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat.
- 2 But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, "Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath."
- 3 But he said to them, "Haven't you read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him;
- 4 how he entered into the house of God, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests?
- 5 Or have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbath day, the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are guiltless?
- 6 But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here.

7 But if you had known what this means, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

9 He departed there, and went into their synagogue.

10 And behold there was, a man with a withered hand. They asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?” that they might accuse him.

11 He said to them, “What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, will he not grab on to it, and lift it out?

12 How much, then, is a man of more value than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day.”

13 Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other.

14 But the Pharisees went out, and took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

15 Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all, and charged them that they should not make him known;

16 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

17 “Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased; I will put my Spirit on him, He will declare judgment to the Gentiles.

18 He will not strive, nor shout; Neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

20 He won’t break a bruised reed, He won’t quench a smoking flax, Until he sends forth judgment to victory.

21 In his name, the Gentiles will hope.”

22 Then there was brought to him one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, and he healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw.

23 All the multitudes were amazed, and said, “Can this be the son of David?”

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “This man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.”

25 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.

26 If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?

27 If I by Beelzebul cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

28 But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come on you.

29 Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and plunder his goods, except he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house.

30 “He who is not with me is against me, and he who doesn’t gather with me, scatters.

31 Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men.

32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in that which is to come.

33 “Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit.

34 You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.

35 The good man out of his good treasure brings forth good things, and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings forth evil things.

36 I tell you that every idle word that men speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment.

37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."

39 But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will no sign be given it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet.

40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here.

42 The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here.

43 But the unclean spirit, when he is gone out of the man, passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and doesn't find it.

44 Then he says, I will return into my house whence I came out, and when he has come back, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order.

45 Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation."

46 While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him.

47 One said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you."

48 But he answered him who told him, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?"

49 He stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers!

50 For whoever will do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

1 On that day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside.

2 Great multitudes gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat, and sat, and all the multitude stood on the beach.

3 He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, the farmer went forth to sow.

4 As he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them.

5 Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth.

6 When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away.

7 Others fell on thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them;

8 and others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times, some sixty, and some thirty.

9 He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

10 The disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

11 He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them.

- 12 For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has.
- 13 Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand.
- 14 In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says, By hearing you will hear, and will in no way understand; Seeing you will see, and will in no way perceive:
- 15 For this people's heart has grown callous, Their ears are dull of hearing, Their eyes they have closed; Or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes, Hear with their ears, Understand with their heart, And should turn again; And I would heal them.
- 16 "But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear.
- 17 For most assuredly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them.
- 18 "Hear, then, the parable of the farmer.
- 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom, and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside.
- 20 What was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it;
- 21 yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles.
- 22 What was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful.
- 23 What was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who most assuredly bears fruit, and brings forth, some one hundred times, some sixty, some thirty."
- 24 He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field,
- 25 but while people slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel also among the wheat, and went away.
- 26 But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the darnel appeared also.
- 27 The servants of the householder came and said to him, Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where did this darnel come from?
- 28 He said to them, An enemy has done this. The servants asked him, Do you want us to go and gather them up?
- 29 But he said, No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel, you root up the wheat with them.
- 30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First, gather up the darnel, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn." "
- 31 He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field;
- 32 which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches."
- 33 He spoke another parable to them. "The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, until it was all leavened."
- 34 Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, he didn't speak to them,
- 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."

36 Then Jesus sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying,
"Explain to us the parable of the darnel of the field."
37 He answered them, "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, 38 the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the darnel are the sons of the evil one.
39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.
40 As therefore the darnel is gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be in the end of this age.
41 The Son of Man will send forth his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and those who do iniquity,
42 and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth.
43 Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.
44 "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.
45 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 who having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.
47 "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet, that was cast into the sea, and gathered some fish of every kind,
48 which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach. They sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they threw away.
49 So will it be in the end of the world. The angels will come forth, and separate the wicked from among the righteous,
50 and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth."
51 Jesus said to them, "Have you understood all these things?" They answered him, "Yes, Lord."
52 He said to them, "Therefore, every scribe who has been made a disciple to the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a householder, who brings forth out of his treasure new and old things."
53 It happened, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed from there.
54 Coming into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so much that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom, and these mighty works?
55 Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James, Joses, Simon, and Judas?
56 Aren't all of his sisters with us? Where, then, did this man get all of these things?"
57 They were offended by him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house."
58 He didn't do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.
1 At that time, Herod, the tetrarch, heard the report concerning Jesus,
2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptizer. He is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in him."
3 For Herod had laid hold of John, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.
4 For John said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her."
5 When he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask.
8 She, being put forward by her mother, said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptizer."
9 The king was grieved, but for the sake of his oaths, and of those who sat at the table with him, he commanded it to be given,
10 and he sent and beheaded John in the prison.
11 His head was brought on a platter, and given to the young lady; and she brought it to her mother.
12 His disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it; and they went and told Jesus.
13 Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat, to a desert place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed him on foot from the cities.
14 Jesus went out, and he saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them, and healed their sick.
15 When evening had come, his disciples came to him, saying, "The place is a desert, and the time is already past. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food."
16 But Jesus said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."
17 They told him, "We only have here five loaves and two fish."
18 He said, "Bring them here to me."
19 He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.
20 They all ate, and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces.
21 Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.
22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.
23 After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain apart to pray. When evening had come, he was there alone.
24 But the boat was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.
25 In the fourth watch of the night Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.
26 When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" and they cried out for fear.
27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying "Cheer up! I AM! Don't be afraid."
28 Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters."
29 He said, "Come!" Peter went down from the boat, and walked on the waters to come to Jesus.
30 But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying,
"Lord, save me!"
31 Immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"
32 When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased.
33 Those who were in the boat came and worshipped him, saying, "You are truly the Son of God!"
34 When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret.
35 When the men of that place recognized him, they sent into all that region round about, and brought to him all who were sick,

36 and they begged him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment. As many as touched it were made whole.

1 Then Pharisees and scribes come to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying,

2 "Why do your disciples disobey the tradition of the elders? For they don't wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 He answered them, "Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition?

4 For God commanded, Honor your father and your mother, and, He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.

5 But you say, Whoever will tell his father or his mother, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God,"

6 he will not honor his father or mother. You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition.

7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 These people draw near to me with their mouth, And honor me with their lips; But their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as doctrine rules made by men. "

10 He called the multitude to himself, and said to them, "Hear, and understand.

11 That which enters into the mouth doesn't defile the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

12 Then the disciples came, and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?"

13 But he answered, "Every plant which my heavenly Father didn't plant will be uprooted.

14 Let them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit."

15 Peter answered him, "Explain the parable to us."

16 So Jesus said, "Do you also still not understand?

17 Don't you understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and then out of the body?

18 But the things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies.

20 These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands doesn't defile the man."

21 Jesus went out from there, and withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, you son of David. My daughter is grievously vexed with a demon."

23 But he answered her not a word. His disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away; for she cries after us."

24 But he answered, "I wasn't sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 But she came and worshipped him, saying, "Lord, help me."

26 But he answered, "It is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

27 But she said, "Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."

28 Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 Jesus departed there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there.

30 There came to him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them,

31 so that the multitude wondered, when they saw the mute speaking, the injured whole, lame walking, and the blind seeing -- and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Jesus called his disciples to him, and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way."

33 The disciples said to him, "Where should we get so many loaves in a desert place as to fill so great a multitude?"

34 Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

35 He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground;

36 and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.

37 They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over.

38 Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 He sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

2 But he answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.'

3 In the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you can't discern the signs of the times.

4 An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah." He left them, and departed.

5 The disciples came to the other side and forgot to take bread.

6 Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

7 They reasoned among themselves, saying, "We took no bread."

8 Jesus, perceiving it, said, "Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, because you have brought no bread?"

9 Don't you yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

10 Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

11 How is it that you don't perceive that I didn't speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

12 Then they understood that he didn't tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

14 They said, "Some say John the Baptizer, some, Elijah, and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets."

15 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

16 Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

17 Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven.

- 18 I also tell you, that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my assembly, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it.
- 19 I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you will bind on earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you will loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."
- 20 Then he charged the disciples that they should tell no man that he was the Christ.
- 21 From that time, Jesus began to show to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.
- 22 Peter took him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This will never be done to you."
- 23 But he turned, and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men."
- 24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If any man desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
- 25 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it.
- 26 For what will it profit a man, if he will gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life?
- 27 For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then will he render to every man according to his deeds.
- 28 Most assuredly I tell you, there are some standing here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."
- 1 After six days, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves.
- 2 He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as the light.
- 3 Behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him.
- 4 Peter answered, and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let us make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
- 5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."
- 6 When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid.
- 7 Jesus came and touched them and said, "Get up, and don't be afraid."
- 8 Lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus alone.
- 9 As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Don't tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man has risen from the dead."
- 10 His disciples asked him, saying, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
- 11 Jesus answered them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and will restore all things,
- 12 but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they didn't recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so will the Son of Man also suffer by them."
- 13 Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptizer.
- 14 When they came to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to him, saying,
- 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water.
- 16 So I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him."

- 17 Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me."
- 18 Jesus rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.
- 19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, "Why couldn't we cast it out?"
- 20 He said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For most assuredly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you.
- 21 But this kind doesn't go out except by prayer and fasting."
- 22 While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men,
- 23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up." They were exceedingly sorry.
- 24 When they were come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachmas came to Peter, and said, "Doesn't your teacher pay the didrachma?"
- 25 He said, "Yes." When he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their sons, or from strangers?"
- 26 Peter said to him, "From strangers." Jesus said to him, "Therefore the sons are exempt.
- 27 But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened his mouth, you will find a stater. Take that, and give it to them for me and you."
- 1 In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"
- 2 Jesus called a little child to himself, and set him in the midst of them,
- 3 and said, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.
- 4 Whoever therefore will humble himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.
- 5 Whoever will receive one such little child in my name receives me,
- 6 but whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him that a huge millstone should be hung around his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depths of the sea.
- 7 Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it must be that the occasions come, but woe to that person through whom the occasion comes!
- 8 If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire.
- 9 If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire.
- 10 See that you don't despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven.
- 11 For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.
- 12 "What do you think? If a man has one hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, doesn't he leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray?
- 13 If he happens to find it, most assuredly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray.
- 14 Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

- 15 "If your brother sins against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother.
- 16 But if he doesn't listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.
- 17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If he refuses to hear the assembly also, let him be to you as a Gentile or a tax collector.
- 18 Most assuredly I tell you, whatever things you will bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever things you will loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.
- 19 Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven.
- 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them."
- 21 Then Peter came and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?"
- 22 Jesus said to him, "I don't tell you until seven times, but, until seventy times seven.
- 23 Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who wanted to reconcile accounts with his servants.
- 24 When he had begun to reconcile, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.
- 25 But because he couldn't pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.
- 26 The servant therefore fell down and kneeled before him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay you all.
- 27 The lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.
- 28 But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him one hundred denarii, and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me what you owe!
- 29 So his fellow-servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will repay you.
- 30 He would not, but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay back that which was due.
- 31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told to their lord all that was done.
- 32 Then his lord called him in, and said to him, You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me.
- 33 Shouldn't you also have had mercy on your fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on you?
- 34 His lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to him.
- 35 So will my heavenly Father also do to you, if you don't each forgive his brother from your hearts for his misdeeds."
- 1 It happened when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan.
- 2 Great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.
- 3 Pharisees came to him, testing him, and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?"
- 4 He answered, "Haven't you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female,
- 5 and said, For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife; and the two will become one flesh?"

- 6 So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let man tear apart."
- 7 They asked him, "Why then did Moses command us to give her a bill of divorce, and divorce her?"
- 8 He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so.
- 9 I tell you that whoever will put away his wife, except for sexual immorality, and will marry another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is put away commits adultery."
- 10 His disciples said to him, "If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry."
- 11 But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but they to whom it is given.
- 12 For there are eunuchs, who were born that way from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it."
- 13 Then little children were brought to him, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray; and the disciples rebuked them.
- 14 But Jesus said, "Allow the little children, and don't forbid them to come to me; for to such belongs the Kingdom of Heaven."
- 15 He laid his hands on them, and departed there.
- 16 Behold, one came to him and said, "Good teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?"
- 17 He said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."
- 18 He said to him, "Which ones?" Jesus said, "You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not offer false testimony.
- 19 Honor your father and mother. And, you shall love your neighbor as yourself."
- 20 The young man said to him, "All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?"
- 21 Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."
- 22 But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sad, for he was one who had great possessions.
- 23 Jesus said to his disciples, "Most assuredly I say to you, a rich man will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven with difficulty.
- 24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."
- 25 When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"
- 26 Looking at them, Jesus said, "With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible."
- 27 Then Peter answered, "Behold, we have left everything, and followed you. What then will we have?"
- 28 Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 29 Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life.
- 30 But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.

1 "For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who was the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.

2 When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 He went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace.

4 To them he said, You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you. So they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 About the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle. He said to them, Why do you stand here all day idle?

7 They said to him, Because no one has hired us. He said to them, You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.

8 When evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his steward, Call the laborers and pay them their hire, beginning from the last to the first.

9 When they who were hired at about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius.

10 When the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise each received a denarius.

11 When they received it, they murmured against the master of the household,

12 saying, These last have spent one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat!

13 But he answered one of them, Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Didn't you agree with me for a denarius?

14 Take that which is yours, and go your way. It is my will to give to this last just as much as to you.

15 Isn't it lawful for me to do what I want to with what I own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?

16 So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen."

17 As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them,

18 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death,

19 and will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to crucify; and the third day he will be raised up."

20 Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, kneeling and asking a certain thing of him.

21 He said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Command that these, my two sons, may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your kingdom."

22 But Jesus answered, "You don't know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They said to him, "We are able."

23 He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with, but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give; but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

24 When the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation concerning the two brothers.

25 But Jesus called them to him, and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

26 It shall not be so among you, but whoever would become great among you will be your servant.
27 Whoever would be first among you will be your bondservant,
28 even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."
29 As they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.
30 Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out,
"Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!"
31 The multitude rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they cried out even more,
"Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!"
32 Jesus stood still, and called them, and asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"
33 They told him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened."
34 Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

1 When they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethsphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,
2 saying to them, "Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me.
3 If anyone says anything to you, you will say, The Lord needs them, and immediately he will send them."
4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,
5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your King comes to you, Humble, and riding on a donkey, On a colt, the foal of a donkey."
6 The disciples went, and did just as Jesus commanded them,
7 and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their clothes on them; and he sat on them.
8 A very great multitude spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road.
9 The multitudes who went before him, and who followed, cried, "Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"
10 When he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?"
11 The multitudes said, "This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee."
12 Jesus entered into the temple of God, and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money-changers tables, and the seats of those who sold the doves.
13 He said to them, "It is written, My house will be called a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of robbers!"
14 The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.
15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David!" they were moved with indignation,
16 and said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them, "Yes. Did you never read, Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise? "
17 He left them, and went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.
18 Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry.
19 Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, "Let there be no fruit from you forever!" Immediately the fig tree withered away.

20 When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?"

21 Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, if you have faith, and don't doubt, you will not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if you will tell this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it will be done.

22 All things, whatever you will ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

23 When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

24 Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?" They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we will say, 'From heaven,' he will tell us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'

26 But if we will say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet."

27 They answered Jesus, and said, "We don't know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.'

29 He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he repented himself, and went.

30 He came to the second, and said likewise. He answered, 'I go, sir,' but he didn't go.

31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to him, "The first." Jesus says to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

33 "Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country.

34 When the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive his fruits.

35 The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first; and they did to them in like manner.

37 But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

38 But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and seize his inheritance.'

39 So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

40 When therefore the lord of the vineyard will come, what will he do to those farmers?"

41 They told him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give him the fruits in their seasons."

42 Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner. This was from the Lord. It is marvelous in our eyes?'

43 "Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and will be given to a nation bringing forth its fruits.

44 He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whoever it will fall, it will scatter him as dust."

45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke of them.
46 When they sought to lay hold on him, they feared the multitudes, because they took him for a prophet.
1 Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying,
2 "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son,
3 and sent forth his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come.
4 Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have made ready my dinner. My oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast."
5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise,
6 and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them.
7 But the king was angry, and he sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.
8 Then he said to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they who were invited were not worthy.
9 Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.
10 Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests.
11 But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding-clothing,
12 and he said to him, Friend, how did you come in here not having wedding-clothing? He was speechless.
13 Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.
14 For many are called, but few chosen."
15 Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk.
16 They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter who you teach, for you aren't partial to anyone.
17 Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites?
19 Show me the tax money." They brought to him a denarius.
20 He asked them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"
21 They said to him, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."
22 When they heard it, they marveled, and left him, and went away.
23 On that day Sadducees (those who say that there is no resurrection) came to him. They asked him,
24 saying, "Teacher, Moses said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother will marry his wife, and raise up seed for his brother.
25 Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no seed left his wife to his brother.
26 In like manner the second also, and the third, to the seventh.
27 After them all, the woman died.
28 In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her."
29 But Jesus answered them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like God's angels in heaven.

31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,

32 "I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

33 When the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching.

34 But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together.

35 One of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him.

36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?"

37 Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 A second likewise is this, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

40 The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "Of David."

42 He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

43 The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand, Until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet?

44 "If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?"

45 No one was able to answer him a word, neither dared any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

1 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to his disciples,

2 saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat.

3 All things therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but don't do their works; for they say, and don't do.

4 For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to help them.

5 But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad, enlarge the fringes of their garments,

6 and love the chief place at feasts, the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called Rabbi, Rabbi by men.

8 But don't you be called Rabbi, for one is your teacher, the Christ, and all of you are brothers.

9 Call no man on the earth your father, for one is your Father, he who is in heaven.

10 Neither be called masters, for one is your master, the Christ.

11 But he who is greatest among you will be your servant.

12 Whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever will humble himself will be exalted.

13 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and as a pretense you make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.

- 14 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for you don't enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter.
- 15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much of a son of Gehenna as yourselves.
- 16 Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, "Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.
- 17 You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold?
- 18 "Whoever will swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever will swear by the gift that is on it, he is a debtor.
- 19 You blind fools! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift?
- 20 He therefore who swears by the altar, swears by it, and by everything on it.
- 21 He who swears by the temple, swears by it, and by him who is living in it.
- 22 He who swears by the heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.
- 23 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cumin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law - justice, mercy, and faith. But you ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone.
- 24 You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel!
- 25 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and unrighteousness.
- 26 You blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside of it may become clean also.
- 27 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.
- 28 Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
- 29 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous,
- 30 and say, "If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
- 31 Therefore you testify to yourselves that you are sons of those who killed the prophets.
- 32 Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers.
- 33 You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of Gehenna?
- 34 Therefore, behold, I send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes. Some of them will you kill and crucify; and some of them will you scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city;
- 35 that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the sanctuary and the altar.
- 36 Most assuredly I tell you, all these things will come on this generation.
- 37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and you would not!
- 38 Behold, your house is left to you desolate.
- 39 For I tell you, you will not see me from now on, until you will say, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. "

- 1 Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way. His disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple.
- 2 But he answered them, "Don't you see all of these things? Most assuredly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down."
- 3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the world?"
- 4 Jesus answered them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray.
- 5 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ, and will lead many astray.
- 6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you aren't troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet.
- 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places.
- 8 But all these things are the beginning of birth pains.
- 9 Then they will deliver you up to oppression, and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name's sake.
- 10 Then will many stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another.
- 11 Many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray.
- 12 Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold.
- 13 But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.
- 14 This gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.
- 15 When, therefore, you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand),
- 16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.
- 17 Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in his house.
- 18 Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak.
- 19 But woe to those who are with child and to nursing mothers in those days!
- 20 Pray that your flight will not be in the winter, nor on a Sabbath,
- 21 for then will be great oppression, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be.
- 22 Except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the elect's sake, those days will be shortened.
- 23 Then if any man will tell you, 'Behold, here is the Christ, or, 'There, don't believe it.
- 24 For there will arise false Christs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.
- 25 Behold, I have told you beforehand.
- 26 If therefore they tell you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness!' don't go out; 'Behold, he is in the inner chambers, don't believe it.
- 27 For as the lightning comes forth from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.
- 28 For wherever the carcass is, there will the vultures be gathered together.
- 29 But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give her light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;

30 and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory.

31 He will send forth his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

32 "Now from the fig tree learn her parable. When its branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near.

33 Even so you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Most assuredly I tell you, this generation will not pass away, until all these things are accomplished.

35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

36 But no one knows of that day and hour, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 As the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

38 For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark,

39 and they didn't know until the flood came, and took them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

40 Then will two men be in the field: one is taken, and one is left;

41 two women grinding at the mill, one is taken, and one is left.

42 Watch therefore, for you don't know in what hour your Lord comes.

43 But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into.

44 Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you don't expect, the Son of Man will come.

45 Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give them their food in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord will find doing so when he comes.

47 Most assuredly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has.

48 But if that evil servant should say in his heart, My lord is delaying his coming,

49 and began to beat his fellow-servants, and eat and drink with the drunken,

50 the lord of that servant will come in a day when he doesn't expect it, and in an hour when he doesn't know it,

51 and will cut him in pieces, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.

1 "Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 Five of them were foolish, and five were wise.

3 Those who were foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them,

4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 Now while the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept.

6 But at midnight there was a cry, Behold! The bridegroom is coming! Come out to meet him!

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 The foolish said to the wise, Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, What if there will not be enough for us and you? You go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.

- 10 While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut.
- 11 Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.
- 12 But he answered, Most assuredly I tell you, I don't know you.
- 13 Watch therefore, for you don't know the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.
- 14 "For it is like a man, going into another country, who called his own servants, and delivered his goods to them.
- 15 To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his own ability, and he went on his journey.
- 16 Immediately he who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents.
- 17 In like manner he also who got the two gained another two.
- 18 But he who received the one went away and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money.
- 19 Now after a long time the lord of those servants came, and reconciled accounts with them.
- 20 He who received the five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, Lord, you delivered to me five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents besides them.
- 21 His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.
- 22 He also who got the two talents came and said, Lord, you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides them.
- 23 His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.
- 24 He also who had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter.
- 25 I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have your own.
- 26 But his lord answered him, You wicked and slothful servant. You knew that I reap where I didn't sow, and gather where I didn't scatter.
- 27 You ought therefore to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest.
- 28 Take away therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents.
- 29 For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who has not, even that which he has will be taken away.
- 30 Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness; there will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.
- 31 "But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then will he sit on the throne of his glory.
- 32 Before him all the nations will be gathered, and he will separate them one from another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.
- 33 He will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.
- 34 Then the King will tell them on his right hand, Come, blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;
- 35 for I was hungry, and you gave me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me drink; I was a stranger, and you took me in;
- 36 naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you visited me; I was in prison, and you came to me.

37 Then the righteous will answer him, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry, and feed you; or thirsty, and give you a drink?

38 When did we see you as a stranger, and take you in; or naked, and clothe you?

39 When did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?

40 The King will answer them, Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.

41 Then will he say also to them on the left hand, Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels;

42 for I was hungry, and you didn't give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink;

43 I was a stranger, and you didn't take me in; naked, and you didn't clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn't visit me.

44 Then will they also answer, saying, Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not help you?

45 Then will he answer them, saying, Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you didn't do it to one of these least, you didn't do it to me.

46 These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

1 It happened, when Jesus had finished all these words, that he said to his disciples,

2 "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

3 Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas.

4 They took counsel together that they might take Jesus by deceit, and kill him.

5 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest a riot occur among the people."

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor."

10 But Jesus, knowing this, said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for me.

11 For you always have the poor with you; but you don't always have me.

12 For in that she poured this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.

13 Most assuredly I tell you, wherever this gospel will be preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her."

14 Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests,

15 and said, "What are you willing to give me, and I will deliver him to you?" They weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver.

16 From that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

18 He said, "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, The Teacher says, 'My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'" "

19 The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover.

20 Now when evening had come, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples.
21 As they were eating, he said, "Most assuredly I tell you, that one of you will betray me."
22 They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, "It isn't me, is it, Lord?"
23 He answered, "He who dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me.
24 The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."
25 Judas, who betrayed him, answered, "It isn't me, is it, Rabbi?" He said to him, "So you have said."
26 As they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body."
27 He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, "Drink all of it,
28 for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins.
29 But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's kingdom."
30 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
31 Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be offended by me tonight, for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered abroad.
32 But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."
33 But Peter answered him, "Even if all will be offended by you, I will never be offended."
34 Jesus said to him, "Most assuredly I tell you, that tonight, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."
35 Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you." All of the disciples also said likewise.
36 Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go there and pray."
37 He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled.
38 Then he said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me."
39 He went forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not what I want, but what you want."
40 He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What, couldn't you watch with me for one hour?
41 Watch and pray, that you don't enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."
42 Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup can't pass away from me, unless I drink it, your will be done."
43 He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.
44 He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words.
45 Then he came to his disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
46 Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."
47 While he was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priest and elders of the people.

48 Now he who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, "Whoever I will kiss, that is he. Take him."
49 Immediately he came to Jesus, and said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed him.
50 Jesus said to him, "Friend, why are you here?" Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.
51 Behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear.
52 Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword.
53 Or do you think that I can't ask my Father, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels?
54 How then would the scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?"
55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me.
56 But all this has happened, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him, and fled.
57 Those who had taken Jesus led him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.
58 But Peter followed him from a distance, to the court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with the officers, to see the end.
59 Now the chief priests, the elders, and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus, that they might put him to death;
60 and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward,
61 and said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'"
62 The high priest stood up, and answered him, "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?"
63 But Jesus held his peace. The high priest said to him, "I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God."
64 Jesus said to him, "You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, henceforth you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky."
65 Then the high priest tore his clothing, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy.
66 What do you think?" They answered, "He is worthy of death!"
67 Then they spit in his face and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him,
68 saying, "Prophesy to us, you Christ! Who hit you?"
69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the court, and a maid came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus, the Galilean."
70 But he denied before them all, saying, "I don't know what you are talking about."
71 When he had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him, and said to those who were there, "This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth."
72 Again he denied with an oath, "I don't know the man."
73 After a little while those who stood by came and said to Peter, "Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you known."
74 Then began he to curse and to swear, "I don't know the man!" Immediately the cock crowed.

75 Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said to him, "Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." He went out and wept bitterly.

1 Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor.

3 Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 saying, "I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it."

5 He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. He went away and hanged himself.

6 The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood."

7 They took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Therefore that field was called "The Field of Blood" to this day.

9 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him who was priced, whom some of the children of Israel did price, and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."

11 Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said to him, "So you say."

12 When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?"

14 He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at the feast the governor used to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they wanted.

16 They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?"

18 For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him."

20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 But the governor answered them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "Barabbas!"

22 Pilate said to them, "What then will I do to Jesus, who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!"

23 But the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, saying, "Let him be crucified!"

24 So when Pilate saw that nothing was gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it."

25 All the people answered, "May his blood be on us, and on our children!"

26 Then he released to them Barabbas, but Jesus he flogged and delivered to be crucified.

27 Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered to him the whole cohort.

28 They stripped him, and put a scarlet robe on him.

29 They braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

30 They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head.

31 When they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross.

33 They came to a place called "Golgotha," that is to say, "The place of a skull."

34 They gave him sour wine to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink.

35 When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots, 36 and they sat and watched him there.

37 They set up over his head his accusation written, "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

38 Then there were two robbers crucified with him, one on his right hand and one on the left.

39 Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads,

40 and saying, "You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"

41 Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes, the Pharisees, and the elders, said, 42 "He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him.

43 He trusts in God. Let him deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.' "

44 The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.

46 About the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" That is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

47 Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, "This man calls Elijah."

48 Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him a drink.

49 The rest said, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to save him."

50 Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit.

51 Behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split.

52 The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised;

53 and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many.

54 Now the centurion, and those who were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God."

55 Many women were there watching from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him,

56 among whom was Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 When evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple.

58 This man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up.

59 Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.

61 Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

62 Now on the next day, which is the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, 63 saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, He is risen from the dead; and the last deception will be worse than the first."

65 Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can."

66 So they went, and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

1 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.

2 Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it.

3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.

4 For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men.

5 The angel answered the women, "Don't be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified.

6 He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying.

7 Go quickly and tell his disciples, He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you will see him. Behold, I have told you."

8 They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.

9 As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" They came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

10 Then Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go tell my brothers that they may go into Galilee, and there they will see me."

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened.

12 When they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers, 13 saying, "Say that his disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 If this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and make you free of worry."

15 So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continues until this day.

16 But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had sent them.

17 When they saw him, they bowed down to him, but some doubted.

18 Jesus came to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth.

19 Go, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all things which I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

2 As it is written in the prophets, "Behold, I send my messenger before your face, Who will prepare your way before you.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make ready the way of the Lord, Make his paths straight. "

4 John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching the baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins.

5 There went out to him all the country of Judea, and all those of Jerusalem. They were baptized by him in the Jordan river, confessing their sins.

6 John was clothed with camel s hair and a leather belt around his loins. He ate locusts and wild honey.

7 He preached, saying, "After me comes he who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen.

8 I baptized you in water, but he will baptize you in the Holy Spirit."

9 It happened in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

10 Immediately coming up from the water, he saw the heavens parting, and the Spirit descending on him like a dove.

11 A voice came out of the sky, "You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

12 Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness.

13 He was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals. The angels ministered to him.

14 Now after John was taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand! Repent, and believe in the gospel."

16 Passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea, for they were fishermen.

17 Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men."

18 Immediately they left their nets, and followed him.

19 Going on a little further from there, he saw James, the son of Zebedee, and John, his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets.

20 Immediately he called them, and they left their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 They went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught.

22 They were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

23 Immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out,

24 saying, "Ha! What do we have to do with you, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God."

25 Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!"

26 The unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

27 They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."

28 The report of him went out immediately everywhere into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area.

29 Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her.

31 He came and took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them.

32 At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed with demons.

33 All the city was gathered together at the door.

34 He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He didn't allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

35 Early in the night, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and there prayed.

36 Simon and those who were with him followed after him;

37 and they found him, and told him, "All are seeking you."

38 He said to them, "Let's go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also, for to this end I came forth."

39 He went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons.

40 There came to him a leper, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saying to him, "If you want to, you can make me clean."

41 Being moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and said to him, "I want to. Be made clean."

42 When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean.

43 He strictly charged him, and immediately sent him out,

44 and said to him, "See you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

45 But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places; and they came to him from everywhere.

1 When he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that he was in the house.

2 Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the word to them.

3 Four people came, carrying a paralytic to him.

4 When they could not come near to him for the crowd, they removed the roof where he was. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was laying on.

5 Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

6 But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 "Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? He blasphemeth! Who can forgive sins but one - God?"

8 Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts?

9 Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?'

10 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" -- he said to the paralytic,

11 "I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house."

12 He arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

13 He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them.

14 As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the place of toll, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.

15 It happened, that he was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him.

16 The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

17 When Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

18 John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don't fast?"

19 Jesus said to them, "Can the sons of the bride chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can't fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day.

21 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made.

22 No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins."

23 It happened, that he was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.

24 The Pharisees said to him, "Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?"

25 He said to them, "Did you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they who were with him?

26 How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the show bread, which it is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?"

27 He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.

28 Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath."

1 He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered.

2 They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.

3 He said to the man who had his hand withered, "Stand up."

4 He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" But they were silent.

5 When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other.

6 The Pharisees went out, and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 Jesus withdrew to the sea with his disciples, and a great multitude followed him from Galilee, from Judea,
8 from Jerusalem, from Idumaea, beyond the Jordan, and those from around Tyre and Sidon. A great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came to him.
9 He spoke to his disciples, that a little boat should stay near him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn't press on him.
10 For he had healed many, so that as many as had diseases pressed on him that they might touch him.
11 The unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, "You are the Son of God!"
12 He sternly warned them that they should not make him known.
13 He went up into the mountain, and called to himself whom he wanted, and they went to him.
14 He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach,
15 and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons:
16 Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter;
17 James the son of Zebedee; John, the brother of James, and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is,
Sons of thunder;
18 Andrew; Philip; Bartholomew; Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddaeus; Simon
the Zealot;
19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. He came into a house.
20 The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.
21 When his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him; for they said, "He is insane."
22 The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebub," and, "By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons."
23 He called them to him, and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan?
24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
25 If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.
26 If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he can't stand, but has an end.
27 But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house.
28 Most assuredly I tell you, all their sins will be forgiven to the sons of men, and their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme;
29 but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"
30 -- because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."
31 His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him.
32 A multitude was sitting around him, and they told him, "Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters are outside looking for you."
33 He answered them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"
34 Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers!
35 For whoever may do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother."
1 Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea.
2 He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching,

3 Listen! Behold, the farmer went forth to sow,
4 and it happened, as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and devoured it.
5 Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil.
6 When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.
7 Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.
8 Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some brought forth thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much."
9 He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."
10 When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables.
11 He said to them, "To you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables,
12 that seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them. " 13 He said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables?
14 The farmer sows the word.
15 These are they by the road, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them.
16 These in like manner are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy.
17 They have no root in themselves, but endure for a while, then, when oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble.
18 Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word,
19 and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
20 These are those who were sown on the good ground: such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times." 21 He said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket or under the bed? Isn't it put on the lampstand?
22 For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light.
23 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."
24 He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear.
25 For whoever has, to him will more be given, and he who has not, from him will be taken away even that which he has."
26 He said, "So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed on the earth, 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he doesn't know how.
28 For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.
29 But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts forth the sickle, because the harvest has come."
30 He said, "How will we liken the kingdom of God? Or by what parable will we compare it?
31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth,

32 yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow.”

33 ¶ With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.

34 ¶ Without a parable he didn't speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained all things.

35 On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, “Let's go over to the other side.”

36 ¶ Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him.

37 ¶ There arose a great wind storm, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled.

38 ¶ He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, “Teacher, don't you care that we are dying?”

39 ¶ He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace. Be still.” The wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 ¶ He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?”

41 ¶ They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

1 ¶ They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 ¶ When he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 who had his dwelling in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains,

4 because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him.

5 ¶ Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones.

6 ¶ When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down to him,

7 and crying out with a loud voice, he said, “What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me.”

8 ¶ For he said to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

9 ¶ He asked him, “What is your name?” He said to him, “My name is Legion, for we are many.”

10 ¶ He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 ¶ Now there was there on the mountainside a great herd of pigs feeding.

12 ¶ All the demons begged him, saying, “Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them.”

13 ¶ At once Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out, and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea.

14 ¶ Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. The people came to see what it was that had happened.

15 ¶ They came to Jesus, and saw him who was possessed by demons sitting, clothed and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid.

16 ¶ Those who saw it declared to them how it happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs.

17 ¶ They began to beg him to depart from their borders.

18 ¶ As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him.

19 He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them how the Lord has done great things for you, and how he had mercy on you."

20 He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.

21 When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea.

22 Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet,

23 and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live."

24 He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides.

25 A certain woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years,

26 and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse,

27 having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes.

28 For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well."

29 Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her plague.

30 Immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone forth from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

31 His disciples said to him, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?' "

32 He looked around to see her who had done this thing.

33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease."

35 While he was still speaking, they came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?"

36 But Jesus, not heeding the word spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe."

37 He allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.

38 He came to the synagogue ruler's house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing.

39 When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep."

40 They laughed him to scorn. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child and her mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying.

41 Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha cumi;" which means, being interpreted, "Young lady, I tell you, get up."

42 Immediately the young lady rose up, and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement.

43 He charged them much that no one should know this. He commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

1 He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him.

2 When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands?"

3 Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" They were offended by him.

4 Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house."

5 He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick folk, and healed them. He marveled because of their unbelief. He went around the villages teaching.

6 He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

7 He charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse,

8 but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics.

9 He said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there.

10 Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

11 They went out, and preached that people should repent.

12 They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them.

13 King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, "John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers work in him."

14 But others said, "It is Elijah." Others said, "It is the Prophet, or like one of the prophets."

15 But Herod, when he heard this, said, "This is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead."

16 For Herod himself had sent out and laid hold on John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, for he had married her.

17 For John said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

18 Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn't,

19 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.

20 When a convenient day had come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his lords, and the high captains, and the chief men of Galilee;

21 and when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those reclining with him. The king said to the young lady, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you."

22 He swore to her, "Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."

23 She went out, and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" She said, "The head of John the Baptizer."

24 She came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptizer on a platter."

25 The king was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths, and of his dinner guests, he didn't wish to refuse her.

26 Immediately the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring John's head, and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young lady gave it to her mother.

29 When his disciples heard this, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 The apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught.

31 He said to them, "You come apart into a desert place, and rest awhile." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 They went away in the boat to a desert place by themselves.

33 They saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him.

34 Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.

35 When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, "This place is a desert, and it is late in the day.

36 Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat."

37 But he answered them, "You give them something to eat." They asked him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them something to eat?"

38 He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go see." When they knew, they said, "Five, and two fish."

39 He commanded those that all should sit down by companies on the green grass.

40 They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties.

41 He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided the two fish among them all.

42 They all ate, and were filled.

43 They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish.

44 Those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

45 Immediately he made his disciples enter into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself sent the multitude away.

46 After he had taken leave of them, he departed into the mountain to pray.

47 When evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he was alone on the land.

48 Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them; and about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, and he would have passed by them,

49 but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;

50 for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid."

51 He went up to them into the boat; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled.

52 for they hadn't understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

53 When they had crossed over, they came to the land to Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.

54 When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him,

55 and ran around that whole region, and began to carry around those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was.

56 Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

1 Then the Pharisees, and some of the scribes gathered together to him, having come from Jerusalem.

2 Now when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is, unwashed, hands, they found fault.

3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, don't eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the tradition of the elders.

4 They don't eat when they come from the marketplace, unless they bathe themselves, and there are many other things, which they have received to hold to: washings of cups, pitchers, bronze vessels, and couches.)

5 The Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why don't your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unwashed hands?"

6 He answered them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors me with their lips, But their heart is far from me.

7 But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.

8 "For you set aside the commandment of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of men -- the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things."

9 He said to them, "Full well do you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honor your father and your mother; and, He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.

11 But you say, If a man will tell his father or his mother, "Whatever you might have been profited by me is Corban, that is to say, given to God;"

12 and you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother,

13 making void the word of God by your tradition, which you have handed down. You do many things like this."

14 He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand.

15 There is nothing from outside of the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.

16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"

17 When he had entered into the house from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable.

18 He said to them, "Are you so without understanding also? Don't you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can't defile him, 19 because it doesn't go into his heart, but into his belly, and into the latrine, thus making all foods clean?"

20 He said, "That which proceeds out of the man, that defiles the man.

21 For from within, out of the hearts of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, 22 covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness.

23 All these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man."

24 From there he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and wanted no one to know it, but he couldn't escape detection.

25 For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet.

26 Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

28 But she answered him, "Yes, Lord. For even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

29 He said to her, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

30 She went away to her house, and found the child laying on the bed, with the demon gone out.

31 Again he departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis.

32 They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him.

33 He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue.

34 Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!"

35 Immediately his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke clearly.

36 He charged them that they should tell no one, but the more he charged them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it.

37 They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!"

1 In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to himself, and said to them,

2 "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat.

3 If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way."

4 His disciples answered him, "From where will one be able to fill these men with bread here in a desert place?"

5 He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven."

6 He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude.

7 They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also.

8 They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

9 Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away.

10 Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanutha.

11 The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking a sign from heaven from him, and tempting him.

12 He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Most assuredly I tell you, there will no sign be given to this generation."

13 He left them, and again entering into the boat, departed to the other side.

14 They forgot to take bread; and they didn't have more than one loaf in the boat with them.

15 He charged them, saying, "Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

16 They reasoned with one another, saying, "It's because we have no bread."

17 Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, "Why do you reason that it's because you have no bread? Don't you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened?"

18 Having eyes, don't you see? Having ears, don't you hear? Don't you remember?
19 When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They told him, "Twelve."
20 "When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They told him, "Seven."
21 He asked them, "Don't you understand, yet?"
22 He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him.
23 He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.
24 He looked up, and said, "I see men; for I see them like trees walking."
25 Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly.
26 He sent him away to his house, saying, "Don't enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."
27 Jesus went forth, with his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, "Who do men say that I am?"
28 They told him, "John the Baptizer, and others, Elijah, but others, one of the prophets."
29 He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Christ."
30 He charged them that they should tell no one about him.
31 He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.
32 He spoke to them openly. Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.
33 But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men."
34 He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.
36 For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?
37 For what should a man give in exchange for his life?
38 For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."
1 He said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death, until they see the kingdom of God come with power."
2 After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them.
3 His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.
4 Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.
5 Peter answered Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
6 For he didn't know what to say, for they were very afraid.
7 A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

8 Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except Jesus only.
9 As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen again from the dead.
10 They kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean.
11 They asked him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
12 He said to them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised?
13 But I tell you, that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him."
14 Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them.
15 Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him.
16 He asked the scribes, "What are you asking them?"
17 One of the multitude answered, "Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit;
18 and wherever it seizes him, it dashes him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able."
19 He answered them, "Unbelieving generation, how long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him to me."
20 They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.
21 He asked his father, "How long has it been since this has come to him?" He said, "From childhood.
22 Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us."
23 Jesus said to him, "If you can believe? All things are possible to him who believes."
24 Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, "I believe. Help my unbelief!"
25 When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and enter no more into him!"
26 Having cried out, and convulsed him greatly, it came out. The boy became like one dead; so much that most of them said, "He is dead."
27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.
28 When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we cast it out?"
29 He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting."
30 They went forth from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn't want anyone to know it.
31 For he taught his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again."
32 But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.
33 He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?"
34 But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.
35 He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he will be last of all, and servant of all."
36 He took a little child, and set him in the midst of them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them,

37 "Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him who sent me."

38 John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow us."

39 But Jesus said, "Don't forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me.

40 For whoever is not against us is on our side.

41 For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ's, most assuredly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward.

42 Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire,

44 where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.

45 If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire that will never be quenched --

46 where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.

47 If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire,

48 where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.

50 Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

1 He arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he taught them again.

2 There came to him Pharisees testing him, and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

3 He answered, "What did Moses command you?"

4 They said, "Moses allowed a bill of divorce to be written, and to divorce her."

5 But Jesus said to them, "For your hardness of heart, he wrote you this commandment.

6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.

7 For this cause will a man leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife,

8 and the two will become one flesh, so that they are no longer two, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

10 In the house, his disciples asked him again about the same matter.

11 He said to them, "Whoever will divorce his wife, and marry another, commits adultery against her.

12 If a woman herself divorces her husband, and marries another, she commits adultery."

13 They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me! Don't forbid them, for to such belong the kingdom of God.

15 Most assuredly I tell you, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he will in no way enter therein."

16 He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

17 As he was going forth into the way, one ran to him, kneeled to him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

18 Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one -- God.

19 You know the commandments: Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not give false testimony, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. "

20 He said to him, "Teacher, all these things have I observed from my youth."

21 Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."

22 But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions.

23 Jesus looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!"

24 The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."

26 They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?"

27 Jesus, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."

28 Peter began to tell him, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you."

29 Jesus said, "Most assuredly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the gospel's sake,

30 but he will receive one hundred times now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life.

31 But many who are first will be last; and the last first."

32 They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him.

33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles.

34 They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again."

35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."

36 He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

37 They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and one at your left hand, in your glory."

38 But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

39 They said to him, "We are able." Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with;

40 but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

41 When the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation towards James and John.

42 Jesus called them to him, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

43 But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you, will be your servant.
44 Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be servant of all.
45 For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
46 They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road.
47 When he heard that it was Jesus, the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, “Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!”
48 Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out the more a great deal, “You son of David, have mercy on me!”
49 Jesus stood still, and said, “Call him.” They called the blind man, saying to him, “Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you.”
50 He, casting away his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.
51 Jesus answered him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “Rhabboni, that I may see again.”
52 Jesus said to him, “Go your way. Your faith has made you well.” Immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.
1 When they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,
2 and said to them, “Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him.
3 If anyone asks you, Why are you doing this? say, The Lord needs him; and immediately he will send him back here.”
4 They went away, and found a colt tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him.
5 Some of those who stood there asked them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”
6 They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go.
7 They brought the colt to Jesus, and threw their garments on him, and Jesus sat on him.
8 Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and spreading them on the road.
9 Those who went in front, and those who followed, cried, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”
11 Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.
12 The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry.
13 Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.
14 Jesus told it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” and his disciples heard it.
15 They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves.
16 He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple.

17 He taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations? But you have made it a den of robbers!"

18 The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, for all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

19 When evening came, he went forth out of the city.

20 As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots.

21 Peter, remembering, said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away."

22 Jesus answering said to them, "Have faith in God.

23 For most assuredly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, Be taken up and cast into the sea, and doesn't doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says happens; he shall have whatever he says.

24 Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.

25 Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions.

26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions."

27 They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him,

28 and they were asking him, "By what authority do you these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"

29 Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me."

31 They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we should say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did you not believe him?

32 If we should say, From men -- they feared the people, for all held John to really be a prophet.

33 They answered Jesus, "We don't know." Jesus said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

1 He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, set a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country.

2 When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated.

5 Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some.

6 Therefore he had yet one, a beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, They will respect my son.

7 But those farmers said among themselves, This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.

8 They took him, killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard.

9 What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.

10 Haven't you even read this scripture: The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner.

11 This was from the Lord, It is marvelous in our eyes ?"

12 They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away.

13 They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might catch him in words.

14 When they had come, they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

15 "Shall we give, or shall we not give?" But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."

16 They brought it. He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?" They said to him, "Caesar's."

17 Jesus answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." They marveled greatly at him.

18 There came to him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying,

19 "Teacher, Moses wrote to us, 'If a man's brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up children to his brother.'

20 There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no children.

21 The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise;

22 and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died.

23 In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife."

24 Jesus answered them, "Isn't this because you are mistaken, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God?"

25 For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

26 But about the dead, that they are raised; haven't you read in the book of Moses, at the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?'

27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken."

28 One of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, "What commandment is the greatest of all?"

29 Jesus answered, "The greatest is, 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one:

30 you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength. This is the primary commandment.

31 The second is like this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.'

32 The scribe said to him, "Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he,

33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34 When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." No one dared ask him any question after that.

35 Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?"

36 For David himself said in the Holy Spirit, 'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.'

37 Therefore David himself calls him Lord, so how can he be his son? The common people heard him gladly.

38 In his teaching he said to them, "Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces,

39 and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts:

40 those who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

41 Jesus sat down opposite the treasury, and saw how the multitude cast money into the treasury. Many who were rich cast in much.

42 There came a poor widow, and she cast in two lepta, which make a quadrans.

43 He called his disciples to himself, and said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, this poor widow gave more than all those who are giving into the treasury,

44 for they all gave out of their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, gave all that she had to live on."

1 As he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!"

2 Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down."

3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,

4 "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be accomplished?"

5 Jesus, answering, began to tell them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray.

6 For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and will lead many astray.

7 When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet.

8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains.

9 But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. Before governors and kings will you stand for my sake, for a testimony to them.

10 The gospel must first be preached to all the nations.

11 When they lead you away and deliver you up, don't be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.

12 "Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.

13 You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.

14 But when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains,

15 and let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house.

16 Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak.

17 But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babies in those days!

18 Pray that your flight won't be in the winter.

19 For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be.

20 Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days.

21 Then if anyone tells you, Look, here is the Christ! or, Look, there! don't believe it.

22 For there will arise false Christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, also the elect.

23 But you watch. "Behold, I have told you all things beforehand.

24 But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give her light,

25 the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.

26 Then will they see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

27 Then will he send forth his angels, and will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.

28 "Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near;

29 even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors.

30 Most assuredly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things are accomplished.

31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

32 But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but only the Father.

33 Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is.

34 "It is like a man, traveling to another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch.

35 Watch therefore, for you don't know when the Lord of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning;

36 lest coming suddenly he might find you sleeping.

37 What I tell you, I tell all: Watch."

1 It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by deception, and kill him.

2 For they said, "Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people."

3 While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, there came a woman having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard -- very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head.

4 But there were some who had indignation among themselves, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted?

5 For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor." They grumbled against her.

6 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me.

7 For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me.

8 She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying.

9 Most assuredly I tell you, wherever this gospel may be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman has done will be spoken of for a memorial of her."

- 10 Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them.
- 11 They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him.
- 12 On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make ready that you may eat the Passover?"
- 13 He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him,
- 14 and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"
- 15 He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make ready for us there."
- 16 His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.
- 17 When it was evening he came with the twelve.
- 18 As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Most assuredly I tell you, one of you will betray me -- he who eats with me."
- 19 They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, "Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"
- 20 He answered them, "It is one of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish.
- 21 For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."
- 22 As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."
- 23 He took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them. They all drank of it.
- 24 He said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many.
- 25 Most assuredly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."
- 26 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
- 27 Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.
- 28 However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."
- 29 But Peter said to him, "Although all will be offended, yet I will not."
- 30 Jesus said to him, "Most assuredly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times."
- 31 But he spoke all the more, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." Likewise, they all said so.
- 32 They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I pray."
- 33 He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly alarmed and distressed.
- 34 He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."
- 35 He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him.
- 36 He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I want, but what you want."

37 He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch one hour?"

38 Watch and pray, that you not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39 Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words.

40 Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn't know what to answer him.

41 He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."

43 Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came -- and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.

44 Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whoever I will kiss, that is he. Take him, and lead him away safely."

45 When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, "Rabbi! Rabbi!" and kissed him.

46 They laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 Jesus answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me?"

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. But this is so that the scriptures might be fulfilled."

50 They all left him, and fled.

51 A certain young man followed with him, having a linen cloth thrown around him, over his naked body. The young men grabbed him, 52 but he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 They led Jesus away to the high priest. There came together with him all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes.

54 Peter had followed him afar off, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.

55 Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none.

56 For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony didn't agree with each other.

57 Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying,

58 "We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands. "

59 Even so their testimony did not agree.

60 The high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?"

61 But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"

62 Jesus said, "I AM. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."

63 The high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses?"

64 You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death.

65 Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him,
"Prophesy!" The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

66 As Peter was beneath in the court, one of the maids of the high priest came,
67 and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus."

68 But he denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." He went out into the porch, and the cock crowed.

69 The maid saw him, and began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them."
70 But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."

71 But he began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this man of whom you speak!"
72 The cock crowed the second time. Peter remembered the word, how that Jesus said to him, "Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about that, he wept.

1 Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate.

2 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered, "So you say."

3 The chief priests accused him of many things.

4 Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!"
5 But Jesus made no further answer, so Pilate marveled.

6 Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of him.

7 There was one called Barabbas, bound with those who had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder.

8 The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them.

9 Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"
10 For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up.

11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should release Barabbas to them instead.

12 Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?"
13 They cried out again, "Crucify him!"

14 Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify him!"
15 Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and delivered Jesus, when he had flogged him, to be crucified.

16 The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort.

17 They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him.

18 They began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

19 They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him.

20 When they had mocked him, they took the purple off of him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him.

21 They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross.

22 They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull."
23 They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't take it.

24 Crucifying him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots on them, what each should take.

25 It was the third hour, and they crucified him.
26 The superscription of his accusation was written over him, "THE KING OF THE JEWS."
27 With him they crucified two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left.
28 The scripture was fulfilled, which says, "He was numbered with transgressors."
29 Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, 30 save yourself, and come down from the cross!"
31 Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself.
32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him." Those who were crucified with him reproached him.
33 When the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
34 At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"
35 Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he calls Elijah."
36 One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to take him down."
37 Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit.
38 The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom.
39 When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"
40 There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;
41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.
42 When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath,
43 Joseph of Arimathaea, a member of the council of honorable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body.
44 Pilate marvelled if he were already dead; and calling to him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead for a while.
45 When he learned it from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.
46 He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.
47 Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joses, saw where he was laid.
1 When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.
2 Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.
3 They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"
4 for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back
5 Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed.
6 He said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they laid him!"

7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you. "

8 They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.

9 Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.

10 She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved.

12 After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country.

13 They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.

14 Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen him after he had risen.

15 He said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation.

16 He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned.

17 These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages;

18 they will take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

19 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.

20 They went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

1 Because many have undertaken to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us,

2 even as they delivered them to us, who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word,

3 it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus;

4 that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord.

7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years.

8 Now it happened, while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division, 9 according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.

10 The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

11 An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell on him.

13 But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John.

14 You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth.
15 For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb.
16 He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord, their God.
17 He will go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."
18 Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."
19 The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news.
20 Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."
21 The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled while he delayed in the temple.
22 When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute.
23 It happened, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house.
24 After these days Elizabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying,
25 "Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men."
26 Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,
27 to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.
28 Having come in to her, the angel said, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women!"
29 But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be.
30 The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.
31 Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name JESUS.
32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give to him the throne of his father, David,
33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end of his kingdom."
34 Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, seeing I am a virgin?"
35 The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one which is born from you will be called the Son of God.
36 Behold, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.
37 For no word from God will be void of power."
38 Mary said, "Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word." The angel departed from her.
39 Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah,
40 and entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.
41 It happened, when Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

42 She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
43 Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
44 For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy!
45 Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!"
46 Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord.
47 My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, 48 For he has looked at the humble state of his handmaid. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.
49 For he who is mighty has done to me great things; Holy is his name.
50 His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him.
51 He has shown strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart.
52 He has put down princes from their thrones. Has exalted the lowly.
53 He has filled the hungry with good things. He has sent the rich away empty.
54 He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy
55 (As he spoke to our fathers) Toward Abraham and his seed forever."
56 Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her house.
57 Now the time that Elizabeth should give birth was fulfilled, and she brought forth a son.
58 Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her.
59 It happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him
Zacharias, after the name of the father.
60 His mother answered, "Not so; but he will be called John."
61 They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."
62 They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.
63 He asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John." They all marveled.
64 His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God.
65 Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea.
66 All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What then will this child be?" The hand of the Lord was with him.
67 His father, Zacharias, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,
68 "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, For he has visited and worked redemption for his people;
69 Has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David 70 (As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets who have been from of old),
71 Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;
72 To show mercy towards our fathers, To remember his holy covenant,
73 The oath which he spoke to Abraham, our father, 74 To grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear,
75 In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

76 And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, For you will go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways,
77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins,
78 Because of the tender mercy of our God, Whereby the dawn from on high will visit us,
79 To shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death; To guide our feet into the way of peace.”
80 The child grew, and grew strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Israel.
1 Now it happened in those days, that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled.
2 This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.
3 All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city.
4 Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David;
5 to enroll himself with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him as wife, being great with child.
6 It happened, while they were there, that the day had come that she should give birth.
7 She brought forth her firstborn son, and she wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn.
8 There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.
9 Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.
10 The angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people.
11 For there is born to you, this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.
12 This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough.”
13 Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
14 “Glory to God in the highest, On earth peace, good will toward men.”
15 It happened, when the angels went away from them into the sky, that the shepherds said one to another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.”
16 They came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the feeding trough.
17 When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child.
18 All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds.
19 But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart.
20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken to them.
21 When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
22 When the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord
23 (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord”),

24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons."

25 Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him.

26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law,

28 then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 "Now let you your servant depart, Lord, According to your word, in peace;

30 For my eyes have seen your salvation,

31 Which you have prepared before the face of all peoples;

32 A light for revelation to the Gentiles, The glory of your people Israel."

33 Joseph and his mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning him,

34 and Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother, "Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which is spoken against.

35 Yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul, that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed."

36 There was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37 and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn't depart from the temple, worshipping with fastings and petitions night and day.

38 Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 When they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.

40 The child grew, and grew strong in spirit, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was on him.

41 His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover.

42 When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast,

43 and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy, Jesus, stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn't know it, 44 but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances.

45 When they didn't find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him.

46 It happened, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions.

47 All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

48 When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."

49 He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?"

50 They didn't understand the saying which he spoke to them.

51 He went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,

2 in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness.

3 He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance to remission of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make ready the way of the Lord. Make his paths straight.

5 Every valley will be filled. Every mountain and hill will be brought low. The crooked will become straight, And the rough ways smooth.

6 All flesh will see God's salvation. "

7 He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be baptized by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and don't begin to say among yourselves, "We have Abraham for our father; for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones!

9 Even now the ax also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

10 The multitudes asked him, "What then must we do?"

11 He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

12 Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"

13 He said to them, "Extort no more than that which is appointed you."

14 Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?" He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

15 As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Christ,

16 John answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the latchet of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire,

17 whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18 Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people,

19 but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done,

20 added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now it happened, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also having been baptized, and praying, the sky was opened,

22 and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form, as a dove, on him, and a voice came out of the sky, saying "You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased."

23 Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli,

24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,

25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esi, the son of Naggai,

26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah,
27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,
28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er,
29 the son of Josa, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,
30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim,
31 the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,
32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, 33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, the son of Joram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,
34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,
35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah
36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, 37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan,
38 the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness

2 for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry.

3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

4 Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written, Man will not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. "

5 The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the inhabited world in a moment of time.

6 The devil said to him, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want.

7 If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours."

8 Jesus answered him, "Get behind me Satan! For it is written, You will worship the Lord your God, and him only will you serve. "

9 He led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here,

10 for it is written, He will give his angels charge concerning you, to guard you;

11 and, On their hands they will bear you up, lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone. "

12 Jesus answering, said to him, "It has been said, You shall not tempt the Lord your God. "

13 When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him for awhile.

14 Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area.

15 He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

16 He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.

17 The book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,

18 "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, Because he anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, To proclaim release to the captives, Recovering of sight to the blind, To deliver those who are crushed,

19 And to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

20 He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 He began to tell them, "Today, this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

22 All testified about him, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

23 He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, Physician, heal yourself. Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown. "

24 He said, "Most assuredly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown.

25 But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land.

26 Elijah was sent to none of them, except only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

27 There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian."

28 They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things;

29 and they rose up, and threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff.

30 But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way.

31 He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, 32 and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority.

33 In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,

34 saying, "Ah! what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!"

35 Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

36 Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!"

37 News about him went forth into every place of the surrounding region.

38 He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her.

39 He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and ministered to them.

40 When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 Demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" Rebuking them, he didn't allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

42 When it was day, he came out and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn't go away from them.

43 But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for this reason I have been sent."

44 He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

1 Now it happened, while the multitude pressed on him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret.

2 He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat.

4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

5 Simon answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net."

6 When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking.

7 They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord."

9 For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught;

10 and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will catch men alive."

11 When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him.

12 It happened, while he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."

13 He stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 He charged him to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

15 But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

17 It happened on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal them.

18 Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before him.

19 Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the midst before Jesus.

20 Seeing their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21 The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

22 But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts?

23 Which is easier to say, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise and walk?

24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."

- 25 Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God.
- 26 Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."
- 27 After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me."
- 28 He left everything, and rose up and followed him.
- 29 Levi made him a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them.
- 30 Their scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?"
- 31 Jesus answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do.
- 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
- 33 They said to him, "Why do John's disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?"
- 34 He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them?"
- 35 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then will they fast in those days."
- 36 He also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old.
- 37 No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.
- 38 But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.
- 39 No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, The old is better. "
- 1 Now it happened on the second Sabbath after the first, that he was going through the grain fields, and his disciples plucked the heads of grain, and ate, rubbing them in their hands.
- 2 But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?"
- 3 Jesus, answering them, said, "Haven't you read this, what David did, when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him;
- 4 how he entered into the house of God, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?"
- 5 He said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath."
- 6 It also happened on another Sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered.
- 7 The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him.
- 8 But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise up, and stand in the middle." He arose and stood.
- 9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?"
- 10 He looked around at them all, and said to him, "Stretch out your hand." He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other.

11 But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Jesus.
12 It happened in these days, that he went out into the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God.
13 When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles:
14 Simon, whom he also named Peter; Andrew, his brother; James; John; Philip; Bartholomew;
15 Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Simon, who was called the Zealot;
16 Judas the son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor.
17 He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;
18 also those who were troubled with unclean spirits, and they were being healed.
19 All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came forth from him, and healed them all.
20 He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said, "Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.
21 "Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.
22 "Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from them and reproach you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.
23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.
24 "But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation.
25 "Woe to you, you who are full now! For you will be hungry. "Woe to you, you who laugh now! For you will mourn and weep.
26 "Woe, when men will speak well of you! For their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.
27 But I tell you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
28 bless them who curse you, and pray for those who insult you.
29 To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, don't withhold your coat also.
30 Give to everyone who asks you, and don't ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.
31 "As you desire that men should do to you, likewise do to them also.
32 If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.
33 If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
34 If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much.
35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.
36 Therefore be merciful, even as your Father is also merciful.
37 Don't judge, and you will not be judged. Don't condemn, and you will not be condemned. Set free, and you will be set free.

38 Give, and it will be given to you, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will they give into your bosom. For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you."

39 He spoke a parable to them. "Can the blind guide the blind? Won't they both fall into a pit?

40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher.

41 Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?

42 Or how can you tell your brother, Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye, when you yourself don't see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye.

43 For there is no good tree that brings forth rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that brings forth good fruit.

44 For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don't gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.

45 The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.

46 Why do you call me, Lord, Lord, and don't do the things which I say?

47 Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like.

48 He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock.

49 But he who hears, and doesn't do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

1 After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death.

3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant.

4 When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him, for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us."

6 Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof.

7 Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed.

8 For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, Go! and he goes; and to another, Come! and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does it."

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel."

10 Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.

11 It happened soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples went with him, along with a great multitude.

12 Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her.

13 When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Don't cry."

- 14 He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!"
- 15 He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. He gave him to his mother.
- 16 Fear took hold on all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us," and, "God has visited his people."
- 17 This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region.
- 18 The disciples of John told him about all these things.
- 19 John, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?"
- 20 When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?"
- 21 In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight.
- 22 Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard; that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.
- 23 Blessed is he who is not offended by me."
- 24 When John's messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
- 25 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.
- 26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.
- 27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before your face, Who will prepare your way before you.
- 28 "For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptizer, yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."
- 29 When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they justified God, being baptized with John's baptism.
- 30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by him themselves.
- 31 The Lord said, "To what then will I liken the men of this generation? What are they like?
- 32 They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call one to another, saying, We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.
- 33 For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, He has a demon.
- 34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!
- 35 Wisdom is justified by all her children."
- 36 One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat at the table.
- 37 Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of ointment.
- 38 Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner."

40 Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." He said, "Teacher, say on."

41 "A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

42 When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?"

43 Simon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most." He said to him, "You have judged correctly."

44 Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head.

45 You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

48 He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

49 Those who sat at the table with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

50 He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

1 It happened soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God, and with him the twelve,

2 and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;

3 and Joanna, the wife of Chuzas, Herod's steward, Susanna; and many others; who ministered to them from their possessions.

4 When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable.

5 "The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell by the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.

6 Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

7 Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.

8 Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

9 Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?"

10 He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved.

13 Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, and fall away in time of temptation.

14 That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.

15 That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 "No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light.

18 Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

19 His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd.

20 It was told him by some saying, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you."

21 But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."

22 Now it happened on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water.

24 They came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm.

25 He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, "Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

26 They arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.

27 When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city met him, who had demons for a long time. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!"

29 For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

30 Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him.

31 They begged him who he would not command them to go into the abyss.

32 Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them.

33 The demons came out from the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned.

34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

35 People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus; and they were afraid.

36 Those who saw it told them how he who was possessed with demons was healed.

37 All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned.

38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 "Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

40 It happened, as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.

41 Behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him to come into his house, 42 for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes thronged him.

43 A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any,

44 came behind him, and touched the fringe of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped.

45 Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When all denied, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

46 But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me."

47 When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 He said to her, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

49 While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Don't trouble the Teacher."

50 But Jesus hearing it, answered him, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed."

51 When he came to the house, he didn't allow anyone to enter in, except Peter, John, James, the father of the girl, and her mother.

52 All were weeping, and mourning her, but he said, "Don't weep. She isn't dead, but sleeping."

53 They laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, "Little girl, arise!"

55 Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat.

56 Her parents were amazed, but he charged them to tell no one what had been done.

1 He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.

2 He sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey -- neither staves, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there.

5 As many as don't receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."

6 They departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod, the tetrarch, heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,

8 and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again.

9 Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" He sought to see him.

10 The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done. He took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place of a city called Bethsaida.

11 But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and he cured those who needed healing.

12 The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get provisions, for we are here in a desert place."

13 But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people."

14 For they were about five thousand men. He said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each."

15 They did so, and made them all sit down.

16 He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

18 It happened, as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"

19 They answered, "John the Baptizer, but others say, Elijah, and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again."

20 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Christ of God."

21 But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one,

22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

23 He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

24 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it.

25 For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self?

26 For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of himself, of the Father, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the kingdom of God."

28 It happened about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray.

29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling.

30 Behold, two men talked with him, who were Moses and Elijah,

31 who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him.

33 It happened, as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said.

34 While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud.

35 A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!"

36 When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met him.

38 Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child.

39 Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely.

40 I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't."

41 Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long will I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

42 While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

43 They were all astonished at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples,

44 "Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men."

45 But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46 There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest.

47 Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their heart, took a little child, and set him by his side,

48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."

49 John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow with us."

50 Jesus said to him, "Don't forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us."

51 It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him.

53 They didn't receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem.

54 When his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Elijah did?"

55 But he turned and rebuked them, "You don't know what kind of spirit you are of.

56 For the Son of Man didn't come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." They went to another village.

57 As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, "I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord."

58 Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head."

59 He said to another, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

60 But Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce the kingdom of God."

61 Another also said, "I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to bid farewell to those who are at my house."

62 But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

1 Now after these things the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two before his face into every city and place, where he himself was about to come.

2 Then he said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

4 Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way.
5 Into whatever house you enter, first say, Peace be to this house.
6 If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.
7 Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don't go from house to house.
8 Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you.
9 Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, The kingdom of God has come near to you.
10 But into whatever city you enter, and they don't receive you, go out into the streets of it and say,
11 Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near to you.
12 I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.
13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
14 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.
15 You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades.
16 Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects him who sent me."
17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name."
18 He said to them, "I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven.
19 Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you.
20 Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."
21 In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight."
22 Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me from my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whoever the Son desires to reveal him."
23 Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see,
24 for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them."
25 Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Teacher, what will I do to inherit eternal life?"
26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"
27 He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."
28 He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."
29 But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?"
30 Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead.
31 By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side.
33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion,
34 came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
35 On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.
36 Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?
37 He said, "He who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
38 It happened as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.
39 She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus feet, and heard his word.
40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."
41 Jesus answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, 42 but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."
1 It happened, that when he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples."
2 He said to them, "When you pray, say, Our Father in heaven, May your name be kept holy. May your kingdom come. May your desire be done on Earth, as it is in heaven.
3 Give us day by day our daily bread.
4 Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."
5 He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,
6 for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,
7 and he from within will answer and say, Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you?
8 I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.
9 I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you.
10 For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.
11 Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he?
12 Or if he asks for an egg, he won't give him a scorpion, will he?
13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"
14 He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. It happened, when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled.
15 But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons."
16 Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven.
17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls.

- 18 If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? Because you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul.
- 19 But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges.
- 20 But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come to you.
- 21 When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe.
- 22 But when someone stronger comes on him, and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils.
- 23 He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn't gather with me scatters.
- 24 The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, "I will turn back to my house whence I came out.
- 25 When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order.
- 26 Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first."
- 27 It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!"
- 28 But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it."
- 29 When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet.
- 30 For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation.
- 31 The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one greater than Solomon is here.
- 32 The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here.
- 33 No man, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar, nor under a basket, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light.
- 34 The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness.
- 35 Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn't darkness.
- 36 If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light."
- 37 Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in, and sat at the table.
- 38 When the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed himself before dinner.
- 39 The Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness.
- 40 You foolish ones, didn't he who made the outside make the inside also?
- 41 But give for alms those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you.
- 42 But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and bypass justice and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to leave the other undone.
- 43 Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces.
- 44 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them don't know it."

45 One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, in saying this you insult us also."
46 He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens.
47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
48 So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs.
49 Therefore also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute,
50 that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;
51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation.
52 Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn't enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered."
53 As he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him;
54 laying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.
1 Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
2 But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known.
3 Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers will be proclaimed on the housetops.
4 I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
5 But I will warn you whom you shall fear. Fear him, who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear him.
6 Aren't five sparrows sold for two assaria? Not one of them is forgotten by God.
7 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.
8 I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God;
9 but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God.
10 Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.
11 When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don't be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say;
12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say."
13 One of the multitude said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."
14 But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"
15 He said to them, "Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man's life doesn't consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses."
16 He spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth abundantly.

17 He reasoned within himself, saying, What will I do, because I don't have room to store my crops?

18 He said, This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

19 I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry."

20 But God said to him, You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared -- whose will they be?

21 So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

22 He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear.

23 Life is more than food, and the body than clothing.

24 Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds!

25 Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his height?

26 If then you aren't able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest?

27 Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, you of little faith?

29 Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious.

30 For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things.

31 Yet seek God's kingdom, and all these things will be added to you.

32 Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell that which you have, and give alms. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning.

36 Be like men looking for their lord, when he will return from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Most assuredly I tell you, that he will gird himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them.

38 They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so.

39 But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into.

40 Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him."

41 Peter said to him, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?"

42 The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times?

43 Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes.

44 Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has.

45 But if that servant says in his heart, My lord delays his coming, and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken,

46 then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him apart, and place his portion with the unfaithful.

47 That servant, who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes,

48 but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whoever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom they deposit much, of him will they ask more.

49 "I came to throw fire on the earth, I wish it were already kindled.

50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!

51 Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division.

52 For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law."

54 He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, A shower is coming, and so it happens.

55 When a south wind blows, you say, There will be a scorching heat, and it happens.

56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time?

57 Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?

58 For as you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be freed from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

59 I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last lepton."

1 Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

2 Jesus answered them, "Do you think that these Galilaeans were worse sinners than all the other Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way.

4 Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way."

6 He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none.

7 He said to the vine dresser, Behold, these three years I came seeking fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?

8 He answered, Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it.

9 If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down. "

10 He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way lift herself up.

12 When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity."

13 He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.

14 The ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, answered to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!"

15 Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water?"

16 Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, to have been freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

17 As he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 He said, "To what is the kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it?"

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and threw into his own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky lodged in the branches of it."

20 Again he said, "What shall I compare to the kingdom of God?"

21 It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three sata of flour, until it was all leavened."

22 He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem.

23 One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?" He said to them, 24 "Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able.

25 When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us! then he will answer and tell you, I don't know you or where you come from.

26 Then you will begin to say, We ate and drink in your presence, and you taught in our streets.

27 He will say, I tell you, I don't know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.

28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves being thrown outside.

29 They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."

31 On that same day, some Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out of here, and go away, for Herod wants to kill you."

32 He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission.

33 Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can't be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused!

35 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! "

1 It happened, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him.

2 Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him.

3 Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

4 But they were silent. He took him, and healed him, and let him go.

5 He answered them, "Which of you, if your son or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

6 They couldn't answer him regarding these things.

7 He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them,

8 "When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps a more honorable man than you might be invited by him,

9 and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this man. Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place.

10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher. Then you will have glory in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.

11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

12 He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back.

13 But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind;

14 and you will be blessed, because they don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."

15 When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will feast in the kingdom of God!"

16 But he said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people.

17 He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.

18 They all as one began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.

19 Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.

20 Another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I can't come.

21 That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.

22 The servant said, 'Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.

23 The lord said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper. "

25 Now great multitudes went with him. He turned and said to them,

26 "If any man comes to me, and doesn't hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can't be my disciple.

27 Whoever doesn't bear his own cross, and come after me, can't be my disciple.

28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it?

29 Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him,

30 saying, This man began to build, and wasn't able to finish.
31 Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?
32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace.
33 So therefore whoever of you who doesn't renounce all that he has, he can't be my disciple.
34 Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it?
35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."
1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him.
2 The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."
3 He told them this parable.
4 "Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it?
5 When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
6 When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!
7 I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.
8 Or what woman, if she had ten drachma coins, if she lost one drachma, wouldn't light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it?
9 When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.
10 Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting."
11 He said, "A certain man had two sons.
12 The younger of them said to his father, Father, give me my share of your property. He divided his living to them.
13 Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and took his journey into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living.
14 When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need.
15 He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs.
16 He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any.
17 But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough to spare, and I'm dying with hunger!
18 I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight.
19 I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants."
20 He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.
21 The son said to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no more worthy to be called your son.
22 But the father said to his servants, Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.
23 Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate;

24 for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found. They began to be merry.
25 Now his elder son was in the field. As he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.
26 He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on.
27 He said to him, Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him safe and sound.
28 But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him.
29 But he answered his father, Behold, these many years I served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, and you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends.
30 But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.
31 He said to him, Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.
32 But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found. "

1 He said also to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man, who had a manager. The same was accused to him of wasting his possessions.
2 He called him, and said to him, What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.
3 The steward said within himself, What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg.
4 I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.
5 Calling each one of his lord's debtors to him, he said to the first, How much do you owe to my lord?
6 He said, A hundred batos of oil. He said to him, Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.
7 Then said he to another, How much do you owe? He said, A hundred cors of wheat. He said to him, Take your bill, and write eighty.
8 His lord commended the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely, for the sons of this world are, in their own generation, wiser than the sons of the light.
9 I tell you, make for yourselves friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents.
10 He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is unrighteous in a very little is also unrighteous in much.
11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
12 If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own?
13 No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and mammon."
14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him.
15 He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.
16 The law and the prophets were until John. From that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it.

17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall.
18 Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is put away from a husband commits adultery.
19 "Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day.
20 A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was laid at his gate, full of sores,
21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 It happened that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried.
23 In Hades, he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom.
24 He cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.
25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in like manner, bad things. But now here he is comforted and you are in anguish.
26 Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that none may cross over from there to us.
27 He said, I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house;
28 for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
29 But Abraham said to him, They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.
30 He said, No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.
31 He said to him, If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead. "

1 He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that occasions of stumbling should not come, but woe to him through whom they come!
2 It would be better for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.
3 Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him.
4 If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times turns again, saying, I repent, you shall forgive him."
5 The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."
6 The Lord said, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea, and it would obey you.
7 But who is there of you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, Come immediately and sit down at the table,
8 and will not rather tell him, Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you will eat and drink?
9 Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not.
10 Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty. "

11 It happened, as he was on his way to Jerusalem, that he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee.
12 As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood far away.
13 They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14 When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." It happened, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice.

16 He fell on his face at his feet, giving him thanks. He was a Samaritan.

17 Jesus answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine?"

18 "Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?"

19 He said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."

20 Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The kingdom of God doesn't come with observation;

21 neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 'Look, there!' for behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

22 He said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

23 They will tell you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Don't go away, nor follow after them, 24 for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day.

25 But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 As it happened in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man.

27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise, even as it happened in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

29 but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all.

30 It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

31 In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back.

32 Remember Lot's wife!

33 Whoever seeks to gain his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it.

34 I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left.

35 There will be two women grinding together. The one will be taken, and the other will be left."

37 They answering, asked him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together."

1 He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up,

2 saying, "A certain judge was in a city, who didn't fear God, and didn't respect man.

3 A widow was in that city, and she came often to him, saying, 'Defend me from my adversary!'

4 He wouldn't for a while, but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I don't fear God, nor respect man,

5 yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.' "

6 The Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says.

7 Won't God avenge his elect, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them?"

8 I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

9 He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others.

10 "Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

12 I fast twice in the week. I give tithes of all that I get.

13 But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn't even lift up as his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, God, be merciful to me, a sinner!

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

15 They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 Jesus called them near, saying, "Allow the little children to come to me, and don't hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to ones like these.

17 Most assuredly, I tell you, whoever doesn't receive the kingdom of God like a little child, he will in no way enter into it."

18 A certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, what do I do to inherit eternal life?"

19 Jesus asked him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one -- God.

20 You know the commandments: Don't commit adultery, Don't murder, Don't steal, Don't give false testimony, Honor your father and your mother. "

21 He said, "I have observed all these things from my youth up."

22 When Jesus heard these things, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me."

23 But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

24 Jesus, seeing that he became very sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."

26 Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"

27 But he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

28 Peter said, "Look, we have left everything, and followed you."

29 He said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life."

31 He took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed.

32 For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on.

33 They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again."

34 They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn't understand the things that were said.

35 It happened, as he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging.

36 Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant.

37 They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.
38 He cried out, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!"
39 Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"
40 Jesus, standing, commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him,
41 "What do you want me to do?" He said, "Lord, that I may see again."
42 Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you."
43 Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

1 He entered and was passing through Jericho.
2 There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.
3 He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short.
4 He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way.
5 When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house."
6 He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully.
7 When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."
8 Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."
9 Jesus said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham.
10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."
11 As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the kingdom of God would be revealed immediately.
12 He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.
13 He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten minas, and told them, 'Conduct business until I come.
14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, 'We don't want this man to reign over us.
15 It happened, when he had come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business.
16 The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.
17 He said to him, 'Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful in a very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.
18 The second came, saying, 'Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.
19 He said to him also, 'You also are to be over five cities.
20 Another came, saying, 'Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief,
21 for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.
22 He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow.

23 Then why didn't you deposit my money in the bank, and I at my coming might have earned interest on it?

24 He said to those who stood by, Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.

25 They said to him, Lord, he has ten minas!

26 For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him.

27 But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me. "

28 When he had thus spoken, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

29 It happened, when he drew near to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples,

30 saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie him, and bring him.

31 If anyone asks you, Why are you untying it? say to him: The Lord needs it. "

32 Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them.

33 As they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, Why are you untying the colt?

34 They said, The Lord needs it.

35 They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them.

36 As he went, they spread their cloaks in the way.

37 As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen,

38 saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!"

39 Some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"

40 He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

41 When he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it,

42 saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes.

43 For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side,

44 and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn't know the time of your visitation."

45 He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,

46 saying to them, "It is written, My house is a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of robbers !"

47 He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him.

48 They couldn't find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

1 It happened on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, that the chief priests and scribes came to him with the elders.

2 They asked him, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?"

3 He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me:
4 the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?"
5 They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, From heaven, he will say, Why didn't you
6 believe him?
7 But if we say, From men, all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a 8 prophet."
9 They answered that they didn't know where it was from.
10 Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."
11 He began to tell the people this parable. "A man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, 12 and went into another country for a long time.
13 At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard.
14 But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty.
15 He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away 16 empty.
17 He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out.
18 The lord of the vineyard said, "What will I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing 19 him, they will respect him.
20 But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, "This is the heir. Come,
21 let's kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
22 They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. "What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do 23 to them?
24 He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others." When they heard it,
25 they said, "God forbid!"
26 But he looked at them, and said, "Then what is this that is written, The stone which the builders
27 rejected, The same was made the chief cornerstone?
28 "Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whoever it falls on to 29 dust."
30 The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him that very hour, but they feared the 31 people -- for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.
32 They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in 33 something he said, so as to deliver him up to the rule and to the authority of the governor.
34 They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren't partial to 35 anyone, but truly teach the way of God.
36 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
37 But he perceived their slyness, and said to them, "Why do you test me?
38 Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?" They answered, "Caesar's."
39 He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are 40 God's."
41 They weren't able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and 42 were silent.
43 Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection.
44 They asked him, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is 45 childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother.
46 There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless.

30 The second took her as wife, and he died childless.
31 The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died.
32 Afterward the woman also died.
33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."
34 Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry, and are given in marriage.
35 But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.
36 For neither can they die any more, for they are like the angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.
37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
38 Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him."
39 Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well."
40 They didn't dare to ask him any more questions.
41 He said to them, "Why do they say that the Christ is David's son?
42 David himself says in the book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand,
43 Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."
44 "David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he his son?"
45 In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples,
46 "Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts;
47 who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation."
1 He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury.
2 He saw a certain poor widow casting in two lepta.
3 He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them,
4 for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her lack, put in all that she had to live on."
5 As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said,
6 "As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."
7 They asked him, "Teacher, when therefore will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?"
8 He said, "Watch out that you don't get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, I AM and, The time is at hand. Therefore don't follow them.
9 When you hear of wars and disturbances, don't be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won't come immediately."
10 Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.
11 There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven.
12 But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake.

13 It will turn out as a testimony to you.
14 Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer,
15 for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict.
16 But you will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. Some of you will they cause to be put to death.
17 You will be hated by all men for my name's sake.
18 Not a hair of your head will perish.
19 By your endurance you will win your souls.
20 "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand.
21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let them who are in the midst of her depart. Don't let those who are in the country enter therein.
22 For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.
23 Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people.
24 They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.
25 There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves;
26 men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world; for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
27 Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
28 But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."
29 He told them a parable. "See the fig tree, and all the trees.
30 When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near.
31 Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near.
32 Most assuredly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished.
33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.
34 "So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly.
35 For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth.
36 Therefore be watchful all the time, asking that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."
37 Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he went out, and spent the night on the mountain that is called Olivet.
38 All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.
1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew near, which is called the Passover.
2 The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people.
3 Satan entered into Judas, who was called Iscariot, being numbered with the twelve.
4 He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them.
5 They were glad, and agreed to give him money.

6 He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude.
7 The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed.
8 He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."
9 They said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare?"
10 He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters.
11 Tell the master of the house, The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"
12 He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there."
13 They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.
14 When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve apostles.
15 He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer,
16 for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."
17 He received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves, 18 for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God comes."
19 He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me."
20 He took the cup in like manner after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, that which is poured out for you.
21 But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table.
22 The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"
23 They began to question among themselves, which of them it was that would do this thing.
24 There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest.
25 He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called benefactors.
26 But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the lesser, and one who is governing, as one who serves.
27 For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn't it he who sits at the table? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves.
28 But you are those who have continued with me in my temptations.
29 I appoint to you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed to me,
30 that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."
31 The Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat,
32 but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers."
33 He said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!"
34 He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will by no means crow today, before you deny that you know me three times."
35 He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing."

36 Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword.

37 For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: He was counted with the lawless. For that which concerns me has an end."

38 They said, "Lord, behold, here are two swords." He said to them, "That is enough."

39 He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him.

40 When he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you don t enter into temptation."

41 He was withdrawn from them about a stone s throw, and he knelt down and prayed,

42 saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

43 An angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him.

44 Being in agony he prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

45 When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief, and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

46 While he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went in front of them. He came near to Jesus to kiss him.

47 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

48 When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"

49 A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

50 But Jesus answered, "Let me at least do this" -- and he touched his ear, and healed him.

51 Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs?

52 When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn t stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

53 They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest s house. But Peter followed from a distance.

54 When they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and had sat down together, Peter sat in the midst of them.

55 A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with him."

56 He denied Jesus, saying, "Woman, I don t know him."

57 After a little while someone else saw him, and said, "You also are one of them!" But Peter answered, "Man, I am not!"

58 After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean!"

59 But Peter said, "Man, I don t know what you are talking about!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

60 The Lord turned, and looked at Peter. Peter remembered the Lord s word, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times."

61 He went out, and wept bitterly.

62 The men who held Jesus mocked him and beat him.

64 Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck you?"

65 They spoke many other things against him, insulting him.

66 As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying,

67 "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe, and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go.

68 From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

69 They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" He said to them, "You say it, because I AM."

70 They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!"

1 The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate.

2 They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king."

3 Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "So you say."

4 Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

5 But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place."

6 But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean.

7 When he found out that he was in Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem in those days.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him.

9 He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers.

10 The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him.

11 Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate.

12 Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.

13 Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined him before you, and found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him.

15 Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. I will therefore chastise him and release him."

17 Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the feast.

18 But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Barabbas!" -- one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder.

20 Pilate spoke to them again, desiring to release Jesus,

21 but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify him!"

22 He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him."

23 But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed.

24 Pilate adjudged that what they asked for should be done.
25 He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Jesus up to their will.
26 When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after Jesus.
27 A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him.
28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.
29 For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.
30 Then will they begin to tell the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us.
31 For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?'"
32 There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death.
33 When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.
34 Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing." Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots.
35 The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen one!"
36 The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar,
37 and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"
38 An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."
39 One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!"
40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Don't you even fear God, seeing you are in the same condemnation?
41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong."
42 He said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom."
43 He said to him, "Most assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."
44 It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.
45 The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two.
46 Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he breathed his last.
47 When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man."
48 All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned beating their breasts.
49 All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from Galilee, stood far away, watching these things.
50 Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man
51 (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for the kingdom of God:

52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body.
53 He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no man had ever yet lain.
54 It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was coming on.
55 The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid.
56 They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.
1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.
2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb.
3 They entered in, and didn't find the Lord Jesus' body.
4 It happened, while they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing.
5 Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?
6 He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee,
7 saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"
8 They remembered his words,
9 returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles.
11 These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them.
12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.
13 Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem.
14 They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened.
15 It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that Jesus himself came near, and went with them.
16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.
17 He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"
18 One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only one travelling in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?"
19 He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people;
20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him.
21 But we hoped that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened.
22 Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having been early at the tomb;
23 and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.
24 Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see him."

25 He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!
26 Didn't the Christ have to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?"
27 Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.
28 They drew near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.
29 They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over." He went in to stay with them.
30 It happened, when he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them.
31 Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight.
32 They said one to another, "Wasn't our heart burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the scriptures to us?"
33 They rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,
34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!"
35 They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.
36 As they said these things, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."
37 But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they saw a spirit.
38 He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do questionings arise in your hearts?
39 See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have."
40 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.
41 While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"
42 They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.
43 He took it, and ate in front of them.
44 He said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me."
45 Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the scriptures.
46 He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day,
47 and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
48 You are witnesses of these things.
49 Behold, I send forth the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."
50 He led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.
51 It happened, while he blessed them, that he withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven.
52 They worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy,
53 and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made through him. Without him was not anything made that has been made.
4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.
5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.
6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John.
7 The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him.
8 He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light.
9 The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not recognize him.
11 He came to his own, and those who were his own did not receive him.
12 But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name:
13 who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.
15 John testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me."
16 From his fullness we all received grace upon grace.
17 For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
18 No one has seen God at any time. The only conceived Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.
19 This is John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"
20 He confessed, and did not deny, but he confessed, "I am not the Christ."
21 They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No."
22 They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"
23 He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as Isaiah the prophet said."
24 The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees.
25 They asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"
26 John answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you do not know,
27 he who comes after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie."
28 These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.
29 On the next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!
30 This is he of whom I said, After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.
31 I did not know him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water; that he would be revealed to Israel."
32 John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him.

33 I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to baptize in water, he said to me, "On whoever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.
34 I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God."
35 Again, on the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples,
36 and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!"
37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.
38 Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"
39 He said to them, "Come, and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.
40 One of the two who heard John, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
41 He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Christ).
42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is by interpretation, Peter).
43 On the next day, he was determined to go forth into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, "Follow me."
44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter.
45 Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."
46 Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."
47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"
48 Nathanael says to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."
49 Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!"
50 Jesus answered him, "Because I told you, I saw you underneath the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these."
51 He said to him, "Most assuredly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

1 The third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. Jesus' mother was there.
2 Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the marriage.
3 When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no wine."
4 Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come."
5 His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it."
6 Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three metretes apiece.
7 Jesus said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim.
8 He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." They took it.
9 When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom,
10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!"

11 This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory. His disciples believed in him.

12 After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and there they stayed not many days.

13 The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting.

15 He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables.

16 To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Father's house a marketplace!"

17 His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up."

18 The Jews therefore answered him, "What sign do you show to us, seeing that you do these things?"

19 Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

20 The Jews therefore said, "Forty-six years was this temple in building, and will you raise it up in three days?"

21 But he spoke of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did.

24 But Jesus didn't trust himself to them, because he knew all people,

25 and because he didn't need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

1 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.

2 The same came to him by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."

3 Jesus answered him, "Most assuredly, I tell you, unless one is born anew, he can't see the kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he can't enter into the kingdom of God!

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Don't marvel that I said to you, You must be born anew.

8 The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered him, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and don't understand these things?

11 Most assuredly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don't receive our witness.

12 If I told you earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

13 No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven.

14 As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

17 For God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him.

18 He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn't believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only born Son of God.

19 This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil.

20 For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, for fear that his works would be reproved.

21 But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done with God."

22 After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and baptized.

23 John also was baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet thrown into prison.

25 There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with some Jews about purification.

26 They came to John, and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, the same baptizes, and all men come to him."

27 John answered, "A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven.

28 You yourselves testify about me, that I said, I am not the Christ, but, I have been sent before him.

29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the Earth belongs to the Earth, and speaks of the Earth. He who comes from heaven is above all.

32 What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness.

33 He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true.

34 For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure.

35 The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand.

36 He who believes in the Son has eternal life, but he who disobeys the Son won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

1 Therefore when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John

2 (although Jesus himself didn't baptize, but his disciples),

3 he left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 He needed to pass through Samaria.

5 So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph.

6 Jacob s well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."

8 For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9 The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, Give me a drink, you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

11 The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where then have you that living water?"

12 Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his sons, and his cattle?"

13 Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again,

14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

15 The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don t get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You said well, I have no husband, 18 for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father.

22 You worship that which you don t know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews.

23 But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshippers.

24 God is a Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

25 The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah comes," (he who is called Christ). "When he has come, he will declare to us all things."

26 Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am he."

27 At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?"

28 So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people,

29 "Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?"

30 They went out of the city, and were coming to him.

31 In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don t know about."

33 The disciples therefore said one to another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work.

35 Don't you say, There are yet four months until the harvest? Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white already to harvest.

36 He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.

37 For in this the saying is true, One sows, and another reaps.

38 I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

39 From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, He told me everything that I did."

40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days.

41 Many more believed because of his word.

42 They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."

43 After the two days he went forth from there and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.

45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast.

46 He came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

48 Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

49 The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way.

51 As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "your child lives!"

52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left him."

53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house.

54 This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

1 After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda," having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water;

4 for an angel of the Lord went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was made whole of whatever disease he was afflicted with.

5 A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

7 The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me."

8 Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."
9 Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked. Now it was the Sabbath on that day.
10 So the Jews said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mat."
11 He answered them, "He who made me well, the same said to me, Take up your mat, and walk. "
12 Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, Take up your mat, and walk ?"
13 But he who was healed didn't know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.
14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."
15 The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.
16 For this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath.
17 But Jesus answered them, "My Father is still working, so I am working, too."
18 For this cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.
19 Jesus therefore answered them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise.
20 For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel.
21 For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires.
22 For neither does the Father judge any man, but he has given all judgment to the Son,
23 that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him.
24 Most assuredly I tell you, he who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.
25 Most assuredly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live.
26 For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself.
27 He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man.
28 Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice,
29 and will come forth; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.
30 I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me.
31 "If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid.
32 It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true.
33 You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.
34 But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved.
35 He was the lamp that burns and shines, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.

36 But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John, for the works which the Father has given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me.

37 The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form.

38 You don't have his word living in you; for whom he sent, him you don't believe.

39 You search the scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me.

40 Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life.

41 I don't receive glory from men.

42 But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves.

43 I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him.

44 How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?

45 "Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope.

46 For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me.

47 But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

1 After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias.

2 A great multitude followed him, because they saw the signs which he did on those who were sick.

3 Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples.

4 Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.

5 Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?"

6 This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him,

9 "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

10 Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired.

12 When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost."

13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world."

15 Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain by himself.

16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,

- 17 and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them.
- 18 The sea was rising by reason of a great wind that blew.
- 19 When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid.
- 20 But he said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid."
- 21 They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.
- 22 On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples went away alone.
- 23 However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.
- 24 When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn't there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.
- 25 When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"
- 26 Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled.
- 27 Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For the Father, even God, has sealed him."
- 28 They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?"
- 29 Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."
- 30 They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do?"
- 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, He gave them bread out of the sky to eat. "
- 32 Jesus therefore said to them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven.
- 33 For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."
- 34 They said therefore to him, "Lord, always give us this bread."
- 35 Jesus said to them. "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.
- 36 But I told you that you have seen me, and yet don't believe.
- 37 All that which the Father gives me will come to me. Him who comes to me I will in no way throw out.
- 38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.
- 39 This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all who he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise them up at the last day.
- 40 This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."
- 41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven."
- 42 They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, I have come down out of heaven? "

43 Therefore Jesus answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves.
44 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day.
45 It is written in the prophets, They will all be taught by God. Everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to me.
46 Not that any man has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father.
47 Most assuredly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life.
48 I am the bread of life.
49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.
50 This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that a man may eat of it, and not die.
51 I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world."
52 The Jews therefore contended with one another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"
53 Jesus therefore said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have life in yourselves.
54 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.
55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
56 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him.
57 As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me.
58 This is the bread which came down out of heaven -- not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever."
59 These things he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
60 Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can hear it?"
61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble?
62 What if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?
63 It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life.
64 But there are some of you who don't believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, and who it was who would betray him.
65 He said, "For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, except it be given to him by my Father."
66 At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.
67 Jesus said therefore to the twelve, "You don't also want to go away, do you?"
68 Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.
69 We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
70 Jesus answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?"
71 Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

1 After these things, Jesus walked in Galilee, for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand.
3 His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do.
4 For no man does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world."
5 For even his brothers didn't believe in him.
6 Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.
7 The world can't hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil.
8 You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."
9 Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee.
10 But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret.
11 The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?"
12 There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, but he leads the multitude astray."
13 Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews.
14 But when it was now the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught.
15 The Jews therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"
16 Jesus therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.
17 If anyone desires to do his will, he will know of the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I speak from myself.
18 He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
19 Didn't Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?"
20 The multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"
21 Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it.
22 Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy.
23 If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man every bit whole on the Sabbath?
24 Don't judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."
25 Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this he whom they seek to kill?"
26 Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly the Christ?
27 However we know where this man comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from."
28 Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know.
29 I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."
30 They sought therefore to take him. No one laid a hand on him, because his hour was not yet come.
31 But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When the Christ comes, will he do more signs than those which this man has done?"

32 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him.

33 Then Jesus said, "Yet a little while, am I with you, then I go to him who sent me.

34 You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come."

35 The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?

36 What is this word that he said, You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come?"

37 Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink!

38 He who believes in me, as the scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water."

39 But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus wasn't yet glorified.

40 Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet."

41 Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hasn't the scripture said that the Christ comes of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"

43 So there arose a division in the multitude because of him.

44 Some of them would have taken him, but no one laid hands on him.

45 The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?"

46 The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!"

47 The Pharisees therefore answered them, "Are you also led astray?

48 Has any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees?

49 But this cursed multitude doesn't know the law."

50 Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them,

51 "Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

52 They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee."

53 Everyone went to his own house,

1 but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2 At dawn, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them.

3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the midst,

4 they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such. What then do you say about her?"

6 They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of. But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger, as if he didn't hear.

7 But when they continued asking him, he lifted himself up, and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her."

8 Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

9 They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman where she was, in the midst.

10 Jesus lifted himself up, and seeing no one but the woman, said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

11 She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more."

12 Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify about yourself. Your witness is not valid."

14 Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my witness is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going.

15 You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one.

16 Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me.

17 It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is valid.

18 I am he who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

19 They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me, nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also."

20 Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. No one took him, because his hour had not yet come.

21 Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come."

22 The Jews therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you can't come?'"

23 He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

25 They said therefore to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world."

27 They didn't perceive that he spoke to them about the Father.

28 Jesus therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then will you know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things.

29 He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him."

30 As he spoke these things, many believed in him.

31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples.

32 You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

33 They answered him, "We are Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, 'You will be made free?'"

34 Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin.

35 A bondservant doesn't live in the house forever. A son remains forever.

36 If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.

37 I know that you are Abraham's seed, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you.

38 I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father."

39 They answered him, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham didn't do this.

41 You do the works of your father." They said to him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God."

42 Therefore Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came forth and have come from God. For neither have I come of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why don't you understand my speech? Because you can't hear my word.

44 You are of your Father, the devil, and it is your desire to do the lusts of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn't stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 But because I tell the truth, you don't believe me.

46 Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?

47 He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don't hear, because you are not of God."

48 Then the Jews answered him, "Don't we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?"

49 Jesus answered, "I don't have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.

50 But I don't seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges.

51 Most assuredly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death."

52 Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, 'If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.

53 Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God.

55 You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, 'I don't know him, I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad."

57 The Jews therefore said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"

58 Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, before Abraham was born, I AM"

59 They took up stones therefore to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

1 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth.

2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "Neither did this man sin, nor his parents. But, that the works of God might be revealed in him,

4 I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work.

5 When I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

6 When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud,

7 and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came seeing.

8 The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind, before, said, "Isn't this he who sat and begged?"

9 Others said, "It is he." Still others said, "He is like him." He said, "I am he."

10 They said therefore to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered, "A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, "Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash." So I went away and washed, and I received sight."

12 Then they asked him, "Where is he?" He said, "I don't know."

13 They brought him who before was blind to the Pharisees.

14 It was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.

15 Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."

16 Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was division among them.

17 Therefore they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about him, in that he opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

18 The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight,

19 and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20 His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

21 but how he now sees, we don't know; or who opened his eyes, we don't know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself."

22 His parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any man would confess him as Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

24 So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

25 He therefore answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see."

26 They said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?"

28 They became abusive towards him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.

29 We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don't know where he comes from."

30 The man answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes.

31 We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God, and does his will, he listens to him.

32 Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind.

33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

34 They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

36 He answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?"

37 Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you."

38 He said, "Lord, I believe!" and he worshipped him.

39 Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind."

40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Are we also blind?"

41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains.

1 "Most assuredly, I tell you, he who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out.

4 Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

5 They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers."

6 Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them.

7 Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most assuredly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door.

8 All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them.

9 I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture.

10 The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

12 He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them.

13 The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own;

15 even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd.

17 Therefore the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.

18 No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father."

19 Therefore a division arose again among the Jews because of these words.

20 Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is mad! Why do you listen to him?"

21 Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed with a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

22 It was the Feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem.

23 It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch.

24 The Jews therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these testify about me.

26 But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

28 I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.

29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and the Father are one."

31 Therefore Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"

33 The Jews answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."

34 Jesus answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are gods?'

35 If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the scripture can't be broken),

36 Do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme, because I said, 'I am the Son of God?'

37 If I don't do the works of my Father, don't believe me.

38 But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works; that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father."

39 They sought again to seize him, and he went forth out of their hand.

40 He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing, and there he stayed.

41 Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything whatever that John said about this man is true."

42 Many believed in him there.

1 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha.

2 It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick.

3 The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, he for whom you have great affection is sick."

4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it."

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed at that time two days in the place where he was.

7 Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let's go into Judea again."

8 The disciples told him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"

9 Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn't in him."

11 He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."
12 The disciples therefore said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."
13 Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep.
14 So Jesus said to them plainly then, "Lazarus is dead.
15 I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to him."
16 Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let's go also, that we may die with him."
17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already.
18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia away.
19 Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother.
20 Therefore Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house.
21 Therefore Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died.
22 Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you."
23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."
24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."
25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, though he die, yet will he live.
26 Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"
27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God's Son, he who comes into the world."
28 When she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you."
29 She, when she heard this, arose quickly, and went to him.
30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him.
31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."
32 Mary therefore, when she came to where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died."
33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,
34 and said, "Where have you laid him?" They told him, "Lord, come and see."
35 Jesus wept.
36 The Jews therefore said, "See how much affection he had for him!"
37 Some of them said, "Couldn't this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also caused that this man wouldn't die?"
38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it.
39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."
40 Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see God's glory?"

41 So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, "Father, I thank you that you listened to me.

42 I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me."

43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

44 He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Free him, and let him go."

45 Therefore many of the Jews, who came to Mary and saw that which Jesus did, believed in him.

46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.

47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing? For this man does many signs.

48 If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

49 But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,

50 nor do you take account that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish."

51 Now he didn't say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.

53 So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples.

55 Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think? Isn't he coming to the feast?"

57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

1 Therefore six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him.

3 Mary, therefore, took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

4 Then Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said,

5 "Why wasn't this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?"

6 Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it.

7 But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial.

8 For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me."

9 A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests conspired to also put Lazarus to death,
11 because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.
12 On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,
13 they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet him, and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"
14 Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written,
15 "Don't be afraid, daughter of Zion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt."
16 His disciples didn't understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him.
17 The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying.
18 For this cause also the multitude went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign.
19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him."
20 Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast.
21 These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus."
22 Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus.
23 Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.
24 Most assuredly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.
25 He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life.
26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.
27 "Now my soul is troubled. What will I say? Father, save me from this time? But for this cause
I came to this time.
28 Father, glorify your name!" Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."
29 The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."
30 Jesus answered, "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes.
31 Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out.
32 I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself."
33 But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die.
34 The multitude answered him, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever. How do you say, The Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?"
35 Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn't know where he is going.
36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them.
37 But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in him, 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, "Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

39 For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaiah said again, 40 "He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, And perceive with their heart, And would turn, And I would heal them."
41 Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory, and he spoke of him.
42 Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn't confess it, so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue, 43 for they loved men's approval more than God's approval.
44 Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me.
45 He who sees me sees him who sent me.
46 I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.
47 If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.
48 He who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day.
49 For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.
50 I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak."
1 Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that his time had come that he would depart out of this world to his Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.
2 After supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,
3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God,
and was going to God,
4 arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist.
5 Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.
6 Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"
7 Jesus answered him, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."
8 Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."
9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"
10 Jesus said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have their feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you."
11 For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, "You are not all clean."
12 So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?
13 You call me, Teacher and Lord. You say so correctly, for so I am.
14 If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.
16 Most assuredly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him.

17 If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.
18 I speak not of you all. I know whom I have chosen. But that the scripture may be fulfilled, He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.
19 From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I AM
20 Most assuredly I tell you, he who receives whoever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me.”
21 When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, “Most assuredly I tell you that one of you will betray me.”
22 The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom he spoke.
23 One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was at the table, leaning against Jesus breast.
24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, and said to him, “Tell us who it is of whom he speaks.”
25 He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus breast, asked him, “Lord, who is it?”
26 Jesus therefore answered, “It is he who I will give this morsel to when I have dipped it.” So when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.
27 After the morsel, then Satan entered into him. Jesus therefore said to him, “What you do, do quickly.”
28 Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him.
29 For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, “Buy what things we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor.
30 Therefore, having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.
31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in him.
32 If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately.
33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, Where I am going, you can t come, so now I tell you.
34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, just like I have loved you; that you also love one another.
35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”
36 Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus answered, “Where I am going, you can t follow now, but you will follow afterwards.”
37 Peter said to him, “Lord, why can t I follow you even now? I will lay down my life for you.”
38 Jesus answered him, “Will you lay down your life for me? Most assuredly I tell you, the rooster won t crow until you have denied me three times.
1 “Don t let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me.
2 In my Father s house are many mansions. If it weren t so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you.
3 If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also.
4 Where I go, you know, and you know the way.”
5 Thomas says to him, “Lord, we don t know where you are going. How can we know the way?”
6 Jesus said to him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, but by me.
7 If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on, you know him, and have seen him.”
8 Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.”

9 Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, Show us the Father?"

10 Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Father living in me does his works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works sake.

12 Most assuredly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and greater works than these will he do; because I am going to my Father.

13 Whatever you will ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If you will ask anything in my name, that will I do.

15 If you love me, keep my commandments.

16 I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, that he may be with you forever,

17 -- the Spirit of truth, whom the world can't receive; for it doesn't see him, neither knows him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you.

18 I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also.

20 In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 Someone who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him."

22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, what will happen that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23 Jesus answered him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him.

24 He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the Father's who sent me.

25 I have said these things to you, while still living with you.

26 But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your memory all that I said to you.

27 Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.

28 You heard how I told you, I go away, and I come to you. If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said I am going to my Father; for the Father is greater than I.

29 Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe.

30 I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer.

2 Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.

3 You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.

4 Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me.

5 I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

6 If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done to you.

8 In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples.

9 Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love.

10 If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love.

11 I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full.

12 This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you.

13 Greater love has no one than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you.

15 No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you.

16 You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

17 I command these things to you, that you may love one another.

18 If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you.

19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.

20 Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they don't know him who sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 He who hates me, hates my Father also.

24 If I hadn't done among them the works which none other did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Father.

25 But that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 When the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me.

27 You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

1 "These things have I spoken to you, so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble.

2 They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God.

3 They will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, Where are you going?

6 But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you.

8 When he has come, he will convict the world in respect to sin, and righteousness, and judgment;

9 of sin, because they don't believe in me;

10 of righteousness, because I am going to my Father, and you see me no more;

11 of judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

12 I have yet many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now.

13 However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever things he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you the things that are to come.

14 He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you.

15 All things whatever the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes of mine, and will declare it to you.

16 A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me."

17 Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me; and, Because I go to the Father?"

18 They said therefore, "What is this that he says, A little while? We don't know what he is saying."

19 Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?"

20 Most assuredly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.

21 A woman, when she is in travail, has sorrow, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a child is born into the world.

22 You therefore now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

23 In that day you will ask me no question. Most assuredly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father, he will give it to you in my name.

24 Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full.

25 I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time comes when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father.

26 In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you,

27 for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God.

28 I came out from the Father, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father."

29 His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech.

30 Now we know that you know all things, and don't need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came forth from God."

31 Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?"

32 Behold, the time comes, yes, has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world."

1 Jesus said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you;

2 even as you gave him authority over all flesh, that to all whom you have given him, he will give eternal life.

3 This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ.

4 I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do.

5 Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed.

6 I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word.

7 Now they know that all things whatever you have given me are from you,

8 for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they believed that you sent me.

9 I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.

10 All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves.

14 I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one.

16 They are not of the world even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth.

18 As you sent me into the world, even so I sent them into the world.

19 For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.

20 Neither for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word, 21 that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me.

22 The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one;

23 I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me.

24 Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world.

25 Righteous Father, the world didn't know you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me.

26 I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where was a garden, into which he entered, himself and his disciples.

2 Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often resorted there with his disciples.

3 Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming on him, went forth, and said to them, “Who are you looking for?”

5 They answered him, “Jesus of Nazareth.” Jesus said to them, “I AM” Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them.

6 When therefore he said to them, “I AM” they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Again therefore he asked them, “Who are you looking for?” They said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

8 Jesus answered, “I told you that I AM. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way,”

9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, “Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none.”

10 Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant’s name was Malchus.

11 Jesus therefore said to Peter, “Put up the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not drink it?”

12 So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him,

13 and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

14 Now it was Caiaphas who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest;

16 but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, “Are you also one of this man’s disciples?” He said, “I am not.”

18 Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching.

20 Jesus answered him, “I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret.

21 Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said.”

22 When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, “Do you answer the high priest like that?”

23 Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?”

24 Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest.

25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, “Are you also one of his disciples?” He denied it, and said, “I am not.”

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said, “Didn’t I see you in the garden with him?”

27 Peter therefore denied again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

28 They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.

29 Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

30 They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you."

31 Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death,"

32 that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

33 Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered him, "Do you say this of yourself, or did others tell it to you concerning me?"

35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"

36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here."

37 Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

38 Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him.

39 But you have a custom, that I should release to you one at the Passover. Therefore do you desire that I release to you the King of the Jews?"

40 Then they all cried out again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

1 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and flogged him.

2 The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment.

3 They said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they struck him with their hands.

4 Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him."

5 Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!"

6 When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him."

7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

8 When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid.

9 He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Pilate therefore said to him, "Aren't you speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?"

11 Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin."

12 At this, Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha."

14 Now it was the Preparation of the Passover, at about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold, your King!"

15 They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

16 Then therefore he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led him away.

17 He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called "The place of a skull," which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha," 18 where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle.

19 Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

20 Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Don't write, The King of the Jews, but that, he said, I am King of the Jews. "

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it will be," that the scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted my garments among them, For my cloak they cast lots." Therefore the soldiers did these things.

25 But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold your son!"

27 Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.

28 After this, Jesus, seeing that all things were now finished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty."

29 Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and brought it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

31 Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him;

33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs.

34 However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out.

35 He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe.

36 For these things happened, that the scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken."
37 Again another scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced."
38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus' body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore, and took away his body.
39 Nicodemus also came, he who at first came to Jesus by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds.
40 So they took Jesus' body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.
41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid.
42 Then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.
1 Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came early, while it was yet dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb.
2 She ran therefore, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!"
3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb.
4 They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first.
5 Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he didn't enter in.
6 Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, and the cloth that was on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself.
7 Then the other disciple also entered in therefore, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed.
8 For as yet they didn't know the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.
9 So the disciples went away again to their own homes.
10 But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb,
11 and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.
12 They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him."
13 When she had said this, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus.
14 Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."
15 Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned herself, and said to him, "Rhabbouni!" which is to say, "Teacher!"
16 Jesus said to her, "Don't touch me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.'"
17 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her.

- 19 When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be to you."
- 20 When he had said this, he showed to them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord.
- 21 Jesus therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you."
- 22 When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit!
- 23 Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven to them. Whoever's sins you retain, they are retained."
- 24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came.
- 25 The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."
- 26 After eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be to you."
- 27 Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be faithless, but believing."
- 28 Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"
- 29 Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."
- 30 Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book;
- 31 but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.
- 1 After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way.
- 2 Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together.
- 3 Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing." They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went forth, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing.
- 4 But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was Jesus.
- 5 Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered him, "No."
- 6 He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it in for the multitude of fish.
- 7 That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!" So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea.
- 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish.
- 9 So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.
- 10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."
- 11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn.

- 12 Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord.
- 13 Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise.
- 14 This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead.
- 15 So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."
- 16 He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep."
- 17 He says to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?" Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, "Do you have affection for me?" He said to him, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.
- 18 Most assuredly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don't want to go."
- 19 Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."
- 20 Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus' breast at the supper and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray You?"
- 21 Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, "Lord, and what will this man do?"
- 22 Jesus said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me."
- 23 This saying therefore went forth among the brothers, that that disciple wouldn't die. Yet Jesus didn't say to him that he wouldn't die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?"
- 24 This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true.
- 25 There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn't contain the books that would be written.
- 1 Now it happened after the death of Moses the servant of Yahweh, that Yahweh spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,
- 2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you, and all this people, to the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.
- 3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread on, to you have I given it, as I spoke to Moses.
- 4 From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border.
- 5 There shall not any man be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not fail you, nor forsake you.
- 6 Be strong and of good courage; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.
- 7 Only be strong and very courageous, to observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded you; don't turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go.
- 8 This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate thereon day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written therein; for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success.

- 9 Haven't I commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed: for Y^hweh your God is with you wherever you go.
- 10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,
- 11 Pass through the midst of the camp, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days you are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which Y^hweh your God gives you to possess it.
- 12 To the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, spoke Joshua, saying,
- 13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of Y^hweh commanded you, saying, Y^hweh your God gives you rest, and will give you this land.
- 14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall abide in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but you shall pass over before your brothers armed, all the mighty men of valor, and shall help them;
- 15 until Y^hweh have given your brothers rest, as [he has given] you, and they also have possessed the land which Y^hweh your God gives them; then you shall return to the land of your possession, and possess it, which Moses the servant of Y^hweh gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.
- 16 They answered Joshua, saying, All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.
- 17 According as we listened to Moses in all things, so will we listen to you: only Y^hweh your God be with you, as he was with Moses.
- 18 Whoever he be who shall rebel against your commandment, and shall not listen to your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of good courage.
- 1 Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men as spies secretly, saying, Go, view the land, and Jericho. They went and came into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and lay there.
- 2 It was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in here tonight of the children of Israel to search out the land.
- 3 The king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men who are come to you, who have entered into your house; for they have come to search out all the land.
- 4 The woman took the two men, and hid them; and she said, Yes, the men came to me, but I didn't know whence they were:
- 5 and it happened about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out; where the men went I don't know: pursue after them quickly; for you will overtake them.
- 6 But she had brought them up to the roof, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof.
- 7 The men pursued after them the way to the Jordan to the fords; and as soon as those who pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.
- 8 Before they were laid down, she came up to them on the roof;
- 9 and she said to the men, I know that Y^hweh has given you the land, and that the fear of you is fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you.
- 10 For we have heard how Y^hweh dried up the water of the Red Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you utterly destroyed.
- 11 As soon as we had heard it, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more spirit in any man, because of you: for Y^hweh your God, he is God in heaven above, and on earth beneath.
- 12 Now therefore, please swear to me by Y^hweh, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a true token;

- 13 and that you will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death.
- 14 The men said to her, Our life for yours, if you don't utter this our business; and it shall be, when Yāhweh gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.
- 15 Then she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was on the side of the wall, and she lived on the wall.
- 16 She said to them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers light on you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned; and afterward may you go your way.
- 17 The men said to her, We will be guiltless of this your oath which you have made us to swear.
- 18 Behold, when we come into the land, you shall bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which you did let us down by; and you shall gather to you into the house your father, and your mother, and your brothers, and all your father's household.
- 19 It shall be, that whoever shall go out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his head, and we shall be guiltless; and whoever shall be with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be on him.
- 20 But if you utter this our business, then we shall be guiltless of your oath which you have made us to swear.
- 21 She said, According to your words, so be it. She sent them away, and they departed; and she bound the scarlet line in the window.
- 22 They went, and came to the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned; and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but didn't find them.
- 23 Then the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun; and they told him all that had befallen them.
- 24 They said to Joshua, Truly Yāhweh has delivered into our hands all the land; and moreover all the inhabitants of the land do melt away before us.
- 1 Joshua rose up early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel; and they lodged there before they passed over.
- 2 It happened after three days, that the officers went through the midst of the camp;
- 3 and they commanded the people, saying, When you see the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall remove from your place, and go after it.
- 4 Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure; don't come near to it, that you may know the way by which you must go; for you have not passed this way heretofore.
- 5 Joshua said to the people, Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow Yāhweh will do wonders among you.
- 6 Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. They took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.
- 7 Yāhweh said to Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.
- 8 You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When you are come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.
- 9 Joshua said to the children of Israel, Come here, and hear the words of Yāhweh your God.
- 10 Joshua said, Hereby you shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Hivite, and the Perizzite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Jebusite.
- 11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passes over before you into the Jordan.
- 12 Now therefore take twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, for every tribe a man.

- 13 It shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of Yāhweh, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, even the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand in one heap.
- 14 It happened, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant being before the people;
- 15 and when those who bore the ark were come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark were dipped in the brink of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the time of harvest,)
- 16 that the waters which came down from above stood, and rose up in one heap, a great way off, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those that went down toward the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho.
- 17 The priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan; and all Israel passed over on dry ground, until all the nation were passed clean over the Jordan.
- 1 It happened, when all the nation were clean passed over the Jordan, that Yāhweh spoke to Joshua, saying,
- 2 Take twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,
- 3 and command you them, saying, Take hence out of the midst of the Jordan, out of the place where the priests feet stood firm, twelve stones, and carry them over with you, and lay them down in the lodging-place, where you shall lodge this night.
- 4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:
- 5 and Joshua said to them, Pass over before the ark of Yāhweh your God into the midst of the Jordan, and take up every man of you a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel;
- 6 that this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask in time to come, saying, What do you mean by these stones?
- 7 then you shall tell them, Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh; when it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.
- 8 The children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, as Yāhweh spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.
- 9 Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there to this day.
- 10 For the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan, until everything was finished that Yāhweh commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hurried and passed over.
- 11 It happened, when all the people had completely passed over, that the ark of Yāhweh passed over, with the priests, in the presence of the people.
- 12 The children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spoke to them:
- 13 about forty thousand ready armed for war passed over before Yāhweh to battle, to the plains of Jericho.
- 14 On that day Yāhweh magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

- 15 Yahweh spoke to Joshua, saying,
- 16 Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of the Jordan.
- 17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come you up out of the Jordan.
- 18 It happened, when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh were come up out of the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests feet were lifted up to the dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks, as before.
- 19 The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, on the east border of Jericho.
- 20 Those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, did Joshua set up in Gilgal.
- 21 He spoke to the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?
- 22 Then you shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land.
- 23 For Yahweh your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before you, until you were passed over, as Yahweh your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were passed over;
- 24 that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of Yahweh, that it is mighty; that you may fear Yahweh your God forever.
- 1 It happened, when all the kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard how that Yahweh had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.
- 2 At that time Yahweh said to Joshua, Make you flint knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.
- 3 Joshua made himself flint knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.
- 4 This is the cause why Joshua did circumcise; all the people who came forth out of Egypt, who were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came forth out of Egypt.
- 5 For all the people who came out were circumcised; but all the people who were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, they had not circumcised.
- 6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, even the men of war who came forth out of Egypt, were consumed, because they didn't listen to the voice of Yahweh; to whom Yahweh swore that he wouldn't let them see the land which Yahweh swore to their fathers that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 7 Their children, whom he raised up in their place, them did Joshua circumcise: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.
- 8 It happened, when they had done circumcising all the nation, that they abode in their places in the camp, until they were whole.
- 9 Yahweh said to Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. Therefore the name of that place was called Gilgal, to this day.
- 10 The children of Israel encamped in Gilgal; and they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho.
- 11 They ate of the produce of the land on the next day after the Passover, unleavened cakes and parched grain, in the same day.
- 12 The manna ceased on the next day, after they had eaten of the produce of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

- 13 It happened, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand; and Joshua went to him, and said to him, Are you for us, or for our adversaries?
- 14 He said, No; but [as] prince of the host of Yāhweh am I now come. Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said to him, What says my lord to his servant?
- 15 The prince of Yāhweh's host said to Joshua, Put off your shoe from off your foot; for the place whereon you stand is holy. Joshua did so.
- 1 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in.
- 2 Yāhweh said to Joshua, Behold, I have given into your hand Jericho, and the king of it, and the mighty men of valor.
- 3 You shall compass the city, all the men of war, going about the city once. Thus shall you do six days.
- 4 Seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark; and the seventh day you shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.
- 5 It shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him.
- 6 Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said to them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of Yāhweh.
- 7 They said to the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let the armed men pass on before the ark of Yāhweh.
- 8 It was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yāhweh passed on, and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh followed them.
- 9 The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rearward went after the ark, [the priests] blowing the trumpets as they went.
- 10 Joshua commanded the people, saying, You shall not shout, nor let your voice be heard, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall you shout.
- 11 So he caused the ark of Yāhweh to compass the city, going about it once; and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.
- 12 Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of Yāhweh.
- 13 The seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of Yāhweh went on continually, and blew the trumpets; and the armed men went before them; and the rearward came after the ark of Yāhweh, [the priests] blowing the trumpets as they went.
- 14 The second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp; so they did six days.
- 15 It happened on the seventh day, that they rose early at the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times; only on the day they compassed the city seven times.
- 16 It happened at the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, Shout; for Yāhweh has given you the city.
- 17 The city shall be devoted, even it and all that is therein, to Yāhweh: only Rahab the prostitute shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.
- 18 But as for you, only keep yourselves from the devoted thing, lest when you have devoted it, you take of the devoted thing; so would you make the camp of Israel accursed, and trouble it.
- 19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are holy to Yāhweh; they shall come into the treasury of Yāhweh.

- 20 So the people shouted, and [the priests] blew the trumpets; and it happened, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, that the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.
- 21 They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, both young and old, and ox, and sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword.
- 22 Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, Go into the prostitute's house, and bring out there the woman, and all that she has, as you swore to her.
- 23 The young men the spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brothers, and all that she had; all her relatives also they brought out; and they set them outside of the camp of Israel.
- 24 They burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein; only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of Yāhweh.
- 25 But Rahab the prostitute, and her father's household, and all that she had, did Joshua save alive; and she lived in the midst of Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers, whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.
- 26 Joshua charged them with an oath at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before Yāhweh, that rises up and builds this city Jericho: with the loss of his firstborn shall he lay the foundation of it, and with the loss of his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.
- 27 So Yāhweh was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.
- 1 But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the devoted thing; for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the devoted thing; and the anger of Yāhweh was kindled against the children of Israel.
- 2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, Go up and spy out the land. The men went up and spied out Ai.
- 3 They returned to Joshua, and said to him, Don't let all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai; don't make all the people to toil there; for they are but few.
- 4 So there went up there of the people about three thousand men; and they fled before the men of Ai.
- 5 The men of Ai struck of them about thirty-six men; and they chased them [from] before the gate even to Shebarim, and struck them at the descent; and the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.
- 6 Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of Yāhweh until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.
- 7 Joshua said, Alas, Lord Yāhweh, why have you at all brought this people over the Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to cause us to perish? would that we had been content and lived beyond the Jordan!
- 8 Oh, Lord, what shall I say, after that Israel has turned their backs before their enemies!
- 9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will compass us round, and cut off our name from the earth; and what will you do for your great name?
- 10 Yāhweh said to Joshua, Get you up; why are you thus fallen on your face?
- 11 Israel has sinned; yes, they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: yes, they have even taken of the devoted thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also; and they have even put it among their own stuff.
- 12 Therefore the children of Israel can't stand before their enemies; they turn their backs before their enemies, because they are become accursed: I will not be with you any more, except you destroy the devoted thing from among you.

- 13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow: for thus says Yāhweh, the God of Israel, There is a devoted thing in the midst of you, Israel; you can not stand before your enemies, until you take away the devoted thing from among you.
- 14 In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes; and it shall be, that the tribe which Yāhweh takes shall come near by families; and the family which Yāhweh shall take shall come near by households; and the household which Yāhweh shall take shall come near man by man.
- 15 It shall be, that he who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he has; because he has transgressed the covenant of Yāhweh, and because he has done folly in Israel.
- 16 So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel near by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:
- 17 and he brought near the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zerahites; and he brought near the family of the Zerahites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:
- 18 and he brought near his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.
- 19 Joshua said to Achan, My son, please give glory to Yāhweh, the God of Israel, and make confession to him; and tell me now what you have done; don't hide it from me.
- 20 Achan answered Joshua, and said, Of a truth I have sinned against Yāhweh, the God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done:
- 21 when I saw among the spoil a goodly Babylonian mantle, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.
- 22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.
- 23 They took them from the midst of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the children of Israel; and they laid them down before Yāhweh.
- 24 Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the mantle, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his donkeys, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them up to the valley of Achor.
- 25 Joshua said, Why have you troubled us? Yāhweh shall trouble you this day. All Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones.
- 26 They raised over him a great heap of stones, to this day; and Yāhweh turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place was called "The valley of Achor" to this day.
- 1 Yāhweh said to Joshua, Don't be afraid, neither be you dismayed: take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai; behold, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land;
- 2 You shall do to Ai and her king as you did to Jericho and her king: only the spoil of it, and the cattle of it, shall you take for a prey to yourselves: set you an ambush for the city behind it.
- 3 So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai; and Joshua chose out thirty thousand men, the mighty men of valor, and sent them forth by night.
- 4 He commanded them, saying, Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city; don't go very far from the city, but be you all ready:
- 5 and I, and all the people who are with me, will approach to the city. It shall happen, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them;
- 6 and they will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: so we will flee before them;

- 7 and you shall rise up from the ambush, and take possession of the city: for Yāhweh your God will deliver it into your hand.
- 8 It shall be, when you have seized on the city, that you shall set the city on fire; according to the word of Yāhweh shall you do: behold, I have commanded you.
- 9 Joshua sent them forth; and they went to set up the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people.
- 10 Joshua arose up early in the morning, and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.
- 11 All the people, [even] the [men of] war who were with him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between him and Ai.
- 12 He took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.
- 13 So they set the people, even all the host who was on the north of the city, and their liers-in-wait who were on the west of the city; and Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.
- 14 It happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hurried and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the Arabah; but he didn't know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.
- 15 Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.
- 16 All the people who were in the city were called together to pursue after them; and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.
- 17 There was not a man left in Ai or Beth-el, who didn't go out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.
- 18 Yāhweh said to Joshua, Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand. Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city.
- 19 The ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and entered into the city, and took it; and they hurried and set the city on fire.
- 20 When the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people who fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.
- 21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and killed the men of Ai.
- 22 The others came forth out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they struck them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.
- 23 The king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.
- 24 It happened, when Israel had made an end of killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness in which they pursued them, and they were all fallen by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all Israel returned to Ai, and struck it with the edge of the sword.
- 25 All that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.
- 26 For Joshua didn't draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.
- 27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for prey to themselves, according to the word of Yāhweh which he commanded Joshua.
- 28 So Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap forever, even a desolation, to this day.

29 The king of Ai he hanged on a tree until the evening; and at the going down of the sun Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, and cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised thereon a great heap of stones, to this day.

30 Then Joshua built an altar to Yáhwéh, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal, 31 as Moses the servant of Yáhwéh commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones, on which no man had lifted up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings to Yáhwéh, and sacrificed peace-offerings.

32 He wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote, in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 All Israel, and their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of Yáhwéh, as well the sojourner as the native; half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of Yáhwéh had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel.

34 Afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua didn't read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the sojourners who were among them.

1 It happened, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill-country, and in the lowland, and on all the shore of the great sea in front of Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of it;

2 that they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

3 But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,

4 they also resorted to a ruse, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks on their donkeys, and wine-skins, old and torn and bound up,

5 and old and patched shoes on their feet, and old garments on them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and was become moldy.

6 They went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him, and to the men of Israel, We are come from a far country: now therefore make you a covenant with us.

7 The men of Israel said to the Hivites, What if you dwell among us; and how shall we make a covenant with you?

8 They said to Joshua, We are your servants. Joshua said to them, Who are you? and from whence come you?

9 They said to him, From a very far country your servants are come because of the name of Yáhwéh your God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

10 and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.

11 Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, Take provision in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and tell them, We are your servants: and now make you a covenant with us.

12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go to you; but now, behold, it is dry, and is become moldy:

13 and these wine-skins, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they are torn: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

14 The men took of their provision, and didn't ask counsel at the mouth of Yáhwéh.

- 15 Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the princes of the congregation swore to them.
- 16 It happened at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they lived among them.
- 17 The children of Israel journeyed, and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.
- 18 The children of Israel didn't strike them, because the princes of the congregation had sworn to them by Yáhweh, the God of Israel. All the congregation murmured against the princes.
- 19 But all the princes said to all the congregation, We have sworn to them by Yáhweh, the God of Israel; now therefore we may not touch them.
- 20 This we will do to them, and let them live; lest wrath be on us, because of the oath which we swore to them.
- 21 The princes said to them, Let them live; so they became wood cutters and drawers of water to all the congregation, as the princes had spoken to them.
- 22 Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, Why have you deceived us, saying, We are very far from you; when you dwell among us?
- 23 Now therefore you are cursed, and there shall never fail to be of you bondservants, both wood cutters and drawers of water for the house of my God.
- 24 They answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told your servants, how that Yáhweh your God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore we were sore afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.
- 25 Now, behold, we are in your hand; as it seems good and right to you to do to us, do.
- 26 So did he to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they didn't kill them.
- 27 That day Joshua made those wood cutters and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of Yáhweh, to this day, in the place which he should choose.
- 1 Now it happened, when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;
- 2 that they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men of it were mighty.
- 3 Therefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,
- 4 Come up to me, and help me, and let us strike Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.
- 5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it.
- 6 The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Don't slack your hand from your servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill-country are gathered together against us.
- 7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.
- 8 Yáhweh said to Joshua, Don't fear them; for I have delivered them into your hands; there shall not a man of them stand before you.

- 9 Joshua therefore came on them suddenly; [for] he went up from Gilgal all the night.
- 10 Yāhweh confused them before Israel, and he killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon, and struck them to Azekah, and to Makkedah.
- 11 It happened, as they fled from before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth-horon, that Yāhweh cast down great stones from the sky on them to Azekah, and they died: they were more who died with the hailstones than they whom the children of Israel killed with the sword.
- 12 Then spoke Joshua to Yāhweh in the day when Yāhweh delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel; and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand you still on Gibeon; You, Moon, in the valley of Aijalon.
- 13 The sun stood still, and the moon stayed, Until the nation had avenged themselves of their enemies. Isn't this written in the book of Jashar? The sun stayed in the midst of the sky, and didn't hurry to go down about a whole day.
- 14 There was no day like that before it or after it, that Yāhweh listened to the voice of a man: for Yāhweh fought for Israel.
- 15 Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal.
- 16 These five kings fled, and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah.
- 17 It was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah.
- 18 Joshua said, Roll great stones to the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to keep them:
- 19 but don't stay; pursue after your enemies, and strike the hindmost of them; don't allow them to enter into their cities: for Yāhweh your God has delivered them into your hand.
- 20 It happened, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of killing them with a very great slaughter, until they were consumed, and the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities,
- 21 that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.
- 22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring forth those five kings to me out of the cave.
- 23 They did so, and brought forth those five kings to him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon.
- 24 It happened, when they brought forth those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who went with him, Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings. They came near, and put their feet on the necks of them.
- 25 Joshua said to them, Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage: for thus shall Yāhweh do to all your enemies against whom you fight.
- 26 Afterward Joshua struck them, and put them to death, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging on the trees until the evening.
- 27 It happened at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and laid great stones on the mouth of the cave, to this very day.
- 28 Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and the king of it: he utterly destroyed them and all the souls who were therein; he left none remaining; and he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.
- 29 Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah:
- 30 and Yāhweh delivered it also, and the king of it, into the hand of Israel; and he struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were therein; he left none remaining in it; and he did to the king of it as he had done to the king of Jericho.

- 31 Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Tachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it;
- 32 and Yehweh delivered Tachish into the hand of Israel; and he took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.
- 33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Tachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.
- 34 Joshua passed from Tachish, and all Israel with him, to Eglon; and they encamped against it, and fought against it;
- 35 and they took it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword; and all the souls who were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Tachish.
- 36 Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it;
- 37 and they took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and the king of it, and all the cities of it, and all the souls who were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but he utterly destroyed it, and all the souls who were therein.
- 38 Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it;
- 39 and he took it, and the king of it, and all the cities of it; and they struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls who were therein; he left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king of it; as he had done also to Libnah, and to the king of it.
- 40 So Joshua struck all the land, the hill-country, and the South, and the lowland, and the slopes, and all their kings; he left none remaining, but he utterly destroyed all that breathed, as Yehweh, the God of Israel, commanded.
- 41 Joshua struck them from Qadesh-barnea even to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even to Gibeon.
- 42 All these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because Yehweh, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.
- 43 Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal.
- 1 It happened, when Jabin king of Hazor heard of it, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,
- 2 and to the kings who were on the north, in the hill-country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west,
- 3 to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill-country, and the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
- 4 They went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that is on the sea-shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.
- 5 All these kings met together; and they came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.
- 6 Yehweh said to Joshua, Don't be afraid because of them; for tomorrow at this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: you shall hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.
- 7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell on them.
- 8 Yehweh delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them, and chased them to great Sidon, and to Misrephoth-maim, and to the valley of Mizpah eastward; and they struck them, until they left them none remaining.
- 9 Joshua did to them as Yehweh bade him; he hamstrung their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

- 10 Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck the king of it with the sword; for Hazor before was the head of all those kingdoms.
- 11 They struck all the souls who were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them; there was none left who breathed; and he burnt Hazor with fire.
- 12 All the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; as Moses the servant of Yâhweh commanded.
- 13 But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn.
- 14 All the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey to themselves; but every man they struck with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any who breathed.
- 15 As Yâhweh commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua; and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that Yâhweh commanded Moses.
- 16 So Joshua took all that land, the hill-country, and all the South, and all the land of Goshen, and the lowland, and the Arabah, and the hill-country of Israel, and the lowland of the same;
- 17 from Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon; and all their kings he took, and struck them, and put them to death.
- 18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.
- 19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon; they took all in battle.
- 20 For it was of Yâhweh to harden their hearts, to come against Israel in battle, that he might utterly destroy them, that they might have no favor, but that he might destroy them, as Yâhweh commanded Moses.
- 21 Joshua came at that time, and cut off the Anakim from the hill-country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill-country of Judah, and from all the hill-country of Israel: Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.
- 22 There was none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain.
- 23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that Yâhweh spoke to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. The land had rest from war.
- 1 Now these are the kings of the land, whom the children of Israel struck, and possessed their land beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah eastward:
- 2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and [the city that is in] the middle of the valley, and half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, the border of the children of Ammon;
- 3 and the Arabah to the sea of Chinneroth, eastward, and to the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, eastward, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and on the south, under the slopes of Pisgah;
- 4 and the border of Og king of Bashan, of the remnant of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,
- 5 and ruled in Mount Hermon, and in Salecah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.
- 6 Moses the servant of Yâhweh and the children of Israel struck them; and Moses the servant of Yâhweh gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

7 These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even to Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir; and Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions;
8 in the hill-country, and in the lowland, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the South; the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite;
9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;
10 the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;
11 the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Tachish, one;
12 the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;
13 the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;
14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;
15 the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;
16 the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;
17 the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hopher, one;
18 the king of Aphek, one; the king of Tassharon, one;
19 the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;
20 the king of Shimron-meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one;
21 the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;
22 the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;
23 the king of Dor in the height of Dor, one; the king of Goyim in Gilgal, one;
24 the king of Tirzah, one; all the kings thirty-one.

1 Now Joshua was old and well stricken in years; and Yahweh said to him, You are old and well stricken in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed.
2 This is the land that yet remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites;
3 from the Shihor, which is before Egypt, even to the border of Ekron northward, [which] is reckoned to the Canaanites; the five lords of the Philistines; the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Arvim,
4 on the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;
5 and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal-gad under Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath;
6 all the inhabitants of the hill-country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, even all the Sidonians; them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only allot you it to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.
7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.
8 With him the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of Yahweh gave them:
9 from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba to Dibon;
10 and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon;
11 and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah;

- 12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (the same was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for these did Moses strike, and drove them out.
- 13 Nevertheless the children of Israel didn't drive out the Geshurites, nor the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.
- 14 Only to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance; the offerings of Yahweh, the God of Israel, made by fire are his inheritance, as he spoke to him.
- 15 Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families.
- 16 Their border was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba;
- 17 Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,
- 18 and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,
- 19 and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar in the mount of the valley,
- 20 and Beth-peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,
- 21 and all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land.
- 22 Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel kill with the sword among the rest of their slain.
- 23 The border of the children of Reuben was the Jordan, and the border [of it]. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and the villages of it.
- 24 Moses gave to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad, according to their families.
- 25 Their border was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, to Aroer that is before Rabbah;
- 26 and from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir;
- 27 and in the valley, Beth-haram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan and the border [of it], to the uttermost part of the sea of Chinnereth beyond the Jordan eastward.
- 28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and the villages of it.
- 29 Moses gave [inheritance] to the half-tribe of Manasseh; and it was for the half-tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families.
- 30 Their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities;
- 31 and half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even for the half of the children of Machir according to their families.
- 32 These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho, eastward.
- 33 But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance: Yahweh, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he spoke to them.
- 1 These are the inheritances which the children of Israel took in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers [houses] of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed to them,
- 2 by the lot of their inheritance, as Yahweh commanded by Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.
4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; and they gave no portion to the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of it for their cattle and for their substance.
5 As Yâhweh commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; and they divided the land.
6 Then the children of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, You know the thing that Yâhweh spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh-barnea.
7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of Yâhweh sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in my heart.
8 Nevertheless my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed Yâhweh my God.
9 Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have wholly followed Yâhweh my God.
10 Now, behold, Yâhweh has kept me alive, as he spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that Yâhweh spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness; and now, behold, I am this day eighty-five years old.
11 As yet I am as strong this day as I as in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, and to go out and to come in.
12 Now therefore give me this hill-country, whereof Yâhweh spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and cities great and fortified: it may be that Yâhweh will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as Yâhweh spoke.
13 Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.
14 Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day; because that he wholly followed Yâhweh, the God of Israel.
15 Now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath-arba; [which Arba was] the greatest man among the Anakim. The land had rest from war.
1 The lot for the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families was to the border of Edom, even to the wilderness of Zin southward, at the uttermost part of the south.
2 Their south border was from the uttermost part of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looks southward;
3 and it went out southward of the ascent of Akkrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and went up by the south of Kadesh-barnea, and passed along by Hebron, and went up to Addar, and turned about to Karka;
4 and it passed along to Azmon, and went out at the brook of Egypt; and the goings out of the border were at the sea; this shall be your south border.
5 The east border was the Salt Sea, even to the end of the Jordan. The border of the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan;
6 and the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;
7 and the border went up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is over against the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the river; and the border passed along to the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out of it were at En-rogel;
8 and the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite southward (the same is Jerusalem); and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the uttermost part of the vale of Rephaim northward;

- 9 and the border extended from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border extended to Baalah (the same is Kiriath-jearim);
- 10 and the border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (the same is Chesalon), and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed along by Timnah;
- 11 and the border went out to the side of Ekron northward; and the border extended to Shikkeron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out at Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.
- 12 The west border was to the great sea, and the border [of it]. This is the border of the children of Judah round about according to their families.
- 13 To Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a portion among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of Yahweh to Joshua, even Kiriath-arba, [which Arba was] the father of Anak (the same is Hebron).
- 14 Caleb drove out there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.
- 15 He went up there against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir before was Kiriath-sepher.
- 16 Caleb said, He who strikes Kiriath-sepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife.
- 17 Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.
- 18 It happened, when she came [to him], that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she alighted from off her donkey; and Caleb said, What would you?
- 19 She said, Give me a blessing; for that you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water. He gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.
- 20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.
- 21 The uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the border of Edom in the South were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur,
- 22 and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,
- 23 and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,
- 24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,
- 25 and Hazor-hadattah, and Kerioth-hezron (the same is Hazor),
- 26 Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,
- 27 and Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-pelet,
- 28 and Hazar-shual, and Beersheba, and Biziothiah,
- 29 Baalah, and Tim, and Ezem,
- 30 and Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah,
- 31 and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,
- 32 and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon; all the cities are twenty-nine, with their villages.
- 33 In the lowland, Eshtaol, and Zorah, and Ashnah,
- 34 and Zanoah, and En-gannim, Tappuah, and Enam,
- 35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,
- 36 and Shaaraim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages.

37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad,
 38 and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel,
 39 Tachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon,
 40 and Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Chitlish,
 41 and Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages.
 42 Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan,
 43 and Iphtah, and Ashnah, and Neziib,
 44 and Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages.
 45 Ekron, with its towns and its villages;
 46 from Ekron even to the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod, with their villages.
 47 Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; to the brook of Egypt, and the great sea, and the border [of it].
 48 In the hill-country, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh,
 49 and Dannah, and Kiriath-sannah (the same is Debir),
 50 and Anab, and Eshtemoth, and Anim,
 51 and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages.
 52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshan,
 53 and Janim, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah,
 54 and Humtah, and Kiriath-arba (the same is Hebron), and Zior; nine cities with their villages.
 55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Jutah,
 56 and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,
 57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages.
 58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor,
 59 and Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages.
 60 Kiriath-baal (the same is Kiriath-jearim), and Rabbah; two cities with their villages.
 61 In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah,
 62 and Nibshan, and the City of Salt, and En-gedi; six cities with their villages.
 63 As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.
 1 The lot came out for the children of Joseph from the Jordan at Jericho, at the waters of Jericho on the east, even the wilderness, going up from Jericho through the hill-country to Bethel;
 2 and it went out from Bethel to Luz, and passed along to the border of the Archites to Ataroth;
 3 and it went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, to the border of Beth-horon the nether, even to Gezer; and the goings out of it were at the sea.
 4 The children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.
 5 The border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was [thus]: the border of their inheritance eastward was Ataroth-addar, to Beth-horon the upper;
 6 and the border went out westward at Michmethath on the north; and the border turned about eastward to Taanath-shiloh, and passed along it on the east of Janoah; 7 and it went down from Janoah to Ataroth, and to Naarah, and reached to Jericho, and went out at the Jordan.

8 From Tappuah the border went along westward to the brook of Kanah; and the goings out of it were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families; together with the cities which were set apart for the children of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 They didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and are become servants to do forced labor.

1 [This] was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the firstborn of Joseph. As for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 So [the lot] was for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hopher, and for the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

3 But Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 They came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, Yehweh commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers; therefore according to the commandment of Yehweh he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father.

5 There fell ten parts to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan; because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh.

7 The border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem; and the border went along to the right hand, to the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh; but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.

9 The border went down to the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook; these cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh; and the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and the goings out of it were at the sea:

10 southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border; and they reached to Asher on the north, and to Issachar on the east.

11 Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Beth-shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns, even the three heights.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh couldn't drive out [the inhabitants of] those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 It happened, when the children of Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and didn't utterly drive them out.

14 The children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, Why have you given me but one lot and one part for an inheritance, seeing I am a great people, because hitherto Yehweh has blessed me?

15 Joshua said to them, If you be a great people, get you up to the forest, and cut down for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim; since the hill-country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.

16 The children of Joseph said, The hill-country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are in Beth-shean and its towns, and they who are in the valley of Jezreel.

- 17 Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, You are a great people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot only;
- 18 but the hill-country shall be yours; for though it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and the goings out of it shall be your; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong.
- 1 The whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled themselves together at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there; and the land was subdued before them.
- 2 There remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet divided their inheritance.
- 3 Joshua said to the children of Israel, How long are you slack to go in to possess the land, which Yāhweh, the God of your fathers, has given you?
- 4 Appoint for you three men of each tribe; and I will send them, and they shall arise, and walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance; and they shall come to me.
- 5 They shall divide it into seven portions: Judah shall abide in his border on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their border on the north.
- 6 You shall describe the land into seven portions, and bring [the description] here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before Yāhweh our God.
- 7 For the Levites have no portion among you; for the priesthood of Yāhweh is their inheritance; and Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of Yāhweh gave them.
- 8 The men arose, and went; and Joshua charged those who went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me; and I will cast lots for you here before Yāhweh in Shiloh.
- 9 The men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven portions in a book; and they came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh.
- 10 Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before Yāhweh; and there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.
- 11 The lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families; and the border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.
- 12 Their border on the north quarter was from the Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill-country westward; and the goings out of it were at the wilderness of Beth-aven.
- 13 The border passed along from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (the same is Bethel), southward; and the border went down to Ataroth-addar, by the mountain that lies on the south of Beth-horon the nether.
- 14 The border extended [there], and turned about on the west quarter southward, from the mountain that lies before Beth-horon southward; and the goings out of it were at Kiriath-baal (the same is Kiriath-jearim), a city of the children of Judah; this was the west quarter.
- 15 The south quarter was from the uttermost part of Kiriath-jearim; and the border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah;
- 16 and the border went down to the uttermost part of the mountain that lies before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the vale of Rephaim northward; and it went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En-rogel;
- 17 and it extended northward, and went out at En-shemesh, and went out to Gelifoth, which is over against the ascent of Adummim; and it went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;
- 18 and it passed along to the side over against the Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah;

19 and the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward; and the goings out of the border were at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan; this was the south border.

20 The Jordan was the border of it on the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the borders of it round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and Emek-keziz,

22 and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel,

23 and Arvim, and Parah, and Ophrah,

24 and Chephar-ammoni, and Ophni, and Geba; twelve cities with their villages:

25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

26 and Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,

27 and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,

28 and Zelah, Eleph, and the Jebusite (the same is Jerusalem), Gibeath, [and] Kiriath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

1 The second lot came out for Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families; and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 They had for their inheritance Beersheba, or Sheba, and Moladah,

3 and Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Ezem,

4 and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,

5 and Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah,

6 and Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhem; thirteen cities with their villages:

7 Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities with their villages:

8 and all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramah of the South. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

9 Out of the part of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them; therefore the children of Simeon had inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.

10 The third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families; and the border of their inheritance was to Sarid;

11 and their border went up westward, even to Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth; and it reached to the brook that is before Jokneam;

12 and it turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrise to the border of Chisloth-tabor; and it went out to Daberath, and went up to Japhia;

13 and from there it passed along eastward to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin; and it went out at Rimmon which stretches to Neah;

14 and the border turned about it on the north to Hannathon; and the goings out of it were at the valley of Aphtah-el;

15 and Kattath, and Nahalal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem; twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, even for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18 Their border was to Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,

19 and Hapharaim, and Shion, and Anaharath,

20 and Rabbith, and Kishion, and Ebez,
 21 and Remeth, and Engannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez,
 22 and the border reached to Tabor, and Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh; and the goings out of their border were at the Jordan; sixteen cities with their villages.
 23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities with their villages.
 24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.
 25 Their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph,
 26 and Allammelech, and Amad, and Mishal; and it reached to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath;
 27 and it turned toward the sunrise to Beth-dagon, and reached to Zebulun, and to the valley of Iphtah-el northward to Beth-emek and Neiel; and it went out to Cabul on the left hand,
 28 and Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even to great Sidon;
 29 and the border turned to Ramah, and to the fortified city of Tyre; and the border turned to Hosah; and the goings out of it were at the sea by the region of Achzib;
 30 Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob; twenty-two cities with their villages.
 31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.
 32 The sixth lot came out for the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.
 33 Their border was from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and Adaminekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakkum; and the goings out of it were at the Jordan;
 34 and the border turned westward to Agnoth-tabor, and went out from there to Hukkok; and it reached to Zebulun on the south, and reached to Asher on the west, and to Judah at the Jordan toward the sunrise.
 35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,
 36 and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,
 37 and Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor,
 38 Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.
 39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities with their villages.
 40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.
 41 The border of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh,
 42 and Shaalabbin, and Aijalon, and Ithlah,
 43 and Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron,
 44 and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,
 45 and Jehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon,
 46 and Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border over against Joppa.
 47 The border of the children of Dan went out beyond them; for the children of Dan went up and fought against Ieshem, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and lived therein, and called Ieshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.
 48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 So they made an end of distributing the land for inheritance by the borders of it; and the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun in the midst of them:

50 according to the commandment of Yáhweh they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath-serah in the hill-country of Ephraim; and he built the city, and lived therein.

51 These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers [houses] of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before Yáhweh, at the door of the tent of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the land.

1 Yáhweh spoke to Joshua, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Assign you the cities of refuge, whereof I spoke to you by Moses,

3 that the manslayer who kills any person unwittingly [and] unawares may flee there: and they shall be to you for a refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 He shall flee to one of those cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city; and they shall take him into the city to them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 If the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver up the manslayer into his hand; because he struck his neighbor unawares, and didn't hate him before.

6 He shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the manslayer return, and come to his own city, and to his own house, to the city from whence he fled.

7 They set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill-country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and Kiríath-arba (the same is Hebron) in the hill-country of Judah.

8 Beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness in the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the appointed cities for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them, that whoever kills any person unwittingly might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

1 Then came near the heads of fathers [houses] of the Levites to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of fathers [houses] of the tribes of the children of Israel;

2 and they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, Yáhweh commanded Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of it for our cattle.

3 The children of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, according to the commandment of Yáhweh, these cities with their suburbs.

4 The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites; and the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of the Simeonites, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 The rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 The children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 The children of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as Yáhweh commanded by Moses.

9 They gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are [here] mentioned by name:

10 and they were for the children of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi; for theirs was the first lot.

11 They gave them Kiriath-arba, [which Arba was] the father of Anak (the same is Hebron), in the hill-country of Judah, with the suburbs of it round about it.

12 But the fields of the city, and the villages of it, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

13 To the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Libnah with its suburbs,

14 and Jattir with its suburbs, and Eshtemoa with its suburbs,

15 and Holon with its suburbs, and Debir with its suburbs,

16 and Ain with its suburbs, and Juttah with its suburbs, [and] Beth-shemesh with its suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 Out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its suburbs, Geba with its suburbs, 18 Anathoth with its suburbs, and Almon with its suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 The families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, even the rest of the children of Kohath, they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

21 They gave them Shechem with its suburbs in the hill-country of Ephraim, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Gezer with its suburbs, 22 and Kibzaim with its suburbs, and Beth-horon with its suburbs; four cities.

23 Out of the tribe of Dan, Elteke with its suburbs, Gibbethon with its suburbs, 24 Aijalon with its suburbs, Gath-rimmon with its suburbs; four cities.

25 Out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with its suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities of the families of the rest of the children of Kohath were ten with their suburbs.

27 To the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the half-tribe of Manasseh [they gave] Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Be-eshterah with its suburbs; two cities.

28 Out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its suburbs, Daberath with its suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with its suburbs, En-gannim with its suburbs; four cities.

30 Out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its suburbs, Abdon with its suburbs, 31 Helkath with its suburbs, and Rehob with its suburbs; four cities.

32 Out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Hammoth-dor with its suburbs, and Kartan with its suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

34 To the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its suburbs, and Kartah with its suburbs, 35 Dimnah with its suburbs, Nahalal with its suburbs; four cities.

36 Out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its suburbs, and Jahaz with its suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs; four cities.

38 Out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Mahanaim with its suburbs,
39 Heshbon with its suburbs, Jazer with its suburbs; four cities in all.
40 All [these were] the cities of the children of Merari according to their families, even the rest of the families of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.
41 All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their suburbs.
42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them; thus it was with all these cities.
43 So Yahweh gave to Israel all the land which he swore to give to their fathers; and they possessed it, and lived therein.
44 Yahweh gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore to their fathers; and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; Yahweh delivered all their enemies into their hand.
45 There failed not anything of any good thing which Yahweh had spoken to the house of Israel; all came to pass.

1 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,
2 and said to them, You have kept all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you:
3 you have not left your brothers these many days to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of Yahweh your God.
4 Now Yahweh your God has given rest to your brothers, as he spoke to them; therefore now turn you, and get you to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave you beyond the Jordan.
5 Only take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, to love Yahweh your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.
6 So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their tents.
7 Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given [inheritance] in Bashan; but to the other half gave Joshua among their brothers beyond the Jordan westward; moreover when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them,
8 and spoke to them, saying, Return with much wealth to your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much clothing; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.
9 The children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the commandment of Yahweh by Moses.
10 When they came to the region about the Jordan, that is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, a great altar to look on.
11 The children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan, in the region about the Jordan, on the side that pertains to the children of Israel.
12 When the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up against them to war.
13 The children of Israel sent to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

- 14 and with him ten princes, one prince of a fathers house for each of the tribes of Israel; and they were everyone of them head of their fathers houses among the thousands of Israel.
- 15 They came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying,
- 16 Thus says the whole congregation of Yāhweh, What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following Yāhweh, in that you have built you an altar, to rebel this day against Yāhweh?
- 17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although there came a plague on the congregation of Yāhweh,
- 18 that you must turn away this day from following Yāhweh? and it will be, seeing you rebel today against Yāhweh, that tomorrow he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.
- 19 However, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass you over to the land of the possession of Yāhweh, in which Yāhweh s tent dwells, and take possession among us; but don t rebel against Yāhweh, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar besides the altar of Yāhweh our God.
- 20 Didn t Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the devoted thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man didn t perish alone in his iniquity.
- 21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of the thousands of Israel,
- 22 The Mighty One, God, Yāhweh, the Mighty One, God, Yāhweh, he knows; and Israel he shall know: if it be in rebellion, or if in trespass against Yāhweh (don t save us this day,)
- 23 that we have built us an altar to turn away from following Yāhweh; or if to offer thereon burnt offering or meal-offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace-offerings thereon, let Yāhweh himself require it;
- 24 and if we have not [rather] out of carefulness done this, [and] of purpose, saying, In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, What have you to do with Yāhweh, the God of Israel?
- 25 for Yāhweh has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad; you have no portion in Yāhweh: so might your children make our children cease from fearing Yāhweh.
- 26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:
- 27 but it shall be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we may do the service of Yāhweh before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-offerings; that your children may not tell our children in time to come, You have no portion in Yāhweh.
- 28 Therefore said we, It shall be, when they so tell us or to our generations in time to come, that we shall say, Behold the pattern of the altar of Yāhweh, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you.
- 29 Far be it from us that we should rebel against Yāhweh, and turn away this day from following Yāhweh, to build an altar for burnt-offering, for meal-offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of Yāhweh our God that is before his tent.
- 30 When Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, even the heads of the thousands of Israel that were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them well.
- 31 Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we know that Yāhweh is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this trespass against Yāhweh: now have you delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of Yāhweh.

- 32 Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.
- 33 The thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and spoke no more of going up against them to war, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad lived.
- 34 The children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar [Ed]: For, [said they], it is a witness between us that Yāhweh is God.
- 1 It happened after many days, when Yāhweh had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, and Joshua was old and well stricken in years;
- 2 that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges and for their officers, and said to them, I am old and well stricken in years:
- 3 and you have seen all that Yāhweh your God has done to all these nations because of you; for Yāhweh your God, he it is that has fought for you.
- 4 Behold, I have allotted to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea toward the going down of the sun.
- 5 Yāhweh your God, he will thrust them out from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as Yāhweh your God spoke to you.
- 6 Therefore be you very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that you not turn aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left;
- 7 that you not come among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear [by them], neither serve them, nor bow down yourselves to them;
- 8 but cleave to Yāhweh your God, as you have done to this day.
- 9 For Yāhweh has driven out from before you great nations and strong; but as for you, no man has stood before you to this day.
- 10 One man of you shall chase a thousand; for Yāhweh your God, he it is who fights for you, as he spoke to you.
- 11 Take good heed therefore to yourselves, that you love Yāhweh your God.
- 12 Else if you do at all go back, and cleave to the remnant of these nations, even these who remain among you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you;
- 13 know for a certainty that Yāhweh your God will no more drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and a trap to you, and a scourge in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which Yāhweh your God has given you.
- 14 Behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing has failed of all the good things which Yāhweh your God spoke concerning you; all are happen to you, not one thing has failed of it.
- 15 It shall happen, that as all the good things are come on you of which Yāhweh your God spoke to you, so will Yāhweh bring on you all the evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which Yāhweh your God has given you.
- 16 When you disobey the covenant of Yāhweh your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down yourselves to them; then will the anger of Yāhweh be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you.
- 1 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

- 2 Joshua said to all the people, Thus says Yāhweh, the God of Israel, Your fathers lived of old time beyond the River, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor; and they served other gods.
- 3 I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac.
- 4 I gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau; and I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it; and Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.
- 5 I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did in the midst of it; and afterward I brought you out.
- 6 I brought your fathers out of Egypt; and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and with horsemen to the Red Sea.
- 7 When they cried out to Yāhweh, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them, and covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt; and you lived in the wilderness many days.
- 8 I brought you into the land of the Amorites, that lived beyond the Jordan; and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land; and I destroyed them from before you.
- 9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel; and he sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you;
- 10 but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you still; so I delivered you out of his hand.
- 11 You went over the Jordan, and came to Jericho; and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Gergashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I delivered them into your hand.
- 12 I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; not with your sword, nor with your bow.
- 13 I gave you a land whereon you had not labored, and cities which you didn't build, and you dwell therein; of vineyards and olive groves which you didn't plant do you eat.
- 14 Now therefore fear Yāhweh, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, and in Egypt; and serve you Yāhweh.
- 15 If it seem evil to you to serve Yāhweh, choose you this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve Yāhweh.
- 16 The people answered, Far be it from us that we should forsake Yāhweh, to serve other gods;
- 17 for Yāhweh our God, he it is who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and among all the peoples through the midst of whom we passed;
- 18 and Yāhweh drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land; therefore we also will serve Yāhweh; for he is our God.
- 19 Joshua said to the people, You can't serve Yāhweh; for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your disobedience nor your sins.
- 20 If you forsake Yāhweh, and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you evil, and consume you, after that he has done you good.
- 21 The people said to Joshua, No; but we will serve Yāhweh.
- 22 Joshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen you Yāhweh, to serve him. They said, We are witnesses.

- 23 Now therefore put away, [said he], the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to Yāhweh, the God of Israel.
- 24 The people said to Joshua, Yāhweh our God will we serve, and to his voice will we listen.
- 25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.
- 26 Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of Yāhweh.
- 27 Joshua said to all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of Yāhweh which he spoke to us: it shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God.
- 28 So Joshua sent the people away, every man to his inheritance.
- 29 It happened after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Yāhweh, died, being one hundred ten years old.
- 30 They buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnathserah, which is in the hill-country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash.
- 31 Israel served Yāhweh all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, and had known all the work of Yāhweh, that he had worked for Israel.
- 32 The bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in the parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of money; and they became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.
- 33 Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given him in the hill-country of Ephraim.
- 1 It happened after the death of Joshua, the children of Israel asked of Yāhweh, saying, Who shall go up for us first against the Canaanites, to fight against them?
- 2 Yāhweh said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.
- 3 Judah said to Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot. So Simeon went with him.
- 4 Judah went up; and Yāhweh delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they struck of them in Bezek ten thousand men.
- 5 They found Adoni-bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him, and they struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites.
- 6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.
- 7 Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered [their food] under my table; as I have done, so God has requited me." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.
- 8 The children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.
- 9 Afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill-country, and in the South, and in the lowland.
- 10 Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath-arba); and they struck Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.
- 11 From there he went against the inhabitants of Debir. (Now the name of Debir before was Kiriath-sepher.)

- 12 Caleb said, He who strikes Kiriath-sepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife.
- 13 Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.
- 14 It happened, when she came [to him], that she moved him to ask of her father a field; and she alighted from off her donkey; and Caleb said to her, What would you?
- 15 She said to him, Give me a blessing; for that you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water. Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.
- 16 The children of the Kenite, Moses' brother-in-law, went up out of the city of palm-trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad; and they went and lived with the people.
- 17 Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah.
- 18 Also Judah took Gaza with the border of it, and Ashkelon with the border of it, and Ekron with the border of it.
- 19 Yahweh was with Judah; and drove out [the inhabitants of] the hill-country; for he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron.
- 20 They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had spoken; and he drove out there the three sons of Anak.
- 21 The children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.
- 22 The house of Joseph, they also went up against Bethel; and Yahweh was with them.
- 23 The house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.)
- 24 The watchers saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said to him, Show us, we pray you, the entrance into the city, and we will deal kindly with you.
- 25 He showed them the entrance into the city; and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man go and all his family.
- 26 The man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name of it Luz, which is the name of it to this day.
- 27 Manasseh did not drive out [the inhabitants of] Beth-shean and its towns, nor [of] Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.
- 28 It happened, when Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out.
- 29 Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.
- 30 Zebulun didn't drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor.
- 31 Asher didn't drive out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob;
- 32 but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.
- 33 Naphtali didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became subject to forced labor.

- 34 The Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill-country; for they would not allow them to come down to the valley;
- 35 but the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became subject to forced labor.
- 36 The border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akkrabbim, from the rock, and upward.
- 1 The angel of Yāhweh came up from Gilgal to Bochim. He said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore to your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you:
- 2 and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars. But you have not listened to my voice: why have you done this?
- 3 Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be [as thorns] in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you.
- 4 It happened, when the angel of Yāhweh spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.
- 5 They called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there to Yāhweh.
- 6 Now when Joshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went every man to his inheritance to possess the land.
- 7 The people served Yāhweh all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of Yāhweh that he had worked for Israel.
- 8 Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Yāhweh, died, being one hundred ten years old.
- 9 They buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill-country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash.
- 10 Also all that generation were gathered to their fathers; and there arose another generation after them, who didn't know Yāhweh, nor yet the work which he had worked for Israel.
- 11 The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, and served the Baals;
- 12 and they forsook Yāhweh, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were round about them, and bowed themselves down to them; and they provoked Yāhweh to anger.
- 13 They forsook Yāhweh, and served Baal and the Ashtaroith.
- 14 The anger of Yāhweh was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers who despoiled them; and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.
- 15 Wherever they went out, the hand of Yāhweh was against them for evil, as Yāhweh had spoken, and as Yāhweh had sworn to them; and they were sore distressed.
- 16 Yāhweh raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who despoiled them.
- 17 Yet they didn't listen to their judges; for they played the prostitute after other gods, and bowed themselves down to them; they turned aside quickly out of the way in which their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of Yāhweh; [but] they didn't do so.
- 18 When Yāhweh raised them up judges, then Yāhweh was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for it repented Yāhweh because of their groaning by reason of those who oppressed them and vexed them.
- 19 But it happened, when the judge was dead, that they turned back, and dealt more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them; they didn't cease from their doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 The anger of Yāhweh was kindled against Israel; and he said, Because this nation have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not listened to my voice;

21 I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations that Joshua left when he died;

22 that by them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of Yāhweh to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 So Yāhweh left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

1 Now these are the nations which Yāhweh left, to prove Israel by them, even as many [of Israel] as had not known all the wars of Canaan;

2 only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing of it:

3 [namely], the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon to the entrance of Hamath.

4 They were [left], to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of Yāhweh, which he commanded their fathers by Moses.

5 The children of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

6 and they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons and served their gods.

7 The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, and forgot Yāhweh their God, and served the Baals and the Asheroth.

8 Therefore the anger of Yāhweh was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 When the children of Israel cried to Yāhweh, Yāhweh raised up a savior to the children of Israel, who saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 The Spirit of Yāhweh came on him, and he judged Israel; and he went out to war, and Yāhweh delivered Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand: and his hand prevailed against Cushan-rishathaim.

11 The land had rest forty years. Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh: and Yāhweh strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh.

13 He gathered to him the children of Ammon and Amalek; and he went and struck Israel, and they possessed the city of palm-trees.

14 The children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel cried to Yāhweh, Yāhweh raised them up a savior, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a man left-handed. The children of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab.

16 Ehud made him a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length; and he girded it under his clothing on his right thigh.

17 He offered the tribute to Eglon king of Moab; now Eglon was a very fat man.

18 When he had made an end of offering the tribute, he sent away the people who bore the tribute.

19 But he himself turned back from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand to you, king. He said, Keep silence. All who stood by him went out from him.

20 Ehud came to him; and he was sitting by himself alone in the cool upper room. Ehud said, I have a message from God to you. He arose out of his seat.

21 Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his body:

22 and the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed on the blade, for he didn't draw the sword out of his body; and it came out behind.

23 Then Ehud went forth into the porch, and shut the doors of the upper room on him, and locked them.

24 Now when he was gone out, his servants came; and they saw, and, behold, the doors of the upper room were locked; and they said, Surely he is covering his feet in the upper chamber.

25 They waited until they were ashamed; and, behold, he didn't open the doors of the upper room: therefore they took the key, and opened [them], and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 Ehud escaped while they waited, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped to Seirah.

27 It happened, when he had come, that he blew a trumpet in the hill-country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill-country, and he before them.

28 He said to them, Follow after me; for Yehweh has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. They went down after him, and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and didn't allow a man to pass over.

29 They struck of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, every lusty man, and every man of valor; and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. The land had rest eighty years.

31 After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck of the Philistines six hundred men with an ox-goad; and he also saved Israel.

1 The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Yehweh, when Ehud was dead.

2 Yehweh sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 The children of Israel cried to Yehweh; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 She lived under the palm-tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill-country of Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 She sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said to him, Hasn't Yehweh, the God of Israel, commanded, [saying], Go and draw to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 I will draw to you, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand.

8 Barak said to her, If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go.

9 She said, I will surely go with you; notwithstanding, the journey that you take shall not be for your honor; for Yehweh will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh; and there went up ten thousand men at his feet; and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, even from the children of Hobab the brother-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far as the oak in Zaanannim, which is by Kedesh.

- 12 They told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to Mount Tabor.
- 13 Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, to the river Kishon.
- 14 Deborah said to Barak, Up; for this is the day in which Yāhweh has delivered Sisera into your hand; hasn't Yāhweh gone out before you? So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.
- 15 Yāhweh confused Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot, and fled away on his feet.
- 16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, to Harosheth of the Gentiles; and all the host of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not a man left.
- 17 However Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.
- 18 Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; don't be afraid. He turned in to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.
- 19 He said to her, Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. She opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.
- 20 He said to her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man does come and inquire of you, and say, Is there any man here? that you shall say, No.
- 21 Then Jael Heber's wife took a tent-pin, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the pin into his temples, and it pierced through into the ground; for he was in a deep sleep; so he swooned and died.
- 22 Behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek. He came to her; and, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent-pin was in his temples.
- 23 So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.
- 24 The hand of the children of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.
- 1 Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,
- 2 For that the leaders took the lead in Israel, For that the people offered themselves willingly, Bless you Yāhweh.
- 3 Hear, you kings; give ear, you princes; I, [even] I, will sing to Yāhweh; I will sing praise to Yāhweh, the God of Israel.
- 4 Yāhweh, when you went forth out of Seir, When you marched out of the field of Edom, The earth trembled, the sky also dropped, Yes, the clouds dropped water.
- 5 The mountains quaked at the presence of Yāhweh, Even yon Sinai at the presence of Yāhweh, the God of Israel.
- 6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, In the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied, The travelers walked through byways.
- 7 The rulers ceased in Israel, they ceased, Until that I Deborah arose, That I arose a mother in Israel.
- 8 They chose new gods; Then was war in the gates: Was there a shield or spear seen Among forty thousand in Israel?
- 9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, Who offered themselves willingly among the people: Bless you Yāhweh.
- 10 Tell [of it], you who ride on white donkeys, You who sit on rich carpets, You who walk by the way.

- 11 Far from the noise of archers, in the places of drawing water, There shall they rehearse the righteous acts of Yāhweh, [Even] the righteous acts of his rule in Israel. Then the people of Yāhweh went down to the gates.
- 12 Awake, awake, Deborah; Awake, awake, utter a song: Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, you son of Abinoam.
- 13 Then came down a remnant of the nobles [and] the people; Yāhweh came down for me against the mighty.
- 14 Out of Ephraim [came down] they whose root is in Amalek; After you, Benjamin, among your peoples; Out of Machir came down governors, Out of Zebulun those who handle the marshal's staff.
- 15 The princes of Issachar were with Deborah; As was Issachar, so was Barak; Into the valley they rushed forth at his feet. By the watercourses of Reuben There were great resolves of heart.
- 16 Why sat you among the sheepfolds, To hear the whistling for the flocks? At the watercourses of Reuben There were great searchings of heart.
- 17 Gilead abode beyond the Jordan; Dan, why did he remain in ships? Asher sat still at the haven of the sea, Abode by his creeks.
- 18 Zebulun was a people that jeopardized their lives to the death, Naphtali, on the high places of the field.
- 19 The kings came and fought; Then fought the kings of Canaan. In Taanach by the waters of Megiddo: They took no gain of money.
- 20 From the sky the stars fought, From their courses they fought against Sisera.
- 21 The river Kishon swept them away, That ancient river, the river Kishon. My soul, march on with strength.
- 22 Then did the horse hoofs stamp By reason of the prancings, the prancings of their strong ones.
- 23 Curse you Meroz, said the angel of Yāhweh. Curse you bitterly the inhabitants of it, Because they didn't come to the help of Yāhweh, To the help of Yāhweh against the mighty.
- 24 Blessed above women shall Jael be, The wife of Heber the Kenite; Blessed shall she be above women in the tent.
- 25 He asked water, [and] she gave him milk; She brought him butter in a lordly dish.
- 26 She put her hand to the tent-pin, Her right hand to the workmen's hammer; With the hammer she struck Sisera, she struck through his head; Yes, she pierced and struck through his temples.
- 27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay; At her feet he bowed, he fell; Where he bowed, there he fell down dead.
- 28 Through the window she looked forth, and cried, The mother of Sisera [cried] through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why do the wheels of his chariots wait?
- 29 Her wise ladies answered her, Yes, she returned answer to herself,
- 30 Have they not found, have they not divided the spoil? A lady, two ladies to every man; To Sisera a spoil of dyed garments, A spoil of dyed garments embroidered, Of dyed garments embroidered on both sides, on the necks of the spoil?
- 31 So let all your enemies perish, Yāhweh; But let those who love him be as the sun when he goes forth in his might. The land had rest forty years.
- 1 The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh; and Yāhweh delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years.
- 2 The hand of Midian prevailed against Israel; and because of Midian the children of Israel made them the dens which are in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds.
- 3 So it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east; they came up against them;

4 and they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, until you come to Gaza, and left no sustenance in Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor donkey.

5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents; they came in as locusts for multitude; both they and their camels were without number; and they came into the land to destroy it.

6 Israel was brought very low because of Midian; and the children of Israel cried to Yāhweh.

7 It happened, when the children of Israel cried to Yāhweh because of Midian,

8 that Yāhweh sent a prophet to the children of Israel; and he said to them, Thus says Yāhweh, the God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 and I said to you, I am Yāhweh your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But you have not listened to my voice.

11 The angel of Yāhweh came, and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained to Joash the Abiezrite; and his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

12 The angel of Yāhweh appeared to him, and said to him, Yāhweh is with you, you mighty man of valor.

13 Gideon said to him, Oh, my lord, if Yāhweh is with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where are all his wondrous works which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not Yāhweh bring us up from Egypt? but now Yāhweh has cast us off, and delivered us into the hand of Midian.

14 Yāhweh looked at him, and said, Go in this your might, and save Israel from the hand of Midian: have not I sent you?

15 He said to him, Oh, Lord, with which shall I save Israel? behold, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 Yāhweh said to him, Surely I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one man.

17 He said to him, If now I have found favor in your sight, then show me a sign that it is you who talk with me.

18 Please don't go away, until I come to you, and bring out my present, and lay it before you. He said, I will wait until you come again.

19 Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of meal: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the oak, and presented it.

20 The angel of God said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth. He did so.

21 Then the angel of Yāhweh put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there went up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of Yāhweh departed out of his sight.

22 Gideon saw that he was the angel of Yāhweh; and Gideon said, Alas, Lord Yāhweh! because I have seen the angel of Yāhweh face to face.

23 Yāhweh said to him, Peace be to you; don't be afraid: you shall not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there to Yāhweh, and called it Yāhweh-shalom: to this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 It happened the same night, that Yāhweh said to him, Take your father's bull, even the second bull seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is by it;

26 and build an altar to Yāhweh your God on the top of this stronghold, in the orderly manner, and take the second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down.

- 27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as Yahweh had spoken to him: and it happened, because he feared his father's household and the men of the city, so that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.
- 28 When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered on the altar that was built.
- 29 They said one to another, Who has done this thing? When they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.
- 30 Then the men of the city said to Joash, Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the Asherah that was by it.
- 31 Joash said to all who stood against him, Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? he who will contend for him, let him be put to death while [it is yet] morning: if he be a god, let him contend for himself, because one has broken down his altar.
- 32 Therefore on that day he named him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal contend against him, because he has broken down his altar.
- 33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east assembled themselves together; and they passed over, and encamped in the valley of Jezreel.
- 34 But the Spirit of Yahweh came on Gideon; and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered together after him.
- 35 He sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; and they also were gathered together after him; and he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.
- 36 Gideon said to God, If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken,
- 37 behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there be dew on the fleece only, and it be dry on all the ground, then shall I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken.
- 38 It was so; for he rose up early on the next day, and pressed the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.
- 39 Gideon said to God, Don't let your anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once: Please let me make a trial just this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew.
- 40 God did so that night: for it was dry on the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.
- 1 Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with him, rose up early, and encamped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Midian was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.
- 2 Yahweh said to Gideon, The people who are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, My own hand has saved me.
- 3 Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead. There returned of the people twenty-two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.
- 4 Yahweh said to Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down to the water, and I will try them for you there; and it shall be, that of whom I tell you, This shall go with you, the same shall go with you; and of whoever I tell you, This shall not go with you, the same shall not go.
- 5 So he brought down the people to the water: and Yahweh said to Gideon, Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, him shall you set by himself; likewise everyone who bows down on his knees to drink.
- 6 The number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water.

- 7 Yāhweh said to Gideon, By the three hundred men who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand; and let all the people go every man to his place.
- 8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets; and he sent all the men of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men; and the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley.
- 9 It happened the same night, that Yāhweh said to him, Arise, get you down into the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand.
- 10 But if you fear to go down, go you with Purah your servant down to the camp:
- 11 and you shall hear what they say; and afterward shall your hands be strengthened to go down into the camp. Then went he down with Purah his servant to the outermost part of the armed men who were in the camp.
- 12 The Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand which is on the sea-shore for multitude.
- 13 When Gideon had come, behold, there was a man telling a dream to his fellow; and he said, Behold, I dreamed a dream; and, behold, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat.
- 14 His fellow answered, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; into his hand God has delivered Midian, and all the host.
- 15 It was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation of it, that he worshipped; and he returned into the camp of Israel, and said, Arise; for Yāhweh has delivered into your hand the host of Midian.
- 16 He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put into the hands of all of them trumpets, and empty pitchers, with torches within the pitchers.
- 17 He said to them, Look on me, and do likewise; and, behold, when I come to the outermost part of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall you do.
- 18 When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow you the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, For Yāhweh and for Gideon.
- 19 So Gideon, and the hundred men who were with him, came to the outermost part of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watch; and they blew the trumpets, and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands.
- 20 The three companies blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands with which to blow; and they cried, The sword of Yāhweh and of Gideon.
- 21 They stood every man in his place round about the camp; and all the host ran; and they shouted, and put [them] to flight.
- 22 They blew the three hundred trumpets, and Yāhweh set every man's sword against his fellow, and against all the host; and the host fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.
- 23 The men of Israel were gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after Midian.
- 24 Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill-country of Ephraim, saying, Come down against Midian, and take before them the waters, as far as Beth-barah, even the Jordan. So all the men of Ephraim were gathered together, and took the waters as far as Beth-barah, even the Jordan.

- 25 They took the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.
- 1 The men of Ephraim said to him, Why have you served us thus, that you didn't call us, when you went to fight with Midian? They did chide with him sharply.
- 2 He said to them, What have I now done in comparison with you? Isn't the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?
- 3 God has delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and what was I able to do in comparison with you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.
- 4 Gideon came to the Jordan, [and] passed over, he, and the three hundred men who were with him, faint, yet pursuing.
- 5 He said to the men of Succoth, Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.
- 6 The princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?
- 7 Gideon said, Therefore when Yahweh has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.
- 8 He went up there to Penuel, and spoke to them in like manner; and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.
- 9 He spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.
- 10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the host of the children of the east; for there fell one hundred twenty thousand men who drew sword.
- 11 Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and struck the host; for the host was secure.
- 12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued after them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and confused all the host.
- 13 Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle from the ascent of Heres.
- 14 He caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him; and he described for him the princes of Succoth, and the elders of it, seventy-seven men.
- 15 He came to the men of Succoth, and said, See Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you did taunt me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?
- 16 He took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.
- 17 He broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.
- 18 Then said he to Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom you killed at Tabor? They answered, As you are, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king.
- 19 He said, They were my brothers, the sons of my mother: as Yahweh lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you.
- 20 He said to Jether his firstborn, Up, and kill them. But the youth didn't draw his sword; for he feared, because he was yet a youth.
- 21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise you, and fall on us; for as the man is, so is his strength. Gideon arose, and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescents that were on their camels' necks.

- 22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, Rule you over us, both you, and your son, and your son's son also; for you have saved us out of the hand of Midian.
- 23 Gideon said to them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: Yehweh shall rule over you.
- 24 Gideon said to them, I would make a request of you, that you would give me every man the ear-rings of his spoil. (For they had golden ear-rings, because they were Ishmaelites.)
- 25 They answered, We will willingly give them. They spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the ear-rings of his spoil.
- 26 The weight of the golden ear-rings that he requested was one thousand and seven hundred [shekels] of gold, besides the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks.
- 27 Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel played the prostitute after it there; and it became a snare to Gideon, and to his house.
- 28 So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. The land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.
- 29 Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.
- 30 Gideon had seventy sons conceived from his body; for he had many wives.
- 31 His concubine who was in Shechem, she also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.
- 32 Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
- 33 It happened, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and played the prostitute after the Baals, and made Baal-berith their god.
- 34 The children of Israel didn't remember Yehweh their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies on every side;
- 35 neither showed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, [who is] Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had showed to Israel.
- 1 Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,
- 2 Please speak in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, that all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are seventy persons, rule over you, or that one rule over you? Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.
- 3 His mother's brothers spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words; and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother.
- 4 They gave him seventy [pieces] of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, with which Abimelech hired vain and light fellows, who followed him.
- 5 He went to his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, being seventy persons, on one stone; but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.
- 6 All the men of Shechem assembled themselves together, and all the house of Millo, and went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar that was in Shechem.
- 7 When they told it to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said to them, Listen to me, you men of Shechem, that God may listen to you.
- 8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive-tree, Reign you over us.
- 9 But the olive-tree said to them, Should I leave my fatness, with which by me they honor God and man, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?

10 The trees said to the fig-tree, Come you, and reign over us.

11 But the fig-tree said to them, Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?

12 The trees said to the vine, Come you, and reign over us.

13 The vine said to them, Should I leave my new wine, which cheers God and man, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees to the bramble, Come you, and reign over us.

15 The bramble said to the trees, If in truth you anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if you have dealt truly and righteously, in that you have made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him according to the deserving of his hands

17 (for my father fought for you, and adventured his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian:

18 and you are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, seventy persons, on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maid-servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother);

19 if you then have dealt truly and righteously with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice you in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you:

20 but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

21 Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and lived there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 Abimelech was prince over Israel three years.

23 God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and that their blood might be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers.

25 The men of Shechem set liers-in-wait for him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers, and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their trust in him.

27 They went out into the field, and gathered their vineyards, and trod [the grapes], and held festival, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Isn't he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve you the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: but why should we serve him?

29 Would that this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. He said to Abimelech, Increase your army, and come out.

30 When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 He sent messengers to Abimelech craftily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers are come to Shechem; and, behold, they constrain the city [to take part] against you.

32 Now therefore, up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field:

33 and it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early, and rush on the city; and, behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, then may you do to them as you shall find occasion.

- 34 Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.
- 35 Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people who were with him, from the ambush.
- 36 When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the tops of the mountains. Zebul said to him, You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.
- 37 Gaal spoke again and said, Behold, there come people down by the middle of the land, and one company comes by the way of the oak of Meonenim.
- 38 Then said Zebul to him, Where is now your mouth, that you said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that you have despised? go out now, I pray, and fight with them.
- 39 Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.
- 40 Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and there fell many wounded, even to the entrance of the gate.
- 41 Abimelech lived at Arumah: and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, that they should not dwell in Shechem.
- 42 It happened on the next day, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.
- 43 He took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field; and he looked, and, behold, the people came forth out of the city; He rose up against them, and struck them.
- 44 Abimelech, and the companies that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and the two companies rushed on all who were in the field, and struck them.
- 45 Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and killed the people who were therein; and he beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.
- 46 When all the men of the tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered into the stronghold of the house of Elberith.
- 47 It was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.
- 48 Abimelech got him up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him; and Abimelech took an ax in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it up, and laid it on his shoulder; and he said to the people who were with him, What you have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done.
- 49 All the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the stronghold, and set the stronghold on fire on them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.
- 50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.
- 51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and there fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut themselves in, and got them up to the roof of the tower.
- 52 Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.
- 53 A certain woman cast an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, and broke his skull.
- 54 Then he called hastily to the young man his armor bearer, and said to him, Draw your sword, and kill me, that men not say of me, A woman killed him. His young man thrust him through, and he died.
- 55 When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man to his place.
- 56 Thus God requited the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father, in killing his seventy brothers;
- 57 and all the wickedness of the men of Shechem did God requite on their heads; and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

- 1 After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he lived in Shamir in the hill-country of Ephraim.
- 2 He judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.
- 3 After him arose Jair, the Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years.
- 4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkey colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Harvoth-jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.
- 5 Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.
- 6 The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Yâhweh, and served the Baals, and the Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook Yâhweh, and didn't serve him.
- 7 The anger of Yâhweh was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of Ammon.
- 8 They vexed and oppressed the children of Israel that year: eighteen years [oppressed they] all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.
- 9 The children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.
- 10 The children of Israel cried to Yâhweh, saying, We have sinned against you, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals.
- 11 Yâhweh said to the children of Israel, Didn't I save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?
- 12 The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, did oppress you; and you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hand.
- 13 Yet you have forsaken me, and served other gods; why I will save you no more.
- 14 Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress.
- 15 The children of Israel said to Yâhweh, We have sinned: do you to us whatever seems good to you; only deliver us, we pray you, this day.
- 16 They put away the foreign gods from among them, and served Yâhweh; and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.
- 17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. The children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpah.
- 18 The people, the princes of Gilead, said one to another, What man is he who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.
- 1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a prostitute; and Gilead became the father of Jephthah.
- 2 Gilead's wife bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove out Jephthah, and said to him, You shall not inherit in our father's house; for you are the son of another woman.
- 3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers, and lived in the land of Tob; and there were gathered vain fellows to Jephthah, and they went out with him.
- 4 It happened after a while, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.
- 5 It was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah out of the land of Tob;
- 6 and they said to Jephthah, Come and be our chief, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.
- 7 Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Didn't you hate me, and drive me out of my father's house? and why are you come to me now when you are in distress?

- 8 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, Therefore are we turned again to you now, that you may go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon; and you shall be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.
- 9 Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, If you bring me home again to fight with the children of Ammon, and Yāhweh deliver them before me, shall I be your head?
- 10 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, Yāhweh shall be witness between us; surely according to your word so will we do.
- 11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before Yāhweh in Mizpah.
- 12 Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you are come to me to fight against my land?
- 13 The king of the children of Ammon answered to the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan; now therefore restore those [lands] again peaceably.
- 14 Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the children of Ammon;
- 15 and he said to him, Thus says Jephthah: Israel didn't take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon,
- 16 but when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh;
- 17 then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Please let me pass through your land; but the king of Edom didn't listen. In the same way, he sent to the king of Moab; but he would not; and Israel abode in Kadesh.
- 18 Then they went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and they encamped on the other side of the Arnon; but they didn't come within the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab.
- 19 Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, Let us pass, we pray you, through your land to my place.
- 20 But Sihon didn't trust Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.
- 21 Yāhweh, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them; so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.
- 22 They possessed all the border of the Amorites, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness even to the Jordan.
- 23 So now Yāhweh, the God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and should you possess them?
- 24 Won't you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whoever Yāhweh our God has dispossessed from before us, them will we possess.
- 25 Now are you anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them?
- 26 While Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the side of the Arnon, three hundred years; why didn't you recover them within that time?
- 27 I therefore have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me: Yāhweh, the Judge, be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.
- 28 However the king of the children of Ammon didn't listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

- 29 Then the Spirit of Yāhweh came on Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon.
- 30 Jephthah vowed a vow to Yāhweh, and said, If you will indeed deliver the children of Ammon into my hand,
- 31 then it shall be, that whatever comes forth from the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, it shall be Yāhweh's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.
- 32 So Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and Yāhweh delivered them into his hand.
- 33 He struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to Abelcheramim, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.
- 34 Jephthah came to Mizpah to his house; and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with tambourines and with dances; and she was his only child; besides her he had neither son nor daughter.
- 35 It happened, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! you have brought me very low, and you are one of those who trouble me; for I have opened my mouth to Yāhweh, and I can't go back.
- 36 She said to him, My father, you have opened your mouth to Yāhweh; do to me according to that which has proceeded out of your mouth, because Yāhweh has taken vengeance for you on your enemies, even on the children of Ammon.
- 37 She said to her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may depart and go down on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions.
- 38 He said, Go. He sent her away for two months; and she departed, she and her companions, and mourned her virginity on the mountains.
- 39 It happened at the end of two months, that she returned to her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed; and she was a virgin. It was a custom in Israel,
- 40 that the daughters of Israel went yearly to celebrate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.
- 1 The men of Ephraim were gathered together, and passed northward; and they said to Jephthah, Why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didn't call us to go with you? we will burn your house on you with fire.
- 2 Jephthah said to them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, you didn't save me out of their hand.
- 3 When I saw that you didn't save me, I put my life in my hand, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and Yāhweh delivered them into my hand: why then are you come up to me this day, to fight against me?
- 4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, You are fugitives of Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim, [and] in the midst of Manasseh.
- 5 The Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. It was so, that when [any of] the fugitives of Ephraim said, Let me go over, the men of Gilead said to him, Are you an Ephraimite? If he said, No;
- 6 then said they to him, Say now Shibboleth; and he said Sibboleth; for he couldn't manage to pronounce it right; then they laid hold on him, and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. There fell at that time of Ephraim forty-two thousand.
- 7 Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in [one of] the cities of Gilead.
- 8 After him Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Israel.

9 He had thirty sons; and thirty daughters he sent abroad, and thirty daughters he brought in from abroad for his sons. He judged Israel seven years.

10 Ibzan died, and was buried at Beth-lehem.

11 After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years.

12 Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

13 After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

14 He had forty sons and thirty sons sons, who rode on seventy donkey colts; and he judged Israel eight years.

15 Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill-country of the Amalekites.

1 The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh; and Yāhweh delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

2 There was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and didn't bear.

3 The angel of Yāhweh appeared to the woman, and said to her, See now, you are barren, and don't bear; but you shall conceive, and bear a son.

4 Now therefore please beware and drink no wine nor strong drink, and don't eat any unclean thing;

5 for, behold, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came to me, and his face was like the face of the angel of God, very awesome; and I didn't ask him whence he was, neither did he tell me his name;

7 but he said to me, Behold, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah entreated Yāhweh, and said, Oh, Lord, please let the man of God whom you did send come again to us, and teach us what we shall do to the child who shall be born.

9 God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field; but Manoah, her husband, wasn't with her.

10 The woman made haste, and ran, and told her husband, and said to him, Behold, the man has appeared to me, who came to me the [other] day.

11 Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, Are you the man who spoke to the woman? He said, I am.

12 Manoah said, Now let your words happen: what shall be the ordering of the child, and [how] shall we do to him?

13 The angel of Yāhweh said to Manoah, Of all that I said to the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing; all that I commanded her let her observe.

15 Manoah said to the angel of Yāhweh, I pray you, let us detain you, that we may make ready a kid for you.

16 The angel of Yāhweh said to Manoah, Though you detain me, I won't eat of your bread; and if you will make ready a burnt offering, you must offer it to Yāhweh. For Manoah didn't know that he was the angel of Yāhweh.

- 17 Manoaah said to the angel of Yāhweh, What is your name, that when your words happen, we may honor you?
- 18 The angel of Yāhweh said to him, Why ask you after my name, seeing it is wonderful?
- 19 So Manoaah took the kid with the meal-offering, and offered it on the rock to Yāhweh; and [the angel] did wondrously, and Manoaah and his wife looked on.
- 20 For it happened, when the flame went up toward the sky from off the altar, that the angel of Yāhweh ascended in the flame of the altar; and Manoaah and his wife looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground.
- 21 But the angel of Yāhweh did no more appear to Manoaah or to his wife. Then Manoaah knew that he was the angel of Yāhweh.
- 22 Manoaah said to his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God.
- 23 But his wife said to him, If Yāhweh were pleased to kill us, he wouldn't have received a burnt offering and a meal-offering at our hand, neither would he have showed us all these things, nor would at this time have told such things as these.
- 24 The woman bore a son, and named him Samson; and the child grew, and Yāhweh blessed him.
- 25 The Spirit of Yāhweh began to move him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.
- 1 Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines.
- 2 He came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me as wife.
- 3 Then his father and his mother said to him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? Samson said to his father, Get her for me; for she pleases me well.
- 4 But his father and his mother didn't know that it was of Yāhweh; for he sought an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines had rule over Israel.
- 5 Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnah; and, behold, a young lion roared against him.
- 6 The Spirit of Yāhweh came mightily on him, and he tore him as he would have torn a kid; and he had nothing in his hand; but he didn't tell his father or his mother what he had done.
- 7 He went down, and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well.
- 8 After a while he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey.
- 9 He took it into his hands, and went on, eating as he went; and he came to his father and mother, and gave to them, and they ate; but he didn't tell them that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion.
- 10 His father went down to the woman; and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do.
- 11 It happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.
- 12 Samson said to them, Let me now put forth a riddle to you: if you can declare it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing;
- 13 but if you can't declare it to me, then shall you give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. They said to him, Put forth your riddle, that we may hear it.
- 14 He said to them, Out of the eater came forth food, Out of the strong came forth sweetness. They couldn't in three days declare the riddle.

- 15 It happened on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's wife, Entice your husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire: have you called us to impoverish us? is it not [so]?
- 16 Samson's wife wept before him, and said, You do but hate me, and don't love me: you have put forth a riddle to the children of my people, and haven't told it me. He said to her, Behold, I haven't told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell you?
- 17 She wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it happened on the seventh day, that he told her, because she pressed him sore; and she told the riddle to the children of her people.
- 18 The men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? He said to them, If you hadn't plowed with my heifer, You wouldn't have found out my riddle.
- 19 The Spirit of Yahweh came mightily on him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and struck thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave the changes [of clothing] to those who declared the riddle. His anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.
- 20 But Samson's wife was [given] to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.
- 1 But it happened after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father wouldn't allow him to go in.
- 2 Her father said, I most assuredly thought that you had utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion: isn't her younger sister more beautiful than she? Please take her, instead.
- 3 Samson said to them, This time shall I be blameless in regard of the Philistines, when I do them a mischief.
- 4 Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between every two tails.
- 5 When he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing grain, and also the olive groves.
- 6 Then the Philistines said, Who has done this? They said, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife, and given her to his companion. The Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.
- 7 Samson said to them, If you do after this manner, surely I will be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.
- 8 He struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam.
- 9 Then the Philistines went up, and encamped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.
- 10 The men of Judah said, Why are you come up against us? They said, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he has done to us.
- 11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Don't you know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?" He said to them, As they did to me, so have I done to them.
- 12 They said to him, We have come down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines. Samson said to them, Swear to me that you will not fall on me yourselves.
- 13 They spoke to him, saying, No; but we will bind you fast, and deliver you into their hand: but surely we will not kill you. They bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.
- 14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met him; and the Spirit of Yahweh came mightily on him, and the ropes that were on his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands dropped from off his hands.

- 15 He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and put forth his hand, and took it, and struck a thousand men therewith.
- 16 Samson said, With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps on heaps, With the jawbone of a donkey I have struck a thousand men.
- 17 It happened, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand; and that place was called Ramath-lehi.
- 18 He was very thirsty, and called on Yahweh, and said, You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised.
- 19 But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out of it. When he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived; why the name of it was called En-hakkore, which is in Lehi, to this day.
- 20 He judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.
- 1 Samson went to Gaza, and saw there a prostitute, and went in to her.
- 2 [It was told] the Gazites, saying, Samson is come here. They compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, [Let be] until morning light, then we will kill him.
- 3 Samson lay until midnight, and arose at midnight, and laid hold of the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and plucked them up, bar and all, and put them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.
- 4 It came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.
- 5 The lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, Entice him, and see in which his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will each give you of us eleven hundred [pieces] of silver.
- 6 Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, Please, in which your great strength lies, and with which you might be bound to afflict you.
- 7 Samson said to her, If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.
- 8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.
- 9 Now she had liers-in-wait abiding in the inner chamber. She said to him, The Philistines are on you, Samson. He broke the cords, as a string of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known.
- 10 Delilah said to Samson, Behold, you have mocked me, and told me lies; now tell me, Please, with which you might be bound.
- 11 He said to her, If they only bind me with new ropes with which no work has been done, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.
- 12 So Delilah took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said to him, The Philistines are on you, Samson. The liers-in-wait were abiding in the inner chamber. He broke them off his arms like a thread.
- 13 Delilah said to Samson, Hitherto you have mocked me, and told me lies; tell me with which you might be bound. He said to her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web.
- 14 She fastened it with the pin, and said to him, The Philistines are on you, Samson. He awakened out of his sleep, and plucked away the pin of the beam, and the web.
- 15 She said to him, How can you say, I love you, when your heart is not with me? you have mocked me these three times, and have not told me in which your great strength lies.

- 16 It happened, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, that his soul was vexed to death.
- 17 He told her all his heart, and said to her, "No razor has ever come on my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak, and be like any other man."
- 18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he has told me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hand.
- 19 She made him sleep on her knees; and she called for a man, and shaved off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.
- 20 She said, The Philistines are on you, Samson. He awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free. But he didn't know that Yāhweh had departed from him.
- 21 The Philistines laid hold on him, and put out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison-house.
- 22 However the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaved.
- 23 The lords of the Philistines gathered them together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.
- 24 When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, Our god has delivered into our hand our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, who has slain many of us.
- 25 It happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. They called for Samson out of the prison-house; and he made sport before them. They set him between the pillars:
- 26 and Samson said to the boy who held him by the hand, Allow me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house rests, that I may lean on them.
- 27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were on the roof about three thousand men and women, who saw while Samson made sport.
- 28 Samson called to Yāhweh, and said, Lord Yāhweh, remember me, Please, and strengthen me, Please, only this once, God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.
- 29 Samson took hold of the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and leaned on them, the one with his right hand, and the other with his left.
- 30 Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. He bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell on the lords, and on all the people who were therein. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than those who he killed in his life.
- 31 Then his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burying-place of Manoah his father. He judged Israel twenty years.
- 1 There was a man of the hill-country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah.
- 2 He said to his mother, The eleven hundred [pieces] of silver that were taken from you, about which you did utter a curse, and did also speak it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. His mother said, Blessed be my son of Yāhweh.
- 3 He restored the eleven hundred [pieces] of silver to his mother; and his mother said, I most assuredly dedicate the silver to Yāhweh from my hand for my son, to make an engraved image and a molten image: now therefore I will restore it to you.
- 4 When he restored the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred [pieces] of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made of it an engraved image and a molten image: and it was in the house of Micah.

5 The man Micah had a house of gods, and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 There was a young man out of Beth-lehem-judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he sojourned there.

8 The man departed out of the city, out of Beth-lehem-judah, to sojourn where he could find [a place], and he came to the hill-country of Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

9 Micah said to him, Whence come you? He said to him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find [a place].

10 Micah said to him, Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten [pieces] of silver by the year, and a suit of clothing, and your victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 The Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him as one of his sons.

12 Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now know I that Yahweh will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

1 In those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day [their] inheritance had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel.

2 The children of Dan sent of their family five men from their whole number, men of valor, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said to them, Go, search the land. They came to the hill-country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned aside there, and said to him, Who brought you here? and what do you in this place? and what have you here?

4 He said to them, Thus and thus has Micah dealt with me, and he has hired me, and I am become his priest.

5 They said to him, Ask counsel, we pray you, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 The priest said to them, Go in peace: before Yahweh is your way wherein you go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were therein, how they lived in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was none in the land, possessing authority, that might put [them] to shame in anything, and they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with any man.

8 They came to their brothers to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brothers said to them, What [say] you?

9 They said, Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are you still? don't be slothful to go and to enter in to possess the land.

10 When you go, you shall come to a people secure, and the land is large; for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no want of anything that is in the earth.

11 There set forth from there of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men girt with weapons of war.

12 They went up, and encamped in Kiriath-jearim, in Judah: why they called that place Mahaneh-dan, to this day; behold, it is behind Kiriath-jearim.

13 They passed there to the hill-country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

14 Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish answered, and said to their brothers, Do you know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and an engraved image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what you have to do.

- 15 They turned aside there, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even to the house of Micah, and asked him of his welfare.
- 16 The six hundred men girt with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.
- 17 The five men who went to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the engraved image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men girt with weapons of war.
- 18 When these went into Micah's house, and fetched the engraved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image, the priest said to them, What do you?
- 19 They said to him, Hold your peace, lay your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?
- 20 The priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the engraved image, and went in the midst of the people.
- 21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the goods before them.
- 22 When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.
- 23 They cried to the children of Dan. They turned their faces, and said to Micah, What ails you, that you come with such a company?
- 24 He said, you have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and are gone away, and what have I more? and how then say you to me, What ails you?
- 25 The children of Dan said to him, "Don't let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall on you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household."
- 26 The children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.
- 27 They took that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burnt the city with fire.
- 28 There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with any man; and it was in the valley that lies by Beth-rehob. They built the city, and lived therein.
- 29 They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel: however the name of the city was Laish at the first.
- 30 The children of Dan set up for themselves the engraved image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.
- 31 So they set them up Micah's engraved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.
- 1 It happened in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the farther side of the hill-country of Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah.
- 2 His concubine played the prostitute against him, and went away from him to her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there the space of four months.
- 3 Her husband arose, and went after her, to speak kindly to her, to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of donkeys: and she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young lady saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.
- 4 His father-in-law, the young lady's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they ate and drink, and lodged there.

- 5 It happened on the fourth day, that they arose early in the morning, and he rose up to depart; and the young lady's father said to his son-in-law, Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward you shall go your way.
- 6 So they sat down, and ate and drink, both of them together; and the young lady's father said to the man, Please be pleased to stay all night, and let your heart be merry.
- 7 The man rose up to depart; but his father-in-law urged him, and he lodged there again.
- 8 He arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the young lady's father said, Please strengthen your heart and stay until the day declines; and they ate, both of them.
- 9 When the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father-in-law, the young lady's father, said to him, Behold, now the day draws toward evening, please stay all night; behold, the day grows to an end, lodge here, that your heart may be merry; and tomorrow get you early on your way, that you may go home.
- 10 But the man wouldn't stay that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus (the same is Jerusalem); and there were with him a couple of donkeys saddled; his concubine also was with him.
- 11 When they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, Please come and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.
- 12 His master said to him, We won't turn aside into the city of a foreigner, that is not of the children of Israel; but we will pass over to Gibeah.
- 13 He said to his servant, Come and let us draw near to one of these places; and we will lodge in Gibeah, or in Ramah.
- 14 So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near to Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.
- 15 They turned aside there, to go in to lodge in Gibeah; and he went in, and sat him down in the street of the city; for there was no man who took them into his house to lodge.
- 16 Behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even; now the man was of the hill-country of Ephraim, and he sojourned in Gibeah; but the men of the place were Benjamites.
- 17 He lifted up his eyes, and saw the wayfaring man in the street of the city; and the old man said, Where go you? and whence come you?
- 18 He said to him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah to the farther side of the hill-country of Ephraim; from there am I, and I went to Beth-lehem-judah; and I am [now] going to the house of Yahweh; and there is no man who takes me into his house.
- 19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our donkeys; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for your handmaid, and for the young man who is with your servants; there is no want of anything.
- 20 The old man said, Peace be to you; howsoever let all your wants lie on me; only don't lodge in the street.
- 21 So he brought him into his house, and gave the donkeys fodder; and they washed their feet, and ate and drink.
- 22 As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain base fellows, beset the house round about, beating at the door; and they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man who came into your house, that we may know him.
- 23 The man, the master of the house, went out to them, and said to them, No, my brothers, please don't act so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into my house, don't do this folly.
- 24 Behold, here is my daughter a virgin, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble you them, and do with them what seems good to you; but to this man don't do any such folly.

- 25 But the men wouldn't listen to him; so the man laid hold on his concubine, and brought her forth to them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning; and when the day began to spring, they let her go.
- 26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, until it was light.
- 27 Her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way; and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.
- 28 He said to her, Up, and let us be going; but none answered; then he took her up on the donkey; and the man rose up, and got him to his place.
- 29 When he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the borders of Israel.
- 30 It was so, that all who saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt to this day: consider it, take counsel, and speak.
- 1 Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, to Yahweh at Mizpah.
- 2 The chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword.
- 3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) The children of Israel said, Tell us, how was this wickedness brought to pass?
- 4 The Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered, I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.
- 5 The men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about me by night; me they thought to have slain, and my concubine they forced, and she is dead.
- 6 I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel.
- 7 Behold, you children of Israel, all of you, give here your advice and counsel.
- 8 All the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn to his house.
- 9 But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: [we will go up] against it by lot;
- 10 and we will take ten men of one hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred of one thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to get victuals for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have worked in Israel.
- 11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.
- 12 The tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is happen among you?
- 13 Now therefore deliver up the men, the base fellows, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers the children of Israel.
- 14 The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.
- 15 The children of Benjamin were numbered on that day out of the cities twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men.
- 16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; everyone could sling stones at a hair-breadth, and not miss.

- 17 The men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword; all these were men of war.
- 18 The children of Israel arose, and went up to Bethel, and asked counsel of God; and they said, Who shall go up for us first to battle against the children of Benjamin? Yehweh said, Judah [shall go up] first.
- 19 The children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.
- 20 The men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel set the battle in array against them at Gibeah.
- 21 The children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites on that day Twenty-two thousand men.
- 22 The people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves, and set the battle again in array in the place where they set themselves in array the first day.
- 23 The children of Israel went up and wept before Yehweh until even; and they asked of Yehweh, saying, Shall I again draw near to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? Yehweh said, Go up against him.
- 24 The children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.
- 25 Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.
- 26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Bethel, and wept, and sat there before Yehweh, and fasted that day until even; and they offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before Yehweh.
- 27 The children of Israel asked of Yehweh (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? Yehweh said, Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver him into your hand.
- 29 Israel set liers-in-wait against Gibeah round about.
- 30 The children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.
- 31 The children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to strike and kill of the people, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah, in the field, about thirty men of Israel.
- 32 The children of Benjamin said, They are struck down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways.
- 33 All the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Baal-tamar; and the liers-in-wait of Israel broke forth out of their place, even out of Maareh-geba.
- 34 There came over against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore; but they didn't know that evil was close on them.
- 35 Yehweh struck Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that day twenty-five thousand one hundred men; all these drew the sword.
- 36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were struck; for the men of Israel gave place to Benjamin, because they trusted to the liers-in-wait whom they had set against Gibeah.
- 37 The liers-in-wait hurried, and rushed on Gibeah; and the liers-in-wait drew themselves along, and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.
- 38 Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers-in-wait was that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city.

- 39 The men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, Surely they are struck down before us, as in the first battle.
- 40 But when the cloud began to arise up out of the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them; and, behold, the whole of the city went up in smoke to the sky.
- 41 The men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were dismayed; for they saw that evil had come on them.
- 42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness; but the battle followed hard after them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of it.
- 43 They enclosed the Benjamites round about, [and] chased them, [and] trod them down at [their] resting-place, as far as over against Gibeah toward the sunrise.
- 44 There fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these [were] men of valor.
- 45 They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men, and followed hard after them to Gidom, and struck of them two thousand men.
- 46 So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these [were] men of valor.
- 47 But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the rock of Rimmon four months.
- 48 The men of Israel turned again on the children of Benjamin, and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city, and the cattle, and all that they found; moreover all the cities which they found they set on fire.
- 1 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter to Benjamin as wife.
- 2 The people came to Bethel, and sat there until evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore.
- 3 They said, Yehweh, the God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel?
- 4 It happened on the next day that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings.
- 5 The children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who didn't come up in the assembly to Yehweh? For they had made a great oath concerning him who didn't come up to Yehweh to Mizpah, saying, He shall surely be put to death.
- 6 The children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.
- 7 How shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by Yehweh that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?
- 8 They said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel who didn't come up to Yehweh to Mizpah? Behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.
- 9 For when the people were numbered, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.
- 10 The congregation sent there twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones.
- 11 This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has lain by man.

- 12 They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, who had not known man by lying with him; and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.
- 13 The whole congregation sent and spoke to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.
- 14 Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they weren't enough for them.
- 15 The people repented them for Benjamin, because that Yáhwéh had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.
- 16 Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?
- 17 They said, There must be an inheritance for those who are escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out from Israel.
- 18 However we may not give them wives of our daughters, for the children of Israel had sworn, saying, Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin.
- 19 They said, Behold, there is a feast of Yáhwéh from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.
- 20 They commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,
- 21 and see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come you out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.
- 22 It shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, Grant them graciously to us, because we didn't take for each man his wife in battle, neither did you give them to them, else would you now be guilty.
- 23 The children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of those who danced, whom they carried off: and they went and returned to their inheritance, and built the cities, and lived in them.
- 24 The children of Israel departed there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance.
- 25 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.
- 1 It happened in the days when the judges judged, that there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Bethlehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.
- 2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem-judah. They came into the country of Moab, and continued there.
- 3 Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons.
- 4 They took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth; and they lived there about ten years.
- 5 Mahlon and Chilion died both of them; and the woman was left of her two children and of her husband.
- 6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that Yáhwéh had visited his people in giving them bread.
- 7 She went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.
- 8 Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each of you to her mother's house: Yáhwéh deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me.

- 9 Yāhweh grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice, and wept.
- 10 They said to her, No, but we will return with you to your people.
- 11 Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will you go with me? have I yet sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?
- 12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should even have a husband tonight, and should also bear sons;
- 13 would you therefore wait until they were grown? would you therefore stay from having husbands? nay, my daughters, for it grieves me much for your sakes, for the hand of Yāhweh is gone forth against me.
- 14 They lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth joined with her.
- 15 She said, Behold, your sister-in-law is gone back to her people, and to her god: return you after your sister-in-law.
- 16 Ruth said, "Don't entreat me to leave you, and to return from following after you, for where you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God;
- 17 where you die, will I die, and there will I be buried: Yāhweh do so to me, and more also, if anything but death part you and me."
- 18 When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left off speaking to her.
- 19 So they two went until they came to Bethlehem. It happened, when they were come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and [the women] said, Is this Naomi?
- 20 She said to them, "Don't call me Naomi, call me Mara; for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.
- 21 I went out full, and Yāhweh has brought me home again empty; why do you call me Naomi, seeing Yāhweh has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"
- 22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moab; and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.
- 1 Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz.
- 2 Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor. She said to her, Go, my daughter.
- 3 She went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.
- 4 Behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, Yāhweh be with you. They answered him, Yāhweh bless you.
- 5 Then said Boaz to his servant who was set over the reapers, Whose young lady is this?
- 6 The servant who was set over the reapers answered, It is the Moabite lady who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:
- 7 She said, Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves. So she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that she stayed a little in the house.
- 8 Then said Boaz to Ruth, Don't you hear, my daughter? Don't go to glean in another field, neither pass from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens.

- 9 Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them: haven't I charged the young men that they shall not touch you? and when you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.
- 10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take knowledge of me, seeing I am a foreigner?
- 11 Boaz answered her, It has fully been showed me, all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband; and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you didn't know before.
- 12 Yahweh recompense your work, and a full reward be given you of Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you are come to take refuge.
- 13 Then she said, Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your handmaid, though I am not as one of your handmaidens.
- 14 At meal-time Boaz said to her, Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar. She sat beside the reapers, and they reached her parched grain, and she ate, and was sufficed, and left of it.
- 15 When she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and don't reproach her.
- 16 Also pull out some for her from the bundles, and leave it, and let her glean, and don't rebuke her.
- 17 So she gleaned in the field until even; and she beat out that which she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.
- 18 She took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth and gave to her that which she had left after she was sufficed.
- 19 Her mother-in-law said to her, Where have you gleaned today? and where have you worked? blessed be he who did take knowledge of you. She showed her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz.
- 20 Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of Yahweh, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. Naomi said to her, The man is a close relative to us, one of our near kinsmen.
- 21 Ruth the Moabitess said, Yes, he said to me, You shall keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.
- 22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, and that they not meet you in any other field.
- 23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she lived with her mother-in-law.
- 1 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you?
- 2 Now isn't Boaz our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? Behold, he winnows barley tonight in the threshing floor.
- 3 Wash yourself therefore, and anoint you, and put your clothing on you, and get you down to the threshing floor, but don't make yourself known to the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.
- 4 It shall be, when he lies down, that you shall mark the place where he shall lie, and you shall go in, and uncover his feet, and lay you down; and he will tell you what you shall do.
- 5 She said to her, All that you say I will do.
- 6 She went down to the threshing floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her.
- 7 When Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

- 8 It happened at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself; and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.
- 9 He said, Who are you? She answered, I am Ruth your handmaid; spread therefore your skirt over your handmaid; for you are a near kinsman.
- 10 He said, Blessed be you of Y^hweh, my daughter; you have showed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as you didn't follow young men, whether poor or rich.
- 11 Now, my daughter, don't be afraid; I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people does know that you are a worthy woman.
- 12 Now it is true that I am a near kinsman; however there is a kinsman nearer than I.
- 13 Stay this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform to you the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part; but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to you, then will I do the part of a kinsman to you, as Y^hweh lives; lie down until the morning.
- 14 She lay at his feet until the morning. She rose up before one could discern another. For he said, Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.
- 15 He said, Bring the mantle that is on you, and hold it; and she held it; and he measured six [measures] of barley, and laid it on her; and he went into the city.
- 16 When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who are you, my daughter? She told her all that the man had done to her.
- 17 She said, These six [measures] of barley gave he me; for he said, "Don't go empty to your mother-in-law."
- 18 Then said she, "Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest, until he has finished the thing this day."
- 1 Now Boaz went up to the gate, and sat him down there; and, behold, the near kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by; to whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. He turned aside, and sat down.
- 2 He took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit you down here. They sat down.
- 3 He said to the near kinsman, Naomi, who has come back out of the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's:
- 4 I thought to disclose it to you, saying, Buy it before those who sit here, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is none to redeem it besides you; and I am after you. He said, I will redeem it.
- 5 Then said Boaz, What day you buy the field of the hand of Naomi, you must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance.
- 6 The near kinsman said, I can't redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance; take my right of redemption on you; for I can't redeem it.
- 7 Now this was [the custom] in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things; a man drew off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was the [manner of] attestation in Israel.
- 8 So the near kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for yourself. He drew off his shoe.
- 9 Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, You are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.
- 10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place; you are witnesses this day.

11 All the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. Yāhweh make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which two built the house of Israel; and do you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem:

12 and let your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the seed which Yāhweh shall give you of this young woman.

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and Yāhweh gave her conception, and she bore a son.

14 The women said to Naomi, Blessed be Yāhweh, who has not left you this day without a near kinsman; and let his name be famous in Israel.

15 He shall be to you a restorer of life, and sustain you in your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.

16 Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse to it.

17 The women her neighbors gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they named him Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 Now this is the history of the generations of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron,

19 and Hezron became the father of Ram, and Ram became the father of Amminadab,

20 and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the father of Salmon,

21 and Salmon became the father of Boaz, and Boaz became the father of Obed,

22 and Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of David.

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of the hill-country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite:

2 and he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of other Peninnah; and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 This man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to Yāhweh of Hosts in Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests to Yāhweh, were there.

4 When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

5 but to Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah, but Yāhweh had shut up her womb.

6 Her rival provoked her sore, to make her fret, because Yāhweh had shut up her womb.

7 [as] he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of Yāhweh, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

8 Elkanah her husband said to her, Hannah, why weep you? and why don't you eat? and why is your heart grieved? am I not better to you than ten sons?

9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his seat by the door-post of the temple of Yāhweh.

10 She was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to Yāhweh, and wept sore.

11 She vowed a vow, and said, Yāhweh of hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your handmaid, and remember me, and not forget your handmaid, but will give to your handmaid a man-child, then I will give him to Yāhweh all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come on his head.

12 It happened, as she continued praying before Yāhweh, that Eli marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 Eli said to her, How long will you be drunken? put away your wine from you.

- 15 Hannah answered, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before YAhweh.
- 16 Don t count your handmaid for a wicked woman; for out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation have I spoken hitherto.
- 17 Then Eli answered, Go in peace; and the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him.
- 18 She said, Let your handmaid find favor in your sight. So the woman went her way, and ate; and her facial expression wasn t sad any more.
- 19 They rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before YAhweh, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah; and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and YAhweh remembered her.
- 20 It happened, when the time was come about, that Hannah conceived, and bore a son; and she named him Samuel, [saying], Because I have asked him of YAhweh.
- 21 The man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer to YAhweh the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.
- 22 But Hannah didn t go up; for she said to her husband, [I will not go up] until the child be weaned; and then I will bring him, that he may appear before YAhweh, and there abide forever.
- 23 Elkanah her husband said to her, Do what seems you good; wait until you have weaned him; only YAhweh establish his word. So the woman waited and nursed her son, until she weaned him.
- 24 When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, and one ephah of meal, and a bottle of wine, and brought him to the house of YAhweh in Shiloh; and the child was young.
- 25 They killed the bull, and brought the child to Eli.
- 26 She said, Oh, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to YAhweh.
- 27 For this child I prayed; and YAhweh has given me my petition which I asked of him;
- 28 therefore also I have granted him to YAhweh; as long as he lives he is granted to YAhweh. He worshipped YAhweh there.
- 1 Hannah prayed, and said; My heart exults in YAhweh; My horn is exalted in YAhweh; My mouth is enlarged over my enemies; Because I rejoice in your salvation.
- 2 There is none holy as YAhweh; For there is none besides you, Neither is there any rock like our God.
- 3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly; Don t let arrogance come out of your mouth; For YAhweh is a God of knowledge, By him actions are weighed.
- 4 The bows of the mighty men are broken; Those who stumbled are girded with strength.
- 5 Those who were full have hired out themselves for bread; Those who were hungry have ceased [to hunger]; Yes, the barren has borne seven; She who has many children languishes.
- 6 YAhweh kills, and makes alive; He brings down to Sheol, and brings up.
- 7 YAhweh makes poor, and makes rich; He brings low, he also lifts up.
- 8 He raises up the poor out of the dust, He lifts up the needy from the dunghill, To make them sit with princes, Inherit the throne of glory; For the pillars of the earth are YAhweh s, He has set the world on them.
- 9 He will keep the feet of his holy ones; But the wicked shall be put to silence in darkness; For by strength shall no man prevail.
- 10 Those who strive with YAhweh shall be broken to pieces; Against them will he thunder in the sky; YAhweh will judge the ends of the earth; He will give strength to his king, Exalt the horn of his anointed.
- 11 Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. The child did minister to YAhweh before Eli the priest.

12 Now the sons of Eli were base men; they didn't know Yāhweh.

13 The custom of the priests with the people was that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was boiling, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand;

14 and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took therewith. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

15 Yes, before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man who sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have boiled flesh of you, but raw.

16 If the man said to him, They will surely burn the fat first, and then take as much as your soul desires; then he would say, No, but you shall give it me now; and if not, I will take it by force.

17 The sin of the young men was very great before Yāhweh; for the men despised the offering of Yāhweh.

18 But Samuel ministered before Yāhweh, being a child, girded with a linen ephod.

19 Moreover his mother made him a little robe, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, Yāhweh give you seed of this woman for the petition which was asked of Yāhweh. They went to their own home.

21 Yāhweh visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. The child Samuel grew before Yāhweh.

22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how that they lay with the women who served at the door of the tent of meeting.

23 He said to them, Why do you such things? for I hear of your evil dealings from all this people.

24 No, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: you make Yāhweh's people to disobey.

25 If one man sin against another, God shall judge him; but if a man sin against Yāhweh, who shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they didn't listen to the voice of their father, because Yāhweh was minded to kill them.

26 The child Samuel grew on, and increased in favor both with Yāhweh, and also with men.

27 There came a man of God to Eli, and said to him, Thus says Yāhweh, Did I reveal myself to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt [in bondage] to Pharaoh's house?

28 and did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?

29 Why kick you at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded in [my] habitation, and honor your sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Therefore Yāhweh, the God of Israel, says, I said indeed that your house, and the house of your father, should walk before me forever; but now Yāhweh says, Be it far from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house, that there shall not be an old man in your house.

32 You shall see the affliction of [my] habitation, in all the wealth which [God] shall give Israel; and there shall not be an old man in your house forever.

33 The man of yours, [whom] I shall not cut off from my altar, [shall be] to consume your eyes, and to grieve your heart; and all the increase of your house shall die in the flower of their age.

34 This shall be the sign to you, that shall come on your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both of them.

- 35 I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind; and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before my anointed forever.
- 36 It shall happen, that everyone who is left in your house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and shall say, Please put me into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.
- 1 The child Samuel ministered to Yāhweh before Eli. The word of Yāhweh was precious in those days; there was no frequent vision.
- 2 It happened at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place (now his eyes had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see),
- 3 and the lamp of God hadn't yet gone out, and Samuel had laid down [to sleep], in the temple of Yāhweh, where the ark of God was;
- 4 that Yāhweh called Samuel; and he said, Here am I.
- 5 He ran to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you called me. He said, I didn't call; lie down again. He went and lay down.
- 6 Yāhweh called yet again, Samuel. Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you called me. He answered, I didn't call, my son; lie down again.
- 7 Now Samuel didn't yet know Yāhweh, neither was the word of Yāhweh yet revealed to him.
- 8 Yāhweh called Samuel again the third time. He arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for you called me. Eli perceived that Yāhweh had called the child.
- 9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, Go, lie down; and it shall be, if he call you, that you shall say, Speak, Yāhweh; for your servant hears. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.
- 10 Yāhweh came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel said, Speak; for your servant hears.
- 11 Yāhweh said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle.
- 12 In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from the beginning even to the end.
- 13 For I have told him that I will judge his house forever, for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons did bring a curse on themselves, and he didn't restrain them.
- 14 Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated with sacrifice nor offering forever.
- 15 Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of Yāhweh. Samuel feared to show Eli the vision.
- 16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. He said, Here am I.
- 17 He said, "What is the thing that [Yāhweh] has spoken to you? Please don't hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that he spoke to you."
- 18 Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. He said, It is Yāhweh: let him do what seems him good.
- 19 Samuel grew, and Yāhweh was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.
- 20 All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of Yāhweh.
- 21 Yāhweh appeared again in Shiloh; for Yāhweh revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of Yāhweh.
- 1 The word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and encamped beside Eben-ezer; and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.

- 2 The Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was struck before the Philistines; and they killed of the army in the field about four thousand men.
- 3 When the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Why has Yáhweh struck us today before the Philistines? Let us get the ark of the covenant of Yáhweh out of Shiloh to us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies.
- 4 So the people sent to Shiloh; and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of Yáhweh of Hosts, who sits [above] the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.
- 5 When the ark of the covenant of Yáhweh came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.
- 6 When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What means the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? They understood that the ark of Yáhweh was come into the camp.
- 7 The Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. They said, Woe to us! for there has not been such a thing heretofore.
- 8 Woe to us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? these are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all manner of plagues in the wilderness.
- 9 Be strong, and behave yourselves like men, O you Philistines, that you not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.
- 10 The Philistines fought, and Israel was struck, and they fled every man to his tent; and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.
- 11 The ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.
- 12 There ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn, and with earth on his head.
- 13 When he came, behold, Eli was sitting on his seat by the road watching; for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.
- 14 When Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What means the noise of this tumult? The man hurried, and came and told Eli.
- 15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and his eyes were set, so that he could not see.
- 16 The man said to Eli, I am he who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army. He said, How went the matter, my son?
- 17 He who brought the news answered, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people, and your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.
- 18 It happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that [Eli] fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck broke, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.
- 19 His daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and brought forth; for her pains came on her.
- 20 About the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, Don't be afraid; for you have brought forth a son. But she didn't answer, neither did she regard it.
- 21 She named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel; because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband.
- 22 She said, The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.
- 1 Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and they brought it from Eben-ezer to Ashdod.

2 The Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.
3 When they of Ashdod arose early on the next day, behold, Dagon was fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of Yahweh. They took Dagon, and set him in his place again.
4 When they arose early on the next day morning, behold, Dagon was fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of Yahweh; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands [lay] cut off on the threshold; only [the stump of] Dagon was left to him.
5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, to this day.
6 But the hand of Yahweh was heavy on them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and struck them with tumors, even Ashdod and the borders of it.
7 When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us; for his hand is sore on us, and on Dagon our god.
8 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? They answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about to Gath. They carried the ark of the God of Israel [there].
9 It was so, that after they had carried it about, the hand of Yahweh was against the city with a very great confusion; and he struck the men of the city, both small and great; and tumors broke out on them.
10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. It happened, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people.
11 They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it not kill us and our people. For there was a deadly confusion throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.
12 The men who didn't die were struck with the tumors; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.
1 The ark of Yahweh was in the country of the Philistines seven months.
2 The Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of Yahweh? Show us with which we shall send it to its place."
3 They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, don't send it empty; but by all means return him a trespass-offering; then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you."
4 Then they said, "What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him?" They said, "Five golden tumors, and five golden mice, [according to] the number of the lords of the Philistines; for one plague was on you all, and on your lords.
5 Therefore you shall make images of your tumors, and images of your mice that mar the land; and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.
6 Why then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When he had worked wonderfully among them, didn't they let the people go, and they departed?
7 Now therefore take and prepare yourselves a new cart, and two milk cattle, on which there has come no yoke; and tie the cattle to the cart, and bring their calves home from them;
8 and take the ark of Yahweh, and lay it on the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which you return him for a trespass-offering, in a coffer by the side of it; and send it away, that it may go.
9 Behold; if it goes up by the way of its own border to Beth-shemesh, then he has done us this great evil; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us; it was a chance that happened to us."
10 The men did so, and took two milk cattle, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home;

- 11 and they put the ark of Yāhweh on the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors.
- 12 The cattle took the straight way by the way to Beth-shemesh; they went along the highway, lowing as they went, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth-shemesh.
- 13 They of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.
- 14 The cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone; and they split the wood of the cart, and offered up the cattle for a burnt offering to Yāhweh.
- 15 The Levites took down the ark of Yāhweh, and the coffer that was with it, in which the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone; and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to Yāhweh.
- 16 When the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.
- 17 These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering to Yāhweh: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one;
- 18 and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities and of country villages, even to the great stone, whereon they set down the ark of Yāhweh, [which stone remains] to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.
- 19 He struck of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of Yāhweh, he struck of the people fifty thousand seventy men; and the people mourned, because Yāhweh had struck the people with a great slaughter.
- 20 The men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before Yāhweh, this holy God? and to whom shall he go up from us?
- 21 They sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought back the ark of Yāhweh; come you down, and bring it up to you.
- 1 The men of Kiriath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of Yāhweh, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of Yāhweh.
- 2 It happened, from the day that the ark abode in Kiriath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel lamented after Yāhweh.
- 3 Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, If you do return to Yāhweh with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and direct your hearts to Yāhweh, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.
- 4 Then the children of Israel did put away the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served Yāhweh only.
- 5 Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray for you to Yāhweh.
- 6 They gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before Yāhweh, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against Yāhweh. Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah.
- 7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. When the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.
- 8 The children of Israel said to Samuel, "Don't cease to cry to Yāhweh our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines."
- 9 Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt-offering to Yāhweh; and Samuel cried to Yāhweh for Israel; and Yāhweh answered him.

- 10 As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel; but Y^hweh thundered with a great thunder on that day on the Philistines, and confused them; and they were struck down before Israel.
- 11 The men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them, until they came under Beth-car.
- 12 Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called the name of it Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto has Y^hweh helped us.
- 13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more within the border of Israel; and the hand of Y^hweh was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.
- 14 The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and the border of it did Israel deliver out of the hand of the Philistines. There was peace between Israel and the Amorites.
- 15 Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.
- 16 He went from year to year in circuit to Bethel and Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all those places.
- 17 His return was to Ramah, for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: and he built there an altar to Y^hweh.
- 1 It happened, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel.
- 2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba.
- 3 His sons didn't walk in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted justice.
- 4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel to Ramah;
- 5 and they said to him, Behold, you are old, and your sons don't walk in your ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.
- 6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. Samuel prayed to Y^hweh.
- 7 Y^hweh said to Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people in all that they tell you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, that I should not be king over them.
- 8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also to you.
- 9 Now therefore listen to their voice: however you shall protest solemnly to them, and shall show them the manner of the king who shall reign over them.
- 10 Samuel told all the words of Y^hweh to the people who asked of him a king.
- 11 He said, This will be the manner of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them to him, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and they shall run before his chariots;
- 12 and he will appoint them to him for captains of thousands, and captains of fifties; and [he will set some] to plow his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and the instruments of his chariots.
- 13 He will take your daughters to be perfumers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.
- 14 He will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive groves, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.
- 15 He will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.
- 16 He will take your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and your best young men, and your donkeys, and put them to his work.
- 17 He will take the tenth of your flocks: and you shall be his servants.

- 18 You shall cry out in that day because of your king whom you shall have chosen you; and Yāhweh will not answer you in that day.
- 19 But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they said, No; but we will have a king over us,
- 20 that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.
- 21 Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of Yāhweh.
- 22 Yāhweh said to Samuel, Listen to their voice, and make them a king. Samuel said to the men of Israel, Go you every man to his city.
- 1 Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valor.
- 2 He had a son, whose name was Saul, a young man and a goodly; and there was not among the children of Israel a better person than he; from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.
- 3 The donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go seek the donkeys.
- 4 He passed through the hill-country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they didn't find them; then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and there they weren't there; and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they didn't find them.
- 5 When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, Come, and let us return, lest my father leave off caring for the donkeys, and be anxious for us.
- 6 He said to him, See now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is a man who is held in honor; all that he says comes surely to pass: now let us go there; peradventure he can tell us concerning our journey whereon we go.
- 7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we?
- 8 The servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver; that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.
- 9 (In earlier times in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he said, Come, and let us go to the seer; for he who is now called a Prophet was before called a Seer.)
- 10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went to the city where the man of God was.
- 11 As they went up the ascent to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said to them, Is the seer here?
- 12 They answered them, and said, He is; behold, [he is] before you; make haste now, for he is come today into the city; for the people have a sacrifice today in the high place:
- 13 as soon as you are come into the city, you shall immediately find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he come, because he does bless the sacrifice; [and] afterwards they eat who are invited. Now therefore get you up; for at this time you shall find him.
- 14 They went up to the city; [and] as they came within the city, behold, Samuel came out toward them, to go up to the high place.
- 15 Now Yāhweh had revealed to Samuel a day before Saul came, saying,
- 16 Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel; and he shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked on my people, because their cry is come to me.

- 17 When Samuel saw Saul, Y^hweh said to him, Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! this same shall have authority over my people.
- 18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, Please, where the seer's house is.
- 19 Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer; go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and in the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart.
- 20 As for your donkeys who were lost three days ago, don't set your mind on them; for they are found. For whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you, and for all your father's house?
- 21 Saul answered, Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? why then speak you to me after this manner?
- 22 Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the guest-chamber, and made them sit in the best place among those who were invited, who were about thirty persons.
- 23 Samuel said to the cook, Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, Set it by you.
- 24 The cook took up the thigh, and that which was on it, and set it before Saul. [Samuel] said, Behold, that which has been reserved! set it before you and eat; because to the appointed time has it been kept for you, for I said, I have invited the people. So Saul ate with Samuel that day.
- 25 When they were come down from the high place into the city, he talked with Saul on the housetop.
- 26 They arose early; and it happened about the spring of the day, that Samuel called to Saul on the housetop, saying, Up, that I may send you away. Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.
- 27 As they were going down at the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us (and he passed on), but stand you still first, that I may cause you to hear the word of God.
- 1 Then Samuel took the vial of oil, and poured it on his head, and kissed him, and said, Isn't it that Y^hweh has anointed you to be prince over his inheritance?
- 2 When you are departed from me today, then you shall find two men by Rachel's tomb, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will tell you, The donkeys which you went to seek are found; and, behold, your father has left off caring for the donkeys, and is anxious for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?
- 3 Then shall you go on forward from there, and you shall come to the oak of Tabor; and there shall meet you there three men going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine;
- 4 and they will Greet you, and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive of their hand.
- 5 After that you shall come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines; and it shall happen, when you are come there to the city, that you shall meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tambourine, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they will be prophesying:
- 6 and the Spirit of Y^hweh will come mightily on you, and you shall prophesy with them, and shall be turned into another man.
- 7 Let it be, when these signs are come to you, that you do as occasion shall serve you; for God is with you.
- 8 You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down to you, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings: seven days shall you wait, until I come to you, and show you what you shall do.
- 9 It was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all those signs happened that day.
- 10 When they came there to the hill, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came mightily on him, and he prophesied among them.

- 11 It happened, when all who knew him before saw that, behold, he prophesied with the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?
- 12 One of the same place answered, Who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?
- 13 When he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.
- 14 Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, Where went you? He said, To seek the donkeys; and when we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel.
- 15 Saul's uncle said, Tell me, Please, what Samuel said to you.
- 16 Saul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the donkeys were found. But concerning the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spoke, he didn't tell him.
- 17 Samuel called the people together to Yahweh to Mizpah;
- 18 and he said to the children of Israel, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you:
- 19 but you have this day rejected your God, who himself saves you out of all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said to him, [No], but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before Yahweh by your tribes, and by your thousands.
- 20 So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken.
- 21 He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families; and the family of the Matrites was taken; and Saul the son of Kish was taken; but when they sought him, he could not be found.
- 22 Therefore they asked of Yahweh further, Is there yet a man to come here? Yahweh answered, Behold, he has hid himself among the baggage.
- 23 They ran and fetched him there; and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.
- 24 Samuel said to all the people, "You see him whom Yahweh has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people?" All the people shouted, and said, [Long] live the king.
- 25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before Yahweh. Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.
- 26 Saul also went to his house to Gibeah; and there went with him the host, whose hearts God had touched.
- 27 But certain worthless fellows said, How shall this man save us? They despised him, and brought him no present. But he held his peace.
- 1 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you.
- 2 Nahash the Ammonite said to them, On this condition will I make it with you, that all your right eyes be put out; and I will lay it for a reproach on all Israel.
- 3 The elders of Jabesh said to him, Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers to all the borders of Israel; and then, if there be none to save us, we will come out to you.
- 4 Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and spoke these words in the ears of the people; and all the people lifted up their voice, and wept.
- 5 Behold, Saul came following the oxen out of the field; and Saul said, What ails the people that they weep? They told him the words of the men of Jabesh.
- 6 The Spirit of God came mightily on Saul when he heard those words, and his anger was kindled greatly.

- 7 He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, Whoever doesn't come forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen. The dread of Yāhweh fell on the people, and they came out as one man.
- 8 He numbered them in Bezek; and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
- 9 They said to the messengers who came, Thus shall you tell the men of Jabesh-gilead, Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance. The messengers came and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.
- 10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good to you.
- 11 It was so on the next day, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and struck the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and it happened, that those who remained were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.
- 12 The people said to Samuel, Who is he who said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.
- 13 Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day; for today Yāhweh has worked deliverance in Israel.
- 14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.
- 15 All the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before Yāhweh in Gilgal; and there they offered sacrifices of peace-offerings before Yāhweh; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.
- 1 Samuel said to all Israel, Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you.
- 2 Now, behold, the king walks before you; and I am old and gray-headed; and, behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my youth to this day.
- 3 Here I am; witness against me before Yāhweh, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose donkey have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I taken a ransom to blind my eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.
- 4 They said, You have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither have you taken anything of any man's hand.
- 5 He said to them, Yāhweh is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. They said, He is witness.
- 6 Samuel said to the people, It is Yāhweh who appointed Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.
- 7 Now therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before Yāhweh concerning all the righteous acts of Yāhweh, which he did to you and to your fathers.
- 8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried to Yāhweh, then Yāhweh sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them to dwell in this place.
- 9 But they forgot Yāhweh their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.
- 10 They cried to Yāhweh, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken Yāhweh, and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.
- 11 Yāhweh sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you lived in safety.

- 12 When you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, No, but a king shall reign over us; when Yāhweh your God was your king.
- 13 Now therefore see the king whom you have chosen, and whom you have asked for: and, behold, Yāhweh has set a king over you.
- 14 If you will fear Yāhweh, and serve him, and listen to his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of Yāhweh, and both you and also the king who reigns over you be followers of Yāhweh your God, [well]:
- 15 but if you will not listen to the voice of Yāhweh, but rebel against the commandment of Yāhweh, then will the hand of Yāhweh be against you, as it was against your fathers.
- 16 Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which Yāhweh will do before your eyes.
- 17 Isn't it wheat harvest today? I will call to Yāhweh, that he may send thunder and rain; and you shall know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of Yāhweh, in asking you a king.
- 18 So Samuel called to Yāhweh; and Yāhweh sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared Yāhweh and Samuel.
- 19 All the people said to Samuel, Pray for your servants to Yāhweh your God, that we not die; for we have added to all our sins [this] evil, to ask us a king.
- 20 Samuel said to the people, "Don't be afraid; you have indeed done all this evil; yet don't turn aside from following Yāhweh, but serve Yāhweh with all your heart:
- 21 and don't turn aside; for [then would you go] after vain things which can't profit nor deliver, for they are vain.
- 22 For Yāhweh will not forsake his people for his great name's sake, because it has pleased Yāhweh to make you a people to himself.
- 23 Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against Yāhweh in ceasing to pray for you: but I will instruct you in the good and the right way.
- 24 Only fear Yāhweh, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he has done for you.
- 25 But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall be consumed, both you and your king."
- 1 Saul was [forty] years old when he began to reign; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,
- 2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel, whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the Mount of Bethel, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin; and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.
- 3 Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.
- 4 All Israel heard say that Saul had struck the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines. The people were gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.
- 5 The Philistines assembled themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea-shore in multitude; and they came up, and encamped in Michmash, eastward of Beth-aven.
- 6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed), then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in coverts, and in pits.
- 7 Now some of the Hebrews had gone over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; but as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.
- 8 He stayed seven days, according to the set time that Samuel [had appointed]: but Samuel didn't come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 Saul said, Bring here the burnt offering to me, and the peace-offerings. He offered the burnt offering.

10 It came to pass that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him.

11 Samuel said, What have you done? Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you didn't come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines assembled themselves together at Michmash;

12 therefore said I, Now will the Philistines come down on me to Gilgal, and I haven't entreated the favor of Yāhweh; I forced myself therefore, and offered the burnt offering.

13 Samuel said to Saul, You have done foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of Yāhweh your God, which he commanded you: for now would Yāhweh have established your kingdom on Israel forever.

14 But now your kingdom shall not continue; Yāhweh has sought him a man after his own heart, and Yāhweh has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you have not kept that which Yāhweh commanded you.

15 Samuel arose, and got him up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

16 Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, abode in Geba of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 The spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual;

18 and another company turned the way to Beth-horon; and another company turned the way of the border that looks down on the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

20 but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his plowshare, mattock, ax, and sickle;

21 yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the plowshares, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to set the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan; but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 The garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Now it fell on a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on yonder side. But he didn't tell his father.

2 Saul abode in the uttermost part of Gibeah under the pomegranate-tree which is in Migron; and the people who were with him were about six hundred men;

3 and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of Yāhweh in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. The people didn't know that Jonathan was gone.

4 Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The one crag rose up on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba.

6 Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that Yāhweh will work for us; for there is no restraint to Yāhweh to save by many or by few.

- 7 His armor bearer said to him, Do all that is in your heart: turn you, behold, I am with you according to your heart.
- 8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over to the men, and we will disclose ourselves to them.
- 9 If they say thus to us, Wait until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up to them.
- 10 But if they say thus, Come up to us; then we will go up; for Yāhweh has delivered them into our hand; and this shall be the sign to us.
- 11 Both of them disclosed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.
- 12 The men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will show you a thing. Jonathan said to his armor bearer, Come up after me; for Yāhweh has delivered them into the hand of Israel.
- 13 Jonathan climbed up on his hands and on his feet, and his armor bearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan; and his armor bearer killed them after him.
- 14 That first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were half a furrow s length in an acre of land.
- 15 There was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled; and the earth quaked; so there was an exceeding great trembling.
- 16 The watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went [here] and there.
- 17 Then said Saul to the people who were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. When they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.
- 18 Saul said to Ahijah, Bring here the ark of God. For the ark of God was [there] at that time with the children of Israel.
- 19 It happened, while Saul talked to the priest, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased; and Saul said to the priest, Withdraw your hand.
- 20 Saul and all the people who were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle; and, behold, every man s sword was against his fellow, [and there was] a very great confusion.
- 21 Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines as before, and who went up with them into the camp, [from the country] round about, even they also [turned] to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.
- 22 Likewise all the men of Israel who had hid themselves in the hill-country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.
- 23 So Yāhweh saved Israel that day; and the battle passed over by Beth-aven.
- 24 The men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man who eats any food until it be evening, and I be avenged on my enemies. So none of the people tasted food.
- 25 All the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground.
- 26 When the people were come to the forest, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath.
- 27 But Jonathan didn t hear when his father charged the people with the oath; why he put forth the end of the rod who was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.
- 28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Your father directly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man who eats food this day. The people were faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father has troubled the land. Please look how my eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for now has there been no great slaughter among the Philistines.

31 They struck of the Philistines that day from Michmash to Ajalon. The people were very faint; 32 and the people flew on the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and killed them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.

33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against Yahweh, in that they eat with the blood. He said, you have dealt treacherously: roll a great stone to me this day.

34 Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them, Bring me here every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and kill them here, and eat; and don't sin against Yahweh in eating with the blood. All the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and killed them there.

35 Saul built an altar to Yahweh; the same was the first altar that he built to Yahweh.

36 Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. They said, Do whatever seems good to you. Then said the priest, Let us draw near here to God.

37 Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? will you deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he didn't answer him that day.

38 Saul said, Draw near here, all you chiefs of the people; and know and see in which this sin has been this day.

39 For, as Yahweh lives, who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people who answered him.

40 Then said he to all Israel, Be you on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. The people said to Saul, Do what seems good to you.

41 Therefore Saul said to Yahweh, the God of Israel, Show the right. Jonathan and Saul were taken [by lot]; but the people escaped.

42 Saul said, Cast [lots] between me and Jonathan my son. Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done. Jonathan told him, and said, I did certainly taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand; and, behold, I must die.

44 Saul said, God do so and more also; for you shall surely die, Jonathan.

45 The people said to Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far from it: as Yahweh lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has worked with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he didn't die.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; and wherever he turned himself, he put [them] to the worse.

48 He did valiantly, and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who despoiled them.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal;

50 and the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the captain of his host was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

- 52 There was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he took him to him.
- 1 Samuel said to Saul, Yāhweh sent me to anoint you to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore listen you to the voice of the words of Yāhweh.
- 2 Thus says Yāhweh of Hosts, I have marked that which Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up out of Egypt.
- 3 Now go and strike Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and don't spare them; but kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.
- 4 Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.
- 5 Saul came to the city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley.
- 6 Saul said to the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.
- 7 Saul struck the Amalekites, from Havilah as you go to Shur, that is before Egypt.
- 8 He took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.
- 9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and wouldn't utterly destroy them; but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.
- 10 Then came the word of Yāhweh to Samuel, saying,
- 11 It repents me that I have set up Saul to be king; for he is turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments. Samuel was angry; and he cried to Yāhweh all night.
- 12 Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a monument, and turned, and passed on, and went down to Gilgal.
- 13 Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said to him, Blessed be you of Yāhweh: I have performed the commandment of Yāhweh.
- 14 Samuel said, What means then this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?
- 15 Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to Yāhweh your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.
- 16 Then Samuel said to Saul, Stay, and I will tell you what Yāhweh has said to me this night. He said to him, Say on.
- 17 Samuel said, "Though you were little in your own sight, weren't you made the head of the tribes of Israel? Yāhweh anointed you king over Israel;
- 18 and Yāhweh sent you on a journey, and said, Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.
- 19 Why then didn't you obey the voice of Yāhweh, but flew on the spoil, and did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh?"
- 20 Saul said to Samuel, Yes, I have obeyed the voice of Yāhweh, and have gone the way which Yāhweh sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.
- 21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the devoted things, to sacrifice to Yāhweh your God in Gilgal.
- 22 Samuel said, Has Yāhweh as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of Yāhweh? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams.

- 23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as idolatry and teraphim. Because you have rejected the word of Yāhweh, he has also rejected you from being king.
- 24 Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of Yāhweh, and your words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.
- 25 Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship Yāhweh.
- 26 Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of Yāhweh, and Yāhweh has rejected you from being king over Israel.
- 27 As Samuel turned about to go away, [Saul] laid hold on the skirt of his robe, and it tore.
- 28 Samuel said to him, Yāhweh has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you.
- 29 Also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent.
- 30 Then he said, I have sinned; yet honor me now, Please, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship Yāhweh your God.
- 31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped Yāhweh.
- 32 Then said Samuel, Bring you here to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. Agag came to him cheerfully. Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.
- 33 Samuel said, As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women. Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before Yāhweh in Gilgal.
- 34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.
- 35 Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; for Samuel mourned for Saul; and Yāhweh repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.
- 1 Yāhweh said to Samuel, How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from being king over Israel? fill your horn with oil, and go: I will send you to Jesse the Beth-lehemite; for I have provided me a king among his sons.
- 2 Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. Yāhweh said, Take a heifer with you, and say, I am come to sacrifice to Yāhweh.
- 3 Call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do: and you shall anoint to me him whom I name to you.
- 4 Samuel did that which Yāhweh spoke, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, Come you peaceably?
- 5 He said, Peaceably; I am come to sacrifice to Yāhweh: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. He sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.
- 6 It happened, when they had come, that he looked at Eliab, and said, Surely Yāhweh s anointed is before him.
- 7 But Yāhweh said to Samuel, "Don t look on his face, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him; for [Yāhweh sees] not as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but Yāhweh looks at the heart."
- 8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, Neither has Yāhweh chosen this.
- 9 Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. He said, Neither has Yāhweh chosen this.
- 10 Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. Samuel said to Jesse, Yāhweh has not chosen these.
- 11 Samuel said to Jesse, Are here all your children? He said, There remains yet the youngest, and, behold, he is keeping the sheep. Samuel said to Jesse, Send and get him; for we will not sit down until he come here.

- 12 He sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful face, and goodly to look on. Y^hweh said, Arise, anoint him; for this is he.
- 13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brothers: and the Spirit of Y^hweh came mightily on David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.
- 14 Now the Spirit of Y^hweh departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Y^hweh troubled him.
- 15 Saul's servants said to him, See now, an evil spirit from God troubles you.
- 16 Let our lord now command your servants who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp: and it shall happen, when the evil spirit from God is on you, that he shall play with his hand, and you shall be well.
- 17 Saul said to his servants, Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me.
- 18 Then answered one of the young men, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, and a mighty man of valor, and a man of war, and prudent in speech, and a comely person; and Y^hweh is with him.
- 19 Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, Send me David your son, who is with the sheep.
- 20 Jesse took a donkey [laden] with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son to Saul.
- 21 David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armor bearer.
- 22 Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Please let David stand before me; for he has found favor in my sight.
- 23 It happened, when the [evil] spirit from God was on Saul, that David took the harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.
- 1 Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle; and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.
- 2 Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and encamped in the vale of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.
- 3 The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side; and there was a valley between them.
- 4 There went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.
- 5 He had a helmet of brass on his head, and he was clad with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.
- 6 He had brass shin-armor on his legs, and a javelin of brass between his shoulders.
- 7 The staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head [weighed] six hundred shekels of iron: and his shield-bearer went before him.
- 8 He stood and cried to the armies of Israel, and said to them, Why are you come out to set your battle in array? am I not a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.
- 9 If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then will we be your servants; but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall you be our servants, and serve us.
- 10 The Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.
- 11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.
- 12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man was an old man in the days of Saul, stricken [in years] among men.
- 13 The three eldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 David was the youngest; and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 Now David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 The Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 Jesse said to David his son, Take now for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry [them] quickly to the camp to your brothers;

18 and bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and look how your brothers fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the vale of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the place of the wagons, as the host which was going forth to the fight shouted for the battle.

21 Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, army against army.

22 David left his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers.

23 As he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke according to the same words; and David heard them.

24 All the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

25 The men of Israel said, Have you seen this man who is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up; and it shall be, that the man who kills him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

26 David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

27 The people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man who kills him.

28 Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why are you come down? and with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride, and the naughtiness of your heart; for you have come down that you might see the battle.

29 David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

30 He turned away from him toward another, and spoke after the same manner; and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 When the words were heard which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him.

32 David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 Saul said to David, You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 David said to Saul, Your servant was keeping his father's sheep; and when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock,

35 I went out after him, and struck him, and delivered it out of his mouth; and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and struck him, and killed him.

36 Your servant struck both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God.

- 37 David said, Y^hw^eh who delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. Saul said to David, Go, and Y^hw^eh shall be with you.
- 38 Saul clad David with his clothing, and he put a helmet of brass on his head, and he clad him with a coat of mail.
- 39 David girded his sword on his clothing, and he tried to go; for he had not proved it. David said to Saul, I can't go with these; for I have not proved them. David put them off him.
- 40 He took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his wallet; and his sling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine.
- 41 The Philistine came on and drew near to David; and the man who bore the shield went before him.
- 42 When the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and withal of a fair face.
- 43 The Philistine said to David, Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks? The Philistine cursed David by his gods.
- 44 The Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the field.
- 45 Then said David to the Philistine, You come to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a javelin; but I come to you in the name of Y^hw^eh of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.
- 46 This day will Y^hw^eh deliver you into my hand; and I will strike you, and take your head from off you; and I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky, and to the wild animals of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,
- 47 and that all this assembly may know that Y^hw^eh doesn't save with sword and spear; for the battle is Y^hw^eh's, and he will give you into our hand.
- 48 It happened, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.
- 49 David put his hand in his bag, and took there a stone, and slang it, and struck the Philistine in his forehead; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.
- 50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.
- 51 Then David ran, and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath of it, and killed him, and cut off his head therewith. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.
- 52 The men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until you come to Gai, and to the gates of Ekron. The wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to Ekron.
- 53 The children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.
- 54 David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent.
- 55 When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth? Abner said, As your soul lives, O king, I can't tell.
- 56 The king said, Inquire you whose son the stripling is.
- 57 As David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

- 58 Saul said to him, Whose son are you, you young man? David answered, I am the son of your servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.
- 1 It happened, when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.
- 2 Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father s house.
- 3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.
- 4 Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him, and gave it to David, and his clothing, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his sash.
- 5 David went out wherever Saul sent him, [and] behaved himself wisely; and Saul set him over the men of war, and it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul s servants.
- 6 It happened as they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music.
- 7 The women sang one to another as they played, and said, Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands.
- 8 Saul was very angry, and this saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands; and what can he have more but the kingdom?
- 9 Saul eyed David from that day and forward.
- 10 It happened on the next day, that an evil spirit from God came mightily on Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house; and David played with his hand, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand;
- 11 and Saul cast the spear; for he said, I will strike David even to the wall. David avoided out of his presence twice.
- 12 Saul was afraid of David, because Yāhweh was with him, and was departed from Saul.
- 13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.
- 14 David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and Yāhweh was with him.
- 15 When Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him.
- 16 But all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them.
- 17 Saul said to David, Behold, my elder daughter Merab, her will I give you as wife: only be you valiant for me, and fight Yāhweh s battles. For Saul said, Don t let my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him.
- 18 David said to Saul, Who am I, and what is my life, [or] my father s family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?
- 19 But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul s daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as wife.
- 20 Michal, Saul s daughter, loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.
- 21 Saul said, I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Why Saul said to David, You shall this day be my son-in-law a second time.
- 22 Saul commanded his servants, [saying], Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you: now therefore be the king s son-in-law.
- 23 Saul s servants spoke those words in the ears of David. David said, Seems it to you a light thing to be the king s son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?
- 24 The servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spoke David.

- 25 Saul said, Thus shall you tell David, The king desires no dowry except one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king s enemies. Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.
- 26 When his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king s son-in-law. The days were not expired;
- 27 and David arose and went, he and his men, and killed of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might be the king s son-in-law. Saul gave him Michal his daughter as wife.
- 28 Saul saw and knew that Yáhwéh was with David; and Michal, Saul s daughter, loved him.
- 29 Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul was David s enemy continually.
- 30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth; and it happened, as often as they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.
- 1 Saul spoke to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul s son, delighted much in David.
- 2 Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeks to kill you; now therefore, please take care of yourself in the morning, and live in a secret place, and hide yourself:
- 3 and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will commune with my father of you; and if I see anything, I will tell you.
- 4 Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father, and said to him, Don t let the king sin against his servant, against David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you:
- 5 for he put his life in his hand, and struck the Philistine, and Yáhwéh worked a great victory for all Israel; you saw it, and did rejoice; why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?
- 6 Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan; and Saul swore, As Yáhwéh lives, he shall not be put to death.
- 7 Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as before.
- 8 There was war again; and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled before him.
- 9 An evil spirit from Yáhwéh was on Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and David was playing with his hand.
- 10 Saul sought to strike David even to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul s presence, and he struck the spear into the wall; and David fled, and escaped that night.
- 11 Saul sent messengers to David s house, to watch him, and to kill him in the morning; and Michal, David s wife, told him, saying, If you don t save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be slain.
- 12 So Michal let David down through the window; and he went, and fled, and escaped.
- 13 Michal took the teraphim, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats [hair] at the head of it, and covered it with the clothes.
- 14 When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.
- 15 Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.
- 16 When the messengers came in, behold, the teraphim was in the bed, with the pillow of goats [hair] at the head of it.
- 17 Saul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that he is escaped? Michal answered Saul, He said to me, Let me go; why should I kill you?

- 18 Now David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. He and Samuel went and lived in Naioth.
- 19 It was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.
- 20 Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.
- 21 When it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.
- 22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? One said, Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah.
- 23 He went there to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God came on him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.
- 24 He also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Why they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?
- 1 David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is my iniquity? and what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?
- 2 He said to him, Far from it; you shall not die; behold, my father does nothing either great or small, but that he discloses it to me; and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.
- 3 David swore moreover, and said, Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes; and he says, Don t let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved; but truly as YAhweh lives, and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death.
- 4 Then said Jonathan to David, Whatever your soul desires, I will even do it for you.
- 5 David said to Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field to the third day at even.
- 6 If your father miss me at all, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city; for it is the yearly sacrifice there for all the family.
- 7 If he say thus, It is well; your servant shall have peace: but if he be angry, then know that evil is determined by him.
- 8 Therefore deal kindly with your servant; for you have brought your servant into a covenant of YAhweh with you: but if there be in me iniquity, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?
- 9 Jonathan said, Far be it from you; for if I should at all know that evil were determined by my father to come on you, then wouldn t I tell you that?
- 10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me if perchance your father answer you roughly?
- 11 Jonathan said to David, Come, and let us go out into the field. They went out both of them into the field.
- 12 Jonathan said to David, YAhweh, the God of Israel, [be witness]: when I have sounded my father about this time tomorrow, [or] the third day, behold, if there be good toward David, shall I not then send to you, and disclose it to you?
- 13 YAhweh do so to Jonathan, and more also, should it please my father to do you evil, if I don t disclose it to you, and send you away, that you may go in peace; and YAhweh be with you, as he has been with my father.
- 14 You shall not only while yet I live show me the lovingkindness of YAhweh, that I not die;
- 15 but also you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever; no, not when YAhweh has cut off the enemies of David everyone from the surface of the earth.

- 16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, [saying], Yāhweh will require it at the hand of David's enemies.
- 17 Jonathan caused David to swear again, for the love that he had to him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
- 18 Then Jonathan said to him, Tomorrow is the new moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.
- 19 When you have stayed three days, you shall go down quickly, and come to the place where you did hide yourself when the business was in hand, and shall remain by the stone Ezel.
- 20 I will shoot three arrows on the side of it, as though I shot at a mark.
- 21 Behold, I will send the boy, [saying], Go, find the arrows. If I tell the boy, Behold, the arrows are on this side of you; take them, and come; for there is peace to you and no hurt, as Yāhweh lives.
- 22 But if I say thus to the boy, Behold, the arrows are beyond you; go your way; for Yāhweh has sent you away.
- 23 As touching the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, Yāhweh is between you and me forever.
- 24 So David hid himself in the field; and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat food.
- 25 The king sat on his seat, as at other times, even on the seat by the wall; and Jonathan stood up, and Abner sat by Saul's side; but David's place was empty.
- 26 Nevertheless Saul didn't say anything that day; for he thought, Something has befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean.
- 27 It happened on the next day after the new moon, [which was] the second [day], that David's place was empty; and Saul said to Jonathan his son, Why doesn't the son of Jesse come to meat, neither yesterday, nor today?
- 28 Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:
- 29 and he said, Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he has commanded me [to be there]; and now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away, I pray you, and see my brothers. Therefore he is not come to the king's table.
- 30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, You son of a perverse rebellious woman, don't I know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?
- 31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Why now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die.
- 32 Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, Why should he be put to death? what has he done?
- 33 Saul cast his spear at him to strike him; whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to put David to death.
- 34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month; for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.
- 35 It happened in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little boy with him.
- 36 He said to his boy, Run, find now the arrows which I shoot. As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.
- 37 When the boy was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy, and said, Isn't the arrow beyond you?

- 38 Jonathan cried after the boy, Go fast! Hurry! Don't delay! Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.
- 39 But the boy didn't know anything; only Jonathan and David knew the matter.
- 40 Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy, and said to him, Go, carry them to the city.
- 41 As soon as the boy was gone, David arose out of [a place] toward the South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times; and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.
- 42 Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, because we have sworn both of us in the name of Yāhweh, saying, Yāhweh shall be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed, forever. He arose and departed; and Jonathan went into the city.
- 1 Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech came to meet David trembling, and said to him, Why are you alone, and no man with you?
- 2 David said to Ahimelech the priest, The king has commanded me a business, and has said to me, Let no man know anything of the business about which I send you, and what I have commanded you; and I have appointed the young men to such and such a place.
- 3 Now therefore what is under your hand? give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever there is present.
- 4 The priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women.
- 5 David answered the priest, and said to him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days; when I came out, the vessels of the young men were holy, though it was but a common journey; how much more then today shall their vessels be holy?
- 6 So the priest gave him holy [bread]; for there was no bread there but the show bread, that was taken from before Yāhweh, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.
- 7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before Yāhweh; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the best of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul.
- 8 David said to Ahimelech, Isn't there here under your hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.
- 9 The priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the vale of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you will take that, take it; for there is no other except that here. David said, There is none like that; give it me.
- 10 David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.
- 11 The servants of Achish said to him, "Isn't this David the king of the land? Didn't they sing one to another about him in dances, saying, Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?"
- 12 David laid up these words in his heart, and was very afraid of Achish the king of Gath.
- 13 He changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down on his beard.
- 14 Then said Achish to his servants, Look, you see the man is mad; why then have you brought him to me?
- 15 Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?
- 1 David therefore departed there, and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.

- 2 Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented, gathered themselves to him; and he became captain over them; and there were with him about four hundred men.
- 3 David went there to Mizpeh of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, Please let my father and my mother come forth, [and be] with you, until I know what God will do for me.
- 4 He brought them before the king of Moab; and they lived with him all the while that David was in the stronghold.
- 5 The prophet Gad said to David, Don t stay in the stronghold; depart, and get you into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hereth.
- 6 Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him; now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk-tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him.
- 7 Saul said to his servants who stood about him, Hear now, you Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give everyone of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds,
- 8 that all of you have conspired against me, and there is none who discloses to me when my son makes a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me, or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?
- 9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.
- 10 He inquired of Yehweh for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.
- 11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father s house, the priests who were in Nob; and they came all of them to the king.
- 12 Saul said, Hear now, you son of Ahitub. He answered, Here I am, my lord.
- 13 Saul said to him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?
- 14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, Who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king s son-in-law, and is taken into your council, and is honorable in your house?
- 15 Have I today begun to inquire of God for him? be it far from me: don t let the king impute anything to his servant, nor to all the house of my father; for your servant knows nothing of all this, less or more.
- 16 The king said, You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you, and all your father s house.
- 17 The king said to the guard who stood about him, Turn, and kill the priests of Yehweh; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and didn t disclose it to me. But the servants of the king wouldn t put forth their hand to fall on the priests of Yehweh.
- 18 The king said to Doeg, Turn you, and fall on the priests. Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell on the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five persons who wore a linen ephod.
- 19 Nob, the city of the priests, struck he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing babies, and oxen and donkeys and sheep, with the edge of the sword.
- 20 One of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David.
- 21 Abiathar told David that Saul had slain Yehweh s priests.
- 22 David said to Abiathar, I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned [the death] of all the persons of your father s house.

- 23 Abide you with me, don't be afraid; for he who seeks my life seeks your life: for with me you shall be in safeguard.
- 1 They told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and are robbing the threshing floors.
- 2 Therefore David inquired of Yehweh, saying, Shall I go and strike these Philistines? Yehweh said to David, Go, and strike the Philistines, and save Keilah.
- 3 David's men said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?
- 4 Then David inquired of Yehweh yet again. Yehweh answered him, and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand.
- 5 David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and killed them with a great slaughter. So David save the inhabitants of Keilah.
- 6 It happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.
- 7 It was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. Saul said, God has delivered him into my hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that has gates and bars.
- 8 Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.
- 9 David knew that Saul was devising mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring here the ephod.
- 10 Then said David, O Yehweh, the God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.
- 11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? Yehweh, the God of Israel, I beg you, tell your servant. Yehweh said, He will come down.
- 12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver up to me and my men into the hand of Saul? Yehweh said, They will deliver you up.
- 13 Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went wherever they could go. It was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he gave up going there.
- 14 David abode in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill-country in the wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God didn't deliver him into his hand.
- 15 David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.
- 16 Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.
- 17 He said to him, Don't be afraid; for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you; and you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you; and that also Saul my father knows.
- 18 They two made a covenant before Yehweh: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.
- 19 Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doesn't David hide himself with us in the strongholds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the desert?
- 20 Now therefore, O king, come down, according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him up into the king's hand.
- 21 Saul said, Blessed be you of Yehweh; for you have had compassion on me.
- 22 Please go make yet more sure, and know and see his place where his haunt is, [and] who has seen him there; for it is told me that he deals very subtly.

- 23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking-places where he hides himself, and come you again to me of a certainty, and I will go with you; and it shall happen, if he be in the land, that I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.
- 24 They arose, and went to Ziph before Saul; but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of the desert.
- 25 Saul and his men went to seek him. They told David; why he came down to the rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard [that], he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.
- 26 Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain; and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.
- 27 But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Haste you, and come; for the Philistines have made a raid on the land.
- 28 So Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines; therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth.
- 29 David went up from there, and lived in the strongholds of En-gedi.
- 1 It happened, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.
- 2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the rocks of the wild goats.
- 3 He came to the sheep pens by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet. Now David and his men were abiding in the innermost parts of the cave.
- 4 The men of David said to him, Behold, the day of which Yehweh said to you, Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe secretly.
- 5 It happened afterward, that David's heart struck him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.
- 6 He said to his men, Yehweh forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, Yehweh's anointed, to put forth my hand against him, seeing he is Yehweh's anointed.
- 7 So David checked his men with these words, and didn't allow them to rise against Saul. Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.
- 8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and did obeisance.
- 9 David said to Saul, Why listen you to men's words, saying, Behold, David seeks your hurt?
- 10 Behold, this day your eyes have seen how that Yehweh had delivered you today into my hand in the cave; and some bade me kill you; but [my eye] spared you; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is Yehweh's anointed.
- 11 Moreover, my father, behold, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and didn't kill you, know you and see that there is neither evil nor disobedience in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, though you hunt after my life to take it.
- 12 Yehweh judge between me and you, and Yehweh avenge me of you; but my hand shall not be on you.
- 13 As says the proverb of the ancients, Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness; but my hand shall not be on you.
- 14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom do you pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.
- 15 Yehweh therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand.

- 16 It came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, Is this your voice, my son David? Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.
- 17 He said to David, You are more righteous than I; for you have rendered to me good, whereas I have rendered to you evil.
- 18 You have declared this day how that you have dealt well with me, because when Yâhweh had delivered me up into your hand, you didn't kill me.
- 19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? why Yâhweh reward you good for that which you have done to me this day.
- 20 Now, behold, I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.
- 21 Swear now therefore to me by Yâhweh, that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house.
- 22 David swore to Saul. Saul went home; but David and his men got them up to the stronghold.
- 1 Samuel died; and all Israel gathered themselves together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran.
- 2 There was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
- 3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail; and the woman was of good understanding, and of a beautiful face: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb.
- 4 David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.
- 5 David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:
- 6 and thus shall you tell him who lives [in prosperity], Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.
- 7 Now I have heard that you have shearers: your shepherds have now been with us, and we did them no hurt, neither was there anything missing to them, all the while they were in Carmel.
- 8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you: why let the young men find favor in your eyes; for we come in a good day. Please give whatever comes to your hand, to your servants, and to your son David.
- 9 When David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.
- 10 Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there are many servants now-a-days who break away every man from his master.
- 11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who I don't know where they come from?
- 12 So David's young men turned on their way, and went back, and came and told him according to all these words.
- 13 David said to his men, Gird you on every man his sword. They girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword; and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the baggage.
- 14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to Greet our master; and he railed at them.
- 15 But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we anything, as long as we went with them, when we were in the fields:

- 16 they were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.
- 17 Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his house; for he is such a worthless fellow that one can't speak to him.
- 18 Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched grain, and one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys.
- 19 She said to her young men, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she didn't tell her husband, Nabal.
- 20 It was so, as she rode on her donkey, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that behold, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them.
- 21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to him; and he has returned me evil for good.
- 22 God do so to the enemies of David, and more also, if I leave of all that belongs to him by the morning light so much as one man-child.
- 23 When Abigail saw David, she hurried, and alighted from her donkey, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground.
- 24 She fell at his feet, and said, On me, my lord, on me be the iniquity; and please let your handmaid speak in your ears. Hear the words of your handmaid.
- 25 Please don't let my lord regard this worthless fellow, even Nabal; for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I your handmaid didn't see the young men of my lord, whom you did send.
- 26 Now therefore, my lord, as Yāhweh lives, and as your soul lives, seeing Yāhweh has withheld you from blood guiltiness, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now therefore let your enemies, and those who seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.
- 27 Now this present which your servant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord.
- 28 Please forgive the trespass of your handmaid: for Yāhweh will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights the battles of Yāhweh; and evil shall not be found in you all your days.
- 29 Though men be risen up to pursue you, and to seek your soul, yet the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with Yāhweh your God; and the souls of your enemies, them shall he sling out, as from the hollow of a sling.
- 30 It shall come to pass, when Yāhweh shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and shall have appointed you prince over Israel,
- 31 that this shall be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. When Yāhweh shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid.
- 32 David said to Abigail, Blessed be Yāhweh, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me;
- 33 and blessed be your discretion, and blessed be you, that have kept me this day from blood guiltiness, and from avenging myself with my own hand.
- 34 For in very deed, as Yāhweh, the God of Israel, lives, who has withheld me from hurting you, except you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there wouldn't have been left to Nabal by the morning light so much as one man-child.
- 35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him; and he said to her, Go up in peace to your house; behold, I have listened to your voice, and have accepted your person.

- 36 Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: why she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.
- 37 It happened in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.
- 38 It happened about ten days after, that Yehweh struck Nabal, so that he died.
- 39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be Yehweh, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil: and the evil-doing of Nabal has Yehweh returned on his own head. David sent and spoke concerning Abigail, to take her to him as wife.
- 40 When the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, David has sent us to you, to take you to him as wife.
- 41 She arose, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, Behold, your handmaid is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.
- 42 Abigail hurried, and arose, and rode on a donkey, with five ladies of hers who followed her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.
- 43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they became both of them his wives.
- 44 Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.
- 1 The Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doesn't David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert?
- 2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.
- 3 Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.
- 4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come of a certainty.
- 5 David arose, and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host; and Saul lay within the place of the wagons, and the people were encamped round about him.
- 6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? Abishai said, I will go down with you.
- 7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay round about him.
- 8 Then said Abishai to David, God has delivered up your enemy into your hand this day; now therefore please let me strike him with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time.
- 9 David said to Abishai, Don't destroy him; for who can put forth his hand against Yehweh's anointed, and be guiltless?
- 10 David said, As Yehweh lives, Yehweh will strike him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall go down into battle and perish.
- 11 Yehweh forbid that I should put forth my hand against Yehweh's anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head, and the jar of water, and let us go.

- 12 So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head; and they got them away; and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from Yehweh was fallen on them.
- 13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them;
- 14 and David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Don't you answer, Abner? Then Abner answered, Who are you who cries to the king?
- 15 David said to Abner, Aren't you a [valiant] man? and who is like you in Israel? why then have you not kept watch over your lord, the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king your lord.
- 16 This thing isn't good that you have done. As Yehweh lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, Yehweh's anointed. Now see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water that was at his head.
- 17 Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this your voice, my son David? David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.
- 18 He said, Why does my lord pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in my hand?
- 19 Now therefore, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it be Yehweh that has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering; but if it be the children of men, cursed be they before Yehweh: for they have driven me out this day that I shouldn't cling to Yehweh's inheritance, saying, Go, serve other gods.
- 20 Now therefore, don't let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of Yehweh: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one does hunt a partridge in the mountains.
- 21 Then said Saul, I have sinned; return, my son David; for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.
- 22 David answered, Behold the spear, O king! let then one of the young men come over and get it.
- 23 Yehweh will render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness; because Yehweh delivered you into my hand today, and I wouldn't put forth my hand against Yehweh's anointed.
- 24 Behold, as your life was much set by this day in my eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of Yehweh, and let him deliver me out of all oppression.
- 25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be you, my son David: you shall both do mightily, and shall surely prevail. So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.
- 1 David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.
- 2 David arose, and passed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Moch, king of Gath.
- 3 David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife.
- 4 It was told Saul that David was fled to Gath; and he sought no more again for him.
- 5 David said to Achish, If now I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?
- 6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: why Ziklag pertains to the kings of Judah to this day.
- 7 The number of the days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.

- 8 David and his men went up, and made a raid on the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those [nations] were the inhabitants of the land, who were of old, as you go to Shur, even to the land of Egypt.
- 9 David struck the land, and saved neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the donkeys, and the camels, and the clothing; and he returned, and came to Achish.
- 10 Achish said, Against whom have you made a raid today? David said, Against the South of Judah, and against the South of the Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites.
- 11 David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell of us, saying, So did David, and so has been his manner all the while he has lived in the country of the Philistines.
- 12 Achish believed David, saying, He has made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant forever.
- 1 It happened in those days, that the Philistines gathered their hosts together for warfare, to fight with Israel. Achish said to David, Know you assuredly, that you shall go out with me in the host, you and your men.
- 2 David said to Achish, Therefore you shall know what your servant will do. Achish said to David, Therefore will I make you keeper of my head for ever.
- 3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. Saul had put away those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.
- 4 The Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and encamped in Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped in Gilboa.
- 5 When Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.
- 6 When Saul inquired of Yehweh, Yehweh didn't answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.
- 7 Then said Saul to his servants, Seek me a woman who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. His servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at En-dor.
- 8 Saul disguised himself, and put on other clothing, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, Please divine to me by the familiar spirit, and bring me up whoever I shall name to you.
- 9 The woman said to him, Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land; why then lay you a snare for my life, to cause me to die?
- 10 Saul swore to her by Yehweh, saying, As Yehweh lives, there shall no punishment happen to you for this thing.
- 11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up to you? He said, Bring me up Samuel.
- 12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why have you deceived me? for you are Saul.
- 13 The king said to her, Don't be afraid; for what do you see? The woman said to Saul, I see a god coming up out of the earth.
- 14 He said to her, What form is he of? She said, An old man comes up; and he is covered with a robe. Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.
- 15 Samuel said to Saul, Why have you disquieted me, to bring me up? Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams; therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do.

- 16 Samuel said, Why then do you ask of me, seeing Yāhweh is departed from you, and is become your adversary?
- 17 Yāhweh has done to you, as he spoke by me: and Yāhweh has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, even to David.
- 18 Because you didn't obey the voice of Yāhweh, and didn't execute his fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore has Yāhweh done this thing to you this day.
- 19 Moreover Yāhweh will deliver Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow shall you and your sons be with me: Yāhweh will deliver the host of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines.
- 20 Then Saul fell immediately his full length on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.
- 21 The woman came to Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said to him, Behold, your handmaid has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me.
- 22 Now therefore, please listen also to the voice of your handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your way.
- 23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, constrained him; and he listened to their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat on the bed.
- 24 The woman had a fattened calf in the house; and she hurried, and killed it; and she took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread of it:
- 25 and she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they ate. Then they rose up, and went away that night.
- 1 Now the Philistines gathered together all their hosts to Aphek: and the Israelites encamped by the spring which is in Jezreel.
- 2 The lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rearward with Achish.
- 3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What [do] these Hebrews [here]? Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, Isn't this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or [rather] these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell away [to me] to this day?
- 4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; and the princes of the Philistines said to him, Make the man return, that he may go back to his place where you have appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us; for with what should this [fellow] reconcile himself to his lord? should it not be with the heads of these men?
- 5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?
- 6 Then Achish called David, and said to him, As Yāhweh lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the host is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day: nevertheless the lords don't favor you.
- 7 Therefore now return, and go in peace, that you not displease the lords of the Philistines.
- 8 David said to Achish, But what have I done? and what have you found in your servant so long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?
- 9 Achish answered David, I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

- 10 Therefore now rise up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you; and as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart.
- 11 So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. The Philistines went up to Jezreel.
- 1 It happened, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the South, and on Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag, and burned it with fire,
- 2 and had taken captive the women [and all] who were therein, both small and great: they didn't kill any, but carried them off, and went their way.
- 3 When David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captive.
- 4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.
- 5 David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.
- 6 David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters; but David strengthened himself in Yehweh his God.
- 7 David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, Please bring me here the ephod. Abiathar brought there the ephod to David.
- 8 David inquired of Yehweh, saying, If I pursue after this troop, shall I overtake them? He answered him, Pursue; for you shall surely overtake [them], and shall without fail recover [all].
- 9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed.
- 10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so faint that they couldn't go over the brook Besor.
- 11 They found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he ate; and they gave him water to drink.
- 12 They gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins; and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.
- 13 David said to him, To whom belong you? and whence are you? He said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick.
- 14 We made a raid on the South of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the South of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.
- 15 David said to him, Will you bring me down to this troop? He said, Swear to me by God, that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this troop.
- 16 When he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad over all the ground, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.
- 17 David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day: and there not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who rode on camels and fled.
- 18 David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives.
- 19 There was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor anything that they had taken to them: David brought back all.

20 David took all the flocks and the herds, [which] they drove before those [other] cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.

21 David came to the two hundred men, who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom also they had made to abide at the brook Besor; and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him; and when David came near to the people, he greeted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men and base fellows, of those who went with David, and said, Because they didn't go with us, we will not give them anything of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, that he may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, You shall not do so, my brothers, with that which Yáhwéh has given to us, who has preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand.

24 Who will listen to you in this matter? for as his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who carries by the baggage: they shall share alike.

25 It was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

26 When David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil to the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold, a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of Yáhwéh:

27 To those who were in Bethel, and to those who were in Ramoth of the South, and to those who were in Jattir,

28 and to those who were in Aroer, and to those who were in Siphmoth, and to those who were in Eshtemoa,

29 and to those who were in Racal, and to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who were in the cities of the Kenites,

30 and to those who were in Hormah, and to those who were in Bor-ashan, and to those who were in Athach,

31 and to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men used to stay.

1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa.

2 The Philistines followed hard on Saul and on his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

3 The battle went sore against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was greatly distressed by reason of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armor bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armor bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it.

5 When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor bearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7 When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

8 It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 They cut off his head, and stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry the news to the house of their idols, and to the people.

10 They put his armor in the house of the Ashtaroth; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

11 When the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard concerning him that which the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan; and they came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

13 They took their bones, and buried them under the tamarisk-tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

1 It happened after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

2 it happened on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes torn, and earth on his head; and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 David said to him, From whence come you? He said to him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 David said to him, How went the matter? Please tell me. He answered, The people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 David said to the young man who told him, How know you that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?

6 The young man who told him said, As I happened by chance on Mount Gilboa, behold, Saul was leaning on his spear; and, behold, the chariots and the horsemen followed hard after him.

7 When he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. I answered, Here am I.

8 He said to me, Who are you? I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said to me, Stand, I pray you, beside me, and kill me; for anguish has taken hold of me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood beside him, and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen; and I took the crown that was on his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and tore them; and likewise all the men who were with him;

12 and they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of Yahweh, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 David said to the young man who told him, Whence are you? He answered, I am the son of a sojourner, an Amalekite.

14 David said to him, How were you not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy Yahweh's anointed?

15 David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall on him. He struck him, so that he died.

16 David said to him, Your blood be on your head; for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I have slain Yahweh's anointed.

17 David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son

18 (and he bade them teach the children of Judah [the song of] the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jashar):

19 Your glory, Israel, is slain on your high places! How are the mighty fallen!

20 Don't tell it in Gath, Don't publish it in the streets of Ashkelon; Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 You mountains of Gilboa, Let there be no dew nor rain on you, neither fields of offerings: For there the shield of the mighty was vilely cast away, The shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, The bow of Jonathan didn't turn back, The sword of Saul didn't return empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, In their death they were not divided: They were swifter than eagles, They were stronger than lions.

24 You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, Who clothed you in scarlet delicately, Who put ornaments of gold on your clothing.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slain on your high places.

26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan: Very pleasant have you been to me: Your love to me was wonderful, Passing the love of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen, The weapons of war perished!

1 It happened after this, that David inquired of Yehweh, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? Yehweh said to him, Go up. David said, Where shall I go up? He said, To Hebron.

2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

3 His men who were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they lived in the cities of Hebron.

4 The men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. They told David, saying, The men of Jabesh-gilead were those who buried Saul.

5 David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, Blessed be you of Yehweh, that you have showed this kindness to your lord, even to Saul, and have buried him.

6 Now Yehweh show lovingkindness and truth to you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because you have done this thing.

7 Now therefore let your hands be strong, and be you valiant; for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

8 Now Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, had taken Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim;

9 and he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

11 The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

12 Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 Abner said to Joab, Please let the young men arise and play before us. Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then they arose and went over by number: twelve for Benjamin, and for Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 They caught everyone his fellow by the head, and [thrust] his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: why that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 The battle was very severe that day: and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild roe.

19 Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he didn't turn to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Is it you, Asahel? He answered, It is I.

21 Abner said to him, Turn you aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay you hold on one of the young men, and take you his armor. But Asahel would not turn aside from following him.

- 22 Abner said again to Asahel, Turn you aside from following me: why should I strike you to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother?
- 23 However he refused to turn aside: why Abner with the hinder end of the spear struck him in the body, so that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place; and it happened, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.
- 24 But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.
- 25 The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one band, and stood on the top of a hill.
- 26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Don't you know that it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long shall it be then, before you bid the people return from following their brothers?"
- 27 Joab said, As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone away, nor followed everyone his brother.
- 28 So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.
- 29 Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; and they passed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim.
- 30 Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.
- 31 But the servants of David had struck of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, [so that] three hundred sixty men died.
- 32 They took up Asahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. Joab and his men went all night, and the day broke on them at Hebron.
- 1 Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David grew stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.
- 2 To David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;
- 3 and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;
- 4 and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;
- 5 and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.
- 6 It happened, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong in the house of Saul.
- 7 Now Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and [Ish-bosheth] said to Abner, Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?
- 8 Then was Abner very angry for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? This day do I show kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and yet you charge me this day with a fault concerning this woman.
- 9 God do so to Abner, and more also, if, as Yahweh has sworn to David, I don't do even so to him;
- 10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba.
- 11 He could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.
- 12 Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying [also], Make your league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring about all Israel to you.

- 13 He said, Well; I will make a league with you; but one thing I require of you: that is, you shall not see my face, except you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face.
- 14 David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, whom I pledged to be married to me for one hundred foreskins of the Philistines.
- 15 Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from Paltiel the son of Iaiish.
- 16 Her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her to Bahurim. Then said Abner to him, Go, return; and he returned.
- 17 Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, In times past you sought for David to be king over you:
- 18 now then do it; for Yáhwéh has spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.
- 19 Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin; and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and to the whole house of Benjamin.
- 20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast.
- 21 Abner said to David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires. David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.
- 22 Behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a foray, and brought in a great spoil with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.
- 23 When Joab and all the host who was with him had come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he is gone in peace.
- 24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What have you done? behold, Abner came to you; why is it that you have sent him away, and he is quite gone?
- 25 You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do.
- 26 When Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David didn't know it.
- 27 When Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the midst of the gate to speak with him quietly, and struck him there in the body, so that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.
- 28 Afterward, when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before Yáhwéh forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner:
- 29 let it fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.
- 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.
- 31 David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, Tear your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. King David followed the bier.
- 32 They buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.
- 33 The king lamented for Abner, and said, Should Abner die as a fool dies?
- 34 Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters: As a man falls before the children of iniquity, so did you fall. All the people wept again over him.

35 All the people came to cause David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or anything else, until the sun be down.

36 All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatever the king did pleased all the people.

37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner.

38 The king said to his servants, "Don't you know that there a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?"

39 I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruah are too hard for me. May Yahweh reward the evil-doer according to his wickedness."

1 When [Ish-bosheth], Saul's son, heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

2 [Ish-bosheth], Saul's son, [had] two men who were captains of bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin (for Beeroth also is reckoned to Benjamin:

3 and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have been sojourners there until this day).

4 Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the news came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel; and his nurse took him up, and fled; and it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

5 The sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, as he took his rest at noon.

6 They came there into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they struck him in the body; and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 Now when they came into the house, as he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, they struck him, and killed him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and went by the way of the Arabah all night.

8 They brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold, the head of Ish-bosheth, the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; and Yahweh has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, As Yahweh lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of him, and killed him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news.

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house on his bed, shall I not now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

1 Then came all the tribes of Israel to David to Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel; and Yahweh said to you, You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over Israel.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yahweh; and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

- 6 The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, Except you take away the blind and the lame, you shall not come in here; thinking, David can't come in here.
- 7 Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion; the same is the city of David.
- 8 David said on that day, Whoever strikes the Jebusites, let him get up to the watercourse, and [strike] the lame and the blind, who are hated of David's soul. Why they say, There are the blind and the lame; he can't come into the house.
- 9 David lived in the stronghold, and called it the city of David. David built round about from Millo and inward.
- 10 David grew greater and greater; for Yāhweh, the God of hosts, was with him.
- 11 Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar-trees, and carpenters, and masons; and they built David a house.
- 12 David perceived that Yāhweh had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.
- 13 David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron; and there were yet sons and daughters born to David.
- 14 These are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,
- 15 and Ithar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,
- 16 and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet.
- 17 When the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the stronghold.
- 18 Now the Philistines had come and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
- 19 David inquired of Yāhweh, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? will you deliver them into my hand? Yāhweh said to David, Go up; for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand.
- 20 David came to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there; and he said, Yāhweh has broken my enemies before me, like the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim.
- 21 They left their images there; and David and his men took them away.
- 22 The Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
- 23 When David inquired of Yāhweh, he said, You shall not go up; make a circuit behind them, and come on them over against the mulberry-trees.
- 24 It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then you shall bestir yourself; for then is Yāhweh gone out before you to strike the host of the Philistines.
- 25 David did so, as Yāhweh commanded him, and struck the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.
- 1 David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.
- 2 David arose, and went with all the people who were with him, from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, even the name of Yāhweh of Hosts who sits [above] the cherubim.
- 3 They set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in the hill: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.
- 4 They brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was in the hill, with the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark.

- 5 David and all the house of Israel played before Yāhweh with all manner of [instruments made of] fir-wood, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with tambourines, and with castanets, and with cymbals.
- 6 When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put forth [his hand] to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen stumbled.
- 7 The anger of Yāhweh was kindled against Uzzah; and God struck him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.
- 8 David was displeased, because Yāhweh had broken forth on Uzzah; and he called that place Perez-uzzah, to this day.
- 9 David was afraid of Yāhweh that day; and he said, How shall the ark of Yāhweh come to me?
- 10 So David would not remove the ark of Yāhweh to him into the city of David; but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
- 11 The ark of Yāhweh remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months; and Yāhweh blessed Obed-edom, and all his house.
- 12 It was told king David, saying, Yāhweh has blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertains to him, because of the ark of God. David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with joy.
- 13 It was so, that, when those who bore the ark of Yāhweh had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf.
- 14 David danced before Yāhweh with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.
- 15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of Yāhweh with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.
- 16 It was so, as the ark of Yāhweh came into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before Yāhweh; and she despised him in her heart.
- 17 They brought in the ark of Yāhweh, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings before Yāhweh.
- 18 When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yāhweh of Hosts.
- 19 He dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, to everyone a cake of bread, and a portion [of flesh], and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed everyone to his house.
- 20 Then David returned to bless his household. Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel today, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!
- 21 David said to Michal, [It was] before Yāhweh, who chose me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me prince over the people of Yāhweh, over Israel; therefore will I play before Yāhweh.
- 22 I will be yet more vile than this, and will be base in my own sight; but of the handmaids of whom you have spoken, of them shall I be had in honor.
- 23 Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.
- 1 It happened, when the king lived in his house, and Yāhweh had given him rest from all his enemies round about,
- 2 that the king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within curtains.

3 Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in your heart; for Yāhweh is with you.
4 It happened the same night, that the word of Yāhweh came to Nathan, saying,
5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus says Yāhweh, Shall you build me a house for me to dwell in?
6 for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tent.
7 In all places in which I have walked with all the children of Israel, spoke I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people Israel, saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar?
8 Now therefore thus shall you tell my servant David, Thus says Yāhweh of Hosts, I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people, over Israel;
9 and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a great name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth.
10 I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as at the first,
11 and [as] from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will cause you to rest from all your enemies. Moreover Yāhweh tells you that Yāhweh will make you a house.
12 When your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who shall proceed out of your bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.
13 He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.
14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son; if he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men;
15 but my lovingkindness shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you.
16 Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure for ever before you: your throne shall be established forever.
17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.
18 Then David the king went in, and sat before Yāhweh; and he said, Who am I, Lord Yāhweh, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?
19 This was yet a small thing in your eyes, Lord Yāhweh; but you have spoken also of your servant s house for a great while to come; and this [too] after the manner of men, Lord Yāhweh!
20 What can David say more to you? for you know your servant, Lord Yāhweh.
21 For your word s sake, and according to your own heart, have you worked all this greatness, to make your servant know it.
22 Therefore you are great, Yāhweh God: for there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.
23 What one nation in the earth is like your people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, and to make him a name, and to do great things for you, and awesome things for your land, before your people, whom you redeem to you out of Egypt, [from] the nations and their gods?
24 You did establish to yourself your people Israel to be a people to you forever; and you, Yāhweh, became their God.
25 Now, Yāhweh God, the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, confirm you it forever, and do as you have spoken.
26 Let your name be magnified forever, saying, Yāhweh of hosts is God over Israel; and the house of your servant David shall be established before you.

- 27 For you, Yāhweh of Hosts, the God of Israel, have revealed to your servant, saying, I will build you a house; therefore has your servant found in his heart to pray this prayer to you.
- 28 Now, O Lord Yāhweh, you are God, and your words are truth, and you have promised this good thing to your servant:
- 29 now therefore let it please you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, Lord Yāhweh, have spoken it: and with your blessing let the house of your servant be blessed forever.
- 1 After this it happened that David struck the Philistines, and subdued them; and David took the bridle of the mother city out of the hand of the Philistines.
- 2 He struck Moab, and measured them with the line, making them to lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. The Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute.
- 3 David struck also Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his dominion at the River.
- 4 David took from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots.
- 5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.
- 6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. Yāhweh gave victory to David wherever he went.
- 7 David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
- 8 From Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.
- 9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the host of Hadadezer,
- 10 then Toi sent Joram his son to king David, to greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him; for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. [Joram] brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass:
- 11 These also did king David dedicate to Yāhweh, with the silver and gold that he dedicated of all the nations which he subdued;
- 12 of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.
- 13 David got him a name when he returned from smiting the Syrians in the Valley of Salt, even eighteen thousand men.
- 14 He put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. Yāhweh gave victory to David wherever he went.
- 15 David reigned over all Israel; and David executed justice and righteousness to all his people.
- 16 Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;
- 17 and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Seraiah was scribe;
- 18 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada [was over] the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.
- 1 David said, Is there yet any who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?
- 2 There was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, Are you Ziba? He said, Your servant is he.

- 3 The king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God to him? Ziba said to the king, Jonathan has yet a son, who is lame of his feet.
- 4 The king said to him, Where is he? Ziba said to the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Look-debar.
- 5 Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Look-debar.
- 6 Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face, and did obeisance. David said, Mephibosheth. He answered, Behold, your servant!
- 7 David said to him, Don t be afraid of him; for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father s sake, and will restore you all the land of Saul your father; and you shall eat bread at my table continually.
- 8 He did obeisance, and said, What is your servant, that you should look on such a dead dog as I am?
- 9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul s servant, and said to him, All that pertained to Saul and to all his house have I given to your master s son.
- 10 You shall till the land for him, you, and your sons, and your servants; and you shall bring in [the fruits], that your master s son may have bread to eat: but Mephibosheth your master s son shall eat bread always at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.
- 11 Then said Ziba to the king, According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so shall your servant do. As for Mephibosheth, [said the king], he shall eat at my table, as one of the king s sons.
- 12 Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. All that lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.
- 13 So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem; for he ate continually at the king s table. He was lame in both his feet.
- 1 It happened after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place.
- 2 David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me. So David sent by his servants to comfort him concerning his father. David s servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.
- 3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Hasn t David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?
- 4 So Hanun took David s servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.
- 5 When they told it to David, he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, Wait at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.
- 6 When the children of Ammon saw that they were become odious to David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Maacah with one thousand men, and the men of Tob twelve thousand men.
- 7 When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.
- 8 The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entrance of the gate; and the Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.
- 9 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:
- 10 The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and he put them in array against the children of Ammon.

- 11 He said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for you, then I will come and help you.
- 12 Be of good courage, and let us play the man for our people, and for the cities of our God: and Yahweh do that which seems him good.
- 13 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.
- 14 When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.
- 15 When the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they gathered themselves together.
- 16 Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer at their head.
- 17 It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.
- 18 The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians [the men of] seven hundred chariots, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their host, so that he died there.
- 19 When all the kings who were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.
- 1 It happened, at the return of the year, at the time when kings go out [to battle], that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem.
- 2 It happened at evening, that David arose from off his bed, and walked on the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful to look on.
- 3 David sent and inquired after the woman. One said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?
- 4 David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her (for she was purified from her uncleanness); and she returned to her house.
- 5 The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, I am with child.
- 6 David sent to Joab, [saying], Send me Uriah the Hittite. Joab sent Uriah to David.
- 7 When Uriah was come to him, David asked of him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered.
- 8 David said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet. Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess [of food] from the king.
- 9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and didn't go down to his house.
- 10 When they had told David, saying, Uriah didn't go down to his house, David said to Uriah, Haven't you come from a journey? why did you not go down to your house?
- 11 Uriah said to David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.
- 12 David said to Uriah, Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the next day.
- 13 When David had called him, he ate and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but didn't go down to his house.

14 It happened in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.
15 He wrote in the letter, saying, Set you Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire you from him, that he may be struck, and die.
16 It happened, when Joab kept watch on the city, that he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were.
17 The men of the city went out, and fought with Joab; and there fell some of the people, even of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.
18 Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;
19 and he charged the messenger, saying, "When you have made an end of telling all the things concerning the war to the king,
20 it shall be that, if the king's wrath arise, and he tells you, Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Didn't you know that they would shoot from the wall?
21 who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubesheth? Didn't a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall? then shall you say, Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also."
22 So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for.
23 The messenger said to David, The men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were on them even to the entrance of the gate.
24 The shooters shot at your servants from off the wall; and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.
25 Then David said to the messenger, Thus shall you tell Joab, Don't let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; make your battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it; and encourage you him.
26 When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband.
27 When the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased Yehweh.
1 Yehweh sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, "There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.
2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds,
3 but the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and raised. It grew up together with him, and with his children. It ate of his own food, drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was to him like a daughter.
4 A traveler came to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man who had come to him, but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man who had come to him."
5 David's anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As Yehweh lives, the man who has done this is worthy to die!
6 He shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity!"
7 Nathan said to David, "You are the man. This is what Yehweh, the God of Israel, says: I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul.
8 I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that would have been too little, I would have added to you many more such things.

- 9 Why have you despised the word of Yāhweh, to do that which is evil in his sight? You have struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.
- 10 Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.
- 11 This is what Yāhweh says: Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.
- 12 For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. "
- 13 David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against Yāhweh." Nathan said to David, "Yāhweh also has put away your sin. You will not die.
- 14 However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to Yāhweh's enemies to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die."
- 15 Nathan departed to his house. Yāhweh struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it was very sick.
- 16 David therefore begged God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night on the earth.
- 17 The elders of his house arose, [and stood] beside him, to raise him up from the earth; but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.
- 18 It happened on the seventh day, that the child died. The servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he didn't listen to our voice; how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead!
- 19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, Is the child dead? They said, He is dead.
- 20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing; and he came into the house of Yāhweh, and worshipped; then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he ate.
- 21 Then said his servants to him, What thing is this that you have done? you did fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, you did rise and eat bread.
- 22 He said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who knows whether Yāhweh will not be gracious to me, that the child may live?
- 23 But now he is dead, why should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me.
- 24 David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in to her, and lay with her; and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. Yāhweh loved him;
- 25 and he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he named him Jedidiah, for Yāhweh's sake.
- 26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.
- 27 Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah; yes, I have taken the city of waters.
- 28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.
- 29 David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.
- 30 He took the crown of their king from off his head; and the weight of it was a talent of gold, and [in it were] precious stones; and it was set on David's head. He brought forth the spoil of the city, exceeding much.

- 31 He brought forth the people who were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick kiln; and thus did he to all the cities of the children of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.
- 1 It happened after this, that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.
- 2 Amnon was so vexed that he fell sick because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her.
- 3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very subtle man.
- 4 He said to him, Why, son of the king, are you thus lean from day to day? Won't you tell me? Amnon said to him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.
- 5 Jonadab said to him, Lay you down on your bed, and feign yourself sick; and when your father comes to see you, tell him, Please let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.
- 6 So Amnon lay down, and feigned himself sick; and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said to the king, Please let her sister Tamar come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand.
- 7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and dress him food.
- 8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. She took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.
- 9 She took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. Amnon said, Have out all men from me. They went out every man from him.
- 10 Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from your hand. Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.
- 11 When she had brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, Come, lie with me, my sister.
- 12 She answered him, No, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Don't you do this folly.
- 13 I, where shall I carry my shame? and as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you.
- 14 However he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her.
- 15 Then Amnon hated her with exceeding great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. Amnon said to her, Arise, be gone.
- 16 She said to him, Not so, because this great wrong in putting me forth is [worse] than the other that you did to me. But he would not listen to her.
- 17 Then he called his servant who ministered to him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.
- 18 She had a garment of various colors on her; for with such robes were the king's daughters who were virgins dressed. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.
- 19 Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her garment of various colors that was on her; and she laid her hand on her head, and went her way, crying aloud as she went.
- 20 Absalom her brother said to her, Has Amnon your brother been with you? but now hold your peace, my sister; he is your brother; don't take this thing to heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

- 21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very angry.
- 22 Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.
- 23 It happened after two full years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim; and Absalom invited all the king's sons.
- 24 Absalom came to the king, and said, See now, your servant has sheep-shearers; let the king, I pray you, and his servants go with your servant.
- 25 The king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you. He pressed him; however he would not go, but blessed him.
- 26 Then said Absalom, If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us. The king said to him, Why should he go with you?
- 27 But Absalom pressed him, and he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.
- 28 Absalom commanded his servants, saying, Mark you now, when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I tell you, Smite Amnon, then kill him; don't be afraid; haven't I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.
- 29 The servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man got him up on his mule, and fled.
- 30 It happened, while they were in the way, that the news came to David, saying, Absalom has slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.
- 31 Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.
- 32 Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered, Don't let my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead; for by the appointment of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.
- 33 Now therefore don't let my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead; for Amnon only is dead.
- 34 But Absalom fled. The young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill-side behind him.
- 35 Jonadab said to the king, Behold, the king's sons are come; as your servant said, so it is.
- 36 It happened, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept; and the king also and all his servants wept very sore.
- 37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammihur, king of Geshur. [David] mourned for his son every day.
- 38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.
- 39 [the soul of] king David longed to go forth to Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.
- 1 Now Joab the son of Zeruah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom.
- 2 Joab sent to Tekoa, and fetched there a wise woman, and said to her, please act like a mourner, and put on mourning clothing, Please, and don't anoint yourself with oil, but be as a woman who has a long time mourned for the dead:
- 3 and go in to the king, and speak on this manner to him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.
- 4 When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.
- 5 The king said to her, What ails you? She answered, Of a truth I am a widow, and my husband is dead.

- 6 Your handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one struck the other, and killed him.
- 7 Behold, the whole family is risen against your handmaid, and they say, Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed, and so destroy the heir also. Thus will they quench my coal which is left, and will leave to my husband neither name nor remainder on the surface of the earth.
- 8 The king said to the woman, Go to your house, and I will give charge concerning you.
- 9 The woman of Tekoa said to the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless.
- 10 The king said, Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you any more.
- 11 Then said she, Please let the king remember Yahweh your God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son. He said, As Yahweh lives, there shall not one hair of your son fall to the earth.
- 12 Then the woman said, Please let your handmaid speak a word to my lord the king. He said, Say on.
- 13 The woman said, Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? for in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring home again his banished one.
- 14 For we must needs die, and are as water split on the ground, which can't be gathered up again; neither does God take away life, but devises means, that he who is banished not be an outcast from him.
- 15 Now therefore seeing that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid; and your handmaid said, I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.
- 16 For the king will hear, to deliver his servant out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.
- 17 Then your handmaid said, Please let the word of my lord the king be comfortable; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad; and Yahweh your God be with you.
- 18 Then the king answered the woman, Please don't hide anything from me that I shall ask you. The woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.
- 19 The king said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? The woman answered, As your soul lives, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid;
- 20 to change the face of the matter has your servant Joab done this thing; and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.
- 21 The king said to Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing; go therefore, bring the young man Absalom back.
- 22 Joab fell to the ground on his face, and did obeisance, and blessed the king; and Joab said, Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant.
- 23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.
- 24 The king said, Let him turn to his own house, but let him not see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house, and didn't see the king's face.
- 25 Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.
- 26 When he cut the hair of his head (now it was at every year's end that he cut it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cut it); he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, after the king's weight.

- 27 To Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a beautiful face.
- 28 Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem; and he didn't see the king's face.
- 29 Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but he would not come to him; and he sent again a second time, but he would not come.
- 30 Therefore he said to his servants, Behold, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire. Absalom's servants set the field on fire.
- 31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to his house, and said to him, Why have your servants set my field on fire?
- 32 Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, Why am I come from Geshur? it were better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be iniquity in me, let him kill me.
- 33 So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.
- 1 It happened after this, that Absalom prepared him a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him.
- 2 Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate; and it was so, that when any man had a suit which should come to the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him, and said, Of what city are you? He said, Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.
- 3 Absalom said to him, Behold, your matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear you.
- 4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice!
- 5 It was so, that when any man came near to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him.
- 6 In this manner Absalom did to all Israel who came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
- 7 It happened at the end of forty years, that Absalom said to the king, please let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to Yehweh, in Hebron.
- 8 For your servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If Yehweh shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve Yehweh.
- 9 The king said to him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.
- 10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, Absalom is king in Hebron.
- 11 With Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they didn't know anything.
- 12 Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.
- 13 There came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.
- 14 David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword.
- 15 The king's servants said to the king, Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king shall choose.

- 16 The king went forth, and all his household after him. The king left ten women, who were concubines, to keep the house.
- 17 The king went forth, and all the people after him; and they stayed in Beth-merhak.
- 18 All his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.
- 19 Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Why go you also with us? return, and abide with the king: for you are a foreigner, and also an exile; [return] to your own place.
- 20 Whereas you came but yesterday, should I this day make you go up and down with us, seeing I go where I may? return you, and take back your brothers; mercy and truth be with you.
- 21 Ittai answered the king, and said, As Yāhweh lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether for death or for life, even there also will your servant be.
- 22 David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him.
- 23 All the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.
- 24 Behold, Zadok also [came], and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.
- 25 The king said to Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favor in the eyes of Yāhweh, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and his habitation:
- 26 but if he say thus, I have no delight in you; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seems good to him.
- 27 The king said also to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.
- 28 Behold, I will stay at the fords of the wilderness, until word comes from you to inform me."
- 29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem; and they abode there.
- 30 David went up by the ascent of the [Mount of] Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people who were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.
- 31 One told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. David said, Yāhweh, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.
- 32 It happened that when David had come to the top [of the ascent], where God was worshipped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn, and earth on his head.
- 33 David said to him, If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me:
- 34 but if you return to the city, and tell Absalom, I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father's servant in time past, so will I now be your servant; then will you defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.
- 35 Don't you have Zadok and Abiathar the priests there with you? therefore it shall be, that whatever thing you shall hear out of the king's house, you shall tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.
- 36 Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send to me everything that you shall hear.
- 37 So Hushai, David's friend, came into the city; and Absalom came into Jerusalem.
- 1 When David was a little past the top [of the ascent], behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of donkeys saddled, and on them two hundred loaves of bread, and one hundred clusters of raisins, and one hundred summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

- 2 The king said to Ziba, What do you mean by these? Ziba said, The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as are faint in the wilderness may drink.
- 3 The king said, Where is your master's son? Ziba said to the king, Behold, he abides at Jerusalem; for he said, Today will the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.
- 4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, all that pertains to Mephibosheth is yours. Ziba said, I do obeisance; let me find favor in your sight, my lord, O king.
- 5 When king David came to Bahurim, behold, a man of the family of the house of Saul came out, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out, and cursed still as he came.
- 6 He cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David; and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.
- 7 Thus said Shimei when he cursed, Be gone, be gone, you man of blood, and base fellow:
- 8 Yahweh has returned on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and Yahweh has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son; and, behold, you are [taken] in your own mischief, because you are a man of blood.
- 9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me go over and take off his head."
- 10 The king said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? Because he curses, and because Yahweh has said to him, Curse David; who then shall say, Why have you done so?
- 11 David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life; how much more [may] this Benjamite now [do it]? let him alone, and let him curse; for Yahweh has invited him.
- 12 It may be that Yahweh will look on the wrong done to me, and that Yahweh will requite me good for [his] cursing of me this day.
- 13 So David and his men went by the way; and Shimei went along on the hill-side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.
- 14 The king, and all the people who were with him, came weary; and he refreshed himself there.
- 15 Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.
- 16 It happened, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, [Long] live the king, [Long] live the king.
- 17 Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness to your friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?
- 18 Hushai said to Absalom, No; but whom Yahweh, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his will I be, and with him will I abide.
- 19 Again, whom should I serve? Shouldn't I serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence.
- 20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give your counsel what we shall do.
- 21 Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to your father's concubines, that he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you are abhorred of your father; then will the hands of all who are with you be strong.
- 22 So they spread Absalom a tent on the top of the house; and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.
- 23 The counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man inquired at the oracle of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.
- 1 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night:

2 and I will come on him while he is weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid; and all the people who are with him shall flee; and I will strike the king only;

3 and I will bring back all the people to you: the man whom you seek is as if all returned: [so] all the people shall be in peace.

4 The saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he says.

6 When Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him, saying, Ahithophel has spoken after this manner: shall we do [after] his saying? if not, speak up.

7 Hushai said to Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good.

8 Hushai said moreover, You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are fierce in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field; and your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some [other] place: and it will happen, when some of them are fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.

10 Even he who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.

11 But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you go to battle in your own person.

12 So shall we come on him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light on him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him we will not leave so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there not be one small stone found there.

14 Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For Yahweh had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that Yahweh might bring evil on Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Don t lodge this night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying by En-rogel; and a maid-servant used to go and tell them; and they went and told king David; for they might not be seen to come into the city.

18 But a boy saw them, and told Absalom; and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down there.

19 The woman took and spread the covering over the well s mouth, and strewed bruised grain thereon; and nothing was known.

20 Absalom s servants came to the woman to the house; and they said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? The woman said to them, They have gone over the brook of water. When they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 It happened, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and they said to David, Arise you, and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them who had not gone over the Jordan.

- 23 When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, and arose, and got him home, to his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father.
- 24 Then David came to Mahanaim. Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.
- 25 Absalom set Amasa over the host instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man, whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruah, Joab's mother.
- 26 Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.
- 27 It happened, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Jodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,
- 28 brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and parched [grain], and beans, and lentils, and parched [pulse],
- 29 and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David, and for the people who were with him, to eat: for they said, The people are hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.
- 1 David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.
- 2 David sent forth the people, a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.
- 3 But the people said, You shall not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore now it is better that you be ready to help us out of the city.
- 4 The king said to them, What seems you best I will do. The king stood by the gate-side, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.
- 5 The king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. All the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.
- 6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim.
- 7 The people of Israel were struck there before the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men.
- 8 For the battle was there spread over the surface of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.
- 9 Absalom happened to meet the servants of David. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the sky and earth; and the mule that was under him went on.
- 10 A certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak.
- 11 Joab said to the man who told him, Behold, you saw it, and why didn't you strike him there to the ground? and I would have given you ten [pieces of] silver, and a sash.
- 12 The man said to Joab, Though I should receive a thousand [pieces of] silver in my hand, I still wouldn't put forth my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king charged you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.
- 13 Otherwise if I had dealt falsely against his life (and there is no matter hid from the king), then you yourself would have set yourself against [me].

- 14 Then said Joab, I may not wait thus with you. He took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.
- 15 Ten young men who bore Joab s armor compassed about and struck Absalom, and killed him.
- 16 Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held back the people.
- 17 They took Absalom, and cast him into the great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones; and all Israel fled everyone to his tent.
- 18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself the pillar, which is in the king s dale; for he said, I have no son to keep my name in memory; and he called the pillar after his own name; and it is called Absalom s monument, to this day.
- 19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king news, how that Yâhweh has avenged him of his enemies.
- 20 Joab said to him, You shall not be the bearer of news this day, but you shall bear news another day; but this day you shall bear no news, because the king s son is dead.
- 21 Then said Joab to the Cushite, Go, tell the king what you have seen. The Cushite bowed himself to Joab, and ran.
- 22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But come what may, Please let me also run after the Cushite. Joab said, Why will you run, my son, seeing that you will have no reward for the news?
- 23 But come what may, [said he], I will run. He said to him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and outran the Cushite.
- 24 Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man running alone.
- 25 The watchman cried, and told the king. The king said, If he be alone, there is news in his mouth. He came apace, and drew near.
- 26 The watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the porter, and said, Behold, [another] man running alone. The king said, He also brings news.
- 27 The watchman said, I think the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. The king said, He is a good man, and comes with good news.
- 28 Ahimaaz called, and said to the king, All is well. He bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, Blessed be Yâhweh your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king.
- 29 The king said, Is it well with the young man Absalom? Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king s servant, even me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I don t know what it was.
- 30 The king said, Turn aside, and stand here. He turned aside, and stood still.
- 31 Behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, News for my lord the king; for Yâhweh has avenged you this day of all those who rose up against you.
- 32 The king said to the Cushite, Is it well with the young man Absalom? The Cushite answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you to do you hurt, be as that young man is.
- 33 The king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, thus he said, my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would I had died for you, Absalom, my son, my son!
- 1 It was told Joab, Behold, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom.
- 2 The victory that day was turned into mourning to all the people; for the people heard say that day, The king grieves for his son.

- 3 The people got them by stealth that day into the city, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.
- 4 The king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, my son Absalom, Absalom, my son, my son!
- 5 Joab came into the house to the king, and said, You have shamed this day the faces of all your servants, who this day have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines;
- 6 in that you love those who hate you, and hate those who love you. For you have declared this day, that princes and servants are nothing to you; for this day I perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased you well.
- 7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably to your servants; for I swear by Yāhweh, if you don t go forth, there will not stay a man with you this night; and that will be worse to you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now.
- 8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. They told to all the people, saying, Behold, the king is sitting in the gate; and all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his tent.
- 9 All the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land from Absalom.
- 10 Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why don t you speak a word of bringing the king back?
- 11 King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, [to bring him] to his house.
- 12 You are my brothers, you are my bone and my flesh: why then are you the last to bring back the king?
- 13 Say you to Amasa, Aren t you my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you aren t captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab.
- 14 He bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as [the heart of] one man; so that they sent to the king, [saying], Return you, and all your servants.
- 15 So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan.
- 16 Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, who was of Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.
- 17 There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went through the Jordan in the presence of the king.
- 18 There went over a ferry-boat to bring over the king s household, and to do what he thought good. Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, when he was come over the Jordan.
- 19 He said to the king, Don t let my lord impute iniquity to me, neither do you remember that which your servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.
- 20 For your servant does know that I have sinned; therefore, behold, I am come this day the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.
- 21 But Abishai the son of Zeruah answered, Shall Shimei not be put to death for this, because he cursed Yāhweh s anointed?

- 22 David said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruah, that you should this day be adversaries to me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for don't I know that I am this day king over Israel?
- 23 The king said to Shimei, You shall not die. The king swore to him.
- 24 Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace.
- 25 It happened, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?
- 26 He answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for your servant said, I will saddle me a donkey, that I may ride thereon, and go with the king; because your servant is lame.
- 27 He has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in your eyes.
- 28 For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right therefore have I yet that I should cry any more to the king?
- 29 The king said to him, Why speak you any more of your matters? I say, You and Ziba divide the land.
- 30 Mephibosheth said to the king, yes, let him take all, because my lord the king is come in peace to his own house.
- 31 Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and he went over the Jordan with the king, to conduct him over the Jordan.
- 32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even eighty years old; and he had provided the king with sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man.
- 33 The king said to Barzillai, Come you over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem.
- 34 Barzillai said to the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?
- 35 I am this day eighty years old: can I discern between good and bad? can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? why then should your servant be yet a burden to my lord the king?
- 36 Your servant would but just go over the Jordan with the king; and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?
- 37 Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold, your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good to you.
- 38 The king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to you; and whatever you shall require of me, that will I do for you.
- 39 All the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over; and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place.
- 40 So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him; and all the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people of Israel.
- 41 Behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king, and his household, over the Jordan, and all David's men with him?
- 42 All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is a close relative to us: why then are you angry for this matter? have we eaten at all at the king's cost? or has he given us any gift?

43 The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more [right] in David than you: why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? The words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

1 There happened to be there a base fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew the trumpet, and said, We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, Israel.

2 So all the men of Israel went up from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah joined with their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in custody, and provided them with sustenance, but didn't go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, Call me the men of Judah together within three days, and be you here present.

5 So Amasa went to call [the men of] Judah together; but he stayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 David said to Abishai, Now will Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take your lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fortified cities, and escape out of our sight.

7 There went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was girded with his apparel of war that he had put on, and thereon was a sash with a sword fastened on his loins in the sheath of it; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 Joab said to Amasa, Is it well with you, my brother? Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand; so he struck him therewith in the body, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and didn't strike him again; and he died. Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 There stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab.

12 Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the midst of the highway. When the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 He went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth-maacah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 They came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, Come near here, that I may speak with you. "

17 He came near to her; and the woman said, Are you Joab? He answered, I am. Then she said to him, Hear the words of your handmaid. He answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spoke, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask [counsel] at Abel: and so they ended [the matter].

19 I am of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel: you seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why will you swallow up the inheritance of Yāhweh?

20 Joab answered, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so; but a man of the hill-country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David; deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. The woman said to Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall.

22 Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. He blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

23 Now Joab was over all the host of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites;

24 and Adoram was over the men subject to forced labor; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder;

25 and Sheva was scribe; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

26 and also Ira the Jairite was chief minister to David.

1 There was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David sought the face of Yāhweh. Yāhweh said, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put to death the Gibeonites.

2 The king called the Gibeonites, and said to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn to them: and Saul sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah);

3 and David said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of Yāhweh?

4 The Gibeonites said to him, It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saul, or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel. He said, What you shall say, that will I do for you.

5 They said to the king, The man who consumed us, and who devised against us, [that] we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel,

6 let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to Yāhweh in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Yāhweh. The king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of Yāhweh's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

9 He delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the mountain before Yāhweh, and they fell [all] seven together. They were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of barley harvest.

10 Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water was poured on them from the sky; and she allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the animals of the field by night.

11 It was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, in the day that the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa;

13 and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son: and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged.

14 They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father; and they performed all that the king commanded. After that God was entreated for the land.

15 The Philistines had war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. David grew faint;

16 and Ishbibenob, who was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred [shekels] of brass in weight, he being girded with a new [sword], thought to have slain David.

17 But Abishai the son of Neriah helped him, and struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, You shall go no more out with us to battle, that you don't quench the lamp of Israel.

18 It came to pass after this, that there was again war with the Philistines at Gob; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was of the sons of the giant.

19 There was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite's brother, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 There was again war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, who had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, killed him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

1 David spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul:

2 and he said, Yahweh is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, even mine;

3 God, my rock, in him will I take refuge; My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge; My savior, you save me from violence.

4 I will call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised: So shall I be saved from my enemies.

5 For the waves of death compassed me; The floods of ungodliness made me afraid:

6 The cords of Sheol were round about me; The snares of death came on me.

7 In my distress I called on Yahweh; Yes, I called to my God: He heard my voice out of his temple, My cry [came] into his ears.

8 Then the earth shook and trembled, The foundations of heaven quaked Were shaken, because he was angry.

9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, Fire out of his mouth devoured: Coals were kindled by it.

10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down; Thick darkness was under his feet.

11 He rode on a cherub, and did fly; Yes, he was seen on the wings of the wind.

12 He made darkness pavilions round about him, Gathering of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

13 At the brightness before him Coals of fire were kindled.

14 Yahweh thundered from heaven, The Most High uttered his voice.

15 He sent out arrows, and scattered them; Lightning, and confused them.

16 Then the channels of the sea appeared, The foundations of the world were laid bare, By the rebuke of Yahweh, At the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 He sent from on high, he took me; He drew me out of many waters;

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, From those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.

19 They came on me in the day of my calamity; But Yahweh was my stay.

20 He brought me forth also into a large place; He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
 21 Yāhweh rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands has he recompensed me.
 22 For I have kept the ways of Yāhweh, And have not wickedly departed from my God.
 23 For all his ordinances were before me; As for his statutes, I did not depart from them.
 24 I was also perfect toward him; I kept myself from my iniquity.
 25 Therefore has Yāhweh recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness in his eyesight.
 26 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful; With the perfect man you will show yourself perfect;
 27 With the pure you will show yourself pure; With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.
 28 The afflicted people you will save; But your eyes are on the haughty, that you may bring them down.
 29 For you are my lamp, Yāhweh; Yāhweh will lighten my darkness.
 30 For by you I run on a troop; By my God do I leap over a wall.
 31 As for God, his way is perfect: The word of Yāhweh is tried; He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
 32 For who is God, save Yāhweh? Who is a rock, save our God?
 33 God is my strong fortress; He guides the perfect in his way.
 34 He makes his feet like hinds [feet], Sets me on my high places.
 35 He teaches my hands to war, So that my arms do bend a bow of brass.
 36 You have also given me the shield of your salvation; Your gentleness has made me great.
 37 You have enlarged my steps under me; My feet have not slipped.
 38 I have pursued my enemies, and destroyed them; Neither did I turn again until they were consumed.
 39 I have consumed them, and struck them through, so that they can't arise: Yes, they are fallen under my feet.
 40 For you have girded me with strength to the battle; You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
 41 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, That I might cut off those who hate me.
 42 They looked, but there was none to save; Even to Yāhweh, but he didn't answer them.
 43 Then did I beat them small as the dust of the earth, I did crush them as the mire of the streets, and did spread them abroad.
 44 You also have delivered me from the strivings of my people; You have kept me to be the head of the nations: A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
 45 The foreigners shall submit themselves to me: As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me.
 46 The foreigners shall fade away, Shall come trembling out of their close places.
 47 Yāhweh lives; Blessed be my rock; Exalted be God, the rock of my salvation,
 48 Even the God who executes vengeance for me, Who brings down peoples under me,
 49 Who brings me forth from my enemies: Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me; You deliver me from the violent man.
 50 Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yāhweh, among the nations, Will sing praises to your name.
 51 Great deliverance gives he to his king, Shows lovingkindness to his anointed, To David and to his seed, forevermore.

- 1 Now these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse says, The man who was raised on high says, The anointed of the God of Jacob, The sweet psalmist of Israel:
- 2 The Spirit of Yahweh spoke by me, His word was on my tongue.
- 3 The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spoke to me: One who rules over men righteously, Who rules in the fear of God,
- 4 [He shall be] as the light of the morning, when the sun rises, A morning without clouds, [When] the tender grass [springs] out of the earth, Through clear shining after rain.
- 5 Most assuredly my house is not so with God; Yet he has made with me an everlasting covenant, Ordered in all things, and sure: For it is all my salvation, and all [my] desire, Although he doesn't make it grow.
- 6 But the ungodly shall be all of them as thorns to be thrust away, Because they can't be taken with the hand
- 7 But the man who touches them Must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear: They shall be utterly burned with fire in [their] place
- 8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite, against eight hundred slain at one time.
- 9 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodai the son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away.
- 10 He arose, and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword; and Yahweh worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take spoil.
- 11 After him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. The Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines.
- 12 But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and Yahweh worked a great victory.
- 13 Three of the thirty chief men went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.
- 14 David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.
- 15 David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!
- 16 The three mighty men broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David; but he would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yahweh.
- 17 He said, Be it far from me, Yahweh, that I should do this: [shall I drink] the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.
- 18 Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruah, was chief of the three. He lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three.
- 19 Wasn't he the most honorable of the three? therefore he was made their captain; however he didn't attain to the [first] three.
- 20 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, he killed the two [sons of] Ariel of Moab; he went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.
- 21 He killed an Egyptian, a goodly man; and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty men.
23 He was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the [first] three. David set him over his guard.

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

25 Shammah the Harodite, Elikah the Harodite,

26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikesh the Tekoite,

27 Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

29 Heleb the son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin,

30 Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash.

31 Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Ararite,

34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maacathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

35 Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor bearers to Joab the son of Zeruah,

38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

1 Again the anger of Yehweh was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 The king said to Joab the captain of the host, who was with him, Go now back and forth through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number you the people, that I may know the sum of the people.

3 Joab said to the king, Now Yehweh your God add to the people, however many they may be, one hundred times; and may the eyes of my lord the king see it; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding, the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 They passed over the Jordan, and encamped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and to Jazer:

6 then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaan, and round about to Sidon,

7 and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beersheba.

8 So when they had gone back and forth through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to the king; and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 David's heart struck him after that he had numbered the people. David said to Yehweh, I have sinned greatly in that which I have done; but now, Yehweh, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly.

- 11 When David rose up in the morning, the word of Yāhweh came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,
- 12 Go and speak to David, Thus says Yāhweh, I offer you three things: choose you one of them, that I may do it to you.
- 13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? now advise you, and consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me.
- 14 David said to Gad, I am in a great strait; let us fall now into the hand of Yāhweh; for his mercies are great; and let me not fall into the hand of man.
- 15 So Yāhweh sent a pestilence on Israel from the morning even to the time appointed; and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men.
- 16 When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Yāhweh repented him of the evil, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, It is enough; now stay your hand. The angel of Yāhweh was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 17 David spoke to Yāhweh when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said, Behold, I have sinned, and I have done perversely; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand be against me, and against my father's house.
- 18 Gad came that day to David, and said to him, Go up, rear an altar to Yāhweh in the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 19 David went up according to the saying of Gad, as Yāhweh commanded.
- 20 Araunah looked forth, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him; and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.
- 21 Araunah said, Why is my lord the king come to his servant? David said, To buy the threshing floor of you, to build an altar to Yāhweh, that the plague may be stayed from the people.
- 22 Araunah said to David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him; behold, the oxen for the burnt offering, and the threshing instruments and the yokes of the oxen for the wood:
- 23 all this, king, does Araunah give to the king. Araunah said to the king, Yāhweh your God accept you.
- 24 The king said to Araunah, No; but I will most assuredly buy it of you at a price. Neither will I offer burnt-offerings to Yāhweh my God which cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
- 25 David built there an altar to Yāhweh, and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings. So Yāhweh was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.
- 1 Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat.
- 2 Therefore his servants said to him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin; and let her stand before the king, and cherish him; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm.
- 3 So they sought for a beautiful young lady throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.
- 4 The young lady was very beautiful; and she cherished the king, and ministered to him; but the king didn't know her intimately.
- 5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king; and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.
- 6 His father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why have you done so? and he was also a very goodly man; and he was born after Absalom.

- 7 He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him.
- 8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.
- 9 Adonijah killed sheep and oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel; and he called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants:
- 10 but Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he didn't call.
- 11 Then Nathan spoke to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Haven't you heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and David our lord doesn't know it?
- 12 Now therefore come, please let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life, and the life of your son Solomon.
- 13 Go and get you in to king David, and tell him, Didn't you, my lord, king, swear to your handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? why then does Adonijah reign?
- 14 Behold, while you yet talk there with the king, I also will come in after you, and confirm your words.
- 15 Bath-sheba went in to the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the king.
- 16 Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance to the king. The king said, What would you?
- 17 She said to him, My lord, you swore by Yehweh your God to your handmaid, [saying], Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.
- 18 Now, behold, Adonijah reigns; and you, my lord the king, don't know it:
- 19 and he has slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host; but he hasn't called Solomon your servant.
- 20 You, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.
- 21 Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.
- 22 Behold, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.
- 23 They told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. When he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.
- 24 Nathan said, My lord, king, have you said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne?
- 25 For he is gone down this day, and has slain oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and say, [Long] live king Adonijah.
- 26 But he hasn't called me, even me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon.
- 27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and you haven't showed to your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?
- 28 Then king David answered, Call to me Bath-sheba. She came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.
- 29 The king swore, and said, As Yehweh lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity,
- 30 most assuredly as I swore to you by Yehweh, the God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place; most assuredly so will I do this day.

- 31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did obeisance to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live forever.
- 32 King David said, Call to me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. They came before the king.
- 33 The king said to them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon:
- 34 and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel; and blow you the trumpet, and say, [Long] live king Solomon.
- 35 Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne; for he shall be king in my place; and I have appointed him to be prince over Israel and over Judah.
- 36 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: Yâhweh, the God of my lord the king, say so [too].
- 37 As Yâhweh has been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.
- 38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride on king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.
- 39 Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the Tent, and anointed Solomon. They blew the trumpet; and all the people said, [Long] live king Solomon.
- 40 All the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth shook with the sound of them.
- 41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Why is this noise of the city being in an uproar?
- 42 While he yet spoke, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said, Come in; for you are a worthy man, and bring good news.
- 43 Jonathan answered Adonijah, Most assuredly our lord king David has made Solomon king:
- 44 and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king's mule;
- 45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon; and they are come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard.
- 46 Also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom.
- 47 Moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, Your God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne; and the king bowed himself on the bed.
- 48 Also thus said the king, Blessed be Yâhweh, the God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it.
- 49 All the guests of Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.
- 50 Adonijah feared because of Solomon; and he arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.
- 51 It was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah fears king Solomon; for, behold, he has laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear to me first that he will not kill his servant with the sword.
- 52 Solomon said, If he shall show himself a worthy man, there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth; but if wickedness be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and did obeisance to king Solomon; and Solomon said to him, Go to your house.

1 Now the days of David drew near that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 I am going the way of all the earth: be you strong therefore, and show yourself a man;

3 and keep the charge of Yāhweh your God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, [and] his commandments, and his ordinances, and his testimonies, according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do, and wherever you turn yourself.

4 That Yāhweh may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, If your children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

5 Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, even what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his sash that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to your wisdom, and don't let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace.

7 But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those who eat at your table; for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

8 Behold, there is with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Yāhweh, saying, I will not put you to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore don't hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man; and you will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down to Sheol with blood.

10 David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 The days that David reigned over Israel were forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty-three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 Solomon sat on the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. She said, Come you peaceably? He said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to tell you. She said, Say on.

15 He said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign; however the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's; for it was his from Yāhweh.

16 Now I ask one petition of you; don't deny me. She said to him, Say on.

17 He said, Please speak to Solomon the king (for he will not tell you no), that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife.

18 Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for you to the king.

19 Bath-sheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I ask one small petition of you; don't deny me. The king said to her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny you.

21 She said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife.

22 King Solomon answered his mother, Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

- 23 Then king Solomon swore by Yāhweh, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life.
- 24 Now therefore as Yāhweh lives, who has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day.
- 25 King Solomon sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died.
- 26 To Abiathar the priest said the king, Get you to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death; but I will not at this time put you to death, because you bear the ark of the Lord Yāhweh before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted.
- 27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to Yāhweh, that he might fulfill the word of Yāhweh, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.
- 28 The news came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he didn't turn after Absalom. Joab fled to the Tent of Yāhweh, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.
- 29 It was told king Solomon, Joab is fled to the Tent of Yāhweh, and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall on him.
- 30 Benaiah came to the Tent of Yāhweh, and said to him, Thus says the king, Come forth. He said, No; but I will die here. Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.
- 31 The king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him; that you may take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house.
- 32 Yāhweh will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, and my father David didn't know it, [to wit], Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.
- 33 So shall their blood return on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever; but to David, and to his seed, and to his house, and to his throne, shall there be peace for ever from Yāhweh.
- 34 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell on him, and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.
- 35 The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host; and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.
- 36 The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and don't go forth from there any where.
- 37 For on the day you go out, and pass over the brook Kidron, know you for certain that you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your own head.
- 38 Shimei said to the king, The saying is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.
- 39 It happened at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. They told Shimei, saying, Behold, your servants are in Gath.
- 40 Shimei arose, and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.
- 41 It was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.
- 42 The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Didn't I adjure you by Yāhweh, and protest to you, saying, Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk abroad any where, you shall surely die? and you said to me, The saying that I have heard is good.
- 43 Why then have you not kept the oath of Yāhweh, and the commandment that I have charged you with?
- 44 The king said moreover to Shimei, You know all the wickedness which your heart is privy to, that you did to David my father; therefore Yāhweh shall return your wickedness on your own head.

- 45 But king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before Yāhweh forever.
- 46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.
- 1 Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of Yāhweh, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.
- 2 Only the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of Yāhweh until those days.
- 3 Solomon loved Yāhweh, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.
- 4 The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer on that altar.
- 5 In Gibeon Yāhweh appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, Ask what I shall give you.
- 6 Solomon said, You have showed to your servant David my father great lovingkindness, according as he walked before you in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you; and you have kept for him this great lovingkindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.
- 7 Now, Yāhweh my God, you have made your servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child; I don't know how to go out or come in.
- 8 Your servant is in the midst of your people which you have chosen, a great people, that can't be numbered nor counted for multitude.
- 9 Give your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this your great people?
- 10 The speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.
- 11 God said to him, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice;
- 12 behold, I have done according to your word; behold, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there has been none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like you.
- 13 I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there shall not be any among the kings like you, all your days.
- 14 If you will walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David did walk, then I will lengthen your days.
- 15 Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream: and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.
- 16 Then there came two women who were prostitutes, to the king, and stood before him.
- 17 The one woman said, Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.
- 18 It happened the third day after I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.
- 19 This woman's child died in the night, because she lay on it.

20 She arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 When I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead; but when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I bore.

22 The other woman said, No; but the living is my son, and the dead is your son. This said, No; but the dead is your son, and the living is my son. Thus they spoke before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one says, This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead; and the other says, No; but your son is the dead, and my son is the living.

24 The king said, Get me a sword. They brought a sword before the king.

25 The king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spoke the woman whose the living child was to the king, for her heart yearned over her son, and she said, Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and in no way kill it. But the other said, It shall be neither mine nor yours; divide it.

27 Then the king answered, Give her the living child, and in no way kill it; she is the mother of it.

28 All Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.

1 King Solomon was king over all Israel.

2 These were the princes whom he had: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest;

3 Eliphoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder;

4 and Benaiiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

5 and Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was chief minister, [and] the king's friend;

6 and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to forced labor.

7 Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided victuals for the king and his household: each man had to make provision for a month in the year.

8 These are their names: Ben-hur, in the hill-country of Ephraim;

9 Ben-deker, in Makaz, and in Shaalvim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan;

10 Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (to him [pertained] Socoh, and all the land of Hopher);

11 Ben-abinadab, in all the height of Dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as wife);

12 Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean which is beside Zarethan, beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as beyond Jokmeam;

13 Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (to him [pertained] the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; [even] to him [pertained] the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and brazen bars);

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

15 Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as wife);

16 Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

18 Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin;

19 Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and [he was] the only officer who was in the land.

- 20 Judah and Israel were many as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry.
- 21 Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt: they brought tribute, and served Solomon all the days of his life.
- 22 Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and sixty measures of meal,
- 23 ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides harts, and gazelles, and roebucks, and fattened fowl.
- 24 For he had dominion over all [the region] on this side the River, from Tiphshah even to Gaza, over all the kings on this side the River: and he had peace on all sides round about him.
- 25 Judah and Israel lived safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.
- 26 Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.
- 27 Those officers provided victuals for king Solomon, and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month; they let nothing be lacking.
- 28 Barley also and straw for the horses and swift steeds brought they to the place where [the officers] were, every man according to his charge.
- 29 God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and very great understanding, even as the sand that is on the sea-shore.
- 30 Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt.
- 31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the nations round about.
- 32 He spoke three thousand proverbs; and his songs were one thousand five.
- 33 He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish.
- 34 There came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.
- 1 Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David.
- 2 Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,
- 3 You know how that David my father could not build a house for the name of Yehweh his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until Yehweh put them under the soles of his feet.
- 4 But now Yehweh my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary, nor evil occurrence.
- 5 Behold, I purpose to build a house for the name of Yehweh my God, as Yehweh spoke to David my father, saying, Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your room, he shall build the house for my name.
- 6 Now therefore command you that they cut me cedar-trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with your servants; and I will give you hire for your servants according to all that you shall say: for you know that there is not among us any who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.
- 7 It happened, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be Yehweh this day, who has given to David a wise son over this great people.
- 8 Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard [the message] which you have sent to me: I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

- 9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you shall appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and you shall receive them; and you shall accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.
- 10 So Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all his desire.
- 11 Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.
- 12 Y^hweh gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.
- 13 King Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.
- 14 He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to forced labor.
- 15 Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains;
- 16 besides Solomon's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work.
- 17 The king commanded, and they hewed out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with worked stone.
- 18 Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites did fashion them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.
- 1 It happened in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of Y^hweh.
- 2 The house which king Solomon built for Y^hweh, the length of it was sixty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty [cubits], and the height of it thirty cubits.
- 3 The porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length of it, according to the breadth of the house; [and] ten cubits was the breadth of it before the house.
- 4 For the house he made windows of fixed lattice-work.
- 5 Against the wall of the house he built stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle; and he made side-chambers round about.
- 6 The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside he made offsets [in the wall] of the house round about, that [the beams] should not have hold in the walls of the house.
- 7 The house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor ax nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.
- 8 The door for the middle side-chambers was in the right side of the house; and they went up by winding stairs into the middle [story], and out of the middle into the third.
- 9 So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar.
- 10 He built the stories against all the house, each five cubits high; and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.
- 11 The word of Y^hweh came to Solomon, saying,
- 12 Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father.
- 13 I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.
- 14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

- 15 He built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with boards of fir.
- 16 He built twenty cubits on the hinder part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the walls [of the ceiling]; he built [them] for it within, for an oracle, even for the most holy place.
- 17 The house, that is, the temple before [the oracle], was forty cubits [long].
- 18 There was cedar on the house within, carved with buds and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.
- 19 He prepared an oracle in the midst of the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh.
- 20 Within the oracle was [a space of] twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height of it; and he overlaid it with pure gold; and he covered the altar with cedar.
- 21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he drew chains of gold across before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.
- 22 The whole house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also the whole altar that belonged to the oracle he overlaid with gold.
- 23 In the oracle he made two cherubim of olive-wood, each ten cubits high.
- 24 Five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing to the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.
- 25 The other cherub was ten cubits; both the cherubim were of one measure and one form.
- 26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.
- 27 He set the cherubim within the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.
- 28 He overlaid the cherubim with gold.
- 29 He carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers, inside and outside.
- 30 The floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside.
- 31 For the entrance of the oracle he made doors of olive-wood: the lintel [and] door-posts were a fifth part [of the wall].
- 32 So [he made] two doors of olive-wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim, and on the palm-trees.
- 33 So also made he for the entrance of the temple door-posts of olive-wood, out of a fourth part [of the wall];
- 34 and two doors of fir-wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.
- 35 He carved [thereon] cherubim and palm-trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold fitted on the engraved work.
- 36 He built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone, and a course of cedar beams.
- 37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of Yāhweh laid, in the month Ziv.
- 38 In the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts of it, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.
- 1 Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

- 2 For he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length of it was one hundred cubits, and the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars.
- 3 It was covered with cedar above over the forty-five beams, that were on the pillars; fifteen in a row.
- 4 There were beams in three rows, and window was over against window in three ranks.
- 5 All the doors and posts were made square with beams; and window was over against window in three ranks.
- 6 He made the porch of pillars; the length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth of it thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and a threshold before them.
- 7 He made the porch of the throne where he was to judge, even the porch of judgment; and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor.
- 8 His house where he was to dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. He made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter (whom Solomon had taken as wife), like this porch.
- 9 All these were of costly stones, even of hewn stone, according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court.
- 10 The foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.
- 11 Above were costly stones, even hewn stone, according to measure, and cedar-wood.
- 12 The great court round about had three courses of hewn stone, and a course of cedar beams; like as the inner court of the house of Yahweh, and the porch of the house.
- 13 King Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.
- 14 He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in brass. He came to king Solomon, and performed all his work.
- 15 For he fashioned the two pillars of brass, eighteen cubits high apiece; and a line of twelve cubits compassed either of them about.
- 16 He made two capitals of molten brass, to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.
- 17 There were nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital.
- 18 So he made the pillars; and there were two rows round about on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and so did he for the other capital.
- 19 The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily-work, four cubits.
- 20 There were capitals above also on the two pillars, close by the belly which was beside the network; and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about on the other capital.
- 21 He set up the pillars at the porch of the temple; and he set up the right pillar, and called the name of it Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name of it Boaz.
- 22 On the top of the pillars was lily-work; so was the work of the pillars finished.
- 23 He made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and the height of it was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about.
- 24 Under the brim of it round about there were buds which did compass it, for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about; the buds were in two rows, cast when it was cast.
- 25 It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 It was a handbreadth thick; and the brim of it was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held two thousand baths.

27 He made the ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth of it, and three cubits the height of it.

28 The work of the bases was on this manner; they had panels; and there were panels between the ledges;

29 and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.

30 Every base had four brazen wheels, and axles of brass; and the four feet of it had supports: beneath the basin were the supports molten, with wreaths at the side of each.

31 The mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit; and the mouth of it was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on the mouth of it were engravings, and their panels were foursquare, not round.

32 The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base; and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axles, and their rims, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten.

34 There were four supports at the four corners of each base; the supports of it were of the base itself.

35 In the top of the base was there a round compass half a cubit high; and on the top of the base the stays of it and the panels of it were of the same.

36 On the plates of the stays of it, and on the panels of it, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm-trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form.

38 He made ten basins of brass; one basin contained forty baths; and every basin was four cubits; and on very one of the ten bases one basin.

39 He set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.

40 Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he worked for king Solomon in the house of Yāhweh:

41 the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;

42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;

43 and the ten bases, and the ten basins on the bases;

44 and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea;

45 and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins; even all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon, in the house of Yāhweh, were of burnished brass.

46 In the plain of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

47 Solomon left all the vessels [unweighed], because they were exceeding many; the weight of the brass could not be found out.

48 Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of Yāhweh; the golden altar, and the table whereupon the show bread was, of gold;

49 and the lampstands, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;

- 50 and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, [to wit], of the temple, of gold.
- 51 Thus all the work that king Solomon worked in the house of Yāhweh was finished. Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, [even] the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of Yāhweh.
- 1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers [houses] of the children of Israel, to king Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh out of the city of David, which is Zion.
- 2 All the men of Israel assembled themselves to king Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.
- 3 All the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.
- 4 They brought up the ark of Yāhweh, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; even these did the priests and the Levites bring up.
- 5 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude.
- 6 The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yāhweh to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim.
- 7 For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the poles of it above.
- 8 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the oracle; but they were not seen outside; and there they are to this day.
- 9 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when Yāhweh made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.
- 10 It came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of Yāhweh,
- 11 so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of Yāhweh filled the house of Yāhweh.
- 12 Then spoke Solomon, Yāhweh has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.
- 13 I have surely built you a house of habitation, a place for you to dwell in forever.
- 14 The king turned his face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel; and all the assembly of Israel stood.
- 15 He said, Blessed be Yāhweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David your father, and has with his hand fulfilled it, saying,
- 16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.
- 17 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yāhweh, the God of Israel.
- 18 But Yāhweh said to David my father, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart:
- 19 nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build the house for my name.

- 20 Yahweh has established his word that he spoke; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.
- 21 There have I set a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.
- 22 Solomon stood before the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;
- 23 and he said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above, or on earth beneath; who keep covenant and lovingkindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart;
- 24 who have kept with your servant David my father that which you did promise him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.
- 25 Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.
- 26 Now therefore, God of Israel, Please let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David my father.
- 27 But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can not contain you; how much less this house that I have built!
- 28 Yet have you respect to the prayer of your servant, and to his supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you this day;
- 29 that your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place whereof you have said, My name shall be there; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place.
- 30 Listen you to the supplication of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear in heaven, your dwelling-place; and when you hear, forgive.
- 31 If a man sin against his neighbor, and an oath be laid on him to cause him to swear, and he come [and] swear before your altar in this house;
- 32 then hear you in heaven, and do, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.
- 33 When your people Israel are struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you; if they turn again to you, and confess your name, and pray and make supplication to you in this house;
- 34 then hear you in heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to their fathers.
- 35 When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you do afflict them;
- 36 then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.
- 37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting [or] mildew, locust [or] caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there be;
- 38 whatever prayer and supplication be made by any man, [or] by all your people Israel, who shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house;
- 39 then hear in heaven, your dwelling-place, and forgive, and do, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of all the children of men;)

40 that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.
41 Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he shall come out of a far country for your name's sake
42 (for they shall hear of your great name, and of your mighty hand, and of your outstretched arm); when he shall come and pray toward this house;
43 hear in heaven, your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by my name.
44 If your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to Yahweh toward the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name;
45 then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
46 If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn't sin), and you be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near;
47 yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of those who carried them captive, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have dealt wickedly;
48 if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, the city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; 49 then hear you their prayer and their supplication in heaven, your dwelling-place, and maintain their cause;
50 and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions in which they have transgressed against you; and give them compassion before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them 51 (for they are your people, and your inheritance, which you brought forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron);
52 that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant, and to the supplication of your people
Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to you.
53 For you did separate them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be your inheritance, as you spoke by Moses your servant, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord Yahweh.
54 It was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication to Yahweh, he arose from before the altar of Yahweh, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread forth toward heaven.
55 He stood, and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying,
56 Blessed be Yahweh, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised; there has not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by Moses his servant.
57 Yahweh our God be with us, as he was with our fathers; let him not leave us, nor forsake us;
58 that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our fathers.
59 Let these my words, with which I have made supplication before Yahweh, be near to Yahweh our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, as every day shall require;
60 that all the peoples of the earth may know that Yahweh, he is God; there is none else.

- 61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with Yāhweh our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.
- 62 The king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before Yāhweh.
- 63 Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered to Yāhweh, two and twenty thousand oxen, and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of Yāhweh.
- 64 The same day did the king make the middle of the court holy that was before the house of Yāhweh; for there he offered the burnt offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar that was before Yāhweh was too little to receive the burnt offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat of the peace-offerings.
- 65 So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before Yāhweh our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.
- 66 On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that Yāhweh had showed to David his servant, and to Israel his people.
- 1 It happened, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of Yāhweh, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do,
- 2 that Yāhweh appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.
- 3 Yāhweh said to him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before me; I have made this house holy, which you have built, to put my name there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.
- 4 As for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances;
- 5 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, according as I promised to David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man on the throne of Israel.
- 6 But if you shall turn away from following me, you or your children, and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;
- 7 then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples.
- 8 Though this house is so high, yet shall everyone who passes by it be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why has Yāhweh done thus to this land, and to this house?
- 9 and they shall answer, Because they forsook Yāhweh their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore has Yāhweh brought all this evil on them.
- 10 It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Yāhweh and the king's house
- 11 (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire), that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.
- 12 Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they didn't please him.
- 13 He said, What cities are these which you have given me, my brother? He called them the land of Cabul to this day.
- 14 Hiram sent to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold.

15 This is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, to build the house of Yāhweh, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it for a portion to his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether,

18 and Baalath, and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land,

19 and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel;

21 their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, of them did Solomon raise a levy of bondservants to this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondservants; but they were the men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen.

23 These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred fifty, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work.

24 But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David to her house which [Solomon] had built for her: then did he build Millo.

25 Three times a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace-offerings on the altar which he built to Yāhweh, burning incense therewith, [on the altar] that was before Yāhweh. So he finished the house.

26 King Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Elath, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

27 Hiram sent in the navy his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 They came to Ophir, and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

1 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Yāhweh, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she was come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart.

3 Solomon told her all her questions: there was not anything hidden from the king which he didn't tell her.

4 When the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

5 and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cup bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Yāhweh; there was no more spirit in her.

6 She said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom.

7 However I didn't believe the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me; your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are your men, happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, [and] who hear your wisdom.

- 9 Blessed be Yāhweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel: because Yāhweh loved Israel forever, therefore made he you king, to do justice and righteousness.
- 10 She gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.
- 11 The navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug-trees and precious stones.
- 12 The king made of the almug-trees pillars for the house of Yāhweh, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for the singers: there came no such almug-trees, nor were seen, to this day.
- 13 King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.
- 14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,
- 15 besides [that which] the traders [brought], and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mingled people, and of the governors of the country.
- 16 King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred [shekels] of gold went to one buckler.
- 17 [he made] three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went to one shield; and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.
- 18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold.
- 19 There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays.
- 20 Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom.
- 21 All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.
- 22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.
- 23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.
- 24 All the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
- 25 They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.
- 26 Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen; and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.
- 27 The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore-trees that are in the lowland, for abundance.
- 28 The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt; and the king's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price.
- 29 A chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred [shekels] of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.
- 1 Now king Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites;
- 2 of the nations concerning which Yāhweh said to the children of Israel, You shall not go among them, neither shall they come among you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon joined to these in love.

3 He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it happened, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with Yehweh his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 Solomon did that which was evil in the sight of Yehweh, and didn't go fully after Yehweh, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 So did he for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9 Yehweh was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from Yehweh, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

10 and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he didn't keep that which Yehweh commanded.

11 Therefore Yehweh said to Solomon, Because this is done of you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant.

12 Notwithstanding in your days I will not do it, for David your father's sake; but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

13 However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

14 Yehweh raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.

15 For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, and had struck every male in Edom

16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom);

17 that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child.

18 They arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

20 The sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to my own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said to him, But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you seek to go to your own country? He answered, Nothing; however only let me depart.

23 God raised up [another] adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 He gathered men to him, and became captain over a troop, when David killed them [of Zobah]; and they went to Damascus, and lived therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 He was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad [did]; and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, he also lifted up his hand against the king.

27 This was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breach of the city of David his father.

28 The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he gave him charge over all the labor of the house of Joseph.

29 It happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; now [Ahijah] had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.

30 Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces.

31 He said to Jeroboam, Take ten pieces; for thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to you

32 (but he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel);

33 because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon; and they have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in my eyes, and [to keep] my statutes and my ordinances, as did David his father.

34 However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my statutes;

35 but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, even ten tribes.

36 To his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel.

38 It shall be, if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you.

39 I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not forever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, aren't they written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43 Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father; and Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

1 Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 It happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was yet in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt,

3 and they sent and called him), that Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Your father made our yoke grievous; now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you.

5 He said to them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. The people departed.

- 6 King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give you me to return answer to this people?
- 7 They spoke to him, saying, If you will be a servant to this people this day, and will serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.
- 8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.
- 9 He said to them, What counsel do you give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that your father did put on us lighter?
- 10 The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, Thus shall you tell this people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but make you it lighter to us; thus shall you speak to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.
- 11 Now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.
- 12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come to me again the third day.
- 13 The king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him,
- 14 and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.
- 15 So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was a thing brought about of Yahweh, that he might establish his word, which Yahweh spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
- 16 When all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, Israel: now see to your own house, David. So Israel departed to their tents.
- 17 But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.
- 18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.
- 19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.
- 20 It happened, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was returned, that they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.
- 21 When Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.
- 22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,
- 23 Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying,
- 24 Thus says Yahweh, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is of me. So they listened to the word of Yahweh, and returned and went their way, according to the word of Yahweh.
- 25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and lived therein; and he went out from there, and built Penuel.
- 26 Jeroboam said in his heart, Now will the kingdom return to the house of David:

- 27 if this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of Yāhweh at Jerusalem, then will the heart of this people turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.
- 28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold; and he said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: see your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
- 29 He set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan.
- 30 This thing became a sin; for the people went [to worship] before the one, even to Dan.
- 31 He made houses of high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the sons of Levi.
- 32 Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; so did he in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made.
- 33 He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.
- 1 Behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of Yāhweh to Beth-el: and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense.
- 2 He cried against the altar by the word of Yāhweh, and said, altar, altar, thus says Yāhweh; Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and on you shall he sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall they burn on you.
- 3 He gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which Yāhweh has spoken: Behold, the altar shall be torn, and the ashes that are on it shall be poured out.
- 4 It happened, when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. His hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to him.
- 5 The altar also was torn, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of Yāhweh.
- 6 The king answered the man of God, Entreat now the favor of Yāhweh your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. The man of God entreated Yāhweh, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.
- 7 The king said to the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.
- 8 The man of God said to the king, If you will give me half your house, I will not go in with you, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place;
- 9 for so was it charged me by the word of Yāhweh, saying, You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that you came.
- 10 So he went another way, and didn't return by the way that he came to Bethel.
- 11 Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel; and one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: the words which he had spoken to the king, them also they told to their father.
- 12 Their father said to them, Which way did he go? Now his sons had seen which way the man of God went, who came from Judah.
- 13 He said to his sons, Saddle me the donkey. So they saddled him the donkey; and he rode thereon.
- 14 He went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak; and he said to him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? He said, I am.

- 15 Then he said to him, Come home with me, and eat bread.
- 16 He said, I may not return with you, nor go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place:
- 17 for it was said to me by the word of Yāhweh, You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came.
- 18 He said to him, I also am a prophet as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the word of Yāhweh, saying, Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water. [But] he lied to him.
- 19 So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.
- 20 It happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of Yāhweh came to the prophet who brought him back;
- 21 and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus says Yāhweh, Because you have been disobedient to the mouth of Yāhweh, and have not kept the commandment which Yāhweh your God commanded you,
- 22 but came back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, Eat no bread, and drink no water; your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.
- 23 It happened, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the donkey, [to wit], for the prophet whom he had brought back.
- 24 When he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and killed him; and his body was cast in the way, and the donkey stood by it; the lion also stood by the body.
- 25 Behold, men passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived.
- 26 When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient to the mouth of Yāhweh; therefore Yāhweh has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him, and slain him, according to the word of Yāhweh, which he spoke to him.
- 27 He spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle me the donkey. They saddled it.
- 28 He went and found his body cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body; the lion had not eaten the body, nor torn the donkey.
- 29 The prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back; and he came to the city of the old prophet, to mourn, and to bury him.
- 30 He laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, [saying], Alas, my brother!
- 31 It happened, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.
- 32 For the saying which he cried by the word of Yāhweh against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely happen.
- 33 After this thing Jeroboam didn't return from his evil way, but made again from among all the people priests of the high places; whoever would, he consecrated him, that there might be priests of the high places.
- 34 This thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the surface of the earth.
- 1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.
- 2 Jeroboam said to his wife, Please get up and disguise yourself, that you not be known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get you to Shiloh; behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, who spoke concerning me that I should be king over this people.

- 3 Take with you ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what shall become of the child.
- 4 Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age.
- 5 Yehweh said to Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam comes to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shall you tell her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will feign herself to be another woman.
- 6 It was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, you wife of Jeroboam; why feign you yourself to be another? for I am sent to you with heavy news.
- 7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus says Yehweh, the God of Israel: Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over my people Israel,
- 8 and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in my eyes,
- 9 but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made you other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back:
- 10 therefore, behold, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every man-child, him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away dung, until it be all gone.
- 11 Him who dies of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat: for Yehweh has spoken it.
- 12 Arise you therefore, get you to your house: [and] when your feet enter into the city, the child shall die.
- 13 All Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward Yehweh, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.
- 14 Moreover Yehweh will raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day; but what? even now.
- 15 For Yehweh will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and he will root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking Yehweh to anger.
- 16 He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin.
- 17 Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: [and] as she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.
- 18 All Israel buried him, and mourned for him, according to the word of Yehweh, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the prophet.
- 19 The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- 20 The days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years; and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.
- 21 Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yehweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.
- 22 Judah did that which was evil in the sight of Yehweh, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built them high places, and pillars, and Asherim, on every high hill, and under every green tree;

24 and there were also sodomites in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which Yáhwéh drove out before the children of Israel.

25 It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem;

26 and he took away the treasures of the house of Yáhwéh, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 King Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

28 It was so, that as often as the king went into the house of Yáhwéh, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard-chamber.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

31 Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijam his son reigned in his place.

1 Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

3 He walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with Yáhwéh his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 Nevertheless for David's sake did Yáhwéh his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem;

5 because David did that which was right in the eyes of Yáhwéh, and didn't turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his place.

9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Asa to reign over Judah.

10 Forty-one years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

11 Asa did that which was right in the eyes of Yáhwéh, as did David his father.

12 He put away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 Also Maacah his mother he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

14 But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with Yáhwéh all his days.

15 He brought into the house of Yáhwéh the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

- 18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of Yāhweh, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants; and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying,
- 19 [There is] a league between me and you, between my father and your father; behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold; go, break your league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.
- 20 Ben-hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.
- 21 It happened, when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and lived in Tirzah.
- 22 Then king Asa made a proclamation to all Judah; none was exempted; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber of it, with which Baasha had built; and king Asa built therewith Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.
- 23 Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.
- 24 Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.
- 25 Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years.
- 26 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.
- 27 Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.
- 28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha kill him, and reigned in his place.
- 29 It happened that, as soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam; he didn't leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of Yāhweh, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite;
- 30 for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked Yāhweh, the God of Israel, to anger.
- 31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 32 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
- 33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, [and reigned] twenty-four years.
- 34 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.
- 1 The word of Yāhweh came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,
- 2 Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;
- 3 behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
- 4 Him who dies of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him who dies of his in the field shall the birds of the sky eat.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his place.

7 Moreover by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of Yáhwéh against Baasha, and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of Yáhwéh, to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck him.

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, [and reigned] two years.

9 His servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah;

10 and Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

11 It happened, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha: he didn't leave him a single man-child, neither of his relatives, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of Yáhwéh, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,

13 for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke Yáhwéh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 The people who were encamped heard say, Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the king: therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 It happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the castle of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,

19 for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yáhwéh, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, [and reigned] twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 He bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria.

25 Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yáhwéh, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke Yáhwéh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his place.

29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

30 Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh above all that were before him.

31 It happened, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32 He reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke Yāhweh, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

34 In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho; he laid the foundation of it with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates of it with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of Yāhweh, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

1 Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the sojourners of Gilead, said to Ahab, As Yāhweh, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 The word of Yāhweh came to him, saying,

3 Get you hence, and turn you eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan.

4 It shall be, that you shall drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.

5 So he went and did according to the word of Yāhweh; for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan.

6 The ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 It happened after a while, that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

8 The word of Yāhweh came to him, saying,

9 Arise, get you to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there; behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustain you.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her, and said, Please get me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 As she was going to get it, he called to her, and said, Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand.

12 She said, As Yāhweh your God lives, I aren't they a cake, but a handful of meal in the jar, and a little oil in the jar; and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 Elijah said to her, Don't be afraid; go and do as you have said; but make me of it a little cake first, and bring it forth to me, and afterward make for you and for your son.

14 For thus says Yāhweh, the God of Israel, The jar of meal shall not empty, neither shall the jar of oil fail, until the day that Yāhweh sends rain on the earth.

15 She went and did according to the saying of Elijah; and she, and he, and her house, ate [many] days.

16 The jar of meal didn't empty, neither did the jar of oil fail, according to the word of Yāhweh, which he spoke by Elijah.

17 It happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

- 18 She said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, you man of God? you are come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son!
- 19 He said to her, Give me your son. He took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the chamber, where he abode, and laid him on his own bed.
- 20 He cried to Yehweh, and said, Yehweh my God, have you also brought evil on the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?
- 21 He stretched himself on the child three times, and cried to Yehweh, and said, Yehweh my God, please let this child's soul come into him again.
- 22 Yehweh listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.
- 23 Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said, Behold, your son lives.
- 24 The woman said to Elijah, Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of Yehweh in your mouth is truth.
- 1 It happened after many days, that the word of Yehweh came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain on the earth.
- 2 Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. The famine was sore in Samaria.
- 3 Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now Obadiah feared Yehweh greatly:
- 4 for it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Yehweh, that Obadiah took one hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)
- 5 Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land, to all the springs of water, and to all the brooks: peradventure we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, that we not lose all the animals.
- 6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.
- 7 As Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him; and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Is it you, my lord Elijah?
- 8 He answered him, It is I: go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah [is here].
- 9 He said, Wherein have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?
- 10 As Yehweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, where my lord has not sent to seek you: and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they didn't find you.
- 11 Now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah [is here].
- 12 It will happen, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of Yehweh will carry you I don't know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can't find you, he will kill me: but I your servant fear Yehweh from my youth.
- 13 Wasn't it told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of Yehweh, how I hid one hundred men of Yehweh's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?
- 14 Now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah [is here]; and he will kill me.
- 15 Elijah said, As Yehweh of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today.
- 16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.
- 17 It happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, Is it you, you troubler of Israel?
- 18 He answered, I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father's house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of Yehweh, and you have followed the Baals.

- 19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred fifty, and the prophets of the Asherah four hundred, who eat at Jezebel's table.
- 20 So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel.
- 21 Elijah came near to all the people, and said, How long go you limping between the two sides? if Yehweh be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. The people answered him not a word.
- 22 Then said Elijah to the people, I, even I only, am left a prophet of Yehweh; but Baal's prophets are four hundred fifty men.
- 23 Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under; and I will dress the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under.
- 24 Call you on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Yehweh; and the God who answers by fire, let him be God. All the people answered, It is well spoken.
- 25 Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bull for yourselves, and dress it first; for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under.
- 26 They took the bull which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. They leaped about the altar which was made.
- 27 It happened at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god: either he is musing, or he is gone aside, or he is on a journey, or peradventure he sleeps and must be awakened.
- 28 They cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them.
- 29 It was so, when midday was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the [evening] offering; but there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any who regarded.
- 30 Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me; and all the people came near to him. He repaired the altar of Yehweh that was thrown down.
- 31 Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Yehweh came, saying, Israel shall be your name.
- 32 With the stones he built an altar in the name of Yehweh; and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.
- 33 He put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood.
- 34 He said, Do it the second time; and they did it the second time. He said, Do it the third time; and they did it the third time.
- 35 The water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.
- 36 It happened at the time of the offering of the [evening] offering, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, Yehweh, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word.
- 37 Hear me, Yehweh, hear me, that this people may know that you, Yehweh, are God, and [that] you have turned their heart back again.
- 38 Then the fire of Yehweh fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.
- 39 When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, Yehweh, he is God; Yehweh, he is God.
- 40 and Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal; don't let one of them escape. They took them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there.

41 Elijah said to Ahab, Get you up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain.
42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down on the earth, and put his face between his knees.
43 He said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. He went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. He said, Go again seven times.
44 It happened at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there arises a cloud out of the sea, as small as a man's hand. He said, Go up, tell Ahab, Make ready [your chariot], and get you down, that the rain not stop you.
45 It happened in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel:
46 and the hand of Yāhweh was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.
1 Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.
2 Then Jezebel send a messenger to Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.
3 When he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.
4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree; and he requested for himself that he might die, and said, It is enough; now, O Yāhweh, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.
5 He lay down and slept under a juniper-tree; and, behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, Arise and eat.
6 He looked, and, behold, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drink, and laid him down again.
7 The angel of Yāhweh came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you.
8 He arose, and ate and drink, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the Mount of God.
9 He came there to a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of Yāhweh came to him, and he said to him, What do you here, Elijah?
10 He said, I have been very jealous for Yāhweh, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.
11 He said, Go forth, and stand on the mountain before Yāhweh. Behold, Yāhweh passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Yāhweh; but Yāhweh was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake; but Yāhweh was not in the earthquake;
12 and after the earthquake a fire; but Yāhweh was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.
13 It was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Behold, there came a voice to him, and said, What do you here, Elijah?
14 He said, I have been very jealous for Yāhweh, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.
15 Yāhweh said to him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; and when you come, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria;

- 16 and Jehu the son of Nimshi shall you anoint to be king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shall you anoint to be prophet in your room.
- 17 It shall happen, that he who escapes from the sword of Hazeel shall Jehu kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha kill.
- 18 Yet will I leave [me] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him.
- 19 So he departed there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke [of oxen] before him, and he with the twelfth; and Elijah passed over to him, and cast his mantle on him.
- 20 He left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray you, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. He said to him, Go back again; for what have I done to you?
- 21 He returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.
- 1 Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots; and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.
- 2 He sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and said to him, Thus says Ben-hadad,
- 3 Your silver and your gold is mine; your wives also and your children, even the best, are mine.
- 4 The king of Israel answered, It is according to your saying, my lord, O king; I am yours, and all that I have.
- 5 The messengers came again, and said, Thus speaks Ben-hadad, saying, I sent indeed to you, saying, You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children;
- 6 but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants; and it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.
- 7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Please notice how this man seeks mischief: for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I didn't deny him.
- 8 All the elders and all the people said to him, Don't you listen, neither consent.
- 9 Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that you did send for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I may not do. The messengers departed, and brought him word again.
- 10 Ben-hadad sent to him, and said, The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me.
- 11 The king of Israel answered, Tell him, Don't let him who girds on [his armor] boast himself as he who puts it off.
- 12 It happened, when [Ben-hadad] heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his servants, Set [yourselves in array]. They set [themselves in array] against the city.
- 13 Behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, Thus says Yehweh, Have you seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am Yehweh.
- 14 Ahab said, By whom? He said, Thus says Yehweh, By the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall begin the battle? He answered, You.
- 15 Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

- 16 They went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him.
- 17 The young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out from Samaria.
- 18 He said, Whether they are come out for peace, take them alive, or whether they are come out for war, taken them alive.
- 19 So these went out of the city, the young men of the princes of the provinces, and the army which followed them.
- 20 They killed everyone his man; and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen.
- 21 The king of Israel went out, and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.
- 22 The prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, Go, strengthen yourself, and mark, and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you.
- 23 The servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.
- 24 Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their room;
- 25 and number you an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. He listened to their voice, and did so.
- 26 It happened at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.
- 27 The children of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them; and the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.
- 28 A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, Thus says Yehweh, Because the Syrians have said, Yehweh is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys; therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am Yehweh.
- 29 They encamped one over against the other seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed of the Syrians one hundred thousand footmen in one day.
- 30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.
- 31 His servants said to him, See now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, we pray you, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save your life.
- 32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and [put] ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Your servant Ben-hadad says, please let me live. He said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.
- 33 Now the men observed diligently, and hurried to catch whether it were his mind; and they said, Your brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go you, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.
- 34 [Ben-hadad] said to him, The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you shall make streets for you in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. I, [said Ahab], will let you go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.
- 35 A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the word of Yehweh, Please strike me. The man refused to strike him.

- 36 Then said he to him, Because you have not obeyed the voice of Yāhweh, behold, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you. As soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and killed him.
- 37 Then he found another man, and said, Please strike me. The man struck him, smiting and wounding him.
- 38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes.
- 39 As the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall your life be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.
- 40 As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone. The king of Israel said to him, So shall your judgment be; yourself have decided it.
- 41 He hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets.
- 42 He said to him, Thus says Yāhweh, Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.
- 43 The king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.
- 1 It happened after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.
- 2 Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it: or, if it seem good to you, I will give you the worth of it in money.
- 3 Naboth said to Ahab, Yāhweh forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you.
- 4 Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. He laid him down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.
- 5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?
- 6 He said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it please you, I will give you [another] vineyard for it; and he answered, I will not give you my vineyard.
- 7 Jezebel his wife said to him, Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry: I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.
- 8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, [and] who lived with Naboth.
- 9 She wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:
- 10 and set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, You did curse God and the king. Then carry him out, and stone him to death.
- 11 The men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.
- 12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.
- 13 The two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him; and the base fellows bore witness against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did curse God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him to death with stones.
- 14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

- 15 It happened, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead.
- 16 It happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.
- 17 The word of Yehweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
- 18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria; behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he is gone down to take possession of it.
- 19 You shall speak to him, saying, Thus says Yehweh, Have you killed and also taken possession? You shall speak to him, saying, Thus says Yehweh, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your blood, even your.
- 20 Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, my enemy? He answered, I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the sight of Yehweh.
- 21 Behold, I will bring evil on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab every man-child, and him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel:
- 22 and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin.
- 23 Of Jezebel also spoke Yehweh, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel.
- 24 Him who dies of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat.
- 25 (But there was none like Ahab, who did sell himself to do that which was evil in the sight of Yehweh, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up.
- 26 He did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Yehweh cast out before the children of Israel.)
- 27 It happened, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.
- 28 The word of Yehweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
- 29 See you how Ahab humbles himself before me? because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil on his house.
- 1 They continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.
- 2 It happened in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.
- 3 The king of Israel said to his servants, "You know that Ramoth-gilead is ours, and we are still, and don't take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"
- 4 He said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.
- 5 Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire first for the word of Yehweh.
- 6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? They said, Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king.
- 7 But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophet of Yehweh besides, that we may inquire of him?
- 8 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, there is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yehweh, Micaiah the son of Amlah; but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so."
- 9 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Get quickly Micaiah the son of Amlah.

- 10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.
- 11 Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, Thus says Yāhweh, With these shall you push the Syrians, until they be consumed.
- 12 All the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for Yāhweh will deliver it into the hand of the king.
- 13 The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, See now, the words of the prophets [declare] good to the king with one mouth; please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak you good.
- 14 Micaiah said, As Yāhweh lives, what Yāhweh says to me, that will I speak.
- 15 When he was come to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? He answered him, Go up and prosper; and Yāhweh will deliver it into the hand of the king.
- 16 The king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yāhweh?
- 17 He said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd; and Yāhweh said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.
- 18 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?
- 19 [Micaiah] said, Therefore hear you the word of Yāhweh: I saw Yāhweh sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.
- 20 Yāhweh said, Who shall entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? One said on this manner; and another said on that manner.
- 21 There came forth a spirit, and stood before Yāhweh, and said, I will entice him.
- 22 Yāhweh said to him, How? He said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. He said, You shall entice him, and shall prevail also; go forth, and do so.
- 23 Now therefore, behold, Yāhweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and Yāhweh has spoken evil concerning you.
- 24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of Yāhweh from me to speak to you?
- 25 Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself.
- 26 The king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;
- 27 and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.
- 28 Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yāhweh has not spoken by me. He said, Hear, you peoples, all of you.
- 29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.
- 30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put you on your robes. The king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.
- 31 Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

- 32 It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel; and they turned aside to fight against him; and Jehoshaphat cried out.
- 33 It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.
- 34 A certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor: why he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am sore wounded.
- 35 The battle increased that day; and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even; and the blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot.
- 36 There went a cry throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his country.
- 37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.
- 38 They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood (now the prostitutes washed themselves [there]); according to the word of Yāhweh which he spoke.
- 39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.
- 41 Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.
- 42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
- 43 He walked in all the way of Asa his father; He didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of Yāhweh; however the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.
- 44 Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.
- 45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 46 The remnant of the sodomites, that remained in the days of his father Asa, he put away out of the land.
- 47 There was no king in Edom: a deputy was king.
- 48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold; but they didn't go; for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber.
- 49 Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.
- 50 Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; Jehoram his son reigned in his place.
- 51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel.
- 52 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin.
- 53 He served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger Yāhweh, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.
- 1 Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.
- 2 Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick; and he sent messengers, and said to them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover of this sickness.

- 3 But the angel of Yāhweh said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?
- 4 Now therefore thus says Yāhweh, You shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die. Elijah departed.
- 5 The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, Why is it that you have returned?
- 6 They said to him, There came up a man to meet us, and said to us, Go, turn again to the king who sent you, and tell him, Thus says Yāhweh, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die.
- 7 He said to them, What manner of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?
- 8 They answered him, He was a hairy man, and girt with a belt of leather about his loins. He said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.
- 9 Then [the king] sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. He went up to him; and, behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. He spoke to him, man of God, the king has said, Come down.
- 10 Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty. Fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.
- 11 Again he sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty. He answered him, man of God, thus has the king said, Come down quickly.
- 12 Elijah answered them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty. The fire of God came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.
- 13 Again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight.
- 14 Behold, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight.
- 15 The angel of Yāhweh said to Elijah, Go down with him: don't be afraid of him. He arose, and went down with him to the king.
- 16 He said to him, Thus says Yāhweh, Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die.
- 17 So he died according to the word of Yāhweh which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.
- 18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 1 It happened, when Yāhweh would take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.
- 2 Elijah said to Elisha, Please wait here, for Yāhweh has sent me as far as Bethel. Elisha said, As Yāhweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel.
- 3 The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that Yāhweh will take away your master from your head today?" He said, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."
- 4 Elijah said to him, Elisha, please wait here, for Yāhweh has sent me to Jericho. He said, As Yāhweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho.

- 5 The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that Y^hweh will take away your master from your head today?" He answered, "Yes, I know it. Hold your peace."
- 6 Elijah said to him, "Please wait here, for Y^hweh has sent me to the Jordan." He said, "As Y^hweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." They two went on.
- 7 Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood over against them afar off: and they two stood by the Jordan.
- 8 Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they two went over on dry ground.
- 9 It happened, when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you. Elisha said, please let a double portion of your spirit be on me.
- 10 He said, You have asked a hard thing: [nevertheless], if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so to you; but if not, it shall not be so.
- 11 It happened, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, [there appeared] a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, which parted them both apart; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.
- 12 Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and the horsemen of it! He saw him no more; and he took hold of his own clothes, and tore them in two pieces.
- 13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan.
- 14 He took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is Y^hweh, the God of Elijah? and when he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha went over.
- 15 When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho over against him saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha. They came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.
- 16 They said to him, See now, there are with your servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray you, and seek your master, lest the Spirit of Y^hweh has taken him up, and cast him on some mountain, or into some valley. He said, You shall not send.
- 17 When they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but didn't find him.
- 18 They came back to him, while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, "Didn't I tell you, Don't go?"
- 19 The men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, we pray you, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land miscarries.
- 20 He said, Bring me a new jar, and put salt therein. They brought it to him.
- 21 He went forth to the spring of the waters, and cast salt therein, and said, Thus says Y^hweh, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from there any more death or miscarrying.
- 22 So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.
- 23 He went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up by the way, there came forth young lads out of the city, and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, you baldy; go up, you baldhead.
- 24 He looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of Y^hweh. There came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and mauled forty-two lads of them.
- 25 He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.
- 1 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

- 2 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made.
- 3 Nevertheless he cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he didn't depart therefrom.
- 4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master; and he rendered to the king of Israel the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams.
- 5 But it happened, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.
- 6 King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel.
- 7 He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me: will you go with me against Moab to battle? He said, I will go up: I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.
- 8 He said, Which way shall we go up? He answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.
- 9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, nor for the animals that followed them.
- 10 The king of Israel said, Alas! for Yāhweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
- 11 But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophet of Yāhweh, that we may inquire of Yāhweh by him? One of the king of Israel's servants answered, Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah.
- 12 Jehoshaphat said, The word of Yāhweh is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.
- 13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? get you to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother. The king of Israel said to him, No; for Yāhweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
- 14 Elisha said, As Yāhweh of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you.
- 15 But now bring me a minstrel. It happened, when the minstrel played, that the hand of Yāhweh came on him.
- 16 He said, Thus says Yāhweh, Make this valley full of trenches.
- 17 For thus says Yāhweh, You shall not see wind, neither shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, and you shall drink, both you and your cattle and your animals.
- 18 This is but a light thing in the sight of Yāhweh: he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.
- 19 You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.
- 20 It happened in the morning, about the time of offering the offering, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.
- 21 Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood on the border.
- 22 They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood;
- 23 and they said, This is blood; the kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each man his fellow: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.
- 24 When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land smiting the Moabites.

- 25 They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir-hareseth [only] they left the stones of it; however the men armed with slings went about it, and struck it.
- 26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not.
- 27 Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.
- 1 Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha, saying, Your servant my husband is dead; and you know that your servant did fear Yahweh: and the creditor is come to take to him my two children to be bondservants.
- 2 Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? tell me; what have you in the house? She said, Your handmaid has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil.
- 3 Then he said, Go, borrow you vessels abroad of all your neighbors, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.
- 4 You shall go in, and shut the door on you and on your sons, and pour out into all those vessels; and you shall set aside that which is full.
- 5 So she went from him, and shut the door on her and on her sons; they brought [the vessels] to her, and she poured out.
- 6 It happened, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, Bring me yet a vessel. He said to her, There isn't another vessel. The oil stayed.
- 7 Then she came and told the man of God. He said, Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt, and live you and your sons of the rest.
- 8 It fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. So it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread.
- 9 She said to her husband, See now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, that passes by us continually.
- 10 Let us make, Please, a little chamber on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a seat, and a lamp stand; and it shall be, when he comes to us, that he shall turn in there.
- 11 It fell on a day, that he came there, and he turned into the chamber and lay there.
- 12 He said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. When he had called her, she stood before him.
- 13 He said to him, Say now to her, Behold, you have been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for you? would you be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? She answered, I dwell among my own people.
- 14 He said, What then is to be done for her? Gehazi answered, Most assuredly she has no son, and her husband is old.
- 15 He said, Call her. When he had called her, she stood in the door.
- 16 He said, At this season, when the time comes round, you shall embrace a son. She said, No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your handmaid.
- 17 The woman conceived, and bore a son at that season, when the time came round, as Elisha had said to her.
- 18 When the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.
- 19 He said to his father, My head, my head. He said to his servant, Carry him to his mother.
- 20 When he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died.
- 21 She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the door] on him, and went out.

- 22 She called to her husband, and said, Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.
- 23 He said, Why will you go to him today? it is neither new moon nor Sabbath. She said, It shall be well.
- 24 Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; don't slacken me the riding, except I bid you.
- 25 So she went, and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. It happened, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is the Shunammite:
- 26 please run now to meet her, and ask her, Is it well with you? is it well with your husband? is it well with the child? She answered, It is well.
- 27 When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her; and Yâhweh has hid it from me, and has not told me.
- 28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? Didn't I say, Do not deceive me?
- 29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go your way; if you meet any man, Don't greet him; and if anyone greets you, don't answer him again; and lay my staff on the face of the child.
- 30 The mother of the child said, As Yâhweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. He arose, and followed her.
- 31 Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Why he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, The child has not awakened.
- 32 When Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid on his bed.
- 33 He went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to Yâhweh.
- 34 He went up, and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and he stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child grew warm.
- 35 Then he returned, and walked in the house once back and forth; and went up, and stretched himself on him; and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.
- 36 He called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. When she was come in to him, he said, Take up your son.
- 37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; and she took up her son, and went out.
- 38 Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, Set on the great pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.
- 39 One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered of it wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of stew; for they didn't recognize them.
- 40 So they poured out for the men to eat. It happened, as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out, and said, man of God, there is death in the pot. They could not eat of it.
- 41 But he said, Then bring meal. He cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. There was no harm in the pot.
- 42 There came a man from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. He said, Give to the people, that they may eat.
- 43 His servant said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? But he said, Give the people, that they may eat; for thus says Yâhweh, They shall eat, and shall leave of it.
- 44 So he set it before them, and they ate, and left of it, according to the word of Yâhweh.

- 1 Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him Yāhweh had given victory to Syria; he was also a mighty man of valor, [but he was] a leper.
- 2 The Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman's wife.
- 3 She said to her mistress, Would that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! then would he recover him of his leprosy.
- 4 One went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maiden who is of the land of Israel.
- 5 The king of Syria said, Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. He departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand [pieces] of gold, and ten changes of clothing.
- 6 He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may recover him of his leprosy.
- 7 It happened, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he tore his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man does send to me to recover a man of his leprosy? but consider, I pray you, and see how he seeks a quarrel against me.
- 8 It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Why have you torn your clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.
- 9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.
- 10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean.
- 11 But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Yāhweh his God, and wave his hand over the place, and recover the leper.
- 12 Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.
- 13 His servants came near, and spoke to him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid you do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? how much rather then, when he says to you, Wash, and be clean?
- 14 Then went he down, and dipped [himself] seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh came again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.
- 15 He returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel; now therefore, please take a present from your servant.
- 16 But he said, As Yāhweh lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. He urged him to take it; but he refused.
- 17 Naaman said, If not, yet, please let there be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth; for your servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to Yāhweh.
- 18 In this thing Yāhweh pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, Yāhweh pardon your servant in this thing.
- 19 He said to him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.
- 20 But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: as Yāhweh lives, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

- 21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he alighted from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?
- 22 He said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Behold, even now there are come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; please give them a talent of silver, and two changes of clothing.
- 23 Naaman said, Be pleased to take two talents. He urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his servants; and they bore them before him.
- 24 When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house; and he let the men go, and they departed.
- 25 But he went in, and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, Whence come you, Gehazi? He said, Your servant went no where.
- 26 He said to him, Didn't my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and men-servants and maid-servants?
- 27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave to you, and to your seed forever. He went out from his presence a leper [as white] as snow.
- 1 The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, See now, the place where we dwell before you is too strait for us.
- 2 Let us go, we pray you, to the Jordan, and take there every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. He answered, Go you.
- 3 One said, Be pleased, I pray you, to go with your servants. He answered, I will go.
- 4 So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood.
- 5 But as one was felling a beam, the ax-head fell into the water; and he cried, and said, Alas, my master! for it was borrowed.
- 6 The man of God said, Where fell it? He showed him the place. He cut down a stick, and cast it in there, and made the iron to swim.
- 7 He said, Take it up to you. So he put out his hand, and took it.
- 8 Now the king of Syria was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.
- 9 The man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that you not pass such a place; for there the Syrians are coming down.
- 10 The king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice.
- 11 The heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said to them, Won't you show me which of us is for the king of Israel?
- 12 One of his servants said, No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber.
- 13 He said, Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him. It was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.
- 14 Therefore sent he there horses, and chariots, and a great host; and they came by night, and surrounded the city.
- 15 When the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host with horses and chariots was round about the city. His servant said to him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?
- 16 He answered, Don't be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.

- 17 Elisha prayed, and said, Yāhweh, Please open his eyes, that he may see. Yāhweh opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw; and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.
- 18 When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to Yāhweh, and said, Please smite this people with blindness. He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.
- 19 Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. He led them to Samaria.
- 20 It happened, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, Yāhweh, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. Yāhweh opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.
- 21 The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I strike them? shall I strike them?
- 22 He answered, You shall not strike them; would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.
- 23 He prepared great provision for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.
- 24 It happened after this, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.
- 25 There was a great famine in Samaria; and, behold, they besieged it, until a donkey's head was sold for eighty [pieces] of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five [pieces] of silver.
- 26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, there cried a woman to him, saying, Help, my lord, O king.
- 27 He said, If Yāhweh doesn't help you, whence shall I help you? out of the threshing floor, or out of the winepress?
- 28 The king said to her, What ails you? She answered, This woman said to me, Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.
- 29 So we boiled my son, and ate him; and I said to her on the next day, Give your son, that we may eat him; and she has hid her son.
- 30 It happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes (now he was passing by on the wall); and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within on his flesh.
- 31 Then he said, God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.
- 32 But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him; and [the king] sent a man from before him; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See you how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? behold, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door fast against him; isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him?
- 33 While he was yet talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him; and he said, Behold, this evil is of Yāhweh; why should I wait for Yāhweh any longer?
- 1 Elisha said, Hear you the word of Yāhweh; thus says Yāhweh, Tomorrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be [sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.
- 2 Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if Yāhweh should make windows in heaven, might this thing be? He said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it.

- 3 Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?
- 4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall to the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.
- 5 They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they were come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no man there.
- 6 For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come on us.
- 7 Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.
- 8 When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drink, and carried there silver, and gold, and clothing, and went and hid it; and they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried there also, and went and hid it.
- 9 Then they said one to another, We aren t doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we hold our peace: if we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us; now therefore come, let us go and tell the king s household.
- 10 So they came and called to the porter of the city; and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.
- 11 He called the porters; and they told it to the king s household within.
- 12 The king arose in the night, and said to his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.
- 13 One of his servants answered, Please let some take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are left in it; behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are consumed); and let us send and see.
- 14 They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.
- 15 They went after them to the Jordan; and, behold, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned, and told the king.
- 16 The people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was [sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of YAhweh.
- 17 The king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate; and the people trod on him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.
- 18 It happened, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria;
- 19 and that captain answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if YAhweh should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? and he said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it:
- 20 it happened even so to him; for the people trod on him in the gate, and he died.
- 1 Now Elisha had spoken to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn: for YAhweh has called for a famine; and it shall also come on the land seven years.

- 2 The woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God; and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.
- 3 It happened at the seven years end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines; and she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land.
- 4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done.
- 5 It happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, that behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.
- 6 When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.
- 7 Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come here.
- 8 The king said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of Yâhweh by him, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness?
- 9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness?
- 10 Elisha said to him, Go, tell him, You shall surely recover; however Yâhweh has showed me that he shall surely die.
- 11 He settled his gaze steadfastly [on him], until he was ashamed; and the man of God wept.
- 12 Hazael said, Why weeps my lord? He answered, Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel; their strongholds will you set on fire, and their young men will you kill with the sword, and will dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child.
- 13 Hazael said, But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing? Elisha answered, Yâhweh has showed me that you shall be king over Syria.
- 14 Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to you? He answered, He told me that you would surely recover.
- 15 It happened on the next day, that he took the coverlet, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his place.
- 16 In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign.
- 17 Thirty-two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.
- 18 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife; and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yâhweh.
- 19 However Yâhweh would not destroy Judah, for David his servant s sake, as he promised him to give to him a lamp for his children always.
- 20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.
- 21 Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him; and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents.
- 22 So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then did Abnah revolt at the same time.
- 23 The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, aren t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

- 24 Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.
- 25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign.
- 26 Twenty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel.
- 27 He walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of Yehweh, as did the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.
- 28 He went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.
- 29 King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.
- 1 Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, Gird up your loins, and take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.
- 2 When you come there, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brothers, and carry him to an inner chamber.
- 3 Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus says Yehweh, I have anointed you king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and don't wait.
- 4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.
- 5 When he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to you, captain. Jehu said, To which of us all? He said, To you, O captain.
- 6 He arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, Thus says Yehweh, the God of Israel, I have anointed you king over the people of Yehweh, even over Israel.
- 7 You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yehweh, at the hand of Jezebel.
- 8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab every man-child, and him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel.
- 9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.
- 10 The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. He opened the door, and fled.
- 11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord; and one said to him, Is all well? why came this mad fellow to you? He said to them, You know the man and what his talk was.
- 12 They said, It is false; tell us now. He said, Thus and thus spoke he to me, saying, Thus says Yehweh, I have anointed you king over Israel.
- 13 Then they hurried, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew the trumpet, saying, Jehu is king.
- 14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria;
- 15 but king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) Jehu said, If this be your mind, then let none escape and go forth out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel.
- 16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

- 17 Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?
- 18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me. The watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back.
- 19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? Jehu answered, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me.
- 20 The watchman told, saying, He came even to them, and isn't coming back; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously.
- 21 Joram said, Make ready. They made ready his chariot. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.
- 22 It happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? He answered, What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound?
- 23 Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, Ahaziah.
- 24 Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and struck Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.
- 25 Then said [Jehu] to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how that, when I and you rode together after Ahab his father, Yehweh laid this burden on him:
- 26 Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, says Yehweh; and I will requite you in this plat, says Yehweh. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat [of ground], according to the word of Yehweh.
- 27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house. Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot: [and they struck him] at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo, and died there.
- 28 His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.
- 29 In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.
- 30 When Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window.
- 31 As Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Is it peace, you Zimri, your master's murderer?
- 32 He lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? There looked out to him two or three eunuchs.
- 33 He said, Throw her down. So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses; and he trod her under foot.
- 34 When he was come in, he ate and drink; and he said, See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter.
- 35 They went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.
- 36 Therefore they came back, and told him. He said, This is the word of Yehweh, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel; and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

- 1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and to those who brought up [the sons of] Ahab, saying,
- 2 Now as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armor;
- 3 look you out the best and meet of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.
- 4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, the two kings didn't stand before him; how then shall we stand?
- 5 He who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who brought up [the children], sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants, and will do all that you shall bid us; we will not make any man king; you do that which is good in your eyes.
- 6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If you be on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up.
- 7 It happened, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and killed them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel.
- 8 There came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. He said, Lay you them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.
- 9 It happened in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, You are righteous; behold, I conspired against my master, and killed him; but who struck all these?
- 10 Know now that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of Yehweh, which Yehweh spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for Yehweh has done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah.
- 11 So Jehu struck all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.
- 12 He arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at the shearing-house of the shepherds in the way,
- 13 Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are you? They answered, We are the brothers of Ahaziah; and we go down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen.
- 14 He said, Take them alive. They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.
- 15 When he was departed there, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he greeted him, and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me your hand. He gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.
- 16 He said, Come with me, and see my zeal for Yehweh. So they made him ride in his chariot.
- 17 When he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Yehweh, which he spoke to Elijah.
- 18 Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much.
- 19 Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshippers, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice [to do] to Baal; whoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtlety, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.
- 20 Jehu said, Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal. They proclaimed it.

- 21 Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that didn't come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another.
- 22 He said to him who was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. He brought them forth vestments.
- 23 Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal; and he said to the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of Yáhwéh, but the worshippers of Baal only.
- 24 They went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed him eighty men outside, and said, If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, [he who lets him go], his life shall be for the life of him.
- 25 It happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and kill them; let none come forth. They struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.
- 26 They brought forth the pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them.
- 27 They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a draught-house, to this day.
- 28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.
- 29 However from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin, Jehu didn't depart from after them, [to wit], the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan.
- 30 Yáhwéh said to Jehu, Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, [and] have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.
- 31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Yáhwéh, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin.
- 32 In those days Yáhwéh began to cut off from Israel; and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel;
- 33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.
- 34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 35 Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place.
- 36 The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.
- 1 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal.
- 2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, even him and his nurse, [and put them] in the bedchamber; and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain;
- 3 He was with her hid in the house of Yáhwéh six years. Athaliah reigned over the land.
- 4 In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into the house of Yáhwéh; and he made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of Yáhwéh, and showed them the king's son.
- 5 He commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house;

- 6 A third part shall be at the gate Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall you keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier.
- 7 The two companies of you, even all who go forth on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of Yāhweh about the king.
- 8 You shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes within the ranks, let him be slain: and be you with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in.
- 9 The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.
- 10 The priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king David's, which were in the house of Yāhweh.
- 11 The guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the king round about.
- 12 Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and [gave him] the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, [Long] live the king.
- 13 When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard [and of] the people, she came to the people into the house of Yāhweh:
- 14 and she looked, and, behold, the king stood by the pillar, as the manner was, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, Treason! treason!
- 15 Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said to them, Have her forth between the ranks; and him who follows her kill with the sword. For the priest said, Don't let her be slain in the house of Yāhweh.
- 16 So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house: and there was she slain.
- 17 Jehoiada made a covenant between Yāhweh and the king and the people, that they should be Yāhweh's people; between the king also and the people.
- 18 All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. The priest appointed officers over the house of Yāhweh.
- 19 He took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of Yāhweh, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings.
- 20 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword at the king's house.
- 21 Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.
- 1 In the seventh year of Jehu began Jehoash to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.
- 2 Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of Yāhweh all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.
- 3 However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.
- 4 Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of Yāhweh, in current money, the money of the persons for whom each man is rated, and all the money that it comes into any man's heart to bring into the house of Yāhweh,

- 5 let the priests take it to them, every man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found.
- 6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.
- 7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the [other] priests, and said to them, Why don t you repair the breaches of the house? now therefore take no [more] money from your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.
- 8 The priests consented that they should take no [more] money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house.
- 9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of Yāhweh; and the priests who kept the threshold put therein all the money that was brought into the house of Yāhweh.
- 10 It was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king s scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of Yāhweh.
- 11 They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of Yāhweh; and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of Yāhweh,
- 12 and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the breaches of the house of Yāhweh, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.
- 13 But there were not made for the house of Yāhweh cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of Yāhweh;
- 14 for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired therewith the house of Yāhweh.
- 15 Moreover they didn t demand an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully.
- 16 The money for the trespass-offerings, and the money for the sin-offerings, was not brought into the house of Yāhweh; it was the priests .
- 17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.
- 18 Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of Yāhweh, and of the king s house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria; and he went away from Jerusalem.
- 19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 20 His servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, [on the way] that goes down to Silla.
- 21 For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.
- 1 In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] seventeen years.
- 2 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he didn t depart therefrom.
- 3 The anger of Yāhweh was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, continually.

- 4 Jehoahaz begged Yāhweh, and Yāhweh listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them.
- 5 (Yāhweh gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel lived in their tents as before.
- 6 Nevertheless they didn't depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin, but walked therein; and there remained the Asherah also in Samaria.)
- 7 For he didn't leave to Jehoahaz of the people save fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing.
- 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 9 Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his place.
- 10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] sixteen years.
- 11 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh; he didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked therein.
- 12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 13 Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
- 14 Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died; and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, and said, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and the horsemen of it!
- 15 Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows; and he took to him bow and arrows.
- 16 He said to the king of Israel, Put your hand on the bow; and he put his hand [on it]. Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands.
- 17 He said, Open the window eastward; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot; and he shot. He said, Yāhweh's arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them.
- 18 He said, Take the arrows; and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, Smite on the ground; and he struck thrice, and stayed.
- 19 The man of God was angry with him, and said, You should have struck five or six times; then had you struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you shall strike Syria but thrice.
- 20 Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.
- 21 It happened, as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band; and they cast the man into the tomb of Elisha; and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.
- 22 Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.
- 23 But Yāhweh was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet.
- 24 Hazael king of Syria died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his place.

- 25 Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash strike him, and recovered the cities of Israel.
- 1 In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel began Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah to reign.
- 2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.
- 3 He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, yet not like David his father; he did according to all that Joash his father had done.
- 4 However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.
- 5 It happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he killed his servants who had slain the king his father:
- 6 but the children of the murderers he didn't put to death; according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, as Yahweh commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin.
- 7 He killed of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, to this day.
- 8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.
- 9 Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as wife; and there passed by a wild animal that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle.
- 10 You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up; glory of it, and abide at home; for why should you meddle to [your] hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?
- 11 But Amaziah would not hear. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
- 12 Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent.
- 13 Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.
- 14 He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.
- 15 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 16 Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.
- 17 Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.
- 18 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 19 They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there.
- 20 They brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

- 21 All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.
- 22 He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.
- 23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, [and reigned] forty-one years.
- 24 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh; he didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.
- 25 He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of Yāhweh, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath-hepher.
- 26 For Yāhweh saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel.
- 27 Yāhweh didn't say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.
- 28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, [which had belonged] to Judah, for Israel, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 29 Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his place.
- 1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.
- 2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.
- 3 He did that which was right in the eyes of Yāhweh, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.
- 4 However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.
- 5 Yāhweh struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land.
- 6 Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 7 Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Jotham his son reigned in his place.
- 8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months.
- 9 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, as his fathers had done: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.
- 10 Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place.
- 11 Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- 12 This was the word of Yāhweh which he spoke to Jehu, saying, Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. So it came to pass.
- 13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned the space of a month in Samaria.

- 14 Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his place.
- 15 Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- 16 Then Menahem struck Tiphshah, and all who were therein, and the borders of it, from Tirzah: because they didn't open to him, therefore he struck it; and all the women therein who were with child he ripped up.
- 17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, [and reigned] ten years in Samaria.
- 18 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he didn't depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.
- 19 There came against the land Pul the king of Assyria; and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand.
- 20 Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and didn't stay there in the land.
- 21 Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 22 Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.
- 23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] two years.
- 24 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.
- 25 Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, and struck him in Samaria, in the castle of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites; and he killed him, and reigned in his place.
- 26 Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- 27 In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] twenty years.
- 28 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin.
- 29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria.
- 30 Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.
- 31 Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
- 32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.
- 33 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.
- 34 He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

- 35 However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of Yāhweh.
- 36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 37 In those days Yāhweh began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah.
- 38 Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.
- 1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.
- 2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he didn't do that which was right in the eyes of Yāhweh his God, like David his father.
- 3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom Yāhweh cast out from before the children of Israel.
- 4 He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
- 5 Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.
- 6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and lived there, to this day.
- 7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me.
- 8 Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of Yāhweh, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.
- 9 The king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried [the people of] it captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.
- 10 King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship of it.
- 11 Urijah the priest built an altar: according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Urijah the priest make it against the coming of king Ahaz from Damascus.
- 12 When the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king drew near to the altar, and offered thereon.
- 13 He burnt his burnt offering and his meal-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings, on the altar.
- 14 The brazen altar, which was before Yāhweh, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of Yāhweh, and put it on the north side of his altar.
- 15 King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal-offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his meal-offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal-offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: but the brazen altar shall be for me to inquire by.
- 16 Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.
- 17 King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone.

- 18 The covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, turned he to the house of Yāhweh, because of the king of Assyria.
- 19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 20 Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.
- 1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel, [and reigned] nine years.
- 2 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him.
- 3 Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute.
- 4 The king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.
- 5 Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.
- 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.
- 7 It was so, because the children of Israel had sinned against Yāhweh their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,
- 8 and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom Yāhweh cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made.
- 9 The children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against Yāhweh their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city;
- 10 and they set them up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree;
- 11 and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom Yāhweh carried away before them; and they worked wicked things to provoke Yāhweh to anger;
- 12 and they served idols, whereof Yāhweh had said to them, You shall not do this thing.
- 13 Yet Yāhweh testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, Turn you from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.
- 14 Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who didn't believe in Yāhweh their God.
- 15 They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and [went] after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom Yāhweh had charged those who they should not do like them.
- 16 They forsook all the commandments of Yāhweh their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshipped all the host of the sky, and served Baal.
- 17 They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, to provoke him to anger.
- 18 Therefore Yāhweh was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.
- 19 Also Judah didn't keep the commandments of Yāhweh their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 Yāhweh rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For he tore Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following Yāhweh, and made them sin a great sin.

22 The children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they didn't depart from them;

23 until Yāhweh removed Israel out of his sight, as he spoke by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day.

24 The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and lived in the cities of it.

25 So it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they didn't fear Yāhweh: therefore Yāhweh sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

26 Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which you have carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, don't know the law of the god of the land: therefore he has sent lions among them, and, behold, they kill them, because they don't know the law of the god of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land.

28 So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear Yāhweh.

29 However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.

30 The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared Yāhweh, and made to them from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared Yāhweh, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.

34 To this day they do after the former manner: they don't fear Yāhweh, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law or after the commandment which Yāhweh commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;

35 with whom Yāhweh had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 but Yāhweh, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, him shall you fear, and to him shall you bow yourselves, and to him shall you sacrifice:

37 and the statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, you shall observe to do forevermore; and you shall not fear other gods:

38 and the covenant that I have made with you you shall not forget; neither shall you fear other gods:

39 but Yāhweh your God shall you fear; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 However they did not listen, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared Yāhweh, and served their engraved images; their children likewise, and their children's children, as did their fathers, so do they to this day.

1 Now it happened in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

3 He did that which was right in the eyes of Yāhweh, according to all that David his father had done.

4 He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah; and he broke in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made; for to those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in Yāhweh, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor [among them] that were before him.

6 For he joined with Yāhweh; he didn't depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which Yāhweh commanded Moses.

7 Yāhweh was with him; wherever he went forth he prospered; and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and didn't serve him.

8 He struck the Philistines to Gaza and the borders of it, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.

9 It happened in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 At the end of three years they took it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

11 The king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 12 because they didn't obey the voice of Yāhweh their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of Yāhweh commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.

13 Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them.

14 Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which you put on me will I bear. The king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 Hezekiah gave [him] all the silver that was found in the house of Yāhweh, and in the treasures of the king's house.

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off [the gold from] the doors of the temple of Yāhweh, and [from] the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 The king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 When they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 Rabshakeh said to them, Say you now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust?

20 You say (but they are but vain words), [There is] counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me?

21 Now, behold, you trust on the staff of this bruised reed, even on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it; so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him.

22 But if you tell me, We trust in Yāhweh our God; isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?

- 23 Now therefore, Please give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you be able on your part to set riders on them.
- 24 How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
- 25 Am I now come up without Yāhweh against this place to destroy it? Yāhweh said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.
- 26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, to Rabshakeh, Please speak to your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it; and don't speak with us in the Jews language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall.
- 27 But Rabshakeh said to them, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you?
- 28 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews language, and spoke, saying, Hear you the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.
- 29 Thus says the king, Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand;
- 30 neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Yāhweh, saying, Yāhweh will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
- 31 Don't listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat you everyone of his vine, and everyone of his fig-tree, and everyone drink the waters of his own cistern;
- 32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive-trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die; and don't listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, Yāhweh will deliver us.
- 33 Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
- 34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
- 35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yāhweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?
- 36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, saying, Don't answer him.
- 37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.
- 1 It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yāhweh.
- 2 He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.
- 3 They said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.
- 4 It may be Yāhweh your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yāhweh your God has heard; why lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.
- 5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
- 6 Isaiah said to them, Thus shall you tell your master, Thus says Yāhweh, Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

- 7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear news, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.
- 8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
- 9 When he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying,
- 10 Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
- 11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shall you be delivered?
- 12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar?
- 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?
- 14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of Yehweh, and spread it before Yehweh.
- 15 Hezekiah prayed before Yehweh, and said, Yehweh, the God of Israel, who sit [above] the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.
- 16 Incline your ear, Yehweh, and hear; open your eyes, Yehweh, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, with which he has sent him to defy the living God.
- 17 Of a truth, Yehweh, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands,
- 18 and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.
- 19 Now therefore, Yehweh our God, save you us, I beg you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you Yehweh are God alone.
- 20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says Yehweh, the God of Israel, Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard [you].
- 21 This is the word that Yehweh has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you.
- 22 Whom have you defied and blasphemed? and against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? [even] against the Holy One of Israel.
- 23 By your messengers you have defied the Lord, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars of it, and the choice fir-trees of it; and I will enter into his farthest lodging-place, the forest of his fruitful field.
- 24 I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt.
- 25 Haven't you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps.
- 26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as grain blasted before it is grown up.
- 27 But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me.

- 28 Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance is come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.
- 29 This shall be the sign to you: You shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow you, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of it.
- 30 The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.
- 31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape: the zeal of Yahweh shall perform this.
- 32 Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it.
- 33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come to this city, says Yahweh.
- 34 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.
- 35 It happened that night, that the angel of Yahweh went forth, and struck in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred eighty-five thousand: and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.
- 36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh.
- 37 It happened, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar-haddon his son reigned in his place.
- 1 In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Set your house in order: for you shall die, and not live.
- 2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Yahweh, saying,
- 3 Remember now, Yahweh, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight. Hezekiah wept sore.
- 4 It happened, before Isaiah was gone out into the middle part of the city, that the word of Yahweh came to him, saying,
- 5 Turn back, and tell Hezekiah the prince of my people, Thus says Yahweh, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: behold, I will heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of Yahweh.
- 6 I will add to your days fifteen years; and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.
- 7 Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs. They took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.
- 8 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What shall be the sign that Yahweh will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of Yahweh the third day?
- 9 Isaiah said, This shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do the thing that he has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?
- 10 Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to decline ten steps: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten steps.
- 11 Isaiah the prophet cried to Yahweh; and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the dial of Ahaz.
- 12 At that time Berodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

- 13 Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them.
- 14 Then came Isaiah the prophet to king Hezekiah, and said to him, What said these men? and from whence came they to you? Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.
- 15 He said, What have they seen in your house? Hezekiah answered, All that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them.
- 16 Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Yehweh.
- 17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store to this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, says Yehweh.
- 18 Of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you shall father, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.
- 19 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of Yehweh which you have spoken. He said moreover, Isn't it so, if peace and truth shall be in my days?
- 20 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 21 Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.
- 1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hephzibah.
- 2 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yehweh, after the abominations of the nations whom Yehweh cast out before the children of Israel.
- 3 For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshipped all the host of the sky, and served them.
- 4 He built altars in the house of Yehweh, whereof Yehweh said, In Jerusalem will I put my name.
- 5 He built altars for all the host of the sky in the two courts of the house of Yehweh.
- 6 He made his son to pass through the fire, and practiced sorcery, and used enchantments, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards; he worked much evil in the sight of Yehweh, to provoke him to anger.
- 7 He set the engraved image of Asherah, that he had made, in the house of which Yehweh said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever;
- 8 neither will I cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.
- 9 But they didn't listen: and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than did the nations whom Yehweh destroyed before the children of Israel.
- 10 Yehweh spoke by his servants the prophets, saying,
- 11 Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols;
- 12 therefore thus says Yehweh, the God of Israel, Behold, I bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle.
- 13 I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

- 14 I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;
- 15 because they have done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even to this day.
- 16 Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh.
- 17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 18 Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son reigned in his place.
- 19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.
- 20 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, as did Manasseh his father.
- 21 He walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them;
- 22 and he forsook Yāhweh, the God of his fathers, and didn't walk in the way of Yāhweh.
- 23 The servants of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his own house.
- 24 But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.
- 25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 26 He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza; and Josiah his son reigned in his place.
- 1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.
- 2 He did that which was right in the eyes of Yāhweh, and walked in all the way of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left.
- 3 It happened in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of Yāhweh, saying,
- 4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the money which is brought into the house of Yāhweh, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people;
- 5 and let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yāhweh; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of Yāhweh, to repair the breaches of the house,
- 6 to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the house.
- 7 However there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully.
- 8 Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Yāhweh. Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it.
- 9 Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yāhweh.
- 10 Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has delivered me a book. Shaphan read it before the king.

- 11 It happened, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he tore his clothes.
- 12 The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micajah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,
- 13 Go you, inquire of Yehweh for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is the wrath of Yehweh that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.
- 14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with her.
- 15 She said to them, Thus says Yehweh, the God of Israel: Tell you the man who sent you to me,
- 16 Thus says Yehweh, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on the inhabitants of it, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read.
- 17 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched.
- 18 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yehweh, thus shall you tell him, Thus says Yehweh, the God of Israel: As touching the words which you have heard,
- 19 because your heart was tender, and you did humble yourself before Yehweh, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against the inhabitants of it, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says Yehweh.
- 20 Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil which I will bring on this place. They brought the king word again.
- 1 The king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.
- 2 The king went up to the house of Yehweh, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of Yehweh.
- 3 The king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before Yehweh, to walk after Yehweh, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all [his] heart, and all [his] soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book; and all the people stood to the covenant.
- 4 The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring forth out of the temple of Yehweh all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the host of the sky, and he burned them outside of Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried the ashes of them to Bethel.
- 5 He put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of the sky.
- 6 He brought out the Asherah from the house of Yehweh, outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust, and cast the dust of it on the graves of the common people.
- 7 He broke down the houses of the sodomites, that were in the house of Yehweh, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah.

- 8 He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.
- 9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places didn't come up to the altar of Yāhweh in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.
- 10 He defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.
- 11 He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of Yāhweh, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.
- 12 The altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of Yāhweh, did the king break down, and beat [them] down from there, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.
- 13 The high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.
- 14 He broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with the bones of men.
- 15 Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah.
- 16 As Josiah turned himself, he spied the tombs that were there in the mountain; and he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of Yāhweh which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.
- 17 Then he said, What monument is that which I see? The men of the city told him, It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel.
- 18 He said, Let him be; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria.
- 19 All the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke [Yāhweh] to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel.
- 20 He killed all the priests of the high places that were there, on the altars, and burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.
- 21 The king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the Passover to Yāhweh your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant.
- 22 Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;
- 23 but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah was this Passover kept to Yāhweh in Jerusalem.
- 24 Moreover those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of Yāhweh.
- 25 Like him was there no king before him, who turned to Yāhweh with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

- 26 Notwithstanding, Yāhweh didn't turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked him.
- 27 Yāhweh said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.
- 28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 29 In his days Pharaoh-necoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates; and king Josiah went against him; and [Pharaoh-necoh] killed him at Megiddo, when he had seen him.
- 30 His servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.
- 31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Lihnah.
- 32 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, according to all that his fathers had done.
- 33 Pharaoh-necoh put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of one hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.
- 34 Pharaoh-necoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim; but he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there.
- 35 Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh; he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of everyone according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh-necoh.
- 36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.
- 37 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, according to all that his fathers had done.
- 1 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.
- 2 Yāhweh sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Yāhweh, which he spoke by his servants the prophets.
- 3 Surely at the commandment of Yāhweh came this on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did,
- 4 and also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and Yāhweh would not pardon.
- 5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 6 So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.
- 7 The king of Egypt didn't come again out of his land any more; for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.
- 8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem three months; and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.
- 9 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, according to all that his father had done.
- 10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

- 11 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it;
- 12 and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers; and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.
- 13 He carried out there all the treasures of the house of Yāhweh, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of Yāhweh, as Yāhweh had said.
- 14 He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.
- 15 He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.
- 16 All the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.
- 17 The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, [Jehoiachin's] father's brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.
- 18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Lihnah.
- 19 He did that which was evil in the sight of Yāhweh, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.
- 20 For through the anger of Yāhweh did it happen in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.
- 1 It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.
- 2 So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.
- 3 On the ninth day of the [fourth] month the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.
- 4 Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war [fled] by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about); and [the king] went by the way of the Arabah.
- 5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.
- 6 Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him.
- 7 They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon.
- 8 Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem.
- 9 He burnt the house of Yāhweh, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt he with fire.
- 10 All the army of the Chaldeans, who were [with] the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem round about.
- 11 The residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away captive.

- 12 But the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
- 13 The pillars of brass that were in the house of Yāhweh, and the bases and the brazen sea that were in the house of Yāhweh, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.
- 14 The pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, took they away.
- 15 The fire pans, and the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.
- 16 The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of Yāhweh, the brass of all these vessels was without weight.
- 17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of brass was on it; and the height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital round about, all of brass: and like to these had the second pillar with network.
- 18 The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold:
- 19 and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the city.
- 20 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.
- 21 The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land.
- 22 As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor.
- 23 Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.
- 24 Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said to them, Don't be afraid because of the servants of the Chaldeans; dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.
- 25 But it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed came, and ten men with him, and struck Gedaliah, so that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah.
- 26 All the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose, and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.
- 27 It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;
- 28 and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon,
- 29 and changed his prison garments. [Jehoiachin] ate bread before him continually all the days of his life:
- 30 and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

 40 The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons, and sons sons, one hundred fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.
 1 So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel; and Judah was carried away captive to Babylon for their disobedience.
 2 Now the first inhabitants who lived in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the Nethinim.
 3 In Jerusalem lived of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh:
 4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez the son of Judah.
 5 Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons.
 6 Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brothers, six hundred ninety.
 7 Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah,
 8 and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; 9 and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six. All these men were heads of fathers [houses] by their fathers houses.
 10 Of the priests: Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, Jachin,
 11 and Azariah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God;
 12 and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

- 13 and their brothers, heads of their fathers' houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.
- 14 Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;
- 15 and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph,
- 16 and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.
- 17 The porters: Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the chief),
- 18 who hitherto [waited] in the king's gate eastward: they were the porters for the camp of the children of Levi.
- 19 Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent; and their fathers had been over the camp of Yehweh, keepers of the entry.
- 20 Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, [and] Yehweh was with him.
- 21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tent of meeting.
- 22 All these who were chosen to be porters in the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their office of trust.
- 23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of Yehweh, even the house of the tent, by wards.
- 24 On the four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.
- 25 Their brothers, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them;
- 26 for the four chief porters, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God.
- 27 They lodged round about the house of God, because the charge [of it] was on them; and to them pertained the opening of it morning by morning.
- 28 Certain of them had charge of the vessels of service; for by count were these brought in and by count were these taken out.
- 29 Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.
- 30 Some of the sons of the priests prepared the confection of the spices.
- 31 Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the office of trust over the things that were baked in pans.
- 32 Some of their brothers, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the show bread, to prepare it every Sabbath.
- 33 These are the singers, heads of fathers' [houses] of the Levites, [who lived] in the chambers [and were] free [from other service]; for they were employed in their work day and night.
- 34 These were heads of fathers' [houses] of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief men: these lived at Jerusalem.
- 35 In Gibeon there lived the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose wife's name was Maacah:
- 36 and his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab,
- 37 and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, over against their brothers.

39 Ner became the father of Kish; and Kish became the father of Saul; and Saul became the father of Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

40 The son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal became the father of Micah.

41 The sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, [and Ahaz].

42 Ahaz became the father of Jarah; and Jarah became the father of Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza;

43 and Moza became the father of Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44 Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa.

2 The Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3 The battle went sore against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was distressed by reason of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it.

5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons; and all his house died together.

7 When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

8 It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 They stripped him, and took his head, and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people.

10 They put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon.

11 When all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against Yâhweh, because of the word of Yâhweh, which he didn't keep; and also because he asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire [thereby],

14 and didn't inquire of Yâhweh; therefore he killed him, and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

1 Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel; and Yâhweh your God said to you, You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over my people Israel.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yâhweh; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of Yâhweh by Samuel.

- 4 David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (the same is Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there.
- 5 The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, You shall not come in here. Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion; the same is the city of David.
- 6 David said, Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief.
- 7 David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David.
- 8 He built the city round about, from Millo even round about; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.
- 9 David grew greater and greater; for Yáhwéh of Hosts was with him.
- 10 Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who showed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of Yáhwéh concerning Israel.
- 11 This is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time.
- 12 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.
- 13 He was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.
- 14 They stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and Yáhwéh saved them by a great victory.
- 15 Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim.
- 16 David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.
- 17 David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!
- 18 The three broke through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David; but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yáhwéh,
- 19 and said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this; shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? for with [the jeopardy of] their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.
- 20 Abishai, the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three.
- 21 Of the three, he was more honorable than the two, and was made their captain; however he didn't attain to the [first] three.
- 22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, he killed the two [sons of] Ariel of Moab; he went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.
- 23 He killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.
- 24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty men.
- 25 Behold, he was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the [first] three; and David set him over his guard.
- 26 Also the mighty men of the armies: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

27 Shammoth the Hararite, Helez the Pelonite,
28 Ira the son of Ikesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite,
29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Tai the Ahioite,
30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,
31 Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,
32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,
33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,
34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite,
35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur,
36 Hopher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,
37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai,
38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri,
39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab the son of Zeruah,
40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai,
42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,
43 Hanan the son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,
44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,
45 Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Gizeite,
46 Eiel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite,
47 Eiel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Now these are those who came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, his helpers in war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow: they were of Saul's brothers of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer; then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite,

4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite,

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites,

7 and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 Of the Gadites there separated themselves to David to the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, that could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes on the mountains;

9 Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eiel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh.

14 These of the sons of Gad were captains of the host: he who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand.

- 15 These are those who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.
- 16 There came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold to David.
- 17 David went out to meet them, and answered them, If you be come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if [you be come] to betray me to my adversaries, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.
- 18 Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, [and he said], Your are we, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse; peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.
- 19 Of Manasseh also there fell away some to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they didn't help them; for the lords of the Philistines on advise sent him away, saying, He will fall away to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads.
- 20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh.
- 21 They helped David against the band of rovers: for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the host.
- 22 For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great host, like the host of God.
- 23 These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of Yahweh.
- 24 The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war.
- 25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.
- 26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.
- 27 Jehoiada was the leader of [the house of] Aaron; and with him were three thousand and seven hundred,
- 28 and Zadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains.
- 29 Of the children of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand; for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul.
- 30 Of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses.
- 31 Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king.
- 32 Of the children of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their commandment.
- 33 Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the host, who could set the battle in array, with all manner of instruments of war, fifty thousand, and who could order [the battle array, and were] not of double heart.
- 34 Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand.
- 35 Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred.
- 36 Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the host, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand.
- 37 On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand.

- 38 All these being men of war, who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.
- 39 They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had made preparation for them.
- 40 Moreover those who were near to them, [even] as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, victuals of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep in abundance; for there was joy in Israel.
- 1 David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader.
- 2 David said to all the assembly of Israel, If it seem good to you, and if it be of Y^hweh our God, let us send abroad everywhere to our brothers who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us;
- 3 and let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we didn't seek it in the days of Saul.
- 4 All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.
- 5 So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor [the brook] of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.
- 6 David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, [that is], to Kiriath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God Y^hweh that sits [above] the cherubim, that is called by the Name.
- 7 They carried the ark of God on a new cart, [and brought it] out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.
- 8 David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.
- 9 When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.
- 10 The anger of Y^hweh was kindled against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God.
- 11 David was displeased, because Y^hweh had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Perez-uzza, to this day.
- 12 David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?
- 13 So David didn't move the ark to him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
- 14 The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; and Y^hweh blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.
- 1 Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar-trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build him a house.
- 2 David perceived that Y^hweh had established him king over Israel; for his kingdom was exalted on high, for his people Israel's sake.
- 3 David took more wives at Jerusalem; and David became the father of more sons and daughters.
- 4 These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,
- 5 and Ithar, and Elishua, and Elpelet,
- 6 and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,
- 7 and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

- 8 When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went out against them.
- 9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.
- 10 David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and will you deliver them into my hand? Yehweh said to him, Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand.
- 11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there; and David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like the breach of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.
- 12 They left their gods there; and David gave commandment, and they were burned with fire.
- 13 The Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley.
- 14 David inquired again of God; and God said to him, You shall not go up after them; turn away from them, and come on them over against the mulberry-trees.
- 15 It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then you shall go out to battle; for God is gone out before you to strike the host of the Philistines.
- 16 David did as God commanded him; and they struck the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer.
- 17 The fame of David went out into all lands; and Yehweh brought the fear of him on all nations.
- 1 [David] made him houses in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.
- 2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites; for them has Yehweh chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister to him forever.
- 3 David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Yehweh to its place, which he had prepared for it.
- 4 David gathered together the sons of Aaron, and the Levites:
- 5 of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers one hundred twenty;
- 6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred twenty;
- 7 of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his brothers one hundred thirty;
- 8 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred;
- 9 of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty;
- 10 of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred twelve.
- 11 David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab,
- 12 and said to them, You are the heads of the fathers [houses] of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring up the ark of Yehweh, the God of Israel, to [the place] that I have prepared for it.
- 13 For because you didn't carry it at the first, Yehweh our God made a breach on us, because we didn't seek him according to the ordinance.
- 14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of Yehweh, the God of Israel.
- 15 The children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of Yehweh.
- 16 David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers, with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy.
- 17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

- 18 and with them their brothers of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the doorkeepers.
- 19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, [were appointed] with cymbals of brass to sound aloud;
- 20 and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries set to Alamoth;
- 21 and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead.
- 22 Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: he instructed about the song, because he was skillful.
- 23 Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.
- 24 Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.
- 25 So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yehweh out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.
- 26 It happened, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Yehweh, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.
- 27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song [with] the singers: and David had on him an ephod of linen.
- 28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of Yehweh with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with psalteries and harps.
- 29 It happened, as the ark of the covenant of Yehweh came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.
- 1 They brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings before God.
- 2 When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yehweh.
- 3 He dealt to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion [of flesh], and a cake of raisins.
- 4 He appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of Yehweh, and to celebrate and to thank and praise Yehweh, the God of Israel:
- 5 Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with psalteries and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud;
- 6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.
- 7 Then on that day David first ordained to give thanks to Yehweh, by the hand of Asaph and his brothers.
- 8 Oh give thanks to Yehweh, call on his name; Make known his doings among the peoples.
- 9 Sing to him, sing praises to him; Talk you of all his marvelous works.
- 10 Glory you in his holy name; Let the heart of them rejoice who seek Yehweh.
- 11 Seek you Yehweh and his strength; Seek his face forever more.
- 12 Remember his marvelous works that he has done, His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,

13 You seed of Israel his servant, You children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
14 He is Yāhweh our God; His judgments are in all the earth.
15 Remember his covenant forever, The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,
16 [The covenant] which he made with Abraham, His oath to Isaac,
17 Confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, To Israel for an everlasting covenant,
18 Saying, To you will I give the land of Canaan, The lot of your inheritance;
19 When you were but a few men in number, Yēs, very few, and sojourners in it;
20 They went about from nation to nation, From one kingdom to another people.
21 He allowed no man to do them wrong; Yēs, he reprov'd kings for their sakes, 22 [Saying], Don t touch my anointed ones, Do my prophets no harm.
